HISTORIE

Ratist.

OF THE

WORLD

IN FIVE BOOKS.

THE FIRST.

Intreating of the Beginning and first Ages of the same, from the Creation unto Abraham

THE SECOND.

Of the Times from the Birth of ABRAHAM to the destruction of the Temple of SALOMON.

THE-THIRD,

From the deftruction of  $J^{\text{ERUSALEM}}$  to the time of Phillip of  $M_{\text{ACEDON}}$ .

THE FOURTH

From the Reign of PHILIP of MACEDON, to the establishing of that Kingdom in the Race of Antigonus.

THE FIFTH

From the fettled R ule of  $A_{\text{LEXANDERS}}$  Succeffors in the East, untill the R omans (prevailing over all) made Conquest of  $A_{\text{SIA}}$  and  $M_{\text{ACEDON}}$ .

By Sir WALTER RALECH, Knight.

LONDON,

Printed for Robert White, John Place, and George Dawes; and are to be fold by George Dawes at his Shop over against Lincolns-Inne Gate in Chancery-lane, M DC LX VI.

3/9015711

The Contents of the Chapters, Paragraphs, and Sections, in the first Book of the first Part of the History of the World.

CHAP. I.

Of the Creation and Prefervation of the WORLD.

s.I.

S. II. That the wifest of the Heathen, whose | S. X. That nature is no Principlum per se;

Genelis 1. ver. 1.

yen and Earth Gen. I. I

§. V. That the fullfrance of the Waters, as mixt in the body of the Earth, is by Moses understood in the word [ Earth : ] and that the Earth, by the Attributes of Unformed and Void, is described as the Chaos of the ancient some things that seem to be by Fortune, and a-Heathen.

6. VI. How it is to be underflood, that the Spirit of God moveth upon the Waters, and that this is not to be fearched curionsty.

§. VII. Of the Light created, as the material S. VII. Of the Surrand of the nature of it, and Of Mans estate in his first Creation, and of difficulty of knowledge of it: and of the excellency and use of it : and of motion, and heat annexed unto it.

S. VIII. Of the Firmament, and of the Waters above the Firmament: and whether there be any Crystaline Heaven, or any Primum Mobile.

9. IX. A conclusion, repeating the sum of the works in the Creation, which are reduced to Hat the Invisible God is seen in his Creat three heads: The creation of matter, The forming of it ; The finishing of it.

**.11. Leat the striget of the electrons, would get N. N. That mature is not to be despited, have acknown nor form, the giver of being: and of our ignologed the World to have been created by God. rance, how second causes should have any pro-§. Il 1. Of the meaning of In Principio, portion with their effects.

S. XI. Of Fate, and that the Stars have 6. IV. Of the meaning of the words [Hea- great influence : and that their operation may diverfly be prevented or furthered.

6. XII. Of Prescience. 5. XIII. Of Providence.

S. XIV. Of Predestination. 9. XV. Of Fortune: and of the reason of gainst Reason and Providence.

CHAP. II.

Gods rest.

s. I.

OF the Image of God, according to which Man was first created. §.II.of

S.III. Of our base and fraile bodies: and for Cush, 2 Chron. 21.16. that the care thereof should yield to the immor-

§. IV. of the spirit of life, which God breathed into man in his Creation. 6. V. That Man is (as it were ) a little World:

with a digreffion touching our mortality.

his first Creation to dispose of himself. S. VII. Of Gods cealing to create any more: and of the cause thereof because the Universal created was exceeding good.

CHAP. III.

Of the place of Paradife.

6. I.

Hat the feat of Paradife is greatly miftaken, and that it is no marvel that men §. II. A recital of strange opinions touching Paradife.

S. III. That there was a true local Paradife East-mard, in the Country of Eden.

diligently of the place of Paradife. S. V. That the Flood bath not utterly defaced the marks of Paradife, nor caused Hills in the

S. VI. That Paradife was not the whole Earth, as some have thought, making the Ocean to be the Fountain of those four Rivers.

5.V 11.0f their opinion which make Paradife as high as the Moon : and of others which make it higher than the middle Region of the air.

6. VIII. Of their opinion that feat Paradife under the Aquinoctial: and of the pleasant Patriarchs, when they begat their children. babitation under those Climates.

8. IX. Of the change of the names of places; Some of late memory. and that besides that Eden in Coolosyria, there is a Country in Babylon once of this name, as is proved out of Esay 37. and Ezech.27.

§. X. Of divers other testimonies of the Land of Eden: And that this is the Eden of Para-feemeth to make the four Rivers to rife from one

6.XII. Of the strange fertility and happirefs of the Balylonian foile, as it is certain that Edun mas fuch.

S. XIII. of the River Pilon, and the Land

S. XIV. of the river Gehon, and the land of Cush: and of the ill translating of Æthiopia

c. XV. A conclusion, by way of repitition of some things spoken of before.

CHAP. IV.

5. VI. of the free power which Manhad in Of the two chief Trees in the Garden of Paradife.

§. I.

"Hat the Tree of Life was a material tree; and in robat fense it is to be taken, that Man by his cating the forbidden fruit, is made subieci to death.

§. II. Of Becanus his opinion, that the tree of Knowledge was Ficus Indica.

§. III. of Becanus his not unwitty allegorizing of the story of his Ficus Indica.

§. IV. Of the name of the Tree of Knowledge of good and evil: with some other notes touching the story of Adams fin.

CHAP. V.

s. IV. Why it should be needful to intreat Of divers Memorable things between the fall of Adam, and the Floud of Noah.

s. I. OF the cause and revenge of Cains sin: and of his going out from God.

S. II. of Cains dwelling in the land of Nod, and of his City Enoch.

6. III. Of Moses his omitting fundry things concerning Cains generation.

§. IV. of the diversities in the Age of the

S. V. of the long lives of the Patriarchs: and

6. VI. Of the Patriarchs delivering their knowledge by Tradition: and that Enoch writ before the Floud.

§. VII. Of the men of War before the Floud. 9. VIII. That the Giants, by Moses so cal-S. XI. Of the difficulty in the Text, which led, were indeed men of huge bodies: as also

CHAP.

CHAP, VI.

Of Idolatrous corruptions, quickly rifing, and hardly at length vanquishing in Noah among the Heathen. the World: and of the Reliques of Truth touching these ancient times, ob- ter fushion and name. scurely appearing in Fables and old Legends.

Hat in old corruptions we may find some liens of more ancient truth. 5.11. That the corruptions themselves were very ancient: as in the Family of Noah, and in the old Egyptians. S. III. That in process of time these lesser errours drew on greater, as appeareth in the the Ark refred upon some of the Hills of Armegrofs superstitions of the Egyptians. 6. IV. That from the Reliques of ancient Records among the Egyptians and others, the first Idols and Fables were invented; and that the first Jupiter was Cain, Vulcan, Tubal-§. V. of the three chiefest Jupiters, and also the strange story of the third.

S. VI. Of Cham, and other wicked ones, whereof some gat, some affected the name of derful resistance which Semiramis found in the §.VII.That the wifer of the ancient Heathen had far better opinions of God.

5. VIII. That Heathenism, and Judaism. after many wounds, were at length about the same time under Julian miraculously confoun-

6.I X.Of the last refuges of the Devil, to maintain his kingdom.

CHAP. VII.

Of Noahs Floud.

9. I.

F Gods fore-warning : and seme humane testimonies : and some doubting touching the truth of Noahs Floud.

6. II. Of the floud in the time of Ogyges: and that this was not Noahs Floud.

§. III. Of Deucalions Floud: and that this mas not Noahs floud; nor the Umbri in Italy story we should take Ararat for Armenia. a remnant of any universal Floud.

universal Floud: and of two ancient Deluges in Egypt: and of some elsewhere.

S V. That the Floud of Noah was supernatural, though some say it might have been fore- led Ararat. Jeen by the Stars.

§. VI. That there was no need of any new Creation of matter to make the universal Floud: and what are Cataractæ Cooli, Gen.7.11.

§. VII. of some remainder of the memory of

5. VIII. Of fundry particulars toucking the Ark : as the place where it was made ; the mat-

§. IX. That the Ark was of Sufficient capa-

S. X. That the Ark refled upon part of the Hill Taurus (or Caucasus) between the East Indies and Southia.

A Preterition of some questions less materiall: with a note of the use of this question, to find out the Metropolis of Nations.

I. A proposal of the common opinion, That

III. The first Argument against the common opinion: They that came to build Babel, would have come fooner, had they come from fo neer a place as Armenia.

IV. The fecond Argument, That the Eastern people were more ancient in conlosity, and in all humane glory.

W. The third Argument ; From the won-East-Indies.

VI. The fourth Argument; From divers considerations in the person of Noah.

II. VII. Of the fenfless opinion of Annius the Commenter upon Berofus, That the Ark refted upon Montes Caspii in Armenia; and yet upon Gordizi, which are three hundred miles diftant also in Armenia, and yet in Sey-

| VIII. The fifth Argument : The Vine must grow naturally neer the place where the Ark I. IX. An answer to an objection out of the words of the Text, The Lord feattered them from thence upon the face of the whole ||. X. An answer to the objection from the name of Ararat taken for Armenia; and the beight of the Hills there. ||. X I. of Caucasus, and divers far higher Hills than the Armenian.

||. XII. Of diversincongruities, if in this

I. XIII. Of the contrary fituation of Arme-6. IV. Of Some other Records testifying the | ma unto the place noted in the Text : and that it is no marvel, that the same ledge of Hills running from Armenia to India, should keep the fame name all a-long, and even in India be cal-

XIV.

ILXIV. of the best Vine naturally growing on the South fide of the Mountains Caucali, and teward the East-Indies, and of other excellencies of the faile.

||. X V. The conclusion, with a brief repeating of divers chief points.

CHAP, VIII.

Of the first planting of Nations after the Floud: and of the Sons of Noah; Shem, Ham, and Japhet, by whom the Earth was re-peopled.

WHether Shem and Ham were elder than Japhet.

u. I I. Of divers things that in all reason are to be presumed, touching the first planting of the World: as that all Histories must yield to Mofes: that the World was not planted all at once. nor without great direction: and that the known erest Lords of the first ages were of the ifue of Ham.

u. III. Of the Ifles of the Gentiles in Japhots porizin: of Berofus his too freedy feating Gomer the fon of Japhet in Italy ; and another of Japhets fons Tubal, in Spain: and also of the antiquity of Longinque Navigation.

u. IV. Of Gog and Magog, Tubal, and Melech, feated first about Alia the less, out of Ezech. 38.39. r. V. Against the fabulous Berofus, his Fi-Gion, that the Italian Janus was Noah.

a. VI. That Gomet allo, and his jon 102. VI. That Gomet allo, and his jon 102. VI. That Gomet allo, and his perfect for the position of labelts and that from theme feated about Alia the less: and that from theme

[hat death of Phut, another journey, and North [hat death of Ph

mend into Samaria.

n. VII. Of Javan the fourth son of Japhet; || 1. Of the bounds of the Land of Canaan; and of Mescch of Aram, and Mescch of with the names of his eleven sons.

| I. II. Of the provious of Zidon and Heth.

elder fons of Gomer.

u. 1X. Of the four fons of Javan: and of the kites.
double signification of Thatis, either for aproper name, or for the Sea, u. X. That the feat of Chush, the eldest fon of Hann, was in Arabia, not in Acthiopia: and of frange Fables, and ill translations of Scri-Nimrod, of whom hereafter. pture, grounded upon the mistaking of this

OF Josephus his Tale of an Athiopesse, wife to Salomon. to Moses; grounded on the mistaking of | I. II. Josephus the feat of Chush.

F. III. Chush ill expounded for Æthiopia. Ezechiel 29.10.

I. IV Another place of Ezechiel, chap. 30. vers. 9. in like manner mistaken. V. A place, Esay 18. v.1. in like manner corrupted by taking Chaft for Athicpia. | V I. That upon the like mistaking , both Terhaka, the Story of Sennacherib, and Zera in the Story of Ala, are unadvisedly made Æ-

VII. A farther exposition of the place, Efay 18.1.

6. X I. Of the Plantation and Antiquities of Egypt.

THat Mizraim the chief Planter of Egypt, and the rest of the sens of Ham. were seated in order one by another.

| . II. Of the time about which the name of Egypt, began to be known: and of the Egyptians Lunary years, which made their Antiquities feem the more fabulous.

| 111 Of certain vain affertions of the Antiquity of the Egyptians.

|| IV. Against Pererius, That it is not unlikely, but that Egypt was peopled within two hundred years after the Creation: at least, that both it, and the most parts of the world were peopled before the Floud.

| V. Of some other reasons against the opinion of Pererius.

VI. Of the words of Moses, Genes. 10.ver. ult. whereupon Pererius grounded his opinion.

. VII. A conclusion, resolving of that which

III. Of the Jebusites and Amorites. . IV. Of the Gergelites, Hevites, and Har-

. V. of Sini and Arvadi.

. V I. of Zemari. . VII. Of Hamathi.

6. XIII. Of the fons of Chush, excepting

I. I hat the most of the sons of Chush were scated in Arabia the happy, and of the Sabæans that robbed Job: and of the Queen that came

| II. Josephus kis opinion of Dedan, one of the iffue of Chush to have been feated in the Wift I. II. A dispute against the Tale of Jose- Ethiopia, disproved out of Ex chiel and Hie-

6.X IV. Of

5. XIV. Of the iffue of Mizraim and of the place of Hieremie, ch. 9. v. 7.

5. X V. Of the iffice of Sem.

of Elam, Affur, Arphaxad, and Lud. ||. II. of Aram and his fons. ||. III. of the division of the earth in the time of Phaleg, one of the fons of Heber, O.c. | IV. Of the fons of Joctan, the other fon of Heber. ||. V. of Ophir, one of Joctans fons, and of Peru: and of that voyage of Salomon.

|| VI. of Havilah the fon of Joctan, who also passed into the East Indies: and of Metha. and Sepher, named in the bordering of the Families of Joctan: with a conclusion of this Discourse, touching the Plantation of the World,

CHAP. IX.

Of the beginning and establishing of Government.

F the proceeding from the first Govern-ment under the eldest of Families to Regal, and from Regal absolute to Regal tempered with Laws.

6. II. Of the three commendable forts of Government, with their opposites: and of the degrees of humane fociety. 5. III. Of the good Government of the first

S. IV. Of the beginning of Nobility: and of the vain vaunt thereof without vertue.

CHAP, X.

Of Nimrod, Belus, and Ninus: and of memorable things about those times.

"Hat Nimrod was the first after the Floud that reigned like Soveraign Lord: and that his beginning seemeth to have been of just Of the memorable buildings of Ninus: and authority.

5. II. That Nimrod, Belus, and Ninus, were three diffinit persons.

5. III. That Nimrod, not Affur , built Ninive: and that it is probable out of Esay 23.13. that Assur, built Ur of the Chaldees.

S.IV. Of the acts of Nimrod and Belus, as far as now they are known.

5. V. That we are not to marvel how so many mis.

Kingdoms could be erected about these times: §. II. Of the end of Ninus: and beginning and of Vexoris of Egypt; and of Tanais of of Semiramis reign.

§. VI. Of the Name of Belus, and other Names affine unto it.

§. VII. Of the worthipping of Images, begun from Belus in Babel.

5. VIII. Of the Wars of Ninus: and laftly of his War against Zoroaster.

CHAP, IX.

Of Zoroaster, supposed to have been the chief Author of Magick Arts: and of divers kinds of Magick.

Hat Zoroafter was not Cham, nor the first Inventer of Astrology, or of Magick: and that there were divers great Magicians of §. II. Of the name of Magia: and that it was anciently far divers from Conjuring and Witcheraft.

§. III. That the good knowledge in the ancient Magick is not to be condemned; though the Devil here, as in other kinds, bath fought to obtrude evil things under the name and colour of good things.

§. IV. That Danielsmissing Nabuchodonofors condemning of the Magicians, doth not justifie all their practices.

§. V. The abuse of things, which may be found in all kinds, is not to condemn the right use of them.

S.VI Of the divers kinds of unlawfull Ma-

5. VII. Of divers mays by which the Devil scemeth to work his wonders.

§. VIII. That none was ever raised from the dead, by the power of the devil: and that it was not the true Samuel which appeared to

CHAP, XII.

of his wife Semiramis: and of other her

( )F the magnificent building of Ninive by Ninus: and of Babylon by Semira-

§. III. of

tion : and Metamorpholis of her Mother.

6. IV. Of her Expedition into India, and

6. III. of Semiramis Parentage, and educa- death after discomsiture: with a note of the improbability of her vices.

§. V. Of the Temple of Belus, built by Semiramis: and of the Pyramides of Egypt.

ా ఫాఫ్ ఫ్లా ఫ్లా స్ట్రా స్ట్ స్ట్రా స్ట్ స్ట్రా స్ట్రా స్ట్రా స్ట్రా స్ట్రా స్ట్రా స్ట్రా స్ట్రా స్ట్టా స్ట్రా స్ట్స్ స్ట్రా స్

The Contents of the Chapters, Paragraphs, and Sections, in the fecond Book of the first Part of the History of the World.

CHAP. I.

and of the use of this question, for the ordering of the story of the Astyrian Empire.

6. I.

about the time of the Birth of Abraham.

6. II. A proposall of reasons or arguments

6, 111. The answer to one of the Objections proposed, shewing that Abraham made but one journey out of Mesopotamia into Canaan, and it, after his fathers death.

6. I V. The answer to another of the Objectiens proposed, shewing that it was not unlikely, that Terah should beget Abraham in his bundred and thirtieth year.

6. V. The answer to two more of the Objections, shewing that we may have certainty of Abrahams age from the Scripture, though we make not Abraham the eldest son: and that ham his two brethren fould be respected.

6. VI. That the naming of Abraham first 1 vers reasons, proving that Abraham was not the Flood 191. eldeft fon of Terah.

the Authors on both sides: with an admoniti- gents; oft-times many under one King. on, that they which shorten the times, make all ancient stories the more unprobable. §. VIII. A computation of the times of the Assyrians and others, grounded upon the times noted in the story of Abraham. S. I X. That Amraphel, one of the four and that Ellas, whereof he is faid to have been Of the time of the birth of Abraham : King, lies between Coelosyria, and Arabia

6. XI. of Tidal, another of the four Kings. S. XII. That Chedorlaomer, the chief of the four Kings, mas not of Affyria, but of Perlia and that the Assyrian Empire at this time was much impaired.

6. XIII. That it is not unprobable, that the F some of the successours of Semiramis: four Kings had no Dominion in the Countries with a brief transition to the question, named, but that they had elsewhere with their Colinies planted themselves, and so retained the names of the Countries whence they came : that are brought to prove Abraham was born which if it be fo, we need not to fay that Amrain the year 292. after the Floud, and not in the Phel was Ninias, nor trouble our felves with many other difficulties.

CHAP. II.

Of the Kings of Egypt, from the first peopling of it after the Flood, to the time of the delivery of the Israelites from thence:

Brief of the Names and Times of the first Kings of Egypt: with a note of the cauthere was great cause, why in the story of Abra- ses of difficulty in resolving of the truth in these

6. II. That by the account of the Egyptian of the three Brethren, Gen. 11. v. 26. doth not | Dynastes, and otherwise, it appears that Chams prove that he was the eldeft: together with di- reign in Egypt began in the year after the

6. I II. That thefe Dynasties were not divers 5. VII. A conclusion of this dispute, noting Families of Kings, but rather successions of Re-§. IV. of Cham, and his fon Mizraim, or > §. V. of the time when Ofiris reign ended : and that Jacob came into Egypt in the time of Orus the fon of Ofiris.

s. VI. of Tiphon, Hercules Egyptus, Orus, Kings whom Abraham overthrem, Gen. 14, may and the two Selostrees, successively reigning af-probably be thought to have been Ninias the son ter Mizraim: and of divers errours about the former Schoftrees.

S. X. Of Arioch another of the four Kings: S VII. of Eufris, the first appression of the If-that took up Moses out of the water.

mutis; and what King it was under whom Mo- words Law, and Right. fes was born : and who it was that perifhed in the Red Sea.

CHAP, III.

Of the delivery of Ifrael out of Egypt.

of the time of Moscs birth: and how long the Ifraelites were oppressed in Egypt. §. II. Of divers Cities and places in Egypt, mentioned in this flory, or elsewhere in the young children in Egypt and of Moses his pre-Cervation and education.

S. IV. of Moles his flying out of Egypt; and the opinions of certain ancient Historians : of his War in Athiopia, and of his marriage there: Philo his judgement of his Pasto-ral life: and that of Percrius of the Books of Genefis and Job.

§. V. of Pharaohs pursuit of the Ifraelites:

and of their passage towards the Red Sea, so far as Succoth.

how they are reconciled: with the form of the from humane Laws, and in what fort. Hebrew year, and their manner of intercala-

6. VII. Of the passage of Israel, from Succoth, towards the Red Sea : and of the divers ways leading out of Egypt. 6. VIII. Of their passage over the Red Sea:

and of the Red Sea it self.

6. IX. That the passage through the Red Sea was mir aculous, and not at low ebb.

CHAP. IV.

Of the journeying of the Israelites from to the worship of God, in this ordering of their the Red Sea, to the place where the Troups. Law was given them: with a discourse The Passover of the second year: The departing of Laws.

Transition, by may of recapitulation of turning back to the Red Sea. A some things touching Chronology, with a continuation of the story, untill the Amalekites the punishment thereof; and of divers accimet with the liraelites.

S. II. of the Amalekites, Madianites, and Kenites, upon occasion of the battel with the A- the accidents while they abode there. malekites, and Jethro's comming, who being a Kenite, was Priest of Madian.

raelites; and of his successiour Queen Thermutis, with divers commendations of the invention of

5.VIII. Of the two brethren of Queen Ther- S. IV. Of the name and meaning of the §. V. Of the definition of Laws, and of the

6. V I. Of the Law of Nature.

§. V I I. Of the written Law of God. §. V I I I. Of the unwritten Law of God given to the Patriarchs by Tradition.

6. IX. Of the Morall, Judiciall, and Ceremoniall Law: with a Note prefixed, How the Scripture speaketh not alway in one sense, when it nameth the Law of Moles.

§. X. A proposall of nine other points to be considered, with a touch of the five first.

S. X L Of the fixth point, to wit, of the dif-5. III. Of the cruelty against the Israelites ference and agreement of the Old and New ung children in Egypt: and of Moses his view. Testament.

$. X. II. of the rest of the points proposed. XIII. Of the severall Commandements of the Decalogue: and that the difficultie is not in respect of the Commandements, but by our default.

S. XIIII. If there were not any Religion, nor Judgement to come, yet the Decalogue were most necessary to be observed.

6. X V. of bumane Law, written, and un-

S. X VI. That onely the Prince is exempt

CHAP. V.

The Story of the Israelites, from the receiving of the Law to the death of Moses.

§. 1.

F the numbring and disposing of the host of Ifrael, for their marches through the Wilderness: with a Note of the reverence given §. III. The voyage from Horeb to Kades : the mutinies by the way: and the cause of their

S. IV. Of their unwillingness to return: with dents in the return.

S.V. of Moles arrival at Zin Kades: and 6. V I. Of their compassing Idumer and travelling to Arnon the border of Moab.

5. III. Of the time when the Law was given: 6. VII. Of the Book of the Battels of the Lord mentioned in this Story . and of other and of the promifes touching this land. Books mentioned in Scripture, which are loft. 5. VIII. of Nioles his Sparing the iffue of Lot, and of the Giants in those parts: and of Schon and Og.

6. IX. Of the troubles about the Madianites, He bounds of the Tribe of Afher. and of Moses his death.

6. X Observations out of the Story of Mofes. How God disposeth both the smallest occasions Tyre in the same Coast. and the greatest resistances, to the effecting of his purpofe.

CHAP. VI.

Of the Nations with whom the Israelites had dealing after their comming out of Asher. Egypt: And of the men of Renown in other Nations, about the times Of Mofes and Tosua: with the sum of the History of Tofua.

Ow the Nations with whom the Israelites were to have war, were divers waies (as it were ) prepared to be their Enemies .

§.II. Of the Kings of the Canaanites and Madianites, mentioned in the Ancient wars of the Ifraclites.

§. III. of the Amalekites and Ismaelites. §. IV. Of the instauration of civilitie in Europe about these times; and of Prometheus and Atlas.

§. V. Of Ducalion and Phaeton.

§. VI. Of Hermes and Trifmagiftus. 6. VII. Of Jannes and Jambres, and some others that lived about those times.

§. VIII. A brief of the History of Johna: and of the space between him and Othoniel: Towns. and of the remainders of the Canaanites, with a Note of some Contemporaries to Josua: and of the breach of Faith.

CHAP. VII.

Of the Tribes of Israel that were planted in the borders of Phanicia: with fundry Stories depending on those places.

He Proem to the description of the whole Land of Canaan; with an exposition of the name of Syria.

S. III. Of the Tribe of Afher.

| II. of Zidon. III. Of Sarepta, with a brief History of

I. IV. of Ptolomais, or Acon. V. of the Castle of S. George.

VI. of Acziba , Scandalium , and o-

VII. of Thoron, Gifcala, and some other

I. VIII. of the Rivers and Mountains of §. IV. Of the Tribe of Nephthalim.

| I.

F the bounds of Nephthalim: and of Heliopolis and Abilia. . II. of Hazor.

.III. of Cæsarea Philippi. .IV. of Capernaum, and the Cities of Decapolis.

. V. of Hamath. .VI. of Reblatha, and Rama, and divers other Towns.

6. V. The Tribe of Zabulon. S. VI. The Trile of Iffacher. 6. VII. The half of the Tribe of Manasse.

F the bounds of this half Tribe: and of Scythopolis, Salem, Therfa, and others. II. II. of Cafarea paleftina, and some other

CHAP. VIII.

Of the Kingdom of Phoenicia.

§. I.

"He bounds and chief Cities and Founders, and name of this Kingdom: and of the invention of Letters ascribed to them.

5.II. Of the King of Tyre.

6.11 L. of Bozius his conceit, that the Edumaans, inhabiting along the Red Sea, were the Progenitours of the Tyrians: and that the Tyrians from them received and brought into S. II. Of the bounds of the Land of Canaan. Phoenicia the Knowledge of the most true God. CHAP.

CHAP.IX.

Of the Tribe of Ephraim: and of the Kings The History of the Syrians; the cheif borof the Ten Tribes, whose Head was Ephraim.

9. I.

F the memorable places in the Tribe of Ephraim. 6. II. Of the Kings of the ten Tribes, from Teroboam to Achab.

6. III. Of Achab and his successours: with the Captivity of the ten Tribes.

CHAP. X.

Of the memorable places of Dan, Simeon, Juda, Reuben, Gad and the other balf of Manasse.

S. I.

F Dan: whereof Joppea, Gath Accaron, Azotus, and other towns.

§. II. The Tribe of Simeon. S. III. The Tribe of Juda.

$. IV. The Tribe of Reuben, and his bor-

. I.

THE feats and bounds of Midian, Moab and Ammon; part whereof, the Reubenites wan from Sehon King of Hesbon.

| .II. of the memorable places of the Reubenites.

| III. Of divers places bordering Reuben, belonging to Midian, Moab, or Edom.

N. IIII. Of the Dead Sea. N. Of the Kings of Moab, much of whose Country within Arnon, Reuben posseft. S.V. Of the memorable places of the Ga-dites, and the bordering places of Ammon. S. V I. Of the Ammonites.part of whose Territories the Gadites wan from Og the King of 6.VII. Of the other half of Mannaffe.

CHAP. XI.

derers of the Israelites, that dwelt on the East of Jordan.

F the City of Damascus, and overthrow of their power.

S. II. of the first Kings of Damascus, and of the growing up of their power.

§. 111. Of the latter Kings, and decay, and the divers fortunes thereof.

S. I V. Of other leffer Kingdoms of the Syrians, which being brought under the Aflyrians, never recovered themselves again.

CHAP, XII.

Of the Tribe of Benjamin, and of Jerusalem.

OF divers memorable Places in the Tribe of Benjamin, where, of Hiericho, Gilgal, Mitspa, Bethel, Rama, Gobah, and Gibba.

S. II. Of divers memorable things concerning Jerusalem.

S.III. Of the destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans.

S. IV. Of the vaine and malicious reports of Heathen Writers, touching the Ancient

CHAP. XIII.

Of the memorable things that hapned in the world, from the death of Iosua to the War of Troy: which was about the time of Teptha.

s. I.

F the Inter-regnum after Josua's death: and of Othoniel.

6. II. Of the memorable things in this Age in other Nations : and of the difficulty in the computation of times.

§. III. of Ehnds time; and of Proferpina. Orithya, Teretts, Tantalus, Tytius, Admetus, and others that lived about these times.

8. IV. of

s. IV. of Debora, and her contempora-

s.V. of Gideon, and of Dedalus, Sphinx, Minos, and others that lived in this age. 48. V I. Of the expedition of the Argonauts.

S. VII. of Abimelech, Tholah, and Jair, and of the Lapitha, and of Theseus, Hyppolitus, Oc.

S. VIII. Of the war of Thebes which was in this Age.

verie 28. are to be reconciled with the places, time. Acts 13. 20. 1 Reg. 6. 1. together with some other things touching Chronology about thefe changes in the world that hapned about this times.

CHAP. XIV.

Of the War of Troy.

OF the Genealogy of the Kings of Troy: with a note touching the ancient Poets kow they have observed Historical truth.

6. Il. Of the Kape of Fielen and of the strength and the War made by Abner for Isboseth. of both fides for the war.

6. II 1. Of the Grecians journey and Em- and of Isboteth, by Rechab and Baanah. ballage to Troy: and of Helena's being de-

5. IV. of the Acts of the Grecians at the

§. V. Of the taking of Troy: the woodden Horse: the Book of Dares and Dictis: the Colonies of the reliques of Troy.

&. V J. Of the distresses and dispersions of the Greeks, returning from Troy,

CHAP. X V.

Of Sampson, Elia and Samuel.

OF Sampson. §. II of Eli, and of the Ark taken: and of Dagons fall: and the sending back of the

5. III. of Samuel, and of his government.

CHAP. XVI.

Of Saul.

F the deliberation to change the government into a Kingdom,

§. I 1. Of the election of Saul.

6. I 1 1. Of the eftablishing of Soul by his firle

§. I V. of Sauls difobedience in his proceedings in the wars with the Philistims and Amakites, which caused his final rejection.

§. V. Of the occurrents between the rejection of Saul and his death.

6. V 1. Of such as lived with Samuel and Saul; of Hellen and Hercules, and also of their 3. IX. Of Jephtah: and how the three Thues upon occasion of the Dores, with the Hebundred years which he speaketh of Judges 11. raclida, entering Peloponnesus about this

6. VII. of Homer and Hefiod, and many

CHAP. XVII.

Of David.

§. I.

F Davids effate in the time of Saul. §.II. Of the beginning of Davids reign:

S.III. Of the death of Abner flain by Joab:

6. IV. Of the flourishing time of Davids tained in Egypt: and of the facrificing of Kingdom: the taking of Fernfalem: with two o-lphigenia. duction of the Arkto the City of David.

5. V. The overthrow of the Philistims and Moabites.

9. VI. The war which David made upon the Syrians.

6. VII. of Davids troubles in his reion : and of his forces.

5. VIII. Of the last acts of David : Adoniah's Faction: the revenge upon Joab and

§. IX. Of the Treasures of David and Salo-

S. X. of the Philistims, whom David absolutely mastered: and of fundry other Contemporaries with David.

CHAP. XVIII.

Of Salomon.

§. I.

Fihe establishing of Salomon: of birthright; and of the cause of Adoniah's death: and of Salomon's wisdom.

§. II. of Salomon's buildings and glorg. §. III. Of Salomon's fending to Ophir: and of some seeming contradictions about Salomon's Riches: and of Pineda's conceit of two Strange passages about Africk.

6. V. Of Solomon's Writings.

6. V I. Of the Contemporaries of Solomon.

CHAP, XIX.

Of Solomons Successors untill the end of Tehofaphat.

F Rehoboam his beginnings: the defe-Ction of the ten Tribes : of Jeroboam's Idolatry.

S. II. of Rehoboam his impiety, for which than, he was punished by Sesac: of his end and contemporaries.

6. III. Of the great battell between Jeroboof Gods judgements.

6. IV. of Asa, and his contemporaries. S. V. Of the great alteration falling out in the ten Tribes, during the reign of Afa. §. V I. A conjecture of the causes, hindering the re-union of Israel with Juda, which might partson of her and Jezabel.

have been effected by these troubles. §. VII. Of Jehosaphat and his Contemporaries.

CHAP. XX.

Of Jehoram the fon of Jehosaphat; and Ahazia.

Hat Jehoram was made King sundry

§. II. Probable conjectures of the motives inducing the old King Jehosaphat to change invading Juda in the dayes of Joas. his purpose often, in making his son Jehoram reigned alone; and the rebellion of Edom and the Aramites: and of his death.

and of his death.

s. V. of the reign of Ahazia: and his businesse with the King of Israel.

s. VI. How Ahazia perished with the house phet. of Ahab: and how that Family was destroyed S. VIII. Of Amazia his mar against Edom: by Jehu.

CHAP. XXI.

dange pajages awant a great of Solomon, and how long Of Athalia, and whose son he was that succeeded unto her.

S. I.

F Athalia her usurping the Kingdom : and what pretences she might forge.

S. II. How Jehu fent his time in Ifrael, fo that he could not molest Athalia.

e. III. of Athalia's Government.

6. IV. Of the preservation of Joas. §. V. Whefe for Joas was.

W Hether Joss may be thought likely to have been the son of Ahazia. † 1 I. That Joas did not descend from Na-

t. III. That Joas may probably be thought to have been the fon of Jehoram. t. IV. Upon what reasons Athalia might am and Abia; with a Colorarie of the examples feek to destroy Joas, if he were her own Grand-> §. VI. A digression, wherein is maintained the liberty of using conjectures in Historic.

5. VII. The conspiracy against Athalia. 5. VIII. The death of Athalia, with a com-

CHAP. XXII.

Of Joas and Amazia: with their contemporaries; where somewhat of the building of Carthage.

§. Ĭ.

F Joas his doings whileft Jehojada the Priest lived. §. II. The death of Jehojada, and Apoftacy

S. III, The causes and times of the Syrians

S.IV. How Zachariah was murdered by Jo-

S. III. The doings of Jehoram when he | S. V. How Joas was shamefully beaten by

S. VI. Of the Princes living in the time of S.IV. Of the miseries falling upon Jehoram: Joas: of the time when Carthage was built: and of Dido.

§ VII. The beginning of Amazia his reign. And of Joas King of Ifract, and Elisha the Pro-his Apostacy; and overthrow by Joas.

3.1 X. A

S. IV. Of Debora, and her contempora-

s. V. of Cideon, and of Dedalus, Sphine, Victories. Minos, and others that lived in this age.

S. VII. Of Abimelech, Tholah, and Jair, kites, which caused his final rejection. and of the Lapithæ, and of Theseus, Hyppolitus. Cr.

S. VIII. Of the war of Thebes which was in this Ace.

verie 28. are to be reconciled with the places, time. Acts 13, 20. 1 Reg. 6. 1. together with some $. VII. Of Homer and Hesiod, and many other things touching Chronology about these changes in the world that hapved about this times

CHAP, XIV.

Of the War of Troy.

OF the Genealogy of the Kings of Troy: with a note touching the ancient Poets kow they have observed Historical truth.

of both fides for the war.

6. Il 1. of the Grecians journey and Em- and of Isboleth, by Rechab and Baanah. ballage to Troy: and of Helena's being detained in Egypt : and of the facrificing of Kingdom : the taking of Terusalem: with two o-Iphigenia.

5. 1 V. of the Acts of the Grecians at the fiege.

§. V. Of the taking of Troy: the woodden Horse: the Book of Dares and Dictis: the Colonies of the reliques of Troy.

S. V 1. Of the diftrefes and dispersions of the Greeks, returning from Troy,

CHAP. X V.

Of Sampson, Eli, and Samuel.

OF Sampson.

§. II of Eli, and of the Ark taken: and of Dagons fall: and the sending back of the

s. III. of Samuel, and of his government.

CHAP. XVI.

Of Saul.

The deliberation to change the government into a Kingdom.

6. Il. Of the election of Saul. $. I 11. Of the establishing of Saul by his first

§. I V. of Sauls disobedience in his proceed-48. VI. Of the expedition of the Argonauts, lings in the wars with the Philiftims and Ama-

> §. V. of the occurrents between the rejection of Saul and his death.

6. VI. of such as lived with Samuel and Saul; of Hellen and Hercules, and also of their s. IX. of lephtah: and how the three If nes upon occasion of the Dores, with the Hehundred years which he speaketh of Judges II. raclida, entering Peleponnesus about this

CHAP. XVII.

Of David.

F Davids eftate in the time of Saul. §.II. Of the beginning of Davids reign: 6. 11. of the Kape of Helen and of the strength and the War made by Abner for Isboseth.

S.III. Of the death of Abner flain by Joab:

5. IV. Of the flourishing time of Davids verthrows given to the Philistims: and the conduction of the Ark to the City of David.

§ V. The overthrow of the Philiftims and Moabites.

§. VI. The war which David made upon the Syrians.

§. VII. of Davids troubles in his reign: and of his forces.

S. VIII. Of the last acts of David: Adoniah's Faction: the revenge upon Joab and

§. IX. Of the Treasures of David and Salo-

S. X. Of the Philistims, whom David absolutely mastered: and of fundry other Contemporaries with David.

CHAP. XVIII.

Of Salomon.

§. I.

F the establishing of Salomon: of birthright; and of the cause of Adoniah's death: and of Salomon's wisdom.

§. II. Of Salomon's buildings and glory. S.III. Of Salomon's fending to Ophir: and of some seeming contradictions about Salomon's Riches : and of Pineda's conceit of two strange passages about Africk.

6. V. Of Solomon's Writings.

6. V I. Of the Contemporaries of Solomon.

CHAP. XIX.

Of Solomons Successors untill the end of Tehofaphat.

F Rehoboam his beginnings: the defe-Ction of the ten Tribes : of Jeroboam's Idolatry.

S. II. of Rehoboam his impiety, for which than he was punished by Sesac: of his end and contemporaries.

§. III. Of the great battell between Jeroboam and Abia; with a Colorarie of the examples feek to destroy Joas if he were her own Grandof Gods judgements.

§. IV. of Asa, and his contemporaries.

the ten Tribes, during the reign of Afa.

S. V I. A conjecture of the causes, hindering the re-union of Ifrael with Juda, which might partson of her and Jezabel. have been effected by these troubles.

§. VII. of Jehosaphat and his Contemporaries.

CHAP. XX.

Of Jehoram the fon of Jehosaphat; and Ahazia.

Ş.İ.

times. "Hat Jehoram was made King fundry

§. II. Probable conjectures of the motives inducing the old King Jehosaphat to change invading Juda in the dayes of Joas. his purpose often, in making his son Jehoram

S. III. The doings of Jehoram when he reigned alone; and the rebellion of Edom and the Aramites: and of his death.

and of his death.

S. V. Of the reign of Ahazia: and his businesse with the King of Israel.

s. VI. How Ahazia perished with the house phet. of Ahab: and how that Family was destroyed by Jehu.

CHAP. XXI.

ange pagages assorting of solomon, and how long Of Athalia, and whose son he was that succeeded unto her.

S. I.

Athalia her usurping the Kingdom: and what pretences the might forge.

S. II. How Jehu spent his time in Ifrael, so that he could not molest Athalia.

g. III. Of Athalia's Government. $. IV. Of the preservation of Joas. §. V. Whefe fon Joas was.

W Hether Joas may be thought likely to have been the son of Ahazia. † 1 I. That Joas did not descend from Nat. III. That Joas may probably be thought to have been the fon of Jehoram.

1. IV. Upon what reasons Athalia might childe.

S. VI. A digression, wherein is maintained §. V. Of the great alteration falling out in the liberty of using conjectures in Historic.

5. VII. The conspiracy against Athalia. S. VIII. The death of Athalia, with a com-

CHAP. XXII.

Of Joas and Amazia: with their contemporaries; where somewhat of the building of Carthage.

€. I.

F Joas his doings whileft Jehojada the Priest lived.

S. II. The death of Jehojada, and Apoftacy S. III. The causes and times of the Syrians

S.I V. How Zachariah was nurdered by Jo-

§ V. How Joas was shamefully beaten by

S. VI. Of the Princes living in the time of §. IV. Of the miseries falling upon Jehoram: Joas: Of the time when Carthage was built: and of Dido.

$ VII. The beginning of Amazia his reign, And of Joas King of Ifracl, and Elitha the Pro-

S. VIII. Of Amazia his mar against Edom: his Apostacy: and overthrow by Joas.

3.1 X. A

loss from uniting Juda to the Crown of Ilirael, history of the Bible. when he had won Hierusalem, and held Amavia prisoner. The end of Joas his reign.

S. X. The end of Amazia his riign and life. S. XI. Of the Inter-regnum that was in the ry, and of the Babylonian King that congrain-Lingdome of Juda, after the death of Amazia. lated him.

8. X 11. Of Princes contemporary with Amazia; and more particularly of Sardanapalus.

CHAP, XXIII.

Of Uzzia.

$. I.

He prosperity of Uzzia, and of Jeroboam the second, who reigned with him in Ifrael, Oc.

S. H. The end of Uzzia, his reign and life. S. III. Of the Crophets which lived in the time of Uzzia, &c. §. IV. of the Allyrian Kings descending from Phul, &c.

§. V. of the Olympiads, and the time when they began.

§. VI of Jotham, and his contemporaries. S. VII. of Achaz, and his contemporaries.

CHAP.XXIIII.

Of the Antiquities of Italy; and foundation of Rome in the time of Ahaz.

S. I.

Of the old Inhalitants; and of the name of the name

8. I I. of the Aborigines, and other Inhabitants of Latium : and of the reason of the times of Rehoboam and Ezekia. names of Latini and Latium.

untill Æneas his coming.

S.IV. of Encas, and of the Kings and Governours of Alba.

S. V. Of the beginning of Rome: and of Romulus birth and death.

CHAP, XXV.

Of Ezechia and his contemporaries.

Jagreeing of Ptolomics Nabonaflar, Na- enlargement of Manafles, Co.

".IX. A divourje of the reasons kindering | bopolassar, and of Mardocempadus, with the S.II. Of the danger and deliverance of Judaa from Senacherib.

§. III. of Ezechias his sicknesse and recove-

6. IV. The Kings that were in Media during the reign of Ezekia, &c;

CHAP. XXVI.

Of the Kings that reigned in Egypt; between the deliverance of Israel from thence, and the reign of Ezekia in Tuda, when Egypt and Juda made a league against the Affyrians.

"Hat many names of Egyptian Kings found in History, are like to have belonged onely to Vice-royes: An example, proving this, out of William of Tyre, his History of the

S.II. Of Acherres; whether he were Uchoreus that was the eight from Ofymandyas: Of Osymandyas, and his Tombe. $. III. of Cherres, Armeus, Ramesses, and Amenophis: Of Myris, and the Lake that bears his name. S.IV. Of the Kings that reigned in the Dynastie of the Larthes. §. V. Of Egyptian Kings, whose names are found scattering in fundry Authors, their times being not recorded &c 6. VI: Of Chemmis, Cheops, Cephrenes, and other Kings recited by Herodotus and Diodorus Siculus, which reigned between the 6. VII. Of Sethon, who reigned with Eze-8.111. Of the ancient Kings of the Latines, kia, and fided with him against Senacherib.

CHAP. XXVII.

Of Manasse, and his contemporaries.

§. I.

He wickednesse of Manailes: His imprifonment, recentance, and death. §. 1 I. Of troubles in Egypt following the death of Sethon: The reign of Planmiticus.

5. III. What reference these Egyptian F the beginning of Ezechias: and of the matters might have to the imprisonment and §. IV.of

6. IV. of the first and second Messenian . S. III. of the Kings of Babylon and Media: Wars: which were in the reigns of Ezekia How it came to pass that the Kings of Babel and Manasles, Kings of Juda.

Media: whether Deioces were that King Ar- vince.

were in those times.

CHAP. XXVIII.

Of the times from the death of Manasses to the destruction of Jerusalem.

€. I.

OF Ammon and Josias. 5. II. Of Pharo Neco, that fought with in these Ages. Josias: Of Jehoahaz, and Jehojakim, Kings S. VI. The oppression of Judea, and destruof Juda.

could not give attendance on their lufiness in S. V. Of the Kings that were in Lydia and Syria: which caused them to lose that Pro-phaxad, mentioned in the history of Judith.

5. IV. The great expedition of the Sey

5. VI. Of other princes and actions that ans, who ruled in Asia twenty eight years. 8. IV. The great expedition of the Scytli-

He time of this Expedition. II. II hat Nations they were that brake into Asia : with the cause of their jour-

II. III. of the Cimmerians war in Ludia. IV. The War of the Scythians in the high-

S. V. Of Princes living in divers Countries

dion of Jerusalem by the Chaldwans.

The Contents of the Chapters, Paragraphs, and Sections, in the third Book of the first Part of the History of the World.

CHAP. I.

Of the time passing between the Destruction of Jerusalem, and the fall of the Affyrian Empire.

§. I.

of the connexion of sacred and prophane History, touching the beginning of the Captivity : with which action is uncertain. an answer to the cavils of Porphyrie ; inveighing against S. Matthew and Daniel, on whom zar his buildings, madness, and death. the later of thefe opinions is founded.

S. III. That the 70. years of Captivity are to be numbred from the destruction of Jeru- serving to make good those things which are ci-reigned in Babylon, during the 70. years.

S. V. A mere particular examination of one opinion touching the number, persons, and reigns of the Babylonian Kings.

5. VI. What may be held as probable of the Perions and Times of Nabuchodonelor for bis Successors.

§. VII. Of the victories which Nabuchodonosor obtained, between the destruction of Jerusalem and conquest of Egypt.

S. VIII. That Egypt was conquered, and the King therein reigning, flain by Nabuchodonofor, contrary to the opinion of molt Authors: Who following Herodotus and Dicdorus. relate it otherwife.

§. IX. How Egypt was subdued, and holden by Nebuchadnezzar.

s. X. Of the fundry accompts drawn from fundry acts of Nebuchadnezzar: and of the 5. II. A brief rehearfal of two opinions, destruction of Nineve by him: the time of

s. XI. Of the later time of Nebuchadnezs. XII. of Evilmerodach.

§. XIII. A private conjecture of the Author: falem: not from the migration of Jechonia, ted out of Beroius, concerning the jucce, ors of 5. IV. Sundry opinions of the Kings which Evilmerodach, without wrong unto the truth: the quality and death of Balthaiar.

CHAP.

6 x

CHAP. II.

Of the Original and first greatness of the Perfians.

S. I.

Hat the Medes were chief Allors in the Subversion of the Babylonian Empire. §. 11 By what means the Empire was tran-flated from the Medes to the Perfians. §. 111. Xenophous relation of the War rope, after the Scythian war. which the Nicdes and Perlians made with joint Forces upon the Afferians and others.

in times fore-going this great war.

CHAP. III.

Of Cyrus.

F Cyrus his name, and first actions. e. II. of Croefus the King of Lydia, who made war upon Cyrus.

6.111. Croefus kis Expedition against Cv-

S. IV. The conquest of Lydia by Cyrus. §. V. How Cyrus mon Babylon.

6. VI. The end of Cyrus.

6. VII. of Cyrus his decree for building the Temple of God in Jerufalem.

S. VIII. Of Cyrus his iffue: and whether Atossa was his daughter or (as some think) were the fame with Queen Hefter.

CHAP. IV.

The estate of things from the death of Cyrus to the reign of Darius.

Of the number and names of the Persian Kings. §. II. Of Cambyses; and the conquering of Egypt by him.

6. III. The rest of Cambyles bis acts. $. I V. Of the Inter-regnum between Cambyfes and Darius.

CHAP. V.

Of Darius the fon of Histafpes.

OF Darius his Linage. S. II. Of Darius his Government; and Suppressing the Rebellion of Babylon. S. III. of Darius his favour to the Jews in building the Temple.

s. IV. of Darius bis Scythian war.

6. V. Some actions of the Perfians in Eu-

S. VI. The first occasion of the War which Darius made upon Greece; with a rehearfal of $. IV. The effate of the Medes and Persians, the Government in Athens, whence the quar-

> S. V I I. Of the Ionian Rebellion, which was the principal cause of the wars ensuing between Greece and Perlia.

> §. VIII. The war which Davius made on Greece: with the battel of Marathon, and Darius bis death.

CHAP. VI.

Of Xerxes.

"He preparation of Xerxes against Greece.

8. II. Xerxes Army entertained by Pythius: his cutting off Mount Athos from the Continent: his bridge of Boats over the Hellefpont: and the discourse between him and Artabanus upon the view of his Army.

s. III. of the fight at Thermopylæ, and

s. IV. The attempt of Xerxes upon Apollo's Temples, and his taking of Athens.

S. V. How Themistocles the Athenian drew the Greeks to fight at Salamis.

s. V I. How the Perfians confulted about giving battel: and how Themistocles by policy held the Greeks to their resolution; with the vi-Clory at Salamis thereupon ensuing.

6. VII. Of things following after the battel of Salamis: and of the flight of Xerxes.

S. VIII. The negotiations between Mardonius and the Athenians; as also between the Athenians and Lacedamonians; after the flight

§. IX. The great battel of Palatax.

S. X. The battel of Mycale: with a strange accident that feli out in the beginning of it: and examples of the like.

§. XI. Of the barbarous quality of Xerxes: with a transition from the Persian affairs to matters of Greece, which from this time grew more worthy of regard. CHAP.

CHAP. VII.

Of things that paffed in Greece from the deposed. end of the Perfian War, to the beginning of the Peloponnefian.

§. I.
On Athens was re-built and fortified.

§.11. The homeone s. 11. The beginning of the Athenian greatness, and prosperous wars made by that State upon the Perlian.

S. III. The death of Xerxes, by the treason of Artabanus.

S. IV. The banishment of Themistocles; his flight to Artaxerxes newly reigning in Perfia, and his death.

S. V. How the Athenians, breaking the Peace which to their great honour they had made with the Perlian, were shamefully beaten

S.VI. Of other Wars made by the Athenians (for the most part ) with good success about the

S. VII. of Artaxerxes Longimanus, that he was Ahashuerosh, the Husband of Queen rants: and their disposition.

S. VIII. Of the troubles in Greece, forcgoing the Peloponnesian War.

CHAP. VIII.

Of the Peloponnefian War.

Pon what terms the two principal Cities first entry into the war. of Greece, Athens, and Sparta, flood at the beginning of the Peloponnesian War.

S. II. How Sparta and Athens entred into

6. III. The beginning of the Peloponnesian

5. IV. Of the great loss which the Spartans have made them yield unto him. received at Pylus.

§. V. How the Lacedemonians hardly, and homewards. to their great diladvantage, obtained a peace, that was not well kept.

S. V 1. of the negotiations and practices Greeks. held between many States of Greece, by occasion of the peace that was concluded.

S.VII. How the peace between Athens and off Safely. Sparta, was ill kept, though not openly broken.

to fack Syracuse, are put to flight, and utterly Carduchi.

Athensfell, after the great loss of the Fleet and feigned peace, was disappointed, and shamefully Army in Sicilia.

S. X. How Alcibiades man many important Victories for the Athenians; was re-called from exile; made their General: and again

S. XI. The battel at Arginusa, and condemnation of the victorious Athenian Captains by the people.

S. XII. The battel at Ægos Potamos. wherein the whole State of Athens was ruined; with the end of the Peloponnelian War.

CHAP. IX.

Of the matters concurring with the Peloponnesian War, or shortly following

§. I.

How the affairs of Persia stood in these times.

S. II. How the thirty Tyrants got their Dominion in Athens.

S. III. The conspiracy against the thirty Ty-

CHAP. X.

Of the expedition of Cyrus the Younger.

§. I. .

The grounds of Cyrus his attempt against his brother.

S. II. The preparations of Cyrus, and his

S. III. How Cyrus took his journey into the higher Asia, and came up close to his brother. s. I V. The battell between Cyrus and Artaxerxes.

s. V. The hard estate of the Greeks after the fight: and how Artaxerxes in vain fought to

S. VI. How the Greeks began to return

S. VII. How Tiffaphernes, under colour of peace, betrayed all the Captains of the §. VIII. How Xenophon heartened the Greeks, and in despitht of Tiffaphernes, went S. IX. The difficulties which the Greek Ar-

5. VIII. The Athenians sending two Fleets my found, in passing through the Lind of the

S. X. How Teribazus Governour of Arme-S. IX. Of the troubles whereinto the State of nia, feeking to entrap the Greeks with terms of the River of Phasis, and other obscure Na- of Antalcidas.

S. X I. The

S, X 1 I. How the Army began at Trabizonde to provide a Fleet, wherewith to return son, and Olynthus by famine.

S. XIII. Of dissension which arose in the Army, and how it was embarqued. S. XIV. Another great dissension and defiruction of the Army. How the Mutiners were beaten by the Barbarians, and rescued by Xenophon.

Xenophon, and how the Army returned into Greece. The occasions of the War between the Lacedamonians and the Perfian.

CHAP. XI.

Of the affairs of Greece, whilest they were managed by the Lacedæmonians.

9. I.

How the Lacedæmonians took courage by example of Xenophons Army, to make war upon Artaxerxes.

S.II. The prosperous beginning of the War

S.III. How the Lacedamonians took revenge upon the Eleans for old displeasure. The discontents of the Corinthians and Thebans, conceived against the State of Sparta.

S. IV. The passage of Agesilaus into Asia: His War with Tiliaphernes. How Tiflapherinto another Province, through perfuafion and fruitlesse iffue of the Embassages. gifts of Tithraustes his successour. How careless the Persian Lieutenants were of the Kings good.

S. V. The War and Treaty between Agesilaus and Pharnabazus.

S. VI. The great commotions raised in Greece by the Thebans and others, that were bired with gold from the Perfian.

S. VII. How Agefilaus was called out of Alia to help his Country. A victory of the Spartans. Conon the Athenian, affifted by Pharnacovers the mastery of the Seas: and re-builds the walls of Athens.

S. VIII. Of fundry small victories gotten on each part. The Lacedæmonians lose all in Asia. The Athenians recover some part of their old

§. IX. The base conditions offered unto the

S. XI. The passage of the Army to Trabi- Persian by the Lacedamonians. Of Sundry zonde, through the Country, bordering upon fights, and other passages in the war. The peace

S. X. The War which the Lacedamonians made upon Olynthus. They take Thebes by trea-

S. XI. How the Thebans recovered their liberty, driving out the Lacedæmonian Gar-

CHAP. XII.

S. XV. of divers pieces of service done by Of the flourishing estate of Thebes, from the Battel of Leuctra, to the Battel of Mantinæa

§. I.

Tom Thebes and Athens joyned together against Sparta. How the Athenians make peace for themselves and others: out of which the Thebans were excluded. The battell of Leuctra, and beginning of the Theban oreatnels.

S. II. How the Athenians took upon them to maintain the peace of Greece. New troubles hence arising. Epaminondas invadeth and wasteth the Territory of Lacedamon. S. III. The composition between Athens and Sparta, for command in war against the Thebans; who again invade and spoile Peloponnefus. The unfortunate presumption of the Arca-

S. IV. The great growth of the Thebane Estate. Embassages of the Greeks to the Persian ; with the reasons why he most favoured the Thebans. Troubles in the Pertian Empire. The

S. V. How all Greece was divided between the Athenians and Lacedamonians, on the one fide, and Thebans on the other. Of the great tumults arising in Arcadia. s. VI. A terrible invasion of Peloponnesus by Epaminondas. S. VII. The great battel of Mantinæa. The honourable death of Epaminondas, with his commendation.

6. VIII. Of the peace included in Greece after the battel of Mantinæa. the voyage of Agesilaus into Egypt. His death and qualities :

The

The Contents of the Chapters, Paragraphs, and Sections, in the fourth Book of the first Part of the History of the World.

CHAP. I.

Of Philip, the Father of Alexander the city of Tyre. Great, King of Macedon.

W Hat Kings reigned in Macedon, before Philip.

S. II. The beginning of Philips reign; and how he delivered Maccdon from the troubles in which be found it entangled.

s. III. The good success which Philip had in many enterprizes.

S. IV. Of the Phocian war, which first drew Philip into Greece.

S.V. of the Olynthian war. The ambitious practices of Philip. S. VI. How Philip ended the Phocian War.

s. VII. How Philip with ill success attempted on Perinthus, Bizantium, and the Scy-§. VIII. How Philip, overthrowing the Greeks in the battel of Cheronæa, was chosen Captain General of Greece. The death of Philip.

S. IX. What good foundations of Alexanders greatness were laid by Philip. Of his landable qualities and issue.

CHAP. II.

Of Alexander the Great.

Brief rehearfal of Alexanders doings before he invaded Alia.

S.II. How Alexander palfing into Afia, fought with the Persians upon the River of Granicus. S.III. A digression concerning the defence of hard passages. Of things following the battel of Granick. S. IV. of the unwarlike Army levyed by lities. Darius against Alexander. The unadvised courfes which Darius took in this Expedition. He is vanquished at Issus, where his Mother, Wife, and Children, are made Prisoners. Of some things following the battel of Illis. c. V. How Alexander beforeed, and wan the deals graciously with the Jews. S. VII. Alexander win. Egypt: and makes a journey to the Temple of Hammon.

S. VI. How Darius offered and interes of peace to Alexander. Alexander

S. VIII. How Alexander marching against Darius, was opposed very unskillelly by the E-

6. IX. The new provipons of La ins. Accidents fore-going the battel of Arhela

S. X. The battel of Arbela: and . . 'it could not be so strongly fought as report 6. 5

S. XI. Of things following the battel of Arbela. The vielding of Babylon and Sufa.

S. XII. How Alexander came to Persepolis, and burnt it. S. XIII. The treason of Bessus against Darius. Darius his death. S. XIV. How Alexander purfued Bessus, and took into his grace Darius his Captains. S. XV. of Thalestris, Queen of the Amazons, where by way of digression, it is shewed, that fuch Amozons have been, and are.

S. XVI. How Alexander fell into the Perfians Luxury: and how he purfued Beffus.

S. XVII. A conspiracy against Alexander. The death of Philotas and Parmenio. S. X VIII. How Alexander Subdued the Bactrians, Sogdians, and other people. How Bessus was delivered into his hands. How he fought with the Scythians.

5. XIX. How Alexander flew his own friends.

S. X X. of Alexanders journey into India. The battel between him and Porus.

§. X X I. How Alexander finished his Expedition: and returned out of India.

§. XXII. of Alexanders riot, critelty, and death.

S. XXIII. of Alexanders person and qua-

CHAP.

CHAP, III.

The Reign of Aridaus.

s. 1.

F the question about succession to Alex-ander.

5. IL. The cleation of Aridaus, with the trouble thereabout arising: the first division of the Empire.

§. Ill. The beginning of the Lamian War.

s. V. The process of the Lamian War.

S. VI. Of the peace granted to Athens by Antipater, of Demosthenes bis death.

S. VII. How Craterus and Antipater were drawn from their Ætohan Wars into Afia. The grounds of the first Civill War between the Macedonian Lords.

S. VIII. Perdiccas his voyage into Egypt, and his death.

S. IX. Victories of Eumenes in the lower Afra.

S. X. Quarrels between Euridice the Queen. and Python the Protector, Python religns his office into which Antipater is chosen.

S. XI. Antigonus, Lievtenant of Afia, wins a battel of Eumenes, beliegeth him in him. Nora. He vanquisheth other followers of Per-

S. XII. Ptolemy wins Syria and Phænicia. The death of Antipater.

S. XIII. of Polyspercon, who succeeded

§. XIV. The unworthy courses held by Polyspercon, for the keeping down of Cassan-

S. XV. Of the great commotions raised in Athens by Polysperchons decree. The death of tigonus, and flain.

dition against Cassander.

g. XVII. Antigonus fecks to make himself carrying away Peucestes. an obsolute Lord: and thereupon treats with Eumenes, who disappointed him. Phrygia and bylon by Antigonus. The great riches of Anti-

Lydia wen by Antigonus.

§. XVIII. Antigonus pursues Eumenes. Eumenes having Authority from the Court raiseth great War against Antigonus, in defence of the Royal house.

6. XIX. How the Princes of Macedon Good affected mutually. Olympias takes Aridæus and Eurydice, whom she cruelly puts to death.

S. X X. How Caffander was revenged upon Olympias.

t. I.

He great Expedition of Cassander, Olympias fluts her felf into Pydna, where Cassander besiegeth ber. Æacides King of Epirus, coming to succour Olympias, is forfaken, and banished by his own Subjects.

t. 11 A continuation of Olympias her Stary. Polysperchon defeated. Extreme famine in Pydna. Olympias vields to Caslander.

†. III. The death of Olympias, and her condition.

t. IV. Caffander celebrates the Funerall of S. IV. Five Perdiccas employed his Army. Aridaus and Eurydice: and feeks to make himfelf King of Macedon.

CHAP. IV.

Of the great Lordship which Antigonus got in ASIA

He journey of Eumenes into Perfia. His wise dealing with those that joyned with

S. II. How Antigonus coming to fet upon Eumenes, was driven off with loffe.

S. II I. Of Eumenes his cunning. A battell between him and Antigonus.

S. IV. Of divers stratagems practifed by Anunto Antipater in the Protectorship. The insur-rection of Cassander against him. tigonus and Eumenes, one grieft the other. §.V. The conspiracy of Peucestes and others against Eumenes bis life. 6. VI. The last Battell between Antigonus and Eumenes.

6. VII. How Eumenes was betrayed to An-

S. VIII. How Antigonus flew Python, and S. XVI. of Polyspherchon bis vain Expe- occupied Media. How be removed Governours of Provinces, and made himself Lord of Persia,

S. I X. How Seleucus was chased out of Ba-

CHAP.

30,70

CHAP. V.

Of the great Civill War between Alexanders Captains: and how they affumed Of the Wars between the Kings of Egypt, the name and state of Kings.

6. I.

- He combination of Ptolomy, Cassander and others, against Antigonus. Their demands, and his answer.

6. II. The preparations and beginnings of the Wars. §. III. How each part fought to win the aflistance of Greece. Antigonus bis declaration against Cassander. Alexander the son of Polifperchon revolteth from Antigonus who had $. IV. The Ætolians rife against Cassander, in favour of Antigonus, and are beaten. A Fleet and Land-Army of Antigonus utterly defeated by Ptolomies Lieutenant. In what terms the War flood at this time. Antigonus draws nearer to Greece.

§ V. How Lyfimachus and Caffander vanquished some Enemies, raised against them by Antigonus. The good successe of Antigonus in rels. Asia and Greece: with the rebellion of many Cities against Cassander.

S. VI. Victories of Ptolomy by Sea. A great battell at Gaza, which Ptolomy and Se-Ieucus wan against Demetrius the son of Anti-

5. VII. How Seleucus recovered Baby-lon, and make himself Lord of many Countries in the higher Alia. The Era of the kingdome of the Greeks: which began with this Dominion of Seleucus.

monin Syria. What the causes were of the quiet obedience performed unto the Macedonians, by those that had been subject unto the Persian Empire. Of divers petty enterprizes, taken in hand by Antigonus and Demetrius, with ill successe.

6. IX. A generall peace made and broken. How all the house of Alexander mas destroyed.

6. X. How Demetrius, the fon of Antigonus, gave liberty to Athens, expelling the Garrisons of Casiander out of those parts. The immoderate honour decreed by the Athenians to Andrigonus and Demetrius.

S. X I. The great victory of Demetrius against Ptolomy in Cyprus. How Antigonus and Demetrius took on them the stile of Kings.

CHAP, VI.

Afia, Macedon, Thrace, and others, untill all Alexanders Princes were consumed.

S. İ

He expedition of Antigonus against Egypt, with ill faccefs.

6. II. How the City of Rhodes was befreged by Demetrins

S. II I. How Demetrius prevailed in Greece, Catlander defires peace of Antigonus, and cannot obtain it. Great preparation of War against Antigonus.

S. IV. How Antigonus was flain in a great battel at Ipfus, near unto Ephcius; wherein his whole estate was lost.

S. V. How Demetrius, for faken by the Athenians, after his overthrew, was reconciled to Seleucus and Ptolomy: beginning a new Fortune, and shortly entring into new quar-

S. VI. How Demetrius wan the City of Athens; and prevailed in Greece, but lost in Afia. Of troubles in Macedon, following the death of Cassander.

s. VII. of Pyrrhus, and his doings in Macedon. The death of Caffander's children. Demetrius gets the Kingdom of Macedon prevails in war against the Greeks ; loseth reputation in his war against Pyrrhus, and in his civil Government; and prepares to win Asia. How all conspire against Demetrius. Pyrrhus and Ly-S.V III. How Ptolomy lost all that he had simachus invade him; his Army yields to Pyr-

> 6. VIII. How Demetrius, gathering forces, enterprifed many things with ill success, in Greece and Alia. How he was driven upon Seleucus, and compelled to yield himself. His imprisonment and death.

S.IX. The death of Ptolomy, of Lysimachus, and of Seleucus, that was the last of Alexanders Captains; with other occurrences;

CHAP

CHAP. VII.

Eastern Kingdoms.

6. I.

Som the Romans enlarged their Dominions of the Kingdom of Macedon from Antigonus.

Antigonus.

S. V. Hom Pyrrhus affailed Sparta without fittes, anto fuch time as they were affailed by fucces. His enterprise upon Argos, and his mans, and vanguished them in two Battels. §. III. The great troubles in Macedon and Sicily, how Pyrrhus being invited into Sicily, for fook Italy; wan the most of the Isle; and lost

S. II. How Pyrrhus warred upon the Ro- death.

The growth of Rome, and fettling of the it in thort space. Pyrrhus returns into Italy, where he is beaten by the Romans, and fo goes back into his own Kingdom.

S. IV. How Antigonus the fon of Demetrius, delivered Maccdon from the Gaules. How

The Contents of the Chapters, Paragraphs, and Sections, in the fourth Book of the first Part of the History of the World.

CHAP. I.

Of the first Punick War.

Discussion of that Probleme of Livy, A whether the Romans could have refifted the great Alexander. That neither the Macedonian nor the Roman Souldier, was of equal valour to the English.

e. The eftate of Carthage before it entred into war with Rome. war. That it was unjustly undertaken by the Romans.

6. IV. Of the Island of Sicily.

' † I.

habitants thereof.

cily before Dionysius his tyranny. t. IV. of Dionyfius the Tyrant ; and others Seas again.

following kim in Syracuse.

with Rome.

6. VI. How the Romans besiege and win Agrigentum. Their beginning to maintain a Fleet. Their first loss, and first victory by Sea. Of Sea-fights in general.

6. VII. Divers enterfeats of war between the Romans and Carthaginians, with variable success. The Romans prepare to invade A-frick : and obtain a great victory at Sea. §. VIII. The Romans prevail in Africk. Atilius the Conful propoundeth intollerable conditions of peace to the Carthaginians. He is utterly beaten and made prisoner.

S. IX. How the affairs of Carthage prof-8. III. The beginning of the first Punick pered after the victory against Atilius: How the Romans, having loft their Fleet by Tempeft, resolve to forsake the Seas: The great advantages of a good Fleet in war, between Nations divided by the Sea.

s. X. How the Romans attempt again to get the mastery of the Seas. The victory of Coecilius the Roman Consul at Panormus: The "He quality of the Island, and the first In- slege of Lilybæum. How a Rhodium Gally entred Lilybæum at pleasure in despight of the t. II. The Plantation of the Greeks in Si- Roman Fleet. That it is a matter of great difficulty to stop the passage of good ships. The Ro-†. III. Of the Government and affairs of Si- mans by reason of grievous losses received under Claudius and Junius their Confuls abandon the

S. XI. The City of Eryx is surprised by the 6. V. A recontinuation of the Roman War Romans, and recovered by Annilcar, who foutin Sicily. How Hieron, King of Syracuse, for- ly holds war with them five years. The Romans, fook the Carthaginians, and made his peace having emptyed their common Treasury, build a new Fleet at the charges of private men. The great victory at Sea of Luctatius the Conful; whereby the Carthaginians are forced to crave peace. The conditions of the Peace between Rome and Carthage.

CHAP. 11.

Of divers actions passing between the first Hannibal besiegeth and taketh Saguntum whiland second Punick Wars.

s. I.

ginians and their Mercenaries.

s. II. Divers observations upon this War with the Mercenaries.

†. I.

use help of Mercenaries.

cenary Souldiers.

t. III. The dangers growing from the use mene. of mercenary fouldiers, and forraign auxili-

the Romans, gave them after ance to use service the Horse, honoured and advanced by the people, of their own subjects in the wars. That in for bold and successful attempting adventures mans nature there is an affection breeding ty-rafely upon Hannibal, and is like to perificuith ranny, which hindereth the use and benefit of the his Army but rescued by Fabius.

ries, was diversly managed by Hanno and Consul. Great forces levyed against Hannibal. Amilear, with variable success. The blondy Hannibal taketh the Romans provisions in the counsels of the Mercenaries, and their final Castle of Canna. The new Consuls set forth adestruction.

S. IV. How the Mercenaries of the Cartha- S. VIII. Differtion between the two Roginians, that were in Sardinia, rebelled: and man Confuls. Whether it be likely, that Hannimere afterwards driven out by the Islanders. bal was upon point of flying out of Italy, when The faithless dealing of the Romans with the the Romans presed him to fight. The great bat-Carthaginians in taking from them Sardinia, tel at Canna. contrary to the peace.

S. V. How the affairs of Carthage went, be- næ. tween the African rebellion, and the second Pu-

Pyrrhus, to the reign of Philip the son of De- mony of the Carthaginians, the supply was too metrius in Macedon.

of Greece: and how they were subdued by the

S. VIII. of the War between the Romans and Gaules, somewhat before the coming of ries in Spain, before Aldrubal the son of Amil-Hannibal into Italy.

CHAP. III.

Of the second Punick Wars.

He wars of Hannibal in Spain, Quarrels Letween the Romans and Carthaginians. eff the Romans are bufied with the Illyrians. War proclaimed between Rome and Car-

S. II. Hannibal takes order for the defence F the cruelWar begun between the Cartha- of Spain and Africk. His journey into I-

s. III. How the Romans in vain follicited the Spaniards and Gauls to take their part. The rebellion of the Cifalpine Gauls against the Ro-

§. IV. Scipio the Roman Conful, overcome by Hannibal at Ticinum. Both of the Roman OF tyranny: and how tyrants are driven to Confuls beaten by Hannibal in a great battel at

+. II. That the tyranny of a City over her S. V. The departure of Hannibal from the Subjects, is worfe than the tyranny of one man: Cifalpine Gauls into Hetruria. Flaminius the and that a tyrannical City must likewise use mer- Roman Conful stain: and his Army destroyed by the Carthaginians, at the Lake of Thrasy-

5. VI. How Q. Fabius the Roman Dictator. Sought to consume the force of Hannibal, by †. IV. That the moderate government of lingring war. Minutius the Master of the

Q. VII. The Roman people, desirous to finish 6. III. How the war against the Mercena- the War quickly, choose a rash and unworthy gainst Hannibal.

s. IX. Of things following the Battel of Can-

S.X. Of the great supply that was decreed at Carthage, to be fent to Hannibal in Italy. S. VI. The estate of Greece from the death of How by the malice of Hanno, and sloth or partilong deferred. That the riches of the Carthagi-S. VII. How the Illyrians infefted the Coaft mians grew faster thanlof the Romans. Of Fabius and other old Roman Historians, how partial they were in their writings.

S X I. Strange reports of the Roman victo-car followed thence his brother Hannibal into

Italy. 5. XII. The great troubles that Hannibal raised in all quarters, to the City of Rome. Posthumius the Roman Generall, with his whole Army, is flain by the Gaules, Philip King of Macedon enters into a League with Hannibal, against the Romans. The Romans joyning with the Etolians, make war upon Philip in Greece: and afterwards conclude a peace with him, the better to intend their businesse against the Carthaginians.

S. XIII. How the Romans began to receffities of their Common-weale.

The fiege of Capua. Two Victories of Hannibal. and Macedon, and are moaded at home by The journey of Hannibal to the gates of Rome. Philip. Capua taken by the Romans.

party in Sardinia and Sicil, held war against against him, and were justly punished. He inthe Romans in thefe Islands: and were over-vadeth the Ætolians a second time: and forc-

S. X VI. How the war passed between the them. Romans and Hannibal in Italy, from the tak-

Roman, made entire conquest of Spain.

t. I.

t. II. Funerall games held by Scipio. A Du- and grows hateful to the Achæans. el between two Spanish Princes. A digression concerning Duels.

return to Rome; where he is chosen Conful.

S. XVIII. Scipio obtains leave to make who joyned with Scipio.

and do break it. S. X X. In what fort Hannibal fent the time, after the battell of Metaurus. The doings the inftance of Prusias King of Bythinia, and of Mago in Italy. Hannibal and Mago cal- cruelly destroyed, by this and the like actions, led out of Italy. How the Romans were di- Philip, grows hateful to many of the Greeks ; verfly affected by Hannibals departure.

5. XXI. Hannibal in Africk prepares to mus, and by the Rhodians. fight with Scipio ; treats with him about peace 6. VIII. The Romans, after their Carthe peace granted from Rome to Carthage.

CHAP. IV.

Of Philip the Father of Perseus King of Macedon, his first acts and war with the Romans, by whom he was subdued.

Tow the Romans grew acquainted in the East Countries, and desirous of war there. cover their strength by degrees. The noble affect The beginning of many Princes, with great tion of the Romans, in relicoing the publick ne- 1Fars, at one time. The Atolians over-run Peloponnesus, Philip and his associates make S. XIV. The Romans win some Towns back war against the Etolians. Alterations of the from Hannibal. Hannibal wins Tarentum, state in Sparta. The Etolians invade Greece

6. II. How Philip was mif-advised by ill 5. X V. How the Carthaginians, making a Counsellors: who afterwards wrought Treason eth them to fue for peace; which is granted unto

6. III. Philip, at the persuasion of Demeing of Capua to the great victory at Metaurus, strius Pharius, enters into league with Hannis X VII. How P. Cornelius Scipio, the bal against the Romans. The tenour of the trius Pharius, enters into league with Hanni-League between Hannibal and Philip.

S. IV. How Philip yielded to his naturall vices , being thereunto foothed by Demetrius Pharius, his desire to tyrannize upon the free Om the Carthaginians were driven by States his affociates: with the troubles into Scipio, from the Continent into the Isle of which betweeley fell, whiss he bare a part in the second PunickWar. He poisoneth Aratas:

S. V. of Philopoemen, Generall of the Achæans, and Machanidas, Tyrant of Lacedæ-†. III. The last acts of Scipio in Spain. His mon. A battell between them, mberein Macha-

§. VI. Philip having peace with Rome, and war in Africk: His preparations: Of Malanilla with all Greece, prepares against Asia. Of the Kings Of Pergamus, Cappadocia, Pontus, Pa-§. XIX. The Carthaginians desire truce: phlagonia, Bythinia; and their Linages. Of the Galatians.

5.VII. The town of Cios taken by Philip, at and is warred upon by Attalus King of Perga-in vain ; logeth a battell at Nadagara, and per- thaginian War feck matter of quarrel against frades the Carthaginians to fue for peace. Of Philip. The Athenians, upon fright cause, proclaim war against Philip; moved thereto by Attalus, whom they flatter. Philip wins divers Towns, and makes peremptory answer to the Roman Embassadour. The furious resolution of the Abydeni. 6 1 X. The

§.1 X. The Roman's decree war against Philip, and fend one of their Confuls into Greece, as it were in defence of the Athenians their confederates. How poor the Atheestate.

§. X. The Town of Chalchis in Eubwa, taken and fackt by the Romans and their Affociates, that lay in Garrison at Athens. Philip attempeth to take Athens by Surprize: wasteth the Countrie about: and makes a journey into Peloponnesus. Of Nabis the Tyrant of Lacedamon. and his wife. Philip offers to make war against before Antiochus the Creat. Nabis for the Achains. He returneth home

S. XI. The meeting of Philip with the Romanes, and skirmishing with them and his borders. The Ætolians invade his Dominions. and the Roman fleet.

S. X II. Villius the Roman Conful wastes a year to no effect: War of the Gauls in Italy. An of the great Alexander. Embasie of the Romanes to Carthage, Massanilla and Vermina, The Maccdonian prepares pator in Egypt: with the tragicall end of his for defence of his Kingdom, and T. Quintius Favourites, when he was dead. Antiochus pre-Flamius is sent against him.

by Negotiation. T. Quintius wins a passage a- in preparing for divers wars at once: bis voygainst Philip. Thessay wasted by Philip, the age towards the Hellessont. He seeks to hold a-Romanes, and Etolians. The Acheans for fak-mity with the Romans, who make friendly shew ing the Macedonian, take part with the Ro- to him, intending nevertheless to have war mans. A treaty of peace, that was vain. Phi- with him. His doings against the Hellespont; lip delivers Argos to Nabis the Irrant, who which the Romans made the first ground of presently enters into league with the Ro- their quarrel to him.

S. XIV. The battell at Cynoscephalæ. wherein Philip was canquished by T. Quin-Philip: after which they quarrell with him. The tolians, and grants truce unto Philip, with flight unto the King Antiochus: the Ætolians conditions, upon which the peace is ratified murmure against the Romans in Greece: The Liberty proclaimed unto the Greeks. The Ro- war of the Romans and Acheans, with Nabis mans quarrel with Antiochus.

CHAP, V.

nians were at this time, both in quality and The Wars of the Romans with Antiochus the Great, and his Adherents.

9. I.

W Hat kings of the races of Seleucus and Ptolomy reigned in Asia and Egypt,

$. 11. The beginning of the great Antiochus through Attica, which he spoyleth again: and his reign. Of Ptolomy Evergetes, and Phiprovides against the enemies. Some exploits of lopator, Kings of Egypt. War between Antithe Romanes. Divers Princes joyn with them. ochus and Philopator, The rebellion of Malo: Great labouring to draw the Ætolians into the an expedition of Antiochus against him: The recontinuance of Antiochus his Eg sptian war, with the passages between the two Kings: The victory of Ptolemy, and peace concluded. Of Acheus, and his rebellion; his greatness, and and are beaten home. Some doings of Attalus his fall. Antiochus his expedition against the Parthians, Bactrians, and Indians somewhat of the Kings reigning in India, after the death

§. III. The level reign of Ptolomy Philopares to war on the young childe Ptolomy Epi-5 X III. The Romans begin to make war phanes, the fon of Philopator. His irrefolution

S.IV. The Romans hold friendly correspondence with Antiochus, during their war with doings of Hannibal at Carthage: whence he is S. XV. T. Quintius falls out with the A- chaled by his enemies, and by the Romans: His the tyrant of Lacedamon. The departure of the Romans out of Greece. T. Quintius his Triumph. Peace denyed to Antiochus by the

§. V. Of the long wars which the Romans had with the Gauls, Ligurians, and Spaniards. CHAP. Of M. Porcius Cato. Injuries done by Massamilla to the Carthiginians; that fue unto the Romans for justice in vain. 6. VI. The Ætolians labour to provoke Antiochus, Philip, and Nabis to war upon the Komans; by whom they hold themselves wronged wasteth some part of Achea. The exact skill of and faction among the Roman Nobility. Philopoemen in his advantage of ground; whereby he utterly vanquished Nabis. Antiochus being denied peace by the Romans, joyns with the Atolians. The Atolians Surprize Demetrias; and by killing Nabis, their Confederates feize upon Sparta. But they are driven out by the Citizens: who at Philopomen his perswasions annex themselves to the Achæans.

6. VII Antiochus persivaded by Thoas the Atolian, comes over into Greece, ill attend- of the Romans, when the war with Antiochus ed, Sundry passages between him, the Etolians, was finished. the Romans quarrell with Phi-Chalcidians, and others. He wins Chalchis, lip. They deal insolently with the Acheans. and thereby the whole Isle of Eubwa. The vani- The Macedonian being unready for war, obty of the Kings Emballadours, and the Ætoli- tains peace at Rome, by his fon Demetrius; ans: with the civill answer of Titus to their of whom thenceforth he becomes jealous. discourse, before the Acheans. That it concerned the Greeks to have desired peace between the bal, and Scipio. That the Military profession Romans and Antiochus: as the best assurance is of all other the most unhappy: notwithstandof their own liberty. Of many petty Estates that ing some examples, which may seem to prove fell to the King. Of Amainder and an idle va- the contrary. nity, by which King Philip was loft. Hanni S. III. Philip making provision for war abal gives good counsel in vain. Some towns gainst the Romans, deals hardly with many of fia, leaving all in Greece unto the Victors.

S. VIII. Lucius Scipio, having with him feus, he dieth. Publius the African his elder brother, for his In what fort the Romans used their victory. L. Warring upon him. Cornelius Scipio, after a most sumptuous Tri-s. V. Hom Eumenes King of Pergamus was umph over Antiochus, is surnamed The Asia-busted with Pharnaces, the Rhodians, and o-and diferaced. Nabis befregeth Gyttheum, and of Rome to the two Scipios: and that beginning

CHAP. VI.

The second Macedon War.

6. I.

He condition wherein those Princes and Estates remained, which were associates

S. I I. The death of Philopoemen, Hanni-reon in Theffaly, the King retires to Chalchis his own subjects. His Negotiations with the where he married a young wife, and revels a- Bastarnæ. His crnelty. He suspected his son way the rest of Winter, upon the coming of the Demetrius. Demetrius accused by his Brother Roman Conful, all forfake Antiochus. He Perseus: and shortly after stain by his Fathers with two thousand Ætolians kept the straights appointment. Philip repenteth him of his of Thermopyla. He is beaten and flees into A- fons death, whom he findeth to have been innocent, and intending to revenge it on Per-

6. I V. How the Bastarnæ fell upon Darda-Licutenant, is fent into Greece. He grants long Dia. The behaviour of Perseus in the beginning truce to the Etolians, that so he might at leisure of his reign. Some wars of the Romans: and paffe into Afia. Much troublesome businesse by how they suffered Masanilla cruelly to oppresse Sea, and divers fights. An invasion upon Eu-the Carthaginans. They quarrelled with Pertenenes his Kingdome: with the fuge of Pergaus. They allow not their confederates to make mus, raised by an handfull of the Acheans. L. war without their leave obtained. The treason of Scipio the Consull comes into Asia, where An- Callicrates, whereby all Greece became more tiochus most earnestly destres peace, and is de- obnoxious to Rome, than in former times. niedit. The battell of Magnelia: wherein An- Further quarrels to Perseus. He seeks friendtiochus being vanquished, yieldeth to the Ro- ship of the Acheans, and is withflood by Calmans good pleasure. The conditions of the peace. licrates. The Romans discover their intent of tique, as his brother was stiled, The Afri- thers. His hatred to the Macedonian: whom he accuseth to the Roman Senate. The Senate §. IX. The Etolians and Gallo-Greeks, honours him greatly, and contemns his enevanquished by the Roman Consuls Fulvius and mies the Rhodians with the causes thereof. Manlius. Manlius hardly obtains a Triumph: The unusual stoutness of the Macedonian Embeing charged ( among other Objections) with baffadours. Perseus his attempt upon Eumeattempting to have passed the bounds appointed nes, the brotherly love between Eumenes and as fatal to the Romans by Sibyl. Of Sibyls Pro- Attalus. Perseus his device to porson some of phelics; the Books of Hermes; and that in- the Roman Senators: whereupon they decree Gription Simon Deo Sancto. The ingratitude War against kim, and send kim desiance, other things concerning the justice of this | Tempe. the Town of Dium quitted by Martius, repaired and fortified by the King. The Ro-S. VI. The Romans folicite the Greeks to mans attempt many places, with ill success. Mar-

joyn with them in the war against Perseus, tius a cunning and a bad man. How the Greeks flood affelded in that war. § VIII. of L. Emylius Paulus, the Con-The timerousness of Perseus. Martius a Roman sul. His journer. He forceth Perseus to discamp. Embassadour deludes him with the hope of peace. He will not hazzard battel with any disadvan-His forces. He takes the field, and wins part of tage. Of an Ecclipse of the Moon. Emylius his fu-Theffaly, The forces of Licinius the Roman persition. The battel of Pydna. Perseus his Consul; and what affiltance the Romans had flight. He for fakes his Kingdom; which haftily in this war. Of Tempe in Thessaly; and yields to Emylius. Perseus at Samothrace, what advantages the Macedonian had, or might He yields himself to the Roman Admiral; and have had, but lost by bis fear. Perseus braves is sens prifore to Emylius.

the Romans, fights with them, knows not how to $\frac{1}{2}$. IX. Gentius King of the Illyrians, taken use his victory, sues for peace, and is denied it by the Romans. by the vanguished. Perseus having the worst in a §. X. How the Romans behaved themselves skirmish, forsakes all the Country lying without in Greece and Macedon, after their victory sarming, jorgages as the country tring intended to ever Perseus.

Tempe. The Buotians rebell against the Romans, and are visitoriously punissed. The Roman Commanders unsurfurante in the warabrought to end by the Roman Embalfiedors.

flattering Alabanders. extrem difficulty and danger enters into Tem- cius, and Octavius: With the conclusion of the pe. The Comardize of Perseus in abandoning Work.

gainst Perseus. They wex the Greeks their S.XII. How the Romans were dreadful un-friends; for whose ease the Senate makes pro- to all Kings. Their demeanour towards Eumevision, having heard their complaints. The nes, Prusias, Masanista, and Cotys. The end of Perseus and his children. The instability of S. VII. Q. Martius the Roman Conful, with Kingly Estates. The triumphs of Paulus, Ani-

THE PREFACE.

Ow unfit, and how unworthy a choice I have made of my self, to undertake a Work of this mixture; mine own reason, though exceeding weak, hath sufficiently resolved me. For had it been begotten then, with my first dawn of day, when the light of common knowledg began to open it self to my younger years, and before any wound received, either from Fortune or Time: I might yet well have doubted, that the darkness of Age and Death would have covered over both It and Me, long before the performance. For, beginning with the Creation, I have proceeded with the History of the World; and lastly, purposed (some sew sallies excepted) to confine my Discourse, with this our renowned Island of Great Britain. I consess that it had better forted with my disability, the better part of whose times are run out in other travels, to have fet together (as I could) the unjointed and scattered frame of our English affairs, than of the Universal: in whom, had there been no other defect (who am all defect) than the time of the day it were enough: the day of a tempessuous life, drawn on to the very evening ere I began. But those inmost and soul-piercing wounds, which are ever aking while uncured, with the desire to satisfy those few friends, which I have tried by the fire of Adversity; the former enforcing, the later persuading; have caused me to make my thoughts legible, and my self the subject of every Opinion, wife or weak.

To the World I present them, to which I am nothing indebted: neither have others that were (Fortune changing) sped much better in any Age. For Prosperity and Adversity have evermore tyed and untyed vulgar affections. And as we see it in Experience, That Doggs do always bark at those they know not, and that it is their nature to accompany one another in those clamours: so it is with the inconsiderate multitude; who, wanting that Vertue which we call Honesly in all men, and that especial gift of GOD, which we call Charity in Christian men; condemn without hearing, and wound without offence given: led thereunto by uncertain Report only; which His Majesty truly acknowledgeth for the Author of all lies. 3 c. 1. Blame no man (faith Siracides) before thou have enquired the matter: understand Exceles 1.7. first, and then reform righteously. Rumor, res sine Teste, sine Judice, maligna, fallax; Rumour is without Witness, without Judge, malicious, and deceivable. This vanity of vulgar Opinion it was, that gave S. Augustine Argument to affirm, That he feared the Ludari about praise of good men, and detested that of the evil. And herein no man hath given a better Rule, and detested that of the evil. than this of Seneca; Conscientize satisfaciamus: nihil in samam laboremus, sequatur sen. de ira, 1.3. vel ". 22.

vel mala, dum bene mercaris; Let us fatisfie our own Confeiences, and not trouble our felves with fame; be it never so ill, it is to be despised, so we deserve well.

For my felf, if I have in any thing served my Countrey, and prized it before my private: the general acceptation can yield me no other profit at this time, than doth a fair Sun-shine day to a Sea-man after Shipwrack; and the contrary no other harm, than an outragious tempest after the Port attained. Iknow that I lost the love of many, for my fidelity towards Her whom I must still bonour in the dust; though further than the defence of Her excellent Person, I never persecuted any man. Of those that did it, and by what device they did it, He that is the Supreme Judg of all the World, bath taken the accompt: so as for this kind of suffering, I must say with Seneca, Mala opinio, bene parta, delectat.

As for other men; if there be any that have made themselves Fathers of that same, which hath been begotten for them; I can neither envy at such their purchased glory, nor much lament mine own mif-hap in that kind; but content my felf to say with Virgil, Sic vos non vobis, in many particulars. To labour other satisfaction, were an effect of phrenzie, not of hope, seeing it is not Truth, but Opinion, that can travel the World without a Paß-port. For were it otherwise; and were there not as many internal forms of the mind, as there are external figures of men; there were then some possibility to persuade by the mouth of one Advocate, even Equity alone.

But such is the multiplying, and extensive vertue of dead Earth, and of that breathgiving life which God hath east upon slime and dust, as that among those that were, of whom we read and bear; and among those that are, whom we see and converse with; every one hath received a several Picture of face, and every one a divers Picture of mind; every one a form a-part, every one a fancy and cogitation differing: there being nothing wherein Nature so much triumpheth, as in dissimilitude. From whence it cometh, that there is found so great diversity of Opinions; so strong a contrarity of inclinations: so many natural and unnatural; wife, foolifb, manly, and childifb affections and passions in mortal men. For it is not the visible fashion and shape of Plants, and of reasonable Creatures, that makes the difference of working in the one, and of condition in the other; but the form internal.

And though it pleased God to reserve the Art of reading mens thoughts to himself; yet, as the fruit tells the name of the Tree; so do the outward works of men (so farr as their cogitations are acted) give us whereof to ghess at the rest. Nay, it were not hard to express the one by the other, very near the life, did not craft in many, fear in the most, and the World's love in all, teach every capacity, according to the compass it bath, to qualifie and mask over their inward desormities for a time. Though it be also true, Nemo potest diu personam serre sistam: cito in naturam fuam refidunt, quibus veritas non fubest: No man can long continue masked in a counterfeit behaviour; the things that are forced for pretences, having no ground of truth, cannot long diffemble their own natures. Neither can any man (faith Plutarch) so change himself, but that his heart may be sometimes seen at his tongues end.

In this great discord,and dis-similitude of reasonable Creatures,if we direst our selves to the Multitude; Omnes honestæ rei malus Judex est vulgus: The common People are evil Judges of honest things, and whose Wisdom (faith Ecclesiastes) is to be despised: if to the better fort; every understanding bath a peculiar judgment, by which it both censureth other men, and valueth it self. And therefore unto me it will not seem strange though I find these my worthless Papers torn with Rats; seeing the slothfull Censurers of all Ages have not spared to tax the Reverend Fathers of the Church, with Ambition; the severest men to themselves, with Hypocrifie; the greatest lovers of Justice, with Popularity; and those of the truest Valour and Fortitude, with Vain-glory. But of these natures, which lie in wait to find fault, and to turn good into evil, seeing Solomon complained long since; and that the very Age of wield failer the World renders it every day after other more malicious; I must leave the Professors to their guam represent easie ways of reprehension, than which there is nothing of more facility.

To me it belongs in the first part of this Preface, following the common and approved custom of those, who have left the memories of Time-past to after-Ages; to give, as near as I can, the fame right to History which they have done. Tet, seeing therein I should but borrow other mens words; I will not trouble the Reader with the repetition. True it is that among many other benefits, for which it bath been honoured; in this one it triumpheth over all humane knowledg, That it hath given us life in our understanding, since the World it felf had life and begining even to this day; yea, it hath triumphed over time, which, besides it. nothing but eternity hath triumphed over : for it hath carried our knowledg over the wast and devouring space of many thousands of years, and given so fair and piercing eyes to our mind; that we plainly behold living now (as if we had lived then) that great world, Magni Dei sapiens opus. The wife work (faith Hermes) of a great God, as it was then, when but new to it felf. By it (I (ay) it is, that we live in the very time when it was created: we behold how it was governed; how it was covered with waters, and again re-peopled; how Kings and Kingdoms have flourished and fallen, and for what vertue and piety God made prosperous; and for what vice and deformity he made wretched both the one and the other. And it is not the least debt we ow unto History that it bath made us acquainted with our dead Ancestors; and, out of the depth and darkness of the earth, delivered us their memory and fame. In a word, we may gather out of History a policy no less wise than eternal; by the comparison and application of other mens fore-passed miseries with our own like errors and ill deservings. But it is neither of Examples the most lively instruction, nor the words of the wifest men, nor the terror of future torments, that bath yet so wrought in our blind and stupisted mindes, as to make us remember, That the Infinite Eye and Wisdom of God doth pierce thorow all our pretences, as to make us remember, That the Justice of God doth require none other accuser, than our own consciences; which neither the falle beauty of our apparent actions, nor all the formality, which (to pacifie the Opinions of men) we put on; can in any or the least kind, cover from his knowledg. And so much did that heathen Wisdom confess, no way as yet qualified by the knowledg of a true God: If any (faith Euripides) having in his life committed wickedness, think he can hide it from the everlasting gods, he thinks not well.

To repeat GOD'S Judgments in particular, upon those of all degrees, which have played with his Mercies, would require a Volume a-part: for the Sea of Examples hath no bottom. The marks, set on private men, are with their bodies cast into the Earth; and their fortunes written onely in the memories of those that lived with them: so as they who succeeded, and have not seen the fall of others, do not fear their own faults. GODS Judgments upon the greater and greatest have been left to Posterity; first, by those happy hands which the Holy Ghost bath guided; and secondly, by their vertue, who have gathered the acis and ends of Men mighty and remarkable in the World. Now, to point farr off, and to speak of the conversion of Angels into Devils, for Ambition: Or of the greatest and most glorious Kings, who have gnawn the grass of the earth with Beasts for pride and ingratitude towards GOD: Or, of that wife working of Pharaoh, when he slew the Infants of Israel, ere they had recovered their Cradles: Or, of the policy of Jezabel, in covering the murther of Naboth by a trial of the Elders, according to the Law, with many thousands of the like: what were it other, than to make an hopeless proof, that far-off Examples would not be left to the same far-off Respects, as beretosore? For who hath not observed, what labour, practice, peril, bloud-shed, and cruelty, the Kings and Princes of the World have undergone, exercised, taken on them, and committed; to make themselves and their Issues Masters of the World? And yet hath Babylon, Persia, Egypt, Syria, Macedon, Carthage, Rome, and the rest, no fruit, no slower, grass, nor leaf, springing upon the face of the earth, of those seeds: No, their very roots and ruines do hardly remain. Omnia quæ manu hominum facta funt, vel manu hominum evertumtur, vel stando & durando deficiunt: All that the hand of man can make, is either overturned by the hand of man, or at length, by standing and continuing consumed. The reasons of whose ruines, are diversly given by those that ground their Opinions on second causes. All Kingdoms and States have fallen (say the Politicians) by outward and forein force, or by inward negligence and diffention, or by a third cause arising from both. Others observe, That the greatest have sunk down under their own weight; of which Livie hath a touch: eo crevit, ut magnitudine laboret fua: Others, That the divine Providence (which Cratippus objected to Pompey) hath set down the date and period of every Estate, before their first foundation and erection. But hereof I will give my self a day over to resolve.

For feeing the first Books of the following Story, have undertaken the Discourse of the first Kings and Kingdoms: and that it is impossible for the short life of a Presace to travel after, and over-take far-off Antiquity, and to judge of it; I will, for the present, examine what profit hath been gathered by our own Kings, and their Neighbour Princes; who having beheld, both in divine and humane letters, the success of infidelity, injustice, and cruelty; have (notwithstanding) planted after the same pattern.

True it is, that the judgments of all men are not agreeable; nor (which is more strange) the affection of any one man stirred up alike with examples of like nature: But every one is touched most with that which most nearly seemeth to touch his own private; Or otherwise best suteth with his apprehension. But the judgments of GOD are for ever unchangeable; neither is be wearied by the long process of time, and won to give his blessing in one Age, to that which be bath curfed in another. Wherefore those that are wife, or whose wisdom, if it be not great, yet is true and well grounded; will be able to discern the bitter fruits of irreligious policy, as well among those examples that are found in Ages removed farr from the present, as in those of later times. And that it may no less appear by evident proof, than by affeveration, That ill doing bath always been attended with ill success; I will here, by way of Preface, run over some examples, which the Work ensuing bath not reached.

Among our Kings of the Norman Race, we have no fooner paffed over the violence of the Norman Conquest, than we encounter with a singular and most remarkable example of Gods Justice, upon the children of Henry the First. For that King, when by force, craft, and cruelty, he had dispossess, over-reach'd, and lastly made blind, and destroyed his elder Brother, Robert, Duke of Normandy, to make his own Sons Lords of the Land; GOD caft them all, Male and Female, Nephews and Neeces (Maud excepted) into the bottom of the Sea, with above an hundred and fifty others that attended them; whereof a great many were Noble, and of the Kings dearly beloved.

To pass over the rest, till we come to Edward the Second; it is certain, that after the murther of that King, the issue of bloud then made, though it had some times of stay and slopping, did again break out, and that so often, and in such abundance, as all our Princes of the Masculine Race (very few excepted) died of the same disease. And although the young years of Edward the Third, made his knowledg of that horrible faci no more than suspicious; yet, in that he afterwards caused his own Uncle, the Earl of Kent, to die, for no other offence, than the desire of his Brothers redemption, whom the Earl as then supposed to be living; the King making that to be Treason in his Uncle, which was indeed Treason in himself, (bad his Uncles intelligence been true) this, I say, made it manifest, that he was not ignorant of what had past, nor greatly desirous to have had it otherwise; though he caused Mortimer to die for the same.

This cruelty, the secret and unsearchable Judgment of GOD, revenged on the Grandchild of Edward the Third; and so it fell out, even to the last of that Line, that in the second or third descent, they were all buried under the ruines of those buildings, of which the Mortar had been tempered with innocent bloud. For Richard the Second, who faw both his Treasurers, his Chancellor, and his Steward, with divers others of his Counsellors, some of them slaughtered by the people, others in his absence executed hy his enemies; yet be always took himself for over-wife, to be taught by examples. The Earls of Huntington and Kent, Montagu and Spencer, who thought themselves as great Politicians in those days, as others have done in these; hoping to please the King, and to secure themselves by the murther of Gloucester; died soon after, with many other their adherents, by the like violent bands; and farr more (bamefully than did that Duke. And as for the King bimfelf (who, in regard of many deeds, unworthy of his Greatness, cannot be excused, as the disavowing bimself by breach of Faith, Charters, Pardons and Patents:) He was in the prime of his youth deposed, and murthered by his Cousin-Germane and Vassal, Henry of Lancaster, afterwards Henry the Fourth.

This King, whose Title was weak, and his obtaining the Crown trayterous; who brake faith with the Lords at his landing, protesting to intend only the recovery of his proper inheritance, brake faith with Richard himself, and brake faith with all the Kingdom in Para liament, to whom he swore, that the deposed King should live. After he had enjoyed this Realm some few years, and in that time had been set upon on all sides by his Subjects, and never free from Conspiracies and Rebellions: he saw (if Souls immortal see and discern any things after the Bodies Death ) his Grand-child Henry

the

the Sixth, and his Son the Prince, suddenly, and without mercy, murthered; the possession of the Crown (for which he had caused so much bloud to be poured out) transferred from bis Race, and by the Issues of his enemies worn and enjoy d; enemies, whom, by his own pra-Elice, he supposed that he had left no less powerless, than the succession of the Kingdom questionless, by entailing the same upon his own Issues by Parliament. And, out of doubt, humane reason could have judged no otherwise, but that these cautious provisions of the Father, seconded by the valour and signal victories of his Son Henry the Fifth, bad buried the hopes of every Competitor, under the despair of all re-conquest and recovery. I say, that humane reason might so have judged, were not this passage of Causabon also true; Dies, hora, momentum, evertendis dominationibus fufficet, quæ Adamantinis credebantur radicious esse fundatæ; A day, an hour, a moment, is enough to overturn the things that from to have been founded and rooted in Adamant.

Now, for Henry the Sixth, upon whom the greatest storm of his Grand-father's grievous faults fell, as it formerly had done upon Richard, the Grand-child of Edward; although be was generally esteemed for a gentle and innocent Prince, yet, as he resused the Daughter of Armaignac, of the House of Navarre, the greatest of the Princes of France, to whom he was affianced (by which match he might have defended his inheritance in France) and married the Daughter of Anjou (by which he lost all that he had in France) so in condescending to the unworthy death of his Uncle of Gloucester, the main and strong Pillar of the House of Lancaster; He drew on himself and his Kingdom the greatest joint-loß and dishonour, that ever it sustained since the Norman Conquest. Of whom it may truly be said, which a Counsellor of his own spake of Henry the Third of France, Q'uil estoit une fort gentile Prince; mais son reigne est advenu en une fort mauvois temps: That he was a very gentle Prince; but his Reign happened in a very unfortunate Season.

It is true, that Buckingham and Suffolk were the practicers and contrivers of the Duke's death: Buckingham and Suffolk, because the Duke gave instructions to their authority, which otherwise under the Queen had been absolute; the Queen, in respect of her personal wound, spretæque injuria formæ, because Gloucester dissuaded her marriage. But the fruit was answerable to the seed; the success to the counsel. For after the cutting down of Gloucester, York grew up so fast, as he dared to dispute his Right, both by arguments and arms; in which quarrel, Suffolk and Buckingham, with the greatest number of their adherents, were diffolved. And although for his breach of Oath by Sacrament, it pleased God to strike down York; yet his Son the Earl of March, following the plain path which his Father had troden out, despoiled Henry the Father, and Edward the Son, both of their lives and Kingdom. And what was the end now of that politick Lady the Queen, other than this, That she lived to behold the wretched ends of all her partakers; that she lived to look on, while her Husband the King, and her onely Son the Prince, were hewen in funder; while the Crown was fet on his head that did it? She lived to see her self despoiled of her estate, and of her movables: and lastly, her Father, by rendring up the Crown of France, the Earldom of Provence, and other places, for the payment of 50000 crowns for her Ransome, to become a stark Beggar. And this was the end of that fubtilty, which Siracides calleth fine, but unrighunrighteous: for other fruit bath it never yielded fince the World was. And now it came to Edward the Fourth's turn (though after many difficulties) to triumbb. For all the Plants of Lancaster were rooted up, one onely Earl of Richmond excepted; whom also be had once bought of the Duke of Britain, but could not hold him. And vet was not this of Edward such a Plantation, as could any way promise it self stability. For this Edward the King (to omit more than many of his other cruelties) beheld to allowed the flaughter which Gloucester, Dorset, Hastings, and others, made of Edward the Prince in his own presence; of which tragical Actors, there was not one that escaped the Judgment of GOD in the same kind. And he, which (besides the execution of his Brother Clarence, for none other offence than he himself had formed in his own imagination) instructed Gloucester mkill Henry the Sixth, his Predecessor; taught him also, by the same art, to kill his own Sons and Succeffors, Edward and Richard. For, those Kings which have fold the bloud of others at a low rate; have but made the Market for their own enemies, to buy of theirs at the same price. To Edward the Fourth, succeeded Richard the Third, the greatest Master in mischief of all that fore-went him; who, although, for the necessity of his Tragedy, he had more parts to play, and more to perform in his own Perfon, than all the rest; yet be so well fitted every affection that plaid with him, as if each of them had but acted his own interest. For he wrought so cunningly upon the affections of Hastings and Buckingham, enemies to the Queen, and to all her Kinred, as he easily allured them to condescend, that Rivers and Grey, the Kings Maternal Uncle and half Brother, (bould (for the first) be severed from bim : Secondly, he wrought their consent to have them imprisoned : And lastly (for the avoiding of future inconvenience) to have their Heads severed from their Bodies. And baving now brought those his chief instruments to exercise that common Precept which the Sceleta Sceleta

Devil hath written upon every Post, namely, To depress those whom they had grieved, and to bus tuenda. destroy those whom they had depress d; He urged that Argument so farr, and so forcibly; as nothing but the death of the young King himself, and of his Brother, could sashion the conclusion. For he caused it to be hammered into Buckingham's head, That, whensoever the King or his Brother, should have able years to exercise their power, they would take a most severe revenge of that cureless wrong offered to their Uncle and Brother, Rivers and Grev. But this was not his manner of reasoning with Hastings, whose fidelity to his Masters Sons was without suspect; and yet the Devil, who never disfuades by impossibility, taught him to try him. And so he did. But, when he found by Catesby, who sounded him, that he was not fordable, be first resolved to kill him sitting in Council; wherein having failed with his Sword, he let the Hanginan upon him, with a weapon of more weight. And because nothing else could move bis appetite, he caused his head to be stricken off, before he eat his Dinner. A greater Judgment of God, than this upon Haltings, I have never observed in any Story. For, the self-same day that the Earl Rivers, Grey, and others, were (without trial of Law, or offence given) by Hastings advice executed at Pomfret; I say, Hastings himself, in the same day, and ( as I takeit) in the same hour, in the same lawless manner, had his Head struck off in the Tower of London. But Buckingham lived a while longer; and with an eloquent Oration perfuaded the Londoners to elect Richard for their King. And having received the Earldom down of Hereford for reward befides the hope of marrying his Daughter to the Kings onely Son: after many gricuous vexitions of mind, and unfortunate attempts, being in the end betraved and delivered up by his trustiest servant: he had his Head severed from his body at Salisbury. without the trouble of any of his Peers. And what success had Richard himself after all these mischievs and murthers, policies, and counter-policies to Christian Religion; and after such time as with a merciles hand be had pressed out the breath of his Nephews and Natural Lords, other than the prosperity of so short a life, as it took end, ere limself could well look over and discern it? the great out-cry of innocent bloud obtained at GOD'S hands the effusion of his; who became a spectacle of shame and dishonour both to his friends and enemies.

This cruel King, Henry the Seventh cut off; and was therein ( no doubt ) the immediate instrument of Gods Justice. Apolitick Prince he was, if ever there were any, who by the engine of his wildom, beat down and overturned as many strong oppositions, both before and after be wore the Crown as ever King of England did; I say, by his wildom, because, as he ever left the reins of his affections in the hands of his profit, so he always weighed his undertakings by his abilities, leaving nothing more to hazzard than so much as cannot be denied it in all humane actions. He had well observed the proceedings of Loys the Eleventh, whom he followed in all was royal, or royal-like; but he was farr more just, and begun not their processes whom he hated or feared by the execution, as Loys did.

He could never endure any mediation in rewarding his servants, and therein exceeding wife; for whatfoever himfelf gave be himfelf received back the thanks and the love knowing it well that the affections of men (purchased by nothing so readily as by benefits) were trains that better became great Kings, than great Subjects. On the contrary, in whatfoever he grieved his Subjects, he wifely put it off on those that he found fit ministers for such actions. Howseever, the taking off of Stanlies Head, who let the Crown on his, and the death of the young Earl of Warwick, Son to George Duke of Clarence, thems, as the success al'o did, that he held somewhat of the errors of his Ancestors; for his possession in the first Line ended in his Grand-child, as that of Edward the Third, and Henry the Fourth had done.

Now, for King Henry the Eighth, if all the Pictures and Patterns of a merciles Prince were lost in the World, they might all again be painted to the life, out of the Story of this King, For, how many servants did he advance in hast (but for what vertue no man could suspect) and with the change of his fancy ruined again; no man knowing for what offence? To how many others, of more defert, gave he abundant flowers from whence to gather Honey, and in the end of Harvest burnt them in the Hive? How many Wives did be cut off, and cast off, as his fancy and affection changed? How many Princes of the bloud (wherof some of them for age, could hardly crawl towards the block) with a world of others of all degrees ( of whom our common Chronicles have kept the accompt) did he execute? yea, in his very death-bed, and when he was at the point to give his accompt to GOD for the abundance of bloud already spilt: He imprisoned the Duke of Norfolk the Father; and executed the Earl of Surry the Son; the one, whose deserving he knew not how to value, having never omitted any thing that concerned his own honour, and the Kings service; the other never having committed any thing worthy of his least displeasure; the one exceeding valiant and advised; the other no less valiant than learned, and of excellent hope. But besides the sorrows which he heaped upon the Fatherleß Fatherless and Widows, at home; and besides the vain enterprises abroad; wherein it is thought that he confumed more treasure, than all our victorious Kings did in their several Conquests; what caullels and cruel warrs did be make upon his own Nephew King James the Fifth? What Laws and Wills did he devise to establish this Kingdom in his own Issues? using his sharpest weapons to cut off, and cut down those Branches, which strang from the same root that himself did. And in the end (notwithstanding these his so many irreligious provisions it bleased God to take away all his own, without increase; though, for themselves in their severalkinds. all Princes of eminent vertue. For these words of Samuel to Agag King of the Amalekites, bave been verified upon many others: As thy Sword hath made other women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among other women. And that bloud which the same King Henry affirmed, that the cold air of Scotland had frozen up in the North, God bath diffused by the Sun-shine of his grace; from whence his Majesty now living, and long to live, is descended. Of whom I may say it truly, That if all the malice of the World were infused into one eye; yet could it not discern in his life, even to this day, any one of those foul frots, by which the consciences of all the fore-named Princes (in effect) have been defiled; nor any drop of that innocent bloud on the Sword of his Julice, with which the most that fore-went him have stained both their hands and fame. And for this Crown of England, it may truly be avowed; that he hath received it even from the Hand of God, and hath staied the time of putting it on bowfoever he were provoked to hasten it: That he never took revenue of any man that fought to put him befide it; That he refused the assistance of Her enemies, that wore it long with as great glory as ever Princess did . That His Majesty entred not by a breach, nor by bloud; but by the Ordinary Gate, which his own right fet open; and into which, by a general love and chedience. He was received. And how soever His Majesty's preceding title to this Kingdom, was preferred by many Princes (witness the Treaty at Cambray in the year 1559.) yet he never pleased to dispute it, during the life of that renowned Lady his Predecessor; no. notwithstanding the injury of not being declared Heir, in all the time of her long Reign.

Neither ought we to forget, or neglect our thank fulness to God for the uniting of the Northern parts of Britanny to the South, to wit, of Scotland to England, which, though they were severed, but by small brooks and banks, yet, by reason of the long continued it arr, and the cruelties exercised upon each other in the affection of the Nations, they were infinitely severed, This, I (ay, is not the least of God's blessings which His Majesty hath brought with him unto this Land; No, put all our petty grievances together, and heap them up to the height, they will appear as a Mole-Hill, compared with the Mountain of this concord. And if all the Historians since then have acknowledged the uniting of the Red-Rose and the White, for the greatest happiness (Christian Religion excepted) that ever this Kingdom received from God, certainly, the peace between the two Lions of Gold and Gules, and the making them one, doth by many degrees exceed the former; for by it, besides the sparing of our British Bloud, heretofore, and during the difference, so often and abundantly shed, the state of England is more assured, the Kingdom more enabled to recover her antient honour and rights, and by it made more invincible, than by all our former alliances, practices, policies, and conquests. It is true, that hereof we do not yet find the effect. But, had the Duke of Parma, in the year 1588. joined the Army which he commanded, with that of Spain, and landed it on the South-coast; and had His Majesty at the same time declared himself against us in the North, it is easie to divine what had become of the Liberty of England; certainly, we would then, without murmure, have brought this Union a farr greater praise than it hath since cost us. It is true, that there was never any Common-weal, or Kingdom in the World, wherein no man had cause to lament. Kings live in the World, and not above it. They are not Instinite, to examine every man's cause, or to relieve every man's wants. And yet, in the later (though to his own prejudice) His Majesty hath had more compassion of other mens necessities, than of his own Cossers. Of whom it may be said, as of Solomon, Dedit Deus Solomoni latitudinem cordis; Which, if other men do not understand with Pineda, to be meant by Liberality, but by Latitude of knowledg; yet may it be better spoken of His Majesty, than of any live, but hat ever England had; who, as well in divine, as in humane understanding hath exceeded all that fore-went him, by many degrees. I could say much more of the Kings Majesty, without flattery: did I not fear the imputation of presumption, and withall sisseet, that it might befall these Papers of mine (though the loß were little) as it did the Pictures of Queen Elizabeth, made by unskilfull and common Painters, which, by her own commandment were knock'd in pieces, and cast into the fire. For ill Artists, in setting out the Beauty of the external; and weak Writers, in describing the Vertues of the internal; do often leave to Posterity, of well formed faces, a desormed memory; and of the most Perfect and Princely minds, a most desective Representation. It may suffice, and there needs no other discourse; if the bonest Reader but compare the cruel and turbulent passages of our former Kings, and of other their Neighbour-Princes (of whom, for that purpole I have inferted this brief Discourse) with His Majelties temperat, revengeless, and liberal disposition; I say, that if the honest Reader weigh them justly, and with an even hand; and withall, but bestow every deformed child on his true Parent; He shall find, that there is no man that hath so just a cause to complain, as the King himself hath. Now, as we have told the success of the trumperies, and cruelties of our own Kings, and other great Personages; so we find, that GOD is every where the same God. And, as it pleased him to punish the usurpation and unnatural cruelty of Henry the First and of our Third Edward, in their Children for many Generations: so dealt he with the Sons of Loys Debonaire, the Son of Charls the Great, or Charlemain. For after such time as Debonaire of France had torn out the eyes of Bernard his Nephew, the Son of Pepin, the eldest Son of Charlemaine, and Heir of the Empire, and then caused him to die in Prison, as did our Henry to Robert his elder Brother; there followed nothing but murthers upon murthers, poisoning, imprisonments, and civil Warr; till the whole Race of that famous Emperor was extinguished. And though Debonaire, after he had rid himself of his Nephew by a violent death, and of his bastard Brothers by a civil death (having inclosed them with sure guard all the days of their lives, within a Monastery) held himself secure from all opposition; jet God raised up against him (which he suspected not ) his own Sons, to vex bin, to invade him, to take him prisoner, and to depose him; his own Sons, with whom ( to satisfie their ambition) be had shared his estate, and given them Crowns to wear, and Kingdoms to govern, during his own life. Tea, his eldest Son Lothaire (for he had four, three by his first Wife, and one by his second; to wit, Lothaire, Pepin, Loys, and Charles) made it the cause of his deposition, that he had used violence toward his Brothers and Kinsmen; and that he had suffered his Nephew (whom he might have delivered) to be slain. Eo quod, saith the Text, fratribus & propinquis violentiam intulerit, & nepotem suum, quem sup Possition is pre liberare poterat, interfici permiserit; Because he used violence to his Brothers and Kinsmen, and suffered his Nephew to be slain, whom he might have delivered.

Tet did be that which few Kings do; namely, repent him of his cruelty. For, among many other things which be performed in the General Affembly of the States, it follows: Post hac autem palam se errasse consessions, & imitatus Imperatoris Theodosii exem-polim, penitentiam spontaneam suscept, tam de his, quam quæ in Bernardum proprium nepotem gesserat: After this, he did openly consess himself to have erred, and following the Example of the Emperor Theodosius, he underwent voluntary penance, as well for his other offences, as for that which he had done against Bernard his own Nephew.

This he did, and it was praife-worthy. But the bloud that is unjustly spilt, is not again gathered up from the ground by repentance. These Medicines, ministred to the dead, have but dead rewards.

The King, as I have faid, had four Sons. To Lothaire his eldest, he gave the Kingdom of Italy, as Charlemaine his Father had done to Pepin, the Eather of Bernard, who was to succeed him in the Empire. To Pepin, the second Son, he gave the Kingdom of Aquitaine; to Loys, the Kingdom of Bavier; and to Charls, whom he had by a second Wife, called Judith, the remainder of the Kingdom of France. But his second Wife, being a mother-in-law to the rest, persuaded Debonaire, to cash his Son Pepin out of Aquitaine; thereby so greaten Charls, which, after the death of his Son Pepin, he prosecuted to effect againsh his Grand-child bearing the same name. In the mean while, being invaded by his Son Loys of Bavier, he dies for grief.

Debonaire dead, Loys of Bavier, and Charles afterward, called the Bald, and their Nephew Pepin of Aquitaine, join in league against the Emperor Lothaire their eldest Brother. They fight near to Auxerre, the most bloudy battel that ever was strucken in France; in which, the marvellous loss of Nobility, and men of Warr, gave courage to the Saracens to invade Italy; to the Hunns to fall upon Almaine; and the Danes to enter upon Normandy. Charles the Bald by Treason seizeth upon his Nephew Pepin, kills him in a Cloyster; Carloman rebels against his Father, Charles the bald, the Father burns out the eys of his Son Carloman; Bavier invades the Emperor Lothaire, his Brother, Lothaire guits the Empire, he is affailed and wounded to the heart by his own conscience, for his Rebellion against his Father, and for his other cruelties, and dies in a Monastery. Charls the bald the Uncle, oppresset his Nephews, the Sons of Lothaire, he usurpeth the Empire, to the prejudice of Loys of Bavier, his elder Brother; Bavier's Armies, and his Son Carloman, are beaten, he dies of grief, and the Usurper Charles is poisoned by Zedechias a Jew, his Physician, his Son Loys le Beque dies of the same drink. Beque had Charles the fimple, and two Bastards, Loys and Carloman; they rebel against their Brother, but the eldest breaks his neck, the younger is slain by a wild Boar; the Son of Bavier had the same ill destiny, and brake his neck by a fall out of a Window in sporting with his companions.

Charls the grois becomes Lord of all that the Sons of Debonaire held in Germany; wherewith not contented, he invades Charles the fimple; but being for faken of his Nobility, of his Wife, and of his Understanding; he dies a distracted Beggar. Charles the simple is held in Wardship by Eudes, Major of the Palace, then by Robert, the Brother of Eudes; and lastly, being taken by the Earl of Vermandois, he is forced to die in the prison of Peron. Loys the Son of Charles the simple breaks his neck in chasing a Wolf; and of the two Sons of this Loys, the one dies of poison, the other dies in the Prison of Orleans; after whom, Hugh Capet, of another Race, and a stranger to the French, makes hinself King.

These miserable ends had the Issues of Debonaire; who after he had once apparelled Injustice with authority, his Sons and Successors took up the fashion,, and wore that Garment so long without other provision, as when the same was torn from their shoulders, every man despised them as miserable and naked Beggars. The wretched success they had (saith a Learned French-man) shews, Que en ceste mort il y avoit plus du fait des hommes que de Dieu, ou de la justice: That in the death of that Prince; to wit, of Bernard the Son of Pepin, the true Heir of Charlemain, men had more meddling than God or Justice had.

But to come nearer home; it is certain that Francis the First, one of the Worthiest Kings (except for that Fact) that ever the French-men had, did never enjoy himself, after he had commended the destruction of the Protestants of Mirandol, and Cabrieres, to the Parliament of Provence, which poor people were thereupon burnt and murthered; men, women, and children. It is true that the said King Francis repented himself of the sact, and gave charge to Henry his Son, to do Justice upon the murtherers, threatning his Son with GODS Judgments, if he neglected it. But this unseafonable care of his, God was not pleased to accept for payment. For after Henry was slain in sport by Montgomery, we all may remember what became of his sour Sons, Francis, Charles, Henry, and Hercules. Of which, although three of them became Kings, and were maried to beautiful and vertious Ladies; yet were they, one after another, cast out of the World, without Stock or Seed. And notwithstanding their subtilty, and breach of Faith; with all their Massacres upon those of the Religion, and great essentially, and breach of Faith; with all their Massacres upon those of the Religion, and great essentially, and breach of Faith; with all their Massacres upon those of the Religion, and great essentially and preach of Faith; with all their Massacres upon those of the Religion, and great essentially and preach of Faith; with all their Massacres upon those of the Religion, and great essentially and preach of Faith; with all their Massacres upon those of the Religion, and great essentially and preach of Faith; with all their Massacres upon those of the Religion, and great essentially and preach of Faith; with all their Massacres upon those of the Religion, and great essentially and preach of Faith; with all their Massacres upon those of the Religion of the Religion of the Religion of the Religion of the Religion of the Religion of the Religion of the Religion of the Religion of the Religion of the Religion of the Religion of the Religion of the Religion of

Let us now fee if God be not the fame God in Spain as in England and France. Towards whom we will look no further back than to Don Pedro of Castile,; in respect of which Prince, all the Tyrants of Sicil, our Richard the Third, and the great Evan Vasilowick of Moscovia, were but petty ones: this Castilian, of all the Christian and Heathen Kings, having been the most merciles. For besides those of his own Bloud and Nobility, which he had caused to be slain in his own Court and Chamber, as Sancho. Ruis; the great Masser of Calatrava, Ruis Gonsales, Alphonso Tello, and Don John of Arragon, whom he cut in pieces, and cast into the streets, denying him Christian burial: I say, besides the sexual the slaughter of Gomes Mauriques, Diego Peres, Alphonso Gomes, and the great Commander of Castile; he made away the two Insants of Arragon his Cousin-Germans, his Brother Don Frederick, Don John de la Cerde, Albuquergues, Nugnes de Guzman, Cornel, Cabrera, Tenorio, Mendes de Toledo, Guttiere his great Treasurer, and all bis Kinred; and a world of others. Neither did be spare his two youngest Brothers, innocent Princes, whom after he had kept in close Prison from their Cradles, till one of them had lived sixteen years, and the other fourteen; he murthered them there. Nay, he spared not his Mother, nor his Wise the Lady Blanch of Bourbon. Lastly, as he caused the Arch-hisspop of Toledo, and the Dean to be killed, of purpose to enjoy their Treasures; so did he put to death Mahomet Aben Alhamar, King of Barbary, with thirty seven of his Nobility, that came with so with a great summ of Money, to levy (by his savour) some Companies of Souldiers to return withall. Yea, he would needs assist the Hangman with his own hand, in the execution of the old King; in so much as Pope Urban declareth him an enemy both to God and Man. But what was his end? Having been formerly beaten out of his Kingdan, and re-established by the valour of the English Nation, led by the samous Duke of Lancaster; He was stabbed to death by his younger Brother, the Earl of Altramara, who dispossified all his Children of their Inheritance, which, but for their Fathers injustice and cruelty, had never been in danger of any such thing.

If we can parallel any man with this King, it must be Duke John of Burgoign, who, aster his trayterous murther of the Duke of Orleans, caused the Constable of Armagnac, the Chancellor of France, the Bishops of Constance, Bayeux, Eureux, Senlis, Saintes, and other religious and reverend Church-men, the Earl of gran Pre, Hector of Chartes, and (in effect) all the Officers of Justice of the Chamber of Accompts, Treasury, Requests (with sixteen others to accompany them) to be suddenly and violently slain. Hereby, while he hoped to govern, and to have mastered France; He was soon after strucken with an Axin the face, in the presence of the Dauphin; and, without any leisure to repent his misseeds, presently slain. These were the lovers of other mens miseries; and miseries found them out.

r.nch inven

Now, for the Kings of Spain, which lived both with Henry the Seventh, Henry the Eighth, Queen Mary, and Queen Elizabeth; Ferdinand of Arragon, was the first, and the first that laid the foundation of the present Austrian greatness. For this King did not content himself to hold Arragon by the usurpation of his Ancestor; and to sasten thereunto the Kingdom of Castile and Leon, which Isabel his Wife held by strong hand, and his assistance, from her own Neece, the Daughter of the last Henry; but most cruelly and crastily, without all colour or pretence of right, he also cast his own Neece out of the Kingdom of Navarre; and, contrary to Faith, and the Promise he made to restore it, fortisted the hest places, and so wasted the rest, as there was no means left for any Army to invade it. This King, I say, that betrayed also Ferdinand and Frederick, Kings of Naples, Princes of his own Bloud, and by double alliance tied unto him; sold them to the French; and with the same Army, sent for their succur under Gonsalvo, cast them out; and shared their Kingdom with the French, whom afterwards he most shamefully betrayed.

This wife and politick King, who fold Heaven and his own Honour, to make his Son the Prince of Spain, the greatest Monarch of the World; saw him die in the slower of his years; and his Wife great with child, with her untimely birth, at once and together buried. His eldest Daughter married unto Don Alphonso Prince of Portugal, beheld her sirst Husband break his neck in her presence; and being with child by her second, died with it. A just Judgment of God upon the Race of Alphonso, now wholly extinguished; who had not onely left many disconsolate Mothers in Portugal, by the slaughter of their children; but had sormerly slain with his own hand, the Son and onely comfort of his Aunt the Lady Beatrix, Dutches of Visco. The second Daughter of Ferdinand, married to the Arch-Duke Philip, turned fool, and died mad, and deprived. His third Daughter, bestowed on King Henry the Eighth, be faw cast off by the King; the Mother of many troubles in England; and the Mother of a Daughter, that in her unhappy zeal, shed a world of innocent bloud; lost Calice to the French; and died heart-broken without increase. To conclude, all those Kingdoms of Ferdinand have masters of a new name; and by a strange Family are governed and possess'd.

Charls the Fifth, Son to the Arch Duke Philip, in whose wain enterprises upon the French, upon the Almans and other Princes and States; so many multitudes of Christian Souldiers, and renowned Captains were consumed; who gave the while a most perillous enrance to the Turks, and suffered Rhodes, the Key of Christendom, to be taken; was in conclusion chased out of France, and, in a sort, out of Germany; and left to the French, Mentz, Toule, and Verdun, places belonging to the Empire, flole away from Infpurg; and scaled the Alpes by torch-light, persued by Duke Maurice; having hoped to swallow up all those Dominions; wherein he concocted nothing, save his own disgraces. submit 1.1. And having after the flaughter of fo many Millions of men, no one foot of ground in either, He crept into a Cloyster, and made himself a Pensioner of an bundred thousand Duckets by the year, to bis Son Philip, from whom he very flowly received his mean and ordinary maintenance.

His Son again, King Philip the Second, not fatisfied to hold Holland and Zeland, (wrested by his Ancestors from Jaqueline, their lawfull Princess) and to possess in peace many other Provinces of the Netherlands ; persuaded by that mischievous Cardinal of Granvile, and other Romish Tyrants; not onely forgot the most remarkable services, done to his Father the Emperor, by the Nobility of those Countreys, not onely forgot the Present made bin upon his entry of fourty Millions of Florens, called the Novaile aid; nor onely forgot that he had twice most solemnly sworn to the General States, to maintain and preserve their antient Rights, Privileges, and Customs, which they had enjoyed under their thirty and five Earls before him, Conditional Princes of those Provinces: but beginning first to constrain them, and enthral them by the Spanish Inquisition, and then to impoverish them by many new devised and intollerable Impositions, be lastly, by strong hand and main force, attempted to make himself not only an absolute Monarch over them, like unto the Kings and Soveraigns of England and France; but Turk-like, to tread under his feet all their Natural and Fundamental Laws, Privileges, and antient Rights. To effect which, after he had easily obtain from the Pope a dispensation of his former Oaths (which Dispensation was the true cause of the Warr and Bloudshed since then ;) and after he had tried what he could perform, by dividing of their own Nobility, under the Government of his base Sister, Margaret of Austria, and the Cardinal Granvile; He employed that most merciles Spaniard, Don Ferdinand Alvarez of Toledo, Duke of Alva, followed with a powerful Army of strange Nations; by whom he first slaughtered that renowned Captain, the Earl of Egmont, Prince of Gavare; and Philip Montmorency Earl of Horn; made away Montigue, and the Marques of Bergues, and cut off in those six years (that Alva Governed) of Gentlemen and others, eighteen thousand and six hundred, by the hands of the Hangman, besides all his other barbarous murthers and massacres. By whose ministery, when he could not yet bring his affairs to their wished ends, having it in his hope to work that by subtilty which he had failed to perform by force, He sent for Governour, bis bastard Brother, Don John of Austria: a Prince of great hope, and very gracious to those people. But he, using the same Papal advantage that his Predecesfors had done, make no scruple to take Oath upon the holy Evanoelists. to observe the Treaty made with the General States; and to discharge the Low-Countreys of all Spaniards, and other strangers therein garrisoned; Towards whose Pay and Pasport, the Netherlands strained themselves to mak a payment of 600000. pounds. Which Moneys received, he suddenly surprised the Citadels of Antwerp and Nemures, not doubting (being unsuspected by the States) to have possessed himself of all the mastering places of those Proninces. For what soever he overtly pretended, he held in secret a contrary counsel with the Secretary Escovedo, Rhodus, Barlemont, and others, Ministers of the Spanish Tyranny formerly practifed, and now again intended. But let us now fee the effect and end of this perjury, and of all other the Duke's cruelties. First, for himself; after he had murthered so many of the Nobility; executed (as aforesaid) eighteen thousand six hundred in six years, and most cruelly slain Man, Woman, and Child in Mecklin, Zutphen, Narden, and other places; and after he had confumed six and thirty Millions of treasure in six years, notwithstanding his Spanish vaunt, That he would sufficate the Holanders in their own Butterbarrels, and Milk-tubs; He departed the Countrey no otherwise accompanied, than with the curse and detestation of the whole Nation; leaving His Majesties Assairs in a ten-fold worse estate than be found them at his first arrival. For Don John, whose haughty conceit of himfelf overcame the greatest difficulties; though his judgment were over-weak to mannage the least: What wonders did his fearful breach of faith bring forth, other than the King his Brothers jealousie and distrust, with the untimely death that seized on him, even in the flower of his youth? And for Escovedo his sharp-witted Secretary, who in his own imagination had conquered for bis Master, both England and the Netherlands; being sent into Spain upon some new project, he was at the first arrival, and before any access to the King, by certain Ruffians, appointed by Anthony Peres (though by better warrant than his) rudely murthered in his own lodging. Lastly, if we consider the King of Spain's carriage, his counsel and success in this business, there is nothing left to the memory of Man more remarkable. For he bath paid above an hundred Millions, and the lives of above four hundred thousand Chrislians, for the loss of all those Countreys, which, for beauty, gave place to none; and for revenue, did equal his West-Indies; for the loss of a Nation which most willingly obeyed bim; and who, at this day, after fourty years Warr, are, in despight of all his forces, become a free Estate, and farr more rich and powerfull than they were, when he first began to impoverish and oppress them.

Oh! by what plots, by what for-swearings, betrayings, oppressions, imprisonments, tortures, poisonings, and under what reasons of State, and politick subtilty, have these fore-named Kings, both strangers, and of our own Nation, pulled the vengeance of GOD upon themselves, upon theirs, and upon their prudent ministers! and in the end, have brought those things to pass for their enemies, and seen an effect so directly contrary to all their own counsels and cruelties; as the one could never have hoped for themselves; and the other never have succeeded; if no such opposition had ever been made. GOD hath said it, and performed it ever. Perdam sapientiam sapientum; I will destroy the wisdom of the wise.

But what of all this? and to what end do we lay before the eyes of the living, the fall and fortunes of the dead; seeing the world is the same that it hath been; and the children of the present time, will still obey their Parents? It is in the present time, that all the wits of the World are exercised. To hold the times we have, we hold all things lawfull; and either we hope to hold them for ever; or at least we hope, that there is nothing after them to be hoped for. For, as we are content to forget our own experience, and to counterfeit the ignorance of our own knowledg, in all things that concern our selves; or persuade our selves, that GOD hath given us Letters Patents to persue all our irreligious affections, with a Non obstante : so we neither look behind us what hath been, nor before us what shall be. It is true, that the quantity which we have, is of the body: we are by it joined to the earth; we are compounded of earth; and we inhabit it. The Heavens are high, farr off, and unfearchable; we have sense and feeling of corporal things; and of eternal grace, but by revelation. No marvel then that our thoughts are also earthly; and it is less to be wondred at, that the words of worthles men cannot cleanse them; seeing their doctrine and instruction, whose understanding the Holy Ghost vouchsafed to inhabit, have not performed it. For, as the Prophet Efay cried out long agone, Lord, who hath believed our reports? And out of doubt. as Esay complained then for himself and others: so are they less believed, every day after other. For, although Religion, and the truth thereof, be in every man's mouth, yea, in the discourse of every woman, who, for the greatest number are but Idols of Vanity; what is it other than an universal dissimulation? We profess that we know GOD, but by works we deny him. For Beatitude doth not confift in the knowledg of divine things, but in a divine life: for the Devils know them better than men. Beatitudo non est divinorum cognitio, fed vita divina. And certainly, there is nothing more to be admired, and more to be lamented, than the private contention, the passionate dispute, the personal hatred, and the perpetual warr, massacres, and murthers, for Religion among Christians; the discourse whereof bath so occupied the World, as it bath well near driven the practice thereof out of the World. Who would not soon resolve, that took knowledg but of the religious disputations among men, and not of their lives which dispute, that there were no other thing in their desires, than the purchase of Heaven; and that the World it self were but used as it ought, and as an Inne. or place wherein to repose our selves in passing on towards our Celestial habitation? when on the contrary, besides the Discourse and outward prosession, the Soul hath nothing but hypocrisie. We are all (in effect) become Comadians in Religion; and while we act in gesture and voice, divine vertues, in all the course of our lives, we renounce our Persons, and the parts we play For Charity, Justice, and Truth, have but their being in tearms, like the Philosophers Materia prima.

Neither is it that wisdom, which Solomon defineth to be the School-Mistress of the Knowledg of God, that hath valuation in the World; it is enough that we give it our good word: but the same which is altogether exercised in the service of the World, as the gathering of riches chiefly, by which we purchase and obtain bonour, with the many respects.

which attend it. These indeed be the marks, which (when we have bent our consciences to the highest) we all shoot at. For the obtaining whereof it is true, that the care is our own; the care our own in this life, the peril our own in the future; and yet, when we have gathered the greatest abundance, we our selves enjoy no more thereof, than so much as belongs to one man. For the reft, He that had the greatest wisdom, and the greatest ability, that ever man bad, bath told us, that this is the use: When goods increase ( saith Solomon) they also records it increase that eat them; and what good cometh to the Owners, but the beholding thereof with their eyes? As for those that devour the rest, and sollow us in fair weather; they again for lake us in the first tempest of missortune, and steer away before the Sea and Wind: leaving us to the malice of our destinies. Of these among a thousand Examples, I will take but one out of Master Dannet, and wse his own words: Whilest the Emperor Charles the Fifth, after the refignation of his estates, stayed at Uloshing for Wind, to carry him his last journey into Spain; He conferred on a time with Seldius, his Brother Ferdinand's Embaffador, till the deep of the night. And when Seldius should depart; the Emperor calling for some of his fervants, and no body answering him, (for those that attended upon him, were some gone to their lodgings, and all the restassep) the Emperor took up the Candle himself, and went before Seldius, to light him down the Stairs; and fo did, notwithstanding all the refistance that Seldius could make. And when he was come to the Stairs foot, he faid thus unto him: Seldius, remember this of Charles the Emperor, when he shall be dead and gone, That Him, whom thou hast known in thy time environed with so many mighty Armies and Guards of Souldiers, thou haft also seen alone, abandoned, and for laken, yea, even of his own fervants, &c. I acknowledg this change of Fortune to proceed from the mighty hand of GOD, which I will by no means go about to withfland.

But you will say, that there are some things else, and of greater regard than the sorner. The first is, the reverend respect that is held of Great Men, and the Honour done unto them by all sorts of people. And it is true indeed: provided, that an inward love for their Justice and Piety, accompany the outward worship given to their places and power; without which, what is the applause of the Multitude, but as the out-cry of an Herd of Animals, who, without the knowledg of any true cause, please themselves with the noise they make? For, seeing it is a thing exceeding rare to distinguish Virtue and Fortune; the most impious (if prosserous) have ever been applauded; the most vertuous (if unprosperous) have ever been deshied. For, as Fortunes man rides the Horse, so Fortune her self rides the Man. Who, when he is descended, and on soot; the Man taken from his Deast, and Fortune from the Man; a base Groom beats the one, and a bitter contempt spurns at the other, with equal liberty.

The second is, the greatning of our Posterity, and the contemplation of their glory whom we leave behind us. Certainly, of those which conceive that their Souls departed take any comfort therein, it may truly be said of them, which Lactantius spake of certain Heathen Philosophers; Quod sapientes sunt in restulta. For, when our spirits immortal shall be once separate from our mortal bodies, and disposed by GOD; there remaineth in them no other joy of their Posterity which succeed, than there doth of pride in that stone, which sleeped in the Wall of a King's Palace, nor any other sorrow for their poverty, than there doth of

Paul to Titus

The Preface.

S. A. R. var spane in that, which beareth up a Beggars cottage. Nesciunt mortui, etiam sancti, quid agunt vivi, etiam eorum filii, quia animæ mortuorum rebus viventium non interfunt; The dead, though holy, know nothing of the living, no, not of their own children; for the Souls of those departed, are not conversant with their affairs Too 14 21. that remain. And if we doubt of Saint Augustine, we cannot of Job; swho tells us, That we know not if our Sons shall be honourable; neither shall we understand concerning them, whether they shall be of low degree. Which Ecclesiastes also confirmeth; Man walketh in a shadow, and disquieteth himself in vain ; he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them. The living (faith be) know that they shall die, but the dead know nothing at all; for, who can flew unto man, what shall be after him under the Sun? He therefore accounteth it among the rest of worldly vanities, to labour and travel in the World; not knowing after death, whether a fool or a wife man should enjoy the fruits thereof; which made me (faith he) endeavour even to abhorr mine own labour. And what can other men hope, whose blessed or sorrowfull estates after death, God bath reserved? Mans knowledg bying but in his hope, seeing the Prophet Esay con-Eff. 6; 14. feffeth of the Elect, That Abraham is ignorant of us, and Ifrael knows us not. But hereof we are assured, that the long and dark night of death of whose following day we shall never behold the dawn till his return that bath triumphed over it) shall cover us over till the world be no more. After which, and when we shall again receive Organs glorified, and incorruptible, the seats of Angelical affections; in so great admiration shall the Souls of the bleffed be exercifed, as they cannot admit the mixture of any second or less joy; nor any return of forgone and mortal affection towards Friends, Kinred, or Children. Of whom, whether we shall retain any particular knowledg, or in any sort distinguish them, no man can affure us; and the wifest men doubt. But on the contrary; If a divine life retain any of those faculties, which the Soul exercised in a mortal body; we shall not at that time so divide the joys of Heaven, as to cast any part thereof on the memory of their felicities which remain in the World. No, be their estates greater than ever the World gave, we shall (by the difference known unto us) even detest their consideration. And whatsoever comfort shall remain of all forepast, the same will consist in the charity, which we exercised living: and in that Piety, Justice, and firm Faith, for which it pleased the Institute Mercy of God to accept of us, and receive us. Shall we therefore value bonour and riches at nothing? and neglect them, as unnecessary and vain? Certainly, no. For that Infinite Wifdom of God, which bath diftinguished his Angels by degrees; which bath given greater and less light and beauty to beavenly bodies; which bath made differences between Beasts and Birds; created the Eagle, and the Flie, the Cedar, and the Shrub; and among Stones, given the fairest tincture to the Ruby, and quickest light to the Diamond; bath also ordained Kings, Dukes, or Leaders of the people; Magistrates, Judges, and other degrees among men. And, as Honour is left to Posterity, for a mark and ensign of the vertue and understanding of their Ancestors; so (seeing Siracides preserved Death before Beggary; and, that Titles, without proportionable estates, fall under the miserable succour of other mens pity) I account it foolishness to condemn such a care; Provided, that worldly goods be well gotten, and that we raise not our own buildings out of other mens ruines. For, as Plato doth first preferr the perfection of bodily health; second-pendetes 1.2 ly, the form and beauty; and thirdly, Divitias nulla fraude quæfitas : fo Jeremy cries, Wo unto them that erect their houses by unrighteousness, and their chambers without Jen. 22. 13. equity; And Esay the same, Wo to those that spoil, and were not spoiled. And it was 65333 out of the true wisdom of Solomon, that he commandeth us, not to drink the Wine of vio- Prop. 13, 152, lence; not to lie in wait for bloud; and not to swallow them up alive, whose riches we 3, 8, 0 23. covet; for such are the ways ( saith be) of every one that is greedy of gain.

And, if we could afford our selves but so much leisure, as to consider, That he which bath most in this world, bath in respect of the world, nothing in it; and that he which hath the longest time lent him to live in it, bath yet no proportion at all therein, setting it either by that which is past, when we were not, or by that time which is to come, in which we shall abide for ever; I fay, if both, to wit, our proportion in the World, and our time in the World. differ not much from that which is nothing, it is not out of any excellency of understanding, that we so much prise the one, which hath (in effect) no being; and so much neglect the other, which bath no ending; covering those mortal things of the World, as if our Souls were therein immortal, and neglecting those things which are immortal, as if our selves, after the World. were but mortal.

But let every man value his own wisdom, as he pleaseth. Let the rich man think all fools, that cannot equal his abundance; the Revenger efteem all negligent, that have not troden down their opposites; the Politician all groß, that cannot Merchandize their faith: Tet, when we once come in fight of the Port of death, to which all winds drive us, and when, by letting fall that fatal Anchor, which can never be weighed again, the navigation of this life takes end; Then it is, I say, that our own cogitations (those sad and severe cogitations, formerly beaten from us by our Health and Felicity) return again, and pay us to the uttermost for all the pleasing passages of our lives past. It is then that we cry out to God for mercy; then, when our selves can no longer exercise cruelty to others; and it is onely then, that we are strucken through the Soul with this terrible Sentence, That God will not be mocked. Gal. 6. 71 For if, according to S. Peter, The righteous scarcely be faved: and that God spared , Fa 4. not his Angels; where shall those appear, who, having served their appetites all their lives, presume to think, that the severe Commandments of the All-powerfull God were given but in sport; and that the short breath, which we draw when death presset us, if we can but fashion it to the sound of Mercy (without any kind of satisfaction or amends) is sufficient? O quam multi, saith a reverend Father, cum hac spe ad æternos labores & bella descendunt! I confest, that it is a great comfort to our friends, to have it said, That we ended well; for we all desire ( as Balaam did ) to die the death of the righteous. But, what shall we call a dis-esteeming, an opposing, or (indeed) a mocking of God; if those men do not oppose him, dis-esteem him, and mock him, that think it enough for God, to ask him forgiveness at leisure, with the remainder and last drawing of a malicious breath? For, what do they otherwise, that die this kind of well-dying, but say unto God, as followeth? We befeech thee, O God, that all the fallhoods, for swearings, and treacheries of our lives past, may be pleasing unto thee; that thou wilt for our sakes (that have had no leisure to do any thing for thine) change thy nature (though impossible) and forget to be a just God;

that thou wilt love injuries and oppressions, call ambition wisdom, and charity sociishness. For I shall prejudice my Son (which I am resolved not to do) if I make restitution; and confels m felf to have been unjust (which I am too proud to do) if I deliver the oppressed. Certainly these wise worldlings have either found out a new God, or made One; and in all likelihood such a Leaden One, as Lewis the Eleventh ware in his Cap; which, when he had caused and that he feared or hated to be killed, be would take it from his head, and kill it; befeeching it to pardon him this one evil all more, and it should be the last; which (as at other times) he did, when by the practice of a Cardinal, and a fallified Sacrament, he caused the Earl of Armagnac to be flabbed to death; mockeries indeed, fit to be used towards a Leaden, but not towards the Everliving GOD. But of this composition are all devout lovers of the World. that they fear all that is dureless and ridiculous; they fear the plots and practices of their opposites, and their very whisperings; they fear the Opinions of men, which beat but upon shadows: they flatter and for fake the prosperous and unprosperous, be they Friends or Kings; yea, the dive under water, like Ducks, at every pebble-stone, that is but thrown towards them by a powerful hand; and on the contrary, they shew an obstinate and Giant-like valour against the terrible judgments of the All-powerfull God; yea, they shew themselves Gods against God, and Slaves towards men; towards men, whose bodies and consciences are alike rotten.

Now, for the rest; If we truly examine the difference of both conditions; to wit, of the rich and mighty, whom we call fortunate; and of the poor and oppressed, whom we accompt wretched: we shall find the hapiness of the one, and the miserable estate of the other, so tied by God to the very instant, and both so subject to enterchange (witness the sudden downfall of the exertel Princes, and the speediest uprising of the meanest persons) as the one hath nothing so certain, whereof to boast; nor the other so uncertain, whereof to bewail it self. For, there is no man fo affured of his honour, of his riches, health, or life; but that he may be deprived of either, or all, the very next hour, or day to come. Quid vesper vehat, incertum eft; What the evening will bring with it, it is uncertain. And yet ye cannot tell (faith S. James) what shall be to morrow. To day he is set up, and to morrow he shall not be found; for he is turned into dust, and his purpose perisheth. And although the air which compasseth adversity, be very obscure; yet therein we better discern God, than in that shining light which environeth worldly glory; through which, for the clearneß thereof, there is no vanity which escapeth our sight. And let adversity seem what it will; to happy men ridiculous, who make themselves merry at other mens missortunes; and to those under the cross, grievous: yet this is true, That for all that is past, to the very inflant, the portions remaining are equal to either. For, be it that we have lived many years, and (according to Solomon) in them all we have rejoyced; or be it that we have measured the same length of days, and therein have evermore sorrowed; yet, looking back from our present being, we find both the one and the other; to wit, the joy and wo, sailed out of fight; and death, which doth perfue us, and hold us in chace, from our infancy, hath gathered it. Quicquid ætatis retro est, mors tenet; Whatsoever of our age is past death holds it. So, as whosoever he be, to whom Fortune hath been a servant, and the Time a friend; let him but take the accompt of his memory ( for we have no other keeper of our pleasures past) and truly examine what he hath reserved, either of Beauty and Touth, or fore-sone delights; what it bath faved, that it might last, of his dearest affections, or of whatever else the amorous Spring-time gave his thoughts of contentment, then unvaluable; and he shall find that all the Art which his elder years have, can draw no other vapour out of these dissolutions, than heavy, secret, and sad sights. He shall find nothing remaining, but those forrows, which grow up after our fast-springing youth, over-take it, when it is at a stand; and over-top it utterly, when it begins to wither; in so much as looking backfrom the very instant time, and from our now being, the poor, diseased, and captive creature, hath as little sense of all his sormer miscries and pains, as he, that is most bless d in common Opinion, hath of his fore-passed pleasure and delights. For whatsoever is cast behind us, is just nothing; and what is to come, deceitfull hope hath it: Omnia quæ eventura sunt, in incerto jacent. Onely those sew black Swans I must except; who, having had the grace to value worldly vanities at no more than their own price; do, by retaining the comfortable memory of a well-acted life, behold death without dread, and the grave without fear, and embrace both, as necessary guides to endless glory.

For my felf, this is my confolation, and all that I can offer to others, that the forrows of this life are but of two forts; whereof the one hath respect to GOD; the other to the World. In the first, we complain to GOD against our selves, for our offences against him; and confess. Et tu justus es in omnibus que venerunt super nos: And thou, O Lord, art just in all that hath befallen us. In the second, we complain to our selves against GJD; as if he had done us wrong, either in not giving us worldly goods and honours, answering our appetites; or for taking them from us having had them; forgetting that bumble and just acknowledgment of Job, The Lord hath given, and the Lord hath taken. To the first of which, S. Paul hath promised bleffedness; to the second, death. And out of doubt, he is either a fool, or ingrateful to GOD, or both, that doth not acknowledge, low mean soever his estate be, that the same is yet farr greater, than that which God oveth him; or doth not aknowledg, how sharp soever his afflictions be, that the same are yet farr less, than those which are due unto him. And if an Heathen wise man call the adversities of the World but tributa vivendi; the tributes of living: a wife Christian man ought to know them, and bear them as the tributes of offending. He ought to bear them man-like, and resolvedly, and not as those whining Souldiers do, Qui gementes sequentur Imperatorem. For seeing God, who is the Author of all our Tragedies, hath written out for us,

For feeing God, who is the Author of all our Iragedies, hath written out for us, and appointed us all the parts we are to play; and hath not, in their distribution, been partial to the most mighty Princes of the World; That gave unto Davius the part of the greatest Emperor, and the part of the most migrable Beggar; a Beggar, begging Water of an Enemy to quench the great drought of death; That appointed Bajazet to play the Grand Seignior of the Turks in the morning, and in the same day, the Foottool of Tamerlane (both which parts Valerian had also played, being taken by Sapores) that made Bellisarius play the most victorious Captain, and lastly, the part of a blind Beggar; of which, examples of many thousands may be produced: why should other men, who are but as the least Worms, complain of wrongs? Certainly, there is no other accompt to be made of this ridiculous World, than to resolve, That the change of Fortune on the great Theatre, is but as the change of Garments on the less. For, when on the one and the other, every man wears but his own skin, the Players are all alike. Now, if any man out of weakness prise the passages of this world otherwise (for, Saith Petrarch, Magni ingenii est revocare mentem a sensibus) it is by reason of that unhappy fantasse of ours, which forgeth in the brains of Man all the miseries (the corporal excepted) whereunto he is subject. Therein it is, that Misfortune and Adversity work all that they work. For, seeing Death, in the end of the Play, takes from all, what soever Fortune or Force takes from any one; it were a foolish madness in the Shipwrack of worldly things, where all finks but the Sorrow, to save it. That were, as Seneca saith, Fortunæ succumbere, quod tristius est omni fato; To fall under Fortune, of all other, the most miserable destiny.

But it is now time to found a retreat, and to defire to be excused of this long persuit; and withall, that the good intent, which hath moved me to draw the Picture of time past (which we call History) in so large a Table, may also be accepted in place of a better

The examples of divine Providence, every where found (the first divine Histories being nothing else but a continuation of such examples) have persuaded me to setch my beginning from the beginning of all things; to wit, Creation. For, though these two glorious actions of the Almighty be so near, and (as it were) linked together, that the one necessarily implies the other; Creation inferring Providence (for what father for faketh the child that he hath begotten?) and Providence presupposing Creation; Tet many of those that have seemed to exact in worldly wisdom, have gone about to dis-join this coherence; the Epicure denying both Creation and Providence, but granting that the World had a beginning; the Aristotelian granting Providence, but denying both the Creation and the Beginning.

Now, although this doctrine of Faith, touching the Creation in time (for, by Faith, we understand that the World was made by the Word of God) be too neighty a work for Aristotle's rotten ground to bear up, upon which be hath (notwithstanding) founded the Desences and Fortresses of all his Verbal Dostrine; yet that the necessity of Instinite power, and the World's beginning, and the impossibility of the contrary, even in the judgment of Natural reason, wherein he believed, had not better informed him; it is greatly to be marvelled at. And it is no less strange, that those men which are desirous of knowledg (seeing Aristotle bath failed in this main point; and taught little other than tearms in the rest) have so retrench'd their minds from the following and overtaking of Truth, and so absolutely subjected themseves to the law of those Philosophical Principles; as all contrary kind of teaching, in the fearch of causes, they have condemned, either for phantastical, or curious. But doth it follow, that the Positions of Heathen Philosophers are undoubtedly Grounds and Principles indeed, because so called? Or, that ipfi dixerunt, doth make them to be such? Certainly no. But this is true, That where natural reason hath built any thing so strong against it felf, as the same reason can bardly assail it, much less batter it down: the same in every question of Nature, and infinite power, may be approved for a fundamental Law of bumane knowledg. For, faith Charron, in bis Book of Wisdom, Tout proposition humaine a autant d'authorite quel'autre, si la raison n'on fait la difference; Every humane proposition hath equal authority, if reason make not a difference: the rest, being but the Fables of Principles. But hereof, how shall the upright and impartial judgment of man give a Sentence, where opposition and examination are not admitted to give in evidence? And, to this purpose, it was well said of Lactantius, Sapientiam fibi adimunt, qui fine ullo judicio inventa majorum probant, & ab aliis pecudum more ducumtur; They neglect their own wildom, who without any judgment approve the invention of those that fore-went them; and suffer themselves, after the manner of Bealts, to be led by them. By the advantage of which sloth and dulness, ignorance is now become so powerfull a Tyrant, as it bath set true Philosophy, Physick and Divinity in a Pillory; and written over the first, Contra negantem principia; over the second, Virtus specifica; and over the third, Ecclesia Romana.

But for my self, I shall never be persuaded, that God bath shut up all the light of Learning within the Lamborn of Aristotle's brains; or, that it was ever said unto him, as unto Esdras, Accendam in corde tuo Lucernam intellectus; That God hath given invention but to the Heathen, and that they onely invaded Nature, and found the strength and bottom thereof: the same Nature having consumed all her store, and left nothing of price to afterages. That these, and these, be the causes of these and these effects, Time hath taught us; and not Reason; and so bath Experience without Art. The Cheef-wife knoweth it as well as the Philosopher, that sowre Rennet doth coagulate her Milk into a Curd. But, if we ask a reafon of this cause, why the sowreness doth it? whereby it doth it? and the manner how? I think that there is nothing to be found in oulgar Philosophy, to satisfie this, and many other like vulgar questions. But man, to cover his ignorance in the least things, who cannot give a true reason for the Grass under his feet, why it should be green rather than red, or of any other colour; that could never yet discover the way and reason of Nature's working, in those which are farr less noble Creatures than himself; who is farr more noble than the Heavens themselves: Man (faith Solomon) that can hardly discern the things that are upon the upa. t. 9. Earth, and with great labour find out the things that are before us; that bath so short a time in the World, as he no fooner begins to learn, than to die; that hath in his memory but borrowed knowledg; in his understanding nothing truly; that is ignorant of the Essence of his own Soul, and which the wifest of the Naturalists (if Aristotle be he) could never so much as define, but by the Action and Effect, telling us what it works (which all men know as well as he) but not what it is, which neither he, nor any elfe doth know, but GOD that created it ( For though I were perfect, yet I know not my Soul, faith Job.) Man, I say, that is but an Idiot in the next cause of his own life, and in the cause of all actions of his life: will (notwithstanding) examine the Art of GOD in creating the felt of World; of GOD, who (faith Job) is so excellent as we know him not; and examine the beginning of the work, which had end before Mankind had a beginning of being. He will disable God's power to make a World, without matter to make it of. He will rather give the Motes of the Air for a cause; cast the work on necessity or chance; bestow the honour thereof on Nature; make two powers, the one to be the Author of the Matter, the other of Form; and lastly, for want of a work-man, have it Eternal; which latter Opinion Aristotle, to make himself the Author of a new Doctrine, brought into the World; and bis Sectators have maintained it; Parati ac conjurati, quos sequuntur Philosophiorumanimis invictis opiniones tueri. For Hermes, who lived at once with, or foon after Moles.

Latt. 5

all the Rivers in the World, though they have divers rifings, and divers runnings; though they sometimes hide themselves for a while under ground, and seen to be lost in Sea-like Lakes; do at lass find, and fall into, the great Ocean: so after all the searches that humane capacity bath; and after all Philosophical contemplation and ceriosity, in the necessity of this Infinite power, all the reason of Man ends and dissolves it self. As for others: and first touching those which conceive the matter of the World to have been eternal, and, that God did not create the World, ex nihilo, but ex materia præexistence: the Sun Stion is so weak, as is hardly worth the answering. For (saith Eusebius) Mihi vi reas qui hoc dicunt, fortunam quoque Deo annectere; They feem unsufficiences to me, which affirm this, to give part of the work to God, and part to Fortune; in fo much ast, God had not found this first matter by chance, He had never been Author, nor Poster, nor Costor, nor Lord of the Universal. For were the Matter or Chaos eternal; it then follows, The either this supposed Matter did fit it self to God, or God accommodate bimself to the matter. For the first; it is impossible, that things without sense could proportion themselves to the Work-mans Will. For the second; it were horrible to conceive of God, That as an Artificer be applied himself, according to the proportion of matter which he lighted upon.

But let it be supposed, That this matter bath been made by any Power, not Omnipotent, and infinitely wife; I wood gladly learn how it came to paß, that the fame was proportionable to his intention, that was Omnipotent, and infinitely wife; and no more, nor no lefs, than ferved to receive the form of the Universal. For, had it wanted any thing of what was sufficient; then must it be granted, That God created out of nothing so much of new matter, as served to finish the work of the World: Or, had there been more of this matter than sufficed, then God did dissolve and annibilate whatsoever remained and was superstuous. And this must every reasonable Soul confess, That it is the same work of God alone, to create any thing out of nothing, And by the same Art and Power, and by none other, can those things, or any part of that eternal matter, he again changed into Nothing; by which those things, that once were nothing, obtained a beginning of being.

Again, to say that this matter was the cause of it self; this, of all other, were the greatest Idiotism. For, if it were the cause of it self at any time; then there was also a time when it self was not; at which time of not being, it is easie enough to conceive, that it could neither procure it felf, nor any thing elfe. For to be, and not to be, at once, is The Preface.

into lible. Nihil autem seipsum præcedit, neque seipsum componit corpus; There is nothing that doth precede it felf, neither do bodies compound themselves. For the rest. Those that feign this matter to be eternal, must of necessity confess, that Infinite cannot be separate from Eternity. And then had infinite matter left no place for infinite form; but that the first matter was finite, the form which it received proves it. For conclusion of this part, whosoever will make choice, rather to believe in eternal deformity, or in eternal dead matter, than in eternal light, and eternal life; let eternal death be bis reward. For, it is a madness of that kind, as wanteth terms to express it. For what reason of man (whom the curse of presumption bath not stupisted) hath doubted, That infinite power (of which we can comprehend but a kind of shadow; quia comprehensio est intra terminos, qui infinito repugnant) bath any thing wanting in it felf either for matter or form; yea, for as many worlds (if such had been Gods will) as the Sea hath sands? For where the power is without limitation, the work hath no other limitation than the workman's will. Yea, Reason it self finds it more easie for Infinite power, to deliver from it self a finite world, without the help of matter prepared; than for a finite man, a fool and dust, to change the form of matter made to his hands. They are Dionifius his words; Dous in una canto 22. existentia omnia præhabet; and again, Esse omnium est ipsa Divinitas, omne quod vides, & quod non vides; towit, causaliter, or in better terms, non tanquam forma, sed tanquam causa universalis. Neither bath the World Universal closed up all of GOD: For the most part of his works (faith Siracides) are hid. Neither can the depth of his Wildom be opened by the glorious work of the World; which never brought to knowledg all it can; for then were his infinite power bounded, and made finite. And hereof it comes, That we feldom entitle G O D The All-shewing; or The All-willing; but the Almighty, that is, infinitely able. But now for those, who from that ground, That out of nothing, nothing is made, inferr the Worlds eternity; and yet not so salvage therein, as those are, which give an eternal being to dead matter: It is true, if the word [ Nothing 7 be taken in the affirmative; and the making, imposed upon Natural Agents and finite power; That out of nothing, nothing is made. But seeing their great Doctor, Aristotle himself confesseth, Quod omnes Antiqui decreverunt quafi quoddam rerum principium, ipfumque infinitum: That all the Antient decree a kind of beginning, and the same to be infinite; and a little after, more largely, and plainly, Principium ejus est nullum, sed ipsum omnium cernitur esse principium, ac omni complecti ac regere : it is strange, that this Philosopher, : 9 ex str st. with his followers, should rather make choice out of falshood, to conclude falsly; than out 2001. 1. 200 of truth, to resolve truly. For, if we compare the World Universal, and all the unmeasureable Orbs of Heaven, and those marvellous bodies of the Sun, Moon, and Starrs, with ipsum Infinitum, it may truly be faid of them all, which himself affirms of his imaginary Materia prima, That they are neither quid, quale, nor quantum; and therefore to bring finite (which hath no proportion with infinite) out of infinite (qui destruit omnen proportionem) is no wonder in Gods power. And therefore, Anaximander, Melissus, and

Empedocles, call the World Universal, but, particulam Universitatis & infinitatis; a parcel of that which is the Universality, and the Infinity it self: And Plato, but a shadow of God. But the other, to prove the World's eternity, urgeth this Maxime. That, A fufncient and effectual cause being granted an answerable effect thereof is also granted. Inferring, that God being for ever a sufficient and effectual cause of the World, the effect of the cause should also have been for ever; to wit, the World universal. But what a strange mockery is this in so great a Master, to confess a sufficient and effectual cause of the World (to wit, an Almighty God) in his Antecedent; and the same God to be a God restrained in his Conclusion; to make God free in power, and bound in will; able to effect, unable to determine: able to make all things, and yet unable to make choice of the time when? For this were impiously to resolve of God, as of natural necessity; which hath neither choice, nor will, nor understanding; which cannot but work, matter being present: As Fire, to burn things combustible. Again, be thus disputeth, That every Agent which can work, and doth not work, if it afterward work, it is either thereto moved by it felf, or by somewhat else: and so it passets from power to act: But God (saith he) is immovable, and is neither moved by bimself, nor by any other; but being always the same, doth always work. Whence he concludeth. If the World were caused by God, that he was for ever the cause thereof; and there-Mer. Fidh. de opus, vita æquali est Architecto, fuit semper cum illo, eritque semper. Mundus mediale.c.i. autem corporalis, quod secundum opus est Dei, decedit jam ab opisice ex parte fore eternal. The answer to this is very easie; For that God's performing in due time that, which he ever determined at length to perform, doth not argue any alteration or change, but rather conflancy in him. For the same action of his will, which made the World for ever, did also with-hold the effect to the time ordained. To this answer, in it self sufficient, others add further, that the Pattern or Image of the World may be faid to be eternal; which the Platonicks call Spiritualem mundum; and do in this fort distinguish the Idea and Creation in time. Spiritualis est mundus, mundi hujus exemplar, primumque Dei una, quia non fuit semper; retinet alteram, quia sit semper futurus: That reprefentative, or the intentional word ( fay they ) the famplar of this visible world, the first work of GOD, was equally antient with the Architect; for it was for ever with him and ever shall be. This material world, the second work or creature of GOD, doth differ from the Worker in this; that it was not from everlasting, and in this it doth agree, that it shall be for ever to come; The first point, That it was not for ever, all Christians confest: The other they understand no otherwise, than that after the confummation of this world, there shall be a new Heaven, and a new Earth, without any new creation of matter. But of these things we need not here stand to argue; though such opinions be not unworthy the propounding, in this consideration, of an eternal and unchangeable cause producing a changeable and temporal effect; Touching which point, Proclus the Platonist disputeth, That the compounded Essence of the World (and because compounded, therefore distinable) is continued, and knit to the Divine Being, by an individual and inseparable power, flowing from Divine unity; and that the World's natural appetite of God sheweth, that the same proceedeth from a good and understanding divine; and that this vertue, by which the World is continued and knit together, must be infinite, that it may infinitely and everlastingly continue and preserve the same. Which infinite Vertue, the finite World ( (aith he) is not capable of, but receiveth it from the divine infinite, according to the tempo-

11 Nature it hath, successively every moment by little and little; even as the whole material World is not altogether; but the abolified parts are departed by finall degrees, and the harts vet to come, do by the same small degrees succeed, as the shadow of a tree in a River, Geneth to have continued the same a long time in the Water, but it is perpetually renewed in the continual ebbing and flowing thereof.

But to return to them, which denying that ever the World had any beginning, withall deno that ever it shall have any end, and to this purpose affirm, That it was never heard, never read never seen, no, not by any reason perceived, that the Heavens have ever suffered corrubtion; or that they appear any way the older by continuance; or in any fort otherwise than they were; which had they been subject to final corruption, some change would have been discerned in so long a time. To this it is answered, That the little change as yet perceived, doth rather prove their newness, and that they have not continued so long, than that they will continue for ever as they are. And if conjectural arguments may receive answer by conjectures; it and the second of the sec then seemeth, that some alteration may be found. For either Aristotle, Pliny, Strabo, Beda, seed to refer the seed to refer the seed to refer the seed to refer the seed to refer the seed to refer the seed to refer the seed to refer the seed to refer the seed to refer the seed to refer the seed to refer the seed to refer the seed to refer the seed to see the seed t Aguinas, and others, were großly mislaken; or else those parts of the World, lying within tem. 11.231. the burnt Zone were not in elder times babitable, by reason of the Sun's heat, neither were the and the Seas under the Equinoctial navigable. But we know by experience, that those Regions so situate, are filled with people, and exceeding temperate; and the Sca, over which we navigate, passable enough. We read also many Histories of Deluges: and how that in the time of Phaeton, divers places in the World were burnt up, by the Sun's violent beat.

But in a word, this Observation is exceeding feeble. For we know it for certain, That Stone-walls, of matter moldring and friable, have ficed two or three thousand years; that many things have been digged up out of the Earth, of that depth, as supposed to have been buried by the general Flood; without any alteration, either of substance or figure; yea, it is believed, and it is very probable, that the Gold which is daily found in Mines and Rocks, under ground, was created together with the Earth.

And if bodies elementary, and compounded, the eldest times have not invaded and corrupted; what great alterations should we look for in Celestial and Quintessential bodies? And yet we have reason to think, that the Sun, by whose help all creatures are generate, doth not in these later Ages assist Nature, as heretofoxe. We have neither Giants, such as the eldest World had, nor Mighty Men, such as the elder World had; but all things in general are reputed of less vertue which from the Heavens receive vertue. Whence, if the nature of a Preface would permit a larger Discourse, we might easily setch store of proof; as that this World shall at length have end, as that once it had beginning.

And I see no good Answer that can be to this Objection: If the World were eternal; why not all things in the World eternal? If there were no first, no Cause, no Father, no Creator, no incomprehensible Wisdom, but that every Nature had been alike eternal; and Man more rational than every other Nature; Why had not the eternal reason of Man, provided for his eternal Being in the World? For, if all were equal, why not equal conditions to all? Why should Heavenly bodies live for ever, and the bodies of Men rot and die?

Again, who was it that appointed the Earth to keep the Centre, and gave order that it Bould should hang in the Air; that the Sun should travel between the Tropicks, and never exceed those bounds, nor fail to perform that Progress once in every year; the Moon to live by borrowed light; the fixed Starrs (according to common opinion) to be fastned like nails in a Cart-wheel; and the Planets to wander at their pleasure? Or, if none of these had power over other; was it out of Charity and Love, that the Sun by his perpetual travel within those two Circles, bath visited, given light unto, and relieved all parts of the Earth, and the Creatures therein, by turns and times? Out of doubt, if the Sun have of his own accord kent this course in all eternity; He may justly be called eternal Charity, and everlasting Love. The same may be said of all the Starrs, who being all of them most large and clear fountains of vertue and operation, may also be called eternal Vertues; the Earth may be called cternal Patience; the Moon, an eternal Borrower, and Beggar; and Man, of all other the most miserable, eternally Mortal. And what were this, but to believe again in the old Play of the gods? Yea, in more gods by Millions, than ever Hesiodus dream'd of. But in stead of this mad folly, we see it well enough with our feeble and mortal eyes: and the eyes of our reason discern it better: That the Sun, Moon, Starrs, and the Earth, are limited, bounded, and constrained; themselves they have not constrained, nor could. Conne determinatum causam habet aliquam efficientem, quæ illud determinaverit; Every thing hath fome efficient cause, by which it is bounded.

Now, for Nature; As by the ambiguity of this name, the School of Aristotle bath both commended many errors unto us, and fought also thereby to obscure the glory of the high Moderator of all things, shining in the Creation, and in the governing of the World; so if the best definition be taken out of the second of Aristotle's Physicks, or primo de Coelo, or out of the sifth of his Metaphysicks, I say, that the best is but nominal, and serving onely to difference the beginning of Natural motion from Artisticial: which yet the Academicks open better; when they call it, A Seminary strength, infused into matter by the Soul of the World; who give the first place to Providence, the second to Fate, and has the third to Nature. Providentia (by which they understand G O D) Dux & Caput; Fatum, medium ex providentia prodiens; Natura postremum. But be it what he will, or be it any of these (God excepted) or participating of all; yet that it has choice or understanding (both which are necessarily in the cause of all things) no man hash avowed. For this is unanswerable of Lactantius, Is autem sacit aliquid, qui aut voluntatem faciencii habet, aut scientiam; He onely can be said to be the doer of a thing, that hath either will or knowledg in the doing it.

But the will and science of Nature, are in these words truly express d by Ficinus: Potest ubique Natura, vel per diversa media, vel ex diversis materias, diversa facere; sublata vero mediorum materiarumque diversitate, vel unicum, vel similinum operatur, neque potest quando adest materia non operati; It is the power of Nature by diversity of means, or out of diversity of matter, to produce divers things: but taking away the diversity of means, and the diversity of matter, it then works but one or the like work; neither can it but work, matter being present. Now, if Nature made choice of diversity of matter, to work all these variable works of Heaven and Earth, it had then both understanding and will; it had counsel to begin; reason to diffee; wertue and knowledy to finish, and power to govern; without which, all things had been but one and the same; all of the matter of Heaven; or all of the matter of Earth. And, if we grant Nature this will, and this understanding, this counsel, this reason, and power; Cur natura potius quam Deus nominetur? Why should we then call such a lead to take rather Nature, than God? God, of whom all men have notion, and give the first and highest place to divine power: Omnes homines notionem deorum habent, omnessing summum locum divino cuidam numini assignant. And this I say, in short, that it is a lead to acknowledg and adore the first and most substitute power. Vera Philosophia, est ascensus ab his quæ situunt, & oriuntur, & occidunt, ad ea quæ vere sunt, & semper eadem: True Philosophy is an ascending from the things which slow, and rise, and fall, to the things that are for ever the same.

For the rest; I do also account it not the meanest, but an implety, monstrous, to consound God and Nature; beit but in tearms. For it is God, that onely diposeth of all things according to his own will, and maketh of one Earth, vessels of honour and dishonour: It is Nature that can dispose of nothing, but according to the will of the matter wherein it worketh. It is God that commandeth all; it is Nature that is obedient to all. It is God that doth good unto all, knowing and loving the good he doth. It is Nature that secondarily doth also good, but it neither knoweth, nor loveth the good it doth. It is God, that hath all things in himself; Nature nothing in it self. It is God which is the Father, and hath begotten all things; it is Nature which is begotten by all things, in which it lively and laboureth; for by it self it existeth not. For, shall we say, that it is out of affection to the Earth, that heavy things fall towards it? Shall we call it Reason, which doth conduct every River into the salt Sea? Shall we tearm it knowledg in Fire, that makes it to consume combustible matter? If it be Affection, Reason, and Knowledg in these; by the same Affection, Reason, and Knowledg it is, that Nature worketh. And therefore, seeing all things work as they do (call it by Form, or Nature, or by what you please) yet, because they work by an impulsion, which they cannot resist; or by a faculty, insused by the supremest power; we are neither to wonder at, nor to worship, the faculty that worketh, nor the Creature wherein it worketh. But herein lies the wonder; and to him is the worship due, who hath created such a Nature in things, and such a faculty, as neither knowing it felf, the matter wherein it worketh, nor the vertue and power which it bath; doth yet work all things to their last and uttermost persection. And therefore every reasonable man, taking to himself for a ground that which is granted by all Antiquity, and by all men truly learned that ever the World had, to wit; That there is a power Infinite, and eternal (which also necessity doth prove unto us, without the help of Faith and Reason; without the force of Authority) all things do as easily follow which have been delivered by divine Letters, as the waters of a running River do successively persue each other from the surft sountains.

Thus much, I say, it is, that Reason it self bath taught us; and this is the beginning of knowledg. Sapientia præcedit, Religio sequitur; quia prius est Deum scire, conterispension sequence goes before, Religion follows; because it is first to know God, and then to worship him. This Sapience, Plato calleth absoluti boni scientiam, The Science of

i Goole

46.

Fiein, de Pl

naucde 2.500 the absolute good: And another, Scientiam rerum primarum, sempiternarum, peroetuarum. For Faith (faith Ificlore) is not extorted by violence; but by reason and examples persuaded: Fides nequaquam vi extorquetur, sed ratione & exemplis suadetur. I confess it, That to enquire further, as of the Essence of God, of his Power, of his Art, and by what mean he created the World; Or of his secret judgment, and the causes, is not an affest of Reason; Sed cum ratione infaniunt; but they grow mad with reason, that enquire after it: For, as it is no shame nor dishonour (saith a French Author) de faire arrest au but qu'on nasceu surpasser: For a man to rest himself there, where he finds it im. possible topass on further: so whatsoever is beyond, and out of the reach of true reason, it acknowledgeth it to be so; as understanding it self not to be infinite, but according to the Name and Nature it hath, to be a Teacher, that best knows the end of his own Art. For, seeing both Reason and Necessity teach us ( Reason, which is pars divini spiritus in corpus huusura scientia. manum mersi) that the World was made by a Power infinite; and yet how it was made, it cannot teach us: and seeing the same Reason and Necessity make us know, that the same infinite Power is every where in the World; and yet how every where it cannot inform us: our belief hereof is not weakned, but greatly strengthned by our ignorance, because it is the same Reason that tells us, That such a Nature cannot be said to be God, that can be in all conceived by Man.

I have been already over-long, to make any large Discourse, either of the parts of the following Story, or in mine owne excuse; especially in the excuse of this or that passage; seeing the whole is exceeding weak and defective. Among the groffest, the unsutable division of the Books, I could not know how to excuse, had I not been directed to enlarge the building after the foundation was laid, and the first Part finished. All men know, that there is no great Art in the dividing evenly of those things, which are subject to number and measure. For the rest, it suits well enough with a great many Books of this Age, which speak too much, and yet say little, ipsi nobis furto subducimur; We are stollen away from our selves, fetting a high price on all that is our own. But hereof, though a late good Writer, make complaint, yet shall it not lay hold on me, because I believe as he doth; That who so thinks himself the wifest man, is but a poor and miserable Ignorant. Those that are the best men of Warr, against all the vanities and fooleries of the World, do always keep the strongest guards against themselves, to defend them from their selves; from self-love, self-estimation, and felf-opinion.

Generally, concerning the order of the Work, I have only taken counsel from the Argument. For of the Affyrians, which after the down-fall of Babel take up the first Part, and were the first great Kings of the World, there came little to the view of Posterity; some few enterprises, greater in Fame than Faith, of Ninus and Semiramis, excepted.

It was the Story of the Hebrews, of all before Olympiads, that overcame the confuming disease of Time, and preserved it self from the very Cradle and Beginning to this day; and yet not so entire, but that the large Discourses thereof (to which, in many Scriptures, we are referred) are no where found. The Fragments of other Stories, with the Actions of those Kings and Princes which shot up here and there in the same Time, I am driven to relate by way of digression; of which we may say with Virgil:

Apparent rari nantes in gurgite vasto: They appear here and there, floting in the great gulf of Time.

To the same first Ages do belong the report of many Inventions therein found, and from them derived to us; though most of the Authors Names have perished in so long a Navigation. For those Ages had their Laws; they had their diversity of Government; they had Kingly rule; Nobility; Policy in Warr; Navigation, and all, or the most of needful Trades. To beak therefore of these (seeing in a general History we should have left a great deal of Nakedness by their omission) it cannot properly be called a digression. True it is, that I have also made many others; which, if they shall be laid to my charge, I must cast the fault into the great heap of humane error. For, seeing we digress in the ways of our lives; yea; leeing the life of Man is nothing else but digression; I may the better be excused, in writing their lives and actions. I am not aliogether ignorant in the Laws of History, and of the kinds.

The same hath been taught by many, but by no man better, and with greater brevity, than by that excellent learned Gentleman, Sir Francis Bacon. Christian Laws are also taught us by the Prophets and Apostles; and every day preach d unto us. But we still make large digressions; yea, the Teachers themselves do not (in all) keep the path which they point out to others.

For the reft, after such time as the Persians had wrested the Empire from the Chaldeans, and had raifed a great Monarchy, producing actions of more importance than were elsewhere to be found: it was agreeable to the Order of Story, to attend this Empire: whilest it lo flourished, that the affairs of the Nations adjoining had reference thereunto. The like observance was to be used towards the Fortunes of Greece, when they again began to get ground upon the Persians; as also towards the affairs of Rome, when the Romans grew more mighty than the Greeks.

As for the Medes, the Macedonians, the Sicilians, the Carthaginians, and other Nations, who relisted the beginnings of the former Empire, and afterwards became but parts of their composition and enlargement: it seemed best to remember what was known of them from their several beginnings, in such times and places as they in their slourishing estates opposed those Monarchies, which in the end swallowed them up. And herein I have followed the best Geographers; who seldom give names to those small Brooks, whereof many joined together make great Rivers: till such time as they become united, and run in main stream to the Ocean Sea. If the Phrase be weak, and the Style not every where like it self; the first shows their legitimation and true Parent; the second will excuse it self upon the Variety of Matter. For Virgil, who wrote his Ecloques, gracifi avena, used stronger pipes, when he sounded the wars of Eneas. It may also be laid to my charge, that I use divers Hebrew words in my first Book, and elsewhere in which language others may think, and my self acknowledg it, that I am altogether ignorant; but it is true, that some of them I find in Montanus, others in Latine Characters in S. Senenfis; and of the rest I have borrowed the interpretation of some of my friends. But fay, I had been beholding to neither, yet were it not to be wondred at, baving had an eleven years leifure to attain the knowledg of that, or of any other Tonque; How-

Howsoever, I know that it will be said by many, That I might have been more pleasing to the Reader, if I had written the Story of mine own Times, having been permitted to draw water as near the Well-head as another. To this I answer, That whosover in writing a modern History, shall follow Truth too near the heels, it may haply strike out his teeth. There is no Mistress or Guide that hath led her followers and servants into greater miseries. He that goes after he too far off, loseth her fight, and loseth himself; and he that walks after her at a middle distance; I know not whether I should call that kind of course, Temper, or Baseness. It is true, that I never travelled after mens Opinions, when I might have made the best use of them; and I have now too few days remaining, to imitate those, that either out of extreme ambition, or extreme cowardife, or both, do yet (when Death hath them on his shoulders) flatter the World, between the Bed and the Grave. It is enough for me (being in that flate I am) to write of the eldest Times; wherein also, why may it not be said, that in speaking of the past, I point at the present, and tax the Vices of those that are yet living, in their persons that are long since dead; and have it laid to my charge? But this I cannot help, though innocent. And certainly, if there be any, that finding themselves spotted like the Tigers of old time, shall find fault with me for painting them over anew, they shall therein accuse themselves justly, and me fallly.

For, I protest before the Majesty of God, that Imalice no man under the Sun. Impossible I know it is, we please all; seeing few or none are so pleased with themselves, or so assured of themselves, by reason of their subjection to their private passions, but that they seem divers persons in one and the same day. Seneca bath said it, and so do I: Unus mihi pro populo erat: and to the same effect, Epicurus, Hoc ego non multis, sed tibi; (or as it bab since lamentably fallen out) I may borrow the resolution of an antient Philosopher, Satisest unus, Satis est nullus. For it was for the service of that inestimable Prince, Henry, the sucselfive hope, and one of the greatest of the Christian World, that I undertook this Work. It pleased him to peruse some part thereof, and to pardon what was amiss. It is now left to the World without a Master; from which, all that is presented, hath received both blows and thanks: Eadem probamus, eadem reprehendimus: hic exitus est omnis judicii, in quo lis secundum plures datur. But these Discourses are idle. I know, that as the charitable will judg charitably; so against those, qui gloriantur in malitia, my present adversity bath disarmed me. I am on the ground already; and therefore have not farr to fall; and for rifing again, as in the Natural privation, there is no recession to habit; so it is seldom feen in the privation politick. Ido therefore forbear to stile my Readers, Gentle, Courteous, and Friendly, thereby to beg their good Opinions, or to promife a second and third Volume (which I also intend) if the first receive grace and good acceptance. For that which is already done, may be thought enough; and too much: and it is certain, let us claw the Reader with never to many courteous Phrases, yet shall we evermore be thought fools, that write foolishly. For conclusion, all the hope I have, lies in this, That I have already found more ungentle and uncourteous Readers of my Love towards them, and well-deferving of them, than ever I shall do again. For had it been otherwise; I should hardly have had this leisure to have made my felf a Fool in Print.

THE FIRST PART TORY ORLD

Intreating of the Beginning and first Ages of the same, from the CREATION unto ABRAHAM.

The FIRST BOOK.

CHAP. I. Of the Creation, and Preservation of the World.

That the Invisible God is seen in his Creatures.

imbraceth, filleth, and sustaineth) we behold repugnant, intermixt, nor confounded. By the Image of that glory which cannot be these potent effects, we approach to the measured, and withall, that one, and yet u-knowledg of the omnipotent cause, and by niverfal Nature, which cannot be defined. In these motions, their Almighty Maker. the glorious Lights of Heaven, we perceive a In these more then wonderful works, God

OD, whom the wifeft making existent the World universal, by the men acknowledg to be absolute Art of his own Word, his Power a Power uneffable, and and Almightines; which Power, Light, Ver-Vertue infinite, a Light the by abundant clarity invifible; an Understand-God, we in all admire, and in part different forms. ing which it self can per speculum creaturarum, that is, in the dispoonely comprehend; an Essence eternal and string, order, and variety of Celestial and spiritual, of absolute pureness and simplicity; was, and is pleased to make himself strange and manifold diversities; Celestial,in known by the Work of the World: in the their beauty and magnitude; which in their wonderful magnitude whereof (all which he continual and contrary motions, are neither fluxdow of his divine Countenance; in his merciful provision for all that live, his manifold goodness: and lastly, in creating and whose effects, those that live, witness in themfelves; the sensible in their sensible natures; ation: Neque enim qui causa caret, ex causa & *Greg. in the reasonable, in their reasonable souls: for, origine sciri, cognosciq, potest, sed vel ex rerum, Mor. Herm. according to * S. Gregory, Omnis homo eo ipfo qua fact a funt, quaque fiunt & gubernantur, obad pt.

Tat. L. 5. quod rationalis conditus est, ex ipsa ratione, il- servatione & collatione; vel ex ipsus Dei ver-Unis vero lum qui se condidit, Deum esse colligere debet; bo: For he of whom there is no higher cause, ingentus.

Every man, in that he is reasonable out of the cannot be known by any knowledg of cause parens of fame reason may know, that he which made or beginning (faith Montanus) but either by 4. Montanus immanife. him, is God. This God all men behold (faith the observing and conferring of things, which fol. 7. gius, omnia anni 70b) which is according to the Fathers, Do- he hath, or doth create and govern; or else whether mindione illius conflicere in creaturis, To by the word of God himfelf. per omnia apparet, & discern him in his providence by his creatures. in omnibus. That God hath been otherwise feen, to wit, Apparentia with corporal eyes, exceedeth the small proportion of my understanding, grounded on these places of S. John and S. Paul, Te have not apparitio quam gene- heard his voice at any time, neither have ye feen his shape. And again, Whom never man saw.

Jon. 5 3. 1 Tim. 6.16 nor can see. And this I am fure agrees with the nature Origent. 1 of Gods simplicity, of which S. Augustine, Ipfa Philosophers acknowledg, though by divers #12 20 enim natura, vel substantia, vel quolibet alio no- terms, and in a different manner exprest; I cyril. or mine appellandum est, id ipsum quod Dus est, cyril. or mine appellandum est, id ipsum quod Dus est, cyril or corporaliter videri non potest; That nature, or so that flush that substance, or by what loever name that is est judgment and understanding. Mercurius want so Grig. Nat. to be called which is God, whatfoever that Trismegistus calleth God, Principium univerbe, the same cannot be corporally perceived. forum. The original of the Universal; to whom And of this opinion were Origen Cyril. Chrylo- he giveth also the attributes of Mens, Natura, Aug. l. v. stom, Gregory Nazianzene, Hierom, Augustine, Actus, Necessitas, Finis, & Renovatio. And de Trin. Gregorythe great, Evarifus, Alcuinus, Dionysius wherein he trucly with S. Paul, casteth upon Geg. Mag. Arepagita, Aquinas, and all others of authori-God all power; confessing also, that the 1.18. Mor. ty. But by his own Word, and by this visible World was made by Gods Almighty Word, Evar. ep.1. World, is God perceived of men; which is and not by hands : Verbo, non manibus, fabri-Alcuin.1.2. also the understood language of the Almighde Trin.

6. 16. D. ty, vouchfafed to all his Creatures, whose Hie followed in opinion) took the word Fire to c. 16. D. 193 Vouchiated to armin or catalogy who the word in the Cal. Hie- Stars, the Sun and Moon; written on these Paul it is used) Omnia ex uno igne genita sunt, rar. Thom. large Volumes of the Firmament: written alan. 11. o fo on the Earth and the Seas, by the letters of of one fire. alibi. Deus all those living creatures, and plants, which qui nanta an thole hiving eleatures, and plants, which would have invisibilis inhabit and refide therein. Therefore faid World had beginning in time, from the Will est make beginning in time, from the Will that learned Cusamus, Mundus universus nibil of the most high God; whose remarkable holitons posses aliud est, quam Deus explicatus; The World words are thus converted; Cum abscondisset pous feit universatis nothing else but God exprest. And omnia Jupiter summus, deinde in lumen graquod opist the invisible things of God (saith S. Paul) are tum emist, ex sacro corde operans cogitata & tem jui vifiviliterms feen by the creation of the World, being conmirabilia: Of which I conceive this fense; utellares, sidered in his creatures. Of all which, there When great Jupiter had hidden all things in at per certification in the cause preceding then his own himself, working out of the love of hir facred him sine. Will, no other matter then his own Power, no heart, he sent thence, or brought forth, into tur, o ille other Workman then his own Word, no o- grateful light, the admirable works which he no omnite the confideration then his own word, no ograteful light, the no officers there confideration then his own infinite good-bad fore-thought, ones. The example and pattern of these his Pindarus the Polymer of the pattern of the his own word, no og prateful light, the north production of the pr Creatures, as he beheld the fame in all eter-Rome c. t. nity in the abundance of his own love lowas to be the Father and Creator of all things; Cujan. de et at length in the most wise order, by his un- Onus Deus, Pater, Creator summus, Plato call-Som, 20. changed Will moved, by his high Wildom eth God the cause and original, the nature disposed, and by his Almighty Power perfe- and reason of the universal; Totius rerum vid. cast ex effectibus (that is) both perswaded by his

§. II.

That the wifest of the Heathen, whose authority is not to be despised, have acknowledged the World to have been created by God.

"His work and creation of the World. did most of the antient and learned catus est mundus, Zoroaster (whom Heraclitus

So did Orpheus plainly teach, that the Pindarus the Poet, and one of the wifeft, acknowledged also one God, the most High. cted, and made visible. And therefore (faith natura, cansa, & origo Deus. But hereof more Mirandula) we ought to love God, ex fide, & at large hereafter. Now, although the curiofity of fome men Word, and by the effects of the Worlds Cre- have found it superfluous, to remember the opinions of Philosophers in matters of Divinity: (it being true, that the Scripture hath not want of any forrain testimony) yet as the Fathers, with others excellently learned, are my examples herein; fo S. Paul himself did not despise, but thought it lawful and profitable, to remember whatsoever he found agreeable to the word of God among the Heathen, that he might thereby take from them all escape, by way of of ignorance, God rendring vengeance to them that know him not as in the Epistle to Titus he citeth Epimenides against the Cretians, and to the Corinthians, Menander; and in the seventeenth of the Acts, Aratus &c. For, Truth (faith S. Ambrofe) by whomfoever uttered, is of the holy Ghoft; Veritas à quocunque dicatur, à Spiritu sancto eft: and lastly, let those kind of men learn this rule ; Que sacris serviunt, prophana non funt; Nothing is prophane, that serveth to the use of holy things.

§. III.

of the meaning of In Principio, Genef. 1. 1.

THis visible world of which Moses writeth, God created in the beginning, or first of all: in which (faith Tertullian) things began to be. This word Beginning (in which the Hebrews feek fome hidden mystery, and which in the Jews Targum is converted by the word | and the feat of Angels and just Souls, then in Sapientia) cannot be referred to succession of time, nor to order, as some men have conceived, both which are subsequent: but only to Creation then. For before that Beginning, there was neither primary Matter to be informed, nor Form to inform, nor any Being, but the Eternal. Nature was not nor the next Parent of Time begotten. Time properly and of Matter already in being, then as the word ginning, was not meant the invisible or super-Beginning could not be referred to all things. fo must it follow, that the institution of Matter proceded from a greater power, then that self, it was not necessary to be created; Quem of God. And by what name shall we then call fuch an One (faith Lattantius) as exceedeth God in potency: for it is an act of more excellency to make, then to dispose of things and of things invisible and incorporate, for made? whereupon it may be concluded that the weakness of their capacities, whom he Matter could not be before this Beginning: except we fain a double creation, or allow of two Powers and both infinite; the impoffibility whereof fcorneth defence. Namimpossibile est plura esse infinita : quoniam alterum mise made to their foresathers; but also that effet in altero finitum; There cannot be more In- he created, and was the fole cause of this af-

Menu, 1.3. finities then one: for one of them would limit the other.

5. IV.

Of the meaning of the words Heaven and Earth, Genel. 2. 1.

THe Universal matter of the world (which Moles comprehendeth under the names of Heaven and Earth ) is by divers diverfly understood; for there are that conceive that by those words was meant the first matter, as the Peripateticks understand it; to which S. Augustine and Isidore seem to adhere, Fecisti mundum (faith S. Augustine ) de materia informi ; quam fecisti de nulla re, pene nullam rem : that is. Thou hast made the world of a matter without form; which matter thou madest of nothing, and being made, it was little other then nothing. But this potential and imaginary materia prima, cannot exist without form. Peter Lonibard, the Schoolmen, Beda, Lyranus, Comeftor, Toftatus, and others affirm that it pleafed God first of all to create the Empyrean Heaven: which at the fucceeding instant ( faith Beda and strabo) he filled with Angels. This Em- Beda Hex. pyrean Heaven Steuchius Eugubynus calleth Strabo fundioine clarity and uncreated: an errour, for Eug. Cof. which he is sharply charged by Pererius, odenat. though (as I conceive) he rather failed in the in corp.

subsequent, when he made it to be a place, the former affirmation; for of the first, That God liveth in eternal Light, it is written, My Pf. 104.12? foul, praife thou the Lord, that covereth himself lenius si-with light: and in the Revelation, And the wife fall, City bath no need of the Sun, neither of the fed spine. Moon to shine in it: for the glory of God did in Dei, noth light it. And herein also John Mercer upon neus, Apec. Genesis, differeth not in opinion from Eugu- 11. 23. naturally taken: for if God had but disposed bynus: for as by Heaven created in the be- gen. 7.7: celestial; so in his judgment, because it was in all eternity the glorious feat of God him-Mundum Super-cælestem med judicio creari

( faith Mercer ) non erat necesse. But as Moses forbare to speak of Angels, then cared to inform of those things which were most manifest, (to wit) that God did not only by a strong hand deliver them from the bondage of Egipt, according to his propectable, and perceivable Universal: fo on the other fide I dare not think, that any fuperceleftial Heaven, or whatfoever else (not hinself) was increate and eternal; and as for the finite wisdom of mortal men hath no per- be proved, that water by condensation may ception of it, neither can it limit the feat of become earth, the same reason teacheth us infinite power, no more then infinite power also, that earth rarified may become water: it self can be limited: for his place is in Himfelf, whom no magnitude elfe can contain: Bar. 3. 14. How great is the house of God (faith Baruch) how

CHAP. I.

But leaving multiplicity of opinion, it is more probable and allowed, that by the (to wit) that very matter of all things, Ma-matter (faith Calvin) was so called, quod to-Philosophers long before.

6. V.

That the substance of the Waters, as mixt in the body of the earth, is by Moses understood in the word Earth: and that the Earth, by the attributes of unformed and void, is described as the Chaos of the antient Heathen.

fulness.

For under the word Heaven, was the mat-Moon, and subject to alteration. Corrupt feeds bring forth corrupt plants; to which the P/101.26, to perishing. They shall perish ( faith David ) and the heavens shall vanish away like smoak, faith Esay. Neither were the waters the matter of Earth; for it is written, Let the waters under the heavens be gathered into one place, and let the dry land appear: which proveth, that the dry land was mixt and covered with the waters and not yet distinguished; but no way, that the waters were the matter or feed of the Earth, much less of the Universal. Ini-Pf 104.6. tio tu, Domine, terram fundafti, Thou, O Lord. in the beginning hast founded the Earth: and again, The Earth was covered with the Deep

(meaning with waters) as with agarment, saith

the place of God before the world created, David. And if by natural arguments it may water, air: air, fire: and so on the contrary.

Deus ignis substantiam per aerem in aquam convertit, God turneth the substance of fire by air large is the place of his possession it is great, and hath no end, it is high and unmeasurable. were created, as touching their substance. though there was afterwards added multiwords Heaven and Earth, was meant the folid plicity of perfection, in respect of beauty and matter and substance, as well of all the Hea- ornament. Calum vero & terra in statu creati- Gal. Tail. vens, and Orbssupernal, as of the Globe of onis remanserunt quantum ad substantiam, licet 600. the Earth and Waters, which covered it over, multiplex perfectio decoris & ornatus eis postmodum superadditaest. And the word which teria, Chaos, possibilitas, sive posse fieri. Which the Hebrews call Maim, is not to be underftood according to the Latine translation tius mundi semen fuerit; Because it was the simply, and as specifical water; but the same feed of the Universal: an opinion of antient more properly fignifieth liquor. For (according to Montanus ) Est autem Maim liquor ge- A. Mont. minus. O hoc nomen propter verborum penuri- de nat. am, Latina lingua plurali numero Aquas fecit; For Maim (faith he) is a double liquor (that is, of divers natures ) and this name or word the Latines, wanting a voice to expressit, call it in the Plural, Aquas, Waters. This Mais, or indigested matter, or Chaos, created in the beginning, was without form, that is, without the proper form, which it af-Mofes first nameth Heaven and Earth terwards acquired, when the Spirit of God (putting waters but in the third place) had separated the Earth, and digested it from as comprehending waters in the word Earth; the Waters. And the Earth was void, that is, Gen. 1.1; but afterwards he nameth them apart, when not producing any creatures, or adorned God by his Spirit began to diffinguish the with any plants, fruits, or flowers. But after consused Mass, and (as Basil saith ) Praparare the Spirit of God had moved upon the waters. naturam aque ad facunditatem vitalem; To and wrought this indigested matter into that prepare the nature of water to a vital fruit- form, which it now retaineth; then did the earth bud forth the herb, which feedeth feed, and the fruitful tree according to his kind, and God ter of all heavenly bodies, and natures ex- Jaw that it was good; which attribute was not prest: and by the name of Earth and Waters, given to the Earth, while it was confused; all was meant, what loever is under the nor to the Heavens, before they had motion. and adornment. God faw that it was good, that is, made perfect for perfection is that towhich pure heavens are not subject, though subject nothing is wanting. Et perfect i Dei perfect a sunt opera; The works of the perfect God, are perfect.

From this lump of imperfect Matter had the antient Poets their invention of Demogorgon; Hesiodus and Anaxagoras the knowledg of that Chaos: of which Ovid; Ante Mare, & Terras, & (quod tegit omnia) lib. 1.

Unus crat toto natura vultus in Orbe, Quem dixere Chaos rudis indigestaque moles. Before the Sea and Land was made, and Heaven, that all doth hide,

In all the World one onely face of Nature did abide:

Which Chaoshight, a huge rude heap.

§. VI.

How it is to be understood, that the Spirit of God moved upon the waters; and that this is not to be fearched curioufly.

Fter the Creation of Heaven and Earth, Athen void and without form, the Spirit of God moved upon the Waters. The seventy Interpreters ule the word superfereba- fore, whether that motion, vitality, and opetur, moved upon or over: incubabat or fowebat (faith Hierome) out of Bafil; and Bafil manner is onely known to God. Quomodo in out of a Syrian Doctor; Equidem non meam omnibus sit rebus vel per essentiam, vel per potibi, sed viri cujusdam syri sententiam recense- tentiam, intellectus noster non capit; For how bo (laith Balil: ) which words incubare or fovere, importing warmth, hatching, or quickning, have a special likeness. Verbum transla- sence, or power our understanding cannot com- 17.25. tum est ab avibus pullitici sua incubantibus, prehend. Nibilinter Deum hominemque distaquamvie fiprituali, & plane incuarabili, non ret. si conflic & displitiones illus Majelfatis cad in autem corporali modo. The word is taken of eterne, cogitatio affequeretur humana: There birds hatching their young, not corporally, but in a spiritual and unexpressible manner.

Some of the Hebrews convert it to this effect, Spiritus Dei volitabat; The Spirit of God did flutter: the Chaldean Paraphrast in this sense, Ventus à conspectu Dei sufflabat: or as other understand the Chaldean, Flabat, pellebat, removebat: The wind from the face of God did blow under, drive, or remove, or did of 147. blow upon; according to the 147. Pfalm, He caused his wind to blow, and the waters increase: but there was yet no wind nor exhalafr. Mont, tion. Arias Montanus in these words, Et Spiu sup. Eu ritus Elohim Meracheset, id est, efficaciter motitans, confovens, ac agitans super facies gemini liquoris; The Spirit of God effectually and often moving, keeping warm, and cherishing. quickning and stirring upon the face of this double liquor. For he maketh four originals, whereof three are agents, and the last passive and material, to wit, Canfa, which is the di-Ar. Mont. vine Goodness: Jehi, which is, fiat, five erit, nuna, psg. Let it be, or, It shall be. Que vox verbo dei prima prolata fuit : Which voice (faith he) was the first that was uttered by the Word of God, into the other, we forthwith become blind or burnt. The third, Spiritus Elohim, the Spirit of God, id est. Vis quadam divina, agilis ac prasens, per omnia pertingens, omnia complens; that is, A certain divine power, or strength every where taketh for the Holy Ghost; sometimes for a active and extending, and stretching through wind or breath, Sub nomine Spiritus, under all, filling and finishing all things. The fourth the name of a spirit, which is sometimes so he calleth Maim, id est, Materies ad omnem rem conficiendam habilis; Matter apt to becom everything. For my self, I am resolved also a breath or wind: Mercurius nameth it, (Cum Deus sit super rationale omni ratione; Spiritum tenuem intelligibilem, A pure or thin Seeing God is in all reason above reason) that although the effects which follow his won- Tostatus, Voluntatem & mentem Dei , The will derful waies of working, may in a measure and mind of God; which Mens, Plato in Tibe perceived by mans understanding, yet meo maketh Animam mundi, The foul of the the manner and first operation of his divine power, cannot be conceived by any mind, or spirit, compassed with a mortal body. Animalis homo que Dei sunt non percipit: For my thoughts (faith the Lord in Efay) are not Efa. 55. 8. vour thoughts, neither are your maies my maies. And as the world hath not known God himfelf: fo are his waies (according to S. Paul) past finding out. O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee, faith Christ. And thereration, were by incubation or how elfe, the God (faith S. Angustine, speaking of his Ubi- Ang. quity) is in all things, either by effence, pre- in John would be no difference between God and man, if man's understanding could conceive the counsels and disposing of that eternal Majesty; and therefore to be over-curious in fearching how the all-powerful Word of God wrought in the Creation of the World, or his all-piercing and operative spirit distinguishing gave form to the Matter of the Universal, is a labour and fearch like unto his, who not contented with a known and fafe Foord, will prefume to pass over the greatest River in all parts, where he is ignorant of their depths: for fo doth the one lose his life, and the other his understanding. We behold the Sun, and enjoy his light, as long as we look towards it, but tenderly, and circumspectly: we warm our felves fafely, while we ftand neer the fire;

but if we feek to out-face the one, to enter

But to eschew curiosity: this is true, that the English word (moved) is most proper and fignificant: for of motion proceedeth all production, and all whatfoever is effected. And this omnipotent Spirit of God, which may indeed be truly called, Principium motus, and with Mirandula, Vis caufe efficientis, The force of the efficient cause; S. Augustine sometimes taken : or for virtualis creatura, For a created virtuality: Tertullian and Theodoret call it intelligible Spirit: Anaxagoras, Mentem:

CHAP. I.

world: and in his fixth Book de Republica, he | heat rarifaction, and fubtilty of parts. By calleth it the Law of Heaven; in his Epistles, The Leader of things to come, and the presence of things palt. But as Cyprian wrote of the incarnation of Christ our Saviour, Mens deficit. vox filet. & non mea tantum, fed ettam Angelorum; My mind faileth, my voice is filent, and not mine onely, but even the voice of Angels: fo may all men else say in the understanding and utterance of the waies and works of the ated, might easily transpierce: Light for the Creation; for to him (faith Nazianzenus) there is not one substance by which he is, and which God called good, whose creation imanother, by which he can, Sed confubstantiale mediately followed. This Spirit Chryloston illi eft, quicquid ejus eft, & quicquid eft; Whatsoever attribute of kim there is, and whatsoever he is, it is the very same substance that him- vim procreandi animalia habuerint. He call-wind, nor for any other creature, separate living Creatures. from the infinite active power of God, which then formed and diftinguished, and which now fustaineth and giveth continuance to the Universal. For the Spirit of the Lord fill- of the Light created, as the material substance of eth all the world; and the same is it which maintaineth all things, faith Solomon. If thou fend forth thy Spirit (faith David) they are created: And Gregory, Deus suo prasentiali esse dat omnibus rebus esse, ita quòd si se rebus subtraheret, sicut de nihilo facta sunt omnia, sic in nihilum defluerent universa; God giveth being then as of nothing the world was made, it would again fall away and vanish into nothing. And Virgil hath exprest excellently:

Principio Calum ac Terras, camposque liquentes, Virg. E- Lucentemq, globum Luna, Titaniaq, aftra, Spiritus intus alit : totamq; infusa per artus, Mens agitat molem, & magno se corpore miscet. The Heaven, and Earth, and all the liquid

Mayn, The Moon's bright Globe, and Stars Tita-

A Spirit within maintains: and their whole

A mind, which through each part infus'd

Fashions, and works, and wholly doth transpierce

All this great Body of the Universe.

And this was the same Spirit, which moved in the Universal, and thereby both di-

this Spirit (which gave heat and motion, and thereby, operation to every nature, while it moved upon the waters, which were in one fuperiour, as lighter then the waters; through whose vast, open, subtile, Diaphanick, or transparent body, the light, afterwards creexcellency thereof being the first creature calleth a vital Operation, Aquis à Deo insitam, ex qua aque non solum motionem, sed & eth it, A vital Operation given by Godunto the But the Spirit of God which moved upon maters, whereby the waters had not onely mothe waters, cannot be taken for a breath or tion, but also power to procreate or bring forth the Sun, and of the nature of it, and difficulty of knowledg of it: and of the excellency and use of it: and of motion, and heat annexed unto it.

§. VII.

Hefe Waters were afterwards congregated, and called the Sea: and this to all things, by being present with all things, be Light afterwards (in the fourth day) gathe-as if be should withdraw binsself from them, red and united, and called the Sun, the Organ and Instrument of created light. For this first and dispersed light did not (as I conthis working of Gods Spirit in all things, ceive) diftinguish the night from the day, but with a reference to the Suns creation, and the uniting of the dispersed light therein. This is proved by these words, Let there be Gen. 1.10 lights in the Firmament, to separate the day from the night: which lights in the Firmament of Heaven, were also made for signes. and for seasons, and for daies, and for years, implying a motion instantly to follow, by which, days and years are diftinguished; after which succeeded Time, or together with which, that Time (which was the measure of motion) began. For that space of the first three days which preceded the Suns creation, or formal perfection, when as yet there was not any motion to be measured, and the Day named in the fifth Verse; was but such a space, as afterwards by the Suns motion made a civil or natural day. And as Waters were the matter of Aire, of the firmament, stinguished and adorned it. His spirit hath and of the lower and upper waters, and of garnished the Heavens, saith Job. So then the the Seas, and Creatures therein; Earth, the Spirit of God moved upon the waters, and matter of Beafts, Plants, Minerals, and Mans created in them their spirituality, and natu- body: so may Light (for expression sake) be ral motion; motion brought forth heat; and called the Chaos, or material substance of the Sun, and other lights of heaven: How- ons of Beda, Hugo, Lombard, Lyranus, and obeit, neither the Sun, nor any thing fensible. thers: fo is his own judgment herein, as is that light it felf, Que cause of lucidorum, weak as any mans; and most of the Schoolquale Which is the cause that things are lightsome men were rather curious in the nature of moved upon the waters, which were in one indigefied lump, and Chaos, disposed to all found it make it felf and all things elle vili- terms, and more nuotine in cartinguinning up- indigefied lump, and Chaos, disposed to all found it make it felf and all things elle vili- terms, and more nuotine in cartinguinning up- indigefied lump, and Chaos, disposed to all found it make it felf and all things elle vili- terms, and more nuotine in cartinguinning up- indigefied lump, and Chaos, disposed to all found it make it felf and all things elle vili- terms, and more nuotine in cartinguinning up- indigefied lump, and Chaos, disposed to all found it make it felf and all things elle vili- on the parts of doctrine already laid down, the control of the parts of doctrine already laid down, the control of the parts of doctrine already laid down, the parts of doc luminateth the Moon, by whom the neighbouring Region (which the Greeks call #- in Philosophy or Divinity: of whom it may ther, the place of the supposed Element of be truly said, Nihil superine odiossus acumine fire) is effected and qualified, and by it all nimio; Nothing is more odious to true wifbodies living in this our ayr. For this light dom, then too accute sharpness. Neither hath Avicenna calleth Vehiculum & fomentum om- the length of time, and the fearch of many nium celestium virtutum, & impressionum: learned men, (which the same time bath The conducter, and preserver, or nourisher of all brought forth and devoured) resolved us, celestial virtues and impressions, nothing de- whether this light be substantial, corporal, or fcending of heavenly influences, but by the medium, or means of light. Aristotle calleth because then it could neither pierce the ayr. light a quality, inherent or cleaving to a Di- nor those hard, solid, and Diaphanous bodies, aphanous body, Lumen eft qualitas inharens which it doth; and yet every day we fee the Diaphano: but this may be better avouched ayr illightned: Incorporal it cannot be, beof the heat, which it transporteth and bring- cause it sometime affecteth the fight of the eth with it, or conducteth: which heat (fay eye with offence, and therefore by most of the Platonicks) Abeunte lumine relidet in lubjecto, The light being departed, doth refide in tricius) that it cannot be matter, because no the subject, as warmth in the ayr, though the form so excellent as it self to inform it : neifame be deprived of light. This light Plotinus ther can it be any accident, which is not feand all the Academicks make incorporal, and fo doth Montanus, Cui nec duritia resistit, nec hatium ; Which neither hardness resisteth, nor space leaveth.

Aristotle findeth corporality in the beams of light; but it is but by way of repetition of Litefini. other mens opinions, faith Picolomineus. Democritus, Leucippus, and Epicurus, give materiality to light it felf, but improperly: for it paffeth at an instant from the Heaven to the receive the pure clearness of light: alluding to of all lucid and shining bodies: but what is that most divine Light, which onely shineth taught hereby, let others judge. on those minds, which are purged from all worldly droß, and humane uncleanness.

ment in opinion; neither do I marvel at it, Englished by Light; and so, this shining which for it cannot be found either in the Fathers, proceedeth from the Sun, or other lights of Philosophers, or School-men, or other anti- Heaven, or from any other light, is an Image, ent or latter Writers, that any of them un- or intentional Species thereof; and an intenderstood either it or themselves therein: all tional Species may be understood by exammen (to cast off ignorance) have disputed ple of a red or green colour, occasioned by thereof, but there is no man that hath been the shining of the Sun through red or green taught thereby. Thomas Aquinas (not inferi- glass: for then we perceive the same colour our to any in wit) as he hath shewed little cast upon any thing opposite; which redness strength of argument in refuting the opini- or other colour, we call the intentional spe-

then discoverers of any thing hidden, either incorporal: Corporal they fay it cannot be, the Fathers so esteemed. Others say (as Paparable without the destruction of the subicct : for light being taken from the Sun, the Lucidator-form, then either, or both must be one of nis senebris these, lucid or bright, dark or opake, Dia- impervia. phanous or transparent; but darkness cannot plena fuis be parent of light; and things Diaphanous tenebris alle (being neither light nor darkness, but capa- Transpable of either) cannot be the cause of either, rentia seu Earth, nor is it refitted by any hardness, because it passet through the folid body of glassor other Crystalline matters, and wherening obtain their so being of the light; and or team last it is withstroad by unclean and unpure. as it is withstood by unclean and unpure therefore if we derive this being of light with all the state of light with the state earthy fubstances, less hard, and more easie to invade then the former, the same is, 2016 infinitely and against nature; and therefore mental infinitely and against nature; and therefore mental infinitely and against nature. obstaculum natura terreum atq; sordidum, non he concludeth, that light in the Sun hath his scal sub, capit candidam luminis puritatem; Because an being primarily, and immediately of it self, ex 71. obstacle by nature earthy and foul, doth not and is therefore the Suns form, and the form

But in my understanding, Lumen (which may be Englished by the word shine) is an But of this created light, there is no agree- intentional Species of that, which may be as this light, touching his simple nature, is no way yet understood: so it is disputed, whether this light first created, be the same which the Sun inholdeth and cafteth forth, or whether it had continuance any longer than till the Suns creation.

CHAP. I.

But by the most wise and unchanged order, which God observed in the works of the Moles repeateth twice the main parts of the Universal: first, as they were created in matter; fecondly, as they were adorned with form: first, naming the Heavens, the Earth. the Waters, all confused; and afterward the Waters congregated, the Earth made dry Land; and the Heavens diftinguished from both, and beautified. And therefore the Earth, as it was earth, before it was uncovered, and before it was called Arida, or dry Land; and the Waters were waters, before they were congregated and called the Sea, though neither of them perfect, or inriched with their virtual forms: So the Sun although it had not its formal perfection, his circle, beauty, and bounded magnitude, till the fourth day, yet was the substance thereof in the first day (under the name of Light) created; and this Light formerly dispersed, was in the same fourth day united, and set in the Firmament of Heaven: for, to Light created in the first day God gave no proper place or fixation; and therefore the effects named by Anticipation (which was to separate day from night) were precifely performed, after this Light was congregated and had obtained life and motion. Neither did the wisdome of God find cause why it should move (by which motion, days and nights are distinguished) till then: because there was not yet any Creature produced, to which, by moving, the Sun might give light, heat, and operation.

But after the Earth ( diftinguished from Waters ) began to bud forth the bud of the herb, &c. God caused the Sun to move, and (by interchange of time) to visite every part of the inferiour World; by his heat to stir up the fire of generation, and to give actionemadmo- vity to the feeds of all natures: For, as a King, which commandeth some goodly builer. Pro- ding to be erected, doth accommodate the cop. in Gen. fame to that use and end, to which it was ordained; fo it pleafed God (faith Procopius) to command the Light to be; which by his all-powerful Word he approved, and approving it, disposed thereof, to the use and comfort of his future Creatures.

But in that it pleased God to ask of Job, By cies of the colour in that glass. And again, what way is the Light parted, and where is the may where Light dwelleth? we thereby know. that the nature thereof falleth not under mans understanding; and therefore let it fuffice, that by Gods grace we enjoy the effects thereof. For this light is of the treasure of God (faith Efdras: ) And those which inha- Eft bite the Heavens, do onely know the Esfence . 6.4 thereof. Nibil ignotum in celo, nibil notum in Herm. World, I gather, that the Light, in the first terra: Nothing unknown in Heaven, nothing day created, was the substance of the Sun: for perfectly known on Earth. Res vera sunt in mundo invisibili; in mundo visibili umbra rerum: Things themselves are in the invisible World: in the world visible, but their shadows. Surely, if this Light be not spiritual, yet it approacheth necrest unto spirituality; and if it have any corporality, then of all other the most fubtile and pure; for howfoever, it is of all things feen, the most beautiful, and of the fwiftest motion, of all other the most necesfary and beneficial. For it ministreth unto men, and other creatures, all celestial influences; it diffipateth those fad thoughts and forrows, which the darkness both begetteth and maintaineth; it discovereth unto us the glorious works of God, and carrieth up with an Angelical swiftness, our eyes unto Heaven, that by the fight thereof, our minds being informed of his visible marvels, may continually travel to furmount these perceived Heavens, and to find out their omnipotent Cause and Creator. Cognitio non quiescit in Fich. rebus creatis; Our knowledg doth not quiet it felf in things created. Et ipfa lux facit, ut cætera mundi membra digna sint laudibus, cum suam bonitatem & decorem omnibus communicet; It is the Light (Saith Saint Ambrose) that maketh the other parts of the world so worthy of praise, seeing that it self communicateth its goodness and beauty unto all. Of which, Ovid out of Orpheus:

Ille ego sum, qui longum metior annum, Omnia qui video, per quem videt omnia lib.s. mundus.

Mundi oculus. The world discerns it self, while I the World behold,

By me the longest years, and other times are told,

I the worlds eye.

Laftly, If we may behold in any creature, any one spark of that eternal fire, or any far-off dawning of Gods glorious brightness, the same in the beauty, motion, and virtue of this Light, may be perceived. Therefore was God called Lux ipsa; and the Light, by Hermes, named Lux fancta; and Christ our Saviour said to be that Light which lightneth e- 76h. 14 very man that cometh into the world. Yet in 14.6 and purity, this is also true, that God is nei- best Hebricians understand them, Quo suprether a mind, nor a Spirit of the nature of o- ma ac tennia ab infimis crassis diducta, interther Spirits; nor a light, such as can be di- sect aque distarent, for that whereby the supreme scerned. Deus profetto non mens est, at vero and thin bodies were placed in distance, being ut sit mens causa est; nec spiritus, sed causa severed and cut off from low and groß matters: qua firitus extat; nec lumen, sed causa qua and the waters above the firmament, exprest lumen existit: God (saith Hermes in Poeman- in the word Majim, are in that tongue taken dro) certainly is not a mind, but the cause that the mind bath his being; nor firit, but the cause by which every spirit is; nor light, but the cause by which the light existeth.

brought forth the bud of the herb that feed- of the rayne of Heaven; and in Job, Who hath eth feed, Oc. And for a mean and organ, ingendred the frosts of Heaven & and in S. Matby which this operative virtue might be them, Behold the Fowls of Heaven, for they fow continued, God appointed the Light to be not. So as in all the Scriptures of the Old united, and gave it also motion and heat, Testament throughout, is the word Heaven which heat caused a continuance of those se- very oft used for Ayr, and taken also hypermotion begat the time and times succeeding. ven &c. And in this very place Basil avouch-

6. VIII.

Of the Firmament, and of the maters above the Firmament: and whether there be any Crystalline Heaven, or any Primum mobile.

from the waters: that is, those waters which the Firmament was meant the Ayr, and not ded, and those of the Earth and Sea.

firmamentum, or expansum (for so Vatablus, that God called the Firmament, which diviment, are the waters in the ayr above us, conceive not, except it be to moderate and which God separated from the neather wa- would otherwise gather and increase: though majim, being indifferently taken for the hea- would exceed all possibility of belief. sed respect of Gods incomprehensible sublimity, ayr and Æther, then for the heavens, as the properly for the waters above the avr, or in the uppermost region of the same. And that the word Heaven is used for the Gen. 45.

Ayr, the Scriptures every where witness; as So then the Maff and Chaor being first created, void, dark, and unformed, was by the Pfalm: * By these Springs shall the fowl of the * vsdi. operative Spirit of God, pierced and quick- Heaven dwell; and npon Sodom and Gomor- 2 Gen. 15. operative Spirit of Ood, present and quarter and the Waters, having now received rabit rained brimflone and fire out of the Hea-14.csp. Spirit and motion, refolved their thinner ven; and in Isaacs blefting to Jacob; God 17.18. parts into Ayr, which God illightned: the give thee therefore of the dem of Heaven: and Job 38 24. Earth alfo by being contiguat, and mixt with in Deuteronomy the II. But the land whither Matth, 6. waters (participating the same divine virtue) you go to possess it, is a land that drinketh mater 26 verall species, which the Earth (being made bolically for any great Height, as, Let no gen. 11.4; fruitful by the Spirit) produced, and with buildns a Tomer, whose top may reach to Heaeth, that this appellation of Heaven for the Firmament, is but by way of similitude: his own words be thefe; Et vocavit Deus firmamentum cœlum. Hæc appellatio alii quidem propriè accommodatur, buic autem nunc ad limilitudinem: And God called the firmament Heaven: This appellation (faith Basil) is pro-Fter that the Spirit of God had moved perly applied to another (that is to the Starry A upon the waters, and light was created, Heaven) but to this (that is, to the firmament God faid, Let there be a Firmament in the mid- dividing the waters)it is imposed by similitude; dest of the waters, and let it separate the waters | And if there were no other proof, that by by rarifaction and evaporation were aften- the Heaven, the words of Moses in the eighth verse, conferred with the same word Firma-But these waters, separate above this Ex- ment in the twentieth verse, make it manitension, which the Latine Translation calleth fest: for in the eighth verse it is written, Pagninus, and Junius turn it are not the Cry- ded waters from waters, Heaven; and in the stalline Heavens created in the imaginations twentieth verse he calleth the Firmament of of men; which opinion Basilius Magnus call- Heaven, Ayr; in these words, And let the eth a childish supposition, making in the same | Fowl flye upon the earth in the open firmament place many learned arguments against this of Heaven. And what use there should be of infancie. For the waters above the firma- this ycie, or crystalline, or waterie Heaven, I where the same is more solid and condense, temper the heat, which the Primum mobile ters by a firmament, that is, by an extended in very truth, instead of this help, it would distance and vast space: the words Raquia add an unmeasurable greatness of circle, (which Montanus writeth Rakiagh), and sha- whereby the swiftness of that first Moveable ven and for ayr, and more properly for the nemo tenetur ad impossibilia; but no man 70b 28. 14.9.

CHAP. I.

felf (which furmounteth the height of all | nothing elfe, but the strength and faculty, humane reason)hath for a forcible conductor | which God hath infused into every creature. the Word of Truth, which also may be called lumen omnis rationis & intellectus; the light of all reason and understanding. Now Those therefore that attribute unto this sathat this supposed first Moveable, turneth it felse so many hundred thouland miles in an instant (seeing the Scriptures teach it not)let who, looking into the Stern of a Ship, and those that can believe mens imagination, ap- finding it guided by the Helm and Rudder, prehendit; for I cannot. But of these many doth ascribe some absolute virtue to the Heavens, let the Reader that desireth satis- peece of wood, without all consideration of faction, fearch Orontius; and of this waterie the hand that guides it, or of the judgment, Heaven, Bassius Magnus, in his Hexam. fol. which also directeth and commandeth that 40,41.8 c. and Matth. Beroaldus, in his second hand: forgetting in this and in all else, that Book and fixth chapter. For my felf, I am by the virtue of the first act, all Agents work ters above the Heavens, are but the clouds

6. IX.

A Conclusion, repeating the summ of the works in the Creation, which are reduced to three heads: The creation of matter, The forming of it. The finishing of it.

O conclude, it may be gathered out of the first Chapter of Genesis, that this was the order of the most wife God in the beginning, and when there was no other nature, or Being, but Gods incomprehensible eternity. First, he created the matter of all things: and in the first three dayes he distinguifhed, and gave to every nature his proper form; the form of levitie to that which afcended; to that which descended, the form of gravity: for he separated light from darknels, divided waters from waters, and gathered the waters under the firmament into one place. In the last three days, God adorned, beautified, and replenished the World: he fet in the Firmament of Heaven, the Sun, nerative, thereby to continue their Species, wifd. sol. and kinds;toCreatures vegetative and growc. 1. 14. ing, their Seeds in themselves; for he created all things, that they might have their being: and the generations of the world are preserved.

6. X

That Nature, is no Principium per se; nor Form, the giver of being; and of our ignorance how second causes should have any proportion with their effects.

ought to be held to impossibilities: and faith it | and rest, according to Aristotle; the same is having no other felfe-ability, then a Clock, after it is wownd up by a mans hand, hath. perswaded, that the waters called, The wa- whatsoever they work: Virtute primi actus, agunt agentia omnia quicquid agunt: for as and waters engendred in the uppermost ayr. the mind of man feeth by the Organ of the eye, heareth by the ears, and maketh choyce by the will: and therefore we attribute fight to the eye, and hearing to the ears, &c. and yet it is the mind only, that giveth ability, life, and motion to all these his instruments and Organs; fo God worketh by Angels, by the Sun, by the Starrs, by Nature or infused properties, and by men as by feveral Organs. feveral effects; all fecond causes whatsoever, being but instruments, conduits, and pipes, which carry and disperse what they have received from the head and fountain of the Universal. For as it is Gods infinite power, and everywhere-presence (compassing, embracing, and piercing all things) that giveth to the Sun power to draw up vapours, to be made clouds; clouds to contain rain, and rain to fall: fo all second and instrumental causes together with Nature it self, without that operative faculty which God gave them, would become altogether filent, virtueles, and dead: of which excellently Orpheus; Naurat-Per te virescunt omnia, All things by thee spring nin, rems, forth in youthful green. I enforce not these opposites Moon, and Starrs; filled the Earth with Beafts, the Ayr with Fowl, and the Sea with Fish, giving to all that have life a power gettures, animate and inanimate, to heavenly Lat. and earthly bodies, &c. for all His workes fail. Squint their virtues prayse him: but of the manner how God worketh in them, or they in or with each other, which the Heathen Philosophers, and those that follow them, have taken on them to teach: I fay, there is not any one among them, nor any one among us, that could ever yet conceive it, or express it, ever enrich his own understanding with any certain truth, or ever edifie others (not foolish by selfe-flattery) therein. For (laith Lactantins, speaking of the wisdom of the Nd for this working-power, which we Philosophers) Si facultas invenienda verita-Acall Nature, the beginning of motion tis buic studio subjaceret, aliquando esset inventa; cum verò tot temporibus, tot ingeniis in ejus inquisitione contritis, non sit comprehensa, apparet nullam ibi esse sapientiam: If in this studie (faith he), were means to find out the truth, it had ere this bin found out: but feeing it is not yet comprehended, after that so much time, and so many wits have been worn out in the inquiry of it, it appeareth, that there is no missom there to be had. Nam si de una re præcisa scientia haberetur, omnium rerum scientia necessario haberetur: If the precise knowledg of any one thing were to be had, it should necessarily follow, that the knowledg of all things were to be had. And as the Phylosophers were ignorant in Nature, and the waies of her working; fo were they more curious, then knowing, in their first matter and Phisical form. Ovid, and Juvenal; For if their first matter had any being, it were not then the first matter: for, as it is the first matter, it hath only a power of being, which Servis regna dabunt, captivis Fata triumphos. 7. 121. it altogether leaveth, when it doth subsist. And feeing it is neither a substance perfect, nor a substance inchoate, or in the way of perfection, how any other substance should thence take concrescence, it hath not been may be faid, that originally there is no other true enough, in respect of all those things between heat and fire, of which the one canof rational confideration. Leaving therefore these Riddles to their Lovers, who by certain Scholastical distinctions wrest and per-Aristotle hath laboured to prove a false eternity of the World, I think it farr fafer to afffirm with Saint Augustine, That all species and kinds are from God, from whom, whatsoever is natural proceedeth, of what kind or estimation soever; from whence are the seeds of all forms, and the forms of all seeds and their formarum. And thus much Averrois is forced

Albertus uponDiony [us.

6. XI.

Of Fate; and that the Starrs have great influence: and that their operations may diverfly be prevented or furthered.

Nd, as of Nature, fuch is the dispute and contention concerning Fate or Deflinie, of which the opinions of those learned men that have written thereof, may be fafely received, had they not thereunto annexed and fastened an inevitable necessity, and made it more general, and univerfally powerful then it is, by giving it Dominion over the mind of man, and over his will, of which Ratio fatum vincere nulla valet. Juven Jat.

'Gainst Fate no counsel can prevaile. Kingdoms to Slaves by Destinie, To Captives triumphs given be.

An errour of the Chaldeans, and after Basil Esta. taught, neither are these forms (saith a learned Authour) any thing fexea exprimatur points, the Bardisanists, and others, as Basil, Anbert 70. neurumour pany timings ex eacestrimain por this, the bard mainting and one of so but, the berg to tentiaque mibilef. Again, how this first matter flould be subjectime formarum, and passive, Fate is an obedience of second causes to the Gent. 3. which is understood to precede the form, it first, was well conceived of Hermes, and A. 49.8.3. wi ch is understood to precede the form, which puleius the Platonist. Plotinus out of the A- Fion in is hard to conceive: for to make form, which puleius the Platonist. Plotinus out of the A- Fion in is the cause, to be subsequent to the thing stronomers calleth it a disposition from the cir. defa. caused (to wit, to the first matter) is contrary acts of celestial Orbs, unchangeably workto all reason, divine and humane: only it ing in inferiour bodies, the same being also difference between matter and form, then which a rational mind doth not order nor direct. Ptolemie, Seneca, Democritus, Epicunot subsist without the other, but in a kind rus, Chrysippus, Empedocles, and the Stoicks, fome of them more largely, others more strictly, ascribe to Fate a binding and inevitable necessity; and that it is the same which vert the truth of all things, and by which is spoken and determined by God (quod de unoquoq; nostrum fatus est Deus) and the definite lot of all living. And certainly it cannot be doubted, but the Starrs are instruments of far greater use, then to give an obfcure light, and for men to gaze on after Sunfet: it being manifest, that the diversity of feafons, the Winters, and Summers, more hot and cold, are not fo uncertained by the Sun motions; A quo est omnis species, à quo est quicand Moon alone, who alway keep one and quid naturaliter eft, cujuscunq, generis eft, cuthe same course; but that the Stars have also juscung; astimationis est; à quo sunt semina fortheir working therein. marum, forma seminum, motus seminum atq;

And if we cannot deny, but that God hath to confess. For all forms (faith he) are, in given virtues to Springs and Fountains, to primo motore; which is also the opinion of cold Earth, to Plants and Stones, Minerals, Aristotle in the twelfth of his Metaph, and of and to the excremental parts of the basest living creatures, why should we rob the beautiful Stars of their working powers? for feeing they are many in number, and of eminent beauty and magnitude, we may not doubted. Corpora culestia (laith Damascene)

12

more in the powers and working of celestial Aiffole, bus calestibus aliquid cognoscere: It is much to movet & nutrit, auget, & perficit: The light not bind God to his creatures, in this suppo-excuse of some, were justifiable; of whom S. that rather the Author and Creator of the Stars. then the door of the evil, is to be accused.

fitive appetite, which is also stirred by the Juvencis Patrum virtus, In the young Off-spring od. 30. the Fathers virtue is, and so the contrary, Pa-think, that in the treasury of his wisdom, who constituent in nobis habitus, complexiones, & is infinite, there can be wanting (even for e- dispositiones. The heavenly bodies ( saith he ) very Star) a peculiar virtue and operation; make in us habits, complexions, and dispositias every herb, plant, fruit, and flower adorn- ons; for the body (though Galen inforce it 64.1 an ing the face of the Earth, hath the like. For further) hath undoubtedly a kind of draw-temp. as these were not created to beautifie the ingaster it the affections of the mind, especiearth alone, and to cover and shadow her ally bodies strong in humour, and weak in dusty face, but otherwise for the use of man virtues; for those of cholerick complexions and beaft, to feed them and cure them; fo are subject to anger, and the furious effects were not those uncountable glorious bodies thereof; by which they suffer themselves to fet in the Firmament, to no other end, then be transported, where the Mind hath not reato adorn it; but for Instruments and Organs fon to remember, that passions ought to be of his divine Providence, so far as it hath her Vassals, not her Masters. And that they pleased his just will to determine. Origen up- wholly direct the reasonless mind, I am reon this place of Genesis, Let there be light in solved: For all those which were created Gen. 1.15: the Firmament. &c. affirmeth, that the Starrs mortal, as birds, beafts, and the like, are left are not causes (meaning perchance binding to their natural appetites; over all which, causes;) but are as open Books, wherein are celestial bodies (as instruments and executicontained and fet down all things whatfoe- oners of Gods providence ) have abfolute ver to come; but not to be read by the eyes dominion. What we should judge of men, of humane wisdom: which latter part I be- who little differ from beasts, I cannot tell; for lieve well, and this faying of syracides with- as he that contendeth against those inforce-Lielas, 41, all: That there are hid yet greater things then ments, may eafily mafter or refift them; fo these be, and we have seen but a few of his works. Whosoever shall neglect the remedies by vir-And though, for the capacity of men, we tue and piety prepared, putteth himself altoknow somewhat, yet in the true and utter- gether under the power of his sensual appemost virtues of herbs and plants, which our tite; Vincitur fatum si resistas, vincit si con- quint. selves sow and set, and which grow under tempseris, Fate will be overcome, if thou resist our feet, we are in effect ignorant; much it; if thou neglect, it conquereth.

But that either the Stars or the Sun have bodies. For hardly (faith solomon) can we any power over the minds of men immedidiscern the things that are upon the Earth, and ately, it is absurd to think, other then as awith great labour find we out those things that foresaid, as the same by the body's temper arc before us: Who can then investigate the may be effected. Lumen solis ad generationem things that are in Heaven? Multum est, dere- sensibilium corporum confert, & advitam ipsam know a little of heavenly things. But in this of the Sun (faith S. Augustine ) helpeth the ge- Givil Del question of Fate, the middle course is to be neration of sensible bodies, moveth them to life, 115. 4 followed, that as with the Heathen we doe and nourisheth, augmenteth, and perfecteth them: yet still as a Minister, not as a Master: fed necessity of Destiny; so on the contrary, Bonus quidem est sol, in ministerio, non imwe do not rob those beautiful creatures of perio, The Sun is good to serve, not to smay their powers and offices. For had any of these (faith S. Ambross.) And S. Angsstine, Dens re-Her. Ilb. (faith S. Ambross.) And S. Angstine, Dens re-Her. Ilb. (git inferiora corpora per superiora, God ruleth tive, or had God himself constrained the bodies below by those above; but he amind and will of man to impious acts by any voucheth not, that superiour bodies have rule over mens minds, which are incorporal. celestial inforcements, then sure the impious

But howfoever we are by the Stars inclined at our birth, yet there are many things both in Nature and Art, that encounter the points Antiorem Syderum, quam commissionem same, and weaken their operation; and Arificelerum; Where we reprehend them of evil stolle himself consessent, that the Heavens do deeds, they again with wicked perversness urge, not always work their effects in inferiour bodies no more then the figns of rain and wind do always come to pass. And it is divers times But that the Stars and other celeftial bo- feen, that paternal virtue and vice hath his dies incline the will by mediation of the fen- counter-working to these inclinations. Est in Hor libid. trum vitia: and herein also there is often vere execution, as that there should be nofound an enterchange; the Sons of virtuous thing left of liberty to judgment, power, or to vice, and of vicious men to virtue.

Egregia est soboles scelerato nata parente:

A worthy fon is born of a wicked father.

But there is nothing (after Gods referved power) that so much setteth this art of influence out of fquare and rule, as Education doth: for there are none in the World fo wickedly inclined, but that a religious infiruction and bringing up, may fashion anew and reform them; nor any fo well disposed, whom (the reins being let loofe) the continual fellowship and familiarity, and the examples of dissolute men, may not corrupt ration of his own creatures truly) hath affuand deform. Vessels will ever retain a savour of their first liquor: it being equally difficult either to clense the mind once corrupted, or to extinguish the fweet favour of virtue first received, when the mind was yet tender, open, and eafily feafoned; but where a favourable constellation ( allowing that the Stars incline the will) and a virtuous education do happily arrive, or the contrary in both, thereby it is that men are found so exceeding virtuous or vicious, Heaven and Earth (as it were) running together and agreeing in one: for as the feeds of virtue may by the art and husbandry of Christian counsel produce better and more beautiful fruit then the strength of Self-nature and Kind could have yielded | Pagan or Christian that so believeth, the only them; fo the plants apt to grow wild, and to true God of the one, and the imaginary gods change themselves into weeds, by being set of the other, would thereby be despoiled of in a foyl futable, and like themselves, are all worthip, reverence, or respect. made more unfavoury and filled with poyfon. It was therefore truly affirmed, Sapiens adjuvabit opus Astrorum, quemadmodum Agricola terra naturam; A wife man affifteth the work of the Stars, as the Husbandman helpeth the nature of the foyl. And Ptolemy himself confesseth thus much, Sapiens, & omina sapientis Medici, dominabuntur Astris ; A wise man, and the ominous art of a wife Phylician shall prevail to the Destinies or Influences of the Stars, or against the Stars. Lastly, we ought all to subject our souls to any imposed necessity know, that God created the Stars, as he did But it was well said of Plotinus, that the Stars the rest of the Universal; whose influences may be called his referved and unwritten Laws. But let us consider how they bind: even as the Laws of men do; for although the Kings and Princes of the World have by their Laws decreed, that a Thief and a Murderershall suffer death; and though their Ordinances are daily by Judges and Magistrates (the Stars of Kings) executed accordingly; yet these Laws do not deprive Kings of their natural or religious compassion, or bind them without prerogative, to such a se- light it self, whereof the Suns clarity, and that men, by an ill constellation become inclinable conscience: the Law in his own nature, being no other then a deaf Tyrant. But feeing that it is otherwise, and that Princes ( who ought to imitate God in all they can) do fometimes for causes to themselves known, and by mediation, pardon offences both a-gainst others and themselves; it were then impious to take that power and liberty from God himfelf, which his Substitutes enjoy; God being mercy, goodness, and charity it felf. Otherwise that example of Prayer by our Saviour taught ; And let us not be led into Mat. 6. 13. temptation, but deliver us from evil, had been no other but an expence of words and time; but that God (which only knoweth the opered us, that there is no inclination or temptation so forcible, which our humble Prayers and Defires may not make frustrate and break afunder: for were it (as the Stoicks conceive) that Fate or Destiny, though depending upon eternal power, yet being once ordered and disposed, had such a connexion and immutable dependency, that God himfelf should in a kind have shut up himself therein; How miserable then were the condition of men (faith S. Augustine) left altogether without hope.

And if this strength of the Stars were so transferred, as that God had quitted unto them all dominion over his creatures; be he

And certainly, God which hath promised us the reward of well-doing, which Christ himself claimed at the hands of the Father, (I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do : ) and the same God, who hath threatned unto us the forrow and torment of offences, could not, contrary to his merciful nature, be so unjust, as to bind us inevitably were fignificant, but not efficient, giving them yet something less then their due: and therefore as I do not confent with them, who would make those glorious creatures of God virtueles: fo I think that we derogate from His eternal and absolute power and providence, to ascribe to them the same dominion over our immortal fouls, which they have over all bodily substances, and perishable natures: for the Souls of men loving and fearing God, receive influence from that divine of the Stars, is by Plato called but a shadow. Plat. pol 6. Lumen est umbra Dei, Deus est lumen luminis; Light is the shadow of Gods brightnes, who is the light of light: But to end this question, because this Destiny, together with Providence, Prescience, and Predestination, are often confounded, I think it not impertinent for every man hath not observed it, though all learned men have.

§. XII.

Of Prescience.

Prescience, or fore-knowledg (which the Greeks call Prognosts, the Latines *præcog*nitio, or prascientia) considered in order and nature (if we may speak of God after the manner of men) goeth before Providence: for God fore-knew all things, before he had created them, or before they had being to be cared for; and Prescience is no other then an infallible fore-knowledg. For whatfoever our felves fore-know, except the same be to fucceed accordingly, it cannot be true that we fore-know it. But this Prescience of God Gods fore-knowledge impose any necessity, therein do manifestly present it self. or bind. For in that we fore-know that the Sun will rife, and fet; that all men born in dence, are so many, both in general and parthe Spring shall come; after the Spring, Som- them in this place: Sing unto God (faith Daledg the cause of this, or any of these: nei- giveth the beasts their food, and feedeth the eye of man (faith Boetius) beholdeth those things Subject to sense, as they are; the eye seeth that such a beast is an horse, it seeth men, trees, and houses, &c. but our seeing of them (as they are) is not the cause of their so being, for such they fame Author; Divina providentia rebus geneevenirent ex necessitate, pramia bonorum, & pana malorum periret; Divine Providence are to exist; for if all come to pass of necessity, there should neither be remard of good, nor punishment of evil.

6. XIII.

The first Book of the first Part

Of Frovidence.

Ow Providence (which the Greeks call Pronoia ) is an intellectual knowledg, both fore-feeing, caring for, and ordering all to touch the difference in a word or two; things, and doth not onely behold all past, all present, and all to come, but is the cause of their fo being, which Prescience (fimply taken) is not: and therefore Providence by the Philosophers (saith S. Augustine) is divided into Memory, Knowledge, and Care: Memory of the pair; Knowledg of the prefent; and Care of the future: and we our selves account such a man for provident, as, remembring things past, and observing things present, can by judgment, and comparing the one with the other, provide for the future, and times succeeding. That such a thing there is as Providence, the Scriptures every where teach us; Moses in many places, the Prophets in their Predictions, Christ himself and his Apostles assure us hereof; and besides the Scriptures, Hermes, Orpheus, Euripides, Pythagoras, Plato, Plotinus, and (in effect) all learned men acknowledg the Providence of God; yea, the Turks themselves are so consident therein as they refuse not to accompany and (as it is Prescience onely) is not the cause of visit each other in the most pestilent diseases, any thing futurely fucceeding: neither doth nor fhun any peril whatfoever, though death

The places of Scripture proving Provithe World shall die again; that after Winter, ticular, as I shall need to repeat but a few of mer, and Harvest; and that according to the feveral seeds that we sow, we shall reap several seeds that we sow, we shall reap several seeds that we sow, we shall reap several seeds that we sow, and maketh 8. ral forts of grain; yet is not our fore-know- the graff to grow upon the Mountains, which ther doth the knowledg in us bind or con- young Raven that cries: All these wait upon ftrain the Sun to rife and fet, or men to die; thee that thou mayest give them food in due fea 27,9,0 for the causes (as men perswade themselves)

| on: And thou shalt drink of the River Chear 145.15 are otherwise manifest and known to all. The eth (faith God to Eliah) and I have commanded the Ravens to feed thee there. Behold, the I Reg. Fowls of the Air, they fow not, nor reap, and Mail 6.1 yet your heavenly Father feedeth them : Again, Luke IL Are not two Sparrows fold for a farthing? and 6,7. one of them shall not fall on the ground without be in their own natures. And again out of the your Father: yea, all the hairs of your head are numbred : And S. Peter, Cast all your care on 1 Pets A randis non imponit necessatem, quia si omnia him, for he careth for you: And his judgments Pfal. 366 are written, faith David.

God therefore, who is every where pre-(faith he) imposeth no necessity upon things that fent. Who filleth the Heavens and the Earth, Ja. 23.34 whose eyes are upon the righteous, and his countenance against them that do evil, was therefore by Orpheus called oculus infinitus, an infinite eye, beholding all things; and cannot therefore be esteemed as an idle looker on, and all livings, for their young ones. If Pro- rans, cur non videat, rationem videt; He that vidence be found in second Fathers, much feeth no reason in the actions of God, by considemore in the first and Universal: and if there ration of his own infirmity, perceiveth the reabe a natural loving care in men, and beafts, fon of his blindness. And again, with S. Anguginning, and is the bond of the Universal: may be, unjust it cannot be. Amor divinus rerum omnium est principium,& vinculum universi (faith Plato: ) Amor Dei est nodus perpetuus, mundi copula, partiumque ejus immobile sustentaculum ac universa machine fundamentum; The love of God is the perpetual knot, and link or chain of the world. and the immovable pillar of every part thereof. and the Basis and foundation of the Universal. God therefore who could onely be the cause of all, can onely provide for all, and fuftain that the Starrs have no other dominion, then all; fo as to absolute power; to every where 76.4.1. presence; to perfect goodness; to pure and divine love; this attribute transcendent ha-bility of Providence is onely proper and belonging.

S. XIV.

Of Predestination.

Ow for Predestination, we can differ-ence it no otherwise, from Providence and Prescience, then in this; that Prescience onely fore-feeth; Providence fore-feeth and careth for, and hath respect to all creatures, heard of; and Hestodus, who hath taught Predestination (as it is used specially by Dimen belonging, but of their falvation proum subjec cum Diabolo Whereof one is it, which sels, have equal success to those by the best Tm me exis predestinated to reign for ever with God, but judgment conducted, therefore had Fortune with sothe other is to undergo everlasting torment with the same external figure with Sapience; (similar) the Devil; for according to Nonins Marcellus, whereof Athenaus:

as if he had transferred his power to any o- | Destinare, est praparare; and of the same opither; for it is contrary to his own word, Glo- nion are many Protestant Writers, as Calvin, Cal. in c 9. host, 8. riam meam alteri non dabo, I will not give my Beza, Eucanus, Danæus, and fuch like: and ad Rom. glory to another. No man commandeth in the as for the manifold questions hereof arising, Beg. is Kings presence, but by the Kings direction; I leave them to the Divines; and why it hath might another. but God is every where present, and King of pleased God to create some vessels of ho-ad Rom. Kings. The example of Gods univerfal Pro- nour, and some of dishonour, I will answer Dament 1.3. Kings. The example of Gods universal Pro-vidence is feen in his creatures. The Father with Gregory, who faith, Qui in fact is Dei ra-Greg. Magh. provideth for his children: beafts and birds tionem non videt, infirmitatem suam conside- Job. 9. much more in God, who hath formed this stine, Occulta effe cansa potest, injusta esse non polin es nature, and whose Divine love was the be- potest; Hidden the cause of his Predestination 59.

6. X V.

Of Fortune: and of the reason of some things that seem to be by Fortune, and against Reafon and Providence. Aftly, feeing Destiny or Necessity is sub-

fequent to Gods Providence, and feeing is before spoken and that Nature is nothing, but as Plato calleth it, Dei artem, vel artificiofum Dei Organum, The art, or artificial Organ of God: and Cusanus, Divini pracepti instrumentum; The instrument of the divine precept: we may then with better reason reject that kind of Idolatry or God of fools, called Fortune or Chance; a Goddess, the most reverenced, and the most reviled of all other, but not antient: for Homer maketh her the Daughter of Oceanus, as Paulanias witnesseth in his Meffeniacks. The Greeks call her Tuxto, fignifying a relative being, or betiding, so as before Homers time this great Ladywas scarce each not, and hard respect to an creatures, lead of and reposits, who hard taught even from the brighteft Angels of Heavento the unworthleft Worms of the Earth: and terfeit gods, hath not a word of Fortune; yet & Penins afterward the grew fo great and omnipotent, " vines) is onely of men, and yet not of all to as from Kings and Kingdoms, to Beggars and Demurius Cottages, the ordered all things; relifting the Polioreus perly, in the common use of Divines; or perdition, as some have used it. Yet Peter Lom-for thereof miserable; valuing the folly of one have used. The lowest Theorem 1. bard, Thomas, Berneufis Theologus, and others, the most foolish, by making the fuccess pro-tanget of his For-Thun part, take the word Predestination more strictly, sperous: insomuch as the actions of men were tune, is and for a preparation to felicity. Divers of faid to be but the sports of Fortune, and the said to have the Fathers take it more largely fometimes: variable accidents happening in mens lives, to cycles, among whom Saint Angultine speaking of two but her pastimes: of which Palladius, Vita ho-out upon the Cite Cities, and two Societies, useth these words, minum ludus fortune est; The life of main is possible to the cites, and two Societies, useth these words, Quarum est una, que predestinata est in eter- the play of Fortune: and because it often fall- to her a num regnare cum Deo, altera aternum supplici- eth out, that enterprises guided by ill coun- Verse of

perditum.

Longissime à Sapientia Fors dissidet, Sed multa perficit tamen simillima:

16

From Wisedom Fortune differs far, And yet in works most like they are.

But I will forbear to be curious in that, which (as it is commonly understood) is nothing else but a power imaginary, to which the successes of human actions and endevours were for their variety ascribed; for when a manifest cause could not be given, then wasit attributed to Fortune, as if there were are ignorant; contrary to this true ground of Plato, Nihil est ortum sub Sole, cujus causa legitima non pracesserit; Nothing ever came to pass under the Sun, of which there was nota just (faith he) which happen, besides the intention of the Inferior, but not besides the intention of sed non præter intentionem Superioris (to wit. the ordinance of God; ) and therefore (faith

Te facimus Melanchthon) Quod poeta Fertunam nos Deum Te termin appellamins; whom the Poets call Fortune, we discern, and hath with all an Innects or those Deam, we hope to be God. And that this is true, the heart and loving truth; the discover the discovery the din ms. Sai. Scripture in many places teacheth us; as in that govern, endure no other discourse then into his hands, then I will appoint thee a place effects there appear unto us no certain causes. To this effect speaketh S. Augustine in his questions upon Genesisthe first Book: the fame hath Scheca in his fourth of Benefits ; which was also the doctrine of the Stoicks, of which Sect he was: For what sever (faith seven) he) thou callest God, be it Nature, Fate, or For- 6.7. tune, all are but one and the same, differenced by divers terms, according as he useth, and exercifeth his power diverfly.

Plato, and the Academicks, to this effect, That

But it may be objected, That if Fortune and Chance were not fometimes the causes no cause of those things, of which most men of good and evil in men, but an idle voice. whereby we express success; how comes it then, that so many worthy and wise men depend upon so many unworthy and emptyheaded fools? that riches and honour are preceding cause. But Aquinas hath herein an- given to external men, and without kernel; fwered in one diffinction, whatsoever may and so many learned, virtuous, and valiant be objected; for many things there are men wear out their lives in poor and dejected estates? In a word, there is no other inferiour, or apparent cause, beside the parthe Superior; Prater intentionem Inferioris, tiality of mans affection, but the falhioning and not fashioning of our selves according to the nature of the times wherein we live: for whosoever is most able, and best sufficient to discern, and hath withal an honest and open the Law of Murther, He that smiteth a man, their own flatteries: then, I say, such an one, and he die, shall die the death; and if a man whose virtue and courage forbiddeth him to hath not laid wait, but God hath offered him | bc base and a dissembler, shall evermore hang under the wheel; which kind of deserving whither he shall slee. Now, where the Scripture hath these words, God hath offered him charge Fortune withal. For whosever shall into his hands, we say, If he hurt him by tell any great Man or Magistrate, that he is Chance: and in Deuteronomy the nineteenth, not Just; the General of an Army, that he is where the ilipping of an Ax from the helve, not valiant; and great Ladies that they are whereby another is flain, was the work of not fair; shall never be made a Counseller, God himself; we in our phrase attribute this a Captain, or a Courtier. Neither is it sufficiaccident, to Chance or Fortune: and in ent to be wife with a wife Prince, valiant Ver. 33. Proverbs the fixteenth, The lot is cast into the with a valiant, and just with him that is just, lap, but the whole disposition thereof is of the for such a one hath no estate in his prosperi-Lord: fo as that which feemeth most casual ty; but he must also change with the succesand subject to Fortune, is yet disposed by the for, if he be of contrary qualities; sail with ordinance of God, as all things elfe; and the tyde of the time, and alter form and conhereof the wifer fort, and the best learned of dition, as the Estate or the Estate's Master the Philosophers were not ignorant, as Cicero changeth: Otherwise how were it possible, witnesseth for them, gathering the opinion that the most base men, and separate from of Ariftotle and his Sectators, with those of all imitable qualities, could so often attain to honour and riches, but by fuch an obserthe same power which they called Animam vantslaving course? The same power which they called Animam vantslaving course? The same power which they called Animam vantslaving course? The same power which they called Animam vantslaving course. The same power which they called Animam vantslaving course. The same power which they called Animam vantslaving course. we express by the name of God, governing by making them believe that all their vices every Being aswell in heaven as in earth; to are virtues, and all their dusty actions crywhich Wisdom and Power they sometime stalline, have yet in all ages prospered equally gave the title of Necedity or Fate, because it bindeth by inevitable ordinance: fome- For, according to Menander, Omnis inspirent, time, the ftyle of Fortune, because of many arrogantia & plausibus capitur; Every fool is wonne with his own pride, and others flatter- What more fooligh then for him that despairs (eine applause: so as whosoever will live alto- specially of the effect ) to be entaneled with endgether out of himselfe, and study other mens less contentions? Whosoever therefore will humours, and observe them, shall never be let before him Machiavel's two marks to shoot unfortunate; and on the contrary, that man at (to wit) Riches, and Glory, must set on which prizeth truth and virtue (except the and take off a back of yron to a weak woodfeason wherein he liveth be of all these, den Bow, that it may fit both the strong and and of all forts of goodness, fruitful) shall ne- the feeble; for ashe who first devised to add ver prosper by the possession or profession fayls to rowing vessels, did either to proporthereof. It is also a token of a worldly wise man, not to war or contend in vain against wards the head of his Mast, he might abide the nature of times wherein he liveth: for all winds and storms, or else he sometime fuch a one is often the author of his own mifery; but best it were to follow the advice, that man which prizeth virtue for it selfe, which the Pope gave the Bishop of that age, out of Ovid, while the Arian Herefie raged:

Ovid. Mit. Dum furor in curfu est, currenti cede surori.
While sury gallops on the way, Let no man furie's gallop stay.

And if Cicero (then whom that world begat not a man of more reputed Judgment) and been with an untorn and undiffevered bonoteth Quid fultius quam desperantem, (pre- are diversities of operations, but God is the sertim de effectu ) litibus perpetuis implicari? same which worketh all in all.

tion them as being fastened aloft, and toor other perished by his own invention: fo and cannot endure to hoyfe and strike his fayls, as the divers natures of calmes and ftormes require, must cut his sayls and his cloth of mean length and breadth, and content himself with a flow and fure navigation, (to wit) a mean and free estate. But of this dispute of Fortune, and the rest, or whatfoever Lords or Gods, imaginary powhad followed the counsel of his Brother ers, or causes, the wit (or rather foolishness) Quintus, Potnisset (faith Petrarch) in lectulo of man hath found out : let us resolve with suo mori, potuisset integro cadavere sepeliri; S. Paul, who hath taught us, that there is but 1 cor. c. 2; He might then have died the death of nature, one God, the Father, of whom are all things, v. 6. and we in him; and one Lord Jefus Chrift, by dy buried; for, as Petrarch in the same place whom are all things, and we by him; there

CHAP. II.

Of Man's estate in his first Creation, and of God's rest.

6. I.

Of the Image of God, according to which man was first created.

the earth replenished, God faid, Let us make 60.1. 26. man in our own Image, according to our likenefs. Man is the last and most admirable of Gods works to us known: Ingens miraculum Tif And homo; Manis the greatest wonder (faith Plato 2. 6 de out of Mercurius:) Naturæ ardentissimæ arti-Plu leg. ficium. The artificial work of the most ardent or fire-like nature (as faith Zoroafter) though the fame be meant, not for any excellency external, but in respect of his internal form, both in the Nature, Qualities, and other Attributes thereof: in nature, because it hath conceive, that man was made after the Image an effence, immortal, and spiritual; in qualities, because the same was by God created minion, as S. Chrysoftom, Ambrose, and some holy and righteous in truth; in other attriworld, and of the creatures therein.

"He creation of all other creatures be- | Santius his animal, mentise; capacius alta, ing finished, the heavens adorned, and Deerat addrec, & quod dominari in catera possët:

Natus homo eft. More holy then the rest, and understan- In locumo Ovid, Mei ding more. A living creature wants, to rule all made before:

So man began to be.

Of this Image and Similitude of God, there is much dispute among the Fathers, Schoolmen, and late Writers: Some of the Fathers of God, in respect chiefly of Empire and Doothers: which S. Ambrose denieth to the wobutes, because man was made Lord of the man in these words, Ut sicut Deus unus, ab eo fieret homo unus; & quomodo ex Deo uno qui unitatis ejus haberet imaginem; That as allo against Adimantus the Manichee affirm-God is one, one man might be made by him, and that in what manner all things are of one God, likewise of one man the whole kind should be upon the face of the whole earth: Therefore be being one, made one, that should have the Image of his unity. But whereas it is gathered out of the following words of the sameVerse. that man was after the Image of God in respect of rule and power; it is written Dominamini in the plural number; and let them rule over the fish in the Sea, &c. and therefore cannot the woman be excluded. Others conceive, that Man is faid to be after the Image of God in respect of his immortal soul onely: because as God is invisible, so the soul sense, and in this place the better to express of man is invisible; as God is immortal and each other; whatsoever Lombard hath said incorporal, so is the foul of Man immortal to the contrary. For God knows, what a and incorporal; and as there is but one God multitude of meanings the wit of man imawhich governeth the world, fo but one gineth to himself in the Scriptures, which foul which governeth the body of man; and as God is wholly in every part of the world, fo is the foul of man wholly in every part of (Image) for both: fo Saint James uleth the the body: Anima est tota in toto, & tota in qualibet parte; The foul is wholly in the whole body, and wholly in every part thereof, according to Ariftotle; though Chalcidius, and o- the similitude of God. Howsoever therefore S. ther learned men deny that doctrine; which Augustine seemeth, out of a kind of elegancy that it is otherwise then potentially true, all in writing, to make some difference: as prove. These and the like arguments do the ternitate, similitudinem in moribus inveniri; finite Man.

19

ad Imaginem Dei; and spin into small threds with subtile distinctions, many times the plainness and sincerity of the Scriptures: vum; A word declaring quality in the Subfoul doth not therefore leave to be the Image racides it is written, He made them according omnia, ita ex uno homine omne genus effet super of God; but it hath not his Similitude, exfacient totius terra: unus igitur, unum fecit, cept it be holy and righteous. S. Augustine eth, that by fin, the perfection of this image is lost in man; and in his Retractations maintaineth the same opinion, and also affirmeth that the Similitude is more largely taken, then the Image.

But howfoever the School-men and others diftinguish, or whatsoever the Fathers conceive; fure I am, that S. Paul maketh the same fense of the Image, which Victorinus doth of the similitude, who faith: As we have born the immittude, who latti: As we have born i Co. the image of the earthy, so shall we bear the i-42. mage of the beavenly; and it cannot be gathered out of the Scripture, that the words Image and Similitude were used but in one word (Similitude) for both, in these words: Therewith bless we God even the Father, and fam. 3, therewith curse we Men, which are made after the Aristotelians in the world shall never where he writeth, Confitenur imaginem in &- vi fight Jews make (faith Tostatus) and these resem- we confess that this image is found in eternity. blances, between the infinite God, and the but his similitude in manners, that is in the spiritual dispositions and qualities of the mind; The School-men resemble the Mind or yet thus he essewhere speaketh plainly: Quasi Ang. 18 Soul of Man to God, in this respect especi- verò possit esse imago aliqua, in qua similitudo sere ally; because that as in the Mind there are non sit: senim own no smills non est procul duthree distinct powers, or faculties (to wit) bio nec image oft; As if (faith he) there could Memory, Understanding, and Will; and yet be any image, where the similitude is not: no. all these, being of real differences, are but out of doubt, where there is no likeness, there is one Mind: so in God there are three distinct | no image. The very words of the Text make persons, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, this most manifest, as, Let us make man in and yet but one God. They also make the our image, according to our likeness: which Image and Similitude diverse; and again, is, Let us make man in our image, that he they distinguish between Imaginem Dei, and may be like us: and in the next Verse sollowing, God himself maketh it plain; for there he useth the word (Image)only as thus: God created the man in his image, in the image their wits being like that strong water, that of God created he him. And to take away all eateth thorow and diffolveth the pureft dispute or ambiguity, in the first Verse of gold. Victorinus also maketh the Image of the fifth Chapter, the word (Similitude) is God to be fubstantial, but not the similitude: used again by it self, as, In the day that God Sed in substantia nomen qualitatis declarati- created Adam, in the likeness of God made he him. And this similitude S. Paul, Colof. the perfit stance. Out of which words, and that which third, calleth the Image; Fut on (faith he) the followeth, it is inferred, that as the Image new man which is renewed in knowledg after and Similitude do greatly differ, so the finful the image of him that created him. And in 89-

to his image. Now if we may believe S. Paul flance, the image of fuch a nature or wherebefore Peter Lombard and other Schoolmen, in can man be faid to retemble his unexcogithen it is as manifest as words can make it, table power and perfectness? Certainly, not that the image and similitude is but the same; in Dominion alone; for the Devil is said to 156 6 12. nm.1.3. for S. Paul ufeth both the words directly in one fense. For they turned the glory of the incorruptible God, to the similitude of the image true and perfect image of his Father : Neiof a corruptible man.

general was formed after the image of God, both in iftanding, and Will 5 for the Devils are also immortal, and mind: Nulla pars in homine, que immortal, and participate those faculties, benon fuerit hujusce imaginis particeps; No part ing called Damones, because scientes of know-Plat in in a man (faith he) which was not participa- ledg and subtilty: Neither because we are ting God image; for God faid, Let us make man reasonable creatures, by which we are distinaccording to our own image. But the foul a- guished from beasts: For who have rebelled tone is not man, but the Hypoftasis or whole against God? Who have made gods of the Man compounded of body and foul. The vilest beasts, of Serpents, of Catts, of Owle, body of man ( faith he ) is the image of the world, and called therefore Microcosmus; but sures, but reasonable men? Yet do I not conthe Idea and exemplar of the world was first demn the opinion of S. Chrysoftom and Am- Oferius de in God, so that man, according to his body, must needs be the image of God. Against which opinion of this learned man, his own image of God, if we take Dominion, such as objection feemeth to me fufficient, where he it ought to be, that is, accompanied with Juallegeth that it may be faid, that Moses spake stice and Piety; for God did not onely make man mortal, but the body onely: so when air) and over the Beasts of the Field; But God said, Let us make man after our image, he God gave unto man a dominion over men.he manum divina (faith Philo;) God is not paryet a more divine understanding then these groß Hereticks: Ad similitudinem Dei propiùs accedebat humana virtus, quàm figura; The virtue which is in man ( faith he ) came nearer the similitude of God then the figure. For God is a spiritual substance, invisible, and most simple; God is a just God, God is Merciful, God is Charity it felf, and (in a word) Goodness it self, and none else simply good. And thus much it hath pleased God himself to teach us, and to make us know of himself. velnatura hominis. The form or nature of man;

ther because man hath an immortal foul, and Zanchius laboureth to prove, that Man therein the faculties of Memory, Underyea, even of shameful parts, of lusts and pleabrofe, as touching Dominion, but that, in re- full tib.5. spect thereof, man was in some fort after the by the figure Synechdoche, As when a man is man a Ruler and Governour over the Fishes called a mortal man, yet is not the whole of the Sca, the Fowls of Heaven (or of the meant the foul of man, and not the body of appointed Kings to govern them, and Judges earth and dust: Maledictus qui Deitatem ad to judge them in equity. Neither do I exhominis lineamenta refert (faith S. Augustine: ) clude Reason, as it is the ability of Under-Curfed is he that referreth the Deity of God to standing. For I do not conceive, that Ireneus the lineaments of mans body: Deus enim non did therefore call Man, the image of God, est humana forma particeps, neque corpus hu- because he was animal rationale onely; but that he understood it better, with sybilla; taker of humane form, nor humane body of the Imago mea est homo, reclam rationem habens, form divine. The Hebrew word for image, is Man that is endued with right reason is said to Telem, which fignifieth a shadow or obscure resemble God (that is) by right reason to know resemblance: In imagine pertransit homo; and confess God his Creatour, and the same Man passeth away in a shadow: Let us then God to serve, love, and obey: and therefore know and confider, that God, who is eternal faid S. Augustine (who herein came nearer the and infinite, hath not any bodily shape or Truth) Fecit Deus hominem ad imaginem & composition; for it is both against his Nature similitudinem suam in mente; God made man and his Word; an errour of the Anthropo- in respect of the intellect after his own image morphite, against the very essence and Malamilitude; and Reyverius, Homo, qued habet mentem, facture est ad imaginem Dei; Surely Cicero, who was but a Heathen, had Man was made after the image of God in mind, Reyn. dor, in that he hath a mind.

of the Intellectual mind of man, in which there is much of the Image of God: and that this Image is much deformed by Sin.

OUt Mens is not taken here for anima phy-Dica, according to Ariftotle, which is, forma What then can be the shadow of such a sub- but this faculty or gift of God, called Mens, perpetua veritatis contemplatio; whose act, exercise, or office, is the perpetual contemplation of truth; and therefore it is also called Intellectus divinus, intellectus contemplatious, & anima contemplativa, A divine understanding. and an intellect or mind contemplative. Est au-De mine tem mens nostra ( faith Cusanus ) vis compre-1dios. 1.3. hendendi 5 6 totum virtuale ex omnibus comprehendendi virtutibus compositum: Our intellectual mind (faith he) is a power of comprehending; even the whole, that is in this kind powerful, compounded of all the powers of comprehension: unto which Mercurius attributeth so much (if his meaning accompany his words) that he esteemeth it to be the very the Manichees, and others) and no otherwise feparate from God (faith he) then the light from the Sun: for this Mens or understand-Sen. ep. 65, ing (faith Mercurius) eft Deus in hominibus. f. © 31. f. Is God in men; or rather (and which I take to Lib 9.6.5 be his meaning) is the image of God in man For, as the Sun is not of the same essence or nature with the divine light, but a body illightned, and an illumination created; fo is this Mens or understanding in men, not of the effence of Gods infinite understanding, but a power and faculty of our fouls the purest; or, the lumen anima rationalis, by the true and eternal light illightned. And this Mens, others call Animam anima, The foul of the foul, or, with S. Augustine, the eye of the soul, or receptacle of Sapience and divine Knowledg, Que amorem sapientie tanquam ducem sequitur, Which followeth after the love of sapience as her guide (faith Philo;) between which and judge and discourse; Anima, by which we live. Hereof it is faid, Anima corpus animat, ideft, vivificat; or, The foul is that which doth animate the body, that is giveth it life; for God the great Director hath in the World, the same hath this Anima, or mind, or, soul in make election; and to this Basil agreeth. which called this Mens, or divine understand-is taken for prima vis animi, the principal bitual in wife men, and in mad men this strength of the mind, or foul, cujus actus est (mens) is extinguished, and not the soul, for mad men do live, though diftract.

20

Therefore this word being often used for the Soul giving life, is attributed abusively to mad men, when we fay that they are of a distract mind, in stead of a broken understanding: which word (Mind) we use also for Opinion, as, I am of this mind, or, that mind: and fometimes for mens conditions or virtues, as, He is of an honest mind, or, a man of a just mind: sometimes for affection, as, I do this for my mind's fake: and Aristotle fometimes useth this word (Mens) for the phantalie, which is the strength of the imagination: sometimes for the knowledg of principles, which we have without discourse: effence of God (which was also the errour of oftentimes for Spirits, Angels, and Intelligences: but as it is used in the proper signification, including both the understanding agent and possible, it is described to be, A pure, fimple, substantial act, not depending upon matter, but having relation to that which is intelligible, as to his first object: or more at large, thus; A part or particle of the Soul, whereby it doth understand, not depending upon matter, nor needing any organ, free from passion coming from without, and apt to be differered, as, eternal from that which is mortal. Hereof excellently Mercurius ; Anima est imago mentis, mens imago Dei. Deus menti præest, mens animæ anima corporis The Soul (meaning that which giveth life) is the image of this understanding, or Mens; and this (Mens) or understanding is the Image of God. God is President or Ruler over this understanding, this understanding over the Soul, and this Soul over the body. This division and direason; between which and the mind, called stinction out of the Platonicks and Peripateanima: between which and that power which ticks, I leave to the Reader to judge of. That the Latines call animus, there is this diffe- Mens humana hath no need of any organ, zanth it rence: Reason, is that faculty by which we Marsilius Ficinus in his ninth Book of the oper. Da Soul's immortality, laboureth to prove. Zan- tap. 2. chius doth not differ from Ficinus in words; for (faith he) Ad facultatem intelligentem exercendam non eget Mens organo ; tanquam medeath is the separation of body and soul: dio, per quod intelligat: quanquam eget objeand the same strength (saith Philo ) which do in quod intuatur, & ex quo intellectionem concipiat. Hoc autem objectum sunt phantasmata, seu rerum à sensibus perceptarum simula-Man. Animus, is that, by which we will and chra ad phantaliam prolata: To exercise the faculty of understanding, the mind of man (saith he) needeth no instrument, as a mean, by which ing, Persicacem anima partem, The perceiving it may understand: but it needeth an object, part of the mind, or, The light by which the whereon to look, and whence to conceive the act of understanding. This object are the phanfoul discerneth: Dormientum mens, non anitasms, or the resemblances of things received ma, sopitur; & in furiosis mens extinguitur,anima manet : In men that fleep it is this (mens, from the fense, and carried to the phantafte. But or) understanding, and not the mind or soul, in effect, his conclusion seemeth to carry a which refteth, during which time it is but ha- contrary sense, when he maketh the Phanta-

CHAP. II. fie. in representing the object to the under-) we are made capable of this print; but chiefstanding, to be a corporal Organum; neither can it be understood to be an Organum of any thing, but of the understanding. And he addeth, that the resemblance of things in mans on. For it is not by nature, nor by her liberaimagination, are to his understanding and lity, that we were printed with the seal of mind, as colours are to the fight; whence it so Gods Image (though Reason may be said to followeth, that the imagination or phantafy be of her gift, which, joyned to the Soul, is a it felf is to the faculty of understanding, as Pg. 185. the eye is to the faculty of feeing: and as this per species) but from the bountiful grace of The second of the second of this question, How the Lord of all goodness, who breathed life into Earth, and contrived within the Trunk into Earth, and contrived within the Trunk treavit il- body, and hath communion with the body, lam. id elt, I refer the Reader to a most grave and learnriniis, at ed Discourse in the last Reply of M. D. Bilson, late Bishop of Winchester, unto Henry Jacob. empotem, face britisp of the truth be determined, we said tre must conclude that it is neither in respect of reason alone, by which we discourse, nor in respect of the mind it self, by which we live, nor in refpect of our fouls simply, by which which in the Scriptures is called, walking with we are immortal, that we are made after the God; and all other men so long retain this Image of God. But most safely may we re- Image, as they fear, love, and serve God semble our selves to God in mente, and in respect of that pure faculty, which is never separate from the contemplation and love of weight of manifold and voluntary offences, God. Yet this is not all; For Saint Bernard and obstinate fins. For the unjust mind canmaketh a true difference between the nature not be after the Image of God, feeing God is and faculties of the Mind or Soul, and between the infusion of qualities, endowments for God is Charity and Mercy it self; Falfand gifts of grace, wherewith it is adorned hood, cunning practice, and ambition, are and enriched, which, being added to the nature, essence, and faculties, maketh it altogether to be after the Image of God: whose words are these, Non proptered imago Dei est, quia sui meminit Mens, seque intelligit & diligit ( which also was the opinion of S. Augu-(tine; ) sed quia potest meminisse, intelligere, ac according to common understanding, have diligere cum à quo facta est, (that is) The Mind made us capable by the power of reason, and (or Mens) was not therefore the Image of God, because it remembreth, understandeth, and loveth it felf; but because it can remember, understand, and love God, who created it. And that this Image may be deformed and made unprofitable, hear Basil; Homo ad Imaginem & Similitudinem Dei factus est Peccatum verò Imaginis hujus pulchritudinem deformavit. O inutilem reddidit, dum animam corruptis concupiscentia affectibus immersit: Man was made after the Image and Similitude of God, but Sin hath deformed the beauty of this Image, and made it unprofitable by drawing our minds into corrupt concupiscence.

It is not therefore (as aforesaid) by reason of Immortality, nor in Reason, nor in Dominion, nor in any one of these by it self, nor in all these joyned, by any of which, or by all standing, with the other faculties of the Soul, it is thought by some of the Fathers, as by S.

ly, in respect of the habit of Original righteoutness, most perfectly infused by God into the Mind and Soul of man in his first Creatipart of the Effential Constitution of our proof Dust and Clay, the inimitable hability of his own Piety and Righteousness.

So long therefore (for that refemblance which Dominion hath ) do those that are powerful retain the Image of God, as according to his Commandments they exercise the Office or Magistracy to which they are called, and fincerely walk in the ways of God, Gen. 5. 22. truly, that is, for the love of God alone, and do not bruise and deface his Seal by the Justice it self; The bloud-thirsty hath it not, properties of Satan; and therefore cannot dwell in one foul, together with God: and 2 cor. 6. to be fhort, there is no likelihood between 14. pure light and black darkness, between beauty and deformity, or between righteoufness and reprobation. And though Nature, apt enough to receive this Image of Gods goodness, which the sensual souls of Beasts cannot perceive; yet were that aptitude natural more inclinable to follow and imbrace the false and dure-less pleasures of this Stageplay World, then to become the shadow of God by walking after him, had not the exceeding workmanship of God's Wisdom, and the liberality of his Mercy, formed eyes to our fouls, as to our bodies, which, piercing through the impurity of our flesh, behold the highest Heavens, and thence bring Knowledg and Object to the Mind and Soul, to contemplate the ever-during Glory, and term-less Joy, prepared for those which retain the Image and Similitude of their Creatour, preferving undefiled and unrent the garment of the new man, which, after the Iwhich we relemble, or may be called the mage of God, is created in Righteouinels, thadow of God, though by reason and under- and Holiness, as faith S. Paul. Now whereas that by fin, the perfection of the Image is loft, and not the Image it felf: both opinions by nor perill with the mortal parts of virtuous this distinction may be well reconciled (to men: seeing Gods justice in the one, and his confidered, according to supernatural gifts, namely of divine Grace and heavenly Glory,

6. III.

blotted out, and destroyed by Sin.

Of our base and frail Bodies: and that the care thereof should yield to the immortal Soul.

THE external man God formed out of Sun. the dust of the Earth, or (according to the fignification of the word, Adam) of Adamath, of red Earth, or ex limo terræ, out of threatnings made us afraid? we behold othe flime of the Earth, or a mixed matter of Earth and Water. Non ex qualibet humo, fed | ex chaphar adamath (id eft) ex pinguissima & Arias Mont. mollissima: Not that God made an Image or denat f. Statue of Clay, but out of Clay, Earth, or Duft. God formed and made flesh, bloud, and bone, with all parts of man.

That, man was formed of Earth and Duff did Abraham acknowledg, when in humble fear he called unto God, to fave Sodom: Let not my Lord now be argry, if I speak, I that am but lust and assess. And, In these Houses of Gen. 18.17. Clay, whose foundation is in the assess, do our souls inhabit, according to Job. And though our own eyes do every where behold the Job 4. 27. fudden and refiftless assaults of Death, and Nature affureth us by never-failing experience, and Reason by infallible demonstratien, that our times upon the Earth have neither certainty nor durability; that our Bodies are but the Anvils of pain and diseases, and our Minds the Hives of unnumbred cares, forrows, and paffions: and that (when we are most glorified) we are but those painted posts, against which Envy and Fortune direct their darts; yet such is the true unhappines casting our hopes on the Peace, which we of our condition, and the dark ignorance trust to make at parting, is no other then a which covereth the eyes of our understand-rebellious presumption, and (that which is

S. Ambrose Augustine, with whom S. Ambrose joyneth, away leisure) the imprisoned immortal Soul, wit) that the Image of God, in man, may be goodness in the other, is exercised for evertaken two wayes; for, either it is considered more, as the ever-living subjects of his reaccording to natural gifts, and confifteth ward and punishment. But when is it that we therein; namely, to have a reasonable and examine this great account? Never while we understanding nature, &c. and in this sense, have one vanity left us to spend: we plead the Image of God is more lost by sin, then the for Titles, till our breath fail us; dig for very reasonable or understanding nature, &c. Riches, while our strength enableth us; exis lost, (or fin doth not abolish and take away ercise Malice, while we can revenge; and these natural gifts:) or, the Image of God is then when time hath beaten from us both youth, pleasure, and health, and that Nature it self hateth the house of old age, we remember with Job, that we must go the way Job 10.11, from whence we shall not return, and that our 6-17.13, which is indeed the perfection and accomplishment of the natural Image; and this manbed is made ready for us in the dark; And ner of similitude and Image of God is wholly then, I fay, looking over-late into the bottom of our conscience (which Pleasure and Ambition had locked up from us all our lives,) we behold therein the fearful Images of our actions past, and withal this terrible Inscription: That God will bring every work into judgment, that man hath done under the Eccl. 12.14.

But what examples have ever moved us? what perfwafions reformed us? or what ther mens Tragedies plaid before us, we hear what is promifed and threatned: but the World's bright glory hath put out the eyes of our minds, and these betraying lights, (with which we onely see) do neither look up towards term-less joyes, nor down towards endless forrows, till we neither know, nor can look for any thing else at the Worlds hands. Of which excellently Marius Victor :

Nil hostes nil dira fames, nil denique morbi Egerunt, fnimus, qui nunc sumus ; iisque periclis Tentati: nihilo meliores reddimur unquam; Sub vitiis nullo culparum fine manentes.

Diseases, famine, enemies, in us no change have wrought,

What er'ft we were, we are; still in the fame fnare caught:

No time can our corrupted manners mend; In Vice we dwell, in Sin that hath no end.

But let us not flatter our immortal Souls herein; for to neglect God all our lives, and ing, that we onely prize, pamper, and exalt the worst of all) even a contemptuous laughthis Vassal and Slave of death, and forget al- ing to scorn, and deriding of God, his Laws together (or onely remember at our cast- and Precepts. Frustra sperant qui sic de misericordia Dei sibi blandiuntur; They hope in vain, up the Ghost, or Spirit; (which was) that his sem in faith Bernard, which in this fort flatter them- life and foul left his body dead. And that felves with Gods mercy.

Снар. 11.

CHAP. II.

Of the Spirit of Life, which God breathed into man in his creation.

breath of life; and the man was a living

Soul: (that is) God gave a body of Earth and of corruptible matter, a Soul spiritual and incorruptible; not that God had any fuch bodily inftruments as men use, but God | solved into the same first matter, whence they breathed the Spirit of Life and Immortality | were taken: but the life of breath everlafting, into man, as he breatheth his grace daily into which God breathed into Man, shall, accor-(faith Elihu in Job ) hath made me, and the gave it. breath of the Almighty hath given me life: In qua sententia (faith Rabanus) vitanda est paupertas sensus carnalis, ne forte putemus Deum, vel manibus corporeis de limo formasse corpus bominis, vel faucibus aut labiis suis inspirasse in faciem formati, ut vivere possit & spiraculum vita habere: Nam & Propheta cum ait, Manus tua fecerunt me, &c. tropica hac locutione magis quam propria, (id eft, juxta consustudinem, qua solent homines oper ari ) loquu-tus est: In which sentence (saith he) the beg-and whom he made the last, and most excelgarliness of carnal sense is to be avoided, lest lent of his Creatures, being internally enduperhaps we should think either that God with bodily hands made mans body of slime, or breathed with jaws or lips upon his face (being form- after whose Image he was formed, and endued) that he might live, and have the spirit of ed with the powers and faculties of Reason life: for the Prophet also mhen ke shift; Thy and other abilities, that thereby also he hands have made me, speak this Tropically, might govern and rule the World, and all rather then properly (that is) according to the other God's Creatures therein. And whereas custom which men use in working. Quantum est God created three sorts of living natures, (to periculi his, qui Scripturas sensu corporeo le- wit) Angelical, Rational, and Brutal; giving gunt? In what danger are they that read the to Angels an intellectual, and to Beafts a fen-The inspiration of the Almighty giveth under-God breathed into man, which is the reafonable foul of man, returneth again to God that gave it, as the body returneth unto the Earth, out of which it was taken; according to Ecclesiastes: And dust shall return to the Earth, out of which it was taken, and the fpirit feall return to God that gave it. Neither is this iguo totum, in terris statuit; God therefore c. 1. word (Spirit) usually otherwise taken in the placed in the Earth the man whom he had made, Scriptures, then for the foul; as when Ste- as it were another World; the great and large the immortal foul of man differeth from the fouls of beafts, the manner of creation maketh it manifest: for it is written, Let the Gen. 1. 20. waters bring forth in abundance every creeping 24. 16. thing, and let the earth bring forth the living thing according to his kind, the beaft of the Earth &c. But of man it is written, Let us make man in our own Image, &c. and further, that ■ N this frame and carcassGod breathed the the Lord breathed in his face the breath of life. Gen. 2.7. Wherefore, as from the Water and Earth were those creatures brought forth, and thence received life so shal they again be diffuch as love and fear him. The Spirit of God ding to Ecclefiaftes, return again to God that Eccl. 13.7.

6. V.

That man is (as it were) a little World: with a digression touching our mortality.

MAn, thus compounded and formed by God, was an abstract or model or brief Story in the Universal: in whom God coned with a divine understanding, by which he might contemplate, and ferve his Creatour, Scriptures in a carnal sense? By this breath sual nature, he vouchsafed unto Man, both was infused into man, both life and soul, and the intellectual of Angels, the sensitive of therefore this (Soul) the Philosophers call Beasts, and the proper rational belonging un-Animam, que vivificat corpus, & animat; to man: and therefore (faith Gregory Nazi-Which doth animate and give life to the body. Man is the bond and chain which tieth together 1. 17. f. flanding, faith Job; and this spirit, which both Natures: and because in the little frame Greg. Nat. of man's body there is a representation of the nis in bomi-Universal, and (by allusion) a kind of parti- ne creatura, cipation of all the pars there, therefore was or celum man called Microcofmos, or the little World. Deus ieitur hominem factum, velut alterum Aug.l.qu.

quendam mundum,in brevi magnum,atque ex- 83.84.67. Ma. 750, Phen cried unto God: Domine, sucipe spiri- World in the small and little World: for out of 16th 9.30. tum meum; Lord Jesus receive my spirit: and the Earth and Dust, was formed the flesh of in S. John, And Jesus bowed his head and gave man, and therefore heavy and lumpish: the Ovil. Met. Inde genus durum fumus experiensque laborum, Et documenta damus qua simus origine nati:

From thence our Kind hard-hearted is, enduring pain and care, Approving, that our bodies of a stony nature are.

His bloud, which disperseth it self by the branches of veins through all the body, may be resembled to those waters, which are carried by Brooks and Rivers over all the earth; his breath to the Air, his natural heat to the inclosed warmth which the Earth hath in it felf, which ftirred up by the heat of the Sun, aflifteth Nature in the speedier procreation of those varieties, which the Earth bringeth forth; Our radical Moisture, Oyl, or Balfamum (whereon the natural heat feedeth and is maintained) is resembled to the fat and fertility of the Earth; the hairs of mans body, which adorns, or overfladows it, to the grafs. which covereth the upper face and fkin of the Earth; our generative power, to Nature. which produceth all things; our determinations, to the leight, wandring, and unftable our eternal habitation, which we pais on unclouds, carried every where with uncertain winds; our eyes to the light of the Sun and and in the end, by the work manship of death, Moon; and the beauty of our youth, to the flowers of the Spring, which, either in a very Thort time, or with the Sun's heat, dry up and wither away, or the fierce puffs of wind blow them from the stalks; the thoughts of our mind to the motion of Angels; and our pure understanding (formerly called Mens, and that which always looketh upwards) to those intellectual Natures, which are always prefent with God; and laftly, our immortal fouls persons. For this Tide of mans life, after it Image and Similitude. And although, in respect of God, there is no man just, or good, 76b 14. 18. Or rightcous (for, In Angelis deprehensa est ments of new Leaves and Flowers. stultitia, Behold, He found folly in his Angels, faith Job), yet, with fuch a kind of difference, as there is between the substance and the shadow, there may be found a goodness in men: which God being pleased to accept, hath therefore called Man, the Image and Similitude of his own Righteousness. In this also is the little World of man compared, and made more like the Universal (man be-Arif. 10. ing the measure of all things; Homo eft men-Met.c. 1. f. fura omnium rerum, faith Ariftotle and Pythagoras) that the four Complexions resemble the four Elements, and the feven Ages of man the seven Planets; Whereof, our infan-

bones of his body we may compare to the cie is compared to the Moon, in which we feem onely to live and grow, as Plants; the sccond Age to Mercurie, wherein we are taught and inftructed; our third Age to Venus, the days of Love, Defire, and Vanity; the fourth to the sun, the strong, flourishing, and beautifull age of mans life; the fifth to Mars, in which we feek honour and victory. and in which our thoughts travel to ambitious ends; the fixth Age is ascribed to Jupiter, in which we begin to take accompt of our times, judge of our felves, and grow to the perfection of our understanding; the last and seventh, to Saturn, wherein our days are fad, and over-cast, and in which we find by dear and lamentable experience, and by the loss which can never be repaired, that of all our vain passions and affections past, the forrow onely abideth: Our attendants are ficknesses, and variable infirmities, and by how much the more we are accompanied with plenty, by so much the more greedily is our end defired, whom when Time bath made unsociable to others, we become a burthen to our selves: being of no other use, then to hold the riches we have from our Successors. In this time it is, when (as aforefaid) we, for the most part, and never before, prepare for to with many fighs, grones, and fad thoughts, finish the sorrowfull business of a wretched life; towards which we always travel both fleeping and waking : neither have those beloved companions of honour and riches any power at all to hold us any one day, by the glorious promise of entertainments; but by what crooked path foever we walk, the fame leadeth on directly to the house of death, (while they are righteous) are by God him- once turneth and declineth, ever runneth felf beautified with the title of his own with a perpetual Ebb and falling Stream, but never floweth again: our Leaf once fallen, springeth no more; neither doth the Sun or the Summer adorn us again, with the gar-

> Redditur arboribus florens revirentibus atas, Ergo non homini, quod fuit antè, redit.

To which I give this fense. The Plants and Trees made poor and old By Winter envious, The Spring-time bounteous Covers again from shame and cold: But never man repair'd again His youth and beauty loft, Though Art, and care, and coft, Do promise Nature's help in vain. And And of which,

CATULLUS, EPIGRAM. 53.

Soles occidere & redire possunt : Nobis cum femel occidit brevis lux, Nox est perpetua una dormienda.

CHAP. II.

CHAP. II.

The Sun may fet and rife: But we contrariwise Sleep after our short light One everlasting night.

For if there were any baiting place, or rest, in the course or race of mans life, then, according to the doctrine of the Academicks, ed; but as there is a continuance of motion in natural living things, and as the fap and juyce, wherein the life of Plants is preserved, with the life of man, which is alwayes either increasing towards ripeness and perfection, or declining and decreasing towards rottenness and dissolution.

6. 'V I.

Of the free power, which man had in his first Creation, to dispose of himself.

Hese be the miseries which our first Parents brought on all Mankind, unto whom God in his creation gave a free and unconstrained will, and on whom he beflowed the liberal choice of all things, with one onely Prohibition, to try his gratitude and obedience. God fet before him, a mortal and immortal Life, a nature celestial and terrene, and (indeed) God gave man to himfelf, to be his own Guide, his own Workman, and his own Painter, that he might ther did God so rest, that he left the World frame or describe unto himself what he pleafed, and make election of his own form. felves: for my Father worketh to this day God made man in the beginning (faith Siracides) and left him in the hands of his own counfelicity: whereas beafts, and all other creatures reasonless, brought with them into the World (faith Lucilius), and that even when they first fell from the bodies of their Dams, the Nature, which they could not change; and the supernal Spirits or Angels were from the beginning, or foon after, of that condition, in which they remain in perpetual eternity. But (as aforesaid) God gave unto man all kind of Seeds and Grafts of life (to wit) the vegetative life of Plants, the fenfual of Beasts, the rational of Man, and the intellectual of Angels; whereof which foever he took pleasure to plant and cultive, the same-should futurely grow in him, and bring which was perfect good, and from whose forth fruit, agreeable to his own choice and plantation. This freedom of the first man Adam, and our first Father, was anigmatically described by Asclepius Atheniensis (faith Mirandula) in the person and Fable of Protens, who was faid, as often as he pleafed, to change his shape. To the same end were all those celebrated Metamorphoses among the Pythagoreans, and antient Poets, wherein it was fained, that men were transformed into divers shapes of beasts, thereby to shew the change of mens conditions, from Reason to Brutality, from Virtue to Vice, from Meekness to Cruelty, and from Justice to Oppresiithe same might also perpetually be maintain- on. For by the lively Image of other creatures did those Antients represent the variable passions, and affections of mortal men; as by Serpents were fignified Deceivers; by doth evermore ascend or descend; so is it Lyons, Oppressors, and cruel men; by Swine, Men given over to lust and sensuality; by Wolves, ravening, and greedy men; which also S. Matthew resembleth to false Prophets, Math. 7. which come to you in sheeps clothing, but in- 15. wardly they are ravening Wolves: by the images of stones and stocks, foolish and ignorant Men; by Vipers, ungrateful Men; of which S. John Baptist, O ye generation of Vipers, &c.

s. VII.

Of God's ceasing to create any more: and of the cause thereof, because the Universal created was exceeding good.

N this work of Man, God finished the Creation; not that God laboured as a man, and therefore rested: for God commanded, and it was finished, Cui voluisse est fecisse; With whom, to will is to make, faith Beda. Nei- John 5.17. made, and the Creatures therein to them-(faith Christ) and I work; but God rested des) and left him in the hands of his own coun(that is) he created no new species or kinds 3. 14.

fel. Such was the liberality of God, and man's of creatures, but (as aforelaid) gave unto man a power generative, and so to the rest of living creatures, to Plants and Flowers, their feeds in themselves; and commanded Man to multiply and fill the Earth, and the Earth and Sea to bring forth creatures according to their several kinds: all which being finished, God faw that his works were good; not that he foreknew not, and comprehended not the beginning and end before they were; for God made every Plant of the field before it was in the Earth; but he gave to all things which he had created the name of Good, thereby to teach men, that from fo good a God there was nothing made, but that fimple purity and from so excellent a cause mans heart, was the Earth afterward cursed, there could proceed no impure or imperfect and all creatures of the first Age destroyed. effect. For man having a free will and liberal but the righteous man Noah and his Family, choice, purchased by disobedience his own with those creatures which the Ark containdeath and mortality; and for the cruelty of ed, reserved by God to replenish the Earth.

CHAP. III.

Of the place of Paradife.

§. I.

That the feat of Paradife is greatly mistaken: and that it is no marvel that men should erre.

getteth a thousand Children, if the licenti- upon our salvation depended not. oulness thereof be not timely restrained. And thirdly, those Writers which gave themfelves to follow and imitate others, were in all things so observant Sectators of those Masters, whom they admired and believed in, as they thought it fafer to condemn their own understanding, then to examine theirs. tate per suali, transmittimus; We pass over ma- as Origen, Philo, Fran. Georgius, with others, led and perswaded. And it is true, that many those four Rivers Pison, Gehon, Hiddekel, and

Oncerning the first Habitation of man, | they were men; Et humanum est errare. And we read, that the Lord God planted a to the end that no man flould be proud of Garden Eastward in Eden, and there be himself, GOD hath distributed unto men put the man whom he made, Gen. 2. 6. Of this fuch a proportion of Knowledg, as the wifest feat and place of Paradife, all Ages have held may behold in themselves their own weakdispute; and the opinions and judgments ness: Nulli unquam dedit omnia Deus; God have been in effect, as divers, among those never gave the knowledg of all things to any that have written upon this part of Genesis, one. Saint Paul confess d that he knew not, 100,110 as upon any one place therein, seeming most whether he were taken up into the third . obscure: Somethere are, that have conceived the being of the terrestrial Paradise, with-and Christ himself acknowledgeth thus out all regard of the Worlds Geography, much, that neither Men, nor Angels knew of Many and without any respect of the East and the latter day; and therefore, seeing know- 36. West, or any consideration of the place ledg is infinite, it is God (according to S. where Moles wrote, and from whence he | Jude ) who is only wife. Septentia ubi inve- Jude 51. directed (by the quarters of the Heavens) the way how to find out and judg, in what and where is the place of understanding? Man 12,18. Region of the World this Garden was by God knoweth not the price thereof, for it is not 4.18. planted, wherein he was exceeding respe- found in the Land of the living. And therefore tive and precise. Others, by being them- seeing God found folly in his Angels, mens felves ignorant in the Hebrew, followed the judgments (which inhabit in houses of Clay) first Interpretation; or, trusting to their own cannot be without their mistakings: and so judgments, understood one place for ano- the Fathers, and other learned men, excuther; and one Errour is so fruitful, as it be- sable in particulars, especially in those where-

§. II.

A recital of strange Opinions touching Paradife.

Ow touching Paradise, first it is to be enquired, Whether there were a Para-For (faith Vadianus in his Epistle of Paradise) dise, or no? or whether Moses description Magnos errores, magnorum virorum authori- were altogether mystical, and allegorical? ny gross errours, by the authority of great men have affirmed; and that under the names of of the Fathers were far wide from the under-flanding of this place. I speak it not, that I ledg, there were delivered unto us other my self dare presume to censure them, for I mysteries and significations; as, that by the reverence both their Learning and their Pie-four Rivers were meant the sour Cardinal ty, and yet not Lound to follow them any Virtues, Juffice, Temperance, Fortitude, and Burg. turther, then they are guided by truth: for Prudence; or (by other) Oyle, Wine, Milk, 1.143. and Honey. This Allegorical understanding by God in one certain place, and peculiar of Paradife by Origen divulged, was again by Garden; which place Goropius findeth near Franciscus Georgius received (faith Sixtus the River of Acesmes, in the Confines of Senensis; ) whose frivolous imaginations Six- India. tus himself doth fully and learnedly answer, the laft Edition.

gorical construction, and set Paradise in the and all their Secrators, followed the opinion third Heaven, and in the virtues of the mind, of Origen, or rather Origen theirs who would & in nostro principali, which is, as I conceive either make Paradise a figure, or Sacrament it, in mente, or in our fouls: to the particu- onely, or else would have it seated out of lars whereof he alludeth in this fort. By the this fensible world, or railed into some high place or garden of Paradise, was meant the and remote Region of the Air. Strabus, and Soul or Mind; by Adam, Mens, or, Under- Rabanus, were both fick of this vanity, with in direct words alloweth both of a celestial ly marvel at the learned men, who so grossly and terrestrial Paradise; the one into which and blindly wandred; seeing Moses, and after S. Paul was wrapt; the other, into which A- him the Prophets, do so plainly describe this dam was put by God. Aug. Chrysamensis was place, by the Region in which it was planted, of opinion, that a Paradise had been; but by the Kingdoms and Provinces bordering that there was not now any mark thereof it, by the Rivers which watered it, and by on the earth: the same being not onely de- the points of the Compass upon which it lay, faced, but withall the places now not fo in respect of Judea, or Canaan. much as existing. To which Luther seemeth to adhere.

Paradife was meant the whole Earth; to whole Earth (faith he) hath the same beauty which opinion, Vadianus inclineth, as I con- ascribed to Paradise. He addeth, that the Oceive his words, in two feveral places. First, cean was that Fountain from whence the upon this; Fill the earth, Gen. 10. Of which | four Rivers, Pison, Gehon, Tigris, and Euphrahe gives this judgment. Hoc ipso etiam quod tes, had their beginning; for he could not dixit, Replete terram, dominamini universis think it possible, that these Rivers, of Ganges, animantibus, subjicite terram, clarissime docet, Nilus, Tigris, and Euphrates, (whereof the one totam terram extantem, & omnigenis (ut tum ran through India, the other through Egypt, erat) fructibus consitam, sedem & hortum il- and the other through Mesopotamia and Arlum Adæ, & posteritatis futuræ fuisse ; These words (faith he) in which God faid Bring forth fruit and multiply, and fill the earth, and fubduc it, and rule over every creature, do clearly shew, that the Universal earth, set or filled with all forts of fruits (as then it was, ) was the garden and feat of Adam, and of his future posterity. And afterward he acknowledgeth the place, Vers. 16. out of the Acts, Cap. 17. Apostolus ex uno sanguine omne genus humanum ideò factum docet, ut habitarent super universam faciem terra: tota Moses make it manifest, where it is written, (faith he) teacheth, that God hath made of one in Eden, and there he put the Man whom he had bloud all mankind, to dwell over all the face of made: and howfoever the vulgar translatithe earth: and therefore all the carth (faith he) on, called Jeron's translation, hath convertwas that Paradise. Which conjectures I will ed this place thus, Plantaverit Dominus Deus answer in order. Goropius Becanus differeth Paradisum voluptatis à principio, The Lord God not much from this opinion, but yet he ac- planted a Paradise of pleasure from the beginknowledgeth that Adam was first planted ning; putting the word (pleasure) for Eden,

Tertullian, Bonaventure, and Durandus, Ban, t&; in the 34. Annotation of his fift Book, fol. 338. make Paradife under the Equinoctial; and 126. Postellus, quite contrary, under the North-S. Ambrose also leaned wholly to the Alle- pole: the Chaldeans also for the most part; Standing; by Eve, the Sense; by the Serpent, Origen, and Philo: so was our venerable Beda, Bed. in Delectation; by the Tree of good and evil, Sapience; and by the rest of the Trees, the Syrian, translated by Masur. But as Hopkins and Peter Complete, and Master But as Hopkins and Peter Complete. or from thence springing. Notwithstanding malo genio assertions, that he wondred, 2000 cer. 3. all which, upon the first of the Corinth. c.6. he blown up into this errour; so can I but great-Novionagus also upon Beda, De natura rerum, believeth that all the Earth was taken The Manichees also understood, that by for Paradise, and not any one place. For the menia) could rife out of one Fountain, vvere it not out of the Fountain of the Ocean.

§. III.

That there was a true local Paradife Easiward, in the Countrey of Eden.

"O the first therefore, that such a place there was upon the earth, the words of igitur terra Paradisus ille erat; The Apostle And the Lord God planted a Garden Eastward Gen. 2 manifest, that in this place Eden is the proper autem esse proprium nomen, apparet ex quarto name of a Region. For, What sense hath this capite Gen. ubi legimus, Cham habitaffe ad Oritranslation (faith our Hopkins, in his Treatise entalem plagam Heden; For Moses (faith he) Interpreters call it Paradisum Edenis, The Paphrast truly take it for the proper name of a word, That as Florida was a Country, fo called for the flourishing beauty thereof; fo was Eden a Region, called Pleasure, or Deli-Florida fignifieth Flourishing; so Eden fignifieth Pleasure: and yet both are the proper names of Countries; for Eden being the pro-Hebrew) and Paradise being the choise seat of all that Region, Paradife was truely the Pleasure.

Now, for Eastward, to translate it, from the beginning, it is also contrary to the translation of the Seventy; to the ancient Greek Fathers, as Bafil, Chryfoftom, Theodoret, Gregory; and to the Rabines, as Ramban, Rabbi Solomon, R. Abraham, and Chimchi; and of the Latines, Severinus, Damascenus, &c. who plainly take Eden for the proper name of a initio; for Damascene's own words are these, Paradisus est locus Dei manibus in Eden ad 0rientem mirabiliter consitus; Paradise is a place marvelloufly planted by the hands of God I will answer hereafter.

Now, because Paradi

these words of Eden and of the East, contrary to the vulgar Translation; Paristensis, as indifferent to both, and Sixtus Senensis, directly against the vulgar: of which these are their own words: After this I will begin to speak of Paradiseterrestrial, which God planted from the beginning, or Eastward, &c. me prodit, Paradisum à Deo consitum in regione | the Egyptians and Chaldeans.

and ( from the beginning ) for Eastward: it is | terræ Orientalis, quæ dicitur Heden: Heden of Paradife) that he planted a Garden in doth them most clearly, that Paradise was plant-Pleasure, or, that a River went out of plea- ed of God in a Region of the East Countrey, fure to water the Garden? But the Seventy which is called Heden: but that Heden is a proper name, it appeareth by the fourth Chapter of Verlets. radise of Eden; and so doth the Chaldean Para- Genesis, where we read, that Cham dwelt on the East border of Heden. Pererius endeavoureth Place, and for a Noun appellative; which to qualifie this Translation; for this particle Region, in respect of the fertility of the Soil, (saith he) ab initio, is referred to all the time of the many beautiful Rivers and goodly of the Creation, and not to the very first Woods, and that the Trees (as in the Indies) day; alledging this place of Christ, that aldo always keep their leaves, was called Eden, though the Devil was faid to be a Man-flayer Joh, 8.14. which fignifieth in the Hebrew, Pleasantness, from the beginning, yet that was meant but or delicacy; as the Spaniards call the Coun- after the fixth day. But furely, as I think (retry, opposite to the Isle of Cuba, Florida: ferring my self to better judgment) the Deand this is the miltaking, which may end the vil was from the instant of his fall a Mandispute, as touching the double sense of the slayer in disposition, though he had not whereon to practife till mans Creation. And for conclusion, S. Hierom (if that be his tranflation ) adviseth himself better in the end of cacy, for its pleasure or delicacy: and as the third Chapter of Genesis, converting the word (Eden) by (ante) and not (a principio) as, God did fet a Cherubin before the Garden of Eden: Collocavit Deus ante Paradisum volupper name of a Region (called Pleasure in the tatis, Cherubin; and Pererius himself acknowledgeth, that this is the true fense of this place, precifely taken, according to the He-Garden of Eden, and truely the Garden of brew, Posuit à parte Orientali horti Heden, Cherubin; He fet on the East-side of the Garden Gen. 1.4 of Heden, a Cherubin. Becamus affirmeth, that the Hebrew word (Be) fignifieth (with ) as well as (in ) and fo the Text beareth this fense: That God planted a Garden with pleafure (that is to fay ) full of pleasure. But Becanus followeth this construction, onely to the end to find Paradise upon the River of Asceines; for there he hath heard of the In-Region, and set the word (Eastward) for ab dian Fig-tree in great abundance, which he supposeth to be the Tree of knowledg of good and evil and would therefore draw Paradise to the Fig-Tree: which Conceit of his

Now, because Paradise was seated by Mo-And after all these Fathers, Guilhelmus Pa- | setoward the East, thence came the custom risensis, a great learned man, and sixtus se- of praying toward the East, and not by iminensis, of latter times, do both understand tation of the Chaldeans: and therefore all our Churches are built East and West, as to the point where the Sun rifeth in March, which is directly over Paradife (faith Damafcenus: ) affirming, that we always pray towards the East, as looking towards Paradise, whence we were cast out ; and yet the Temple of Solomon had their Priests and Sacrifi-Post hac incipiam loqui de Paradiso terrestri, ces, which turned themselves in their service quem plantaffe Deum ab initio vel ad Orientem and divine ceremonies, always towards the &c. And then Senensis; Moses enim clarissi- West, thereby to avoid the superstition of

But because East and West are but in re- | most excellent kinds, pleasant to behold, and frect of places; (for although Paradife were (withal) good for meat: which proveth that East from Judea, yet it was West from Persia) Paradise was a terrestrial Garden, garnished and the ferving of God is every where in the with Fruits, delighting both the eye and we turn our faces, so our hearts stand right, take away all opinion of Allegorical conother then this, that we who dwell West struction, he affirmeth that it was watered from Paradife, and pray turning our felves and beautified with a River; expressing also towards the East, may remember thereby to the Region, out of which this River sprang, befeech God, that as by Adams fall we have which he calleth Heden; and that Heden is and paffion we may be made partakers of the Paradife celestial, and the Kingdom of Heaven. To conclude, I conceive, that there was no other mystery in adding the word (East) to Eden by Mofes, then to fnew, that the Reof which Ovid.

Eurus ad Auroram, Nabatheag; regna recessit, Persidaque. O radiis juga subdita matutinis.

The East wind with Aurora hath a biding Among th' Arabian and the Persian Hills, Whom Phabus first falutes at his first rising.

And if it be objected, that Jeremy the not that Babylon it felf frood North from Tewards the North.

Peter Comeftor giveth best satisfaction: for he | Trees, under the Rules of Allegory. useth the word From the beginning, that is, from the first part of the World, (à principio) id eft, (faith he) à prima orbis parte; and af- nifest. For, God gave Adam free liberty to terward he affirmeth, that à principio, and ad eat of every Tree of the Garden, (the Tree cipio idem est quod ad Orientem.

end why, is express'd: that he might dress it which were in the Garden of God, envied him; and keep it ; Paradise being a Garden or Or- which proveth both Eden, and Paradise chard filled with Plants, and Trees, of the thereinseated, to be terrestrial: for the Pro-world; the matter is not great, which way taste. And to make it more plain, and to reef 10. loft the Paradife on earth; fo by Christs death | also a Country neer unto Charon in Mejopo- East, 27. tamia, Ezekiel witnesleth.

But to all these Cabalists, which draw the Truth and Story of the Scriptures into Allegories, Epiphanius answereth in these words: Si Paradisus non est sensibilis, non est etiam gion of Eden, in which Paradife was, lay East- fons; fi non eft fons, non eft flumen; fi non eft ward from Judea and Canaan: for the Scrip- flumen, non funt quatuor principia, non Pilon. tures alwayes called the people of those Na- non Gehon, non Trigis, nec Euphrates; non est tions, the Sons of the East which inhabited ficus, non folia, non comedit Eva de arbore, non Arabia, Mesopotamia, Chaldea, and Persia: est Adam, non sunt komines, sed veritas jam fabula est & omnia ad Allegorias revocantur; If Paradise be not sensible, then there was no fountain, and then no river; if no river, then no such four heads or branches, and then not any fuch river, as Pifon, or Gehon, Tieris, or Euphrates; no such fig-tree, or fruit, or leaves; Eve then did not eat of the fruit, neither was there any Adam, or any man, the truth was but a fable, and all things esteemed are called back Prophet, threatning the destruction of Jeru- into Allegories. Words to the same effect hath salem, doth often make mention of Northern S. Hierome upon Daniel: Contitescant corum Nations, it is to be noted, that the North is deliramenta, qui umbras & imagines in verithere named, in respect of those Nations that tate sequentes, ipsam conantur evertere veritafollowed Nabuchodonozer, and of whom the tem, ut Paradisum & flumina, & arbores pugreatest part of his Army was compounded; tent Allegoria Legibus se debere subruere: Let the dotage of them be filent, who following sharusalem, though inclining from the East to- dows and images in the Truth, endeavour to ards the North.

Now to the difference of this Translation, onght to bring Paradife, and the Rivers, and the

Furthermore, by the continuation and order of the Story, is the place made more ma-Orientem, have the same signification: From of knowledg excepted) which Trees Moses the beginning and East-ward is all one; à prin- in the ninth Verse saith that they were good to eat; meaning the fruit which they bare. But to return to the proof of this place, Besides, God left all beasts to Adam to be and that this story of Mankind was not Al- named, which he had formerly made; and legorical, it followeth in the Text of the 2. these beasts were neither in the third heaven, Chap, and 9. Verse, in these words: For out nor neer the circle of the Moon, nor beasts of the ground made the Lord God to grow every in imagination: for if all these things were Tree pleasant to the fight, and good for meat, Enigmatical or mystical, the same might also &c. fo as first it appeared that God created be said of the creation of all things. And E-Adam else-where as in the World at large, | zechiel, speaking of the glory of the Assyrian and then put him into the Garden: and the Kings, which this speech: All the Trees of Eden, Exek 31.9.

Mofes wrote plainly, and in a fimele style. fit for the capacities of ignorant men, and he was more large and precise in the description of Paradife, than in any other place of such a place there was. And yet I do not ex-Scripture; of purpole, to take away all scruple from the incredulity of future ages, whom he knew (out of the gift of Prophecy) to be apt to fabulous inventions; and that if out : the Story being directly true notwithhe had not described both the Region and the Rivers, and how it stood from Canaan, many of the unbelieving Ifraelites, and others after them, would have misconstrued this raliter Paradisum intelligi volunt: alia eorum, Story of Man-kind. And, is it likely, there would have been so often mention made of tertia eorum, qui utroque modo Paradisum Paradise in the Scriptures, if the same had accipiunt; (that is) There are three opinions of been an Otopia? For we find that the Val- Paradife: the one of those men, which will have ley, wherein Sodome and Gomorrah stood, it altogether corporal: a second of those, which Gen. 13.10 (sometimes called Pentapolis, of the five conceive it altogether spiritual, and to be a fiprincipal Cities therein) was before the de- gure of the Church: the third of those, which struction (which their unnatural sin purcha- take it in both senses; which third Opinion, sed) compared to the Paradise of the Lord, S. Augustine approveth, and of which Suidas and like to the Land of Egypt toward Zoar: giveth this allowable judgment: Quemad-In like manner was Ifrael refembled to the modum homo sensibilis, & intelligibilis simul radife it felf, exceeded in beauty and fertility, and that these places had but a resemblance thereof: being compared to a feat and foil of far exceeding excellency.

Befides, whence had Homer his invention of Alcinous Gardens as Justin Martyr noteth, but out of Moses his description of Paradise? Gen. 2. And whence are their praises of the Elizian fields, but out of the Story of Paradife? To which also appertain those Verses of ovid Mei. the Golden Age in Ovid:

Ver erat æternum; placidique tepentibus auris. Mulcebant Zephyri natos sine semine flores.

The joyfull Spring did ever last, And Zephyrus did breed Sweet flowers by his gentle blaft, Without the help of Seed.

And it is manifest, that Orpheus, Linus, Pindarus, Hesiodus, and Homer, and, after him, cvid, one out of another, and all these together with Pythagoras and Plato, and their Sectators, did greatly enrich their Inventi-Letters, altered by prophane additions, and disguised by poetical conversions, as if they had been conceived out of their own speculations and contemplations.

the fame afterwards was divided into four

phets made no imaginary comparisons. But | Havila, and Cush; and that all these are Eastward from Canaan, or the Defarts of the Amorites, where Moles wrote; I then conceive that there is no man that will doubt, but that clude the Allegorical sense of the Scripture: for as well in this there were many figures of Christ, as in all the old Testament throughstanding. And to this purpose (saith Saint Augustine) Tres sunt de Paradiso generales sententiæ: una est eorum, qui tantummodò corpoqui spiritualiter tantum (id est ) Ecclesiam: In the manner was tract retentioned to the modulus was to sold for God, before the Babylonians conditus erat: sie & hujus sandissilizam nemus wasted it: which proveth plainly, that Pa- scalife it self, exceeded in beauty and fertili- practitum; (that is) is man was created at one croix a radis it self, exceeded in beauty and fertilitime, both sensible, and intelligible; so was this [13.0] holy Grove, or Garden, to be taken both ways, verbot and endued with a double form.

6. IV.

Why it should be needfull to intreat diligently of the place of Paradife.

But it may be objected, that it is needless, and a kind of curiosity to enquire so diligently after this place of Paradife, and that the knowledge thereof is of little or nouse. To which I answer, that there is nothing written in the Scripture, but for our instruction; and if the truth of the Story be necessary, then by the place proved, the same is also made more apparent. For if we should conceive that Paradife were not on the Earth, but lifted up as high as the Moon; or that it were beyond all the Ocean, and in no part of the known World; from whence, Adam was faid to wade through the Sea, ons by venting the stoln Treasures of Divine and thence to have come into Judea, (out of doubt) there would be few men in the World, that would give any credit unto it. For what could feem more ridiculous than the report of fuch a place? and befides, what But besides all these testimonies, if we find maketh this seat of Paradise so much disputed what Region Heden, or Eden was; if we and doubted of, but the conceit that Pishon prove the River that ran out of it, and that should be Ganges, which watereth the East India; and Gehon, Nilus, which enricheth Branches; together with the kingdoms of Egypt: and these two Rivers so far distant, as freams can no way be comprifed therein?

death of our Saviour, were faid to have been Moon doth embrace the Moon. To the end in some such Countrey, of which no man ever therefore that these ridiculous Expositions heard tell, and that his Miracles had been performed in the Air, or no place certainly Truth it felf, or make the same subject to known: I affure my felf, that the Christian Religion would have taken but a flender root in the minds of men: for times and places are approved witnesses of worldly actions.

to the judgment of some Writers upon this place of Genesis (though otherwise for their by knowing this place, we shall the better doctrine in general, they are worthy of honour and reverence) I fay that there is no Worlds inhabitation: for near unto this did Fable among the Grecians or Egyptians more the Sons of Noah also disperse themselves afridiculous: for who would believe that there ter the Floud, into all other remote Regions were a piece of the World fo fet by it felf, and Countreys. And if it be a generous deand separated, as to hang in the Air under fire in men, to know from whence their own the circle of the Moon? or who so doltish forefathers have come, and out of what Reto conceive, that from thence the four Ri- gions and Nations it cannot be difpleafing to vers of Ganges, Nilus, Euphrates, and Tygris, fhould fall down, and run under all the Ocean, and rife up again in this our habitable Mankind have followed and been deduced. world, and in those places where they are If then it do appear by the former, that such now found? Which left any man think that I a place there was as Paradife, and that the enforce, or strain to the worst, these are Peter knowledge of this place cannot be unpro-Comestor's own words. Est autem locus ame- fitable, it followeth in order to examine senissimus, longo terra & maris tractu à nostra habitabili Zona secretus, adeò clevatus ut usque ad lunarem globum attingat, &c. (that is) It is with the fense of the Scripture, and with a most pleasant place severed from our habitable common Reason; and afterward to prove dizone, by a long trait of Land and Sea, elevated rectly, and to delineate the Region in which fo, that it reacheth to the globe of the Moon.

And Moses Barcephas upon this place Bern con- And Mojes Barcepus upon this place recediby writeth in this manner: Deinde boc quoque responsum volumus Paradisum multo sublimiore positum esse regione, atque hac nostra extet terra, ecque fieri ut illinc per præcipitium delabantur fluvii tanto cum impetu, quantum verbis exprimere non pollis z eóque impetu impulli presique sub Oceani vado rapiuntur, unde rursus prosiliant ebulliantque in hoc à nobis culto orbe: which have this fense: Furthermore (faith he) deformed, or rather annihilated this place, in we give this for an answer, that Paradise is set such fort, as no man can find any mark or in a Region far raised above this part which we memory thereof (of which opinion there inhabit; whereby it comes to pass, that from were others also, ascribing to the Floud the thence these Rivers fall down with such a head- cause of those high Mountains, which are long violence, as words cannot express, and found on all the Earth over, with many owith that force so impussed and prest, they are ther strange effects:) for mine own opinion, carried under the deep Ocean, and do again I think neither the one nor the other to be rise and boil up in this our habitable World: true. For although I cannot deny, but that and to this he addeth the opinion of Ephram, the face of Paradile was after the Floud wiwhich is this: Ephram dicit, Paradifum ambire thered, and grown old, in respect of the first terram, atque ultra Oceanum ita politum esse, ut beauty (for both the ages of men, and the totum terrarum orbem ab omni circumdet Re- nature of all things Time hath changed:) yet gione, non aliter atque Lune orbis Lunam cin- if there had been no fign of any fuch place, git; (which is) That Paradife doth compass or or if the foil and feat had not remained then (except all the World were Paradife) these embrace the whole Earth, and is so set beyond the Ocean Sea, as it environeth the whole Orhe Secondly, if the birth and works, and of the Earth on every lide, as the Orbe of the and Opinions do not bring question unto doubts or disputes, it is necessary to discover the true place of Paradife, which God in his wildom appointed in the very Navel of this our World, and (as Melanthon faies) in parte Terræ meliore, in the best part thereof, that Thirdly, if we should relie, or give place from thence, as from a Center, the Universal might be filled with people and planted; and judge of the beginning of Nations, and of the understand the place of our first Ancestor. from whence all the streams and branches of veral Opinions before remembred, by the Truth it felf; and to fee how they agree God first planted this delightfull Garden.

6. V.

That the Floud hath not utterly defaced the marks of Paradife, nor caused Hills in the Earth.

Nd first, whereas it is supposed by Aug. Chysamensis, that the Floud hath altered, long after Moses, would not have made so Gulfs to receive a Floud, or any descent, or often mention thereof. And though the ve- violent falling of waters in the round form ry Garden it felf were not then to be found, of the Earth and Waters, as aforefaid: and but that the Floud, and other accidents of therefore it seemeth most agreeable to reatime made it one common field and pasture son, that the Waters rather stood in a quiet with the Land of Eden, yet the place is still calm, than that they moved with any raging the same, and the Rivers still remain the or overbearing violence. And for a more same Rivers. By two of which (never doubted of) to wir, Tygris, and Euphrates, we are fure to find in what longitude Paradife lay; one of those pillars erected by Seth, the third afterward doth divide it felf into four pillars were fet up above 1426 years before branches, we are fure that the partition is at the Floud, counting seth to be an hundred the very border of the Garden it felf. For it years old at the erection of them; and To-Sm. 2.10. is written, that out of Eden went a River to feph himself to have lived some source or fiffelf, or to Paradife; yet the division, and on) be called in question. And therefore branching of those Rivers, must be in the it may be possible, that some soundation or the Rivers run as they do, North and South) fuch pillars were raised by sethall Antiquity and therefore these Rivers yet remaining, hath avowed. It is also written in Berosus no fuch defacing by the Floud, as is supposed. Furthermore, as there is no likelihood, Enoch, built by cain about the mountains waters could there be in a Spherical and this fort: Cujus maxime & ingentis molis round body, wherein there is nor high nor fundamenta vifuntur, & vocatur ab incolis from a higher to a lower, or by the Ebb or luge mass is now to be seen, and the place is Gen. 3. 1. to pass upon the Earth, and the waters ceased. So that the City of Joppa was built before the outragious winds, and beat down, and level than the time denying it. the fwelling and mountainous billows of the

CHAP. III;

would not Moses, who wrote of Paradise | be none, when the waters were equal, and about 850 years after the Floud, have de- of one height over all the face of the Earth, feribed it so particularly, and the Prophets and when there were no Indraughts, Bays, or and learning out one of these Rivers, which from Adam, was to be seen in his days; which water the Garden, and from thence it was ty years after Christ: of whom, although divided, and became into four heads; Now, there be no cause to believe all that he whether the word in the Latine Translation wrote, yet that which he avouched of his (Inde ) from thence, be referred to Eden it own time, cannot (without great derogati-North, or South fide of the very Garden (if ruine thereof might then be feen. Now, that and Eden manifestly known, there could be (to whom, although I give little credit, yet I that the place could be so altered, as future of Libanus was not defaced by length of ages knew it not, so is there no probability time: yea, the ruines thereof, Annius (who that either these Rivers were turned out of commented upon that invented fragment) their courses, or new Rivers created by the faith, were to be seen in his days, who lived Floud which were not, or that the Floud in the reign of Ferdinand and Isabella of Ca-(as aforesaid) by a violent motion, when it | file. And if these his words be not true, began to decrease, was the cause of high then was he exceeding impudent : for speak-Hills, or deep Valleys. For what descent of ing of this City of Enoch, he concludeth in low? feeing that all violent force of waters regionis, Civitas Cain, ut nostri mercatores, is either by the strength of wind, by descent of peregrini referent; The foundation of which Floud of the Sea. But that there was any wind called by the people of that Region, the City of (whereby the Seas are most enraged) it ap- | Cain, as both our strangers and Merchants repeareth not, rather the contrary is probable: port. It is also avowed by Pomponius Mela for it is written, Therefore God made a wind (to whom I give more credit in these things) as it appeareth not, that, untill the waters Floud, over which Cepha was King: whose fank, there was any wind at all, but that God name, with his brother Phineus, together afterward, out of his goodness, caused the with the grounds and principles of their Rewind to blow, to drie up the abundant slime ligion, was found graven upon certain Altars and mud of the Earth, and make the Land of stone. And it is not impossible, that the more firm, and to cleanse the Air of thick ruines of this other City, called Enoch by Anvapours, and unwholfome mifts: and this we nim, might be feen, though founded in the know by experience, that all downright first age: but it could not be of the first City rains do evermore differer the violence of of the World, built by Cain; the place rather

And to prove directly that the Floud was Sea: for any Ebbs and Flouds there could not the cause of mountains, but that there ten, that the maters of the Floud overflowed by fifteen Cubits the highest Mountains. And Mafius Damascenus, speaking of the Floud, writeth in this manner : Eft Jupra Mingadam excellus Mons in Armenia (qui Baris appellatur) tempore liberatos. And upon Minyada there is per. The places which Vadianus alledgeth, an high Mountain in Armenia (called Baris) unto which it is faid, that many fled in the time of the Deluge, and that they faved themfelves thereon. Now, although it is contrary to Gods Word, that any more were faved ayouch, but by report) yet it is a testimony, that fuch Mountains were before the Floud, which were afterward, and ever fince, known it is generally received that the Ark rested : but untruly, as I shall prove hereafter. And rity, either divine or humane. Lastly, it appeareth that the Floud did not fo turn upfide down the face of the earth, as thereby it was made past knowledge, af-64.8. 11. when Noah fent out the Dove the second time, into Paradise after Adam's expulsion, if the Trees were discovered) the found not: for on the water; a manifest proof that the Trees were not torn up by the roots, nor fwam upon the waters, for it is written: folium, olive raptum, or decerptum, a leaf pluckt, (which which succeeded him: both which I take the Ocean be taken for the Well, and the for my warrant, and to guide me in this Difcovery.

ś. VI.

That Paradise was not the whole Earth, as some have thought: making the Ocean to be the fountain of those four Rivers.

answered, who onely giveth his opinion for reason I will in a few words examine that manifest. Yet was their conjecture far more were mountains from the Creation, it is writ- 1 of the Manichees, of Novionagus, Vadianus, Goropius, Becamis, and all those that underflood, that by Paradife was meant the whole Earth. But in this I shall not trouble the Reader with many words, because by those places of Scripture formerly remembred, this Gen 1. 28. in quo confugientes multos, sermo est, Diluvii Universality will appear altogether impro-16. Bring forth fruit and multiply, Fill the Earth, and lubdue it. Rule over every Creature &c. with this of the AGs. And bath made of one bloud all Mankind, to dwell on all the face of the Earth, do no way prove such a generathan eight persons (which Massus doth not lity: for the World was made for man, of which he was Lord and Governour, and all things therein were ordained of God for his use. Now although all men were of one and by the same names; and on which Mountains | the same fountain of bloud originally; and Adam's Posterity inhabited in process of time over all the face of the Earth: yet it again it appeareth, that the Mount sion disproveth in nothing the particular Gar-(though by another name) was known be- den, affigned to Adam, to dress and cultive, fore the Floud; on which the Thalmudists in which he lived in so blessed an estate bereport, that many Giants faved themselves fore his transgression. For if there had been alfo; but, as Annius faith, without all autho- no other choice, but that Adam had been left to the Universals, Moles would not then have faid, Eastward in Eden, seeing the World Gen. 3.24. hath not East nor West but respectively. And to what end had the Angel of God ter the waters were decreased, by this, that been set to keep the East-side, and entrance she returned with an Olive leaf in her mouth, Universal had been Paradise? for then must which she had pluckt, and which (until the Adam have been chased also out of the World. For if all the Earth were Paradife, otherwise she might have found them floting that place can receive no better construction than this, That Adam was driven out of the World into the World, and out of Paradife into Paradife, except we should believe with Metrodorus, that there were inis) to take from a Tree, or to tear off. By finite Worlds. Which to deny, he thinks all this it is apparent, (there being nothing writ- one, as to affirm, That in so large a field, as the ten to the contrary) that the Floud made Universal, there should grow but one Thistle. no fuch alteration, as was supposed, but that Novionagus upon Beda, seemeth to be led by the place of Paradise might be seen to suc- this, that it was impossible for those three ceeding Ages, especially unto Moses, by Rivers, Ganges, Nilus, and Euphrates (which whom it pleased God to teach the truth of water three portions of the World so far the Worlds Creation, and unto the Prophets distant) to rife out of one Fountain, except World for the Garden. And it is true, that those four Rivers, being fo understood, there could be no conjecture more probable; but it shall plainly appear, that Pifon was fallly taken for Ganges, and Gehon fallly for Nilus, although Ganges be a River by Havila in India, and Nilus run through Ethiopia. The Seventy write Chus for Ethiopia, and thereby the errors of the Mani-"His conceit of Aug. Chyfamens being chees, and the mistakings of Noviomagus, Goropius, and Vadianus, with others, are made probable.

Athanasus, That Paradise was seated far be- convenience, the people (by reason of their yond the Ocean Sea, and that Adam waded fo many years) are called Macrobici (that is) through it, and at last came toward the Long-lived. A further Argument is used, for buried at Mount Calvary in Hierusalem. And therein was Enoch preserved from the viowere of great stature, and so continued ma- Peter Lombard: in which place also Tertullithome, and much more, it he had foorded the Ocean; but this opinion is fo ridiculous as it needs no argument to disprove it.

6. VII.

Of their opinion which make Paradise as high as the Moon: and of others which make it higher than the Middle Region of the Air.

altogether removed from the knowledge of men, (locus à cognitione hominum remotissimus ) and Barcephas conceived, that Paradife not fallen fo precipitate) could not have was far in the East, but mounted above the had sufficient force to have thrust them-Ocean, and all the Earth, and near the Orbe felves under the great Ocean, and afterward of the Moon (which opinion, though the have forced their passage through the Earth, School-men charge Beda withall, yet Pererius and have rifen again in the far diftant Regilays it off from Beda, upon Strabus, and his ons of India, Egypt, and Armenia. Master Rabanus:) and whereas Rupertus, in his Geographie of Paradise, doth not much borrowed this doctrine out of Plato, and (as I conceive) well understood; who (undoubtedly) took this place for Heaven it rightly be judged a vanity in the Aniwerer, felf, into which the Souls of the blefled were not much inferiour to that of the Inventer.) carried after death.

True it is, that these Philosophers durst ed death for acknowledging one onely powerfull God; and therefore did the De-probable, than that of Ephrem, Cyrillus, and I ing above all Clouds of Rain, or other in-Countrey in which he was created, and was proof of the height of this place, because certainly, though all those of the first Age lence of the Floud : approved by Isidore, and ny years after the Floud, yet Adam's thin- an conceived, that the bleffed Souls were bones must have contained a thousand fa- preserved till the last Judgment; which trenaus and Justine Martyr also believed. But this opinion was of all Catholique Divines reproved, and in the Florentine Conneil damned; of which Saint Angustine more modest ly gave this judgment: Sicnt certum eft. Énoch & Eliam, nunc vivere: ita ubt nunc funt, an in Paradifo an alibi, incertumest; (that is) As it is certain that Enoch and Elias do now live : fo where they live, in Paradife, or eisewhere, it is uncertain. But Barcephas gives THirdly, whereas Beda faith, and as the School-men affirm, Faradife to be a Place off. For (faith he) it was necessary that Paradise should be set at such a distance and height, because the four Rivers (had they

These strange fancies and dreams have been answered by divers learned men long differ from the rest, but finds it seated next since, and lately by Hopkins, and Pererius, or nearest Heaven; It may seem, that all these writing upon this subject; of whose arguments I will repeat these few: (for to use long Plato out of Socrates: but neither of them discourse against those things, which are both against Scripture and Reason, might

It is first therefore alledged, that such a place cannot be commodious to live in: for not for fear of the Arcopagites (in this, and being set so near the Moon, it had been too many other divine apprehensions) set down near the Sun, and other heavenly bodies. what they believed in plain terms, especial- Secondly, because it must have been too ly Plato: though Socrates in the end suffer- joynet a Neighbour to the Element of fire. Thirdly, because the Air in that Region is so violently removed, and carried about with Jul. Man. vil himself do him that right, as by an Oracle, such swiftness, as nothing in that place can consist to pronounce him the wifest man. Justine consist or have abiding. Fourthly, because the standard and the standard form of the standard form of the standard form. Scriptures; and S. Augustine gave this judg- (according to Ptolemie and Alfraganus) is sement of him, as his opinion, that (few things venteen times the Diameter of the Earth, changed) he might be counted a Christian. which makes in a groß account about one And it feemeth to me, that both Tertullian hundred and twenty thousand miles. Hereand Enlebius conceive, that Socrates, by that upon it must follow, that Paradife, being raiplace aforesaid, meant the celestial Paradise, sed to this height, must have the compass and not this of Eden. Solinus, I grant, re- of the whole Earth for a Basis and soundaporteth, that there is a place exceeding de- tion. But had it been so raised, it could lightfull, and healthfull, upon the top of hardly be hidden from the knowledge, or Mount Atho (called Acrothonos) which be- eyes of men, feeing it would deprive us of being feated in the East, as they suppose, men, that though they were exceeding witty. Now, to fortifie the former opinions, Tofta- yet they better teach all their Followers tus addeth this, that those people which to shift, then to resolve, by their distinctidwell neer those fals of waters, are deaf from ons. Wherefore not to stay long in answertheir infancy, like those that dwell neer the ing this opinion of Tostatus, I confess that it Catadupa, or over-fals of Nilus. But this I is written, that the Mountains of Olympus, hold as feigned. For I have seen in the In- Atho, and Atlas, over-reach and surmount dies, far greater water-fals, then those of Ni- all winds and clouds, and that (notwithlus, and yet the people dwelling neer them standing) there is found on the heads of the are not deaf at all. Tostatus (the better to Hills both springs and fruits; and the Pagan strengthen himself) citeth Basil and Ambrose Pricsts, sacrificing on these mountain-tops, together: to which Pererius, Sed ego hac apud do not find the aftes (remaining of their fa-Basilium & Ambrosium in eorum scriptis, que crifices) blown thence, nor thence wash'd off nunc extant, nusquam me legere memini; But by rains, when they return: yet experience Ido not remember (faith he) that I ever read hath resolved us, that these reports are fabuthose things either in Basil or Ambrose.

celestial Paradise, for ought we know. For place of Paradise; and on these self-Hills the although flesh and bloud, subject to corrup- ayr is so thin (laith S. Augustine, whom heretion, cannot inherit the Kingdom of Heaven, in I mistrust) that it is not sufficient to bear and the feed must rot in the ground before up the body of a bird, having therein no it grow, yet we shall not all die (saith Saint feeling of her wings, or any sensible resistance Paul) but all shall be changed: which change in of ayr to mount her self by. Enoch and Elias, was easie to him that is Almighty. But for the rest, the Scriptures are manifest, that by the Floud all perished on the earth faving eight persons; and therefore in the terrestrial Paradisethey could not be.

For Toftatus his own opinion, who foared not altogether fo high as the rest, but believed that Paradife was raifed above the middle Region of the Avr. and twenty cubits above all Mountains, that the Floud did not line, as Tertullian, Bonaventure, and Durantherefore reach it (which scotus and other dus: judging, that there-under might be latter School-men also believed; for, say found most pleasure, and the greatest fertilithey, there were no finners in Paradife, and ty of foil: but against it Thomas Aquinas obtherefore no cause to over-whelm it:) this jecteth the distemperate heat, which he sup-is also contrary to the express letter of the poseth to be in all places so directly under Scripture, which directly, and without ad- the Sun. But this is (non causa pro causa,) mitting of any distinction, teacheth us, that for although Paradise could not be under the 6m. 7.10, the waters over-flowed all the mountains under Line, because Eden is far from it, in which beaven. And were it otherwise, then might Paradise was; and because there is no part of we aswell give credit to Massius Damascenus, Euphrates, Tygris, or Ganges under it (Ganand the Thalmudists, who affirm, that there ges being one of the four rivers, as they supwere of the Gyants that faved themselves on pose) yet this conceit of distemper (being the Mountain Baris, and on sion. But to help but an old opinion) is found to be very unthis, Scotts being (asthe rest of the School- true, though for the conjecture not to be men are) full of distinction, saith; That the condemned, considering the age when those waters flood at Paradife, as they did in the Fathers wrote, grounded chiefly on this; Red Sea, and at Jordan; and as the Floud that whereas it appeared, that every Counwas not natural, so was Raradise saved by mi- try, as it lay by degrees neerer the Troracle. And Thomas Aquinas qualifieth this pick, and so toward the Equinoctial, did so high conceit with this supposition, That it much the more exceed in heat; it was therewas not believed, that Paradise was so fore a reasonable conjecture, that those feated, as Beda and others feem to affirm in Countries which were fituated directly unwords, but by Hyperbole and comparatively, der it, were of a distemper uninhabitable: for the delicacy and beauty so resembled. but it seemeth that Tertullian conceived bet-the Sun's light, all the fore-part of the day, But this I dare avow of all those Schoollous; and Pliny himfelf (who was not sparing But for the bodies of Enoch and Elias, in the report of wonders) avoweth the con-God hath disposed of them according to his trary. But were it granted, yet the height wisdom. Their taking up might be into the of these Mountains is far under the supposed

6. VIII.

Of their opinion that feat Paradife under the Æquinoctial: and of the pleasant habitation under those Climats.

Hose which come neerer unto Reason, find Paradise under the Æquinoctial

37

uninhabitable burnt Zone, or within the Tropicks, and necreft to the Line it felf. For hereof Experience hath informed Reason. and Time hath made those things apparent, which were hidden and could not by any contemplation be discovered. Indeed, it hath fo pleased God to provide for all living creatures, wherewith he hath filled the world, that fuch inconveniences which we contemplate a far off, are found by tryal and the witness of mens travails, to be so qualified, as there is no portion of the earth made in vain, or as a fruitless lump to fashion out the imaginary worlds, nor under Torrida Zona 1/50 45. 1. rest. For Cod himself (saith Esay) that formed it followeth that now we discover and find the earth and made it, he that prepared it, he out the feat thereof, for in it was Paradise by gions of the world, feated under the Equi- have often changed names with their Madaily gale of Easternly wind (which the spa- remembred, forgotten by those names of all miards call the Brize) that doth evermore Historians and Geographers, as well antient blow strongest in the heat of the day, as the as modern. down-right beams of the Sun cannot fo much master it, that there is any inconvenience or lonians, Medes and Persians (Cyrus only and diftemperate heat found thereby. Secondly, the nights are fo cold, fresh, and equal, by reason of the entire interposition of the earth, as (for those places which my felf have feen, neer the Line and under it) I know no other part of the World of better, or equal temper: Only there are some tracks, which by accident of high Mountains are barr'd from this without trees, which are not therefore fo rence of foils we find also in all other parts inthralled. of the world. But (for the greatest part) ches are never unclothed and left naked, their fap creepeth not under ground into the root, fearing the injury of the frost: neither ter, and fo did Avicenne, for they both | Nature being liberal to all without labour. thought them habitable enough; and though necessity imposing no industry or travel. (perchance) in those days it might be thought idleness bringeth forth no other fruits then a fantastical opinion (as all are which go a- vain thoughts, and licentious pleasures. So gainst the vulgar) yet we now find, that if that, to conclude this part, Tertullian and there be any place upon the earth of that na- those of his opinion, were not deceived in ture, beauty, and delight that Paradise had, the nature of the place: but Aquinas, who the same must be found within that supposed misliked this opinion, and followed a worse; and (to fay the truth) all the School-men were gross in this particular.

6. IX.

Of the change of the names of places: and that besides that Eden in Calosyria, there is a Country in Babylon, once of this name, as is proved, out of Efa. 37. and Ezek. 27.

Hese opinions answered, and the region of Eden not found in any of those created it not in vain, he formed it to be in- God planted. The difficulty of which fearch habited. Now we find that these hottest Re- resteth chiefly in this, That as all Nations notial line, or neer it, are so refreshed with a sters; so are most of these places, by Moses

Besides, we find that the Asyrians, Babya few other excepted) fought to extinguish the Hebrews. The Grecians hated both their Nation and their Religion; and the Romans despised, once to remember them in any of their Stories. And as those three Monarchies fucceeded each other: fo did they transform the names of all those principal Places and Cities in the East: And after them, the ayr and fresh wind, and some sew sandy parts | Turk hath sought (what he could) to extinguish in all things, the antient memory of well inhabited as the reft; and fuch diffe- those people, which he hath subjected and

Now besides those notable marks, Euphrathose Regions have so many goodly Rivers, tes and Tygris, the better to find the way Fountains, and little Brooks, aboundance of which leadeth to the Country of Eden, we high Cedars, and other stately trees, casting are to take for guides these two Confidefhade; so many sorts of delicate fruits, ever rations (to wit) That it lay Eastward from bearing, and at all times beautified with Canaan and Judea; and, that it was of all oblossom and fruit both green and ripe, as it, ther the most beautiful and sertile. First them may of all other parts be best compared to in respect of situation, the next Country to the Paradise of Eden: the boughs and bran- Indea Eastward was Arabia Petraa; but in this Region was Mofes himself when he wrote: and the next unto it Eastward also was Arabia the Defart, both which in respect of the doth Pomona any time despise her withered insertility could not be Eden; neither have Husband Vertumnus, in his winter quarters any of the Arabians any fuch Rivers, as are and cldage. Therefore are these Countries express'd to run out of it: So as it followeth called Terra vitiosa, Vicious Countries: for of necessity, that Eden must be Eastward, and beyond both Arabia Petræa, and Deferta. | traded with the City of Tyre, which was then But because Eden is by Moses named by it felf, and by the fertility, and the rivers only described, we must seek it in other Scriptures, and where it is by the additions of the neighbour-Nations better described. In the Prophet Hay, I find it coupled and accompanied them into Syria, now Soria, and to the Port with other adjacent Countries, in these words, spoken in the person of senacherib the City of Tyre, afterward to Tripoly, and by Rabsakeh: Have the gods of the Nations delivered them, which my Fathers have destroyed, as Gofan, and Haran, and Refeph, and the children of Eden, which were at Telaffar ? and in Ezechiel, where he prophecieth against the Tyrians: They of Haran, and Canneh, and Nations of the East, as the onely Mart-town of the Merchants of Sheba, Ashur, and of that part of the World, reciteth both the Eden, the Merchants of Sheba, Ashur, and Chilmad, were thy Merchants, &c.

frand that there were two Edens, one of ed; and having counted the several People which the Prophet Amos remembreth, where and Countreys, he addeth the particular which the Provinces, Trade, which each of them exercised: They Versi 20. whereof the first he maketh Syria Damascene, or Decapolitan: the second part is that Vallev called Avenis, otherwise Convallis, or and of broydered works, fine Linnen, Coral, the tract of Chamath, where Afgria is joyned and Pearl: and afterwards speaking of the to Arabia the Defart, and where Ptolemie Merchants of Sheba and Raamah, and what placeth the City of Averia: and the third is kinds they traded, he hath these words: The knowen by the name of Domus Edenis, or Merchants of Sheba, and Raamah were thy Mer-Colo-Syria, otherwise Vallis cava, or the hol- chants, they occupied in thy Fairs, with the low Valley, because the mountains of Libanus chief of all spices, and with all pretious stones, both fides, and border it: for Cale in Greek which Persia and Arabia Falix yield: and is Cava in Latine. But this is not that Eden, ing these two Regions; both called Eden: and that he altogether mif-understood two of the four Rivers (to wit) Pison and Gehon, as shall appear hereafter. Now to find out Eden, (which as Moses teacheth us) lay Eastward from the Defarts, where he wrote, after he had passed the Red-Sea; we must confider where those other Countries are found. which the Prophet Isaiah and Ezechiel jovn-Reservation of Latter of Eden, which were 1,13, at Telassar. Also Faschiel eth with it. For (faith Ifai ab) Gofan, Haran, and Eden, who together with those of Sheba, (faith Exechiel) The Mart of the people for mainy Isles. And it hath ever been the custom, that the Persians conveyed their Merchandise to Eabylon, and to those Cities upon Euphrates, and Treris, and from thence transported of the Mediterrane Sea: as in ancient times to now to Aleppo, from whence they imbarque them at the Port of Alexandretta, in the Bay of Isieus, now Lajazzo. Ezechiel in the description of the magnificence of Tyre, and of the exceeding trade that it had with all the people, with whom they had commerce, and But to avoid confusion, we must under- also what commodities every Country yieldmere thy Merchants (faith the Prophet) in all forts of things, in rayments of blue Silk, and Anti-Libanus, take all the length of it on and Gold. Now, these be indeed the riches because sheba and Raamah are those parts of which we feek: neither doth this Province Arabia; which border the Sea, called the Perlie East from Canaan, but North, and so joyn- fian Gulf, therefore did those Nations both eth unto it, as it could not be unknown to vent fuch Spice, fweet Gumms, and Pearls, as the Hebrews. Yet, because there is a little their own Countries yielded: and (withall) City therein called Paradife, the Jews be- having trade with their Neighbors of India, lieved this Culo-Syria to be the same which had from them also all forts of Spices, & plen-Moles describeth. For the same cause doth ty of Gold. The better to convey these com-Hopkins in his Treatife of Paradise reprehend modifies tothat great Mart of Tyre, the She-Beroaldus, in that he confoundeth this Eden, bans or Arabians entred by the mouth of Tywith the other Eden of Paradise, though, to gris, and from the City of Terredon, (built or give Beroaldus his right, I conceive that he enlarged by Nebuchodonozor, now called Balled the way to Hopkins, and to all other later (fara) thence fent up all these rich Merchan-Writers, faving, That he failed in diftinguish- | dizes by Boat to Babylon, from whence by the body of Euphrates, as far as it bended Westward, and afterward by a branch thereof, which reached within three days journey of Aleppo, and then over Land they past to Tyre, as they did afterward to Tripoly, (formerly Hieropolis) and thence to Alexandretta, as aforefaid. Now, the Merchants of Canneh. which Ezechiel joyneth with Eden, inhabited far up the River, and received this trade from Arabia and India, besides those proper commodities which themselves had, and which they received out of Perfia, which bordered them. Saint Hierome understand-Ashur, and Chilmad, were the Merchants that eth by Canneh, Selencia, which is seated upon and which took that name from selencus, who made thereof a magnificent City. Hierosolymitanus thinks it to be Ctesiphon: but Cteliphon is feated down low upon Tygris, and Cannel cannot be on that fide. I mean, Plin ! $, on the East-side of Tyeris; for then were it out of the Valley of Shinar. Plinie placeth the Schenita upon Euphrates, where the same beginneth to be foordable, which is toward the border of syria, after it leaveth to be the bound of Arabia the Defart, and where the River of Euphrates reflecteth from the Defart of Palmirena: for these people of Canneb (afterward schenitæ) inhabited both borders of Euphrates, stretching themselves, from their own City of Canneh in Shinar, Westward along the banks of Euphrates, as far as the City of Thapfacus, where Ptolemy appointed the Foords of Euphrates: which alto agreeth with the description of the Sche-Strabo. 1.16 nite by Strabo, whose words are these: Mercatoribus ex Syria Seleuciam, & Babyloniam cuntibus.iter eft per Schenitas; The Merchants which travel from Syria to Seleucia and Babylon. take their may by the Schenites. Therefore those that take Canneh for Charran, do much mistake it. For Charran, to which Abraham came from Ur in Chaldea (called by God) frandeth also in Mesopotamia; not uppon Euphrates it self. but upon the River of the Merchants of Charran are distinctly named with those of Canneb in Ezechiel (as) Merchants. Wherefore Charran, which is fometimes called Charre, and Haran, and Aran, is but the same Charran of Mesopotamia; for the Region of Mesopotamia; or Aran fluviorum, the Greek word (Mesopotamia) imbia, giveth that tract of Land from the borders of Calofria, to the edge of Mesopotamia to the Schenitæ, who also inhabited on both fides of Euphrates, and were in afterages accounted of these Arabians which inhabit Batanea, and the North part of the Defarts, firetching themselves toward the inhabited folitude of Palmirena, which li-

Euphrates, where it breaketh into four heads, | and therfore they are by the Prophet Ezechiel coupled together. They of Haran, and Canneh, and Eden &c. But S. Hierome made a good interpretation of Canneh, or Chalne, by Seleucia: for Seleucia was antiently called Chalanne (witness Appian )and so Rabanus Maurus calleth it in his Commentaries upon Genesis : the name by time and mixture of Languages being changed from Chalne, or Canneh, to Chalanne: of which name there are two other Cities, standing in Triangle with Seleucia, and almost the next unto it (as) Thelbe-Canne, and Mann-Canne, the one a little to the West of Seleucia, and the other opposite unto it; where these Rivers of Tygris and Euphrates are ready to joyn. Therefore, which of these the ancient Canne was (being all three within the bound of the Valley Shinar ) it is uncertain: but it is a note as well of the importance of the place, as of the certain feat thereof, that so many other Cities did retain a part of the name in so many ages after. Neither is it unlikely, that these additions of Thelbe and Man to the word Canne, were but to make difference between the East and the West, or the greater and the less Canne, or between Canne the old and the new: which additions to diffinguish Cities by, are ordinary in all the Regions of the World.

Now of the other City joyned with Eden, as Haran, or Charran, S. Hierome on the Judges Judg. 1. Chaboras, which falleth into Euphrates: and speaketh thereof in these words: Cumque reverterentur, pervenerunt ad Charran, que est in medio itinere contra Ninevem, undecimo They of Haran and Canneh and Eden, the Mer- die; When they returned, they came to Charran chants of Sheba, Asher, and Chilmad, were thy (which is the mid-way against Nineveh) the eleventh day.

This City is by the Martyr stephen, named ARITE Charran (speaking to the High-Priest:) re and when it is written Aran, then it is taken Men, Brethren, and Fathers, hearken: the God of glory appeared to our Father Abraham, while he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in porting, A countrey between Rivers: for Charran. But the feat of this City is not Mesos in Greek, is medius in Latine, and Po- doubted of: for it is not only remembred in tamos, fluvius. And when it is written Haran many Scriptures, but withall exceeding faor Aran, it is then taken for the City it felf, mous for the death and overthrow of Crassins to which Abraham came from Ur (as afore- the Romane, who for his unfatiable greedifaid.) For Strabo in the description of Ara- ness, was called Gurges avaritie; the Gulf of avarice. Whereof Lucan:

Asyrias Latio maculavit sanguine Carras. With Roman bloud th'Affyrian Carre he 105.

But this City Canne, or Chalne, is made manifest by Moses himself, where it is written Gen, 16. of Nimrod: And the beginning of his King- 10. doms was Babel, & Erech, and Acad, and Chain, eth between Syria, and Arabia the Defart. in the Land of Sinaar, or Shinar: where Moses So as these of Cannel lay in the very high- sheweth the first composition of the Babyloway from Babylon to Tyre, and were neigh- nian Empire, and what Cities and People bours (indifferent) to Charran, and to Eden: were subject unto Nimrod; all which lay in the faid Valley of Shinar, or near it; and | Frankincense is gathered: which people have this Valley of Shinar is that Tract afterwards an interchange or trade with Elana, lying on called Babylonia and Chaldea, into which the East-side of the Fersian gulf. By this it also Eden stretcheth it self. Chaldea, Baby- appeareth who were the shebeans, spoken of lonia, Sinar idem funt (faith Comestor.) Three by Exechiel, and said to have been the Mernames of one Country; which Region of Ba- chants of Tyre, for Gold, Spices, and precious bylonia, took name of the Tower Babel; and Stones: of which they had not onely plenty the Tower of the confusion of Tongues. And of their own, but were also furnished from that Shinar was Babylonia, it is proved in the that part of India (called Elana, according eleventh Chapter of Genesis, in these words: to strabo) for exchange of their Aroma-And as they went from the East, they found a tiques, and other proper commodities. For, Plain in the Land of Shinar, and there they as Strabo reporteth out of Eratofthenes, In abode : in which Plain Babylon was built (as Persica ora initio Insula est, in qua multi & aforesaid.) Now Shinar being Babylonia, and Canneh, in the first beginning of Nimrod's greatness, and before he had subdued any strange, or far-off Nations, being one part of his Dominion, and also named by Moses to be in Shinar, it proveth that Canneh joyneth to Baof senacherib against Jerusalem (with other Nations that Senacherib vaunted that his Fathers had destroyed) nameth the children of Eden which were at Telassar. But before I ceffary to describe those other Countreys, which Ezechiel joyneth therewith, in the fense: Reges Sheba & Saba. places before remembred, as, those of Sheba and Raamah. It is written in Genesis the with the Edenites, because they inhabited tenth: Moreover the Sons of Ham were Cush, upon the Out-let of the same River, upon &c. And the Sons of Cush were Seba, and Havila and Sabtah, and Raamah, &c. And of Sheba, towards the Sea-coast, and upon it, the Sons of Raamah were Sheba, &c. and past up the Countrey, by Tyeris and Enphraanon after; Cush begat Nimrod: so as sheba tes, being joyned in one main stream, and so was the grand-child of Cufb, and Nimrod the through the Region of Eden, which Tygris Son of Culb, whose elder brother was Sebah: boundeth, thereby the better to convey though some there are that conceive to the their merchandise toward Tyre. And as the that part of Shinar, where Babel was built, and his Sons, which possessed it.) For (faith ten use. Exechiel) the Merchants of Raamah and Sheba were thy Merchants, they occupied in thy fairs with the chief of all spices, and all precious stones, and Gold. So as Sheba was that Tract of Countrey, which parteth Arabia Deserta from Arabia Fælix, and which joyneth to the Sea where Tygris and Euphrates fall out, and render themselves to the Ocean. This and Arabia, and also to convey it over into part, and the confining Countrey, strabo syria, and to Tyrus. Now, to make these calleth Catabria, where the best Myrrhe and things the more plain, we must remember, pretioli uniones cionantur: in aliis verò, clari & perlucidi lavilli. Erastothenes (faith Strabo) affirmeth, that, In the beginning of the Persian gulf, there is an Island, in which there are many precious Pearls bred: and in other. very clear and shining Stones. Now, the difference between sheba the Son of Raamah, bylonia; which also Ezechiel coupleth with and Seba the Son of Cush, is in this, That Eden, and (further) affirmeth that those of Seba is written with the Hebrew (Samech;) Eden were also the Merchants which traded and sheba with (schin:) but whatsoever with the Tyrians: and Isaiah in the threats the difference may be in the Hebrew Orthography, their Countreys and Habitations are diverse. For sheba is that which bordereth the Persian Sea, and Saba (whence the Queen of saba) neighboured the Red-Sea; and fo conclude where Eden it felf lyeth, it is ne- that place of the 72 Plalm expounded Reges Arabum & saba, hath in the Hebrew this

The shebans, Ezechiel nameth together which the Edenites were feated : and fo those contrary, that Nimrod was the elder in va- Cities of Charran, and Channeh, border Eden lour and understanding, though not in time on the West and North-west: so doth Sheba and precedence of birth; who inhabited on the South, and Chilmad on the North-east: Chilmad being a Region of the higher Meafterwards Babylonia. His brother Raamah dia, as appeareth in the Chaldean Paraphraft; or Regma took that part adjoyning to Shinar, which Countrey, by the Geographers is caltoward the Sea side and Persian gulf (called led Coromitena, (L) placed by exchange afterwards Raama and Sheba, by the Father for (R) which change the Hebrews also of

Thus much of those Counnries which border Eden, and who altogether traded with the Tyrians: of which, the chief were the Edenites, inhabiting Telassar: for these Senacherib vaunted, that his Fathers had destroyed; and this place of Telaffar lay most convenient, both to receive the Trade from Sheha that

obedience, and after his death these Monarchies were utterly dif-joyned.

Elay 37. v. Gods of the Nations delivered them whom my and Mesopotamia took, the name of Babylonia. <sup>2</sup>Kingi 19. others subjection: for Efar-Haddon held <sup>35.20.12</sup>. Asyria; and Merodach Baladan, Babylonia. Flay 39.1. Salem (Hezekias then reigning) while Sena- in his Annotations) Justerat nasci arbores in destroyed; the King of Babel sent to Hezehealth, and his victory obtained over the of Arabia and Mesopotamia. Asyrians. After which overthrow, Senacheaib himself was slain by his own sons in the Temple of his Idols, Efar-Haddon fucceeding him in Afyria. To the Babylonian Ambasla-Est 39.1. dours sent by Merodach, Hezekias shewed all his treasures as well proper as consecrate, which invited the Kings of Babylon afterward to undertake their conquest and subversion. So as, the suspition of war encreasing between Babylon and Affyria, the Edenites which inhabited the borders of shinar towards the North, and towards Afgria, were this Telassar is the same, which Am. Marcelli-um in the History of Julian (whom he sollowed in the enterprize of Persia ) calleth Thilutha in stead of Telassar, who describeth the exceeding ftrength thereof in his 24. much as the Emperour Julian durst not attempt it; and therefore it was a convenient place for a Garrison against the Asyrians, being also a passage out of Mesopotamia into that before the death of Senacherib, many | eth Thelbe-Canne) on the right hand; not parts of the Babylonian Empire fell from his far from whence, is also found the City of Mann-Canne, upon Tygris; and all these feated together, as Efay and Ezechiel have forted them. But the understanding of these For it appeareth both in Esay the 37. and in the fecond of Kings, by the threats of places is the more difficult, because Asrria Rabfache, the while the Army of Afgria lay (which the Chaldeans call Atturia,) and Mebefore Jerusalem, that the Cities of Gosan, Jopotamia, were to often confounded; the Haran, Reseph, and the Edenites at Telassian, one taken for the other by interchanging of colonial hadresisted the Asyrians: though by them Dominion. Asyria & Massiania in Baby. (in a fort) mastered and recovered. Have the lonix nomen transferunt (saith Niger, ) Asyria Fathers have destroyed as Gosan, and Haran, Lastly, it appeareth by those adjacent Regi-Reseph, and the children of Eden, which were ons by the Prophets named, in what part of at Telassar? But it appeared manifestly after the World Eden is seated, as, by Charran or Senacherib's death, that these Nations for- Haran in Mesopotamia: also by Canneb and merly contending, were then freed from the Reseph, according to the opinion of Vatablus. who in these words translateth this place: Plantaverat autem JEHOV AH Deus hortum And after that the Army of Senacherib, com- in Eden, ab Oriente; The Lord God planted a manded by Rabsache which lay before Jeru- Garden in Eden Eastward: that is (saith he cherib was in Egypt, was by the Angel of God Eden, Regione Orientali, in finibus Arabia & Mesopotamia; He commanded Trees to kias, both to congratulate the recovery of his grow in Eden, an Eastern Region in the borders

6. X.

Of divers other testimonies of the Land of Eden; and that this is the Eden of Paradife.

Nd for a more particular pointing out And for a more particular pointing of this Eden, it seems by the two Epiftles of the Nestorian Christians, that inhabit Mesopotamia: which Epistles in the year 1552. they fent to the Pope about the confirming of their Patriarch, and Andreas Maemployed to bear offthe incursions of the fine hath published them, translated out of Afgrians; and their Garrison-place was at Sprine into Latine. By these Epistles (I say) Telassar: and the very word (Telassar) faith it seems we may have some farther light for Junius, fignifying as much as a Bulwork a- the proof of that, which we have faid about gainst the Asyrians. This place Hierosolymi- the Region of Eden in those parts. For in Lanus takes for Refem, others for Selencia: but them both, there is mention of the Island of Eden in the River Tyeris, or at least, Tyeris in both these Epistles is called the River of Eden. This Island, as Masins in his Preface to these Epistles saith, is commonly called Gozoria (as it were, The Island, by an eminen-Book: It is feated in an Island of Euphrates cv.) It hath (faith he) ten miles in circuit, and upon a fteep and unaffaultable Rock, in fo was fometimes walled round about, which name of the Ifland Eden may (doubtlefs) remain to this day; though in the rest of the Region so called, this name be swallowed up with the fame of those flourishing King-Babylonia, and in which the Edenites of the doms of Mesopotamia, Asyria, Babylonia, and Country adjoyning were lodged to defend chaldea. This Island of Eden hath up the Rithe same. This place Ptolemy calleth Teridata, ver, and not far beyond it, the City of Hahaving Reseph (which he calleth Resepha) on San-Cepha, otherwise Fortis Petra: below it, the left hand; and Canneb, (which he call- it hath Mofal or Mofel, from which (as in that ther is it to trouble us, That Mofal or Mofel, been, and hath by conquest and corruptiby Marius Niger is remembred among the on of other Languages, received new and vi for. Cities higher up Tygris, in these words, Juxta differing names. For the South part of autem Tygrim, Civitates funt Dorbeta prope Eden, which stretcheth over Euphrates, was Taurum montem, que mine Mosel dicitur; after the Floud called sbiner, and then, of magna sane, &c. (that is) By Tygris are these, the Tower of Babel, Babylonia; and the Cities. Dorbeta neer unto mount Taurus (which North part of Eden is that Tract of Melopotais now called Mosel) which is a great one, &c. mia, Aspria, and Armenia, which imbraceth This opinion of Niger, displacing Mosel, and both the banks of Tygris between Mount making it to be Dorbeta (Isay) needs not Taurus, and Selencia. And of this Region of here to trouble us: feeing for this matter, Eden that antient Ethicus maketh mention. the testimony of Masins, informed by the (not that latter Athieus, Disciple of Gallini-Christians that dwelt there ( the Seat of cus, otherwise by Plutarch and Atheneus callwhose Patriarch it is) ought to be of credit, ed Isra, who lived in Egypt in the Reign of avowing that this Mosal (or Mozal) is in the Philadelphus; but another of a far higher Confines of Mesopotamia and Assyria, seated and remote time) the same being made Laupon Tyris, and in the neighbour-hood of tine out of the Greek by Saint Hierom. And Nineve; and that it is the famous Seleucia though by corruption of the antient Copie Parthorum. The Nestorian Christians in their it be written, in Athicus, Adonis for Edenis: former Epistle, call it Attur in these words: yet Adonis being a River of Phanicia, can-Ex omnibus civitatibus & pagis que sunt cir-not be understood to be the Region named cum Civitatem Mosel (hoc est) Attur, in vici-nia Nineves; Of all the Cities and Townes try, and not a River, and joyneth it with which are about the City of Mosal (that is) At- Mesopotamia and Athiopia, calling the land tur in the neighbour-hood of Nineve. As also of Chus Æthiopia, after the Vulgar, and Sep-Niger acknowledgeth Cteliphon a City there- tuagint. And laftly, the River which waterabout to be called Assur, (which is the same eth the Regions (saith Æthicus) salleth inas Attur, after the Dialect of those Nations, to the Gulf of Persia: which River he called which change Shinto T.) Neither is it much | Armodius for Tygris; Tygris being but a that he should mistake Ctesiphon, (which is name imposed for the swiftness thereof. And not far off seleucia) for seleucia, to be Affur. By this then we may come somewhat near have their original: for out of Eden came a the end of our purpose. For the Isle of Eden, River, or Rivers, to water the Garden, both which lieth in the brest of Tygris, is but which Rivers (to wit) Tygris and Euphrates, twelve miles from Mofal, and that antient come out of Armenia, and both of them tra-City, which Ptolemy and Tacitus call Ninus, and the Scriptures Nineve; Philostratus, and by the name of Eden, for their beauty and Simeon Sethi, Mosula, and John Lean, Mosal, fertility. And it is very probable, that Eden others Mosse, (though it be not the same contained also some part of Armenia; and bout. For the same Andreas Masins, which are alway green, and therefore therein a perlow Hasan-Cepha, which is upon the same

CHAP. III.

The only difficulty is this, that some peris not yet quite worn out; though the Regi- | Hiddekel and Perath, were Tygris and Euphra-

River of Tygris.

which followeth it shall appear out of Mass-ton hath been subject to the same change; us) it is not above twelve miles distant. Neithat all other Kingdoms of the world have out of Armenia, both Tygris and Euphrates verse Mesopotamia, Regions first of all known with Mosal) is set but a little higher upon the excellent fertility thereof in divers places the same River of Tygris, near Mosal: so that is not unworthy the name of Eden. For in we are like to find this Isle of Eden herea- some part thereof (faith strabo) the leaves placeth it above Mosal, makes it to be be- petual Spring. Also Stephanus, de Orbibus, mentioneth the City of Adana upon Euphrates: and the name of Eden was in use in Amos's time, though he spake not of Eden in haps may think, that the words of the Ne- the East, but of Eden in Calo-Syria. But to florians in both their Epistles, speak not of a- the end I may not burthen the Readers pany Isle in Tygris, called the Isle of Eden; but tience with too long a Discourse, it may sufof an Isle in Tygris, a River of Eden. But this fice to know, that Emphrates and Tygris (once fense of their words in my opinion seemeth joyned together, and afterward separate) the more unprobable. And yet, if this were are two of those four heads, into which these the meaning here, we have a testimony from Rivers which are said to water the Garden the Learned of those parts, that not only of Paradise, were divided: whose courses be-Euphrates, but also Tygris was a River of E- ing known, Eden (out of which they are faid den, and that the name of Eden in those parts to come) cannot be unknown. Now that all others convert Perath by Euphrates: 6 out of the Ille of Eden, which lyeth in the River Hiddekel, Tygrim omnes exponent; And all Tygris. And in a second Epistle at the same men understand Hiddekel by Tygris (faith Va-time fent, they used these words: Neq3 superfunt tablus.) And because that which I have said apud nos Metropolite, quorum est ordinare Caof the Isle of Eden shall not be subject to the bolisms sed foli panci Episcopi, Episcopus Arbele, censure of self-invention, I have here-under Episcopus Salmasti. Episcopus Adurbeigansen è veset down the words out of the two general stigio convenious in Insulam, que est intra Tj-Epistles of the Nestorians, as Massus (ad ver- grim slumen, Eden, fecinusq; compatium inter bum) hath converted them into Latine. The nos. &c. (which is) Neither are there remaining occasion of those Letters and Supplications among, us any Metropolitan Bishops, to whom it to the Pope, were, That the Neftorian Christians, which inhabit Mesopotamia, Africa, Per- Stops, as the Bishop of Arbela, the Bishop of Salfia, Babylonia, and have to this day (at least in Queen Marys time they had) fifteen Churches in one City called Seleucia Parthorum, or Mosel upon the River of Tygris; having no fufficient authority to choose themselves a Patriarch (which cannot be done without four or three Metropolitan Bishops at the least) sent to the Bishop of Rome, in the year of Christ 1552. (as afore-said) a Petition to obtain allowance unto fuch an Election, as fitans in those parts of the World, and in the themselves had made: having three hundred | South part of Africa, which he calleth Neftoyear before that, upon the like defect, fent rians, Jacobites, Maronita, and Cophti, he go one Marius thither to be confirmed; and eth on in these words: Mox, audita illius in this negotiation they made known to the morte, concurrisse aiebant tumultuarib in illam Bishop of Rome the state of the Christian quam modo dixi Tygris Insulam, qua duodecim Church in those parts: for, upon the death circiter passium millibus supra Mosal posta, deof their Patriarch (who of a covetous de- cem fere millia passum suo ambitu continet, tute Metropolitan Bishops, when the places Christianis hominibus habitata: which is, fire to enrich himself, had forborn to instifell void) they all assembled themselves to- Now bearing of the death of the Patriarck, (as gether to consult of the Church-government. those that came to Rome reported) they ran And because all the Patriarchs for an hundred years had been of one House and Famithere yet remained one Bishop of the same ing very neer ten miles in compass, and every Stock and Kindred, who aspired to the same where invironed with a wall, inhabited by sew dle of the said Epistle; Verum nos non acceptavimus, neg; proclamavimus ipsum; sed subitò convenimus ex omnibus locis Orientalibus, & ex omnibus Civitatibus & Pagis que sunt circum civitatem Mosel (hoc est, Attur)in vicini å Nineves, ex Babylonia, ex Charra, ex Arbelå, ex Infulà qua est in medio Tyeris, stumithis man, neither pronounced him: but suddenly we affembled our selves out of all parts of the East, and out of all the Cities and Villages which are about Mosel (or Attur) neighbouring Eastward from Arabia Petraea, and the Desart upon Ninevez, and out of Babylon, Carrha, Ar-bella; and out of the Island which lyeth in the bordereth Carran according to Exechiel, and tes, it is agreed by all: for the Seventy and | middle of Tygris, a River of Eden, or rather belongs to ordain a Patriarch, but only a fewBimastus, and the Bishop of Adurbeigan: but lo. we affembled freedily in the Island of Eden, which is in Tygris, and agreed between our selves, &c. Now this Island of Eden, Masius describeth with other places; which being well conceived, the Nestorian Epistles, and the state of the Church may be in those parts (faith he) the better understood. And after he hath diftinguished the four forts of Chrimuris undiq, cincta, & à paucis aliis quant tumultuously together into that Island of Tygris or Eden before spoken of, which Island is situly to the prejudice of the Church, and that ated about twelve miles above Mofal, containdignity which his Predecessors had held; other men then Christians. And afterward, he the reft of the professors refused to allow maketh a recapitulation of the Christian him. Upon which occasion, and for the Churches; among the rest he addeth the choice of a Governour more sufficient, the Isle of Eden by the name of Geserta, Insula Teachers in all the Churches affembled Tygris; five Geferta. Furthermore, describthemselves. The words of the general E- ing the City of Hosan-Cepha, or Fortis Petra, piftle to the Pope are these, about the mid- he placeth it supra predict am Tygris Insulam, rupi asperæ impositam; Above the aforesaid Island of Tygris, being seated on a steep Rock. Of this Island of Geserta, Andrew Thevet maketh mention in his tenth Book of his general Cosmography, in these words: Geserta on Gesire est au milien de la Riviere du Tygre, & pense que c'est une terre des plus fertiles de nisEden,&c. i.e. But we did neither accept of toute l' Asie; Geserta or Gestre is in the middle of Tygris, the soyle the most fertile of all Asia.

The first Book of the first Part

By this we see that the antient name of Eden liveth; and of that Eden which lyeth affertion of the faid Prophet, and joyned with those Nations of Reseph, Canneh, and Charran, and the rest which traded with the Tirians, and is found at this day in the parting of the two Regions of Afgria, and Babylonia, where the Edenites in Thelaffar were garrisoned to refist the Asyrians, whose difplantation Senacherib vaunted of (as above written;) and lastly, the same Eden, which embraceth Tygris, and looketh on Euphrates, two of the known Rivers of those four, which are by all men ascribed to Paradise.

6. XI.

Of the difficulty in the Text, which feemeth to make the four Rivers to rife from one fiream.

DUt it may be objected, that it is written in the Text, That a River went out of Eden, and not Rivers in the plural: which scruple phrates, as this name comprehendeth all the Matthew Beroaldus hath thus answered in his branches thereof. For this River (after he Chronologie: The Latine Translation, faith is past the place, where we suppose Paradise he, hath these words: Et fluvius egrediebatur de loco voluptatis ad irrigandum Paradifum, qui inde dividebatur in quatuer capita: Countries, though not all the way down Que verba melius consentient cum rei narra- stream (for this is no where in the Text) tione, & ejusalem explicatione, si ita reddantur; Et fluvius crat egrediens ex Edene (hoc est) fluvii procedebant ex Edene regione ad rigandum pomarium; & inde dividebatur, & erat in quatuor capita: which is, And a River went out of the place of pleasure to mater Para-dise, and thence was divided into sour heads: Which words (faith Beroaldus) do better a- not fay, it compasseth or washeth the whole gree with the narration and explication of Region of Afgria (as it had used this phrase the place, if they be thus translated; And a of Pison and Gebon) but that it runneth to-River was going forth of Eden (that is) Rivers | wards Afgria. The first branch Pison, is Nawent forth, and ran out of the Region of Eden har-malcha (by interpretation) Basilius, or to water the Orchard; and from thence it was flumen regium, which runneth into Tygris undivided, and they became four heads. The Tygurine differs from the Vulgar or Latine; for it converts it thus, Et fluvius egrediebatur de the Land of Havila or Susiana. The second deliciis; And a River went out of pleasure, in branch Gehon, is that which in Historians is stead of Eden; and the Latine addeth the Nabarfares or Narragas; for Nabar-ragas: word locus, or place, Et fluvius egrediebatur both which names signifie flumen derivatum de loco voluptatis; And a River went out of (a River derived,) also Acracanus, quasi Rathe place of pleasure: and so the word (place) nosus, by reason of the Froggie Fens which may rightly be referred to Eden, which was it maketh: this Gehon leadeth to the first (of all other) a Region most delightful and seat of Chus, about the borders of Chaldea fertile; and so also the word (inde) and thence, and Arabia, and it is lost at length in the was divided, hath reference to the Country Lakes of Chaldea. The third branch Hiddeof Eden, and not to the Garden it felf.

usual among the Hebrews: for it is written: Let the Earth bud forth the bud of the Herb that feedeth Seed, the fruitful Tree, &c. Here the Hebrew useth the Singular for the Plural, is called Hiddekel or Tygris, having before no Herb and Tree, for Herbs and Trees; and a- known proper name, the Text in this place that Eden which is scated according to the | stead of (Trees: ) And thirdly, The man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of God: In medio lioni Paradili: In the middle of the tree of the Garden, for (Trees. ) And of this opinion is David Kimchi, and Vatablus, who upon this place of Genesis say, that the Hebrews do often put the Singular for the Plural, as illud, for unumquodq; illorum; and he giveth an inscance in this question it self, as, A River (for Rivers) went out of Eden.

And this answer out of divers of the Learned, may, not without good reason, be given to the objection, That Moses speaketh but of one River, from which the heads fhould divide themselves. Howbeit I deny not, but with as good (and perhaps better) reason, we may expound the four heads, to be four potable passages into famous Countrics. And so we may take the word (River) Verse the tenth for one River, (to wit) Euto have been) divides it felf, and ere long vieldeth four notable passages into several where it is noted, that following the River downward, there is conveyance into the Countries named in the Text, though part of the way to one of the Countries (to wit. to Affiria) were up Tygris.

To this end the Text speaking of Hiddekel, as it rifeth from the River of Eden, doth der Apamia; whence rifeth the name of Pali-Tygris, as it were Pifo-Tygris. This leadeth to kel, may be expounded the upper stream of And for the word (River) for Rivers, it is Pison, or Basslins, which runneth into Hiddekel, properly to called (that is, into Tygris) above Seleucia, where it sheweth a passage up Tygris into Afgria: where, because at length it gain, We eat of the fruit of the Tree, in calleth it Hiddekel from the beginning. The phrates, which runneth through Babylon and crat. Hac Regio, omnium quas nos victimus, Otris. But beit a River or Rivers, that come optima eft, &c. Where Euphrates runneth out out of Eden, seeing that Tygris and Euphra- into Tygris, not far from the place where Nites are noted in the Text, there can be no nus is feated. This Region, of all that we have doubt, but that Paradise was not far from seen, is most excellent: and he addeth afterthese Rivers: for that Perath in Moses is ward; Cereris antem fruitu procreando aded Euphrates, there can be no question; and ferax est, ut nunquam non fere ducenta red-(indeed) as plainit is that Hiddekel is Typris. dat, &c. (that is) It is fo finitfull in bringing For Hiddekel goeth (faith Moles) Eastward forth Corn, that it yieldeth two hundred fold: towards Affur, as we find, that Tygris is the The leaves of Wheat and Barley, being almost River of Affria proprie dicta, whose chief four fingers broad. As for the height of Millet City was Nineveh, as in Genesis the tenth it is and Sesame, they are even in length like unto written: That out of that Land (to wir) Trees; which although I know to be true, jet I Babylonia, Nimrod went into Afur, and build-forbear to speak hereof, well knowing, that ed Nineveb, which was the chief City of those things which are reported of this fruitful-be spoken of the beginning of their division Meats and Wine, and Honey, ordering them from the first stream. Caput aque (faith Olpi- as the Fig-Trees. Thus far Herodotus. anus ) illud est unde aqua noscitur ; si ex fonte nascatur, fons; sex flumine, vel ex lacu, pri- the East-India, Strabo and Niger add a fourth of the River.

6. XII.

Of the strange fertility and happiness of the Babylonian Soyl, as it is certain that Eden was such.

miles, or thereabout, from Nineveh, and so full and fat a foil, that they are faid to drive fourth Perath, or Euphrates, fo called per ex- from Mofal. Ex Euphrate exicus in Tygrim, cellentiam, being the body of the River Eu- alterum flumen, juxta quod Urbs Nini sita ness, will seem very incredible to those, which And as for the kind of speech here used in never were in the Countrey of Babylon. They the Text, speaking of four heads; though the have commonly in all the Countrey Palm-Trees heads of Rivers be (properly) their Foun- growing of their own accord, the most of them tains, yet here are they to be understood, to bearing fruit, out of which they make both To this Palm-Tree, fo much admired in ma initia, &c. If the beginning of the water be excellency, which is, that it rieldeth bread; out of a Fountain, then is the Fountain taken Ex quibus panem, & mel, & vinum, & acefor the head: if out of a Lake, then the Lake; tum conficient; Of which these people make and if from a main River any branch be fe- Bread, Wine, Honey, and Vineger. But Antoparate and divided, then where that branch nins the Eremite findeth a fifth commodity, doth first bound it self with new banks, there not inseriour to any of those four, which is, is that part of the River, where the branch that from this self-same Tree, there is drawn forfaketh the main stream, called the head a kind of fine Flax, of which people make their garments, and with which in East India they prepare the cordage for their Ships. And that this is true, Athanasius in the life of Antonius the Eremite, confesseth, saying: That he received a garment made thereof from the Eremite himself, which he brought with him out this Region. So therefore those Trees which the East Indies so highly esteem T may also be demanded, whether this and so much admire (as indeed the Earth Region of Eden, by us described, be of yielded no plant comparable to this) those fuch fertility and beauty, as Eden the feat of Trees (I fay) are in this upper Babylon, or Paradise was: which, if it be denied, then Region of Eden, as common as any Trees of must we also consider, that there was no the Field. Sunt etiam (faith Strabo )passim per part of the Earth, that retained that fertili- omnem Regionem palme sua sponte nascentes; ty and pleasure, that it had before the Curse: There are of Palms over all the whole Region. neither can we ascribe the same fruitfulness growing of their own accord. Of this place, to any part of the Earth, nor the same vir *Duintus Curtius* maketh this report: Euntitue to any Plant thereon growing, that they

bus à parte læva Arabia (odorum fertilitate had before the Floud; and therefore this nobilis) regio campestris interest inter Tygrim Region of Eden may be now no such flou- & Euphratem Jacens, tam ubere & pingui folo, rishing Countrey, as it was when it was first ut à pastu repelli pecora dicantur, ne satietus created in his perfection. Yet this I find writ- perimat; (that is) As you travel on the left ten of it: First, in Herodotus, who was an hand of Arabia (famous for plenty of fweet oeye-witnes, and speaketh of the very place dours) there lieth a Champain Countrey placed it self; for the Isle of Eden is but twelve between Tygris and Euphrates, of so fruittheir Cattel from pasture, lest they should perish | world: the Scriptures making it so plain, by satiety. Bis in anno segetes Babylonii se- that these Rivers were divided into four cant; The Babylonians cut their Corn twice a branches, and with the Scriptures, Nature, rear (faith Niger.) And as Countreys gene- Reason, and Experience bearing witness. rally are more fruitfull to the Southward, There is no errour which hath not some slipthan in the Northern parts: fo we may pery and bad foundation, or fome appearjudge the excellency of this by that report | ance of probability, refembling truth, which which Strabo maketh of the South parts of when men (who fludy to be fingular) find America, which is the North border of Eden, out (straining Reason according to their or a part thereof. His words be these in the fancies) they then publish to the world mat-Latine: Tota enim hac regio frugibus & arbo- ter of contention and jangling; not doubtribus abundat mansuetis, itemque semper vi- ing, but in the variable deformity of mens rentibus; This Region aboundeth with pleasant minds, to find some partakers or sectators, fruits, and Trees always green: which wit- the better by their help to nurse and cheneffeth a perpetual Spring, not found elfe- rifh fuch weak Babes, as their own invenwhere but in the Indies onely, by reason of tions have begotten. the Sun's neighourhood, the life and stirrer up of Nature in a perpetual activity. In brief, of Pifon ) feemeth to have grown out of the fo great is the fertility of the ground, that not-diffinguishing of that Region in India, the people are constrained twice to mow called Havilah, from Havilah which adjoyndown their Corn-fields, and a third time to eth to Babylonia, afterward known by the eat them up with Sheep: which husbandry name of Sustana. For Havilah upon Tygris, the Spaniards wanting in the Valley of took name from Havilah the Son of Cush; Mexico, for the first fourty years, could and Havilah in India, from Havilah the Son not make our kind of Wheat bear feed, but of Joilan; the one remembred by Moses in it grew up as high as the Trees, and was the description of Paradise, the other where fruitless. Befides, those fields are altoge- Moses fetteth down the generations of Noah, fecond year, the very ftubble (or rather falling down of the feeds again) yieldeth them and Havilah, &c. of which latter (to wit) a harvest of Corn without any further la-

Nat. bour: his words are these, "Ubertatis tanta Island of Ophir, (whence Solomon had Gold) Hill. 1.18. funt, ut sequenti anno sponte restibilis fiat and Havilah adjoyning, had their names. leges.

6. XIII.

Of the River Pifon, and the Land of Havilah.

eth to prove that Pison and Gehon are bran- est in the World; whence (supposing that ches of Trgris and Euphrates: For, that the Ganges was the next great and famous Riany of fame known or discovered in the Gangem, which lie between those two proud

But this miltaking (and first for the River

ther without weeds (faith Pliny) who adad and his Sons after the Floud. For the Sons deth this fingularity to that foil, That the of Cn/h were Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, and Ra-Gen, 10.7. amah; and the Sons of Jostan were ophir, of Ophir and Havilah the Sons of Jottan, that Now, because Ganges is a great and a famous Gen. 10. River of the East India, and Havilab a Country of the fame and is fituated upon Ganges, hence it came that Ganges was taken for Pifon, which River is faid by Moses, to water the Land of Havilah. Or perhaps, it was fup- Gen.2. 11. Fter the discovery of Eden, and the te- posed, that those four Rivers named by fimonies of the fertility thereof, it rest. | Moses, must of necessity be four of the greatknowledge and certainty of these two Ri- ver after Tyaris and Euphrates) they chose vers should trouble so many wise men, it is out this River to make one of the four. And strange to me; seeing necessity it self (Tygris vet certainly there is another River, whom and Emphrates being known) findeth them in these respects they should rather have out: for Euphrates, or Tygris, or both, be chosen than Ganges: for the River Indus on that River or Rivers of Eden, which water this fide India, for beauty, for nearness, and Paradife: which River or Rivers, Moles wit- for ability, giveth no way place to Ganges, neffeth afterward divided into four heads, but exceedeth it in all. And how can any whereof the one is called Pifon, the other reasonable man conceive, that Ganges can be Gehon. &c. Could there be a stranger fancy of the four heads, seeing Indus cometh bein the world, than when we find both these tween it and Tygris? and between Tygris (namely) Tygris and Euphrates in Affyria and and Indus is all that large Empire of Persia, Mesopotamia, to seek the other two in India | consisting of many Kingdoms. And again farand Egypt, making the one Canger, and the ther towards the East, and beyond Indus, are other Nilus? Two Rivers as far distant as all those ample Dominions of India intra

Rivers

Rivers of Indus and Ganges, now called the | Havilah the fon of Cufb gave name unto, and degrees to the Eastward of Indus? Surely, whofoever readeth the Story of Alexander. shall find that there is no River in Asia, that can exceed Indus. For Hydaspis was of that breadth and depth, as Alexander thereon but one of many branches of Indus, comparable to it, and as great as it, having befides this, the Rivers of Coas, of Suaftus. Acclines, Adris (otherwise Hirotis,) Hispalis, and Zaradus, all which make but one Indus, and by it are fwallowed up with all their children and companions, which being all incorporated and made one stream, it crosseth athwart Asia, and then at Cambaia visiteth the Ocean Sea.

But because Pison, which compasseth Ha-Gen. 2.15. vilab, as also Gehon, which watereth Cufb, must somewhere be joyned with the rest in out of the same Country of Eden, out of which the other two heads do proceed; the other be Ganges, or Nilus: For Nilus rifeth in the uttermost of the South, and runneth Northward into the Mediterran Sea; and the River Ganges rifeth out of the Mounin the fame Armenia. by the Georgian Mounthence be separated, or divided into four heads or branches, according to Mofes.

Therefore the River Pison, which inrich-

Kingdom of Mogor. So as if Indus be not ac- not Havilah of India, so called of Havilah the counted for any of the four, because it is | Son of Jostan, who inhabited with his broremoved from Tygris by all the breadth of ther Opkir in the East. And this Havilah of Persia, then how much less Ganges, which the Cushites had also Gold, Bdellium, and the falleth into the Ocean, little less than fourty Onyx stone. This Bdellium is a Tree of the bigness of an Olive, whereof Arabia hath great plenty, which yieldeth a certain Gum fweet to fmell to, but bitter in tafte, called also Bdellium. The Hebrews take the Loadfrom for Bdellium. Rerealdus affirmeth, that in great Gallies transported himself, and the Bdela in Hebrew fignifieth Pearl: so doth greatest part of his Army, and in failing | Eugubinus; and Hierom callsit Oleaster: be down that branch of Indus, found it so large it what it will, a tree bearing Gum or Pearl, and deep, and by reason thereof so great Havilah or Susiana hath plenty of both. Now a billow, as it endangered his whole this Country of Susiana or Havilah, stretch-Fleet, which was ready to be fwallowed eth it felf towards the North as far as the Alup therein: Hydaspis (as asoresaid) being tars of Hercules, and from thence imbraceth all the Tract of Land Southward, as far as the Persian Gulfe, on the East side thereof: from which East fide had the Shebans (which traded with the City of Tyre according to Ezekiel ) their great plenty of Gold; which Strabo also witnesseth, as was shewed

The Greeks had a conceit, that Pison was steuth. Danubius: the Rabbins take it for Nilus, Hopk, Aben-Ezra (faith Hopkins) out of Rabbi Saa- Par. dia, translateth Pilon into Nilus: But Nilus findeth the same impossibility that Ganges doth: and Danubius hath the Sea of Helleone body, or at least be found to proceed front, and all Asia the less between it and Tygris. Now Pilon, which runneth through Havilah or Susiana, doth to this day retain out of doubt they cannot either the one or some signe of this name; for where it and Tygris embraceth each other under the City of Apamia, there do they agree of a joynt and compounded name, and are called Pifo-Tygris. And it is strange unto me, that from tain Imaus, or (as others will have it) Can- fo great antiquity there should be found recafus, which divides the Northern Scythia maining any refembling found of the first from India and runneth from North to South name: for Babylon it felf, which dwelleth fo polices into the Indian Ocean. And as for Perath and near these Rivers, is by some writers known mog. Hiddekel (that is, Euphrates and Tygris ) the by the name of Bandas, as, by Postellus: by one of them is begotten in Armenia, near Castaldus, of Balduch: by Barius, of Bagdad; Three. Georgiana or Iberia, the other is not far off and of Boughedor, by Andrew Thevet; and Colm yet all those that have lately seen it, call it Asault tains; fo as Ganges, who only travaileth in Bagdet. To this River of Fison Ptolemy inher own India, and Nilus through Ethiopia deed with many others give the name of Baand Egypt, never faw the land of Eden, or filins or Regins, and Gelon they term Maharjoyned themselves in one channel, either Jares, and Marsias, and Baarsares. So is Euwith themselves, or with either of the other; phrates, near the Spring and Fountain, by and therefore could not at any time from Strabo and Pling called Pixirates: by Junius, Puck-perab, out of the Hebrew (that is) The profusion, or coming forth of Euphrates: where it breaketh through the Mountain eth Havilah, is the same which by joyning it Taurus, it takes the name of Umgra. Plutarch felf with Tygris, was therefore called Pifi- calls it Medus and Zaranda: the Hebrews Tygris or Pife-Tygris, of Pifen and Tygris, Parath (faith Ar. Montanus:) Pagninus, Pecen. 2. v. which River watereth that Havilah, which rath: Josephus, Phorah; Eusebius, Zozimus; limitius, term it Cobar: which Ezechiel call- the interjacent Countries: for Saul fmore eth Chebar; but this is but a branch of Eu- the Amalekites from Havilab to Sur: which phrates. The Afgrians know it by the name Sur, the Chaldean Paraphrast converteth Hacommonly it is called Frat.

Ammianus.

The fame confusion of names hath Tygris, as Dielite and Dielath, Seilax and Sollax : was no fuch Travailer or Conquerour, and of the Hebrews it was called Hiddekel: now therefore Havilah must be found nearer of the inhabitants, Tegil.

But Mercer upon Genelis conceiveth rightly of these Rivers: for Euphrates and Tygris (below Apamia, ) lose their names and are called Pifi-Tigris, and the memory of Euphrates extinguished, is, because the best part of Furthrates running through the channel of Gehon, finketh into the Lakes of Chaldea, not far from Ur, the City of Abraham, and fall not entirely into the Persian Sea, as Tygris, accompanied with Pifon, doth.

This errour, That Pifon was Ganges, was first broached by Josephus, (whose fields, though they be fertile, yet are they exceeding full of weeds) and other men (who take his authority to be sufficient in matter of defeription, whereupon depended no other important consequence) were not curious in the examination thereof. For, Epiphanius, fay did Cush (being by the Seventy translated Augustine, and Hierom, take this for currant; whereof it followed, that as Pifon was transported into the East India to find out Havi-lab: so was Gebon drawn into Africa to compass Æthiopia. But if Havilah, whereof Mofound to be a Region, adjoyning to Babylon on the one fide, and Cush (which is failly interpreted Ethiopia) fastned to it on the o- South in Africa; yet those of Thebaides are ther fide, we shall not need then to work those so often remembred in the Egyptian wonders (that is) to impose upon menthe stories, and out of which Nation they had transportation of Rivers, from one end of the many times their Kings of Egypt: all which the Land (called Cufb) which Gebon watereth, took name of Cush himself. For as the then Chufa, Sufa, and Sufiana.

From this Havilah unto the Defarts of Sur,

Ammianus, Chalymicus: Giftilianus and Co- did the Ifraelites and Amalekites poffess all of Armalchar, or Nahor Malcha: but now gra, and Hagra bordereth the Red-Sea. But 1 Sam. 15. this was not meant from Sur upon the Red-7. Sea, to Havilah in the East India, for Saul home, where the Sons of Imael inhabited. and which Country Saul wasted: for Amalek and the Amalekites poffes'd that neck of (Gith he) ftream into four branches; two Country, between the Persian Sea, and the of which keep their antient names, and the Red Sea; Havilah being the extream of the other two are called Pilon and Gehon. The one, towards the East, and sur of the other, reason why these two Rivers, joyned in one towards Egypt and the West, leaving that great body of Arabia felix towards the South, and they spread themselves with the Midianites and Edumeans, from the Eastpart, or backfide of the Holy Land, to the banks of Euphrates, comprising the best part of Arabia Petraa, and Deferta.

§. XIV.

Of the River Gehon, and the Land of Cush, and of the ill translating of Ethiopia for Cush, 2 Chron, 21, 16,

Ow as Havilah in the East India drew Pison so far out of his way thither, so I Ethiopia) force Gehon into Africa. For Cush being taken for Ethiopia by the Greeks, whom the Latines followed, Gehon consequently was esteemed for Nilus. But Ethiopians are. as much as black or burnt faces, whose proper See more fes speaketh in the description of Paradise, be Country called Thebaides, lyeth to the South-of this ward of all Egypt. And although there be Section many other Regions of Ethiopians, and far World to the other, which (among other Ethiopians are very near, or else directly unuses) were made to transport men. Now it der the Equinotial line, which is very far was in the Vally of Shinar, where Cush the from that Land inhabited by the Chustes, Son of Ham first sate down with his Sons She- who are neither black of colour, nor in any bah, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, Nimrod, &c. fort neighbouring Torrida Zona. But this and of Havilah, the Son of Culb did that Re- translation of the Septuagint, Pererius doth gion take name, which Pifon compaffeth; and | qualifie in this manner: There are (faith he) two Ethiopia's, the East, and West: and this division he findeth in Strabo, out of Homer. Sons of Jottan, Ophir, and Havilah, feated Now because there is no colour to make themselves as near together as they could in Chus Ethiopia in Africa, Pererius will make India, so did the Sons of Cush in Shinar, or Chush and the land of the Chustes (which is Babylonia, where Nimrod built Babel: for Arabia Petraa, and part of Arabia the Happy, Havilah, or Chavilah, was first Chusea, of Custs with the Region of Madian) to be the East Ethiopia.

Now, if it be granted, that Chufb and the

CHAP. IV.

it well appeared, when Zearah the Chusite, strange progress for such a multitude, as ten hundred thousand, having so mighty a King as the King of Egypt, between Palestina and Æthiopia. But these were the Chusites, Amalekites. Madianites, Ismaelites, and Arabians. For it is written, that after Afa (strengthened by God) had defeated this world of an Armie he in following his Victory took fome of the Cities of King Zearah round about, as Gerar. Now, that Gerar is a City of the Æbe the words of the Scripture disproving it : Exod. 17.8. And Abraham departed thence, toward the South Countrey, and dwelt between Kadesh and sojourned in Gerar : Now Sur is that part upon which Mofes and the Ifrelites first fet their the Amalekites in Rephidim fet on them, fup- troubled mater. poling that they had been weary and unable written : Wherefore Isaac ment to Abime- taken for Ethiopia. Moses married the daugh-North, and Gerar by Gaza towards the South. of Arabia Petraa, bordering the Red-Sea; an honest excuse, salve this Translation of Moses fled from Pharaoh into the Land of Mi-Chus for Æthiopia; yet it appeareth plainly, dian, and fate down by a Well, &c. And again, Homer's East and West Athiopia, they are Madian, . Indeed, these four Nations are

Land of the Chulbites be that Tract from Sur | Book, and eighth Chapter, citeth Homer for to Havilah, according to the Scriptures: Ha- an Authour of these two Æthiopia's. But the bitavit Ishmael ab Havilah usque Sur, que re- East Æthiopia is that which compasseth Nispicit Agyptum introcuntibus Asyrios, Ismael lus to the South of Egypt, and is the South dwelt from Havilah unto Sur, that is, towards border thereof; now a part of the Em-Egypt, as thou goest toward Assyria. The same pire of the Abissines under Prester John; fufficeth to prove that Gehon cannot be Nilus, And the West Ethiopia is that which joynbut a River that watereth Culb, and not #- eth it felf with the River Niger, which we thiopia. But this place of Scripture, Habitavit | call Senega and Gambra: for thereabours Ifmael, &c. hath this fense: Ifmael dwelt from are these Ethiopians called Perors. Dararites. Havilah, which is the way of Affyria, or the with divers other names, which Pliny num-Countrey bordering Afgria; and Sur, which | breth. But all these are in Africa, and beyond lieth toward Egypt, which is as much to fay, the Defarts thereof, faith Pliny out of Homer. Plin !! as, The islues of Ishmael (whereof there were | Agrippa and Juba; which Regions indeed (1 ". ". twelve Princes) whom God had promifed to mean that of Niger, and that of Prester John. make a great people, inhabited all those Re- and the Troglodites) lie due East and West. gions between the border of Egypt and Afy- But as for Cufb, and the Region of the Ifmaria. And that they were (according to the elites, &c. they are extended directly North Word of God) so increased and multiplied, from that Æthiopia, which is beyond Egypt. Now, that Josephus was exceeding groß herewhich others call Tharantha, brought an Ar- in, it appeareth by that fiction which he hath mic of ten hundred thousand against Ala of Moles when he served Pharaob in the Wars King of Juda, Which Armic came not out of against the Æthiopians: for in that (to make Æthiopia beyond Egypt; for that had been a Chus, Æthiopia) he transporteth Madian by miracle over the Red-Sea, and beyond all Egypt, and fetteth it in Æthiopia, as shall be shewed more at large in the Chapter of the World's Plantation. Again, that Gehon was improperly translated Nilus, Pererius confesseth, and layeth it rather to the corruption of the Greek Copie, than otherwise. And whereas the Septuagint have converted this place of the Prophet Hieremie; And what hast thon now to do in the way of Egypt, to thiopians, it cannot be suspected; for these drink the water of Nilus? Quid tibi vis in via Egypti, ut bibas aquam Gehon? To this faith Pererius, profetto Hebraice ibi non est vex Gehon, sed Sichor, qua significat Nigrum & C.s. v. 18 turbidum: Truly (faith Pererius) the word Gehon in this place, is not found in the Hefeet after they passed the Red-Sea, where brew, but Sichor; which signifieth black and Furthermore, this is a manifest and unto refift. Again, in the Story of Isaac it is answerable argument .! that Chus was ill lech, and the Philliftines unto Gerar : and I am ter of Jethro, Prince and Priest of Madian, Exod, 1.16 thropians. And lastly, Mose himself, where he dianite, and not Æthiopiss, as (with Jo. 1. describeth the bounds of Canaan, hath these fephus) the Geneva converts it, though it words: Then the border of the Canaanites mas help it a little with a marginal Note. Now from Sydon, as thou comest to Gerar: for sy- it is without dispute, that Zipporah was of don was the frontier of Canaan towards the the Country of Madian, which is that part But indeed, howfoever Pererius doth, with for it is written in the fecond of Exodus, that that the septuagint and Josephus did altogether mil-understand this place. And first, for sheep of Jethro, his father in-law, Priest of Versit. both found elsewhere: For Pliny in his fifth every where mixt in the Scriptures, because

and the Chastes, which were all, in one general word, Arabians; and in the Scriptures and all are one Nation, and all Arabians. fometimes called by one of these names, and fometimes by another; as in Gen. 37. v. 25, Chus, is, among other places, made must ap-27, and 28. that Joseph was fold to the Ismaelites; and in the same Chapter, v. 36. it is written, that the Madianites fold Joseph to Potiphar, Pharaoh's Steward. The Genevians, in a marginal Note (to avoid this confounding of the Nations) fay, that Moles wrote according to their opinon, who took the Madianites and Ismaelites to be all one. But Moles wrote not after any mans opinion, he wrote the truth; and these were all Arabians: and so in this very place it appeareth with the Land of the Chusters, and are distant by their Merchandise, which they brought from Æthiopia about two and thirty, or three with them, when they bought Joseph. for and thirty degrees; and therefore not their their Camels were loaden with Spicerie, and next neighbours; but all Egypt, and the De-Balm, and Myrrhe, which are the trades of fart of sur and Pharan are between them. Arabia felix: from whence chiefly, and So as this place of the second of chronicles, from the East India, all the World is served should have been translated in these words: with Myrrhe and Frankincense; and their So the Lord stirred up against Jehoram, the Spices they received from the East fide of Spirits of the Philiftines, and the Arabians. the Arabian Gulf, as aforesaid. And in the which confine and border upon the Chusites, 39 Chapter, it is faid: That Potiphar bought Joseph of the Ismaelites, which the Chaldean Paraphrast in the same place calleth Arabians. Now to make this the more manifest, it is Vers. 10. written, Judg. 6. That when Ifrael had fown, then came up the Madianites, and the Amalekites, and they of the East, and came upon them: they of the East were Arabians of the Defart; so as where before in the buying of No, he knew it, no living man so well, and Joseph, the Madianites and the Ismaelites were therefore would never have named Gebon confused, here the Madianites and Amalekites for Nilus, or Nilus for Gehon. Surely, if Moses are made one Nation. For in the profecution of the Story of Gedeon, the Madianites onely are named, as comprehending both Nations; and in the eighth Chapter, v. 24. these Na-(18, 7. and in the eighth Chapter, v. 24. tions are called Ifmaelites, and neither *Madi*anites, nor Amalekites. As when Gedeon defired that every man would give him the golden Ear-rings, which they had taken after the victory against Zeba and Zalmunna, Kings of Arabia, amounting to 1700. shekels of Gold, it is written: For they had golden might justly have thought, that he had de-cu.so. in Ear-rings; because they were Ismaelites. And these Ijmaelites were a great and valiant Nation, and ever in action of War. Manus ejus contra omnes, O manus omnium contra cum; His hand (faith God, of Ismael) shall be against all men, and every mans hand against him. Of these Ismaelites come the Mahometan Arabians, though some Writers think Mahomet to be of the Schenite. And these Ismaelites, which inhabit chiefly in Cedar, and the Defarts of Sur and Pharan (faith Josephus) use they dwell confusedly together (to wit) the | do. Toward the South-east are the Madi-Madianites, the Ismaelites, the Amalekites, anites, and Chusites: and beyond them towards the Defarts of Arabia, the Amalekites,

Lastly, the ill Translation of Æthiopia for parent in the fecond of Chronicles, in these words: So the Lord stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and the Arabians, 2chro. 21. which confine the Æthiopians; fo Hierome reads it: the Geneva Translation hath it, which were besides the Æthiopians. Now how far it is off between the Philistines and the Negro's or the Æthiopians, every man that looketh in a Map may judge. For the Philistines and Arabians do mixe and joyn who indeed are their next neighbours. * Nulla superest dubitatio quin Æthiopia in sa- * Steuth. cris literis sa Arabia propinqua; There remain- Gen. c. 2. eth no doubt (faith steuchius) but Æthiopia in the Scriptures, is taken for that Country which joyneth to Arabia.

Now, may we think, is it probable, or poffible that Mofes could be ignorant of Nilus ? had meant Nilus, when he named Gehon, he would have called the River (into which he was cast upon Reeds, and preserved by God. working compassion in the Daughter of Pharaoh) a River of Egypt, wherein he was born Exod. 2. and bred, and wrought so many miracles. Besides, the River of Nilus is often named in the Scriptures, but never by the name of Gekon. And if Moses had told the Ifraelites, that Nilus had been a River of Paradife, they days of their lives, and found no fuch Paradise at all, nor any memory, or speech thereof, except we shall believe the Paradise of Hesperides, where (faith Pliny ) there Plin.1 5. was nothing found in his time, but wilde c.i.c.i3.
Olives in flead of golden Apples. But Nilus v. 18. istwice called Sichor, once in Ifaiah, and once in the Prophet Jeremie; and yet in those places it is not faid to be a River of Æthiopia; but of Egypt. For in a word, the Ifraelite's poyfon upon their Arrows, as the Indians had never any communion or affairs with the Æthiopians, nor any intelligence or trade | felf in the best of the Valley, where he built beyond Egypt, to the South; but the enemies Eabel, whereof that Region had afterwards which they had on the South, and East parts, the name of Babylonia. Chus himself and his were these Nations of the Chastees, Philiftines, brother Mizraim first kept upon Gelon, Ifmaelites, Amalekites, and Madianites: who which falleth into the Lakes of Chaldea; and being often governed by many little kings, or in process of time, and as their people in-Regult, were diftinguished in names, accord-creafed, they drew themselves more Westering to the Fathers or Heads of those Nati- ly towards the Red or Arabian Sea: from ons; but in one general name were all Ara-bians. On the North side of Canaan, they which Tract the Chistes remained for many were afflicted with the Calo-Syrians, with the Magogians, Tubalites, and others their adherents. And thirdly, within themselves, the they might entitle Gehon, they translated Nations which remained of the ancient Canaanites, held the strongest Cities upon the do examine this mistaking by example, we Sea-coast, as Tyre, Sidon, Acon, Gaza, and many others; yea, Jerusalem it self was us suppose, that Brute, or whosoever esse that with-held from Israel, from the days of sirst peopled this Illand, had arrived upon the

That which now remaineth of most difficulty, is, that it doth not appear that any part of Gebon watereth that part of Arabia Defart it was, that Matt. Beroaldus lost himfelf in seeking out Paradise: for he was driven (to my understanding) to create two rerum Natura, as he hath described : by which even Arabia the Defart. And as he well proved that Pifon was not them elsewhere, it feemeth he knew not. maketh to fall into the Mediterran at Gaza. and whose Springs he findeth far East in Arathe state of Ifrael stood, and when it floutrance of Arabia-fælix. Nimrod feated him- off, and in places not yet entituled, and far-years after. Now, because there could be no fuch River found in Arabia the stony, which Chus, Æthiopia; and Gehon, Nilus. And if we shall the better perceive it as it was. For let Adofes, even unto the time of David, by the River of Thames, and called the Island after his name Britannia, it might be faid that Thames or Tems was a River that watered Britannia: and when afterwards, in process of time, the same Brute had also discovered the ftony, which the Chaftes inhabited in and conquered Scotland, which he also entithe times of the Kings of Ifrael: and in this tuled by the fame name of Britannia, afterages might conclude that scotland was no part thereof, becuse the River of Tems is not found therein. Or let us suppose that Europa, Rivers, and call them Gehon and Pifon , to the Daughter of the King of Tyre in Pheni-noulti the end that the one might water Chus, and cia, gave the name to Europe, according to add the other Havilah; for I find none such In Herodotus, and that the first discoveres thereof arrived in the mouth of the River Rivers he also includeth within Paradife, in Thrace, which then watered as much of Europe, as he first discovered; Shall we in like fort resolve that France, Spain, and Italy, &c. Ganger, nor Gehon Nilus; fo where to find are no pars of Europe, because that River is not found in them, or any of them? In like Certainly, this River of Gehon, which he manner was it faid by Mofes in his defeription of Gehon, that it watered the whole Land of Chus; but not the whole Land which the bia, is but imaginary; for the Current by Chustes should, or might in suture time con-Gaza, is but a small stream, rising between quer,people, and inhabit sseeing in after-ages it and the Red-Sea, whose head from Gaza they became Lords of many Nations, and it self is little more than twenty English they might (perchance) have been Masters miles, as shall appear hereafter. But questi- in time, (as the Saracens, which came of onless, hence it comes that many were mista- them, were) of a great part of the World. ken. They all confidered of the habitations For, though the Babylonian Empire which of the Chustes, as they were planted when took beginning in Nimrod the Son of Chus, confifted at the first but of four Cities, (to rished, being then their near neighbours, and wit) Babel, Erech, Acad, and Chalne, yet we never looked back to the first seats and plan- find, that his Successours within a few years tation of Chus. For after the Floud, Chus after, commanded all the whole World in efand his children never refted, till they found feet: and the fame of Babel confumed the the Valley of Shinar, in which, and near memory of Chusea. For of this Torrer of Conwhich himself, with his Sons, furt inhabited. fusion did all that Land take the name of Havilab took the River-side of Tygris chiesly Babylonia: and the greatness of that Emon the East, which after his own name he pire founded by Nimred a younger Son, called Havilah, (now Sulfana:) Raamah, and obscured the name and Nation of his Father Sheba farther down the River, in the en- Cufb in those parts, until they crept farther ther from the Babylonian Empire, where the habitable World, feated in the lower part Chulites retained their names, which also they fastned to the Soil and Territory, by themfelves afterwards inhabited and held. And we may not think, that Chus, or any of his, could in haft creep through those defart Recellent temper of all other (to wir) 35. degions, which the length of 130. years after the Floud had (as it were) fortified with North-pole: in which Climate, the most ex-Thickets, and permitted every Bush and cellent Wines, Fruits, Oyle, Grain of all Brvar, Reed and Tree, to joyn themselves forts, are to this day found in aboundance. (as it were ) into one main body and For- And there is nothing that better proveth the rest. For if we look with judgment and reafon into the Worlds Plantation, we shall find. that every Family feated themselves as near together as possibly they could; and though wherein soever the Earth, Nature, and the Sun necessity enforced them, after they grew full can most vaunt that they have excelled; yet of people, to fpread themselves, and creep shall this Plant be the greatest wonder of all out of shinar, or Babylonia; yet did they it their works: This Tree alone giveth unto with this advice, as that they might at all man whatsoever his life beggeth at Nature's times refort and succour one another by Ri- hand. And though it may be said, that these ver, the fields being then(without all doubt) Trees are found both in the East and West impassible. So Nimrod, who out of wit and Indies, which Countries are also blessed with frength usurped dominion over the rest, a perpetual Spring and Summer; yet, lay sate down in the very confluence of all those down by those pleasures and benefits, the Rivers, which watered Paradise: for thither seafful and dangerous Thunders and Lightit was, to which the greatest troups of Noah's nings, the horrible and frequent Earthchildren repaired; and from the same place quakes, the dangerous diseases, the multiwhence Mankind had his beginning, from tude of venimous Beafts and Worms, with thence had they again their increase. The first Father of men, Adam, had therein his former habitation: The second Father of the other. Mankind, Noah, began from thence his difperfion.

Now as Nimrod the youngest, yet strongest, made his choyce of Babel (as aforesaid) which both Tygris and Enphrates cleanfed how much Adam exceeded all living men in and enriched; so did Havilah place himself upon Piso-Tygris; Ramah and his Son Sheba manship of God, by so much did that chosen farther down upon the same River, on the and particular Garden exceed all parts of Sea coast of Arabia: Chush himself upon Gehon, the fairest branch of Euphrates. And planted (that is) made to grow the Trees, of when they began to spread themselves far-ther off, yet they alwaies sastened them-and becomming the Paradise, and Garden felves to the Rivers sides: for Ninive, Charran, Reseph, Canneb, Or in Chaldea, and the other first peopled Cities, were all founded eys of men in this Scripture have been dimupon these navigable Rivers, or their branches; by which the one might give fuccour and affiftance to the other, as is already often remembred.

6. XV.

A conclusion by way of repetition of something Spoken of before.

Dut now to conclude this Dispute; It ap-Beareth to me by the testimonies of the where it was, and whereof the name (in Scripture, that Paradife was a place created fome part) remaineth to this day. A River by God, and a part of this our Earth and went out of Eden to water this Garden, and of the Region of Eden, afterward called Aram fluviorum, or Mesopotamia, which taketh into it also a portion of Shinar and Argrees from the Equinodial, and 55. from the excellency of this faid foil and temper, then the abundant growing of the Palm-trees, without the care and labour of man. For other inconveniences; and then there will

What other excellencies this Garden of Paradise had, before God (for man's ingratitude and cruelty) cursed the Earth, we cannot judg; but I may fafely think, that by the Univerfal World, in which God had of fo grant a Lord.

fighted (some of them finding Paradise beyond our known World: fome, above the middle region of the ayr: fome, elevated near the Moon: others, as far South as the Line, or as far North as the Pole, &c.) I hope that the Reader will be sufficiently satisfied, that these were but like Castles in the ayr, and in mens fancies vainly imagined. For it was Eastward in Eden (faith Mofes; ) Eastward, in respect of Judea, that God planted this Garden ; which Eden we find in the Prophets phrates swimming through Eden do joyn in off as the Cape of good hope, and falleth into one, and afterward taking waies apart, do the Mediterrane Sea: and Euphrates diwater Chus and Havilah, according to Moses, stilleth out of the Mountains of Armenia, and the true feats of Chus and his Sons being their falleth into the Gulf of Persia: the one riseth in the Vally of Shinar, in which Nimrod built in the South, and travaileth North; the o-Babel. That Pison was Ganges, the Scripture, reason, and experience teach the contrary: for that which was never joyned, cannot be the other. In this leaf following, I have addivided; Ganges, which inhabiteth India, maketh the same impossibility; and this River is a greater stranger to Tygris and Euare between Tygris and Ganges above four this description of mine be reproved by a thousand miles, yet they both rise in the same better.

from thence divided it felf into four bran- quarter of the World; but Nilus is begotten ches; and we find that both  $T_{ggris}$  and  $E_{H-}$  in the Mountains of the Moon, almost as far ther riseth in the North, and runneth South, threescore and three degrees the one from cannot be a branch of the Rivers of Eden; terrestrial Paradife, that the Reader may That Gehon was Nilus, the same distance thereby the better conceive the preceding Discourse; and this is the reward I look for, that my labour may but receive phrates, then Ganges is: for although there an allowance suspended, until such time as

CHAP. IV.

Of the two chief Trees in the Garden of Paradise.

§. I.

That the Tree of Life was a material Tree; and in what sense it is to be taken, that man by kis eating the forbidden Fruit, is made subject to death.

the banishment of temporal life, faith Beda. That these Trees of Life and Knowledg were material Trees (though Figures of the Law tile as nothing can fix them, and so slippery as nothing can fasten them, have in this aldoctrine.

a Plural construction, and is to be understood, Lignum vitarum, The Tree of lives, beit must once perish and rot, by the unchanged | have been translated and glorified. Law of God imposed on his creatures; Man But of what kind or Species this Tree of (notwithstanding ) should have enjoyed Life was no man hath taken on him to teach:

Or eating the forbidden fruit of the tree | thereby a long, beautiful, and ungrieved of Knowledg, was Adam driven out of life: after which (according to the opinion Paradife, In exilium vite temperalis, Into of most Divines) he should have been tranflated, as Enoch was. And, as before the Floud, the days of men had the long meafure of eight hundred or nine hundred years; and of the Gospel) it is not doubted by the and soon after the Floud, of two hundred most religious and learned Writers: although the wits of men, which are so volational though the wits of men, which are so volational through the wits of men, which are so volational transfer and upwards, even to five hundred: so if Adam had not disobeyed Gods first and easie Commandment, the lives of men on earth might have continued double, treble, fo delivered to the World, an imaginary or quadruple to any of the longest times of the first age, as many learned men have con-The Tree of Life (fay the Hebrews) hath ceived. Chryfostom, Rupertus, Tostatus, and others were of belief, that (but for Adams fall and transgression) Adam and his Postecause the fruit thereof had a property, to rity had been immortal. But such is the infipreferve both the growing, fensitive, and ra-nite Wisdom of God, as he forefaw that the tional life of man; and not only (but for earth could not have contained Mankind; Adam's transgreffion) had prolonged his or else, that millions of Souls must have been own daies, but also given a dureful continu- ungenerated, and have had no being, if the ance to all his posterity; and that so long, as first number wherewith the Earth was replenished, and although it is hard to think that the state of And although it is hard to think, that therefore that of Chrysoftom must be underflesh and bloud could be immortal, but that stood of immortality of bodies, which should

the same was not material, but a meer Goropius uleth, both concerning the Tree, Allegorie; taking their strength out of Solo- and the reasons wherewith he would induce Ausgore, taking the Area other men to that belief. For Moles Bar-Ce-mon, where Wildom is compared to the Tree other men to that belief. For Moles Bar-Ceof Life, and from other places, where also phas in his Treatife of Paradise (the first Part Christ is called the Tree of Life; as out of and fol. 48) faith, That the Tree of Knowthe Apocalyps, I will give to him that overcometh, to eat of the Tree of life which is in the of which the greatest plenty (faith Becanus) Paradise of God. But to this place Saint Auguftine's answer may suffice, (which is) That the Rivers which falleth into India, where the one doth not exclude the other, but that, as there was a terrestrial Paradise, so near the Kingdom of Porus. there was a celestial. For although Agar and there was a celetitate of the old and New Teflament; yet to think that they were not Wo- what bigger; and that it is a Tree, so seemen, and the Maid and Wife of Abraham, per serens, Always planting it self; that it were meer foolishness. And so in this place, spreadeth it self so far abroad, as that a troup the fense of the Scripture is manifest; For of Horse-men may hide themseives under it, God brought out of the Earth every Tree fair to Strabo faith, that it hath branches bending the light, and sweet to the taste; the Tree also downwards, and leaves no less than a shield. sheweth, that among the Trees, which the Earth by God's commandment produced, the Tree of Life was one, and that the fruit thereof was also to be eaten. The report of this Tree was also brought to the ancient Poets: for as from the indigested matter or Chaos, Hesiod, Homer, Ovid, and others, steal the invention of the created World; so from the Garden of Paradise they took the Platform of the Orchard of Alcinous, and another of the Hesperides: and from the Tree of it no where else, would needs draw the Gar-Life, their Nectar and Ambrolia; for Nectar, according to Suidas, fignifieth making young; and Ambrosia, immortality; and therefore faid to be the meat and drink of the gods.

6. II.

of Becanus his opinion, that the Tree of Knowledg was Ficus Indica.

the praise due to others, at least if the invention be at that price at which he fetteth it. ferreth the invention to an antiquity more Tree in the world can do. Now, one of these remote, citing for his Authour Philoxenus Trees confidered, with all his young ones, in which respect many have conceived, that | Maburgensis, and others, whose very words ledge was Ficus Indica, The Indian Fig-Tree; are found upon the banks of Acesimes, one of

This Tree beareth a fruit of the bigness of of Life in the midst of the Garden: which Ariftobulus affirmeth, that fifty Horle-men tib. to may shadow themselves under one of these (47.24 Trees. Onesicritus raiseth this number to four hundred. This Tree (faith Theophrastus) exceeded all other in bigness, which also Pliny and Onesicritus confirm: to the trunk of which, these Authours give such a magnitude, as I shame to repeat. But it may be, they all speak by an ill-understood report. For this Indian Fig-tree is not so rare a Plant as Becanus conceiveth, who, because he found den of Paradise to the Tree, and set it by the River Acesines. But many parts of the world have them, and I my felf have feen twenty thousand of them in one Valley, not far from Paria in America. They grow in moist grounds, and in this manner: After they are first shot up some twenty or thirty foot in length (some more, some less, according to the foil)they spread a very large top, having no bough nor twig in the trunk or ftem : for Ow, for the Tree of Knowledge of from the utmost end of the head-branches, good and evil, fome men have prethere iffueth out a Gummy juyce which fumed farther, especially Goropius Becarus, hangeth downward like a cord or finew, who giveth himself the honor to have found and within a few moneths reacheth the out the kind of this Tree, which none of ground; which it no fooner toucheth, but the Writers of former times could ever it taketh root, and then being filled both gues at, whereat Goropius much marvelled. from the top-boughs, and from his own pro-But as he had an inventive brain, so there per root, this cord maketh it self a Tree exnever lived any man, that believed better ceeding hastily. From the utmost boughs thereof, and of himfelf. Surely, howfoever of these young Trees, there fall again the like his opinion may be valued, yet he usurpeth cords, which in one year and lefs (in that World of a perpetual Spring) become also Trees of the bigness of the neather part of For Moses Bar-Cephas fastened on this con- a Lance, and as streight as Art or Nature can jecture above fix hundred years before Be- make any thing, casting such a shade, and canus was born: and Ear-Cophas himself remaking such a kind of Grove, as no other may (indeed) shroud four hundred or four | give credit to this his borrowed discovery by thousands in the inner parts of Trinidado. The cords which fall down over the banks into the Sea, shooting alway downward to cords out of the Sea, I have feen five hunon Trees in India. But that they bear any good and evil is described to be.

Secondly, This Tree having so huge a that this Tree hath no extraordinary magni- goodness of pure and simple Obedience. tude, as touching the trunk or stem: for among ten thousand of them, it is hard to find any one bigger than the rest, and these are all but of a mean fize. Secondly, the words of Moles translated. In medio ligni, are by all the Interpreters understood in the plural number (that is) In the midst of the Trees. But his third argument (or rather the argument of Moses Bar-Cephas) word for word, 601.3.7. is, That when Adam and Eve found themther the Tree it felf was a Fig-tree, or that a possest with shame, did not run up and down the Garden to feek out leaves to cover him, but found them in the place it felf; and these leaves of all other were most commodious, by reason of their largeness; which Pliny avoweth in these words; Latitudo foliorum pelta effigiem Amazonia habet; The breadth of the of which Targets Virgil toucheth: Virg. An. Ducit Amazonidum lunatis agmina peltis 1. 1. 494: Penthefilæa furens.

> The Amazons with Crescent-formed shield Penthesilea leads into the field.

Here Becanus desireth to be believed, or thousand Hors-men, if they please; for they using this confident (or rather cholerick) cover whole Valleys of ground where thefe speech : Quis erit tam impudenter obstinatus fi Trees grow near the Sea-bank, as they do hee à nobis, de ficu hac, ex antiquis scriptoribus cum Moisis narratione comparet, ut audeat dicere. Aliam arborem inveniri posse,qua cum illa magis quadret? Who will be so impudently obstifind root under water, are, in those Seas of nate, if he compare these things which we have the Indies where Oysters breed, intangled reported of this Fig-tree, and out of ancient in their beds, fo as by pulling up one of these Writers delivered, with the narration of Mofes. as to dare to avow, That any other Tree can dred Oysters hanging in a heap thereon; be found, which doth more properly answer, or whereof the report came, That Oysters grew | agree therewith? But for my self, because I neither find this Tree, forting in body, in fuch huge leaves, or any fuch delicate fruit, largeness of leaves, nor in fruit to this re-I could never find, and yet I have travelled port; I rather incline to the opinion of Philo. a dozen miles together under them. But That the Earth never brought forth any of to return to Goropius Becanus: This Tree these Trees, neither before nor after. But I (faith he) was good for meat, and pleafing leave every man to his own belief, for the to the fight, as the Tree of Knowledge of matter is of no great weight as touching his kind; onely thereby, and by the easie Commandment by God given to Adam, to fortrunk (as the former Authours report, and bear to feed thereon it pleafed God to make Becanus believeth) it was in this Tree that trial of his obedience: Prohibita non propter Adam and Eve hid themselves from the pre- alind quam ad commendandum pura ac simpli-Maam and Eve and encountries from the pier cis obedientia bonum; Being forbidden, not for fence of God; for no other Tree (faith he) cis obedientia bonum; Being forbidden, not for could contain them. But first it is certain, any other respect, than thereby to commend the commend the

6. III.

Of Becanus his not-unwitty allegorizing of the Story of bis Ficus Indica.

DUt in this I must do Becamus right, that he hath very wittily allegorized this Tree, allowing his supposition of the Tree it felf to be true. The effects whereof, because sclves naked, they made them breeches of his discourses are exceeding ample, I have Fig-leaves; which proveth (indeed) that ei- gathered in these few words. As this Tree (faith he) so did Man grow straight and up-Fig-tree grew near it: because Adam being right towards God, until such time as he had transgressed and broken the Commandment of his Creatour; and then like unto the boughs of this Tree, he began to bend downward, and stooped toward the Earth, which all the rest of Adam's Posterity after him have done, rooting themselves therein, and fastning themselves to this corrupt world. The exceeding umbragiousness of leaves hath the shape of an Amazonian shield: this Tree, he compareth to the dark and which also Theophraft confirmeth; the form shadowed life of man, through which the Sun of justice being not able to pierce, we have all remained in the shadow of death, till it pleased christ to climb the Tree of the Cross for our enlightning and redemption. The little fruit which it beareth, and which is hard to find among fo many large leaves, may be compared (faith he) to the little virrather threatneth us all that read him, to tue, and unperceived Knowledge among CHAP. IV. fo large vanities, which obscure and shadow | conceive, that Adam being made (according to the Hebrew phrase) by the workmanlhip and delicate to the taste and palate: so are of Gods own hand, in greater perfection the delights and pleasures of the World most than ever any man was produced by genepleafing, while they dure. But as all those ration, being (as it were) the created Plant, things which are most mellifluous, are sooneft changed into choler and bitternels: fo | up; and having received immortality from are our vanities and pleasures converted in- the breath or spirit of God; he could not to the bitterest forrows and repentances. (for these respects) be ignorant, that the dif-That the leaves are so exceeding large, the lobeying of Gods commandment was the fruit (for fuch leaves) exceeding little; in fearfulleft Evil, and the observation of his this, by comparison we behold (laith he) the many cares and great labours of worldly perfect health do (notwithstanding) conmen, their follicitude, their outward flews, ceive, that fickness is grievous, and yet in no and publick oftentation, their apparent pride fuch degree of torment, as by the fuffering and large vanities; and if we feek for the and experience in themselves they afterfruit, which ought to be their virtuous and wards witness: so was it with Adam, who pious actions, we finde it of the bignels of could not be ignorant of the punishnents, the smallest peaze; glory, to all the world due to neglect and disobedience; and yet apparent; goodness, to all the World in- felt by the proof thereof in himtelf another vilible. And furthermore, as the leaves, botterrour than he had fore thought, or could dy and boughs of this Tree, by so much eximagine. For looking into the glass of his ceed all other Plants, as the greatest men of own guilty foul, he beheld therein the horpower and worldly ability furpas the mean-rour of Gods Judgments; to as he then knew, rishing statelyness, and magnitude. Lastly, fought for leaves to cover himself withal: this may serve to put us in mind of his and our fins, as often as we put on our garments, to cover and adorn our rotten and mortal bodies: to pamper and maintain which we use so many uncharitable and cruel practices in this world.

§. I V.

of the names of the tree of Knowledg of good and evil: with some other notes touching the story of Adam's sin.

what operation the fruit thereof had, and as Defart, Viventis, & videntis. touching the propertie of the Tree it felf, Moses Bar-Cephas, an antient Syrian-Doctor (translated by Massue) giveth this judgment: ther knowledg then he had perceived in That the fruit of this Tree had no fuch virtue or quality, as that by the tasting thereof, there was any fuch knowledg created in Adam, as if he had been ignorant before; but as Junius also noteth: Arbor scientia boni & mali (id eft) experientia boni & mali ab e- blown forward, by the gentle wind of pleaventu. The Tree of Knowledge of good and fing perswasions, unawares; his progression evil ( that is ) the experience of good and being strengthened by the subtile arguments evil by the event. For thus much we may of Sathan, who laboured to poyfon mankind est: so is the little fruit of such Men, and (he feelingly knew) and had trial of the late fuch Trees, rather fitting and becoming the good, which could not be prized, and of the unworthieft Shrub, and humbleft Bryar, or the poreft and bafeft Man, then such a flour press d. He then saw himself naked both in Body and mind; that is, deprived of Gods whereas Adam, after he had disobeyed God, grace and former felicity: and therefore and beheld his own nakedness and shame, was this Tree called the Tree of Knowledg, and not because the fruit thereof had any fuch operation by any felf quality or effect: for the same phrase is used in many places of the Scriptures, and names are given to Signs and Sacraments, as to acts performed, and things done. In such fort, as this Tree was called the Tree of Knowledg, because of the event, as is aforefaid: fo was the Well Num: 20. of contention therefore called Efek, and the Well of hatred Sitnath, because the Heards- Gen. 16. men of Isaac and Gerar contended for them: 20, 21. and the heap of Stones called the heap of mit- cap. 31. ness, between Jacob and Laban; not that 48. the Stones bare witness, but for a memory 19. Ow, as touching the sense of this Tree of the Covenant. So Jacob called the house con 16. of Knowledg of good and evil, and of God Bethel; and Hagar, the Well in the 14-

But Adam being both betrayed and mastered by his affection, ambitious of a farhimself, and looking but slightly (as all his issue do ) into the miseries and sorrows incident; and greatly affecting the supposed glory which he might obtain by tafting the fruit forbidden: he was transported and in the very root, which he moistened with | obedience? even a desire to know what was being given to man for a comfort and comtempted; even by the most ugly and unentred and perswaded.

himself perished for ever.

Secondly, what was the motive of her dif- passion of dissimulate forrow and unquietness.

the liquor of the same ambition, by which most unfitting for her knowledg; an affection which hath ever fince remained in all the But what means did the Devil find out, or posterity of her Sex. Thirdly, what was it that what instruments did his own subtilty pre- moved the man to yield to her persuasions? fent him, as fittest and aptest to work this even the same cause which hath moved all mischief by? even the unquiet vanity of the men since to the like consent; namely, an Woman; so as by Adams hearkning to the unwillingness to grieve her and make her voice of his wife, contrary to the express add, lest she should pine and be overcome commandement of the living God, Mankind with forrow. But if Adam in the state of by that her incantation became the subject | perfection, and solomon the Son of David. of labour, forrow, and death: the woman Gods chosen servant, and himself a man endued with the greatest wisdom, did both of panion, but not for a counsellor. But because them disobey their Creator, by the perswastthou half obeyed the write of thy wife, &c. (faid on and for the love they bare to a woman, it God himself.) Carsed it the earth for thy sake, is not so wonderful as lamentable, that other in forrow shalt thou eat of it all thy life. It is men in succeeding ages have been allured to also to be noted, by whom the woman was so many inconvenient and wicked practices by the perswasions of their wives or other beworthy of all beafts into whom the Devil loved darlings, who cover over and shadow many malicious purposes with a counterfeit

CHAP. V.

Of divers memorable things, between the Fall of Adam, and the Floud of Noah.

§. I.

Of the cause and the revenge of Cains sin: and of his going out from God.

Sons of Adam, as it were, urged and provoked God) he destroyed all Mankind, but Noah and his Family: for it is written, The in the same place, Moses giveth a reason: for saith he, The Earth was filled with cruelty: is) he was left of God, and anon after, God himlest made the cause ved of his protection. known unto Noah, faying; An end of all flesh is come before me, for the Earth is filled with cruelty through them, and behold, I will destroy them with the Earth, or from the Earth. Neither was this cruelty meant to have been in taking away the lives of men onely, but in all forts of Injustice and Oppression. After

The same Pride and Ambition which | this Murther of Abel, Cain went out from the began in Angels, and afterward poffcfs d Adam, Cain also inherited: for Nocl, towards the East-side of Eden: in which Cain (envious of the acceptation of his Bro- words, The going out of Cain from the prethers Prayer and Sacrifice) flew him, mak- fence of the Lord, is not to be understood ing himself the first Manslayer, and his Bro- after the literal sense, God being wholly in ther the first Martyr: the revenge of which all parts of the World: Totus in calo est, tounnatural murther, although it pleased God tus in terra, non alternis temporibus, seduto mitigate, when Cain. cried out that his trumque smul; God (sith S. Augustine) is Ang. it punishment was greater then he could bear. For the same offence chiefly (wherewith the enterchanged times, but all at once; And that the enterchanged times, but all at once; And that the enterchanged times, but all at once; this is true, David witnesseth: If I be in Hea- Pfd; 134 ven (faith David) thou art there; if in Hell, 81. thou art there also. But what is meant there-Gen. 6 v. Earth also was corrupt before God: of which by? Exit à facie Dei (faith Chrysoftom) Cain went out from the presence of the Lord 5 (that in Ga. is) he was left of God, disfavoured and berea- Hom.

6. II.

of Cains dwelling in the Land of Nod: and of his City Enoch.

"His word Nod or Naid, S. Hierom and nier, rd I many others understand to fignisie Hib.

or agitation, faith Junius; but the Seventy East-side of the Garden of Eden be set the Chernconvert it otherwise, and take Nod for the proper name of a Countrey, and so doth 70-Cobus. But it feemeth to me, that Cain was dam was cast out, and therefore inhabiting 16.1. rather a Vagabond or Wanderer in his cogitations, than any thing else; and that his thoughts and conscience had no quiet or rest, Region sought his dwelling place. Now, if in regard of the Murther committed, justly fearing (by his own words) the like violence: And whosoever findeth me (saith Cain) shall slay me. Now, that Nod or Naid was a an Abiding : and we call those people Wanderers and Vagabonds that have no dwelling place. And to make this dwelling and the shiding more manifest, Moses teacheth in what part of the earth this his habitation was ter Cain departed from the presence or fasheweth that he feared to wander, and ra- on and cast out from the favour of God. ther fought to fortifyhimfelf against revenge. Cyrillus faith, that Cain and Abel were figures of the City of Henoch, were the first society of Christ, and of the Jews; and that as Cain and civil affembly of all other, it is likely after that he had flain Abel unjustly, had that the fame of these People (either for thence-forth no certain abiding in the cruelty, strength, or other actions) lived in World: fo the Jews, after they had crucified memory of Noah and his Sons: fo that after the Son of God, became Runnagates: and it the Floud (as there were of all forts of nais true, that the Jews had never fince any cer- tures, some vertuously, some impiously distain Estate, Common-weal, or Prince of their posed, and every active mind setting before own upon the Earth. Now, this Land of Nod, it whom to follow or imitate) those People, Junius taketh to be in Arabia Deferta, a Re- which delighted in cruelty and oppression, gion of the Nomades; but Arabia the Defart took on them their names whose natures is not Eastward, or on the East part of Eden, they most liked and allowed; of whom neither are these Nomades any particular these Henochians were not the least. Per-People or Nation. For all these, in what chance the place it self, where Henoch stood part of the World foever, which in old time | before the Floud, and whereof Monuments lived by Pastorage, and fed (as we call it in | might remain(as the pillars or foundation of Quotidie as Ireland) upon white meat, without tilling of Joppe did) gave occasion to the Planters of box magnetic the ground, are called by the Greeks No- that place, to call themselves by the same orbemulamades, and by the Latines, Paftores wagi, as the Northern Tartarians, the Getulians, and many Nations in the borders of Pontus, and Jandama-Numidians in Africa, the ancient Britains, and Colchis in Iberia, Segdiana, and Bactria; of the la jaciumthe Northern Irifl: yea, such were the Inhabitants of Italy it self, till such time as Italy are otherwise call d Coraxioi. And seeing that nominal contents of Italy it self, till such time as Italy. (who gave them that name ) taught them the busbandry of Tillage, used at this day. But which the most aged Time hath covered prioribin) the Region Eastward from Eden is that part over, or defaced, we may (according to the orimitar of Asyria, called by Ptolemy, Calena; which counsel of Plato) exceedingly rejoyce, and Albinan, also might be derived of Carena, the Coun- therewith satisfie our selves, if of so great, "Plin.16. trey of Cain. And that Cain inhabited in and almost worn-out Antiquity, of the el- :911.00 those parts, it may be gathered by the first | dest Peoples names and nations, there re- med. 1. 1. possession of his Father Adam; for thus it is main any print or footsteps to Posterity. written, Genes. 3. Therefore the Lord God sent wandring, or uncertain habitation : vexation | following : Thus he cast out man, &c. and at the bims: which sheweth that the entry intoParadife was from the East by which entrance Aon that fide of Paradife which was Eastward, according to the Text. Cain also in the same the word Nod, or Naid, do fignific profugus, that is, a Fugitive, we can give no longer time to this uncertain habitation of Cain. then till he built the City of Enoch, the first Region wherein Cain inhabited, appeareth of the World, which he enclosed, either for by the word (dwelt) for dwelling fignifieth his own defence, or (as Tolephus writeth) to oppress others thereby. So as, for mine own opinion, I am resolved with the septragint, that Nod was the proper name of a Region; and for the word (Vagabond) which Cain useth of himself, it seemethby the perclose of which he affirmeth towards the East-side of the same Verse, that (Vagabond) is therein Eden. Secondly, it is faid by Moses, that af- understood for such an one as travelleth in fear of revengement: For whofoever findeth your of God, he built a City, and called it me (faith Cain) shall slay me; or else (Vagaby the name of his first-born, Enoch; which | bond) is taken for a man without protecti-

> And because these Henochians, so called ain any print or footsteps to Posterity.
>
> In * Pliny, P. Mela, Strabo, Valerius Flac- Val. Fluc.

him forth from the Garden of Eden to till the cus, Lucan, Stephanus, we find those Henochei, 1.6. Earth whence he was taken: and in the Verse described, though diversly written: as in Lucan, 1.3, Pliny.

CHAP. V.

which inhabit upon the Sea Euxinus, but yet all things else) out of the word (Heniochi) none of these are on the East side of Eden, or which signifieth Cart or Coach-men, make times with a borrowing, as Eastward, or ranged the coasts of Asia the less, in an open the Land of Shinar; but in this of Cain, he ad- fuch an open Boat, which could hardly carry deth the word (towards) as, in the land of Nod, their own Rowers, being fifty four, there was towards the East-side of Eden; which may be taken, as inclining some one point or two,either to the North, or to the South of the East. But, as we may conjecture that these Nations took name of Henoch the City of Cain; or of the Region wherein it stood, when the fame was re-peopled after the Floud: fo it is probable that these Henochii of Colchis, and other parts adjoyning, were not the first of that name after the Sons of Noah began to fill the World again: because, had this Henoch the City of Cain stood in any of these parts, it had then been feated North, and not against certain particulars in the fourth and East or Eastward from Eden. But as Pliny fifth Chapter of Genesis: against which, for findeth their habitation towards Pontus fo af- the first, it is demanded, How it was posterwards he goeth on Eastward, till he track them or trace them out to their original. For than his Son Henoch to perform such a he calleth these of Colchis (now, Mengrelia) Work as the building of a City, seeing there Plin. 16. Sanni Heniochi; Ptolemy, Zani; beyond which is thereto required so many hands, and so an hundred & fifty mile Eastward, he findeth another Nation of them about Iberia and Albania; and beyond these he again discovereth a third Nation, from whence all the rest | Parent of an impious Race) Moses useth no took beginning, which inhabited on the ample declaration; and fo it best agreeth West side of the mountains of Paro-panisus; between them and the great River of Oxus, taineth the whole Story of the first Race, which bordereth Badiria on the North side; which lasted, by the least account, 1656. gion of Eden, and Eastward from the very may every man borrow of his own weakest Garden it felf.

these Henockii took name from the memory | a measure as 800. and 900. years, that in such of the City of Enoch directly; yet because a space Cain had not want of leisure and they inhabited due East from Paradise, and means to build many such Cities as Henoch, afterwards spread themselves Westward (as be the capacity answering to what other of all Noah's Sons did that came into Shinar) the the World soever: for in what Age of Cain's conjecture is far more probable than that of life he built it, the Scriptures are filent: as of Annias the Frier, who fets Henoch in Phani- whose times, and the times of his issues, Motia, quite centrary to Moses word: Phanicia ses had the least care. And as it is said of

Henochia, and the same also in the East, with required is to be understood: which advice, Pling, sometimes Henochii; in Mela, Enochii; na, of the same name. Onely the Grecians in Flaccus, Heniochi; in Lucan, Eniochi: All (according to their fabulous inventions of none of these are on the East fide of East, of which infilmed the Care of the Wag - Nat. (see (according to Moses words) Eastward from these Nations to have sprung from the Wag - Nat. (see alleth) Eden For Mofes, in all places where he descri- goners of Castor and Pollux (to wit) Amphites them Bis beth any Region, was so exceeding precise, and Telehius, who attended them in the interas sometimes he useth the word East or South prize of Jason into Colebis. And though I do without borrowing or addition; at other not deny, but that Jason, with other Greeks, Strablin Southward, or towards the East or South. In Boat or kind of small Gally,* of whom I shall In the the place of Genefis the eleventh, he writeth | speak in his own time: yet no man doubteth Books the word (East) simply and directly. And as but that the tale of the golden Fleece was for this sint the word (East) imply and directly. And as but that the tale of the golden withall, that in 13.5%, they went from the East, they found a Plain in the most part Poetical; and withall, that in 13.5%, no place, and less use, of Coach-horses or Waggoners.

6. III.

of Moses his omitting fundry things concernine Cain's Generation.

DUt of the remembrance and testimonies D of the name of the City of Henoch in prophane Story, thus much may fuffice : Now it followeth to answer some few Objections great a mass of all forts of materials? To which it is answered, that we are first to confider, That of Cain (because he was the with his divine Reason, seeing that he conand these Henochii are due East from the Re- years, in five short Chapters: Yet thus much reason, That seeing it pleased God to bestow And although we cannot be assured that on the first generations of mens lives so long from all parts of Eden, being directly West.

And besides these several Nations of the Henockii, Stephanus findeth a Region called World; but in both, the process of time divers mountains about Bedria and Sogdia- seeing Moses useth where the space less requirethit, as knowing that he writ the Scriptures to reasonable men, we may easily understand that such was his meaning also in all reports of like nature. For in making but a difference between the birth of Abel, and the oblation of Cain, he spake it in this fort, Fuit autem post dies multos, or à fine dierum (that is) in process of time, it came to pass that Cain brought an oblation. And therefore it is in like fort to be understood of Cain, that many years foregone, and when his people were increased, he built the City of Enoch or He-

And where it is written, as of Cain, that he built Enoch, fo of solomon, that he built the Temple of Jerusalem; yet it is well known of solomon, that he imployed in that Work 150000. labourers: for this phrase or fneech is common with our felves to fay, the King invaded, when he caused an invasion to be made: and he built, when he commanded fuch a building. And therefore feeing that we find that Moles had no regard to the ages, birth or death of any of cain's issues, it is not to be marvelled at why he also patieth over in a word the building of Enoch, without ad-601.4.17. Writeth in this manner: Cain also knew his wife, who conceived and bare Henoch, and he built a city, and called the name of the city af-18. ter the name of his Son Henoch. And to Henochroas born Irad, and Irad begat Mehujael, and Mehujael begat Methusael, and Methusael

Now, of seth, Moses writeth far otherc.s. v. s. wife, and in this manner. And Seth lived an hundred and five years, and begat Enoch, and Seth lived after he begat Enoch 807. years, and or Cenan at seventy years, Mahaleel and begat sons and Daughters: fo as all the days of Enoch at threescore and five years, whereas Seth were 912. years, and he dyed: as for the years and times of the wicked, they were not numbred in Libro viventium, faith Cyril. at 182, and Noah at 500, years. Now this dif-But in seth was the Church of God establish- ference hath been the more enforced, beed:from whom Christ descended, as touching his manhood: and therefore this way and work Mokes walked in, and finished it with Marriage out of the Religion of Abstinence, care, passing over the reprobate Generation, (as aforesaid.) Of the Line of Adam by Cain. Moles remembreth but eight Generations, reckoning Adam for one; and of the Line old. of Adam by Seth ten, counting Adam also therein, as followeth.

I. ADAM.

2 Cain. 3 Henoch. 4 Irad.

5 Mehujael. Methufael. 7 Lamech, who by Adab had

8 Jubal and Tubal and by Silla Tulal-Cain and Noema.

I. ADAM.

2 Seth. Henoch. Methusalem. 3 Enofb. Cainan. 9 Lamech, Mahaleel. and 6 Tured. 10 Noah.

These be the Generations of Adam by Cain, which the Scriptures mention: but 70fephus giveth unto Lamech threescore and feventeen Sons and daughters, by his two Wives, Ada and Sylla: and to these three Sons of Lamech, Moles ascribeth the invention of Pastorage, of Musick, and the working in Metal; for it feemeth that Jubal first gathered together, and made familiar those beafts which formerly were untamed, and brought them into Herds and Droves: Tubal Gen. 4. 20, invented Musick, and Tubal-Cain the work- 21, 22. ing in Brass and Iron: the one being addicted to Hufbandry, the other was Mechanical the third given to idleness and pleasure. In whom began these three meaner degrees of Shepherds, Handy-crafts-men, and Mulicians. And in the iffues of Seth began the Services of God, Divinity, Prophecie, and Aftrodition of any circumstance for of Cain, Moses nomy: the Children of the one beheld the Heavens, the other the Earth.

6. IV.

Of the diversities in the Ages of the Patriarchs when they begat their Children.

Second scruple hath been made, How it came to pass that the Patriarchs begat their children at so divers Ages, as Cainan Fared begat not any of his untill he was 162. years old: Methusalem begat at 187. Lamech cause it cannot be conjectured, that either Jared. Methusalem, or Lamech abstained from feeing that Enoch, who was translated by God for his fingular Sanctitie, begat children before he was threefcore and ten years

The apparent difference hereof arifeth in this, that Mofes did not number the Generations before the Floud precifely, according to the first-begotten and eldest Sons of the Patriarchs, but he drew down the Line of Noah from Seth. and afterward from Noah to Abraham, by their true Ancestours, were they elder or younger, as he found them: for it is likely that Henoch was not the eldest of Jared, nor Lamech the first-born of Me-thusalem.

CHAP. V.

thusalem, nor Noah of Lamech; neither is moneth when he begat Enosh: and if the when we find Mahaleel to be begotten by Kefirst Son of Kenan, and then reckon that Methusalem begat Lamech in the 187. year of his rejecteth all the other Sons of Methulalem ther of Noah, as aforesaid. Of this Saint Augustine hath somewhat else in his twentieth, and one and twentieth Chapters, De Civi-the first Age, and so to Abraham, and the children of the promise after him; so doth St. Matthew recite the Genealogy of Christ, not by the eldeft Sons, but from those whom God had chosen and blessed, without refpect of the first-born, who have hereby the prerogative in Estates, worldly and transitory only; and therefore the Evangelist Mat. 1. 2. nameth Haac, and not Ismael, though Ismael the younger, and not Esau the elder; neieldest Patriarchs, Reuben, Simeon, or Levi, venteen and an half of our years. but from Juda a fourth Brother, and fo from 1 Kings 2. the Heir of Grace, namely Solomon.

6. V.

Of the long lives of the Patriarchs, and some of late memory.

and to this day, not the tenth.

are cafily confuted. For whereas seth begat then had seth lived but eight years and one cleanfed matter, shall wax old as a garment ; v. 16.

there any thing known to the contrary, but time of Enosh have the same allowance when that Noah night have had many Sons before he begat Kenan, then could Enosh at that shem, Ham, and Japhet, though these time have been but six years and fourty eight were onely named, and furviving, and which weeks old; and so it may be gathered of by God were reserved to be the Fathers of the rest, excepting only Adam, who was cremankind after the Floud; and therefore ated perfect in his kind, as were the trees in their kind, bearing Fruit and Seed. But this nan at threescore and ten years, who was the were too ridiculous to imagine. For to give an ability of generation at fix, feven, or eight years, agreeth with the short lives of the life, the difference seemeth strange, where Pigmies, and not with the constitutions of Lamech is taken for the eldeft. But Alofes our first Fathers, who being descended from rejecteth all the other Sons of Methylalem Adam, the workmanship of Godshands, and but Lamech onely, because he was the Fa- begotten and born in the strong youth of the World, had length of daies, and ability of body agreeable. Again, if we allow this idle conceit of the Lunary years, then there would follow this extremity, that But as Moses counted the Generations of those which lived longest, and upwards of nine hundred years, had by that account but the time of fourfcore and ten and odd years; which were not only less by far then the Patriarchs lived after the Floud, but fhort of many mens lives in this decrepit Age of the World, wherein many exceed fourfcore, and some an hundred years. Further (if need be) to disprove this reckoning, whereas it is written, Gen. 25. That Abrawere first in time: so doth he take Jacob ham died in a good Age, an old man, and of great years: all which (if the former acther is Christ derived from any of the three | compt were of Lunary years) makes but se-

And if we feek for a cause of this long life David a younger Son of Jessai; and lastly, in Nature, then is it reasonable, that the first we find, that the Kingdom it self of Juda man, created in highest perfection, should was not given to the Heir in Nature, but to also beget children of equal strength or little differing: for of the first and purest feed there must of necessity spring up the fairest and fruitfullest plants. Secondly, the Earth it felf was then much less corrupt; which yielded her increase, and brought forth fruit and food for man, without any fuch mixture of harmful quality, as fince that time the curse He third Objection is, that the great of God, for the cruelty of mans heart, difference of years between those of brought on it and mankind: Neither had the first Age, whereof some of them had well the waters of the Floud insused such an imneer seen a thousand years, makes it disputa- purity, as thereby the natural and powerful ble, whether the account of times were of operation of all Plants, Herbs, and Fruits upthe same measure as in after-Ages, seeing that on the Earth received a qualification and foon after the Floud, men lived not a third harmful change. And as all things under part of that time; and in succeeding Ages, the Sun have one time of strength, and another of weakness, a youth and beauty, and They that have hereon refolved that those then age and deformity: so Time it self (unyears were but Lunary years (to wit) of a der the deathful shade of whose wings all moneth or thereabouts, or Egyptian years, things decay and wither) hath wasted and worn out that lively virtue of Nature in Enosh in the year of his life an hundred and Man, and Beasts, and Plants; year the Heafive, if those years be taken but for moneths, vens themselves, being of a most pure and pfalso. in inferiour Creatures, who by the ordinance the last taxation, number, and review of the of God receive operative Virtue from the eighth Region of Italy, there were found fuperiour.

how far doth our education and simplicity of living differ from that old time? The tender bringing up of Children, first fed and dred and thirty: asmany that were an hundred nourished with the Milk of a strange Dugge; an unnatural curiofity having taught all Women (but the Beggar) to find out Nurses, which necessity only ought to commend unto them: The hasty Marriages in tender years, wherein, Nature being but yet green and growing, we rent from her and replant her branches, while her felf hath not yet any root sufficient to maintain her own top; and fuch half-ripe feeds (for the most part) in their growing up wither in the bud, and wax old even in their Infancy. But above all things, the exceeding luxuriousness of this gluttonous age, wherein we press Nature with over-weighty burthens, and finding her strength defective, we take the work out of her hands, and commit it to the artificial help of strong Waters, hot Spices, and provoking Sawces; of which Lucan hath these elegant Verses:

O Prodiga rerum

Luxuries, nunquam parvo contenta paratu; Et quesitorum terra pelagoque ciborum Ambitiosa fames, & lauta gloria mensa, Discite quam parvo liceat producere vitam: Et quantum natura petat. Non auro myrrháque bibunt : sed gurgite puro Vita redit : satis est populis, fluvinsque Ceresque.

O wastfull Riot never well content With low-priz'd fare; hunger ambitious Of Cates by Land and Sea far fetcht and Vain-glory of a Table fumptuous, Learn with how little life may be preferved. In Gold and Myrrhe they need not to caroule, But with the Brook the peoples thirst is ferved; Who fed with Bread and Water are not sterved. The Egyptians affirm, that the longest time of man's life is an hundred years, because the heart in a perfect body waxeth and groweth to strength fifty years, and afterwards by the same degree decayeth and withereth. Epigenes findeth in his Philosophy that the life of man may reach to the period of an hundred and twenty years, and Berofus to an hundred and seventeen years. These opinions Pliny repeateth and reproveth, pro- | a long and healthfull life; (to wit) ftrong

and then much more the power generative | ducing many examples to the contrary. In in the Roll (faith Pliny) four and fifty per-Plint. 7. But besides the old Age of the World, sons of an hundred years of age: seven and english fifty of an hundred and ten: two of an hundred and five and twenty: four of an hundred and five and thirty, or an hundred and feven and thirty years old: and last of all, three men of an hundred and fourty: and this search was made in the times of Vespatian the Father, and the Son.

The simple diet and temperate life of the Escans, gave them long account of many years : fo did it to the Secretaries of Egyptian Ceremonies, to the Persian Magicians, and Indian Brachmans. The Greeks affirm 70f. and out of Homer, that Neftor lived three Ages, Plin. 17. and Tirefias fix, sybilla three hundred years, c, 48. Endymion of the less Asia, little less: Also Majaniffa of Numidia lived very long, and Dando of Illyria. Among the Kings of Arcadia many lived three hundred years (faith Ephorus.) Hellanicus affirmeth of the Epeians, that some of them lived full two hundred years; and fo doth Diodorus Siculus of the Egyptians: and that these reports are not fabulous, Josephus bringeth many witnesses with himself; as Marethon, Berosus, Mochus, Estius, Hieronymus, Egyptius Hecataus, Ephorus, and others. And Anthony Fume, an Historian of good reputation reporteth, that in the year 1570. there was an Indian presented to Solyman, General of the Turks Army, who had out-lived three hundred years. I my felf knew the old Countess of Desmond of Inchiquin in Munfter, who lived in the year 1589, and many years fince, who was married in Edward the Fourth's time, and held her joynture from all the Earls of Defmond fince then; and that this is true, all the Noblemen and Gentlemen of Munster can witness: Strozzius Sicogna, out of Torquemada, Maffaus, and the like Authours, telleth of some that have not onely farr exceeded the term prescribed by Epigenes; but been repaired from the withered estate of decrepit age to fresh youth. But for length of life, if we note but the difference between the ability of men in those days wherein Galen the Physician lived, it may eafily prove unto us, what Reeds we are in respect of those Cedars of the first Age. For Galen did ordinarily let Bloud fix pound weight, whereas we (for the most part) stop at fix ounces. But to conclude this part, there are three things (not counting Constellations) which are the natural causes of

M. acrob Satur lib.

60

CHAP. V

which are built of rotten timber, or moul- Cadmus, and others; but falfely. dring stone, cannot stand long upright; on Ayr we feed alwaies and in every instant, and on meats but at times: and yet the heavy load of abundance, wherewith we opfore with a good constitution, a pure Ayr, and a temperate use of those things which companions of a long life.

§. VI.

Of the Patriarchs delivering their knowledg by Tradition: and that Enoch writ before the Floud.

Fourth scruple hath been made, How A the certain knowledg of the Creation came to Moles, feeing there was no Story thereof written; and if any such had been, vet it is conceived, that all memory of Antiquity perished in the Universal Floud.

But if we consider the curiosity and policy of elder Ages, we shall find, that knowledg was the greatest treasure that men sought for, and which they also covered and hid from the vulgar fort, as Jewels of inestimable old: from whence this knowledg by an eaprice, fearing the irreverent construction of fie and ordinary way might come to Ifrael, the ignorant and irreligious: fo as whatfoe- and fo to Mofes. ver was attained unto concerning God, and his working in Nature, the same was not left to publike dispute, but delivered over by heart and tradition from wife men to a posterity equally Zealous; Ex animo in animum fine literis, medio intercedente verbo: From that one of them remained even in his time mind to mind without Letters, by way of Tradition or word of mouth. And it was thought thereof) which Pillars by others are ascribed by Esdras, origen, and Hilarius (as Mirandu- to Seth. But of thele Prophecies of Enoch, withal, fecretiorem & veram legis enarratio- their names and motions) were afterward nem; a more secret and true explanation of found in Arabia fælix, in the Dominion of mysteries, which he called secretiona, to the rude multitude, were no other quam dare fanclum canibus, & inter porcos spargere Margaritas; then to give holy things to Dogs, and and Letter, had not the spirit of God instruto cast Pearls before swine. In succeeding cited and inspired him as it did: which also times this understanding and wisdom began his many and strange Miracles (performed to be written in Ciphers and Characters, and before he wrote the Scriptures) make more Letters bearing the form of Beafts, Birds, and | manifest. other creatures; and to be taught only to

Parents, a pure and thin ayr, and temperate | the Jews was an imitation: the invention of use of diet, pleasure, and rest: for those the other is ascribed to Zoroaster, Mercurius.

This Cabala importeth a Law, received by Cabalan tradition and unwritten. Cabala in Hebrew Theologic is Receptio in Latine, and a Receiving in En- non reve glish. And this custome was also held by the Base Mira, press and overcharge Nature, maketh her to Druids and Bards of our antient Brittains, 110.fd fink unawares in the mid-way; and there- and of latter times by the Irifh Chroniclers called Rimers. If then such as would seem wifest in the use of reason, will not acknow-Nature wanteth, are the only friends and ledg, that the story of the Creation or beginning of all things, was written by inspiration, the Holy-Ghost guiding the hand of Moses; yet it is manifelt, that the knowledg thereof might by Tradition (then used) be delivered unto him by a more certain prefumption, then any or all the testimonies which prophane antiquity had preserved and left to their fuccesfors: which their wife men (as they terme them ) did lay up and defend from the injury of the time and other hazards. For, leaving to remember that Adam instructed seth, and seth his children and fuccessors, which cannot be doubted of, it is manifest, that Methusalem lived together with Adam himself two hundred fourty and three years, and Noah with Methusalem no less then five hundred years: and before Noah died, Abraham was fifty and eight years

But besides this Tradition, it is questionless. that the use of Letters was found out in the very infancy of the world, proved by those Prophecies written on Pillars of Stone and Brick by Enoch: of which Josephus affirmeth, Jos. 1.1. (meaning belike some ruin or foundation la conceiveth) that Mofes did not only upon | St. Jude testifieth; and some part of his Books que Exi the Mount receive the Law from God, but ( which contained the course of the Stars, 9.14. the Law; which (faith he, out of the same the Queen of saba (saith Origen) of which origin Authors,) he delivered by mouth to Joshua, Tertullian affirmeth, that he had seen, and Ho and Jostua to the Elders: for, to teach these read some whole Pages. It is not therefore Lin Stand strange, that Moses came to the knowledg of the Creation, and ftory of the first Age, seeing he might receive it both by Tradition

Now for the Books of Enoch, howfoever Hom-18,18 fuch as served in their Temples, and to their some men make mention of them, sure I am Nam or Kings and Priefts. Of the first the Cabala of that Tertullian, Origen, Angustine, Beda, ProceEvong. pins. Johns.

CHAP. V.

writings: although Medina, for an argument to prove them unwritten Traditions, et dift. alledgeth that Pope Gelasus among other the Apocryphal Scriptures (which he rejecteth) named not these of Enoch; but that whatsoever was remembred out of them, the same was delivered by Tradition from the Jews. But I rather think with Pererius, that such a Book there was, and that the same was corrupted after the death of the Apostles, and many things added thereunto by Hereticks, fice in publick. For although Adam inftruwho took occasion upon the antiquity thereof and out of that place of Michael contending with the Devil about the body of Moses, to frame and add thereunto many inventions of their own. One of the greatest arguments against these Books, is, that neither Philo nor that is, they served and praised God by Com-Josephus (the most diligent searchers of An-munion and in publick manner, or calling tiquity) make mention thereof. But against it I will set this opinion of St. Augustine, were the Sons of God, or the Godly, distin-Scripfife quidem nonnulla divina Enoch, illum guished from the wicked. From the birth of Cotimum ab Adam, negare non possumus: That Enosh the Son of seth, to the time of Henoch Enoch the seventh from Adam, did write di- the Son of Jared, there is nothing rememvers divine things, we cannot deny. Now his bred by Moses, but their owne births, the writings which came afterwards to light, birth of their Sons, the length of their lives, were suspected because of the antiquity, and and deaths. But of Henoch it is written: That Gen. 5. 24. of fables of Giants, supposed to be begotten he walked with God, and he was no more seen: of Angels, and others; and by so much the for God took him away. By that, that he more, because no such Book was found a- walked before God, was meant, that he was a mongst those Canonical Scriptures, kept by just and upright man, and that he feared, the diligence of the Hebrew Priests in Ar- loved, and obeyed Gcd. For the same phrase mario Judaico (saith Tertullian) who yet af- Moses useth of Noah; Noah was a just and firmeth, that this Book might be preserved upright man in his time, and Noah walked by Noah. Surely, that Enoch wrote the Pro- with God. The Seventy convert it, Enoch phesies remembred by Jude, no man can de- placuit Deo; Enoch pleased God. And alny; how they were delivered to posterity, though Aben-Ezra, and others, understand I know not; whether by the Jews Cabala, or this place, (tulit cum Deus) scilicet, mortuus by what other means, the same is but mans eft; God took him away, (that is) he dyed, conjecture. And (certainly) by the know- which (indeed) agreeth both with the phrase ledg ascribed to Noah of the motions of the of the Scripture, and with our manner of Heavens, and of the natures and conjunctihis Sons, to Zoroafter, and then to Abraham, Moses maketh between the piety of Henoch, knowledg of the first Age, be it by Letters, or by Cabala and Tradition, had the undoubted Word of God need of any other proof then felf-authority.

pius, Gazeus ( with others) cite them in their

§. VII.

of the History of the World:

Of the men of renovon before the Floud.

Ow let us confider the relation of Moles, who nameth feven descents of Cains children: and of Adam by Seth, ten; Seth being given by God in stead of Abel: And of seth was Enolb begotten, in whose time men began to profess Religion, and to offer facrifred his Children in the knowledg of God their Creator, as appeared by the Sacrifice offered by Cain and Abel; yet it scemeth that after the death of Enosh, men began publickly to call on the Name of the Lord, upon the Name of the Lord; and thereby speech to this day, to say, God took him aons of the Stars; and afterwards to some of way when he died; yet the difference which it is very probable that Noah had seen and and the rest of the Patriarchs, and by omitmight preserve this book. For it is not like- ting the word (death) which he useth to all ly, that fo exquisite knowledg therein (as else, makes it manifest, that Henoch was not these men had) was suddenly invented and dissolved as the rest. For to all the rest of found out, but left by seth to Enoch, and by the Patriarchs, Mofes ufeth these words, And Enoch to Noah, as hath been faid before. And he dyed; but of Henoch he spake otherwise, therefore if Letters and Arts were known faying only, He was milling, or, he was not from the time of Seth to Enoch, and that Noah feen. Et non inveniebatur (laith the Apostle lived with Methusalem, who lived with Adam, to the Hebrews) quia Deus eum transfulit; and Abraham lived with Noah; it is not strange And he was not found, for the Lord took him (Isay) to conceive how Moses came to the away. In the same place it is expresly added, that he saw not death.

But whether this taking away of Henoch were not with the same kind of changing which St. Paul promifeth, when he faith, that, i con 14. when the end shall come, we shall not all die, 51.

God.

learned Divines.

After Enoch, Mofes paffeth over to Methufalem and Lamech, remembring (as of the rest) the times of their birth and death: saving that Lamech prophefied of his Son Noah, Gen. 5. 19. faying, This fame Shall comfort us concerning our work, and forrow of our hands, as touching the earth which the Lord hath curfed. Of Noah. Moses writeth more amply than of any of the rest of Adams children by seth, being the last Gen. 6. 9. of the ten generations of the first Age, whom God (with his Family) preserved, because he was an upright man in his time, and scared policy of those strong and mighty men, so able both in body and wit, there is no memory remaining: whose stories, if they had been preserved, and what else was then performed in that newness of the world, there could no-thing of more delight have been left to Pofterity. For the exceeding long lives of men (who to their strength of body and natural wits, had the experience added of 800. and 900, years) how much of necessity must the tuerpian (who thought his own wit more Gifame adde of wisdom and undertakings? Likely it is, that their works excelled all whatfoever can be told of aftertimes especituled, Gigantomachia; and strained his brains ally in respect of this old age of the world, when we no sooner begin to know, but we men : his reasons (whosoever defires to lose Aphor, 1. begin to die; according to Hippocrates: Vita time) he may find them in the Treatifes bebrevis, ars longa, tempus praceps; (which is) fore named. It is true, that Cyrillus re-Life is short, art is long, time is headlong. And many things worthy admiration, it may be Gen. 6. 4. were mighty men, which in old time were men removed Islands out of the Sea, with like the Daughters of Cain, or of those other men, loving themselves and the world onely.

That thele sons of God were Angels, which to Latine: being taken with the beauty of women, ac companied them, and begat Giants, some of the Fathers supposed; namely, Last antius, and Eusebius, mis-led by fosephus of whom I can not doubt, but that they afterward changed their former opinions. And of this miftaking many Writers have taken great ad-but all shall be changed, I leave it to the vantage, and have troubled themselves with large answers, and very needless: the question being uncapable of dispute, especially fince S. Chrysoftom and S. Augustine have anfwered it largely long ago. For, that good and godly men were honoured with the title of Gods children, it doth every where appear in Scripture; and on the contrary, to think that Angels, who (as Christ witnesseth) behold the face of God, (that is) always attend his commandments, should after a separation from the rest which fell with Lucifer, forfake the glorious presence of their Creatour, and become Incubi, or Succubi, contrary both to Nature and Grace, were more But of the war, peace, government, and than madness to imagine.

s. VIII.

That the Giants, by Moses so called, were indeed men of huge bodies : as also, divers in later times.

F these Giants which Moses calleth mighty men, Goropius Becanus an Angantical than the bodies of Nimrod, or Hercules) hath written a large Discourse, intito prove, that there were never any fuch proves the Grecian Poets for their monthat those people of the first Age performed | strous fictions: who affirm shamelessly, That the Giants have in elder times, not onegathered out of these words of Moses; These ly cast up Mountains upon Mountains, but of renown, But these men of renown (whom fooleries. And for that invention of castthe Scripture afterwards calleth Giants, both ing up Hills, and making War with the for frength of body, and cruelty of mind) gods, no doubt but that the same was bortrusted so much to their own abilities, as they rowed out of the Story of Nimrod, as before forgat altogether the piety of seth, and the remembred; and even out of this Scripture. ways wherein Henoch walked: for all the ima- That the Sons of God faw the Daughters of ginations of their hearts were evil, onely evil Men, of whom the first Giants were begotten. and continually evil. And this wickedness was was that conceit, taken from Orpheus and Henot onely found in the iffues of cain, but it findus, That Giants were the Sons of the Heawas then universal, when the children and ven and the Earth; meaning by the Heavens Sons of God (or of the godly)were corrupt- the sons of God, and by the Earth, the Daughed and mif-led by their Idolatrous Wives, ters of Men: which verses of Orpheus are by John Cassam (who hath written a very witty Discourse of this Subject) thus changed in-

> Nomine cœlestes illos dixère Gigantes, Orti qued terra fuerint & sanguine celi.

From th' Earth, and from thy bloud, O heaven, they came,

Whom thereupon the gods did Giants

CHAP. VI. But what will not Opiniators, and felf-be-| four hundred years after the Expedition of lieving men dispute of, and make doubt of, if Chedorlaomer, Moreover, those Discoverers common experience the other?

Giants was given to Oppressors and Tyrants, come of the Giants, so that we seemed in our

and not to strength of body, and eminent sta- fight, like Grashoppers, and so we were in their ture: fuch men might with better reason call sight (that is) the Searchers found in their them Oppressors, because they were Giants; own judgments a marvellous difference beand therefore had ability to oppress, than tween the Anakims and themselves: inso-fay, That they were called Giants onely, be- much that the Ifraelites were fo ftricken with calleth them mighty men; which shewetha turn again into Egypt, and were more willing ftrength surpassing others: and afterwards to endure their former slavery, than to fall have more willingly heark ned to a dispute, kels of Brass: the shaft of his spear was like and yielded to interpretation. But besides all these famous Giants found to accompany the Giants of Albion, in the Gethews, because he was of Gath: and of Story of Britany) the Scriptures do cleerly, and without all Allegorical construction, a-of these Giants in the time of Abraham, Gen 14. 5. of Moles, of Josuah, and of David; namely, the Rephaims in Afteroth; the Zuzai, or Zan zummims in Ham, and the Emims which dwelt anciently in the Land of Moab; whom

Moles (for stature) compareth with the Anakims which dwelt in Hebron; for they also were taken for Giants as the Anakims. Like- And lastly, he took the gates of Azzah, and wise where Moses speaketh of the Land of Ammon, he useth these words: That also was ants called Rephaims in Afteroth and Karna- Time hath (with it felf) infeebled and alim, and the Zuzzei or Zanzummims, Cheder- most worn out the virtue of all things, laomer, King of Elam, overthrew, affifted by then, I say, That as in all other kinds the other Kings his aflociates. Also the Pro- Earth (before that Sin had increased the of Giant-like stature, whom he compareth to the Cedar; and whose strength to the Oaks: it did in after ages: so also those Giants, ants who commanded the Kingdom of Basan of men which are now born, in the withered they cannot conceive that there were in the and Searchers of the Land of Promife (fent first Age such kind of men; and of which by Moses from Cadesbarne in Paran) made rethere have been in all times fince; feeing the port at their return of the great stature of Scriptures avow the one manifeftly, and those people in general, and especially of the Sons of Anak in these words: All the people Numb. 13. And for that superlative straining of words, which we saw in it, are men of great stature: for v. 34. and the meaning of them, that the name of there we faw Giants, the Sons of Anak, which cause Oppressiours. For first, Moses himself fear, as they rather sought, and desired, to re-men of renown (that is) of great under-taking and adventurous actions. And if the fame stature of body, and ability, had not that Goliah the Philistine of Gath, was a Giant been found among divers Nations after the of fix Cubits and a fpan long: the Armour 1 Sam, 17. general Floud, the a might this place of Moses which he wore, weighed five thousand she-2.4.

a Weavers beam, and his spear head weighed fix hundred shekels of Iron. Also in Samuel 2 Sam 21. in prophane Histories (which I will referve there is mention of another Goliah, surnamed v. 19.

three other Giants; of which the first was t chron. flain by Jonathan, David's Nephew, who had 1 vow, That besides Nimrod, there were found twelve fingers, and as many toes: a man of great stature, and his fingers were by fixes, even four and twenty. Also that Sampson was of surpassing strength, no man doubteth, who tore a Lion Jud. 14.6.

as it had been a Kid, and after flew thirty of 14. 19 the Philistines, and (after that) a thousand more of them with a Jaw-bone of an Ass: the two posts, and lifted them away with the barrs, and put them upon his shoulders, and taken for a Land of Giants, for Giants dwelt carried them to the top of the Mountain be-therein afore-times: and, whom the Ammonites fore Ebron. If then it be approved by every call Zanzummims; a people that was great, and judgment, that both Nature, and the Heamany, and tall as the Anakims. And these Gi- vens wax old, and that the great age of phet Amos found among the Ammonites, men curse and corruption) brought forth her and the Prophet Baruch, These were the Gi-ants famous from the beginning, that were of exceeded the proportion, nature, and so great stature, and so expert in warr. Parti-litrength, of those Giants, remembred by cularly, it is written of Og King of Basan, Moses of his own time, and after him their that his bed of Iron was nine Cubits long, fucceffors, as the ordinary proportion of and four Cubits broad: for onely og King men in general, foon after the Floud, and in of Basan remained of the remnant of the Gitimes far off, exceeded the bulks and bodies

CHAP. VI.

66

ing youth and newness of the World.

and oppression) of these men was such, as doth not repent him of any thing which he hath God therefore by the Floud, gave end to done (as men use to do) but if the Scripture all fiesh, but to the just Noah and his Fa- did not use those words, or the like, it one coin mily. And God repented him that he had should not (in a sort) instinuate it self fanet coin made man: which Saint Angustine thus exmiliarly to all sorts of men, for whom it poundeth; Neque enim sicut hominem, ita would provide: that it might terrifie the Deum facil sui panitet, cujus est de omnibus proud. sir up the negligent, exercis the omnibus rebus tam six a sententia, quam cer-search est et truth, and nourish those that ta prascientia. Sed si non utatur Scriptura lundersand.

quarter and Winter of the World. If there-, talibus verbis, non se quodammodo familiafore Giants were common in the third and rius infinuabit omni generi kominum quibus fourth Age, much more in the first flourish- vult esse consultum : ut & perterreat superbientes, & excitet negligentes, & exerceat que-But the wickedness (especially in cruelty rentes, & alat intelligentes; God (saith he)

CHAP. VI.

Of Idolatrous corruptions, quickly rifing, and hardly at length vanishing in the World: and of the Reliques of Truth touching these ancient Times, obscurely appearing in Fables and old Legends.

6. I.

That in old Corruptions, we may find some signs of more ancient Truth.

further, the occasion offereth That the Corruptions themselves were very ancient, as in the Family of Noah, and in the old Egyptians.

Ere, before we proceed any it felf for us to confider how the Greeks, and other more ancient Nations, by fabulous inventions, and by breaking into But this defection and falling away lous inventions, and by breaking into But this defection and falling away lous inventions, and by breaking into But this defection and falling away lous inventions, and by breaking into But this defection and falling away lous inventions, and by breaking into But this defection and falling away lous inventions. parts the Story of the Creation, and by gels, and afterwards in men (the one having delivering it over in a mystical sence, erred but once, the other ever) as concernwrapping it up mixed with other their own ing Man-kind, it took such essect, that theretrumpery, have fought to obscure the truth by (the liberal Grace of God being withtumpery, nave lought to oblicure the truth by (the hoeral Grace of God being with thereof; and have hoped, that after-ages, being thereby brought into many doubts, might receive those inter-mixed Discourses fuffing a perpetual Eclipse of spiritual light. of God and Nature, for the inventions of the control of the contro Poets and Philosophers, and not as any imperfection and harmfull quality, as the thing borrowed or ftoln out of the Books waters of the general floud could not so wath of God. But, as a skilfull and learned Chy-mist can as well by separation of visible hath had continuance in the very generation elements draw helpfull Medicines out of and nature of man-kind. Yea, even among poison, as poison out of the most health- the few Sons of Noah, there were found full Herbs and Plants (all things having in strong effects of the former posion. For as themselves both life and death) so, conthe children of shem did inheritathe virtues trary to the purpoles and hopes of the Hea-of Seth, Enoch, and Noals; so the Sons of Cham-then, may those that feek after God and did posses for the Sons of Cain, and Truth, find out every where, and in all of those wicked Giants of the first Age. the ancient Poets and Philosophers, the Whence the Chaldwans began, soon after the Story of the first Age, with all the works Floud, to ascribe divine power and honour and marvels thereof, amply and lively ex- to the Creature, which was onely due to the prest.

Creatour. First, they worshipped the Sun, and then the Fire. So the Egyptians and Phænicians Phenicians did not onely learn to leave the true God, but created twelve feveral Gods, and divine powers, whom they worshipped, and unto whom they built Altars and Temples. For Herodotus faith, Duodecim Deorum nomina primos Ægyptios in usu habuisse. atque Græcos ab illis cepiffe mutatos, cofque prins Aras, & Imagines, & Templa Dins, fibi crexisses The Egyptians (faith he) first devised the names of the twelve gods, which the Greeks received from them, who first erected unto themselves Altars, Images, and Temples, for the gods.

6. III.

That in process of time, these lesser errours drew on greater: as appeareth in the groß Superfitions of the Egyptians.

Dut as men once fallen away from undoubted truth, do then after wander for evermore in vices unknown, and daily travel towards their eternal perdition: fo did thefe groß and blind Idolatets, every Age after other, descend lower and lower, and shrink and of whatsoever was done therein, partly and flide downwards from the knowledg of from fome inferiptions upon stone or metal one true and very God; and did not there- remaining after the Floud; and partly from by erre in worshipping mortal men onely, Mizraim the Son of Cham, who had learn'd but they gave divine reverence, and had the the same of Cham, and Cham of his Father fame respect to Beasts, Birds, Fishes, Fowls, Noah: for, all that the Egyptians write of Winds, Earth, Water, Ayr, Fire, to the their ancient Kings, and date of times, can-Morning, to the Evening, to Plants, Trees, not be fained: and though other Nations afand Roots, to Passions and Affections of the ter them had by imitation their Jupiters al-Mind, to Palenes, Sickness, Sorrows, yea, to fo, their Saturns, Vulcans, and Mercuries, the most unworthy and basest of all these. Which barbarous blasphemy, Rhodins An-Nat. Com. axandrides derideth in this manner:

Bovem colis, ego Deis matto bovem. Tu maximum Anguillam Deumputas: ego Obsoniorum credidi suavissimum. Carnes fuillas tu caves, at gaudeo His maxime : canem colis, quem verbero Edentem ubi deprehendo forte obsonium.

I facrifice to god the Beef which you

I broyl th'Egyptian Eeles, which you (as god) implore:

You fear to eat the flesh of Swine; I find You worship Dogs; to beat them I think

When they my store devour.

And in this manner Juvenal.

Porrum, aut cape, nefas violare aut frangere

O sanctas gentes quibus hac nascuntur in hortis

The Egyptians think it fin to root up, or

Their Leeks or Onyons, which they serve with holy rite: O happy Nations, which of their own

Have store of gods in every Garden growing!

6. IV.

That from the relieks of Ancient Records among the Egyptians and others, the first Idols and Fables were invented: and the first Jupiter was Cain, Vulcan, Tubal-Cain. Oc.

DUt in so great a confusion of vanities, where among the Heathens themselves

there is no agreement or certainty, it were hard to find out from what example the beginnings of these inventions were borrowed, or after what ancient pattern they erected with the rest, which S. Augustine out of Varro, Eusebius out of many prophane Histories; and ma-civil De. Cicero, Diodorus Siculus, Arnobius, and ma-civil De. ny more have observed, to wit, the Phienici- Euleb. L. 1. ans, Phrygians, Cretians, Greeks, and other Evang C.7: Nations; yet was Cain, the Son of Adam, (as o'l' 2. fome very learned men conceive) called and cic. 13. reputed for the first and ancient Jupiter; and denai. De-Adam for the first Saturn: for Jupiter was said orum.
Arnob. 8.
to have invented the founding of Cities; and contra the first City of the World was built by Cain, Gent. which he called Enoch, of whom were the Henochii, before remembred. And fo much may be gathered out of Plato in Protagoras, which also Hyginus in his 275. Chapter confirmeth. For befides that many Cities were founded by divers men; Tamen primam latissiman à primo & antiquissimo Jove edis-catam: jet the first and largest was built by the sift and most ancient Jupiter; seated in the East parts, or in India, according to that of Moses: And Cain dwelt towards the East side of Eden, &c. where also the Henochii were found after the Floud. And therefore was Inpiter by the Athenians called Polieus, com. 4. 16. a Foun-

CHAP. VI.

a Founder of Cities, and Herceios, an Inclo-Phorn I de fer, or strengthener of Cities (say Phornutus Design 14. there were in very many places Altars and without a person, yet, as it is usual among the 5. 6 10.1 Temples erected. And, that there were Ci-in Protago. ties built before the Floud, Plato also witnesseth, as may be gathered in this his affirm-ties were built an exceeding space of time before the destruction by the great Floud. This first Jupiter of the Ethnicks was then the same Cain, the Son of Adam, who marrying his own Sifter (as also Jupiter is said to have done) inhabited the East, where Ste-phanus de Urbibus placeth the City Henochia. Gen. 4: 10, And besides this City of Henoch, Philo Judaw conceiveth that Cain built fix others, as Maich, Jared, Tebe, Jesca, Selet, and Gebat: but where Philo had this, I know not. Now, as Cain was the first Jupiter, and from whom also the Ethnicks had the invention of Sacrifice : fo were Jubal, Tubal and Tubal-Cain (inventors of Paltorage, Smith-craft, and Mufick) thesame which were called by the ancient prophane Writers, Mercurius, Vulcan, Left. 1, 4, and Apollo. And as there is a likelihood of name between Tubalcain and Vulcan: fo doth Augustine expound the name of Noema. or Naamath, the Sifter of Tubalcain, to fignifie Venusta, or beautifull, Voluptas, or pleasure; as the Wife of Vulcan is faid to be Venus, the Lady of pleasure and beauty. And as Adam was the ancient and first saturne; Cain, the eldest Jupiter : Eva. Rhea, and Nomea, or Naamath the first Venus : so did the Fable of the dividing of the World between the three

Brethren, the Sons of Saturne, arise from the true Story of the dividing of the Earth be-transported out of Asia into Africa, and made the Garden of the Hefperides: the Prophecies, that Christ should break the Serpents head. and conquer the power of Hell, occasioned tivating Cerberus: fo out of the taking up of Henoch by God, was borrowed the conversion of their Heroes (the inventors of Religi on, and fuch Arts as the life of man had profit by) into Stars, and heavenly Signes, and (withall) that leaving of the World, and ascention of Astraa: of which ovid;

Ouid. Met. Ultima cælestum terras Astraa reliquit. Aftrea last of heavenly Wights the Earth did leave.

For although thereby the Ethnicks would understand Justice it self to have failed, as Nat. Com. Naura De and Pausanias;) and that to Jupiter Herceios, it is a vertue abstract, and may be confidered the in ancient Poets to describe Vertues and Vices by the persons of men and women as Defire by Capid, Valour by Mars, Beauty or ing, that, soon after mankind began to in-crease, they built many Cities; which, as his meaning, he delivereth in plain terms, in his by Jultice and Aftraa, Enoch, the jultice and third Book of Laws: for he faith, that Cipreft, as that of Noah was by Moses : for Noah Gen. 7. was faid to be a just man; And Noab walked Gen. 5.11. with God. And of Enoch it is written. That he 24. walked with God and he was no more feen : for

From this Story also of the first Age, and from that part where Moses remembreth the Giants begotten by the Sons of good men upon the Daughters of the wicked (whom Moses calleth mighty men, and men of renown) did they freal those wondrous great acts of their ancient Kings, and powerfull Giants; and again, their Warr undertaken against the Gods, from the building of the Tower of Babel by the Giant Nimrod, as S. Augustine termeth him. Which war of their Lib de die Giants, Cornelius Severus thus describeth.

Tentavere (nefas ) olim detrudere mundo Sydera, captivique Jovis transferre Gigantes Imperium, & victo leges imponere cælo.

The Giants did advance their wicked Against the Stars, to thrust them headlong

And robbing Jove of his Imperial Crown, On conquer'd Heavens to lay their proud command.

Whereby was meant that Nimrod purposed to raise the building of Babel to that Josephili tween the three Brethren the Sons of Noah: fo also was the siction of those golden Apples kept by a Dragon, taken from the Serpent from the deep, nor by any conjunction of the Stars, should bury them under the moiwhich tempted Evah: fo was Paradife it felf sture of a second Floud, but that by this building (if they had been herein victorious) they would have given the Law to Heaven it felf. Also the making of leagues, peace the Fables of Hercules killing the Serpent of Hefferides, and descending into Hell, and capboth in the eighth and twelfth of his Eneids hath a touch, was (as it feemeth) borrowed from Moses, Exod. 24. who, when he read the Book of the Covenant, fprinkled the people with bloud.

We find also many remembrances of seth, the paternal Ancestor of Henoch and Noah; for Amenophis, the same King of Egypt which reigned at fuch time as Moses carried thence many very famous. But herein was the memory of seth most manifestly preserved, that the Egyptians worshipped seth, as their most antient Parent, and of the first Tradition: in honour of whom they called a principal Province Setheitica. We also find in Bithyname elsewhere. And sure, from the Egyptians did the Grecians borrow this kind of Theologie, though they fcorned to acknowledg any antiquity preceding their own: and that they might not feem to learn to theirs.

5. V.

of the three chiefest Jupiters, and the strange story of the third.

Dut of all those Armies of Jupiters, remembred by the Antients, Cicero maketh but three, because those were of most fame: which other Writers have also done, who fought out, and laboured in their originals.

The first was Jupiter, the Son of Aether and Dies, fo called because the one had reference to his Celestial conditions (for ather is as much as shining or pure fire:) the other discovered his natural virtues, which daies and times make more perfect, and are the witnesses of mens actions

The second was said to be the Son of Calum or Heaven, for the same former respect; and this Jupiter was an Arcadian, and King of Athens.

The third, of whom all the Grecian fables were devised, was of Crete (now Candie,) the Son of Saturn and Ops. The name derived from the Latine is taken of Juvans pater, from the Greek word Zeus; it lignifieth life, but somewhat strained. Boccas in his Genebut iomewhat itrained. Hoccas in missement alogie of the Gods, conceiveth, that his name was borrowed from Jupiter the Planet;

by Crefta the King, or by the Curetes, a peoTomp. but whether that Star had such a name be- ple and nation thereof. fore the fame was given to men, I know not. Jupiter is hot and moist, temperate, modest, honest, adventurous, liberal, merciful, loving, and faithful (that is) giving these inclinations. And therefore those antient Kings education and first fostering. Some affirm beautified with these conditions, might be that he was fed by Hony-bees: in recomcalled thereafter Jupiter: but howfoever pence whereof he changed their black coats the children of Ifrael (as of late some learned 1 they were, or were not with those virtues men, mistaking his time, supposed) called inriched, yet by imitation, all Kings in the his Son and Successiour sethe, of seth: and eldest times assumed those Titles and Sirof the same seth (as many men of good judg- names: great Princes affecting as high Titles ment have granted) were the Princes of Thrace, called seuthers, whereof there were were, acquired by their well-defervings. Joves omnes Reges vocarunt antiqui. The antients called all Kings Jupiters, as Tzetzes in his varia historia confirmeth; Reges olim Joves vocârunt omnes; In old times all Nations call'd their Kings Jupiters. But where this last nia the City of Sethia, and others of the same and most remembred Inpiter was born, it is uncertain. Some there are, that make him of Crete: others that he was but fent thither by his Mother Ops, or Opis, to be fostered 1.1.6.7. and hidden from the fury of Titan his Uncle: because it was conditioned between Saturn elsewhere, they gave the same names to and Titan, that Saturn being a younger Brotheir own Idols, which the Egyptians did ther, and reigning (for his own life) by Titans permission, he should put to death all his male children, lest the Titans might be interrupted by any one of them in their succession; which agreement, because saturn performed in his first born, it is seigned that Saturn devoured his own children. Hereof Lycophron, thus turned into Latine :

> Hand fit pinguior, Crudis sepulchrum quod sit ipse filiis.

saturne to be the father is not known, By being the grave and burial of his own.

This composition between Titan and Saturn, Sybilla also witnesseth in these words ;

Conceptis verbis , Titan jurare coëgit Saturnum, de se natum ne nutriat ullum, Quò possint regnare, senis post fata, Nepotes.

Things thus agreed; Titan made Saturn

No Son to nourish, which by reigning

Usurp the right of Titans lawful heir.

But Opis the Mother of Jupiter, being delivered at once both of Jupiter and Juno conveyed Jupiter (first called Lysanias) into Crete, as the did afterwards his two Brothers, Neptune and Pluto: where he was brought Others challenge him to be of Thebes and Thebane: others call him an Arcadian: others make him of Messena. The like contention is found among the Greeks touching his

India,

CHAP. VI.

fuch a God; others, that he was nourished Daughters, and Sons, buying of Virgins, and in the end, when Titan had knowledg that Saturn had broken his faith, he set on him, and took him and his wife prisoners, whom Jupiter again rescued and delivered.

But lastly, the Father and the Son equally ambitious, the one doubted the other. 8aturn being the less powerful, fled into Italy, and left his Kingdom in Greece to his Son. And although this Prince at the first purchased great honour, and for his many virtues, the name of Jupiter was given him: yet after he was once fetled, and became potent, and adultery, without all respect of Honour, as do ascribe the actions of many to one Jupiter, that not therewith fatisfied, he was afterwards known to offend in the fin of sodom Hymns also witnesseth; but, as offended with Ganimedes and others: and did not only begin with incest, marrying his owne Sifter Juno, but he ravished, betrayed, stole away, and took by ftrong hand all the beautiful women born in his time, within the limits of his own Kingdoms, or bordering them. Among whom these hereafter written were of greatest fame; Niobe, Laodamia, and Alemena, the Wife of Amphytrion, by whom he had Pelagus, Sarpedon, Argus, laith) by some Greek Writers, that the origi-and Hercules: by Taygete he had Taygetus, of nal of these Gods was from the Western parts whom the Mountain Taggetus took name; of Africa. For there among the Atlantidae with another Son called Saon, of whom Sa- reigned one Vranus (which figuifieth Heavonas; by Antiope he had Amphion and Zetus: ven) called fo, for his great (kill in Aftrology; by Lada, Caftor and Pollux, Hellen and Clytemnestra: by Danae, Perseus; by Jordana, Deucalion: by Charme (the daughter of Eubulus) Britomartis: by Protogenia, he had Athlins the Father of Endymion: and by Io had seventeen Sons and two Daughters, all (the daughter of Inachus ) Epaphus, the foun- which were called after their Mothers name, der of Memphis in Egopt: which Epaphus, the Titanes. Of Titea, likewiseit is said, that married Libja, of whom that Country took lihe for her goodness was Canonized as a name, for so the Greeks afterward called Goddes, being dead, and called the Earth, Africa. He ravished Aegina the Daughter of as her Hulland was styled Heaven. But of all Aesopus, and carried her into the Island Oe- the children of Titea, her Daughter Basilea nopia or Cenotria, afterward called Aegina, on whom he begat Aeacus: by Torrhebia he had Archestlaus and Carbius: by Ora, Colaxes: called Regina) excelling the rest as far in he had also Dardanus by EleBra, who built virtue asin years, was by general consent of Dardanus, afterward linm or Troy. He begat the Brothers Talici, on Thalia; and on to rule as Queen after her Father's death, be-Garamantis, Hiarbas. He had besides these and skins into yellow; a reward well fitting | betrayings, stealing away of mens Wives. by Bears: others, by Goats: and of all these the like, came in all those antient fables of the idle Greeks have many pretty tales. But his transformations into showers of Gold, Eagles, Bulls, Birds, and Beafts; and of him, and by him (in effect) all that rabble of Grecian forgeries. And yet did not the Greeks and Romans fear to entitle this Monster Optimus Maximus, though Cicero in his fecond Book, de natura Deorum, affirm, that he deserved nothing less; and in his Oration, pro domo sua, reprocheth Clodius for his incest, by the name of Jupiter. His burial was in Crete (faith Lucian.) Cretenfes non folum Sacrif. natum apud fe, & sepultum Jovem testantur, sed etiam sepulchrum ejus ostendunt ; The Crehe gave himself over wholly to palliardize tians, or Candians, do not only avow that Jupiter was born and buried among them, but they Law, or Religion. And it is reported by such frem his Grave and Sepulchre: which Epiphanius also confirmeth; for in his time there remained the Monuments of his Tomb in the Mountain Jasius. This, Callimachus in his thereat, faith thus:

> The Cretians ever lyars were, they care not what they fay: For they a Tomb have built for thee, O King, that liv'st alway.

Diodorus Siculus tells by way of report Diod.l. 1. from the Libyan Fables, confirmed (as he 6.5. faith) by some Greek Writers, that the origiand for his knowledg, and benefits to the people, honoured by them as a God after his death. He had by many Wives fourty five Sons; but by his principal Wife Titea, he (which name founding as Queen in English, fhe is by the Latine translatour of Diodorus ing as yet a Virgin. She took to husband (if they bely not their chief God) Philens her Brother Hyperion, to whom she bare a and Pilumnus, inventers of the Bakers craft; Son and a Daughter, called Sun and Moon. and I know not how many more; but I The beauty and towardliness of these chilknow well that he could not be father to all | dren moved her Brethren to envie, and bred these, who were born in Ages so far differ- in them a fear of being excluded from the And of these his several ravishments, succession: wherefore they took the Boy and after a wild fashion, in fight of all the people, these, Atlas and Saturn were chief. Atlas called Tritonia. He also begat on Amalthea, grew to be called Olympus. Whilest Bacchus a Son, called Bacchus, whom he caused se- travelled through all Nations, as farr as into drowned him in the River Eridanns, now creetly, for fear of his life, to be brought up called Poe. The loss of this child, caused his at Nyla, an Island in the River Trison, under fifter to break her own neck; and the loss of the tuition of his Daughter Alinerva, and both her children, made the mother to play | certain Nimphs. To Amulthea he gave in remany mad prancks, dancing with Cymbals, ward a goodly Country, that lay on the Scacoast, bending in form like a Horn, whence before whom she is said to have vanished grew the tale of Amalthea's plentifull Horn, away. Ere she died, her Son (as the Fable famous among the Poets. When Rhea heard hath it) fignified unto her in a Dream, that these news flie fled from her Husband to her he and his lifter, by the providence of God, brother saturn, who, not onely entertained should become immortal; that also the sun her as a fifter, but took her to Wise, and at and Moon should be called by their names, her instigation, made warr upon Hammon, and that their death should be revenged up- vanquished him by the assistance of the Tion the Murtherers. According to which it is tans, and made him flee into Crete. The Cusaid, that the people did so call those two retes, Jupiter's children before mentioned, Planets, and withall held her felf as a god- held the Island at that time; which was new dess; and tearmed her the great Mother, named Crete by Hammon, after the name of which name they had formerly given to her, Creta the Kings Daughter, whom he took to for her motherly care in cherishing her bre- Wife, and had with her (women, as may thren whilest they were young. Hyperion and his Race being extinguished, the other the Kingdom. Bacchus was grown a proper Sons of Eranus divided the Kingdom. Of young man, had found out the making of Wine, the art of planting of Trees, and mareigned over the Countries lying about the Mountains, which afterward bare his name; before the flight of his Mother-in-law. Now a just and wise Prince, deeply skilfull in A- therefore, hearing report of all that had firelogie: and, for invention of the Sphere, hapned, and that Saturn was coming against faid to have supported Heaven. He had him with the Titans; he levied an Army, to many Sons; but the principal of them called which the Amazons, living not farr from Hesperus, being of his Fathers qualities and Nysa, added great forces, in love of Minerva, ftudies, was faid to have been carried away who was entred into their profession. So Bacby the Wind, from the top of an high Hill, in chus leading the men, and Minerva the wothe middest of his contemplations; and his men, they fet forward against saturn, met name, in honour of him, imposed by the him, and overthrew him, and taking many people upon the morning Starr. The feven of the Titans prifoners, returned to Nyfas; Daughters of Atlat were also faid to have been excellent Ladies, who accompanying fuch as came to be Deified, or registred apared for a second Expedition. In the semong the Worthies, brought forth children, | cond Expedition he behaved himfelf fo well, answerable in quality to those that begat that he wan the love of all the people by them. Of these it is held, that the seven Stars, whom he passed; in so much, that partly for called Pleiades, took name. Saturn, the bro-good affection to him, partly in hatred of ther of Atlas, reigned in Sicilia, part of Africk Saturn's rigorous government, he was greatand Italy. Jupiter, another of the Sons of ly strengthened, and the Enemy as much en-Vranus, reigned in Crete; who had ten Sons, feebled by daily revolts. Coming to the City which he called Curetes: he called that Island of Hammon, he wan a battel of Saturn beafter his Wives name, Idea; in which Ille he fore the very walls. After which, Saturn, died, and was buried. But this Jupiter must with his Wife Rhea, fled by night, setting the not have been that great one, but Uncle to Town on fire, to despight Bacchus. But they the great Inpiter, if these Fables of the Lybi-um were caught in their slight, pardoned by answere true. Saturn (as these Lybian) tell Bacchus and kindly entertained. Saturn had ans were true. Saturn (as thele Lybrans tell! Bacchm, and kindly entertained. Saturn had the tale) was a great Tyrant, and fortified a young Son by Rhêa, called Jupiter. This firting places, the better to keep hispoople is hill. Bacchm; took with him in a great Exinculpiection. His fifter Rhea was married to pedition that he made into the East-Countenance, who reigned in some part of frick. Hammon loving others as well as his Wife, or better, got a Daughter called Minerval, the Countrey; but appointed unto him as need to the River Visita who theremon was an Oversteen. One Clambus, as whom Imiter neer to the River Triton, who thereupon was an Over-feer, one Olympus, of whom Jupiter

ges of some one true History. For the Expe-Terenus, or Indigena, and of Mus to Saturn, ditions of Opris and of Bacchus; the warrs of but omitting Jupiter of Crete. the Giants in the one Story, of the Titans in India, doing good in all places, and teaching the other; the Kingdom of Egypt given by many things profitable to the life of mansthe Hercules Lybicus to Orus, by Eacebus to Jupi-Titans had found out his father Hammon in ter the rattles of This and the Cymbals of Bali-Crete, and began to war upon him. But Hac-clus returned out of India, with whom Ju-enough refemble each other, howfoever not piter from Egypt, and his fifter Minerva, toge-ther with the rest, that afterwards were held (as Eusebins cires him) would have all these to gods, joining all their forces, went into Crete, be Phanicians, and is earnest in saving, That overthrew the Titans, chased them, took and it is a true Story, and no Allegory. Yet he flew them, and freed the World of them all. makes it feem the more allegorical, by giving After all this, when Hammon and Bacchus to Oranus or heaven for daughters, Fate, and were dead, they were Deified; and the Beauty, and the like, with addition of much great Jupiter, the Son of Saturn, fucceeding fabulous matter, omitted by Diodorus, them, reigned Lord alone over all the world, though Diodorus have enough. To the Gehaving none of the Titans left alive, nor any nealogie, he adds Elius, or the Sun, as father other to disturb him. Between this tale of the of Vranus, and among the children of Vra-Lybian gods, and the Egyptian Fables of Osiris, nus, Japetus, Batilus, and Dagon (whom Diothere is a rude resemblance, that may cause doth not mention by their names) givthem both to be taken for the crooked Ima- ing withall to Uranus, the proper name of

The Pedigree of them is this:

6. VI.

of Cham, and other wicked ones; whereof fome gat, some affected, the name of God.

F Jupiter Belus, the Son of Saturnus Babylonicus, otherwise Nimrod; it seemeth that Cicero had not heard, (at least by that name;) who was more ancient than any of the former three, by him remembred: for long after these times were the Greeks but Salvages, if they feek no farther off for their

But the Egyptians, even after the Floud began (somewhat before this Chaldean Jupi ter) to entitle Cham, the Parent of their own Migraim, Jupiter Chammon or Hammon. For the Etymologie of this word (Hammon) which the Greeks deduce ab arenis, from the Gands is ridiculous (faith Pencer ;) neither yet is his own much better, who brings it from Hammath, which fignifieth Heat : because the Temple of Jupiter Hammon was scated in Libya, where the ayr is exceeding hot and fcorching. And as for the Antiquity of the latter Jupiter (among the Greeks and Romans the most renowned) it is certain that he was born not long before the War of Troy, as by many of his Sons is made manifest; namely, Caftor Pollux, Hercules, Sarpedon, and others, which lived in that Age of Priamus, under whom, and with whom, Troy was destroyed.

Now feeing that mortal men, and the most wicked, were esteemed immortal among the Heathen; it was not to be wondred at, that Alexander Macedon, Tyberius Nero, Caligula, and others, fought to be numbred among them, who were as deformed Monsters as the rest: for by what reason could the same Drity be denied unto Laurentia and Flora, which was given to Venus? feeing they were as notorious and famous Harlots, as the was.

sayahila ad sovii.

That the wifer of the ancient Heathen had far better opinions of God.

DUt that ever Pythagoras or Plato, or Orphens, with many other ancient and excellently learned, believed in any of these fooleries it cannot be suspected though some of them (over-bufily) have mixed their own inventions with the Scriptures: for, in punilhment. For their riftlions, did Pythagoras hard to find out the Creator of the Universal, hang both Homer and Hessad in Hell, where he fained that they were perpetually stung him worthily. And what can be more agreeand pinched with Serpents. Yet it cannot be able to the Majesty of Gods Nature, than doubted, but that Homer had read over all this property by Plato acknowledged? Deno the Books of Moles, as by places froln thence, almost word for word may appear; of which Justine Martyr remembreth many in that Treatife converted by Mirandula. As for Plato, though he diffembled in some things for fear of the Inquisition of the Arcopagites, yet S. Augustine hath already answered for him(as before remembred) Et mirifice iis delectatus est, que de uno Deo tradita fuerant; And he was greatly delighted in the dollrine of one God, faith Justine Martyr. Now, howfoever Lactantius pleased to reprehend Plato. because (faith he) Plato Jought knowledge, Engle as from the Egyptians, and the Chaldeans, New young Lit. glecting the Jews, and Books of Moles; * En- Cyril cons, februs, Cyrillus, and Origen, find reason to believe the contrary, thinking that from thence contrar he took the grounds of all by him written of cellon God or favouring of Divinity: and the fame Irea. Ep. 6.

opinion had S. Ambrose of Pythagoras. But whether it were out of the same vanity, which possessed all those learned Philo- mus few fophers and Poets, that Plato also published mons Mar-(not under the right Authours names) those his hill; things which he had read in the Scriptures, but for fearing, the feverity of the Areopagites, deptal and the example of his Mafter Socrates, by matters them put to death by poylon; I cannot judge. actined for called Justine Martyr (as it feemeth) ascribeth it at fifth, bewholly to Plato's fear, whose words among cause Mars many other of the fame effect, are these; therein Plato, Mosis mentionem facere, ob id, quod ed his caus unum folumque Deum docuerat, fibi apud Athe- for the nienses tutum non putavit veritus Areopagum; of Huir-Plato, fearing the Areopagites, thought it not riothos fufe for him among the Attention, to make Anicona mention of Moses, that he taught there is but com to one God. But for that Divinity which he 6.7. Jul. hath written in Times. Id infum de Den diffe. Mart. adin. hath written in Timeo, Id ipfum de Deo diffe- Gen fol 8. matty mitten in 11mau, sa typim ac De agre en jels. rrit quod & Moses; He discoursed and taught A utspr. the same of God (aith Justine Martyr) which Evod 3.14 Moses did. For, where it pleased God by his Angel to answer Moses, Ego sum existens, (which is) I Am; and, Existens misst me ad vos ; I am hath fent me unto you ; herein did Plato (faith Inftine Martyr ) no otherwise differ than that Moses used the word (qui) and Plato the word quod: Moses enin, qui existit (inquit;) Plato, quod existit; for Moses saith, He who is Plato, That which is. Now, of Gods incomprehensible nature, and of the difficulty either to conceive, or express the fame, he giveth this testimony : Genitorem In Timas. Universitais tam difficile est invenire, quam inventum impossibile digne profari; It is as hard to find out the Creator of the Universal, nature dignitate : & nihil est Deo similius & gratius, quam vir animo perfecto bonus : The most high God is also an infinite God, not onely by exclusion of place, but by the dignity of nature : neither is there any thing more like, or more acceptable to God than a Man of a perfect heart. Thales affirmeth, that God comprehended all things, and that God was of all things the most ancient: Quia nunquam esse conit because he never had any beginning. Zeno. that God beheld even the thoughts of men; Athenodorus, that therefore all men ought to be carefull in the actions of their life, because God was every where prefent, and beheld all done. But what can be more agreeable to Moses story of the Creation, than this opinion and description of the Worlds begin ning in Euripides, Scholar of Anaxagoras?

Calum terraque unius forma fuit : Sed cum fuillent abiuncta amplexu mutuo. Emerlit omnis in lucem res progenita; Arbores, aves. feræ qualque affert mare, Genusque mortalium.

Heaven and Earth one form did bear : But when dif-joyned once they were From mutual embraces, All things to light appeared then 5 Of trees, birds, beafts, fishes, and men' The still-remaining races.

And as in Pythagoras, in Socrates, and in Plato: fo we find the fame excellent understanding in Orpheus, who every where exprefled the infinite and fole power of one God; though he use the name of Jupiter, thereby to avoid the envie and danger of the time: but that he could attribute those things to the Sons of men, and mortal creature, which he doth to this Jupiter, there is no man, who hath ever heard of God, that can imagine.

Nomina Deorum (faith Mirandula) quos Orpheus canit, non decipientium Damonum, à quibus malum & non bonum provenit; fed naturalium virtutum divinarumque funt nomina; The names of those gods whom Orpheus doth fing, are not of deceiving Devils, from whom bonus, & quidem Deus causa bonorum: malo- that he reacheth higher, and speaketh of rum autem omnium non causa; God is absolute- God himself, this his instruction to Musaus, Ir good, and so (assuredly) the cause of all that and the Hymn following, teach us: Respiciis good: but of any thing that is evil, he is no ens verd ad divinum hunc sermonem, ei dilicause at all. And again, Charitas Dei fuit genter animum adverte, intendens cordis raticausa factionis mundi. & originis omnium onis capax conceptaculum:rectam autem ascenrerum; The love of God was the cause of the de viam, & solum aspice mundi regem. Unus worlds creating, and the original of all things. eft ex se genitus, ex eo omnia nata sunt: ipse Apuleius the Platonist ; Summus Deus infi- verd in illis versatur, nec quisquam eum intunitus eft, non solum loci exclusione, sed etiam eri potest mortalium, sed ipse nibileminus omnes intuetur.

Then marking this my facred speech, but truly lend

Thy heart, that's reasons sphere, and the right way ascend, And fee the worlds fole King. First, he is fimply one, Begotten of himfelf, from whom is born alone

All else; in which he's still: nor could it ere befall

A mortal eye to fee him once, yet he fees all.

And again the fame Authour,

Jupiter omnipotens, et primus, et ultimus idem: Jupiter est caput & mediu: Jovis omnia munus. Jupiter est fundamen humi & stellantisOlympi. Jupiter & mas est, & fæmina nescia mortis. spiritus est cunctis, validi vis Jupiter ignis. Et pelagi radix, Sol, Luna eft Jupiter ipfe. Rex origo simul rerum est. o terminus idem. Nam priùs occuluit ; magno post numine sacrum Cor reserans, bonus in dulcë dedit omnia lucem.

The first of all is God, and the same last God is the head and midft, yea from him all things be, God is the base of Earth and of the starred fkic. He is the Male and Female too, shall ne-

The Spirit of all is God, the Sun and Moon, and what is higher. The King th' original of all, of all the end.

For close in holy breaft he did all comprehend.

Whence all the bleffed light, his wondrous power did fend.

Now (befides these former testimonies) that all the learned men of antient times were not fo stupid and ignorant, as the Egyptians, Grecians, and other Nations by them infected were. I will only repeat two or three other opinions, and leave the Readers to those large and learned Collections of Justine Martyr, Clemens, Lactantius, Eusebius, Euevil comes, and not goodness; but they are the gubinus, Pencer, Plessis, Danzus, and others. names of natural and divine Vertues. Yea, For Cleanthes the Stoick, being demanded these Attributes and properties: Bonus, ju- &c. And this is certain, that if we look influs, sanctus, seipsum possidens, utilis, speciosus, to the wisdom of all Ages, we shall find that optimus, severus, liber, semper commodus, tutus, there never was man of folid understanding gloriosus, charitas, &c. Good, just, boly, pos- or excellent judgment; never any man felfing himself, profitable, beautiful, best, severe, whose mind the Art of education hath not free, alwaies doing good, fafe without fear, glo-bended; whose eys a foolish supersition rious, and felf-charity. Epicharmus affirmed, hath not afterward blinded; whose apprethat God who beheld all things, and pierced henfions are fober, and by a penfive inspectievery Nature, was only and every where on advised; but that he hath found by an powerful: agreeing with Democritus: Rex unrefiftable necessity, one true God, and eomnium ipfe folus; He is the only King of verlasting Being, all for ever causing, and all kings: and with Pindarus the Poet, Deus for ever fustaining; which no man among unus, Pater, creator summus atque optimus ar- the Heathen hath with more reverence actifex, qui progressus singulis diversos secundum knowledged, or more learnedly express'd, merita prabet; One God, the Father, the most then that Egyptian Hermes, howsoever it saibigh Creator, and best artificer, who giveth to led afterward in his posterity: all being at every thing divers proceedings according to length by devilish policy of the Feyptian their deserts. This God (saith Antisthenes) Priests purposely obscured; who invented cannot be resembled to any thing, and therefore new gods, and those innumerable, best fortnot elsewhere known: Nisi in patria illa peren- ing (as the Devil perswaded them) with vulni, cuius imaginem nullam habes: Save only gar capacities, and fittest to keep in aw and in that everlasting Country, whose image thou order their common people. hast none at all. Hereof also Xenophanes Colophonius: Unus Deus inter deos & homines maximus, nec corpore nec mente mortalibus fimilis; There is one God among gods and men most powerful, neither corporally nor mentally like unto mortals: and Xenophon, Deus qui omnia quatit, & omnia quiescere facit, maanus potensque, quod omnibus patet : qualis autem forma sit, nemini patet, nist ipst soli, qui luce sua omnia perlustrat; God who shaketh all things, and setteth all things at rest, is great deans worshipped for a god, is crept into eand mighty; as is manifest to all: but of what Form he is, it is manifest to none, save what Form he is, it is manifelt to none, fave larveth, Water quencheth, and want of only to himself, who illuminateth all things with his own light. Finally, Plato saith, Totius re- with June's Jealouses; Death hath perswarum natura causa, & ratio, & origo Deus; ded him to chastity, and her to patience; summus animi genitor, aternus animantiumso and that time which hath devoured it self, summus animi genitor, aternus animantium so-(bitator, alfiduus mundi sui opifex, sine propagatione genitor. neque loco, neque tempore ullo comprehensus, eoque paucis cogitabilis, nemini ples of Stone and dureful Marble. The houeffabilis; God is the cause, ground, and origi-nal of the whole nature of things, the most high Father of the foul, the eternal preserver of living creatures, the continual framer of his secrated to Diana. There are none now in world, a begetter without any propagation, Phanicia that lament the death of Adonis; comprehended neither in any place, nor time; nor any in Lybia, Creta, Thessalia, or elsetherefore few can conceive him in thought, none where, that can ask counsel or help from Jucan express what he is. Therefore was it said piter. The great god Pan hath broken his by Saint Hierom, Si enim cuntos Philosopho-Pipes, Apollo's Priests are become speechless. rum revolvas libros, necesse est ut in eis reperias aliquam partem vasorum Dei : ut, apud Plato- Devils telling men's fortunes therein, is taken nem, Stoicorum Principem, inferos & immortales animas, &c. If thou consider all the books of the Philosophers, thou canft not but find these his over-throws and dishonours: for in them some part of the Vessels of God, as, in after the Temple of Apollo at Delphos (one of

of what nature God was, described him by | Prince of the Stoicks, Hell and immortal Souls,

9. VIII.

That Heathenism and Judaism, after many mounds, were at length about the same time under Julian miraculoufly confounded.

DUt these are again vanished: for the ineventions of mortal men are no less mortal then themselves. The Fire, which the Chalvery mans chimny, which the lack of Fuel hath also eaten up both the Bodies and Images of him and his: yea their stately Temfes and fumptuous buildings erected to Baal, can no where be found upon the Earth, nor any Monument of that glorious Temple conand the trade of riddles in Oracles, with the nem, fabricatorem mundi Deum: apud Zeno- up by counterfeit Egyptians, and couzening Aftrologers.

But it was long ere the Devil gave way to Plato, God the Creatour of the world: in Zeno, his chief mansions) was many times robbed, affembled themselves to rebuild the Temple of rugged poverty and despited contempt of Jerusalem: for while they were busied to in the narrow passage leading to his divine lay the foundations, their buildings were o- presence. But as the mind of man hath two verthrown by an Earthquake, and many Ports, the one alwaies frequented by the enthousands of the Jews were overwhelmed trance of manifold vanities; the other deso-Lize I, with the ruines, and others flain and scatter- late and over-grown with grass, by which ed by Tempest and Thunder: though Am. enter our charitable thoughts and divine Marcellinus report it more favourably for contemplations: so hath that of Death a the Jews, ascribing this to the nature of double and twofold opening, worldly misethat Element. For, faith he, Allypius and the Ruler of the province of Judea, being by the other: at the entrance of the one we Julian bussed in the re-edifying of this Tem- | find our sufferings and patience to attend us: ple, flaming Balls of fire issuing neer the (all which have gone before us to prepare foundation, and oft confuming the Work- our joys) at the other our cruelties, covemen, made the Enterprize frustrate.

6. IX.

Of the last refuges of the Devil to maintain his Kingdom.

Now the Devil, because he cannot play Tragedy and Time neer at an end. upon the open stage of this World, (as burnt, and destroyed; yet by his diligence | in those daies) and being still as industrious the same was often enriched, repaired, and as ever, finds it more for his advantage to re-edified again, till by the hand of God creep into the minds of men; and inhabithimself it received the last and utter subver- ing in the Temples of their hearts, works fion. For it was first robbed of all the Idols them to a more effectual adoration of himself and Ornaments therein by the Enbean Py- then ever. For whereas he first taught them rates: Secondly, by the Phlegians utterly to facrifice to Monsters, to dead Stones cut ack'd: Thirdly, by Pyrhus the fon of A-into faces of Beafts, Birds, and other mixt chilles: Fourthly, by the Army of Xerxes: Natures; he now fets before them the high Fifthly, by the Captaines of the Phocenfes: and shining Idol of glory, the All-comman-Sixthly, by Nero: who carried thence five ding Image of bright Gold. He tells them hundred brazen Images: all which were that truth is the Goddess of dangers and opnew made, and therein again set up at the pressions, that chastity is the enemy of Nacommon charge. But whatfoever was ga- ture, and lastly, that as all virtue (in general) thered between the time of Nero and Con- is without tafte; fo pleasure satisfieth and flantine, the Christian Army made spoil of, delighteth every sense: for true wisdom defacing as much as the time permitted (faith he) is exercised in nothing else, then them: notwithstanding all this, it was again in the obtaining of power to oppress, and of glorioully re-built, and so remained till such riches to maintain plentifully our worldly time as Julian the Apostata sent thither to delights. And if this Arch-Polititian sind in know the fuccess of his Parthian enterprise, his Pupils any remorfe, any feeling or fear of at which time it was utterly burnt and confumed with fire from Heaven, and the Image that God hath fo great need of men's Souls, of Applo himself, and all the rest of the Idols that he will accept them at any time, and therein, molten down, and lost in the Earth. The like success had the Jews in the same gilant endeavours all offer of timeful return Julians time, when by his permission they towards God, by laying those great blocks tousness, licentiousness, injustice, and oppressions (the harbingers of most fearful and terrible forrow) staying for us. And as the Devil our most industrious enemy was ever most diligent: so is he now more laborious then ever; the long day of Mankind drawing fast towards an evening, and the Worlds

CHAP.

CHAP. VII.

Of Noah's Floud.

§. I.

Of Gods fore-warning: and some humane Testimonies: and some doubting touching the truth of Noah's Floud.

gravit: He departed with his children, and dam simil in Arca devection in hujus vertice travailed into another region. And of these hassife, lignorumque reliquias multo tempore Giants from whom Noah withdrew himself, conservatas, qui fortasse is suit de quo etiam Berosus writeth in this manner; That they ex- Moses Judeorum legislator scribit: thus far ceeded in all forts of inhumanc and unnatural this Author. There is (faith he) above Minyada wickedness, and that they were contemptores (or the Country of Minya) an exceeding high & religionis & deorum; contemners of reli- Mountain in Armenia, called Baris: on which gion and of the gods: among which mighty it is reported, that many having fled thither, men (faith Berosus) unus erat qui deorum vene- were saved in the time of the Deluge; and that rantior, & prudentior cunetis, &c. huic no- one was carried in an Ark, and rested upon the men erat Noah: There was one more wife top of the Mountain, whereon there remained and reverencing the Gods then the reft, whose name was Noah: who with his three Sons, this might be the same of which Moses the Law-Sem, Japhetus, and Cham, and with their giver of the Jews makes mention. And of this Wives, and the wife of Noah, (namely, Titea opinion were the Talmudifts (faith Annius) the great, Pandora, Noela, and Noegla) pre-6m. 6.14. ferved themselves in the Arke. This Arke Said unto Noah, Make thee an Arke of Pinetrees: thou shalt make cabins in the Arke, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch. Substance of all agree with Mofes as touching For God made Noah to know, that an end of the general Floud, taking from thence the all flesh was at hand, and that the graves of beginning of his History in these words: Ante the rebellious and cruel Generations were aquarum cladem famosam, qua universus perialready fashioned in the Clouds, which soon it Orbis, &c. Before that famous destruction and his family excepted.

general Deluge hath not been received by all: for divine testimonies do not perswade all natural men to those things to which their own reason cannot reach: Dum obvoluta in obscuro veritas latet: Whilest the truth lieth wrapt in obscurity. Many there are who have disputed against the universality of this Overflowing, and have judged that this floud of Noah fell but in some particular who without all ground of certainty vaunt places and Kingdoms: moved to to think, their Antiquity, came the errour first of all: because in elder Ages there have been many who therein flattering themselves also,

F this distruction it pleased God Hereof Nicolas Damascenus writeth in this r this difficultion in please of the to give warning unto Noab: manner, as his words are cited by Josephus. Jos. and to give warning unto Noab: Eff super Minyadam excellus Mons in Armenia, i. i. c. who (saith Josephus) searing to Eff super Minyadam excellus Mons in Armenia, i. i. c. and the control of the perish among the rest, Decedens qui Baris appellatur, in quo multos confugien- prep. 1.9. cum suis in aliam regionem mi- tes sermo est diluvii tempore liberatos, & quen- c. 4. along time after certain pieces thereof; and that many Giants faved themselves upon Mount Sion.

But Berofus (who, after Moses, was one of the most antient, howsoever he hath been fince deformed and corrupted) doth in the after should swallow up and cover all living of Waters, by which the World universal perishcreatures which breathed in the Ayr, Noah ed: witneffing withall, that Noah with his Wife Titea, and his three Sons with their But this universal grave of Waters, and Wives(in all eight persons) were only saved.

§. II.

Of the Floud in the time of Ogyges: and that this was not Noahs Floud.

Dut from the vanity of the Greeks, the Corrupters of all truth (faith Lactantius,) otherFlouds(as they suppose) of that nature. sought to perswade the World that there dixeris ab Ogyge vetustissimo: The Poets gave the name of Ogygia to things exceeding ancient, as of Ogyges the most ancient.

But let Ogyges be as ancient as those men can make him, yet it is manifest that he lived Every 1. but in Jacobs time (though Enfebius makes him later, and in Moses time) and was born 67. years after him. There is also an opinion, that Ogyges was Cadmus (and then was he farr later ) as Rhodiginus in the ninth Book of his Antiquities remembreth: Sunt tamen qui in Ægypto regnasse autumant hunc; unde sit Cadmus,qui in Graciam profectus Thebas condidit, à Bove jugulato sic nuncupatas; quoniam Syrorum lingua Bos dicitur Thebe. There are (faith he) who think that this Ogyges did reign in Egypt, whereby he should be Cadmus, who travelling into Greece, built Thebes, so named of a Beef slain: because in the Syrian Language, a Beef is called Thebe.

But this Floud of Ogyges fell in the year of the World, 3440. according to Eusebius. who followed the account of the Septuagint: and the Floud of Noah in the year 2242. after the same account: and so there came 1200. between these Flouds, wanting but two, though herein Eusebius was much miftaken, and corrected this opinion in his Chronologie. Now, although the very year and there is a great difference among Writers; yet whosoever makes it most ancient, finds above 500. years difference between that and the general Floud.

fell upon the Athenians, but 1040. years before Rome was built. Bucholzerus faith, it built in the Worlds year, 3280. Now, the the Floud of Ogyges, (as before) 1043. Hence it followeth by easie calculation, that (if he place Ogyges in his true age) the difference between these two Flouds must be 520. years, to which we (allowing 60. more) find fame of Noah (except we call Noah, Ogyges Priscus, as some do) it appears by this, that Manifestation. the Floud of Ogyges then King of Attica, or Rho. L. 15. was no Floud preceded the Floud of Ogyges, then the banks of Archi-pelago, or the Age. Mill. 1, King of the Thebans in Bastia, or rather of an Sca. For, whereas Mela, Pliny, and Soli-Plint; Attica; and therefore (faith Rhodiginus) nus witness, that the City of Joppe in Judea 3d can Jopes in Jopes in Judea 3d can Jopes in Jopes in Judea 3d can Jopes in Jopes in Jopes in Judea 3d can Jop withstanding the height of waters) there quisimize remained on certain Altars of Stone, the often mentalist of the King, and of his Brother Phineus, immedia. with many of the grounds of their Religion rum only fure it is no where found among prophane rum. Sal. Historians, nor in the Scriptures, that ever ibid.

the Floud of Ogyges spred it self over any part of Syria, much less over all the Earth. But that it drowned both the Regions of Attica about Athens, and that of Achaia in Peloponnesus, it is very probable. For it seemeth that at that time it was, when Helice and Burawere swallowed up (Cities seated on the North part of Peloponnesus): of which Si queras Helicen, & Buran, Achaidos urbes, Ovid. Ma. Invenies sub aquis.

Bura and Helice on Achaian ground, Are fought in vain, but under Sea are

Of this Floud of Ogyges, was invented the Nat. Com. Fable of Apollo and Diana. For Latona, the Li. c. 6. Daughter of Caus, the Son of Titan, being beloved, and forced by Jupiter, and by him gotten with child, Juno thereat enraged, permitted her (as they say) no part of the Earth to be delivered on and withall caused time of this overflowing in Achaia, or rather the monstrous Serpent Python, to follow and Attica, be not precifely fet down, but that affright her, wherefoever she travelled; till at length arriving at the Ille of Grtygia, the was there received; in which the was delivered, first of Diana, and then of Apollo, being Twins; whereof Barlaam makes this ex-For, Paulus Orosus, affirms that this tempest position: That at such time as the Deluge (which happened in Ogyges his reign) ceafed. out of the abundant moisture of the Earth was 1043.elder than Rome; wich was found- (heat by putrefaction being thereto mixed) ed (according to the same Bucholzerus) in there were exhaled such thick mists and fogs, the worlds year, 3219, though after the actual that in Attica, and along the coasts of the Acount which I follow (and whereof I wil give gean Sea, neither the beams of the Sun by my reasons in the Story of Abraham) it was day, nor of the Moon by night, could pierce the ayr, or be perceived by the inhabitants: general Floud preceded the building of so as when at length (the Earth being dried, Rome (saith Bucholzerus) 1563. years: and and these vapours distipated) the ayr began to be clear, the people of Ortygia espied the Plin. 14. light of the Moon somewhat before day, and out. in the same morning the Sun also appeared: fabulously (because Diana represented the Moon, and Apollo the Sun ) they were report-580. And that this of Ogiges was not the ed to be born in the Ille of Origin, thereof afterwards called Delos; which fignifieth

And furely it is not improbable, that the Ogygia, did not extend it self any farther Floud of Ogyges, being so great, as Histories much alteration of the ayr, fenfibly difcerned in those parts, and some unusual face of Skies. Varro in his Books, de gente populi Romani (as he is cited by S. Augustine) reports out of Caftor, that so great a miracle hapned in the Star of Venus, as never was feen before,

CHAP. VII.

141.6.8. nor in after-times: For the colour, the greatness, the figure, and the course of it, were changed. This fell out, as Adrastus Cyzicenus, and Dion Neapolites, famous Mathematicians affirmed, in the time of Ogyges.

Now, concerning the course of that, or any other Planet, I do not remember, that I have any were read of fo good Aftrologers, flourishing among the Greeks, or elsewhere in those days, as were likely to make any calculation of the revolutions of the Planets, to exact, that it should need no reformation: eth Cranous the successor of Cecrops governed Of the colour and magnitudes I see no reafon, why the difference found in the Star of rome fay) Cecrops yet living, that Floud (cal-Venue, frould be held miraculous; considering, that leffer mifts and foggs than those which covered Greece with fo long darkness, do familiarly present our senses with as great alterations in the Sun and Moon. That the figure should vary, questionless it was very strange: yet I cannot hold it any prodigie: for it stands well with good reason, that the fide of Venus which the Sun beholds, being enlightned by him, the opposite half should remain shadowed; whereby that Planet would, unto our eyes, descrying onely that part whereon the light falleth, appear to be horned, as the Moon doth feem; if diftance (as in other things) did not hinder the apprehension of our senses.

A worthy Aftrologer now living, who by the help of perspective Glasses, hath found in the Stars many things unknown to the Ancients, affirmeth so much to have been discovered in Venus, by his late observations. Whether some watry disposition of the aymight represent as much to them that lived with Ogyges, as Galileus hath feen through his instrument; I cannot tell: sure I am, that the discovery of a truth formerly unknown, doth rather convince Man of ignorance, than Nature of errour. One thing herein is worthy to be noted, that this great, but particular Floud of Ozyges, was (as appeareth by this of S. Augultine) accompanied with fuch unusual (and therefore the more dreadfull, though natural) figns, teltifying the concurrence of causes with effects in that inundation; whereas the Floud of Nout, which was general, and altogether miraculous, may have reported it, was accompanied with were eating and drinking, when the Floud Lade 17.

6. III.

of Deucalions Floud: and that this was not Noahs Floud: nor the Umbri in Italy, & remnant of any universal Floud.

Second Floud of great fame, and of A which the time is more certain, was that of Deucalion in Theffalia; of which S. Augustin out of Varro: His temporibus (ut Varro scribit) regnante Atheniensibus Cranao, successore Cecropis (ut autem nostri, Eusebius & Hieronymus) adhuc eodem Cecrope permanente, Diluvium fuit, quod appellatum est Deucalionis: (that is) In these times, (as Varro reportthe Athenians, or, (as our Eusebius and Hie-

And in the beginning of the 11. Chapter of the faid 18. Book, he useth these words: Eduxit ergo Moses ex Ægypto populum Dei novissimo tempore Cecropis Atheniensium Regis, cum apud Assyrios regnaret Ascatades, apud Sicyonios Marathus, apud Argivos Tripas: Moses led the people of God out of Egypt about the latter time of Cecrops, King of the Athenians, Ascatades reigning over the Assyrians, over the Sicvonians Marthus, and over the Argives Triopas. So as leaving the curiofity of a few years, more or less, it appeareth, that this Floud of Dencalion was either at the egression of the children of Israel out of Egypt, or near it: and then after Noah 753. years, according to Funding, who makes Cecrops to live in the year of the World, 2409. or if we follow Mercator, then 739. years after Noah, and in the year of the World 2395. But if Deucalion were born in the age of the World 2356. according to Codoman; then giving unto Deucation 40. years of age when this Floud happened, it falleth within one year of Mercators account. But Dencalion, by all approved Historians, is faid to have been 82. years old at that time. Now, Clemens Alexandrinus dates the time of this Floud of Deucation, and the conflagration and burning in Pharton's time, by the Reign of Crotopus, King of the Argives; but Crotopus lived King of the Argives fix years after Freel departed Egypt, which makes twenty years difference, according to Functions, who will have this Flourd and Burning to have fallen 14. years before Moses lest Egypt: for he gave of the Worlds years to the Floud flewing, than the long preaching of Noah and Burning, the year 2440, and to Moles himself, which was not regarded: for they egression the year 2454. And yet Cedrems thinks that Moles was more ancient, and Antiquities) findeth this floud of Deucalion cedren 1.1. lived with Inachus; but that cannot be true: to have hapned in the time of Cranaus, who for then had the Floud of Deucalion, and the succeeded Cecrops: Orofins thinks it somewhat Burning of Phaëton preceded the Floud of later, Amphitryon reigning in Athens, the Og 1985, which is denied by all: for that of third from Cecrops: Onely this of Deucalion The sialy (called Deucalions) followed that of was very great, and reached not onely over Attica (called Og geia) at least 250, years, or The fally it felf, and the Regions adjoyning thereabouts. Eusebius in his Chronologie, makes it 220. and fo doth P. Orolius : Eulebius about the 50, year of Moles life, and Cyrillus about the 67. and both after Nouts Floud faith Eusebius. And therefore did the Greeks clem. A. 770. years: for these be Clemens Alexandri-

lex. 1. Siro. nus his words: Fuit autem in Grecia tempore quidem Phornei, qui fuit past Inachum, inhappened in Greece, in the time of Phorneus. who lived after Inachus, the Floud of Ogyges. Now, if the Floud of Ogyges in Attica were 1020. or 1016. years before the first Olympiad, according to Eulebius and Orolius (as before;) then it is manifest, that taking 763 out of this number of 1020 it falls out that Ogvees Floud happened before the Hebrews left Egypt 250. years, or 260. years, according to the difference between the opinions of Eufebius and orofus. And for my felf (who rather follow these Chronologers, which give 60. years more to Abraham after the Floud. than the soft) I reckon the times which come between these Flouds in this fort. The general Floud was in the year of the World 1656. Jacob was born in the year of the World 2169. fo as from the beginning of the Floud to Jacobs birth, there were confumed 513. years. Ogyges Floud happened 100. years after Jacob was born; and therefore after the general Floud 613, years. Now, Deucalion was born in the year of the World 2356 and had lived 82 years, when his kingdom of Thessaly was overwhelmed; (which added to 2356. make 2438.) his floud was after Noahs Floud ended, 782. years. And hereto Annius his Xenophon agreeth, who makes 700. years between the general Floud and Deucalions birth; to which adde 82. years of his Age (as before) and then the floud of Thessay followed the general 782. years. The words of that Xenophon are these: Ab inundatione terrarum ad ortum Deucalionis, secundo anno Sphæri, septingenti supputantur anni, qui natus annos duos & octoginta Theffaliam vidit inundatam: From the drowning of the World to the birth of Deucalion, in the second year of Sphærus, are numbred 700. years, and when Deucalion was 82. years old, he faw Thestaly drowned. This Floud hapned in the Winter time about Parnajus: witness Aristotle, in the first of his Meteors. And Varro (whom S. Augustine so often ci-

teth for his excellent Learning, especially in Westward, but it covered the greatest part of Italy: and either the same, or some other particular floud then hapning, opprest Egypt. either think it, or feign it to be universal; and Deucalion the King, faving himfelf, and fome others on the Mountain of Theffaly (of all undatio que fuit tempore Ogygis: There other the highest, saith solinus) was by reafon thereof (as Strabo witneffeth) faid to be Strab.19. the preserver of man-kind. That this floud Plin. 1.3. covered a great part of Italy, Pliny, and Soli- sol. 1.

nus make it probable, who affirm, that the Plin ilin. people then inhabiting Italy, were therefore called Opegon: quia ab imbribus diluvii superfuilent; and therefore also were they esteemed the most ancient Nation, as Strabo confirmeth in his first Book, and Trezenius in his fecond: which Umbri these Authours make the Parents of the Sabines, and the Sabines to be the Parents of the Samnites, Piceni, Lucani, Brucii and all other inhabiting anciently the banks of the Mediterrane Sea. But that these Umbri were not the Inhabiters of Italy before the Floud of Noah, and fo took name by faving themselves upon the Appening Mountains, the Scriptures teach us; shewing who,&who only then were preferved, which is sufficient. Report hath adventured further, telling us, that the first people which after the general Floud inhabited Italy, were the Camefenes; (so named from Camefe, whom Cato in Originibus, another of Annius his Audipnosphe thours, names for a confort of Janus) which 1. 15. out people lived altogether a favage life; till of Draco fuch time as Saturn arriving on those Coasts, faith the devised Laws to govern them by : the me- camefeet mory of whose Acts in that Region, Diodore the wife and Thalles among the Greeks; Nepos Calfins; of Jams and Merro among the Latines, have pre-Latil. ferved; and of whom Virgil:

Primus ab athereo venit Saturnus Olympo, As. 1.8. Arma Jovis fugiens, & regnis exul ademptis. 319. Is genus indocile. ac difterfum montibus altis Composit, legesque dedit ; Latiumque vocari Maluit.

Saturn descending from the heavens high Fearing the Arms of Jupiter his Son, His Kingdom loft, and banisht thence,

Rude people on the Mountain tops he won To live together, & by Laws: which done, He chose to call it Latium.

And

of the History of the World. CHAP. VII.

And afterwards in the Verses following he speaketh of the Ausones; and after them, of the Sicani: Nations, which again fought to dif-plant the antient Inhabiters:

viz I. 8. Tum manus Aufonia, & gentes venère Sicani.

Then came th' Ausoniam Bands, and the Sicanian Tribes.

down in Italy) Thuesdides and Pling give te- that of Oegges; and therefore (according to flimony: who were again expelled by the Rhodoginus, before remembred) were all Ligit, faith Thucydides. After all these Plan- things among the Greeks (which antiquity tations and re-plantations, came the Umbri, had worn out of knowledg) called Ogygia, descended of the Gauls (saith Annius) not of which we in English commonly call (wormthose Gauls of France, but of those of Scythia, cuten, or) of defaced date. But as all the who commanded a great part of Italy, even parts of the Earth were successively planted all Hetruria and Campania; as Herodotus, and peopled; and as all Nations had their Pliny, and Dionysius have assured us: and proper times, and not their beginning at therefore this Floud of Deucation, was long after that of Noab. For all those Nations which afterward became a great people, were planted in Italy, and disposies'd of Ita- with whom the knowledg of divine Letters If again, before the Umbri were ever heard was not received, find no Parent of more anof, or had being. So that Kingdom was first tiquity, then such as they had themselves, nor called Camasene, then Latium or Saturnia, allow of any before their own; and as the then Ausonia, then Sicania; before the Um- Grecians, so did others vaunt themselves to bri (in whose time Deucalions Floud happe- be Indigene, and growing out of the Earth, ned) possess d the same, about 306. years be- or invent some other prophane or ridiculous fore the War of Troy; Lycam then governing. But the Chaldeans had certain ing Arcadia: who being the Father of two knowledg of Noah's Floud, as Berofus witand twenty Sons, the youngest called Oenonaid twenty Sons, the youngest called Opino—neiten and Mobilian Scalland Malay, who gave it he name of particular mention thereof (as is aforesaid) and the Opinology. This name it held until Italus of though he also affirm by hear-say, that from the model of the opinology of the opinolo the fame Nation changed it into Italy, after | Giants faved themselves upon the Mountain his own name, about 250. years before the fall of Troy. After these, came the Pelasgiof whom Pliny in his third Book and fifth Chapter, and Strabo in his fifth, Thucydides the Lydi, under Tyrrhenus their Captain, that gave name to the Tyrrheni; who castward Bononia) was one.

fore repeated. And stephanus thinks, that terms) of Noahs Floud. the name was derived from the Greek word Ombros; but that these Umbri of Italy were descended of the Nation of Scythians (call- Plato in Timeo produceth an Egyptian Priest, ed Galli) it shall be shewed hereafter.

§. IV.

Of some other Records testifying the universal Floud: and of two antient Deluges in Eeypt: and of some elsewhere.

Aint Augustine out of Varro affirmeth, that the Greeks and Latines made not any mention of the Universal Floud, because Of these sicani (which left spain, and fate they had nothing of Antiquity foregoing beginning. But the Chaldeans had certain nesseth; and Nicolaus Damascenus maketh Baris in Armenia, but speaketh not thereof as from any authority approved: using the word Sermo eft ; That fuch a speech there was. And Eusebius remembreth a place out of the East de in his fixth, freak at large: and after them artient Historian Abydems: who writesthe reads to the reads to t that sissithrus, to preserve himself from a c. 4. Floud, fore-told him by Saturnus, fled to the ing thence the Umbri, took from them three Hils of Armenia by ship, ad Armeniam navigio hundred Castles, and built therein twelve confineiebat: who the third day (after the Cities; to which (after they had poffefs'd waters were fallen) fent forth Birds, that and past over the Appenine Mountains) they finding no Land to rest on, returned again; added divers others, whereof Telfina (after- which he also did a second time; but at the ard Bononia) was one.

Now that there was not antiently fuch a with mud and flime. To this effect are *En-*Nation as these Umbri in those parts, I do not febius's words out of Abydenus, which may affirm; having respect to the testimonies be- seem a true description (though in other

Cyrillus also affirmeth, that Alex. Polyhistor maketh mention of this general Floud. And who re-counted to solon out of the holy Books of Egypt, the story of the Floud universal, which (saith he) happened long before the Grecian Inundations. Frier Annius his Xenophon remembreth a third Floud, which alfo Diodorus Siculus confirmeth, fowewhat pied Lie

more

For he named the general Floud for the first, which happened (faith he) under the old vers times and Ages, not inferiour to any of Ogger; Jub prifco Ogge, which was Noah. He these two last remembred, Niliaca and Phacalled the fecond, Niliaca; Hercules and Pro-ronica in Egipt: as in the year of our Remetheus then living, 44. years before that of demption 590. when in Ottober of the fame Attica, in the 34 year of Belochus King of year, Gregory then being Bishop of Rome, the Afgrians, though I do not believe him as there happened a marvellous Overflowing touching the time. But this Floud covered in Italy, and especially in the Venetian Terria great part of the nether Egypt, especially tory, and in Lightia; accompanied with a all the Region subject to Prometheus; and most fearful from of Thunder and Lighthereof came the fable of the Vulture on Prometheus his Liver, afterward flain by Hercules at Rome, by reason of the many dead Serof Egypt: which fiction Diod. Siculus deli- pents cast up and left upon the land after the verethinthese words: Fluvium propter cur- Waters decreased and returned. And in the sur little perished 10000, people, by quilam tune appellatum, Herculem, tum confilii the breaking in of the Sea at Dordroch in Holso far extended and over-spread, turning it into the old channel: Whence certain Greek Poets (converting this labour and work of flew the Eagle which fed on Prometheus liver; that forrow and torment, which for the loss of his people and Country (by the Waters destroyed and covered over) he suffered. A fourth Floud chanced about Pharus in Egypt, where Alexander Macedon built Alexandria, as Annius conceiveth out of his Xenophon, who in this brief fort writeth of all Acons to the linundations: Inundationes plures fu- and many other places torn up and rent: comm. per ere: prima novimestris Inundatio terrarum coyn of Silver and Gold, divers pieces of Aunium, sub prisco Ogyge: secunda Niliaca, &c. There mere many Inundations (faith the fame Keno- Plate and Veffels of other Mettal, supposed phon: ) the first, which was universal, of nine to be hidden at such time as the Goths inva-moneths; and this happened under the first O- ded that Province, in the year 1156. gyges: the second was Niliaca, and of one moneths continuance, in the time of Hercules and Prometheus, Egyptians: a third of two moneths, under Ogyges Atticus: the fourth of That the Floud of Noah was Supernatural; three moneths, in Theffalia under Deucalion : and a fifth of the like continuance, (called Pharonica) under Proteus of Egypt, about the time of Helen's rape. Diodorus, in his fifth Book and eleventh Chapter, taking the Samothraces for his Authors, remembreth a veral times, several Regions, not only in these Floud in Asia the less, & else where, of no less destruction then any of the other particular Inundations, faying, that the same happened among them) may be ascribed to natural before that of Deucalion; the Sea of Pontus causes and accidents; yet that universal more antient then that of Oggges in Attica. and Hellespont breaking in over the Land. But there have been many Flouds in dimagnitudine, tum virtute, volunt è vessigio land: of which kind I take that Floud to be Mansfin. compressisse, & aquarum impetum ad priorem of Achaia or Attica. Before that, in the year curfum convertisse: Unde & Graci quidam 1238. Trithemius speaketh of an Earthquake, Edisto Poete, rem gestum in fabulam vertentes, Hercu-Poeta rem gestam in jabulam verienies, riercu-lem tradinit Aquilam Promethei jecur depas-ter that of a Floud in Friscland, in which centem occidific: This Floud (meaning of Ni- there perished 100000, perions. Strozius Si-minm centem occidific: This Fiona (meaning of Note that for the fooffness of kis course, as also for the depth, was in those dayes called the Eagle: undation in Italy, in the time of Pope Dama - Ensure undation in Italy. but Hercules by his great judgment and wirtue fits, in which allo many Cities of sicil were went did again compress and straighten this River, swallowed: another in the Papacie of Alex-failus ander the fixth: also in the year 1515. Max-pensal imilian being Emperour. He also remember-mere in etha perilous over-flowing in Polonia, about 1881 1881 Hercules into a fable) devised, that Hercules Likewise Viginier, a French Historian, speakmeaning that he delivered Prometheus of eth of a great Floud in the South part of Languedoc, which fell in Anno Domini 1557. with so dreadful a tempest, as all the people attended therein the very end of the World, and Judgment-day; faying, That by the violent descent of the Waters from the Mountain, about Nismes, there were removed divers old heaps and mountures of ground, though some say it might have been foreseen by the Stars.

§. V.

Ow, howfoever all these Flouds, and many other, which have covered at separts of the World, but in America also, (as I have learned of fome ancient Southfayers CHAP. VII. Floud (in the time of Noah) was poured over maters fuch as are the watry ligns of cancer, & c. the whole face of the Earth by a power more forcible than any ability of nature Fountains, commanding them to cast out the could effect, or any second causes by what whole treasure and heap of their waters; foever union, could perform, without re- taking retention from the clouds, and conceiving from the Fountain of all power, denling ayr into water by the ministery of strength and faculties supernatural. Henri- his Augels, or whosever else best pleased cus Mechliniensis, a Scholler of Albertus Mag- his All-powerfulness. nus, in his Commentaries upon the great conjunctions of Albn Mafar, observeth, that before the Floud of Noah, the like Conjunction of Jupiter and Saturn happened in the last degree of Cancer, against that constellation, since called the ship of Argos; by which the Floud of Noah might be fore-told, because Cancer is both a watry Sign, and the House of the Moon, which is the Lady of the Sea, and of moisture, according to the rules of Astronomy, and common experience. Afroiag. Itales of Afroiage upon Genests confirmeth, affirming, that although The word Noah did well know this Floud by divine revelation, (yet this conjunction being notorious)he could not be ignorant of the second causes thereof: for those were not only signs, but also working causes, by strength receiv d from the first cause, which is God himself: and further that by * Catarratte cali, Englished the Windows of Heaven) Moses meant, this great and watry Conjunction; the word Catarratte, fignifying flowing down, or coming down. Now (faith P. de Alraco) it pleased God to ordain by the course of the Heavens fuch a Constellation, by which all men might they walked, and call unto God for mercy.

the former Conjunction, or for those watry or that (of all other the highest) in Tennerif, figns, Cancer, Pifces, Pleiades Hyades, and Orion; and of the Planets, Mars. Venus, and the eft, firetcheth above thirty miles upright. word hath Moon: which are the forcible causes of the greatest Inundations. His own words are (Windows) thefe: Nondum intelligo Prophetam Hebraorum Catarractas Cæli vocasse, nisi partes illas celi que generative sunt pluviarum & inundationum Aquarum, quales sunt signa aquatica, ut Cancer, &c. as aforesaid. As yet (saith he)

I perceive not what the Prophet of the Hebrews meaneth by those words (Catarracta cali, or Windows of Heaven )unless he thereby understandeth those celestial powers, by whose influ- der what proportion the Earth beareth to ences are ingendred the rain and inundations of the extention of the Ayr over and above it,

But, in a word, as it might please God, that above Nature, and by the especial comin the course of his unsearchable wisdom mandment of God himfelf; who at that time this Conjunction should at such time be fo gave ftrength of influence to the Stars, and abundance to the Fountains of the deep: ty, and gave to every operation increase of whereby the irruption of Waters was made vertues, violent eruptions to Springs and of the History of the World.

: 6. VI.

That there was no need of any new Creation of matter to make the universal Floud: And what are Catarracte Cali, Gen. 7. v. 11.

Ow, if it be objected, that God doth not create any thing of new; (for God rested the seventh day: (that is, he did not then after create any new (pecies) which granted. it may feem that then all the Earth and Ayr had not waters sufficient to cover the habitable World fifteen cubits above the highest mountains. Of this proposition, whether God had so restrained himself, or no, I will not dispute; but for the consequent (which is) that the World had want of water to over-cover the highest mountains. I take that conceit to be unlearned and foolish; for it is written, That the Fountains of the great deep were broken up, (that is) the waters for look the very bowels of the Earth; and all whatfoever was dispersed therein, pierced, and brake through the face thereof. Then let us consider, that the Earth had above one and twenty thousand miles, the Diameter of behold therin their destruction towards, and the Earth, according to that circle, seven thereby for fake those wicked ways wherein thousand mile, and then from the Superficies to the Center, some three thousand five hun-Of this judgment was Gul. Paristensits, who dred miles. Take then the highest mountain understood, that the words Catarratta Cali, of the World, Caucasus, Taurus, Olympus, or or Windows of Heaven, were to be taken for Atlas, the mountains of Armenia, or Scythia, and I do not find, that he that looketh high-It is not then impossible, answering reason with reason, that all those waters mixed within the Earth three thousand five hundred miles deep, should not well help to cover the space of thirty miles in height; this thirty miles upright being found in the depths of the Earth one hundred and fixteen times : for, the Fountains of the great deep were broken up, and the waters drawn out of the bowels of the Earth. Secondly, if we confi-

we shall find the difference exceeding great. If then it pleased God to condense but so much of this Ayr, as every where compasseth and imbraceth the Earth, which condensation is a conversion of Ayr into Water, a change familiar in those Elements; it will not feem strange to men of judgment, yea, but of ordinary understanding, that the with Waters, without any new Creation.

Lastly; For the opinions of Gulielmus Parithere was, fore-shewing that destruction by Waters which followed; and that by the word Catarracia Celi, or Windows of Heaven, was meant this conjunction; there needs no other answer than that observation of Ludovicus Vives, who affirmeth, That by the gravest Aftrologian it was observed, that in the year 1524. there should happen the like (faith he) there was never a more fair, dry, not be any fuch conjunction at that time.

formerly condensed into drops.

6. VII.

of some remainder of the memory of Noah among the Heathen.

Oah, commanded by God, before the fall of those Waters, entred the Ark which he had built, with his own Wife, and Earth (God so pleasing) was covered over his Sons, and his Sons Wives, taking with them of every Creature which took life by generation, seven of the clean, and of the fenfis, and Aliacenfis, to which I may adde unclean, two. Noah, according to Philo, figni-Berofie, and others, That fuch a conjunction fieth Quietness: after others, and according to the Prophecie of his Father Lamech, Ceffation'; to whom aftertimes gave many Names, answering his Antiquity, Zeal, Virtue, and other qualities: as, The first Ogyges, because in the time of the Grecian Ogyges, there was also a great Floud of Achaia: Saturn they called him, because he was the Father of Nations: Others gave him the Name conjunction as at Noah's Floud; than which of Prometheus, who was faid to steal away Jupiters fire ; Fire in that place being taken and seasonable year: The like deftruction and understood for the knowledge of God was prophefied of the year 1588. But Picus and heavenly things. Others think, that he Earl of Mirandula proveth, that there could was fo called for his excellent wifdom and forefight. He had also the Name of Janus, To conclude, I find no other mysterie in the (id est) Vinosus, because Jain signifieth Wine word Catarratte Cali, than that the clouds in the Hebrew. And so Tertuliian finds him were meant thereby: Moses using the word written in libris Ritualibus, in the Books of Windows of Heaven (if that be the sense of Ceremonies, preceding both Saturn, Trans., the word) to express the violence of the and Jove: which three enjoyed an elder Rains, and pouring down of Waters. For time then all the other ancienteft feigned whosoever hath seen those fallings of Wa- gods. And this Name Jain is taken from the ter, which sometimes happen in the Indies, Hebrew and Syrian, and not from the Latine: which are called the Spouts, (where clouds for it was in use before there was any Latine do not break into drops, but fall with a Nation, or any Kingdom by that Name refiftles violence in one body may properly known. Of the antiquity of Janus, Fabius use that manner of speech which Moses did; Pidor giveth this testimony : Jani etate nul-That the Windows, or Floud-gates of Hea- la erat Monarchia, quia mortalibus pelloriven opened: (which is) That Waters fell bus nondum beferat ulla regnandi capiditas, contrary to cultom, and that order which &c. Vimm & Far primus populos docuit Jawe call natural. God then loofened the nus ad facrificia: primus enim dras & Popower retentive in the uppermost ayr, and meria & Sarra docuit; In the time of Jathe Waters fell in abundance: Behold (lays nus (faith he) there was no Monarchy: for the Job he withholdeth the Waters, and they dry up described the Maters, and they dry and described the had not then folded it self about for better in Latine, Et omnia secondary, and the hearts of men. Janus first taught the people to all things are dried up) but when he sendeth sacrifice Wine and Meal : he first set up Altars, them not, they destroy the Earth . And in the instituted Gardens, and solitary Groves, where-26 Chapter: He bindeth the maters in the in they used to pray; with other holy Rites and clouds. But these Bonds God loosed at that Ceremonies. A greater testimony than this time of the general Floud, and called up there cannot be found among all the Heathe Waters which slept in the great Deep; then, which in all agree fo well with the Scriand these joyning together, covered the prures. For first, whilest Noab flourished, Earth, till they performed the work of his there was not any King, or Monarch; Nimwill: which done, he then commanded them | rod being the first that took on him foveto return into their dark and vaft Caves; and raign Authority. Secondly, Noah, after the the rest (by a Wind) rarified again into ayr, Floud, was the first that planted the Vine, and became an Husband-man; and therefore Gen.9. 10. offered the first-fruits of both (to wit) Wine

CHAP. VII. 600.8.300 raised an Altar, and offered sacrifice to God a thanksgiving for his merciful goodness towards him. Noah was also fignified in the Am. cont. Name of Bifrons (which was given to Janus) because he beheld the times both before and after the Floud. Quia praterita noverit, & futura prospexerit, laith Arnobius : Because he knew what was past, and provided for what was to come. He was also in the person of Janus shadowed by the Name of Chaos. and Semen Orbis, The feed of the World: because, as out of that confused Heap was drawn all the kinds of Beafts and Plants; fo from Noah came all Mankind. Whereof Ovid in the person of Janus:

MeChaos antiqui(nam sum res prisca)vocabant: Aspice quam longi temporis atta cano!
The Antient call'd me Chaos: my great

By those old times, of which I fing, ap-

He was also intituled Culum and Sol, Heaven and the Sun, for his excellent knowledg in Astronomy: Vertumnus, Bacchus, and Liber Pater; not that latter, which Diod. Siculus and Alex. Aphrodiseus so call, because he was the restorer of the Greeks to their former liberty, but in respect of the Floud. For the Greeks called Liber vii, and his Nurfes Hyades, of Rain, because Noah entred the Ark when the Sun joyned with the Stars Hyades, a constellation in the Brow or Neck of Taurus, and ever after a Monument of Noah's Floud. He was also by others surnamed Triton, a Marine god, the Son of Neptune; because he lived in safety on the Waters. So was he known by the name of Dionysus, quasi Slowosur, mentem pungens, Bite-brain, or Witfinger; though Diodorus conceive otherwife, and derive that name à Patre & Loco; of his Father and the place of his Birth, (to wit) of Jove, and Nifa, a Town of Arabia fælix, faith suidas, out of Orpheus. He had 618.9. 20. also the by-name of Taurus, or Taurophagus; because he first yoaked Oxen, and Tilled the ground: according to that of Moses; and Noah became an Husbandman. Now howfoever the Grecians vaunt of their Theban Bacchus, (otherwise Dionysus) it is certain, that the Name was borrowed, and the Invention ftolen from Noah. But this name of Bacchus, more antiently Boncus, was taken (faith Gul. Stuckius, and out of him Daneus) Obment and it is the more probable, because it canther Ships) and therefore did the Ark no oplanter of the Vine after the Floud: and of Ship doth in a calm Sea. Also, because it is Noah (the first and antient Bacelus) were all not probable, that during these continual and Meal. Thirdly, he was the first that | those fables devised, of which Diodorns complaineth in his fourth Book and fifth Chapter. This first Bacchus (to wit) Noah, was surnamed Nysius, of the Mountain Nysain India; where the Grecian Bacchus never came, whatloever themselves seign of his enterprises: and these Mountains of Nysa joyn with those of Paropanisus, and those other Eastern Mountains, on which the Ark of Noah rested after the Floud.

Furthermore, to the end that the memory of this fecond Parent of Mankind might the better be preserved, there were founded by his Issues many great Cities, which bear his Name, with many Rivers and Mountains which oftentimes forgat that it was done in which oftentimes torgat that it was done in his regard, because the many Names given suph. 6. him, brought the fame confusion to places as year. 10 himself. Notwithstanding all which, we strate. 1. find the City of Noab upon the banks of the strate. 1. 7. red Sea, and elsewhere: the River of Noas in Thrace, which Strabo calleth Noarus; Ptolemy, Danus; dividing Illyria from Panonia. Thus much for the Name.

6. VIII.

Of fundry particulars touching the Ark: as the place where it was made, the matter, fashion, and name.

Now in what part of the World Noah built the Ark, it doth not appear in the Scriptures, neither do I find any approved Author that hath written thereof; only Goropius Becanus in his Indo-Scythia conceiveth, that Noah built his Ark neer the Mountains of Caucasus, because on those hills are found the goodliest Cedars: for when Alex. Macedon made the war among the people, called Nysei, inhabiting the other fide of Cancasus, he found all their Burials and Sepulchres wrought over with Cedar. To this place (faith Becamus) Noah repaired, both to separate himself from the reprobate Giants, who rebelled against God and Nature, as also because he would not be interrupted in the building of the Ark; to which also he addeth the conveniency of Rivers, to transport the Timber which he used, without troubling any other Carriages.

Only this we are fure of, that the Ark was built in some part of the Eastern World; and to my understanding, not far from the place where it rested after the Floud. For Noah did not use any Mast or Sayle (as in onot be doubted but that Noah was the first therwise move, than the Hulk or body of a

Waters ceased. And therefore it may be gathered, that during the fall of the Waters, there was not any Storm or forcible wind at the Waves for the better speed.

This kind of Vericl the Hebrews call Thebet, and the Greeks Larnax, for fo they terrived, was first called Larnasus, and by the chang of (L) into (P) Parnassus; but Pausa-Nymph Cleodora, called Parnaffus, the Inventor of Auguration.

Pencerus finds the word (Parnasius) to Programs, have no affinitie with the Greek, but thinks it derived from the Hebrew word Nahas, which fignifieth Auguration and Divination; or from Har or Parai, as in his Chapter of Oracles, in the Leaf before cited.

Josephus calls the Ark, Machina, by the ge-Fpiph.in neral name of a huge Frame; and Epiphanius out of the Hebrew, Aron: but herein lieth the difference between Aron and Thebet. That Aron fignifieth properly the Ark of the Sanduary, but Thebet such a Vessel, as swimmeth, and beareth it felf upon the Waters. Lastly, this Ark of Noah differed from the fashion of a Ship, in this, that it had a Cover and Roofe, with a Crest in the middest thereof, and the fides declining like the Roof of an House; to the end, both to cast off the Waters, and that thereunder Noah himself and his children might shelter, and Gen. 6. 4. separate themselves from the noysomness of the many Beafts, which filled the other rooms and parts of the Ark.

Of what Wood the Ark was built, it is uncertain. The Hebrew word Gopher once. and in this place only used, is diverfly undertrood: and though the matter be of little importance, yet this difference there is, That the Geneva Translation calls it Pine-tree; the Rabbine, Cedar; the Seventy, square Timber; the Latine, smooth Timber. Others will have it Cypress Trees, as dedicated to the dead, because Cypress is worn at Funerals. But out of doubt, if the word Gopher fignifie any special kind of Timber, Noah obeyed and down-right Rains, there were any the voice of God therein; If not, he was Winds at all, therefore was the Ark little not then curious as touching the kind or namoved from the place where it was fashiot ture of the wood, having the promise of ned and fet together: for it is written, God God, and his Grace and mercy for his dened and let together: 10 it is written, one made a Wind to pdf spon the Earth, and the fence: For with Nah Cod promifed to gla-P. 18.

Withers cedeld. And therefore it may be ga killy bis covenant. Plinie affirmeth, that in 4.8%. Egypt it was the use to build Ships of Cedar, which the worms eat not; and he avoweth. all, which could drive the Ark any great diflance from the place where it was first by Cedar beams, laid in the time of the foundathe Waters lifted us. This is also the more tion of the City, and that they were still probable, if that antient opinion be true, as found in his time, which was about 1188. it is very likely, that the Ark had fundum years after: proving thereby, that this kind planum, A flat bottom, and not rayfed in form of wood was not subject to putrifying or of a Ship, with a sharpness forward, to cut mouldring in a very long time. But in that it is easie to cut, light to carry, and of a sweet favour, lafting also better then any other wood, and because neer the place where the med Demailions Ship: and some say, that the Ark rested, there are sound great store of Hill Parnafius, to which in eight days he arthese Cedar trees, as also in all the Mountains of the East, besides those of Libanus; it is probable enough that the Ark might be nias thinks that it took name of a Son of the of that wood : which hath, befide the other commodities, the greatest length of Timber, and therefore fittest to build Ships withal. Pererius conceiveth, that the Ark had divers forts of Timber, and that the bottom had of one fort, the deck and partition of another; all which may be true or falle, if Gopher may be taken for Timber in general. True it is, that Cedar will ferve for all parts of a Ship, as well for the Body, as for Masts and Yards. But Noah had most respect to the direction received from God: to the length, breadth, and height, and to the partitions of the Ark; and to pitch it, and to divide it into Cabins; thereby to fever the clean Beafts from the unclean, and to preserve their several forts of Food; and that it might be capable of all kind of living creatures, according to the numbers by God appointed. All which when Noah had gathered together, he cast his confidence wholly on God; who by his Angels steered this Ship without a Rudder, and directed it without the help of a Compass or the North star. The Pitch which Noah uled, is by some supposed to have been a kind of Bitumen, whereof there is great quantity about the Vally of Sodom and Gomorrah, Pererist. now the dead Sea, or Asphaltes, and in the Region of Babylon, and in the West India: and herein it exceedeth other Pitch, that it melts not with the Sun, but by the Fire only, after the manner of hard Wax. §. IX.

That the Ark was of sufficient capacity.

He Ark, according to Gods commandement, had of length three hundred

CHAP. VII. Cubits, fifty of breadth, and thirty deep or it was not needfull to take any kinds of high: by which proportion, it had fix parts Filhes into the Ark, because they were kept night to one of breadth, and ten times living (faith S. Anguffine) in their own Eleor length to one of depth; of which S. Au- ment. Non fuit necessie conservare in Arca que in length to one on action, of which of an incine was just needle conference in articular, guffine: Proculdubio figure est percerinan- possent in again vivere, non solum mersa sent gupine: Procucanomo jesara eja percerinan-pojens in aqua orocre, non jotum merja ficul tis in boc feculo Croitalis Dei. (boc eft) Eccle-Pifees, ocrum super-natanita, sicut multæ aliin in our jeems cromain inc. (our cy) receive inject, our am juper-natanita, neut muite air-fie que st su'on per lignum, in quo pependit tes: It was not needfull to conserve those creane que us peros per uguam, in quo pepenant tes. It was not necajan to conferve toge crea-Mediator Dei & commun, homo Jelus Chri- ture in the Ark, which could live in the Waarea and so menura ipla longitudinis, altiters; and not onely Fiftes which can live unjins: nam & menma upa congrinamis, aut. vers, and not oner i specific can toe int-tudinis, latitudinifque ejus significat corpus ku- der trater, but also those Forels which sit and tuanns, quanamyque ejus ngmineat corpus tu-que mater, one aque moje r onus wanto ju and manum, in cujus veritate ad komines pranun- swim on them. And again, Terra, non aqua, manum, in cujus vertiate aa comines pranum juim on tuem. Alla again, Letra, non aqua, ciatus est venturus, & venit, &c. Without maledista; quia Adam non kujus, sed illius crains ep venturas, contain, contains maneuroa, quia esculin non supus, jeu tuins doubt (faith h:) it is a Figure of the City of fruillum vetilum comedit. It was the Earth, God travelling in this world as a stranger, and not the Waters which God cursed; for of God travelling in this world as a stranger, and not the rates, while God the Earth and not of the Earth and not of the forbidden fruit of the Earth and not of the de (that is soft the Church, Javeau by the tree-sphere-the Jornauan Jente of the Casto and not by Ang, de upon the Mediator between God and Man, the the Sea, did Adam cat. So, as S. Angustine ga-civillei,

Man Jesus Christ did hang: for even the very measure of the length, heighth and breadth, answereth the shape of Mans body, in the truth whereof the coming of Christ was forc-told and performed. By what kind of Cubit the Ark was meafured, it hath been a disputed question among the Fathers, and others; and the diffences are in effect these: The first kind of Cubit (caned the common) contament one adoubtedly true, that many of the aperts, foot and a half, measured from the sharp of which now feem differing, and of feveral The second (the Palm-Cubit) which taketh those Beasts which are of mixt natures, eione handfull more than the common. The ther they were not in that age, or elfe it was third is called Regius Cubitus, or the Persian Cubit, which exceedeth the common Cubit three inches. The fourth is the facred Cubit, which containeth the common or vulgar Cupart.Laftly, there is a fifth Cubit, called Geometrical, which containeth fix common Cumetrical, which community common cubits. But of all these forts, which were commonly measured by the vulgar Cubit, the thern parts; it may be supposed by a superalteration and diminution of mens statures red and pied skins, or feathers, are differing hath made the difference. For as there is now from those that are less painted, and wear a less proportion of bodies, so is the complain russet or black; they are much milthe point of the middle finger, of less length taken that so think. And for mine own opithan it was in elder times. Saint Augustine, considering the many sorts of Beasts and Birds which the Ark held, with their food and water, was sometime of opinion, that the Ark had proportion after the Geometrical Cubit, which containeth almost fix of the common: For, measuring the Ark by the vulgar Cubit, it did not exceed the capacity of that Veffel built by Hiero of Syracufe, or the Ship of Ptolemy Philo-pater. But S. Angufine (who at the first was led by Origen) changed his judgment as touching the dipnofp. ter confideration that there needed not fo Virginia. The Dog-fish of England is the huge a Body to preserve all forts of Creatures, by God appointed to be referved. For a Frame needed not. And if we look with the eyes of judgment hereunto, we shall find nothing monstroughtherein; although the imaginations of men, who (for the most part) have more of mischief and of ignorance, than of any reverend reason, found many impossibilities in this work of God. But it is manifest, and undoubtedly true, that many of the Species, kinds, were not then in rerum natura. For might be generated again by others: as the Mules, the Hyena's, and the like; the one begotten by Alies and Mares, and the other by Foxes and Wolves. And whereas by dif> nitude, between the Cat of Europe, and the Ounce of India; and even those Dogs which are become wild in Hispaniola, with which the Spaniards used to devour the naked Indians, are now changed to Wolves, and begin to destroy the breed of their Cattel, and do also oftentimes tear asunder their own India Children. The common Crow and Rook of India is full of red feathers in the drowned and low Islands of Caribana; and the Blackbird and Thrush harh his feathers mixt with black and carnation in the North parts of magnitude made a difference of species, then were the Nigro's, which we call the was not the Geometrical, but the ordinary Black-Moors, non animalia rationalia, not Cubit of one foot and a half, according to Men, but some kind of strange Beasts: and the measure of Giantly stature; which meafo the Giants of the South America should sure (doubtles) might give much the more be of another kind, than the people of capacity to the Ark 3 although it be also prothis part of the World. We also see it daily, bable, that as the Men were, so were the horses that the natures of Fruits are changed by whereon they rode, and all other Creatures transplantation, some to better, some to of a correspondent size. And yet, (as I take worfe, especially with the change of Cli- it) though by this means there were not any mate. Crabs may be made good Fruit by whit the more room in the Ark, it were not often grafting; and the best Melons will hard to conceive, how all the distinct species change in a year or two to common Cow- of Animals, whose lives cannot be preserved cumers, by being fet in a barren foyl. Therefore, taking the kinds precifely of all Creafent quantities be contained in a Veffel of tures, as they were by God created, or out those dimensions which the Ark had; allowof the Earth by his Ordinance produced; the ing to the Cubit one foot and a half of our Ark after the measure of the common Cubit, now usual measure: whence it followeth of was sufficiently capacious to contain of all, necessity, that those large bodies which were according to the number by God appointed: in the days of Noah, might have room suffici-For if we adde but half a foot of measure ent in the Ark, which was measured by a Cuto the common Cubit, which had a foot and bit of length proportionable. a half of Giantly stature (and less allowance we cannot give to the difference between to be faved. (that is, seven of the clean, two them and us) then did the Ark contain 600. Of the unclean, with necessary food) might foot in length, and 100. foot in breadth, have place in the Ark, Butao hath very and 60. foot in depth.

the Geometrical Cubit is not used in the of the Ark was three hundred Cubits, which Dem. 3.11. Scripture, the stature of the Giants therein multiplied by the breadth, namely fifty Cubits, named may suffice. For if the Bed of og, King and the product by the height of thirty Cubits, of Bafan, had been nine Geometrical Cubits sheeth the whole Concavity to have been long, it had taken 54. Cubits of the common, 450000. Now, whereas the posts, walls, and which make 80. foot : and Goliah, who had other partitions of Lodgings may feem to the length of fix Cubits and an handfull, have taken up a great part of the hollow: which makes nine foot and a handfull (a pro-portion credible) if these Cubits had been Geometrical, then had been 54, foot in pical Cubes was a sufficient recompence: If height, and upwards, which were monstrous therefore in a Ship of such greatness we seek and most incredible: for (according to this room for 89. distinct species of Beasts, or proportion) had the head of Goliah been (left any should be omitted) for 100, sevenine foot long, and farr weightier and big- ral kinds, we shall easily find place both for ger then all David's body, who carried it them, and for the Birds, which in bigness are Again, if the Geometrical Cubit had been used for a Measure in the Scripture, as many Commenters have observed, then had the Altar (appointed to contain five Cubits of to which the rest may be reduced, by saylength, five of breadth and three of height) ing, (according to Ariffolle) that one Elereached the length of 27. foot upright, and so must their Priests have ascended by fteps or Ladders to have performed their Beafts, fome feed on vegetables, others on Sacrifices thereon, which was contrary to flesh. There are one and thirty kinds of the Gods Commandment, given in these words: greater sort, feeding on vegetables: of which Thou shalt not go up with steps unto mine Altar, number onely three are clean, according to that the shame be not discovered thereon; and the Law of Moser, whereof seven of a kind therefore was the Altar but three common entred into the Ark, namely, three couples Cubits high, which make four foot, that for breed, and one odde one for facrifice: their Priests standing thereby might execute the other eight and twenty kinds were their Office. Wherefore I may conclude, taken by two of each kind, fo that in all

How the appointed number of Creatures learnedly declared: the brief summ of whose But first of all, to make it manifest that discourse to that purpose, is this. The length no way answerable to them; and for meat to fustain them all. For there are three forts of Beafts, whose bodies are of a quantity best known; the Beef, the Sheep, and the Wolf: phant is answerable to four Beeves, one Lion to two Wolves, and fo of the reft. Of that the Cubit mentioned in the Scriptures there were in the Ark one and twenty great Beafts clean, and fix and fifty unclean, effi-Floud; and all Story, as well general as parmable for largnels as ninety one Beeves; yet ticular, thereby may be the better underfor a supplement (lest perhaps any species stood. be omitted) let them be valued as an hundred and twenty Beeves. Of the leffer fort feeding on vegetables, were in the Ark six and twenty kinds, estimable, with good allowance for supply, as fourscore Sheep. Of those which devour flesh were two and thirtv kinds, answerable to threescore and four Wolves. All these two hundred and eighty Beafts might be kept in one flory or room of the Ark, in their feveral Cabins; their meat in a fecond: the Birds and their provifion in a third, with place to spare for Noah and his Family, and all their necessaries.

5. X.

That the Ark rested upon part of the Hill Taurus (or Caucasus) between the East-Indics, and Scythia.

||. I.

A Praterition of some Questions less material: with a Note of the use of this Question to find out the Metropolis of Nations.

7 Hat time Noah took to build the Ark, received the Commandment from God an hundred years before the Waters fell; and had therefore choice of time, and leifure fufficient. As for the number of Decks and Partitions, which Origen divides into four, Saint Angustine into three, I will not trouble the Reader with the controversie: or, whether those Creatures which sometimes rest on the Land, other times in the Waters, as the Crocodiles (now called Alegartos) the Sea-Cows, or Sea-Horses, were kept in the Ark, or no, I think it a needless curiofity; and yet to this faith Pererius, and others before him, that a Fish-pool might be made as well with- bo remembreth a Promontory in Arabia fixin the Ark, as in Hiero his Ship of Syracuse. lix of that name; and Pliny finds a Mart-Lastly, to consider or labour to disprove town so called in the same, which Ptolemy the foolery of the Hebrews, who suppose calls Ocilis, Pinetus Acyla, and Niger Zidon. that the Ark was lightened by a Carbuncle, But this Ocila of Damascenus, or rather of Anor had Windows of Crystal to receive in nins, seemeth to be one and a part of the Ar-Light, and keep out Water, were but to re- menian Mountains. Berofus calleth those But that which I feek most to satisfie my self Cordai: Ptolemy Gordai and Gordiai: of History. and others in, is, In what part of the World which the Countrey next adjoyning is, by 27, (as the feat of the terrestrial Paradise, and da, or rather Minni: which word is used for the resting of the Ark) do onely and truly Armenia Minor. And the very word of Arteach the Worlds Plantation, and the be- menia feems to be compounded of this word

||. II.

A Proposal of the common opinion, that the Ark refted upon some of the Hills of Ar-

Nd first, for the true place where the Ark rested after the Floud, and from what part of the World the Children of Noah travelled to their first settlement and plantation, I am refolved (without any prefumption) that therein the most Writers were utterly mistaken. And I am not led so to think out of any Humour, or newness of opinion or fingularity; but do herein ground my felf on the original and first truth, which is the word of God, and after that upon reafon, and the most probable circumstances thereon depending. For whereas it is writ-ten, That the Ark stayed upon one of the mountains of Ararat, which the Chaldean Paraphrast hath converted Kardu, meaning the hills Gordai, or Cordiai, in Armenia the greater (as the words Gordai, and Kardu. feem to be one and the fame) of which opinion also the most of our Interpreters are: I I leave to others to dispute: but he find neither Scripture nor Reason which teacheth any fuch thing (towit) that it refted on that part of Ararat, which is in the greater Armenia. Nicolaus Damascenus calls this Mountain of Ararat, Baris; being the same Gen. 8.4. which the Chaldean nameth Kardu, to which Mountain the Frier Annius (citing this place out of Tosephus) makes him find another adjoyning, called Ocila, and to say that the Ark (of which Moses the Law-giver of the Hebrews wrote) did first take ground on this Ocila. But I do not find any fuch Mountain in being, as this Ocila, neither is there any mention of it in the place of Josephus, Stravive the buried vanities of former times. Mountains of Armenia Gordiai, and Curtius the Ark rested after the Floud : because the this Nicolaus Damascenus, called Nymada, true understanding of some of these places perhaps (as Becamis conjectures) for Milyaginning of Nations, before and after the Minni, and Aram: as if we should say Minni

CHAP. VII.

Na. nift. of Syria; for that Armenia also was a part of | Land in Armenia, it is very unprobable, that 1.5. c. 12. Syria, Pliny witnesseth. Fpiphanius placeth the children of Noah, which came into that. the great, near the Lake Thoffitis: whence longitude, and 41. & 52. degrees of latitude. One of the Mountains, Gordiai (that which name (faith Junius) was of the event, because of Noahs coming down with his children. But this also I take to be a supposed event: feeing any Hill from whence on every fide we must descend, may thus be cal-to be derived; and Ads 6. 9. they that be- first known City of the World, founded aflonged to the Synagogue of the Egyptians are ter the Floud, about 131. years, or (as others called Libertini, for Lubra tenu. Yet this suppose) ten years later: though (for my opinion hath been embraced from Age to felf) I rather think that they undertook that Age, receiving a habit of strength by time, work in two respects; first, to make themand allowance without any further exami- selves famous, To get us a name (saith the nation; although the name of Lubar might Text:) Secondly, thereby to usurp dominion Gentle Beredle otherwise rightly be given, especially to that over the rest. Mountain, by reason that the passage was more fair, up and down unto it, than to any of the rest adjoyning.

il. III.

The first Arcument against the common opinion. They that came to build Babel, would have come fooner, had they come from fo near a place as Armenia.

OUt there are many Arguments to per-I fwade me, that the Ark of Noah did not one of the Gordiaan Mountains.

Ecrof.1.1. low Ecrofus, that it was in the year 130. or certainty of this report, that the East-Indians in the year 131. after the Floud, when Nim- (time out of mind) have had Guis and Ord-

the Cardyes about these Mountains, whom Valley, could have spent so many years in so others call Gordieni or Gordeni. The Moun- | short a passage : seeing the Region of Mesotains are scated apart from all other to the potamia was onely interjacent, which might North of that Ledge of the Mountains called by easie journeys have been past over in Taurus, or Niphates, in the Plains of Armenia twenty days; and to haften and help which pailage, the navigable River of Tygris offerthe River of Tygris floweth in 75. degrees of ed it felf, which is every where transpassable by Boats of great burthen: fo as where the Defart on the one fide refifted their expedifurmounteth the reft) Fpiphanius calls Lubar, tion, the River on the contrary fide ferved which in the Armenian fignificth a place of to advance it; the River rifing out of the descent: but this out of Josephus. Which same Ledge of Mountains, or at the foot of them, where the Ark of Noah was first suppoled to fettle it felf: Then, if the Nations which followed Nimred still doubted the furprise of a second Floud (according to the opinions of the ancient Hebrews) it foundeth Josp de léd: as Jupius corrects the place in Josephus ill to the ear of reason, that they would have Ania L. Aniessis (Kilvaris.) That the place is thus to be specified many years in that low and overflown read, he conjectureth, because Joseph. l.t. c.4. Valley of Mesopotamia, so called, of the mafays, the place is called 'Amadamigoov (asit were ny Rivers which imbroider or compass it: the descent or coming down) and Epiphanius for the effects witnessed their affections, and lib. 1. contr. Heref. calls it 1: 429, which word the works which they undertook, their unin the Armeuian and Egyptian Tongue figni- belief; being no fooner arrived in Shinar, fieth Descent of Lubar, which is to descend; but they began to provide themselves of a whence also Lubra is a Synagogue, because it defence (by erecting Babel) against any was commonly built on some high place: future or feared Inundation. Now, at Babel whereof also the Latine Delubrum may seem it was, that Nimrod began his Kingdom; the

I. IV.

The second Argument; That the Eastern People were most ancient in populosity, and in all humane glory.

Or a second Argument: The civility, magnificence, and multitude of people (wherein the East parts of the World first abounded) hath more weight than any thing which hath been, or can be faid for Armenia. and for Noah's taking Land there. And that rest it self in any part of Armenia, and that this is true, the use of Printing and Artillery the Mountain Ararat was not Baris, nor any (among many other things which the East had) may eafily perfwade us that those Sun-For the first: It is agreed by all who fol- rising Nations were the most ancient. The rod came into the Valley of Shinar, which nance of battery, confirmed by the Portugals Valley was afterward call'd Babylonia, Chufb, and others, make us now to understand, and Chaldea. If then the Ark had first found That the place of Philostratus in vita Apollonii Tianei, l. 2. c. 14. is no fable, though | pingari ) Venetus maketh this report: Incole expressed in fabulous words: when he faith, religioni, literis & sapientia sunt addictissimi. that the wife men, which dwell between & veritatis indagatores acerrimi; nibil illis golden Shield. For the invention of Let- their Churches, after the manner of Christians: written on Pillars of Stone(as before remembred) long before the Floud. But from the Eastern world it was that John Guthenberg a Germane, brought the device of Printing: by whom Conradus being instructed, brought the practice thereof to Rome: and after that Nicolaus Gerson a Frenchman, bettered both the Letters and Invention. And notwith standing that this Mystery was then supposed to be but newly born, the Chinois had Letters long before either the Egyptians or Phanicians; and also the Art of Printing, knowledg, or any Letters among them.

And, that this is true, both the Portugals and Spaniards have witnefled, who about an hundred years fince discovered those Kingdoms, and do now enjoy their rich trades therein: for the Chinois account all other nations but falvages in respect of them-

And to add ffrength to this argument, the conquest and story of Alex. Macedon may justly be called to witness, who found more Cities and fumptuofity in that little Kingdom of Porus, which lay fide by fide to the East India, then in all his other travails and undertakings. For in Alexander's time.

Hyphalis and Ganges, use not themselves to go frequentius oratione, quam (more nostro) saforthinto Battel: but that they drive away cris in delubris exercent: unum cognoscunt their Enemies with Thunder and Lightning Principem, unum Deum adorant : The Islanfent from Jupiter. By which means there it ders are exceedingly addicted to religion, letis faid, that Hercules Ægyptius and Bacchus, ters, and philosophy, and most diligent searchjoyning their forces, were defeated there; ers out of truth: there is nothing among them and that this Hercules there cast away his more frequent then prayer, which they use in ters was ignorantly ascribed to Cadmus, be- They acknowledg one King, and worship one God. cause he brought them first into Greece: of The antiquity, magnificence, civility, riches, which the people (then rude and favage) sumptuous buildings, and policie in governhad reason to give him the honour, from ment, is reported to be such by those who whom they received the benefit. But it is have been imployed in those parts, as it true, that Letters are no less antient then seth seemeth to exceed (in those formerly named, or Henoch were: for they are faid to have and divers other particulars) all other Kingdoms of the World.

II. V.

The third Argument, from the wonderful reaffance which Semiramis found in the East Indies.

I)Ut for a third argument, and also of a treble strength to the rest, I lay the invafion of Semiramis before the indifferent and advised Reader: who may consider in what when as the Greeks had neither any civil Age she lived, and how soon after the Worlds new birth the gathered her Army (as Diodorus Siculus out of Ctesias reporteth) of more then three millions to invade India, to which he adjoyned also 500000. Horse; and 100000. Waggons: whereof if we believe but a third part, it shall suffice to prove that India was the first planted and peopled Country after the Floud. Now as touching the time wherein she lived: All Historians consent that she was the Wife of Ninus, and the most approved Writers agree, that Ninus was the Son of Belus, and Belus of Nimrod, that Nimrod was the Son of Chush, Cush of Cham, and Cham of Noah: And at fuch time as Nimrod came to Shinaar, he was then a learning and greatness had not travailed so great Nation, as by the building of the City far to the West as Rome. Alexander esteem- and Tower of Babel may appear; and being ing of Italy but as a barbarous Country, and then so multiplied and increased, the two of Rome as of a Village. But it was Babylon | descents cast between Nimrod and Semirathat stood in his eye, and the fame of the mis, brought forth in that time those multi-East pierced his ears. And if we look as far tudes, whereof her Army was composed. as the Sun-rifing, and hear Paulus Venetus Let us then fee with whom she encountred what he reporteth of the uttermost Angle in that War with this her powerful Army: and Island thereof, we shall find that those even with a multitude, rather exceeding, Nations have fent out, and not received; then equalling her own, conducted by staulent knowledg, and not borrowed it from robates King of India beyond Indus; of the West. For the farther East (to this day) | whose multitudes this is the witness of Diod. the more civil; the farther West, the more siculus; Staurobates coactis majoribus, quam Salvage. And of the Isle of Japan (now Zi- qua erant Semiramidis, copiis: Staurobates

Semiramis. If then these numbers of Indians had been increased but by a Colonie fent out from shinaar (and that also after Babel was built, which no doubt took fome time in the performance) this increase in the East, and this Army of Staurobates must have been made of stone, or somewhat else by miracle. For as the numbers which Semiramis gathered might easily grow up in that time, from fo great a Troop as Nimrod brought with him into Babylonia (as shall be demonstrated hereafter in the Story of Israel) so could not any such time, by any multiplication natural, produce so many bodies of men as were in the Indian Army victorious over Semiramis, if the Colonies fent thirher had been so late as Babel overturned. and the confusion of Languages. For if we allow 65, years time after the Floud, before Nimrod was born: of which, thirty years to cush ere he begat seba, after whom he had Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabtecha: and then thirty years to Raamah, ere he begat Gen. 10.7. Sheba and Dedan, both which were born before Nimrod: and five years to his five elder Brothers, which make fixty five. and then twice thirty years for two Generations more, as for Nimrod, Sheba, and Dedan with others, to beget their Sons; and that a third Generation might grow up, which makes in all an hundred twenty five years; there will then remain fix years to have been spent in travailing from the East, ere they arrived in Shinaar, in the year after the Floud 121. make him to have arrived at Shinaar in the they beget whole Nations without the help grounds (which require found foundations) be no confusion in that year 101. or at Pelegs birth. And therefore it is far more probable, that Nimrod usurped Regal authority in the 131. year after the Floud (according to Berofus) and that the Work of Babel lasted fourty years (according to Glycas) Homini-Gen. & de Turris ex- bus in ea perficienda totis 40. annis incassum Struttione laborantibus; Men labouring in vain 40. years to finish it. By which account it falls out that | that in those years were grown up. it was 170. years after the Floud, ere a Colonie was sent into East India; which granted, (the one being the main Body, and the other but a Troop taken thence) it can hard-gathering together greater Troops then those of exceeded Semiramis in numbers: who being then Empress of all that part of the world gathered the most of Nations into one body.

||. VI.

The fourth Argument from divers considerations in the person of Noah.

Ourthly, it is no way probable, that Noab, who knew the world before the Floud, and had lived therein the long time of 600, years, was all that space 130, years after the Floud without any certain habitation: No, it will fall out, and better agree with reason, that Nimrod was but the conductor of those people, by Noah destined and appointed to fill and inhabit that middle part of the earth and the Western World; (which Travails Noah put over to young and able bodies) and that Noah himfelf, then covered with many years, planted himfelf in the same place which God had affigned him; which was, where he first came down out of the Ark from the waters: for it is written, that after Noah came down out of the Ark, he planted a Vineyard, and became a Husbandman, whose business was to dress and manure the Earth; and not to range over so many parts of the world, as from Armenia into Arabia fælix, where he should (if the Tradition be found) have left certain Colonies: thence into Africa towards Triton: then into Spain where they fay he And so the followers of Nimrod might be of settled other companies, and built Cities affufficient multitude. But as for those which ter the names of Noela and Noegla his Sons Wives: from thence into Italy, where they year 101. and the Confusion to have been at | say he found his Son Cham the Saturn of E-Pelegs birth, these men do all by miracle: gypt, who had corrupted the people and subjects of Gomer in his absence: with whom of time; and build Nimrods Tower in the Noah (as they make the ftory) had patience Ayr; and not on those low and marish for three years; but then finding no amendment, they fay he banish'd him out of Halv. in the Plains of Shinaar. For except that | Thefe be but the fancies of Berofus Annianus. huge Tower were built in a day, there could | a plain imitation of the Grecian fables. For let every reasonable man conceive, what it was to travail far in such a Forrest as the World was, when after so great a rotting of the Earth by the Floud, the same lay wast and over-grown for 130. or 140. years, and wherein there could hardly be found either part or passage through which men were able to creep for Woods, Bushes, and Bryers,

And there are so many reasons, proving that Noah never came into the Valley of shinaar, as we need not fuspect his passage into Italy or Spain: For Noah who was Father ly be believed that staurobates could have | of all those Nations, a man reverenced both unbelieving prefumptuos work of Babel. Ra- a-part with his best Beloved, giving himself ther by his prefence and prevalent perfiva-from he would have bound their hands from and heavenly things, after he had directed fo vain labours, and by the authority which his children to their deftined portions. For he received even from God himfelf, he would he landed in a warm and fertile foil, where have held them in that awfull fubjection, as, he planted his Vineyard, and dreft the Earth; whatfoever they had vainly conceived or after which, and his thankigiving to God whatoever they had valley controlled the by facrifice, he is not remembred in the Scriferred, yet they durft not have disobeyed the personal commandment of him, who in the personal commandment of him, who in the beginning had a kind of Regal authority those Nations of which Moses wrote: which over his children and people. Certainly, were the Hebrews chiefly, and their enemies Noah knew right well, that the former deftruction of man-kind was by themselves purchased through cruelty and disobedience; and that to distrust God, and to raise up building against his Almighty power, was as much as in them lay, a provocation of God to lay upon them the same, if not a more sharp affliction. Wherefore, there is no probability, that ever he came so far West as Babylonia; but rather, that he fent those numbers which came into shinaar (being the greatest troop, because they had the greatest part of the World to plant) under Ninnod, guments and Authorities of Frier Annius, or those upon whom he ulurped. Nauclerus, who in his Commentaries upon Eerosus and and Coleffinus, take the tellimony of Metho- others, laboureth marvelloully to prove that work as the Worlds Plantation, could not be effected without order and conduction. Of the Sons of Sem: Jottan, Havilah, and Ophir, are especially noted to have dwelt in the East-India. The rest of Sem's issues had also the Regions of Persia, and the other adjoyning to Indus, and held also a part of Mercators sets these Hills five degrees (which Chaldea for a time: for Abraham inhabited makes three hundred English miles) asunder. Ur, till he was thence called by God; and whether they were of the Sons of Jotan, or of all the rest a certain number (Cham and his iffue onely excepted) that Noah kept Plantation I shall speak at large in the Chap-increase (to wit) Nimrod, suphene, and Jo-tan, of which Nimrod commanded the if-Japhet. This opinion I cannot judge of, although I will not doubt, but that so great a ter following.

Now, another reason which moves me to believe that Noah stayed in the East far away from all those that came into shinaar, is, that Moses doth not in any word make mention of Noah in all the Story of the Hebrews, or among any of those Nations which contended with them. And Noah being the Father of all man-kind, and the chosen servant that the Ark of Noah stood on the Mountains of God, was too principal a Person, to be ei- of Armenia, he beginneth with the antiquity

for his Authority, Knowledg, Experience | ther forgotten or neglected, had he not (in and Piety, would never have permitted his respect of his age and wearifome experience children and iffues to have undertaken that of the World) withdrawn himfelf, and refted

I. VII.

Of the senses opinion of Annius the Commentor upon Berosus: who finds divers places where the Ark refted; as the Caspian and Gordiaan Hills, which are three bundred miles asunder; and also some places of Scythia. T remaineth now that we examine the Ar-dins Bishop of Tyre for currant, that there the Ark of Noah rested upon the Armenian were three Leaders of the people after their Mountains called Cassii; which Mountains separate Armenia from the upper Media, and do equally belong to both. And because all fues of Cham, Jostan of Sem, and Suppene of his Authors speak of the Mountains of Gorfues of Cham, Jostan of Sem, and Suppene of diei, he hath no other shift to unite these opinions, but by uniting those far-distant Mountains together. To effect which, he hath found no other invention, than to charge those men with errour, which have carefully over-seen, Printed, and Published Ass. 3. Ptolemies Geography, in which they are altogether differered. For that last Edition of And certainly, if we look into those more ancient Copies of Villanovanus, and others, we shall find nothing in them to help Annius withall: for in those the Mountains Caspii with himself, it cannot be known. Of which stand seven degrees to the East of the Gordiei, which makes 420. miles. And for those Authors by whose authority Annius strengthneth himself, Diodorus whom he so much followeth, giveth this judgment upon them Diod.l.c.3. in the like dispute. Aberrarunt vero omnes. non negligentià, sed regnorum situs ignorantià; They have all erred (faith he) not through negligence, but through ignorance of the lituation of Kingdoms. But for an induction, to prove

Cato de faith, that lanus came with Dyrim, and with again, Equidem principatus originis semper Scythis tribuitur; Certainly, the prime Antiquity of Off-|pring is alway given to the Scythians. And herein truly I agree with Annius, which Annius laboureth, is to prove that precifely fet down. these ancient Scythians (meaning the Ne- But, to come to those latter Authours, or Eabylonia. read that the Scythians were originally Arof the Scythians: and to prove the same he | a most approved and diligent Authour, beciteth Marcus Portius Cato, who avoweth ginneth in that place with these words: Fathat 250. years before Ninus, the Earth was bulantur Scytha, The Scythians Fable: and overflown with Waters, Et in Scythia Saga his Interpreter in the table of that work, renatum mortale genus; And that in Scythia giveth this Title to that very Chapter; Serthe flock of mortal men was renewed. The same tharum origo & successive, fabula; The original Author also teacheth, that the Umbri before and success of the Scythians a Fable. And (inremembred (who were so called, because sa- deed) there needs no great disproof hereof, ved from Deucalions Floud) were the Sons of fince Ptolemy doth directly delineate Scythia the Galli.a Nation of the Scythians. Ex his ve- Saga. or Saca, and lets them in 130. degrees nille Janum cum Dyrim, & Gallis progenito- of longitude: and the Persians (faith Herodoribus Umbrorum; From these Scythians, he lus) call all the Scythians, Sace; which Pliny confirms: for in respect that these Sace (faith the Gallithe progenitours of the Umbri: And Pliny) are the Scythians next to the Persians, therefore they gave all the rest that name. L. 6.66. Now, that any Nation in Armenia can neighbour the Persians, there is no man believeth. But this supposed Scythia Araxea in Armenia that those Regions called Scythia, and now lieth in 78. degrees of longitude (that is) 42. Tartaria, and by some Writers Sarmatia Asi- degrees distant from the Saca; and the atica, were among the first peopled: and Countrey about Araxes Ptolemy calleth Colthey held the greatest part of Asia under thene, and soducene, and sacapene, without Tribute till Ninus Time. Also Pliny called any mention of Scythia at all: and yet all the Umbri which long fince inhabited Italy, those which are, or were reputed Soythians Gens antiquissima, a most ancient Nation, who either within Imaus, or without, to the numdescended of these scythians. Now, that ber of 100. several Nations, are by Ptolemy Tab. Size $

phews of Noah) did first inhabit that Region whereof some have written, others have seen of the Mountains, on which the Ark refted; a great part of those North-East Regions, and confessing that this great Ship was and searched their Antiquities with great digrounded in Armenia, he feigneth a Nation ligence: First, Marius Niger boundeth Seyof Seythians called Araxea, taking name of thia within Imaus, in this manner: (for Seythe Mountain Ararat, near the River of A- thia without these Mountains, is also beyond raxes. And because his Author Cato helpeth our purpose) Scythia inter Imaum montem ea him in part (to wit, That in Scythia man- eft, qua proprio vocabulo Gaffaria hoc tempore kind was restored after the great Floud 250. dicitur: ab Occasu Sarmatia Asiatica: ab Orienyears before Ninus) and in part utterly de- | telmao Monte: à Septentrione terra cognita: à stroyeth his conceit of Armenia, by adding Meridie Saccis, Sogdianis, Margianis, usque the word Saga; as, In Scythia Saga rena- oftia Oxa amnis in Hyrcanum mare exeuntis: 6 tum mortale genus ; In Scythia Saga, mankind Parte ipsius maris hinc usq; ad Rhasluminis ostia was restored : he therefore in the Prowne of terminatur: Scythia within the Mountain Imahis Commentary upon Berosus, leaveth out us is that part of the World which in their own Tiol. After the addition of Saga altogether in the repe- speech is at this time called Gassaria; and the tition of Cato his words, and writes, homines Jame is bounded on the West-side by Sarmatia Ain Scythia salvatos. For Scythia Saga, or Sa- Statica, (or of Asia:) on the East, by the Imaan ca, is undoubtedly under the Mountains of Mountains: on the North, by unknown Lands: Parapinifus; on which, or near which it on the south, by the Sacca (which are the Sais most probable that the Ark first took | ce) the Sogdiani, and the Margiani, to the ground : and from those East parts (accord- month of Oxus, falling into the Hyrcan Sea, ing to Moses ) came all those companies and by a part of the same Sea as farr as the Rha. Now Gen. 1. 2. which erected the Tower of Babel in Shinaar mouth of Rha.

Now, if Niger fets all Sarmatia Aliatica But now, the best authority which Annius to the West of Scythia, then Sarmatia (que com. s. hath, is out of Diodorus: where he hath magna fand Regio eft, & que innumeras natio-472. nes complectitur Which is a great Region, commenians, taking name à Scytha Rege eo- prehending innumerable nations, faith Niger) rum, from Scytha their King. But (in a word) much of it being between Scythia and Arwe may fee his vanity, or rather (indeed) his menia, doth sufficiently warrant us, that Arfalshood in citing this place. For Diodorus, menia can be no part of Scythia; and to admir make it more plain, he differenth Sarmatia | being part of that Septhia which Ptolemy cal-

he leaveth on the right hand of Sarmatia, infact in and yet makes Sarmatia but the West bound of Scythia. And for Paulus Venetus, he hath not a word and pane of Armenia among the Tartarian or Scythian terra col. Nation; neither doth his fellow Frier John Assilfer Plancarpio (cited by Vincentius in his de-fifth) in the year 1307. published. non of Cracovia in Polonia) a Sarmatian born, at Augusta in the year 1506. as Bucholand that travailed a great part of Sarmatia zerus in his Chronologie witnefieth. Now Afatica, find Armenia any way within the these Scythians (faith he) came from the Easts compals of Tartaria, Scythia, or Sarmatia; for in the East it was, that the Ark of Noah and yet no man (whose Travails are extant) rested, and the Seythe Sacre were those peohath observed so much of those Regions as ple which lived at the North soot of those he hath don: proving and disproving many things, heretofore subject to dispute. And among others he burieth that antient and rethe great Imans. And were there no other ceived opinion, That out of the Mountains, Riphei, and Hyperborei in Septhia, fpring the Earth now extant, and the witness of Ptolemy, Rivers of Tanais or Don; Volga or Edel; proof Mulcovia known to every Merchant, and that they arise out of Lakes, low, wooddy, and marish grounds. The River of Tanais or Don, ariseth to the South of the City Tulla, some twenty English miles, out of a Lake called Imanomesero, in the great Wood Okenitzkilies or Jepiphanolies. Volga, which Ptolemy calls Rha, and the Tartars call Edel, rifeth out of a Lake called Fronow, in the great Wood Vodkonzki: from which Lake the two other famous Rivers flow of Bory-Sthenes (now Neyper) and Dsuina or Dividna. Signete And this learned Polonian doth in this fort bound the European Sarmatia. In Sarmatia of Europe are the Regions of Russians, Lithuanians, Muscovians, and those adjoyning, bounded on the West by the River of Vije, the Vine or Raysin did not grow naturally the Wire Viftula, a River which parts Germania and of the Arke was supposed: for if the Vine Sarmatia: and for the East-Dorder ne name in was a strange in the Countries thither, it is brought Tanais, or Don. Sarmatia Affatica he cutteth brought from other Countries thither, it is Pennida from Europe by the same River of Tanais, not probable that it grew naturally in Arme-it self from any part of Armenia, by the Re- leth Stylkia intra Imaum montem: Seythia gran gions of Colchis, Iberia, and Albania, which within the Mountain Imans. And the same Southians (which Frier Annius would make Armenians) came not into Sarmatia Aliatica it felf above three hundred and a few odd years before his own time: these be his words: Conftat cam effe gentem novam, & adventitiam à partibus Orientis (mutatis sedibus) feription of Scythia) make any mention of paulo plus abbine trecentis annis Alfa Sarma-Armenia; neither doth Hayloms, an Armeni- tiam imgressam: It is manifest (shith he,speakan born of the bloud of those Kings (though ing of the Seythian Nation) that this is a late afterwards a Monk ) ever acknowledg planted Nation, come from the coafts of the himself for a Tartarian, or of the Scythian East: from whence they entred into Asia, egat Races descended: though he writ that story new seats a little more then 300. years since: at large, gathered by Nicolaus Salcuni, and For (indeed) before that time the Goths or (by the commandement of Pope Clement the Poulves inhabited Sarmatia Affatica. And this Matthias lived in the year 1511. and Neither doth Matthias a Michon (a Ca- this his Elicourse of sarmatia was Printed Mountains, of Taurus or Ararat, where they encounter or begin to mix themselves with testimony then the general description of the it is plain, that between all parts of Armenia, ving by unanswerable experience, that there and scythia, there are not only those three are no such Mountains in rerum natura; Regions of Colchis, Iberia, and Albania, but and (indeed) the Heads and Fountains of the Calpian Sea: on the East shore of which those famous Rivers are now by the Trade Sea, but not on the West, or on that part which any way toucheth Armenia, there are (indeed)aNation of scythians (called Ariaca) between Jaxartus and Jactus; but what are thefe Scythians to any Ariaca, or Scythia Araxea, which Annius placeth in Armenia, more then the Scythians of Europe?

||. VIII.

The fifth Argument, The Vine must grow naturally neer the place where the Arke

O this if we add the confideration of this part of the Text, That Noah plan- Gen 9 :0. ted a Vineyard, we shall find that the fruit of the Name perchance mil-printed Vissa for in that part of Armenia, where this refting Sarmatia: and for the East-border he nameth | was a stranger in Italy and France, and Plate and the Castian Sea, to with hold it from nia, being a far colder Country. For 197ftretching farther East: this Afian Sarmatia rhenns first brought Vines into France, and Brennus and the Gauls invaded Italy, there out, to make it true or probable, that the were few or no Vines in France. For (faith Ark of Noah was forfaken by the waters on Plutarch in the life of Camillus) the Gaules re- the Mountains of Armenia. For the Text mained between the Pyrenai and the Alpes, hath only these words: The Ark rested on (or neer unto the Senones, where they conti- upon) the Mountains of Ararat, or Armenia. inhabite that Country, which brought forth piphanius. Now this Ararat (which the senfuch pleasant Fruit: so as it appeareth, that tuagint do not convert at all, but keep the the Plant of the Vine was not natural in same word) is taken to be a Mountain of Ar-France, but from Italy brought thither; as menia; because Armenia it self had antienrby Saturn from elfe-where into Italy.

The first Book of the first Part

not far to seek out the Vine. For the Planta- suppose exceeded all other) is the opinion tion thereof is remembred, before there was taken, That the Ark first fate thereon. any counsel how to dispose of the World athat he was a Husband-man, and not a wanderer.

II. IX.

the Text: The Lord Cattered them from

Nd that all the children of Noah came A together into Shinaar, it doth not appear, faving that it may be inferred out of these words (from thence) because it is written: So that the Lord scattered them [from thence | upon all the Earth; which hath no other fense, but that the Lord scattered them (to wit) those that built this Tower: for those were from thence dispersed into all the Regions of the North and South, and to the Westward. And by these words of Sybilla (as they be converted) it feemeth that all came not together into Shinaar; for they have this limitation: Quidam corum turrem ædificarunt altissimam, quasi per eam Cælum effent ascensuri: Certain of them built a most high Tower, as if they meant thereby to have scaled the Heavens.

| X.

An answer to the objection of the name of Ararat, taken for Armenia: and the heighth of the Hills there.

Saturnus into Latium: yea at fuch times as Scripture, and what reason may be found neer unto the Senones, where they could have a long time, until they drunk Wine, faith the Marginal Note of the Geneva: the Geneva: the senones a long time, until they drunk Wine, faith the Marginal Note of the Geneva: the senones are the senones as the senones are the senones as the senones are the senones as the senones are the senones as the senones are the sen which was first brought them out of Italy; Chaldean Paraphrass calls it Kardu; of which, 1-ton, and after they tasted thereof, they hasted to the highest hath the name of Inbar, saith E-uani. ly that name: fo as first out of the name. Now it is manifest, that Noah travailed and secondly out of the heighth (which they

But these suppositions have no foundatimong his children: and the first thing he on: for neither is Ararat of Armenia alone, did, was, to till the ground, and to plant a neither is any part, or any of those Moun-Vine-yard, after the Sacrifice and Thanks tains of equal stature to many other Moungiving to God; and wherefoever the Arke tains of the World; and yet it doth not folrested, there did the Vine grow naturally. low, that the Ark found the highest Moun-From whence it doth no where appear, that tain of all other to rest on: for the Plains he travailed far: for the Scriptures teach us, were also uncovered before Noah came out of the Ark. Now, if there were any agreement among Writers of this Ararat, and that they did not differ altogether therein, we might give more credit to the conceit. For in the Books of the Sybils it is written, that the An answer to an objection out of the words of Mountains of Ararat are in Phrygia, upon which it was supposed that the Ark stayed thence upon the face of the whole earth. after the Floud. And the better to particularize the place and feat of thefe Mountains, and to prove them in Phrygia and not Armenia; they are placed where the City of Cælenes was afterward built. Likewise in the same description she maketh mention of Marfyas, a River which runneth through part of Phrygia and afterward joynethit felf with the River Meander, which is far from the Gordiean Mountain in Armenia. We may also find a great mistaking in Josephus (though out of Berosus, who is in effect the Father of this opinion) that Josephus sets Ararat between Armenia and Parthia, toward Adiabene, and affirmeth withall, that in the Province of Caron (by others Kairos and Arnos, so called by reason that the waters have from thence no descent, nor issue out) the people vaunt that they had in those days reserved some pieces of Noahs Ark. But Parthia toucheth no where upon Armenia; for Armenia bordereth Adiabene, a Province of Asyria: so that all Media and a part of Asyria is between Parthia and Armenia. Now whereas the discovery of the Mountains Cordiei was first borrowed out of Berosus by 70-DUt before I conclude this part, it is neces- sephus; yet the Text which Josephus citeth out fary to see and consider what part of of Berosus differs far from the words of that Berofus, which wandereth up and down in ther suppositions, that the Mountains of Gortheir days let out by Annius. For Berofus cited diei, otherwife Baris, Kardu or Lubar (which by Josephus, hath these words: Fertur & navi- Ptolemy calleth Torgodiaion) are the highest gii bujus pars in Armenia apud montem Cordia- of the World, the same is absolutely falle. orum superesse. & quosdam Bitumen inde abra-

||. XI.

Of Caucasus, and divers far higher hills than the Armenian. Or the best Cosmographers, with other, vers other Mountains even in that part of the World, and else where: as the Mountain Athos between Macedon and Thrace, which Ptolemy calls Olympus, now called Lacas, (faith Castaldus) is far surmounting any Mountain that ever hath been feen in Armemia: for it casteth shade three hundred furlongs, which is feven and thirty miles and Plut Munt. upwards: of which Plutarch; Athos adum- com. brat latera Lemnia bovis: Athos shadoweth the Com of Lemnos. Also the Mount of Olympus in Thessalie, is said to be of that height, as neither the Winds, Clouds, or Rain overtop it. Again, the Mountain of Antandrus in knowledg, nor from any approved Author: ny in Armenia, and may be feen from Conan Historian, as wise men neither report af- possint : Opon this Coast there is a Mountain ter it, nor give credit to any thing they re- called Atlas, whose heighth is said to be such, as the eye of no mortal man can discern the top Furthermore, these Mountains which Pto- thereof. And if we may believe Aristotle, lemy cals Gordiei, are not those Mountaines then are all these inseriour to Cancasus, which which himself giveth to Armenia, but he he maketh the most notorious both for breadth and height : Caucasus Mons, omnium maximus, qui aftivum ad ortum sunt acumine atq; latitudine, cujus juga à Sole radiantur ufq; ad conticinium ab ortu: & iterum ab occasu: Coucasus (saith Aristotle) is the great- Ais, Mu.

est. Mountain both for breadth and height of all cor. 1. 1. which are called Moschici, firetched along to those in the North-east, whose tops are lightned a 13. the higher part of Pontus of the Cappadocians : by the Sun-beams (ufq; ad conticinium) which alfo the Hill which is called Paryardes: which is, faith Macrobius, between the first crowing Pla. 1. 6. Mountains Pling calleth Pariedri, and both after mid-night and the break of day : Others affirm, that the top of this Mountain holds the Sun-beams when it is dark in the Valley; but I cannot believe either, for the highest Mountain of the World known, is that of Tenerife in the Canaria: which although it hath nothing to the Westward of it for 1000. Leagues together but the Ocean Sea, sum secum reportare, quo vice amuleti loci hujus homines uti solent: (which is) It is reported also that a part of this ship is yet remaining in Armenia upon the Cordican Mountains; and that divers do scrape from it the Bitumen or Pitch, and carrying it with them, they use it in flead of an amulet. But Annius his Edition that have feen the Mountains of Armenia of the Fragment of Berofus uleth these words: find them far inferiour, and under-set to di-Nam elevata ab aquis in Gordia montis vertice quievit, cujus adbuc dicitur aliqua pars esse, & homines ex illa Bitumen tollere quo maxime utuntur ad expiationem: For the whole Arke being lifted up by the waters, rested on the top of the Gordiaan Mountaines, of which it is reported that some parts remain, and that men do carry thence of the Bitumen to purge by Sacrifice therewith: fo as in these two Texts (besides the difference of words) the name is diverly written. The antient Berosus writes Cordiai with a (C) ; and the Fragment Gordiei with a (G): the one that the Bitumen is used for apreservative against Poyson or Inchantment; the other, in Sacrifice. And Mysia, not far from Ida, whence the River if it be faid that they agree in the general, scamandrus floweth, which runneth through yet it is reported by neither from any certain Troy, is also of a far more admiration than a-for one of them, uleth the word (fertur) the fantinople. There are also in Mauritania other (dicitur); the one, that fo it is reported, neer the Sea, the famous Mountains of Atlas, the other, that fo it is faid; and both but of which Herodotus: Extat in hoc mari Mons by hear-fay, and therefore of no authority cui nomen Atlas, it a sublimis esse dicitur ut ad nor credit. For common bruit is so infamous illius verticem oculi mortalium pervenire non ceive from it.

CHAP. VII.

calleth the Mountains of Armenia, Moschici. These be his jown words: Montes Armenia nominantur ii, qui Moschici appellantur, qui nd. Asia protenduntur usque ad superjacentem partem ub. Ponti Cappadocum; & Mons qui Paryardes dicitur: The Mountains of Armenia are they which ly to the North of Gordini or Baris, in 43. and 44. and a half; and the Gordican Mountains in 39. and a halfe. from the Northermost of which did the Georgians take their names, who were first Gordians, and then Georgians, who amidft all the firength of the greatest Infidels of Persia and Turkie, do still remain Christians. Concerning the o- yet doth it not enjoy the Sun's company at any fuch late hours. Befides these Mountains which Ariftotle calleth Cancasi, are those which separate Colchis from Iberia; though (indeed) Caucajus doth divide both Colchis, Iberia, and Albania from Sarmatia: for he acknowledgeth that the River of Phalis rifeth in the same Mountain, which himself calleth Caucasus, and that Phasis springeth from those Hills which funder Colchis from Iberia, falling afterward into Euxinus: which River (it is manifest ) yieldeth it felf to the lihall wound the Truth it felf with the wea-Sea, two degrees to the North of Trapezus (now Trabefunda) howfoever Mercator bring it from Paryardes.

_3

||. XII.

Of divers incongruities if in this Story we Should take Ararat for Armenia.

O as it doth first appear, that there is no Certainty what Mountain Ararat was: for Berofus in Armenia: and as for Berofus authat borrow from thence.

Secondly, that Baris was the highest Hill, and therefore most likely that the Arke grounded thereon, the affertion and suppofition have equal credit: for there are many Hills which exceed all those of Armenia; on the highest. Thirdly, it cannot be proved that there is any fuch Hill in Armenia, or in rerum natura, as Baris: for Baris (faith Hierom) fignifieth high Towers; and so may all high Hills be called indifferently: and therefore we may Caucasus (out of which Indus riseth) then to of Alia.

Fourthly, the Authors themselves do not agree in what Region the Mountains Gordiei frand: for Ptolemy diftinguisheth the Mountains of Armenia from the Gordiaan. and calleth those of Armenia, Moschici and Paryardes, as aforesaid. Now Paryardes is out of the East-side, Araxis: and the Mountains Moschici are those Hills which disjoyn Colchis, Iberia, and Albania (now the Country of the Georgians) from Armenia.

| XIII.

is no marvail that the sameLedg of Hills running from Armenia to India, Should keep the same name all along : and even in India be called Ararat.

Aftly, we must blow up this Mountain Ararat it felf, or else we must dig it down, and carry it out of Armenia, or find it elsewhere, and in a warmer Country, and (withal) set it East from shinaar; or else we pons of our own vain imaginations.

Therefore to make the mistaking open to every eye, we must understand, that Ararat (named by Mofes) is not any one Hill, so called, no more then any one Hill among those Mountains which divide Italy from France, is called the Alps: or any one among those which part France from Spain is the Pyrenian: But as these, being continuations of many Hills, keep one name in divers Countries, so the Books of the Sybils fet it in Phrygia, and all that long Ledg of Mountains, which Pliny calleth by one name Taurus, and Ptolemy both hisdited thority, those men have great want of proofs Taurus, Niphates, Coatras, Coronus, Sariphi, tood until they encounter and cross the Mountains Lycia. of the great Imaus, are of one general name, and are called the Mountains of Ararat or Armenia, because from thence or thereabout they feem to arife. So all these Mountains of Hyrcania, Armenia, Coraxis, Caspii, Moschici, Amazonici, Heniochi, Scythici, (thus diverfly and if they did not, yet it doth not follow (as is before written) that the Ark should sit called by Pliny and others) Prolemy calls by one name Caucafus, lying between the Seas Caspium and Euxinus: as all those Mountains which cut afunder America, even from the new Kingdom of Granado, to the streight of Magellan, are by one name called Andes. And as these Mountains of Ararat run East better give the name of Baris to the Hills of and West, so do those marvailous Mountains of Imans stretch themselves North and South; and being of like extent well-neer, fus in the East, are undoubtedly the highest are called by the name of Imans, even as Pliny called these former Hills Taurus, and Mofes the Hills of Ararat. The reason of feveral names given by Ptolemie, was, thereby the better to distinguish the great Regions and Kingdoms, which these great Mountains bound and differer; as Armenia, Mesopotamia, Asyria, Media, Susiana, feated near the middle of Armenia, out of Persia, Parthia, Caramania, Aria, Margiwhich on the West-fide rifeth Euphrates, and ana, Bactria, Sogdiana, and Paropanifus: having all these Kingdoms, either on the North or South fide of them. For all the Mountains of Asia (both the less and the greater) have three general names, (to wit) Taurus, Imaus, and Cancasus: and they receive other titles, as they sever and divide particular Places and Regions. For these Mountains which of the contrary situation of Armenia, to funder Cilicia from the rest of Asia the less, on the place noted in the Text: and that it the North-fide, are called Taurus; and those

CHAP. VII.

Mountains called Tanrus, running East and highest Mountains of that part of the World West, as Imaus doth North and South. Through Taurus, the River of Euphrates forceth her passage, leaving the name of Amanus to the Mountains on her West-bank, and on her East-side the Mountains are sometimes known by the name of Taurus, (as in Ptolemie's three Tables of Asia) and sometimes Niphates (as in the fourth) retaining that uncertain appellation fo long as they bound Armenia from Mesopotamia : and after the River of Tygris cutteth them afunder, they then take the name of Niphates altogether, untill they separate Asyria and Media; but then they call themselves Coatras, though between the upper and nether Media, they do not appear, but altogether discontinue. For at Mazada in Media they are not found, but run through the Eastern Media by pieces: in the middle of which Region they call part Coronus; out of the Southern part whereof the River of Bagradus rifeth, which | bigness at Escol. divideth the ancient Persian from Caramania: and then continuing their course Eastward by the name of Coronus, they give to the Parthians and Hyrcanians their proper Countries. This done, they change themselves into the Mountains of Sariphi, out of which riseth the River Margus, afterward yielding her self to Oxus (now Abia:) and drawing now near their ways end, they first make themselves the South border of Bactria, and are then honoured with the Title of Paropanifus; and lastly, of Caucasia, even where the famous River of Indus, with his principal companions, Hydasiis and Zaradrus, spring forth and take beginning. And here do these Mountains build themselves exceeding menia it self sometime is known by the name high, to equal the strong Hills called Imaus of Scythia, which encounter each other in 35, 36, and 37. degrees of Latitude, and in 140. of Longitude: of the which the West parts are now called Delanguer, and the rest Nagracot; and these Mountains in this place onely are properly called Cancasi (saith Ptolemie) that is, between Paropanisus and Imaw: and improperly, between the two Seas of Caspium and Pontus.

N. XIV.

Of the best Vine naturally growing on the South fide of the Mountain Caucafi, and toward the East-Indies: and of other excellencies of the foil.

JOw, in this part of the World it is, where the Mountain and River Janus,

Mountains which part it from Comsgens (a | and the Mountain Nyfeus, (fo called of bac-Province of Spria) are called Amanus: the chus Nyfeus, or Noah) are found: and on these did Goropius Becanus conceive that the Ark of Noah grounded after the Floud; of all his conjectures the most probable, and by best reason approved. In his Indo-scytkia he hath many good Arguments, though mixt with other fantastical opinions of this subject. And as the same Becanus also noteth, that as in this part of the World are found the best Vines: foit is as true, that in the same Line, and in 34, 35, and 36. degrees of Septentrional Latitude are the most delicate Wines of the World, namely, in Judea, Candia, and other parts of Greece: and likewise in this Region of Margiana: and under these Mountains Strabo affirmeth, that the most excellent Vines of the World are found; the clusters of Grapes containing two Cubits of length: and it is the more probable, because this place agreeth in Climate with that part of themselves Orontes, and towards the East Palestina, where the fearchers of the Land, by Moses direction, found bunches of equal

of the History of the World.

The fruitfulness of this place (to wit) on the South bottom of these Hills, Curtius witnesseth. For in Margiana, near the Mountains of Meros, did Alexander feast himself and his Army ten days together, finding the most delicate Wine of all other.

||. X V. The Conclusion, with a brief repeating of divers chief points.

Nd therefore to conclude this opinion of Ararat. But as Pliny giveth to this Ledge of high Hills, even from Cilicia to Paraponifus and Cancasus, the name of Taurus: and as the Hills of France and Germany are called the Alps: and all between France and Spain the Pyrenes: and in America the continuation of Hills for 3000 miles together, the Andes: fo was Ararat the general name which Moses gave them; the diversity of appellations no otherwise growing, than by their dividing and bordering divers Regions, and divers Countreys. For in the like case do we call the Sea, which entreth by Gibraltar, the Mediterrane and in-land Sea; and yet where it washeth the Coasts of Carthage, and over against it, it is called Tyrrhenum: between Haly and Greece, Ionium: from Venice to Durazzo, Adriaticum: between Athens and Asia, Ageum: between sestus and Aby-with it no subsequent inconvenience or contrariety) we ought to be wary, how we fancie to our felves any new or strange exposition; And (withall) to refolve our selves, that every word (as aforefaid) hath his weight in Gods Book. And therefore we must respect and reverence the testimonies of the Scriptures throughout, in fuch fort as Saint Augustine hath taught us, touching the Gospel of Christ Jesus (which is) Nequis aliter accipiat ( quod narrantibus Discipulis Christi) in Evangelio legerit, quam si psam manum Dei, quam in proprio corpore gestabat, conspexerit; That no man otherwise take or understand that which he readeth in the Gospel (the Disciples of Christ having written it)than if he had feen the very hand of the Lord, which he bare in his own body, setting it down.

CHAP. VIII.

100

out controversie, that Nimrod, and all with therefore the Ark of Noah rested and took where he teacheth the plantation of Jostan, he nameth Sephar, a Mountain in the East: where he remembreth Cains departure from the presence of God, he addeth; And Cain dwelt in the Land of Nod towards the East-side dus, Hellesfont: and afterward Pontus, Pro- went forth journeying towards the South: also pontis, and Bolphorus. And as in these, so is when Ezekiel prophecieth of Gog and Ma-Exekiel the Ocean to the North-east part of Scotland gog, he sheweth that these Nations of Togorcalled Deucaledonycum: and on this side, the ma were of the North-quarters: and of the Brittain Sea: to the East, the Germane and Queen of Saba it is written, that she came Ballick, and then the Frezen.

For a final end of this Question, we must appeal to that Judge which cannot erre, even from the South to wift Solomon: And the Mandal, appeal to that Judge which cannot erre, even fer preferns unto Christ. And that all Regions, to the Word of Truth, which in this place is and these travels were precisely set down to be taken and followed according to the upon the points of the Compaß and Quarplain sence: seeing it can admit neither diplain sence: seeing it can admit neither diplain sence: seeing it can admit neither diplain sence is seen admit neither diplain sence is sentenced by the sence is sentenced by the sence is sentenced by the sentence is sentenced by the senten stinction, nor other construction than the Eden was due East from Judea; Saba South words bear literally, because they are used from Hierusalem: the way from Bethel to Eto the very same plain purpose of a descripti- grpt directly South; and the Calocyrians, the on, and the making of a true and precise dif- Tubalines, and Magogians inhabited the Regiference of places. Surely, where the fence is ons directly North from Palestina, and fo of plain (and being so understood, it bringeth the rest. But Armenia answereth not to this description of Shinaar by Moles. For to come out of Armenia, and to arrive in that Valley of Babylonia, is not a journeying from the East, nor so near unto the East as the North: for Armenia is to the West of the North it it felf; and we must not say of Moses (whose hands the holy Ghost directed) that he erred toto celo, and that he knew not East from West. For the body of Armenia standeth in fourty three degrees Septentrional, and the North part thereof in fourty five; and those Gordiaan Mountains, whereon it was suppofed that the Ark rested. Stand in fourty one. But Babylonia, and the Valley of Shinaar are fituated in thirty five; and for the Longitude (which maketh the difference between East and West) the Gordinan Mountains stand in 75. degrees, and the Valley of shinaar in 79. The words then of Moses, which end this and 80. And therefore Armenia lieth from Dispute, are these: And as they went from the Shinaar North-west, 95, degrees from the East, they sound a Playn in the Land of Shinaar, East; and if Armenia had been but North, and there they abode: which proveth with- yet it had differed from the East one whole quarter of the Compais. But Gregory, and him, came from the East into Shinaar; and Hierome warn us, In Scripturis ne minima differentia omitti debet : nam singuli sermones. land to the East-ward thereof. For we must fillaba, apices, & punta in divina Scriptura remember, that in all places wheresoever plena funt sensibus; In the Scriptures the leaft Moses maketh a difference of Countreys, he difference may not be omitted: for every speech. always precisely nameth toward what quar- sillable, note, or accent, and point in divine ter of the World the same were seated : as Scriptures are replenished with their meanings. And therefore feeing Mofes teacheth us that the children of Noali came from the East, we may not believe Writers (of little authority) who also speak by hear-fay, and by report, Ut fertur, & ut dicitur, as Berofus and Nicoof Eden: And when he describeth the Tents laus Damascenus, determining herein withand Habitations of Abraham, after he de- out any examination of the Text, at all adparted from sechem, he useth these words; venture. But this is infaflibly true, that shi-Gen. 4. 16. Afterwards removing thence unto a Mountain maar lyeth West from the place where the East-ward from Bethel, he pitched his Tents: Ark of Noah refted, after the Floud; and Gen.12. 8. having Bethel on the West-fide, and Har on the therefore it first found ground in the East, East and afterward in the ninth Verse of the from whence came the first knowledges all fame Chapter, it is written; and Abraham things. The East parts were first civil, and directly East from Shinaar in the same ground and lived thereon. Placuit vero Nodegree of 35, are the greatest Grapes, and acho agricultura studium, in qua tractanda the best Wine. The great Armies also ipse omnium peritissimus esse dicitur : ob eamwhich overtopped in number those Millions que rem sua insua is lingua Ish-Adamath (boc est) of Semiramis, prove, that those parts were telluris vir appellatur celebratusque est, The stinof semiranis, proces that the pattern of the Planted. And whereas the other opinion hath neither Scripture nor Reason sufficions that the learned man Arias Montanis' in the on hath neither Scripture nor Reason sufficient: for my felf I build on his words, who knowledg and order of which it is faid that in plain terms hath told us, That the Sons of Noah excelled all men: and therefore was he Noab came out of the East into Shinaar, and called in his own language, a man exercised in there they abode. And therefore did the the earth. Which also sheweth, that he was Ark rest on those Eastern Mountains, called by one general name Taurus, and by Moses self with the contentions beginning again in the Mountains of Ararat, and not on those the World, and among men, but stayed in his Mountains of the North-welt, as Berofus first destined places, and in that part of the World feigned, whom most part of the Writers have where he was first delivered out of the Prifollowed therein. It was, I fay, in the plen- fon of the Ark, whereinto God had committiful warm East where Noah rested, where ted him, to preserve him and mankind.

which had Noah himself for an instructor: the planted the Vine, where he tilled the no wanderer; and that he troubled not him-

CHAP. VIII.

Of the first planting of Nations after the Flould; and of the Sons of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japhet, by whom the Earth was re-peopled.

5. I. Whether Shem and Ham were elder then Japhet.

Ang. de Civa. Dei. 1. 16. c. 3. youngest: and herein the opinions of Writeriare divers. But this we find every where in the Scriptures, and especially in Moses, that there was never any respect given to the eldestinyears, but in virtue; as by the exam- the first of his three Sons, shem, Ham, and ples of Henoch, Abraham, Jacob, and David, Japhet : and in the fix hundreth year (to wit) 6th, 111 is made manifest. In a few words, this is the the hundreth year following, came the geground of the controverse; The Latine neral Floud; two years after which, Shein Translation, and so the Genera, hath converbegat Arphaxad, which was in the year 602. ted this Scripture of Genefis the 10. v. 21. in of Noah's life, and in the year of shem this these words: Unto Shem also the Father of all one hundred : so as shem was but an hunthe Sons of Heber, and elder brother of Japhet, were children born. But Junius, agreeing with the septuagint, placeth the same words in years old; and therefore were shem the elthis manner: To Shem also the Father of all der, he had then been an hundred years old the sons of Heber, and brother of Japhet the at, the Floud, and in the fix hundreth year eldest son, were children born : So the transpolition of the word (elder) made this dif- Which feeing the Scriptures before remem- 600.9. ference. For if the word (elder) had follow- | bred hath denied him, and that it is also 34 ed after Japhet, as it is in the vulgar Trallation placed before it, then had it been as plain for Japhet, as it is by these Translations him (to mit) Ham; of necessity the first place for shem. Now (the matter being otherwise doth belong to Japhet. This journey son, the indifferent) feeing Gods bleffings are not converted by the Vulgar and Geneva, Juni-

F these Sons of Noah, Which was tyed to first and last in bloud, but to the elthe eldest, there is a question dest in piety, yet the arguments are stronger made. St. Augufine efteemed for Jupher then for shem. And where the shem for the eldest, Ham for the Scriptures are plainly understood without dred years old, two years after the Floud: and Noah begat his first born being 500. of Noah's life, and not two years after. written: Then Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done unto but St. Chrysoftom takes it otherwise, and finds Cham to be the middle or fecond brother, and Japket the youngest son of all: which Cham for his disobedience and the contempt of his Father (whose nakedness he derided) was dif-inherited, and lost the preeminency of his birth, as Esau and Ruben did. Pererius conceiveth that Ham was called the younger in respect of shem the eldest, but avoweth withal, that the Hebrew hath not that precise difference of younger and youngest, because it wanteth the comparative degree. It is true that shem himself was always named in the first place; yet whereas in the first Verse of the tenth Chapter of Genesis. Shem is accounted before Japhet, in the fecond Verse Moses leaveth to begin with the iffue by shem, and reciteth the children of Japhet first. So the first place was given to for this weighty respect, that the Hebrew Nation, Abraham, the Prophets, David, and Christ our Saviour were descended of him. And therefore, whether we shall follow the Vulgar Pagninus, and the Geneva, who agree in this conversion, Shem Frater Japher major; riss, Shem Frater Japhet ille magnus: inferring that shem was the great and famous brother of Japhet, let the Reader judg. But for ought that I have feen to the contrary, it appeareth to me that Japhet was the eldest. For where Pererius qualifieth the ftrength of the former argument, That Shem's age at the time of the Floud did not agree with the eldership (with a supposition that the Scriptures took no account of smaller numbers) I do not find in the Scriptures any fuch neglect at all: for it is written, that Shem was an hundred years old, and begat Argat Ebar, four bundred and three years, &c. so as the number of two years, of three years, of five years, and afterward of two years, were always precifely accounted.

The first Book of the first Part

6. II.

Of divers things that in all reason are to be pre-sumed, touching the first planting of the World; as that all Histories must yield to Moles: that the World was not planted all at once, nor without great direction: and that known great Lords of the first Ages mere of the iffue of Ham.

But let us go unto the Worlds plantation after the floud, which being rightly unus turns it filius minimus, His joungest son; derstood, we shall find that many Nations Ancestors and Fathers, which never saw or approched the bounds of their Countries, and of whom they are by no way or branch descended. For it is plain in the Scriptures how the sons and issues of Noah were distributed, and what Regions were first planted by them, from whence by degrees the rest of the world was also peopled. And if any prophane Author may receive allowance herein, the same must be with this caution, that they take their beginning where the Scriptures end. For so far as the story of Nations is therein handled, we must know, that both the truth and antiquity of the Books of God find no companions equal, either in age or authority. All record, memory, and testimony of antiquity whatsoever, which hath come to the knowledg of men, Shem for his election and benediction, and the same hath been borrowed thence, and therefore later than it, as all careful observers of time have noted: among which, thus writeth Eusebius in the Prowme of his Chronology; Mofes is found more antient than all those whom the Grecians make most antient, as Homer, Hefiod, and the Trojan War; and or with the Septuagint, Junius and Tremelius, far before Hercules, Museus, Linus, Chiron, Shem Fratris Japhet majoris; or with Perechus, Mercurius, and Apollo, and the reft of the Gods of the Nations, their Ceremonies, or holy Rites, or Prophets: and before all the deeds of Jupiter, whom the Greeks have seated in the top and highest Turret of their Divinity.

For of the three Jupiters remembred by Cicero, the antientest was the son of Æther ciewie whole three fons begotten on Proferpina, were ram. 1.1. born at Athens, of which Cecrops was the first King: and in the end of Cecrops time did Moses bring the children of Israel out of Egypt: Eduxit Moses populum Dei ex Egypto novissimo tempore Cecropis Atheniensis Regis; Moses phaxad two years after the floud; and again brought the children of Igrael out of Egypt in in the 12. Verle: so Shela lived after be be- the last days of Cecrops King of the Athenians, faith S. Angustine: and yet was not Ge period crops the Founder of that City it self, but The Dil L. I. few long after him. But because the truth . 13. hereof is diverfly proved, and by many learned Authors, I will not cut afunder the purpose in hand, by alledging many authorities in a needless question, but leave it to the proper place.

The Sons of Riphath, Gomer were, Togorma. Gomer. Magog, Madai. Javan, of 7a- Tubal, phet The Sons of ) Tarfhis. Meshach (Javan were, ) Kittim, and and (Dodonim. Tirm. Firft, nation, neither had the Children of Noah at Ur; and from thence (called by God) wings to fly from shinaar to the uttermost he rested at Charran in Mesopotamia: from border of Europe, Africa, and Asia, in haste, but that these Children were directed by a wife Father, who knew those parts of the World before the Floud, to which he difposed his children after it, and sent them not as discoverers, or at all-adventure, but affigned and allotted to every Son and their issues, fabulous Authours, who have no other end into Affria, and founded Ninevels. Indeed, in the fiction of Eneas) or else to glorifie know) were in that Age in the issues of Hams; their own nations 3 Let us build herein upon the bleffing of God given by Noah to Shem the Scriptures themselves, and after them, upon Reason and Nature. First therefore we of face the Earth every where had in the appointed. For of Chas, Mizraim, and Cana-130. year after the great Inundation, and by comparing those fruitfullest Valleys with our own barren and cold ground, inform our Egypt for many Descents together. felves thereby, what wonderful Defarts, what impassable fastness of woods, reeds, briers, and rotten grass; what lakes and standing pools, and what marishes, sens, & bogs, all the face of the Earth (excepting the Mountains) was pestered withall. For, if in this our Climate (where the dead and destroying Winter depresieth all vegetative 'and" growing Nature, for one half of the year in effect) yet in twenty or thirty years, these our grounds cording to the nature thereof) either with among whom the files of the Gentiles were

of the History of the World.

controlement. This being confidered, it will appear, that all these people which came into shinaar, and over whom Nimrod, either by order or ftrength, took the Dominion, did, after the confusion of Languages, and at such time as they grew to be a mighty People, disperse themselves into the Regions adjoyning to the faid Valley of Shinaar, which contained the best part of Mesopotamia, Babylonia, and Challea; and from the borders thereof in time they were propagated, some of them towards the South others towards the West lotted to shem many Regions, both East tick Sea, with that of Glaciale, to the North, and North. And although there were aland Welt from shinaar, with the Dominion North-east, and North-west. Besides, it of Paleffina, which the Canaanites first pos- hath about it all the Cyclades, or Isles lying left; yet could be not enjoy the Lot of his between Greece and the lefter Afia, and the Inheritance on the sudden, but by time and Isles of Rhodes, Cyprus, Crete, or Candia, Si-

First, we are to consider, that the World | degrees. For we find that Abraham, the after the Floud was not planted by imagi-true fuccessour of shem, dwelt in Chaldea, led to Sichem in Palestina: and yet there had palled between Shem and Abraham (reckoning neither of themselves) seven Dcicents, before Abraham moved out of Chaldea; where, and in Babylonia, all those people, by Nimrod commanded, inhabited for many years, and whence Nimrod went out years were confumed; and untill the time arrived, which by the wisdom of God was the great Kingdoms of Babylonia, Syria, and of the Isles of the Gentiles in Japhets Portion : of Berofus his too speedy seating Gomer the son of Japhet in Italy; and another of Japhets Sons, Tubal in Spain: and of the Antiquity of Longinque Navigation.

6. III.

O begin therefore (where Moses beginneth) with the Sons of Japheth, woods, or with other offensive thickets and divided: which division, as well to Japhets bulluments:much more did all forts of platts, Sons, as to the rest which came into Shinaar, reeds, and trees, prosper in the most truitfull was (if the division were made at Phalegs Valleys, and in the Climate of a long and birth) in the year of the World 1757. or warm Summer, and having withall, the start 1758, and (by that account) in the years of 130 years to raise themselves without after the Floud one hundred and one; of

The habitations proper to the Sons of Jahet were the Isles of the Gentiles, which include all Europe, with all the Isles adjoyning, and compaffing it about: Europe being also taken for an Island, both in respect that the Sea Hellespont and Egeum, Bosphorus, and Euxinus cut it off from the great Continent of Alia, as also because Europe it self is (in effect) furrounded with water, faving that it is fastned to Afia by the North; for it hath those Seas before named to the East, the Mediterrane to the South and South-west, the Ocean to the West, and Brittish, Germane, and Balfinds Cham to be the middle or second brother, and Japket the youngest son of all: which Cham for his disobedience and the contempt of his Father (whose nakedness he derided) was dif-inherited, and lost the preeminency of his birth, as Esau and Ruben did. Pererius conceiveth that Ham was called the younger in respect of shem the eldest, but avoweth withal, that the Hebrew hath not that precise difference of younger and youngest, because it wanteth the comparative degree. It is true that shem himself was always for this weighty respect, that the Hebrew Nation. Abraham, the Prophets, David, and Christ our Saviour were descended of him. And therefore, whether we shall follow the Vulit appeareth tome that Japhet was the eld- in the top and highest Turret of their Divinity. est. For where Pererius qualifieth the strength of the former argument, That Shem's were always precisely accounted.

102

6. II.

Of divers things that in all reason are to be presumed, touching the first planting of the World; as that all Histories must yield to Moses: that the World was not planted all The at once, nor without great direction: and that known great Lords of the first Ages mere of the iffue of Ham.

DUt let us go unto the Worlds plantation after the floud, which being rightly unus turns it filius minimus, His youngest son; derstood, we shall find that many Nations but St. Chrysoftom takes it otherwise, and have supposed or seigned themselves those Ancestors and Fathers, which never saw or approched the bounds of their Countries, and of whom they are by no way or branch descended. For it is plain in the Scriptures how the fons and iffues of Noah were distributed, and what Regions were first planted by them, from whence by degrees the rest of the world was also peopled. And if any prophane Author may receive allowance herein, the same must be with this caution, that they take their beginning where the Scriptures end. For so far as the story of Nanamed in the first place; yet whereas in the tions is therein handled, we must know. first Verse of the tenth Chapter of Genesis, that both the truth and antiquity of the shem is accounted before Japhes, in the fe- Books of God find no companions equal, eicond Verse Moses leaveth to begin with the ther in age or authority. All record, memoiffue by Shem, and reciteth the children of ry, and testimony of antiquity whatsoever. Japhet first. So the first place was given to which hath come to the knowledg of men, Shem for his election and benediction, and the same hath been borrowed thence, and therefore later than it, as all careful observers of time have noted: among which, thus writeth Eusebius in the Prowne of his Chronology: Moses is found more antient than all gar Pagninus, and the Geneva, who agree in those whom the Grecians make most antient, as this conversion, Shem Frater Japher major; Homer, Hesiod, and the Trojan War; and or with the septuagint, Junius and Tremelius, far before Hercules, Museus, Linus, Chiron, Orpheus, Castor, Pollux, Æsculapius, Bactius, Shem Frater Japhet ille magnus: inferring that shem was the great and famous the Gods of the Nations, their Ceremonies, or brother of Japhet, let the Reader judg. But holy Rites, or Prophets: and before all the for ought that I have feen to the contrary, deeds of Jupiter, whom the Greeks have feated

For of the three Jupiters remembred by Cicero, the antientest was the son of Ether circula. Itrength of the former argument, a nat snems street, the ancenter was the reference whose three sons begotten on Prosepina, were with name of the Floud did not agree whose three sons begotten on Prosepina, were name, is with the eldership (with a supposition that born at Athens, of which Cecrops was the first the Scriptures took no account of smaller King: and in the end of Cecrops time did numbers) I do not find in the Scriptures any Moses bring the children of Israel out of Egypt: fuch neglect at all : for it is written, that Eduxit Moles populum Dei ex Egypto novilli-Shem was an hundred years old, and begat Ar- mo tempore Cecropis Atheniensis Regis: Moses phaxad two years after the floud; and again brought the children of Ifrael out of Egypt in in the 12. Verle: So Shela lived after he be- the last days of Cecrops King of the Athenigat Ebar, four hundred and three years, &c. ans, faith S. Augustine: and yet was not Co petitile To as the number of two years, of three years, crops the Founder of that City it felf, but The Dallit. of five years, and afterward of two years, Jews long after him. But because the truth . 13. hereof is diverfly proved, and by many learned Authors, I will not cut afunder the purpose in hand, by alledging many authorities in a needless question, but leave it to the proper place.

The Sons of Riphath, Gomer, Gomer were, Togorma. Madai. Sons Tavan. of 7a-Tubal, Mefhach, The Sons of Tarfhis. phet (Javan were, ) Kittim, and and (Dodonim. First. CHAP. VIII. nation, neither had the Children of Noah at Ur; and from thence (called by God) wings to fly from Shinaar to the uttermost he rested at Charran in Melopotamia: from wings to my nome annual to the different in territory and a contrain in responsibility to the border of Europe, Africa, and Africa, in hafte, whence after the death of Thare he travelbut that these Children were directed by a led to Sichem in Palestina: and yet there wife Father, who knew those parts of the had passed between shem and Abraham posed his children after it, and sent them not seems, before Abraham moved out of Chalas discoverers, or at all-adventure, but affigned and allotted to every Son and their iffues, ple, by Nimrod commanded, inhabited for their proper parts. And not to hearken to fabulous Authours, who have no other end than to flatter Princes (as Virgil did Augustus in the fiction of Eneas) or else to glorifie their own nations; Let us build herein upon the Scriptures themselves, and after them, upon Reason and Nature. First therefore we must call to mind, and consider, what manner of face the Earth every where had in the 130. year after the great Inundation, and by comparing those fruitfullest Valleys with our own barren and cold ground, inform our felves thereby, what wonderful Defarts, what impassiable fastness of woods, reeds, briers, and rotten grass; what lakes and standing pools, and what marishes, sens, & bogs, all the face of the Earth (excepting the Mountains) was pestered withall. For, if in this our Climate (where the dead and destroying Winter depresent all vegetative and growing Nature, for one half of the year in effect) yet in twenty or thirty years, these our grounds would all over-grow and be covered (according to the nature thereof) either with woods, or with other offensive thickets and bushments:much more did all forts of plants, reeds, and trees, prosper in the most fruitfull Valleys, and in the Climate of a long and warm Summer, and having withall, the start of 130. years to raise themselves without controlement. This being confidered, it will appear, that all these people which came into shinaar, and over whom Nimrod, either by order or firength, took the Dominion, did, after the confusion of Languages, and at such time as they grew to be a mighty People, disperse themselves into the Regions adjoyning to the faid Valley of Shinaar, which contained the best part of Mesopotamia, Babylonia, and chaldea; and from the borders thereof in time they were propagated, some of them and North. And although there were all to the West, and British, Germane, and Baltowards the South others towards the West lotted to shem many Regions; both East tick Sea, with that of Glaciale to the North, and West from shimair, with the Dominion North-east, and North-west. Besides, it left; yet could he not enjoy the Lot of his between Greece and the lefter Afia, and the line in the fudden, but by time and lifes of Rhodes, Cyprus, Crete, or Candia, Siof Palestina, which the Canaanites first pof-

First, we are to consider, that the World | degrees. For we find that Abraham, the after the Floud was not planted by imagiinto Afyria, and founded Nineveh. Indeed, the great Masters of Nations (as far as we can know) were in that Age in the issues of Ham; the bleffing of God given by Noah to Shem and Japhet taking less effect, untill divers years were confumed; and untill the time arrived, which by the wisdom of God was appointed. For of Chas, Mizraim, and Canaan, came the People and Princes, which held the great Kingdoms of Babylonia, Syria, and Egypt for many Descents together.

s. III.

Of the Isles of the Gentiles in Japhets Portion: of Berofus his too speedy seating Gomer the son of Japhet in Italy; and another of Japhets Sons, Tubal in Spain: and of the Antiquity of Longinque Navigation.

O begin therefore (where Moses beginneth) with the Sons of Japheth, among whom the Isles of the Gentiles were divided: which division, as well to Japhets Sons, as to the rest which came into Shinaar, was (if the division were made at Phalegs birth) in the year of the World 1757. or 1758 and (by that account) in the years after the Floud one hundred and one; of which question else-where.

The habitations proper to the Sons of Japhet were the Isles of the Gentiles, which include all Europe, with all the Isles adjoyning, and compatting it about: Europe being also taken for an Island, both in respect that the Sea Hellespont and Ageum, Bosphorus, and Euxinus cut it offfrom the great Continent of Asa, as also because Europe it self is (in effect) furrounded with water, faving that it is fastned to Afia by the North; for it hath those Seas before named to the East, the Mediterrane to the South and South-west, the Ocean hath about it all the Cyclades, or Isles lying the part which he held in Asia, and the North, work. They also began this building upon a which was also very great, answereth to ground, the most oppressed with waters of Gen 9. 17. that bleffing of God by Noah Dilatet Deus Ja- all the world: as by the great ruine which photh; Let God spread abroad (or increase the these waters forcibly over-bearing and over-Posterity of ) Tapheth, and let him dwell in the flowing, made in the time of the succeeding Tents of Shem. For though Junius here useth Emperours, is made manifest; approved also the word alliciat, and not dilatet: and the by the Prophet Icremic, speaking of Babylon Geneva, persuadeat; yet the Septuagint have in these words: Thou that dwellest upon many dilatet, or amplificet; and such was the blef- maters. It cannot be doubted but that there fing given to our Fathers, which God pro-needed a substantial foundation for so high miled to Abraham and his feed for ever. And a raised building on a marish ground: and to the dwelling in the Tents or Tabernacles of which Glycas upon Genesis giveth fourty Shem was a bleffing by God to the Posterity years. For it seemeth that the Tower was of Tapheth: noting not onely an enlargement | near finished when God overthrew it: it beof Territories, but that thereby they should ing afterward written; So the Lord scattered be made participant of Gods Church. But to them from thence upon all the Earth, and they come to Taphets Sons, of whom Gomer is the left to build the city. Out of which place it cldest. This Gomer (if we may believe Bero- | may be gathered (because the Tower is not fus and Annius, whose authority the greatest then named) that they very near had pernumber of all our late Writers have followed) did in the tenth year of Nimrods Reign. depart from Babylonia, Explanted Italy: which they went on with the City adjoyning, also Functius confirmeth in these words. An-

and in the twelfth year of the same Nimrods selves: for from thence the Lord scattered 140. and in the 142. years after the Floud, according to Berofus. But this opinion is very World, (wanting all instruments and materidiculous: For before the confusion of rials) could be performed in ten years; and Tongues, the Children of Noah did not feparate themselves, at least so many of them as came with Nimrod into Shinaar. Let us therefore consider with reason, what time the light believers, that neither tye themselves building of fuch a City and Tower required, where there was no prepared matter, nor for I do not. And if the Ark of Noah was any ready means to perform such a work as 100. years in building, or but near such a Nimrod had erected (and as Functions himself time, (and then) when the World had stood out of his Authour Berofus witnesseth) ad altitudinem & magnitudinem Montium; To the and madness it self, to think that such a work height and magnitude of the Mountains. Sure as this could be performed in ten; when the that both this City and Tower was almost World (from the Floud to the arrival at builded, the Scriptures witness: but the Lord Babel, and beginning of this building there) came down to fee the City and Tower which the had but 131. years, and whereof they had Sons of men had builded. Let us then but frent fome part in travelling from the East. Brick to fuch a Work, of the greatest heighth in the building of the Temple of Diana, and (and therefore of circuit and foundation an- vet they confumed in that Work 400; years fwerable) that ever was. For where the uni- (or be it but half that time) and in figh an verfal Floud covered the highest Mountains Age as when the World flourished, in all fifteen Cubits; Let us build us a City and Tomer forts of Artificers, and with abundant plenty (faith Nimrod) whose top may reach unto the of materials and carriages: This Work of Heaven: meaning, that they would raise the Tower of Babel could hardly (with all their work above lifteen Cubits higher than the former wants supposed) be erected in cilia, Corsica, Sardinia, Malta, the Isles of the highest Mountain, otherwise they could Brittanie, and Zeland, with their young ones not assure themselves from the fear of a sedjacent.

Cond Inundation: a great part whereof was finispartition and portion of Japheth, with inspect of the partition and before they left the formed the work of their supposed defence. which was the Tower: and that afterward wherein they inhabited. It is also to be noted. no decimo Nimrodi, &c. In the tenth year of that till fuch time as this confusion seized Nimrods Reign, Gomerus Gallus planted a them (whereupon the Tower was thrown Colony in that Land afterward called Italy: down) these Nations did not disperse them-Reign, Tubal scated himself in Austuria in them upon all the Earth, (that was) when they Spain (now called Biscay) which was in the perceived not one anothers speech. Now, to ea. 11. think that this work, in the newness of the that Tubal and Gomerin the same year could creep through 2000 miles of Defart, with Women, Children, and Cattel: Let those to the Scripture, nor to reason, approve it. 1556. years; it were more than foolishness, allot a time fufficient for the making of Again, if all Asia set to their helping hands pliny.

themselves how impossible it was for a Na- and their own Shepherds and Herdsmen. tion or Family of men, with their Wives, and Now, if Tubal had palt by Sea from any part-Children, and Cattel, totravel 3000. miles of Palastina, Syria, or Silicia, he might have through Woods, Bogs, and Defarts, without any Guide or Conductor; and we shall find it rather a work of 100. years than of 100. days. For in the West Indies, of which the spaniards have the experience, in those la and Portugal, with all those goodly Ports places where they found neither path nor guide, they have not entred the Countrey ten miles in ten years. And if Nimrods people fpent many years by the account before remembred in passing from the East India, or the higher part thereof, which standeth in 115. degrees of Longitude, untill they came into Shinaar, which lieth in 79. degrees (the distance between those places containing 36. degrees, which makes 720. leagues, which is 2160 miles) and did all the way keep the Mountains and hard ground; then the difference between Babylon and Biscay is much more: for the body of Biscay lyeth in ten degrees, and Babylon, or Shivaar, (as aforefaid) in 79. fo the length of way from shinaar to Austuria, or Biscay, is 69. degrees, which make 1380. leagues, or of miles 4140. And therefore if Nimrod took divers years to find shimaar, which was but 2160 miles: or (fuppofing that the Ark refted in Armenia) little above 400 miles: there is no cause to the contrary, but to allow as many years to Gomer and Tubal to travel 3000, miles, to Countries less known unto them by far, than the Land of Shinaar was to Nimrod. For Paradife was known to Noah before the Floud and so was the Region of Eden by Moses afterward remembred; but what he underftood of most part of the world else it is unknown. And therefore did Annius ill advise the Carthaginians afterwards to have himself to plant Gomer in Italy, and Tubal in brought them to four Banks: the Quinque Spain, in the tenth and twelfth of Nimrods Remi first to have been used by Nesichthon Reign: shall the Earth be brought forth in one the Salaminian, with which Veffels, in those day, or (hall a Nation be born at once? But it may be objected, that the Sons of Japheth might come by Sea, and so save this great travel through Defarts by Land. But we never read of any Navigation in those days, nor frantly cast the devising of these Gallies on long after. Surely, he that knoweth what it sefofrie, though Semiramis used them in the is to imbarque so great a People, as we may justly suppose those Conductors carried with time. So it is said, that Danaus was the first eap, 56. them, will not eafily believe that there were any Veffels in those days to transport Armies, and (withall) their Cattel, by whose milk they lived, and fed their children: For milk and fruit were the banquetting diffies the Corinthians. And fo ignorant were the of our Fore-Fathers. And in the eldeft times, even the Kings and Fathers of Nations va-those few years remembred. And for con- of their Cattel: who had Flocks of Sheep, clusion, let all men of judgment weigh with and great Droves and Herds of their own, made good choice within the Streights, and not have overgone Granado, Valentia, and other Provinces in that Tract; past the Streights of Gibralter; disdained all Andahiand Countreys; and have fought out the Iron, Woody, and barren Countrey of the World (called Biscay) by a long and dangerous Navigation. But before the journey of the Argonauta, there were scarce any Veffels that durst cross the Seas in that part of the World: and yet that which Jason had (if the tale be true) was but a Galley, and a poor one (God knows) and perchance, fuch as they use this day in Ireland: which although it carried but four and fifty paffengers, yet it was far greater than any of the former times: Erat enim antea parvarum na- Diod. Sivicularumuss: For in former times they used cul. 1.4 c very friall veffels. I deny not but that the 4 folis. Tyrians gave themselves of old to far-off Na-vigations, whence Tiballus ascribed the invention of Ships to them: Prima ratem ventis credere docta Tyros. Tyrus knew first how Ships might; use leg. 7. the Wind.

And for those Boats called Longe naves. or Gallies, Pliny faith, that Egefias alcribeth nied Sithe device to Paralus: and Philostephanus to cut. 1. 1. Jason: Ctessas, to Samyras; and Saphanus, to Plin. L. . Semiramis: Archimachus, to Ageon: to which invention the Erythrai are faid to have added certain numbers of Oars: and then Ami- Thurid. nocles the Corinthian to have increased them: parts of the World, the Romans ferved themselves in the Punick War. But these be, perhaps, but the partialities of Writers, or their ignorance. For there are that as conpassage of her Army over Indus in Abrahams Plin. 1. 7. brought a Ship into Greece; and yet the Sa- prap. Emothracians challenge the invention: and vang. c. 1; yet Tertullian (on the contrary) gives it to Tert.de Co-Minerva: others, to Neptune; Thucydides, to ron mil. people of those Ages, as the Egyptians used to coast the shores of the Red-Sea upon rass, lued themselves by the Herds and numbers devised by King Erythrus and in the time of

(with which they crost the Seas) made of which also hath been and is received; yet I small twigs, and covered over with leather: hope I may be excused, if I differ altogether of which kind I have seen at the Dingle in from them in many particulars. Certainly, of which Lucan the Poet:

Primum cana salix, madefacta vimine parvam Texitur in puppim, casoque induta juvenco, Vectoris patiens tumidum supernatat amnem. Sic Venetus stagnante Pado, fusoque Britannus Navigat Oceano.

The moistned Ofver of the hoary Willow Is woven first into a little Boat: (billow Then cloath'd in Bullocks hide, upon the Of a proud River, lightly doth it float Under the Waterman: So on the Lakes of over-fwelling Poe Sails the Venetian : and the Britain fo On th'out-spread Ocean.

And although it cannot be denied, when Noah, by Gods inspiration, was instructed in fo many particulars concerning the Ark, that then many things concerning Navigation were first revealed; yet it appears that there was much difference between the Ark of Noah, and fuch Ships as were for any long Navigation. Yea, ancient Stories shew, that it was long after these times, ere any durst preperfection, such Voyages are very troubleiome and dangerous. So as it doth appear, that there was not in that Age of Nimrod any Ship, or use of Ships, fit for any long navigation. For, if Gomer and Tubal had passed themfelves and their people by Sea; the exercise of Navigation would not have been dead for fo many hundred years after. Leaving therefore the fabulous to their Fables, and all men else to their fancies, who have cast bability, nor possibility.

6. IV.

Of Gog and Magog, Tubal, and Meshech, seated first about Asia the Less; out of Ezechiel, rend men have formed (I know not the Magogians, or Calofyrians, next border-

the Romans, the Britans had a kind of Boat | whereby led) a Plantation of the World, Ireland, and else-where. Naves ex corio cir- that great Learned man of this latter Age, cumsuta in Oceano Britannico (saith Textor:) Arias Montanus, was also in some things much mistaken: and for Josephus, as he hath many good things, and is a Guide to many errours withall; so was he in the Plantation of the World very groß and fabulous; whereby both Eufebius, Hierosolymitamus, Epiphanius, and others, that have taken his testimonies for currant, have been by him far mis-led. But the better to conceive what Regions of the World Gomer the Son of Japheth possest, as also Tubal, it is needfull to begin with Magog: because the Scriptures take most knowledge of Gog and Magog: which two names have troubled many Commentators, faith Matth. Beroaldus, who hath laboured herein with great diligence, and whom (of all that ever I read) I find most judicious in the examination of this Plantation. He takes authority from the Prophet Ezechiel chiefly, who in the 28, and 39. Chapters directeth us, what Nations the Gomerians, Tubalines, and Togormians were, together with the Magogians: of which Gog was Prince, or chief Conductor in their Attempts against Israel. For besides the portions of Europe, and the North-east parts of fume upon any long voyages to Sea, at least with multitudes of Women, and Children, and Cattelas also common reason can tell us, that even now, when this Art is come to her (whom Executed Fresh of Sea, which Japheth Illues posterior and Cattelas also common reason can tell us, and that those of the lilue of Japheth that even now, when this Art is come to her (whom Executed Fresh of Sea, Were feated hereabout, it may best appear, if we consider the circumstances of the place, and the dependency upon the former Prophecie in the 37. Chapter. For in that 37. Chapter Exe, the 15. chief prophelieth of the uniting of the two v. 19. Kingdoms of Ifrael and Juda, after their delivery from Captivity.

By which Prophecie of Ezechiel, it appeareth, that God purposed to gather together his people, to give life to dead bones, and to Nations into Countrys far off, I know not rule them by one Prince. For to that purhow, I will follow herein the Relation of pole it is written; and David my Servant Moses and the Prophets: to which Truth shall be King over them, and they shall have one there is joyned both Nature, Reason, Policie, sheepherd, (that is) they shall be united as and Necessity: and to the rest, neither pro-38. Chapter; Exechiel prophelieth against those Nations, which should leek to impeach this Union, and diffurb the people of Ifrael, whom God purpoled to receive to grace, and promised to restore. And so in the same Chapter are those Nations coupled together, which infested the Ifraelites after their return, and fought to fubject them: all which TOw, although many learned and reverence the Subjects or Allies of Geg, Prince of rend men have formed (1 beau and 1 beau lefs, which lay North from Judea. The name of a Man: others, of a Region: others; leis, which lay Forth from Junual Inc. In anneol a Mation inhabiting a Region, as Junus; thy face against Gog, and against the Land of who sayes that Gog is the name of a Nation; Magog, the chief Princes of Methech (or Mo-denominated from him whom the Greeks (och) and Tubal: and afterward; Behold, I Stories call Giges: who informer time havcome against the chief Prince of Methech and ing slain Candantes the Lydian gave his own Tubal: and in the fixth Verle; Gomer and name to that Nation, thence after called all his Bands, and the House of Togorma of Gygades: and thereof also the Gygean Lake; the North quarters. Herein Ezechiel having which Lake Strabo also findeth in Lydia (of 13. first delivered the purpose of his Prophecie, which Gyges was King) fortie Furlongs from teacheth what Nations they were that should Sardis. Plinie calleth it Green fragrum in vanity affayl Masl. He joyneth them Herodotus and Nicahder fet it about the Ritogether under their Prince Gog, and Theweth that their habitations were on the North quarters of Juda, and how feated and joyned together. Gog fignifieth in the Hebrew (faith Saint Hierom ) tellum or covering of a (laith Saint Hierom) tectum or covering of a laiver thousand which runned into the treatbouse: and Fintus upon Excelvie affirmeth, flowth, called the Promotivery Trapse after his own name Gigon: These Opinions do also own name Gigon: These Opinions do also own name Gigon: These Opinions do also own name Gigon: These Opinions of all own of the original beath of Junior. For soil cell the part of Asia the less, which Hisbarrer obtained, and after him his covering of the Devil under humane from. to addeth, that Magog is as much to layars Son Creffic Who (as Jurish) further notes) Exch. 18: Gog: the Letter (M) being an Hebrem Prepolition, and importeth as much as of, or, from: fo he taketh Magog for those people ty Gigaria or Gogkarta (which in the Sirian which follow Antichrift. So far Pintus Fat fignifieth the City of Gog ) feated in Calofyria least in this not amily, that he expoundeth whose People were the ancient Enemies of Magog not for any one person; but for a Nat the Temperal The whom a still make the tion: with which agreeth this observation of Beroaldus, Magog (faith he) in Hebrew is written Ham-Magog, which sheweth Magog to be a Region or Nation : for the Letter (He) which is used but for an Emphasis (which the Hebrews call Heliajedia) is never added to polis; but of the Syrians Magog. He further proper names of men; but often to place, telleth us that the montrous ldo! Hergalis, So as Gog was Prince of that Nation (called called by the Greek Derceto; was here woreither Magog, or, according to others the thipped. Lucian makes mention hereof, faypeople of Gog) also Prince of Mellich (or Moloch) and of Tubal: as by the first Verle of the 29. Chapter is made manifest : Behold, I come against thee Gog the chief Prince of Meshech and Tubal. This must needs be meant by the Successors of selencus Nicanor; who did not (as other conquering Nations) feek to make the Jews their Tributaries only, but indeavoured by all means, and by all kind of violence, to extinguish the Religion it

ing Palastina, or the holy Land, followed the Turks from the Scythians, esteemed Maalso by the rest of the Nations of Asia the gogians of Gog. Many take Gog for the proper vers of Hillus, and Menunder ; but the difference is not great: Marins Niger maketh mention of this Gyger King of Lydia: who, after he had filbdued the Country about the Rever Rhodin which runneth into the Hellehaving maftered all thole Regions as farr South as Libann, in that Border built the Ci-Now that Magoe is found in Caloffria, Pliny affirmeth faying ; Coelofyria habet Bambycen, que alio nomme Hierapolis vocatur: spris vert, Magog; Cololyria hath thir Bams byce, which in another name is called Hieroing, That the City had anciently another name, which he yet expresent not storbearing perhaps, the word Magog, as founding nothing elegantly in the Greek. But if we may believe Strabo, then was Edeffa in Mejopora- Suab Lie. mia, the fame Bambyce or Hierapolis, where the fame Idol was worshipped. Orteliar is doubtfull whether one of these Authors did not miltake the place of this Bambyce or Hierapolis. It may well enough be that the fame felf (which the Hebrews profess d) and the name and Religion was common to them both. Certain it is that both of them lay due acknowledging of one true God: and to North from Palastina, and were both subject force them to worship and serve the mortal unto the Kings of the Race of selencus Now, and rotten gods of the Heathen of which nothing remained but the very name; and I do nor condemn the Opinion of Hermolaus dead Images. S. Ambrofe and Infore take Gog Barbarus following Joephur, but grant that, for the Nation of the Gathy: belike, because perhaps. Magog might also be the Father of they invaded Europe; and lacked Rome, and the southland; notwithstanding that in this many other places and cities thereabour place, where Gog is made Prince of Magog; Hermolaus Barbarus out of Pomp. Mela derives the Nations of Calofyria, and the North parts

CHAP. VIII.

adjoyning be meant by Magog: for by a lat- | ing, that they were antiently called Thobelos. better part of Asia the less, and possest Calo-(gria, where they built both Scythopolis and that to this Magog Ezechiel had reference, it is very plain : for this City Hierapolis or Magog standeth due North from Judaa, according to the words of Ezechiel, that from the North-quarters those Nations should come. For as the Kings of the South which infelted

the Ifraelites were the Ptolemies. Kings of Egypt: so those of the North were the Kings of Alia and Syria, the Successors of seleucus, the Successors of Alexander Macedon, Gulielmus Tyrius thinks that this Hierapolis is that Rages, mentioned in the Story of Tobias. Pling takes it not onely to have been called Bambyce, as we have faid, but also Edesia: not that by Euphrates; but another of the same name: now, the known name is Aleppo : for fo Bellonius expounds this Hierapolis, or Magog. This City had the Title of Sacred, as the Sacred City, (for fo the word Hierapelis fignifieth) yet was it a place of most detested idolatry, and wherein was worthipped the Idol of the to Pliny, which the Greeks call Derceto, the third Verse of the thirty eight Chapter, wherein he joyneth together Gog, Meshech and Tubal; and withal remember that Hierapolis was the City of Magog, which also is his bands of the North quarters; we may (as I conceive) fafely conclude, that thefe Followers and Vaffals of Gog (which were Northern Nations in respect of Judga) were not the Gomerians of France, nor the Tubalines of Spain, but a people of the leffer Afia, and Cologria: and therefore that the opinions of Berofus, Josephus, and whosoever else hath followed them therein, are to be rejected. But if Josephus refer himself to latter times, and think that fome Colonie of the Tubalines might from Iberia and Asia pass into Spain (to wit) from that piece of Land between Colchis (or Mengrelia) and Albania, is his judgment of better allowance. For from thence in after-Ages into Spain.

ter Plantation from these parts they might as of Tubal; from whence (faith Justine) they be propagated into scrthia. Yet it is not to passed into Spain to search out the mines of that be denied, that the Scythians in old times Region: having belike understood that it coming out of the North-east, wasted the was a Southerly Country, and Mountainous, For it seemeth that the Tubalines called Chalybes, lived altogether by the exchange of Hierapolis, which the Syrians call Magog. And Iron, and other Metals, as Apollonius witnesseth in these following Verses, telling how the Argonautes did visit them:

Hac gens tellurem rigido non vertit aratro. Sed ferri venas scindit sub montibus altis: Mercibus hac mutat, que vita alimenta ministrant.

The Calpber plough not their barren foil, But underwine high Hills for Iron Veins: Changing the diffichase of their endless

For Merchandize, which their poor lives fuftains.

But it is more probable, that Spain was first peopled by the Africans, who had ever fince an affection to return thither, and to re-people it anew. This appeared by the Carthaginians of old, who were easily drawn to pass over the streights into that Countrey: and after by the Moors who held Granado, Mermaid Atergates, or Atergitie, according and the South parts, eight hundred years, till the time of Ferdinand and IJabel. And either If then we confer the words of Ezechiel in of these opinions are more probable, than that in the twelfth year of Nimrods Reign. Inbal past into Spain, and therein built Saint Vual: a poor Town and a poor device, God knows. Certain it is, that we must find Mofeated directly North from Judea: with Book or Meshech, and Tubal Neighbours, and whom also Exechtel coupleth Gomer, and all Gomer and Togarma not farr off, or else we shall wrong Execbiel: for he called Gog the Leader or Prince of Meshech and Tubal, and maketh Gomer and Togarma their affiftants. And that Melhech inhabited Afia; Functions (though he followed Berefus) confesieth for these be his words: Mesacus, qui d Mose Mesech, priscos Mesios ab Adula vionte usque ad Ponticam regionem positio beoregio posteà Cappadocia ditta eft, in qua wibs Mazica, &c. bac eft terra Magog principalis; Melacus, whom Moses calleth Mesech, placed the ancient Mehans from the Mount Adulas, unto the Coafis of Pontus. This Region was afterward called Cappadocia, in which is the Town Ma-(most part possessed by the Georgians) then zica, &c. this is the principal Countrey of Magog. And this doth Annius also avow, and without any repugnancy of opinions, it may vet forgets that Gog was Prince both of Mebe granted, that in process of time these peo | sech and Tubal; and therefore that the one ple might from their first habitation, pass in- was a Nation of spaniards, the other of Capto the Countries neer the Euxine Sea, and padecians is very ridiculous; spain lying directly West, and not North from Judea. Al-Josephus makes mention of the Iberi, fay- to Ezechiel in the 27. Chapter, where he proMesech and Tubal jointly. And for a final proof, that these Nations were of a Northern Neighbour Land (how far soever stretched) Exechiel in the 38. Chapter makes them all Horsmen. Thou, and much people with thee all hall ride upon Horses, even a great multitude, and a mighty. Then, if any man believe that leated, in Asia, because in late Ages they these troups came out of spain over the Pyrenes, and first passed over a part of France; Italy, Hungary, and Sarmatia, and imbarqued again about the Helleftont, or else compassed all Pontus, and Engines, to come into the leffer Affa, which is half the length or compals of the then known World; he may be called a ftrong Believer, but he shall never be justified thereby. But on the contrary, it is known that Selenck was a Province heighbouring Palastina or Judea, and that Hierapolit (or Magog) joyned unto it whose Princes commanded all syria, and Afia the less. (namely the seleucida) and heldit, til scipio Afations overthrew Antiochus the Great: after which yet they possest spring till the time of Tigranes: and whether Melbech be in Cappadocia, or under Iberia, yet is it of the Tubalines, and one and the same Dominion.

Of Gomer the like may be faid. First, he feated himself with Togarma, not, fart from Magog and Tabal, in the borders of Syria and Cilicia. Afterward he proceeded further into Alia the less; and in long tract of time his valiant Issue filled all Germany, rested long in France and Brittany, and possessed the utmost borders of the Earth, accomplishing (as Melantihon well notes) the fignification of on which Annius hath of Noah himself; an their Parents name, which is Otmost bardering. But when these borderers wanted further place, wherein they might exonerate their swelling multitudes that were bounded upon the Nations occupying the Countreys, through which they had formerly passed oppreiling first their Neighbours, afterwards the people more remote. Hereupon it was (as the worthy Restorer of our Antiquities, M. William Cambden hath noted) that they were called Cimbri, which in their old Language doth fignifie Robbers; necessity inforcing them to spoil their Neighbours, to whom in their original, they were as near joyned, as afterwards in the feats which they possessed. For that the Warlike Nations of Germany were in elder Ages accustomed to be beaten by the Caules, the authority of Camer have fo demonstratively proved that far affirming it is proof sufficient. But in Fragment to be counterfeit. Besides that, prifes not here to be spoken of ) they were | cated to Annochus the Successor of selencus !

phecieth of the destruction of Tyre, nameth | drawn at length into Afa the less, and occupied those parts, which had formerly been held by their Progenitours. I say not that they claimed those Lands as theirs by Descent; for likely it is, that they knew little of their own Pedigree. Neither can any man therefore deny, that they were of old returned thither; unless he will think, that all those Nations which from far parts have invaded and conquered the Land of shinaar, may by that Argument be proved not to have illued from thence at the first.

Now, concerning Samothes, for his excellent wifdoin, firnamed Dis, whom Annius makes the Brother of Gomer and Tubal (which Brother, Moles never heard of, who spake his knowledge of Japheths Sons) they mult find him in fome old Poet: For Fundins, a great Berosian, confesseth: Quis hic Sa- In Chron. mothes fuerit incertum eft; Who this Samothes was, it is uncertain; neither is there any color. prioof that he was that fame Dis, whom Cafar comment. fairh the Gaules Suppose to be their Ancestor; i. chron. yea, and Vignier confesseth with Functius: May hon ne scayt qui il estoit; No man knows who he was.

š. V.

Against the fabulous Berosus his Fiction, That the Italian Janus was Noah.

Dile before I go on with Noah his Sons. I Think it is necessary to disprove the Fictiinvention (indeed) very ridiculous, though warranted (as he hath wrested) by those Authors of whom himself hath Commented: as the Fragment of Berofus, Fabius, Pictor, in by the great Ocean, then did they return Cato, Lavinius and others. For Annius feeks Ann. de to periwaded us that Nouh (furnamed Janus) Beruf, was the fame which founded Genoa, with Pill, de Other Cities in Haly, wherein he lived 92. Cao de years. This to disprove, by Moses filence, is a origin. fufficient argument to me, if there were no- luft de thing elfe to disprove it. For, if he youch- salt. fafed to remember the building of Babel, Bree, Achad, Chalne and Nineve, by Nimred, Noah was a man of too great mark to be forgotten, with all the acts he did in 92. years. But it were a needless labour for me to disprove the authority of that Berofus, on whom Annius groundeth, feeing fo many learned times following, they purfued richer Con- Tatianus the Affirian, in his Oration against quelts, and more easie, though further di- the Greeks, avoweth, that the ancient and frant, by which (to omit their other enter- true Berofus wrote onely three Books dediNicanor: but Annius hath devised five Books, wherewith he honoureth Berofus. And whereas Berofus handled onely the estate of the Chaldeans and Afgrians, Annius hath filled this Fragment with the bufiness of all the World. And if we may believe Eusebins better than Annius, then all the Kings of the and positibility. And if this be not sufficient Latines (before Eneas) confumed but 150. to disprove this vanity, I may out of themyears: whereas no man hath doubted, but felves add thus much: That whereas some that from Noah to Aneas arrival into Italy, of them make Vesta (others Canasana) the there past 1126. (after the least rate of the wife of this Janus; who instituted the holy Hebrew account) and (after Codoman) 1291. Fire of the Veftal Vingins in Rome (the La-For Janus (who was the first of their Kings) tines and Remans taking from Janus all their lived at once with Ruth, who married Booz Idolatrous, and Heathenith Ceremonies.) in the Worlds year (as some reckon) 2717. after the Floud 1064. and Noah died 250. years after the Floud : and fo there paft between Janus of Italy, and Noah furnamed Janus 704 years. For saturnus succeeded ifamus, Picus after Saturnus, Fannus after Picus, or so wicked and unprateful to ser up or deand Latinus followed Fannus: which Latin nus lived at once with Tantanes the 27. King of Afgria; with Pelagus of Pelopounefus; with Demophoon of Athens; and Sampson Judge of Ifrael. Now, all these five Kings of the Latines having confumed but one hundred and fifty years, and the last of them in the time of sampson: then reckoning upwards for one hundred and fifty years, and it reacheth Ruth, with whom Janus lived. True it is, that the Greeks had their Janus; but this was not Noah: fo had they Ion the Son of Xuthus, the Son of Deucalion, from whom they draw the Iones, who were indeed the children of Javan, the fourth Son of Jaand so the pheth. For the vulgar Translation (where the Hebrem word is Javan) writes Greece, and the Septuagint, Hellas; which is the same. So had they Medus the Son of Medea, whom they make the Parent of the Aledes, though they and (for the plural were descended of a farr more ancient Father (to wit) Madai the third Son of Japheth.

Lastly, we see by a true experience, that the British Language hath remained among us above 2000. years, and the English Speech ever fince the invalion of the Angles, and the same continuance have all Nations observed among themselves, though with some corruption and alteration. Therefore it is ftrange, if either Noak (by them called Janus) on: those also, which were of the Race of had left in Italy his Grand-child Gomer after Shem; inhabiting at Ur, or Orchoa, near the him, or Tubal in Spain, that no plain refemblance of the Hebrew, Syrian, or Scythian, (which no time could have quite extinguished ) should have been found in the Languages of those Countreys. For which reasons we doubt not but these personal Planta-Dominion and Empire was then in the hands tions of Janus, Gomer, Tubal, 8cc. In Halp, of Nimrod a Chushite, by whom the children Spain, or France, are meerly fabulous. Let of shem (which came into that Valley and the Italians therefore content themselves stayed not in the East) were for a while op-with the Grecian Janus which commanded them, and planted them, and who preceded the fall of Troy but 150. years (faith Eufebius) which was in the time of Latinus, the fifth King : which also Saint Augustine and Justine confirm: and this agreeth with reason, time, there is no man fo impious, as to believe that Noah himself (who is said by Moses to hove malked with God, to be a just man, and whom God of all mankind made choice of ) could be either ignorant of the true and only God. vise any Heathen Salvage or Idolatrous adoration, or have instituted any Ceremony, contrary to that which he knew best pleasing to God himfelf.

Capasiere en en ier novemente de la careta antibour, es candivino est en inventiale e

That Gomer allo and his son Togorma of the Posterity of Japlieth, were first seated about Asia the Less: and that from thence they fred Westward into Europe, and Northward into Sarmatia.

O turn now to the Sons of Noah, and the Worlds Plantation after the Flond: therein I observe, that as both reason and necessity taught them; for when they multiplied in great numbers, and dispersed themfelves into the next Countreys bordering to their first habitations, and from thence sent forth Colories elsewhere; it was in such manner, as that they might repair to each other, and keep intelligence by River: because the Land was yet Defart, and overprest with Woods; Reeds, Boggs; and rotton Marifies. As when Nimred Ceated in Babylonia, Chish took the South part of Chalden down the River of Gehon, by which he might pass to and fro from Babylon to his own Plantati-Lakes of Chaldaa, might by the same River get up to Babilon, and receive fuccour from thence. All which Tract of Land upon Gehon Southward, Mofes, in the description of Paradife calleth the Land of abuft . because the CHAP. VIII. prest, till God afterward by the seed of! Abraham made them his own Nation and victorious. Havilah, the brother of Nimrod. and fon of Chush, took both Banks of Tygris, especially on the East side of the River: by which River his people might also pass to and fro to Babel. The Imperial feat of which Region of Havilah or Sufian, was antiently called Chufian or Chufan, afterward sufa, Chufb himfelf took the Banks of Gehon, and planted those Countries West-ward, and Southwest-ward torul. Aje wards Arabia the Stony, and the Defart, first Chusia.

banks of Arabia felix on the East side: so also at first did inhabit amongs his Parents as those sons of Cush might take Land down and Kindred: The Togornians were also the River as they pleafed. Also the City of called Giblei, a people neighbouring the sy-Ninive was by Nimrod founded on the faid River of Tygris, and from thence a Colonie pass'd to Charran, standing also upon a navigable branch of Emphrates. In like manner did Japheths fons settle themselves together, and took their feats in Alia the less from whence they might indifferently firetch themselves Northward, and Westward, into the next parts of Europe, called the liles of the Gentiles. And it feemeth very agreeable to reason, that both Gomer, Magog, and Tubal; from thence Gomer, or his children pass d on men, and hader; which could not well be into Afa the less, as those of Magog and The driven over the whole length of the Medibal did; from whence the Tubalines Spred derrain Sea, but from the neighbout Countries themselves into Iberia: and the Magogians by land. But Josephus takes them for the more Northerly into Sarmatian. The first parents of the Phizgians 3, which I do not de-Gomerians, and first Planters in Afta the less, ny, but they might be, in the entiting ages: held the Country of the commercans (wit- and so might the Inbalines be of the Spanines Herodotus) the same Region which was ands; but it was from Iberia; and many hug-

The children of Inbal ranged as far as Iberia, to whom the Moschici were Neighbours which others write Meshech. The Prophet Ezechiel (coupling them together) calleth Gog the Prince of Meschech and Tubal; For these Meschi (which Ptolemy calleth Moschi) inhabit Syracenaa Province of Armenia, dis rectly South from the Mountains Moschier, in the Valley between the Mountains Moschiei, and the Mountains Pariardes: out of whose North part springeth the River Phasis; from the East part Araxis; and from the West Emphrates: and of this highlighted are descended also the Moscovians (faith Melanthon); and it may be, that in process of time forme seba, and Sheba, with the rest that planted of them inhabited those Regions also r. For Meftech (faith Melanthon) liquificth existers into the Person guif, which washeeth the dent, enlarging of fretching forth. Togorna donians in Gabala, a Tetrarchy of Phanicia, the fame which Pliny calleth Gaben: from whence solomon had his most excellent Mafons, which hewed frones for the Temple of I King ?: Jernfalem. Thence the Togormian firetens ed into the lefs Armenia, whose Kings were Jan in hence called Tigranes, and their Cities Vagrat Gen. 10. nakante: of which Cities Tigranes, subdued by Luculius the Roman, built one. Hierofor ignitarns hath planted the Tagormians in Banbary; forgetting the prophecy of Exerbiel fate down first of all in that part of Syria, against the Tyrians: They of the bonge of To Judg. 17 to the North of Palefting and Phonicia: and gorma; brought to thy Fairer, Horfer; and horfes afterward by the Gallo-Greek called Gala- dred years after the twelfth of Nimrod's tia, to whom Saint Paul wrote his Epiftle fo reigh. The Jews conceive that the Turke intituled. This Nation of the Cymmerians came of those Togormians, because their Esti-(whom the invincible scythians afterwards peror is called Toger.) The Chaldrans make difperfed, and forced from their first Planthem the Fathers of the Germanes. But Intations) gave names to divers places, asto onicus affirms; that the Tarks descended of the Mountains about Albania (called 63m the Crim Tartar, which borders Missouda. merini) and to the City of Cymmeris in Phry- But for these subderivations it were infinit to gia : alfo Boffborus Cymmerius took appella- examine them. Only of the first and second tion from this Nation, in the out-let where- Plantation, and of the first Nations after the of was also a City of that name, called Cym-Floud, is the matter which Habour to difcover; and therein to open the ignorance of merian: which Pliny faith ( mistaking the fome, and the corruption of other fabulous place) had fometime the name of Cerberion; Writers. And this we must Note, that those but Cerberion was a Town in Campania, fo called of the unhealthful waters favouring grand-children of Noah which were of a of Brimftone, which Augustus caused to be more quiet, or (perchance) of less undercleanfed by letting in the water of the Lake standing, and had not therefore the leading of Colonies lent out, their proper habitations could be hardly known: only reason hath | Iones of Greece transporting certain compaminion over the rest.

II2

the Medes. The Grecians bring them (as before) from Medus the fon of Medea.

6. VII.

Of Javan the fourth fon of Japheth: and of Mesech of Aram, and Meshech of Japheth.

F Javan the fourth fon of Japheth came many years preceded Xuthus, Ion or Deucali- with Moles. on. Paufanias tels us that Xuthus stole out of The faly with all his Fathers treasure, and his whom the Septuagint call Mosech (a part of Brothers portions, and arriving at Athens, those Nations commanded by Gog the chief he was graciously received by Eriotheus, who Prince of Meshech and Tubal.) But this we gave him his Daughter in marriage; of must remember, that between Mesech the son whom he received two fons, Ion and Achaus, of Aram, and Meshech (or Mosech) the son of the supposed Ancestors of the Athenians: Japheth, there is little difference in name, and (For Attica was called Ionia, faith Plutarch both by divers Interpreters diversly written. in the life of Thefens; ) who, when he had Montanus, with the Vulgar, writeth Mefech, joyned Megarato Attica, erected a Pillar in the son of Aram, Mess, the Geneva, Mass, that Ishmos or Strait, which sasmeth Pelo-Junius, Mess. But it may be gathered out pouncies to the other part of Greece: wri- of the 120 Psalm, that either Messech the ting on that part which looketh towards fon of Japheth, was the parent of those peothe East, these words: Hee non funt Pelopon- ple, or gave the name to that Province nefus, aft Ionia; Thefe Countries are not Pelo- wherein David hid himfelf: or elfe (which ponness, but of Ionia: and on the other side may rather seem ) that it took name from which looketh towards the South, and into Mesch the son of Aram. For David bewayl-Peloponnesus, this: These parts are Pelopon- ing his exile (while he lived among a barbanesus, and not Ionia.

taught us, that they dwelt among the rest, nies into Asia the less, the name of Iones was and were covered with the fame of others, thereby therein retained. And though strawho took on them the Conduction and Do- bo knew no more thereof than he learned of the Greeks themselves, yet I find this conje-From Madai the third fon of Tapheth, were cture of Hacateus reasonable enough. For though it were to him unknown, yet fure I am that Alia the less had people before Greece had any: and that Javan did not flie from Babylonia into Greece, but took Alia the less in his passage; and from thence past over the necreft way, leaving his own name to some maritimate Province on that side, as he did to that part of Greece fo called. But ver Strabo himself believed, that Ionia took the the Iones, which were afterwards call- name from Ion the son of Kuthus; for so ed the Greeks: and so the Latine and Greek much he had learned from themselves: Interpreters for Javan write Greece, as in which was also the opinion of Paulanias. Esay: Et mittam ex in qui salvati fuerint ad True it is, that the Greeks in after-times cast gentes, in mare, in Italiam, & Graciam: themselves into that part of Asa the Les, opAnd I will send those that scape of them to Nations in the Sea, in Italy and in Greece. The years. And howsoever the Greeks vaunt Geneva here useth the word (Tarshish) for Tar- themselves to be Fathers of Nations, and the fus, a City in Cilicia, though Tarfis in many most antient; yet all approved Historians places be taken for the Sea. The Tigurine (not their own) deride and disprove their and the Geneva use the names Tubal and Ja- pride and vanity therein. For this dispute van, and not Italy and Greece: keeping the of Antiquity (among prophane Writers) fame Hebrew words. Of the Iones were the rested between the Scythians and the Egypti-Athenians, though themselves dream that ans, as Justine out of Trogus, in the Warbethey were Aborigines, or men without An- tween Vexorus of Egypt, and Tanais of Scythia, ceftors, and growing (as it were) out of the witneffeth: which preceded far the reign foile it felf . who abounding in people, fent of Ninus, and was long before the name of Colonies into Asia the less, of whom came Greece was ever heard of. And it is also mathe Iones of those parts. Others derive the nifest, that in Cecrops time the Greeks were Athenians from Ion the fon of Xuthus, the fon all Salvages, without Law or Religion, cliof Deucalion; but the antiquity of Javan ving like brute Beafts in all respects: and marrs the fashion of that supposition, who so Georges (faith Saint Augustine) lived together Lib. 184

The fixth fon of Japheth was Mefbech; 6,10, rous and irreligious People ) uleth these Strabo out of Hecataus affirmeth that the words: Wo is me that I remain in Mefech, and Iones came out of Asia into Greece, which is dwell in the Tents of Kedar: which Junius contrary to the former opinion: That the converteth thus; Hei mihi quia peregrinor

CHAP. VIII. tam diu: habito tanquam Scenita Kedareni: band against him. Now Arabia the Desart

Fill 110. because my habitation (or abode) is prolonged, on the East, and the Cedrai Southward, both who dwell with the Inhabitants of Kedar: which joyn together upon the Nabathai, So with which this of the Latine agreeth; Hen it appeareth (as before) that Mefech, Inbal. mihi, quia incolatus meus prolongatus est, ba- Gomer, Togorma, and Mageg, neighboured hitavi cum habitantibus Kedar: The Chalde- Canaan and Ifrael, and that Kedar also did an otherwise, and in these words: O memi- joyn to Mesech: all which were Regions of Grum, quia peregrinatus sum Asanis, habitavi Syria, or of Asia the Less, commanded by the cum taburnaculis Arabum; O wretch, that I successors of Selenens, enemies of the re-estaam, for I have travailed among those of Asia: blishment of Israel and Inda. But (as I have I have dwelt in the Tabernacles of the Arabi- already faid) it might well be, that long after ans. But howfoever or which foever con- the first Plantation the issue of Mesech (or version be taken for the best, yet all make Mosoch) might pass into Cappadocia, and mention of Kedar: which is a Province of thence into Hyrcania, and give names both Arabia Petraa; and the Chaldean putteth to Mazega in the one, and to the Mountains Asia in stead of Mesech, but the Hebrew it self Moschier in the other, and from thence might hath Melech. And if it be to be taken for a fiend people more Northerly into Mulcovia. Nation, (as it is most likely, because it an- and so all opinions saved. But all salvage Nafwers to Kedar, the name of a Nation) sceing tions over-grown and uncultivated, do (for Mesch the son of Aram, I Chron. 17. is called the most part) shew a late Plantation, even Messeb, it is indifferent whether this Nation as civility, letters, and magnificent building. took name from Meshech or Mesch both bor- witness antiquity. dering Judea, and like enough to be commanded by one Prince ; for fo Ezechiel makes Mesech and Tubal. But as for those that take Melech out of the word Moloch (given by the thors (worthy the examination) affirm. Hole-Septuagint) to be the Muscovian: sure they phus was the first that determined hereof: presume much upon the affinity of names, as and because the Scriptures are altogether aforesaid. Sure I am that David never tra- filent, what part of the World Tyras peopled, velled fo far North (for to him Muscovia the conjectures are indifferent, and give no was utterly unknown) but about the border ground at all of dispute. It followeth now of Kedar (it may be) he was often in all the to speak of the Sons of Gomer, which were time of his perfecution: the same being a three, City on the Mountains of Sanir or Galaad. And yet Arias Montanus makes Moloch the Father of the Muscovians: and herein also Melanchton runs with the tide of common opinion, and fets Mefech in Mufcovia, though with some better advice of judgment; as. first seated in Cappadocia, and from thence travailing Northward: expounding the places of the 120. Pfalm, (Hei mihi quòd exulo in Mesech) to fignifie, Gentis ejus feritatem inlignem effe; That the ferity of that Nation exceeded: which fierceness or brutality Goths. The Jews in their Tharenm make him of the Muscovians, David never proved, or the root of the Germane Nation; but their (perchance) never heard of. But the same expositions are commonly very idle. Pling ferity or cruelty which those Northern Mus- findeth Ascania in Phrygia, neer the Rivers of covians had, may aswell be ascribed to the Hilas and Cios: Melanchton being of the Arabians and Kedarens. For this Country fame opinion, that the Tuiscones were descen- Melsnel, in took name of Kedar the second son of Ismael, ded of the Ascanez: (for Tuiscones, faith he, car. lib. 1. of whom a people of equal fierceness to any is as much to say, as of the Ascanez, praposito of the world were begotten, both in those articulo die Ascanes) and that the word sigtimes and long after, even to this day (if the | nifieth, a Religious Keeper of fire: it being an Arabians, Ismaelites, and Saracens, may be antient superstition to pray at the fire of Saaccounted one people:) the same being fore- crifices, as afterwards at the Tombs of Marshewed by the speech of the Angel to Hagar, Gen. 16. v. 12. And he shall be a wilde man: his Ascania, known by that name in the Romans hand shall be against every man, ar. every mans time. And among the Kings which came to

The Septuagint gives it this sence: Wo is me (faith Pliny) confronteth the Arabians Cockies

Tyras, the feventh fon of Japheth, which Mont. in Montanus reckons among the fons of Gomer, was the Father of the Thracians, as all Au-

Ascanez, Riphath, and Togorma.

S. VIII.

of Ascanez and Riphath, the two elder sons of Gomer.

A Scanez was the Father of those which the Greeks call Regim, (saith Josephus) but he gives no reason why. Eusebius makes Ascanez the Father of the tyrs. Not far from Phrygia was the Lake

the

114

manner doth Virgil grace Aneas, Os humerosque Deo similis; In face and body like one of therefore Mesopotamia being in elder times the gods: Virgil also remembreth such a Ri- but a Province of Syria, the Scriptures dif-Pros. 600. ver. together with the Hills Gargara: as, Illas ference it in the Story of Jacob and Efan, and ducit amor trans Gargara, transque sonantem call it Aram-Padan. Then if these two Nati-Aicanium; Appetite leads them both over the ons were of the Armenians, and Ascanez mountains Gargara, and the roaring Ascanius. joyned with them (who altogether united But this Pliny maketh more plain in the dc- under Cyrus and Darius, came to the spoil of fcription of Phrygia. For he placeth the City the Babylonian Empire) we shall erre much of Brillion upon the River Ascanius, which is adjoyning to Mylia, and is near the border of the Trojan Empire: and the Lake Ascanez the Askenez were of those Nations which he directs us to find by the description of Prusia, founded by Hannibal at the foot of Olympus, which lyeth farr within the Countrics of Bithynia: and then from Prusia to Nicea are accounted 25. miles, in which way this Lake lieth, even between Prusia and Nicea. And so Junius (as I conceive him) takes them of Ascanez, to be the Inhabitants of Pontus and Bithynia, and those North parts of Alia. Stephanus de Urbibus makes it a City of Troas, built by Ascanius the Son of Æneas: faying, that there was another of that name in Mysia. Of Ascania a Lake of Bithynia, Ptolemy witnesseth: and Strabo giveth before Troy, Ascanes. Now, whether these places took name of Son of Aneas, it might be questioned : sure it is, that Ascanius which brought succour to the Trojans, could not take his name from young, or rather unborn: and it feemeth that the Countreys whence those succours therefore which deceive not, we may confidently determine. For of the Prophet Hieremy we shall learn of what Nation the Ascanez were, whose words are these: Set up a Standard in the Land, blow the Trumpet among the Nations against her call up the Kings of Ararat, Minni, and Ascanez, against her, &c. meaning, against the Babylonians. Ararat was Armenia the greater, as most Interpreters consent, so called of the Mountains of Ararat which run through it: Minni, the leffer Armenia; Armenia being compounded of Aram and in Mysia, near unto Cio; which also agreeth with Pliny. For Pliny findeth Prusia (before fpoken of ) near Cio, and calleth the Islands

Hom. lind, the fuccour of Troy, was Ascanius (Deo simi- | (faith junius and others before him:) and lis, faith Homer) like unto God: because he Aram anciently taken for Syria, which conwas beautifull and ftrong: for in the same tained all that Tract from Emphrates to the Sea-coasts of Phanicia, and Palastina; and to call Askenez Germany, or Almain: for we hear of no fwart Ruttiers at that fiege. But were either subject or allied to the Medes: of which if any of them came afterward into Phrygia, I know not: for the dispersion of Nations was in after-times without acount. But for the opinion of Eusebius, who makes them to be Goths; or that of Josephus, who calls them Rhegini; or of the Jews, who will have them to be Almains; when they confirm it either by Scriptures or Reason, I will think as they do.

Of Riphath, the second Son of Gomer, there is mention in the first of Chronicles. Beroaldus and Pererius think that he wandered farr off from the rest of his Brothers, and Ascania both a Lake, a River, and a Town therefore no memory of his Plantation. But I fee nothing to the contrary, but that he might feat himself with the rest of his Family: for there wanted no room or foil in those days for all the Sons and Grand-children of Noah. Therefore I take it to be well under-Ascanez the Son of Gomer, or of Ascanius the Stood', that the Riphei were of Riphath, which the Greeks afterwards (according to Josephus) called the Paphlagones : and Riphei (faith Melancthon) fignifieth Giants. These Eneas Son, who was then either exceeding people were very famous in the North parts, and in Sarmatia: the most of number and power among them, Sarmataru gens maxima came, were not out of any part of Phrysia, or Heneti, The greatest number of the Sarmatians Affa, but farther off, and from the North mere the Heneti; who spake the ancient Poparts of all Asia the less, which by Hieremy is lac: which being first called Riphei (for the called Ascanez, by the figure synechdoche, as love of some of their Leaders or Kings) Junius thinketh. Out of those testimonies changed their names, and became Heneti (a custom exceeding common in those times) and dwelt first in Paphlagonia, as Homer witneffeth, and so doth Apollonius in his Argonauticks: Now, when these Riphei (afterward Heneti ) fought new Regions, they came along the shores of Euxinus, and filled the North-part of Europe, containing Ruffia, Lituania, and Polonia. From thence thy crost thwart the Land, and peopled Illyria, defirous (faith Melanthon) of a warmer foil of Fruit and Wine. These Heneti, or Veneti, Melanti.is whom Melandhon taketh to be one people, carien. Minni. For Minni was the ancient name filled all the Land between the Baltick and Adviatick Sea; and to this day the name of 1 to Tharfis, and brought thence Gold, Silver, the Gulf Venedicus is found in Russia. This Elephants teeth &c. the Chaldwan Paraphrast Nation, after they were possest of Lituania translates Tharsis (Africa.) But Solomons Ships and Polonia, disturbed the Plantation of the Boil and Hermondurii. Therefore it feemeth to me, that of Riphath, came the Riphei, afterward Heneti; and so thinketh Arias Montanus, first seated in Paphlagonia, but in course of time, Lords of Sarmatia, and those other higher part of the East-India. For it had parts before remembred, chiefly between the Rivers of Vistula and Albis. The name (faith Melancthon) fignifieth wandering, or wanderers, or Nomades: a people which lived by White-meats and Fruits, as (indeed) all Nations did in the first Ages.

Of the third Son of Gomer, Togorma, I have spoken already; now therefore of Javans children, which were four: Elifa, Tharfis, Cethim, Dodonim.

6. IX.

Of the four sons of Javan: and of the double fignification of Tharlis, either for a proper Name, or for the Sea.

OF Elisa, or Elipha, came the Eoles: and of this Elisa, all the Greeks were called Hellenes, faith Montanus. Melancthon makes Elifa the Father of the Boles in Alia fide: others of Elis in Peloponnesus; or of that Pontus was a word used for the Sea in both. And feeing the Greeks were descended in general of Javan, it is probable that micrans knew no other Sea than that of the Eeles and the Eles, took name of Elifa his Mediterrane in the beginning; and that the eldest Son. Ezechiel in the 27. Chap. speaking of Tyre, nameth the Isles of Elifa, Hyacinthus & purpura de insulis Elisæ facta sunt operimentum tuum : Blue Silk and purple, brought from the Isles of Elifa, was their covering. The Chaldrans for Elifa, write Italia: but the Vulgar, the Tigurine, the Geneva, and Junius, keep the word Elisa: and so I think they might do with reason. For there was not found any fuch Purple-Die in Italy in those days, nor fince, that I can read of : but those Isles of Elifa, were by a better conjecture the Isles of Greece; and the best Purple was found afterward at Tyre it felf: and before that, among the Cyclades, and on the Coast of Getulia.

Tharfis the fecond Son of Javan, inhabited Cilicia, of which Tharfis is the Metropolis. Montanus, for Tharfis in Cilicia, understands Carthage in Africa; but (referving the re-fpect due to to learned a man) he was much therein, So likewife, where it is written that ture of a Plantation. For (Gomer and his the Ships of Solomon went every three years other Sons inhabiting Afta the left, and that were prepared in the Red-Sea at Esion-Gaber, in the Bay of Elana, hear unto Madian, where Jethro ( Moles Father-in-law ) inhabited; a Province of Arabia Petrea, Idumaa; or of the Chustes; and they sailed to the been a strange Navigation to have spent three years in the pallage between Judea and Carthage, or any other part of Africa; which might have been failed in fix or ten days. And if so great riches might have been found within the bounds of the Mediterrane Sea, all the other neighbouring Princes would foon have entertained that Trade alfo. But this enterprise of solomon is in this fort written of in the first of Kings: Also King Solomon made a Navie of Ships in Esion-Gaber, which is beside Elath, and the brink of the Red-Sea in the Land of Edom: and Hyram fent with the Navie his servants, that were Mariners, and had knowledge of the Sea, with the servants of Solomon: and they came to Ophir, and fet from thence 420. Talents of gold, &c. But as the Nations about Pontus thought no Sea in the World like unto their own, and doubted whether there were any other Sea but that onely (whereof it came, people of Tharfis had the greatest Ships, and were the first Navigators in those parts with fuch Vessels, they were therefore called men of the Sea: and the word Tharsis used often for the Sea. And whereas it is faid that the Ships of Solomon went every three years to Tharfis; that phrase is not strange at all; for we use it ordinarily wheresoever we navi-gate (namely) that the Kings Ships are gone to the Sea, or that they are fet out every year, or every three years to the Sea, and therefore Tharfis was not therein named, either for Carthage, Africa, or India, but used for the Sea it felf. But in this place, Tharfis is truly taken for Tharfis, the chief City in Cilicia, foundedby Tharlis the second Son of Javan, or by his Successors in memory of their first Parent. To this City arrived Alexander Macedon, before he gave the first overthrow to Darius, and casting himself into the River to bathe and wash his body, he fell into an miltaken in that conjecture. The Childiain extreme Fever, and great danger of death:

Paraphraft puts Carthage for Tharfit, but it and in this City of Tharfit was S. Paul born. extreme Fever, and great danger of death: hath no authority nor warrant of reason Now, this agreeth with the reason and na-

116 part of Syria adjoyning) Javan, who was to | youngest brether (by the mest opinions) sare pass over the Sea into Greece, took the edge

City took name.

whom were the Romans and Italians, faith in the Province of Moloffia. And as Cethim. Beroaldus, but I allow better of Melantibons when he wanted foil in Cyprus: fo Dodonim opinion, who makes Cethim the Father of the (feated in a farr less Island) did of necessity Macedonians. Cethim is a voice plural (faith fend his people farther off; and keeping ahe) and fignifies percussores, though in that longst the Coast, and finding Peloponnesus in respect it may be meant by either. But it the possession of Elisa, he passed a little surfeemeth more probable, that the place of ther on the Westward, and planted in Eps-Ifai. 23. (according to Melanthon) had re- rus. And though the City of Dodona was not lation to Alexander and the Macedonians: then built (or perchance not so ancient as Hac calamitas ab Esai prædicta est, qui capite Dodonim himself yet his posterity might give vicessimo tertio inquit, venturos esse eversores it that name in the memory of their first Pa-Tyriex terra Cittim; This calamity (Jaith Me- rent, as it happened all the World over. For lancthon) was foreshewed by Esai the Prophet, names were given to Cities, Mountains, Riwho in the three and twentieth Chapter pro- vers, and Provinces, after the names of Noahs nounced that the destroyers of Tyre were come children, and grand-children; not in all out of Cittim. And although the children of places by themselves, but by their successors Ifrael esteemed all men Islanders, which came taly, faith Beoraldus) yet we must take the first selves were taken and grafted else where. entred that proud City, and cut in pieces feflavery. Now, that Macedon was taken for Cethim, it doth appear plainly in the first of the Macchabees, in thele words: After that Alexander the Macedonian, the son of Philip, went forth of the Land of Cethim, and flew Darius King of the Persians, and Medes. Tolephus fets Cethim in the Isle of Cyprus, in which (faith he) there remaineth the City Citium, the Country of Zeno the Philosopher (witness Laertius;) which City Pintus upon Exechiel affirmeth, that it stood in S. Hieroms time. So it may be that all the Islands in ancient times by the Hebrews were called the Islands of Cethim; and in that sence might Cyprus be so called also; and yet, because Tharlis was the very next Port to Gyprus, and directly over against it, it is also very probable that Cethim dwelt by his brother Tharfis: and finding that Island too straight for his people, after they were increased, and that the rest of the Coasts, both in Asia and Greece, were inhabited by his Father and brothers, he fent Colonies over the Agean Sea, and inhabited Macedonia.

Dodonim the fourth Son of Javan, and the down at Rhodes, as near Cethim, Tharfis, and of the same Coast, and first planted the Iones | Elisa, as he could, For Dodonim and Rhodaon that shore: gave the Islands betwen Asia nim are used indifferently by many Translathe less and Greece to Elisa, and lest Tharsis tors: the Hebrew (D) and the Hebrew (R) upon the Sea-side in Cilicia; of whom that are so alike, as the one may easily be taken for the other, as all Hebricians affirm. There The third Son of Javan was Cethim, of is also found in Epirus the City of Dodona. many years after: every of their Families to them by Sea, and separate from the Conti- being desirous to retain among them, by nent (and so also Cittim might be taken for I- those memories, out of what branch themperformance of the former Prophecie which | And because great Kingdoms were often by took effect by the destruction of the Tyrians new Conquerers newly named, and the by Alexander, who, after seven Moneths siege, greatest Cities often fired and demolished, therefore those that hoped better to perpeven thousand principal Citizens; strangled tuate their memories, gave their own names, two thousand, and changed the freedom of or the names of their Ancestors; to Mounthirteen thousand others into bondage and tains and Rivers, as to things (after their judgments) freest from any alteration.

Thus then did Javan lettle himself and his children in the edge and frontier of Alia the less, towards the Sea-shore: and afterward in Greece, and the Islands and neighbour Provinces thereof, as Japheth their Father had done in the body of the leffer Afia, together with Javans brethren, Gomer, Magog, Madai, Tubal, Melech, and the reft, round about him. And in like fort did Fhul (the Son of Cham) people Rabylonia, Chaldea, and the borders thereof towards the West and South-west: and the Sons of Chill (all but Nimred, who held Babylonia it felf) travelled Southward in Arabia felix, and South-westward into Arabia Petrag : the reft of his children holding the Regions adjoying to Nimred. Miscaur, the brother of child in like manner took the way of Egypt: and his brother Canaan the Region of Palasting adjoyning. The Sons of Cangan had their portions in Canaan, of whom all thole Nations came, which were afterward the Enemies both to the Hebrews, and to those of the Sons of Shem, which spread themselves towards the West, and the borders of the Me- vainly led by his own invention. For Josediterrane Sea: of which I shall speak hereafter. But first of the Sons of Cham or Ham : which were four:

Chush, Mizraim, Phut, and Canaan.

§. X.

That the feat of Chush the eldeft son of Ham, was in Arabia, not in Æthiopia: and of strange Fables, and ill Translations of Scriptures, grounded on the mistaking of this of Josephus his Tale of an Æthiopess. Wife of Moses, grounded on the mistaking of the feat of Chush.

||. I.

Hat Ham was the Father of the Egyptians, it is made manifest in many Scriptures, as in the 105. Pfalm, verf. 51. Then Tharbis, &c. which Tale hath this fence in Ifrael came to Egypt, and Jacob was a stranger in the Land of Ham: and in the 78. Pfalm, He flew all the first-born in Egypt, even the not fally and come to handy-strokes, there bapbeginning of their strength, in the Tabernacles | pened this accident in the mean while: The Aof Ham. There is also found a great City in thiopian King bad a Daughter called Tharbis, Thebaidai, called Cheramis (as it were the wholat fome affaults given, beheld the person of City of Ham) of which name Heradotus also discovers an Island in the same Region. But because Chush is the elder Son of Ham, it agreeth with order to speak first of him. Now, though I have already in the descripti- the very brink of subversion : the estimas workon of Paradife handled this question, and (I ing in her thoughts, together with her own afon of raraasje nanoted this question, and (1) ingui ner thoughts, together with oper own afhope) proved that chust could not be Athiofeditor, which daily increased, see mander means to send unto him by one, of her trustitest for himself, I will add some farther proof to the former. For, the manifestation his Wife; which Moses on this condition employed the second trustition of the second trust hereof fets many things streight, which had otherwise very crooked constructions, and fenceless interpretations. Surely, howfoever the Septuagint and Josephus have herein failed, that Chulh could not be Æthiopia, but Arabia (to wit) both that Arabia called Petrad, and a part of Arabia the Happy and the Defart: which Regions Chush and the Chustes presently planted, after they left Babylonia to Nimrad, wherein they first sate down altogether. And there is nothing which so well cleareth the Controversie, as the true interpretation of the place, Num. 12. therein alfor utterly militaken himself, in verf. 1. where Mofes his Wife is called a Chufile; together with some places which speak of Nebnehadonozor's Conquells For whereas Josephus and the Septuagint in the place Numb. 12. verf. i. as also else-where, underfrand chush for Æthiopia, we must give creappear that Josephus was grofly mistaken, or aus, and not Ashiopians; except Josephus phus preluming that Chush was Æthiopia, and therefore that the Wife of Mofes (which in Scripture, Numb. 12. vers. 1. is called a Woman of chulb) was a Woman of the Land of Æthiopia, feigneth that Tharbis the Daughter of the King of Æthiopia, fell in love with the person and same of Moses, while he befieged Saba her Fathers City; and to the end, to obtain Moses for her Husband, she practifed to betray both her Parents, Countrey, and Friends, with the City it felf, and to deliver it into Moles hands: The Tale (if it be worth the reciting) lieth thus in Jose- Aniq 1.22 phus. And after he hath described the cap. 5. ftrength of the Ethiopian City Meroe, which he faith at length Chambyses called so from the name of his Sifter (the old name being Saba ) he goeth on in these words: Hic cum Moses residere exercitum otiosum ægrè ferret, hoste non audente manus conserere, tale quiddam accidit. Erat Æthiopum Regifilia nomine English: When Moles was grieved that his Army lay idle, because the Enemy besieged durst Moses, and withall admired his valour. And knowing that Moses had not onely up-held and restored the falling estate of the Egyptians, but bad also brought the conquering Athiopians to tertained, that she should first deliver the City into his possession, whereupon she condescending, and Moses having taken outh to persorm this contract, both the one and the other were instantly performed.

II.

A Dispute against the Fale of Josephus.

His Tale (whereof Anger hath nor a word) hath Jefephie fashioned, and naming a City of Arabia for a City of Æthiopia : as he names Æthiopia it felf to have been the Countrey of Maler his Wife, when (indeed) it was Arabia. For Saba is not in Æthiopia; but in Arabia, as both Strabo and all other Geographers, ancient and modern, dit to Moles himself herein; and then it will teach us, saying, that the Sabaans are Arabi-

118 can perswade us, that the Queen of saba, | but of sippora, or Zippora: neither was she a which came from the South to hear the Wif- Negro, but a Madianites. And as God workis likely that when Sishac King of Egypt in-vaded Roboam, and sackt Hierusalem, his Brother (the Son of Saba and Solomon) who joyned upon Egypt, would both have impeached that enterprize, as also given aid and succour to Roboam against Jeroboam, who drew from him ten of the twelve Tribes to his own obedience. Neither is it any thing against our Opinion of Moses his Wife to have been an Arabian that the Scritures teach us, that Moses married the Daughter of Jethro, Priest of Midian or Madian: which standing on the North-coast of the Red-Sea, over against the body of Egypt, and near Eston-Gaber, where Solomon provided his Fleet for India, in the Region of But the passing of Moses through Arabia Edom, may well be reckoned as a part of Petraa (which joyneth to Madian) proveth Arabia, as the Red-Sea is called Sinus Arabi- that Moses was well acquainted in those cus. For Idumaa joyneth to the Tribe of Juda by the North; to Arabia Petraa, by the East; to the Mediterrane, by the West; and to the Red-Sea, by the South-east. And if we dren of Israel in the knowledge of one true mark the way which Muser took when he left Egypt, and conducted Ifrael thence, it of plenty and rest. For he found them will appear that he was no stranger in Arabia: in the border whereof, and in Arabia and obstinate in the Religion of the Heats it self, he had formerly lived fourty years; then, and finding that those stiff Plants where it feemeth, that besides his carefull bringing up in Egypt, he was instructed by Jethro in the Egyptians learning. For Josephus confesseth, and S. Stephen consistent, that he was learned in all the Wisdom of the Egyptithose those he might receive fruit, agreeable ans. But on the other fide, this Text makes to his own defire, and Gods Commandmuch against Josephus, where it is written in Exodus the second, Therefore Moses fled from Pharaoh, and dwelt in the Land of Madian or Midian, and not in Ethiopia. And in the also he reprehendeth Apollinaris, who athird Chapter, it is as plain as words can express, in what Region Madian was, where it is written, When Moses kept the Sheep of Jethro his Father-in-law, Priest of Madian, and drave the Flock to the Defart, and came to the mountain of God in Horeb. Now, that Mount Horeb is not in Æthiopia, every infant knoweth. And if we may believe Moses himself, then was not the Wife of Moses purchased in that manner which Josephus reporteth dom of Solomon, were a Negro, or Black-Moor. eth the greatest things by the simplest End. And though Damianus à Goes speak of certain means: so it pleased him from a Shepherd Letters to the King of Portugal from Prefter to call Moses, and after him David, and by John, of the Abillines: wherein that Æthio- them to deliver his People first and last. For pian King would perswade the Portugals, that Moses sitting by a Well (as disconsolate, and he was descended of the Queen of Saba, and a stranger) desended the Daughters of Reof solomon; yet it doth no where appear in guel from the other Shepherds, and drew the Scriptures, that solomon had any Son by them Water to water their Sheep: upon that great Princess: which had it been true, it which occasion (by God ordained) he was entertained by 'Jethro, whose Daughter he married, and not for any betraying of Towns or Countreys. From hence also came Jethro to Moses at Rephidim, not far from Idumea, and finding the insupportable government of such a multitude, he advised him to distribute this weighty charge, and to make Governours and Judges of every Tribe and Family. And if Jethro had been an Æthiopian, it had been a farr progress for him to have passed through all Egypt with the Wife and Children of Moses, and to have found Moses in the border of Idumea: the Egyptians hating Moses, and all that favoured him. parts, in which the fecond time he wandered fourty years, and did by these late travels of his, feek to instruct the Chilnourished up with the milk of Idolatry, could not be bowed or declined, either by perfwafion or by miracle, he ware them out in the Defarts, as God directed, and Laftly, this Opinion of Josephus is condemned by Augustinus Chrysamensis, where vowed that Mofes had married both Tharbis Sixt, Si and sephora: His own words have this beginning: Mentitur etiam Apollinaris duas uxores habuisse Mosen, &c. Apollinaris also lyeth, in affirming that Moses had two Wives: and who doth not perceive these things feigned by them? for it is manifest, that the Wife of Mofes was Zephora, Daughter to the Prieft or Prefident of Madian: and that Madian cannot be taken for Æthiopia beyond Egypt ; be-(which was for betraying her Countrey and ing the same that joyneth to Arabia: 80 farr friends) neither had she the name of Tharbis, Chrysamensis. II. III.

II. III.

Chush ill expounded for Æthiopia, Ezechiel 29. 10.

7 Ow, as chush is by the Septuagint converted Ethiopia, and the Wife of Mofes therefore called #thiopifia: fo in the conquest of Nebuchodonolor is Æthiopia written for Arabia. For by the words of Ezechiel, it Bire: Æthiopia being the conterminate Reis manifest that Nebuchodonosor was never in Ethiopia. Behold (faith Exechiel, speaking of the person of this great Asyrian) I come upon thee and upon thy Rivers, and I will make the Land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, from the Tower of Seveneh even to the borders of the Black-Moors: which last words should have been thus converted: From the Tower Seveneh, to the borders of the Chusites.or Arabians, between which two is fituated all Egipt. For to fay, from the borders of Seveneh to the Æthiopians, hath no sence at all, Se-wench it self being the border of Egypt, confronting and joyning to Æthiopia, or the and firm Land with Egypt, and no otherwise Land of the Black Moors. So as if Nebuchodonosors conquest had been but between 8ewench and the border of Ethiopia, it were as have rowed up the River but for pleasure, much to fay, and did express no other victory than the conquest of all that Land and Countrey, lying between Middlesex and Buckingham, where both the Countries joyn together; or all the North parts of England between Barrick and Scotland: for this hath the same sence with the former, if any man fought to express by these two bounds, the Conquest of England: Barmick being the North border of England, as Seveneh or Syena is the South bound of Egypt, feated in Thebaida, which toucheth Æthiopia. But by the words of Ezechiel it appeareth, that Nebuchodonofor never entred into any part of Æthiopia, although the Septuagint, the Vulgar, the Geneva, and all other (in effect) have written Æthiopia for Chush.

|. IV.

Another place of Ezechiel, Chap. 30. Vers. 9. in the like manner mistaken.

Nd as the former, so is this place of Eze-A chiel mistaken, by being in this fort converted: In die illa egredientur nuncità facie mea in trieribus ad conterendam Æthiopiæ confidentiam: Which place is thus turned in English by the Geneveans: In that day shall their messengers go forth from me in ships to make the careless Moors afraid. Now the Latine for (ships) hath the Greek word Trieres for Triremes, which are Gallies of three Scripture, Hai. 18. Ve terre Cymbalorum ala-

banks, and not ships. But that in this place the Translation should have been (as in the former) amended by using the word chush, or Arabia, for Ethicpia, or the Black-Moors, every man may fee which meanly understandeth the Geography of the World, knowing, that to pass out of Egypt into Athiopia, there need no Gallies or Ships, no more than to pass out of Northampton into Leicestergion with Egypt, and not divided so much as by a River. Therefore in this place of Ezechiel it was meant, that from Egypt Nebuchodonofor should send Gallies alongst the Coast of the Red-Sea, by which an Army might be transported into Arabia the Happy and the stony (sparing the long wearisom march over all Egypt, and the Desart of Pharan) which Army might thereby surprise them unawares in their fecurity and confidence. For when Nebuchodonosor was at Seveneh within a mile of Æthiopia, he needed neither Gally nor Ship to pals into it; being all one large parted from it, than one In-land shire is parted from another: and if he had a fancy to he could not have done it; for the fall of Nilus (tumbling over high and steepy Mountains) called Catadupa Nili, were at hand.

Lastly, I have already observed the Sons of every Father feated themselves as near together as possibly they could; Gomer and his Sons in Asia the less; Javan and his Sons in Greece, and the Islands adjoyning; shem in Persia and Eastward. So the sons and grandchildren of Chush from the River of Gehon (their Fathers first seat) inhabited upon the fame, or upon some other contiguate unto it, as Nimrod and Havilah on the one fide, and Saba, Sheba, and Sabtecha (with the rest ) did on the other fide. And to conclude, in a word, the Hebrews had never acquaintance or fellowship, any war, treaty of peace, or other intelligence with the Ethiopian Black-Moors, as is already remembred in the Chapter of Paradife.

Aplace, Efay 18. v. 1. in like manner corrupted, by taking Chush for Æthiopia.

Nd as in these places before remembred, A foin divers others is the word Æthiopia put for Arabia, or Chush, which puts the Story where it is so understood) quite out of fquare; one Kingdom thereby being taken for another. For what sence hath this part of cording to the Septuagint, in these words: Ve two parts, he sent threatning Messengers to terre navum alarum que est trans fluvios A- Ezechia King of Juda, periwading him to thiopia; Ho to the Land Madowing with submit himself: the Tenor whereof is fit wings which is beyond the Rivers of Ethiopia. down in the second of Kings in these words. fending Embaladors by Sea, even the Vessels of Have any of the gods of the Nations delivered Reeds upon the maters. Vaterra umbrola ora; live Land out of the hands of the King of Wo to the Land of the fludy coaft faith Junius, Afhur? Where is the god of Hamah, &c. By The former Translators understand it in this which proud Embatiage, if he had obtained sence; That the waters are shadowed with entrance into ferusalem, he then meant to the fails, which are significatively called the have united that great Army before Jerusawings of the ships; the other, that the coast lem, commanded by Rabsekeb, with the other of the Sea was thadowed by the height of which lay before Pelulum, a great City upon fpoken of by the Prophet Ifaiah, is Egypt, no all those Cities in Judea and Benjamin, with Interpreter hath doubted. For they were a third Army (which himself commanded) the Egyptians that fent this Message to the being then at the siege of Lebna. But upon Ifraelites, which Isaiah repeateth, and by the the rumor of that Arabian Army led by Egypt is transported unto the other fide of Hiernfalem, and found Senacherib departed Æthiopia, and Æthiopia set next unto Judea; from Lachie, and set down before Lebna, when it is the Land of Chufb and Arabia indeed that lieth between Judga and Egypt, Equinoctial Line. And of this, Beroaldus asketh a material question (to wit) what Regi- Army before Hiernsalem by the Angel of his on that should be, of which the Prophet power, so as 158000. were found dead in speaketh, and placeth it beyond the Rivers the place, as in the life of Ezechias is hereafof Æthiopias Nam de ignota agi regione dici ne-quit; For it cannot be faid that he treateth of my of Thirrhakeh was from Arabia, Josephus an unknown Region. Now, if Æthiopia it felf himself makes it plain. For he confesseth in be under the Equinoctial line, with whom the the tenth Book, the first Chapter of the Jews ledg of Nations far beyond it again, and beyond the Rivers of Æthiopia? except we marched towards him by the way of the Dediscourse of those Nations, which were not Pharan or Sur, which also toucheth on the discovered in 2000, years after, inhabiting as far South as the Cape of Good Hope, commonly known by the name of Bona esperanza.

||. V I.

That upon the like miftaking both Terrhaca in the Story of Senacherib, and Zera in the Story of Asa, are unadvisedly made Æthiopians.

of his retrait. For Senacherib was first repulled at Pelulium, at the very entrance of King of Ethiopia, &c. whereas it should Egypt from Judea: when having certain have been thus converted with Junius: Audi-rum que est trans siumina Æthiopiæ; or, ac- himself: and searing to leave his Army in the branch of Nilus next Arabia. For Sena-But to the purpose: That this Land here cherib had already mastered the most part of former Translation, every man may see the King Thirrhakeh (whom Josephus calls 144 the transposition of Kingdoms: for hereby Tharsices) Rabsakeh hasted from the siege of which was afterwards called Eleuthoropolis. as some have supposed. But while he had ill . Too and not Athiopia, which is feated under the fuccess at Pelusium, and feared Thirrhakeh, 19 God himfelf, whom he least feared ftrook his Jews had never any acquaintance, why Antiquities, that it was come to Senacheribs should any man dream that they had know- knowledge, that the Army which was afoot (both to relieve the Egyptians and the Jews) shall impiously think that the Prophet spake Jart: Now, the Defart which lay indifferent Little he knew not what, or used an impertinent between Hierusalem and Pelusium, was that of three Arabia's, to wit, the Stony, of which it is a part; the Defart, and the Happy; and by no other way indeed could the Arabians come on to succour either Pelusium or Hierusalem. But that there is any Defart between Pelusium and the South part of Egypt, hath never yet been heard of, or described by any Cosmographer or Historian. So then this descriptition of the fecond of Kings, Vers.9. hath the fame mistaking as the rest. For here the word (Chush) is also translated Æthiopia; and Nd by this Translation is the Story of in this sence have all the Interpreters (but Ju-A Nd by this Translation is the Story of in this ience have an the interpretation of the ninth senacherib utterly missaken in the cause miss expressed the beginning of the ninth expressed in the senacherib utterly missaken in the cause missaken in the senacherib utterly missaken in the cause missaken in the senacherib utterly missaken in the senacherib utterly missaken in the cause missaken in the senacherib utterly missaken in the senacherib utterly missaken in the senacherib utterly missaken in the senacherib utterly missaken in the senacherib utterly missaken in the senacherib utterly missaken in the cause missaken in the senacherib utterly missaken in the senacherib ut Verse: He heard also men say of Thirrhakeh knowledge that Thirrhaca (which all the In- ens autem de Thirrakeh Rege Chushi; He heard tepreters called King of Ethiopia) was on also of Thirrhakeh King of the Chushites. the way to set on him, he began to withdraw For they were the Chushites and Arabians,

CHAP. VIII. and upon whom the very smoak of Juda used, as in the 16. Psalm: Sub umbra alaflaming was blown, being their nearest ram tuarum protege me; Defend me under the Neighbours: and so were not the Æthiopi- shadow of thy wings. The Boats of Reed an Black-Moors under the Equinoctial whom spoken of are of two kinds; either of basketneither War nor Peace (which discovereth | Willow covered with hides (as anciently in all Regions) ever found out, faith Pliny. For Brittain) or a Tree made hollow in the botthis King was no more King of Ethiopia than tome, and built up on both fides with Canes. Zerah was, who invaded Afa King of Juda, with an Army of a Million, and three thoufand Chariots. Indeed, how fuch an Army and those Chariots should pass through all Egypt (the Kings of Egypt being mighty Kings) let all men that know how these Regions are seated, and how far distant, Judge. For Princes do not eafily permit Armies of a Million to run through them; neither was there ever such strength of Black-Moors heard of in that part of the World, or elsewhere. Neither are these Æthiopians such Travellers or Conquerors; and yet is this King Zerah also called King of Athiopia. But the word chulh being first so converted for Æthiopia, the rest of the Interpreters (not looking into the feats of Kingdoms, or the possibilities of attempts, or invasions) fol# lowed one another in the former miltakings. | VII.

A farther Exposition of the place, Esai. 18. 1

Oncerning these words in that eigh-Winged Ships (fo the Septiagint turn it) or and these four brothers possest all that Tract Cymbalo alarum (according to the Latine) of Land, from Gehon in Chaldea, as far to fails whiftling in the winds, or terra umbrofa the West as the Mediterrane Sea: compreore (after Junius) the Land of a shadowed hending all Arabia Deserta, and Petrea, all eoass, or the Land shadowing with wings, as Canaan which embraceth Galilea, Samaria; our English Geneva hath it. The two sufficient and Judea; with the two Egipts, whereos terpretations of the Septuagint and S. Hierom, the neather is bounded by Memphis on the commonly called the wings of a Ship; shadow over the Red-Sea. But to make both rest of Noahs children, fort themselves. interpretations good, Pintus (upon Ifaiah) affirmeth, that the word (sabal) doth fignifie both to shadow, and to gingle (which is) to make a kind of Cymbaline found: so as the meaning of this place (faith Pintus) is this: Wo to thee, O Egypt, which dost promise to others safeguard, under the shadow of thy wings : which (indeed) seemeth to agree with the argument of the eighteenth Chapter of whose Houses and Cities were next the fire, Haiah: and this phrase is often else-where Of the one fort I have feen in Ireland, of the other in the Indies:

6. X I.

Of the Plantation and Antiquities of Egypt.

That Mizraim the chief Planter of Egypt: and the rest of the Sons of Ham, were feated in order one by another.

He second Son of Ham was Mizraim; who (according to the place of a fecond brother) was fent somewhat farther off to inhabit. For Chush first possest chaldea on the West side of Gehon chiefly: and from thence, as he increased in people, so he entred Arabia, and by time came to the border of the Red-Sea, and to the South-east side of Judea. Mizraim his brother (with Phut) past over into Africa. Mizraim held Egypt; and Phut (as a third brother) was thrust farther off into Mauritania. Canaan took the teenth Chapter of Esay, Navium alarum, Sea-coast, and held the side of Palestina: have one sence in effect. For the sails are South, and by the Mediterrane Sea on the North: and Thebaida (called the upper Eand we use to say ordinarily when our Ships gypt) stretcheth it self toward the South as far fails flowly, that she wanteth wings (that is) as Syene, the border of the Ethiopians, or when her fails are either worn, or too nar- Black-Moors. All the rest of the coast of Africa row: and we also use the same phrase of the Westward, Phut peopled; which brothers had wind whistling in the fails. And it may be not any other Nation or Family that dwelt that the Egyptians imployed so many of those between them. And in the same manner did fmall thips, as their fails were faid to give a all their Sons again, and all the Sons of the

Of the time about which the name of Egypt began to be known: and of the Egyptians Lunary years, which made their Antiquites seem more fabulous.

"His flourishing Kingdom possess by Mizraim, changed her ancient name, and became Egypt, at such time as Ægyptus (otherwise Ramesses, as some think) the son of Belus, chased thence his elder brother Danaus, shifting him into that part of Greece, now called Morea, by whom the Argives were made Danai, abandoning their proper names: which happened 877, years after the of foneth for the Egyptians Antiquity in Floud, in the time of Josia, as Saint Augustine this manner: That the fixteenth Dynasty conjectureth out of Eusebius. But in Homers (where Eusebius begins to reckon the Egypti-Odysses it appeareth that the Egyptians were ans times) had beginning with the general fo called at the time of the Trojane Warr. Floud: and that therefore the first of the And before this, Egypt was known by divers other fifteen reached the Creation, or foon other names, as Oceana, Aria, Ofriana, &c. after it. To which conjecture of Mercator, And Manethon (whom Josephus citethin his Pererius maketh this answer; That therein Kings of Egypt after Moses departure, who it for granted, that the beginning of the fix-many years.

Of the Egyptian Antiquities there are many fancies in Trogus, Herodotus, Plato, Diod. Siculus, Mela, and others. For they affirm (faith Pomp. Mela) that there had reigned in had Memory and Story of 13000. years Athenians and Arcadians, who dare affirm, that they are more ancient than Jupiter and the Moon; whereof Ovid:

Ante Jovem genitum terras habuisse feruntur Arcades : & Luna gens prior illa fuit. The Arcadians the Earth inhabited reckon their years by Moneths, which unadvifed. For he makes Egypt possest, and ter any other of those five diversities of their them upon all the earth, Lunary years.

Ere yet the Moon did shine, or Jove was bred.

i). III.

Of certain vain affertions of the Antiquity of the Egyptians.

Erardus Mercator, in his Chronologie, reafirst Book against Appion) numbreth all the Mercator was first deceived, because he taketh confumed 393. years. By which other men teenth Dynasty was at once with the general conjecture, that the Egyptians took on them Floud: which Eusebius maketh 292. years afthat name, 330. years after Josua, and about ter, and in the time of Abraham. Secondly, 1000, years after the Floud. But where Jo- Mercator maketh the beginning of the shep-Sephus in the same Book taketh Ifrael tobe herds Dynastia (being in number 17.) in the those Hycfes, which he also calleth Passares, or Shepherds, which are said to have reigned in the year of the World 1846. which Eusein Egypt 511. years: whom also he calleth bins findeth in the Worlds Age 2140. For the his Ancestors (meaning the Ancestors of the 16. Dynastia was begun but in the 292, year Jews) in this I am fure he was grolly de- after the Floud, as they account, and conticeived, or that he vainly boafted: for the nued 190 years. Thirdly, whereas Mercator Ifraelites had no such Dominion as Manethon maketh every Dynastia to endure 115. years, faineth, nor abode in Egypt 6 long a time by Engebius reckoneth many of them at less than 100. years: for the 28. had but fix years, the 29. but 20. and the 30. but 18. years.

Now, Annius in his Supplement of Manethon affirmeth, That all these 15. Dynasties lasted but 162. years: and that the first of Egypt 330. Kings before Amasis, who was the 15. began but in the 131. year after the contemporary with Cyrus; and that they Floud: so as where Mercator maketh all the 15. to precede the Floud, and the 16. to and that the Stars had four times changed have been then in being at the time of the their course, and the Sun twice set in the Floud, Annius makes them all after it. But East. These Riddles are also rise among the the contrariety of falshood cannot be hidden, though difguifed. For Annius had forgotten his former Opinion and Affertion, that it was in the 131. year that Nimrod, with the Sons of Noah, came into the Valley of Shinaar: fo he forgets the time which was confumed in the building of Babel: and that before the confusion of Speech there was no dispersion, nor far-off plantation at all. And though he hastily conveyed Gomer into Italy, and Tubal into Spain, in the tenth year of But for those 13000, years, it may well be Nimrods reign (which was ten years after his true; seeing it is certain that the Egyptians arrival into Babylonia) yet herein he is more makes after that account not above 1000, a Government established in the very first or 1100. years, whether we take their year of the arrival of Nimrod into Shimaar, Moneths or Lunary years to have been of the before all partition, or any expedition farr first kind of 27. days and eight hours; or off, or near, in question: for, from thence otherwise 29. days and twelve hours; or af (that is, from Babel) did the Lord scatter

||. IV.

Against Pererius: that it is not unlikely, but that Egypt was peopled within 200. years after the Creation; at least, that both it, and the most parts of the World were peopled before the Floud.

of the History of the World.

Bilt whereas Pererius feeketh to over-throw this Antiquity of the Egyptians touching their Dynasties (which Eusebius doth not altogether destroy, but lessen) I do not find any great strength in this Opinion of Pererius (to wit) that it was either unlikely or impossible that Egypt should be peopled within 100. or 200. years after Adam, in the first Age. And whereas he supposeth dies of men were most perfect, even withthat it was not inhabited at all before the in 130. years the fame (if not a greater) general Floud, I do verily believe the con- number might be increased; and so within trary; and that not only of Egypt, but the better part of all the World was then peopled: percrius his words are these: Quomodo enim primos mundi ducentos, vel citam centum annos Adami proles adeo multiplicari potuit, ut time after it. Neither doth it agree with the ad Ægyptum usque habitandum & complendum propagata fit, &cc. For how could the chil- and Affrian Empire, that all those people, dren of Adam be so multiplied in the first two which we increased in the first 100. or 130. hundred, or in the first hundred years of the years after the Floud, came into Shinaar and World, and so propagated as to inhabit and fill Babylonia. For that ever Noah himself came Egypt? for allowing this (faith Pererius) we out of the Eaft, as there is no Scripture or mult also confes, that there were then both Authority to prove it. To all probable conthe Afgrians and other Nations.

Now, feeing that the Scriptures are filent herein, and that it is no point of our favingbelief, it is lawfull for every man to be guided in this and the like questions by the best reason, circumstance, and likelihood; and herein, as in the rest, I protest that I do not gainfay any mans opinion out of any crossing or cavelling humours: for I think it the part of every Christian, rather to reconcile differences, where there is possibility of union, than out of froward fubrilty, and pre-judicate resolvedness, to maintain factions needless, and dangerous contentions.

First therefore, for this Opinion, that Egypt was not planted fo foon after Adam, no, not at all before the Floud, I fay, that there is no reason why we should give a less increase to the Sons of Adam, than to the Sons of Neah. For their length of life, which exceeded those which came after the Floud double and (after a few years) treble, is an infallible proof of their strength and ability, to beget many Children: and at that time, they observed no degrees of kindred; nor confanguinity. And that there was a speedy be, that long before semiramis Reign, the increase of people, and in great members it greatest part of Asia (whence her huge Armay in some fort appear by this, that Cain, my was gathered) was full of people; yea, who (being fearfull that the death of Abel Arabia it self (much part whereof is barren) would have been revenged on him) withdrew himself from the rest, which were atterward begotten, and dwelt in the Land of Nod, and there, by the help of his own in fues, built a City (called Enoch) after the name of his first-born. Now, if it be gathered that Nimrod came into the Valley of shinaar with so many multitudes as sufficed to build the City and Tower of Babel: and that to this increase there was given but 130. years by Berofus, and after the account of the Scriptures (reckoning, as it is commonly understood, by the birth of Arphaxad, Sclah, Heber, and Phalegh) but one hundred and one year: I fee no cause to doubt, but that in the Infancie of the first Age, when the bo-70. years after (that is, by fuch time as the World had ftood 200. years) as well Asyria, Syria, and Egypt might be possess before the circumstance or true Story of the Babylonian jecture and reason it self denies it. Again, those multitudes and powerfull numbers which semiramis (but the third from Nimrod) found in India, confidered with her own Army of three millions (and the left not all her Kingdoms empty) do well prove, that if the World had such plenty of people in so few years after the Floud, it might also be as plentifully filled in like time before it. For after their own account, Ninus governed Babylonia and Afyria but 292. years after the Floud of Noah. And these Troops of Semiramis were gathered out of all those Eastern Kingdoms, from Media to the Mediterrane Sea; when there had now past from the Floud to the time of this her invafion fornewhat less or more than 260. years: for much more time the true Chronologie cannot allow; though I confess that in respect of the strange greatness of semiranis Army, and the incredible multitudes gathered; this is as fhort a time as can well be given. And if but one half be true of that which is faid, That her Army confilted of 1300000. Footmenjand 500000 Horfe-men, it must needs 124 must long before this time of semiramis, have been plentifully peopled; when Ninus having a determination to make himself Master of all Nations, entred (notwitstanding) in league with the King thereof: whom therefore he either feared, or fought his affistance. And if Arabia were then so well replenished, I see no cause but Egypt might also be peopled. Now, if we may believe Trooms Pompeius (Epitomiz'd by Justine) Egypt was a most flourishing and magnificent Nation before Ninus was born. For these be his own words, speaking of Ninus: Fuere quidem temporibus antiquioribus Vexoris Rex Agypti, Oc. But there were in times more ancient Vexoris King of Egypt, and Tanais King of the Scythians : of which the one invaded Pontus, the other Egypt. And how full of people all that part of the World was, the Conquests of Ninus witness, who subdued with no imal force the Armenians, the Medes, and afterward the Bactrians; yea, all that whole body of Asia on this side India. For Diodorus out of Ctelias numbreth the Armies wherewith Ninus invaded Zoroafter, at and the Stories generally shew, that though was greater than any that those parts of the should I feek for foraign Authority? for no man doubteth, but that Egypt was pofthat it was an established Kingdom, filled with many Cities in Abrahams time, the cultive a defolate and overgrown ground. to beautifie it with many Cities, Laws, and Policies, cannot be esteemed a labour of a few days: and therefore it must be inhabited in a less time than 200. years after the thorter) before the Floud. For if so many millions of men were found within 300 years after the general Floud; fo as not onely Babylon, and Afyria, Battria, Armenia, Media, Arabia, Egypt, Palestina, yea, the faroff Lybia on the one fide, and India on the other, and scythia (inferiour to neither) were all filled: into what fmall corners could then all those Nations be compress, which 1656. years brought forth before the Floud? even necessity, which cannot be resisted cast the abundance of mens bodies into all parts of the known World; especially, where death forbare the Father and made no place for the Son, till he had beheld living Nations of his own body. with a the hereby

||. V.

Of some other Reasons against the Opinion of Pererius.

Or what a strange increase did the long lives of the first Age make, when they continued 800, or 900, years? Surely we have reason to doubt, that the World could not contain them, rather than they were not foread over the World. For let us now reckon the date of our lives in the Age of the World: wherein if one exceed 50. years, ten for one are cut off in that passage, and vet we find no want of people; nay, we know the multitude fuch, as if by Wars, or Peftilence they were not sometimes taken off by many thousands, the Earth, with all the industry of man, could not give them food. What strange heaps then of Souls had the first Ages, who enjoyed 800. or 900. years, as aforefaid? These numbers, Isay, cannot be counted nor conceived. For it would come to the same reckoning in effect, as if all those which have been born in Brittain 1700000. Foot-men, and 200000. Horf-men: fince three or four hundred years before the Norman Conquest (faving fuch as by accident, Zoroafters Army was far short of this, yet it or by violence were cut off) were now alive; and if to these there were added as many as World ever since beheld. But to what end by Polygamy might have been increased. For (to omit, that the Giants and mighty Ones of the first Age observed no Law of Matrifest by Mizraim, the Son of Ham; and mony) it is to be thought, that those Lovers of the World and of Pleasure, when they knew the long and liberal time which na-Scriptures tell us. And fure, to prepare and ture had given them, would not willingly or halfily present themselves to any danger which they could fly from, or eschew. For what humane argument hath better perswafion to make men careless of life, and fear-less of death, than the little time which keeps Floud; and in the same time (if not in a them as under, and that short time also accompanied with fo many pains and diseases, which this envious old Age of the World mingleth together, and soweth with the feeds of Mankind \\

Now, if that Berofus or Annius may be alledged for fufficient Authours, whom Pererive himself in this question citeth, then is it by them affirmed, and by Josephus confirmed, that the City of Engel, was leated near Libarus in Syria: and if other parts of Syria where peopled in Campa time, I fee, pig suite why raleftime (wich is allo a Province of Syria) and Egypt (which restablished in Could be left delotate both all the life time of Campa, and all those times between his death and the Floud, which were by eltimation 790, or 800, years. And fure though this fragment of Bergies with Annius his Comment yet all things in Berofus are not to be rejected. Therefore S. Hierome, for fuch Authours gives a good rule: Bona eorum eligamus, vitemus contraria; Let us choose what is good in them, and reject the reft. And certainly, in the very beginning of the first Book, Berofus agreeth (in effect) with Mofes, touching the general Floud: and in that drawn to the times before the Floud, or to first Part Berosus affirmeth, that those mighty men and Giants which inhabited Enoch, commanded over all Nations, and subjected the universal Word: and though that phrase Sons, wherein doth that necessary division (Of all the World) be often used in the Scriptures for a part thereof; as in the second of it? And whereas it is alledged that the conthe Afts. That there were dwelling at Hicru- fusion of speech was the cause of this disperfalem Jews, men that feared God of every Nat fion; it is true, that it was fo for that prefent; tion under Hewven: yet by the words which but if Babel had never been built, nor any follow in Berofie, it is plain, that his words confusion of Languages at all, yet increase and sence were the same: for he addeth, from the Suns rifing to the Suns fetting; which farther-off and general plantation, as Berocannot be taken for any finall part thereof. [6.5 fays well, that when man-kind were ex-Again, we may fafely conjecture, that Noab ceedingly multiplied, Ad comparandas novas did not part and proportion the World feder necossities compellebut, They were driven among his Sons at adventure, or left them as by necessity to feek new Habitations; For we Discoverers, but directed them to those Re- and (as it is before faid) that within 300. gions which he formerly knew had been in- years after the Floud, there were gathered habited. And it cannot be denied that the together into two Armies such multitudes, Earth was more paffable, and eafie to travel as the Walley about Bubylon could not have over before the Floud, than after it. For Pe- fullained those numbers, with their increase, rerius himself confesses that Attica (by rea- for any long time; all Affa, the Greater and fon of mud and flime which the water left upon the Earth) was uninhabited 200 years after ogrees Floud; whereby we may gather, that there was no great pleasure in passing into farr Countreys, after the general Deluge, when the Earth lay (as it were) incopied for 100. or 130. years together. And therefore was the face thereof in all conjecture more beautifull, and less cumberfome to walk over, in the first Age, than after the general overflowing.

IL VI.

Of the words of Moles, Gen. 10. Verl. ult. whereupon Pererius grounded his Opi-

Aftly, whereas Peraries draws this Argument out of the last Verse of the tenth of Genesis; And out of these were the Nations divided after the Floud: Quo significatur ta-lem divisionem non fuisse anne diluzium; By

Comment be very ridiculous in many places | This consequence, quo significatur, &c. seem-(the ancient Copies being corrupted or lost) eth to me very weak: The Text it self rather teacheth the contrary : For out of thefe (faith Mofes) were the Nations divided in the Earth after the Floud; inferring, that before the Floud the Nations were divided out of others, though after the Floud out of these onely. But whatfoever fence may be gathered from this place, yet it can no way be any plantation or division in that Age: for if there were none elfe among whom the Earth could be divided after the Floud, but Noahs controul the planting of the World before of people and time would have enforced a the Leffer; all scythia, Arabia, Paluftina, and Egypt with Greece, and the Islands thereof; Manritania, and Lybia; being also at that time fully peopled. And if we believe Berofus. then pot onely those parts of the World, but (within 140. years after the Floud) Spain, Haly, and France were also planted : much more then may we think, that within 1656. years before the Floud, in the time of the chief firength of mankind, they were replenifted with people. And certainly, feeing all the World was overflown, there were people in all the World which offended. Constitution (Constitution)

. VII.

A Conclusion, resolving of that which is most likely, touching the Egyprian Antiquities: with somewhat of Phut (another son of Ham) which peopled Lybia.

Herefore, for the Antiquity of the Egotiaus, as I do not agree with Mercator, nor which it appeareth (faith Pererius) that there judge with the Valgar, which give too much was no such division before the Floud; which credit to the Egyptians Antiquities of I do he also seekerh to confirm out of the eleventh not think the report of their Antiquites so of Genesis, because the division of Tongues fabulous, as either Peterius or other men conwas the cause of the dispersion of the people: ceive it. But I rather incline to this, that 126

there might remain unto the Sons of Mizraim thirtieth Chapter of Exechiel, that Phat, Chulb, Stone or Metal) of their former Kings or Go- with the Egyptians. vernours: which the Egyptians having added to the List and Roll of their Kings after the Floud, in fucceding time (out of the vanity of glory, or by some corruption in their Priests) something beyond the truth might be inferted. And that the memory of antiquity was in such fort preserved, Berosus affirmeth it of the Chaldeans, and fo doth Epigenes. For they both write, that the use of Letters, and the Art of Astronomy was known to the Babylonians 2634. years before Alexanders Conquest: and this report Annius findeth to agree, and reach to the time of Enoch, who was born 1034. years before the Floud, and wrote of the Worlds destruction, both by Water and Fire; as alfo of Christ his coming in judgment, as Saint Jude hath witnessed. But leaving these Antiquities to other mens judgments, and every man to his own reason, I will conclude this Plantation of Egypt. It is agreed by all, that it was peopled by Mizraim, and that it took the name of Egypt from Egyptus, the Son of Belus, as aforesaid. Being divided into two Regions, that part from Memphis, or Nicovolis to the Mediterrane Sea, was called the Inferiour Egypt; surnamed also Delta: because the feveral branches of Nilus breaking afunder from one body of the River, gave it the form of the Greek Letter Delta which is the form of a Triangle. That branch, which ran toward the North-east, and embraced the Sea next unto the Defarts of Sur and Pharan, had on it the City of Pelulium, where Senacherib was repulfed: The other branch, which yielded it felf to the Salt-water towards the North-east, is beautified by that famous City of Alexandria: The upper part of Egypt is bounded between Memphis and Syene near Æthiopia, and had the name of Thebaida, of the ancient City of Thebes; which (according to Homer) was adorned with 100. Gates: and therefore called Civitas centum portarum; and by the Greeks, Diospolis; in the Scriptures No-hamon, which signifieth multitudes of In-Jos. 1. habitants, exceeding belief. Josephus calls aut. 7. Egypt, Mersin of Mizrain: and Herodotus affirms that it had once the name of Thebais.

Phut, the third Son of Ham, took the next portion of Land to his Brother Mizraim, and inhabited Lybia: whose people were anciently called Phutei (faith Josephus) and Pliny mentioneth the River Phut in Mauritania: Lister which River from the Mountain Atlas (known to the Inhabitants by the name of Egypt being peopled before the Floud, and Dyris) he maketh to be distant the space of 200. or 300. years more or lessafter Adam, two hundred miles. It also appeareth in the fome Monuments in Pillars or Altars (of and Lud were contermini, and affociates

6. XII.

Of the eleven sons of Canaan, the fourth Son of Ham.

| I.

Of the bounds of the Land of Canaan : with the names of his eleven Sons.

Anaan (the fourth Son of Ham) possest all that Region, called by the Romans Palastina ; in the Scriptures Galilea, Samaria, and Judea; in the latter times known by the name of the Holy Land and Jurie: the limits whereof are precifely fet down by Mofes, Genefis the tenth, Then the border of the Canaanites was from Zidon as thou goeft to Gerar until Azzah, and as thou goeft unto Sodom and Gomorrah, and Adma, and Zeboim, even unto Lasha. Now, howsoever these words of the Hebrew Text (as thou goest) be converted. Mofes meaning was, that Gerar was the South bound of Canaan, and Zidon the North; Sodom and Gomorrab the East, and the other Cities named flood on the Frontiers thereof. For Gerar standeth in a right line from Gaza in the way of Fgipt, the uttermost Territory of Canaan Southward : and this was properly the Land of

Now, the Sons of Canaan which poffest this Countrey, and inhabited some part of the borders thereof were in number eleven.

- t. Zidon.
- Tebuli, or Tebulans.
- Emori, or Emoreus, or Amoreus.
- Girgeshi, or Girgiseus. Hevi, or Chiveus.
- Arki, or Harkeus.
- Seni, or Sineus.
- Arvadi, or Arvadaus.
- 10. Zemari, or Samareus or Tzemareus. 11. Hamathi, or Hamatheur, or Chamathews. The to be a somewhat is in a trail of a sign hard a de

| | II.

Of which the most renowned were the Hethites, Gergesites, ambrites, Heuites, Jebufites, and Perizzites which Perizzites were descended of Zemari, or Samareut, or from fome of his.

||. II.

of the Portions of Zidon and Heth.

Idon the first-born of Canaan, built the ver obtain Zidon it felf.

The fecond Son of Canaan was Heth, or Cethus: of whom came the Hethites, or Hittites, one of those seven principal Nations (Commanders of Canaan) appointed by God to be rooted out; namely, the Gercm.10.19 gestes , the Amorites , the Canaanites , the Perizzites, the Hevites, and the Jebufites. The Hittites inhabited about Berfabe, and towards Hebron, near the Torrent Gen. 13. Befor, and about Gerar, which Mofes maketh the uttermost limit of Canaan, having the Defart of Pharan to the South: for about Bersabe (otherwise Puteus juramenti) four miles from Gaza, dwelt Heth and his Posterity, as far to the North-east as Hebron, and Mantre, and of Ephraim the Hittite, did A- lilee : Gergeseus also built Beritus (sometime Isaac, saying, That she was weary of her life for the Daughters of Heth. The Giants Anakim were of these Hittites, a strong and sierce Nation, whose entertainment by the Kings of Ifrael against them the Syrians greatly feared : as in the feventh of the Kings; Ifrael hath hired against us the Kings of the Hittites.

| III.

of the Jebusites and Amorites.

Ebusaus, the third Son of Canaan, of whom J came the Jebusites, and whose principal feat was Jebus (afterward Hierusalem) were also a valiant and stubborn Nation, and held their City and the Countrey near it, till such time as David by Gods affiftance recovered both : yet were not the Jebulites extinguished, but were Tributaries to Solomon.

Amoreus was the fourth Son of Canaan, of whom the Amorites took name, who inhabited that Land to the East of Jordan below the Sea of Galilee, having Arnon and the Mountains of Galaad on the East, and Jordan on the West: of whom og (King of Basan) and Sihon (overthrown by Moses) were Princes.

The Amorites had also many other habitations dispersed within the bounds of Ca-losyria, or Syria Libanica. They had also their being in the Mountains of Juda, and in Idumaa, near the Metropolis thereof, called Dent. 1. Duma. And hereof it came that all the Ca-Numb. 13; naanites were sometimes called Amorites : as famous City of Ziden in Phanicia, which in Genesis the fifteenth: For the wickedness afterward fell in partition to the Tribe of of the Amorites is not yet full. And that this Affer: for Affer, Zabulon, and Nepthali had a was also a powerfull Nation, we find in the Amas : great part of the ancient Phanicia distributed among them; but the Afferites could ne- before them, whose heighth was like the heighth of a Cedar and he was strong as the Oak.

II. IV.

of the Gergefites, Hevites and Harkites.

THe fift Son of Canaan was Gergesius, or Gergesion (otherwise Girgasi) who inhabited on the East-side of the Lake of Tiberias. or the Sea of Galilee, where Ptolemy fets the City Gerafa, which Josephus calls Gesera, in the Territory of Decapolis. Here it was that Christ dispossessed the possessed with devils; and the Gergestes desired him to depart their Coasts, because their Swine, filled with the evil Spirits, drowned themselves in the Sea of Gabraham buy the Field of Sarahs burial. Of Geris) afterward Fælix Julia, three miles which Nation Rebecca bewailed her felf to from the River Adonis in Phanicia: in which the Romans held a Garrison: and to which Augustus gave many large priviledges.

Heveus the fixth Son, and Father of the Hevites, inhabited under Libanus near Emath. These Hevites, howsoever the Caphthorim expelled a good part of them (as in Deuteronomie the fecond is remembred) yet many of them remained all the Warr of Josua, and afterward to the time of Solomon. For God was not pleased utterly to root out these Nations but they were sometimes made Tributaries to the Ifraelites, and at other times ferved (in their falling away from the true worship of God) to afflict them: for as it is written, Judges the third : They remained to prove Ifrael by them, whether they would obey the Commandments of God.

The feventh Son was Araceus, or Harki, who between the foot of Libanus and the Mediterrane Sea (over against Tripolis) built the City of Archas, Arce, or Arca, afterwards

Arachis.

| V.

of Sini and Arvadi.

Cineus the eighth Son, Hierosolymitanus Jets at Caparorsa, which Ptolemy finds in Judea, not farr from Jebus; to the South naan: as behind Libanus, in the edge of Ca- thereof, faith Junius. But it is more pro-

CHAP. VIII.

ty than the report of Brochard, who took the letter C. (otherwise Kenei) who defcended of Hobab the Son of Raguel the Madianite, who affifted the Ifraelites in their conduction through the wilderness of Pha-Nephtalims, beside their inhabitations with Naturals. Judg 4. the Amalekites: against these Cinai, Balaam prophefied, that they should be destroyed by the Asyrians. The ninth Son was Aradeus, or Arvadeus, who in the Isle of Aradus, built the City Arados: opposite against which Island, on the Main of Phænicia, they founded another Ciafterwards called Antaradus. To this City Ifle preached the Gospel, and founded a Church in honour of our Lady: but we find no fuch work of his in the Ads of the Apostles. Both these two were very famous, and places of skilfull Sea-men: whom Ezechiel remembreth in his Prophecies against the Tyrians: The inhabitants of Zidon and Arvad were thy Mariners.

||. V I. of Zemari.

F Samareus, or Zemari, the tenth Son. there are divers Opinions. Some think that he inhabited in Cælosvria at Edesla, and founded samaraim, which in Josua is placed in the Tribe of Benjamin. There is also Sa- that Epiphania, which standeth to the North marajim (of the same Orthography) upon the of Emesa, hath all the Province of Landi-Mountain of Ephraim (faith Beroaldus) mentioned in the fecond of Chron. c. 13. v. 4. which the Latine converteth amiss (saith he) by Semeron. The Hierofolymitan Paraphraft. makes Samareus (of whom were the Perizzites) the Parent of the Emissani, which Pliny tween Epiphania and any part of the Holy calls the Hemisseni, in Caelosyria; and it may Land: and therefore Emath so taken, could be that it was their first habitation, and that not be a part of Nephtali, as in the thirteenth they afterwards inhabited those other places of Josua is directly proved. For Josua countbefore remembred. But that they founded ing the Lands that remained unpoffest, rec-Samaria, both the Hebrew Orthography, koneth all Mount Libanon towards the Sunand this place in the first of Kings (speak- rising, from Baalgad under Mount Hermon, ing of Omri) disproveth: And he bought the until we come to Hamath. And this reason Mountain Samaria, or Shemeron, of one She- (among others) is used that Emath was not bable, that Sineus founded Sin, which Saint | mar, for two Talents of Silver, and built in the Hierome calls Sim: Ptolemy, Simyra: Mela, Mountain; and called the name of the City and Pling, Symirus : Brochard, Sycon (called which he built, after the name of Shemar, Lord Synochis ) near Arca. Pererius thinks that Si- of the Mountain, Samaria. But of all these news inhabited the Defarts of Sinai or there- places I shall speak more at large in the Conabout; but hereof there is no other certain- quest of the Holy Land, by the children of Ifrael. Of whomloever the Samaritans were view of all these places, affirming that Sinens | descended, fure I am, that they were ever built Sinochis, as Zidon built Zidon. There a perfidious Nation, and base : for as long as is also another Nation of Cini, written with the state of the Jews stood up, they always called themselves Jews: when it suffered, or fank, they then utterly denied to be of that Nation or Family; for at fuch time as they were returned from their first captivity, they ran. But the Cinai were admitted among the became a mixt Nation; partly of the Co-Ifraelites, and had a portion of Land with the lonies of the Assyrians, and partly of the of Hamathi.

I. VII.

"He last of Canaans Sons was Hamatheus, or (according to the Hebrew) Haty of that name, which for opposition was mathi, of Hamath (faith Bervaldus:) of which (the aspiration taken away) the same is procame Saint Peter (faith Clement) and in this nounced Emath, whereof Hamatheus was present. Josephus, and Saint Hierome confound Emath with Antioch: not that Antioch which frandeth on the River Orontes, on the frontier of Comagena, between the Mountain Caffins, and the Province of Pieria, and Seleucis, of which Saint Peter was Bishop, and in which Saint Luke and Ignatius were born; but Antioch, surnamed Epiphania, as Beroal-dus supposeth, which standeth between Apamea and Emela in Calliotis. Yet indeed, Emath cannot be taken for either: for both that Antioch upon Orontes, and that which neighboureth Emela, are farther off feated from Canaan, than ever any of those Nations straggled. And whereas S. Hierom setteth Emath, which he confoundeth with Epiphania, in the Tribe of Nephtali; it is manifest, cea between it and any part of the Land divided. And if Libanon it self were not shared among the Tribes, then could not Epiphania belong unto them: for both the Provinces, Laodicea, and Libanica, are bein Nephtalim, or any way belonging to the Hebrew, Schin. Sebathe eldeft Son of Chufb, children of If ael: because David accepted Regma his brother, and Sheba the Son of Regsends the presents of Tohn King of Emath, and ma, policised both the shores of Arabia falix. (therewithal) conditions of peace: which Saha took that part towards the Red-Sea. he would not have done, if that Territory as neerest his Father Chush, and the Land of had ever belonged to the children of Ifrael, the Chastes: Regma and Sheba the East coast but would have recovered it without com- of the fame Arabia, which looketh into the polition, and by strong hand, as he did the Gulfe of Persia, of which Pliny: Sabai, Arabum reft. But this Argument (as I take it) hath populi, propter thura clariffini, ad utraque mano great weight: For if the promife which ria porreitis gentibus habitant . The Sabaans. God made, be considered, as it is written in people of Arabia, famous for their Frankin-Deuteronomy, then might Emath be compre-cense, extending their Nations, dwell along hended, though feated altogether without both the Seas (to wit) the Persian, and the Athe bounds of the Land promifed, according rabian or Red-Sea. This Country was afterto the description of Moses and Josia: for E- wards called Arabia, à populi mixtione, saith math is indeed fituated on the other fide of Postellus. To this agreeth Ptolemy, who the Mountain of Hermon, which joyneth to letteth the City of Saba towards, the Arabian Libanus; and is otherwise called Hurea. or Red-Sea, and the City Rhegama towards But whereas Hamath is named in Josua 19. v. the Perssan; with whom also we may leave 35. and written in the Latine conversion E. Sabta: for so much Montanus gathereth out math, therein (faith Beroaldus) was S. Hierom of Ptolemy, because he remembreth a Natimiltaken. Emath or Iturea is that over the on (called Stabai) near the Persian Sca; and Mountains, and the City in Nephtalim should Majjabathe which descended of them. But bewritten Hamath: and so the Septuagint Montanus hath sent Regma, or (as he calls (understanding the difference) write it Am- him) Rhama, into Carmania, for which I fee understanding the difference which indeed no reason. Josephus, who only attended his belongeth to the Nephtalims, seated on the own fancies, hath banished Saba or Seba to South fide of Libanus, to the East of Assedim: the border of Ethiopia. But Beroaldus which City S. Hierom writes Emath; Jose- thinks it strange, that the Sahei, which stole phus, Hamab; others, Ematkin, or Amathees, away Job's Cattel, should run through all and the people Amathein; of which (as I Egypt, and all Arabia Petrea, and find out Kings. Where is the God of Hamath?

6. XIII.

of the sons of Chush (excepting Nimrod, o whom hereafter.)

chush Sabteca, were, Nimred.	)

in Arabia the Happy: and of the Sabaans that robbed Job : and of the Queen that came to Solomon.

Seba or Saba was the eldest son of Chush, the eldest Son of Ham; to make a diffewith a fingle (8) Samech, and Sheba the Son to pass them, especially with any numbers of Regma with an (8) asperat, which is the of Cattel, both in respect of the Mountains, of take it) Rabsakeh vaunteth in the second of job in Traconitis, between Palassina and Calofyria, 1200. miles off. Now, as this conjecture was more than ridiculous, so do I think, that neither the Sabei on the Red-Sea, nor those towards the Persian Sea, could by any means execute the stealth upon fob, which foever Beroaldus shall take for nearest. But these were the Sabai of Arabia the Desart, where Guilandinus Melchior affirmeth out of his own experience, that the City Saba is feated: the fame which Ptolemy calls Save, now Semiscasac: and from this Saba in Arabia the Defart, came those Magi or Wife-men, which worthipped Christ, saith Melchior, whose words are these: The Magi came neither out of Mesopotamia (as Chrysoftom, Hierom, and Ambrofe Supposed) nor out of Arabia That most of the Sons of Chush were feated the Happy, as many wise-men do believe, but out of Saba in Arabia the Defart : which City, when my self was there, was (as I judged it) called semificafac. And to approve this Opinion of Guilandinus, it appeareth that these Sabei were neighbours to Job, and lay fit to invade and rob him. For both the other Natirence between Him and his Nephew Sheba, ons (as well those on the Persian Sea, as those the Son of his Brother Raama or Regma (or on the Red Sea) are so dis-joyned with large Ragma after Montanus) his dame is written Desarts, as there is no possibility for strangers in those parts: Ubi nec homines, nec bestia vi- the West of Sabatha towards the Red Sea, dentur, nec aves, imo nec arbores, nec gramen the great City of saba; and the Nation adaliquod, sed non nist montes saxosi, altissimi, asper- joining, sabæi; and to the South thereof rimi; Where there are found neither men, nor again toward the streight entrance of the beasts, nor birds, no, not so much as trees, or Red Sca, the Region of Sabe. To all these any pasture or grass, but onely sharp, and high, his brothers and nephews which were seated flony, and craggie mountains. Beroaldus and on the East side of Arabia, Havilabby the Pererius conceive, that the Queen of Saba, passage of Tygris was a neighbour, to whom which came to visit Solomon, was of the Sa- he might pass by Boat, even unto Rhegma bei, on the East side of Arabia fælix ; but the the City of Raama, or Rhegma, set neer the contrary scemes more probable, and that she River of Lar towards the mouth of the Perwas Queen of Saba towards the Red Sea : for fian Sea, which stood in Ptolemy's time? Solomon at that time commanding all that part of Arabia Petrea, betwixt Idumaa and the Red Sea, as far down as Midian or Madian and Frion Gaber: and this Queen of Saba, which inhabited the West part of Arabia Fælix, being his neighbour, might, without any far travel enter his Territories free from all danger of furprise by any other Prince or

But to avoid tediousness it is manifest that Plia. L.1. of his Name, the City of opposition, of output of the habitation of his father and brother). 2.14. In the lame Arana: Of which both lamy a dictional miles. Befides which and Ptolemy; who withall nameth Sabotale, above four thousand miles. Befides which the Ethiopians Altabari, they be not worthy Cats, and Rice, but nothing at all of any given: especially seeing these Cities, pre- for Linnen, or Iron chiefly. ferving the memory of the names of Saba. in Ptolemy's time, though in some letters onely by imagination: and, being under the changed. As also in the coasts adjoining, the burnt Zone, was held uninhabitable. And names of other of the brethren of the Family therefore that the Negroes of the West Æthiof Chush, with little alterations, are preserved. opia, which inhabite about Serra Liona, or In Arabia the Defart, is found the City of Sa- Niger could either pass by Sea or Land to Tyre, be, or Save (now Semifcafac) with the City in the bottom of the Mediterrane Sea, were of Rhegana for Rhegma; and the Nation by a strange, or rather a foolish fancy. Now, to Ptolemy himself called Raabeni of Raamah. In put it out of dispute, that Dedan also dwelt Arabia the Happy, is found the City of Rhe- by the rest of the children of Chush, which gama, and Rabana; which also keepeth the seats they held by that name in the time of found of Rhegma, the City of Saptha, or Sap- Hieremy the Prophet; let us hear Hieremy tah, not far from the East-coast of Arabia: as his own words: Fly, ye inhabitants of Dedan, also the Metropolis and chief City in the bo- for I have brought the destruction of Esau up-the fands, and of the extreme want of water | out difference or alteration Sabatha, and to

II. IL

Josephus his Opinion of Dedan, one of the Hine of Chush to have been feated in the West Ethiopia, disproved out of Exechiel and Hieremy.

Nd whereas Josephus (whom in this Saint Hierom followeth, as not curious here-Seba, or Saba, Sabta, Raama, or Regma, with in) fent Dedan the Son of Raamab into the his Sons, sheba and Dedan, and Sabteca, were West Ethiopia, it is strange that Exceliel all the possessions of Arabia the Happy, and the should couple Sheba, and Raamah, and Dedan Defart : onely Havilah and Nimrod dwelt to- together; Dedan in the 15. Verse, and sheba gether on the East fide of Chush, who held and Raamah in 22. Verse, to be the Merchants Arabia Petraa. Now, for Sabta, there is found of Tyre, if Dedan had dwelt in West Ethiof his Name, the City of sbbatha, or Sabota opia, which is distant from Raamah and Shewithin the walls whereof there was some- the Merchandise that the Dedanites brought times found fixty Temples. Ezechiel joineth to Tyre doth not make them naked Blackthe Father and the Son together, The Mer- Moors. For they of Dedan faith Exechiel) chants of Sheba and Raama were thy Mer- were thy Merchants in precious cloaths for chants. And that they were the Eastern Ara- thy Chariots; and these Western Ethiopians bians, their Merchandife witnefleth former- never faw cloth, till the Portugals, feeking ly repeated in the Chapter of Paradife. For those Coasts, traded with them: the Mer-Josephus his fancies, that Saba was the Parent chandise of the Countrey being Hides, Eleof the Ethiopians about Merce, and Sabta of phants Teeth, some Gold and Amber, Civetany farther Answer then hath already been manufacture: and all these they exchanged

But in those days, the West part of Africa. and of Sabta in Arabia, were yet remaining within the body of the Land, was known dy of the South part of Arabia, called with- on him. Hereby it appeareth, that Dedan mea is a Province of Arabia Petrea: and Dedan, which dwelt on the North part of Ara- eth that which is spoken in the third Verse bia Falix, joined in that part to Peiraa, the of Lud, not to be meant of the Lybians at all: feat of his Grand-father Chush; which neighbourhood of Dedan and the Idumaans, is alfo confirmed by Ezechiel: I will stretch out my Exch. 15. hand upon Edom, and destroy Man and Beast out of it, and will make it desolate from Teman: and they of Dedan fhall fall by the foord.

CHAP. VIII.

in the He-

6. XIII.

Of the issue of Mizraim: and of the place of Hieremie, Chap. 9. Verse 7.

A Fter Chuft, it followeth to speak of Miz-raim's Sons, whose names (faith Saint Augustine) were plural, to fignifie the Nations which came of them. Ludim, the elder Son of Mizraim, was the Father of the Lybiral num- ans in Africa: and the rest of his Brothers ber, as aim, dispersed themselves into all the Regions adjoining. Among the Sons of Shem, there is also Lud; but he is differenced from Lud the Son of Mizraim by the fingular number: the Son of Shem being written Lud; the Son of Mizraim, Ludim: and yet these Names and came the Philistims, whom the Scriptures Nations are often confounded, notwithstanding the apparent difference both of Names and Nations. For, that Ludim the Son of Mizraim was the Parent of the Lybians in Africa, and that he was feated not far the Mountain Callins are found, not far from from Mizraim his Father, appeareth by the Prophet Hieremie, who joined them in this fort together : Come up ye Horses, and rage ye Chariots, and let the valiant men come forth, Pelusium. Strabo calls it Sethrotis; Stephanus the Black-moores, and the Lybians which bear and Pliny, Sethroitis, of the City Sethron: the shield : for those Nations affisted the Egyptians, being of one Parent descended. And in Exechiel, Phut and Lud are joined together. Æthiopia (or Chush) faith Ezechiel, c. 30. v. 3. and Phut and Lud, and all the common people, and the men of the Land that are in league, shall fall with them by the sword: which is as much to fay, as the Sons of Chush (which were the Chulites) the Sons of Mizraim (which were the Egyptians) and the Lybians (defcended of his Son Lud) with other the Inhabitants of Egypt and Africa, shall fall together. Hierosolymitanus finds also in Africa a Nation of the Lidyans. And I believe it: because Hieremie joineth the Libyans and Lydians together in the place before remembred. But Libya in Africa is by the Hebrews called Ludim (faith Arias Montanus ) though 2 Chron. 12. 3. they feem to be called Lubim or Lubai, a name somewhat neer the word Lybies, and by which it may feem that the indeed at this time in Gerar; but it is writtruer writing is, not Libyes, but Lybies. Nei- ten, that he was also King of the Philistims, in was a Neighbour to the Idumeans: and Idu- ther is it here to be omitted, that Pintus (upon the thirtieth of Ezechiel) understandfor he will have this threatning to be meant against the people of Lyda, a City (saith he) between Egypt and Palastina, which opinion I could not mislike, if the City of Lyda were fo feated. But Lyda (which should be written Lydda, with a double d, and is the same City which was afterward Diospolis, in which S. Peter cured Æneas of the Palfey) standeth neer the Torrent Gass, not farr from Joppe the Port of Hierusalem. Yet it is not imposfible but that this City might have Lud for the Founder: For there are many Cities of one name, founded in all the Regions of the World, and farr afunder; as after the names of Alexander, Seleucus, and Antiochus, many Cities called Alexandria, Seleucia and Antiochia: fo of divers others. S. Hierome maketh Lehabim to be the Father of Libya, who was the third Son of Mizraim: and fo doth Poftellus; and either Opinion may be true.

The rest of Mizraim's Sons have no proper Countreys given them in the Scriptures; faving Caslubim and Caphtorim, of whom call Pelefet.

These Cassubim inhabited Cassiotis, a Region lying in the enterance of Egypt from Palestina, in which the Lake Sirbonis, and whence Pompey was buried.

Caphtorim feated near Cassum in that Tract of Egypt called Sethrotis, not far from which Ortelius takes to be the fame which Ptolemy calls Hercules parva. Of the Cassuhim and Caphtorim came the Philistims, which are called by the Septuagint Allophyli (which is) Alienigena, Strangers, or of a strange kindred. These Philistims inhabited the South part of the Holy Land towards Egypt, of whom Palastina took name. For the Hebrews (faith Isidore) do not use the letter (p) but infteed of it (ph.) Their principal Cities were Gaza, Afcalon, Azotus, Geth, and Accuron: and the people of them called Gafei, Ascalonita, Azotii, Gethai, and Accaronita : Isidore affirms, that Ascalon was first called Philistim; and of that City the Countrey adjoining. But where Isidore had it, I know not.

The first known King of the Philistims, was that Abimelech, who had a liking to Abrahams wife; with whom Abraham made a covenant and league. This Abimelech dwelt

R 2

130

Pollupon these words: Wherefore Isaac went to Abime- stina, it is not certainly known. And sure in the Mediterran Sea to the Northward, from Damajeus into Kir: and so Josephus seems to the Castle of Pilgrims (otherwise Casarea Pa- understand this Kir of Cyrene in Media, call-Lestina, or Stratons Tower ) which was the ing this Cyrene, Media superior: for it was the South border of Phanicia, to Gaza, or to the manner and policy of the Afgrians to trans-River of Egypt. The Anakims or strong Gy-plant the people conquered by them, as they named. They had sometimes five Kings, saith called Syro-Media: because the Syrians by Lyranus. They maftered the Ijraelites at fe- the Affyrians were therein captived. veral times above 150. years, and kept them Tributaries, till they were weakened by Sampson and Samuel; but in the end, this yoke was taken off by David, and laid on themselves.

It is Objected, that because these Cities and the Countries adjoyning, were held by the Sons of Mizraim, therefore did the Ifraelites dispossess the Sons of Mizraim, and not of Canaan, by forcing those places.

To this faith Pererius, that although the Palastines or Philistims held it in the time of Josua, yet at the time of the Promise it was possessed by the Canaanites; as in the second of Deuteronomy. The Hevites dwelt in the Villages unto Gaza. And what marvel, if (the Canaanites being the greater part) the denomination were from them? For that the Philistims were of Caphtor, and so of Mizraim, and not of Canaan, besides Moses, the Hier. c 47. Prophet Jeremy witnesseth: The Lord will destroy the Philistims: the remnant of the iffue of Caphtor: and in like manner in the Amos 9 ninth of Amos, the Philistims are faid to be Abraham descended.) the reliques of Caphtorim: Have not I brought up Ifrael out of the Land of Egypt, and the Philistims from Caphtor, and Aram from Kir? so I read this place with divers of the learned. For whereas the Vulgar hath, and Palestinos de Cappadocia, & Syros de Cyrene, Assur (who was supposed to found Ninive) this conversion Beroaldus condemneth; where Caphtor is taken for Cappadocia, and Cyrene for Kir. For Cyrene is a City directly West from Egypt, between Ptolomais or Barce and Apollonia; but Kir in Asia under the Assirians: Junius hath it Kir, and not Cyrene; and so hath the Geneva. But Perebound: and yet it is not altogether impro-Of which bable if he mean Cappadocia in Palassina, and and to whom Ophir and Havilah the Sons of lech King of the Philistims unto Gerar. Now this manner he may expound Cappadocia to in regard that this or some antienter Abime- be ambiguous, aswell as he doth Crene: lech governed the Common-wealth greatly taking it here not for Cyrene in Africa but to his glory, the rest of his successors called for a place in Media. For it is written in the themselves by the same name. The Phili-stims commanded that Tract of Land upon the Assignment Agrans carried away the inhabitants of 10.9. ants were of these Philistims: and Goliah did the Samaritans or Israelites, and other was of Geth, one of the five Cities above Nations. And hereof it came that Kir was > s. XV. of the iffue of Sem.

||. I. of Elam, Affur, Arphaxad, and Lud.

It remaineth lastly to speak of the Sons of sem, who are these:

- I. Alam, or Elam,
- 2. Afbur, 3. Arphaxad.
- 4. Lud, and
- 5. Aram.

"He posterity of Sem, Moses recounterh after the rest: because from them he proceedeth in order with the Genealogie and Story of the Hebrews: (For of sem was

Of these five Sons, the Scriptures remember the length of the life of Arphaxad only, and only the Children of him and Aram; the rest are barely spoken of by reherfal of their names, faving that it may be gathered, that was also said to be the Father of the Asyrians, whose issues, and the issues of cham, infantly contended for the Empire of the East: which sometimes the Asyrians, sometimes the Babylonians obtained, according to the virtue of their Princes. This is the common opinion, which also teacheth us that rius calls Caphtorim Cappadocia, according all the East parts of the World were peoto the Vulgar translation, to which he is pled by Affur, Elam, and Lud (faving India) which I believe Noab himself first inhabited: not that Cappadocia by the Sea Pontus in the Jostan afterward repaired: Hi filii Sem ab North of Asia the Less. For whether they in Euphrate fluvio partem Asia usque ad Oceanum habited sethrettes, or Cappadocia of Pale- Indicum tennerunt; Thefe sons of Sem (faith of the History of the World. CHAP. VIII.

phrates to the Indian Ocean. Of Elam came the Elamites, remembred, of Elam came the Enames of Persia; which name then began to be out of use and lost, when the Persians became Masters of Babylonia: the East Monarchy being established Cham possess the rest. It is true that he was in them. Some prophane Writers diftinguish the Father of the Hebrews: For Arphaxad call sufan) in Elam was the Kings feat of Perfia (witness Daniel) And I faw (faith he) in a cording to Ptolemy) in Daniel, Olai: and his friends. feated in the border of Susiana.

Ashur (as most Historians believe) the second Son of Sem, was Father of the Asprians, who disdaining the pride of Nimred, parted from Babel, and built Ninive, of equal beauty and magnitude with Babylon, or exceeding it. But we shall in due place disprove that opinion. Every mans hand hath been in this Story, and therefore I shall not need herein to speak much: for the Asyrians so often invaded and spoiled the Ifraelites, destroyed their Cities, and led them Cap-

of the Asprians of any fuch power, after such | Greek Mesopotamia simply. time as Sardanapalus lost the Empire. For him towards the West, notwithstanding verted witness: Quos nos Syros vocamus, 19-19-Have the Gods of the Nations delivered them which we call Syrians (faith he) themselves call Streb. 1. 1. rej. 11. these vaunts of Senacherib in Esay the 37. whom my Fathers have destroyed: as Gozan, Aramenians and Arameans. and Haran, and Reseph, and the children of Eden which were at Telassar? Where is the King of Hamath, and the King of Arphad, and Syrians in general; (and not only of those the King of the City Sepharuaim, Hena and in Syria Inter-Amnis, which is Mesopotamia) Ivah? All these were indeed but petty Kings some read, Genes. 22. 21. Kemuel, the Father of Cities, and small Countries, as Haran in of the Syrians: where others out of the ori-Mesopotamia: Reseph in Palmyrena: Hamath ginal read Kemuel, the Son of Aram. Neior Emath in Iturea, under Libanus : the He ther is it any inconvenience for us to underof Eden: Sephar, and others of this fort fland the word (Aram) here, not for the Yea, Nebuchadonozor, who was most pow- Nation, but for the name of fome one of erful before the conquest of Egypt, had but note; the rather, because in the History of Chaldea, Mesopotamia, and Syria; with Pala- Abraham and Isaac (which was in time long fina, and Phanicia, parts thereof. But in before Kennels Posterity could be famous) this question of Affir, I will speak my opini- we find Mejopotamia called Aram; and that on freely when I come to Nimrod, whose with an addition, sometimes with Nabarajim. Plantation I have omitted among the rest of and sometimes of Padan, to distinguish it

(St. Hierom) held all those Regions from Eu- the Chastres, because he established the first Empire: from whom the most memorable story of the World taketh beginning.

Of Arphaxad came the Chaldeans, faith Saint Hierom and Josephus; but it must be those Chaldeans about Or: For the Sons of Elam from Persia, and make the Elamites a begat Shela, and Shela, Heber, of whom people apart. But susa (which the Scriptures hereafter.

And that Lud, the fourth Son of shem, gave name to the Lydians in Alia the less, is Vision, and when I aw it, I was in the palace of the common opinion; taken from Josephus Sulan, which is in the Province of Elam. This and Saint Hierom; but I fee not by what rea-Pail Ass City is embraced by the River Euleus (ac. fon he was moved to ftraggle thither from

II.

of Aram, and his Sons.

Ram the first and last Son of Shem was A the Parent of the Syrians: of which Damascus was head. Their name was chang- Elay 7. 8. ed from Aram or Aramites by Syrus (faith Eusebius out of Josephus) which Syrus lived Ensel. p. before Moses was born; the same which o- 10, C. thers call the Son of Apollo. Mesopotamia tives, as both in Divine and Humane letters also, being but a Province of Syria, had the there is large, and often mention of this name of Aram Naharajim, which is as much to say, as, Syria duorum fluviorum; Syria But howfoever Herodotus and D. Siculus compaffed with two Rivers, (to wit) Tygris extend this Empire, and honour this Nation and Emphrates. The Scriptures call it Melopowith ample Dominion; yet was not the state tamia, Syria, and Padan Aram: and the Arise and get thee to Padan Aram (faith Isa- Gen. 18. Senacherib, who was one of the powerfulleft Princes among them, had yet the Mountain

Artycanu get the boule of Bethuelthy Mothers 2. fee acto Jacob 10 the boule of Bethuelthy Mothers 5. fee artycanu get the boule on anam rame (anti-yie cos. 15.

Eather, and thence take thee a wrife. Strabo 10. allo Taurus for the utmost of his Dominion to- also remembreth it by the antient name of A- Dominion 10- also remembreth it by the antient name of A- Dominion 10- also remembreth it by the antient name of A- Dominion 10- also remembreth it by the antient name of A- Dominion 10- also remembreth it by the antient name of A- Dominion 10- also remembreth it by the antient name of A- Dominion 10- also remembreth it by the antient name of A- Dominion 10- also remembreth it by the antient name of A- Dominion 10- also remembreth it by the antient name of A- Dominion 10- also remembreth it by the antient name of A- Dominion 10- also remembreth it by the antient name of A- Dominion 10- also remembreth it by the antient name of A- Dominion 10- also remembreth it by the antient name of A- Dominion 10- also remembreth it by the antient name of A- Dominion 10- also remembreth it by the antient name of A- Dominion 10- also remembreth it by the antient name of A- Dominion 10- also remembreth it by the antient name of A- Dominion 10- also remembreth it by the antient name of A- Dominion 10- also remembreth name of A- Dominion 10 wards the North-east, and Syria bounded ram, or Aramea, as these his own words con-& Syri Aramenios & Arameos vocant; Those Plat 59.

Against this opinion, that Aram the Son of Sem was the Father and Denominator of the

also was called Aram. For whereas Junius thinks, in his Notes upon Gen. 25, 20, that Padan-Aram ought to be restrained to some part of Mesopotamia (to wit) to that part which Ptolemy calls Ancobaritis (fo called from the River Chaboras, which, dividing it, runneth into Euphrates) the promiscuous use of Padan Aram and Aram Naharajim (which | feathers, to carry them far away in all haft. latter appellation questionless comprehends For mine own Opinion, I always keep the the whole Melopotamia) may feem to refute rule of Neighbourhood, and think with 74this Opinion: especially seeing the signification of this appellation agreeth with the whole Region. For it fignifieth as much as | Province of Calliotis, and Selencis, where Ptothe yoak of Syria, which name agreeth with lemy placeth Gindarus, and the Nation by this Region: because the two Rivers (as it Pliny called Gindareni. were) voaked together go along it. The na (as Junius hath well noted) the one upon Chaboras, the other upon Euphrates.

The Sons of Aram were, Sether, and Mesch, or Mes.

Uz, or Hus, inhabited about Damascus. and built that City, faith Josephus and Saint Hierom. But Toftatus mistaking this Opinion, both in them and in Lyra, who also followeth Josephus, affirmeth, that Abraham's Steward. Eliezer, was the Founder thereof; though it were likely that Hus, the eldeft Son of Aram, the same, adjoining to Arabia the Desart, and to Batanea, or Traconitie; whereof the Prophet Hieremy: Rejoyce and be glad, O Lam chap daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the Land 4. v. 21. of Hus. Hus therefore is feated beyond fordan, in the East Region of Traconitis, adjoining to Basan, having Batanea Gaulonitis, and the Mountain Seir to the East, Edrai to the South, Damascus North, and Fordan West: having in it many Cities and People, as may also be gathered out of Hieremy: And all forts of people, and all the Kings of the Land of Hws. In this Region dwelt Job, descended of Hus, the Son of Nahor, the Brother of Abrabam (faith S. Hierom) and married Dina the Daughter of Jacob, faith Philo. Hul, the second Son of Aram, S. Hierom makes the Father of the Armenians; and Gether, the third fon Parent to the Acarnanians, Shem, begat Shelah, and Heber. Heber had or Carians: which Opinion (because I find two Sons, Phaleg and Jostan: and in Phaleg's Sea. 7. not where to fet him) I do not disprove, time was the Earth divided.

from another Aram, which (as it feems) then I though I fee no reason why Gether should leave the fellowship of his own Brethren, and dwell among strangers in Asia the less. Junius gives Hul (whom he writes Chul) the Defart of Palmyrena, as far as Euphrates, where Ptolemy fetteth the City of Cholle.

Gether (faith Josephus) founded the Buctrians: but Josephus gave all Noah's children nius (to wit) That Gether feated himself neer his Brothers in the Body of Syria, and in the

Junius also giveth to Mes, or Mesch the Reliques of the name Padan appear in the North part of Syria, between Cilicia and Mename of two Cities, in Ptolemy, called Aphada- Sopotamia, neer the Mountain Massus. The certainty of those Plantations can no otherwife be known than by this probability that Aram the Father (of whom that great Region took name) planted his Sons in the fame Land about him: for he wanted no scope of Territory for himself and them; neither then when the World was newly planted, nor in many hundred years after: and therefore there is no reason to cast them in the Defart parts of the World, fo far afunder. And as necessity and policy held them together for a while; fo ambition (which began together with Angels and Men) inhabiting the hearts of their children, fet them afun-

der. For although these Sons of Aram, and dwelt neer unto his Father, who inhabited the Sons of the rest of Noah's children, kept the body of syria. For Hus was a Region of themselves within the bounds of some one large Kingdom; yet therein every one also fought a Province apart, and to themselves; giving to the Cities, therein built, their own names, thereby to leave their memory to their Posterity: the use of letters being then rare, and known to few.

In this fort did the pride of the Spaniards in America cast them into so many Provinces: every one emulating and disdaining the greatness of other, as they are thereby to this day subject to invasion, expulsion, and destruction: so as (Nova Hispania and Peru excepted, because those Countreys are unacceffible to strangers) an easie force wil cast them out of all the reft.

Mes, the fourth Son, is made the Parent of the Meonians: of whom fomthing hath been spoken already. Arphaxad, the third Son of

||. III.

of the division of the Earth in the time of Phaleg, one of the sons of Heber, of the iffue of Sem.

of the History of the World.

(at Phale's birth) were then living and rougher and others : and Zoroughen on this the through Plantation of all the East part other fide who made refistance with 400000 of the World (at his death) hath made a prove it sufficiently, that if the division had doubt, whether the Earth were divided at not hapned before the death of Phaleg, there either. The Hebrews (lath Pererins out of had needed no division at that time at all. Sector Holati one of their Chronicles) affirm For some of them were to ill fatisfied with that this partition happed at the death of their portions, as they fought to be mafters Phales and Phales was born in the year after of all, and greater Armies were there never the Florid rot, and lived in all 239, years, gathered than by Nimis and Semiranis: which numbers added, make 340. And wherefore in this Opinion there is little aptherefore was it to many years after the Floud, ere the children of Noah severed themselves. But to this Opinion of the Hebrews, and the doubt they make, how in fo few years as 101. (the time of Phaleg's birth) the Earth: It was never meant that the fo many people could be increased, Pererius Earth could be tilled every where at the vegives this Answer, That if 70 persons of the ry instant, but by times and degrees. And Family of Jacob increased to 600000. fight- furely, whatsoever mens Opinions have been ing men in 215. years (besides women, children and impotent persons ) how much Tongues and of Men must go neer together more is it likely, that fo foon after the Floud the children of Noah might, in a shorter that the enterprise of Babel was left off intime, bring forth many multitudes, having received the bleffing of God, Increase and multiply, and fill the Earth & What strength on; and so neither at the birth nor death of this Answer hath, let others judge: for the Phaleg: for Phaleg was born in the year 101. children of Ifrael were 70. and had 215. years after the Floud, which was the year that time: and the Sons of Noah were but three, Nimrod came into Shinaar, or ten years after and had but 101. yeares of time, to the birth he arrived, faith Berafus. of Phaleg.

name after the divition, in memory thereof: on must have lived without a name, except Joblin as Josephus and S. Augustine, who reason in the name had been given him at the time of this confusion and partition: to this Objethis manner. If the division were at routed the second that it may answered, That the change of the death (which happened in the year, which the second that it may answered. That the change of the second that it is commonly held to be the 48: of Abraham, and the second that the second that it is commonly held to be the 48: of Abraham, but was, bymore likely, computation 12. years the Scriptures; for Jacob was called Israel before his birth) then was the divition 38. after he had wrestled with the Angel; Abrayears after Ninui, who governed 52: years : ham was first Abram; and Edom, Efau; and in the 43. year of whose Reign Abraham was that Phaleg being a principal man in this diborn. But when Ninus began to rule the vision, had his first name upon this accident

Afgrians, 80. years before this division (as changed, it is most probable. Res. It, this division is placed by the Hebrews, Hie-Gault, this division is placed by the Hebrews, Saint Herom, and Chrisfitom) then was the Earth so Hierom, and Chrisfitom. account Heber for peopled in all the East and Northern parts, a great Prophet, if that by giving his Son as greater numbers have not been found at the name Phaleg, he foretold the divition any time fince. For Ninns, aflociating to him- which followed: to this I fay, I do not find felf Ariam King of Arabia, a People who at that Heber deferved any fuch honour, if he that time (faith Diodorus Siculus) plurimum opibus atque armis prastabant, Exceeded both sion and dispersion followeth increase of in riches and bodies of men, subdued many Cities in Armenia; received Barzanis into grace; then invaded Media, and crucified reference to the division, which after-

Pharms the King thereof, with his Wife and feven Children; vanquithed all those Regions between Nilus and Tanais, the Egyptians, Phanicians, the Kingdom- of Syria, and all the Nations of Persia, to the Hyrcanian Sea, For the number which followed Ninus (al-THe many People which at the division ready remembred out of Ctosus,) against Zapearance of the truth.

But for that conceit, that if the division had been made at the birth of Phales, there were not then sufficient numbers born to fill herein, yet it is certain, that the division of with the ceasing of the work at Babel: and stantly upon the confusion of Languages, where followed the execution of the divisi-

Now, if it be objected, That Phaleg 'the Others conceive that Phaleg took that Etymologie of whole rame fignifieth Livisi-

And laftly, whereas the Hebrews, Saint had thereupon fo called his Son: for divipeople of necessity; and this Prophecy (if any fuch had been) might also have

Building of the Tower and City of Babel, in Persia was accounted the furthermest Eastwhich time many people (by reason and by Country in respect of Judea; which also and that upon the fall thereof the contuion ing the rest of Abraham's Sons leated themand divition followed (whereupon Phaleg felves on the borders of Judag: I Tather took name) then in this opinion there is no- choose to leave Saba the Son of Abraham in thing either curious or monftrous.

The first Book of the first Part

I. IV.

of the fons of Joctan, the other son of Heber.

I. Elmodad. 2. Saleph, or Salep, or Sheleph. 3. Asamath, or Chatzar.
4. Jare, or Jaraah, or Jerath. 5. Hadoram.
6. Ozal, or Ozal.
7. Dicklach, or Dicla.
8. Obal, or Ebal, or Hobal. 9. Abimael. 10.Sheba, or Seba. 11.Ophir, or Opir. 12. Havilah, or Chavila, and 13. Jobab.

Lithose Sons of Jostan (according to A Saint Hierom) dwelled in the East parts of the World, or India, even from the River Cophe or Choas, which is one of the branches or heads of Indus.

Sons cannot be gathered out of the Scrip-Gene 30. And their dwelling was from Melha as thou But Ophir is found among the Moluccas fartures, the words of Moses being general: goest unto Separ a Mount in the East. Of all ther East. these thirteen Sons, there were only three memorable, (to wit) Sheba, Ophir, and Havi-nicles, the third Chapter and fixth Verfe, gation; Primum Sabæi; post hos sunt Passagardæ; prope vero hos funt Tisci: The first are Sabæans; after these be Passægarde; and near these the Tasci. And whereas it is writ-Gen. 25 6. ten: But unto the Sons of the Concubines which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts, and wards fell amongst the Hebrews themselves. Hereuron it is surposed, that this saba the But if we give a reasonable time to the Son of Abraham wandered irte Persia: for which time many people (by least and conditions) which time many people (by least and demonstrative proof) might be increased: Good settleth under the Sun-rifing. Yet see Manal Arabia the Defart, where Ptolemy letteth a City of that name. But Saba, the Son of Joda's, the Son of Heber (as I conceive ) inhabited India itself. For Dionysus Afer in his Periegess or description of the World) which he wrote in Greek Totals Verie, among the Regions of India Indeth medios habitatque Sabaus; In the middeft of antile these dwell the Sabai, and the Taxili, faith Dionylus.

of Ophir one of Joctan's Sons, and of Peru, and of that voyage of Solomon.

Phir also was an inhabitant of the East India, and (as St. Hierom understands it) in one of the Islands plentiful with Gold, which are now known by the name of Molucce. Josephus understands Ophir to be one of those great head-lands in India, which by a general name are called Chersones, or Peninfula: of which there are two very noto-But the certain places of those thirteen rious; Calleent and Malacon. Pererius takes it rightly for an Island, as St. Hierom doth, but he fets it at the head-land of Malacca.

Arias Montanus, out of the second of Chrolab. Concerning whose names, to avoid conthers that Ophir was Peru in America, lookfusion, it is to be observed, that among the ing into the West Ocean, commonly called Sons of Chulb, two of them had also the Mare del Sur, or the South Sea ; by others, names of Sheba and Havilab. Abraham had Mare pacificum. The words, in the second of also a third Saba, or Sheba, his Grand-child the Chronicles, are these: And he over-layed by his wife Ketura. But Seba the Son of Chush, the house with precious stones for beauty; and and Shebathe Son of Rhegma his Nephew we the gold was gold of Parvaim. Junius takes have left in Arabia fælix; and Havilah the this gold to be the gold of Havilah, remem-Son of Chush upon Tygris. Saha the Grand-bred by Moses in the description of Paradise: child of Abraham was (as some have thought)

And the gold of that Land is good: finding a gr., the Father of the Sabaans in Persia: of which Town in Characene, a Province of Sustana, Plate Nations Dionysius de Orbis situmaketh men-called Barbatia; so called (as he thinks) by c. st. corruption for Parvaim: from whence those Kings subjected by David, brought this gold, with which they presented him; and which David preserved for the inriching of the Temple.

But this fancy of Peru hath deceived mafent them away from Ifaac his Son (while he ny men, before Montanus, and Pleffis, who get lived ) Enjimard to the Enft-Country: also took Ophir for Pern. And that this Que-

World of that name: fure I am, that at least, fignifieth an Island. And in this manner have America hath none, no not any City, Village many places, newly discovered, been entior Mountain so called. But when Francis tuled, of which Peru is one. And therefore Pilarro first discovered those Lands to the we must leave ophir among the Molnecos, South of Panama, arriving in that Region whereabout such an Island is credibly afwhich Atabaliba commanded (a Prince of firmed to be. magnificence, riches, and dominion inferior to none) fome of the Spaniards, utterly ig- in Arabia it felf (towards Persia) in Havidah. norant of that language, demanding by now sufiana, and all alongst that East Indifignes (as they could) the name of the Coun- an shore ; yet the greatest plenty is taken try, and pointing with their hand athwart a up at the Philippines, certain Illands planted River, or Torrent, or Brook that ran by, the by the Spaniards, from the East India. And Indians answered Peru, which was either the by the length of the passage which Solomons name of that Brook, or of Water in general. Ships made from the Red-Sea (which was The Spaniards thereupon conceiving that three years in going and coming) it seemeth the people had rightly understood them, set they went to the uttermost East, as the Moit down in the Diurnal of their enterprise, luccas or Philippines. Indeed these that now and so in the first description made, and sent | go from Portugal, or from hence, finish that over to Charles the Emperor, all that West navigation in two years, and sometimes less: part of America to the South of Panama, had and Solomon's Ships, went not above a tenth the name of Pern, which hath continued e- part of this our course from hence. But we ver fince, as divers spaniards in the Indies must consider, that they evermore kept the assured me; which also Acosta the Jesuite in coast, and crept by the shores, which made his natural and moral History of the Indies the way exceeding long. For before the confirmeth. And whereas Montanus also use of the compass was known, it was imfindeth, that a part of the Indies (called In- possible to navigate a-thwart the Ocean; catan) took that name of Jottan, who as he and therefore Solomon's Ships could not find supposeth navigated from the utmost East of Reru in America. Neither was it needfull India to America: it is most true, that Inca- for, the Spaniards themselves (had it not tan is nothing else in the language of that been for the plenty of Gold in the East In-Country, but [What is that ?] or [What say dia Illands, farr above the Mines of any one jou?] For when the spaniards ask'd the place of America) to sail every year to the name of that place (no man conceiving their West part of America thither, and there to meaning) one of the Salvages answered Ju- have strongly planted, and inhabited the catan (which is) What ask you, or What say richest of those Islands: wherein they built Jone The like happened touching Paria, a City called Manilia. Solomon therefore a Mountainous Country on the South fide of needed not to have gone farther off than Trinidado, and Margarita: for when the Ophir in the East, to have sped worse: neispaniards inquiring (as all men do ) the ther could he navigate from the East to the names of those new Regions which they West in those days, whereas he had no coast discovered, pointed to the Hills afar off, to have guided him. one of the people answered, Paria, which is as much to fay, as, high Hills or Mountains. Inion out of Rabanus, who makes Ophir to be For at Paria begins that marvellous ledg of a Countrey, whose mountains of Gold are Mountains, which from thence are continu- kept by Griffins: which mountains Solinus ed to the Strait of Magellan, from eight de- affirmed to be in Scythia Asiatica, in these grees of North latitude to the 52. of South:

the name of Paria. which I sent under Sir Richard Greenevile to Stones, the Griffins defend the one and the inhabit Virginia. For when some of my other: a kind of Fowl, the siercest of all other; people asked the name of that Country, one with which Griffins a Nation of people, called of the Salvages answered, Wingandacon, Arimaspi, make Warr. These Arimaspi are said which is as much to fay, as, Tou wear good to have been men with one eye onely, like cloaths, or gay cloaths. The same happened unto the Cyclops of Sicilia: of which Cyclops, to the spaniard in asking the name of the Herodotus, and Aristeus make mention: and Island Trinidado: for a Spaniard demanding fo doth Lucan in his third Book: and Valerius ftion may be a subject of no further dispute; the name of that felf place which the Sea it is very true that there is no Region in the encompassed, they answered, Caeri, which

Now, although there may be found Gold

Toftatus also gathereth a fantastical Opiwords: Nam cum Auro & Gemmis affluant, and so hath that Country ever fince retained Griphes tenent universa, alites ferocissima, Arimalpi cum his dimicant, &c. For where-The same happened among the English, as these Countreys abound in Gold and rich on) I believe none of them. And for these Ophir past into the Islands adjoining. And Arimafi, I take it that this name fignifying whereas Ganger is faid to water Havilah, it is one-eyed, was first given them, by reason that meant by Havilah in the East-India, which they used to wear a vizzard of defence, with took name of Havilah the Son of Joban: but one fight in the middle to ferve both eyes; Havilah which Pifon compaffeth, was so caland not that they had by nature any fuch deled of Havilab, the Son of Chus, as is formerly fect. But solinus borroweth these things out of Plin, who fpeaks of fuch a Nation in the the Amalekites from Havilah, as thou comeft to 1 Samig extreme North, at a place called Gifelitron, or Shur, which is before Egypt. Bur, that Saul . 7. the Cave of the North-east wind. For the rest, as all Fables were commonly grounded hath suspected. For an end we may conupon some true Stories or other things done: clude, that of the thirteen Sons of follam, fo might these tales of the Griffins receive these three, Saba, Havilah, and Ophir; though this moral: That if those men, which fight against fo many dangerous passages for Gold, the Hill Massus, or Mesh, Gen. 10.20. (to wit) or other riches of this World, had their perfect senses, and were not deprived of half length, either themselves, or their islues retheir eye-fight (at least of the eye of right moved into the East-India, leaving the other reason and understanding) they would con- Families of Jostan, to fill the Countreys of tent themselves with a quiet and moderate estate; and not suject themselves to famine; defines to have been from Mess unto Sephar. forts of milerable difeases. And though this Region of the Eaff-India, and Sephar a fable be feigned in this plate, yet, if fuch a fale were told of some other places of the Mountain, would have to be the Andes in A-Mountain. World, where wilde Beafts or Serpents defend mountains of Gold it might be avowed. For there are in many places of the World, and other ravenous and cruel Beafts: unto fame warr which the Arimashi make against the Griffins: not that the one or other had any themselves or their young ones, they grow and rich inraged and adventurous. In like fort it may of time. ans call the Crocodyles) defend those Pearls stand not, being grounded but upon mens be faid that the Alegartos (which the Egyptimany times the poor Indians are eaten up by them, when they dive for the Pearl. And though the Alegartos know not the Pearl, yet they find favour in the flesh and bloud of the Indians, whom they devour.

Flaccis :

138 Flaccus

| VI.

of Havilah the Son of Joctan, who also passed into the East-Indies : and of Mesha and Sepher named in the bordering of the families of Joctan: with a Conclusion of this Difcourse touching the plantation of the World.

F Havilah the Son of Jostan, there is nothing else to be said, but that the gene-

Flaccus: and D. Siculus, in the Story of Ale- ral Opinion is, that he also inhabited in the xander Macedon. But (for mine own Opini- East-India, in the Continent, from which proved by this place of Scripture : Said fmate derstanding. For, the word (East) in the Scriptures, where it hath reference to Judea. is never farther extended than into Persia. fable mountains, which are very rich; and full of Gold, inhabited onely with Tygers, Lions, Mafins in the North of Melopotamia, out of which, if any man ascend except his strength runneth by Charran: and in the same Regibe very great) he shall be sure to find the on we also find for sephar (remembred by Moses) Sipphara by Ptolemy, standing to the East of the Mountain Masins; from whence, fense of the Gold, or feek to defend that me- JoHan having many Sons, some of them tal, but being disquieted, or made afraid of might passinto India, hearing of the beauty and riches thereof. But this was in process The other fallion of Planting I under-which lie in the Lakes of the In-land: for imaginations, contrary to reason and possibino farther off than in those Regions before remembred, it appeareth by many places of the Scripture where the fame phrase is used: as in Numbers 23. Balac the King of Moab ref. 7. bath brought me from Aram, out of the Monttain of the East; which was from the East part of Mesopotamia. For Balac brought Balaam out of Mesoporamia (witness this place of Deuteronomy:) Because they hired Balaam the Son of Beer, of Pethor in Aram Naha- cap 21. rajim, to curfe thee : for Aram Naharajim was ver, 4-Syria fluviorum, which is Mejopotamia, as This plantation of the World after the Floud doth best agree (as to me it seems) | darkest forgetfulness ought to have buwith all the places of Scripture compared ried, and covered over for evermore. And together. And these be the reports of rea-although the length and dissolving nature of fon and probable conjecture 5 the guides time hath worn out or changed the names which I have followed herein, and which and memory of the Worlds first Planters af-I have chosen to go after; making no valu- ter the Floud (I mean the greatest number, ation of the opinions of men, conducted by and most part of them) yet all the footsteps their own fancies, be they ancient or mo- of Antiquity (as appears by that which hath Statues and Trophies to those, whom the Founders and true Parents.

dern. Neither have I any end herein, pri- been spoken) are not quite worn out, nor vate or publick, other than the discovery of over-grown: for Babylon hath to this day the ruth. For as the partiality of man to himself found of Babel; Phenicia hath Zidon, to which hath disguised all things: so the factious and City the eldest Son of Canaan gave name; so hireling Hiltorians of all Ages (especially of hath Cilicia, Tharsis; and the Armenians, these later Times) have, by their many Vo- Medes, Hibernian, Cappadocians, Phrygians, lumes of untrue reports, left Honour with- the Syrians, Idumaans, Libyans, Moors, and out a Monument, and Virtue without Memo- other Nations, have preserved from the ry: and (in flead thereof) have erected death of forgetfulness some signs of their first of the proceeding from the first Government under the eldest of the Families to be Recal and from Regal absolute, to Regal tempered with Laws.

CHAP. IX.

Of the Beginning and Establishment of Government.

§. I.

Eldership. For the Fathers of Nations were our Ancestours had never called the highest then as Kings, and the eldeft of Families as Councel by the name of Senate. Princes. Hereof it came, that the word But, though these reasons may well be (Elder) was always used, both for the Ma- given, yet we doubt not, but in this name of gistrate, and for those of Age and Gravity: (Elders) for Governours, or Counsellours of the same bearing one fignification almost in State, there is a fign that the first Governours all Languages. For, in the Eleventh of Num- were the Fathers of Families; and under bers, God commanded Moles to gather togethen them the eldeft Sons. And from thence did ther 70. of the Elders of the people, and the French, Italian, and Spaniard, take the Governours over them: the Hebrew bearing word (Signor) and out of it (Seignourie) for the Tame sence which the Latine word Sener, Lordship and Dominion : figuifying (accordor Seniores doth. So it is written in Sufanna, ing to Loyfeau) puissance in propriety, or Then the Assembly believed them as those that proper power. The kinds of this Seignourie; were the Elders and Judges of the people. And Seneca makes two: The one, Poteffas ant fo in the words of those falle Judges and imperium, Power or command: the other, Withefles to Daniel, Shew it unto us, seeing Proprietas aut dominum; Propriety or mafter-God hathgiven the the office of an Elder. De-fbip: The correlative of the one is the Sub-midhouse uleth the same word for the Ma-ject; of the other, the Slave. Ad Casarem giltrate among the Grecians. Cicero in Cato (faith he) potestas omnium pertinet; ad singivethews other reasons for this appellati- gulos proprietes; Cefar bath power over all, on: Apud Lacedamonios qui amplissimum and every man propriety in his own: And Magistratum gerunt, ut sunt, sie etiam appelagain. Cesar omnia imperio possidet, singuli do-

T followeth now, to intreat how the the chief Magistrates, as they were, so they are World began to receive Rule and called Eldermen: And again, Ratio & pru-Government, which (while it had dentia nift effent in senibas, non summum Conscarcity of people) under-went no cilium Majores nostri appellassent Senatum; If other Dominon than Paternity and reason and advisement were not in old men, lantur, Senes; Among the Lacedamonians, minio; Cafar holdeth all in his power; and

Were Ritat

140

dience (the fruit of natural reverence, which it followed, that when Kings left to be but from excellent feed feldome ripeneth) good, neither did those men's Virtues value being exceedingly over-shadowed with them which were not fancied by their Kings, pride, and ill examples, utterly withered nor those men's Vices deforme them that and fell away. And the fort weapons of Pa- were. Amor interdum nimis videt, interdum ternal perswasions (after man-kind began to nihil videt; Love sees one while too much, anoneglect and forget the Original and first ther while flark nothing. Hence it came to giver of life ) became in all over-weak, ei- passe, that after a few years (for direction ther to resist the first inclination of evil, or and restraint of Royal power) Laws were eafter (when it became habitual) to constrain stablished: and that Government which had it. So that now, when the hearts of men this mixture of equality (holding in an even were onely guided and steered by their Ballance supreme power and common right) own fancies, and tost to and fro on the tem- acquired the title of Regal: the other pestuous Seas of the World, while Wisdom (which had it not) was known for Tyranniwas severed from power, and strength from cal: the one, God established in favour of charity: Necessity (which bindeth every his people; the other he permitted for their nature but the immortal) made both the affliction. wife and foolish understand at once, that tabilis pro the estate of reasonable men would become Princes as they were chosen for their virtues far more miserable than that of beafts, and only, so did they measure their powers by a that a general floud of confusion would a fecond time over-flow them, did they not, ed in their own strengths, found others again were rightly accounted and called Gods.

(by interchange of times) more mighty than And though (speaking humanely) t themselves: the feeble fell under the forindurable bondage.

ded, and by Reason maintained and conthers. For the very Bees have their Prince; firmed, perswaded all Nations which the Deer their Leaders; and Cranes (by this cure. And therefore the same Necessi- And that this power is given from God, which Dominion (in the beginning boundless) might also discern her own limits. For that the World hath been governed from before the invention of Laws, private affe- the beginning (to wir) by a Justice natural; Ctions in supream Rulers made their own by which the Parents and Elders of Families fancies both their Treasurers and Hangmen; governed their Children, and Nephewes, measuring by this Yard, and weighing in this and Families; in which government the Ballance, both good and evil.

the rule of Kings; fothe will of Kings fore- Laws and Ordinances of God; and the Owent the inventions of Laws. Populus nullis bedience hereunto was called Confeience: legibus tenebatur: arbitria principum pro le- And lastly, by a Justice civil, begotten by every man possessible his own. But as men and | gibus erant; The people were not governed by vice began abundantly to increase: so obe- any other laws than the wills of Princes. Hereof

In the infancy of this Regal authority, great deal of moderation. And therefore (faith Fabius Pictor) Principes, quia justi erant, De aru by a general obedience to Order and Domi- & religionibus dediti, jure babiti Dit & didis, seato, nion, prevent it. For the mighty, who trust- Princes because they were just and religious, on the seaton of the sea

And though (speaking humanely) the beginning of Empire may be ascribed to Reacible; and the equal from equal received of and Necessity; yet it was God himself equal harms. Informuch, that the licentious that first kindled this light in the minds of disorder (which seemed to promise a liber- men, whereby they saw that they could not ty upon the first acquaintance) proved, up- live and be preserved without a Ruler and on a better trial, no less perillous than un- Conductor: God himself by his eternal providence having ordained Kings; and the These Arguments, by Necessity propoun- Law of Nature, Leaders, and Rulers over o-Heavens cover, to subject themselves to a order imposed) watch for their own safety. Master, and to Magistracy in some degree. The most High beareth rule over the Kingdoms Don 5.11. Under which Government, as the change of Men; and appointeth over it whomsever (which brought with it less evil, than the he pleaseth. By me (faith Wisedom, spoken Pro. t. former mischiefs) was generally pleasing: by the Son of God) Kings reign; By me 15. fo time (making all men wise that observe it) Princes rule. And it is God (saith Daniel) Dental found some imperfection and corrosive in that setteth up Kings, and taketh away Kings. ty which invented, and the same Reason | Christ himself witnesseth, speaking to Pilate; which approved, Sovereign power, bethought it felf of certain equal rules, in except it were given thee from above. It was therefore by a threefold Justice

Obedience was called natural Piety: A-For as wisedom in Eldership preceded gaine, by a Justice divine, drawn from the CHAP. IX. both the former; and the Obedience to this we call Duty. That by these three, those of the eldest times were commanded, and that the rule in general was Paternal, it is most evident: for Adam, being Lord over his own Children, instructed them in the service of God his Creator; as we read, Cain and Abel brought Oblations before God, as they had been taught by their Parent, the Father of Mankind.

6. II.

of the three commendable forts of Government. with their opposites: and of the degrees of bumane society.

Hat other Policy was exercised, or State sounded, after such time as mankinde was greatly multiplied before the Floud, it cannot be certainly known, though it feem by probable conjecture, that the fame was not without Kings in that first Age: Rule, than the Paternal.

Berofus ascribeth the rule of the World in unfitly. those days to the Gyants of Libanus, who mastered (saith he) all Nations from the Sunrifing to the Sun-fet. But in the fecond Age of the World, and after such times as the rule of Eldership failed, three several forts of Government were in several times established among men, according to the divers natures of Places and People.

The first, the most ancient, most general, and most approved, was the Government of one, ruling by just Laws, called Monarchy: to which Tyranny is opposed, being also a fole and absolute Rule; exercised according because thinher they gathered their riches for to the will of the Commander, without re- Sefety and defence a as also they were called spect or observation of the Laws of God, or Orbes, ab orbe; because when they were to Men. For a lawful Prince or Magistrase build a City, they made a Circle with a (faith Arifibile) is the Keeper of Right and Plough (faith Varro) therewith measuring Magultrate to be, according to the rule of to inclose or fortifier And although Drie Gods word! Judges and Officers shall thou and Civitas be offen confounded, yet the make theein thy Cities. And these shall judg difference was antiently in this, that Urbs the people with righteous judgment.

The felond Covernment, is of divers principal Persons established by Order, and ruling by Laws, called Arifforracy, or Optimatumpoteftas; to which Oligarchia! ( or the particular faction and inforpation of a few thele walls are not properly Citizens, but great-ones) is opposed as the December, only such as are called Free mens, who or Trium vini, and the like.

The third is a State popular, (or Government of the people) called Democratia, to which is opposed Ochlocratia, or the turbulent unjust ruling of the confused multitude, feditiously swaying the State, contrary to their own Laws and Ordinances. These three kinds of Government are briefly exprest by Tholosanus; unius, paucorum, & multorum; Of one, of few, of many.

Now as touching the beginning and order of Policy fince the second increase of mankind, the same grew in this fort: First of all, every Father, or eldeft of the Family, gave Laws to his own iffues, and to the people from him and them increased. These, as they were multiplied into many housholds (man by nature loving fociety) joyned their Cottages together in one common Field or Village, which the Latins call Vicus; of the Greek sixos, which fignifies a Houle; or of the word (Via) because it hath divers waies and paths leading to it. And as the first House grew into a Village, fo the Village into that it being possible that many Princes of the which is called Pagins (being a lociety of di-Egyptians (remembred among their antiquities) were before the general Floud; and which fignifieth a Fountain: because many very likely, that the cruel Oppressions in people (having their habitations not far athat Age proceeded from fome Tyranny in funder ) drank of one Spring or Stream of Government, or from some rougher form of Water. To this word the English Hundreds, or (as some think) Shires, answereth not

But as men and impiety began to gather strength, and as emulation and pride, between the Race of the one and the other, daily increased: so both to defend themfelves from out-rage, and to preferve fuch goods as they had gathered, they began to joyn and set together diversof their Villages, invironing them first with Banks and Ditches, and afterwards with Walls: which, being so compassed, were then called oppida; either ab opponendo se bostibus, Because walls were opposed against Enemies; or ab opibus, Equity : and of this condition ought every and compatting the ground which they went fignified no other than the very walls and buildings, and Civital was taken für the Gitizens, inhabiting therein : fo called of Civil, and that, abeo quad multitudo coivit, of comming together; But all inhabitants within bearing proportionably the charge of the gistrates thereof: the rest go under the strates. And so much did Saint Chrysostom, name of Subjects, though Citizens by the in his Homily to the people, prefer Monarfame general name of Subjects are also chical Government, as he rather commended known. For every Citizen is a Subject, but the rule of Kings (though Tyrants) than that not every Subject a Citizen: perhaps also they should be wanting: Pressat Regem ty-fome Citizen (asthe chief Magistrate, if he rannum habere, quam nullum; Better a tybe to be tearmed one of the Citizens) is no Subject; but of this we need not stand to inquire. The word (Magistrate) is taken à Magistro from a Master, and the word (Mafter) from the Adverb Magis (as also Magifteria, Precepts of Art) or elfe from the Greek word (Megistos) and so the Greeks call them Megistanes, whom the Latines call Magnates, or Magistratus. The Office and Duty of every Magistrate. Aristotle hath written in few words. A Magiftrate or Prince (faith he) is the keeper of right and equity; but the same is best taught by Saint Paul, who expresseth both the cause efficient, and final, (that is) by whom Magifrates and Princes are ordained, together Rom 13.4. with their Duties and Office. A Magistrate is the Minister of God for thy wealth; but if thou do evil, fear: for he bearth not the food to for nought. For he it the Minister of God, to take vengeance on him that doth evil. He also

Ver. 1.2. teacheth in the same place ; That every foule ought to be subject to the higher powers, because they are by God ordained, and that whosoever resisteth that power, resisteth God, the giver and fountain thereof: and shall not only be therefore subject to the judgment and con-Bid. v. 5. demnation of Man, but of God: For ye must > but also for conscience lake. The examples are not to be numbred of Gods punishments, upon those that have sometimes governed by Kings; sometimes refitted Authority, by God ordained and by Magistrates; sometimes by the People stablished. Neither ought any Subject themselves. therefore to relift the power of Kings, because they may be taxed with injustice or cruelty: for it pleafeth God fometimes to punish his people by a tyrannous hand: and the Commandement of obedience is without diffinction. The Prophets and Christ Now this first Age after the Floud, and himself subjected themselves to the power of after such time as the people, were in-Magistracy: Christ commanded that all due creased, and Families became strong, and they that were Captives under Heathen Kings) 17. 0 17 to pray for them and for the peace of Babylon. So! Abraham sprayed for Abimelech; tial, and in the blowth and bud. Teor while and Jacob bleffed the King of Egypt. And it the Law, of Nature was the rule of mans life, is acceptable in the fight of our Saviour faith they then fought for no larger Territory Paul) that ye make Supplications and Prayers than themselves could compass and manure: for Kings, and for all that are in authority: they erected no other magnificent Buildings, and if for fuch Kings as were Idolatrous, than fufficient to defend them from cold and City, may by turns become Officers and Ma- much more for Christian Kings and Magirannous King, than no King: to which also Tacitus subscribeth: Praftat (faith Tacitus in the first of his History) fub malo principe ese, quam nullo; It is better to have a bad Prince than none at all. And be they good Kings (which is generally presupposed) then is there no liberty more fafe, than to ferve them : Neque enim libertas tutior ulla eft (faith Claudian andm Domino fervire bono; No liberty (faith he) more fafe for us than to be fervants to the virtuous. And certainly, how-foever it may be disputed, yet it is safer to live under one Tyrant, than under 100000. Tyrants: under a wife man that is cruel. than under the foolish and barbarous cruelty of the multitude. For as Agefilaus answered a Citizen of sparta, that defired an alteration of Government, That kind of rule which a man would disdain in his own house, were very unfit to govern great Regions by.

CHAP. IX.

Lastly, as many Fathers erect many Cotages for their many Children: and as ( for the reason before remembred) many Housholds joyned themselves together, and made Villages; many Villages made Cities: fo when these Cities and Citizens joyned together, and established Laws by consent, assobe subject (saith he) not because of wrath only, ciating themselves under one Governour, and Government; they, so joyned, were called a Common-Wealth: the same being

s. III.

Of the good Government of the first Kings.

to Cefar should be given unto him: and he dispersed into several parts of the world, payed Tribute for himself and Peter. Hiere- was by antient Historians called Golden: my commanded the Ifraelites (even those Ambition and Covetousness being as then but green, and newly growners, the feeds and effects whereof were as yet but poten-

of the History of the World. tempelt: they cared for no other delicacy | Solomon: Say not then, Why is it that the former Ecdef. 1. Снар. 1Х. of farc, or currency of tayer, than to maintain life: nor for any other apparel, than to inquire wifely of this thing: to which purpose

And fure if we understand by that Age plicity of our Fore-fathers, this name may complain, our Children will complain, that good plicity be cast upon those elder times: manners are gone, that wickedness doth reign, then truly be call upon those could time. I manners are gone, sum are generally and reggs, but if it be taken otherwise, then, whether and all things grow morfe and arosfe, and the the same may be attributed more to any one into allevil. These are usually the Discourting allevil. the farmentary be attributed more to any one limited time than to another (I mean to one limited time than to another (I mean to one limited limited time than to another (I mean to one limited limit time than to another (a mean to one minuted time and none elfe) it may be doubted. For can we add to this of Arnobius ? Nova res 18, 2, good and Golden Kings make good and quandoque vetus fiet, & vetus temporibus; Golden Ages: and all times have brought forth of both forts. And as the infancy of Empiry (when Princes played their Prizes, and did then only woomen to obedience) might be called the Golden Age; formay the beginning of all Princes times be truly called Golden. For be it that men affect honour, it is then best purchased; or if hoings have commonly the leaft impediments: lothe love of their people thereby purchased and if ever Liberality overflow her banks fed, held the fame Crowns on their heads. bothby policy and example. But Age and to Princes: so ( relatively ) he gave the Time, do not only harden and shrink the openeft and most Joviel hearts, but the experience which it bringeth with it, layeth Princes torn estates before their eyes, and (withal) perswadeth them to compassionate themselves. And although there be no Kings under the Sun whose means are answerable all things by their own respects, do no sooner makes them beloved of all theirs; and by a complain of alteration, and account the obedience: For, Potessis humana radicatur times injurious and Iron. And as this falleth in valuntatibus hominum: All humane power out in the Reign of every King, to doth it is rooted in the will or dispositions of men. in the life of every man, if his daies be many: for our younger years are our Golden Age; which being eaten up by time, we praise those feasons which our youth accompanied: and (indeed) the grievous alterations in our felves, and the pains and difeafes which never part from us but at the grave, make the times seem so differing and displeafing: especially the quality of man's nature being also such, as it adoreth and extolleth the passages of the former, and condemneth the prefent state how just soever : Fit himanæ malignitatis vitio, ut semper veteraun launa mangaramo onto, an jeaper comesto pajs de, presentia in fushidosint; It comesto pajs (faith Tacitus) by the vice of our malignity, that we alwaiss extol the time pajt, and hold the present fastidious: For it is one of the from the vulgar, was not in the beginning errors of wayward Age: Quod fint landato-tain me: not tot any other apparer, than to again e when of the Rain and the seneca; Majores noftri questi sint, o nos querimur posteri querentur eversos esse mores regnare nequitiam, in deterius res hominum & in omne nefaslabi: Our ancestors have complained we do ever is new, in time shall be made old: and the antientest things when they took beginning were also new and sodain. Wherefore not to stand in much admiration of these first times, which the discontentment of present times have made Golden, this we may fet down for certain, That as it was the virtue of the first Kings, which (after God) gave them Crowns:

care and justice of Kings to the Subjects; having respect, not only to the Kings themselves, but even to the meanest of his Creatures: Nunquam particulari bono servit omne visa.6.7. bonum. The infinite goodness of God doth not attend any one only: for he that made the small and great, careth for all alike: and it is the care which Kings have of all theirs, which

9. IV.

Of the beginning of Nobility: and of the vain vaunt thereof without virtue.

A Nd with this Supreme Rule and Kingly authority, began also other degrees and differences among Subjects. For Princes made election of others by the same Rule, by which themselves were chosen; unto whom they gave place, trust, and power. From which imployments and Offices fprung peras xel those Titles, and those degrees of Honour, bilia non which have continued from Age to Age, to again these daies. But this Nobility, or difference Succession of Virtue, as hereafter may be fore-paffed times, forgetting this advice of proved. Though at length it was sufficient for those whose Parents were advanced, to Personal; yet if Virtue be wanting to the be known for the Sons of such Fathers: and natural, then is the personal and acquired so there needed then no endeavour of well-Nobility, by many degrees, to be preferred: Weeds. For what is found praise-worthy and not to honour. in those waters, which had their beginning out of pure Fountains, if in all the rest of their course they run foule, filthy, and de-filed? Ex terra fertili producitur aliquando ter of Nobility) call the Race and Linage but the matter of Nobility: the form (which gives life and perfect being) he maketh to be Virtue, and Quality, profitable to the Common-weal. For he is truly and entirely Noble, who maketh a fingular profession of publike Virtue, ferving his Prince and Country, and being descended of Parents and An-cestors that have done the like. And although that Nobility, which the same Auselves acquire by our Virtue and well de-that proceedeth from the face of him that fervings) cannot be ballanced with that ruleth: Folly is set in great excellency. which is both natural by Descent, and also doing at all, or any contention for them to For (faith Charron) this Honour (to wit) by excell, upon whom glory or worldly Nobili- Descent, may light upon such a one, as in his ty necessarily descended. Yet hereof had own nature is a true Villain. There is also Nobility denomination in the beginning, a third Nobility, which he calleth Nobility That fuch as excelled others in virtue, were in Parchment, bought with Silver or Favour: fo called: Hinc dictus Nobilis, quasi virtute and these be indeed but Honours of affectipre aliis notabilis. But after such time as the on, which Kings, with the change of their deserved Honour of the Father was given in Fancies, wish they knew well how to wipe reward to his Posterity, Saint Jerom judged off again. But surely, if we had as much of the Succession in this manner: Nihil aliud sense of our degenerating in worthiness, as video in Nobilitate appetendum, nis quod No- we have of vanity in deriving our selves of biles quadam necessitate constringantur, ne ab such and such Parents, we should rather antiquorum probitate degenerati, I fee no ather know fuch Nobility (without Virtue) to be thing to be affeded in Nobility, than that Noble-flame and difinonour, than Nobleness and men are by a kind of necessity bound, not to deglory to vaunt thereof. What calamity is generate from the virtue of their Ancestors. wanting (faith Bernard) to him that is born Bentle For if Nobility be Virtus & antique divitie; in sin, of a Potshare body and barren mind? de cm For it Nobility be Virtus & antique arontae; in un, of a rotipare voay unit varren minus; film a Virtue and antient riches, then to exceed in For (according to the same Father) Dele Estate. all those things which are extra hominem, as fucum fugacis honoris hujus & male coronate riches, power, glory, and the like, do no o- nitorem gloria, Oc. Wipe away the painting therwise define Nobility, than the word of this fleeting honour, and the glittering of the (animal) alone doth define a reasonable man.

Or if honour (according to L. Vivus) be a witness of virtue and well-doing: and Noout of thy Mothers wombe. Camest thou thence bility (after Plutarch) the continuance of with thy Mytre, or glistering with Jewels, or Virtue in a Race or Linage: then are those garnished with Silks, or adorned with Feathers, in whom Virtue is extinguished, but like un- or stuffed with Gold? If thou scatter and blow to Painted and Printed Papers, which igno-rant men worship in stead of Chrift, our Lady, morning clouds, which do or will soon pass over, and other Saints: men in whom there remain but the dregs and Vices of antient Virwertched, and miferable man, and blushing, tue: Flowers, and Herbs, which by change because he is naked, and weeping, because he is of soile and want of manuring are turned to born, and repining, because he is born to labour,

For, as touching the matter of all men, there is no difference between it and dust: which if thou dost not believe (faith St. Chry-chrys. filed? Ex terra fertili producitur diquando fostom) look into the Sepulchres and Monne, bon, 1. 1 Cicata accencifa, ex terra fierili pretiofum Auments of thy Ancefors, and they faul eafly per-de haverum; Out of fruitful ground any ieth fountimes.

Poyloning Henhane, and out of barren foyle preduft and dirt: fo that if man feem more noble s. cious Gold. For as all things confift of mat-ter and form, so doth Charron (in his Chap-from the diversity of his Nature, but from the

> For true Nobility standeth in the Trade Of virtuous life; not in the fleshly Line: For bloud is brute, but Gentry is Divine.

And howfoever the cuftom of the World have made it good, that Honours be cast by birth upon unworthy Iffues: vet Solomon (as wife as any King) reprehendeth the fame in his fellow-Princes : There is an evil (faith he) Eulef. 16. thor calleth personal (the same which our that I have seen under the Sun, as an errour

CHAP. X. ፟፞ቝ፟ቝ፞ቝቝቝቝቝቝቝቝቝቝቝቝቝቝቝቝቝቝቝቝቝቝቝቝቝቝቝቝቝ

CHAP. X.

Of Nimrod, Belus, and Ninus: and of memorable things about those times.

S. I. Comment

That Nimrod was the first after the Floud that reigned like a sovereign Lord: and that his beginning seemeth to have been of just authority.

of Compo, dutinguithed by Mofes from the reft (according to S. Anguftine) in one of these two respects:
cither for his eminency, and because he was the first of same, and took on him to comthe first of same, and took on him to command others: or else; in that he was begotten which came from the East. And though by Chiffs, after is other children were also sem came not himself so fari as shinaar (his become Fathers; and of a latertimethan lot being east on the East parts) yet, from fome of his Grand-children and Nephews, his Son's Nephew Heber, the name and Na-Howloever, feeing Mofes in express words, tion of the Hebrens (according to the gecalleth Nimrod the Son of Chufb, other mens nerall copinion) took beginning, who inha-

no respect. and many later Writers call tyrannical: the thence into Canaan. fame beginning in Babel (which is) confusion. But it feemeth to me, that Melanthon which same into Chaldea, were no partners conceived not amis hereof: the same ex-in the unbelieving work of the Tower: polition being also made by the Authour of therefore (as many of the Fathers conjethat Work, called Onomafticum Theologicum; (ture) did they retain the first and most an-But S. Angustine understands it otherwise, the general speech: and therefore first called and converts the word (ante) by (contra) (Saith Calestinus) lingua humana: the humane Hunter against God: Sie ergo intelligendus We know that Goropius Becanus follow-eff Gigas ille, Venator contra Dominum; So is ing Theodoret, Rabbi Moles, Agyptius Vergara, affirming therein, that Nimrod was a mighty tongue. that Giant to be underflood, a Hunter against and others, is of another opinion; but howfo-the Lord. than by him usurped. For it no where is that Nignred rather had it by just authofound, that Noah himself, or any of the Sons rity, than violence of usurpation. of his own body, came with this troop into

He first of all that reigned as Babylon : no mention at all being made of Sovereign Lord, after the Noah (the years of his life excepted) in the Floud, was Nimrod, the Son facceeding Story of the Hebrens; nor that of Chifh diffinguished by Mo-Sem was in this difobedient troops or among conjectures to the contrary, ought to have bired the Southermost parts of Chaldaa, about the City of Or; from whence Abra-This Empiry of Nimrod, both the Fathers, ham was by God called into Charran, and

And because those of the Race of Sem that Work, called Onomaliscum Theologicum, crure, and they retain the first and most arrived affirms that Nimrod was therefore cal-cientlanguage, which the Fathers of the first led Amarus Dominator, A bitter, or Severe Age had left to Noah; and Noah to Sem and led Amarus Dominator of Rule seemed, his ssues in familia select remarks that the service of the service thority. And therefore is he in this respect mained (faith Saint Augustine out of Epiphaalso called A mighty Hunter: because he manes and this Language Abraham used; took and destroyed both beats and thisees, yea, it was anciently, and before the Floud, ever we determine of this point, we may with But how foever this word (A nighty Hunter) be understood 5 yet it rather appeareth, godly feed of Sem were the chief Leaders of that as Nimrad had the command of all thole this prefumptuous multitude. And feeing it which went with him from the East into Shi- is not likely, but that some one was by order naar : lo, this charge was rather given him, appointed for this charge, we may imagine

144

6. II.

That Nimrod, Belus, and Ninus were three distinct Persons.

Benzo, and out of him Nanclerns; with Now, whereas D. Siculus affirmeth, that others, make many Nimrods; Eusebins Ninus overcame and suppress the Babyloniconfoundshim with Belus, and fo doth Saint ans, the fame rather proveth the contrary, Hierom upon Ofe; and these words of Saint than that Ninus and Ninrod were one Per-Augustine seem to make him of the same Opinion: Ibi autem Ninus regnabat post mortem Empire at Ninive in Asyria, whence the Bapatris sui Beli, qui primus illic regnaverat 65. annos; There did Ninus reign after the death of fall from his obedience, whom he reof his father Belus, who governed in Babylon fixty five years. But it could not be unknown to Saint Augustine, that Nimrod was the Establisher of that Empire: Moses being plain and direct therein. For the beginning of Nimrods Kingdom (faith he) was Babel, Erec, Accad, and Chalne, in the Land of Shinaar; wherefore Nimrod was the first King of Babel. And certainly, it best agreeth with reason, that Ninus was the third, and not one with Nimrod, as Mercator (led by clement) supposed: for in Ninus his time, the World was marvelloufly replenished. And if S. Angustine had undoubtedly taken that such an addition might have been given Belus for Nimrod, he would have given him to many other Kings as well. For, if we may the name which the Scriptures give him, rather than have borrowed any thing out of Egypt, and Tanais of Scythia, mighty Kings beprophane Authours. And for those words fore Ninus was born. And if we may compare of S. Angustine (qui primus illic regnaverat; the words of Moses (touching Ninnod) with Who was the sirst that reigned there) supposed the undertakings of Ninus, there will be to be meant by Belus: those words do not found great difference between them. disprove that Nimrod was the Founder of the Babylonian Empire. For although Julius Cefar overthrew the liberty of the Romane Common-wealth, making himself perpetual Dictator; yet Augustus was the first established Emperour, and the first that reigned ab- and Chalne: which work he therefore ascrifolutely by foveraign Authority over the Ro- beth to Ninns, as a man of the greatest unmans, as an Emperour.

nity, laying the foundation of foveraign those names of Nimrod and Ninus to belong years after the Floud (as they account ) that Belus reigned; but fuch agreement of times proves it not. For, so Edward the third, and erected to his hand. his Grand-child, Richard the second, were Kings both in one year: the one died; the other in the same year was crowned King. Belus were one) is farr more probable than gint calls Archard; and Epiphanius, Arphal;

Nimrod to be the same. For, it is plain, that the beginning of Nimrod's Kingdom was Babel, and the Towns adjoining : but the first, and most famous work of Ninus, was the City of Ninive.

Now, whereas D. Siculus affirmeth, that fon. For Ninus established the seat of his bilonians might (perchance) in disdain therecovered again by ftrong hand; which was easie: Babylon being not walled till Semiramis time.

- Dicitur altam

Cottilibus muris cinxisse Semiramis Orbem. Semiramis with walls of Brick, the City did inclose.

Further, where it is alledged, that as the Scriptures call Nimrod mighty; fo Justine hath the fame of Ninus, which is one of Mercator's Arguments; it may be answered, believe Justine; then were Vexoris King of

For, whereas Mercator conceiveth, that it was too early, for any that lived about the time of the confusion of Languages, to have invaded and mastered those Cities so farr removed from Babel, namely, Erech, Accad, and dertaking; and confequently would have The like may be faid of Nimrod, that he Nimrod to have been long after the time, in first brake the rule of Eldership and Pater- which we suppose he flourished; and both rule, as Cefar did; and yet Belus was the to one Person, to wit, to Ninus: to these first, who peaceably, and with general al- things to make some answer. First, I do not lowance, exercifed fuch a power. Pererius is find that supposition true, That ever Nimof opinion, that Belus and Nimred were the rod invaded any of these Cities; but that he same, because many things are said of them, sounded them, and built them from the both agreeing in time: for it was about 200. ground, being the first after the Floud, that conducted the children of Noah into those parts: and therefore had nothing built or

Besides, whereas these Cities, in many mens opinions, are found to stand farr away from Babylon, I find no reason to bring me to that And yet the opinion (that Nimrod and belief. The City of Accad, which the Septuathat of Mercator; who makes Ninus and Junius takes it to be Nifibis in Mesopotamia:

for the Region thereabout, the Cosmogra- tinue in our opinion, That Nimrod, Belw, and phers (faith he ) call Accabene for Accadene. Ninus, were diffinet and successive Kinge. Others understand Nisibis and Ninive, to be one City: fo do Strabe and Stephanus confound it with Charran, but all mistaken. For Nisibis, Accad, and Charran, are distinct places. Though I cannot deny Accedene to be a Region of Mesopotamia, the same which Arias Montanus.out of S. Hierom, calls Achad: and fo do the Hebrews also call Nisibis, which feemeth to be the cause of this mistaking. As Orech; S. Angustine, Oreg; and Pagninus, Erec; of Babylon and Assyria: a controversie weathis place Junius understands for Aracca in risomly disputed without any direct proof. Suliana: but there is also a City in Camagena, conclusion, or certainty. But to me(of whom, is no certain proof, without the afliftance of other circumstances.

Concerning the third City(called Chalne) fome take it for Calinisis: of which Am. Mercellinus. S. Hierom takes it for Seleucia; Hierololymitanus, for Cteliphon: others do think For in this fort he converteth the Hebrew it to be the Agrani upon Euphrates, destroyed Text : Erat enim principium Regni ejus Baand razed by the Fersians. But let Moses be bel, & Erec, & Accad, & Chaine, in terra the Moderator and Judge of this Dispute, Shinaaris: è terra hac processit in Assyriam, who teacheth us directly, that these Cities are ubi adificavit Niniven (which is) For the not feated in so diverse and distant Regions; beginning of his Kingdom was Babel, and for these be his words: And the beginning of his Kingdom (speaking of Nimrod) mas Babel, Erec, Accad, and Chalne in the Land of Shibylonia, or Chaldaa (being all one) we must but for the Region of Assyria; the Land beof the two) think, with Viterbiensis, that these four made but one Babylon, than that they were Cities farr removed, aud in several Provinces, did not the Prophet Amos precifely distinguish Chalne from Babylon. Go you (faith Amos) to Chaine, and from thence ning of the tenth Chapter, he setteth down go you to Hamath, and then to Gath of the Phi-the Sons of Noah, in these words: Now these listims. The Geneva Translation, savouring are the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, the former Opinion, to fet these Cities out of Ham, and Japheth, unto whom Sons were born Shinaar, hath a marginal note expressing that after the Flond: then it followeth immedi-Shindar was here named, not that all these ately; The Sons of Japheth were Gomer, cities were therein seated, but to distinguish &c. so as Japheth is last named among Babylon of Chalda, from Babylon in Egypt: Noah's Sons, be he eldeft or youngest, bebut I find little substance in that conceit. cause he was first to be spoken of: with For fure I am, that in the beginning of Nimrod's Empire, there was no fuch Babylon, nor any City at all to be found in Egypt: Babylon of Egypt being all one with the great City of Cairo, which was built long after, not farr from the place where stood Memphis the ancient City, but not so ancient as Babylon upon Exphrates. Now, that Chalne is fitu- was the eldeft: and then the Sons of Chufb and ate in the valley of Shinaar, it hath been for- Mizraim; and afterwards of Canaan; leaving merly proved in the Chapter of Paradife. So as for any argument that may be brought to join the Story of the Hebrews. But after he

6. III.

That Nimrod, not Affur, built Ninive; and that it is probable, out of Elay 23. 13. that Affur built Ur of the Chaldees.

Ow, as of Nimrod; fo are the Opinions of Writers different touching Affar, and for the City of Erec, which the septuagint call touching the beginning of that great State called Arace; and indeed, likelihood of name where the Scriptures are filent, the voice of reason hath the best hearing) the Interpretation of Junius is most agreeable; who, besides all necessary consequence, doth not dif-join the sence of the Scriptures therein, nor confuse the understanding thereof. Erech, and Accad, and Chalne, in the Land of Shinaar : and he went forth of this Land into Affyria, and built Ninive. So as Junius naar: so as in the Valley of Shinaar, or Ba- takes Asher in this place, not for any Person, find them. And therefore I could (rather ing so called in Moses time, and before it. For certainly, the other construction (where the word Affur is taken for Affur the Son of shem) doth not answer the order which Moses obferveth through all the Books of Genesis, but is quite contrary unto it. For, in the beginwhom (having last named him) he proceeds and fets down his Iffue, and then the Iffue of his Sons: first, the Iffue of Gomer, Japheth's eldest Son; and then speaks of Javan and his Sons: for of the rest of that Family he is filent. Anon after, he numbereth the Sons of Ham, of which Chush shem for the last, because he would not disthe contrary, from the remote fituation of beginneth with shem, he continueth from these three Cities from Babylon, we may conthence by Arphaxad, Shela, and Heber, unto Abraham, and so to Jacob, and the Fa- | cient and Learned Writer, understands this then he beginneth with the Islue of shem; which he continueth to Abraham and Ifrael. And of Junius opinion touching Assur, was Calvin: to which I conceive P. Comestor, in historia Scholastica, gave an entrance, who after he had delivered this place in some other fence, he useth these words: Vel intelligendum non est de Assur, filio Sem, &c. sed Affur (id eft, Regnum Affyriorum) inde egrefsum est, quod tempore Sarug proavi Abrahami factum eft; (which is) Or elle it is not to be understood of Affur the Son of Sem, &c. but Affur (that is, the Kingdom of the Affvrians) came from thence (videlicet, from Babylon) or was made out of it: which happened in the time of Sarug the great Grand-father of Abraham. After which he reconcileth the diffe-Belus (meaning Nimrod) to be the first Erector of the Asyrian Empire, or the first Founder thereof, it is true, Quantum ad initium; Respecting the beginning; but others con-ceive that it had beginning from Ninus, which is also true, Quantum ad Regni ampliationem; Regarding the inlargement of the Empire. To this I may add the opinion of Epiphanius; confirmed by Cedrenus, who takes runt robustos ejus, suffoderunt domos ejus, po-Affur to be the Son of Nimrod: and so doth fuerunt eam in ruinam (which is) Behold the Methodius, and Viterbiensis, Saint Hierom, and Land of the Chaldwans, such a People there Cyrillus, and now lastly, Torniellus: who were not (or, this was no People, after the Ge-(faith he) took upon him that name of Affur after he had beaten the Affrians, as Scipio they carried away their from men captive they did of Africanus, after his Conquest in Afri- undermined their Houses, and ruined their Cica: and that Assur was a common name to ty. The Septuagint express it but in a part the Kings of Afgria, as it appeareth by ma- of another Verse, in these words: Et interny Scriptures, as Pfal. 81. Efay 10. Ofe. 5. &c. ra Chaldworum, & bec defolata eft ab Affy-But to help the matter, he makes Nimrod of riis, quoniam murus ejus corruit, making the the race of shem, and the Son of Irari. But sence perfect by the preceding verse, which thers of that Nation. But to have brought place with Comeftor, or Comeftor with in one of the Son of shem, in the middle of him, agreeing in substance with that Transthe Generations of Ham, had been against lation of Junius: to which words of Moses order; neither would Moses have past over he giveth this sence : De hac terra Assyriofo fleightly the erection of the Affgrian Em- rum pullulavit imperium, qui ex nomine Nipire in one of the Sons of shem, if he had had ni, Beli filis, Ninum condiderunt, urbem maany such meaning: it being the Story of gnam, &c. Out of this Land grew the Emshem's Sons which he most attended. For pire of the Asiyrians, who built Ninus the he nameth Nimrod apart, after the rest of the great City, so named of Ninus the son of Be-Sons of Chufh, because he founded the Baby- lus. On the contrary, Calvin objecteth this lonian and Afrian Empire : and in the ele- place of Efay: Behold the Land of the Chaldayenth Chapter, he returns to speak of the ans, this was no People, Assur founded it by 23. 13. building of Babel in particular, having for- the inhabitants of the Wildernes; than which merly named it in the tenth Chapter, with there is no one place in the Scriptures, that those other Cities which Nimrod founded in hath a greater diversity in the Translation Shinaar. And as he did in the tenth Chapter, and Understanding; insomuch as Michael fo also in the eleventh he maketh no report de Palatio upon Esay (though in all ele ve-of shem, till such time as he had sinished so ry diligent) passeth it over. But Calvin much of Nimrod as he meant to touch; and seemeth hereby to inferr, that because Asiar founded the State of the Chaldeans, therefore also Affar rather than Nimrod established the Asyrian Empire, and built Nineve: contrary to the former translation of Junius, and to his own Opinion. Now, out of the Vulgar (called Hierom's Translation) it may be gathered, that Affur both founded and ruined this Estate or City of the Chaldeans, by Esay remembred: unto which City, People, or State, he plainly telleth the Tyrians, that they cannot trust or hope for relief thence. Or rather it may be taken, that the Prophet maketh this City of Chaldaa, and that Estate, an example unto those Phanicians, whom in this place he fore-telleth of their ruine: which City of chaldea, being of strength, and carefully defended, was (notwithstanding) by rence in this fort: If you take the ancient the Asyrians utterly wasted and destroyed: whereby he giveth them knowledge, and fore-telleth them, that their own City of Tyre (invincible, as themselves thought) should alfo foon after be overturned by the same Assirians: as (indeed) it was by Nebuchodonofor. And these be the words after Hierom: Ecce terra Chaldworum, talis populus non fuit, Affur fundavit eam, in captivitatem traduxeneva) Affur (or the Affyrians ) founded it, Rabanus Maurus, who was Archbishop of altogether may be thus understood: If thou go Mentz in the year of Christ 854. an an-worte Chittim (which is Macedon, or Greece) neither in the Land of the Chaldwans, for this is made desolate by the Affyrians, because their to be the City anciently called Or; and by Hewalls fell together to the ground. Pagninus and cataus. Camerina; by Ptolemy, Orchoa; and by Vatablus convert it thus: Ecce terra Chafdiim, ifte populus non erat illic olim; nam Affur fundanit eam navibus erexerunt arces illius; contriverunt ades ejus, posuit eam in ruinam: which may be thus Englished: Behold the Land of the Chaldwans, this People was not once therein inhabiting : for Affur built it a barbour for Ships they erected the Towers thereof; and again brake down the houses thereof. and ruinated it. Junius, in the place of Ships, fets the word (pro Barbaris) that is, for the Barbarians: and the Geneva, by the Barbarians. But this is undoubted, that the Prophet Elay (as may be gathered by all the sence of that sence, the same may be the better apthe Chapter) did therein affure the Tyrians of their future destruction, which (accordingly) fell on them: wherein (for the more terrour) he maketh choice to note the calamities of those places, Cities, and Regions, by whose trade the state and greatness of the Tyrians was maintained; as by the Cilicians from Tharfis, from the Macedonians, and other Grecians, under the name of Cittim; alfo by the Egyptians, the Chaldwans, and the rest. For Tyre was then the Mart Town of fart Lands, because it joineth to that part of theWorld most renowned. And (as it appears in our Discourse of Paradise) not the least Arabians by the name of Ituraans) addeth, part of her chief merchandize came in by the that they are, of all other People, the most City Ur, or Urchoa in Chaldea, where the bo- Salvage; calling them Homines omnium mady or chief stream of Euphrates (even that xime barbaros. ftream which runneth through Babylon and Otris, which now falleth into Tygris ) had his fome doubt in Calvin, proveth in nothing passage into the Persian Gulf: though now it the contrary Opinion, nor in any part be stopped up. For, as we have heretofore weakneth the former Translation of Junius, noted, the Arabians (that descended from sheba and Raamab) dwelling on the East banus. For though other men have not conbanks of the Persian Gulf, trading with the ceived (for any, thing that I have read) that Tyrians (as those of Eden, Charran, and Chaine did) transported their merchandize by the Son of shem, when he is spoken of as a Builmouth of Tygris, that is, from Teredon; and of der of Ur; and when as a Destroyer thereof, Euphrates, that is, from Ur, or Urchoa: and then for the Assyrian Nation) yet certainly and then by Babylon, and thence by River the evidence of the truth, and agreement of and over Land, they conveyed it into Syria, circumstances seem to enforce it. And so this and so to Tyre; as they do this day to Aleppo. Founding of the City of the Chaldees by Affur So then Or of the Chaldees was a Port Town. and one of those Cities which had Intelli- that came into Shinaar, and were separate gence, trade, and exchange with the Tyrians: for the Idolatry of the Chustes and Nimrofor it stood by the great Lakes of chaldea, dians, retired themselves) hath nothing in through web, that part of Euphrates ran, which it to prove the same Assur built Nineve, or passage is now stopt up. Eins cursum vetustras that the same Assurance and one with Ninus; abolevit (saith Niger.) And Pliny: Locus ubi except we will make Assurance, who was the Euphrais oftium fuit, slumen salfum; time hath Son of Shem, both an Idolater, and the Son worn away the channel of Euphrates: the place of Belus. For (out of doubt) Ninus was the vet thou shalt not rest (speaking to the Tyrians) | the City of the Chaldees, whose calamities Esay here noteth for terrour of the Tyrians, the Greeks, Chaldeopolis the City of Chaldea : which the Sons of Shem until Abrahams time. inhabited. And whereas in all the Translations, it is faid, that Affir both founded it and ruined it: it may be understood, that Affur the Founder was the Son of Shem; and Affur the destroyers were the Allyrians, by whom those that inhabited Ur of Chalden were at length oppressed and brought to ruine: which thing God fore-feeing, commanded Abraham thence to Carran, and fo into Canaan. And if the Hebrew word by Watablus and Pagninus converted (by Ships ) do bear proved. because it was a Port Town: and the River fo farr up as this City of Ur was in ancient time navigable, as both by Pliny and Niger appeareth. And if the word ( for the Barbarians) or (by the Barbarians) be alfo in the Hebrew Text, it is no less manifest, that the most barbarous Arabians of the Defart were and are the confronting, and next People of all other unto it. For Chaldaa is now called Arachaldar, which fignifieth De-Arabia fo called: and Cicero (calling those

So as this place of Esay, which breedeth Affur is in this place diverfly taken (as for the (into which the most of the Posterity of shem where the mouth thereof was, is a Bay of falt first notorious acrificer to Idols; and the sirst water. These things being thus, certainly (not that set up a Statue or Image to be honourwithout good probability) we may expound ed as God. Now, if Affur must be of that and Religion. make the Founder of Ninive (and so the Son nive, and the other Cities of Assyria which of Belus) were any other, and not the same he builded (considered with the want of with Ninus; then what became of him? materials, and with other impediments) were Certainly, he was very unworthy, and ob- of greater difficulty than any thing performfeure, and not like to be the Founder of ed by his Succssours in many years after : to fuch an Empire, and fuch a City, if no man whose undertakings time had given so great have vouchfafed to leave to Posterity his ex- an increase of People; and the examples pullion thence, and how he loft that Empire and patterns of his beginning, so great adagain, or quitted it to Ninus: whose acts and vancement and encouragement; in whose conquests are so largely written, and (ac- time (faith Glycss) all these Nations were cording to my apprehension) farr differing called Meropes, a sermonis linguarum terfrom truth. It will therefore be found belt raque divisione; By reason that the earth and agreeing to Scripture and to Reason, and the speech were then divided. best agreeing with the Story of that Age written by prophane Authours, that Nimrod Nimrod, after he had reigned 114. years; of founded Babel, Erech, and siccad, and Chalne, whose acts and undertakings there is little the first works and degrantings of his Empire, written. For it is thought that he spent much according to Moles; and that these works of his time in disburdening the low Lands being finished within the Valley of Skinaar, of Babylon, and drying and making firm he looked farther abroad, and fet in hand ground of all those great Fens and overthe work of Ninus, lying neer unto the same Hown Marishes which adjoined unto it. For stream that Babel and Chalne did: which any of his Warrs or Conquests there is no work his Grand-child Ninus afterward am- report, other than of his begun enterprise plified and finished, as Semiramis (this against Sabatius King of Armenia, and those Ninus his wife ) did Babylon. Hence it came parts of Scythia, which Berofus calls Scythia to pass, that as Semiramis was counted the Foundress of the City which she onely finished : so also Ninus of Ninive: Quam quidam sollowed the Warr to effect, which was by Babylonem potnit instaurare; She might re- his Father Belus begun. pair or renew Babylon, faith S. Augustine. For fo did Nebuchodonosor vaunt himself to be the Founder of Babylon also, because he built up again some part of the wall, over-born by. the fury of the River: which work of his stood till Alexander's time, whereupon he Dan. 4. 27. vaunted thus: Is not this great Babel which I have built?

6. IV.

Of the Acts of Nimrod and Belus, as farr as now they are known.

propagated his Empire into Affyria, and in them, held the power which they poffelt,

Race, and not of the Family of Shem, as he Affyria built four more Cities(to wit) Ninive, must be, if he founded Ninive, then all those Rehoboth, Celah, and Resen. And seeing that which feek to give him the honour there- he spent much time in building Babel it felf, of, do him by a thousand parts more in- and those adjoining; and that his travels jury, by taking from him his true Parent were many ere he came into Shinaar: that work of Babel (fuch as it was) with the other Belides, if this supposed Assir, whom they three Cities, and the large foundation of Ni-

> Belus, or Bel, or Jupiter Belus, succeeded Saga, whose Son and Successour Barzanes became subject and Tributary to Ninus, that

> > 6. V.

That we are not to marvel how so many Kingdoms could be erected about these times: and of Vexoris of Egypt, and Tanais of Scythia.

⊤Hat fo many Kingdoms were erected in all those Eastern parts of the World fo foon after Nimrod (as by the Story of Ninus is made manifest) the causes were threefold (namely) Opportunity, Example, and Necessity, For Opportunity, being a Princess DUt to return to the Story, it is plain in liberal and powerfull, bestoweth on her sust Moles, that Nimrod (whom Philo inter- Entertainers many times more benefits, than preteth transfugium, and Julius Africanus either Fortune can, or Wisdom ought; by furnamed Saturne) was the establisher of the whose presence alone the understanding the Babylonian Monarchy, of whom there is minds of men receive all those helps and no other thing written, than that his Empire supplies, which they either want or wish in the beginning consisted of those four Ci- for: so as every Leader of a troop (after ties before remembred; Babel, Erech, Ac- the division of Tongues, and dispersion of cad, and Chalne; and that from hence he People) finding these fair offers made unto and governed by diferetion all those People, whom they conducted to their deflined places. For, it cannot be conceived, that when the Earth was first divided, mankind straggled abroad like Beasts in a Defart; but that by agreement they disposed themselves; and undertook to inhabite all the known parts of the World, and by distinct Families and Nations: otherwise, those remote Regions from Babylon and Shinaar, which had Kings, and were Peopled in Ninus his time, would not have been possest in many hundreds of years after, as then they were; neither did those that were sent, and travelled farr off (order being the true Parent of prosperous success) undertake so difficult enterprises without a Conductor or ny Writershave observed, figuilieth the Sun Commander. Secondly, the example of in the Ghaldean Tongue; and therefore did own Travels; northofe which were of little thaginians and other Nations, as fome Hiftostrength, secure themselves against forcible rians have conceived. violence; nor those which sought after any proportion of greatness, either possess the Ministers and Attendants.

Nims (the Son of Belus) made it apparent; Daniel was so called (faith Suidas) Ob bohim in the Warrs.

companion King, to us known, when he first | bylon was so called, which Ninus in memotook on him Soveraignty and fole com- ry of his Father fet up to be worthipped: to mandment of all those the Children of which, that he might add the more honour Stemore that Vexoris, who by many circumstances them erected on the Mountain Phegor, or orbitals feems to me, righty accounted by the Judi- Peor, and called Baal) is the fame which

6. V I.

of the name of Belus, and other names affines

X 7 Hence this fecond King and Successor, V of Nimrod had the name of Bell, or Believe, question bath been made ; for it seems. eth vather a name imposed, or (of addition) given by Ninus, than affumed by Belus

Carillus against Julian calls the Father of Ninus Arbelus, affirming that he was the first of all men that caused himself to be called a god : which were it forthen might the name of Belus be thence derived. But Bel, as ma-Nimrod, with whom it succeeded well, Nims, and Semiramis give that name to their ftrengthened every humour that afpired. Father, that he might be honoured as the Thirdly, Necessity resolved all men by the Sun, which the Babilonians worthipped as arguments of common miferies, that with- a god. And as this Title was assumed in afout a Commander and Magistrate, neither ter-times by divers others of the Chaldean could those that were laborious, and of Princes and Babylonian Satrapa: fo was it honest dispositions, enjoy the harvest of their used (in imitation) by the chief of the Car-

To this Bel, or Belus, pertain (as in affinity) those voices of Baal, Baalim, Belphegor, Beelfame in quiet, or rule and order their own phagor, Belfebub, and Beelfephon. Those that That these causes had wrought these estfects, the undertakings and Conquests of Princeps militie, Chief in the Warr; though for he found every where Kings and Mo- norem explications arcanarum rerum; In the innarchies, what way foever his Ambition led honor of his expounding feerets. Saint Hierom But Nimrod (his Grand-father) had no fignification: and faith, that the Idol of Eu-Noah, which came from the Eaft into Baby and reverence, he made it a Sanctuary and Lyr, in lonia: though in his life-time others allo refuge for all offenders. Hence (laith Ly-Spira) raifed themselves to the same estate; of rams; came Idolatry, and the first use of siem, which hereafter. Belus (his Son and Successor) found Sabatius King of Armenia and Bel by Vetus, old, or ancient; adding, that scybia, fufficiently powerfull to refift his ar- as among the Affrians it is taken for Salmry, tempts, which sabatius I take to be the same, and the Sun: so, in the Punick or Carthawhich Justine calls Tanais; and should con- ginian Language, it signifieth God: Glycas jecture, that Minraim had been his Vexoris, makes it an Affrian name properly; and were it not that I vehemently suspects some Josephus a Tyrian. He also affirmeth, that the errour (as Justine placeth him) in the time of Idol which the Moalites worshipped (by of this first closes and Learned Reineccius, all one with Parces, the great sessificial, that lived certain Ages, which also was the Opinion of Saint oje c. a. after Ninus. This Belus, the second King of Hierom. But, that the word Bel, or Beel, & s. Babylon, reigned 65, years, according to the common account.

was as much to fay, as God, appeareth by the word Beelzehnb, the Idol of Accuron. For Bel. or Beel foundeth (God) and Sebub (Flies or Hornets) by which name (notwithftanding) the Jews express the Prince of Devils. But the Prophet Ofe teacheth us Of the worshipping of Images, begun from Belus the propher fignification of this word from the voice of God himself; And at that day ( faith the Lord) thou (halt call me Ishi, and thalt call me no more Baalim: for I will take away the name of Baalim out of their mouths. Astronomy if Pling fay true : from whence the For, although the name of Baal, or Bahal, be Egyptians might borrow both the name and justly to be used towards God; yet in re- doctrine. Some part of the Temple, in which spect that the same was given to Idols, God his Statue or Image was honoured as a God, hath hated it, and forbad it. And the using the same Author affirmeth that it did remain of the word Bel among the Chaldeans for in his time. the Sun, was not, because it properly fignifieth the Sun, but because the Sun there was worshipped as God: as a also the Fire was: tanquam Solis particula. As for the words compounded (before remembred) as Belphegor, and Belsephon; Belsephon is expounded out of Facius; Dominus specu-Idol, and the place wherein it was wor-Aufto, de Grand-child Hercules. Saturni dicuntur faequit l. 1. miliarum Nobilium, Regumque qui urbes contillimi. The ancientest of Noble Families and Kings which founded Cities, are called Saturns; their first-born, Jupiters and Junoes; reigned (faith suidas) whom they called aftheir valiant. Nephews. Hercules. But this terthe name of the Planet Mars; a man of Belus (faith L. Vives) was famous by rea- sharp and fierce disposition, who bidding fon of his Warlike Son, Ninus, who caused battel to Caucasus, of the stock of Japheth, his Father to be worshipped as a God by slew him. The Assyrians worshipped him for the name of Jupiter Babylonius, whom the their God, and called him Baal (that is) Mars; Egyptians (transported by Dreams of their thus far Suidas. Neither is it unlikely but Died, 13. Antiquities) make one of theirs. For Neptune that any among Idolatrous Nations were (fay they) upon Lybia the Daughter of Epa- Deified in their life-times, or foon after: phus, begat this Jupiter Belus, who was Fa- though I deny not, but that the most of their ther to Agyptus. They add, that this Be- Images and Statue were first erected withlus, carrying a Colony to the River of Eu- out divine worthip, onely in memory of the phrates, there built a City, in which he or- glorious acts of Benefactors, as Glycas rightly dained Priests after the Egyptian manner. conceiveth; and so afterward the Devil crept But, were there any Belus the Son of Epa- into those wooden and brazen carcasses, phus and Isis, or of Neptune and Lybia, or when Posterity had lost the memory of their (with Eucebins) of Teglonus, who after the first invention. Hereof Isidore speaketh in death of Apis married Iss (Cecrops then this manner: Quos autem Pagani Deos affereigning in Athens ) the same was not this runt, homines suerunt, & pro uniuscujusque vi-Babylonian Belus of whom we speak, but ta meritis vel magnificentia, coli apud suos post rather some other Belus, of whom the Egyptians so much vaunted.

E. VII.

in Babel.

S for the Babylonians Belus, he was the A most ancient Belus, and the Inventor of

Of the Sepulchre of Belus, Srabo writeth thus: Over the River, faith he, there are Gar- 13.63. dens, where they say the ruines of Belus his Tomb, which Xerxes brake up, are yet remaining. It was a square Fyramis made of Brick, a furlong high, and on every side it had a furlong in breadth: It appears by Cyril against Julian, L. L. on. La, vel custodia: The Lord of the Watch-tower, that he obtained divine worship yet living: Jaim, or of the Guard: the other word noteth the for so he writes of him (calling him Arbelles.) Arbelus vir superbus & arrogans primus homishipped. It is written Belpeor, or Baalpeor: num dicitur à subditis Deitatis nomen acceand Peor (they fay) is as much as Denuda- piffe: Perfeverarunt igitur Affyrii, & finitimæ vit; and therefore the word joined, ex- illis gentes sacrificantes ei. Arbelus, a man vepressent a naked Image. Some there are ry proud and arrogant, is accounted to be the that call this Belus, the Son of Saturn: for first of all men that was ever honoured by their it was used among the Ancients, to name | Subjects with title of Deity; (or with the name the Father saturn, the Son Jupiter, and the of God) the Asyrians therefore, and the bordering Nations have persevered, sacrificing to him. Even Arius also, whom Suidas calls Thudiderunt senissimi; primogeniti eorum Joves ras, who succeeded next after Ninus, was [ Junones, Hercules vero nepotes eorum for- made an Idol-God among them, if we credit Snidas.

After Ninus (that is, after Ninias) Thuras mortem caperunt : sed (Demonibus persuadentibus ) quos illi pro sua memoria bonoraverunt, minores Deos existimarunt : ad ista vero magis excolenda accesserunt Poetarum figmenta; they are men former to a regarding they continue for ever firmed to be gods: and every one for his merits they continue for ever. prince to the Scholemen affirm, that ermagnificence, began after his death to be koer magnification ... Lut, at length (the Denonco g they accounted them lefter of the Heathen Idols, it is manifeli, that Mofes cats permaning ) and accounted them upon or the treatmentations, it is maintent, that angles gods, whose memories they bonoured: and the frake of Images of the living God, and not goas, awoje memories they communed, and the space of the mages of the rest of that nature, For you fillions of the Poets made the Opinions (conentions of the toes made the examination of the more full far no Image (faith Mofes) that day that the orongan array the rogans, and reamen space | Journal imaginaris, as the conference commence on site snot Modere alone that witnesseth; but I te that: Do not imagine any form to be in God, one, it is not Modere alone that witnesseth; but I te that: on the Gregory: Genilitas (faith he) inventrix & left thou limit or circumferile bim in thy mind caput of Imaginum, Gentilifm is the inventres too. Now, if the great Ball thought it a pretapo yo amagaming commignion to the market function unlawfull to represent a pattern of and ground of Images: and Ambroje; Gentes function unlawfull to represent a pattern of lignum adorant, tanquam imaginem Dei; The the inlinite God to our own thoughts and 16.17. God. Eufchius also affirmeth as much, and calput him under the grease Pencil of a Painleth the worthipping of images, a custom bor-Late bis. rowed of the Heathen. The like faith S. Angustine against Adimantus. Et verentur (faith Lactantius ) ne Religio vana sit, si nihil videant quod adorent; They fear their Religion would be vain, should they not see what they

the very workmanship is forbidden, how can fet them in their Temples for 170. years; obthe heart of a wife Christian satisfy it self with serving the Law of Numa, who thought it imthe diffinction of Doulia, and Hyperdoulia, piety to refemble things most beautifull, by which can imply nothing but tome difference of worthipping of those Images afterwards prevailing, and following the vaniter they are made? And it is of all things ty of the Greeians (a Nation of all others unthe molt frrange, why religious and learned der the Sun most deluded by Saran) set up many places forbidden, and curfed the pra- which seneca thus derideth; Simulachra decticers thereof. Yet this doctrine of the Devil was so strongly and subtilly rooted, as neile la adorunt; & cum bac supriciant, fabros, qui ther express the Commandment of God himfelf, Thou shalt not make any graven Image, nor are worshipped, those they pray unto with bended all the threatning of Mojes and the Prophets knees these they adore; and while they so after him, could remove, weed it, or by fear, greatly admire them, they contemn the Handior by any perswasions lead the hearts of men craftsmen that made them: which also sedulifrom it. For, where shall we find words of w the Foet in this fort feofied at: greater weight, or plainer instruction than these? Take therefore good heed to your selves (for ye faw no Image in the day that the Lord spake unto you in Horeb, out of the midst of the fire) that ye corrupt not your selves, and make you a graven Image, or representation of any Figure, whether it be the likeness of Male or Female. And, besides the express Commandment, Thou shalt make thee no graven Image, and the prohibition of many Scriptures; fo it is written in the Book of Wildom, That, the invention of Idols was the beginning of Whoredom: and the finding of them the corruption of life: for

They were men (faith he) whom the Pagans of I they were not from the beginning, neither fluid

And, that the worthipping of Images was excellently laid of Bafil 3 Noli aliquam in illo brought in by the Pagans, and Heathen Natiagainst autor and, ranguage imaginest Dec 3 the time finance God to our own thoughts abut Gentiles adore mood, as it were the Image of minds, how farr do those men prelume, that ter, or the rufty Axe or other Instrument of a Carpenter or Carver? For as this dithonour to the infinite and incomprehentible God, began in Babel: fo did the Devil transport and spread this invention into all the Regions adjoining, and into Egypt and Greece.

The Romans, for a while, refifted the erefearfull cultom very strangely. For, seeing thion of these Idols and Images, refusing to men should strain their wits to defend the the Images of their gods; which (as S. Au- Ass. de use of those things, which the Scriptures have entire witnesseth) that learned Varro both time. As not only no where warranted, but exprelly in bewailed, and utterly condemned: and can-

Heu miseri qui vana colunt qui corde sinistro Religiosa sibi sculpunt simulachra, suumque Factorem fugiunt, & que fecere verentur! Quis furor est? qua tanta animos dementia ludit ? Ut volucrem, turpemque bovem, torvumque Draconem,

Semi-hominemque-canem supplex homo pronus adoret.

Ah wretched they that worship vanities, And confecrate dumb Idols in their heart, Who their own Maker (God on high) despise, And fear the work of their own hands & art!

CHAP. X

Mens minds? that man should ugly shapes

tue and Images, but in memory of tuch re-Deum invisibilem cognoscere : Images say they,

What fury? what great madness doth | vales (called the pictures of Christ, our Lady, and others) were by thousands of ignorant people, not onely adored, but effected to adore of Eirds, or Bulls, or Dragons, or the vite the focks we call (South the Look of Wijdom) Half-dog-half-man on knees for aid im- when we pass through the riging maves, on these flocks more rotten than the Ship that carries us.

This Heathen invention of Images became And though this device was barbarous, and fo fruits all in after-times, breeding an infinite first, and many years practised by Heathen multitude of gods, that they were forced to Nations onely, till the Jews were corrupted diffinguish them into degrees and orders; in Egypt, vet it is not Seneca alone that laugh- as Dii confentes, feu majorum gentium, felecti, eth to fcorn the ignorant stupidity of his Na- Patriti infigniores dii medii: Counselling gods, tion: but Justin Martyr remembreth how the or gods of the mightiest Nobility, select gods, Pa-Sybils inveighed against Images: and Huffi- trian gods of mark, and Common gods (which nian, how Sophocles taught, that it was perni- the Romans called Medioxum) dii infimi, and cious to the fouls of men to erect and adore terrestrial Heroes, and multitudes of other those bables. Strabo and Herodotus witness, gods, of which S. Augustine hath made large that the Persians did not crect or set up any mention, in his Book, de Civitate Dei. But Statue of their Gods. Lyenrgus never taught (faith Lactantius) among all those miserable it the Lacedemonians, but thought it impiety fouls and rotten bodies, worshipped by men to represent immortal natures by mortal Fi- more like to their Idols, did Epimenides Cregures. Eusebius also witnesseth, in his Sixth tenss (by what good Angel moved I know Book, de praparatione Evangelica, that it was now) erect in the Athenian Fields, Altars to forbidden by a Law in Serica, or among the the unknown God, which stood with the Brackmans in India, that Images should be same title and dedication, even to the times worshipped. The same do 'actius and Cri- of S. Paul: who made them first know to nitus report of the antient Germans. Many whom these Altars belonged, and opened other Authours might be remembred, that their eyes which were capable of grace, that witness the disdain which the Heathen them- they might discern the difference betwixt felves had of this childish (dolary : of which that light which lighteneth every man, and Holpinian hath written at large in his "ract, the obscure and stinking mist wherein the de origine imaginum. And it was truly faid, Devil had so many years led and mis-led Omnia mala exempla bonis initiis orta funt, them. And it sufficed not that the multitude All ill examples have frung from good agin- of these gods was so great in general, or that mings. The Heathen, at first, made those Sta- every Nation had some one which took particular and fingular care of them, as Jupiter markable men, as had deserved best of their in Crete, Isis in Egypt, in Athens, Minerva, in Countries and common-wealths: Effigies ho. Samos, Juno, in Paphos, Venus, and fo of all minum (faith Pliny) non folebant exprime, nife other parts; but every City, and almost evealiana illustri causa perpetuitatem merentium; ry Family had a god apart. For as it is writ-Men are not wont to make littures, but of men | ter in the fecond of Kings, the men of Babel co. 1. which merited for some notable cause to be per- made succoth Benoth, and the men of Cuth petually remembred. And though of the more made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made antient Papifts, some have borrowed of the Ashima, and the Avites made Nibhaz and Tar-Gentiles (as appears in Lactantius) that de- tak, and the Sepharvaims burnt their chilfence for Images: That Simulachra are pro ele- dren in the fire to Adramelech. All which, mentis literarum, ut per ea discerent homines how plainly hath the Prophet Esay derided? cap. 44. Men cut down Trees, rind them, burn a part of (and to be fore them the Heathen faid) are in them, make ready their meat, and warm themstead of Letters, whereby men might learn to selves by the fire thereof, and of the residue he know the invilible God: in which understand- maketh a god; an Idol, and prayeth unto it: but ing, perhaps, they no otherwise esteemed God bath shut their eyes from sight, and their them than pictures indeed; yet as that of Ba- heart from understanding. It is therefore safest alor Bel, fet up in memory of Belus the Baby- for a Christian, to believe the Commandments lonian, became afterward the most reveren- of God, so direct against Idolatry, to believe ced Idel of the world, by which so many Na- the Prophets, and to believe S. Paul, who tions (and they which were appropriate to speaketh thus plainly and feelingly, My be-God imfel! ) were misled and cast away : so loved, she from Idolatry ; I speak as unto them those very stocks and stones, and painted can- which have understanding, judge ye what I say.

e. VIII.

Of the Warrs of Ninus: and lastly of his Warr against Zoroaster.

U Nto this Belis succeeded Nimes, the first that commanded the exercise of Idolatry, the first that injuriously invaded his Neighbour Princes, and the first that, without shame or fear, committed Adultery in his kinsman, and a chissie, and the necrest publick. But, asof Belus there is no certain Prince confronting Eabylonia. His first entermemory (as touching particulars) to of this prize was upon syria, which he might easily Ninus (whose Story is gathered out of profane Authors) I find nothing so warrantable, but that the same may be disputed, and in also became the Arabians and their King the greatest part doubted. For, although Arieu (which bordered Spria) affished him that piece of Berofus, let out and commented in the Conquest thereof. upon by Annius, hath many good things in it, and giveth great light (as Chryteus noteth) to the understanding of Diodorus Siculus, Dion, Halicarnasseus, and others: yet, Lodovieus Vives, B. Rhenams, and others after but, that, ever he commanded the lefter Afia, them, have laid open the imperfection and I do not believe, for none of his Successors defects of the Fragment; proving directly, had any policilion therein. that it cannot be the same Berosus which lived in Alexander's time, cited by Atheneus of the Medes, whom it is faid that he overand Josephus: and whose Statue the Athenithrew, and gruelly murthered with his seven page. and populars, and whose summe the above the configuration of the page of chiefly, that many have gathered the successall died in one barrel against him. Whether fion of the Babylonian and Affrian Princes, he invaded Zorosfier before the building or even from Nimrod, to the eighteenth King amplifying of Ninive, or after, it is uncer-Ascatades, and to the times of Josua. For of tain. It is said, that he made two Expediti-Metasshenes an Historian, of the Race of the tions into Eadria: and, that finding little Persian Priests, there are found but certain Papers; or some few lines of the Chaldean in the collection of the Persian Kings, is not without his errours.

Ctesias, or Cnidus (a City joining to Halicarnasseus) who lived together with Cyrus the younger, and with Artaxerxes Mnemon, gathered his Hiftory out of the Persian Records, and reacheth as farr upwards as Ninus and Semiramis: and, though in the Story of Cyrus the younger, Xenophon approveth him ramin (the Wife of Menon) he entred and in some things, and Atheneus, Pausanias, and Tertullian cite him; yet so base and apparent are his flatteries of the Times and Princes lately published.

a long discourse cannot be pleasing to men long into the Water, and died.

of judgment, I will pals over the acts of this third Afgrian, in as few words as I can express them. S. Augustine affirms, that Ninus mastered all Asia, India excepted. Others say that he wan it all, fave India, Eadria, and Arabia. For he made Aricus of Arabia, the companion of his Conquetts, with WHOm he entred into a streight league of aming, because he commanded many people, and was fudden, and because it lay next him: and

The King of Armenia, Barzanes, he forced to acknowledge him, and to aid him in his Warr against Zoro fer: for from Armenia, he bent himself that way toward the East;

His third Warr was against Pharmes, King or ill fuccess in the first, he returned, and set the work of Ninive forward: and then a feand Myrian Monarchies: but he afterwards, cond time entred Eadria with 1700000 Foot, and 200000 Horfe, and 100000 fix hundred Chariots: being encountred by Zoroafter with four hundred thousand. But Ninus prevailing, and Zoroafter being flain, he entred farther into the Countrey, and be- Aug. de fieged the chief City thereof, called Battra, Civil Dei. or Bactrion (faith stephanus) which by a passage found, and an assault given by Semipossest. Upon this occasion Ninus both admiring her judgment and valour, together vib. de with her person and external beauty, sancied with whom he lived, and so incredible are her so strongly, as (neglecting all Princely rethe numbers which he finds in the Armies of fpects) he took her from her Hufband, whole Ninus, and especially of semiramis; as what- eyes he threatned to thrust out, if he refused foever his reports were, times have confumed to confent. He thererefore yielding to the his Works, faving some very few excerptions passion of love in Ninus, and to the passion of forrow in himfelf, by the strong perswasions And therefore in things uncertain, feeing of shame and hishonour, cast himself head-

155

beguile

Nens minds? that man should ugly shapes

Half-dog-half-man on knees for aid im-tion: but Justin Martyr remembreth how the or gods of the mightiest Nobility, select gods, Panitus report of the antient Germans. Many other Authours might be remembred, that witness the disdain which the Heathen them-Hospinian hath written at large in his Tract, de origine imaginum. And it was truly faid, Omnia mala exempla bonis initiis orta funt, nings. The Heathen, at first, made these Statue and Images, but in memory of tuch remarkable men, as had deferved best of their Countries and common-wealths: Efficies ha-

What fury? what great madness doth | vales (called the pictures of Christ, our Lady, and others) were by thoulands of ignorant people, not onely adored, but effeemed to adore have life, motion, and understanding. On Of Eirds, or Bulls, or Dragons, or the vile these focks we call (fish the Eook of Wisslam) when we passtbrough the raging waves, on these flocks more rotten than the Ship that carries us.

This Heathen invention of Images became And though this device was barbarous, and fo fruit will in after-times, breeding an infinite first, and many years practited by Heathen multimde of gods, that they were forced to Nations onely, till the Jews were corrupted distinguish them into degrees and orders; in Egypt, yet it is not Seneca alone that laugh- as Dii consentes, seu majorum gentium, selecti, eth to fcorn the ignorant stupidity of his Na- Patritii insigniores dii medii: Counselling gods, Sybils inveighed against Images: and Hospi- trian, gods of mark, and Common gods (which nian, how Sophocles taught, that it was perni- the Romans called Medioxum) dii infimi, and cious to the fouls of men to crect and adore terrestrial Heroes, and multitudes of other those bables. Strabo and Herodoius witness, gods, of which S. Augustine hath made large that the Persians did not creck or set up any mention, in his Book, de Civitate Dei. But Statue of their Gods. Lyenrgus never taught (saith Lactantius) among all those miserable it the Lacedemonians, but thought it impiety fouls, and rotten bodies, worshipped by men to represent immortal natures by mortal Figures. Eusebius also witnesieth, in his Sixth tensis (by what good Angel moved I know Book, de praparatione Evangelica, that it was now) erect in the Athenian Fields, Altars to forbidden by a Law in Serica, or among the the unknown God, which stood with the Brackmans in India, that Images should be same title and dedication, even to the times worthipped. The fame do 'actins and cri- of S. Paul: who made them first know to whom these Altars belonged, and opened their eyes which were capable of grace, that they might discern the difference betwixt felves had of this childifh idolarry : of which that light which lighteneth every man, and the obscure and stinking mist wherein the Devil had so many years led and mis-led them. And it sufficed not that the multitude All ill examples have firing from good begin- of these gods was so great in general, or that every Nation had some one which took particular and fingular care of them, as Jupiter in Crete, Ilis in Egypt, in Athens, Minerva, in Samos, Juno, in Paphos, Venus, and fo of all minum (faith Pliny) non folebant exprimi, mil other parts; but every City, and almost evealiqua illustri causa perpetuitatem merentium: ry Family, had a god apart. For, as it is writ-Men are not wont to make l'idures, but of men ten in the second of Kings, the men of Babel Cap. 17. relich merited for some notable cause to be per- made Succost Benoth, and the men of Cuth petually remembred. And though of the more made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made antient Papifis, fome have borrowed of the Ashima, and the Avites made Nibhaz and Tar-Gentiles (as appears in Lastantius) that de- tak, and the sepharvaims burnt their chilfence for Images: That Simulachra are pro ele- dren in the fire to Adramelech. All which, mentis literarum, ut per ea discerent komines how plainly hath the Prophet Esay derided? cap. 44-Deum invisibilem cognoscere: Images say they, Men cut down Trees, rind them, burn a part of (and so before them the Heathen said) are in them, make ready their meat, and warm themstead of Letters, whereby men might learn to selves by the fire thereof, and of the residue he know the invisible God : in which understand- makesh a god; an Idol, and prayeth unto it : but ing, perhaps, they no otherwise esteemed God hath shut their eyes from sight, and their them than pictures indeed; yet as that of Ba-beart from understanding. It is therefore safest alzor Bel, fet up in memory of Belus the Baby- for a Christian, to believe the Commandments lonian, became afterward the most reveren- of God, so direct against Idolatry, to believe ced Idol of the world, by which fo many Na- the Prophets, and to believe S. Paul, who tions (and they which were appropriate to speaketh thus plainly and feelingly, My be-God mmfelt ) were mifled and caft away : fo loved flie from Idolatry ; I fleak as unto them those very stocks and stones, and painted can- which have understanding, judge ye what I say.

s. VIII.

CHAP. X.

Of the Warrs of Ninus: and laftly, of his Warr against Zoroaster.

of the History of the World.

U Nto this Belus succeeded Nimus; the first that commanded the exercise of Idolatry, the first that injuriously invaded his Neighbour Princes, and the first that, without shame or fear, committed Adultery in publick. But, as of Belus there is no certain Prince confronting Ealylonia. His first entermemory (as touching particulars) to of this prize was upon syria, which he might early Ninus (whose Story is gathered out of profane Authors) I find nothing so warrantable, but that the same may be disputed, and in also because the Arabians and their. King the greatest part doubted. For, although driem (which bordered Spria) allisted him that piece of Berofus, fet out and commented in the Conquest thereof. upon by Annius, hath many good things in it. and giveth great light (as Chrysess notesth) to acknowledge him, and to aid him in his to the understanding of Diodorus Siculus; Dion, Halicarnasseus, and others: yet, Lodovicus Vives, B. Rhenanus, and others after but, that, ever he commanded the lefter Afra, them, have laid open the imperfection and I do not believe, for none of his Succeffors defects of the Fragment; proving directly, had any policition therein. that it cannot be the same Berosus which lived in Alexander's time, cited by Atheneus of the Medes, whom it is faid that he overand Josephus: and whose Statue the Athensthrew, and cruelly murthered with his seven man, of an erected, faith Pliny. Yet it is from him Children, though others affirm, that they chiefly, that many have gathered the fucceffion of the Babylonian and Assyrian Princes, even from Nimrod, to the eighteenth King Ascatades, and to the times of Josea. For of tain. It is said, that he made two Expediti-Metaflhenes an Historian, of the Race of the tious into Badria; and, that finding little Persan Priests, there are found but certain or ill success in the first, he returned, and see Papers; or some few lines of the Chaldean and Affyrian Monarchies : but he afterwards, in the collection of the Persian Kings, is not without his errours.

Ctesias, or Cnidus (a City joining to Halicarnaffeus) who lived together with Cyrus the younger, and with Artaxerxes Mnemon, gathered his History out of the Persian Records, and reacheth as farr upwards as Ninus his Works, faving some very few excerptions lately published.

And therefore in things uncertain, seeing of shame and hishonour, cast himself headlong into the Water, and died. a long discourse cannot be pleasing to men of judgment, I will pass over the acts of this third Afgrian, in as few words and can express them. S. Augustine affirms, that Ninus mastered all Asia, India excepted. Others say that he wan it all, fave India, Eadria, and Arabia. For he made Aricus of Arabia, the companion of his Conquetts, with which he entred into a ftreight league of amitin because he commanded many people, and was his kiniman, and a Chuste, and the neerest fudden, and because it lay next him: and

The King of Armenia, Barzanes, he forced Warr against Zorosfer: for from Armenia, he bent himfelt that way toward the East;

His third Warr, was against Pharmes, King he invaded Zorouster before the building or amplifying of Ninive, or after, it is uncerthe work of Ninive forward: and then a fecond time entred Badria with 1700000 Foot, and 200000 Horse, and 100000 six hundred Chariots: being encountred by Zoroafter with four hundred thousand. But Ninus prevailing, and Zoroafter being flain, he entred farther into the Countrey, and be- Ang. de sieged the chief City thereof, called Bastra, Civin.Del. or Bactrion (saith stephanus) which by a and Semiramis: and, though in the Story of passage found, and an assault given by Semi-Cyrus the younger, Xenophon approveth him ramin (the Wife of Menon) he entred and in fome things, and Atheneus, Paulanias, and possest. Upon this occasion Ninus both ad-Tertullian cite him; yet so base and apparent miring her judgment and valour, together 2016. are his flatteries of the Times and Princes with her person and external beauty, sancied with whom he lived, and so incredible are her fo strongly, as (neglecting all Princely rethe numbers which he finds in the Armies of spects) he took her from her Husband, whose Ninus, and especially of semirams; as whatfoever his reports were, times have confumed to confent. He thererefore yielding to the passion of love in Ninus, and to the passion of forrow in himfelf, by the strong perswasions

Of Zoroaster, supposed to have been the chief Authour of Magick Arts: and of the divers kinds of Magick.

That Zoroaster was not Cham, nor the first inventer of Astrologie, or of Magick: and that there were divers great Magicians of this name.

ternal Ancestour of Ninns, the Fa- far more ancient, and left by Noah to his Sons. ther of Chus, the Grand-father of Ninnrod, For Abraham, who had not any acquaintance whose Son was Belus, the Father of Ninus. It with Zoroaster (as Josephus reporteth) was no may be that Vincentius had heard of that less learned herein than any other in that age, Book which was called Scripture Cham, de- if he exceeded not all men then living: difvised by some wicked Knave, and so enti-fering from the wisdom of after-times in this, tuled; of which sixtus senensis hath made that he knew, and acknowledged, the true the due mention.

ters of the Floud; and feven of Brick, things, and reneweth all. against the injury of fire. There was also ano- Now, whether this Zoroafter (overthrown ther devised Discourse, which went under by Ninus) were the same which was so excelthe title of Prophetia Cham. Caffianns out of lent a Naturalist, it is doubted. For Zoroafter Serenus hath somewhat like this of Comestor. the Magician, Ctesias calls Oxyartes, whom These be Cassanus words: Cham (filius Pliny finds of a later time. And if Zoroaster Noah) qui superstitionibus istis & sacrilegis were taken away by a Spirit (being in the fuit artibus infectus. sciens nullum se posse super midst of his Disciples) as some Authours re-(the Son of Noah) who was infected with these Scaliger.

ther children weep; which prefaged the of knowledge, and leave it by writing to great knowledge which afterward he at- Posterity.

Oreafter, King of the Battrians, Vin- Minerals, or their Sympathetical, or Antipacentius supposeth to be Cham the thetical workings; of which, I know not Son of Noah: a fancy of little pro- what King of Chaldaa is also made the Invenbability. For cham was the Pa- ter. I rather think that these knowledges were cause, and giver of life and virtue to Nature, It is reported by Cassans, that Serenus and all natural things; whereas others (for-Abbas gave the invention of Magick to Cham getting Gods infinite, dispersed, and universal the Son of Noah: fo did Comestor in his Scho- power) admired the Instruments, and did lastical History; which Art (faith he) with attribute proper strength to the things themthe feven Liberal Sciences he writ in four- selves (from which the effects were sensible) wife.c. teen Pillars: seven of which were made which belonged to that wisdom, Which beof Brass, to resist the defacing by the Wa-ing one, and remaining in it self, can do all his memorialem librain Arcam prorsus inserre, port, then Zoroaster, Ilain by Ninus, was not in qua erat cum patre justo, &c. Cham the the Magician: which is also the opinion of Superstitions and Sacrilegious Arts, knowing Again, Josephus, and Cedrenus affirm, that scalig in that he could not bring any Book or memorial Seth first found out the Planets, or wandring soft that nature into the Ark, wherein he was to Stars, and other motions of the Heavens: for Junique remain with his godly Father, caused the Pre- if this Art had been invented by Zoroaster, cepts and Rules thereof to be graven in Metal, he could not have attained to any such excellency therein, in his own life-time; but Saint Augustine noteth that Zoroaster was being a man(as it seemeth) of singular judgfaid to have laught at his birth, when all o- ment, he might add somewhat to this kind

tained unto ; being taken for the Inventer But of this Zoroaster, there is much dispute: of natural Magick and other Arts; for the and no less jangling about the word and Art Corrupter, faith Pliny and Justine. But I do of Magick. Arnobius remembreth four, to not think that Zoroaster invented the do- whom the name of Zoroaster, or Zorcastres Ctrine of the Horoscopes, or Nativities : or first was given : which by Hermodorus and Dinon found out the nature of Herbs, Stones, and seemeth to be but a cognomen, or name of art, CHAP. XI. The first, Arnobius calleth the Badrian, which | study and labour, altogether ridiculous. may be the latter than the Aftronomer of by is express such a chaldean, and the Aftronomer of by is express such as is altogether con-Ninus: the third was Zoroaster Pamphylius, who lived in the time of Cyrus, and his familiar: the fourth, Zoroafter Armenius, the Nephew of Hostianes, which followed Xerxes into Greece : between whom and Gyrus, there | faith, that the Perfians called their gods unique: past threescore and eighteen years. Suidas remembreth a fifth, called Persomedus sapiens: and Plato speaketh of Zoroaster the Magus is a name sometimes of him that is a Son of Oromasses 5 which Picus Mirandula God by nature; sometimes of him that is in confirmeth.

Zoroasier was, it is doubted. Pliny and Lacrtius make him a Persian. Gemitheus, or Pletho, Ficinus and Steuchins, make him a Chaldean. But by those Books of one Zoroafter found by Picus Mirandula, it appeareth plainly, that the Author of them was a Chaldwan by Nation, though the word (Chaldean) was as often given to the learned Priests peculiarly, as for any distinguishment of Nations. Forphyrius makes the Chaldei and Magi divers; Picus, the same. But that this Zoroafter was a Chaldean both by Nation and Profession, it appeareth by his Books, which (faith Picus) Zoroastris & Melchior magorum oracula.

§. II.

Of the name of Magia; and that it was anciently far divers from Conjuring and Witchcraft.

Ow, for Magick it felf; which Art (faith Mirandula) Pauci intelligunt, multi re- han Tongue the word (Magus) imports as prekendunt; Few understand, and many repre-much a contemplator of divine and heavenhend; Et sicut Canes ignotos semper allatrant; As Dogs bark at those they know not: so they Chaldeans were ignorant of the true Divinicondemn and hate the things they under-ty. And it is also right which His Majely afrand not: I think it not amifs (leaving Ninus voweth, that under the name of Magick, all for a while) to speak somewhat thereof.

Plant 30 Wittnery, are fart officering Arts, whereon powers a party surface of the Wifemen Arioli, 1881, Nat. Pliny being ignorant, feoffeth thereat. For nameth four kinds of those Wifemen Arioli, 1881, Nat. Pliny being ignorant, feoffeth thereat. Papping Nero (faith Pling) who had the most excel Magi, Malesici, and Chalderi. Arioli the old and was as much to fay, as Aftrorum cultor. dom by his grace, found the Art, after long Magus is a Persian word primitively, where- Plato in firmeth) the Art of Magick is the Art of worshipping God. To which effect Apollonius in his Epittles expounding the word (univ ) whence he addeth, that Magus is either i स्ट्रीवे क्षंडा अन्देर, Or अद्भानकी मह अन्तर (that is) that Now, of what Nation the first and chief is taken, Mat. 2. v. 1. And this is the first and vine Magick : and these did the Latines new-riced, de ly entitle Sapientes, or Wisemen: For, the fear privat. 7. and worship of God is the beginning of know- John Bug. ledge. These Wiscemen the Greeks call Philo-Linschot. fophers: the Indians, Branchmans; which name they somewhat neerly retain to this day, calling their Priests Bramines; among the Egyptians they were tearmed Priests with the Hebrews they were called Cabalifts, Prophets, Scribes, and Pharifees: amongst the Babylonians they were differenced by the name of Chaldeans : and among the Persians, Magicians: of whom Arnobius (speaking of the Comment in the fame Language. Now, that the Magiand they were not differing it uleth these words: Et verum Deum merita selections may be judged by the name of those Books majestate prosequitur, Angelos ministros Dei, Arabio of Toronfler, which in an Epistle of Mirandula fed veri ejus venerationi novit affifere. Idem 1,560. toFicinus, he saith, to be intituled, Patris Ezre demonas prodit terrenos, vagos, humanitatis not Hoftanes) ascribeth the due Majesty to the true God, and acknowledgeth that his Angels are ministers and messengers which attend the Worship of the true God. He also hath delivered that there are Devils earthly, and wandering, and enemies to man-kind. His Majesty also, in his first Book of Demo-

ly science; but unjustly so called, because the other unlawfull Arts are comprehended, and It is true, that many men abhort the very yet doth His Majesty distinguish it from Nename and word (Mages) because of simon cromancy, Witcherast, and the rest: of all Magus, who being indeed, not Magus, but which he hath written largely, and most goer (that is) familiar with evil Spirits, nurped that Title. For Magick, Conjuring, and By condemneth, is of that kind whereof the Witchery, are farr differing Arts, whereof Devil is a party. Daniel in his fecond Chaplent Magicians of the East, sent him by Tyri- Latine Translation calleth Sophiftas: Fatadates King of Armenia, who held that King- blus and Pagninus, Cenethliacos, or Phylicos, or divinarum humanarumque rerum scientiam, unto them knew none of these Sciences. profitentes; For the Magi are the same with the Septuagint, Magicians.

The third kind are Malestei or Venesici; in Hierom, Pagnin, and the Septuagint, Witches, whole Philosophy of Nature; not the brab-nenting. cerers, as in English.

the Devil by other means bringeth to pass.

events: and this they vaunted to perform by the influences of the Starraby them observed, and understood.

Such were, and to this day partly (if not altogether) are the corruptions, which have made odious the very name of Magick. crept into the inferiour degrees.

motions and influences of the Starrs into those lower Elements.

knew the Creator by the contemplation of the gathered and translated.

Philosophers, or (according to the note of creature, Josephus reporteth of Abraham, that Vatablus Naturalists: Nempe funt Magi apud he instructed the Egyptians in Arithmetick Rabaros quod Philosophi apud Gracos (scilicet) and Astronomie who before Abraham's comine

And so doth Archangelus de Burge, in dethe Barbarians, as the Philosophers are with the fence of Mirandula against Garsias : Alexan-Grecians (that is) men that profess the know- der & Eupolemon dicunt, quid Abraham ledge of things both divine and humane. The fantitate & spientia omnium prastantissimus. Greek and the English call them Inchanters; Chaldaos primum, deinde Phoenices, demum Junius, Magicians; Castalion, Conjedurers : in Egyptios Sacerdotes Astrologiam & divina the Strian, they are all four by one name docuerit; Alexander (faith he, meaning Acalled Sapientes Babylonis; The Wisemen of lexander Polyhistor) and Eupolemon affirm, that Abraham, the holiest and wifest of men, The second fort Vatablus, Pagnin, Junius, did first teach the Chaldwans, then the Pheniand our Englift, call Aftrologers; Hierom and cians; laftly, the Egyptian Priefts, Aftrologie, and divine Knowledge.

or Poisoners: in Junius, Prastigiatores, or Sor- blings of the Aristotelians, but that which say to bringeth to light the inmost virtues, and divin. Dis. That Witches are also rightly so called draweth them out of Nature's hidden bo-Venefici, or Poisoners; and that indeed there | some to humane use: Virtutes in centro centri is a kind of Malefici, which, without any Art latentes; Virtues hidden in the center of the of Magick or Necromancie, use the help of center, according to the Chymists. Of this fort the Devil to do mischief, His Majesty con- were Albertus, Arnoldus de villa nova, Kayfirmeth in the first Chapter of his second | mond, Bacon, and many others: and before Book: speaking also in the fifth Chapter of these, in elder-times, and who better undertheir practice, to mix the powder of dead stood the power of Nature, and how to apbodies with other things by the Devil pre- ply things that work to things that fuffer, pared; and at other times to make Pictures | were Zoroaster before spoken of: Apollonius of Wax, or Clay, or otherwise (as it were Tyaneus, remembred by S. Hierom to Pauli-Sacramentaliter) to effect those things which | nus; in some mens Opinion, Numa Pompilius among the Romans : among the Indians, The-The fourth all Translators call Chaldeans: fian: among the Egyptians, Hermes: among who took upon them to foretell all things to the Babylonians, Budda: the Thracians had come, as well natural ashumane, and their Zamolxis: the Hyperboreans (as is supposed) Abbaris: and the Italians, Petrus Aponensis. The Magick which these men profest, is thus defined: Magia est connexio à viro sapiente agentium per naturam cum patientibus, libi congruenter respondentibus, ut inde opera prodeant non line corum line admiratione qui cauhaving chiefly fought (as is the manner of all | fam ignorant: Magick is the connexion of na-Impostures) to counterfeit the highest and tural agents and patients, answerable each to omost noble part of it, yet so as they have also | ther, wrought by a wife man, to the bringing forth of such effects as are wonderfull to those that A fecond kind of Magick, was that part of know not their causes. In all these three kinds, Astrologie, which had respect to sowing and which other men divide into sour, it seemeth planting, and all kinds of Agriculture and that Zoroafter was exceedingly learned; efpe- , Touring Husbandry: which was a knowledge of the cially in the first and highest. For in his O must be motions and influences of the Starrs into racles he consessed to be the Creator en Tries. of the Universal: he believeth of the * Tri- natelloris Philo Judeus goeth farther, affirming, that | nity, which he could not investigate by any cept Canada by this part of Magick, or Aftrologie, together with the motions of the Starrs, and other and of Faradife: approve th the immortality pair. heavenly bodies, Abraham found out the of the Soul: teacheth Truth, Faith, Hope, menting knowledge of the true God, while he lived and Love, discoursing of the Abstinence and description in Chaldea: Qui contemplatione creaturarum Charity of the Magi: which Oracles of his, or Filington  Phenicians, uling Zoroafter's own words : Hac (faith he) were the chief Ministers of the Perad verbum (cribit (faith Eusebins ) Dens primus fian Religion, as the Levites among Gods people, incorruptibilium, sempiternus, ingenitus, expers partium, fibi-ipst simillimus, bonorum omnium losophy: neither could any be King of the Perauriea, munera non expect ans, optimus, pruden- fians, who had not first been exercised in the mytillimus, pater juris, line doctrina justitiam per- steries and knowledge of the Magi. Sixtus Sedoctus, natura perfectus, sapiens, sacra natura nenfis, in the defence of Origen against Polyunicus inventor, &c. Thus writeth Zoroaster, chronius and Theophilus, hath two kinds of mord for word. God, the first incorruptible, ever- Magick, his own words are these: Et ne quem the best, the misest, the father of right, kaving alteram ubique ab Origine damnatam, qua per learned justice without teaching, perfect, wife by fader a cum demonibus inita, aut vere, aut apnature, the onely inventer thereof.

of the History of the World.

the Chaldwans, doth distinguish those wise tinet, docens admirabiles res operari ex applimen into five orders (to wit) Chascedim, or catione mutua naturalium virtutum ad invi-Chaldwans: Asaphim, or Magicians: Chartu- cem agentium ac patientium; That the testimomim (which he translates Ariolie, or Sophists) nies of Theophilus and Polychronius (faith or Diviners.

celorum motus diligentissime specification to the practick part of na-did most diligently contemplate the motions of tural Philosophy, teaching to work admirable the heavens: whom Philo, in the life of Abraham describeth.

Asaphim were in the old Latine translation Hierom, Magicians: Qui de omnium tam di- considering of the difference which Daniel vinarum quam humanarum rerum causis Philo- makes between these four kinds of wise Men Cophati funt : Who discoursed of the canses of all formerly remembred, he useth this distinctithings, as well divine as humane : of whom on: Ques nos hariolos; cateri & mon $4 (id eft) Origen makes Balaam (the Son of Beor) to be incantatores interpetati funt, videntur mihi Lum. 1. 1. the first : but Laertins ascribeth the invention of this Art to Zoroaftres the Persian. (faith S. Augustine, Pliny, and Justine) of anofrom his Ancesters.

His Majesties Book of Damonologia.

Gazarim, or Aruspices (after S. Hierom) which divine from the intrails of Beafts flain for facrifices: or by Gazarim, others underftand Augures, who divine by the flying finging, or feeding of Birds.

difference between those wife men which the Kings of Babylon entertained; and that the name and profession of the Magi among the antient Persians was most honest. For as Puur de Peucer truly observeth, Pracritit religioni sibe name of Conjecturers upon nativities, whom Divinia. Perfice, ut in populo Dei Levite, ftudisque vera the onlgar call Mathematicians. But common mg. fol. Philosophia diditi erant: nec quifquam Rex enstom takes Magicians for Witches, who are 133,136. Persarum poterat esse, qui non antea Magorum otherwise reputed in their own Nation : for

Of this Zoroafter Eufeb in the Theologie of the disciplinam scientianque percepisset; The Magi and they were given to the studies of true Phi-Lafting unbegotten without parts, most like him- moveant pramissa Polychronii & Theophili Bibl. L. 6. felf, the guide of all good, expecting no reward, testimonia, sciendum est duplicem esse Magiam; ful. 124, parenter operatur; alteram ab Origine landa-Sixtus Senensis, speaking of the wisdom of tam que ad practicen naturalis Philosophia per-Mechasphim, or Malesici, or Venesici, Wiches, or be) may not move any man, it is to be under-Poisoners; and Gazarim, Augures, or Aruspices, stood that Magick is of two forts, the one every where condemned by Origen; which worketh Chascedim were those which had the name (whether truly or seemingly) by covenants made of Chaldeans, which were Aftronomers: Hi with devils; the other commended by Origen, things by the mutual application of natural virtues agent and suffering reciprocally.

This Partition Hierom doth embrace in the called Philosophers: of the Septuagint, and of first of his Commentaries upon Daniel, where esse qui verbis rem peragunt ; Magi, qui de singulis philosophantur; Malefici, qui sanguine Chartumim, or Inchanters, the Disciples utuntur, & victimis, & sape contigunt corpora mortuorum: porro in Chaldais Genethliacos ther Zoroaftres : who corrupted the admi- fignificari puto, quos vulgo Mathematicos vorable wildom of the Magi, which he received cant. Consuetudo autem communis Magos pro maleficis accipit, qui aliter habentur apud gen-Mechasphim, or Venesici, or Witches, are tem suam, eo qued fint Philosophi Chaldeorum: those which we have spoken alteady out of Sad artis bujus scientiam, Reges quoq & Principes ejusclem gentis omnia faciunt ; unde & in nativitate domini Salvatoris, ipsi primum ortum ejus intellexerunt, & venientes sanctam Bethlehem, adoraverunt puerum, stella desuper oftendente; They, whom we call Sorcerers, and others interpret Inchanters, seem to me, such as perform things by words; Magicians, such as By this diftinction, we may perceive the bandle every thing philosophically; Witches, that use blond and sacrifices, and often lay bands on the body of the acad: further, among the Chaldwans, I take them to be signified by

6. IV.

King and princes of that Nation do all that they ing, they were thought the works of the devils do, according to the knowledge of this Art: by theignorant. Among these works is natural whence, at the nativity of the Lordour Savi- Magick, which men call very improperly, Neour, they first of all understood his birth, and cromancy. coming unto hely Bethlehem, did worship the Child: the Starr from above shewing him unto For by understanding (saith he) the uttermost them. By this therefore it appeareth, that activity of natural agents we are allifted to there is great difference between the do- know the Divinity of Christ for otherwise (to Etrine of a Magician, and the abuse of the use his own words) Ignoratis terminis potenword. For though fome Writers affirm, that tie & virtutis rerum naturalium, flat nos du-Asaeus hodie dicitur, qui ex fædere facto uti- bitare illa eadem opera, que fecit Christus, posse tur diaboli opera ad rem quamcunque, That fieri per media naturalia, The terms or limits of he is called a Magician non-a-days, who having natural power and virtue not underflood, we entred league with the Devil, ujeth his belp to must needs doubt, whether those very works any matter: yet (as our Saviour faid of Di- which Christ did, may not be done by natural woree) it was not to from the beginning. means: after which he goeth on in this fort: For the Art of Magick is of the wildom of Ideo non heretice, non superstitione dixi, sed Nature 3 other Arts which undergo that title, verissime & Catholice per talem Magiam adjuwere invented by the fallhood, fubtilty, and vari nos in cognoscenda divinitate Christi: envic of the Devil. In the latter, there is no Therefore I faid not heretically, not superfitiother doctrine, than the use of certain ceremonies, Per malam fidem; By an evil faith: in Magick we are furthered in knowing the Divithe former, no other ill, than the investigati- nity of Christ. And seeing the Jews and others, on of those virtues and hidden properties the enemies of Christian Religion, do impuwhich God hath given to his creatures, and dently and impioully object, that those Mihow fitly to apply things that work, to things racles which Christ wrought, were not above that fuffer. And though by the few those ex- nature, but by the exquisite knowledge cellent Magicians, Philosophers, and Divines, thereof performed: Mirandula, a man for his which came to worthip our Saviour christ, were tearmed Mechaschephim, or Mecasphim; latter Age hath brought forth, might with yet had they no other reason than common custom therein. Consuctudo autem communis THE MARIE MAGOS PTO Maleficis accipit; Common cujton which Christ did, and which (as himself wit-(faith S. Hierom understandeth Witches under nesseth) no man could do, do manifestly testiflood good and wife men. Quid igitur expavefeis as a Pencil, and by a power infinitely Su-Magi nomen formidolofe, nomen Evangelie graper preme and Divine; and thereby those that tiofum, quod non maleficum & veneficum, sed were faithless, were either converted, or put sapientem sonat, & Sacerdotem? O thou fear- to filence. Mar Ficin, full one (faith Ficinus) why doubtest thou to use the name of Magus, a name gratious in the Gofpel which doth not signifie a Witch or a Conjurer, but a wife man, and a Priest? For what brought this flander to that Study and Profellion, but onely idle Ignorance, the Parent of caulless admiration? Causa fuit mirificentia quorundam operum, que (re vera) opera naturalia funt : veruntamen quia procuratione demonorum, naturas ipsas vel conjungentiam, vel commiscentium, vel aliter ad operandum expedientium facta sunt, opera damonu credebantur ab ignorantibus hac. De operibus hujufmodi est Magia naturalis quam Necromantiam multi improprie vocant. The marvellousness of

they are the Philosophers of the Chaldwans : yea, or how sower fitting the natures to their work-

Mirandula in his Apologie goeth further: Fol So. years, fuller of knowledge than any that this good reason avow, that the uttermost of Nature's works being known, the works the name of Magicians: And antiquity (faith fie of themselves, that they were performed Peter Martyr) by the word (Magi) under- by that hand which held Nature herein but

6. III.

That the good knowledge in the antient Magick is not to be condemned: though the Devil here, as in other kinds, hath fought to obtrude evil things, under the name and colour of good things.

Eeing therefore it is confessed by all of Understanding, that a Magician (according to the Persian word) is no other than, Divinorum Cultor & Interpres : A studious Observer and Expounder of Divine things: and the Art of it self (I mean the Art of Natural Masome works, which (indeed) are natural, bath gick) no Other, Quam naturalis Philosophia been the cause of this slander: but because these absoluta consummatio; than the absolute per-Gal. Parish morks have been done by procurement of deviles, fection of natural Philosophy: Certainly then, it norks have been aone by procurement of acrous, person of names transport. Certainly forteth end tegs, joining the natures together or mingling them, proceeds from ignorance, and no way forteth with found lawfull and praife-worthy knowledge the Land, that commonly some great from with that impious, and (to use S. Pauls words) with those beggerly rudiments, which the Devil and the Swallow betoken fair weather; that hath shuffled, and by them bewitcheth and the crying of Crows, and bating of Ducks, befooleth graceless men. For if we condemn natural Magick, or the wisdom of Nature, because the Devil (who knows more than any man) doth also teach Witches and Poisoners the harmfull parts of Herbs, Drugs, Minerals, Crane, and the Swallow. Hereupon, this eneand Excrements: then may we, by the same my of Man-kind, working upon these as uprule, condemn the Phylician, and the Art of on the rest of Gods creatures, long time abu-Healing. For the Devil also in the Oracles of sed the Heathen, by teaching them to ob-Amphiaraus, Amphilochus, Trophonius, and the ferve the flying of Fowls, and thereby to like, taught men in Dreams, what Herbs and Drugs were proper for such and such Disea- and (withall) to look into their entrails for fes. Now, no man of judgment is ignorant, the same, as if God had written the secrets of that the Devil from the beginning hath fought to thrust himself into the same employment among the Ministers and Servants pleased God sometimes by Dreams, not only of God, changing himself for that purpose to warn and teach his Prophets and Apostles, thrust in his Prophets among those of the ed Joseph, and by a Dream informed Jacob, true God; he hath corrupted the Art of A- Laban, Pharao, Solomon, Paul, Ananias, the firologie, by giving a divine power to the Magi of the East, and others. For as it is re-Stars, teaching men to esteem them as gods, membred in Job: In Dreams and Visions of ferveth) it is true, that judicial Astrologie is God openeth the ears, that he might cause man corrupted with many superstitions: but the 10 return from his enterprise; therefore, I abuse of the thing takes not away the say, doth the Devil also practise his Divinatiexercise their operation upon the inferiour. For the Sun and the Starr of Mars do drie; the Moon doth moisten, and govern the Tides of the Sea. Again, the Planets, as they have feveral and proper names, so have they feveral and proper virtues: the Stars do also differ in beauty, and in magnitude; and to all the Stars hath God given also their proper names, which (had they not influences and virtues different ) needed not : He counteth the number of the Stars, and calleth them by their names. But, into the good and profitable knowledge of the celeftial influences, the Devil ceaseth not to shuffle in his Superstitions: and so to the knowledge of the secret virtues of Nature hath he fastened his doctrine of Characters, Numbers, and Incantations; and taught men to believe in the strength of Words and Letters(which, withbreath) thereby either to equal his own with the All-powerfull Word of God, or Word, by whom are all things. Moreover, he was never ignorant, that place denieth dispute.

with wife and learned men, promifeue, and both the wife and the simple observe when without difference and diffinction, to con- the Sea-birds forfake the shores, and slie into followeth; that the high flying of the Kite foreshew Rain: for they feel the air moistned in their quils. And it is written in Hieremy the Prophet, Even the Stork in the air knoweth ce. 8.0.7. judge of good or ill fuccess in the Warr: unsearchable providence in the Livers and Bowels of Birds and Beafts. Again, because it into an Angel of Light. He hath led men to but Heathen Princes also; as Abimelech to re-Idolatry as a Doctrine of Religion; he hath store Sara to Abraham; because he admonish-v.17. and not as instruments. And (as Bunting ob- the night when see falleth upon men, &c. then 100 33.17. Art, considering that heavenly bodies (as one by dreams, or (after Paristensis) divinitation on Paristensis even general experience sheweth) have, and imitationes, his mock-divinity. This in the deltg. 24. end grew to common, as Ariftides compiled 42. an Ephemerides of his own Dreams: Mithridates of those of his Concubines. Yea, the Romans, finding the inconvenience hereof, because all Dreams (without distinction of codes, de cales) were drawn to Divination, forbad the malefic. fame by a Law, as by the words of prohibi- Mathematical tion (aut narrandis somniis occultam aliquam leg. o s artem divinandi) it may appear. Likewise by the Law of God, in Deuteronomy, Chap. 13. seducing Dreamers were ordered to be slain. Yet it is to be contemned, not that Marcus Antonius was told a remedy in his Dream for two grievous diseases that opprest him; nor that of Alexander Macedon for the cure of Italemie's poisoned wound; nor that which Saint Augustine reporteth of a Millanoise, Aug. de whose Son (the Father dead) being de- cara pro mortuit a-manded a debt already paid, was told by genda. out Faith in God, are but Ink or common his Father in a Dream, where the Acquittance lay to discharge it : not that of Astyages of his Daughter, and many others of to diminish the glory of God's creating like nature. Of the reason of all which, for as much as the cause is not in our selves, this

162

i. IV.

That Daniel's milliking Nebuchodonofor's condenining of the Migicians, deth not juflific all their practices.

fuch kind of ; or 'e God himself command- Jupiter apollo, and the like, was so adored. ed tobe flain. To this givers an wers may be the King, except the Gods, whose dwelling is not given to those his glorious creatures. with flesh: and herein they confessed the power of the Ever-living God.

Secondly, it may be conjectured (and that upon good reason, that among so many learned men, some of them did not exercise themselves in any evil or unlawfull Arts, but never terrifie the honest and learned Physiciwere meerly Magicians and Naturalists: and were lawfull, it may be gathered by Daniel's caution they may make use of them. instruction: for himself had been taught by them, and was called chief of the Inchanof diffinct professions.

of their practice and profession.

The abuse of things which may be found in all kinds is not to condemn the right ufe of them.

Otwithstanding this mixture every where, of good with evil, of falshood Ut it may be objected, that if such Divi- with truth, of corruption with cleanness and nations as the Heathers commonly used, purity: The good, The truth, The purity in were to be condemned in them, who took every kind may well be embraced: As in the on them very many and firange Revelati- ancient worthipping of God by Sacrifice, ons, how came it to pais, that Daniel both there was no man knowing God among the condemnee the halty lenvence of Nebuchodo- Liders, that therefore forbare to offer Sacrinofor agains, the Magicians of Chaides, and in fice to the God of all power, because the Dea fort forbed it? especially considering that vil, in the Image of Baal, Aftaroth, Chemoth,

Neither did the abuse of Astrologie terrifie given. Fiff. it feem in that Laniel had re- Abraham (if we may believe the most ancient Anax. fpect to those Chamerns, because they ac- and religious Historians) from observing the & Popular knewiedged to the Common of the King, motions and natures of heavenly bodies; neiwhich himselt had forgotten, could not be ther can it dehort wife and learned men in known to any man by any Art, either Natu- these days from attributing those virtues, inral or Diabolical: For there is none other fluences, and inclinations to the Starrs and (faid the Chaldwans )that can declare it before other lights of Heaven, which God hath

The Sympathetical, and Anipathetical working of Herbs, Plants, Stones, Minerals, with their other utmost virtues, sometimes taught by the Devil, and applied by his Ministers to harmfull and uncharitable ends, can an or Magician from the using of them to the therefore when the King commanded to kill help and comfort of Man-kind: neither can all, Daniel perswaded the contrary, and cal- the illusions, whereby the Devil betrayeth led it a halfy judgment, which proceeded such men as are fallen from God, make other with fury without examination. And that men reject the observations of Dreams; so some of those mens studies and professions farr as with a good Faith and a Religious

Lastly, the prohibition to mark flying of Fowls (as figns of good or evil fuccess) hath ters: of which some were tearmed sooth- no reference at all to the crying of Crows fayers, others Astrologians, others Chaldeans, against Rain, or to any observation not suothers Magi, or Wise-men: and therefore perstitious, and whereof a reason or cause 10 may be given. For if we confound Arts with Thirdly, Daniel misliked and forbad the the abuse of them, we shall not onely conexecution of that judgment, because it was demn all honest Trades and enterchange unjust, For howsoever those men might de- amongst men (for there are that deceive in serve punishment for the practice of unlaw- all Professions) but we shall in a short time full Arts (though not unlawfull according bury in forgetfulness all excellent knowledg to the law of that State) yet herein they were and all learning, or obscure and cover it altogether guittefs. For it exceeded humane over with a most scornfull and beggarly power to pierce the King's thought, which ignorance : and (as Pliny teacheth) we the Devil himself could not know. So then, in should shew our selves, Ingratos erga eos, qui Daniel's diflike, and hindring of the execu- labore curaque lucem nobis aperuerunt in hac tion of ientence of death pronounced against luce: Unthankfull towards those, who with the Magicians, there is no absolute justifying pains and care have discovered unto us light in this light.

Indeed, not only these natural knowledges are condemned by those that are ignorant; but the Mathematicks also, and Professors thereof: though those that are excellently learned nation Mathematico verum illud, quod in omni feibili vants and vaffals, do no way need any fich queritur, elucet; non modò remota similitu- inforcement. dine, sed fulgida quadam propinquitate; In the Glass of the Mathematicks, that Truth doth hine, which is sought in every kind of knowledg; not in an obscuring, but in a neer and manifest representation.

CHAP. XI.

6. VI.

of the divers kinds of unlawfull Magick.

T is true, that there are many Arts, if we may so call them, which are covered with at other times they are willingly mastered. the name Magick: and esteemed abusively to be as branches of that Tree, on whose had lifted him up in the air, cast him headroot they never grew. The first of these is an Invocation at the Graves of the dead, to S. Peter no where vaunteth) yet the fame whom the Devil himself gives answer in pranks at other times, upon his own accord, ftead of those that seem to appear. For cer- the Devil played with Theodotus; who transtainit is, that the immortal fouls of men do ported (as Simon Magus was supposed to not inhabit the dust and dead bodies, but have been) had the same mortall fail that he they give motion and understanding to the had. The like success had Budas, a principal living : death being nothing else but a sepa- Pillar of the Manichean Heresie, as Socrates in ration of the body and foul: and therefore his Ecclefiaftical History witnesseth: and for the foul is not to be found in the Graves.

A second practice of those men, who pay conjuring or raising up Devils, of whom they times he maketh himself a Pegalius, to conhope to learn what they lift. These men are fo diftract, as they believe, that by terrible words they make the Devil to tremble; that being once impaled in a Circle (a Circle fend them strong illusions; Of these their suppowhich cannot keep out a Mouse) they therein set transportations (yet agreeing with their confessions) His Majesty in the 2d Book, & the that great Monster. Doubtless, they forget that the Devil is not terrified from doing ill, and all that is contrary to God and goodness, no, not by the fearfull Word of the Almigh-Gods feat, that he made no scruple to tempt tores, qui in unque & vitro volunt spiritum inour Saviour Chrift, whom himself called the cludere, quia Spiritus non clauditur corpore: faum val- Son of God. So, forgetting these proud parts They are foolish Inchanters, which will sont up of his, an unworthy wretch, will yet refolve their spirits within their nails, or in Glass: for himself, that he can draw the Devil out of a spirit cannot be inclosed by a body. months Hell, and terrifie with a Phrase: whereas in tan; eque very truth, the obedience which the Devils feem to use, is but thereby to possess themraise them up; as His Majesty in his Book aforenamed hath excellently raught: That the Divels obedience is onely, secundum quid, scilicet L. Vives in up. 11. ex pacto; respective, that is, upon bargain.

I cannot tell what they can do upon those are apt enough to come uncalled: and al- constrained or commanded out of Heaven

icen learned, judge of it in this fort: In speculo ways attending the cogitations of their fer-Or, it may be that these Conjurers dealt altogether with Cardans mortal Devils, following the opinion of Rabbi Avornathan and of Porphirius, who taught that these kind of Divels lived not above a thousand years: which Plutarch in his Treatife de Graculorum defectu confirmeth, making example of the great God Pan. For, were it true, that the Divels were in awe of wicked men, or could be compelled by them, then would they alway fear those words and threats, by which But the Familiar of Simon Magus, when he long out of his claws, when he was fure he hath the name of Neeromane; or Getia: and should perish with the fall. If this, perhaps, English his. hath the name of Necromancy, or Goetta: and Ihould perin with the fall. It this, perinaps, accounts of this again there are divers kinds. The one were done by S. Peter's Prayers (of which cap. 16. a manfest proof hereof, we see it every day, that the Devil leaves all Witches and Sor-Tribute, or are in league with Satan, is that of cerers at the Gallows, for whom at other vey them in hafte to places far distant, or at least makes them so think : For those that re- 2 Thess. ceived not the truth (faith S. Paul) God shall 4th Chap, of the Demonologie, hath confirmed by unanswerable reasons, that they are meerly illufive. Another fort there are, who take on them to include spirits in Glasses & Cryty: and that he feared not to offer to lit in stals; of whom Cusanus: Fatui sunt Incanta-lib. 2. There is also another art belides the aforementioned, which they call Theureia, or White Magick; a pretended conference with good felves of the bodies and fouls of those which Spirits or Angels, whom by Sacrifice and Invocation they draw out of Heaven and communicate withall. Bur the administring Spirits of God, as they require not any kind of adoration due unto their Creator; fo, seeing they are most free Spirits, there is no man for Area de Control de la Control Lamblicus imagination; but fure I am, the rest rupted his understanding) that they can be

Levit.20.

by threats. Wherefore let the Profesiours thereof cover themselves how they please by a professed purity of life, by the ministery of Infants by fasting and abstinence in general; yet all those that tamper with immaterial fubstances, and abstract natures, either by Sacrifice, Vow, or Inforcement, or men of evil the rest are Devils, which willingly obey. called Hydromantia: by the air, called Mataotechnia, and the like.

164

The last, and (indeed) the worst of all other, fort) command; the other obey the Devil.

was it no more to be admired then Mahocould never mafter or instruct any Beast as he did his Horfe.

For the drawing of Serpents out of their Dens, or killing of them in the holes by Inchantments (which the Marsians, a people of Italy, practised: Colubros disrumpit Marsia cantu: inchanting Marsia makes the Snakes to burft.) That it hath been used, it appears, Pfal. 58. 6. though I doubt not, but that many Impostures may be in this kind, and even by natural causes it may be done. For, there are doth more easily betray the other faculties many fumes that will either draw them out, or deftroy them; as womens hair burnt, and the like. So many things may be laid in the entrance of their holes that will allure them: Frogs were not imaginary, but fuch indeed and therein I find no other Magick or Inchantments than to draw out a Mouse with brio, which indeed agreeth not with the Art, a piece of tosted Cheese.

6. VII.

Of divers ways by which the Devil semeth to work his wonders.

D Ut to the end that we may not dote with the Manichees, who make two powers of faith, and in the power of Satan. For good gods: that we do not give to the Devil any Spirits or Angels cannot be constrained; and other dominion than he hath (not speak of his ability, when he is the Minister of Gods Other forts there are of wicked Divinati- vengeance; as when Egypt, according to Daons; as by fire, called Pyromantia: by water, vid, was destroyed by evil Angels) he otherwife worketh but three ways. The first is by moving the cogitation and affections of men: The fecond, by the exquisite knowledge of is Fascination or Witchcraft: the Practicers Nature: and the third by deceit, illusion. whereof are no less envious and cruel, re- and false semblance. And, that they cannot vengeful and bloudy, than the Devil himself. work what they would, G. Parisensis giveth And these accursed creatures, having fold three causes: the first, a natural impotentheir fouls to the Devil, work two ways; ei- cy: the fecond, their own reason dissivather by the Devil immediately, or by the Art ding them from daring overmuch, or inof poisoning. The difference between Necro- deed (and that which is the onely certain mancers and Witches, His Majesty hath excel- cause) the great mercy of the Creator, Tenens Sint paid lently taught in a word: that the one (in a eos ligatas (faith the fame Author) velut immanissimas belluas. S. Augustine was of opi-co. 10. There is another kind of petty Witchery (if nion, that the Frogs which Pharaoh's Sorit be not altogether deceit) which they call | cerers produced, were not natural, but that charming of Beafts and Birds of which Pytha- the Devil (by betraying of their fenses that goras was accused, because an Eagle lighted looked on) made them appear to be such. Elian 1.6 on his shoulder in the Olympian fields. But if For, as Varius observeth, those Frogs of the Nat. Hift. the same exceeded the Art of Falconry, yet Inchanters were not found corrupted as those of Moles were, which might argue met's Dove, which he had used to feed with that they were not creatures indeed. Here-Wheat out of his ear: which Dove, when it of, faith Saint Augustine: Nec sane Demones was hungry, lighted on Mahomet's shoulder, naturas creant, sed qua à Deo creata sunt com-and thrust his Bill therein to find his break-mutant ut videantur esse quod non sunt: The Defast: Mahomet perswading the rude and vils create not any creatures, but so change those simple Arabians, that it was the Holy Ghost that are created by God, as they feem to be that that gave him advice. And certainly, if Banks which they be not: of which in the 83. Question had lived in elder times, he would have he giveth the reason. Damon quibusdam nebushamed all the Inchanters of the World : for lis implet omnes meatus intelligentia, per quos whosoever was most famous among them, aperire lumen ration's radius mentis solet (that is) The Devil fills with certain clouds all passages vis of of the understanding, by which the beam of the theuse mind is wont to oven the light of reason.

And, as Tertullian in his Book de Anima rightly conceiveth, if the Devil can possess himself of the eyes of our minds, and blind them, it is not hard for him to dazel those of the body. For (out of doubt) by the same way that God patieth out, the Devil entreth in, beginning with the fantalie, by which he of the foul : for the fantafie is most apt to be abused by vain apprehensions.

Aguings, on the contrary, held, that those as they feemed : not made Magica artis ludibut (according to Thomas) Per aptam & ido-

By an apt and fit applying of agents and patients. And this I take to be more probable. For Moles could not be deceived by that fleight of false semblance; and S. Augustine in another case like unto this (to wit) of the turning of Diomedes his companions into Birds, per activa cum passivis, inclineth rather to this opinion: though I am not perswaded that S. Augustine doth believe that of Diomedes. And this opinion of Thomas, G. Parisiensis, a man very learned also, confirmeth. For, speaking of natural Magick, he useth these words: De hujusmodi autem operibus. & subita generatio ranarum, & pediculorum, & vermium, alierumq; animalium quorundam: in quibus omnibus fola natura operatur, verum adhibitis adjutoris ipfa seminanatura confortant & accuunt, ita ut opus generationis tantum accelerent, ut eis qui hoc nesciunt non opus naturæ videatur (que tardius talia efficere consuevit) sed poten-tia Demonum,&c. to which he addeth: Qui autem in his doll funt talia non mirantur, fed Solins enim divine intelligentia etho enthe con confidence for confidence for control in his glorificant: In fuch nosse overlare; It is onely proper to Gods un-office is north; (faith he) the sudden generation of Frogs derstanding and pussion to know and reveal and Lice, and Worms, and some other creatures hidden things. is: in all which, Nature alone worketh; but by means strengthening the seeds of Nature, and quickning them; in fuch wife that they fo haften the work of generation, that it seemeth to the ignorant, not to be the work of Nature, which ufually worketh more leifurely, but they think it done by the powers of Devils. But they who are learned in these Arts, marvel not at such working but glorifie the Creator. Now, by these two ways the Devils do most frequently work(to wit) by knowing the uttermost of nature, and thunders lightnings, & tempelts; and can infect the air, as well as move it or compress it ; tural? Or, may it be objected that he foretelleth things before they happen, which exair, and can thence better judge, than those the just rise to eternal life, and of the wicked to that inhabite the earth: if he should not an eternal and second death.

by illusion: for there is no incomprehensible

For, shall we say, he causeth sometimes or unsearchable power, but of God onely.

neam agentium & patientium applicationem: | fometimes, yea, it he should not very often-Diabetas times ghes rightly of things to come (where babes re-God pleaseth not to give impediment) if rum usum: were very strange. For we see that wise and que res learned men do oftentimes by comparing bet momentalike causes, conceive rightly of like effects be-it is quovis fore they happen: and yet, where the Devil regoing. doubteth, and would willingly keep his cre- Anima, dit, he evermore answereth by Riddles: as 27, 5%

Crocfus Halym penetrans magnam subvertit opum vim:

If Crafus over Halys go,

Great Kingdoms he shall overthrow.

Which answer may be taken either way: either for the overthrow of his own Kingdom, or of his Enemies. And thus farr we grant the Devil may proceed in Predictions, which otherwise belong to God only, as it is in Elay: Shew the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are Gods ; shew us at all times, and certainly what is to come.

6. VIII.

That none was ever raised from the dead by the power of the Devil: and that it was not the true Samuel which appeared to Saul.

O conclude, It may be objected, that the Devil hath raised from the dead : and that others by his power have done the like, as in the example given of samuel, raifed by the Witch of Ender; which, were it true, then might it indeed be affirmed, that some of the Devil's acts exceeded all the powers of Nature, false semblance, and other illusions. Justin Martyr was sometime of the opi- Just. Mari. who knows not that these things are also na- nion, that it was samuel indeed; and so was in colleg. Ambrose, Lyra, and Burgensis; from which Au- phone in thorities those men borrow strength which resp ad orceedeth nature, and is no illusion. It is true, to believe. But Martyr changed his opinion; the quest. that he sometimes doth it ; but how? In elder and so did S. Augustine, who at first seemed to Jambs. in Ages he stole his knowledge out of the Pre- be indifferent: For, in his Questions upon the Luc. 1. 1. dictions of the Prophets: and foretold the Old and New Testament, he accountesh it in Reg. I. death of Sanl, at fuch time as he was in his detestable to think it was Samuel which ap-Arg at own possession and power to dispose of. And peared and these behis words elsewhere to Simp. L. he that hath lived from the infancy of the the same effect: In requie sunt anima piorum becivit. world to this day, and observed the success à corpore separata, impiorum autem panas lu- Dei l. 13. of every councel: he that by reason of his unt, donec istarum ad vitam aternam, illarum cap. 8, fwift motions can inform himself of all pla- verd ad aternam mortem qua secunda dicitur, ces, and preparations: he that is of counsel | corpora reviviscant; The fouls of the godly sepawith all those that study and practise subver- rated from their bodies, are at rest, but those of fion and destruction: he that is Prince of the the wicked suffer punishment, till the bodies of in ione aterno; alterum in regno aterno; The body, that gave answer and advice. one in eternal fire; the other in Gods eternal But because Helias and Helizens had raised quimes.

And

166

spould be drawn up again by a Devil.

of the contrary opinion build upon that by Lucretius: place of the 26. of Ecclefiafticus (a Book not numbred among the Canonical Scriptures, as S. Augustine himself in this Treatise, if it be his, De sur a pro mortuis agenda, confesseth) ver Syracides, following the literal fence and phrase of the Scriptures, proveth nothing at all: For, though the Devil would willingly We fear by light, as children in the dark. The bound of the same of the s 4 9 3 14 Azor 7 1. Au 311. 32. Com - 1.

ermy Di

tions to

And (belides S. Augustine) Justin Martyr, | perswade, that the souls (yea, even of inst Aug de ner, de le larius, Tertullian, Athanasus, Chrysofton, men) were in his power; vet so farr is it and others, believed firmly, and taught it: from the promifes of the Scriptures, and Jul. Mart. that the fouls of men, being once separate from Gods just and mercifull nature, and so from their bodies, did not wander on the contrary to all divine reason, as S. Augustine "from their bodies, did not wander on the contrary to an universelection as S. Engagnize with the fact at all: Credere debenus (laith Crit) (or whosever wrote that Book offere cines.

Texal, de quam à corporibus sans or anima abierint, ted) night rightly tearmit a detectable only the sans of t Terreit de Tanquam in manus charissimi patris bonitati nion so to think. For, if God had so absofor divine commendari; We must believe, when lutely for faken Saul, that he refused to anthe fouls of holy men are departed from their swer him, either by Dreams, by Vrim, or by the jouls of roly men are acquired; the divine his Prophets: it were fottish to conceive, bom 9. in Goodness, as into the kands of a most dear Fa- that he would permit the Devil, or a wicked ther. If then they be in Heaven, the power Witch, to raife a Prophet from the dead in 12 of the Devil cannot stretch so high: if in Hell, saul's respect; it being also contrary to his a King a Ab inferno nulla est redemptio; From Hell there divine Law, to ask counsel of the dead : as 34. is no redemption For, there are but two ha- in Deut. 18. and elsewhere. Therefore it min many bitations after dear h: Onum (faith Augustine) was the Devil, and not the Soul of a dead

CHAP. XI

Kingdom. And though it be written in Jure from the dead by the power of God; wire, de Pontificio, that many there are who believe, those Devils which Saint Augustine calleth saint that the dead have again appeared to the Ludificatores animantium sibi subjectorum; living; yet the Gloß upon the same Text Mockers of their own vassals, calting before finds it ridiculous: Credunt, & male, quia their eyes a femblance of humane bodies, funt Phantasmata (saith the Glos) They believe, and framing sounds to their ears, like the and they believe amis, because they be but Phan-voices of men, do also perswade their taffner, or apparition. For, whereas any fuch graceles and accurred attendants, that voice hath been heard, faying, I am the Soul themselves both posses, and have power of such a one: Hec oratio à frande atque de- over the souls of men. Eludit Diabolus aciem ceptione diabolica est; That speech is framed tum spectantium, tum etiam cogitantium, saith by the fraud and deception of the Devil, faith L. Vives; The Devil beginleth the fense both Chrylostom. Likewise of the same, saith Ter- of the beholders, and of those that so imagine. tullian: Absit ut animam cujuslibet santi, These then are the bounds of the Devil's nedum Propheta, à damonio credamus extra- power, whom, if we will not fear, we must Etam; God forbid that we should think that the fear to fin. For, when he is not the instru-Soul of any boly man, much less of a Prophet, ment of God's vengeance, he can touch no man that makes not himself his voluntary It is true, that the Scriptures call that ap- vaffal : Potest ad malum invitare, non potest parition, Samuel; fo do they the wooden trahere, faith'S. Angulline; He can allure, but Images, Cherubims: and falle brazen gods be cannot enforce to evil. Such as think otherare gods, and the like. And whereas these wise, may go into the number remembred

Nam veluti pueri trepidant, atque omma

In tenebris metuurit fle nos in luce ti-

Litavbir

ากราช ทำเหลือดีแล้วได้แล้วได้สำนักของกับ เอาสำหรับสามารถ เอาสุโทยเลาส์สามารถสมาร

a hai sala mali bovit build to the day, and although is. yet genit blit amatumton. ្សាស្រ្ត សំនៅស្រុ

10.00

CHAP. XII.

Of the memorable buildings of Ninus, and of his Wife Semiramis, and of other her Acts.

§. I.

of the magnificent building of Ninive by Ninus: and of Babylon by Seniramis.

Ut to come back to Ninus, the amplifter and finisher of Ninive: whether he performed it before or after the overthrow of Zoroafter, it is uncertain. As for the City it felf, it is agreed by all profane Writers, and by the Scriptures, that it exceeded all other those Regions between it and the Mediterjulia lia it had in compass 440. stadia, or furlongs; saddlife the walls whereof were an hundred foot upriots might pass on the Rampire in front: he had reigned 25 years. Plutarch reporteth, right, and had such a breadth, as three Cha-

CHAP. XII.

the nature of those times. Campfor, at fuch time as Ninus amplified the cast on her by the Greeks, than that it had fame, and gave it a wall, and called it after any truth.

Rule of the Assprian Empire: of which Nihis own name. ned to ms and Semiramis made perfect. Ninus finished Ninive, Semiramis Babylon: wherein he changed his seat from Babylon in Chaldea, Alimits. to Ninive in Affrica. Juffine reports, that see 7.es Dimandis (the better to invelt her felf, and in miramis (the better to invelt her felf, and in derate, they neither thought how to invade her beginning without murmure or offence others, nor feared to be invaded: labouring to take on her fo great a charge) prefented to build Towns and Villages, for the use of her self to the people in person of her Son themselves and their people, without either Ninias, or Zameis, who bare her external Walls or Towers ; and how they might differm and proportion without any fensible charge the earth of Woods, Briars, Bushand fertile. But Semirams living in that which many arguments might be made. But Age, when Ambition was strong in youth: as she ruled long, so she performed all those and purpofing to follow the Conquest which memorable Acts which are written of her by her hulband had undertaken, gave that the name of Semiramis, and fubfcribed that beauty and strength to Babylon which it had.

of the end of Ninus; and the beginning of Semiramis Reign.

T'His she did after the death of her husband Ninus; who, after he had mastered Bactria, and subjected unto his Empire all these walls were garnished with 1500. Towers, which gave exceeding beauty to the reft, and firength, no lefs admirable for foveraign power for one day. Diod. Sieclius, But this City(built in the Plains of Affria, days. In which time (moved either with deand on the banks of Tygris, and in the region fire of Rule, or licentious liberty, or with the of Eden) was founded long before Ninus memory of her hufband Menon, who perifitime; and (as antient Historians report, and ed for her) she caused Ninus her husband to more lately, Nanclerus) had the name of be flain. But this feemeth rather a fcandal

Howsoever Ninus came to his end, Semi-For these works of Babylon and Ninive be-

This report I take also to be feigned, for Letter which she sent to the King of India (her last challenge and undertaken conquest) by her own name. And were it true that her Son Ninias had fuch a stature at his fathers death, as that Semiramis (who was in ione aterno; alterum in regno aterno; The body that gave answer and advice. one in eiernai fire; the other in Good cerman and because risms and removes that the first in fire from the dead by the power of God; then, when the dead by the power of God; then the dead by the power of God; then the dead by the power of God; then the dead by the power of God; should be drawn up again by a Devil.

of the contrary opinion build upon that by Lucretius: place of the 26. of Ecclefiafticus (a Book not numbred among the Canonical Scriptures, as S. Augustine himself in this Treatise, if it be his, De sura pro morturs agenda, confesseth) yet Syracides, following the literal sence and phrase of the Scriptures, proveth nothing at

40 3 12 42 F

9 38 1 1 H 45 4 5 1

And (belides S. Augustine) Justin Martyr, | perswade, that the souls (yea, even of just Jag de Helarius, Tertulian, Athanasius, Chrysofton, men) were in his power; yet so farr is it and others, believed firmly, and taught it: from the promises of the Scriptures, and Jul. Mar. that the fouls of men, being once separate from Gods just and mercifull nature, and so ad Onbod. that the bodies, did not wander on the contrary to all divine reason, as S. Angulfine 4.75.

Angulfine dearth at all: Credere debenus (faith Cyril) (or whosoever wrote that Book before ciningen. earth at all: Greatre accomms (natury). The state of the state diving commendari; We must believe, when lutely forsaken Saul, that he refused to anthe souls of holy men are departed from their swer him, either by Dreams, by Vrim, or by 1.3. the jouls of noty men are acquired to the divine his Prophets: it were sottlish to conceive, Goodness, as into the kands of a most dear Fa- that he would permit the Devil, or a wicked ther. If then they be in Heaven, the power Witch, to raife a Prophet from the dead in 12 of the Devil connot fretch fo high: if in Hell, | Saul's respect; it being also contrary to his a King a Ab interno nulla est redemptio; From Hellthere divine Law, to ask counsel of the dead : as 34. is no redemption For, there are but two ha- in Deut. 18. and elsewhere. Therefore it nim mayer bitations after de h: Unum (aith Augustine) was the Devil, and not the Soul of a dead and death one in eternal fire; the other in Gods eternal But because Helias and Helizeus had raised quanter

CHAP. XI.

Pontificio, that many there are who believe, those Devils which Saint Augustine calleth 14618. that the dead have again appeared to the Ludificatores animantium fibs fubjectorum; living; yet the Gloß upon the same Text Mockers of their own vassals, casting before finds it ridiculous: Credunt, & male, quia their eyes a semblance of humane bodies, funt Phantasmata (saith the Gloss) They believe, and framing sounds to their ears, like the and they believe amis, because they be but Phan-voices of men, do also perswade their tasmes, or apparitions. For, whereas any such graceless and accursed attendants, that voice hath been heard, faying, I am the Soul themselves both possess, and have power of fuch a one: Hec oratio à fraude atque de- over the fouls of men. Eludit Diabolus aciem ceptione diabolica est; That speech is framed tum spectantium, tum etiam cogitantium, saith by the fraud and deception of the Devil, faith L. Vives; The Devil beguileth the fense both Chrysoftom. Likewise of the same, saith Ter- of the beholders, and of those that so imagine. tullian: Ablit ut animam cujuslibet sancti, These then are the bounds of the Devil's nedum Propheta, à damonio credamus extra- power, whom, if we will not fear, we must dam; God forbid that we fould think that the fear to fin. For, when he is not the inftru-Soul of any boly man, much less of a Prophet, ment of God's vengeance, he can touch no man that makes not himself his voluntary It is true, that the Scriptures call that ap- vaffal : Poteft ad malum invitare, non poteft parition, Samuel; fo do they the wooden trahere, faith S. Angustine; He can allire, but Images, Cherubims: and falle brazen gods be cannot enforce to evil. Such as think otherare gods, and the like. And whereas these wise, may go into the number remembred

Nam veluti pueri trepidant, atque omnea In tenebris metuurit: sic nos in luce ti-all: For, though the Devil would willingly We fear by light, as children in the dark. ्र १ देव भी वर्षका अस्ति । स्टब्स् - (१) वर्षका १८ - (१५) basa । स्ट

ระไสโดปะ คนนี้ มีเพีย

day, and chalaved and a

A selection of the distribution of the control of t

CHAP. XII.

Of the memorable buildings of Ninus, and of his Wife Semiramis, and of other ber Acis.

§. I.

of the magnificent building of Ninive by Ninus: and of Babylon by Semiramis.

Ut to come back to Ninus, the amplifier and finisher of Ninive: whe of the end of Ninus; and the beginning of Sether he performed it before or after the overthrow of Zoreaster, it is uncertain. As for the City it felf, it is agreed by all profane Writers, and by the Scriptures, that it exceeded all other in circuit, and answerable magnificence, For those Regions between it and the Mediterpod la. it had in compass 440. stadia, or furlongs; sidden the walls whereof were an hundred foot upright, and had fuch a breadth, as three Chariots might pass on the Rampire in front: these walls were garnished with 1500.

CHAP. XII.

the nature of those times. Campfor, at fuch time as Ninus amplified the cast on her by the Greeks, than that it had fame, and gave it a wall, and called it after any truth.

his own name. mind. 1.1. gun by Nimrod in Chaldea, and in Allgria, Ni- Rule of the Allgrian Empire: of which Ninath. nus and Semiramis made perfect. Ninus fi- nus was faid to be the first Monarch, because derate, they neither thought how to invade her beginning without murmure or offence others, nor feared to be invaded: labouring to take on her fo great a charge) prefented themselves and their people, without either Walls or Towers; and how they might difcharge the earth of Woods, Briars, Bush- difference. ments, and Waters, to make it more habitable and fertile. But Semiramis living in that Age, when Ambition was strong in youth: had.

ş. II.

miramis Reign.

THis fhe did after the death of her huf-L band Ninus; who, after he had mastered Bactria, and subjected unto his Empire all cepted) and finished the work of Ninive; he left the world in the year thereof 2019 after he had reigned 25. years. Plutarch reporteth, that Semiramis delired her husband Ninus, Towers, which gave exceeding beauty to that he would grant unto her the absolute the reft, and firength, no left admirable for foveraign power for one day. Diod. Siculus, out of Athenaus, and others, speaks of five But this City(built in the Plains of Affria, days. In which time (moved either with deand on the banks of Tygris, and in the region fire of Rule, or licentious liberty, or with the of Eden) was founded long before Ninus memory of her husband Menon, who perishtime; and (as antient Historians report, and ed for her) she caused Ninus her husband to more lately, Nauclerus) had the name of be flain. But this feemeth rather a feandal Howfoever Ninus came to his end, Semi-For these works of Eabylon and Ninive benished Ninive, Semiramis Babylon: wherein he changed his seat from Babylon in Chalden, Alimbis. to Ninive in Affria. Justine reports, that se 7 cc Dideed, in the first Age, when Princes were mo- miramis (the better to invest her felf, and in to build Towns and Villages, for the use of her self to the people in person of her Son form and proportion without any fensible

This report I take also to be feigned, for which many arguments might be made. But as the ruled long, so the performed all those and purpofing to follow the Conquest which memorable Acts which are written of her by her hulband had undertaken, gave that the name of Semiramis, and subscribed that beauty and strength to Babylon which it Letter which she sent to the King of India (her last challenge and undertaken conquest) by her own name. And were it true that her Son Ninias had fuch a stature at his fathers death, as that Semiramis (who was any fuch fubrilty (for fo long the reigned at- fecond fall being fundred from the body. ter the death of her husband :) but it may be true, that Ninias, or Zameis (being wholly given to his pleasures, as it is written of him) was well pleafed with his mothers profperous government and undertakings.

6. III.

Of Semiramis Parentage and Education, and Metamorpholis of her Mother.

COme Writers (of which Plutarch is one) make this famous woman to have been of base Parentage calling her after the name of her Country, a Syrian. Berofus calls her after the name of her City wherein she was born, Semiramis Afralonitis, of Afralon, the antient City and Metropolis of the Philiftims. Others the report thereof to the envious and lying report her to be the Daughter of Derceta, Grecians. For delicacy & ease do more often a Cartiz in Afcalon, exceeding beautifull, accompany licentiousness in men and wo-Others fav. that this Derceta or Dercetis, the men, than labour and hazzard do. And if mother of Semiramis, was fometimes a Re- the one half be true which is reported of this cluse. and had profest a holy and a religious Lady, then there never lived any Prince or life to whom there was a Temple dedica- Princess more worthy of Fame than Semirated leated on the bank of a Lake adjoining mis was, both for the works she did at Babyto Ascalon; and afterward falling in love lon, and elsewhere, and for the Warrs she with a goodly young man, the was by him made with glorious fuccefs: all but her last made with child, which (for fear of extreme enterprise of India, from whence both Strapunilhment) she conveyed away, and caused bo and Arianus report, that she never rethe same to be hidden among the high turned: and that of all her most powerfull Reeds which grew on the banks of the Army, there furvived but onely twenty Lake: in which (while the child was left to the mercy of wilde Beafts) the fame was fed in the River of Indus, dead of the Faby certain Birds, which used to feed upon, mine, or slain by the Sword of Stauroor neer those Waters. But I take this tale to | bates. But, as the multitude which went be like that of Lupa the Harlot that fostered out are more than reason hath numbred; Romulus. For some one or other adjoining so were those that returned, less than could to this Lake, had the charge and fosteridge have escaped of such an Army, as consisted of this child, who being perchance but some of four Millions and upwards. For these nour and breach of Vow; notwithstanding | Foot-men three Millions; of Horse men one which, the was cast from the top of her Million; of Chariots, armed with hooks on Temple into the Lake adjoining, and (as the each fide, one hundred thousand; of those Poets have feigned) changed by Venus into which fought upon Camels as many; of Caa Fish, all but her face, which still held mels for burthen, two hundred thousand; of the same beauty and humane shape. It is raw Hides for all uses, three hundred thouthought, that from this Derceta, the invention | fand; of Gallies with brazen heads, three of that Idol of the Philistims (called Dagon) was taken: for it is true, that Dagon had a Mans face, and a Fishes body; into whose diers: which Gallies were furnished with Temple when the Ark of God was brought, the Idol fell twice to the ground: and at the fecond fall there remained only the trunk of bers, which no one place of the earth was Dagon, the head being broken off: For so able to nourish (had every Man and Beast very personable) could be taken for him; blus, Pagninus, and Junius, write it by Dagon vet it is very unlikely that she could have onely, which significth a Fish, and so it held the Empire from him 42. years after by onely appeared: the head thereof by the

CHAP. XII

For my felf, I rather think, that this Dagon of the Philistims, was an Idol representing Triton, one of those imaginary Sea-gods under Neptune. For this City being maritimate(as all those of the Philistims were and fo were the best of Phanicia) used all their devotions to Neptune, and the rest of the petty gods which attended him.

6. IV.

Of her Expedition into India, and death after discomfiture: with a note of the improbability of her vices.

But for her Pedigree, I leave it to Affyrian Heralds; and for her vicious life, I alcribe base and obscure creature, the mother might thereby hope the better to cover her dishonant Dercetaus (saith Suidas) did consist of 45.10.5. thousand, by which she might transport over Indus at once, three hundred thousand soul-Syrians, Phanicians, Cilicians, and men of Cyprus. The incredible and impossible num-S. Hierom hath converted that place. Vata- but fed on grass) are taken from the Autholous reports: fo Diodorus himself hath nothing of certainty, but from Xerxes Expedinary clouds. tion into Greece and afterwards; whose Ar- By beholding the ruines of this Tower, my (though the fame was farr inferiour to have many Travellers been deceived; who that of Semiramis) yet it had weight efough to over-load the belief of any reasonable rod's Tower, when it was but the soundation man. For all Authours conlent, that Xerxes, tion of this Temple of Bel (except this of Bel transported into Greece, an army of 1700000. were founded on that of Nimred.) There and gathered together (therein to pass the were burnt in this Temple, one hundred Hellespont) three thousand Gallies, as Hero-thousand talents of Frankingense every dong out of the several Provinces whence year (faith Herodotus.) This Temple did the number. ken, and overthrown by staurobates, upon foil; which Alexander is faid to have retremium; She sang her last song; and (as An- I deny not that it might have been in his de-ำ เด็ก ก in their Enfigns.

§. V.

and of the Pyramides of Egypt.

Tower; and so eight in all, one above ano- steps.

rity of Ctestus whom Diodorus followeth. But ther, upon the top whereof the Chaldwan as the one may be taxed with many frivo-those Gallies were taken, hath collected Nebuchodonofor adorn with the spoils of Hierusalem, and of the Temple of Solomon : all But of what multitude foever the Army which veffels and ornaments Cyrus re-deliof Semiramis consisted, the same being bro- vered. This Temple Xerxes evened with the the banks of Indus, Canticum cantavit ex- paired, by the persuasions of the Chaldeans. tiquity hath feigned) was changed by the fire to to do; but he enjoyed but a few years gods into a Dove (the Bird of Venus) whence after Babylon taken, and therefore could it came, that the Bahylonians gave a Dove not perform any fuch work. The Egyptians Prod in ( (aith Procles ) inhabiting a low and level Times ground, and given to the same superstition of lib 1. the Stars that the Chaldeans were, erected in imitation, and for the same service and use, of the Temple of Belus built by Semiramis; the Pyramides by Memphis, which were conficient and the Pyramides of Fourth of the Pyramides of Fourth thefe Pyramides, Bellonius, a carefull obser-A Mong all her other memorable and more ver of Rarities (who being in Egypt, mount-than magnificent works (besides the ed by steps to the top of the highest) wall of the City of Babylon) was the Temple maketh this report : Le meilleur archer qui Bellon Li. of Bel, erected in the middle of this City, scroit a sa sommite, & tirant une steche in invironed with a wall carried fourfquare of I air, a peine pouroit I envoyer hors de fa base quarter of a mile; and upon it again (taking ficulty shall be able so to force the same, but, a Bass of a less circuit) the set a second that it will fall upon some of the days even

Finis Libri primi.

త్తా ప్రా స్ట్రా స్ట్టా స్ట్రా స్ట్ స్టా స్ట్రా స్

THE

FIRST PART

ISTORY

WORLD:

Intreating of the TIMES, from the Birth of Abraham, to the Destruction of Solomon's Temple.

THE SECOND BOOK.

CHAP. L.

Of the Time of the Birth of Abraham: and the use of this Question, for the ordering of the Story of the Affyrian Empire.

6. I.

Of some of the Successours of Semiramis : with a brief transition to the Question, about the time of the Birth of Abraham.

calleth Thuras; but that he reduced again want assurance.

Fter the death of Semi-|Stone, and some Engines for the Warr: I ramis, Ninias, or Zameis, will, for this present, pass them over, and a succeeded her in the while follow Abraham, whose ways are war-Empire, on whom Be rantable (till we meet these Asyrians again rosus Annianus bestows in this Story) by whom, and by whose if the conquest of Baŭria, sinces, we shall best give date to the Kings and the overthrow of of Babylon: Abraham living at once with Zoroafter; contrary to Ninus, Ninias, Semiramis, Arius, Aralius, and Diodorus, Justine, Orosius, and all other approved Writers. For Ninius being esteemed seek to prove things certain by the uncerno man of Warr at all, but altogether fetain, and judge of those times, which the minine, and subjected to ease and delicacy, Scriptures set us down without errour, by there is no probability in that opinion. Now, the reigns of the Affgrian Princes; we shall because there was nothing performed by but patch up the Story at adventure, and this Ninias of any moment, other than that leave it in the same confusion, in which, to out of jealousie he every year changed his this day, it hath remained. For, where the Provincial Governours, and built Colleges Scriptures do not help us, Mirum non est in for the Chaldwan Priests, his Astronomers: rebus antiquis, Historiam non constare; No Plutore. nor by Arius his fuccessour, whom Suidas marvel if then in things very antient, History in These.

the Bactrians and Caspians, revolted (as it The better therefore to find out, in what fecmeth) in Ninias his time: nor of Aralim, Age of the World, and how long, these Afthe successour of Arius; but that he added firm Kings reigned, as also for other good fumptuofity, invented Jewels of Gold and causes, we must first assure the time of A- brakam's Birth, and in what year the fame | bred, the later Chronologers gather these artime there is much jangling between those Chronologers, which follow the Hebrew acmatter often disputed, but never con-

Archilothus de temporibus (as we find him regard of Nahor and Haran. in Anneus) makes but 250. years from the Floud to Ninus: then feeing that Abraham were not the eldest Son, then there can be gustine, it followeth, by the addition of those two numbers, that the year of Abraham's Birth, was in the year after the Floud 293. or, as the most part of all Chronologers gather, the year 292.

Now, fince I do here enter into that never resolved Question, and Labyrinth of times, it behoveth me to give Reason for my own Opinion: and with fo much the greater care and circumspection, because I made a father at 100. years. walk aside, and in a way apart from the multitude; yet not alone, and without companions, though the fewer in number: with whom I rather choose to endure the wounds of those darts, which Envie casteth at Novelty, than to go on fafely and fleepily in the easie ways of ancient mistakings: feeing to be learned in many errours, or to be ignorant in all things, hath little diversity.

6. II.

A Proposal of Reasons or Arguments, that are brought to prove Abraham was born in the year 292. after the Floud, and not in year 352.

Those who seek to prove this account Floud and Abraham's Birth, ground themfelves; first, on these words of the Scripture:
so Terah lived 70, years, and begat Abraham, Nahor, and Haran: Secondly, upon the Opinion of Josephus, Saint Augustine, Beda, happened after the Floud. Now, fince all guments. First, out of the words as they agree that the three and fourtieth year of lie; That Terah, at 70. years begot Abraham, Ninus, was the birth-year of Abraham; by Nahor, and Haran: and that Abraham beproving directly out of the Scriptures, in ling the first named, Abraham being the worwhat year after the Floud, the birth of A-thieft, Abraham being the Son of the Probraham happened, we shall thereby set all mise, ought in this respect to be counted the the reft in fquare and order. But of this eldeft Son of Terah, and so necessarily born in the seventieth year of his life. Secondly, it was of Abraham that Moles had respect in count, and others: the most part making whom the Church of God was continued, who was heir of the Blefling; and not of count, and other section of the Bleffing; and not of 293. or 293. years, others 353. years between Abadam's Birth and the Floud: a Nator and Haran: for the scope of this Chapter, was to fet down the Genealogie of Christ, from Adam to Abraham, without all

It is thirdly objected, that if Abraham was born in the three and fourtieth year of no certainty of his age, and so are all future Ninus, according to Eusebius and Saint Au- times made doubtfull. For it cannot then be proved, that Abraham was born more affuredly in the 130. year of Terab his age, than in the 131, 132, &c. Moses having no where fet down precifely that Abraham went into Canaan that very year, in which his father died.

Fourthly, it is thought improbable, that Terah begat Abraham at 130 years: feeing Abraham himself thought it a wonder to be

6. III.

The Answer to the Objections proposed, shewing that Abraham matte but one journey out of Mesopotamia into Canaan; and it, after his fathers death.

O answer all which Objections, it is very easie, the way being prepared thereto by divers learned Divines long fince, and to which I will adde somewhat of mine own, according to the small talent which God hath given me. Now, for as much as the state of the Question cannot well be scanned, unless the time of Abraham's journy into Canaan be first considered of, before I descend unto the particular examination of these Arguments, I will make bold with order and me-

But it is conceived, that Abraham made two journeys into Canaan: the later after his fa-Islance, and many of the ancient Hebrews there death, the former prefently upon his before them: Authorities (while they are calling; which he performed without delay, flightly looked over) feeming of great not staying for his fathers death at Haran: a conjecture drawn from a place in the From the place of Scripture last remem- Epistle to the Hebrews, where it is written, Y 2 Eg

God to go out into a place which he should after- facritice; all which discomforts he patiently ward receive for inheritance : and he ment out, and confrantly underwent. not knowing whither he went. This Supposition (if it be granted) ferves very well to up- felves, which Abraham had to passover; the hold the opinion that can ill stand without length whereof was 300. English miles; and credit to the Supposition it self. ran, or Haran, after the death of Terab his Fa- vel through the dangerous & barren Defarts ther, the same is proved, without the admissi- of Palmyrena, and to climb over the great on of any distinction by these words of Saint and high mountains of Libanus, Hermon, or AlistA. Stephen: And after his father was dead, God Gilead: and whether these were easie walks brought him into this land, where ye now dwell, for Abraham to march twice over, containwhich place, so direct and plain, what force ry reasonable man judge. For, if he travelled hath any mans fancy or supposition, perswa- lit twice; then was his journey in all, 1800. ding, that Abraham made two journeys into miles from Ur to Haran; and from Haran Canaan; one before Terahs death, and ano- twice into Canaan. But were there no other ther after: no such thing being found in Scri- argument to disprove this fancy; the man-this Land. And as Beza noteth, if Abraham made a double journey into Canaan, then must it be inferred, that Moses omitted the other: and whence had Stephen, faith Beza, the knowledge of Abrahams coming into Canaan, but out of Moses? For, if Stephen had tooken any thing of those times, differ-Indeed, we shall find small reason to make us both in Religion and Nation. think, that Abraham passed and re-passed those ways, more often than he was enforced turn to Haran, as I will not enquire of them, so to do, if we consider, that he had no that without warrant from the Scriptures other guide or comforter in this long and wearisom journey, than the strength of his faith in Gods promises: In which, if any thing would have brought him to despair, he had more cause than ever man had to fall into it. For he came into a Region of strong and stubborn Nations: a Nation of valiant it be not over-troublesome. They say, that and resolved Idolaters. He was besieged Abraham was in Haran at his father's death, with famine at his first arrival, and driven to or some time after, being then, by their ac-

172

His u. 8. Expairb Abraham (when he was called) obeyed | munded him to offer him up to himself for

Secondly, let us confider the ways themit. Let us therefore see whether we may give through Countreys of which he had no manner of experience. He was to transport him-Surely, that Abraham first departed Char- Self over the great River of Emphrates, to trathat was, out of Haran into Canaan. Against ing, as aforesaid, 300. miles in length, let eveprures, nor any circumstance, probability or ner of Abrahams departing from Haran reason to induce it? For, if any man out of hath more proof (that he had not animum this place before alleged can pick any argu- revertendi, not any thought of looking backment, proving, or affording any strong pre- | ward) than any mans bare conjecture, be he fumption, that Abraham past into Canaan, and of what antiquity or authority soever. For then returned unto Haran, from whence he thus it is written of him, Then Abraham took Genta, departed a second time: then I think it rea- Sara his wife, and Lot his brothers Son, and all fon, that he be believed in the rest. But, that their substance that they possest, and the souls he performed the Commandment of God af- that they had gotten in Haran: and they deter his Fathers death, leaving Or & Haran for parted to go to the land of Canaan, and to the Canaan, it is as true as the Scriptures them- land of Canaan they came. Now, if Abraham selves are true. For after his Father was dead brought all with him that was dear unto (faith Martyr stephen) God brought him into him; his wife and kinfmen, and his, and their goods: it is not probable that he meant to walk it back again for his pleasure, in fo warm, dangerous, and barren a Countrey as one, and Stephen afterwards remembred the that was: or, if he could have been thereto moved, it is more likely, that he would have then returned, when he was yet unfettled, and prest with extreme samine at his first arrival. For had his father been then alive, he ing from Moses, he had offered the Jews, his might have hoped from him to receive more adversaries, too great an occasion both of assured comfort and relief, than among the scandalizing himself, and the Gospel of Christ. Egyptians, to whom he was a meer stranger,

What the cause might be of Abraham's rehave fent him back thither, about the time of his fathers death: fo they, perhaps, if they were urged, could say little else, than that without fuch a fecond voyage, their opinion were not maintainable. One thing in good reason they should do well to make plain, if flie into Egypt for relief. His wife was old, count, 135. years old, or a little more. How and he had no Son to inherit the Promise, then did it happen, that he left quite undone And when God had given him Isaac, he com- the business, which, as we read, was within bind with a very solemn oath, his principal that he conceived great pleasure in his mind, fervant, in whom he reposed most consi- and thought it a piece of his prosperity; but dence, to travel into those parts, and seek the Prophecy which thereupon he heard by children; rather than have left all at ran- the multiplying of his Horses. Whether the dom to the confideration of a fervant, that Lord had laid any fuch injunction upon Aneither knew any, nor was known of any, in braham of not returning to Mesopotamia, I that Countrey. But, let it be supposed (if it cannot say; many things do argue it promay be believed) that either Abraham forgot bably: That he never returned, all circumhis business when he was there, or that some- stances do (to my understanding) both what happened, which no man can devise; strongly and necessarily conclude. What might be the reason, that Abraham's 35,36,000 man, in doing his Masters errand, was fain to ham is but an imagination; and that imaginalay open the whole Story of his Masters pro- tions of men are rather valuable among chilfperity, telling it as news, that Sarah had born dren, than that they can perswade those of to him a Son in her old age? If Abraham himfelf, a more certain Author, had so lately been ent, that S. stephen hath directly taught us, among them, would not all this have been an that Abraham left Haran, his father being idle tale? It were needless to stand long upon a thing so evident. Whether it were lawfull for Abraham to have returned back to they do. For all the travels of Abraham are Haran, would, perhaps, be a question hardly his Parents, to take a Wife of his own linage; not without Gods especial approbation, by whose bleffing he prospered in that journey; yet he lived there as a fervant; suffered many injuries; and finally, was driven to convey himself from thence by flight. For although it from either of them, to the Posterity of the all be believed, that he would in those his four or five years after that time, his greatest, Hebrews. When Hezechias was visited with or (as may feem) his onely care? Did not he an honourable Embaflic from Babel, it feems : King.10. out a Wife for Isac his Son? and doth it not Esay, made him to know, that the counsel of appear by all circumstances, that neither he God was not agreeable to such thoughts; nor his fervant were fo well acquainted in which more plainly appeared in a following Melopotamia, that they could particularly generation, when by the Waters of Babylon Pfal 137. nepoporamia, that they could particularly they fat down and wept. Concerning Fgypt Ning 14. delign any one woman, as a fit match for they fat down and wept. Concerning Fgypt 15. and Is and Neco, Kings of Fgypt, 1King.11. person so lately, as within four or five years brought calamity upon Israel: also that their 2.29. before, he would not have forgotten a mat- confidence in the Exptian fuccours, was the ter of fuch importance; but would have caufe of their destruction. Where they were trusted his own judgment, in choosing a wo-forbidden to return into Egypt, I do not reman, fit for her piety, virtue, and other defirable qualities, to be linked in marriage in Deuteronomy, that God had fald, They with his onely Son, who was then five and should no more return that may; which is thirty years old; before which age, most of given, as the reason, why their King might the Patriarchs after the Floud had begotten not cause the people to return to Egypt, sor

But, because this double passage of Abrajudgment or understanding : I take it sufficidead. And for the rest, when they shew any one Scripture to prove it, I will believe as precifely fet down in the Scriptures: as first answerable; considering how averse he was from Ur, or Camerina in Chaldaa to Haran, or from permitting his son to be carried thither, Charran: and then from Haran (after his faeven though a Wife of his own kinred could thers death) to Sichem; from Sishem he renot have been obtained without his personal moved to a mountain between Bethel and presence. Jacob indeed was sent thither by Haie: thence into Egypt; from Egypt he returned thither again, where Lot and he parted because their flocks and heards of Cattel were more then could be fed in that part: from thence the second time he removed to Mamre, neer Hebron: and thence, having purfued Amraphel, and rescued Lot, he after inhabe not a sentence written, yet out of all writ- bited at Gerar, in the border of Idumea unten Examples it may be observed, that God der Abimelec : and after, neer unto it at Beralloweth not in his fervants any defire of re- [abe, at which time he was ready to offer up turning to the place, from whence he hath his Son Isaac on the mountain Moriab. But taken, and transplanted them. That brief say- this fiction of his retreat to Haran, or Charing, Remember Lot's Wife, contains much mat- ran, appeareth not in any one Story, either ter.Let us consider Mejopotamia, from whence divine or humane. Now, if it may be sup-Abraham was taken, and Egypt, out of which posed, that Abraham had made any former the whole Nation of the Ifraelites were deli- journey into Canaan, as Levita his Cabala vered : we shall find, that no bleffing iffued hath feined, it should in reason be therewith-first travels have provided himself of some certain feat, or place of abiding: and not have come a second time with his Wife, kinfmen, family, goods, and Cattel, not knowing whereon to rest himself. But Abraham. when he came from Charran, patied through the North part of Canaan, thence to Sickem, Gen. 13. 6. and the plain of Aleriab; where, finding no place to inhabit, he departed thence to Behim and his the name of Hebrai.

I give this Land, shewing it him, as unto a therefore Sarah langked, &c. stranger therein, and as a Land to him unknown. For, Abraham, without any other Sarah after the manner of women, it appeareth provident care for himself, believed in the that the wonder was wrought on her, and not Word of the living God: neither fending o Abraham. For Abraham by his second wife before, nor comming first to discover it; but Keturah, had many Sons after Sarahs death, being arrived, he received a fecond Pro- as Zimron, Jockshan, Medan, Ishbak, and mise from God, that he would give those shuah: and the eldest of these was born 37. Countreys unto him and his feed to inha- years after Isaac; and the youngest 40. years bite and inherite.

Laftly, what should move any man to think, that Moses would have omitted any such double journey of Abraham's, feeing he lettein down all his passages elsewhere, long died in the year of the world 2145. and Isaac and fhort? as when he moved from Sichem, and feated between Haie and Bethel, the diflance being but 20 miles: and when he moved thence to the Valley of Mamre, being but 24. miles; and when he left Mamre, and fat down at Gerar, being less than six miles; to the Story of Abraham: shutting up all between the Creation and the Floud in fix Ages after Ahraham, begat Sons at 100. years, Chapters; which Age lasted 1656. years: but or neer it, it cannot be marvelled at, that Tehe bestoweth on the Story of Abraham, four- rah begat Abraham at 130. and Abraham oteen Chapters, beginning with his Birth in thers at the same age, and seven years after. the eleventh, and ending with his Death in the five & twentieth; and this time endured but 175, years. It hath therefore no face of truth, that Moles forgot or neglected any thing concerning Abraham's travels, or other actions: or that he would fet downthose fmall removes of five miles, and omit those of three hundred. For fuch a journey in going and coming would have ministred some varich of matter, or accident, worthy the inferring and adding to Abraham's Story.

CHAP. 1.

6. IV.

The Answer to another of the Objections propofed, shewing, that it was not unlikely that Terah should beget Abraham in his hundred and thirtieth year.

Ow, touching the Objection, where it is faid, that it was very unlikey that thel, and Haie: and fo from Nation to Nati- Terah should beget Abraham in his hundred on, to discover and find out some fit habita- and thirtieth year, seeing Abraham himself tion: from whence again, as it is written in thought it a wonder to have a Son at an Genefis the eleventh, He went forth, going hundred; this is hardly worth the answering, and journeying towards the South: and all This wonder is indeed mif-caft, and mifways unfettled. By reason of which wander- taken: Abraham having respect onely to ing to and fro, some say, the Egyptians gave Sarah his Wife, when he spake of their many years. For when the Angel faid unto A-Further, to prove that he had not former- braham in his Tent door at Mamre; Loe, Saly beeen in the Countrey, we may note, rah thy Wife shall have a Son, it followeth in that ere he came into Bethel and Haie, and the next Verse, Now, Abraham and Sarah at his first entrance into Canaan, God ap were old, and stricken in age, and it ceased to peared unto him, faying, Unto thy feed will be with Sarah after the manner of women:

So then, in that it is faid it ceafed to be with after. What strangeness then, that Terah, being 130.years old, should beget Abraham, will they fay, may be gathered from this supposed despair of Abraham at 100. years? For Sarah was born in the year 2109, and Abraham did not marry Keturah till Sarah was buried. So if we deduct the number of 2109. out of 2145. Origen. there remaineth 36. And therefore if Abra- hom. 11, ham begat 5. sons 36. years after this supposed in Gen. wonder, and when Abraham was 137. years civit. Dit. No. Moles past over all the times of the first old; it is not strange, that his father Terab 1.16.634. Age with the greater brevity, to haften him should beget Abraham at 130. And if Booz, Esja. 6. Obed, and Jejje, who lived to many years and Gen.

The Answer to two more of the Objections: shewing that we may have certainty of Abrahams age from the Scripture, though we make not Abraham the eldert Son; and that there was great cause, why in the Story of Abraham his two brethren should be respected.

T follows now, to speak something to the Objection, which brings Ahrahams age altogether CHAP. I. together in doubt, except we allow him to the fifter of Lot, Abraham married. Nahor albe the eldest Son of Terah, and born when so, who remained at Charran, gave his Sons Terah was 70, years old. For Abraham's age daughters to Ifaac, & Jacob, his own kinfmen: being made uncertain, all fucceding times he himself having also married in his own are thereby without any perfect rule or Family; not thinking it pleafing unto God, him the eldest Son, is falle. For it is plain in doubted. For, when Laban had seen the serthe Scriptures, that when Terab was 205. vant of Abraham standing at the Well beside which was the year of his death; then was Charran, he invited him to his Fathers houle of times, either preceding or fucceeding, by Oc. And when this fervant of Abraham's de-31 knowing that Abraham departed Haran manded an answer as touching Rebeits Athen arthat age: I answer, That S. Stephen hath answered Laban and Eestwel, and fairly This the death of his father Terah; and Terah died it was the will of the true God it should be at 205, fo as the 75, year of Abraham was the fo; wherein he acknowledged Gods provi-205, year of Terab; which known, there can dence. Likewife in the following yerie, it is be no errour in the account of times suc- written; Take, 50, that she may be thy Masters ceeding. Now, to come to the Objection, sons wife, even as Jehovah hath faid. This where it is faid, That Mofes had no respect their often using of the name of Jebouah, unto Nabor and Haran, because they were which is the proper name of the true God, is out of the Church, but to Abraham onely, a fign that they had the knowledge of him. with whom God established the Covenant. and of whom Christ descended according to softom, and some late Writers, as Cajetan, Ola the flesh, &c. I answer, that Moses, for many lafter, Mujeulus, Calvin, Mercer, and others, great and necessary causes had respect of that Laban was an Idolater, because he re-Nahor and Haran. For the succession of tained certain Idols, or houshold-gods, Gods Church is not witneffed by Abraham which Rachel stole from him; yet, that he alone, but by the iffues of Nahor and Haran, believed in the true God, it cannot be dewere they Idolaters, or otherwise. For Na- nied. For he acknowledgeth the God of her was the father of Bethuel, and Bethuel of Abraham and of Nahor, and he called Abra-Rebecca, the mother of Ifrael; and Haran was bams fervant, blefled of Jebovab, as aforefaid. the Parent of Lot, Sarah, and Milcah; and Sarah was mother to Isaac, and Grandmother men were out of the Church, who, fure I am, to Jacob : Milcah also, the wife of Nahor, and mother of Bethuel, was Jacobs great Grandmother; and the age of sarab, the Daughter of Haran is especially noted in that it pleased God to give her a Son at 90. years, and when by nature she could not have conceived. And therefore, though it were not in regard of themselves, yet, because both Nahor and Abraham married the Daughters of their brother Haran; and because Isaac married Rebecca the grand-child of Nahor; and Jacob, Lea, and child also of Naber; is was not superfluous in strength, by which, those that strive to shor-Rachel, the Daughters of Laban, the grand-Moses to give light of those mensitimes and ped strange gods, as it is, 50.24. 1. yet I in the 70. year of Terabs life's grounding see no cause to think, that they still continued Idolaters. For they believed and obeyed the calling of Abraham, leaving their natural Countrey and City of Ur in Chaldea, as Abraham die and removed thence all, except Haran, who died before his father Terab, ere they left Chalded; but Lot, his Son, followed Abrahaminto Canaan; and Sarah, the first named in Scriptures was therefore to mix themselves with strangers and Idola-But this Proposition, That we cannot be ters. And that these men at length believed certain of Abraham his age, unless we make in the God of Abraham, it can no way be which was the year of insurant; then was controlled in this maner, Come in thou bieffed of Jehovah, Gen. 14. artist age. Launwei, and departure followed ithing is proceeded of Jehovah: meaning, that 6m. 24.

Now, although it be the opinion of Chry-So as, for my felf, I dare not avow, that thefe were not out of the Faith.

6. VI.

That the naming of Abraham first of the three brethren, Gen. 11. v. 26. doth not prove that he was the eldest; together with divers reasons, proving that Abraham was not the eldeft son of Terah.

O the main Objection; which I anwer last, because it seemeth of most ten the times, endeavour to prove that Abraham was the eldest Son of Terak, and born the Scripture; And Terah lived seventy years, central and begat Abraham, Nahor, and Haran: To this I fay, that although Abraham in this verfe be first named, yet the same is no proof at all that he was the eldest and first-born Son of Terah. For it is no necessary consequent, that formerly remembred.

years old, and Noah begat Shem, Ham, and at70. years old, then must Abraham have been Taphet: shewing that at the 500, year of his 135, years when he first set his foot in Canaan. age, he began to beget the first of those three seeing Terah must be dead ere he parted, and Aug quest. Sons. For, according to S. Augustine, speaking so 70.added to 135, make 2c5, the true age super son. generally, Nee attendendus est in his ordo na-of Terah; which is contrary to all those places tivitatis, sed senificatio futura dignitatis: in of Scripture before remembred. For he enqua excelluit Abraham: The order of nativity tred at 75 he refcued Lot at 82 he had Ifmael is not here to be respected, but the signification of at 86. he had Isaac at 100. proved by the the future dignity; in which Abraham was pre- former places. ferred. And therefore, as in the order of the Sons of Noah, so is it here; where it is said, of Terah, and born in the 70 year of his age: That Terah lived 70. years, and begat Abra- then had Terah lived till Isaac had been 35. ham, Nahor, and Haran: For it was late ere years old, and Ishmael 49. both which must Terah began to beget Sons, himself being be- then have been born in Mesopotamia, and gotten by his father Nahor, at 29. as other his therein fostered to that age : unless we Ancestors were at 30. The like also hapned should either deny credit to S. Stephen, who

to Noah; for whereas Adam begat Seth at faith that Abraham departed from Mesopota-133. Enosb Kenan at 90. Kenan Mabalaleel mia after his fathers death: or else believe at 70. Mahalaleel Jared at 60. Noah was yet the interpretation of Daniel Angelogrator, 500. years old when he began to beget the who in his Cronologia antoptica, faith it was first of his three Sons, as aforesaid. And Saint about his fathers death; because the Greek Augustine, in the place before cited, rather in- word war may be translated by the Latine clineth to the Opinion, that Abraham was the fub, as well as by post: which, though eliwhere youngest of Terah's Sons, than otherwise: it may be, yet cannot be so in this place. though for his excellency he was worthily For it were most improperly spoken, to say, named first. His own words are these: Fieri that those things were done about Terah's enim ut potuit posterior sit generatus Abraham: | death, which were 60. years before. Wheresed merito excellentia, qua in scripturis valde fore, supposing Abraham to have been born commendatur, prior fuerit nominatus. It might in the 70. year of Terah; we must give those be, faith he, that Abraham was begotten later; times and places of birth to Abraham's chilbut was first named in regard of his excellenty; for which in Scripture he is much commended. So as the naming first or last proveth nothing nor in Hanan, nor in ten years after his arrival as touching his election or spiritual blefling; promife, and the eldest and first in Godi favour. Pietas ergo, vel ipfa potius electio divina, que comitem secum trahit pietaten, & Dei timore primas partes dat Semo in liberis Noa. & Abrahamo in liberis Thare: Prety, faith he or rather divine election, which doth evermore draw with it, or after it. Piety, and the fear of God, gave place and precedency to Sem among those of Thare. For the rest, it is manifest, that Abraham nor born in the 70, year of Terab's age. entred Canaan in the 75, year of his age. And eldest in bloud and birth; neither doth it when Abraham had lived 86, years. It was ar appear, that it pleased God to make especial Gerar (the fourth border of Canaan) that Sarah geras choice of the first Sons in nature and time: bare Isaac, when Abraham had confumed 100 for seth was not the first-born of Adam; nor years. It was from the valley of Mamre in Ca-Ifaac of Abraham; nor Jacob of Isaac; nor naan that Abraham rose out, when he rescued Juda and Joseph of Jacob; nor David the Lot, & overthrew Amraphel; and he had then eldeft of Teffe; nor solomon of David; as is but the age of 83. years: and it is as manifelt, that he parted from Haran after his father ding But it is written of Noah: Noah was 500. Terah was dead. But, if Terah begat Abraham Gir. 14

Moreover, if Abraham were the eldest Son

dren, which no Authority will warrant ; For Abraham had no children in Ur of Chaldea, who was first or last born; either in those if into Canaan. For the year of Terah's death, in fues of Noah, or in these of Terah: Neither which Abraham left Haran, was the year of hath God any respect of the eldest in nature, the World, 2083; and the year of Ismael's birth was the Worlds year, 2094, which mafor Mefes nameth first the children of the keth ten years difference. And that Haac was born in Canaan, and was to be offered upon the mountain Mariah therein, 29. miles from Berlabe, where Abraham then inhabited : and that three Angels first of all appear d to Abrabam in the vally of Mamre, no man doubteth. And therefore it cannot be, that any of Abrahams Sons were born in Mesopotamia; nor while Terab lived : nor in less than ten years after Teral's death; and then confequently among the children of Noah, and to Abraham Thirdly, whereas Abraham came into Ca- Ger 11. Gen. 12. 4 it was in Canaan that Hagar bare him Islamael, naan at 75. if Terah had begotten him at 70.

was not Abraham the eldeft Son of Tarah,

CHAP. I. then had Terab lived but 145. for 70. and tus de tribus filis. Thare, tamen nominatur 75, make 145, which must also have been the primo, propter ejus dignitatem: & ponendus full age of Terab; but Terab lived 205. years, er it capit firpis & generation's sequentis: & and therefore was not Abraham born in the quia primo facta est ei repromissio expressa de 7c. year of Terab.

make it manifest, that Haran was the elder, if Abraham himself, it followeth, that he was not not the eldest brother of Abraham; for Sa- ten years old when he begat Sarah: And thererab, or Iscah, wanted but ten years of Abra- fore it seemeth better to be said, that Abraham ham's age : Isac being born when Abraham was the last born of the three Sons of Thare, was 100. and Sarah 90. years old. It followeth then, that if Abraham had been the elder brother of Haran, Haran must have stock and generation following, and because the begotten Sarah at nine years old : for granting that Haran was born but one year after Abraham, and Sarah within ten years as old as Abraham, then of necessity must Haran beget her, when he had lived but nine years; which were too ridiculous to imagine.

And that Iscah was Sarah, Rab. Solomon affirmeth; both names, faithhe, bearing the fame fignification; and names of principality. Again, to what end was the word Iscah of Jishcah inserted in this place, if Sarah were not meant thereby? For, to speak of any thing superfluous, it is not used in Gods Book: and if Ifeah had not belonged to the Story, it had been but an idle name, to no purpose remembred.

Now, if it had been true (as those of the contrary opinion affirm) that Mofes had no respect of Nahor and Haran, who were notwithstanding the Parents of Bethuel and Rebecca, the mother of Israel, and of Christ: what regard then had Moses of Iscah in this place, were she not Sarah, but otherwise an end herein, than to manifest the Worlds stoidle name, of whom there is nothing else first or last?

thip of Abraham; for Lot was called an old man, when Abraham was but 83. years old: And if Lot were of a greater age than Abrabam, and Haran were father to Lot, Sarah, and Milcah; Abraham marrying one of Haran's Daughters, and Nahor the other, Sarah also being within ten years as old as Abraham; it may appear to every reasonable man (not obstinate and prejudicate) that Haran was the eldest Son of Terah, and not Abrabam; who also died first, and before his fa- in nature. So did Josephus, together with Nither left Ur in Chaldea. Also Lyra reasoneth cholas Damascems (thinking thereby to gloagainst this opinion of Ahraham's eldership, upon the same place of Genesis; drawing arguments from the age of Sarah, who was but ten years younger than Abraham himself. Lyrahis words are these: Si igitur Haran fuit junior ipso Abraham, sequitur quod non habebat decem annos quando genuit Saram: imo nec octo, co. and afterward, O idei melius vide-tur dicendum, quod Abraham fuit ultimò na-from him his Wife Sarah: Such Fables argue Christo, seut supra dictum est de Sem, Oc. If Fourthly, the ages of Lot and Sarah therefore (faith Lyra) Haran was younger than nevertheless, he is named first for his dignity, both because he was to be ordained head of the Promise of Christ was first made unto him, as before it is faid of Sem.

s. VII.

A Conclusion of this Dispute, noting the Authours on both lides; with an Admonition, that they which shorten the times, make all antient Stories the more unprobable.

T therefore agreeth with the Scriptures, with Nature, Time, and Reason, that Haran was the eldeft Son of Terah, and not Abraham: and that Abraham was born in the 130. year of Teral's life, and not in the 70. year. For Abraham departing Charran after Terab died, according to S. Stephen, and that At. 1. 4. journey by Abraham performed, when he was 75. years old; these two numbers added, make 205, years, the full age of Terah: feeing that when Terah died, then Abraham entred Canaan. For my felf, I have no other Gen, 12, 43 ry. I reverence the judgments of the Fathers: but I know they were mistaken in par-The age also of Lot disproveth the elder-ticulars. Saint Augustine was doubtfull, and coud not determine this controversie. For, whatsoever is borrowed out of his sixteenth Book de Civitate Dei, cap. 15. the same may be answered out of himself in his five and twentieth Question upon Genesis. But S. Augustine herein followed fosephus and Isidor; and Beda followed S. Augustine. And it was out of a foolish pride and vanity, that the Hebrews and Josephus sought to make Abraham the first born : as if God had had respect to the eldest rifie the Jewish Nation ) make Abraham a King, entitling Sarah by the name of Queen Sarah; and faid, that Abraham was followed with 318. Captains, of which every one had an infinite multitude under him; trecentor & octodecim præfectos habuit, quorum singu-that Josephus is not to be believed, but with ment to our felves, which of those two ac-

178

discreet reservations. This account of times, allowing no more of the Scriptures; teaching the Worlds new than 292 years from the Floud to Abraham, plantation, and the continuance of Gods is upheld by many of the Hebrews. But how Church: either that of Josephus, and those should we value the opinion of such Chrono- which follow him who makes but 292. years, lovers, as take Amraphel for Nimrod & Surely, or thereabouts, between the Floud and Birth if their judgment in such matters were wor- of Abraham: or this other account, which thy to be regarded, it would have apeared make 352, years between the one and the in letting down the succession of the Perstan other: the one making Abraham to be the Kings under whom they lived, whose History first-born of Thare, in the 70, year of his life; was not so far remote in time, as these Anti-the other a younger Son of Thare, and born quities, nor wanting the light of many good when he had lived 130, years. And, if we Writers. Yet grolly have they erred there- look over all, and do not hashily satisfie our in, and fo familiar are their mistakings in all understanding with the first things offered, things of like nature, that we feldom find and thereby being fatiated do flothfully and their opinion rehearted without the confu- drowfily fit down; we shall find it more atation treading on the heels of it. They of greeable, rather to allow the reckoning of the Roman Religion, are also generally on the Septuagint, who, according to some Edithe same side; it being a thing usual among tions, make it above 1072. years between the them, to maintain whatfoever they have Floud and Abraham's Birth; than to take abeen formerly known to hold and believe. way any part of those 352, years given. For, Contrariwife, of the more antient, Theodoret, if we advisedly consider the state and contiand some following him; of later times, Be-nuance of the World, such asit was in Abraroaldus, Peucer, Calvin, Junius, Ecza, Brough- bam's time, yea, before Abraham was born, ton, Doct. Gibbons, and Moore, with divers of we shall find, that it were very ill done the Protestants, hold Abraham to have been of us, by following opinion without the born in the 130, year of his father Terah. guide of reason, to pare the times overing Beroaldus an arch-heretick in Chronology, a Priest of the Congregation of S. Paul, a judicious, diligent, and free Writer, whose Annals are newly fet forth, very earnestly defends the opinion, which I have already detestant Writer, as being, perhaps, unwilling ans, divine, and prophane, labour to investi-counts give the best reputation to the Story From these (as in a case not concerning any deeply between Abraham and the Floud: point in Religion) divers of the same Reli- because in cutting them too neer the quick, gion, and those, nevertheles, good Authours, the reputation of the whole Story might, as Bucholcerus, Chitreus, Functius and others, perchance, bleed thereby, were not the are very averse herein, especially Josephus testimony of the Scriptures supreme, so as Scaliger with his Sethus Calvisus, proclaim- no objection can approach it: and that we did not follow withall this Precept of and condemning this opinion of his as poi- S. Augustine, That wheresoever any one fonous. Contractivise, Augustinus Torniellus, place in the Scriptures may be conceived disagreeing to the whole, the same is, by ignorance of interpretation, mif-understood. For, in Abraham's time, all the then known parts of the World were peopled: all livered; not alleging Beroaldus, nor any Pro- Regions and Countries had their Kings. Egypt had many magnificent Cities; and so had to owe thanks to Hercticks. For my felf, I do Palastina, and all the bordering Countries. neither missike the contrary opinion, because yea, all that part of the World besides, as far commonly those of the Romish Religion la- as India; and those not built with sticks, but bour to uphold it; nor favour this later ac- of hewn stone, and defended with walls and count of times, because many notable men of rampires; which magnificence needed a Pathe Protestant Writers have approved it; but rent of more antiquity, than those other men for the truth it self. To strengthen which, have supposed. And therefore, where the after all these former reasons, and testimo- Scriptures are plainest, and best agreeing nies of Scripture, I will add thus much more with reason and nature, to what end should to the rest. First, it is apparent to all men of we labour to beget doubts and scruples, or judgment, that the best approved Histori- draw all things into wonders and marvels? giving also strength thereby to common cagate the truth of times, thereby to approve villers, and to those mens apish brains, who the Stories, and fore-past actions of the onely bend their wits to find impossibili-World; and not the truth of Histories to approve the times by. Let us then make judgal and Man-kind.

6. VIII.

A Computation of the times of the Affyrians, and others, grounded upon the times noted in the story of Abraham.

IN this fort therefore, for the reasons before alleged, I conclude, that from the general Floud, to the birth of Abraham, 352. Ed As years were confumed; and taking the Affyriactival. A Hiftory with us, the fame number of years were spent from the Floud to the 43. year of of Chus, the Son of Chum. Ninus: in which 43. year of Ninus, Abraham

World. 2009. give one part as well to the increase of those people which came into Shinaar, as to those Chus, ere he begat Seba; of which, though 52. year complete of Abraham's life. the Scriptures are filent, yet, because those of their first Sons, we may the more safely give the like allowance to these. For Eber begat Peleg at 34. Peleg Regu at 30. Regu Serug at 32. Raama and Sabtecha: and Raama begat Shedug de frin. pei. appeareth, Gen. 10. which S. Augustine ap-proveth. Giving then 30. years more to Raama ere he begat Sheba, and five years to the been this Nimias, the Son of Nimia, and Semifive elder brothers of Nimrod, it may be ga- ramis, whose 23 years, as aforelaid, being the thered, that 65, years were confumed ere 75, year of Abraham, he and his fellow-kings Nimred himself was born; and that Raama might have received this overthrow in the had that age before any of his Sons were be- 85. year of Abraham, and the 33. year of his gotten, it may be gathered by example and own reign: after which he reigned five years, comparison: for Peleg the fourth from Noah, which make in all 38. But the truth is, that of his life. be brought forth or else we shall hardly find naar, whereof there are fix years remaining) on; which were to condemn all antient His we may give them for their travels from the sforians for Fablers. An a falute East; because they were pestered with wo-bamanige men, children and cattel: and, as some ancient menical writers have conceived, and Becanus of later pair cettle. Writers have conceived, and the mountain fides, fine prime times, they kept always the mountain fides, capit reg. for fear of a fecond floud. Now, if we take num valy; this number of 131.out of 352.there remains 10 Sa- 221.0f which number, Berofus bestoweth 65. turno patre on Belus, and 42. on Ninus before Abraham Jouis Beli. quimpera born: both which, S. Augustine approveth: which two numbers taken again out of 221.

the Floud to Abraham's birth; which number of 114. necessity bestoweth on Nimrod. And if it be objected that this time given to Nimrod is over-long; fure, if we compare the age of Nimrod with the rest of the same descent from Noah, it will rather appear over fhort. For Nimrod, by this account, lived in all but 179. years, whereof he reigned 112. whereas Sale, who was the Son of Arphaxad, the Son of sem, lived 403. years: and of the fame age of the World was Nimrod the Son

Now, after Abraham was born, was born; which hapned in the year of the Nims reigned 9. years, which added to 43.

Now, of this time of 352. years, we must Nimus dieth, and leaveth Semiramis his Suc-

Semiramis governed the Empire of Baby- Of the that flayed in the East, to wit, 30. years to lonia and Asyria 42. years, and died in the Ninias, or Zameis succeeded Semiramis, the same time had that age when they begat and ruled 38. years; in the second year of 1059 must whose reign, Abraham left Mesopotamia. hose reign, Abraham lett Mejopotamia.

When Abraham was 85. years old, he redil. 1083.

feued his Nephew Lot, and overthrew by Now, after Seba, Chus begat Havilah, Sabta, furprife Amraphel, King of Shinaar, or Babylonia. Ninias reigned 38. years, and Abraba and Dedan, before Nimrod was born, as it ham came into Canaan but 23. years after his age; fo that Amraphel may feem to have as Raama was, begat Reu in the same year | the reasons to the contrary, urging that this Let us then allow 60. years more after the answered. Howbeit, for the times of the Affibirth of Nimrod, for two other generations to rian Kings, that they are to be ordered as we have fet down, according to the times noted people to build Babel; for fure we are, that it by Moles in the Story of Abraham, it is most was done by hands, and not by miracle: be- certain; unles we will either derogate from cause it displeased God. These two numbers the truth of Moses his computation, which of 65, and 60. make 125. The rest of the time were implety, or account the whole Histoof 131. (in which year they arrived in Shi- ry of Ninus and Semiramis to be but a ficti-

6. IX.

That Amraphel, one of the four Kings whom Abraham overthrew, Gen. 14. may pro-bably be thought to have been Ninias the Son of Ninus.

A Nd now, touching this Amraphel; whom Moses makes King of Shinaar, or Babylothere remaineth 114. years of the 352. from nia, in the 85. year of Abraham's life, that is,

180

was, and how he could be at this time King of Babylonia: Ninias Zameis then reigning there. To this doubt, the answer which first offerethit felf as most probable, is that which hath been already noted, that this Nimias or Zameis, was no other than our Amra- and Tidal; the one King of Ellaffar, the other phel; who invaded Traconitis, or Basan, and of the Nations. For Ellassar, Aquila, and Hieoverthew those five Kings of Pentapolis, or rem, write Pontus: so Toftatus thinketh that the Valley of Siddin. For the Scriptures tell it should be Hellesport: which opinion Pereus that Amraphel was King of Shinar, which rise favoureth. But this is onely to defend is Babylonia; and the times before accounted the Latine translation. For as Pontus, so is make him to be the successor of Ninus and semiramis: and it falleth out with the 85. year fend any Armies into Arabia Petraa, or into of Abraham's life, wherein he refcu'd Lot flew Idumea; which Countries these four Kings Chedorlaomer, and overthrew the rest. True it is, that this Amraphel was not at this time the greatest Monarch; for Chedorlaomer commanded in chief, though Amraphel be first named by Moles in the first Verse of the fourteenth Chapter of Genesis. For the Kings of into Asia the less as Commanders; but used the Valley of Siddim, or of Pentapolis, or the five Cities, were the vasfals of Chedorlaomer, and not of Amraphel; as it is written, Twelve years were they subject to Chedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled, and in the fourteenth year came Chedorlaomer, and the Kings that were with him; and therefore was Chedorlaomer the principal in this enterprise, who was then King of Elam which is Persia: Now, Persia being seated over Tygris, and to the East of Amraphel's Countrey; and the other two Kings, which were companions with Amraphel, being feated to the West of Shinaar, or Babylo- ter: namely, Lords of Cities and small Tenia: Amraphel, who held Babylonia it ritories adjoining; of which Canaan had felf, feemeth at this time to have had three and thirty, all slain or hanged by no great scope or large Dominion. For, Josua. Neither can the other Countries, had Amraphel been so great a Prince as which in the Text they are said also to prophane Historians make Ninus or Semi- have invaded, be imagined to have been ramis, whom he succeeded, he should not at that time of any great power; and therehave needed the affiftance of three or four fore to call in Kings from Pontus, or Helfour Kings (as it is manifest that he was: Persia. For these little Kings of Sodome, Gomora, &c. were his vassals and not Amraphel's) yet this makes not the conjecture less probable, but | Pompey against Cafar; yet these same exthat this Amraphel might be Ninias. For it amples, without like occasions and circummay be, that the great and potent Empire stances, do neither lead nor teach. For of Affria had now (as we shall shew more there was no cause to fear the greatness of plainly in that which followeth) received these petty Kings, or of the other Couna down-right fall at the time of this Warr: though not long before it commanded all the Kingdoms between India and the Phænician Sea; to wit, in the times of Ninus and Semiramis.

in the 33. year of the reign of Ninias Zameis

the King of the Allyrians, the Son of Ninus and Semiramie, it is hard to affirm what he

CHAP. 1.

6. X.

Of Arioch, another of the four Kings, and that Ellas, whereof he is faid to have been King. lies between Colofyria and Arabia Petraa.

Ow, the two other Kings joined with Amraphel and Chedorlaomer, were Arioch Hellespont farr distant, and out of the way to chiefly invaded: Besides that, it is certain, that the Allyrians (when they were greatest) had never any dominion in Alia the less. For at fuch time as the Assirians feared the invafion of the Medes and Persians, they sent not all the art they had, to invite Crasus to their affiftance; perfwading him, that nothing Xemples, could be more dangerous for himself, and the other Kings of those parts, than the success of the Medes against the Assyrians. But examine the enterprise, what it was. These con. 14 Kings (faith the Text) made warr with Bera, Kingdom of Sodom, Birsha King of Gomora, Shinab King of Admath, and Shemebar King of Zeboim, and the King of Bela, which is Zoar. All which five Kings had not fo much ground as Middlesex; being such a kind of Reguli, as Josua found in the Land long af-Kings for this Expedition. But though Che- lespont, had maniscated a great impotence dolarmer were the first and greatest of those and weakness in the Kings of Babylon and

> And though it be alleged for an Example, that divers Kings farr off, came to affift tries: But the eyes of the World were fixed on Calar; and his undertakings and intents were to all other Princes, no less doubtfull than fearfull: But the whole Countrey by these four Kings mastered in their passage, was afterward given to the half Tribe of Manasse, Manasse, Gad, and Reuben; a narrow Val- Arioch, who commanded under Neinecho-

of the History of the World.

of the Affrian Empire, if the same had re- us, Arioch, Areta, or Aretas) had the Go-

World, without the affiftance of any of the was in Nebuchodonofors time. But this A-Affathe less. But as the Vulgar, and Aquila, fon be taken for the King of Arabia, the Son convert Ellassar by Pontus: So Symmachus of Arius, the Confederate of Ninus, whose makes Arioch, a King of the Scythiam, a Sons held league, as their fathers did, be-any at that time. The Septuagint do not change the word of Ellassar at all, but as they keep the word Ararat, on the Mountains whereof the Ark firmeth. did rest; so do they in this place retain the word Ellassar, being doubtfull to give it a wrong interpretation. And Pererius himfelf remembreth other opinions farr more probable than this of Pontus, or Hellespont: yet he dares not avow his liking of them, because the Latine Translation hath it otherwise. For Stephanus de Urbibus, a Græcian Comographer, findeth the City of Ellas in tions. The Hebrew writes it Gojim, which the border of Celosyria: and Saint Hierom Vatablus takes to be a proper name: Lyra calleth Ellas the City of Arioch, as in truth of mixt People; Calvin of Runnagates on the border of Arabia, of which Arioch were Nations, which were a mixt People: was King; who formerly joined with Ninns namely, of Egyptians, Arabians, and Phasin all his Conquests, being of the same Fa- nicians. Nam tales sunt qui Galilæam hamily, and descended from Cham and Chus: bitant; Such are the Inhabitants of Galile, after whom the name of Arius was by the faith Strabo; and therefore was Tidal cal-Hebrew written Arisch; and afterward a- led King of these Nations, as they suppose. gain Aretas; as in the Machabees: the Kings And so it may be; but the authority of Atrabo of Arabia holding that name even to the is nothing in this Question. For Galilea trayed by the Lievetenant of Aretas, com- the time of Strabo. For, when Abraham manding in Damascus. They were Princes, came into Canaan, the Canaanite was then for the most part, confederate and depend- in the Land, howsoever they might be afthat we find in Daniel; that in the time of are many petty Kingdoms adjoining to Phahis Army, and the principal Commander nea, Laodicene, Apamena, Chalcidice, Cafunder him, who was a King of Kings: which liotis, Chalibonitis, and all these do also makes it plain, that Arioth here spoken of, join themselves to Mesopotamia on the Son of that Arioth Confiderate of Ni-North; and to Arabia on the East. And mus, was no King of Pontus; nor of September 1981. thia, Regions farr removed from the Affiri-ans and Babylonians. The name also of bablest conjecture.

ley of ground, lying between Jordan and donofor, is mentioned in Judith, by the name the Mountains of Sen; nelofed by the River of Arnon on the South fide, and by Ly- on of Persians, bordering Allgria, accordbanns on the North, confifting of two small ing to Stephanus, though Pliny sets it be-Provinces of Traconitis, or Eslan, and the tween the Sea-coast and Media: and if Region of the Moabites; a conquest farr un- any brother of the Arabian Kings, or other valuable, and little answering to the power of that House (known by the name of Arimained in any comparable effate with the vernment of that Persian Province, called manned in any comparative create with the fellowing of that repair flowings and semiramis, who sub- Elymais (as it seemeth they had, by the jested all the great Kingsof that part of the places of Daniel and Judith) yet the same Kings of Hellestont, or any other part of rioch here spoken of may with more rea-King indeed, as farr fetched to join with ing the next bordering Prince of all on the Affirians in this Warr, as the World had that fide towards the Welt unto Babylonia, and Chaldea; and in amity with them from the beginning, and of their own House and Bloud; which Diod. Siculus also con-

6. X I.

of Tidal, another of the four Kings.

The fourth King by Abraham overthrown, was Tidal, King of the Nas it was. Now, although the same be seated without habitation. Pereries out of straby Stephanus in Calofria, yet it standeth bo, finds that Calilea was inhabited by diwas not Peopled at this time, as it was in one in the was not Peopled at this time, as it was in one in our ing upon the Affirian Empire. It is true terwards mixt; which I know not, But there Nebuchodonosor, one Arioch was General of nicia and Palestina; as Palmyrena, Bata-

6. XII.

That Chedorlaomer, the chief of the four kings, was not of Assyria, but of Persie; and that impaired.

Kings ware on their heads.

us that those things which are set up hastily, tentious peril enjoy. or forced violently, do not long last. Alexannot to over-look what it felf had brought himself: all whose chief Commanders became Kings after him. Tamberlain conquered Alia and India, with a storm-like, and terrible fuccess: but to prevalent fury. God hath adjoined a short life; and whatsoever things Nature her felf worketh in hafte, she taketh before.

Ninus, being the first whom the madness of boundless dominion transported, invaded his neighbour Princes, and became victorious over them: a man violent, infolent and cruel. Semiramis taking the opportunity, and being more proud, adventurous, and wounds and wrongs, by their continual purchase their former liberty. fmart, put the Patient in mind how to cure the one, and revenge the other: fo those antientest Historians, that Arius the Son of Kings adjoining (whose subjection and cala- Ninias, or Amraphel, invaded the Bactrians, the more grievous) could not fleep, when the advantage was offered by such a successiour. For, In regno Babylonico hic parum resplenduit; This king thined little (faith Nauclerus of Nithe Affyrian Empire at this time was much nias) in the Babylonian Kingdom. And likely it is, that the necks of mortal men, having been never before galled with the yoak of Aftly, whereas it is conceived that Che- forein dominion, nor having ever had expe-L Altly, whereas it is conceived that the derlacement was the Affrian Emperor, and rience of that most miserable and detested that Amraphel was but a Satrape, Viceroy, or condition of living in flavery; no long de-Provincial Governour of Babylonia, and that feent having as yet invested the Affirian with the other Kings named, were fuch alfo, I can- a right; nor any other title being for him prenot agree with Pererius in this. For Moses was tended, than a strong hand; the foolish and too well acquainted with the names of Affur effeminate Son of a tyrannous and hated faand Shinaar, to call the Affgrian a King of ther, could very ill hold so many great Prin-Elam: those Kings being in the Scriptures ces and Nations his vasials, with a powerless evermore called by the name of Chaldaa, mastering, and a mind less industrious than Shinaar, Babylonia, or Assyria; but never by his father and mother had used before him. Elam: and Chedorlaomer, or Kedarlaomer was And he that was so much given over to licenfo called of Kidor, from Cidarim, which in tious idleness, as to suffer his mother to reign the Hebrew fignifieth Regale: for fo 2. Curti- 12, years, and thereof the greatest part we calleth the garment which the Persian after he came to mans estate: witnessed thereby to the World, that he so much pre-Neither do I believe, that the Affyrian, or ferred case before honour, and bodily plea-Babylonian Empire stood in any greatness at sures before greatness, as he neither endeathe time of this invafion; and my reasons are voured to gain what he could not govern, these: First, example and experience teach nor to keep what he could not without con-

These considerations being joined to the der became Lord of all Asia, on this side of Story of Amraphel, delivered by Moses, by Indus, in a time of fo short a life, as it lasted which we find that Amraphel King of Shinaar was rather an inferiour to the King of Perlia. forth. His fortunes were violent, but not than either his superiour, or equal; make it perpetual. For his Empire died at once with feem probable, that the Empire of Ninus and Semiramis was at that time broken afunder, and restrained again to Babylonia.

For conclusion, I will add these two arguments confirming the former: First, that at fuch time as it pleafed God to impose that great travel upon Abraham, from Ur in Chalthe least care of their continuance. The fruit dea to Charran, and then to Canaan, a passage of his Victories perished with him, if not of 700 miles, or little less, with women, children, and carriages; the Countries through which he wandred were then fettled, and in peace. For it was the 23. year of Ninias, when Abraham obeying the voice of God, took this great journey in hand: in which time of 23. years after the death of Semiramis, the Strab Lis. neighbour Princes had recovered their liambitious than her Paramour; enlarged the berty and former estates, For Semiranio Ar-Babylonian Empire, and beautified many my of four millions, with her felf, utterly conplaces therein, with buildings un-exampled. fumed in India, and all her armies and engins But her Son, having changed Nature and of war, at the same time lost, gave an occasion and Condition with his Mother, proved no and opportunity even to the poorest souls less feminine than she was masculine. And as and weakest hearted of the World, to re-

Secondly, it is affirmed by the best and mities incident, were but new, and therefore and Caspians, and again subjected them: which needed not, if they had not been re- | Laomer, if he were King of Perfit alone, thould volted from Ninias, alter Ninus death. And pass through so great a part of the World, as voited from the countries of Afgria, Chaldra, Atelopotamia, of Balaneus, otherwise Xerxes, reduce the rest syria, and part of Arabia, and Canaan, to subrevolted, to their former obedience. Of due those five Towns, whose very names whom it is faid, that he conquered from Fgypt how they should come to his ear, being difto India 3 and therefore was called Xerxes, joined by fo many great Naions of different to mana, and therefore was cannot across pointed by a many great Matons of different idel. Filder & triumphator, A conqueror and Languages, a wife man could hardly conriumpher; which undertakings had been no jecture. And if all the Countries bordering other than the effects of madness, had not | Perfia together with the Eabylonian himself, those Countries freed themselves from the yearthe Kingdom of Lligfar and that of Tidal, tione committees from Now, if we shall make lie far off removed, were become his depenany doubt thereof, that is, of the conqueft of dences; what reason can we find that might Annual Merker, both which lived after Ni- have induced him to hearken after Sodoni nus and Niniar, we may as well think the reft and Gomerah? and when he should have of Nimus and Semiramis to be but feined; fought the establishment of his new gotten but if we grant this conquest, then it is true, Empire, by rooting out the Posterity of Nithat while Ninias or Amraphel ruled, the Africa Sninus had dealt by Tharnus of Media, firian Empire was torn afunder, according and Zoroaster of Bastria) then to employ the to that which had been gathered out of forces of Amraphel, and those other Kings, Mofes, as before remembred.

6. XIII.

That it is not unprobable that the four kings had no dominion in the Countries named, but that they had elsewhere with their Colonies planted themselves; and so retained the names of the Countries whence they came which if so, we need not say, that Amraphel was Ninias, nor trouble our selves with man, other difficulties.

they do, that these four Kings, Amraphel send to reclaim them; was it not more than of Shinaar, Chedorlaomer of Elam, and their madness in them, when his terrible Army apfellows, were Lords of those Regions, whereunto they are, or feem intituled; doth almost inforce us to think that the history must dissolute, and therefore unwarlike people) fo be understood, as I have delivered. But, if against the power of all the Nations between in this place, as often elsewhere in the Scri- Euphrates, yea, between themselves and the or gathered out of fundry Regions; then may we otherwise conceive of this History: removing thereby fome difficulties, which because they could not find how to resolve them. For as it had been a strange conje-Cture, to think that Arioch was drawn to affift the Perfian against the Sodomite, as far as from Pontus, where it is very unlikely that Chedorlaomer was known, and almost impossible, that the vale of siddim should have been once named: fo in true estimation, it is field? Now, the Scriptures do not of this ina thing of great improbability, that Chedor- valion (supposed so great) make any fearful against five petty Towns, leaving Tyrus and Sidon, and the great City Damasco, with many other places of much importance, and far neerer unto him, unsubdued? Now, as these doubts, which may be alleged against the first conquest of the vale of suddim, are exceeding vehement: so are the objection, to be made against his conquest of these five Cities, when they had revolted, as forcible; yea, and more, as being grounded upon the Text it felf. For first, what madness had it been in that small Province, to rebel against so powerfull a Monarch? Or if it were to, that He consent of all Writers, whose works they dwelling far from him, hoped rather to have come to my perufal, agreeing as be forgotten, than that he should come or proached, still to entertain hope of evalion; yea, to make resistance (being themselves a ptures, the names of Countries may be fet for River Indus? Likewife, on the part of Che-People of those Lands, or if (as Hierom hath | dorlaomer, we should find no great wisdom, it) Chedorlaomer was King of the Elamites, as if he, knowing the weakness of this People, Tidal was faid to be of the Nations, that is, of had raifed such a world of men against People, either wanting a fixed habitation, them: whom by any Lievtenant, with small forces, he might have subdued. For the perpetual inheritance of that little Countrey, was not fufficient to countervail ene Months men, perhaps, have been unwilling to find, charges of fo huge an Army. How finall then must his valour have been, who with so mighty preparations effected no more than the walting of that Valley, wherein he left the Cities standing, taking no one of them; but returned well contented with a few prifoners, and the pillage of the Countrey, although he had broken their Army in the CHAP.

CHAP. II.

equally matcht, faying they were four Kings of his Ancestors being by his sloth decayed. against five; yea, if the place be literally he might well be interiour to the Persian expounded, we shall find that Abraham slew | Chedorlaomer: or if this do not satisfie, we all these Kings; of which great slaughter no may say that Amraphel was an under-king.or History makes mention: Neither will the Satrapa of Shinaar, under Ninias; who may reign of Ninias, who lived four or five years be supposed to have had his Imperial sear longer, permit that he should have died so in his fathers City, Ninive; and to have prefoon; neither would Histories have forgot- ferred it before Shinaar and Babylon the Citen the manner of his death, if he had so ty of his mother, whom he hated as an usurfirangely perished in Syria. Whereby it apper of his right. But, if it were possible that pears, that these four Kings were not the in a case not concerning any mans Salvation. fame that they are commonly thought; nor and wherein therefore none hath cared to their forces fo great as opinion hath made take great pains, all might erre; then can I them. It may therefore well be true, that think that the opinion, that those four Kings these Kings were such as many others, who in were Leaders of Colonies, sent out of the that age carried the same title; Lords and Countries named in the Text, and not Kings ing place where to fettle himfelf and them, as and to the Scripture. And hereto add, that was the usual manner of those times.

Neither is it improbable, that Chedorlaomer leading a troup of Persians, Amraphel (whose Kingdom undoubtedly was between fome people out of Shinaar, and Tidal others Syria and Arabia) having been a man of gathered out of fundry places, might confort action, or being a worthy mans Son, was together, and make the weakest of the very well pleased to give passage and astribute. Whosoever will consider the beginning of the first Book of Thucydides, with the manner of discoveries, conquests and plantations, in the infancy of Greece; or the manner of the Saracens invading Africa and Spain, with almost as many Kings as several Armies, or the proceedings of the Spaniards in their new discoveries, passages, and conquests in the West-Indies; may easily per-ceive, that it was neither unusual for the he find any that shall seem better than leaders of Colonies to receive title from the thefe. But of what countries or people fowas fuch, as might well give occasion to such mane reason must subscribe, then we may and first Kings thereof. hold our felves to the former conjecture, matter; but compose the two Armies as Amraphel was Ninias; and that the power Commanders every one of his own compa- of the Countries themselves, is most confony, which he carried forth as a Colony, feek- nant, both to the condition of those times. Chedorlaomer feems rather called a Perlian King, than King of Persia: And that Arioch Countrey which lay about them, to pay them fiftance to these Captains or petty Kings. These, and such like things here to urge, were but with circumstances to adorn a supposition, which either may frand without them, or if it must fall, is unworthy to have cost bestowed upon it; especially considering, that it is not my intent to employ any more time in making it good, but to leave it wholly to the Reader's pleasure, to follow people whom they conducted; nor to make ever these four were Kings, this Expedition aliances together, and break them again, di- is the onely publick action that we know of sturbing sometimes one the other, sometimes performed by Abraham. And as for other helping in pursuit of a conquest. That Am- things belonging to this Story, and of his raphel and his affociates were fuch manner Sons, and of his Nephews, Elan and Jacob, as of Commanders, it may feem the more like- they are registred by Moses, because it is not ly, by the flothfull quality of Ninias then our purpole, either to stand upon things gereigning in Afgria; whose unmanlike temper nerally known to all Christians, nor to repeat what hath been elfe-where already undertaking spirits, as wanted the employ-ments whereunto they were accustomed in that may hereafter in due place be rememthe reign of semiramis, rather to feek ad- bred, we pass them here in silence. And beventures abroad, than to remain at home un- cause in the Story of Abraham and his Posteregarded, whilst others, more unworthy than rity, there is much mention of Egypt: by themselves, were advanced. If the con- which it appears, that even in the time of fent of the whole stream of Writers upon Abraham, it was a settled and flourishing this place, make this conjecture disagreeable Kingdom; it will not be amis in the next to the Text, to the authority whereof all hu- place to speak somewhat of the Antiquities

CHAP. II.

Of the Kings of Egypt, from the first Peopling of it after the Floud, to the time of the delivery of the Israelites from thence.

A Brief of the names and times of the first Kings of Egypt; with a note of the causes of difficulty in resolving of the truth in these points.

polletion of the Countrey; in which they but in States that have greatly flourished, built many Cities; and began the Kingdom witness that their Princes were of marvelous one hundred ninety one years after the Deluge. The antient Governours of this King- were not altogether falle. A fecond cause of dom, till fuch time as Ifrael departed Egypt, our ignorance in the Egyptian History, was are shewn in the Table following. ...

1	In. Mundi.	An. dil.		ì
1	1847.	191.	Cham.	t
1	2008.	352.	Osiris.	١
1	2269.	613.	Typhon Z	1
1	,		Hercules. S	1
1	2276.	620.	Orus.	1
1	239 I.	735•	Sesostris the great.	١.
ì	2424.	768.	sefoftris the blind.	ŀ
١	2438.	782.	Bustis, or Osiris the se-	١
١	.,		aond	1
١	2476.	820.	Acenchere, or Thermutis,	l
١	. "		or Meris.	١
1	2488.	832.	Rathoris, or Athoris.	١
	2497.		Chencres drowned in the	١
	177	1	Red Sea.	1

fought into all Antiquities, and had read Herodotus, Diodorus, and fuch others. the Books of Varro, which now are loft, vet omitted the fuccession of the Egyptian kings, which he would not have done, if they had not been more uncertain than the Sicyonians, whom he remembreth, than whom doubtless they were more glorious. One great occasion of this obscurity in the Egyptian Story, war the ambition of the Pricits: who, to magnifie their Antiquities, filled the Records (which were in their hands) with

Oon after the confusion at Babel (as the names of many Kings, that never reigned. it feems) Cham, with many of his if- What ground they had for these reports of fue and followers (having doubtlefs known the fertility of Egypt before the Floud) came thither and took Buildings in Egypt, such as are never found the too much credulity of fome good Authours, who believing the manifold and contrary reports of fundry Egyptians, and publishing in their own names such as pleased them best, have confirmed them, and, as it were, inforced them upon us by their Authority. A third and general cause of more than Egyptian darkness in all antient Histories, is the Edition of many Authors, by John Annius, of whom (if to the censures of fundry very learned, I may add mine) I think thus; that Annius having feen some fragments of those Writers, and added unto them what he would, may be credited, as an avoucher of true Histories, where approved Writers confirm him; but otherwise is to be deemed fabulous. Hereupon it cometh to pass, that the account of Authours, either in the The Table, and especially the Chronologie, Chronologie, or Genealogie of the Egyptian is to be confirmed by probabilities and con- Kings, runs three altogether different ways. jectures, because in such obscurity, manifest The christian Writers, such as are antient, and reftless truth cannot be found. For Saint for the most part, follow Eusebius: Many Angustine, a man of exceeding great judge-ment, and incomparable diligence, who had his Authours; The profane Histories follow

6. II.

That by the account of the Egyptian Dynasties, and otherwise, it appears that Cham's reign in Egypt began in the year after the Floud, 191.

Oreconcile these, or gather out of them the times of the antient Kings about many leafings, and recounted unto strangers whom is most controversie, the best mean is

by help of the Dynasties; of whose conti- | And to this summ of 191. years, if we add nuance, there is little or no disagreement. the 161, years of the 15, first Dynasties, as The account of the Dynasties (besides the they are numbred in common account, we authority of approved Authors) hath this shall fall right with the year of Abraham's good ground, that it agreeth for the most birth, which was An. Dil. 352. And hereto part, if not altogether, with the Histories of omitting many other reasons, which might the Afgrians, Trojans, Italians, &c. and others. be brought to prove that these first Dynasties The beginning of the 16. Dynastie, is joined must needs have been very short, and not by general confent, with 43. year of Ninus; in containing in the whole fumm of their fewhich Abraham was born. The twelve first veral times above 161. years; Let it suffice, Dynasties lasted each of them seven years, un- that had they lasted longer, then either must der the twelve which were call'd the greater | Egypt have been peopled as soon as Babel afgods: fo that all the years of their continu- ter the Floud, or the Dynasties (as Mercator ance were 84. The 13. Dynastie endured 14. thinks) must have been before the Floud. years; the fourteenth, 26. the fifteenth, 37. That the arival at Babel, was many years be-These three last, are said to have been under | fore the plantation of Egypt after the Floud, the three younger gods. So the fifteen first enough hath been said to prove; and that Dynasties lasted 161. years. As I do not the Dynasties were not before the Floud, the therefore believe that the continuance of number of the long-lived generations bethese Dynasties, was such as hath been men- tween Adam and the Floud, which was less tioned because Annius in such wise limits out than the number of the Dynasties, may suffitheir time: so I cannot reject the account ciently witness. Or, if we will think, that upon this onely reason, that Annius hath it one life might (perhaps) be divided into fo; considering, that both hitherto, it hath many Dynasties, then may this have been as passed as currant, and is greatly strengthened | well after the Floud, as before; considering by many good reasons. For, whereas Eusebius placeth the beginning of the fixteenth trie erect fuch form of Policy, as had been Dynastie, in the year of Abraham's birth, as used in the same ere the Deluge; but such aforefaid, the reckoning is eafily cast; by as the disposition of the people, the authoriwhich the summ of 161. years, which, ac- ty and power of the Conductor, together cording to our account, were spent in the with many other circumstances, did induce fifteen former, being subducted out of the fumm of 352. years, which were between the Floud and Abraham's birth, shew that the beginning of the first Dynastie, which was the beginning of Chams reign in Egypt, was in the year 191. As also by other probabilities the fame may appear: For it is generally agreed, that the multitude of man-kind which came into Shinaar arrived at Babel. Anno à Diluvio 131. In building the Tower were confumed that the Sons of Noah did not in every Counor enforce them to.

186

6. III.

That these Dynasties were not divers Families of Kings, but rather Successions of Regents. oft-times many under one King.

He fhort continuance of the Dynasties, doth fhew that they were not feveral 40. years, as Glycas recordeth; whose report I races of kings, as the vaunting Egyptians were have elswhere confirmed with divers proba- wont to stile them. What they were, it canbilities. That Chani was long in passing with not certainly be warranted. For in restitutihis company, their Wives, Children, Cattel, ons of decayed Antiquities, it is more easie and Substance through all Syria then deso- to deny than to affirm. But this may be said, late, and full of Boggs, Forests, and Bryers partly upon good circumstance, partly up-(which the Deluge, and want of culture, in on the furest proof, That it was the manner one hundred seventy one years had brought of the Egyptian Kings, to put the Governupon it) no reasonable man will doubt. To ment of the Country into the hands of some this his passage therefore, and the seating of himself in Egypt, we allow twenty years; and raignty to themselves, as the old Kings of these summs being added together, to wit, France were wont to the Masters of the Paone hundred thirty one years after the lace, and as the Turk doth to the chief Vifer. Floud, before they arrive at Babel, fourty | This is confirmed, first, by the number of years for their stay there, and twenty for the Dynasties, whereof many are under Cham, Cham's passage into Egypt, and settling there, and more than one under Osiris, or Mizraim; make up the fumm of 191. years; at which and must therefore have been successions, time we find that Cham began his reign in not of Kings, but rather of Counsellours, Egypt, in the beginning of the first Dynastie. and Regents. Secondly, by custom of such Philiftim in his dealing with Abraham and Is- to another. How stangers have mistaken ac about confederation, did nothing without in this kind, the example already cited of Thicol. Captain of his Hoft; though in taking Joseph's brethren, doth sufficiently witness, Abraham's Wife, and in his private carriage, he followed his own pleafure. Likewife of rus, and Herodotus; each of whom, clting Abimelech, the Son of Gideon, it was faid: Is their relations, as good Authority. fav; Dinot be the son of Jerubbaal? and Zebul is his odorus, and Sefostris was the nineteenth King Officer & Alfo Ifhbofheth, the Son of Saul, feared after Menas; Herodotis, that he was the 332. Abner the Captain of the Hoft. Yea, David after Menas; which could not have been if himself hating Joab for his cruelty, did not Menas had been Adam. Therefore we may punish him in regard of his greatness, which well conclude, That the Dynasties were not was fuch, as was feared even of Hadad the fo many Races of Kings, but fuccessions of Edonite, living then in Egypt. Thirdly, this Regents, appointed by the Kings of so many is confirmed by the temper and disposition sundry Linages or forts of men. Now, by of Cham, who was lewd, as appears by the whatfoever means a Dynastie, or Regencie Scriptures: therefore likely, both by his continued; whether in one Family, as beown idlenessand pleasure, to have laid the ing made an hereditary Office; or in one burthen of the Government upon others; order of men, as held by faction: fure it is, and upon jealousie, the companion of unthat was the Kings gift and free choice, that worthiness, to have changed his Lievtenants gave the Office. But the Crown royal always often. Above all other proofs is the advance- passed by descent, and not by election; ment of Joseph by Pharaoh. For Pharaob faid to Joseph; Onely in the Kings Throne will I be Scriptures also prove. For whereas Joseph above thee : behold, I have fet thee over all the Tyr. Land of Egypt. William Archbishop of Tyre, the Crown had passed by election, then who flourished about the year of our Lord, ment by Viceroys, was in his time practifed in their fathers Land, though not his Eftate, subjects unto the Caliphe; who residing in a the antient King. most magnificent Palace in Cairo, did commit the charge, not onely of civil Government, but the power of making Warr and Peace, with the whole Office and Authority royal, into the Soldans hands. He that shall read in William of Tyre, the state of the Caliphe, or Meulene Edhadech, with the form of inferiour in Wisdom.

gents, or Lievtenants, as Joseph was, have crept circumstances. For I think it is no where into the List of the Egyptian Kings, were no frange imagination. For Joseph's brethren call him, The man that is Lord of the Land, of Ham. Further, it is found in Diodorus Priests would as easily report him a King to deorum omnium junior : also sum Saturni fili-

Princes borderers to Fg.ppt, as are mentioned had passed, whilest that the King himself, in the Scriptures, of whom Abimelech the intending his quiet, had given his Office The reports of Priests do appear in Diodowhich (befides confent of Authours) the bought all the Land of Fgrpt for Pharaoh, if should Pharaoh's children hereby, either Egypt, having there been in use (as he be- have been more mighty than the King: as lieved) ever fince the time of Joseph. He plainly shews, that the soldam of Egypt were not Lords of the Countrey, however they Exed. 12. that God finote the first-born of have been fo deem'd; but that they acknow- Pharaoh, that was to fit on his Throne. And ledg'd and humbly performed the duty of in Efay, it is faid of Pharaoh, I am the Son of Efa. 19.

s. IV.

of Cham, and his son Mizraim, or Ofiris.

T Hat the succession of Kings began, and continued in such wise as the Table hath Pla 78.51 shewed from Cham to Chencres, now it fol- 105 23. his Court, shall plainly behold the Image of loweth to shew. Egypt is called in the Scrithe antient Pharaoh, ruling by a Lievtenant, pture the Land of Ham. That this name is as great in authority as Toleph was, though far not given to it, because the Posterity of Cham did reign there, but for that himself To think that many names of such Re- did first plant it, we may gather by many and the Lord of the Countrie; besides, it is not Siculus, that Osiris calleth himself the eldest unlikely, that the vain-glorious Egyptian Son of Cham, faying, Mihi pater Saturnus Li. posterity, as ignorant men & strangers deem us antiquior germen ex pulchro & generoso orhim such, under whose hand all dispatches of tum; which must needs be understood of importance, and royal managing of the State | Cham; for this Saturnus Agyptius was Cham:

by help of the Dynasties; of whose conti- And to this summ of 191. years, if we add nuance, there is little or no disagreement. the 161. years of the 15. first Dynasties, as The account of the Dynasties (besides the they are numbred in common account, we authority of approved Authors) hath this shall fall right with the year of Abraham's good ground, that it agreeth for the most birth, which was An. Dil. 352. And hereto part, if not altogether, with the Histories of omitting many other reasons, which might the Afgrians, Trojans, Italians, &c. and others. be brought to prove that their first Dynafties The beginning of the 16. Dynastie, is joined must needs have been very short, and not by general confent, with 43. year of Ninus; in containing in the whole fumm of their fewhich Abraham was born. The twelve first veral times above 161. years; Let it suffice, Dynaflies lasted each of them seven years, un- that had they lasted longer, then either must der the twelve which were call'd the greater Egypt have been peopled as soon as Babel afgods: fo that all the years of their continu ter the Floud, or the Dynasties (as Mercator ance were 84. The 13. Dynastie endured 14. thinks) must have been before the Floud. years; the fourteenth, 26. the fifteenth, 37. That the arival at Babel, was many years be-These three last, are said to have been under fore the plantation of Egypt after the Floud, the three younger gods. So the fifteen first chough hath been said to prove; and that Dynasties lasted 161. years. As I do not the Dynasties were not before the Floud, the therefore believe that the continuance of number of the long-lived generations bethese Dynasties, was such as hath been men- tween Adam and the Floud, which was less tioned because Annius in such wise limits out | than the number of the Dynasties, may suffitheir time: so I cannot reject the account ciently witness. Or, if we will think, that upon this onely reason, that Annius hath it one life might (perhaps) be divided into fo; considering, that both hitherto, it hath many Dynasties, then may this have been as passed as currant and is greatly strengthened | well after the Floud, as before; considering by many good reasons. For, whereas Euse- that the Sons of Noah did not in every Counbius placeth the beginning of the fixteenth trie erect such form of Policy, as had been Dynastie, in the year of Abraham's birth, as used in the same ere the Deluge; but such aforefaid, the reckoning is eafily cast; by as the disposition of the people, the authoriwhich the fumm of 161. years, which, ac- ty and power of the Conductor, together cording to our account, were spent in the with many other circumstances, did induce fifteen former, being subducted out of the or enforce them to. fumm of 352, years, which were between the Floud and Abraham's birth, shew that the beginning of the first Dynastie, which was the beginning of Chams reign in Egypt, was in the year 191. As also by other probabilities the fame may appear: For it is generally agreed, that the multitude of man-kind which came into Shinaar arrived at Babel. Anno à Diluvio 131. In building the Tower were confumed upon it) no reasonable man will doubt. To this his passage therefore, and the seating of these summs being added together, to wit, one hundred thirty one years after the Floud, before they arrive at Babel, fourty

The fecond Book of the first Part

§. III.

That these Dynasties were not divers Families of Kings, but rather Successions of Regents, oft-times many under one King.

"He short continuance of the Dynasties, doth shew that they were not several 40. years, as Glycas recordeth; whose report I races of kings, as the vaunting Egyptians were have elswhere confirmed with divers proba- wont to stile them. What they were, it canbilities. That Chani was long in passing with not certainly be warranted. For in restitutihis company, their Wives, Children, Cattel, ons of decayed Antiquities, it is more easie and Substance through all Syria then deso- to deny than to affirm. But this may be faid, late, and full of Boggs, Forests, and Bryers partly upon good circumstance, partly up-(which the Deluge, and want of culture, in on the furest proof, That it was the manner one hundred seventy one years had brought of the Egyptian Kings, to put the Government of the Country into the hands of some trusty Counsellor, onely referving the Sovehimself in Egypt, we allow twenty years; and raignty to themselves, as the old Kings of France were wont to the Masters of the Palace, and as the Turk doth to the chief Visier. This is confirmed, first, by the number of years for their stay there, and twenty for the Dynasties, whereof many are under Cham, Cham's passage into Egypt, and settling there, and more than one under Osiris, or Mizraim; make up the fumm of 191. years; at which and must therefore have been successions, time we find that Cham began his reign in not of Kings, but rather of Counsellours, Egypt, in the beginning of the first Dynastie. and Regents. Secondly, by custom of such

in the Scriptures, of whom Abimelech the intending his quiet, had given his Office Philifim, in his dealing with Abraham and IJa- to another. How stangers have mistaken ae about confederation, did nothing without in this kind, the example already cited of Phicol, Captain of his Hoft; though in taking Joseph's brethren, doth sufficiently witness, Abraham's Wife, and in his private carriage, he followed his own pleafure. Likewise of rus, and Herodotus; each of whom, citing Abimelech, the Son of Gideon, it was faid: Is their relations, as good Authority, fay; Dinot be the Son of Jerubbaal? and Zebul is his officer ? Also Ishbosheth, the Son of Saul, feared Abner the Captain of the Host. Yea, David himself hating Joab for his cruelty, did not punish him in regard of his greatness, which was such, as was feared even of Hadad the Edomite, living then in Egypt. Thirdly, this is confirmed by the temper and disposition fundry Linages or forts of men. Now, by of Cham, who was lewd, as appears by the whatfoever means a Dynastie, or Regencie Scriptures: therefore likely, both by his own idleness and pleasure, to have laid the ing made an hereditary Office; or in one burthen of the Government upon others; order of men, as held by faction: fure it is, and upon jealousie, the companion of unworthiness, to have changed his Lievtenants gave the Office. But the Crown royal always often. Above all other proofs is the advance- passed by descent, and not by election; ment of Joseph by Pharaoh. For Pharaoh faid to Joseph; Onely in the Kings Throne will I be above thee : behold, I have fet thee over all the Land of Egypt. William Archbishop of Tyre, the Crown had passed by election, then who flourished about the year of our Lord, was more thousand one hundred eighty, affirms have been intralled among the reft of the 615,16, that the like, or very fame form of Govern-people, to the next successor: or enjoying ment by Vicerojs, was in his time practifed in their fathers Land, though not his Estate, ledg'd and humbly performed the duty of in Efay, it is faid of Pharaoh, I am the Son of Efa. 15. subjects unto the Caliphe; who residing in a most magnificent Palace in Cairo, did commit the charge, not onely of civil Government, but the power of making Warr and Peace, with the whole Office and Authority royal, into the Soldans hands. He that shall read in William of Tyre, the state of the Ca-

inferiour in Wisdom. gents, or Lievtenants, as Joseph was, have crept circumstances. For I think it is no where into the Lift of the Egyptian Kings, were no frange imagination. For Joseph's brethren call him, The man that is Lord of the Land, of Ham. Further, it is found in Diodorus him such, under whose hand all dispatches of tum; which must needs be understood of importance, and royal managing of the State | Cham; for this Saturnus Agyptius was Cham:

Princes borderers to Fgypt, as are mentioned | had passed, whilest that the King himself, The reports of Priests do appear in Diodoodorus and Scioftris was the nineteenth King after Menas; Herodotus, that he was the 332. after Menas; which could not have been if Menas had been Adam. Therefore we may well conclude, That the Dynasties were not fo many Races of Kings, but fuccessions of Regents, appointed by the Kings of formany continued; whether in one Family, as bethat was the Kings gift and free choice, that which (befides confent of Authours) the Scriptures also prove. For whereas Joseph bought all the Land of Egypt for Pharaoh, if Egypt, having there been in use (as he believed) ever fince the time of Joseph. He Land-lords of all Egypt, and the King himplainly shews, that the soldam of Egypt were self their Tenant. Likewise we find in not Lords of the Countrey, however they Exed. 12. that God smote the first-born of have been fo deem dibut that they acknowthe antient King.

ş. IV.

of Cham, and his son Mizraim, or Ofiris.

T Hat the fuccession of Kings began, and continued in such wise as the Table hath pla 18.51 liphe, or Meulene Edhadech, with the form of his Court, shall plainly behold the Image of loweth to shew. Egypt is called in the Scri. 17 166. 11. the antient Pharabb, ruling by a Lievtenant, pure the Land of Ham. That this name is as great in authority as Toseph was, though far not given to it, because the Posterity of Cham did reign there, but for that himself To think that many names of fuch Re- did first plant it, we may gather by many and the Lord of the Countrie; besides, it is not Siculus, that Ofiris calleth himself the eldest unlikely, that the vain-glorious Egyptian Son of Cham, faying, Mihi pater Saturnus 1.1. Priests would as easily report him a King to deorum omnium junior : also, Sum Saturni filiposterity, as ignorant men & strangers decm us antiquior germen ex pulchro & generoso or-as it is faid, that on the Monument of Ninus was an Inscription, wherin Cham was called Saturnus Agyptins. Likewife the Temple of of the time when Oficis reign ended; and that Hammon, not farr from Egypt, doth testifie, that Ham refided in those parts: And S. Hierom, in qualitonibus Hebraicis, faith, that the Farptians themselves did in his days, call their Countrey Ham; as in four feveral places in the Pfalms this Countrey is called the that I know is made thus: Lehabim the Son Land of Cham. And Ortelius, noting out of of Mizraim, called Hercules Lybius, made war Plutareb in Ofiride, that in the facrifices of the in Italy, to revenge his fathers death on the Egyptians this Countrey of Fespt was called affociates of Typhon, in the 41. year of Baleus Chemia, expounds it for Chamia, ut puto King of Assyria; before which year he had (faith he) a Chamo Noes filio, to which also made many great wars in Egypt, Phanicia, Tyhe addeth out of Isidore. Egyptum ufque hodie gris, Phrygia, Crete, Lybia, & Spain; and having Aesptiorum lingua Kam vocari; that Egypt ended his Egyptian Wars, left the Kingdom unto this day in the tongue of the Egyptians is to Orus. Thus farr Berofus, or Authours folcalled Kam. For the beginning and con- lowing Berofus. That Orus, lafe of all the tinuance of Cham's reign, the same reasons gods (as they were stilled) held the Kingmay fuffice to be alleged, which I have althe 15. first Dynasties: Neither is it strange, that the reign of Cham thould last so long were named onely, according to the feveral Ofiris, yet before Joseph's advancement. feats of the Kings.

A a 2

Jacob came into Egypt in the time of Orus the Son of Ofiris.

The death of Ofiris, when it was, none can certainly affirm. The onely conjecture dom of Is, Diodorus Siculus plainly faith; Diod Sic. ready given in proof of the time spent in and Plutarch as much, to which all Histories Plan. Lite agree. Krentzhemius hereupon inferrs, that Ifd. o fix years may be allowed to the Wars, which as 161. years; considering that sem lived Hereules made in so many countries, after the soc. Appeachad and Shelah cach above Egyptian Wars were ended: so should the 400. But strange it had been; if one Saltis death of Ofiris have been the 24. of Baleus, created by Manetho, had in those long-lived when himself had reigned 297, years. I think generations reigned there 19. years, and that Krentzhemius was a greater Scholar with Eson, Apachnas, Apochis, and others of than Souldier. For furely in those days, when the same brood, obscured the same and glo- commerce was not such as now, but all Naviry of Ofiris, orus, and Sefofiris. Remeccius in gation made by coasting, a farr longer time Histor. Julia, placeth Mizrain next, other- would have been required, to the subduing wife calledoffris, according to Diodorus; who, of fo many Countries. An allowance of more faith he, was the Son of Hammon: Krentzhe- time, though it would alter his computation, mins faith, that Mizrain and Ofiris, are words yet would it well agree with his intent; of neer affinity and found in the Hebrew which was (doubtless) to find the truth. If tongue. Howloever it be, we know that according to his account the death of Ofiris Mizraim the Son of Cham, was Lord of had been the 34. of Baleus, then must Ifrael Egypt, and Reineccius, citing good authori- have come into Egypt but 7. years before the ty in this case, affirmeth that Egypt is now death of Osiris; and have lived there in the called by the naturals in their own language, reign of Typhon: A thing not easily believed. Mezre, Neither do I fee cause of doubt whe- For it was the same King who advanced Jother Ofiris were the same with Mizraim. It is feet, bad him send for his sather, and gave him more necessary, and hard to thew manifest-, leave to go into Canaan, to the performance ly, how long Mizraim, or Ofiris, reigned. For of his fathers Funeral; as may eafily be gawhereas the year of his death is no where thered out of the Book of Genefis. Whereas precifely fet down, we must be fain to fol- therefore the reign of Osiris cannot be exlow probabilities. That he is not vainly faid | tended by any pollible allowance in account by Annius his Berofus, to have begun his of times, beyond the 7. year of Ifrael's coming reign at the birth of Abraham, when the Dy- into Egypt, we must needs cut off 23. years naftie of the Thebei began, it appeareth, first, from that number, which Krentzhemius conby the authority of Eusebius, who avouch- jectures his reign to have continued; nameeth as much; next, by Diodorus, who faith, ly, feven which he fhould have lived after that he inhabited Thebes; which habitation Jacob's coming into Egypt; nine, in which Joof Ofiris there, that it might be cause of that fepb had there flourished, ore his fathers Dynastie, I can well believe; affenting so coming; and other seven in which Typhon farr to Reineccius, who thinks the Dynasties and Hercules had reigned after the death of

> Neither will this disagree with the time of Hercules Lybius his Wars. For the War which Hercules well give not only fix years, as Krentzhemine able to the holy Text. doth, but 23, more to so many Wars, in so many, and so farr distant countries as are named before; yea, by this proportion, we may attribute unto Orus the 13. years, which pailed between the time of Joseph's being fold into Egypt, unto his advancement, confidering that Poliphar, who bought him, and whose daughter he may feem to have married, continued all that while chief Steward unto Pharaoh : a thing not likely to have been, if so violent alterations had hapned the whilest in Fgypt, as the tyrannous usurpation of Typhan mult Daniel Angelocrator giveth three years to needs have brought in. If citing fome fragment of a lost old Authour, I should confidently fay, that Potiphar, for his faithfulness to Orus the Son of Ofiris, was by him, in the beginning of his reign made his chief Scewards at which time, buying Joseph, and finding him a just man, and one under whose hand all things did prosper, he rather committed his estate into Toseph's hands, than unto any of his Egyptian followers (many of whom he had found either falf-hearted, or weak and unlucky in the troublefom days of Typhon) (know not what could be objected against cannot collect (as Krentzhemius doth) out this. Perhaps, I might proceed further, and of Eerofus, that Hercules reigned after Ftay, That when the laying of Joseph pleased phon , yet, seeing Acceptinus, a follower of Pharaoh, and all his fervants; then Potiphar, Prieft of On, being chief Officer to Pharaob, in the reign of Typhon and Hercules, 7, years did acknowledg in Joseph the antient graces were spent, howsoever divided between of God, and his injurious imprisonment; them, I gather out of Krentzhomius onely, whereupon he gave him his Daughter to who placeth the beginning of Orus feven Wife; and being old, refigned his Office of years after the death of Office; forgetting to chief Steward unto him, who afterward, in fet down his reasons, which in a matter so proregard of Potiphar, did favour the Priefts, Wars of Hercules, in which, by this reckoning, he should have spent 42. years after he lest From that Svocation of Abraham Fest, ere he began in Haly, it is a circum-time to the Edeparture out of Festpt stance which (the length of his Halian Wars confiered, and his former enterprifes and at-which fumm divers other ways may be colchievments proportioned to them) doth not lected. Since therefore to the departure out

Hercules made in Italy, is faid to have indured agreeing nor to be reconciled in fuch obscuten years: After which proportion, we may rity, otherwise than by likelihoods, answer-

€. V I.

of Typhon, Hercules, Ægyptus, Orus, and the two Schoftres, fuccepively reigning after Mizraim : and of divers Errors about the former Scholtres.

Oncerning the reign of Typhon, and of Hercules I find none that precifely doth define how long either of them continued. Typhon, omitting Hercules. But he is fo peremptory without proof, as if his own word were fufficient authority, in many points very quettionable, alleging no witness, but as it were faying Arite me agio; yet herein we may think him to speak probably, for as much as the leaned Krentzhemius affirmeth, that Hercules did very foon undertake his fathers revenge; and was not long in performing it: and that leaving Fgrpt to his brother he followed other Warrs in the same quarrel, as hath been shewed before. True it is, that I Berofus, hath it fo, I will also believe it. That bable, I think he wanted not. Now, wherewhen he bought the Lands of all other ashe alloweth 90, years of the 18. Dynafte Egyptians. This might appear to some a tale to Offris, Typhon, Hercules, and Orus; it seems not unlike the Friarly book of Aknath, Pot; that the reign of Orus lafted 115. years From phar's Daughter; but, unto fuch as confider the death of Orus, to the departure of Ifrael that God works usually by means; and that out of Fgypt, there passed 122. years by our Poliphar was the Steward of that King, under whom Jacob died; it would feem a mar- others) think that Abraham was born in the ter more probable, had it an Author of fuf- 130, year of Terah, and thereupon reckon ficient credit to avouch it. Concerning the thus: From the end of the Floud to the birth of Abraham 75 make against us, but for us: or, if it were of Fgspt, there do remain (as is aforesaid) against us, yet could it not so weaken our onely 122. years from the death of Orus; we supposition, as these probabilities collected are now to consider, how many of them are out of the indisputable truth of Scripture do to be allowed uno sessions, or sesonchosis, confirm it. Nevertheles, I freely grant, that who is placed next unto Orms, by authority all these proofs are no other, than such as of the Scholi-sfee Apollonii; not without good may be gathered out of Authours, not well probability. For this great King or Conto have entred into India: likewife with another fleet on the middle Earth Seas, to have passed into Europe, and subdued many Nati-Vexoris; For Justine placeth Vexoris in Ages before Ninus; whereby it would follow that Selostris if he were Vexoris, was more antient then was Oliris (otherwise Mizraim) a thing altogether unlikely. Certain it is, that after Pharaoh came into the land of Canaan (which lieth in the way from Egypt into Asia) till the father-in-law of Solomon, Pharaoh Vaphres, we may read more at large in the holy History of the Bible) after which time, Sesac opprefled Rehoboam, and Necho fought paffage through the Land of Ifrael, when he made his Expedition against the Chaldeans. Of King neither of them was the great King seloftris. he came into Judea with a great Army. Reihis own opinion, that he himself placeth sefostris next to Orus, following the Scoliastes Apollonii. But further answer may be made, rael abode in Egypt.

430

led Menas, Which name as also Menaus and Menis, were titles of Dignity; though miftaken by fome, as proper names. Krentzhemius doth very probably gather, that Menus was Mercurius Ter-maximus, the Hebrew querour, is by many Histories recorded to | word Meni fignifying an Arithmetician: have over-run a great part of Aka; to have which name Ter-maximus might well be built a flect of Ships on the Red Sea: and so attributed to Osiris, who was a great Conqueror, Philosopher, and Benefactor to mankind, by giving good Laws, and teaching profitable Arts. In prowefs and great underons. This is he (as Reineceius judgeth) whom takings, sefoftris was no whit inferiour to Ofi-Julline, erring in account of his time, calleth | ris . For he fought victory not for gain, but honour onely; and being well contented, that many Nations had acknowledged his power, and submitted themseves to his will and royal disposition, leaving them in a manner to their liberty, returned into Egypt. Soon the departure of Ifrael out of Egypt, no one upon his return, he was endangered by a great Treason, the house in which he was being by his own brother purposely fired; which nevertheless, he is said to have escap'd took Gerar, and gave it to his Daughter (as and to have reigned in all 30. years; after well time, he chose rather to die than to live; because he fell blind. Both Herodotus and Diodorus affirm, that Selostris left a Son, whose name was Pheron, or Pherones; who afterwards took the name of Sefoftris, but was no-Vaphres, and Necho, it is out of question, that thing like to his father in glory; for he shortly fell blind. The cause of his blindness, He-Of Sefac, it is doubted by fome, for as much as rodotus attributes to his affaulting the River Nilus with a Javelin; which tale Diodorus neccius propounding the doubt, leaveth it having likewisc heard, yet reports as a fable, undecided; unless it be sufficient proof of saying, that perhaps he took the disease naturally from his father. How long this man reigned, it is no where expressed; yet, for as much as Orus the fecond (otherwife Bufiris) to flew that they were not one.For,as Jufine who fucceeded him, began 14, years after that witnefleth, sefofris, otherwife Vexoris, made this sefofris had been King, it must need see War on people far removed, abstaining from that this reigned 14 years at least. That Buhis neighbours. Sefac came up purposely a- firis began not untill these 14. years at least gainst Hierusalem. Sesoftris, as Diodorus wit- were expired, the very account of time from nesseth, had but 24000. Horse, Sesac had the first Busiris, to the departure of Israel out 60000. Selostris had 8020. Chariots, selac of Egypt, plainly shews, being almost general-1200. seloitris made his Expedition for no ly agreed upon to have been 75. years. That private purpose, but to get a great name : Se- none came between sesostris the second, and fac, as most agree, had no other purpose than Busiris, or Orus the second, it stands onely upto succour Jeroboam, and give him counte- on probabilities, which are these: After Senance in his new reign; whom he had fa- lostris had reigned some while, he fell blind; voured even against Solomon: therefore after certain years, he recovered his sight, as Sesostris must needs have reigned whilest If- is said, which may have been true, but is more like to have been a Fable; furely the Whereas Krentzhemius collecteth out of manner of his recovery, as it is fet down, is Herodotus, and Diodorus, that one Menas, or very fabulous; namely, that by looking up-Menis, was next to Orus; because those Histo- on a woman, or washing his eyes with her rians affirm that he reigned next after the water, who had onely known her own hufgods; it moveth me nothing. For Ofiris did | band, he got his fight again. As the time of succeed those fifteen gods; namely, the his reign, before his blindness, and when he twelve greater, and three leffer; himfelf also was well again (if ever he were) may have (as the learned Reineceius noteth) being cal- taken up a good part of 14. years: fo his works, which were great, do much more strongly argue, that his reign was not very fhort. His works are largely fet down by Herodotus and Diodorus; a part of which may feem to have been the finishing of that CHAP. II. which his father had begun, about the chan- blindness of scoffris the second, how great nels and fluces of Nilus; whom, I think, he rather frighted (as his father had done) with Spades and Shovels, than with Darts and Javelins; and by his diligent over-fight of that work, was like enough to lofe both his eye-fight and his peoples love; whom his father had very bufily employed in excessive labour about it.

. VII.

of Buliris, the first oppressor of the Israelites and of his successour, Queen Thermutis that took up Mioles out of the Water.

Nd herein (if I may presume to conje-A cture) Eustris, who was afterwards King, is like to have dealt with him, as Jeroboam did with the Son of Solomon. For that Busiris himself was much addicted to magnificent works, it well appeared by the drudgery wherewith he wearied the children of Ifrael in his buildings: If therefore he were employed by the great Sefostris, as Jeroboam was by Solomon, in the overlight of those bufinefics, he had good opportunity to work his greatness with the King by industry; and afterward with the people, by incenfing them against their new King, as Jeroboam did. For what the multitude will endure at one Princes hands, they will not at anothers; unless he have either an equal spirit, or a feet, and shotty after, King in deed and title furer foundation. If moreover he fought to derive all the pain and labour of publick the blind King selostris the second oppressed works from the Egyptians to the Israelites: he furely did that to his own people which wicked Tyrant shewed his evil nature, even was very plaufible; who (as appears in Exo-Busiris sacrificing strangers. It is also a common interpretation of that place, Exod. 1. that the King who knew not Joseph, was a King of a new Family. That Busiris was of a new Family, Reineccius doth shew; who alfo thinks him an Author of the bloudy Edict. Nevertheless, true it is, that Busiris, according to all mens computation, began hisreign five years after the birth of Moses; before whose birth it is most manifest, that the Law was made, and much more, that the perfecution began; which Bunting thinks to have lasted 87. yesrs, ere the departure out of Egypt. Let us therefore confider, besides the was; and how great confidence the King did put in them, seeing Joseph ruled with such full power, that he bought all Egrpt, and all the Egyptians for bread; giving at the fame time, the best of the Land to his own father and brethen for nothing; seeing also that when the Eerptians cried out upon Pharaoh for bread, Pharaoh faid to all the Egyptians, Go to Joseph, what he faith to you do ye. If to a stranger born, lately fetcht out of prifon, a King well able to have governed himfelf, would give fuch trust, and soveraign authority; it is not unlikely that a blind Prince should do it to a man of especial reputation. For God often prospers, not onely the good (fuch as Joseph was) but wicked men also, as his instruments against the day of wrath. Therefore, perhaps, the King did (as many have done)refign his Kingdom to him, though his reign was not accounted to have begun till the death of sefoftris. But whether Busiris did usurp the Kingdom, or protection of the Land by violence; or whether the blind King refigned it, keeping the Title ; or whether Business were onely Regent whilest the King lived, and afterwards (as is acknowledged by all)King himself; it might well be said that Pharaoh's Daughter took up Moses, and that Pharaoh vexed Israel; feeing he both at that time was King in efboth. It were not abfurd for us to fay, that Ifrael: But, for as much as it may feem that the when he first arose; I think it more likely, dus ) were nothing flack in fulfilling the that Ensfirit did it, using at first the power of Kings cruelty. Now, that Oras the fecond, or a King, and shortly after the stile. Thus of Buffris, was the King that first oppressed If the 122. years which passed between the berael, and made the Edit of drowning the ginning of selostric his reign, and the depar-Hebrew children, which (faith Cedrenus) last-ture of Ifrael out of Egopt, 47. being spent; ed ten Moneths: it is a common opinion of the 75, which remain, are to be accounted to many great and most learned Writers, who Bustris, or Orm the second, and his children. alfo think that hereupon grew the Fable of Buffris himself reigned 30. years, according to Eusebius; whom very many judicious Authours herein approve. After him his daughter, who took Mofes out of the Water, is faid, by all that I have read, to have reigned 12. years. Her name was Thermutis Pharis, or Muthis, according to Cedrenus: Eusebius calls her Acencris; and out of Artabanus his History, Meris: Joseph calls her both Acenchre, and Thermutis. Epiphanius in Panario, faith, that she was honoured afterward of the Egyptians, by the name of Thermutis the Daughter of Amenoph, the Son of Pharaoh. Of this last title question might be made, and much spoken; for the Scriptures call her not

CHAP. III.

Daughter. Amenophis indeed, is fet next be- others, accounted as one, and his reign faid fore Buffris, or Orus the second, by Eusebius to have been five years. His name is called and others; but whether he were a King, or onely a Regent, I cannot conjecture. For Herodotus, Diodorus, and the antient Historians, Julia. name the Son of Sefoltris, Pheron. Perhaps his name was Pharaoh Amenophis; and his Daughter by the Egyptians called rather the Neece or Grand-child than the Daughter of Pharaoh because of the glory of sefostris and the dif-reputation of his Son. If so, and if that Busiris, or Orus the second, marrying her, pretended any title by her, then is our conecture strengthened, and then was she both Daughter, Grand-child, and Wife unto Pharaoh; and surviving him, Queen of the Land, 12. years. But if the were Daughter of Orus the second, and fifter of Athoris, or Rathoria, as many think, to whose conjecture I will not oppose mine, then may it seem, that either her brethren were degenerate, or too young to rule, when her father died.

6. VIII.

Of the two brethren of Queen Thermutis; and what King it was, under whom Moses was born; and who it was that perished in the Red Sea.

CHe had two brethren; the one was Raring the reign of Chencres, Eusebins faith, that Telegonus begat Epaphus upon Io; of which Hiftory elfewhere he reporteth other-

Pharaoh's Son's Daughter, but Pharaoh's Armais: these two Kings are by Eulebius and Armeus, otherwise Danaus; and his Pedigree thus described by Reineccius in Histor.

Telegonus: Epaphus: Lybia, who had Agenor, Belus, and Busiris.

Agyptus or Ramesses, Danaus or Armeus, exwho gave name to the Country, having expell'd his brother Danaus, reigned, and begat Lynceus, married to Hypermineftra.

pelled by his brother Egyptus, after he had reigned five years, became King of Argos in Greece: was father to Hypermnestra.

How it might come to pass, that the Nephews Sons of Epaphus should have occupied the Kingdom after Cherres, it is hard to fav: confidering that Epaphus himfelf is reported by Eusebius, to have been born in the time of Chencres. But for as much as the History of Epaphus his birth, is diversly related by Eusebins, it may suffice, that Belus the father of Danaus and Agyptus, otherwise called Armeus and Ramesses, was equally distant thoris, or Athoris, who succeeded her; from Busiris, or Orus the second, with Cherres the other Telegonus, who is onely named by the Grand-child of Chencres. And that the Eusebius; but his linage and off-spring de- Posterity of Telegonus did marry very young, scribed by Reineccius. Rathoris, after his it appears by the History of these two brefifters death, reigned nine years; after whom thren, Danaus and Agyptus; of whom the Chencres, thought to be his Son, reigned ten former had fifty Daughters, the latter years, and then perished in the Red Sea. Du- fifty Sons; perhaps, or rather questionless, by divers women; yet furely they began to beget children in their first youth: Howsoever it were, the general confent of Writers wife. After the death of Chencres (whom is, that Armens, or Danaus, did succeed Cherfome call Acencheres, but all or most do stile res; and (according to Eusebins, and good Sebμαχ, a fighter against God ) Acherres Authours approving him) reigned five years. reigned 8. years; and then Cherres 15. This Ramesses followed, who reigned 68. years. descent seems from Father to Son. In the This Ramelles, or Agoptus, is that Armele-11. year of Cherres, it is faid by Eusebius, that miamum, or Armesesmiamus, under whom, in Epaphus reigning in the lower part of Egypt, the opinion of Mercator, and of Bunting that built Memphis. This is an argument of that follows Mercator, Moses was born; and the which otherwife was not unlikely; viz. That cruel Edict made of drowning the Hebrew Egypt was greatly brought out of order by children. The length of his reign feems to the plagues which God had laid upon it, and me the chief, if not the only ground of Merthe destruction of her King and Army in the cator's opinion. For, whereas the Lord said Red Sea; else could it not have had two to Moses, Go, return to Egypt, for they are all reigning in it at once; the latter of whom, dead which went about to kill thee: Mercator or his Posterity, seems to have taken all from hereupon conceives, that it was one and the Cherres, the Grand-child of Chencres. For fame King under whom Moses was born, and whereas Armais is faid to have reigned four under whom he flew the Egyptian at the 40. years after Cherres; and Armesis one after year of his age; and fled into the wilderthis Ramesfer, who reigned so long; where- Works: yet my affent herein is with-held fore, desirous rather to hold a true Para-from him by these Reasons. First, I see all dox, than a common Errour, he placeth other Writers agree, that Cheners was King, one Alisfragmuthosis (whose name is who was drowned in the Red Sea. Secondfound in the Lift of Egyptian Kings, but ly, the place, Exod. 4. All are dead, &c. may the time uncertain wherein he reigned) in better be understood of Busins, and all his an Age 112. or 113 years, more antient children, than of one King alone. Thirdly, than others left him in: and so continuing the Catalogue of his Successions from Thenosis (whom Enseins calls Amasis) down-when Mases was 120. years old, which was wards, with no other variation of the length this Armessmann, being then King of of each mans reign than is the difference be- Egypt. Atter Ramesses, Amenophis reigned tween Manetho and Eusebius, he finds Moses 19. years; who is thought by Mercator, and born under Armesofmiamum, and Israel deli- peremptorily by Bunting pronounced, to be vered in the days of his Son Amenophis. The the King that perished in the Red Sea; of very name of Alisfragmuthosis feems to him which our Opinion being alreay laid open, with little alteration to found like Phara- I think it most expedient to refer the Kings rates, of which name one was thought to enfuing to their own times (which a Chronohave flourished, either as a King, or a logical Table shall lay open) and here to wife Man, about the time of Ifaac. For (faith speak of that great deliverance of Ifrael out he) from Alisfragmuthosis to Phragmuthosis, of Fgypt; which for many great considera-tions depending thereupon, we may not great. Mercator was a man of excellent lightly over-pais.

 $\mathrm{nefs}$ , and there abode for fear: all which Learning and Industry; and one to whom circumstances could agree with none, but the World is bound for his many notable

CHAP. III. Of the delivery of Israel out of Egypt.

§. I.

of the time of Moses Birth, and how long the Israelites were oppressed in Egypt.

time of Mofes his Birth, who in Egypt. Instrument of this, and other great Works mon, in his Greek History, the first Book; was the excellent and famous of the Highest, the different opinions are that Moses was born while Apis the third very near as many, as the men that have writ- King ruled Argos. ten of that Argument.

gustine, cites very many of their conjectures: that Moses lived after the Trojan war, is himas that of Porphyrie out of Sanchoniato, that felf of opinion, that Mofes was farr more an-Moses lived in the time of Semiramis ? But, tient, proving it by many arguments. if he did mean the first semiramis, it was but Syria, and all the parts the parts thereof abrerum natura.

Rue it is, that the History it | Appion, taken from Ptolemy, a Priest of Menfelf is generally and well des, who faith, that Mofes was born while known; yet concerning the Inachus did rule the Argives, and Amelies

The third Opinion is taken out of Pole-

A fourthisborrowed from Tatianus Assy-L. Vives, in his Annotations upon S. An- rins, who, though he cite some Authorities, Fifthly, he fetteth down the testimony of a fond conceit; for befides that the same is Numinius the Philosopher, who took Mucontrary to all Stories, divine and humane; Jeus and Moses to be one; confirming the while that Semiramir lived, the collinanded fame out of Artapanas, who confesset that Mofes was called Musaus by the Grecians; folutely ; neither were the Ammonites, or and who farther delivereth, that he was ad-Moabites, or Edomites, while she ruled, in opted by Chenephis, or Thermutis, the Daughter of Egypt; the same which Eupolemus cal-A fecond Opinion he remembreth out of leth Meris; others (as Rabanus Maurus)

CHAP, III.

vir Deo conjunctifinus, is called Alusens more, after Joseph; between whose death, Judeorum, Eusebius, in his Chronologie, finds and the birth of Moses, there were consumed that Moses was born while Amenophis ruled fixty four years, some of which time, and Prop. 5. Fgppt. The antient Manethon calls that Pha- eighty years after, they lived in great servior Thmofis: the same, perchance, which Ap- dus: They fet task-masters over them, to keep pion the Grammarian will have to be Amo- them under with burthens; and they built the fis, and elfe-where Amenophis, the father Cities Pithom and Rameles, &c. And by cruof sethofis: to whom Lyfmachus, and Cor- elty, they caused the children of Ifrael to serve, nelius Tacitus, gave the name of Bocchoris. and made them weary of their lives, by fore To me it seems most probable, that while labour in Clay and Brick, and in all work of the Saphrus, called also Spherus, or Ipherens, go-field, with all manner of bondage. All which laid verned Affiria, Orthopolis, Sicyonia; and upon them by a mastering power, and strong Ang. 118. gypto populum Dei novillimo tempore Cecro- year of Moles, and untill he wrought his civil Det pis Atheniensium Regis; Moses (taith he) led miracles in the field of Zoan, which he 2514. this fort therefore is the time of Mofes birth, man, or after our account, 2513. And beabout the end of Cecrops time. Now, Saphrus ruled twenty years; his successour Mamelus thirty years; Sparetus after him fourty years: in whose fourth year Cecrops began to govern in Attica: Ascatades followed Sparetus, and held the Empire one and fourty years. So as Moses being born while Saphrus ruled Affgria; Orthopolis Sicyonia, and Criasus Argos (for these three Kings lived at once at his birth, faith Saint three years of Cecrops his fifty years: then gyptian and Jewish Idolatry. take nine years out of the reign of Ascatades, who was Sparetus successor, those nine years Metropolis of the lower Egypt, in which their people of Ifrael out of Egypt.

Thermothes. Fuseburs also affirmeth, that by ginning some eight or nine years before the Fuseburs, in his first Book, de Bono, Moses, birth of Moses, and fifty four years, or rather raoh, which lived at Aloges birth, Thumofis, tude and misery. For, as it is written in Exo-Exst. 1. Criafus the Argives; that then (sefostris the hand, they endured to the time by the wiffecond ruling in Egypt ) Mojes was born. dome of God appointed; even from fifty For, if we believe Saint Angustine, it was four years, or not much more, after the about the end of Cecrops time, that Mofes led Ifrael out of Egypt. Educati Mofes ex Æled Ifrael out of Egypt. Educati Mofes ex Æwhen it had lafted 2370, to the eightieth 2370. the people of God out of Egypt, about the end performed in the Worlds age 2514. to-2514. of Cecrops time, King of the Athenians. In wards the end thereof, according to Codoand of his departure out of Egypt best pro- cause those things which we deliver of Eved, Saint Augustine affirms (as before re- gspt, may the better be understood, I think membred) that Moles was born, Saphrus it necessary to speak a few words of the governing Affria; and that he left Egypt principal place therein named in this Difcourfe.

6. II.

Of divers Cities and Places in Egypt, mentioned in this Story, or elfe-where in the Scriptures.

THis City, which the Hebrews call Zoan, was built seven years after Hebron. E-Augustine, as Cecrops did when he departed zekiel calleth it Taphnes, and so doth Hiere Nom. 31 Extit. 30. Egyft) it will follow that the birth of Mofes my; the Septuagint, Tanan; Josephus, Protaidis, Hin. regift) it will follow that the older affection after the name of an Egyptian Queen; An- 43.44.16. was in the nineteenth year of the Affection Saphrus; for take one yeare remaining of tonins gives it the name of Than's Hegesty twenty (for so long saphrus reigned) to pus, Thanna; and William Tyrius, Tapius. It rives is twenty (for 10 1010g Saparas regued) to pass, Laurana, and remains a frame, and which add the thirty years of Mamelus, and adjoyneth to the Land of Golen, and is the gallets. the fourty years of Sparetus, these make se- same, wherein Hieremy the Prophet was stoventy one, with which there were wasted ned to death, for preaching against the E-Zoan, or Taphnes , was, in Moses time, the added to seventy one, make eighty, at which Pharaohs then commonly resided; and not age Moses lest Egypt; and add these nine unlikely to be the same City, where Abrayears to the three years of Cecrops formerly ham in his time found him. But Eufebius out fpent, there will remain but four years of of dragonus affirmeth, that Abraham did Cecrops his fifty, and so it falleth right with read Astronomy in Heliopolis, or On, to Pha-S. Augustine's words, affirming, that towards retates King of Egrpt. Alex, Polyhistor, out of the end of Cecrops his time, Moses led the Eupolemus, hathit otherwise, saying, that Abraham instructed the Egyptian Priests, and Now, the time in which the Hebrews were not the King; both which authorities Enoppressed in Egypt, scemeth to have had be- seiteth. The Septuagint and the Vulgar Edition, for Zoan, write Heliopolis. Pagnin, Gilles of that name; the one on the fronier anticipation, because it was so called in of the lower Egypt, toward the South; the other fomewhat lower on the Easter-most branch of Nelus, falling into the Sea at Pelusium. And it may be, that Heliopolis, to the South of the River Trojan, was the fame which Vatablus and our English call Aven. Of the latter it is, that the Scriptures take certain knowledge; the same which Fomp. Mela and Plinie call Solis oppidum; Tyrius in the Holy Warr, Malbec; the Arabians, Bahalbeth ; and Simeon Sethi, Fons Solis. Of this Heliopolis, or On, was Potiphar Prieft, or Prince, whose Daughter Joseph married. In the Territory adjoining, facob inhabited, while he lived in Egypt. In the confines of this City, Onias, the High Priest of the Jews, built a Temple, dedicated to the Eternal God; not much inferiour to that of Hiern- any thing ferve to retain, what we read, falem (Ptolemy Philopater, then governing in Egypt) which stood in the time of Vestalian, and Descriptions do. In which respect I 333. years after the foundation by Onias, am driven to digress in many places, and whom Josephus fallly reporteth herein, to to interpose some such Discourse; otherwise have fulfilled a Prophecie of Esay, Chap. 19. In die illa erit Altare Domini in medio terre rity, after many others more antient, that Egypti ; In that day shall the Altar of the Lord be in the midft of the Land of Egypt. Antio- in his Preface to the Story of the Holy Land, chus Epiphanes, at the time of the building hath these words : Si enim absque locorum tyrannizing over the Jens, gave the occa- observatione res geste narrentur, ant sine To-

There is also in that City of Noph, remembred by Esay and Ezechiel, the same which Fact, 14. Hofea the Prophet calleth Moph; which later name it took from a Mountain adjoining, fo called; which Mountain Herodotus remembreth. And this is that great City, which was called Memphis; and so the Septuagint write it. It is known to the Arabians by the name of Mazar. The Chaldaans name it Alchabyr : and Tudalensis Mizraini.

on of Egypt.

Pelusium, which Vatablus, Pagnin, Junius, the septuagint they decreased not in numbers: in so much call Sais; and Montanus, Lebna; is not the as Pharaob, confidering the danger of diffame with Damiata, as Gul. Tyrius witnesseth. contented poverty, and the able bodies In the time of Baldwin the third, Pelulium of an oppressed multitude, how perillous was called Belbeis. Belbeis (faith Tyrius) que olim dicta est Pelusium; Belbeis that in times past was called Pelusium.

The City of No, the Septuagint call Diof-Exech. 30. Latablus, Junins, and our English call it polis. Of which name there are two or three on; and frolemie, Onium. There are two in Egypt. Hierom converts it Alexandria, by the future.

Bubaftus ( for fo Hierome and Zeigler do Exech 30. write it) is the same which the Hebrews call 17.

Piheleth. To make the Story more perceivable, I have added a Description of the Land of Gosen, in which the Isralites inhabited; with those Cities and places so often remembred in the Scripture : as of Taphnes, or Zoan, Heliopolis, or Bethfemes, Ballephon, Succoth, and the rest; together with Moses passage through the Delarts of Arabia the Stony. For all Story without the knowledge of the places wherein the actions were performed. as it wanteth a great part of the pleasure, fo it no way enricheth the knowledge and understanding of the Reader; neither doth in our memories; fo well as these Pictures feeming impertinent; taking for my authogreat learned man; Arias Montanus; who, sion for the creeting of this Temple in Egypt. pographia cognitione Historia legantur, adeo Lastly, there it was that our Saviour Christ confusa atque perturbata crunt omnia, ut ex Jesus remained, while Joseph and the Virgin is mibil non obscurum, nibil non difficile eli-Mary feared the violence of Herod: near ci possit; If narration (faith he) be made of which (faith Brochard) the Fountain is still those things which are performed, without the found, called Jesus Well, whose streams do observation of the places wherein they were afterward water the Gardens of Eassamm, done; or if Histories be read without Topograno where else found in Egspt. And here- phical knowledge; all things will appear so inof see more in Brochard, in his Descripti- tricate and consused, as we shall thereby understand nothing but obscurely, nor draw thence any knowledge, but with the greatest difficulty.

6. III.

Of the cruelty against the Israelites young children in Egypt; and of Moses his preservation and Education.

DUt to return to the Story it felf. It ap-Deareth, that not with standing the labour and flavery which the Ifraelites endured, yet they might be to his estate, by suggestion of the Devil, resolved to slaughter all the male children of the Hebrews, as foon as B b 2

Daughter. Amenophis indeed, is fet next be- others, accounted as one, and his reign faid fore Eufiris, or Orus the second, by Eusebius to have been five years. His name is called and others; but whether he were a King, or onely a Regent, I cannot conjecture. For Herodotus, Diodorus, and the antient Historians, name the Son of Selottris, Pheron. Perhaps his name was Pharaoh Amenophis; and his Daughter by the Egyptians called rather the Neece or Grand-child, than the Daughter of Pharaoh, because of the glory of Sesoftris. and the dif-reputation of his Son. If so, and if that Buliris, or Orus the fecond, marrying her. pretended any title by her, then is our conjecture strengthened, and then was she both Daughter, Grand-child, and Wife unto Pharaoh; and furviving him, Queen of the Land. 12. years. But if the were Daughter of Orus the second, and fifter of Athoris, or Rathoris, as many think, to whose conjecture I will not oppose mine, then may it feem, that either her brethren were degenerate, or too young to rule, when her father died.

6. VIII.

Of the two brethren of Queen Thermutis; and what King it was, under whom Moses was born; and who it was that perished in the Red Sea.

Pharaoh's Son's Daughter, but Pharaoh's | Armais: these two Kings are by Eusebins and Armeus, otherwise Danaus; and his Pedigree thus described by Reineccius in Histor.

Telegonus : Epaphus: Lybia, who had Agenor Belus and Buliris

Ægyptus or Ramesses, Danaus or Armeus, exwho gave name to the Country, having expell'd his brother Danaus, reigned, and begat Lynceus, married to Hypermine-pelled by his brother Ægyptus, after he had reigned five years, became King of Argos in Greece: was father to Hypermnestra.

How it might come to pass, that the Nephews Sons of Epaphus should have occupied the Kingdom after Cherres, it is hard to fay; confidering that Epaphus himfelf is reported by Eusebius, to have been born in the time of Chencres. But for as much as the History of Epaphus his birth, is diverfly related by Eusebius, it may fuffice, that Belus the father of Danaus and Egyptus, otherwise called CHe had two brethren; the one was Ra- Armens and Ramesses, was equally distant thoris, or Athoris, who succeeded her; from Busiris, or Orus the second, with Cherres the other Telegonus, who is onely named by the Grand-child of Chencres. And that the Eusebius; but his linage and off-spring de- Posterity of Telegonus did marry very young, scribed by Reineccius. Rathoris, after his it appears by the History of these two brefifters death, reigned nine years; after whom thren, Danaus and Agyptus; of whom the Chencres, thought to be his Son, reigned ten former had fifty Daughters, the latter years, and then perished in the Red Sea. Du- fifty Sons; perhaps, or rather questionless, ring the reign of Chencres, Eusebins faith, by divers women; yet furely they began to that Telegonus begat Epaphus upon Io; of beget children in their first youth: Howsowhich History elsewhere he reporteth other- ever it were, the general consent of Writers wife. After the death of Chencres (whom is, that Armens, or Danaus, did succeed Cherfome call Acencheres, but all, or most do stile res; and (according to Ensebius, and good Stepuze, a fighter against God ) Acherres Authours approving him) reigned five years. reigned 8. years; and then Cherres 15. This Ramesses followed, who reigned 68. years. descent seems from Father to Son. In the This Ramesses, or Agyptus, is that Armesef-11. year of Cherres, it is faid by Eusebius, that miamum, or Armesesmiamus, under whom, in Epaphus reigning in the lower part of Egypt, the opinion of Mercator, and of Bunting that built Memphis. This is an argument of that follows Mercator, Moses was born; and the which otherwise was not unlikely; viz. That cruel Edict made of drowning the Hebrem Egypt was greatly brought out of order by children. The length of his reign feems to the plagues which God had laid upon it, and me the chief, if not the only ground of Merthe destruction of her King and Army in the cator's opinion. For, whereas the Lord said Red Sea; else could it not have had two to Moses, Go, return to Egypt, for they are all reigning in it at once; the latter of whom, dead which went about to kill thee: Mercator or his Posterity, scems to have taken all from hereupon conceives, that it was one and the Cherres, the Grand-child of Chencres. For fame King under whom Moses was born, and whereas Armais is faid to have reigned four under whom he flew the Egyptian at the 40. years after Cherres; and Armesis one after year of his age; and fled into the wilderPharmutholis, or Phararates, the change is not tions depending thereupon, we may not great. Mercator was a man of excellent lightly over-pass.

CHAP. III.

pels, and there abode for fear: all which Learning and Industry; and one to whom circumstances could agree with none, but the World is bound for his many notable this Ramesfes, who reigned so long; where- Works: yet my assent herein is with-held fore, defir ous rather to hold a true Para- from him by these Reasons. First, I see all dox, than a common Errour, he placeth other Writers agree, that Chencres was King. one Alisfragmuthofis ( whose name is who was drowned in the Red Sea. Secondfound in the List of Egyptian Kings, but ly, the place, Exod. 4. All are dead, &c. may the time uncertain wherein he reigned) in better be understood of Bustis, and all his an Age 112, or 113, years, more antient children, than of one King alone. Thirdly, than others left him in: and so continuing S. Cyril in his first Book against Julian the the Catalogue of his Successor from The Apostate, saith, that Dardanis built Dardania, mosts (whom Eusebius calls Amasis) down- when Moses was 120. years old, which was wards, with no other variation of the length this Armefoliamum, being then King of of each mans reign than is the difference beEgypt. After Ramefolia, Amenophis reigned tween Manetho and Eufebius, he finds Moses 19. years; who is thought by Mercator, and born under Armesesmiamum, and Israel deli- peremptorily by Bunting pronounced, to be vered in the days of his Son Amenophis. The the King that perifhed in the Red Sea: of very name of Alisfragmutholis feems to him which our Opinion being alreay laid open, with little alteration to found like Phara- I think it most expedient to referr the Kings rates, of which name one was thought to enfuing to their own times (which a Chronohave flourished, either as a King, or a logical Table shall lay open) and here to wise Man, about the time of Isaac. For (saith freak of that great deliverance of Israel out he) from Alisfragmuthosis to Phragmuthosis, of Fgypt; which for many great considera-

CHAP. III. Of the delivery of Israel out of Egypt.

5. I.

Of the time of Moses Birth, and how long the Israelites were oppressed in Egypt.

time of Mofes his Birth, who in Egypt. very near as many, as the men that have writ- King ruled Argos. ten of that Argument.

gulling cites very many of their conjectures; that Moles lived after the Trojan war, is himas that of Porphyrie out of Sanchoniato, that felf of opinion, that Mofes was farr more an-Moses lived in the time of Semiramis: But, tient, proving it by many arguments. if he did mean the first Semiramis, it was but | Fifthly, he setteth down the testimony of a fond conceit; for befides that the fame is Numinius the Philosopher, who took Mucontrary to all Stories, divine and humane; few and Moses to be one; confirming the while that semiramir lived, the commanded same out of Artapanas, who confesseth that Syria, and all the parts the parts thereofab. Moses was called Musaus by the Grecians; folutely; neither were the Ammonites, or and who farther delivereth, that he was ad-Moabites, or Edomites, while she ruled, in opted by Chenephis, or Thermutis, the Daugh-

Rue it is, that the History it Appion, taken from Ptolemy, a Priest of Menfelf is generally and well des, who faith, that Moses was born while known; yet concerning the Inachus did rule the Argives, and Amelies

was the excellent and famous | The third Opinion is taken out of Pole-Instrument of this, and other great Works mon, in his Greek History, the first Book; of the Highest, the different opinions are that Moses was born while Apis the third

A fourth is borrowed from Tatianus Affy-L. Vives, in his Annotations upon S. Au- rins, who, though he cite fome Authorities, ter of Egypt; the same which Eupolemus cal-A fecond Opinion he remembreth out of leth Meris; others (as Rabanus Maurus) Thermother.

Furolemus, in his first Book, de Bono, Moses, birth of Moses, and fifty four years, or rather vir Deo conjunctifimus, is called Museus more, after Joseph; between whose death, Judeorum. Eusebius, in his Chronologie linds and the birth of Moses, there were consumed Enter de that Moles was born while Amenophis ruled fixty four years, some of which time, and Egypt. The antient Manethon calls that Pha- eighty years after, they lived in great fervives. 1. 3. or Thmosis: the same, perchance, which Ap- dus: They set task-masters over them, to keep pion the Grammarian will have to be Amo- them under with burthens; and they built the fis. and elfe-where Amenophis, the father Cities. Pithom and Rameles, Orc. And by cruof Setholis: to whom Lylimachus, and Cor- elty, they caused the children of Ifrael to serve,

For, if we believe Saint Angultine, it was four years, or not much more, after the about the end of Cecrops time, that Moses death of Joseph, who left the World when Aug 1.18 gypto populum Dei novissimo tempore Cecro- year of Moses, and untill he wrought his Civil. Dei. pis Atheniensium Regis; Moles (faith he) led miracles in the field of Zoan, which he of Cecrops time, King of the Athenians. In wards the end thereof, according to Codothis fort therefore is the time of Moles birth, man, or after our account, 2513. And beand of his departure out of Egypt best proved Saint Augustine affirms (as before remembred) that Moles was born, Saphrus it necessary to speak a few words of the governing Alignia; and that he left Egipt principal place therein named in this Difabout the end of Cecrops time. Now, Saphrus ruled twenty years; his fueceflour Mamelus thirty years; Sparetus after him fourty years: in whose fourth year Cecrops began to govern in Attica: Ascatades followed Sparetus, and held the Empire one and fourty years. So as Mofes being born while saphrus ruled Affiria; Orthopolis Sicyonia, and Criasus Argos (for these three Kings lived at once at his birth, faith Saint the fourty years of sparetus, these make se- same, wherein Hieremy the Prophet was stoventy one, with which there were wasted ned to death, for preaching against the Ethree years of Cecrops his fifty years: then gyptian and Jewish Idolatry. take nine years out of the reign of Ascatades, who was Sparetus successor, those nine years Metropolis of the lower Egypt, in which their added to seventy one, make eighty, at which | Fharaohs then commonly resided; and not age Moles left Egypt; and add these nine unlikely to be the same City, where Abrayears to the three years of Cecrops formerly | ham in his time found him. But Eusebius out spent, there will remain but four years of of Artapanus affirmeth, that Abraham did Cecrops his fifty, and so it falleth right with read Aftronomy in Heliapolis, or On, to Pha-S. Augustine's words, affirming, that towards retates King of Egrpt. Alex. Polyhistor, out of the end of Cecrops his time, Moles led the Eupolemus, hath it otherwise, laying, that Apeople of Ifrael out of Egypt.

oppressed in Egypt, seemeth to have had be- sebius citeth. The Septuagint and the Vulgar Thermothes. Enfebius also affirmeth, that by ginning some eight or nine years before the raoh, which lived at Mojes birth, Thumofis, tude and mifery. For, as it is written in Exo- Exel 1. nelius Tacitus, gave the name of Bocchoris. and made them weary of their lives, by fore To me it feems most probable, that while labour in Clay and Brick, and in all work of the Saphrus, called also Spherus, or Iphereus, go- field, with all manner of bondage. All which laid verned Affria; Orthopolis, Sicyonia; and upon them by a mastering power, and strong Crialus the Argives; that then ( Seloftris the hand, they endured to the time by the wiffecond ruling in Egypt ) Moles was born. dome of God appointed; even from fifty led Ifrael out of Egypt. Eduxit Moses ex A- when it had lasted 2370. to the eightieth 2370 the people of God out of Egypt, about the end performed in the Worlds age 2514, to-2514. cause those things which we deliver of Egypt, may the better be understood, I think courfe.

6. II.

Of divers Cities and Places in Egypt, mentioned in this Story, or elfe-where in the Scriptures.

"His City, which the Hebrews call Zoan, was built feven years after Hebron. E-Angustine, as Cecrops did when he departed zekiel calleth it Taphnes, and fo doth Hiere- Nam. 33. Egipt ) it will follow that the birth of Moses my, the Septuagint, Tanais; Josephus, Protaidis, Hier. 2. was in the nineteenth year of the Affyrian after the name of an Egyptian Queen; An- 43.44.46. Saphrus; for take one yeare remaining of tonius gives it the name of Thanis; Hegefip- 1919bil. twenty (for so long saphrus reigned) to pus, Thamna; and William Tyrius, Tapius. It rir.de Bel. which add the thirty years of Manelus, and adjoyneth to the Land of Gosen, and is the sail. 19,

Zoan, or Taphnes, was, in Moses time, the braham instructed the Egyptian Priests, and Now, the time in which the Hebrews were not the King; both which authorities EnEstablished Edition, for Zoan, write Heliopolis. Pagnin, Fitality, Junius, and our English call it polis. Of which name there are two or three 15, 16, On; and Ptolemie, Onium. There are two in Fgypt. Hierom converts it Alexandria, by

CHAP. III.

of the lower Egypt, toward the South; the the future. other fomewhat lower on the Eafter-most branch of Nilus, falling into the Sea at Pe-Infium. And it may be, that Heliopolis, to Pibefeth. the South of the River Trojan, was the fame which Vatablus and our English call Aven. have added a Description of the Land of Of the latter it is, that the Scriptures Gosen, in which the Isralites inhabited; with take certain knowledge; the same which those Cities and places so often remembred Pomp. Mela and Plinie call Solis oppidum; in the Scripture : as of Taphnes, or Zoan, He-Tyrius in the Holy Warr, Malbec ; the Arabi- liopolis , or Bethfemes , Balfephon , Succoth . ans, Bahalbeth; and Simeon Sethi, Fons Solis. and the reft; together with Mofes paffage Of this Heliopolis, or On, was Potiphar Pricft, through the Defarts of Arabia the Stony. or Prince, whose Daughter Joseph married. For all Story, without the knowledge of the In the Territory adjoining, Jacob inhabited, places wherein the actions were performed. while he lived in Feypt. In the confines of as it wanteth a great part of the pleasure, God; not much interiour to that of Hiern- any thing ferve to retain, what we read. falem (Ptolemy Philopater, then governing in in our memories, fo well as these Pictures Egypt) which stood in the time of Vestalian, and Descriptions do. In which respect I have fulfilled a Prophecie of Esar, Chap. 19. feeming impertinent; taking for my authobe in the midft of the Land of Egypt. Antio- in his Preface to the Story of the Holy Land, tyrannizing over the Jems, gave the occa- observatione res geste narrentur, aut sine Toon of Egypt.

bred by Efay and Ezechiel, the same which Exch 34. Holea the Prophet calleth Moph; which later name it took from a Mountain adjoining, fo called; which Mountain Herodotus remembreth. And this is that great City, which was called Memphis; and so the Septuagint write it. It is known to the Arabians by the name of Mazar. The Chaldwans name it Alchabyr ; and Tudalenlis Mizraim.

100.0.17. and our English, write Sin; the Septuagint they decreased not in numbers : in so much call Sais; and Montanus, Lebna; is not the as Pharaoh, confidering the danger of difpaft was called Pelufium.

The City of No, the Septuagint call Dief Freeh 30. Gives of that name; the one on the fronier anticipation, because it was so called in > Bubaltus ( for fo Hierome and Zeigler do Egech, 30, write it) is the same which the Hebrews call 17.

To make the Story more perceivable, I this City, Onias, the High Priest of the Jews, so it no way enricheth the knowledge and built a Temple, dedicated to the Eternal understanding of the Reader; neither doth 333. years after the foundation by Onias, am driven to digress in many places, and whom Josephus fallly reporteth herein, to to interpose some such Discourse, otherwise In die illa erit Altare Domini in medio terræ rity, after many others more antient, that Egypti ; In that day shall the Altar of the Lord great learned man, Arias Montanus ; who, chus Epiphanes, at the time of the building ; hath these words : Si enim absque-locorum fion for the creeting of this Temple in Egypt. pographia cognitione Historia legantur, adeo Lastly, there it was that our Saviour Christ confusa atque perturbata crunt omnia, ut ex Tefus remained, while Joseph and the Virgin iis nibil non obscurum, nibil non difficile eli-Mary feared the violence of Herod: near ci possit; If narration (faith he) be made of which (faith Brochard) the Fountain is still those things which are performed, without the found, called Jesus Well, whose streams do observation of the places wherein they were afterward water the Gardens of Ballamum, done; or if Histories be read without Topograno where else found in Egypt. And here- phical knowledge; all things will appear so inof see more in Brochard, in his Descripti- tricate and confused, as we shall thereby understand nothing but obscurely, nor draw thence There is also in that City of Noph, remem- anythnowledge, but with the greatest difficulty.

6. III.

Of the cruelty against the Israelites young children in Egypt; and of Moses his preservation and Education.

But to return to the Story it felf. It ap-Pelusium, which Vatablus, Pagnin, Junius, and flavery which the Israelites endured, yet same with Damiata, as Gul. Tyrius witnesseth. contented poverty, and the able bodies In the time of Baldwin the third, Pelulium of an oppressed multitude, how perillous was called Belbeis. Belbeis (faith Tyrius) que they might be to his estate, by suggestiolim dicta est Pelusium; Belbeis that in times on of the Devil, resolved to slaughter all the male children of the Hebrews, as foon as Bb 2 for Sephora and Thura, women the most famous and expert amongst them, Que preerant ( faith Comestor) multitudini obstetriwitness both the wickedness of the Egyptiwithin his Dominions.

CHAP. III.

to the Laws of Heaven and of Nature) he and the reign of Josua. ftretched out his bloudy and merciless hand to the execution of his former intent. The fame prevention Herod long after practifed. when fearing the spiritual Kingdom of christ, as if it should have been temporal he caused all the male children at that time born, to be flaughtered. And that Pharaoh had some kind of foreknowledg of the future fucces, it may be gathered by his own words, in the tenth Verse of the fifth of Exodus: Come, let us work wifely with them, left they multi-

they should be born. To which end he sent | dom of the worldly men, when forgetting the Lord of all power, they rely on the inventions of their own most feeble, and altogether darkened understanding. For even cum, who had command given them over all by the hands of the dearly beloved daughter Mid-wives; by whom(as it feemeth)he gave of this Tyrant, was that great Prophet and order to all the rest for the execution of his Minister of Gods marvellous works taken Edici. For, to have called all the Mid-wives out of Nilus, being thereinto turned off, in of Egypt together, had been a strange Parlia- an Ark of Reeds, a sucking and powerless ment. Now, whether these two (before na- Infant. And this Princess having beheld the med) were of the Hebrews, or of the Egypti- child his form and beauty, though but yet in ans, it is diversly disputed. S. Augustine calls the blouth, so pierced her compassion, as she them Hebrews, because it is written Exodus 1. did not onely preserve it, and cause it to be Jeigh and the Hebrews, because it is written Expans 1. did not onely preserve it, and cause it to be leigh and. The King of Egypt commanded the Mid-wives fostered; but commanded that it should be of the Hebrew women, &c. But Josephus, Abn- esteemed as her own, and with equal care to lensis, and Pererius believe them to be Egypti- the Son of a King nourished. And for means. Whosoever they were, when it pleased mory that it was her deed, she called the God to frustrate the execution of that se- child Moses, as it were, extrastus, or erentus. cret murther, to the end the World might taken out, to wit, out of the Water; or after Tolephus and Glycas, Moy, a voice expressing Sugar ans, and the just cause, thereby made mani- Water, and Hises, as much as to say, as that fest, of his future indignation and revenge: which is drawn out of Water, or thence Pharaob finding these Women filled with taken. Clemens Alexandrinus was of opinipiety, and the fear of God, commanded on, that Moles was circumcifed before he others of his people to execute his former was put into the Ark of Reeds, and that Amintent; and publickly, or howfoever, to rum his father had named him Joachim. In destroy all the male Hebrew children born his youth he was carefully bred, by the care, and at the charge of Pharaohs Daughter, and Now, besides the doubts, which Pharaob by men of the most understanding, taught had of the multitudes of the Hebrews, the and instructed : Quem regio more educavit, greatest part of whom be might have prafestis ei sapientibus Ægyptiorum Magiaffured, by affording them the justice stris, à quibus erudiretur, saith Basil; unto which every King oweth to his vassals, and whom she gave Princely education, appointing Phil. de the rest he might have employed, or sent over him wife Masters of the Egyptians for his Josephus and Philo) other cause of his rage against them, namely, he became excellently learned in all the do-That it was prophetically delivered him by Ctrine of the Egyptians; which also the Maran Egyptian Priest, that among the Hebrews tyr Stephen in the seventh of the Ads conthere should be born a child, who growing firmeth; And Moses was learned in all the to mansestate, should becom a plague and wisdom of the Egyptians. Which Wisdom or terror to his whole Nation. To prevent Sapience, such as it was, or at least so much which (and prefuming that he could relift thereof as Six. Senensis hath gathered, we the Ordinance of God, by a mean, contrary have added, between the death of Moles,

6. IV.

of Moses his flying out of Egypt; and the opinions of certain antient Historians of his war in Athiopia; and of his marriage there: Philo his judgment of his Pastoral life; and that of Pererius of the Books of Genesis and Job.

Hen Moses was grown to mans estate. ply; and it come to pass, that if there be Warr, Josephus and Eusebius, out of Artapazzai.5.10 they join themselves also unto our enemies, and mus, tell us of ten years Warr that he made fight against us, and get them out of the Land. against the Æthiopians; of the belieging of But we fee, and time hath told it us from seba, afterward, by Cambyfes, called Meroe; the beginning, how God derideth the wif- and how he recovered the City by the fapretty tale of Moses, how after the end of and being separate from the preass of the that Warr, Tharbis resisting his return into Egspt, Moles, most skilful in Astronomy, caused two Images to be engraven in two precious Stones, whereof the one increased memory; the other caused forgetfulness: These he set in two Rings; whereof he gave the one, to wit, that of oblivion, to his Wife Tharbis, referving the other of memory for himfelf; which Ring of forgetfulness, after she had a while worn, the began to neglect the love fhe bare her Hufband: and fo Moses, without danger, returned into Egypt. But leaving admodure bellicofa ingenia praexercent fe in these fancies to the Authours of them: It is true, that about the fourtieth year of Moses in militia, & bello perfedira sunt ; bruis praage, when he beheld an Egyptian offering violence to one of the the oppressed Hebrews, pacis tempore. At vero prafectura mansueti pemoved by compassion, in respect of his brother, and stirred up by disdain against the tis; ideoque Reges cognominantur Pastores poother, in the contention he flew the Fgyptian. pulorum, non contumelia, sed bonoris gratia; Soon after which fact, finding a disposition The art of keeping Sheep is as it were, an introin some of his own Nation to accuse him, for duttory exercise unto a Kingdom, namely, the whose defence, he had thus greatly endan- rules over men, the most gentle flock: Even as gered his own life: by the ordinance and warlike natures do before-hand exercise themadvice of God, whose chosen servant he was, selves in hunting, practifing on wild beafts those he fled into Arabia Petraa, the next border- things which after they will accomplish in waring Countrey to Egypt; where wandering fare: those brute beafts affording matter whereall alone, as a man left and forsaken, in a into train themselves, both in time of war and place unknown unto him, as among a Nation of peace. Ent the government of gentle cattel. of barbarous strangers; and who in future hath a kind of resemblance unto a Kingly rule times, were the irreconcileable enemies of over subjects; therefore Kings are stiled Sheepthe Hebrews : it pleased God (working the herds of the people, not in way of reproach, but greatest things by the weakest worldly for their honour. means) to make the watering of a few sheep, and the affifting of the Daughter of Raguel the Madianite, an occasion whereby to provide him a Wife of one of those, and a father-in-law, that fed him, and sustained him in a Countrey nearest Egypt, fittest to return from; necessary to be known, because interjacent between Egypt and Judaa, through I cannot deny the reason of Pererius conjewhich he was to lead the Ifraelites; and cture, That by the example of Jobs patience wherein God held him, till the occasion he might strengthen the oppressed Hebrews: which God presented best served. And lastly, and by the promises of God to Abraham, Isawhere the glory of the world shined least, ac, and Jacob, put them in assurance of their amidst mountainous Desarts, there the glory delivery from the Egyptian slavery, and of of God, which shineth most, covered him the Land of rest, and plenty, promised. over, and appeared unto him, not finding him as a Kings Son, or an adopted child of great Pharaoh's Daughter, but as a meek and which he performed, thereby to perswade humble Shepherd, fitting at a mountains Pharaoh, that he was the messenger of the confumed 40. years; and though (as Philo in the Story of Moles life observeth) he did it is to be noted, that when Moles defired to viz.14. not neglect the care of those flocks, commit- be taught of God, by what name he should & 15. ted to his charge, but that he excelled all make him known, and by whom he was fent;

Beafts onely.

your of Tharbis, a Daughter of Æthiopia, others in that Pastoral knowledge; yet in whom he took to Wife. So hath Comeftor a that folitary Defart, he enjoyed himself: world, and the troublesome affairs thereof; he gave himself to contemplation, and to make perfect in himfelf all those knowledges, whereof his younger years had gathered the grounds and principles: the fame Authour also judging that his Pastoral life did excellently prepare him for the execution of the Principality, which he afterward obtained. Eft enim (faith Plato) ars Pastoralis, quali preludium ad regnum, hoc est, ad regimen hominum, gregis mansuetissimi. Quemvenationibus, experientia in feris, quod postea bentibus materiam exercitii, tam belli quam coris habet quiddam simile cum regno in subdi-

of the History of the World.

That Moses, in the time of his abode at Madian, wrote the Book of Job, as Pererius fupposeth, I cannot judge of it, because it is thought, that fob was at that time living. Neither dare I subscribe to Pererius opinion, Perer is That Moses, while he lived in that part of c.z. Exod. Arabia wrote the Book of Genesis; although

Of his calling back into Egypt by the Angel of God, and the marvels and wonders foot, a keeper and commander of those poor most High, the particulars are written in the first fourteen Chapters of Exodus; and there-In that part of Arabia near Madian, he fore to treat of all the particulars therein contained, it were needless. But for the first, comprehend of his infinite and ever-being before, he first yielded but to the departure Nature. Out of which he delivered him in of the men; then of the men, women, and the first part of his Answer, a name to be con- children, referving their bestial; but he was fidered of by the wifeft; and in his second, now content for the present, that the Israelits to be understood by all. For, there is no- should not onely depart with all their own, thing that is, or hath being of it felf, but the but with a part of the Silver, Gold, and Eternal: which truly is, which is above all, Jewels of his own people: of which (the which is immutable. The bodies of men are fear being paft) he fuddenly repented him, changed every moment; their substance as his pursuit after them proved. For, when walteth, and is repaired by nutriment; ne- every one of the Hebrews had (according ver continuing at one stay, nor being the to direction from Aloses received) slain a fame fo long as while one may fay. Now. Lamb, without foot or blemith, for the Pass-Likewife, whatfoever is confumed in the over (a Sacrament of the most clean and unlongest continuance of time, the same, in spotted Saviour) and with the bloud thereevery shortest piece of time suffereth decay; of coloured the post and lintern of the neither doth any thing abide in one state. doors; the Angel of God in the night smote Una est Dei, & sola natura qua verè est: id every first-born of Egypt, from the Son of enim quod subststit, non habet aliunde, sed suum the King, to that of the Beggar and Slave: potest rursum non esse, quod non fuit; It is the being more than ever amazed, yielded, as agreeth: Tota rerum natura umbra est, aut in- other harms. anis, aut fallax : The whole nature of things is but a shadow, either empty or deceitfull: in comparison of whom (faith Esay) all Nations are nothing, less than nothing, and meer vanity.

CHAP. III.

Of the ten Plagues wherewith the Egyptians were strucken, the first was by changing the Rivers into bloud; God punishing them by those waters, into which their forefathers the water fay, Lord, thou art just, which art, and which wast; and holy, because thou hast judged these things; for they shed the bloud of given them blond to drink.

Flies, or stinging Wasps; by the death of he received from God to much as man could force) flood upon no condition; whereas eft. Cutera one creata funt, etiamli videntur the children of the Ifraelites excepted. At esse, non sunt, quia aliquando non fuerunt, & which terrible judgment of God, Pharaoh one and onely nature of God, which truly is: before is faid, to their departure. The Egyfor he hath his being of himself, and not from Ptians (faith Epiphanius) did, in after-times, Evich !! any thing without kim. Other things that are imitate this colouring with bloud, which the cont. He created, although they feem to be, yet they are Ifraelites used after the Pasover; ascribing reli not; for sometimes they were not; and that an exceeding virtue to the Red Colour: which hath not been, may again want being, and therefore they did not onely mark their And with this, in respect of the divine Na- Sheep and Cattel, but their Trees bearing ture, the faying of Zeno Eleates excellently Fruit, to preserve them from lightning, and of Pharaoh's pursuit of the Israelites; and of their passage towards the Red Sea, so farr as Succoth.

6. V.

7 Ow, when the people were removed, and on their way(his heart being hardhad thrown, and in which they had drown- ned by God) he bethought him as well of ed, the innocent children of the Hebrews. the honour loft, as of the shame remaining To which this place of the Revelation may after fo many Calamities and Plagues, in sufbe fitly applied: And I heard the Angel of fering them to depart with the spoils of his people, and in despight of himself. And having before this time great Companies of Souldiers in readiness, he consulted with thy Saints and Prophets, and therefore hast thou himself, what way the Israelites were like to take. He knew that the shortest and fairest The rest of the Plagues by Froggs, Lice, passage was through the Countrey of the Philistims. But because these people were their Cattel; by leprous Scabs; by Hail and very ftrong, and a warlike Nation, and (in Fire; by Grashoppers; by Darkness; after all probability) of his Allies, he suspected which, Pharaoh forbad Moses his presence : that Moses meant to find some other out-let, moved the hardened heart of the unbe- to wit, through the Defart of Etham; and lieving King, no longer than the pain and there, because the Countrey was exceeding peril lasted; till such time as his own first- mountainous, and of hard access, and that born, and the first-born of all his Nation Mojes was pestered with multitudes of Woperished. He then, while he feared his own men, Children, and Cattel, he thought it life (a time wherein we remember God per- impossible for the Ifraelites to escape him and 147 thered together all the Chariots of E- of the Passover, he appointed a general Afthe antient manner to fight in thoseChariots. armed with broad and tharp hooks on both fides, in fashion like the Mowers Sythe. Which kind of fight in Chariots, but not hooked, the Britains used against the Romans, while they made the Warr for the ture, or to destroy them in Gosen; and reit is written in the first of Exodus, he doubted two things, either that the Hebrews might Land; or, being so multiplied, as they were, Enemy at hand. Now, as Atofes well knew that he went out with a mighty hand, and that God guided his understanding in all ditch, crying for help, but using the understanding which God had given him, he left nothing unperformed becoming a wife man, and a valiant and skilfull Conductor; as by his death, well appeared.

enraged against him, and commanded him them and other Nations, in ordering the acnot to dare to come thenceforth into his count of time.

that way. In the mean while, having ga-| presence: after that he had warned thrack east, and fix hundred of his own, and Cap- fembly, or Kendez-cons of all the Hebrews rouse over them; he determined to fet up- at Ramefes, in the Territory of Cofen; a The Terri on them in the plains of Gofen, which way City standing indifferent to receive from Gofen was foever they turned themselves. For it was all parts of the Countrey, the dispersed alterward Hebrems; and gave commandment, that meles after every Family should bring with them such the nan ftore as they had of Dough, and Paste, not of this Ci-fraying to make it into Bread; knowing peaceth in then that Pharaoh was on foot, and on his Gen. 47.00 way towards them. Which done, and ha- Ramb. 33. conquest of this Land. Of this Army of ving considered the great strength of Pha-Tharaoh, Josephus affirmeth, that it consist- raoh's Horse-men and Chariots, of which ed of 50000. Horse, and 20000. Foot; kind of defence Moses was utterly unprowhich, were it true, then it cannot be vided (though, as it is written, the Ifradoubted, but that Pharaeh intended long elites went up armed) he marched from before to affail the Hebrews at their depar- Rameles East-ward, towards the Defarts of Etham, and encamped at Succoth; which fuled them pallage, till such time as he had he performed on the fifteenth day of the prepared an Army to fet on them. For, as Moneth Abib; which Moneth, from that time forward, they were commanded to account as the first Moneth of the year. Whejoin themselves to his enemies within the ther in former times they had been accustomed to begin their year in some other might leave his fervice, and get themselves Moneth, following the manner of the Egymight leave his tervice, and get themselves primes, and were now re-called by Mofes to Evolusis thence at their pleasure. But the plagues primes, and were now re-called by Mofes to Evolusis 16.6-34. which God grieved him withall, enforced the rule of their fore-fathers, it is uncerhim, at this time, to give an affent to their tain. Certain it is, that they had, and redeparture; perchance fore-running his in-tent. But were it otherwise, and Josephus year, which was not now abrogated, but partial in this affair, yet, by the words of rather, by some solemnities thereunto anthe Text it appeareth, that he gathered all nexed, was confirmed, and still continued the Chariots of Egypt, which could not be in use. Wherefore in referring things done, done in haste. For Moses made but three or happening among them, unto the bedays march, ere Pharaeh was at his heels; ginning, middeft, or ending of the year; and yet the last day, he went on 16. miles: that distinction of the Sacred and the Poliwhich in fo hot a Countrey, and to drive tick year is not to be neglected. Concerntheir Cattel and Sheep with them, peftered ing the number of days in every Moneth, with a world of Women and Children, was and the whole form of their year, like a march witnessing the dread of a powerfull enough it is, that Moses himself in fourty years space, did sufficiently instruct the Priests, to whose care the ordering thereof (as common opinion holds) was given his enterprizes; so he lay not still in the intrust; but that any rule of framing their Kalendar was made publick, before the captivity of Babylon, I do not find. Now, because time and motion begin together, it will not, I think, be any great breach all his actions and counsels, from this day to of order, to shew here, at their first setting forth, what was the form of the He-When Moses perceived that Pharaoh was brew year; with the difference between

6. VI.

12. February.

Of the Solary and Lunary years; and how they are reconciled; with the form of the Hebrew year, and their manner of interralation.

The Hebrew Moneths are thus named. The First Moneth, Nifan, or Abib. 1. March II. Far, or Tiar, Zio, or Zin. 2. April. 3. Alay. III. Sivan or Sinan, or Siban. 4. June. IV. Tanuz. V. Ab. 5. July. 6. August. VI. Ebul. VII. Tifri, or Ethavin or Ethanim. 7. September. VIII. Marchefuan, or Mechafuan, or Ant. 1.c. 4. Bul, or with Josephus, Morfonane. 38. October. 9. November. IX. Chiflen, or Callen. ic. December. X. Tebeth, or Thebeth. XI. Sebeth, or Sabath. 11. January.

XII. Adar, and I'e Adar.

T 7E Adar, was an intercalary Moneth. added fome years unto the other twelve, to make the Solary and Lunary year agree; which (befides the general into the Winter season, to the great confusion into any certain rule. of all account) was more necessarily to be his place in the feafon of the year.

on of the Moon, by which they divided the the year into twelve parts, subdividing the Moneth into 29, days and nights, and those again into their quarters and hours. But as the marks of time are fenfibly and eafily dif- 32.0 is cerned; fo the exact calculation of it is very intricate, and worketh much perplexity in the understanding. Twelve revolutions of the Moon, containing less time by 11.days. or thereabout, than the yearly course of the Sun through the Zodiak, in the space of fixteen years, every Moneth was found in the quite contrary part of the year, to that wherein it was placed at the first. This caused them to add some days to the year, making it to confift of twelve Moneths, and as many days more, as they thought would make the courses of the Sun and Moon to agree. But herein were committed many new errours. For neither did the Sun determine his yearly revolution by any fet number of whole days: neither did the Moon change always at one hour; but the very minutes and leffer fractions were to be observed by convenience that would otherwise have him, that would seek to reduce their motirifen, by cafting the Moneths of Summer in- ons (which motions also were not still alike)

Here lay much Wisdom, and deep Art. regarded of the Hebrews, because of the di- which could not soon be brought to pervine Precept. For God appointed especial section. Yet, as making an estimate at ran-Feasts to be celebrated precisely in such a dom, the Athenians held the year to contain Moneth of the year, and withall on a fet day, thee hundred and fixty days; wherein most both of the Moon, and of the Moneth: as of the Greeks concurred with them. That the Feaft of the First-fruits, the new Moons, three hundred and fixty days filled up the and the like; which could not have so been Grecian year ( besides many collateral kept, if either the day of the Moon had fallen proofs) it is manifest by that which Pliny di-Phin life in some other part of the Moneth, or the rectly affirmeth, telling of the Statues, erect-cap. Moneth it self been found far distant from ed in the honour of Demetrius Phalereus, which were (faith he) 260, whileft as yet Other Nations, the better to observe their the year exceeded not that number of days. Solemnities in the due time, and to ascertain By this account, neither did any certain age all reckonings and remembrances (which of the Moon begin or end their Moneths; is the principal commodity of time that is, neither could their Moneths continue many the measure of endurance) were driven in vears in their own places; but must needs like manner to make their years unequal, be shifted by little and little, from Winter to by adding fometimes, and fometimes abating Summer, and from Summer to Winter, as one or more days, as the errour committed the days forgotten to be inferted into the in foregoing years required. The errour Almanack by men, but not forgotten by the grew at first, by not knowing what number superiour bodies in their courses, should ocof days made up a compleat year. For cupy their own rooms in their due turns. though by the continual course of the Sun, Now, because the solemnity of the Olympian caufing Summer and Winter duly to succeed games was to be held at the full Moon, and each other, it is plain enough, even to the withall, on the fifteenth day of the Moneth most savage of all people, when a year hath Hecatombaon (which answereth in a manner passed over them; yet the necessity of or- to our June) they were carefull to take dinary occurrences, that are to be numbred order, that this Moneth might ever begin by a shorter tally, makes this long measure with the new Moon; which they effected by of whole years infufficient for the smaller adding some two days to the last Moneth of fort of more daily affairs. Therefore men ob- every year; those games being held once in terved the Monethly confpicuous revoluti- four years. This intercalation sufficed not them for times to omit one day in the fourth dies, reduced the year unto the form which year, which was the fecond of the Moneth is now in use with us, containing 365, days Exdromion (agreeing nearly with our Au- and 6. hours, which hours in four years, make enft) sometimes not to omit it, or (which is all | up one whole day, that is intercalated eveone) to infert another for it in their fourth | ry fourth year, the 24. of February. The cor-Lunary year, accounting by the Moon, after rection of the Julian y, ar by Pope Gregory a manner that was not yulgar. All this not- the 13. Anno Dom. 1582, is not as yet enterwithflanding, their Moneth of June would tained by general confent; it was indeed every year have grown colder and colder, but as a Note added unto the Work of Casar; had they not fought to keep all upright, by yet a Note of great importance. For whereintercalating in each other Olympiad, that is, as it was observed, that the Sun, which at each eighth year one whole Moneth, which the time of the Nicene Council An. Dom. 234. they called the second Polideon or December; entred the Aguinostial on the 21, day of which was the device of Harpalus, who also March was in the year 1583, ten days sooner taught them to make one Month of 29. days, another of 30 days & fo fuccessively through of the Kalendar ten days following the 4, of the whole year. Thus, with much labour, odoler; to that in fread of the fifth day, was they kept their year, as near as they could, unto the high way of the Planets; but these marks, which they observed, were found at trance into Aries, were again celebrated in length to be deceitfull guides. For it was not fuch time, as at the Nicene Council they had possible so to fashion this eighth years inter- been. And the better to prevent the like alcalation, that it should not deceive them in terations, it was by the Council of Trent or-11. hours and 18. minutes at the leaft or fome dained, that from thence forward, in every ways in 34 hours and 10 minutes, or 36, and hundred year, the Leap-day should be omit-41. minutes; which differences, would in ted, excepting still the fourth hundred; befew Ages, have bred much confusion. The cause the Sun doth not in his yearly course first that introduced a good method, likely take up full fix hours above the 365, days; to continue, was Meten the Athenian, who, but faileth fo may minutes, as in 400, years not regarding the Olympiads and the eighth make about three whole days. years intercalation, devised a Cycle of 19. years, wherein the Moon, having 235, times brews used, was such as neither did need any run out her circuit, met with the Sun in the nice curiofity of hours, minutes, and other fame place. & on the fame day of the year; as in the 19, year before past she had done. This summing up the days of the whole year, neinvention of Meton, was entertained with great applause, and passing from Greece to Rome, was there inserted into the Kalendar in Golden Letters, being called, The Golden Moneth, was at the new Moon; and pecause Number, which name it retaineth unto this that day was Festival, they were very careday. Hereby were avoided the great and full, as well to observe the short year of the uncertain intercalations that formerly had Moon, patling through all the 12. Signs in been used; for by the intercalation of seven one Moneth as that longer of the Sun, which Months, in the 19 years, all was so even that is needfully regarded in greater accounts, no fentible difference could be found. Yet First, therefore they gave it to Nisan, their that error which in one year could not be first Moneth, which is about our March, or perceiv d was veryapparent in a few of those | April, 30. days to Jar, their second Moneth Cycles: the new Moons anticipating in one 29, days, and so successively 30, to one, 29, to Cycle 7. hours, and some minutes, of the pre- another. Hereby it came to pass, that every cife rule. Therefore Calippus devised a new two Moneths of theirs contain'd somewhat e-Cycle, containing four of Metons, that is to venly two revolutions of the Moon, allowing fay, 76. years; and afterwards, Hipparchus, a 29. days 12 hours, and odd minutes, from noble Astrologer, framed another, containing change to change. The spare minutes were four of Calippus his Periods, each of them bestowed among the superstuous, or Epact finding some errour in the former Observa- days which made up seven Moneths in 19. tions, which they diligently corrected. The years; to fix of which feven were commonlast reformation of the Kalendar, was that ly given 30. days, to one of them 29. days, which Julius Casar made, who, by advice of or otherwise as was found requisite. Their

to make the matter even; which caused examining the courses of those heavenly bofound, in that time Pope Gregory Strook out written the fifteenth; by which means the movable Feafts depending on the Sun's en-

201

But the Cycle of 29, years, which the Heleffer fractions to help it; neither did in glect the days of the Moon confounding one Month with another For with them it fel out fosthat always the Kalends, or first day of the the best Mathematicians, then to be found, common year (as appeareth by the several days

CHAP. III.

which fail of the year, wherein the Sun finish- opinion, which prevents such dislocation of eth his course, 11. whole days, with some the Moneths, by setting down a more convefractions of time. But these days, and other nient way of intercalation in the 8. year. For broken pieces, howfoever they were ne- the 6. days remaining after the two former glected in one year, yet in the Cycle of 19. intercalations made in the third and fixth years, were so disposed of by convenient in- years, added unto the 22. days, arising out of commonly on the same hour of the day, it, 19. years before. Heb. lib 3. of the Hebrew year, with the manner of their intercalations. Sigonius tells us, that every fecond year, they did add a Moneth of 22. days; every fourth year a Moneth of 22. in regard of 11. days and a half wanting in 12. Moons, to fulfill a year of the Sun. But herein Sigonius was very much deceived. For the Moon doth never finish her course in 22. or 23, days; and therefore to have added fo many days to the end of the year, had been the way to change the fallion of all the Moneths in the years following which could not have begun, as they ought, with the new Moon. Genebrard faith, that every third year, the intercalation was (if it be worthy of confideration) me thinks they do not probably year; at which time, besides the intercalary > at the end of the Cycle, makes all even. Whether this were the practice, I can neither affirm nor deny; yet furely it must needs have bred a great confusion, if in the 18. year every Moneth were removed from his is, half a quarter of a year and more 5 which turning another way, did frustrate. Second-lowed Me-

Moneth of 29. days, that being intercalated

Moneth, remained fix days, namely, three fur-days of each Moneth) contained 354. days, | voidable. Wherefore I preferr the common tercalations, that still at the end of the Cycle, the Epads of the 7. and 8. years, do fitly serve both the Sun and Moon were found on the to make up a Moneth, with the borrowing fame day of the year Moneth, and week, yea, of one day or two from the year following; and this borrowing of two days is fo farr where they had been at the beginning of from causing any disorder, that indeed it helps to make the year enfuing vary the less Divers have diverily fet down the form from the proper season of every Monerh. This may fuffice to be spoken of the Hebrero Moneths and years, by which they guided their accounts.

6. VII.

Of the passage of Israel from Succoth towards the Red Sea; and of the divers ways leading out of Egypt.

Rom Succeth, in the morning following, Moles led the Ifraelites towards the Defart of Etham, to recover the Mountain foot, by the edge of that Wilderness, though he or second year, as need required, they did intended nothing less than to go out of that intercalate one Moneth, adding it at the way, of all other the nearest. But being afyears end unto the other 12. This I believe fured of the multitude of Horse-men and to have been true; but in which of the years armed Chariots that followed him, he kept himself from being encompassed by keeping the rough and mountainous ground on his deliver, who keep all farr from evenness, un- left hand. At Etham he rested but one night, till the very laft of the 19 years. For (to omit and then he reflected back from the enfuch as erre grofly) fome there are who fay, trance thereof, and marched away directly that after three years, when besides the days towards the South; the distance between it front in 36. courses of the Moon, 33. days and Succoth being about eight miles. That are left remaining, that is, 11. days of each he forbare to enter Arabia, being then in year; then did the Hebrews add a Moneth of fight thereof, it seemeth to proceed from 30. days; keeping three days, asit were, in three respects: the first two, natural; the plussage unto the next account. The like, third, divine. For, Pharaoh being then at fay they, was done at the end of the fixth | hand, and having received intelligence of the way which Moses took, perswaded himfelf, that the numbers which Moses led, conmounting that Month, and the Epact of three lifting of above a Million, if not of two Milyears, besides the three formerly reserved. lions of Souls (for it is written, Exed. the 12. Thus they go on to the 18. year; at which Great multitudes of fundry forts of people ment out with them) could not possibly pass over time they have 18. days in hand: all which, those Defart and high Mountains with so It is prowith the Epact of the 19, year, make upa great multitudes of Women, Children, and all those Cattel but that at the very entrance of that Egyptions fastness he should have overtaken them, and and others brought destroyed the greatest number of them. For by the Hethese his own words, They are tangled in the bremstoche Land, the Wilderness hath shut them in, do of the true own place by the diftance of 48. days, that | shew his hopes and intents; which Moles, by God, fol-inconvenience, by fuch a reckoning, was unally, Moses by offering to enter Arabia that departure (milling Mofes there ) his pursuit after him fear, Which, faith the Book of Wildom, is the with his Chariots was more difficult, by rea- betraying of those succours which reason offer-Mountain foot on the left hand, they were strength and multitudes. better fecured from the over-bearing violence both of Horse and Chariots. Thirdly, Moles contidence in the All-powerfull God was such, by whose Spirit, onely wise, he was of their passage over the Red Sea; and of the directed, as he rather made choice to leave the glory of his deliverance and victory to Almighty God than either by an escape the next way, or by the strength of his multiand Baalzephon towards the South; the same which Orofins calleth Climax: on the top whereof there stood a Temple, dedicated to Baal. And, as Phagins noteth, the word fo compounded, is as much to fay, as, Dominus specula, sive custodia; Lord of the watchrespect of tower. For the Egyptians believed, or at least made their flaves believe, that if any of them offered to escape that way into Arabia, this Idol would both arrest them, and force them to return to their Lords and Masters. For the Feyptians had gods for all turns. Egyptii dis facundi; The Egyptians were fruitfull in gods, faith S. Hierom. But Moses, who encamped at the foot of this Mountain with a million of Souls, or, as others conceive, with two millions, found this Lord of the Watchtower afleep, or out of countenance.

Now, these two passages, leading out of Egypt into Arabia upon the firm Land, Moles refused, as well that of Pelusium and Casiotis, the fairest and shortest of all other, in respect of Judea, as the other by Etham, from which he reflected, for the reasons before remembred, and took the way by the Valley of Pihacheroth, between the Mountains, which made a streight entrance towards the Sea. After whom Pharaoh made so great speed way, drew Tharaoh toward the East-side of Moses charge, that themselves foresaw those the Land of Gosen, or Rameses: from whence perils in which they were wrapped. And fon of the roughness of the way; and how- eth, made them both despair in God's former Chap. 17. foever, yet while the Hebrews kept the Promifes, and to be forgetfull of their own

s. VIII.

Red Sea it felf.

DUt Moses, who feared nothing but God himfelf, perswaded them to be confident tude. confisting of 600000. men, to cast the in his goodness, who hath never abandoned fuccess upon his own understanding, wise those, that affuredly trusted in him; using conduction, or valour. The third day he this comfortable and resolved speech: Fear Exodits. marched with a double pace from Etham to- not, &c. for the Egyptians whom ye have feen 13. wards the Valley of Pihacheroth, fixteen miles this day, ye shall never fee them again. The Lord diftant; and fate down between two ledges fall fight for you. After which, Moses called of Mountains adjoining to the Red Sea, to on God for fuccour, received encouragewit, the Mountains of Etham on the North, ment, and commandment to go on, in these Exad. 14. words; Wherefore cryest thou unto me? Speak 16. unto the children of Ifrael that they go forward; and lift thou up thy Rod, and firetch out thy hand upon the Sea, and divide it, and let the children of Ifrael go on dry ground through the midst of the Sea. Moles obeying the voice of God, in the dark of the night, finding the fands uncovered, past on towards the other fide and coast of Arabia; two parts of the night being spent ere he entred the Foord, which it pleased God by a forcible Eastern Wind, and by Moses Rod, to prepare. Pharaob followed him even at the heels.

finding the same dry ground which Moses trod on. Therefore ss it is written: The Angel of God which ment before the Hoft of Ifrael, removed, and went behind them; also the Pillar of the cloud went from before them, and flood behind Josus 14. them; which is, that it pleased God therein, eitherby his immediate power, or by the miniftry of his Angel, to interpose his defence between the Hebrews and their Enemies; to the end that the Egyptians might hereby be blinded, in such fort, as they could not purfue Ifrael with any harmfull speed. But in the morning-watch, Mofes feized the other bank of Arabia fide; and Pharaoh (as the dawn of the day began to enlighten the obscure air) with his Horse-men and Chariots, as he gave finding a beginning of the Sea's return, hastthe Hebrews no time at all to rest them after ed himself towards his own Coast: But Mofo long a march; but got fight of them, and les stretched forth his hand, and the Sea rethey of him, even at the very brink and wash | turned to his force, that is the Sea, moved by of the Sea; in so much as the Hebrews being the power of God, ran back towards the terrified with Pharaoh's fudden approach, Land with unrefittible fury and swiftness, began to despair, and to mutiny, at that time and overwhelmed the whole Army of Phawhen it behooved them most to have taken | raoh, so as not one escaped. For, it is writcourage for their own defence; laying it to | ten, that God took off their Chariot wheels, that is, when the waters began to cover the 1 where with Illands, but afterwards it extendfands, the Feyptians being strucken with fear eth it self 58, leagues from coast to coast and of death, ran one athwart another, and mif- it runneth up between Arabia the Happy, and fing the path by which they had past on after Arabia Petrae on one side, and Athiopia and the Hebrews, their wheels stuck fast in the Egypt on the other, as farr as Sues, the uttermud and quick-fands, and could not be most end and indraught of that Sea; where drawn out; the Sea coming against them the Turk now keeps his fleet of Gallies. The with supernatural violence.

lowing the Opinions or old Traditions of wards Sues, and where Moles past, is called the Hebrews, conceived, that after Moles had by the power of God divided the Red Sea, and that the children of Israel were fearfull to enter it. Aminadab, Prince, or Leader of it was called Hero, many years. The Arabians the Tribe of Judah, first made the adventure; and that therefore was that Tribe, ever after honoured above the rest, according to the Prophecie of Jacob, Gen. 49.8. Thy fathers Sons shall bow down unto thee. But Hierome, upon Hojea 11. condemns this Opinion, And though it be true, that Judah had the first place in all their miracles in the Desart, and, as we now call it, led the Van-guard (whereupon it may be inferred, that he also led the way through the Red Sea) yet, that Moles himself was the Conducter of Israel at that time, it is generally received. For, it is written in the 77. Psalm; Thou didst lead thy people, like Sheep, by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

The Hebrews have also another fancie, that the Red Sea was divided into twelve parts, and that every Tribe past over in a path apart, because it is written in the 135. Pfalm, according to the vulgar: Divifit Mare Rubrum in divisiones; He divided the Red Sea in divisions. Also that the bottom of the Sea became a green Field, or Pasture. But Origen, Epiphanius, Abulensis, and Genebrard, favouring this conceit, had forgotten to confider, that there were not twelve Pillars, nor twelve Armies of the Egyptians. It is written. Pfalm 77. v. 16. Thy way is in the Sea; not thy ways: and in the last Book of Wisdom, vers.7. In the Red Sea there was a way.

Now, this Sea, through which Moles past. Land of Æthiopia, hath not above fix leagues beams, give a kind of redish lustre to the breadth, and the same also filled every waters. Thirdly, those Portngals report, and Cosmographers commonly give it the name of Lyranus, upon Exod. 14. and others, fol- the Arabian Gulf; but the North part to-Heropolites, of the City Hero, fometime Troy, and of later times Sues. Pliny calls it Cambifu, Plin . .. by which name it was known faith he before 23. call this Sea towards the North, Apocopa, Eccant, and Eant. Artemidorus writes it Æleniticum; King Juba, Leniticum; others more properly, Elaniticum, of the Port and City Elana, 701, 4n. which the Septuagint call Elath ; Ptolemy, Ela- 8, cap. :. na; Pliny, Lena; Josephus, Ilana; and Marius Niger, Aila: there is also Ilalah in Affria, to which Salmanaffer carried the Ifraelites captive, 2 King. 8.1 1. which Ilalab in Affiria. the Septuagint call Elea; and in the first of Chro.5. Ala. But, as for the Red Sea, on the parts thereof thus diverfly named, the Moors, and Arabians(Vasials to the Turk) know it by no other appellation, than the Gulf of Meca, after the name of Mahomet's Town Mecca. The Greeks write it the Sea Erythraum, of a King called Erythras, or Erythraus : and because Erythros in the Greek lignifieth Red ; hence it is, that, being denominated of this Erythraus, Arian, de the Son of Perseus and Andromeda, it took sess. the name of the Red Sea, as Q. Curtius con-Strube 1.6. iectureth; which Arianus and Strabo confirm. But it feems to me, by the view of a Discovery of that Sea, in the year 1544. performed by Stephen Gama, Viceroy of the East-India for the King of Portugal, that this Sea was fo called from a reflection of a redness, both from the banks, cliffs, and fands of many Islands and part of the Continent bordering it. For I find by the report of Castro, a principal Commander under Gama (which Difcourfe I gave Mr. Richard Hacluit to publish) and in which Pharaoh, otherwise called Chen- that there is an Island called Dalagua, somecres, perished, in the 16. year of his reign, is time Leques, containing in length, 25. leagues, commonly known by the name of the Red and 12. in breadth; the earth, fands, and Sea, though the same differ nothing at all in cliffs, of which Illand, being of a redish conatural colour from other Waters. But, as lour, serve for a foil to the waters about it; Philostratus in his third Book noteth and our to make it seem altogether of the same cofelves know by experience, it is of a bluish lour. Secondly, the same Castro reporteth that colour, as other Seas are. It entreth at a nar- from 24. degrees of Septentrional latitude, to row strait, between Arabia the Happy, and 27. (which make in length of Coast 180. Athiopia, or the Land of the Abylins: the miles, lying, as it doth, Northerly & Southermouth of the indraught from the Cape, ly) all the cliffs, and banks are of red earth, which Ptolemy calleth Poffodium, to the other or stone, which by reflection of the Sunare found in the bottom of this Sea, towards Moles past over the Red Sea at a low ebb.upthe shore, great abundance of red stones, on on a great Spring-tyde, and that Tharaoh, which the greatest store of Corral grows, conducted more by furythan discretion, purwhich is carried into most parts of Europe, and ellewhere. There are allo on the Itlands of this Sea, many red Trees, faith Strabo, and those, growing under water, may also be a sider the nature of this place, with other circause of such a colour. Of these appearances of redness by the shadow of these stones, fands, earth, and cliffs, I suppose that it first rook the name of the Red Sea, because in so many places it feemeth to be fuch; which Johannes Barros in his fecond Decade, eighth Book, and first Chapter, confirmeth.

of the History of the World.

The breadth of this Sea, from Elana, or Faion-Gaber adjoining, now Toro, called by the antient Cofmographers, Sinus Elaniticus, which watheth the banks of Madian, or Midian, is for 16, or 17, leagues together, along Northward toward sues, fome 3. leagues, or 9. English miles over, and from this Port of Toro to Sucs, and the end of this Sea, it is in length about 28. leagues, of which, the first 26 have 9, miles breadth, as aforefaid, and afterward, the Lands, both from Egypt and Arabia, thrust themselves into the Sea, and downwards toward the Ocean, leaving all ftrengthen it fo fast, as for 6. miles together, that part towards the Land, as far as the Sca it is not above 3. miles over 3 from thence,up- can ebb, or fall off, to the dry land. Now, ward the Land on Egypt fide, falleth away, Mofes entring the Sea at Migdol under Baaland makes a kind of Bay, or Cove, for fome zephon (if he had taken the advantage and 10. miles together, after which, the Land opportunity of the tide) must have left all grows upon the Sea again, and so binds it in- that end of the Red Sea towards Sues, on his to the very end thereof, at 4. miles breadth, left hand, dry and uncovered. For if a paffage or there about, in which Tract it was that were made by falling away of the water 10. Moses past it over, though others would have or 12. miles farther into the Sea than Sues, it to be over against Elana, or Toro, but with- and between it and where Moses past, who out judgment; for from Ramefes to Pihacheroth, and Baalzephon, there is not above 20. miles interjacent, or 35. miles at most, which Moses past over in three days; and between been by the ebb of a Spring-tide discovered, the Land of Egypt, opposite to Elana, or Tora, the distance is above 80. miles. For Rameles. to which City Moles came (being the Metropolis of Golen) when he left Pharaoh at Zoan, on in his return before the tide, on his right and took his last leave, standeth in 30. degrees hand; and so taken ground again at the 5. minutes of Septentrional latitude; and Min- end of the Sea, at Sues it felf, "or elsewhere. dol, or the Valley of Pihacheroth, at the foot But the Scriptures do truly witness the conof the Mountain Climax, or Baalzephon, in trary, that is, That the Sea did not fall away nine and twenty and a half, which make a from the Land, as naturally it doth, but that difference of five and thirty Enlish miles, the Moses past on between two Seas, and that the way lying in effect, North and South.

6. IX.

That the paffage through the Red Sea was miraculous, and not a low ebb.

"He Egyptians, and of them the Mem- the Sea to return back by a strong East-wind, phites, and other Heathen Writers, who, do rather prove the miracle than that there-

we know it by many testimonies, that there | in hatred of the Hebrews, have objected that fued him fo farr, as before he could recover the coast of Egipt, he was overtaken by the floud, and therein perished; did not well concumstances. For not to borrow strength from that part of the Scriptures, which makes it plain, that the Waters were divided, and that God wrought this miracle by an Easterly Wind, and by the hand and rod of Moles (which authority to men that believe not therein, perfivadeth nothing) I fay, that by the same natural reason unto which they fastened themselves, it is made manifest, that had there bin no other working power from above, or affiftance given from God himself to Moses and the children of Israel, than ordinary ,and casual, then could not Pharaoh and all his Army have perished in that purfuit.

For wherefoever there is any ebbing of the Sea in any gulf, or indraught, there do the waters fall away from the Land, and run entred the same so far below it, and towards the body of the same Sea; it followeth then, that if all that part of the Sleev, or Strait, had when Pharaob found the floud increasing, he needed not to have returned by the fame way toward Egypt fide, but might have gone waters were divided. Otherwise, Pharaoh, by any return of waters, could not have perifhed, as he did; and therefore the effects of that great Armies destruction, prove the cause to have bin a power above nature, and the miraculous work of God himself. Again, those words of the Scriptures, that God cansed CHAP. III.

by was caused an ebb more than ordinary; more, there is no man of judgment, that can

for that Sea did not lie East and West, but, in think, that Pharaoh and the Egyptians, who effect, North and South. And it must have then excelled all Nations in the observatibeen a Well and North west wind, that must one of heavenly motions, could be ignorant have driven those waters away through of the fluxes and refluxes of the Sea, in his their proper Channels, and to the South- own Countrey, on his own coast, and in his east into the Sea. But the East-wind blew own most traded and frequented Ports and athwart the Sea and cut it afunder: so as one Havens; and wherein his people having had part fell back towards the South and main fo many hundreds of years experience of the body thereof, the other part remained to- tides, he could not be caught, as he was, ward sues, and the North. Which being un- through ignorance, nor by any fore-known known to Pharaoh; while he was checkt by or natural accident, but by God's powerfull that Sea, which used in times before to ebb hand only; which then falleth most heavily away, the floud prest him, and over-whelm'd on all men, when, looking through no other him. Thirdly, feeing Josephus avoweth, that spectacle but their own prosperity, they least Moles was not onely of excellent judgment, discernit coming, and least fear it. Lastly, if generally but also, so great a Captain, as he the Army of the Egyptians had been overover-threw the Ethiopians in battels, being taken by the ordinary return of the floud, imployed by Pharaoh, and wan divers Cities, | before they could recover their own coast; feeming impregnable: it were barbarous to their bodies drowned would have been carcondemn him of this grossness, and distracti- ried with the floud, which runneth up to on: that rather then he would have endu- Sues, and to the end of that Sca, and not red the hardness of a Mountainous passage have been cast a-shore on the coast of Araat hand (had not God commanded to take bia, where Moses landed, to wit, upon the that way, and fore-told him of the honour Sea-bank over against Baalzephon, on Arabia which he would there win upon Pharaoh) he side; where it was that the Israelites saw would have trusted to the advantage of an their dead bodies, and not at the end of the ebbing water. For he knew not the contra- Red Sea, to which place the ordinary floud ry, but that Pharaoh might have found him, would have carried them; Which floud and prest him, as well when it flowed, as doth not any where cross the Channel, and when it ebbed, as it feemeth he did. For run athwart it, as it must have done from Ethe people, beholding Pharaoh's approach, gypt fide to Arabia, to have cast the bodies cried out against Moses, and despaired alto- there; but it keeps the natural course together of their fafety; and when Moles prayed wards the end of that Sea; and to which unto God for help, he was answered by God; their carkasies should have been carried, if Wherefore crieft thou unto me? Speak unto the the work had not been supernatural and michildren of Ifrael, that they go forward, and raculous. Apollonius, in the lives of the Falift thou up thy Rod, and stretch out thy hand thers, affirmeth, that those of the Egyptians upon the Sea, and divide it: which proves which stayed in the country, did not follow that there was not at that time of Pharaoh's Pharaoh in the pursuit of Ifrael, did ever after approach any ebb at all, but that God did honor those beasts, birds, plantsor other creadisperse and cut through the weight of wa- tures, about which they were busied at the ters, by a strong East-wind, whereby the time of Pharaoh's destruction; as he that was fands discovered themselves between the then labouring in his Garden, made a god Sea on the left hand toward Sues, from of that Plant or Root about which he was whence the Waters moved not, and the Sea occupied, and so of the rest. But how those which was towards the South on the right multitudes of gods were erected among hand, so that the Waters were a wall unto them, a more probable reason shall be given them on the right hand, and on the left hand, else-where. Orofius, in his first Book and that is, the Waters so defended them on both tenth Chapter against the Pagans, tells us, fides, as the Egyptians could onely follow that in his time, who lived some 400. years them in the same path, not that the Waters froud upright as walls do, as some of the Schole-men have fancied. For,had Pharaab wheels were to be seen at a low water, on the Egyptian sands; and though they were and the Egyptians perceived any fuch build- fometime defaced by wind and weather, yet ings in the Sea, they would foon have quit- foon after they appeared again. But hereted the chase and pursuit of Ifrael. Further- of I leave every man to his own belief.

CHAP. IV.

Of the journeying of the Israelites from the Red Sea, to the place where the Law was given them; with a discourse of Laws.

6. I.

A transition, by way of recapitulation of somethings touching Chronologie; with a continuation of the Story untill the Amalekites met with the Ifraelites.

nia, or Peloponness; Criosus, the Argives; everlasting death, into the sweetness of eter-Orus, Egypt; and Deucalion, Thessay. He fled and life. Pliny remembers these bitter Founinto Midian, when he had lived fourty years, tains in his fixth Book, 29. Chapter. From in the year of the World, 2474 and two whence to Delta in Egypt, Selfpiris fift, Dayears after was Caleb born. He returned by prins after him, and lattly, Ptolemy the fecond, the commandment and ordinance of God began to cut an artificial River, thereby by into Egypt, and wrought his miracles in the Boats and small Shipping to Trade and Nafields of Zoan, in the year, 2514. the last vigate the Red Sea, from the great Cities Moneth of the year. On the 14. day of the upon Nilus. From Marab he removed to first Hebrew Moneth Abib, or the 15. of that Elim, the fixth Mansion, a march of eight Exad. 15. Moneth, beginning the day (as they) at Sun-miles: where finding twelve Fountains of the celebration of the Passover; & in the dead trees, he rested divers days. of the night of the same day, were all the first Whether this Helim were the name of a born flain through Egypt, or in all those parts where the Hebrews inhabited not. The 15.

And yet the scarcity of waters in that Reday of the first Month of the Hebrews, called gion was such, as Helim, which had twelve Abib, being about the beginning of the year Fountains, could hardly be left unpeopled. bly at Rameses, and marched to Succoth. third station at Etham; and journeying from Egypt. Ingressia (faith he) Helim Givitatem Etham, they encamped in the Valley of Piantiquissian, populo straelitico aliquando fa-

Name 33 midnight, they past the Red Sea; Pharaoh ingredientes, in Mare vicinum se contulerunt; 233, and his Army perishing in their return, about Entring Helim, a very antient City, well known End. 14. the first dawn of the day. Moses having re- Sometime to the people of Israel; whither, when Exod. 15. 22. is called Sur, 25. miles from knowledge of Amalech, who repaired to re-

Name, 33, the Sea; where the children of Ifrael, preft fift his passage through part of Arabia. And at Pihacheroth, and now in Arabia. But Mofes the minds of the rest, who encountring with

Ut to go on with the Story of If- staking the branches of a Tree, growing near rael, in this fort I collect the times. a Lake of bitter water, and casting the same Moles was born in the year of the thereinto, made the same sweet : a plain type World, 2434. Saphrus then go- and figure of our Saviour; who, upon the verning Afgria; Orthopolis, Sycio- Tree of the Cross, changed the bitterness of fetting, in the year of the World, 2514. was fweet water, and threefcore and ten Palmi- Numb. 33.

of the World, 2514. Mofes, with the children William, Archbishop of Tyre, in his History william of Ifrael removed from the general Affem- of the Holy Warr, found at Helim, the ruines Torest. 11. of a great and antient City. And at such cap. 16. And departing thence, they made their time as Baldwine the first past that way into bacheroth, or Migdol, under the Mountain miliarem; ad quem cum pervenisse, loci illins Baalzephon; and in the same night, after incola, Regis adventu precognito, naviculam covered the banks of Arabia, gave thanks he came, the Inhabitants, forewarned of the unto God for the delivery of Ifrael; and Kings approach, took Boat, and shifted themmaking no stay on that coast, entred the De- selves into the Sea lying near them. From Elim farts of Arabia Petrea, called Sur. But find- he returned again towards the South, and ing no water in that passage, he encamped at lat down by the banks of the Red Sea; the Marah, in the Defart of Etham, which in seventh Mansion. For it seemeth, that he had with extreme thirst, murmured against Moses Moses, who had not as yet trained the Hethe second time; first, at Pharaohs approach brews, appointed to bear Arms; nor assured to their quiet flavery, than either to en- titude of People and Cattel thought it most dure the wants and perils which every for their advantage to fet upon them at Raway accompanied them in that pallage, or phidim, where the want of water, and all oat this time to undertake or fulfain fo dan- therthings needfull for the life of man, engerous an enemy: he therefore made fray | feebled them. On the other fide, Moses perat this Mansion, untill the sisteenth of this se- ceiving their resolutions, gave charge to Jocond Moneth, called Zim, or Jiar; and made Jia, to draw out a sufficient number of the the eighth Mansion in the Defart of Zin: ablest Hebrews, to encounter Amalech, Be-Exolina where the children of Ifrael mutinied against, tween whom and Ifrael the victory remained In the 16. Chapter of Exedus, Moles omitteth this retreat from Elim to the Red Sea. but in the collection of every feveral en-

CHAP.

Exol. 16. them out of Egypt. And though they had their first attempts, will hardly, or never, be great numbers of Cattel and Sheep among brought again to hazzard themselves. them, yet it seemeth that they durst not feed themselves with many of those; but rethe Children withall, and for Breed to store themselves when they came to the Land promised.

From hence towards Raphidim, they made two removes of 20. miles; the one to the manner of Beafts, than to fuffer a cafual, rael, being himself unable to give order in dergo the hazzards and travels which every manly mind feeks after, for the love of God, and private controversie. and their own freedoms. But Mofes, with the fame Rod which he divided the Sea withall, the Madianites, yet he was by Nation a Kein the fight of the Elders of Ifrael, brought nite, as in the fourth of Judges, Verl. 11, 17. waters out of the Rock, wherewith the it is manifest: where it is written, Now Heber whole multitude were fatisfied.

6. II.

of the Amalekites. Madianites, and Kenites, upon occasion of the battel with the Amalekites. and lethro's coming; who, being a Kenite, was Pricht of Madian.

his approach, and ghessed that he meant to am, speaking of the Kenites: Strong is thy lead the children of Ifrael through their dwelling place, and thou hast put thy nest in the

the least misery, were more apt to return (would be utterly wasted by so great a mul-Mojes the third time, having want of food. doubtfull, for the most part of the day; the Hebrews and the Amalekites contending with equal hopes and repulses for many hours. And had not the strength of Moses Prayers camping, in the 33.0f Numbers, it is set down. to God been of farr greater force, and more Here it pleased God to send so many prevalent than all resistance & attempt made flights of Quails, as the Countrey about their | by the bodies of men; that valiant and warencamping was covered with them. The like Nation had greatly endangered the morning following, it also rained Manna, whole enterprise. For those bodies which being the 16. of their Moneth, which served are unacquainted with scarcity of food, them in stead of bread. For now was the store and those minds whom a service education confumed which the people carried with hath dulled, being beaten, and despaired in

After this Victory, Jethro repaired to Moses, bringing with him Moses his Wife, and ferved them, both for the Milk to relieve his two Sons, which either Jethro forbare to conduct, or Moles to receive, till he had by this overthrow of Amalech the better affured himself of that part of Arabia. For it is written in Exod. 18. 1. When lethro. the Priest of Madian, Moses Father-in-law, heard all that God Daphca, the other to Alus, distant from Ra- had done for Moses, & co of which, the last phidim fix miles. Here, being again prest deed, to wit, the overthrow of Amalech, gave with want of Water, they murmured the Jethro courage and affurance, he then refourth time, and repented them of their de- paired to his Son-in-law, Mofes, at Sinai; parture from Egypt, where they rather con- where, among other things, he advised Moles tented themselves to be fed and beaten after to appoint Judges, and other Officers over 1fand sometime necessary want, and to under- all causes and controversies, among so many thousands of people, full of discontentment

This Jethro, although he dwelt amongst the Kenite, which x as of the children of Hobab. to wit the Son of Jethro.the Father-in-law of Moses, was departed from the Kenites, and chap. 15. pitched his Tents untill the Plain of Zaanaim, 1. 18. which is by Kedesh. Likewise, in the first of Samuel, Saul commanded the Kenites to depart from among the Amalekites, left he should destroy them with the Amalekites. For the Kenites inhabited the mountains of 18. Nd while Moses encamped in this place, Sin Kadesh; and the Amalekites dwelt in 1 Sam. the Amalekites, who had knowledg of the Plains, according to the faying of Bala- co. 15. Countrey (which being barren of it felf, rock. And that saul spared this Nation, he giveth for cause, that they shewed mercy to those of Madian, of whom Jethro was Priest. all the children of Ifrael, when they came up and the other Cities in Moab were the from Fgspt. For thele Kenites were a Nation fame, yet the contrary is more probable. For of the Madianites, and the Madianites were Moses would not have sent 12000. Israof the illues of Madian, one of the fix Sons which Abraham begat on Kethura: and might also take that name of Kenites from Kethura, of whom they descended by the mother, who (as it feemeth) kept the knowledge of the true God among them, which they received from their Parent Abraham. For Moses, when he fled out of Egypt into Madian, and married the Daughter of Jethro, would not (had he found them Idolaters) have made Jethro's Daughter the mother of his children. And although the Kenites are named amongst those Nations, which God promised, that the seed of Abraham should root out, and inherit their lands; yet it cannot be meant by these, who are descended from Abraham himself: but by some other Nation, bearing the same name; and in all likelihood of the race of Chus. For, in the fifteenth of Genefis, verf. 19. these Kenites, or Chustes, are listed with the Of the time when the Law was given; with di-Hittites and Perizzites, with the Amorites, Canaanites, Gergesites, and Jebusites, which were indeed afterwards rooted out. But these Kenites descended from Abraham, had separated themselves from among the rest. which were altogether Idolatrous. For, as it is before remembred, Heber the Kenite, which was of the children of Hobab, was departed from the Kenites; that is to fay, from those Kenites of Canaan, and inhabited in Zaanaim, which is by Kedest, or did (referring my self to better judgment) rather, because they were more antient, than by anticipation. And as of the Kenites, so we may consider of the Madianites, parted by Moses into five Tribes. For some of them were corrupted, and Heathens; as those of Madian by the River Zared, afterwards destroyed Amalech, seem likewise not to have been corrupted. For these Madianites, with the Kenites, affisted Ifrael, and guided them in and to the North of the Metropolis of Arabia, called Petraa, were by Ifrael rooted out, elites, as far back as the Red Sea. from the Plains of Moab, to have destroyed that Madian, where his Wives kinred inhabited : feeing himfelf coming with 600000, able men, was encountred by Amalech in that paffage. Neither could Afoles forget the length of the way through those discomfortable Defarts, wherein himself and Israel had wandered fourty years.

And though it may be doubted, whether that way.

That Jethro, or Jothor, Ragnel, or Revel, and Hobab, were but one person, the Scriptures teach us. For the Vulgar, and Septuagint, which call him Raguel, and our English, Revel, Exod. 2.18. cals him Jethro or Jothor Exod. 2.1. and 4.18. & 18.1. & 6.9, 10, 12. & in Numb. 10.29. Hobab. Others take Jethro and Hobab to be the same, but not Raguel.

6. III.

vers commendations of the invention of Laws.

THe rest of the Moneths of this year 2515. were spentin the Defart of sinai, neer the mountain of Sinai, or Horeb, the twelfthManfion. Eusebins thought that Sinai and Horeb were distinct Mountains: Hierom, to be but one of a double name. And so it appeareth by many Scriptures. For, in Exed. 3. 1. it is called Horeb: and in Exodus 24.19. it is written Sinai. In the 106. Pfalm, verf. 19. Ho-Cadesh. Again, Moses nameth that Nation reb: in Exodus 19. 11. Sinai. And so it of the Kenites, before Midian, or any of is called, Galatians 4. vers. 24. And again, Abraham's other Sons were born; which he Dent. 4. 10. and 15. and Dent. 5. 2. Horeb. And so it is in the first of Kings 8.6. and the fecond of Chronicles 5. 10. and in Malachie 4.4. Finally, in Ecclesiasticus, 48.7. they are named as one. Which heardest (faith Ecclestafticus) the rebuke of the Lord in Sinai, and in Horeb the judgment of the vengeance. Somewhat they are dif joined at the top, by the report of Peter Belonius; who, in the year 1588. by Moses. But the Madianites, neer the past out of Egypt into Arabia, with Monsieur banks of the Red Sea, where Moses married de Fumet of France, and travelled to the top his Wife Zippora, and with whom he left her both of Sinai and Horeb: Sinai being by and his children, till after the overthrow of farr the higer hill. From the fide of Horéb (faith he) there falleth a very fair Spring of Water into the Valley adjoining: where he found two Monasteries of Christian Marthe Desarts. But the Madianites in Moab, ronites, containing some hundred Religious persons of divers Nations, who had pleasant Gardens, delicate Fruits, and excellent when those adjoyning to the Red Sea were Wine. These (faith the same Authour) give Pet Bells. entertainment to all strangers, which pass cap. 62.

of water neer Sinai, in Moles time, it is very ditions, or corrections, were commended probable: First, because he encamped there- to all Posterity for men of no less vertue, about almost a year, and drew no water, and no less liberally beneficial to their as in other places, by miracle: Secondly, Countreys, than the greatest and most probecause it is written, Exod. 32.20. that when sperous Conquerors that ever governed Moses had broken the golden Calf to pow- them. The Israelites, the Lacedemonians, der, which Aaron fet up in his absence, and the Athenians, received their Laws from he cast the powder thereof into the water, one; as the Israelites, from Moses; the Laceand made the children of Ifrael to drink demonians, from Lycurgus; the Athenians, year; and he arrived about the five and chies and Estates. fourtieth day after the egression; the Law being given the fiftieth day.

At this Mantion all was done, which is written from the beginning of the 29. Chapter of Exodus, to the end of that Book; all of the name and meaning of the words, Law in Leviticus; and all in Numbers, to the 10. Chapter, Whereof (because there is no Story nor other Passage ) I will omit the repetition, and in place thereof speak somewhat of Kings, Magistrates, and vertuous Men; the name of Laws. yea, the very spirit, and the very sinews of The word Law is also taken for the moral every Estate in the World, by which they habit of our mind, which doth (asit were) live and move: the Law, to wit, a just Law, command our thoughts, words, and actions: being resembled to an Heart without affe- framing and fashioning them according to ction, to an Eye without lust, and to a Mind it felf, as to their pattern and plat-form. without passion; a Treasurer, which keep- And thus the Law of the flesh, which the Dieth for every man what he hath, and diftri- vines call legem fomitis, is to be under-

Now, that there was some such Torrent 1 of gods: and the rest, that made either adfrom Solon; the Komans, fometime from On this mountain, the Law by the Angel their first Kings, from their Decem viri, from of God was given to Moses, where he stayed their Senators, from their Lawyers, and a whole year, wanting some ten or twelve from the people themselves: other from the days: for he removed not till the twentieth Prince, Nobility, and People; as in Engday of the second Moneth of the second land, France, and in other Christian Monar-

6. IV.

He word Lex, or Law, is not always taken alike, but is diverfly, and in of the Law, and the kinds and use thereof: an indifferent sence used. For, if we conwherby, if the Reader find the Story any way fider it at large, it may be understood dif-joyned, he may turn over a few leaves, for any rule preferibing a necessary mean, and, omitting this, find the continuation order, and method, for the attaining of thereof. We must first consider that as there an end. And so the Rules of Grammar. can be neither foundation, building, nor or other Arts, are called Laws. Or, it continuance of any Common-wealth, with- is taken for any private Ordinance of Suout the rule, level, and square of Laws: so periours or Inferiours: for the commandit pleased God to give thereby unto Moles ments of Tyrants, which they cause to be the powerfullest man (his miraculous grace observed by force, for their Decrees do excepted) to govern that multitude which also usurp that Title, according to the gehe conducted; to make them victorious in neral acceptation of the word Law: of their passage, and to establish them assured- which Esay, Wounto them that decree wicked ly in their conquest. For, as the North Starr Decrees, and write grievous things. Like-Eft is the most fixed Director of the Sea-man wife, the word is used for the tumultuato his defired Port: fo is the Law of God ry resolutions of the People. For such conthe Guide and Conductor of all in general fritutions doth Ariftotle also call Laws, to the haven of eternal life: the Law of though evil and injufficient: Mala lex eft. Ethic. 1.4. Nature, from God his eternal Law deduced, que tumultarie posita est; It is an evil Law cap. 1 the rule of all his creatures; the Law hu- that is made tumultuously. So as all Ordimane, depending on both thefe, the guard nances, either good or evil, are called by buteth to every man what he ought to have. Stood. For every law is a kind of pattern of This benefit the Antient, though barbarous, that which is done according unto it: in effectmed to highly, that among them, those which fence, as elsewhere, this moral habit Ges 6. which were taken for the first makers of or disposition of the heart, is called the new 8.7 Laws were honoured as gods or, as the Sons frame or figmentum of the heart: fo in S. Paul to the Romans it is called a Law; But I fee another law in my members, rebelling against teaching, because every man is thereby the law of my mind, and leading me captive un- taught his duty both to God and Men. The to the law of lin. Again, the nature and in- Greeks call it Nomos, of distributing, because clinations of all creatures, are sometime cal- it distributeth to every man his own due; led (a) lims, fo farr as they agree with the the power of the Law is the power of God: La Conte reason of the Law eternal; as the law of a Justice being an attribute proper unto God

CHAP. IV.

consistent Lion, to be fierce or valiant. Also private contracts among Merchants, The reign of the Lamis the reign of Cod. manna and other Tradef-men, do often put on the name of laws. But law, commonly and pro- lofophers: Lex est vite regula, pracipiens and wherealth perly is taken for a right rule, prescribing a funt sequenda, & qua sugienda; Lam is the it is that necessary mean, for the good of a Common- rule of life, commanding what to follow, and be | 305 wealth, or Civil Community. The reft, to what to flun: or, Lex est omnium divinarum Legal and wit, the commandments of Tyrants, &c. & humanarum rerum Regina; Law is the gedec, as which have not the common good for their Queen, or Princess of things both humane and in the scate end, but being leges iniqua, are by Thomas drvine. But this description is grounded up-Law is of called violentia magis quam leges; rather on the opinion of inevitable fate. Law is the tentines compulsions than laws: And whatfoever is very wifdom of Nature: the reason and uncommit not jult, S. singustine doth not allow for laws, derstanding of the prudent; and the rule of howfoever chablished: for he calls them right and wrong. For, as a right line is called, iniqua hominum constituta, que nec jura di- Index sui, & curvi, the demonstrance of it cenda, nec putanda funt; The unjust constituti- felf, and of the crooked; so is the Law, the ons of men which are neither to be tearmed nor 40 E. thought lams. For, faith Ariftotle, Legalia julta

Mis. s. c s. funt factiva, & confervation felicitatis; fuft lams are the workers and preservers of happi- touching the substance & essence, confiss in nell'; because by them we are directed ad vi-understanding: Concludit tamen actum voluntam quietam, to a quiet life, according to Ci- tatis; Tet it comprehends the act of our will. cero: Yea, to life everlafting; according to The word Jus is also divertly taken as somethe Scriptures. For the end of the Law laith time for the matter of the Law, and for Plato is God, and his worship: Finis legis Deus | common right: sometime for the Law it selfs & cultus eins. Lex, or the Law is to called as fus civile, or fus gentium. Isidore distinby the Latines, à legendo, or, à ligando, of guisheth the two general words. Jus and Fas; reading, or binding: Leges quia lette & ad whereof Jus, saith he hath reference to men, were written and published, all men might | To go over another man's field, is permitted read them, and behold in them whereto they by Gods Law, not by Man's; and therefore were bound. The other Etymologie, ligando, in a thing out of controversie, Virgil used is no less agreeable with the nature of a Law: | both these words: as Fas & jura simunt God whence in the Scripture it is called also a and men permit. Har, s. s. yoak, and a band : as confrequent ingum, di-they have broken the bands. And in the second bidding or commandment : or perhaps from Isalm, Dirumpamus vincula corum & projici- the Greek 2,05, which is the name of Jupiamus à nobis funes ipsorum : Let us break their ter, or of the Latine Genitive case four; conditional promises of God; and because find it written in Nonius out of the antient, the word 2256xn, a Terrament, or last Will: Authour, and Pattern, and Maintainer of which name it hath, because it is not other- right, so also in his Vicegerents, the Magiwife effectual for our falvation, but in re- ftrates, he is the Pronouncer and Executor spect of the death of the Testator; for with- of right. Of this Tus, the just are denomiout the death of the Testator, the Testa- nated, Justus à jure, and Justitia à justo; The ment is of no force, as Heb. 9. 17. it is faid, Right gives name to the Righteous: and Jultice Testamentum in mortuis ratum est.

The Hebrews call the Law Thorab, of himfelf. Imperium legis, imperium Dei eft;

Law in general is thus defined by the Phijudge and measure of right and wrong.

M. Hooker calls the Law a directive rule to goodness of operation; and though Law, as populum lata, faith Varro; For, arter Laws Fas to God. Fas lex divina, Jus lex humana. 1fd. Es.w.

The word Jus, or Right, is derived or ruperunt vincula; they have broken the youk, taken from the old Sustantive Noun julius, a bands ajunder, and let us cast away their cords | because, as the Scripture speaks, the judg- Dem. 1.17 ment is God's. For, as it is certain that jus- 19.6. The Covenant it is called, because of the jurandum came of Jovis-jurandum (for so we of God's people's voluntary submittion of in which sence the Scripture calls it juramen- Exact 11: themselves unto it: for which word the Se- tum Jehova fo also we may say, that Jus came 11 ptuagint, and the Epifle to the Hebrems wife of Jovis, quia Jovis eft; because as God is the takes her name from the Just.

Of the definition of Laws, and of the Law

212

every kind hath a proper and peculiar rible confusion.

definition, it agreeth with order, first to divide and diffinguish them. I mean, those forts of Laws from whence all other particulars are drawn : leaving the individuals DUt, because Laws are manifold, and that of humane laws to their infinite and hor-

The writ- The Law of Moses. ten is al-so double. The Gospel. Eternal or uncreated. (Written. Natural. I Divine . National, or which bath Internal. ( As the Dollrine and Religitwo parts. Laws politive. Laws imposed Unwritten. ) on of the Patriarchs before or imposed, exthe written Law of Mofes, or of addition, common- plicating, and which some call Cabala. ly called post- perfecting the 2 Humane, which is all the state of the stat Which Cicero in his fe- c Ecclesiastiare double: cond Book of Invention ) cal, and Unwritten As the Laws of Custom and

mas. Lex aterna oft aternus divina sapientia Law, and a fit Princes to command and forbid. conceptus, secundum quod ordinatur ad guber- is the right reason of the most high God. This nationem rerum ab ipso pracognitarum; The eternal Law (if we consider it in God, or as eternal Law is the eternal conceit of God's God) is always one and the fame; the nature Wildom, as it is referred to the government of of God being most simple: but as it is refer-Th. 4.36. things forcknown by himself. Or, Lex aterna red to divers objects, so the reason of man est summa atque eterna ratio divine sapientie: finds it divers and manifold. It also feemeth quaterus res omnes ad destinatos sines ita diri- one law in respect of things necessary, as the git, ut illis juxta conditionem ipfarum modum motions of the heavens, stability of the alignem necessitatis adferat; It is high and earth, Oc. but it appeareth otherwise to cternal reason of divine sapience: as it direct- things contingent: another law to men, aneth all things in such fort to their proper ends, other to other creatures, having life, and to imposing a kind of necessity, according to their all those that be inanimate. several natures, or conditions. Now, the difnature of all things which it directs, fo it is first. called a Law.

cum mente divina: quamobrem lex vera atque as it were a stream from the fountain princeps, apta ad jubendum & ad vetandum, The Law humane or temporal is also from coil, did not (saith he) then begin to be | y borroweth the name of a law.

a law when it was written, but when it had being. Eeing and beginning it had together with | jected, as well Angels and Men, as all other

The Law Eternal is thus defined by Tho- | divine understanding, and therefore a true

By this eternal Law, all things are directference lies in this: That as the same divine ed, as by the counsel and providence of understanding directs all these to their pro- God: from this Law, all laws are derived, as per ends; so it is called Providence: but, as from the rule universal, and thereto reit imposeth a necessity, according to the serred, as the operation of the second to the

The eternal, and the divine Law, differ The or Of this eternal Law, Cicero took know- only in confideration; the eternal directing Augledge, when in his Book of Laws, he wrote in more largely: as well every creature, to their this manner: Erat ratio perfecta, rerum natura, proper and natural ends, as it doth Manto & ad relle faciendum impellens & à dilecto his supernatural: but the divine Law to a avocans: que non tum incipit lex esse cum supernatural end onely: the natural law is scripta oft, fed tum orta est. Orta autem simul est thence derived, but an effect of the eternal :

ratio est rect a summi Jovis; That perfect rea- thence drawn: in that it hath the form of Son and nature of things, incouraging or impel- | right reason; from which if it differ, it is then ling to rightfull actions, and calling us back impositio iniqua a wicked imposition; and one-creatures,

inanimate.

commanded to praise God their Creator and their giving him Vinegar to drink was fulfil-Director: as Praise him all ye his Angels: praise led. For fo S. John expounds it, when he faith. him Sun and Moon all bright Starrs : Heavens v.28. That Christ feeing all (other) things to be of heavens, for he hath established them for ever fulfilled, Ut consummaretur Scriptura, That the and over. He hath made an ordinance which Scripture in this also might be fulfilled, faid, I Shall not pass: Praise ye the Lord from the earth thirst: though I deny not, but at the same pe Dragons and all Deeps; fire and hail, now time alfothe date of the Law was expired, and vapours, flormy winds which execute his to wit of the law ceremonial, and of so much word: mountains and hills, fruitfull trees, and of the judicial, as appertained peculiarly to all Cedars; Beafts and all Cattel, &c. Now, as the Jews, and agreeth not with the Law of the reasonable creatures are by this eternal the New Testament and Gospel of Christ. For Law bound, by the glory and felicity pro- the immutable Law of God, though prescriposed unto them (beatitude being both the | bing things mutable, is not therfore changed attractive, and the end) so all other natural in it self; but the things prescribed change things and creatures have in themselves, and in their own natures, an obedience formal to the Wifdom of solomon, and being one, fle can it, without any proper intention, known cause, or end proposed. For Beasts are led by fenfe and natural inftinct : thinks without life by their created form, or formal appetites, as that which is heavie to fall downward; things light to mount upward, &c. and fire to heat whatfoever is apposed. This are all things which appear in themselves sonable creature. Lex Naturalis est impression thence derived, there-under subjected, divini luminis in nobis, & participatio Legis ample in the consideration of these laws: and he afterward addeth, Jus istand non humani in discourse of the profit, and of the matter, generis proprium, sed omnium animalium que and object of the eternal Law. But, as the | terra marique nascuntur, avium quoque comprofit is manifest in the good of all creatures, mune eft; The Law of Nature is not proper to who have thence-from, either reason, sense, man alone, but the same is common to all living vegetation, or appetitions, to conduct them: creatures, as well Birds, as to those the Land whole creature. For, according to S. Augustine.Lex æterna est qua justum est, ut omnia fint ordinatissima; The Law eternal is that, whereby it is just, that all things should be difposed in the best and goodliest order.

creatures or things created; whether necel- the time of the Pædagogie of God's people, fary or contingent, natural or moral, and hu- or Introduction to Christ, should be expired; mane. For the Law eternal runneth through which time of expiration, some think our all the universal, and therefore it is the Law Saviour noted to be come, when on the Cross also of things which are simple, natural and he said, Consummatum est. But I rather think John 17. these words of our Saviour to have no other Pfel. 69. Hence it is, that all things created are fignification, than that now the Prophecie of 22. according to this eternal ordinance of which do all things, and remaining in her felf, reneweth all.

6. VI. Of the Law of Nature.

and fire to fleat windower is apposed. Sind of working, the Ariflotelians aferibe to common nature; others to fate; a difference used in tearms only; it being no other than God's general providence: for, as it is truly it is called The impression of divine Light, and John and County of the composition of divine Light, and John and County of the Count faid of God, that he is omnia super omnia: io a participation of the eternal Law in the rea- 49. thence-from by his eternal Law and providence directed, even from the greatest to the the natural Law to be the same which Nature june 1.1. least of his creatures, in heaven and in earth. hath taught all living creatures: Jus naturale in 1. The Schoolmen are very curious and eft quod Natura omnia animalia docuit: and so is the object and matter of the Law, the and Sea produceth. But this definition is not general, but of the natural Law in things

The Law of Nature in general, I take to be that disposition, instinct, and formal quality, which God in his eternal Providence Lastly, it is disputed, whether the eternal hath given and imprinted in the nature of law be immutable, yea or no? But the reso- every creature, animate, and inanimate. And lution is, that it changeth not; for which as it is divinum lumen in men, inlightning our S. Augustine useth a sufficient argument in his formal reason; so is it more than sense in first Book of Free-will, the fixth Chapter. For Beasts; and more than vegetation in Plants. the law of Moses, which had a time prefixed, For it is not sense alone in Beasts, which was eternally by God ordained to last untill teacheth them, at first fight, and without experience or instruction, to flie from the ene- | Aquinas (the one calling it the impression of one, and flieth from the other: yea, though to offer or performany thing toward others by them never feen before, and that as foon fave that which we would be content thould as they fall from their Dams. Neither is it be offered or performed toward our felves. fenfe, which hath taught other Beafts to pro- For, such is the Law of Nature to the Mind. vide for Winter, Birds to build their Nests as the Eye is to the Body; and that which. or quiet seasons: or the Birds of India, to is, the observation of those things which lead make their Nests on the smallest twigs which us thereby to our last end; which is eternal hang over Rivers, and not on any other part life; though of themselves not sufficient of the Tree, or elfewhere, to fave their Eggs without faith and grace. and young ones from the Monkies, and other Water. The inflances in this kind are exceeding many which may be given. Neither isit out of the vegetable or growing nature eternal. For without any law written, the of Plants, that some Trees, as the female of right reason and understanding, which God Men a new nature, which also, as is aforesaid. Supra left, of Nature incorrupt, which S. Augustine purest reason; in whose highest Turrets, the Supra Jett. calleth the Law of Reason, but by a nature quiet of Conscience hath made her resting loco. ad blinded and corrupted, that the Germans place and habitation; In arce altissima ratio-Theod.1.9. Wife, and to the women, to choose them bate their thoughts to accuse them. de curandis others besides their Husband, to beget them affett Gra- with child; which Law in those parts hath law unto himself (while he hopeth to abuse against nature and right reason.

of natural laws, either out of S. Augustine, or cept: Nil turpe committas, neque coram aliis, mies of their lives: seeing that Bulls and divine light; the other, the dictate, or sen-Horses appear unto the sense more searfull tence of practique reason) the same can teach mines and terrible, than the least kind of Doggs; us, or incline us to no other thing, than to the least kind of Doggs; and vet the Hare and Deer feedeth by the exercise of Justice and uprightness; and not high or low, according to the temperatuous according to David, sheweth us good, that Pid. 4

Now, that which is truly and properly Beafts, whose weight such a twig will not the law of Nature, where the corruption is bear, and which would fear to fall into the not taken for the law, is, as aforefaid, the Palmitto, will not bear any fruit, except the hath given us, are abilities within our felves. male grow in fight. But this they do by that sufficient to give us knowledge of the good Law, which the infinite and unsearchable and evil, which by our gratitude to God Wisdom of God had in all eternity provi- and distribution of right to men, or by the ded for them, and for every nature created. contrary, we prepare and purchase for our In Man this Law is double, corrupt, and in- felves. For when the Gentiles (faith S. Paul) Rom : 11 corrupt : corrupt, where the reason of Man which have not the law, do by nature those hath made its self subject, and a Vassal to things contained in the law: they having not Passions, and Assections Brusal: and incorrupt, where time and custom hath bred in love God, by whom we are, and to do the fame right unto all men, which we defire is a kind of Law. For it was not by the Law should be done unto us, is an effect of the Rom.7.33 did antiently allow of theft: and that other Nations were by Law conftrain'd to become

(faith S. Paul) which show the effects of the law Rom 1.11. Idolaters; that by the Laws of Lycingus it written in their hearts, have their conferences was permitted to men to tile one another's for a witness of those effects: and the repro-

And it is most true, that who soever is not a lasted long, and is not forgotten to this day. the World by the advantage of hypocritie) The Scythians, and the People of both In- worketh nothing elfe, but the betraying of dies, hold it lawfull to bury with them the his own Soul, by crafty unrighteousness, purbest beloved Wives: as also they have many chasing eternal perdition. For it helpeth us other customs remembred by G. Valentia, not to hide our corrupt hearts from the World's eye, feeing from him, who is an in-And I know not from what authority it is, finite eye, we cannot hide them: fome Garthat these Laws some men avow to be na- lands we may gather in this May-game of tural : except it be of this corrupt nature; as the World, Sed flos ille, dum loquimur, arefeit; (among others) to pay guile with guile : to Those flowers wither while we discourse of their become faithless among the faithless: to colours, or are in gathering them. That we provide for our felves by another man's de- should therefore inhabit and dwell within struction: that Injury is not done to him our selves, and become searfull Witnesses of that is willing; to destroy those whom we our secret evils, did that reverend Philosofear, and the like. For taking the definition | pher Fythagoras teach in this golden Preneque tevum: maxime omnium verere teipsum; (as that good is to be followed, and evil Commit nothing foul or diffionest, faith he, eschewed) and demonstrable, which is evineither to be known to others, nor to thine own dently proved out of higher and more uniheart : but above all men, reverence thine own verfal propositions. Again, as it answereth Conscience. And this may be a Precept of the natural appetite, prescribing things to Nature and right Reason; by which law, be defired as good, or to be avoided as evil men, and all creatures, and bodies, are in- (as of the first, to defire to live, and to fatif. clined to those operations, which are answer- fie hunger, &c. and of the second, to eschew commanded them to keep their bounds; when they cannot in themselves. And as Man 5% 6.38, which they obey. He made a decree for the is a Being, Ens or Res; so he doth desire and confusion.

CHAP. IV.

By this natural Law, or law of humane Reason, did Cain perceive his own wicked- things which appertain unto us, as we have ness and offence, in the murther of Abel: for sense. Whence, by the law of Nature, we he not onely feared the displeasure of God, desire the delights of every sense; but with but the revenge of men; it being written in such moderation, as may neither glut us with his reason, that whatsoever he performed to- satiety, nor hurt us with excess. For as Sense wards others, the same by others might be it self is for the preservation of life and bedone unto him again. And that this judg- ing; fo is it meet, even by the law of Nature, ment of well and evil doing, was put into that the fenfitive appetite should not carry our natures by God, and his eternal Law, be- us to the destruction, either of our life or fore the Law written, Moses in the person of being. And although (seeing both these God witnesseth, Gen. 4. If thou do well, kinds of appetites are in Beasts) we may shalt thou not be accepted and if thou do well say, that Nature hath given divers laws not well, fin lieth at thy door.

Rion of the natural Law; the same being same which Nature hath taught all living opened amply by Reinerius, Antonius, and creatures: Yet the School-men admit not, Valentia. But it is not my purpose to write a that the instincts of Beasts can properly Volume of this Subject.

leth An act of Reason taken properly; and not For so they distinguish it; where Ulpian afa habit, as it is an evident natural judgment firmeth, that Jus naturale is that, which Naof practick reason; they divide into inde- ture hath taught all living creatures. In this monstrable, or needing no demonstration place (faith Falentia) Jus is not to be taken able to their own form; as Fire to give hear. pains, forrow, and death) in this confidera-Now, as the reasonable mind is the form of tion they divide it, according to the divers The 1.96. Man, so is he aptly moved to those things kinds of appetites that are in us. For in art. a. which his proper form presenteth unto him; every man there are three forts of appeto wit, that which right Reason offereth; tites, which answer the three degrees of and the Acts of right Reason, are the acts of natural Law. The first is, to be that which we Vertue; and in the breach of the rules of are; in which is comprehended the defire. this Reason, is a man least excusable: as being both to live, and to preserve our being and a reasonable creature. For all else, both sen- life, as also the desire of issue, with care to fitive, growing, and inanimate, obey the provide for them: for the Father, after his Law which God imposed on them at their death, lives in his children; and therefore the defire of life comprehends the defire of The Earth performeth her office, accord- children. And to these appetites are referred ing to the Law of God in nature: for it the first indemonstrable laws of Nature, for bringeth forth the bud of the Herb, which the most part. For it needs no proof, that feedeth feed, o.c. and the Beaft, which liveth all creatures should defire to be, to live and thereon. He gave a law to the Seas, and to be defended, and to live in their iffue. Rain, and a way for the Lightning of the good, and thun evil. For it is common to all Thunders. He caused the Sun to move, and things, to desire things agreeable to their to give light, and to ferve for figns, and for own natures, which is, to defire their own feasons. Were these as rebellious as Man, for good. And so is good defined by Aristotle, whose take they were created, or did they to be that which all defire. Which definionce break the Law of their natures and tion Basil upon the 44. Psalm approveth: once bless the Law of the perill, Relle quidem bonum desinierunt, quod omnia and all return to their first Chaos, darkness, expetunt; Rightly have some men desined good, esp. 1.

or goodness, to be that which all things defire. The fecond kind of appetite, is of those unto them: In which fense the Civilians de-The School-men are large also in this Que- fine natural Right, or Jus naturale, to be the be called a law, but onely a fus, or Right, But this Law which Thomas Aquinas cal- which is the matter, and aim of every law.

fon, both in Beafts and Men; and restrain the and Equity. law of Nations to a kind of humane right.

The third appetite is of those things living creature reasonable: as well with rethe commandments of our Religion.

answering the division of matter, which it cannot deny himself. prescribeth, and as manifold, as the moral actions are which it commandeth or forbiddeth; yet is the law of Nature but one law, according to Aquinas: first, because it hath one fountain or root in the natural or motive faculty, which is but one, stirring up to good, and declining the contrary: secondly, be-

are reduced to one and the same last end. That this law of Nature binds all creatures, it is manifest; and chiefly Man; because he is endued with reason: in whom as reason groweth, so this band of observing the law of Nature increaseth; Postquam ratio ad perfectium venit, tune fit quod scriptum est Adveniente mandato peccatum revixit; When reason grew to perfection, then it came to pass, which was written by S. Paul, Rom 1.18. When the commandment came, fin revived. Nature, when those that break the same, are faid by S. Paul, To be delivered over into a reprobate fense (or mind) to do those things which Jom 2 15, are not convenient : And again, that their coning, and the like; yet it commandeth in general all good, and whatfoever is agreeable L. r. Fid. mascene; Homines facti sunt mali, declinando be without excuse, the slight defences of 21th 6.30. in id quod contra naturam est; Men (saith he) | ignorance being taken from them. are made evil, by declining unto that which is contrary to Nature: And S. Augustine, Omne vi- not written before, is, that when the People tium natura nocet, acper hoc contra naturam were few, and their lives long, the Elders of therefore contrary unto it. of Nature fo streight, but that they suffer the law of Nature many precepts from God, for a law, but for the matter of the law. And exceptions in some particulars. For, wherevet where Ulpian also distinguisheth the as by this law, all men are born Lords of the right belonging to living creatures in gene- Earth, yet it well alloweth inequality of porral, from the right belonging to men; cal- tions, according to unequal merit: by taking ling the one Jus Nature, the other Jus Gen-from the evil, and giving to the good; and tium: the Divines understand the law of by permitting and commanding that all men Nature more largely, that is, for all evident shall enjoy the fruits of their labours to dictates, precepts, or biddings of divine reat themselves: according to the rules of Justice

And though the law of Nature command. that all things be restored which are left in which appertain properly to Man, as he is a trust, yet in some cases, this her law she suffereth to be broken: as to denv a mad man lation to God, and to our Neighbour, as for his weapons, and the like, which he left in our felves: and the laws of this appetite are keeping while he was fober. But the Univerfal principles can no more be changed. Now, although there are many other than the decrees of God are alterable: who, branches and divisions of this law of Nature according to S. Paul, abideth faithfull, and

§. VII.

Of the written Law of God.

Fter the Eternal, and Natural, the law Politive or imposed is the next in order, which law, being nothing but an addition, cause all is contained in that general natural or rather an explication of the former, hath precept, That good is to be followed, and two kinds; Divine, and Humane. Again, ill avoided:and thirdly because all the parts | the Divine positive law is double; the Old, and New: The Old was given unto Moses in Mount Sinai, or Horeb, at fuch time as the World had frood 2512, whole years: and in the 67. day of this year, when as Ascatades, or Ascades governed the Assyrians, Marathus vic. Dei,11 the Sycionians, Triopus the Argives, Cecrops Attica, and Acherres Fgpt : to wit, after the promise to Abraham, 430 years. And this, it feemes, was the first written law which the World received. For the very word Nomes, fignifying a law, was not then, nor long after, Neither is it a small warrant for this law of invented by the Gracians; no not in Homer's time, who lived after the fall of Troy 80. years at least; and Troy it felf was cast down 335. years, after Moses led Israel out of Fe vot. This law, it pleased God to engrave in Stone, that sciences bear witness, and their thoughts accuse it might remain a lasting Book of his exthem. For though this law of Nature stretch | pressed Will in the Church: and that the not to every particular; as to command fast- Priests and People might have whereof to meditate, till the coming of Christ: and that so these Children of Ifrael, though bred to right and reason. And therefore said Da- among an Idolatrous People in Egypt, might

The reason known to us, why this law was est: Every vice doth wrong to nature, and is Families might easily, without any written law,instruct their own Children; and yet, as Neither yet are the rules of this law they increased, so doubtless they had, besides before the law written. But now at length, for | God himfelf, and whatioever was first imas much as the law of Nature did not define posed by Adam, the same was observed by all kinds of good, and evil; nor condemn | Seth, who instructed thos; from whom it every fin in particular: nor fufficiently ter- descended to Noah, sem, Abraham Maac, Jarifie the consciences of offenders; nor so ex- cob, Joseph, and Moses. Yea, many particular pound divine Worship, as for those after- commandments afterward written, were ages was required, who gave every day less formerly imposed and delivered over by authority than other to the natural laws. In traditions, which kind of teaching the Jeme thefe refrects it was necessary, that the law afterward called Cabala, or Receptio; Preshould be written, and set before the eyes of cepts received from the mouth of their all men; which before, they might, but Priefts and Elders; to which the fews after would not read in their own confciences. The the law written, added the interpretation School-men, and the Fathers before them, in- of fecret Mysteries, reserved in the bosoms large the causes and necessity, why the law of their Priests, and unlawful to be uttered to grounded upon this place of David, The law divine Law revealed to the Patriarchs, and of the Lord is undefiled converting Souls: The from them delivered to the Posterity, when testimonies of the Lord are faithful, giving mif- as yet it was unwritten. The commanddom to children. For the humane law, faith ments which God gave unto Adam in the be-S. Augustine, meeteth not with all offences, ginning, were, that he should impose names either by way of prohibition or punishment; to all Beasts, according to their natures; to feeing thereby it might take away fomthing whose perfection of understanding, they feeming necessary, and hinder common pro- were sufficiently known. For, finding the fit; but the divine law written, forbiddeth reason of his own name Adam, or Adamali. every evil, and therefore, by David, it is Earth, or red clay, he gave other names fignicalled undefiled.

Secondly, it ferveth for the direction of our minds. For the laws of men can onely take knowledg of outward actions, but not of internal motions, or of our disposition and will: and yet it is required, that we be no not first conceived in the mind.

Thirdly, it leadeth us to the knowledg of truth, which by reason of diversity of Opinion, and difference of peculiar laws among fundry Nations, we cannot be affured of; but the Law of GOD bindeth all men, and is without errour; and therefore also said David, That the testimony of the Law of God is faithful; giving wisdom to children.

6. VIII.

Of the unwritten Law of God, given to the Latriarchs by Tradition.

ture, it doth not appear. For the Patriarchs | mage of God hath He made Man. of the first Age received many Precepts from was written; whereof these are the chiefest, the People. But the true Cabala was not to The first, for restraining of sin, directly be concealed from any; as being indeed the ficant not only to Beafts, but to his Children and Nephews, which afterward his iffues imitated; as the name of seth lienifieth, as fome take it, one that was laid for the ground or foundation of the Church, or rather one given in recompence for Abel that . The less clean in the one, than in the other. And was slain; and Eno 3 significant Man, or misereading therefore were the words converting our rable, & c. Further, God commanded Adam is to mer-Souls, added by David: wherein are all our to till the Ground, and to live by the labour mi bar outward acts first generated, according to thereof: God also gave him the choice of act dethe Cabalifts. Actiones hominum nulle effent, all fruits, but the forbidden; and in Adam flortee nifi prius in mente dicerentur; The actions of also was Marriage first instituted, all men evili and men (fay they) would be none at all, mere they the cc-after being commanded to co-habit met the with their Wives, rather than with their Fa- tree mitther or Mother.

That murther and cruelty was also for-the ture bidden, both before the Law written, and winch it before the Flood it felf, it is manifest. God hath, cehimself making it appear, that it was one of Goding to the greatest causes of the destruction of Man-Ger 4 1. kind by the general Flood. For God faid liem 44 4. unto Noah, An end of all Flesh is come before & trea.
me; for the Earth is filled with cruelty through effectivy, them : and behold, I will destroy them * from being the Earth. That offence therefore, for which word, are all perished, could not be unknown to all but a sethat perished: God's Mercy and Justice interpofing between the untaught and Re-which is Now, that in all this long tract of Time, betweeen the Creation and the written to Noah, after the Waters were dried up minum it Law, the World and People of God were from the Earth: Whofo fleddeth Man's Blood, farmers left altogether to the law of Reason and Na- by Man shall his Eloud be shed; for in the I- wise.

age of God hath He made Man.

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $1.5

God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
God $2.5

Also the law of honouring and reverence
Also the law of honouring and reverence
Also the law of honouring and reverence
Also the law of honouring and reverence
Also the law of ho

Father's curse : as, Cursed be Canaan, a servant Prophets, and in the Pfalms. of servants shall he be unto his brethren. Again, we find that the unnatural fin of the is taken for the Law Moral, Ceremonial, and Sodomite was punished in the highest de- Judicial; as, Therefore we conclude, that a dultery and Ravishment, was before the Law the Law. no less detested than the rest, as appeareth by that revenge taken for Dina's forcing: by the repentance of Pharaoh and Abimelech, der the lam, but under grace. against whom this sentence was pronounced, Thou art but dead, because of the woman which where the Ceremonies or Signs are taken for thou hast taken; for she is a man's Wife. To the things signified; as the Sacrifice for Christ, these we may add the ordinance of Sacrifice, and the like; then it signifieth but shadows of Circumcifion, of the brother to raise up but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. feed to his brother that left a Widow childin the hearts of men, before it was engraven of the Priesthood; must needs be changed. in stone, but also in substance to have been though written after offences committed. It of concupifcence, &c. is true, that all the creatures of God were Beafts by fense and instinct, without difand things Inanimate, by their necessary motions, without fense or perception.

218

6. IX.

of the Moral, Judicial, and Ceremonial Law. mith a note prefixed how the Scripture freaketh not alway in one sence, when it nameth the Law of Moses.

Moles in particular, is taken by S. Paul di-Now we know, that what soever the Law saith, it | end of man's life. faith to them which are under the Law.

ing our Parents, was observed among the distinguished them; as, All must be fulfilled Lude 24 faithful, and the contrary punished by the which are written of me in the Law, in the 44.

When it is opposed to the Gospel, then it gree, as with fire from Heaven. The fin of A- man is justified by Faith, without the works of Rem 3.18.

When it is opposed to Grace, it fignisieth the declaration of Gods wrath, and our guilt and by the judgment which Juda gave against Tamar, That she should be burnt; and Law; and Summum Jus: as, For ye are not un-Gal 3.18

When it is opposed to the Truth, namely, of distinction of clean and unclean Beasts, and figures; as, The law was given by Moses, John 17.

Lastly, when it is opposed to the time of less, and divers other constitutions, partly | Christ's coming it signifies the whole policy Moral, and partly Ceremonial, which being of the Jews Common-wealth; as, Before Faith whoral, and partiy Ceremonial, which being of the jews Common-wealth; as, before rath delivered before the written Law were af. | came, we were kept under the law, &c. Or the Luc, 166. ter by it confirmed. So that this Divine Law law of the Order and Institution of the Aaroimposed, of which the Law of Moses contain- nical Priesthood; as, All the Prophets & the law, Hebr. 11, eth that which is called, The Old Testament, or the Priests, prophesied unto John. And if the Galant may be faid, not only to have been written Priefthood be changed, the Law also, to wit,

The word (Law) is fometime also taken given in Precept to the Patriarchs. For, as by the Figure Metonymia, for Interest, Au-S. Paul witneffeth of himself, I knew not sin, thority, and Empire, or for constraining gomes is but by the Law; fo ever the Law naturally force; as, The law of the Spirit of life, the law Rom 7 3) preceded, and went before offences, or the force of sin and death the enforcements

But the Written Law of Moses, or the law directed by some kind of unwritten Law; of the Old Testament, of which we now speak. the Angels intuitively; Men, by reason; is thus defined. The law is a doctrine, which was first put into the minds of men by God, course; Plants by their vegetative powers; and afterwards written by Moses, or by him repeated, commanding Holiness and Justice, promiting eternal life conditionally, that is, to the observers of the Law, and threatning Death to those which break the Law in the leaft. For according to S. James, Whofoever James shall keep the whole, and fail in one point, is 10. guilty of all. The definition used by the Schole-men, in which both the Old and New Law are comprehended, is thus given: Lex divina est divinum decretum, hominibus præ-Ow, as the word (Law) in general, as is Scribens modum necessarium, ut apte pervenire aforesaid, hath divers significations, and possint ad supernaturalem beatitudinem, qua est is taken for all doctrin which doth prescribe ultimus humane vita finis; the divine Law (say and restrain; so the Law, called the Law of they) is the decree of God, prescribing unto men a necessary mean, whereby they may aptly verily : as sometime for the Old Testament; as, attain supernatural beatitude, which is the last

The Law of Moses hath three parts: Mo-When it is opposed, or differenced from ral, Ceremonial, and Judicial. The Moral the Prophets and Psalms, it is there taken for part commandeth this or that good to be the five Books of Moses. For so S. Luke hath done, and this or that evil to be avoided, in particular; as also it declareth, for whose retaineth still. For these things also are take it is to be done; as, Do this, for I am the commanded in both Testaments to be ob-Lord; whereas the law of Nature commands | ferved : though principally for fear of God it but in general. Again, the Moral law en- in the one, and for the love of God in the rreateth of vertue and goodness; the Cerc- other. monial of divine fervice, and of holiness; (for external worship, and the order of hal- which it fore-fignified. For the shadow is lowing our felves unto God, is called Cere- not destroyed, but perfected, when the bomony and the Judicial teacheth the particu- dy it felf is represented to us. Besides, it lar government, fit for the Common-wealth still liveth in that it giveth both instruction of the Tems and prescribeth orders for justice and testimony of Christ, and in that it giveth and equity. And therefore was it faid of direction to the Church, for some Ceremo-Som. 7.13. S. Paul, The Commandment is just, holy, and nies and Types of holy fignification, which good: just, or justice being referred to the are still expedient; although in a farr fewer number than before Christ's coming, and in al; good, or honest to the Moral. The Judi- a farr less degree of necessity. cial part is touching the government of the Common-wealth of the Jews, in which many things must needs be proper to that estate, as fuch as were instituted either in respect of place or persons.

The Ceremonial is divided into four parts. according to the four kinds of things of which it speaketh, to wit, Sacrifice, holy were signs and shadows) and the Judicial is things Sacraments, and Observances. To Sa- taken away, as far forth as it was peculiar crifices belong Beafts, and the Fruits of the to the Jews Common-weal and Policy. earth; to holy things the Tabernacle, Temple, Vessels, Altars, and the like; to Sacraments, Circumcifion, the Paffover, and fuch like. For Observances, they consisted either in prohibition of certain meats, as not to eat the bloud and fat of Beafts; or in some other outward things, as in washings, purifyings, anointings, and attire, as not to wear mix d Garments of Linnen and Woollen: as also it prohibiteth other unnatural and unproper commixtion; as, Thou shalt not youk together in a Plough, an Ox and an AS, or cast mingled feed in one field. It also exhorteth to natural compassion, and forbiddeth cruelty. even to Beafts, Birds, and Plants, whereby the creatures of God might be destroyed without any profit to man. For fo foine referr these Precepts, Thou shalt not kill the Bird fitting on her Neft, nor beat down the Buds of the Tree, nor muzzle the labouring Ox, and the like, to the Ceremonial Law.

Neither is there any of these three parts of the law of Mofes, but it hath as yet in fome respect the same power which it had before the coming of Christ. For the Moral liveth still, and is not abrogated or taken proved by S. Paul, in these words: Wherefore away; faving in the ability of justifying or the Law is holy, and the Commandment is holy, condemning; for therein are we command- and just, and good: which three attributes ed to love and worship God: and to use are referred, as aforesaid, to the Moral, Cecharity one towards another; which for ever remonial, and Judicial. shall be required at our hands. Therein also are we in particular directed, how this proved in all his creatures; who, as he hath ought to be done; which power of direct- given all things their lives and beings, so he ing by special Rules and Precepts of life, it only gave the Law, who could onely give

The Ceremonial also lived in the things

Lastly, the Judicial liveth in substance, and concerning the end, and the natural and univerfal equity thereof.

But the Moral faileth in the point of justification the Ceremonial as touching the use and external observation / because Christ himself is come, of whom the Ceremonies

5. X.

A Proposal of nine other points to be considered with a touch of the five first.

S for that which remaineth in general confideration of the divine Written Law, it may in effect be reduced into these nine points.

- 1. The dignity and worth of the Law.
- 2. The Majesty of the Law-giver.
- 3. The property and peculiarity of the People receiving it.
- 4. The conveniency of the time in which it was given.
- 5. The efficacy and power thereof.
- 6. The difference and agreement of the Old and New Testament.
- 7. The end and use of the Law.
- 8. The fence and understanding of the Law.
- 9. The durance and continuance thereof.
- 1. The dignity of the Law is sufficiently
- 2. The Majesty of the Law-giver is ap-

Afoses immediately, but by the ministery of it self, or object and remote end, they Angels, as it is faid: And the Law was ordain- agree; which is, mans happiness and salvation. Gal. 3 19. ed by Angels, in the hand of a Mediator : And of Angels.

Jacob or Ifrael fingularly, of whom christ. Gospel for ever during. Now, to Abraham and his feed was the Proing of many, but, to thy feed, as of one, which

4. The conveniency of the time, in which conveniency are formerly given.

felf sufficient, but as a figure of christ in cere- concerning peace. Secondly, by an excelcalleth the Rudiments of the Law, beggarly four Gospels. and weak; beggarly, as containing no Grace, Lastly, for the preaching and divulging weak as not able to forgive and justifie. The the Doctrine of christ, as I cor. 9. 14. and bloud of Goats and Bulls, and the Ashes of an 2 Cor. 8. 18. Heifer could onely cleanse the body; but The agreement of both Testaments (tathey were figures of christ's bloud, which ken, I think, as they are divided in Volumes) doth cleanse the inward Soul. For if the Law is by Danaus comprised in these four. could justifie, then Christ died in vain.

6. XI.

Of the fixth Point, to wit, of the difference and agreement of the old and new Testament.

He old and new Testament differ in the end and reward promifed, to wit, the posed for attaining to salvation; as the old falvation of Mankind; but he gave it not to by Works, the new by Grace; but in the thing

The old Testament, or Law, or Letter, or in the Acts, He gave the Law by the Ordinance the Witness of Gods Will, was called the old. because it preceded the new Testament; H. & 3. 12. 2. The Propriety and Peculiarity of the which is an explication of the old: from People receiving the Law, is in three re- which the new taketh witness. Yet the new spects. First, in that they were prepared. Se- is of more excellency, in that it doth more condly in that they were a Nation apart and lively express, and openly and directly delidifferenced. Thirdly, in that they were the neate, the ways of our redemption. It is also Children of the Promise made to Abraham. called the old, to shew that in part it was to Prepared they were, because they had the be abrogated : In that he saith, the New Testaknowledg of one God, when all other Na- ment, be hath abrogated the Old. For the old tions were Idolaters. A Nation apart and fe- Law, though greatly extolled by the Provered they were, because of God's choice phets, and delivered with wonderfull miand election. Children of the Promife they racles, yet was it constituted in a policy were, for the Promise was made by God un- perishable; but the new was given in a proto Abraham and his feed; not unto his feeds, mife of an everlasting Kingdom, and thereas to Elan and Jacob, but to his feed, as to fore called in the Apocalyps, a Testament and

The old Testament is called the Law, bemise made; he saith not, to the seeds, as speak- cause the first and chief part is of the Law of Moses, of which the Prophets and Plalms are Commentaries, explicating that Law.

The new Testament is called the Gospel, it was given, is noted by S. Augustine; that it because the first and chief part thereof, is was about the middle time, between the the glad tidings of our Redemption: the Law of Nature and Grace: the Law of Na- other Books, as the Epiftles, or Letters of the ture continued from Adam to Moses: the Apostles, and the Asts or Story of the Apostles, Law written in the commandments received | are plentiful Interpreters thereof: The word by Moles in the Worlds year, 2514, continu- Evangelion, fignifying a joyful, happy, and ed to the Baptim of John; from which time, prosperous message, or (as Homer used it) began the Law of Grace, which shall conti- the reward given to the Messenger bringnue to the worlds end. Other reasons for the ing joyful news. It is also sometime taken for a facrifice, offered after victory, or other 5. The fifth confideration is of the effica- pleafing fuccess, as by Xenophon. In the Scricy of this Law, the same being a disposition ptures it hath three fignifications. First, for to, or fign of our Justification; but not by it glad tidings in general, as in Esay 52. v. 7. monies, and a preparation to righteousness in lency it is restrained, to fignifie that most moral precepts. For through the Passion of joyful message of Salvation, as in Luke 2. 10. Christ were fins forgiven, who taketh away whence also by figure it is taken for the the fins of the World: and therefore S. Faul History of christ; and so we understand the things promised. In the foundation, to wit, Christ. In the Effects, that is, in Righteousness and Justification.

In their Author. In the fubstance of the Covenant, or

In the Author they agree, because both name, and in the mean and way pro- are of God, and therefore both one Testament and will of God in substance of do- troduction (for to those which acknowledge old propoling him as to come, the new as already come; one and the same thing being promised in both; both tending to one and the same end, even the salvation of our Souls; which, according to S. Peter, is the end of our Faith. For although it be faid that Moles did promise by observing the law, an earthly kingdom, a land flowing with Milk and Honey the propagation of children, and other worldly bleffings; yet all these were but figures to teach, and pledges to affure the Fathers of those spiritual blessings by christ; acknowledg themselves strangers, and pilthese died in faith, and received not the proconfessing that they were strangers and pilgrims on the carth. To which purpose also S. Aună deci-gustine, Omnino pauci veterem legem intellivii. Dei, gunt, non attendentes per promissa terrena. 18.c.15. eterna promitti ; Few (faith he) do understand the old law; not attending that by things earth-In Soplon, ly, eternal are promised. And S. Hierom: Noluit 1.3. v. 9. Deus pascere Judæos more pecorum corporalibus donis opibulque, ut Judai fomniant; God would not feed the Jews as beafts with corporal gifts and riches, as themselves dream. And this may be gathered out of God's own words, Ego (um Deus tuus : O ero vobis in Deum; Iam thy God, and I will be your God. For the words, I wil be your God, prove that it was spect of the future ; to wit the safety of their things of this Law. Souls. For as God created both Body and The second end of the Law, is to render better part uncared for, which liveth ever.

Testament in substance, inferrs also the or half obedience; but both inward and agreement in foundation. For christ is outward righteousness, and performance of called the foundation of the law laid by the duty to God and Men. Apostles and Prophets; in whom all the profood, which we eat in our Sacraments.

knowledg of our fin and mifery, which is full tempest, threatning eternal death. taught us by the law maketh way, and, as it were, serveth in subordination to the Gospel, and preserve, the place of the Church and the proper effects wereof are mercy and fal- true People of God; and to hold men in Etrine. For as there was ever one Church, fo their fin and mifery, God sheweth his merwas there one Covenant and Adoption, and cy and falvation) may be faid to agree with one Doctrine. As the old law doth point at the Gospel in the effect. For otherwise, if we chrift, to doth the new Law teach Chrift; the fever the law from subordination to the Gospel, the effects are very different; the one sheweth the way of rightcoulness by works, the other by faith; the law woundeth, the Gospel healeth; the Law terrifieth, the Gospel allureth : Moses accuseth, Christ defendeth; Moses condemneth, Christ pardoneth. The old restrained the hand, the new, the mind. Data eft lex que non fanaret Rem (faith S. Augustine) fed que agrotantes probaret , The law was given, not to help but to difcover fickness: and S. Chrysofton; Data eft lex, ut se komo inveniret : non ut morbus sanarefor by the earthly, he raised their minds to tur, sed ut medicus quareretur; The law was the hope of heavenly. And the Fathers, not- given, that man might find and know his own withstanding these worldly goods, did yet imperfection; not that his disease was thereby holpen, but that he might then feek out the Phygrims, expecting the heavenly Hierusalem; scian. For Christ came to save the World, according to this place of the Hebrews; All which the Law had condemned. And as Mofes was but a Servant, and Christ a Son; fo mises, but saw them afar off, and believed them; the greatest benefit was reserved to be brought, as by the worthiest person, saith Heb. 7. Cyril; for this law made nothing perfect, but was an introduction of a better hope.

§. X I I.

Of the rest of the points proposed.

The feventh Confideration is of the end, and use of the Law; which is to bring us to christ; for finding no righteousness in our own works, we must seek it in some other. But this is the last, and remote, and utmost end; the next and proper end of the Law, isto prescribe righteousness, and to exnot for the present, or for perishable things, act absolute and perfect obedience to God. that God gave them this promise, but in re-

Soul, so bath he of his goodness, not left the us inexcusable before God; who knowing fo perfect a Law, do not keep it; the Law The agreement between the old and new requiring a perfect and entire, not a broken

The the third and chief end of the law, miles of God in the old and new are assured: is, as hath been faid, to fend us to Christ, and the Fathers having eaten the same spiritual his Grace, being in our selves condemned and loft. For the law was delivered with The agreement in effects, is, in that the thunder, and with a most violent and fear-

The fourth end of the law was to defign, vation; to which the law serving as an in- one Discipline, and aw, till the coming of

Chrift; after whom the Church was to be | ments, and his Ordinances, and his Laws, that diperfed over the whole World. end and use of the Ceremonial law, is to mandata; If thou milt enter into life, keep the Cy stament. The use of the Judicial, to teach us mandatum ejus vita aterna cit; I know that his conform our felves.

cal fore-speakings of Christ.

222

The See- the Law, the same had being until the Pas- of God, to fulfil the law (christ only as man pter mall not depart from of Christ; before which time, and while excepted) yet, if we rightly consider the from Ju- christ taught in the World, both the old and merciful care which God had of his people deb, nor a the new were in force. But after that the in those his Commandments, we shall find in from be- true facrifice was offered upon the Altar of our felves, how we borrow liberty, and ratowards God being thereby to be witneffed. And herein David so much rejoiced, as he preferred the observation of the law before all that the World could yield. In via testimoniorum tuorum deleciatus sum, sicut in Of the several Commandments of the Deca-1 John 5. omnibus divitiis; I have been delighted in thy law as in all manner of riches : And again, The law of thy mouth is good for me above thoufands of gold and filver. This is the love of God (saith S. John) that we keep his commandment. Deu 30 11,12,13 mandment (faith he) which I command thee power cannot be divided into many infinithis day, is not hid from thee, neither is it farr ties; and that it is of neceffity, that by this ... 6,7,8, off. It is not in heaven, that thou houldelf fay, Almighty Unity, all things have been caused, say Who shall go over the Sea for us, and bring every of them, Which giveth to Beasts their even in thy mouth, and in thy heart for to do it. also ferve and love him onely. Echold (faith Moses) I have set before thee this The second Precept is the forbidding of day life and death, good and evil, in that I com- Idolatry, and worthip of Images; the making mand thee this day, to love the Lord thy God, whereof, out of doubt, was not the invention to malk in his ways, and to keep his Command- of an ill intent in the beginning, feeing this then mark line. &c. Neither is it faid in vain Thele be the ends of the Moral Law. The in S. Matthew: Si vis ad vitam ingredi, ferva " confirm the truth of Christ, and the new Te- commandments; and in S. John, Scio quia natural equity and right, whereto we must Commandment is life everlatting. And if this be the charity of God, or of Men towards The sence and understanding of the law God, as S. John hath taught, to wit, that we is double, literal, and spiritual; by the lite- keep his Commandments; certainly, he is ral, we are taught the worship and service of but a lyar, that profesieth to love God. and God; by the spiritual, the figures and mysti- neglecteth to observe the word of his Will, with all his Power. And, though I confess it Lastly, for the durance or continuance of not in mans ability, without the special grace the Cross, then the Jewish facrifices and ce- ther let slip our affections, and voluntarily remonies, which were Types and Figures of loosen them from the chains of obedience, Christ (Christ being the Body of those sha- to which the Word of God, and Divine Readows) cealed to bind the conscience any son hath sastened them, than that we are exlonger; the mysterie of our Redemption cusable by those difficulties and impossibilibeing now by chrift, and in him, finished. In ties, which our mind (greedy of liberty) protoken whereof the veil of the Temple rent poseth to it felf. For, this is the love of God, afunder; noting that the ceremonial veils that we keep his Commandments, and his and shadows were now to be removed, not | Commandments are not grievous, 1 Joh. 5. 12. that the moral law of the Commandments and if we examine every Precept apart, and was hereby abolished, or weakned at all; then weigh them each after other, in the otherwise than that it had not power to con- ballance of our consciences; it is not hard for demn according to the Jewish doctrine, as a- any man to judg, by what easie persuasions, forefaid. For the observing of the law was by we steal away from our own power, as un-Christ himself severely commanded; our love willing to use it against our pleasing desires.

6. XIII.

logue; and that the difficulty is not in respect of the Commandments, but by our de-

Or by the first, we are commanded to acknowledg, ferve, and love one God. And that there is no excuse for the neglect Now, whereby are we entited to the breach of the things commanded in the law, God of this Precept? feeing every reasonable himself in Deuteronomy witnesseth. This Com- man may conceive and know that an Infinite Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it and are continued. And if brute Beasts had us, and cause us to hear it, that we may do it? | this knowledg of their Creator, and how in Neither is it beyond the Sea, that thou shouldest his Providence he hath also provided for it us? &c. but the word is very near unto thee, food, &c. there is no doubt, but they would prolifer

CHAP. IV. initiis orta funt; Allill examples did fpring and fame, is a gratitude which Nature it felf hath arise from good beginnings. For their first ere- taught us towards them, who, after God, ction was to keep the memory of men famous gave us life and being, have begotten us, and for their vertue; until (saith Lactantius) the born us, cherished us in our weak and help-Devil crept into them, and (having blotted less infancy, and bestowed on us the harvest out the first intent) working in weak and and profit of their labours and cares. Thereignorant Souls, changed the nature of the fore, in the Temporal and Judicial Ordione, and the reason of the other, to serve nances, curling of Parents, or the offering himself thereby. For what reasonable man if he be not forfaken of God, will call on those blind, deaf, dumb, and dead ftocks, more worthleis than the most worthless of those, that having life and reason, implore their help, which have neither; yea, of more vile price and baser, than the basest of Beasts, who have sense and estimation? For what do we thereby (faith the Wisdom of Solomon) but wild. 13. call to the weak for help, pray to the dead for life require aid of him that bath no experience, allitance in our journeys of him that cannot go. and success in our affairs of him that hath no power? And whether the Idolater, or the Block to which he prayeth, be more fenflefs, us from Adultery. Now, if the preservation David maketh a doubt. For (faith he) they of Virginity have been possible for thouthat make them are like unto them, and so are sands of Men and Women, who in all Ages all the rest that trust in them.

nor worldly profit; the two greatest inallured to this horrible disdain of God, unless the hate of good men, and Gods curse, be accounted an advantage. For, as our cor- the defire of beauty and form hath to conruptest nature gives us nothing towards it, strained, but he might with ease forbear the fo can it fatisfie no one appetite, except everlasting forrow, and Hell dwell in our defire. fuck to this Infant, and nourish warmth, till And therefore this strange custom hath the it grow to strong heat, heat till it turn to Devil brought up among men, without all fire, and fire to flame. fubrilty of argument, or cunning persuasion, taking thereby the greatest and most scornful advantage over us. For flaughter fatif- lent robbery had been used in Moses time, fieth hatred, Theft gives fatisfaction to need, which many Ruffians practife now a days in Adultery to lust, Oppression to covetous- England, and, to the dishonour of our Natiness; but this contemptuous offence of blaf- on, more in England, than in any Region of phemy, and the irreverent abuse of God's the World among Christians; out of doubt, name, as it giveth no help to any of our he would have censured them by death and worldly affections, so the most salvage Na- not by restitution, though quadruple. For, tions of the World do not use it.

Sabbath day holy, hath neither pain, burthen, ceth; but of those detested Thieves, who, nor inconvenience. For it giveth rest to the to maintain themselves Lord-like, assault, labourer, and confolation to their Masters. rob, and wound the Merchant, Artificer, and And, that this law was imposed on man for labouring man; or break by violence into the law: as in Exod.23.12. And in the seventh Drunkenness and upon Harlors, in one day, day thou shalt rest, that thine Ox, and thine the Stranger may be refreshed.

is generally true; Omnia mala exempla bonis Parents, with whom we are one and the them violence, was made death.

The next is, That thou fhalt not Murther, that is, Thou shalt not do the acts following the affections of hatred. For the Law of God and after it our own laws, and, in effect, the law of all Nations, have made difference between flaughter casual, and furious. Affectio enim tua (faith Bracton) imponit nomen operituo; It is the affection and will that makes the work such as it is. And certainly, who foever cannot forbear to commit Murther, hath neither the grace of God, nor any use of his own will. The third of the fecond Table, commands have mastered their sleshly desires, and have The branch of the third Commandment, returned chafte to their Grave: It cannot be Natile reis neither persuaded by worldly pleasure, accounted a burthen, to forbear the disho-pleas sernour and injury, which we offer to others by rem, Virchanters of mortal men. No, we are no way fuch a violation, feeing Marriage is permit- radifum. ted by the Laws of God and men, to all that affect it. And there is no man living, whom profecution of this ill, did not himfelf give

The fourth of the fecond Table, is, That we shall not steal. And, if that kind of vio-I speak not of the poor and miserable Souls, The fourth Commandment, to keep the whom hunger and extreme necessity inforhis benefit, Moses teacheth in the reason of other mens houses, and spend in Bravery, what other men have sometime laboured Ass may rest, and the son of thy Maid, and tor, all their lives; impoverishing whole Families, and taking the bread and food from The first of the second Table to honor our the mouths of their children. And that this Commandment might eafily be observed, it ment, not onely the conward act, but also would foon appear, if Princes would refelve, the inward affent unto cvil, though it break but for a few years, to pardon none. For, it not out into act, is forbidden; therefore, is the hope of life, and argument of sparing that we may know the difference between the first offence, that incourageth these Heil- this Commandment and the rest, the diffindoned once, there is no State or Common- with affent, and unbridled; others bridled. wealth, but these men would in a short time and without assent. For, even so the Moral impoverish or destroy it.

Commandment

224

criminal, that the Law ordained turn to turfought by falfhood to lay on his brother. .

The last of the ten Commandments, lurbiddeth us to covet any thing, which belongeth to another manacither the bodies of even those which we resist and bridle) are their wives for concupifcence, or their goods here to bidden. For though he that bridled for defire of gain. And this Precept feemeth his evil defires, be much better than he that the hardest for men to observe; so esteemed yieldeth unto them; yet, such a man acby reason of our frail affections; and yet, if cording to the Heathen Philosopher, is not we judg hereof rightly, it may be doubted, whether it extend to all our inconsiderate Aristotle himself makes Continentia, not to fancies, and vain thoughts. For, although it be vertue, but only a degree unto it; confefbe not caffe to mafter all our sudden paf- fing, that though the Continent man do well fions, yet we may restrain and hinder the in bridling his evil affections, yet he doth not growing, and farther increase, it we please all, seeing he ought not so much as to have to intend our strength, and feek for grace. them at all. Neither is it much more, that How the word Coveting, reacheth to all true Divinity delivereth touching this matthose, it is to be considered. For, Concupi- ter. For, as he saith, that in the Continent scentia, according to some, Est effranatus ha- man the having of these evil desires, though qua est principium proprium actus boni aut vi- ing such desires, though bridled, are a pultiofi; Such passions, or inclinations are imper- ling away of a part of our heart and affectifeet acts, that is, not deliberated upon by rea- on from God. fon, which is the proper Principle of a good or suffer them to bear sway. But these men, as possible for us to keep. For, as he is accursed it seems; make nothing forbidden in the (saint Hierom) that avows that the tenth Precept, but what hath been sorbid. Law is in all things possible to be observed: den in the other: for in every Command- fo he hath made this addition: Maledidus ravals, madel hounds. And if every man prefume to be par- ction of defines is to be held; that fome are Finlogopher can tell us that the continent man The fifth Commandment of this second hath evil defires, but without assent (for Table, is, the prohibition of falle wit ... they are bridled by the strength of right from which, if men could not foreer the reason) as, on the other fide, the Incontinent furety of estate and life were take away, and good desires but restrained and sup-And io much did God detest a fe' innels, prefied by contrary passions. The evil deand a false accuser, especially, a matters was, when they are accompanied with asare in every Commandment forbidden, fer the same death or punishmen, which he together with the outward act; and therefore if we will have any thing proper to this Commandment, we must needs say, that the evil defires of the continent man (that is, worthy the name of a vertuous man. For bendi appetitus; An unbridled, or unrestrain- he resist them, is the cause that he cannot ed appetite of having: And, as touching fuch | be called a vertuous man: fo we, that the an appetite, we cannot excuse our selves by having of them is a sin. Onely in this we exany our natural frailty, or unadvised error; cel him here; that we are able out of Divi-But, as I suppose, the word Concupiscence is nity, to give the true reason of this doctrine; more largely taken, either for a determi- which is, that every one finneth, that doth nate and unbridled evil intent, or for fome not love God with his whole heart and afurging inclination thereunto. All the que- fection: whence it followeth, that the evil Hion is of the later fort; which is, Adus defires of the Continent man; that is, of him imperfectus, id oft, non deliberatus ratione, which bridleth them, must needs be sin: see-

Seeing therefore it hath pleased God, to vicions action. And fure, it may feem, that fo make us know, that by our faithful endealong as we refift fuch motions, they harm us vours to keep his Commandments, we witnot: as they fay, Quandin refragamur, nihil ness our love toward himself; we may not nocent: nocent autem cum eas dominari per- safely give liberty to our vanities, by casting mittimus; As long as we give no affent unto back upon God (who is Justice it self) that them, it is thought by some, that they burt us he hath given us Precepts altogether benot; and that then onely they burt, when we youd our power, and Commandments im-

qui dicit impolsibilia Deum pracepisse; Accursed | us see the inconveniences in this life, which is he that faith, that God hath comanded things would follow by the breach and neglect of (in themselves, and not through our fault) these Laws. impolitble. Now as the places are many which command us to keep the Law; fo is our acknowledged many gods? would not a weakness also in the Scriptures laid before farr greater hatred, warr, and bloud-shed us and therefore it is thus fafely to be under- follow, than that which the difference of Cefrood, that we should without evasion, or remony, and divertity of interpretation. without betraying of our felves, do our hath already brought into the World, even faithful endeavours to observe them: which among those Nations which acknowledge if we do unfeignedly, no doubt, but God will accept our defires therein. For that there is no man just. David witnesicth : Enter net into indement with thy fervant, for in thy fight, no field that liveth shall be justified. And in the first of Kings, There is no man that sunneth simpossibility to receive thence from, either not; And again, Who can fay, I have made my help or comfort? Trov. 20 9 heart clean? But, seeing there is no sin grievous without deliberation; let every man's bringeth therewith this difadvantage and ill conscience judg him, whether he give way to man, that whosoever taketh the Name of willingly, or reftrain himself in all that he God in vain, shall not at any time benefit can, yea, or no? For when a King gives to his himself by calling God to witness for him, subject a commandment upon pain of loss of when he may justly use his Holy Name. his love, to perform some service: if the Subject, neglecting the same, seek to satisfie his Soveraign with shifting excuses, out of doubt requireth intermission from labour. fuch a Prince will take himfelf to be de-

Снар. IV.

6. XIV.

If there were not any Religion, nor Judgment to come, vet the Decalogue were most necessary to be observed.

rided therein.

Nd if we confider advifedly, and foberly, of the Moral Law, or ten Commandments, which God by the hand of Moles gave unto his People, it will appear that fuch no honour descend to Posterity, no endeawas his merciful Providence in the choice of vour by vertue and undertaking to raise Fathem, as, were there neither pain nor profit milies; murthers and poisonings between adjoyned to the observing or not observing Man and Wife would be daily committed; of them; were there no divine power at all, nor any Religion among men; yet, if we did not for our own fakes strive to observe these Laws, all Society of men, and all endeavours, all happiness and contentment in rish, or live as the Salvages, by Roots and this life would be taken away, and every State and Common-weal in the World fall joy the fruits thereof. And fuch is the misto the ground and diffolye. Therefore these chief of Robbery, as where Moses for lesser Laws were not imposed as a burthen, but as crimes, appointed restitution sourfold, polia bleffing: to the end that the innocent cy of State, and neceffity, hath made it death. might be defended, that every man might enjoy the fruits of his own travel, that right mens lives and estates from them by corrumight be done to all men, from all men; ption; the wicked would swear against the that by Justice, Order, and Peace, we might vertuous; the waster against the wealthy; live the lives of reasonable men, and not of the idle Beggar and Loyterer, against the Beafts; of free-men, and not of flaves; of careful and painful Labourer; all trial of civil men, and not of Salvages. And hereof right were taken away, and Justice thereby making our humane reason onely Judg, let | banished out of the World.

As first, what would the islue be, if we one God, and one Chrift &

And what could it profit mankind to pray to Idols, and Images of Gold, Metal, dead

The breach of the third Commandment

The observing the Sabbath Holy, giveth rest to Men and Beasts, and Nature her self

If we despise our Parents, who have given us being, we thereby teach our children, to forn and neglect us, when our aged years require comfort and help at their hands.

If Murther were not forbidden, and feverely punished, the race of mankind would be extinguished; and v hosoever would take the liberty to destroy others, giveth liberty to others to destroy himself.

If Adultery were lawful, and permitted, no man could fay unto himfelf; This is my Son: there would be no inheritance proper, and every man subject to most filthy and unclean Diseases.

If Stealth and violent Rapine were fuffered, all mankind would shortly after pe-Acorns. For no man laboureth but to en-

To permit false Witnesles, is to take all distraction of mind, with an inward vexati- initio non sublistit; That which at first was not are therein fed with vain and fruitles hopes, ab initio viciosum est, non potest tracin tempobe deprived of our own.

py condition.

§. X V.

Of humane law, written, and unwritten.

Umane law, of which now it followeth is only the Prince.
to speak, is first divided into two (viz.) Humane law, g Written and unwritten. The unwritten con-Consuctudines vetustate probata; to be cufrom the effect; in that custom is by use and

And of customs there are two general na- more largely, Omne id quod ratione consistit; tures, containing innumerable particulars; All that stands with reason. and other Provinces.

The second are these petty customs, used are some written, others unwritten.

dom written, but witneffed by testimony of except it agree with the law natural and of Cornwall, comprehending also the Stanna- mate (saith S. Augustine) which the Lawry of Devon, as touching Tinn, and Tinn causes makers have not derived from the eternal. But howfoever, use and time hath made eterna lege sibi homines derivaverunt. these customs as laws, yet ought every cu-

The covering of that which belongs to | from to be rationabilis, as well as prascripta. orher men, bringeth no other profit than a Non firmatur trastu temporis, quod de jure ab on; for while we covet what appertains to grounded upon good right, is not made good by others, we neglect our own: our appetites continuance of time. And (laith Ulpian) quod whiles, fo long as we do but covet; and if we do at- poris convalescere; Course of time amends not tain to the delire of the one, or the other, to that which was naught from the first beginning. wit, the Wives, or goods of our neighbours; For these two defences are necessary in all we can look for no other, but that our felves laws of cuftom; the one, that it be not reshall also, either by theft or by strong hand, pugnant to the law Divine, and Natural; the other, that the cause and reason be strong, Wherein then appeareth the burthen of proving a right birth, and necessary conti-Gods Commandments, if there be nothing in nuance; it being manifest, that every custom them, but rules and directions for the ge- which is against the law, had its beginning neral and particular good of all living? from evil deeds, and therefore not without Surely, for our own good, and not in respect the former considerations to be allowed. And of himself, did the most merciful and provilit is true, that all customs of this nature, were dent God ordain them; without the obser- but tollerated for a time, by the law-makers, vation of which, the vertues of heavenly though they have been fince continued; bebodies, the fertility of the earth, with all cause posterity is not bound to examine by the bleffings given us in this life, would be what cause their Ancestors were thereto ueto us altogether unprefitable, and of no moved. For, Non sufficit simplex toleratio. And use. For we should remain but in the state it is in this fort over-ruled in the law; Per poof brute Beasts, if not in a farr more unhap- pulum consuctudo contra legem induci non potest, nisi de voluntate illius qui novam legem & novam constitutionem statuere potest, qui solus princeps eft; The people cannot bring in a new custom against law, save by his will, who hath power to make a new law and ordinance, which

Humane law, generally taken, to wit, humane law written, is by some defined to be filts of usage, approved by time; which It- the decree or doom of practick reason; by dore calls Mores; and he defines Mores to be which humane actions are ruled and directed. Papinian calls the law a common precept, stoms approved by antiquity, or unwritten laws. the advisement of wife men, and the restraint Now custom different from use, as the cause of offences committed, either willingly or ignorantly. Isidore calls the law, a Constituticontinuance established into a law; but yet on written, agreeing with Religion, sittest there, where the law is defective, faith Isidore. for government and common profit; And the first are written customs, received and Lastly, and more precisely, it is thus defined. Greg. de exercised by Nations, as the cultoms of Eur-Humane law is a righteous decree, agreeing Val ex gundy and Normandy, the antient general cu- with the law natural and eternal; made by and and other manders and eternal; made by and and and eternal; from of England, and the customs of Castile, the rational discourse of those, that exercise 9.94-and publick authority; prescribing necessary observances to the subject. That every law in particular Places, Cities, Hundreds, and ought to be a righteous decree, S. Augustine Mannors. The general or National customs teacheth, saying, Mihi lex esse non videtur, quæ justa non fuerit; It seems to be no law at all to The particular or petty customs are sel- me, which is not just; and just it cannot be, the inhabitance. The custom of the Dutchie eternal. For there is no law just and legitiare written in Devon, but not in Cornwall. Nihil justum atque legitimum est, quod non ab Lib i della

Secondly, it ought to be constituted by outlined from the law natural, to wit the na- because they depend on particular circumtural, demonstrable, or needing no demon- frances, which are divers, and do not fit all fration, from whence the law humane is Estates. Hereof Olpian, Jus civile neque in totaken and deduced.

CHAP. IV.

be the government of what kind foever. id ift, Civili efficionus; The civil Law (faith he) For it falleth otherwise under the title of doth neither wholly differ from the law of Nathose decrees called Violentia, or iniqua con- ture and Nations, nor yet in all points obey it: Hitutiones; Violences, or wicked confitutions. therefore, when we add ought to, or take from especially answering these four condensation that is, the Civil Law. the former definition. First, as it is chawn | The law now commonly called the Civil out of the law of Nature; to every particu- Law, had its birth in Rome; and was first writlar of the humane law may be possilved into ten by the Decem-wiri, 202, years after the some principle or rule of the natural.

ferred unto, and doth respect, the common an laws, as out of the antient Roman customs law, it prescribeth and directeth all humane though so many of the former laws as mainactions. And so is the law as large and divers, tained Kingly authority, were abolished as all humane actions are divers, which may with the name; yet those of Servius Tullius, tall under it. For according to Thomas, Alia for commerce and contracts, and all that lex Julia de Adulteriis, alia Cornelii de Sicari- appertained to Religion and common Utiis: The law of Julian against Adultery is one the lity, were continued, and were a part of the of Nations, and the Civil.

properly; less properly for every law which the Lawyers, called Responsa-prudentum; is not of it self, but from other higher prin- and the Edicts of the Annual Magistrate; ciples deduced: and so it seemeth that Ulpi- which Edicts being first gathered and interan understands it: for he defineth Jus Genti- preted by Julian, and presented to Adrian um, or the law of Nations, to be that which is the Emperor, they were by him confirmed, only common amongst men, as Religion, and and made perpetual laws, and the Volume the Worship of God; which is not in the ve- styled, Edictum perpetuum; as those and the ry nature of this law of Nations; but from the like collections of Justinian afterward were. principles of the Scriptures, and other divine The difference antiently between Laws and the Natural, sometime of the Humane.

discourse of reason, whereby it is distin- 1 Nations do not agree in or easily assent unto: tum a Naturali & Gentium recedit, neque per In Log. 6. Thirdly, that it ought to be made by an omnia ci fervit: itaque cum aliquid addimus, Todana authorifedMagistracy, it cannot be doubted, vel detrahimus juri communi, jus proprium, iar. A Parts. Of humane law there are four proposites, the law that is common, we make a law proper, foundation of the City. It was compounded Secondly, it is to be confidered as it is re- as well out of the Athenian and other Greciand laws Regal. The Regal laws were de-Thirdly, it is to be made by publick au- vifed by the first Kings, and called Leges Regir or Papyriane, because they were gather-Fourthly, concerning the matter of the ed by Papyrius, Tarquin then raigning. For, Dian, Hal. Cornelian against Russians, is another. Now, laws of the twelve Tables. To these laws 6. Signam. the humane law generally taken, is in respect of the twelve Tables, were added (as the of these considerations, divided into the law times gave occasion) those made by the Se-position. nate, called Senatus-confulta: those of the The law of Nations is taken less or more common people, called Plebei-scita, those of Revelations. But the law of Nations proper- Edicts, which the French call Reglements, ly taken, is that dictate, or fentence, which is confifted in this, that laws are the Constitudrawn from a very probable, though not tions made or confirmed by Soveraign Aufrom an evident principle, yet fo probable, thority (be the foveraignty in the People, in that all Nations do affent unto the conclusi- a few or in one) and are withall general and on, as that the free pallage of Amballadors be permanent: but an Edice (which is but granted between enemies, &c. which Nati- Julium Magifiratus, unless by authority it be onal law, according to divers acceptations, made a Law ) hath end with the officer, who and divers confiderations had of the humane made the fame, faith Varro. Qui plurimum law, may be sometime taken for a Species of Edicto tribuunt, legem annuam effe dicunt; They who ascribe the most to an Edict, say that Jus civile, or the civil Law is not the same it is a law for one year: Though Isidore doth in all Common-wealths, but in divers Estates also express by the word constitutions or it is also divers and peculiar, and this law is Edits, those Ordinances called Acts of not so immediately derived from the law of Prerogatives; as, Constitutio, vel Edictum est Nature, as the law of Nations is: For, it is quad Rex, vel Imperator constituit, vel edipartly deduced out of such principles, as all cit; An Ordinance or Edict is that which a King or Emperour dothordain, or proclaim. firmed by the Statute of Magna Charta. It Secular, and into the Ecclefisfical, or Canon. eldeft Sons flould inherit without partition. The Secular commanding temporal good, to In Germany, France, and elsewhere otherwir, the Peace and tranquility of the Com- wife, and by partition. In Ireland, it is the good, and right government of the Feelest- refigned into the Kings hands) that the elme praife, approve, and by our Kingly Authority approbation of the People confirmed. confirm. The Common Law of England is Islande faitneth these properties to every also compounded of the antient customs of Christian Law, that the same behonest, that other fmall Courts.

228

Lastly, the humane Law is divided into the is by the antient custom of England, that the mon-weal; the Eccleliaftical, the spiritual custom of all Lands (that have not been aftical Common-wealth, or Church: Illud na- delt of the House thall enjoy the Inheriture legem, hoe divinam pecat; That respect tance during his own lite; and so the eth the law of Nature, this the Law of God. fecond and third eldett (if there be to ma-And so may fus Civile be taken two ways; ny brothers) before the Heir in lineal de-First, as distinguished from the law of Nati- seem; this is called the custom of Tanistry. ons, as in the first division: Secondly, as it is For example, if a Lord of Land have four the same with the secular, and diverte from Sons, and the eldert of those four have also the Ecclefaltical. But this division of the a Son, the three brothers of the eldeft Son School-men is obscure. For although the Ci- shall, after the death of their brother, envilbe the same with the secular, as the Civil joy their Fathers Lands before the grandis a law, yet the Secular is more general, and child: the cuftom being grounded upon comprehendeth both the Civil and all other the reason of necessity. For the Irish in forlaws not Ecclefaltical. For ot Secular laws in mer times, having always lived in a fubuse among Christian Princes, and in Christian divided civil Warr, not onely the greatest Common-weals, there are three kinds; the against the greatest, but every Baron and Civil, which hath every where a voice, and Gentleman one against another, were enis in all Christian Estates (England excepted) forcid to leave successors of age and abi-most powerful; the laws of England, called lity, to detend their own Territories. Now, Common, and the laws of cuitom, or Provin- as in Normandy, Eurgundy, and other Procial. In Spain, befides the law Civil, they vinces of France, there are certain peculiar have the customs of Caltil, and other Pro- and petty Customs, besides the great and vinces. In France, belides the Civil, the general cultom of the Land, so are there in cultoms of Eurgundy, Blogs, Eerri, Nivernois, England, and in every part thereof. But the and Lodungis, &c. Tous liez litues & allis en greatest bulk of our Laws, as I take it, are Lodunois, seront governez selon les costumes du the Acts of Parliament; Laws propounded clit pays; All places lying within the precincts and approved by the three Estates of the of Lodunois, fiall be governed according to the Realm, and confirmed by the King, to the customs of that place. There are also in France obedience of which, all men are therefore the cuftoms of Normandy, and these of two bound, because they are Acts of choice, and kinds:General, and Local; and all purged and felf-defire. Leges nulla alia causa nos tenent, reformed by divers Acts of the three Effaces. quam qued judicio populi recepta funt; The The Charters of confirmation of these an- Laws do therefore bind the Subject, because win # in tient cultoms, before and fince their refor- they are received by the judgment of the Sub-Leg Leg. mation have these words: Nos autem Regi- ject. Tum demum humanæ leges habent vim And the frum pradictum, usus landabiles, & conjuc- suam, cum fuerint non modo instituta, sed verselle tudines antiquas, &c. laudamus, approbamus, etiam firmata approbatione communitatis; It Cristian & authoritate Regia confirmamus; The Regi- is then that humane laws have their frength, dec diffe. fier aforefaid landable use, and antient customs, when they shall not onely be devised, but by the Comis the fame, and of certain Maxims by those it be possible, that it be according to Nacultoms of the Realm approved. Upon ture, and according to the cultom of the which cultoms also are grounded those Country; also for the time and place, con-Courts of Record, of the Chancery, Kings venient, profitable, and manifest; and with-Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer, with out respect of private profit, that it be written for the general good. He also gives These antient customs of England have been four effects of the Law, which Modestinus approved by the Kings thereof from Age comprehends in two; to wit, obligation, to Age: as that custom by which no man and instigation: the former binds us by fear, shall be taken, imprisoned, disseifed, nor to avoid vice; the later encourageth with otherwise destroy'd, but he must first be put hope, to follow vertue. For, according to to answer by the Law of the Land, was con- Cicero, Legem opertet effe vitiorum emendatricem, commendatricemque virtutum : It be- lex facit ut iple fit Rex : Rightfully ought the or binding us to the observation of things that doth make Kings. commanded, or forbidden, is an effect com- But whereas Eradon aferibeth this power mon to all laws; and it is two-fold: the one to the humane law, he is therein militaker. constraineth us by fear of our consciences, For Kings are made by God, and laws dithe other by fear of external punishment, vine; and by humane laws onely, declared These two effects the Law performeth, by to be Kings. As for the places remembred the exercise of those two powers, to wit, by the Divines and Lawrers, which inferr a Coactive and Directive. bred by Modestinus, is Instigation, or incou- science, and profit ariting from the examples ragement to Vertue, as Arifiotle makes it the of vertuous Princes, who are to give an acend of the Law, to make men vertuous. For compt of their actions to God onely. laws being fuch as they ought to be, do both by preferibing and forbidding, urge us to enely have I linned; therefore the Prince of de the evil by the one and the other purchased. Trinceps non subjicitur legi. For seeing, ac-And this power affirmative commanding cording to the seleol-men, the law humane, good, and power negative forbidding evil, is but quoddam organum, & inflrumentum are those into which the law is divided, as fatestatis gubernative: non videtur posse ejus comprehenderh the whole body and fub- vis potefiatis Lumana non pertinet; fed vis bonum, Decline from evil and do good.

ş. XVI.

That onely the Prince is exempt from lumane laws, and in what fort.

fon, it is doubtfully disputed among those the governing power doth reside, is a person that that have written of this subject, as well cannot by limself, or by his own power, be con-Divines as Lawyers; and namely, whether trolled. And therefore the law which is made Soveraign Princes be compellable; yea, or by fuch a power, cannot bind the Law-maker rity and strength.

Laws, simply then is the Prince io much vero sola voluntate sua, & intuitu boni comabove the laws as the Soul and Body united, is above a dead and fenficis Carkais. For his own will and regard of the common good. the King is truly called, jus vivum, & lex animata: An animate, and living law. But this is true, that by giving authority to laws, Princes both add greatness to themselves, and conferve it; and therefore was it faid of Eracton out of Jultinian; Merito debet | should presume to digress, I will not pre-

Rex tribuere legi quod lex attribuit ei: nam fume to determine, but leave it as a questi-booteth the Law to be a mender of Vices, and a King to attribute that to the law, which the law commender of Vertue. The part obligatory, first attributeth to the King; for it is the law kind of obligation of Princes, they teach no The fecond of these two effects remem- other thing therein, than the bond of con-

Tibi foli peccavi, faith David; against thee Planso. well-doing; laying before us the good and cannot be faid to be fubject to the law; Leg touching the matter : and in which David obligatio ad cum se extendere, ad quem insa stance thereof: saying Declina a malo, & fac | celestatis humana non se extendit ad cubernatorem in quo illa relidet. Ergo, neque lex condita per talem potestatem obligare potest infum conditorem. Omnis enim potentia activa, eft principium transmutandi aliud; Secing bumane law (lay they) is but a kind of organ, or instrument of the power that governeth, it feems that it cannot extend it felf to bind any Ow, whether the power of the humane one whom no humane power can controll or lay Ow, whether the power of the number of the n no? But whereas there are two powers of himself: for every active ability, is a cause or the Law, as aforefaid; the one Directive, the principle of alteration in another body, not in other Coadive: to the power Directive they the body in which it self resides. And seeing ought to be fubject, but not to that which Princes have power to deliver others from constraineth. For, as touching violence, or the obligation of the law; Ergo, eliam poteft Gree Vapunishments, no man is bound to give a pre- ipsemet Princeps, sive Legislator sua se voluntate tomia de judicial judgment against himself; and, if | pro libito ab obligatione legis liberare; There-Leg. equals have not any power over each other, fore also may a Prince, or Law-maker, at his own much less have inferiours over their superi- will and pleasure, deliver himself from the bond ours, from whom they receive their autho- of the Law. Therefore in the rules of the Law it is thus concluded: Subditi tenentur And speaking of the supreme power of leges observare necessitate coastions. Princeps munis : The subjects are bound to fulfill the Law by necessity of compulsion, but the Prince only by

> Now, concerning the politick laws, given by Moses to the Nation of the Israelites, whether they ought to be a Prefident, from which no civil Institutions of other People on for fuch men to decide, whose protest the rigour of Moles law required; even as fions give them greater ability. Thus much I the good King Hezekiak did, in a matter may be bold to affirm, That we ought not to meerly Ecclesiastical, and therefore the less feem wifer than God himfelf, who hath told | capable of diffensation, praying for the peous that there are no laws for ighteous, as those ple; The good Lord be mercifull unto him, which it pleased him to give to his Elect that prepareth his whole heart to seek the People to be governed by. True it is that Lord God, the God of his Fathers, though he all Nations have their feveral qualities, be not cleanfed according to the purificatiwherein they differ, even from their next on of the Sanctuary; which Prayer the Lord borderers, no less than in their peculiar heard and granted. Languages; which disagreeable conditions ter of provocation to vice (as plenty make rigour than Moses, becometh not the Gospel. the Sybarites luxurious; want, and oppor-

CHAP. IV

To this effect it is well observed by Mr. to govern aptly, one and the same law very Doctor Willet, that the moral Judicials of hardly were able. The Roman civil laws Moses do partly bind and partly are let free. did indeed contain in order a great part of They do not hold affirmatively, that we are the then known World, without any no- tied to the fame feverity of punishment table inconvenience, after such time as once now, which was inflicted then; but negait was received and become familiar; yet tively they do hold, that now the punishwas not the administration of it alike in all ment of death should not be adjudgparts, but yielded much unto the natural ed, where sentence of death is given by customs of the fundry people which it go- Moses; Christian Magistrates ruling under verned. For, whether it be through a long Chrift the Prince of peace, that is, of Clemen-1/21 9. continued persuasion; or (as Astrologers ev and Mercy, may abate of the severity of more willingly grant) fome influence of Moles law, and mitigate the punishment of the Heavens; or, peradventure, fome tem- death, but they cannot add unto it, to make per of the foil and climate, affording mat- the burthen more heavie : for to shew more

But I will not wander in this copious artunity to fleal, makes the Arabians to be gument, which hath been the subject of ma-Thieves) very hard it were to forbid by ny learned discourses, neither will I take law, an offence so common with any people, upon me, to speak any thing definitively in a as it wanted a name, whereby to be diffin- case which dependeth still in some controguished from just and honest. By such ri- versie among worthy Divines. Thus much gour was the Kingdom of Congo unhappily (as in honour of the Judicial law, or rather diverted from the Christian Religion, which of him that gave it I may well and truly say, it willingly at the first imbraced, but after, that the defence of it hath always been vewith great fury rejected, because plurality ry plausible. And surely, howsoever they be of Wives was denied unto them, I know not accepted (neither were it expedient) as not how necessarily, but more conscienti- a general and onely law; yet shall we hardoully than feafonably. In fuch cases, me- ly find any other ground, wheron the conthinks it were not amils to confider, that science of a Judg may rest, with equal satisthe high God himself permitted some thing saction in making interpretation, or giving to the Ifraelites, rather in regard of their fentence upon doubts arifing out of any law natural disposition (for they were hard- besides it. Hereof, perhaps, that Judg could hearted) than because they were consonant have been witness, of whom Fortescue, that unto the antient Rules of the first perfection. notable Bulwark of our laws, doth speak, So, where even the general nature of man complaining of a judgment given against a doth condemn (as many things it doth) for Gentlewoman at Salisbury, who being accuwicked and unjust; there may the law, sed by her own man, without any other given by Moses, worthily be deemed the proof, for murthering her Husband, was most exact reformer of the evil, which for- thereupon condemned, and burnt to ashes: ceth man, as near as may be, to the will the man who accused her, within a year afand pleasure of his Maker. But where na- ter, being convict for the same offence conture or custom hath entertained a vicious, fest that his Mistris was altogether innocent yet not intolerable habit, with fo long and of that cruel fact, whose terrible death he fo publick approbation, that the vertue op- then (though over-late) grievoully lamentpofing it would feem as uncouth, as it were ed; but this Judg, faith the fame Author, to walk naked in England, or to wear the Sapins ipse mihi fassus est, quod nunquam in cares English fashion of apparel in Turkie; there vita sua animum ejus de hoc facto ipse purgamay be a wife and upright Law-giver, ret; He himself often confessed unto me, that without prefumption, omit somewhat that he should never, during his life, be able to clear his conscience of that said. Wherefore, that sear is the beginning of Wildom. To which acknowledgment which other sciences yield purpose, well saith Saint Augustine, Condiunto the Metaphylicks, that from thence are tor legum temporalium li vir bonus eft. O drawn Propositions, able to prove the prin- sapiens, illam ipsam consulit aternam, de qua ciples of Sciences, which out of the Scien-nulli anime judicare datum eft; The Author ces themselves cannot be proved, may just- of temporal Laws, if he be good and wife, ly be granted by all other politick institution doth therein consult the Law aternal, to detions, to that of Moses; and so much the termine of which, there is no power given to more justly, by how much the subject of the any soul. And as well Prince Edward, in Metaphylicks which is, Ens quatenus Ens; Fortescue his Discourse, Nemo potest melius. Being as it is being; is infinitely inferiour aut alind fundamentum ponere, quam posuit to the Ens Entium; The Being of beings, the Dominus; No man can lay a better, or another onely good, the fountain of Truth, whole foundation than the Lord hath laid.

The Story of the Israelites from the receiving of the Law, to the death of Moses.

§. I.

of the numbring and disposing of the Host of Israel, for their marches through the Wilderness; with a note of the reverence given to the Worship of God, in this ordering of their troups.

LORD, such Princes and Leaders, as in camped on the South-side of the Tabernacle. Worth and Reputation were in every The third Army marched under the Stanof three whole Tribes.

Men, confifted of three Regiments, which of the general Army, containing 157600. may well, in respect of their number, be cal- able men, marched under the Standard of led Armies; as containing the three whole Dan; to whom were joyned the two Tribes Tribes of Judah, Islachar and Zabulon. In of Nephtali and Asher. And these had the the Tribe of Judah were 74600. fighting Rere-ward, and moved last, encamping on men, led by Naasson; in Islachar, 54400. led the North-side. Dan had 62700. under Ahi-l., Nathaniel; in Zabulon 57400 led by Eliab., ezer; Asher 41500. under Pagiel; Nephtali All these marched under the Standard of the 53400. under Ahira. Tribe of Judab, who held the Vaunt-guard, Besides these Princes of the several and was the first that moved and march-Tribes, there were ordained Captains over ed, being lodged and quartered at their Thousands, over Hundreds, over Fifties, and

Hen Moles had re-Igeneral encamping on the East-side of the ceived the Law Army, which was held the first place, and from God, and published it among the The second Battalion or Army, called in People and finished the Scriptures the host of Renben, had joynthe Tabernacle of the Ark, and Sanctuary; ed unto it Simeon and Gad, in number, he mustred all the Tribes and Families of 151450. All which marched under the Stan-Ifrael; and having feen what number of Men dard of Reuben. In the Tribe of Reuben were fit to bear Arms, were found in every Tribe, 46500. under Elizur; in Simeon, 59300. from twenty years of age upwards; he ap-under ghelumiel; in Gad, 45650. under Eliapointed unto them, by direction from the Japh: These had the second place, and en-

Tribe most eminent. The number of the dard of Ephraim, to whom were joyned the whole Army was 603550. able men for the Regiment of Manasse and Benjamin; who Warrs besides Women and Children; also, joyned together, made in number 108100. besides the strangers which followed them able men. These marched in the third out of Egipt. This great Army was divided place, encamping on the West quarter of the by Moses into four gross and mighty Battali- Tabernacle. Ephraim had 40500. under Elilions, each of which contained the strength shama; Manasse 32200. under Gamliel; Benjamin 35400. under Abidam.

The first cithese containing 186400, able The fourth and last Army, or Squadron, children, took place not only in the division Commanders, both of Ceremonies, and of of the Land of Promile, and other things of the People; under whom, as the chief of all more consequence, long after following but the other Levitical Families, was Fleazar, even in forting them under their feveral the fon of Aaron, his fucceflor in the high Standards in the Wilderness it was observed. Priest-hood. For Judah had the precedency, and the was affifted by Bejamin, his best beloved and expence in the provisions; the dutiful Standard, none of the children of Leab, or Ages have in some degree imitated, is now are written in the third and fourth of Numbers. And as the Armies of the People ob-Army, and Standard of Ephraim, over whom pear to the simple multitude no less variable and infurrection against Moses; Numb. 16. Family of Cohath on the South-fide, guided verse 1. and 2. For there arose up against by Elizaphan, within the Army of Reuben. Moses 250. Captains of the Assembly, famous and between him and the Tabernacle, in in the Congregation, and men of renown; of number 86cc. The third Company were of which number were Korah, Dathan, and Abi- the Family of Merari over whom Zuriel comram. Which three principal Mutincers with manded, in number 6200, and these were those 250. Captains that followed them, lodged on the North-fide, within the Army were not any of the Princes of the Tribes or of Dan. On the East-fide, and next within general Colonels before spoken of, as by those Tribes and Forces which Judah led, did Moles and Aaron lodge, and their chil-The bleffing which Ifrael gave to his dren, who were the first and immediate

This was the order of the Army of Ifracl. greatest Army, which also was wholly com- and of their encamping and marching; the pounded of the Sons of Leah, Jacob's Wife. Tabernacle being always fet in the middle Reuben having loft his birth-right, followed and center thereof. The reverend care in the second place, accompanied with his which Moses the Prophet, and chosen servant brother simeon, who had under-gone his of God, had in all that belonged even to Fathers curse; and with Gad, the Son of his the outward and least parts of the Taber-Mothers Hand-maid. Joseph, who, in tempo- nacle, Ark, and Sanctuary, witnessed well ral bleffings, had the prerogative of the first- the inward and most humble zeal born toborn, a double portion, was accompted as wards God himself. The industry used in two Tribes, and divided into two Regi- the framing thereof, and every, and the least ments; the younger (according to facob's part thereof; the curious workmanship prophecy) taking place before the elder he thereon bestowed; the exceeding charge brother, the other fon of Rachel. To Dan, the observance in the laying up, and preserving eldest son of Jacob's Concubines, was given the holy Vessels; the solemn removing therethe leading of the fourth Army, according to of; the vigilant attendance thereon, and the Jacob's prophecy. He had with him under his provident defence of the same, which all Rachel. but only the fons of the Hand-maids. fo forgotten and cast away in this super-fine In the middle of these four Armies, was Age, by those of the Family, by the Anabapthe Tabernacle, or portable Temple of the tift, Brownift, and other sectaries, as all cost Congregation carried, furrounded by the and care bestowed and had of the Church, Levites. Near unto which, as the Heathens | wherein God is to be served and worshipand Pagans could not approach, by reason ped, is accompted a kind of Popery, and as of these four powerful Armies which guard- proceeding from an Idolatrous disposition; ed the same; so was it death for any of the insomuch as time would soon bring to pass children of Ifrael to come near it, who were (if it were not refifted) that God would be not of the Levites, to whom the charge was | turned out of Churches into Barns, and from committed. So facred was the movable thence again into the Fields, and Mountains, Temple of God, and with such reverence and under the Hedges, and the offices of guarded and transported, as 22000, persons | the Ministery (robbed of all dignity and rewere dedicated to the service and atten- spect) be as contemptible as those places; all dance thereof: of which, 8580. had the pe- Order, Discipline, and Church-government, culiar charge, according to their feveral of- left to newness of Opinion and mens fancies; fices and functions; the particulars whereof yea, and foon after, as many kinds of Religions would fpring up, as there are Parish-Churches within England; every contentiferved the former order in their incampings: ous and ignorant person clothing his fancy fo did the Levites quarter themselves, as in with the Spirit of God, and his imagination an inner square, on every side of the Taber- with the gift of Revelation; insomuch, as nacle; the Geshurites on the West, within the when the Truth, which is but one, shall apthan contrary to it felf, the Faith of men will! Cups, to 120, shekels of gold; which makes foon after die away by degreees, and all Re- of thekels of filver, 1200, every thekel of ligion be held in foorn and contempt. Which gold valuing ten of filver, fo that the whole diftraction gave a great Prince (f.Germany) of gold and filver which they offered at this cause of this Answer to those that perioaded time, was about four hundred and twenty him to becom a Lutheran; Si me adjungo pound sterling. This done, Moles, as in all makis tune condemnor av aliis: si me alis ad- the rest, by the Spirit of God conducted. jungo, à volis condemnor, quid jugiam video, gave order for the celebrating of the Passfed quid fequar, non habeo: If I aljoin my felf over, which they performed on the fourto you, I am condemned by others; If I joyn teenth day of the second Moneth of the sewith others, I am condemned by you: what I cond year; and on the twentieth day of the should avoid I fee, but I fee not what I should fame, the cloud was lifted up from above the

6. I I.

Jethro.

Ow, when Moses had taken order for all things necessary, provided for the fervice of God, written the laws, numbred his Army, and divided them into the battels and troups before remembred, and appointed them Leaders of all forts; The twelve Princes or Commanders of the Tribes, brought their offerings before the Lord, to wit, fix covered Chariots, and twelve Oxen to draw them, therein to transport as they marched, the parts of the Tabernacle, with all that belonged thereunto, the Sanduary excepted, which for reverence was carried upon the shoulders of the Sons of Korah, to whom the charge was committed; and the Chariots, in which was conveyed the other parts of the Tabernacles and Veffels thereto belonging, were delivered to the Levites for that fervice, namely, to the fons of Gersban and Merari.

Befides their Chariots, each of their Commanders, Princes, or Heads of Tribes, offerbrewgerabed unto God, and for his fervice in the weigheth Temple, a Charger of fine Silver, weighing 130. fhekels; a filver Bowl of 70. fhekels. oa Gerah after the shekel of the Santhuary; and an of Silver is Incense-Cup of Gold, of tenshekels, which three half they performed at the fame time when the pence fter- Altar was dedicated unto God by Aaron; ling: the side of and before they marched from Sinai towards their conquest, besides the Beasts which they offered for facrifice, according pounded, to the law Ceremonial the weight of all the Exod. 30. twelve filver Chargers, and twelve filver Bowls, amounted unto 2400, shekels of fil-10.Grahs, ver; and the weight of gold in the Incenseduary Sicla of Silver is about 7. Groats, the common Sicle is but half as much to wit 10. Gerahs: as it is usually expounded; though Villabandus labours to prove that the common, and the Sandthary Sitle were all ones. Namb. 9. 5. Namb. 10. 11. Exed. ult. 34. Nam. 9. 17.;

Tabernacle, as a fign of going forward; Moses beginning his march with this invocation to God: Rife up, Lord, and let thine enemies be scattered; and let them that hate thee, the before thee. Then all the people of Ifrael The offerings of the twelve Princes: the Faß- removed from their encamping at the toot over of the second year: the departing of of the Mountain sinai, towards Paran, the Army or great fquadron of Inda, led by Naalbon, taking the Vaunt-guard, followed by Nathaniel and Eliah Leaders of the Tribes of Iffachar and Zabulon; after whom the rest marched as in the Figure express d. And because the passage-through so many Defarts and Mountains, was exceeding difficult: 110fes leaving nothing un-forethought, which might ferve for the advancement of his enterprife,he instantly intreated his Father-in. law, whom, in the tenth of Numbers, he calleth Hobab, to accompany them in their journey towards Canaan; promiting him fuch part and profit of the enterprife, as God should bestow on them; for this man, as he was of great understrinding and judgment (as appeared by the counsel he gave to Moses for the appointing of Judges over the People) to washe a perfect guide in all the fe parts, himfelf inhabiting on the frontier thereof, at Midian or Midian: and (as it feemeth) a man of great years and experience; for he was then the Prieft or Priece of Madian, when Mojes Hed first out of Egypt, and married his Daughter, which was 42. years before this request made. And though Mofes himself had lived 40. years in these parts of Arabia, through which he was now to travel; yet the better to affure his paffage, and fo great a multitude of fouls, which could not be so few as a Million, it was necesfary to use many guides, and many conductors. To this request of Moles, it may feem by the places, Exod. 18, 27, and Numb. 10, 20. that Jethro, otherwife called Hobab, yielded Indie 1. not; for it is evident, that he went back 11. Also from Moses into his own Countrey. But be- 1 Sam. 15cause it appeareth by other places of Scri- 6. And pture, that the Posterity of this Hobab was 15 mingled with the Ifraelites, it is most likely i chron ; that this his return to his own Countrey, was Fer. 35. G g rather things in order, than to abide there.

234

6. III.

The Voyage from Horeb to Kades; the Mutinies by the way; and the cause of their turning back to the Red Sea.

Fter this dismission of Hobab, Ifrael began to march towards the defarts of Paran; and after three days wandring, they fate down at the Sepulchres of luft, afterward called Tabeera, or Incensio; by reason that God multitude (Josua and Caleb excepted) who fed themselves with Quails (which it pleased Numb. 11. in the following Moneth, called Thamus, an-and 13. Swamb. 12. fwering to our July, they went on to Hazeraelites, by lying in ambush near those ways, through which the discoverers and searchers the return of the discoverers of Kades, the miracles wrought, was fuch, as they efteemed their deliverance from the Egyptian slavery his feeding them, and conducting them through that great and terrible Wilderness (for fo Moles calleth it) with the Victory which he gave them against the powerful Amalekites, to be no other than the effects of his hatred, thinking that he led them on, and preserved them, but to bring them, their to them by the searchers of the Land, that to preserve, and in them to perform his prothe Cities of their enemies were walled and mises, which have never been frustrate.

rather to fetch away his Family, and to defended with many strong Towers and take his leave of his own Country, by fetting Castles, that many of the people were Giantlike (for they confess'd that they faw the Sons of Anac there) who were men of fearful Itature, and to far over-topped the Ifraelites, as they appeared to them and to themselves, but as Grashoppers in their respect. Now, as this mutiny exceeded all the rest, wherein they both accused God, and consulted to choose them a Captain (or as they call it now aday, an Electo) to carry them back again into Fgypt; so did God punish the same in a greater measure, than any of the former. For he extinguished every Soul of the whole confumed with fire those Mutineers and being confident in Gods promises, persuaded Murmurers, which rose up in this remove, the people to enter Canaan, being then near which happed about the 23, day of the same it; and at the mountain foot of Idumea, Moneth. And from this 23. day of the second which is but narrow; laying before them the Moneth of the second year, they rested, and fertility thereof, and assuring them of Victory. But as men whom the paffion of fear had God by a Sea-wind to call upon them) to the 24.day of the third Moneth; to wit, all the they threatned to stone these encouragers Moneth of Sinan, or June; whereof furfeit- to death; accompting them as men either ing, there died great numbers; from whence desperate in themselves, or betrayers of the lives, goods, and children of all their brethren, to their enemies; but God refisted roth, where Miriam the litter of Mais was these wicked purposes, and interposing the stricken with the leprosite, which continued fear of his bright glory between the unadupon her seven days, after whose recovery If vised fury of the multitude, and the innorael removed toward the border of Idumea, cency & confrancy of his fervants, preserved and encamped at Rithma, near Kades Barnea, them thereby from their violence; threatfrom whence Moles fent the twelve difco- ning an entire destruction of the whole Na-Namb. 14 verers into the Territory of Canaan, both tion, by fending among them a confuming 22. to inform themselves of the fertility and and merciles Pestilence. For this was the strength of the Countrey; as also to take teath insurrection and rebellion, which they knowledg of the ways, paffages, rivers fords had made, fince God delivered them from and Mountains. For Arad King of the Cana- the flavery of the Egyptians. But Moses (the anites, surprized divers companies of the If- mildest or meekest of all men) prayed unto Namb II. God to remember his infinite mercies; alleg-3. ing that this so severe a judgment, how deof the Land had formerly past. Now, after servedly soever inflicted, would increase the pride of the heathen Nations, and give them wrath of God was turned against Ifrael; occasion to vaunt, that the God of Ifrael failwhose ingratitude and rebellion after his so ing in power to perform his promises, suffermany benefits, so many remissions, so many ed them to perish in these barren and fruitless Desarts. Yet, as God is no less just than merciful, as God is flow to anger, fo is his wrath a confuming fire; the fame being once kindled by the violent breath of man's ingratitude: and therefore, as with a hand less heavie than hoped for, he scourged this iniquity; so by the measure of his glory (evermore jealous of neglect and derifion) he fuffered not the wicked to pass unpunished; re-Wives and Children to be flaughtered, and ferving his compassion for the innocent; given for a prey and spoile to the Amo- whom, because they participated not with rites, or Canaanites. For, it was reported un- the offences of their Fathers, he was pleafed

§. I V.

6. IV.

of their unwillingness to return; with the punishment thereof, and of divers accidents in the return.

purposes of God to the People, and children; which were increased to 600000. made them know his heavie displeasure and more. For, besides the double fault. towards them, they began to bewail them- both of refuling to enter the Land upon the felves, though over-late; the times of grace return of their discoverers, and the presumand mens repentance, having also their appointment. And then when God had left countermanded: it seemeth that they had them to themselves, and was no more among committed that horrible Idolatry of worthem, after they had so often plaid and shipping Moloch, and the Host of Heaven. Amoi 5. dallied with his merciful fufferings, they For, although Mofes doth not mention it, yet 4817.442 would needs amend their former disobe- Amos doth, and so doth the Martyr Stephen; King. 17. dience by a fecond contempt, and make as also that the Israelites worshipped the 10.8 cap. offer to enter the Land, contrary again Sun and Moon in after-times, it is proved 6.33.0.4, to the advice of Moses; who assured them out of fundry other places. that God was not among them; and that the Ark of his Covenant ihould not move, returned to the Camp at Cades, Aleses, accord-lies. but by his direction, who could not err; ing to the commandment received from *13.8c and that the Enemies sword, which God God, departed towards the South from had hitherto bended, and rebated, was whence he came, to recover the shoars of the now left no less sharp than death; and in Red Sea. And so from Cades, or Rithma, he the hands of the Amalekites and Cana- removed to Remmonparez, so called of abunanites, no less cruel. But as men from dance of Pomegranates there found, and diwhom God hath with-drawn his Grace, do vided among them. From whence he went always follow those counsels which carry on to Libnah, taking that name of the them to their own destructions: so the He- Frankincense there found. From Librah he Numb. 33. brews, after they had forfaken the oppor- croffed the Valley, and fate down at Reffa, tunity by God and their Conductors offer- near the foot of the Mountain. And after he ed: and might then have entred Judea had rested there, he bended towards the before their Enemies were prepared and West, and encamped at Ceelata; where one of joyned; did afterward, contrary to Gods the Hebrews, for gathering broken wood on Commandment, undertake the enterprise the sabbath, was stoned to death. After of themselves, and ran head-long, and with- which, Moses always keeping the Valley, beout advice, into the Mountains of Idumea. tween two great legdes of Mountains (those There the Canaanites and the Amalekites which bound the Defart of Sin, and those being joyned, and attending their advan- of Pharan) cross'd the same from Ceelata and tage, fet on them, brake them, and of their marched Eastward to the Mountain of sanumbers flaughtered the greatest part: and | pher, or Sepher; this making the twentieth following their victory and perfute, con- Mansion. From thence he passed on to Hafumed them all the way of their flight, rada; then to Maceloth; and then to Thahah. even unto Hormah: the Amalekites, in re- and fo to Thars, or Thare; the four and twenvenge of their former loss, and overthrow | tieth Mansion. Where Moses rested the peoat Raphidim: the Canaanites, to prevent ple began that infolent and dangerous mutitheir displantation and destruction threat- ny of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram; who for ned. Of which powerful affembly of those their contempt of God and his Ministers, two Nations (affifted in all likelihood with were some of them swallowed up alive, and the neighbour Kings, joined together for by the earth, opening her mouth, devoured; their common fafety) it pleafed God to others, even two hundred and fifty which forewarn Moles, and to direct him another offered Incense with Korah, were consumed way, than that formerly intended. For he with fire from Heaven; and 14700. of commanded him to return by those pain- their party, which murmured against Mojes, ful passages of the Defarts, through which stricken dead with a sudden pestilence : one they had formerly travelled, till they found of the greatest marvels and judgments of the banks of the Red Sea again; in which God that hath been shewed in all the time retreat, before they came back to pass over of Moses his Government, or before. For

Fordan, there were confumed eight and thirty years; and the whole number of the 600, and odd thouland, which came out of Egypt (Mofes, Jofua and Caleb excepted) were dead in the Wilderness, the stubborn and careless generations were wholly worn our. TOw, when Mofes had revealed the and the promised Land bestowed on their among

Gg 2

among so great a multitude, those lay-men, which though they continue their course into the Earth, with their Families and recover the banks of the Red Sea goods; even while they fought to over- From Jetabata, Moses directed his jourfeth him in this place also to approve by mi- Moles travelled in that passage. racle the former election of his fervant Aaboth Buds, Bloffoms, and ripe Almonds.

236

Gadgad, which Hierom calleth Gadgada; of Idumaa into Egypt, when he fied from Jothered in one, Adricomius maketh a River, Eloth, in the Land of Edom. which falleth into the Red Sea, between Madian, and Assongaber.

Now, although it be very probable, that at Assongaber, where Solomon furnished his of Moses arrival at Zin Kades: and of the Fleet for the East-India, there was store of Herod.1.3. fresh water; and though Herodotus maketh mention of a great River in Arabia the Stony, Rom Essengaber he turned again towards which he calleth Corys, from whence (saith he North, and pitched in the Wilderness who would have usurped Ecclesiastical au- for a few miles, yet they are drunk up by thority, were fuddenly fwallowed up alive the hot and thirsty fand, before they can

CHAP. V.

CHAP. V.

throw the Order, Discipline, and Power of ney towards the Red Sea, and encamped at the Church, and to make all men alike there- Hebrona, & from thence to Estongaber, which in, rebelliously contending against the High City in Josephus time, had the name of Be-Priest and Magistrate, to whom God had renice; and in Hierons, Filia, From thence committed the government both of his keeping the Sea, and Eloth on his right hand. Church, and Common-weal of his People. he turned towards the North, as he was by And the better to affure the people, and out God commanded; Eliongaber being the far-of his great mercy to confirm them, it pleath theft place towards the South-East, that Drain.

It feemeth that Estongaber, or Asiongaber, ron, by the 12. Rods given by the Heads of Eloth and Madian, were not at this time in the 12. Tribes; of which Moses received one the possession of the Kings of Edom. For it is of every Head, and Prince of his Tribe: faid, That the Lord spake unto Moses and Aawhich, being all withered and dried Wands, ron in the Mount Hor, near the coast of the Numb 12. and on every Rod the name of the Prince of Land of Edom; so as the Mount Hor was at 13. the Tribe written, and Aaron's on that of Le- this time in the South border of Idumea. vi, it pleased God, that the Rod of Aaron re- And if Eliongaber, and the other places near ceived, by his power, a vegetable spirit, and the Red Sea, had at this present been subhaving lain in the Tabernacle of the Congre- ject unto the Idumeans, Moles would also gation before the Ark one night, had on it have demanded a free passage through them. It is true, that in the future the Idu-From Tharab, the whole Army removed | means obtained those places: for it is faid; to Methra; and thence to Esmona; and thence And they arose out of Midian, and came to Pa-1King.11. to Moseroth (or Masurit, after S. Hierom) ran, and took men with them; which were 18. and from Moscroth to Benejacan; and so to those Companies that followed young Adad thence to Jetabata, the thirtieth Mansion; ab. Likewise it is said of solomon, that he where, from certain fountains of water ga- made a Navie of Ships in Eliongaber, belides accidents while that they abode there.

6. V.

he) the Inhabitants convey water in Pipes of Zin, which is Kadesh; or in Beroth, of the of Leather to other places, by which device children of Jacan; where they fate down in the King of Arabia relieved the Army of the first Moneth of the fourtieth year, after Cambyles; yet is Adrichomius greatly de- they left Egypt. For, at the next Mansion, ceived, as many times he is, in finding these Aaron died in the first day of the fifth Springs at Gadgad, or Jetabata, being the Moneth of the fourtieth year; the nine and nine and twentieth, or thirtieth Mansion. For thirtieth year taking end at Estongaber. And it was at Punon, that those Springs are spoken at this City of cades (for so it was thought of, which in Deuteronomy the tenth, and the to be) or near it, died Miriam, or Mary, Numb. 10. feventh Verse, is also called Jetabata, or Moses sister, whose Sepulcher was to be seen i. Jotbath, a Land of running waters, and in S. Hieroms time, as himself avoweth. From which by all probability fall into the River hence, ere they departed to the Mountain Numb. 10. Zared, the next adjoyning. And that these Hor, all the people murmured most violent. Springs should fall into the Red Sea at Assembly, or Eloth, I cannot believe, for the water. For neither the punishments by sire way thither is very long. And this I find in from Heaven; by being devoured and fwal-Belonius, that there are divers Torrents of lowed up by the Earth; by the sudden fresh water in those fandy parts of Arabia; Pestilence, which often seized them; nor any miracle formerly fliewing, either the are: Whereof the West part Moles calleth love or wrath of God, could prevail with Mosera, and the East part Horeb. By the West this Nation any longer, than while they were part Mofes encamped, as he past towards the full fed and fatisfied in every of their ap- Red-Sea on his left hand; by the East part, petites; but in fread of feeking for help and as he went back again North-wards towards relief at Gods hands, when they suffered Meab, as in the description of Moles his pashunger, thirst, or any other want, they mur- fage through Arabia, the Reader may mured, repined, and rebelled, repenting perceive. them of their changed estates, and casting ungratefully on Moles all their misadven- to Hor, because Hor belonged to Edom, that tures; yea, though they well knew that Moses sent messengers to the Prince of Idutheir own tathers had left their bodies in mea, praying him that he might pass with the Defarts, and they were now entred into the people of Ifrael through his Territory the fourtieth year, wherein all their miseries into the Land of Canaan, which bordered it. were to take end. And being, as it were, in For it was the nearest way of all other from fight of the Land promised, they again as ob- the City of Kadesh, where Moses then enhis indignation. But as the will and purposes cies being without end, he commanded Moles to strike a Rock adjoyning, with his Rod, and the waters illued out in a great abun-Mofes and Aaron at this place; therefore he permitted neither of them to enter the Land promised, whereto perchance their worldly defires might invite them But it pleafed him Hor, being the next, and the four and thir-

and he was no more feen.

Now, it was from Cades, before they came finately tempted God as in former times, camped; whereas otherwise, taking his and neither trusted his promises, nor feared journey by the Rivers of Zared, Arnon and Jordan, he might have run into many haof God are without beginning; so his mer- zards in the passage of those Rivers, the far way about, and the many powerful Kings, which commanded in those Regions. Now. the better to perfuade the Prince of Idumaa dance, with which both themselves and their hereunto, Moses remembred him, that he cattel were fatisfied. Nevertheless, because was of the same Race and Family with Is-God perceived a kind of diffidence both in rael; calling him by the name of Brother. because both the Edomites and Israelites were the Sons of one father, to wit, Isaac; inferring thereby, that he had more reason to fayour and respect them, than he had to affift to end the travels of Aaron at the Mountian the Canaanites; against whom, Esau his Ancestor had made Warr, and driven out the tieth Station. At which Mountain Hor, Aa-Horites (who were of their antient Races deron was despoiled of the garments of his scended of cham) out of the Region of seir, Priest-hood, and the same put on Eleazar his calling it by his own name, Edom, or Idumea. Son, as God hath commanded. Which done, He also making a short repetition of Gods Moles and Eleazar descended the Mountain; bleffings befrow'd on them, & of his purpofes; but God received Aaron on the top thereof, and promifes affured Edom, or the King thereof that he would no way offend his people, Of this Mountain called Hor, otherwise or waste his Countrey, but that he would re-Mosera, as in Deut. 10. vers. 6. those Horites | strain his Army within the bounds of the took name, which the Idumeans had former- Common, and Kings high ways, paying moly vanquished. Some there are which make new for whatsoever he used, yea, even for the Mosera, which was the seven and twentieth water, which themselves or their cattel Manfion; and Mosera, which they write should drink. For Moses was commanded by Moseroth, for difference, which was the four God, not to provoke the children of Esan. Deut. 2. 4. and thirtieth Mansion, and is also called Hor, But the King of Idumea knowing the to be two distinct places; because Moses in strength of his own Countrey, the same bepassing from Cadesbarne towards Essengaber, ing near Canaan, rampir'd with high and encamped at Mosera, after he departed from sharp mountains; and withall suspecting, as Hesmona, and before he came to Benjaacan. a natural wise man, that 600000. Strangers Numb. 33. And this Mosera, which is also called Hor, he being once entred his Countrey, it would came unto after he had left Cades, where rest in their wills to give him law, resolvedly Miriam, Moses lister, died; the first being the refused them patlage, and delivered this an- Namb. 10. feven and twentieth, and the fecond being fiver to the Mellengers: That, if they at-20, 21. the four and thirtieth Mansion. But for Hor, tempted to enter that way, he would take which is also called Molera, it should have them for enemies, and resist them by all posbeen written, Hor juxta Mosera; Hor near fible means. And not knowing whether such Mosera; for it is but one root of a Mountain, a denial might satisfie or exasperate, he gadivided into divers tops, as Sinai and Horeb thered the strength of his Countrey together, and shewed himself prepared to de- | which, without direction from God by Mofend their patiage. For, as it is written, fes, would have entred Cansan from Cadef-Numb. 10. Then Edom came out against him (to wit, Mo- barne. For it seemeth, that the greatest num-(es) with much people, and with a mighty ber of that Army were of the Canaanites, bepower. Whereupon Mofes understanding, that the end of his enterprise was not the Land promised, was that of Canaan: like uning the greatest of any man, and the skilrefused to adventure the Army of Israel against a Nation, which being overcome, gave but a paffage to invade others; and which, by reason of the seat of their mountainous Countrey, could not but have endangered, or (at least) greatly enfeebled the strength of Israel, and rendred them less conquered the reft.

238

6. VI.

Of their compassing Idumaa, and travelling to Arnon, the border of Moab.

E therefore leaving the way of Idumea, turned himself towards the East, and marched towards the Defarts of Moab. Which, when Arad the King of the Canaanites understood, and that Mojes had blanched the way of Idumea; and knowing that Idumea, and thereby, though victorious, of Canaan, was the North part of Edom. greatly have leffened his numbers. But al-

Numb. 14 his forces with the Amalekites, and gave verning them, who in the twelfth Chapter cause in the first of Deuteronomy 44. the Amorites are named alone, without the Amaconquest of Seir, or Idumea, and that the lekites, and are said to have beaten the 1sraelites at that time. And this Arad, if he were to himself, who was of natural understand- the same that had a victory over Israel, near Cadesbarne; or if it were his Predecessor fullest man of Warr that the World had, he | that then prevailed; this man finding that Mofes was returned from the Red Sea, and in his way towards Canaan, and that the South part of Canaan was first to be invaded and in danger of being conquered, not knowing of Moles purpose to pais Moab, determined, while he was yet in the Defart, to try the quarrel. And whereas it followeth able, if not altogether powerless, to have in the third Verse of the twelfth Chapter of Numbers, that the Ifraelites utterly destroyed the Canaanites, and their Cities, they are much mistaken that think, that this destruction was prefently performed by the Israelites. But it is to be understood, to have been done in the future, to wit, in the time of Josua. For, had Moses at this time entred Canaan in the perfute of Arad, he would not have fallen back again into the Defarts of Zin and Moab, and have fetch'd a wearisome and needless compass, by the Rivers of Zared and Arnon.

Neither is their conjecture to be valued it was Canaan, and not Edom, which Ifrael at anything, which affirm, that Arad did not aimed at, he thought it safest, rather received inhabit any part of Canaan it self, but that his enemies in his neighbours Countrey man his Territory lay without it, and near to the to be found by them in his own; which he Mountain Hor. For Hor and Zin Cades were might have done with a farr greater hope of the South borders of Edom, and not of Cana-Nation 33 victory, had Moles been enforced first to an. And it was in the South of the Land of 40. have made his way by the Sword through | Canaan, that Arad dwelt; which South part

Again, Horma (for fo farr the Israelites, afthough it fell out otherwise than Arad hoped ter their victory, persued the Canaanites) is for, yet, being resolved to make trial, what seated in the South of Judga. There is also courage the Ifraelites brought with them | a City of that name in Simeon But there is no out of Fegpt, before they came nearer his fuch place to the South of Edom. And were own home; leading the strength of his Na- there no other argument, but the mutiny tion to the edge of the Defart, he set upon which followed presently after the repetitifome part of the Army; which, for the mul- on of this Victory, it were enough to prove, titude occupied a great space, and for the that the same was obtained in the suture, many herds of cattel that they drave with and in Josua his time, and not at the instant them, could not encamp so near together, but of Arads affault. For, had the Israelites at this that some quarter or other was evermore time sack'd the Cities of Arad, they would fubject to furprise. By which advantage, and not the next day have complained for want in that his attempts were then perchance of Water and Bread. For where there are unexpected, he slew some sew of the Isra- great Cities, there is also Water and Bread. elites, and carried with him many prisoners. But it was in the time of Josua, that the Now, it is very probable, that it was this Ifraelites took their revenge, and af-canaanite, or his Predecessor, which joyned ter they had pass d Jordan; Josua then goan overthrow to those mutinous Ifraelites, and fourteenth Verse, nameth this Arad by the name of his City fo called; and with him, they kept the way to Diblathaim, one of the the King of Horma; to which place the Ifra- Cities of Moab; which Hieremy the Prophet, elites perfued the Cansanites. And he named Chap. 48. Verf. 22. calleth the House of Diblathem amongst those Kings, which he van- thaim, the same which afterward was dequished, and put to death.

CHAP. V.

Arad, Moses finding that all entrance on that and encamped in the Mountains of Abarim: tide was defended, he led the people East- though in the 22. of Numbers, Moses doith not ward to compals Idumea, and the Dead Sea, remember Helmondiblathaim, but speaketh and to make his entrance by Arnon and the of his remove from the River of Zared. Plains of Moab, at that time in the possession immediately to the other side of Arnon; of the Amorites. But the Ifraelites, to whom calling Arnon the border of Moab. bethe very name of a Defart was terrible, be- tween them and the Amorites; speaking as gan again to rebel against their Leader; till he found the state of the Countrey at that God by a multitude of fiery Serpents (that is, time. For Arnon was not antiently the borby the biting of Serpents, whose Venom der of Moab, but was lately conquered from inflamed them, and burnt them as fire) made the Moabites, by Sehon, King of the Amorites; them know their error, and afterward, even from the Predecessor of Balac Peor according to his plentiful grace, cured them then raigning. From Diblathaim, Moses sent again by their beholding an artificial Ser- messengers to Schon, King of the Amorites, pent, by his commandment fet up.

Sea and Calofyria, encamped at Zalmona; and neighbour Nations of the Warr he underthence he removed to Phunon, where he took. And though Edom had refused him crected the Brazen Serpent; making these as sehon did, yet he had no warrant from journies by the edg of Idumea, but without God to enforce him. Moses also in sending it. For Phunon was sometime a principal City messengers to Schon, observed the same preof the Edomites. Now, where it is written in cept which he left to his Posterity and Suc-Numb. 21.4. That from Mount Hor they depart- celfors, for a law of the Warr; namely. in ed by the way of the Red Sea, which grieved Deut. 20. 10. in these words ; When thou the people it was not thereby meant, that the comest neer unto a City to fight against it, thou Ifraelites turned back towards the Red Sea; Shalt offer it peace; which if it do accept of, and neither did they march (according to Fon- open unto thee, then let all the people found (eca) per viam que habet à latere mare rubrum; therein be tributaries unto thee, and serve thee; By the may that sided the Red Sea, but indeed but if it refuse, &c. thou shalt smite all the they crois deand went athwart the common males thereof with the edg of the fword. Which Estongaber, Eloth, and Midian; which way, as it lay North and South, fo Ifrael, to fhun the border of Edom, and to take the utmost East part of Moab, cross'd the common way towards the East, and then they turned again towards the North, as before.

From Phunon he went to Oboth, where he entred the Territory of Moab, adjoyning to the Land of Suple, a Countrey bordering ftroved among the reft by Nebuchadnezzar. Now, after this affault, and furprize by From thence they can e to the River Arron. to defire a passage through his Countrey; From the Mount Hor, Mofes leaving the or-dinary way which lyeth between the Red him, yet he defired to give a reason to the way from Galaad, Traconitis, and the Coun- ordinance all Commanders of armics have treys of Moab, to the Red Sea, that is, to observed to this day, or ought to have done.

§. VII.

Of the Book of the battels of the Lord, mentioned in this Story and of other Books mentioned in Stripture, which are loft.

Ow, concerning the Warr between If Numb. 21. on the Dead Sea, and from thence to Abarim, a great part of this Story to that Book, enthe eight and thirtieth Mansion, that is, tituled, Liber bellorum Domini; The book of where the Mountains fo called take be- Gods battels: and therefore passeth over ginning, and are as yet but small Mountures many encounters, and other things memorof Hills, on the East border of Moab; from able, with greater brevity in this place. His thence they recovered Dibon Gad, or the words, after the Geneva Translation, are River of Zared, which rifeth in the Moun- these: Wherefore it shall be spoken in the Look tains of Arabia, and runneth towards the of the battels of the Lord, what things he did Dead Sea, not farr from Petra the Metro- in the Red Sea, and in the Rivers of Arnon. polis thereof, being the nine and thirtieth The Vulgar Copy differeth not in sense from Station. And having pass'd that River, this: But the Greek Septuagint vary. For they lodged at Dibon Gad, and from thence the Greek writes it to this effect; For thus Rivers of Arnon. In which words he under- Enemies. ftands, that amongst the Warrs which the doms were elective, and not fuccessive. Josua, by an unknown Author.

And as Junus in this Translation undercial Book be meant; and if any, whether the Author. is be not a prediction of Wars in future ages,

That work also of the Patriarch Abraham, we left.

ages corrupted, and therefore now suspe-

it is faid in the book: The Warr of the Lord of Formation, which others bestow on Rabhath burnt (or inflamed) Zoob, and the brooks of bi Achiba, is no where found. The Books News, 21. Arnon Junius for the Red Sea, which is in the remembred by Jolua, Chap. 10 Verf. 13. and Canney Genevian and Vulgar Edition, names the Re- in the fecond of samuel, Chap. 1. Verf 18. Suph. gion of Suph, a Country bordering the Dead called the Book of Jafter, or Jufiorum, is for more, sea towards the East, as he conjectureth, allo loft, wherein the flay of the Sun and 2. The Text, he readeth thus. Ideires diei fold Nacro in the middelt of the Beavens is reand of the in recensione bellow Jehova, contra Vahebum corded, and how they stood still till 1/2 torce of in Regione Suph; & contra flumina, flumina rael had avenged themselves of their enethe word Arnonis; Therefore is it floken in repeating of miss; out of which also David took the Sects.

Sects: Country of Suph, and againft the Rivers, the day to exercise their Bows against their

Some think this to be the Book of eter-Lord disposed for the good of the Ijraelites, nal Predestination, in which the just are there was in those times a famous memory written, according unto the fixty and ninth Name, 21, in the mouth of most men, concerning the Pfalm, Perf. 28. where it is said; Let them Warr of Schon against Valeb, the King of the be put out of the book of Life, neither let Moabites, and of his winning the Country them be written with the Rightcons. Hierom near Arnen, out of the policifion of the Mo- thinks that David by this Book, understood abites. For this Vaheb was the immediate those of Sannel; Rabbi Solomon, that the Predecessor of Balae, who lived with Mo- Books of the Law are thereby meant, in fes; though it be written that this Ea- which the acts of the just Abraham, of Isaac, Hin. is Lie was the Son of Zippor, and not of Jicob, and Moles are written. Others, that the life Re-Vaheb. For, it feems (as it is plain in the it is was the Book of Exodus. Others, as fuccession of the Edomites) that these King- Theodoreus, that is was a Commentary upon

The Book of Chozaii, concerning Ma- nier, in standeth no special Book of the battels of naje, remembred in the second of Chron. annu is the Lord: so others, as Vatablus in his Anno- Chap. 33. v. 18, and 19. Of this Book, also lost, Parally tations, doubt whether in this place any spe- Hierom conceives, that the Prophet Esay was

The same mischance came as well to to be waged in these places, and to be written by Abia Siten in the book of Judges. Syracides, cap. 46. lonites, who met with Jeroboam, and foretold tells us plainly, that those battels of the Lord him of his obtaining the Kingdom of Ifrael were tought by Josua; Il ho was there (faith from the Son of solomon: As to the Books he) before him like to him? for he fought the of Nathan the Prophet, and to those of Jeedo battels of the Lord. But seeing the Histories the seer, remembred in the second of Chron. of the Scripture elsewhere often pass over chap. 9. 1 erf. 29. With these have the Books matters of great weight in few words, refer- of shemaiah and of Iddo, remembred in the ring the Reader to other books written of second of Chron. Chap. 12. Vers. 15. perished; the same matter at large; therefore it seem- and that of Jehu the Son of Hanani, of the eth probable, that such a book as this there acts of Jehosaphat, cited in the second of was; wherein the feveral victories by Ifrael Chron. Chap. 2c. Verf. 34. Alfo that Book obtained, and also victories of other Kings, of Solomon, which the Hebrews write Hascimaking way for the good of the Ifraelites, rim, of 5000. Verses, of which, that part were particularly and largely written. And called Canticum Canticorum, onely remainthat the same should now be wanting, it is eth, I Kings 4, 32, and with this, divers others not strange, seeing so many other Volumes, of Solomon's works have perished, as his filled with divine discourse, have perished Book of the natures of Trees Plants, Beasts, in the long race of time, or have been de- Fishes, &c. 1 Kings 4. 33. with the reft reflreyed by the ignorant and malicious membred by origen, Josephus, Hierom, Ce-Heathen Magistrates. For the Books of He- drenus, Ciccus Asculanus, Picus Mirandula, noch, howfoever they have been in later and others.

Of these, and other Books many were cted, are remembred in an Epiftle of Thad- confumed with the same fire, wherewith dans, and cited by Origen, west dexar, and by Nebuchadnezzar burnt the Temple of Hierusalem. But let us return thither where

6 VIII.

6. VIII.

CHAP. V.

and Og.

Abarim, opposite to the City of Nibo; leaving the City of Midian on the left hand, and cause Moses incamped in the Countrey of his attempting nothing upon the Moabites on new conquests, to wit, the Plains of Moab, that fide. For Moab did at this time inhabite the two and fortieth and last Mansion; which new 2. 9) on the South-fide of Arnon, having loft all Mofes wasted with the multitude of his peohis antient and best Territory, which was ple and cattel. Towards him therefore hanow in the possession of sehon the Amorite. fring himself, they encountred each other at For Moles was commanded by God not to Juliaz: where Schon with his children and molest Monb, neither to provoke them to people were broken and discomfited, and battel, God having given that Land to the the victory so pursued by Moses, as few or children of Lot; the tame which was anti- none of the Amorites cleaped. He also flaughently possess by the Emins, who were men tered all the Women and Children of the of great stature, and comparable to those Giants called Anakims, or the fens of Anac.

that part, especially to the East of Jordan, e- | dea, being at this time, and after this victo-West, as on the East-side of the Mountains of be perillous to leave so great a part of that Gilead, was inhabited by Giants. And in the Nation of the Amorites on his back, as inhalites did not at any time passthose Mountains and therefore he led on his Army to invade to the East of Basan, but left their Countrey og, a person of exceeding strength and stato them, as in the description following is ture, and the only man of mark remaining of made manifest. We find also, that as there the antient Giants of those parts, and who at were many Giants both before and after that time had 60 Cities walled and defenthe floud: fo these Nations, which antiently ced: lying between the Mountain of Herinhabited both the border of Canaan, and mon (which Mountain, faith Moles, the Sidothe Land it felf, had among them many Fa-nians call Shirien, and the America, Shenir) milies of Giant-like men. For the Anakims and the River of Jordan. And it befell unto dwelt in Hebron, which fometimes was called the King of Basan ( who attended Moles 19.15 the City of Arbah, which Arbah in Josua is coming at Edrei) as it did unto Schon: for 13 14,15 called the father of the Anakims; and the he and his fons perithed, and all his Cities greatest man of the Anakims. There had also were taken and possest. After this, Moles name of Zamzummims; which were of the wit, the Kingdom of Argob, even unto the fame antient Canaanites: and their chief Ci- Nations of the Geffiri and Machati, 60. walty was Rabba, afterward Philadelphia. They led Cities, called the fame after his own Strong men, and fearful Giants, who inhabi- the North part as far as Edrei, but the East ted other Cities of Ham, or Hom, in the fame part that belonged to Schon the Amorite, Province, and not far to the North of Areer. with the Mountains of Gilead adjoyning,

Now Moles having past Arnon, and being was given to Reuben, and unto Gad. incamped at Abarim; and having (as before) fent to Sehon, as he had done to Edom, to pray a paffage through his Countrey, was denied it. For Sehon being made proud by of Moses his sparing the issue of Lot; and of his former conquest upon Vaheb the Meabite; the Giants in those parts; and of Schon | which Nation the Amorites esteemed but as strangers and uturpers, (themselves being of the fons of Canaan, and the Moubites of Lot ) When Moles had past Annon, he incfussed to grant Uprel any entrance that way; and withal, prepared to encounter Mofes with as much speed as he could, be-Amorites, which he found in Ellebon, and all the other Cities, Villages, or Fields; they be-God also commanded Moses to spare the ing of the race of Canaan, as those of Basan Ammonites, because they likewise were de- also were, and descended of Emoreus, or A-Dist. 18. scended of Lot: who had expelled from moreus: for Moses calleth the Basanites also thence those Giants, which the Ammonites Amorites. And although Ifrael might now called Zamenmims. For it feemeth that all have taken a ready way and passage into Juven to the Defart of Arabia, as well on the ryat the banks of fordan : yet he knew it to plantation of the Land promised, the Ifrae- bited all the Region of Basan, or Traconitis: been Giants in the Land of the Atoabites, cal- with-drawing himself back again to the led Emims: and their chief City was Aroer Mountains of Abarim, left the profecution or Ar, near the River of Arnon. To the Giants of that war unto Jair the fon of Manaffe: of the Rephaims, the Ammonites gave the who conquering the East parts of Basan, to were also called Zuzims, which is as much to name Havoth Jair: of all which conquests fay, as Viri robusti, horrendique Gigantes; afterward the half Tribe of Manasse possest

24 I

Hh

$. IX.

§. 1 X.

Of the troubles about the Madianites, and of mong the children of Ifraci to ferve them. Mofes his death.

Fter these victories, and while Israel soiourned in the valley of Month, the Madianites and Moabites (over both which Nations it seemeth that Ealac King of the Mo-abites then commanded in chief) sought, according to the advice of Balaam, both by alluring the Hebrews to the love of their daughters, and by perfuading them to honour and ferve their Idols, to divide them conquest begun, assuring him of Gods faboth in Love and Religion among themfelves: thereby the better both to defend fpent these his latter days after the conquest their own interest against then; as also to of og, and Schon King of the Amorites, in the beat them out of Moab, and the Countries repetition and exposition of the Law, (or an funded to these evil courses, and thereby threats unto the people, which he often redrew on themselves the plague of peftilence, peated unto them; thereby to confirm them whereof there perified 2,000, perfers : be- in knowledg, love, fear, and fervice of the Na. 15, I. fides which punishment of God, the most of all-powerful God: He blessed the twelve the offenders among the Hebrews, were by Tribes, that of Simeon excepted, with sevether violent deaths: after this, when that the greatness and goodness of him, unto Phineas the fon of Eleazar had pierced the whom in his prayers he commended them: hand for his fake.

people to be numbred the third time: and happened in the year of the World, 2554. there remained of able men fit to bear arms Na 16 st. 601730, of which, as his last enterprise, he appointed 12000, to be chosen out, to invade the Ciries of Midian, who, together with the Moubites, practifed with Balaam to Observations out of the Story of Moles, how curie I rael : and after that, fought to allure them (as before remembred) from the worthip of the true God, to the fervice of Beth-Pear : and to the rest of their barbarous Idolatry. Over which Companies of 12000. Mojes gave the charge to Phineas the fon of as had not yet used the company of men, but these they faved, and dispers'd them a-

And Mofes having new lived 120. years, making both his own weakness of body known to the people, and his unability to travel: and also that he was forewarned of his end by the Spirit of God, from whom he received a new commandment to afcend Descare the Mountains of Abarim, and thereon to render up his life: He hastned to settle the government in Jojua, whom he perfuaded with most lively arguments to prosecute the your and atliftance therein. And so having adjoyning. The Ifraelites as they had ever iteration of the Law, according to Saint Au-day h been enclined, so were they now easily per- gustine) using both arguments, prayers, and designed been enclined, so were they now easily perthe commandment put to the Sword, or o- ral and most comfortable bleflings: praising Date to bodies of Zimri, a Prince of the Simeonites, He also commanded the Priests to lay up the Dissipation together with Coshi, a Daughter of one of Book of the Law, by the fide of the Ark of the chief of the Midianites, the Plague cea- God, The last that he indited, was that Pro-fulness, respecting the ardent zeal of Phiness the words of my mouth: and being called by in profecuting of Zimri (who being a chief God from the labours and forrows of this among the Hebrews, become an Idolater ) as life, unto that Reft which never afterward he forgave the rest of Israel, and stayed his hath disquiet, he was buried in the Land of Moab. over against Beth-Peor: but no man In this valley it was that Moles caused the knoweth of his Sepulcher to this day, which

§. X.

God disposeth both the smallest occasions and the greatest resistances, to the effecting of his

Ow let us a little, for instruction, look back to the occasions of fundry of the Eleazar the high Priest: who slew the five great events, which have been mentioned in Princes of the Midianites, which were, or this Story of the life of Mofes, for (excepting had lately been, the valids of Schon, as appeareth by Josuah. These five Princes of the of this people) he wrought in all things else Midianites flain by Eleazar, were at this by the medium of mens affections, and natutime but the valials of schon the Amorite, to ral appetites. And so we shall find that the wit, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Rera, the fear which Pharaob had of the increase of the csp.13.21. Dukes of Schon, Saith Josuah. He slew aiso the Hebrews, multiplyed by God to exceeding men, male-children, and women: faving fuch | great numbers, was the next natural cause of the forrows and lofs, which befel himself, of that place, and Jethro's Daughters, an: the contention between the Sherherds gotten.

and the Egyptian Nation: which numbers made him known to their Father; who not when he fought by cruel and ungodly poli- onely entertained him, but married him ciesto cut off and lesien, as when he com- to one of those Sisters: and in that Solitary manded all the male children of the Hebrews life of keeping of his Father-in-Law's sheep, to be flain, God (whose providence can- far from the preass of the World, contenting not be relifted, nor his purposes prevented himself (though bred as a Kings Son) with by all the fooliin and salvage craft of mortal the Lot of a poor Heards-man, God found men) moved compatition in the heart of Pha- him out in that Defart wherein he first sufferrash's own daughter, to preserve that child, ed him to live many years, the better to which afterward became the most wise, and know the waies and pallages through which of all men the most gentle and mild, the most he purposed that he should conduct his excellently learned in all Divine and Hu-people, toward the Land promifed: and mane knowledge, to be the conductor and therein appearing unto him, he made him deliverer of his oppressed brethren, and know his will and divine pleasure for his rethe overthrow of Pharaoh, and all the flow-turn into Egypt. The like may be faid of er of his Nation; even then, when he fought; all things elfe, which Moses afterward by by the strength of his men of War, of his God's direction performed in the Story of Horse, and Chariots, to tread them under, Israel before remembred. There is not and bury them in the dust. The gricf which therefore the smallest accident, which may Moles conceived of the injuries, and of the feem unto men as falling out by chance, and violence offered to one of the Hebrews in of no consequence, but that the same is cauhis own presence, moved him to take re- sed by Gol to effect somewhat else by: venge of the Expirian that offered it: the in- yea, and oftentimes to effect things of the retired of one of his own Nation, by greatest worldly importance, either pre-threatning him to discover the slaughter of lently, or in many years after, when the the Egyptian, moved him to fly into Madi- occasions are either not considered, or for-

243

CHAP. VI.

Of the Nations with whom the Israelites had dealing after their coming out of Egypt; and of the Men of renown in other Nations, about the times of Moles and Josua; with the sum of the History of Josua.

9. I.

How the Nations with whom the Israelites were to have War, were divers vaies, as it were prepared to be their Enemies.

long before-hand, by the disposing pro- things more manifest, we must understand vidence of God, as it were, prepared for en- that this part of Syria, bounded by the mity: partly in respect that they were most mountains of Libanus, and Zidon on the of them of the issue of Canaan, or at least of North, by the same mountains continued as Ham; and the relt (as the Edomites, Moabites, Ammonites, and Ifraelites ) were mingled with them by mutual marriages : whereasthe Ifraelites still continued stran- West: was inhabited and peopled by two gers, and separate from them: and so part- Nations, the one springing from the sons of ly in this respect, and partly by antient inju- | Cham, the other from Sem: but those of

Nlike manner, if we look to the qua- 1 ries or enmities, and partly by reason of dility of the Nations, with whom the versity in Religion, were these Nations, as If relites, after their coming out of it were, prepared to be enemies to the If ae Egypt, had to do, either in the Wilder-lites: and so to serve for such purposes as ness, or afterward, we shall find them God had reserved them for. To make these far as the Springs of Arnon on the East: by the way of Egypt, and the Red Sea, on the South: and by the Mediterran Sea on the

it is faid in the book: The Warr of the Lord of Formation, which others bestow on Rab-Name of the Red San William of the Red San Which is in the Teconomic of the Red San Which is in the Teconomic and Vulgar Edition, names the Research gion of Suph, a Country bordering the Dead called the Book of Julier, or Julierum, is the more, gent of supply, a Contint's bordering the Beat and the Book of Japeer, or Jupiorum, is the more to find you to find 1/2. The Text, he readeth thus. Ideireo dici folet Moon in the middeft of the Fleavens is reand or the in recensione bellora schova contra Vahebum corded, and how they stood still till se the word in Regione Suph : Scontra flumina, flumina rael had avenged themselves of their ene-Supply, also Arnonis; Therefore is it foken in repeating of mics; out of which also David took the Cho 18. the battels of Jehovah, against Valieb in the Precept of teaching the Children of Tu-Rivers of Arnon. In which words he under- Enemies. stands, that amongst the Warrs which the Name, 21, in the mouth of most men, concerning the Pfalm, Perf. 28. where it is faid; Let them doms were elective, and not fuccessive, "Josua, by an unknown Author, And as Junus in this Translation undercial Book be meant; and if any, whether the Author. it be not a prediction of Wars in future ages, The fame mischance came as well to noch, howfoever they have been in later and others.

That work also of the Patriarch Abraham, we left.

Tertulitan.

bath burnt (or inflamed) Zoob, and the brooks of bi Achiba, is no where found. The Books Country of Suph, and against the Rivers, the da, to exercise their Bows against their

Some think this to be the Book of eter-Lord disposed for the good of the Ijraelites, nal Predeffination, in which the just are there was in those times a famous memory written, according unto the fixty and ninth Warr of Schon against Vaheb, the King of the be put out of the book of Life, neither let Moubites, and of his winning the Countrey them be written with the Righteons. Hierom near Arnon, out of the polletion of the Mo- thinks that David by this Book, understood abites. For this Fabeb was the immediate those of Samuel; Rabbi Solomon, that the Predecessor of Balac, who lived with Mo- Books of the Law are thereby meant, in fer; though it be written that this Ea- which the acts of the just Abraham, of Isaac, Hin. is hie was the Son of Zippor, and not of Jacob, and Moses are written. Others, that he kee Vaheb. For, it seems (as it is plain in the it is was the Book of Exodus. Others, as fuccession of the Edomites) that these King- Theodoretus, that is was a Commentary upon

The Book of Chozaii, concerning Ma-nin is standeth no special Book of the battels of nasie, remembred in the second of Chron, among the Lord: so others, as Vatablus in his Anno- Chap. 33. v. 18, and 19. Of this Book, also lost, Panily. tations, doubt whether in this place any spe- Hierom conceives, that the Prophet Esay was to be waged in these places, and to be writ- the Story of Solomon, written by Abia Siten in the book of Judges. Syracides, cap. 46. lonites, who met with Jeroboam, and foretold tells us plainly that those battels of the Lord him of his obtaining the Kingdom of Ifrael were fought by Josna; Who was there (faith from the Son of solomon: As to the Books he) before him like to him & for he fought the of Nathan the Prophet, and to those of Jeedo battels of the Lord. But seeing the Historics the seer, remembred in the second of chron. of the Scripture elsewhere often pass over chap. 9. Vers. 29. With these have the Books matters of great weight in few words, refer- of shemaiah and of Iddo, remembred in the ring the Reader to other books written of second of Chron. Chap. 12. Vers. 15. perished; the same matter at large; therefore it seem- and that of Jehu the Son of Hanani, of the eth probable, that such a book as this there acts of Jehosaphat, cited in the second of was; wherein the several victories by Ifrael Chron. Chap. 2c. Vers. 34. Also that Book obtained, and also victories of other Kings, of solomon, which the Hebrews write Hascimaking way for the good of the Ifraelites, rim, of 5000. Verses, of which, that part were particularly and largely written. And called Canticum Canticorum, onely remainthat the same should now be wanting, it is eth, I Kings 4. 32. and with this divers others not firange, feeing fo many other Volumes, of Solomon's works have perifhed, as his filled with divine discourse, have perished Book of the natures of Trees Plants, Beasts, in the long race of time, or have been de- Fishes, &c. 1 Kings 4. 33. with the rest refire yed by the ignorant and malicious membred by Origen, Josephus, Hierom, Ce-Heathen Magistrates. For the Books of He- drenus, Ciccus Ascularus, Picus Mirandula, ages corrupted, and therefore now fuspe-

Of these, and other Books many were cted, are remembred in an Epiftle of Thad- confumed with the fame fire, wherewith dans, and cited by Origen, west dexer, and by Nebuchadnezzar burnt the Temple of Hierusalem. But let us return thither where of Moles his sparing the ifue of Lot; and of the Giants in those parts; and of Schon and Og.

S. VIII.

6. VIII.

When Moses had past Arnon, he incamped on the other side thereof at Abarim, opposite to the City of Nibo; leaving the City of Midian on the left hand, and attempting nothing upon the Modbites on new conquests, to wit, the Plains of Modb, that fide. For Modb did at this time inhabite the two and fortieth and last Mansion: which test 1. 9 on the South-fide of Arnon, having lost all Moses wasted with the multitude of his peohis antient and best Territory, which was now in the possession of sehon the Amorite. For Moles was commanded by God not to Jahaz: where schon with his children and molest Moab, neither to provoke them to people were broken and discomfited, and battel, God having given that Land to the the victory so pursued by Moses, as few or children of Lot; the same which was anti- none of the Amorites escaped. He also slaughently possess by the Emins, who were men tered all the Women and Children of the of great stature, and comparable to those | Amorites, which he found in Effebon, and all

scended of Lot: who had expelled from moreus: for Moses calleth the Basanites also thence those Giants, which the Ammonites Amorites. And although Israel might now called Zanezummims. For it feemeth that all have taken a ready way and passage into Juthat part, especially to the East of Jordan, e- | dea, being at this time, and after this victoven to the Defart of Arabia, as well on the ry, at the banks of fordan: yet he knew it to West, as on the East-side of the Mountains of be perillous to leave so great a part of that Gilead was inhabited by Giants. And in the Nation of the Amorites on his back, as inhaplantation of the Land promifed, the Ifrae- bited all the Region of Basan, or Traconitis: lites did not at any time pass those Mountains and therefore he led on his Army to invade to the East of Basan, but left their Countrey og, a person of exceeding strength and stato them, as in the description following is ture, and the only man of mark remaining of made manifest. We find also, that as there the antient Giants of those parts, and who at were many Giants both before and after that time had 60 Cities walled and defenthe floud: fo these Nations, which antiently ced: lying between the Mountain of Herinhabited both the border of Canaan, and mon (which Mountain, faith Moles, the Sidothe Land it felf, had among them many Fa- nians call shirion, and the Amorites, Shenir) milies of Giant-like men. For the Anakims and the River of Jordan. And it befell unto dwelt in Hebron, which fometimes was called the King of Bafan ( who attended Mofes 1415 the City of Arbah, which Arbah in Josua is coming at Edrei ) as it did unto Schon: for 1314,15 called the father of the Anakims; and the he and his fons perished, and all his Cities greatest man of the Anakims. There had also were taken and possest. After this, Moses been Giants in the Land of the Moabites, cal-led Emims: and their chief City was Aroer Mountains of Abarim, left the profecution or Ar, near the River of Arnon. To the Giants of that war unto Jair the fon of Manaffe: of the Rephaims, the Ammonites gave the who conquering the East parts of Basan, to name of Zamzummims; which were of the wit, the Kingdom of Argob, even unto the fame antient Canaanites : and their chief Ci- Nations of the Goffuri and Machati, 60. walty was Rabba, afterward Philadelphia. They led Cities, called the same after his own were also called Zuzims, which is as much to name Havoth Jair: of all which conquests fay, as Viri robusti, horrendique Gigantes; afterward the half Tribe of Manasse possest Strong men, and fearful Giants, who inhabi- the North part as far as Edrei, but the East ted other Cities of Ham, or Hom, in the same part that belonged to Schon the Amorite, Province, and not far to the North of Aroer. with the Mountains of Gilead adjoyning,

Now Moses having past Arnon, and being was given to Reuben, and unto Gad. incamped at Abarim; and having (as before) fent to sehon, as he had done to Edom, to pray a paffage through his Countrey, was denied it. For Sehon being made proud by his former conquest upon Vakeb the Meabite; which Nation the Amorites effected but as strangers and usurpers, (themselves being of the fons of Canaan, and the Moabites of Lot ) refused to grant Ifrael any entrance that way; and withal, prepared to encounter Mofes with as much speed as he could, because Moses incamped in the Countrey of his ple and cattel. Towards him therefore hafling himfelf, they encountred each other at Giants called Anakims, or the fons of Anac. the other Cities, Villages, or Fields; they be-God also commanded Moses to spare the ing of the race of Canaan, as those of Basan Ammonites. because they likewise were de- also were, and descended of Emoreus, or A-peal, 18.

Moses his death.

A Free these victories, and while Israel so-journed in the valley of Moab, the Madianites and Moabites (over both which Nations it feemeth that Ealac King of the Moabites then commanded in chief) fought, according to the advice of Ealaam, both by al- render up his life: He hastned to settle the luring the Hebrews to the love of their government in Johna, whom he persuaded daughters, and by perfuading them to honour and ferve their Idols, to divide them conquest begun, assuring him of Gods saboth in Love and Religion among themfelves: thereby the better both to defend spent these his latter days after the conquest their own interest against them, as also to of og, and Sekon King of the Amorites, in the beat them out of Moab, and the Countries repetition and exposition of the Law, (or an funded to these evil courses, and thereby threats unto the people, which he often redrew on themselvs the plague of pestilence, whereof there periffied 2,000, perfens : be-15.4.15.1. fides which punishment of God, the most of all-powerful God: He blessed the twelve the offenders among the Hebrews, were by his commandment put to the Sword, or other violent deaths: after this, when that Phineas the fon of Eleazar had pierced the bodies of Zimri, a Prince of the Simeonites, together with Cosbi, a Daughter of one of the chief of the Midianites, the Plague cea- God, The last that he indited, was that Profulness, respecting the ardent zeal of Phiness the words of my mouth: and being called by in profecuting of Zimri (who being a chief God from the labours and forrows of this among the Hebrews, become an Idolater ) as life, unto that Rest which never afterward he forgave the rest of Israel, and stayed his hath disquiet, he was buried in the Land of hand for his fake.

In this valley it was that Mofes caused the people to be numbred the third time : and happened in the year of the World, 2554. there remained of able men fit to bear arms Na. 16 st. 601730. of which, as his last enterprise, he appointed 12000, to be chosen out, to invade the Ciries of Midian, who, together with the Moudites, practifed with Balaam to Observations out of the Story of Moses, how curle Linel: and after that, fought to allure them (as before remembred) from the worfrip of the true God, to the fervice of Beth-Pear: and to the rest of their berbarous Idelatry. Over which Companies of 12000. Ow let us a little, for infruction, look Moss gave the charge to Phineas the fon of back to the occasions of fundry of the delatry. Over which Companies of 12000. Eleazar the high Priest: who slew the five great events, which have been mentioned in Princes of the Midianites, which were, or this Story of the life of Moses, for (excepting had lately been, the vastals of schon, as ap- Gods miracles, his promise, and fore-choice peareth by fosiuh. These five Princes of the of this people) he wrought in all things else Midianites flain by Eleazar, were at this by the medium of mens affections, and natutime but the valials of Schon the Amorite, to ral appetites. And so we shall find that the wit, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Rera, the fear which Pharaob had of the increase of the constitution Dukes of schon faith Josuah. He flew aifo the Hebrews, multiplyed by God to exceeding as had not yet used the company of men. but these they saved, and dispers'd them a-Of the troubles about the Madianites, and of mong the children of Ifrael to serve them.

And Moles having now lived 120, years, making both his own weakness of body Process known to the people, and his unability to travel: and also that he was forewarned of his end by the Spirit of God, from whom he received a new commandment to afcend postar the Mountains of Abarim, and thereon to with most lively arguments to prosecute the your and atliftance therein. And fo having adjoyning. The Ifraelites as they had ever iteration of the Law, according to Saint Au-Amile been enclined, fo were they now easily per- gustine) using both arguments, prayers, and sansing peated unto them; thereby to confirm them in knowledg, love, fear, and fervice of the Tribes, that of simeon excepted, with feveral and most comfortable bleflings: praising Dett. 10. the greatness and goodness of him, unto whom in his prayers he commended them: He also commanded the Priests to lay up the Dest. 11. Book of the Law, by the fide of the Ark of fed, and Gods wrath was appealed. For fuch was the love and kindness of his all-power-Moab, over against Beth-Peor: but no man knoweth of his Sepulcher to this day; which

6. X.

God disposeth both the smallest occasions, and the greatest resistances, to the effecting of his purpose.

men, male-children, and women: faving fuch great numbers, was the next natural caule an : the contention between the Sherherds gotten.

of the forrows and lofs, which befel himfelf, of that place, and Jethro's Daughters, and the Egyptian Nation: which numbers made him known to their Father; who not when he fought by cruel and ungodly poli- onely entertained him, but married him cies to cut off and lesion, as when he com- to one of those Silvers: and in that Solitary manded all the male children of the Hebrews life of keeping of his Father-in-Law's sheep, to be flain, God (whole providence cannot be refifted, nor his purpoles prevented himself (though bred as a Kings Son) with by all the foolish and salvage crast of mortal the Lot of a poor Heards-man, God found men) moved compatition in the heart of Pha- him out in that Defart wherein he first sufferraoh's own daughter, to preserve that child, ed him to live many years, the better to which afterward became the most wise, and know the waies and pallages through which of all menthe most gentle and mild, the most he purposed that he should conduct his excellently learned in all Divine and Hu-people, toward the Land promifed; and mane knowledge, to be the conductor and therein appearing unto him, he made him deliverer of his oppressed brethren, and know his will and divine pleasure for his rethe overthrow of Pharaoh, and all the flow-turn into Fgypt. The like may be faid of er of his Nation; even then, when he fought all things elfe, which Moses afterward by by the strength of his men of War, of his Horse, and Chariots, to tread them under, If ael before remembred. There is not and bury them in the dust. The grief which therefore the smallest accident, which may Moles conceived of the injuries, and of the seem unto men as falling out by chance, and violence offered to one of the Hebrews in of no consequence, but that the same is cauhis own presence, moved him to take re- sed by Go I to effect somewhat else by: venge of the Egyptian that offered it: the in- yea, and oftentimes to effect things of the greated worldly importance, either pre-threatning him to discover the slaughter of lently, or in many years after, when the the Egyptian, moved him to fly into Madi- occasions are either not considered, or for-

243

CHAP. VI.

Of the Nations with whom the Israelites had dealing after their coming out of Egypt; and of the Men of renown in other Nations, about the times of Moses and Josua; with the sum of the History of Josua.

6. I.

How the Nations with whom the Israelites were to have War, were divers waies, as it were prepared to be their Enemies.

long before-hand, by the disposing pro- things more manifest, we must understand vidence of God, as it were, prepared for en- that this part of syria, bounded by the mity: partly in respect that they were most of them of the iffue of Canaan, or at least of Ham; and the rest (as the Edomites, Moa- far as the Springs of Arnon on the East: by bites, Ammonites; and Israelites ) were min- the way of Egypt, and the Red Sea, on the gled with them by mutual marriages : South: and by the Mediterran Sea on the whereas the Israelites still continued stran- West: was inhabited and peopled by two gers, and separate from them: and so part- Nations, the one springing from the sons of ly in this respect, and partly by antient inju- | Cham, the other from Sem: but those of

Nlike manner, if we look to the qua- 1 ries or enmities, and partly by reason of dility of the Nations, with whom the versity in Religion, were these Nations, as Ifraelites, after their coming out of it were, prepared to be enemies to the Ifrae-Egypt, had to do, either in the Wilder- lites: and so to serve for such purposes as ness, or afterward, we shall find them God had reserved them for. To make these mountains of Libanus, and Zidon on the North, by the same mountains continued as Hh2

Sem, were but as ftrangers therein for a long eldeft fon Naboth sprung the Arabians of It feemeth " one Family, to wit, that of Abraham, and ham befought God to bles Ismael, so it pleaalso that a few of his kinned. The other for the great- fed him both to promife and perform it. For chir, and Lords and possessions of those Territories, habited, in effect, all that Tract of Land Bag his Lords and policilors of those Territories, Brother, by process of time divided into several Faplanted milies and Names: whereof fome of them is the West part of the Desart of Arabia in the East were of eminent stature and strength, as the Petrea. Yet howsoever the strength of tide of for- Anakims, Zamzummims, or Zuzei, Emims, dan, about Horites, and others. These (as men most from Abraham, were great; it is not unlikewherethey valiant and able commonly do) did inhafind the Land of bite the utter borders and Mountains of not to favour the entrance of the Uraclites their Countries: the rest were the Zidoni- into Canaan, was in respect of fear: because waich Job ans, Jebusties, Amorites, Hevites, Hetites, and all Princes and States do not wilingly permit one of the others, who took name after the fons of Ca- any stranger or powerful Nation to enter iffue of naan, and after whom the Countrey in ge- their Territories. Wherefore, though all Bus, the neral was still called.

sbor, and Eliba, his Shem by Abraham, they were of another Fa- they had their jealoufies of each other, and triend who mily, and ftrangers in that Country, especial contended for dominion; yet fearing a third Bugit. See ally the Israelites: and this was some cause more strong than themselves, whether they hereater that the Canaanites did not affect them, or stood apart or united, they were taught by they dayly contracted affinity, than of their that, the border of the Ammonites was strong Ex. 17.16. old pedigree from Abraham.

Dent. 11.5, of Abraham, or of his kinred, who had link- Moabites in their own reason not much to Deat 11.5. For the Ifraelites were forbidden to pro- and more stirred up to enmity against Ifra-Ex. 17.16. whereas contrariwife Amalek was curfed, and descended from Abraham's kinred, we may endless war decreed against him: but here- note, how in the beginning, between the of more elsewhere, Chap. 8. 5.3. Of Ismael's Authours of their Pedigrees, God permit-time, and came thither, in effect, but with Petraa, called Nabathai. Now even as Abrason of Nate of part, were the Canaanites, the antient of him those twelve Princes came, which in Gon to between Havilah upon Tygris, and Sur which these later named Nations, which descended ly, but that some reason which moved them these Families before named, were not so As for the Hebrews which descended of united in and among themselves, but that indure them, no more than the Philistims the care of their own preservation, to joyn did, who descended also of Cham by Miz- themselves together against Israel: though raim. For though Abraham himself, being a they did it nothing so maliciously and restranger, was highly esteemed and honour- solvedly as the Canaanites did. For the ed among them; especially by the Amorites Edumaans onely denied the Hebrews a pafinhabiting the West part of Jordan: yet sage, which the Moabites durst not deny: now even they which descended from Abra- because their Country lay more open; and ham, or from his kinred, abode and multi- because themselves had lately been beaten plied in those parts, were alienated in affe- out of the richest part of their Dominions, ctions from the Ifraelites, as holding them by the Amorites: and as for the Ammonites strangers and intruders: making more actiheir Country lay altogether out of the way. count of their alliance with the Canaanites, and the strength of Schon and Og, Kings of and the rest of the issue of Cham, with whom the Amorites, was interjacent: and besides by reason of the mountains which divided it True it is, that these Nations descended from Basan. Again, that which moved the Nation ed themselves, and marched with the Cana- interrupt Israel, in the conquest of sehon the anites and others, had so far possest them- Amorite, and of og his confederate, was, selves of the borders of those Regions, as that the Meabites might hope, after such a they began to be equal in strength to the time as the Amorites were beaten by Moses, bordering Canaanites, if not superiour. For that themselves might recover again their of Lot came those two great Families of the own inheritance: to wit, the Vallies and Moabites, and Ammonites: of Esau the Idu. Plains lying between the mountains of Arameans : of Mudian the Madianites : of If bia and Jordan : But as foon as Sehon was mael the eldest son of Abraham, came the If- slain, and that the King of Moab, Balac, permaelites, with whom are joyned, as of the ceived that Moses allotted that Valley to the fame Nation, the Amalekites; whom though Tribes of Gad and Reuben, he began to prathe more common opinion thinketh to have Ctife with Balaam against Ifrael, and by the been a Tribe of Edom, because Esau had a daughters of Midian, as aforesaid, to allure grand-child of that name, yet manifest rea- them to Idolatry: and thus at the length fon convinceth it to have been otherwise. the Moabites, by special occasion, were more voke the Edomites, or do them any wrong; el. And as for divers of the rest that were red fome enmities to be, as it were, prefages of future quarrels, which in the posterity might be the easier incenfed by the memory of old grudges: and withall, by fome difdain from the elder in nature to the younger. For the Ismaelites being descended from the eldest son of Abraham, and the Edomites from the eldest fon of Isac, Jacob, being but a fecond fon, of a fecond brother; be thought to be of a better Fedigree ) we those Princes which were descended of the find four named by Moses: and one and to give place, much less to subject themselvs these named, otherwise than by the Cities to their inferiours, as they took it: and for a more aggravation, the issues of Esan, Princes of Idumea, might keep in record, that their Parent was bought out of his birth-6m 17. right by Jacob's taking his advantage, and 66.33 14 that he was deceived of his Father's blefling of Cham by Canaan, as the Hitties, Jebualso by him : and that Jacob, after reconci- sites, Amorites, Gergesites, Hevites, &c. and liation, came not unto him as he promised, so here we understand this name in speaking into Seir or Idumea.

remain as a feed or pretence of enmity, that holy Land, or the Land of promise: for God their fore-father was by the instigation of hath appointed that the seven principle Fa-Sara, cast out into the Desart, with his mo- milies should be rooted out, and that his ther Hagar; and had therein perished, but own people should inherit their Lands and that it pleased God by his Angel to relieve Cities. But if we consider of the name them. Ismael also had an Egyptian both to his Mother and to his Wife: and Amalec Horites were of the antient Canaanites. The in which narrow Country, and in the choif-Maternal line descended of the Canaanites. held their Paternal name chiefly inhabited. For Esau took two wives of that Nation: one the Hittite; and the other Aholibamah, the Hevites, whom Simeon and Levi flew, togegrand-child of Zibeon, the Hevite, Lord of ther with his Son Sichem, in revenge of their Seir, before the same was conquered by E- listers ravishment. fau, and called after his name, Edom, or Edumea.

of the Ilmaelites, Amalekites, Moabites, Ammo- Edom and the dead Sea; the same which surnites, Edomites, &c. were in process of time prifed Ifrael, as they encamped in the Wilcorrupted, and drawn from the knowledg derness in the edge of Edumea. and worship of God, and became Idolaters, infected and feduced by the conversation bon, who before Moses arrival had beaten the and by those wives of the Canaanites which trea, or Nabathea, and thrust them over Arthey had married: onely a few of the Ke-non into the Delarts, the same whom Moses nites and those Madianites, which inhabi- overthrew in the plains of Moab: at which ted on the edge of the Red Sea, whereof time he took Effebon, and all the Cities of Jethro was Priest, or Prince, or both, wor- the Amorites. thipped the true and ever-living God.

6. II.

of the Kings of the Canaanites and Madianites, mentioned in the antient Wars of the Hraclines

F the Kings of the Canaanites, descended of Cham (for Melekizedek may elder Houses, being natural men, might scorn thirty remembred by Josus, though few of over which they commanded: to which each of them had a small Territory adjoyning, and no other Dominion. These Canaanites in a general confideration are to be understood for all those Nations, descended of the Kings of the Canaanites: and so also So also in the posterity of Ismael, it might we call the Country of their habitation the and Nation in particulare hen is their proper habitation bounded by Jordan, on the was also an Horite by his Mother : which East and by the Mediterran Sea on the West: Edumeans also, or Edomites, were by their est places thereof, those Canaanites which

The first King of these Nations, named in Gen 34. of them was Adath, the daughter of Elon, the Scriptures, was Hamor or Hemer, of the Arad was the fecond King which the Scriptures have remembred, who had that part Laftly it appeareth that all those Families of Canaan towards the South, neighbouring Num. 2.1.1.

The third named was Sehon King of Effeof those people among whom they dwelt, Moabites out of the West part of Arabia Pe- Na. 1.14 701.9.700

Presently after which victory, Og was also ub 4.6.5. flain by Ifrael, who commanded the North part of that Valley between the Mountains Na. 21.35. Traconi, or Galaad, and Jordan, who was alfo a King of the Amerites.

The fifth was Adonizedck King of the Jebusites, and of Hierusalem, with whom Josua nameth four other Kings.

Heban, King of Hebron. Piram. King of Jarmeth. Japia, King of Lukis: and Deber, King of Fglon, who were all Amo-Joing to rites overthrown in battel; and hanged by Joseph and Josua. After this overthrow Josua nameth Tabin, King of Hazor, and Jobab, King of Madon: whom he also flaughtered, and took his Cities: and this falem. Jabin scemed to have some dominion over

Jos. 11. 1. the reft; for it is faid in the Text, For Hazor before times was the head of all those Kingdoms.

After these Adonibezek that notorious Tyrant is named: who confest that he had cut off the thumbs of the hands and feet of seventy Kings, inforcing them to gather crumbs under his Table: who, after Juda and Simeon had used the same execution upon himself, acknowledged it to be a just revenge of God: this King was carried to Hierufalem where he died. by Josua. For at such time as he employed Reg. 14.7. where it is also called Joktheel. Sifara against Ifrael, whom he oppresetwenty years after the eath of Ehnd, he inhabited Hazor. This abin Barac (encouraged by Dehora) everthew; and his Captain Sifara had by fael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, a nail driven into his head while he 17/21. $3. flept in her Tent: Jabin himself perishing afterward in that war.

thegleus or Jethres, faith Josephus, called Je- Afterward in the pursuit of the rest, Gideon Exol. 3. throin Exodus, Kenis in the first of Judges, the himself laid hands upon Zebah and Salmana, Cedion. han: by Cethura, was Priest or Prince of the perished 1200cc. of the Madianites and their I have spoken elsewhere more at large. This description of their Territories. Tethro, if he were not the same with Hobab, must be his father: and this Hobab had seven daughters. He guided Moses in the Wildernefs, and became one of the Ifraelites: of him descended the Kenites, so called of his father Raguels furname, of which Kenites was Heber, which had peace with Jabin the fecond, even now remembred. from feats, and lived in the mountains of yet the Amalekites, who together with the Jeduci the Defarts.

The Kings of the Canaanites, and Madisnites, and the Amalekites, as many as I find named, were these:

CHAP. VI

34. tr

1. Homer the Hevite of Sichem

2. Arad of the South parts

3. Schon of Effebon 4. Og of Bafan

5. Adonizedek the Jebusite, King of Hieru-

6. Hoham of Hebron

7. Piram of Jarmuth 8. Japia of Lachis

9. Debir of Eelon 10. Tabin of Hazor

11. Jobab of Modon.

12. Adonibezek of Bezek, and 13. Jabin the second King of Hazar.

Of the Madianites these: * Evi or Evis.

Rekam or Recem, who built Petra the Me-fift alla tropolis of Petraa, to called by the Greeks: Kins of The last King named is Jabin the second, and by Esay, cap. 16. v. 1. and Selah, which is stream who as it feemeth had rebuilt Hazor, burnt as much as Petra: and fo also it is called 2 of the la Phiness, Hur and 12000 Reba which be * Oreb led again Zeb Zebab Zalmunna.

After the death of Barac, Judge of Ifrael, wife new The Madianites had also their Kings at the four last named of these Madianite Kings eine sin times, but commonly mixt with the Most vexed Ifrael feven years: till they being put interior and they being a correct of Land in the flight by Colons was a they being put finte for bites: and they held a corner of Land in to flight by Gideon, two of them, to wit, 0- desertion Naliathea: to the South-East of the Dead reb and Zeb, were taken and slain by the E- flow, jul. Sea. They descended from Madian Abra- phraimites, at the passage of Jordan, as in the grant hams fon, by Cethura. Raguel furnamed Ge- 6.7. and 8. of Judges it is written at large, fon of Datkan, the grand-child of Jexanis, or Zalmunna, and executed them, being prior Joksham, the great grand-child of Abra- Soners; in which expedition of Gideon there Madianites by the Red Sea : whose Daugh- confederates. Of the Idumaans, Moabites, ter or Necce, Mojes married, and of whom, and Ammonites, I will speak hereafter in the

s. III.

Of the Amalekites and Ismaelites.

F the Kings of the Amalekites and Isma-clites, I find few that are named; and At such time as Saul invaded the Amale- though of the Ijmaelites there were more in kites, he knowing the good affection of the number than of the reft (for they were mul-Kenites to Ifrael, gave them warning to fe-tiplied into a greater Nation, according unparate themselves: and yet the Kenites had to the promise of God made unto Abraham ) 600,171

CHAP. VI. were more renowned in Moss time than the to theirs, and the antient Syrians, Adad to the of the Ifinaelites. So also were they theirs, and the Arabian Nabatheans, Aretas, when Saul governed Ifrael. For Saul pur- as names of Honour.

and them from Sur unto Havilah, to wit, o-Defart. The reason to me seemeth to be this: of all times they flourished most, and yet That the twelve Princes which came of If- were vanquished. muel, were confent to leave those barren and Sin, to the iffice of Abraham by Cethura, After the government of Othoniel, they joynwas very fruitful, though adjoyning to the Shur.

Delart in which Moses wandred, afterward In Davids time they took Siking in Sime-1 Sam 30.

called Nabathea: the same which neighbour- on: but David followed them and surprised oth Judga on the East-side. They also peo- them, recovering his prisoners and spoils. pled a Province in Arabia the Happy, whereof And yet, after David became King, they athe people were in after-times called Napa- gain vexed him, but to their own loss.

thei (B) changed into (P.) own name to the East-part of Basan, or Bata- by the children of Simeon nea, which was afterward possest by Manasle, fo much thereof as lay within the mountains Traconi, or Gilead. Which Nation Lampridius calleth Kedarens, and Pliny, Cedreans.

Abbeel fat down in the Defart Arabia, near the Mountains which divide it from the Happr: and gave name to the Adubens, which Ptolomy calleth Agubens. Mibsam was the Parent of the Masaman-Arabia the Happy.

The Raabens were of Milhma: who joyned to the Orchens, near the Arabian gulf, where Ptolomy fetreth Zagmais.

Adubens and Raabens: where the City Dumeth fometimes stood.

patheans in the same Happy Arabia.

Thema is feated.

whom Tohu was King in Davids time.

Of Napkri, the Nubeian Arabians, inhabimanded, while David ruled Ifrael.

worshiped the Fire with the Babylonians.

The Amalekites gave their Kings the name ed: Quem propterea ferunt de luto formalle stidiarites were numbered among them .; of Agag, as the Egsptians the name of Pharaoh

The Amalekites were the first that fought Exed. 17. ver a great part of Arabia Petral, and the with Mofes after he past the Red Seat when Afterward they joyned with the Canaanpelarts of Arabia Petraa, called Sur, Paran, ites, and beat the Ifraelites near Cadesbarne, Nam, 14. that joyned with them (for fo feem the Ama- ed them with the Moabites: after Barac, with likites to have been, and so were the Madia- the Madianites, and invaded Israel. God nites; ) themselves taking posicion of a bet-commanded that as soon as Ifrael had rest, meer juncture can may percent and the ter full in Arabia the Happy, and about the Mountains of Galaad in Arabia Tetreas: For lekites: which Saul executed in part, when Naturate the eldest of those twelve Princes he wasted them from the border of Egypt, to planted that part of Arabia Petrea; which the border of Chaldea: from Havilah to

In Ezekias time, as many of them as joyn- 2 Sam. 8.

Kedsr, the second of Imaels sons, gave his ed to Edumea, were wasted and disolanted 12.

6. IV.

Of the instauration of Civility in Europe about these times and of Prometheus and Atlas.

Here lived at this time, and in the same age together with Mofes, many men cufes, near the Mountain Zamath, in the same exceeding famous, as well in bodily strength as in all forts of learning. And as the World was but even now enriched with the written Law of the living God, fo did Art and Civility ( bred and fostered far off in the Of Duna were the Dumeans, between the East, and in Egypt ) begin at this time to discover a passage into Europe, and into those parts of Greece, neighbouring Asia and Ju-Of Massa the Massari, and of Hadar, or daa. For if Pelasgus, besides his bodily Chadar, the Aibrita, who bordered the Na- strength, was chosen King of Arcadia, because he taught those people to erect them Thema begat the Themaneans, among the simple Cottages, to defend them from rain Arabian Mountains, where also the City of and storm: and learned them withal to make a kind of Meale, and bread of Acorns, Of Jetur the Itureans, or Camathens: of who before lived, for the most part, by Herbs and Roots: we may thereby judge how poor and wretched those times were, and ting Syria Zoba: over whom Adadezer com- how fallly those Nations have vaunted of those their antiquities, accompanied not on-Cadma, the last and twelfth of Ijmaels sons, ly with civil learning, but with all other was the Ancestor of the Cadmonaans: who kindes of knowledg. And it was in this age was the Ancestor of the Caumonaans: who sandweet as mounted. And it was in this age were afterward called Afixe, because they of the World, as both Enselving and S. Angre c. a. de cifine have observed, that Prometheus flourist vin De.

formed men out of clay, because he was an ex. Japetus, Asculus finds two other, to wit, ocellent toucker of wildom : and to Theophrastus ceanus and Hesterns, who being famous in expoundeth the invention of fire afcribed to the West, gave name to the Evening, and Prometheur, Ad inventa spientie pertinere; so to the Evening Star. Also besides this At-To have reference to wise inventions: and A- las of Lybia, or Mauritania, there were oin From. Chilus affirmeth, That by the stealing of Ju- thers which bare the same name: but of the tiell. Let 3 ht. fiters fire was meant, that the knowledg of Lybian, and the brother of Prometheus, it 18 dec. Frometheus reached to the Stars, and other was that those Mountains which cross Afri-Stone, and Clay: meaning, that before his the fon of Neptune. birth and being, those people among whom | Cicero in the fifth of his Tusculan questions he lived, had nothing else worthy of men, affirmeth, that all things written of Promeon of Prometheus, being bound on the top express divine knowledg. Nee vero Atlas suf-of the Hill Cancasus, his entrails the while tinere cerlum, nee Prometheus affixus Cancaso, Lad. Vict ma Accardife Caucasum, in sereno celo quam fastened to Caucasu, nor Cepheus with his cx not. longistime aftra, signorum obitus & ortus specia wife to be stellisted, unless their divine knowhe might in a clear skie discern a far off the ous fables.

Of this mans knowledg Æschylus gives this scttings and risings of the stars: though Di-others diverfly.

Ast agebant omnia Ut fors ferebat: donec ipse repperi Signorum obitus, ortusque qui mortalibus Sunt utiles: & multitudinem artium His repperi: componere inde literas ; Matremque Musarum auxi ego Memoriam Perutilem cundis, &c.

But Fortune govern'd all their works, till I first found out how Stars did set and rise : A profitable art to mortal men: And others of like use I did devise: As letters to compose in learned wise I first did teach: and first did amplifie The Mother of the Mufes, Memorie.

Africanus makes Promethens far more an-Aug 118 tient, and but 94. years after Og yees. Porphyc.3. de c-rius fayes, that he lived at once with Ina- Jacius Tzetzes, a curious fearcher of antiquichus, who lived with Isaac.

be faid, that they were born before Moses his Philosophy. dayes, and therefore are by others esteemed of a more antient date: yet the advantage of their long lives gave them a part of other homines, quia oftimus sapientia doctor fuisse ages among men, which came into the perhibetur; of whom it is reported, that he World long after them. Befides these sons of celeftial bodies. Again, it is written of him, ca, to the South of Marocco, Sus, and Hea. that he had the art fo to use this fire, as there- with the Sea adjoyning, took name, which by he gave life to the Images of Wood, memory Plato in Critias bestowes on Atlas.

but external form and figure. By that ficti- theus and Atlas, were but by those names to devoured by an Eagle, was meant the inward nec stellatus Copheus cum uxore traderciur, care and reftless defire he had to investigate nist divina cognitio nomen corum ad errorem the Natures, Motions, and Influences of hea- fabulæ traduxiffet; Neither should Atlas be venly bodies; for so it is said: Ideo altissi- Said to bear up heaven, nor Prometheus to be ret; That he ascended Caucasus to the end that ledg had raised upon their names these errone-

Orpheus fometimes express'd Time by Proodorus siculus expounds it otherwise, and metheus, sometime he took him for Saturn; as, Rheæ coniux alme Promethen. But that the Story of Promethess was not altogether a fiction, and that he lived about this time, the most approved Historians and Antiqua- Lib. 18. ries, and among them Eusebius and S. Augu- in 1 is fine have not doubted : For the great judg. civil Die ment which Atlas had in Astronomy, saith S. Augustine, were his daughters called by the names of constellations, Pleiades and Hyades. Others attribute unto him the finding out of the Moons course, of which Archas the fon of Orchomenus challengeth the invention. Of this Arcas, Arcadia in Peloponnesus took name; and therefore did the Arcadians vaunt that they were more antient than the Moon: Et Luna gens prior illa fuit: which fill.1. is to be understood, faith Natalis Comes, before there had been any observation of the Moons course: or of her working in inferiour bodies. And though there be that beflow the finding out thereof upon Endymion: others (as Xenagoras) on Typhon: yet Ities, gave it Atlas of Libya: who, besides his There lived also at once with Moses, that gifts of mind, was a man of unequalled and famous Atlas, brother to Prometheus, both incomparable strength: from whom Thales being the sons of Japetus, of whom though it the Milesian, as it is said, had the ground of

§. V.

CHAP, VI.

of Deucalion and Phaeton. Nd in this age of the World, and while

Moles yet lived, Deucalion reigned in The aly, Crotopus then ruling the Argives. This Deucalion was the fon of Promotheus, faith Herodotus, Apollonius , Hesiodus , and Strabo. Hesiodus gave him Pandora for mother 5 the rest clymene : Homer in the fifteenth of his Odysses, makes Dencalion the fon of Minos: but he must needs have meant some other Deucalion; for else ton Mez either Olyses was mistaken, or Homer, who Small 9 put the tale into his mouth. For Uhiles, after his return from Troy, feigned himself to be the brother of Idomeneus, who was fon to this later Deucalion, the fon of Minos: but this Minos lived but one age before Troy was taken: ( for Idomeneus served in that war ) and this Deucalion the fon of Prometheus, who lived at once with Moles, was long before. In the first Deucalion's time happened that great inundation in Thessaly: by which in effect every foul in those parts perished, but Deucalion, Pyrrha his wife, and fome few others. It is affirmed, that at the time of this for their foul fins perish by waters: as in the Deucalion, and Pyrrha his wife, whom God ipared, were both of them esteemed to be lovers of Vertue, of Justice, and of Religion. Of whom Ovid:

> Non illo melior quisquam, nec amantior æqui Vir fuit : aut illa reverentior ulla dearum.

No man was Better, nor more just than hee: Nor any woman godlier than shee.

It is also affirmed, that Prometheus foreward add the fending out of the Dove, to Thorth; the Alexandrians, Thot, and the discover the waters fall and decrease, I Greeks, (asbefore) Hermes. And to this should verily think that Story had been but Taantus, Sanconiatho, who lived about the an imitation of Noah's flood devised by the the war of Troy, gives the invention of let-

Greeks, did not the time so much differ, and S. Augustine with others of the Fathers and Aug. de reverent Writers approve this Story of Den-118 c10. calion. Among other his children, Deucali- ex Eujebio on had thefe two of note; Hellen, of whom ming. Greece had first the name of Hellas; and Melantho, on whom Neptune is faid to have begot Delphus, which gave name to Delphos, fo renowned among the Heathen for the oracle of Apollo therein founded.

And that which was no less strange and marvellous than this flood, was that great burning and conflagration which about this time also happened under Phaeton; not only in Ethiopia, but in Istria, a Region in Italy, and about Cuma, and the Mountains of Vefuvius: of both which the Greeks, after their manner, have invented many strange fables.

§. VI.

Of Hermes Trifmegiftus.

But of all other which this age brought forth among the Heathen, Mercurius was the most famous and renowned; the same which was also called Trismegistus, or Ter Maximus; and of the Greeks, Hermes.

Many there were of this name's and how flood in Thessay, those people exceeded in to distinguish, and set them in their own all kind of wickedness and villany: and as times, both S. Angustine and Lactantins find the impiety of men is the forcible attractive it difficult. For that Mercury which was of Gods vengeance, so did all that Nation esteemed the god of Theeves, the God of Wrestlers, of Merchants, and Sea-men, and time of Noah, the corruption and cruelty of the god of Eloquence (though all by one all mandkind drew on them that general name confounded ) was not the same with destruction by the flood universal. Onely that Mercury, of whose many works some fragments are now extant.

Cicero, Clemens Alexandrinus, Arnobius, and certain of the Greeks reckon five Mercuries. Of which, two were famous in Egypt, and there worshipped; one, the son of Nilus, whose name the Egyptians feared to utter, as the Jews did Tetragrammaton; the other that Mercury, which flew Argus in Greece, and flying into Egypt, is faid to have delivered literature to the Egyptians, and to have given them laws. But Diodorus affirm- Lud. Pices eth, that Orpheus, and others after him, out of citold his fon Deucation of this over-flowing, brought learning and letters out of Egypt cero in Aug and advised him to provide for his fasety: into Greece: which Plato also confirmeth, 18,0,26 who hereupon prepared himself a kind of faying; That letters were not found out Veffel, which Incian in his Dialogue of Ti- by that Mercury which flew Argus, but by mon calls Cibotium; and others Larnax. And that antient Mercury, otherwise Thevet; whom because to these circumstances, they after- Philo Byblins writeth Taantus; the Egyptians,

-50

6 de of them the fon of Nilus, nor acknowledg-Prap to m eth either of them to have flain Argus. For he finds this Afercury the flaver of Argus, to the grand-child of that Atlas, which lived while Atofes was yet young. And yet L.Vives upon S. Augustine seems to understand them to be the same with those, whom Cicero, Alexandrinus, and the reft have remembred. But that conjecture of theirs, that any Grecian Mercury brought letters into Egypt, hath no ground. For it is manifest, (if there be any truth in prophane antiquity) that all the knowledg which the Greeks had, was transported out of Egypt or Phanicia, and not out of Greece, nor by any Greeian into Egypt. For they all confess, that Cadmus brought letters first into Bæotia, either out of Egypt, or out of Phanicia: it being true, that between Mercurius, that lived at once with Moses and Cadmus, there were these descents cast; Crotopus King of the Argives, with whom Moses lived, and in whose time about his tenth year Moses died; after Crotopus, Sthenelus, who reigned eleven years; after him Danaus fifty years; after him Lincens: in whose time, and after him in the time of Minos King of Crete, this Cadmus arrived in Baotia. And therefore it cannot be true that any Mercurius about Moses his time, flying out of Greece for the flaughter of Argus, brought literature out of Greece into Egypt. Neither did either of those two Mercuries of Egypt, whom Saint Augustine remembreth, the one the grandfather, the other the Nephew or grandchild, come out of Greece. Eupolemus and Artapanus note, that Moses found out letters. and taught the use of them to the Jews : of whom the Phanicians their neighbours received them; and the Greeks of the Phanicians by Cadmus. But this invention was also ascribed to Moses, for the reason before remembred; that is, because the Jews and the Phanicians had them first from him. For every Nation gave unto those men the honeur of first Inventors, from whom they received the profit. Ficinus makes that Mercury, upon part of whose works he commenteth, to have been four descents after Moses; which he hath out of Virgil, who cals Atlas, that lived with Mofes, the maternal grand-father of the first famous Mercury, whom others, as Diodorus, call the Counseller and Instructer of that renowned Isis, wife of oftris. But Ficinus giveth no reason for Estin in his opinion herein. But that the elder Mer-Pref. Pre cury infructed Is, Diodorns Siculus affirm-mud Mer. eth, and that such an Inscription was found ters. But S. Augustine making two Mercu- on a pillar erected on the Tomb of Ist. Lod. cath, t.e. ries, which were both Feyptians, calls neither lives upon the fix and twentieth Chapter of tate Dei, conceiveth, that this Mercury, whole werks are extant, was not the first which was entituled Ter Maximus, but his Nephew or Grand-child, * sanchoniaton, an ancient + Orsa Phanician, who lived shortly after Moses, shaming to see Eight, hath other funcies of this Mercury; affirming de tree se that he was the Scribe of Saturn, and called very to by the Phanicians, Taantus, and by the E-c.6. apptians, Thoot, or Thoyt. It may be, that the pies in many years which he is faid to have lived, 16.3. c.16. to wit, three hundred years, gave occasion 483.41 to some Writers to find him in one time, and the time to others in other times. But by those who have collected the grounds of the Egyptian Philosophy and Divinity, he is found more antient than Moses : because the Inventor of the Egyptian Wisdom, wherein it is said, that

Moses was excellently learned. It is true, that although this Mercury or Hermes doth in his Divinity differ in many particulars from the Scriptures, especially in the approving of Images, which Mofes of all things most detested: yet whosoever shall read him with an even judgment, will rather resolve, that these works which are now extant, were by the Greeks and Egyptian Priests corrupted, and those fooleries inserted, then that ever they were by the hand of Hermes written, or by his heart and spirit devised. For there is no man of understanding, and mafter of his own wits, that hath affirmed in one and the same Tract, those things which are directly contrary indo-Ctrine, and in nature : For out of doubt (Mofer excepted) there was never any man of those elder times that hath attributed more, and in a stile more reverend and divine unto Almighty God, than he hath done. And therefore if those his two Treatises now among us; the one converted by Apuleius, the other by that learned Ficinus, had been found in all things like themselves: I think Missi it had not been perillous to have thought with Eupolemns, that this Hermes was Mofes himself; and that the Egyptian Theologie hereafter written, was devised by the first, and more antient Mercury, which others have thought to have been Joseph, the son of Jacob: whom, after the exposition of Tharaoh's dreams, they called Saphanetphane, which is as much to fay, as Absconditorum repertor; A finder out of hidden things. But these are overventurous opinions. For what this man was, it is known to God. Envy and aged time hath partly defaced, and partly worn out the certain knowledg of him: of whom, whosoever he were, Last antius writCHAT. VI. nation this fort : Hie feripfit libros, & quidem in a foort time) by being looked from these Eultos, ad cognitionem divinarum rerum pertinentes in quibus Majestatem summi ac sineularis Dei afferit, iisclemque nominibus appellat, quibus nos, Deum & Patrem; He hath written many Books belonging to, or expressing the knowledg of divine things, in which he affirmeth the Majesty of the most High, and one God, calling him by the same names of God and marvellous: in regard whereof, this being. Father, which we do. The same Father also feareth not to number him among the Sybils and Prophets. And fo contrary are these his acknowledgments to those Idolatrous fictions of the Egyptians and Grecians: as for my felf I am persuaded, that whatsoever is found in him contrary thereunto was bycorruption inserted. For thus much himself confelleth: Deus omnium Dominus, & Pater . fons & vita, potentia & lux, & mens, & fpiritus; & omnia in ipfo,& fub ipfo funt. Verbum enim ex ejus esse prodiens, perfect issimum exiftens, & generator, & opifex, &c. God (faith he ) the Lord and Father of all things, the fountain and life, and power, and light, and mind, and spirit: and all things are in him. and under him. For his Word out of himfelf proceeding, most perfect, and generative, and operative, falling upon fruitful nature, made vidit prisca Religionis, hic ortum nova fidei, ing all things, be favourable, be favourable. bic adventum Christi, bic futurum judicium , resurrectionem seculi, beatorum gloriam, supplicia peccatorum; This Mercury foresaw the In Pref. the ruine of the old or superstitious Religion and the birth of the new faith , and of the Of Jannes and Jambres, and some other that coming of Christ, the future judgment, the resurrection, the glory of the blessed, and the torment or affliction of the wicked or damned. To this I will onely add his two last speech-bonds of flesh and blood, depart from you, fee that you do not bewail me as a man dead ; for I do but return to that best and bleffed City, to which all her Citizens (by the condition of death ) shall repair. Therein is the onely God. the most high and chief Prince, who filleth or feedeth his citizens with fweetness more than which other's call a life, is rather to be accounted a death than a life. The other, and that which seemeth to be his last, is thus converted by others, agreeing in fense, but not in words: with Suydas: O calum, magni Dei Sapiens opus, teque O vox Patris quamille primam emifit, quando universum constituit mundum, adjuro per unigenitum ejus Verbum, & Spiritum cunct a comprehendentem, Miseremini mei : I adjure thee O heaven, thou wife work of the great God, and thee O voyce of the Father, which he first uttered, when he framed the whole World by his onely begotten Word, and spirit, comprehending all things, Have mercy upon me.

But Suydas hath his invocation in these words: Obtestor te calum, magni Dei sapiens opus, obtestor te vocem Patris, quam loquutus eft primum cum omnem mundum firmavit, obit also fruitful and producing. And he was testor to per unicenitam Sermonem omnia contherefore (faith Suydas) called Ter Maxi- tinentem, propitius, propitius esto; I besecch mus, quia de Trinitate loquutus eft, in Trini- thee O heaven, wife work of the great God, I tate unum esse Deum asserens; Because he spake beseech thee O voice of the Father, which he of the Trinity, affirming that there is one God fake first when he established all the world, I in Trinity. Hic ruinam ( faith Ficinus ) præ- befeech thee by the onely begotten Word contain-lived about those times.

6. VII.

Here were also in this age both Æscu-I lapius, which after his death became es reported by Calcidius the Platonifi, and the god of the Phylicians, being the brother by Volteran out of Suydas. Hallenus, fili, of Mercurius, as Fives thinks in his Commen- L. Vives in pullus à patria, vixi peregrinus & exul, nunc tary upon Augustine, de Civitate Dei, lib. 8. 1.8. Aug. incolumis repeto. Cumque post paulum à vo- and also those two notorious Sorcerers, Jan- 6.20. bis corporeis vinculis absolutus discessero, vide- nes and Jambres, who in that impious art tote ne me quasi mortuum lugeatis: nam ad excelled all that ever had been heard of to illam optimam beatamque Civitatem regredi- this day: and yet Mofes himself doth not or, ad quamuniversi cives mortis conditione charge them with any familiarity with Diventuri sunt. Ibi namque solus Deus est sum- vels, or ill Spirits : words indeed that selmus Princeps, qui cives suos replet suavitate dom came out of his mouth : however by mirifica : ad quam bac, quam multi vitam ex- the Septuagint they are called Sophifia, or istimant, mors est potius dicenda quam vita; Venefici, and Incantatores; Sophists, Poy-Hitherto, 0 son, being driven from my country, I have lived a stranger and banished man: but now I am repaired homeward again in safe- so by Vatablus, who also useth the word Maty. And when I shall after a few days (or gi. The Greek it self seems to attribute somewhat of what they did to natural Magick: us inflitute the like games to Minerva: calling them copusais, workers by drugs. The Genevan, Sorcerers and Inchanters: Junius, Sapientes, Praftigiatores, & Magi. Magicians and Wife men here by him are taken in one sence: and Prestigiators are such as dazel menseves, and make them feem to fee what they fee not : as false colours, and false shapes. But as some vertues and some vices are fo nicelly diffinguished, and fo refembling each other as they are often confounded; and the one taken for the other ( Religion and Superstition having one face and countenance) fo did the works and working of Moses, and of Pharao's Sorcerers appear in outward thew, and to the beholders of common capacities, to be one and the fame art and gift of knowledg. For the Divel changeth himself into an Angel of light: and imitateth in all he can the waies and workings of the most High. And yet, on the contrary, every work which furmounteth the wisdom of most men, is not to be condenined, as performed by the help or miniftery of ill Spirits. For the properties and powers which God hath given to natural things, are fuch, as where he also bestoweth the knowledg to understand their hidden and best vertues, many things by them are brought to pass, which seem altogether impossible, and above nature or art: which two speculations of works of nature, and of miracle, the Cabalists distinguished by these names ; Opus de Berclith, & opus de mercana: the one they call, Sapientiam nature; The Wisdom of nature: the other, Sapientiam divinitatis; The Wisdom of divinity: the one Jacob practised in breeding the pied Lambs in Mejopotamia; the other Mojes exercised in his miracles wrought in Egypt, having received from God the knowledg of the one in the highest perfection, to wit, the knowledg of nature : of the other fo far as it pleafed God to proportion him, both which he used to his glory that gave them: assuming to himself nothing at all, either in the least or most. Also S. Augustine noteth, that from the time that Moses left Egypt, to the death of Joshua, divers other famous men lived in the World, who, after their deaths, for their eminent vertues, and inventions, were numbred among the gods: as Dionysius, otherwise Liber Pater, who taught the Greciansthe use of the Vine in Attica: at which time also there were instituted Musical plays to Apollo Delphicus: thereby to regain his favour, who brought barrenness and scarcity upon that part of Greece, because they resisted not the attempts of Danaus, who spoiled his Temple, and fet it on fire: fo did Erichoniwherein the Victor was rewarded with a present of oil, in memory of her that first prest it out of the Olive.

252

In this age also Xanthus ravished Europa, and hegat on her Radamanthus, Sarpedon and Minos, which three are also given to Tupiter by other Historians. To these Saint Angustine addeth Hercules; the same to Dei, Cit. whom the twelve labours are ascribed, native of Tyrinthia a City of Peloponnesus: (or as others fay, onely nurfed and brought up there) who came into Italy, and destroyed many Monsters there; being neither that Hercules, which Eulebius furnameth Delphin, famous in Phonicia; nor that Hercules, according to Philostratus, which came to Cades, whom he calleth an Egyptian: Manifestum Philipla. fit, non Thebanum Herculem, fed Egyptium ad Gades pervenisse, & ibi finem statuisse terra ( faith Philostratus ; ) It is manifest, that it was the Egyptian Hercules, and not the Theban, which travelled as far as the straights of Gades, and there determined the bounds of the earth. In this time also while Moses wandered in the Defarts, Dardanus built Dardania.

But whofoever they were, or how worthy foever they were that lived in the Dayes and Age of Moses, there was never any man, that was no more than Man, by whom it pleased God to work greater things; whom he favoured more, to whom (according to the appearing of an infinite God) he so often appeared; never any man more familiar and conversant with Angels; never any more learned both in Divine and Humane knowledge; never a greater Prophet in Ifrael. He was the first that received and delivered the Law of God entire; the first that left to posterity by letters, the truth and power of one infinite God; his creating out of nothing the World Universal, and all the creatures therein; that taught the detestation of Idolatry, and the punishment, vengeance, and eradication, which followed.

Syracides calleth Moles the beloved of God and men, whose remembrance is bless-symuths ed. He made him ( faith the fame Author) 12. like to the glorious Saints, and magnified him by the fear of his enemies, made him glorious in the fight of Kings, shewed him his glory, caufed him to hear his voyce, sandified him with faithfulness and meekness, and chose bim out of all men.

He is remembred among prophane Authors; as by Clearchus the Peripatetick: by Megastenes, and Numenius the Pythagorian. The long lives which the Patriarchs enjoynicus, Acufilaus, Fphorns, and Alexander the without any figure at all therein. Historian, confirm. The universal flood which Damascenus, and others, have testified. The Moses, saying, That Moses was learned in all building of the Tower of Babel, and confu- the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty fion of tongues, Abydenus, Estieus, and Sy- in his works and words; the same is correbilla have approved. Berofus also honoureth cted (how truly I know not) by Diodorus, Damascenus before cited, speaketh of Abragreeing with the books of Meles. Enpolemon vine, and Moral. writeth the very fame of Abraham, which A foles did. For beginning with the building of Babel, and the overthrow thereof by di- tick, and Mulick, the antient Egyptians exvine power, he faith that Abraham, born in ceed all others. For Geometry which is by the tenth generation, in the City called Camerina, or Vrien, excelled all men in wifdom: and by whom the Astrology of the infallible principles, directed them certainly Caldeans was invented. Is justitia pietateque in bounding out their proper Lands and (ua (faith Eusebius out of the fame Author) Territories, when their fields and limits, by fic Deo gratus fuit, ut divino præcepto in Phæniciane venerit, ibique habitaverit; For his flown and confounded, so as no man could justice and piety he was so pleasing unto God, know what in right belonged unto him. as by his commandment he came into Phænido confirm the books of Moses, as Eusebius lings, and motions of the Stars. hath gathered in the ninth of his Preparation stiarum & pecorum imagines Deo tribuerunt : their Kings, and good Men.

quod nos, & terram, & mare continet, quod and operations of natural things, differs litcelum, & mundum, & rerum omnium natu- tle from Peripatetical Philosophy; teaching, ram appellamus: cujus profecto imaginem,ne- that Materia prima is the beginning of all mo (and mentis, alicujus earum rerum, que things; that of it all mixt bodies, and living penes nos funt, similem audeat effingere. Pro- creatures have their being; that Heaven is inde(omni simulachrorum effictione repudiata) round like a Globe; that all Stars have a dignum ei Templum ac Delubrum constituen- certain fovent heat, and temperate influendum, ac fine aliqua figura colendum: Moses ces, whereby all things grow and are produaffirmed and taught, that the Egyptians thought ced; that rains proceed and be from mutaamis, which attributed unto God the images tions in the air; that the Planets have their of beasts and cattel: Also that the Africans proper souls, &c. and Greeks greatly erred in giving unto their The Divine part of this wildom, which is gods the shapes of men: whereas that onely is called Theology, teacheth and believeth that God indeed, which containeth both us, the the world had a beginning, and thall perish; earth and sea, which we call heaven, the world, that men had their first original in Egypt; and the nature of all things, whose image, doubt- partly by means of the temperateness of that les, no wife man will dare to fashion out unto Countrey, where neither Winter with cold, the likeness of those things, which are amongst nor Summer with heat, are offensive; and us. That therefore (all devising of Idels cast a- partly through the fertility, that Nilns giveth ed before the flood, remembred by Moses, side) a morthy Temple and place of prayer was Esticus, Hieronymus, Agyptius, Hecataus, Ela- to be creeled unto him, and he to be worshipped

Now concerning the Egyptian wildom, God revealed unto Moses, Berosus, Nicolans for which the Martyr Stephen commended stagas Abraham. Hecataus wrote a book of him. Diogenes, Laertius, Iamblicus, Philo Judaus, and Eusebius Casariensis, and divided into hams passage from Damascus into Canaan, a- four parts, viz. Mathematical, Natural, Di-

In the Mathematical part, which is diftinguish'd into Geometry, Astronomy, Arithmeinterpretation, Measuring of grounds, was useful unto them: because it consisting of the inundations of Nilus, were yearly over-

For the fecond part, to wit, Astronomy. cia, and dwelt there. Likewise Diodorus Si- the site of the Countrey being a level and culus in his second Book and fifth Chapter, spacious Plain, free and clear from the speaketh reverently of Moses: There are clouds, yielded them delight with ease, in many other among prophane Authors, which observing and contemplating the risings, fal-

Arithmetick also, which is the knowledg to the Golpel, Chapter the third and fourth, of numbers, they studied; because without to whom I refer the Reader. Lastly, I can- it, in Geometry and Astronomy, nothing can not but for some things in it commend this be demonstrated or concluded. But of Munotable testimony of Strabo, who writeth of fick they made no other account, nor desired Moses in these words: Moses enim affirmavit, farther knowledg, than seemed to them sufdecebatque Egyptios non reste sentire, qui be- ficient to serve and magnifie their gods,

Itemque Afros & Gracos, qui diis hominum The Natural part of this Wildom, which figuram affinxerunt: id vero solum esse Deum, handleth the principles, causes, elements, dy, That God is one, the Father and Prince that the Sun nourisheth Meteors in the Air, of all gods, and that from this God, other aswell from the Waters, as from the Earth. gods are, as the Sun and Moon, whom they So a Scepter, at the top whereof is made an worshipped by the names of Osiris and Isis, and erected to them Temples, Statues, and divers Images, because the true similitudes of thians are thought to have been delighted the gods is not known; that many of the with this kind of writing. For Pherecides Sygods have been in the citate of mortal men, and after death, for their virtues and benefits letters, threatned Idanthura, King of the Seybeflowed on mankind, have been Deified; thians, with ruine and deftruction of his that those beafts, whose Images and Forms Kingdom, unless he would acknowledge the Kings did carry in their Arms, when they subjection: Idanthura returned to him a obtained victory, were adored for gods: Mouse, a Frog, a Bird, a Dart, and a Ploughbecause under those Ensigns they prevailed share: which Orontopagas, Tribune of the over their enemies. Moreover the Egyptian Souldiers, interpreted to fignific, that by the Divineshad a peculiar kind of writing, my- Mouse, their dwellings: by the Frog, their Rical, and fecret, wherein the highest points waters: by the Bird, their air: by the Dart, of their Religion and worthip of God, which their weapons: by the Plough, their Lands was to be concealed from the vulgar fort, were fignified to be ready to be delivered were obscured.

254

this later Egyptian learning into three feveral the King meant, That except Darius with forts, viz. Epiftolar, which is used in writing his men did hasten away, as a Bird through culiar to their Priests; and Sacred, which run into the waters which they had passed as Sacred containeth Scripture of two kinds: a Frog, they should not escape his arms, but the one proper, which is expressed by letters either be flain, or, being made Captives, till Alphabetical in obscure and figurative his grounds. The same History is with little words; as for example, where it is written: difference reported by Herodoius. The Ibis by the Hornet participateth the beauty of the Hawke; which is read thus: The Moon doth by the Sun borrow part of Laws, which (according to Laeriins) Merthe light of God: because Light is an Image | curius Trismegistus, or Ter Maximus devised: of Divine beauty; the other symbolical, or by fignatures, which is threefold, wiz. Imita- and Asclepius, hath written fo many things of tive, Tropical and Enygmatical: Imitative, which deligneth things by characters, like to the things fignified, as by a Circle, the Sun; and by the Horns of the Moon, the Moon it day of Judgment : that ( as faith the same felf: Tropical or transferent, which applys the divers forms and figures of natural bodies or creatures, to fignifie the dignities, but a Prophet of things to come. fortunes, conditions, virtues, vices, affections, and actions of their gods, and of men. So with the Egyptian Divines, the Image of an ans for their Authors, to wit, Selencus and Fortitude: by a Horse, Liberty: by a Cro. codile, Impudency: by a Fish, Hatred is to be understood: Ænigmatical is a composition, or mixture of Images or Similitudes: in which sence, the monstrous Image of a Lions body having a Manshead, was graven on their Temples and Altars, to fignifie, that to men all divine things are Ænigmatical Greek, they seemed to have been first writand obscure. So the Image of the Sun set on ten in that Tongue. Clemens Alexandrinus chem son in those places: That the foul is immortal, the head of a Crocodile, (which liveth as and bath transmigration from body to bo- well in the Waters, as on Land) expresseth, Eye, and an Ear, fignifieth God, Hearing, Seeing, and governing all things. The Sey-Clemens distributesh the whole sum of phodres made another construction, viz. that

The fourth and last part, which is Moral and Politick, doth contain especially the who in his Books or Dialogues of Pimander Sixtus Senensis of the Trinity, and of the coming of christ, as of the last and fearfull Author, the opinion being also antient ) he is not onely to be accounted a Philosopher, Iamblicus in his Books of Mysterics of the Egyptians, taking two very antient Histori-Hawke fignifieth God, the figure of the Hor- Menetus, affirmeth, that this Mercuny was net fignifieth the Sun, the picture of the Bird not only the Inventor of the Egyptian Philo-This fignifieth the Moon: by the form of a fophy, but of all other learning, called the Man Prudence, and Skilfulnes: by a Lion. Wisdom of the Egyptians, before remembred: and that he wrote of that subject 36525. Books or Pages. Of which there were numbred, of Fiery Spirits, one hundred Books; of Aereal Spirits as many, and of Spirits Celestial a thousand; which because they were out of the Egyptians language converted by certain learned Philosophers into natural wit, of the Wiflom of the Egyptians, there as we call it in this age, to lead in the Vauntwere extant in his time 36. Of Phylick, fix guard, which through all the Defarts of A-Backs; of the orders of Priests, ten; and of rabia, from the Mount sinai to this place. Airology, four.

CHAP. VI.

§. VIII.

A Brief of the History of Josua; and of the face between him and Othoniel : and of the remainders of the Canaanites; with a note of some Contemporaries to Johna: and of the breach of Faith.

one Del eighteenth King in Affyria; with Corax the cised, which ceremony to that day had been fixteenth King in Sicyonia, when Danais go omitted. Of the neglect whereof S. Angustine Ang. 4.3. verned the Argives; and Erichonius, Albens, giveth for cause, The peoples contempt of City unto him on the other fide of the Ri- to another : Damascen, That it was not needver, which he was to pass over. Which dif- full by circumcision to distinguish them from coverers being faved, and fent back by Ra- other Nations, at fuch times as they lived by hab, a woman of ill fame, because she kept a themselves, and a-part from all Nations. Tavern or Victualling house, made Josus On the sourteenth day of the same moneth, know, that the inhabitants of Jerico, and the children of Ifrael celebrated the Passothose of the Country about it, hearing of the ver now the third time; first, at their leavupon the day after the return of the Spies, now at Gilgal. After which, being defirous Jol. 5. 16. tieth year after the Egression, Joska removed ving, as it were, surfetted on Manna, they down his Army to the banks of the River yet full ripe, and eat thereof.

18 3. God, when the Levites took it up, and moved of the Amorites, which Og of Basan, and Schon towards the River, giving them withal this held, so did Josus perform the rest; and afforcible encouragement, That they should ter a view and partition made of the Terri-presence, who is Lord of all the world, when lot. But this partition and distribution was the River of fordan should be cut off and not done at once, but at three several times; should stand still in a heap, whereby those Tribe of Manasse, of the Lands over fordan; Canaan with dry feet.

writeth, that among the Books of Hermes, to | Mofes ) to march in the head of the reft, and those of the Tribe of Juda had performed. For these Tribes being already provided of their habitations, and Country, and Cities of the Amorites by the help of the reft, conquered for them: it agreed with justice and equality, that Reuben, Gad, and the half of Manaffe should also affist their brethren in the obtaining of their parts, as yet in their enemies possession.

On the banks of Fordan they rested them-Fter the death of Moses, and in the one selves from the fixth day to the ninth; and And fortieth year of the Egreffion, in on the tenth day of the first moneth Nifan, the first moneth called Nisan, or March, Josua, or March, they passed over to the other lide, the fon of Nun, of the Tribe of Ephraim, be- taking with them twelve from the dry ing filled with the Spirit of wildom, took on ground in the midft of the River : which, him the government of Ifrael: God giving for a memory of that miracle by God him comfort, and encouraging him to pals wrought, they fet up at Gilgal, on the Eastthe River of Jordan, and to possess and di- side of the city of Jerico, where they incam- Jos. 1.19. vide among the Ifraelites, the land promised. ped the first night. At which place Josua gave The beginning of Josua's rule, Saint Augu- commandment, that all born in the last for- 7015. 22 1318 desired dates with the reign of Amyntas, the tieth year in the Defarts should be circum-

Josua imitating in all things his Predecef- their Superiours. Thomas excuseth it in this Thom. sare. for fent over fordan certain discoverers to fort; That the Ifraelites knew not the cer- 3 quel 70. view the feat and strength of ferice, the next tain time of their removing from one place art. q ad. 3.

approach of Ifrael, had loft courage. Where- ing Egypt; secondly, at Mount Sinai; and which was the fixth day of the one and for- to tafte of the fruits of the Country, and hafrom Sittim in the plains of Moab, and drew parched of the Corn of the Land, being not Jordan; and gave them commandment to And as Moles began to distribute those put themselves in order to follow the Ark of Regions beyond Jordan, to wit, the Lands thereby affure themselves of his favour and tories, he gave to each Tribe his portion by divided, and the waters coming from above first, by Moses to Gad, Reuben, and the half for 143. below towards the Dead Sea wanting sup- secondly, by Josua, to the Tribe of Juda, E-ply, they might pass over into the Land of phraim, and the other half Tribe of Manasic, about the fifth year of his government; He also commanded Reuben, Gad, and the proved in the 14. of Josua. v. 10. and a third half Tribe of Manaffe, to prepare themselves division was made to the other seven Tribes (according to their Covenant made with at Shilo, where Josua seated the Tabernacle of Jos. 18. the Concregation.

Herot.! 4.

down in his own books, as I shall not need to Gilgal, and set on them early the next day; lengthen this part by their repetition. In when he overthrew Jabin and his confedewhose Story I chiefly note these particulars, rates. After which, making the best profit First how in the beginning of the war, those of his victory, he assaulted the great City little kings, or reguli of the Canaanites, had of Hazor. not fo much understanding, as to unite themselves together against the Israelites; but during this war, were exceeding admirable according to the cultom of those estates, as the stay of the River Jordan at the Springs, from whose Governours God hath taken a- so as the Army of Israel past it with a dry Jos : 13. way all wisdom and forefight, they left those foot; the fall of Jerico by the found of the of their own Nation, which were next the in- Horns; the showers of Hale-stones, which vaders, to themselvs, and to their own defen- fell upon the Amorites in their flight from ces; hoping that the fire kindled fomewhat Gibeon, wherby more of them perished than far off, might again have been quenched, ere by the fword of Ifrael: again, the arrest of it could spread it self so far as their own the Sun in the simmament, whereby the day Territories and Cities. But after such time was so much the more lightened, as the Ifraas Jerico and Ai were entred, and the Kings, People, and Cities confumed; five of those after the overthrow: a wonder of wonders, 31 Kings (all which at length perished in and a work only proper to the all-powerthat war) joyned themselves together first full God. attempting the Gibeonites, who had rendred themselves to Josua. Onely five ( the rest looking on to the fuccess) namely, the King of the Jebusties, in Jebus, or Hierusalem, the taught, as it taketh away all evasion, it ad-Kings of Hebron, Jarmoth, Lachis, and Eclon, addrest themselves for resistance: whose Army being by Josua surprized and broken, themselves despairing to escape by flight, and hopeless of mercy by submission, creeping into a Cave under ground, were thence the Hevites, expresly and by name, by the by Josia drawn forth and hanged. In the commandment of God to be rooted out, and profecution of which victory he also took notwithstanding that they were liars, and Makkedath, and Libnah, and Lachis. To the deceivers, and counterfeits, and that they relief whereof Horam King of Gezar haften- did over-reach, and as it were, deride Josea, ed, and perished. After which Josua pof- and the Princes of Israel, by feigning to be sest himself of Fglon, Hebron, and Debir, de- sent as Embassadours from a far Country, in stroying the Cities with their Princes.

In the end, and when the South Countries were possest, the Cities thereof conquepractifed and gathered together, by Josia of the people, to lay violent hands on them; discovered, as the same rested neer the Lake but he spared both their lives, and the Ciof Merom, he used such diligence, as he came ties of their inheritance. on them unawares; and obtaining absolute the rest for Israel to inhabit and enjoy.

the Armies of the first five Kings of the Amo- was not to the Gibeonites he gave peace, be-

The victories of Josha against the Kings rites, which attempted Gibeon by surprise. of the Canaanites, are so particularly set For he marched all night from his Camp at 36, 103.

Thirdly, the miracles which God wrought

Fourthly, out of the passage between Joina and the Gibeonites, the Doctrine of keeping Faith is so plainly and excellently mitteth no intrusion, nor leaveth open any hole or out-let at all to that cunning perfidiou nes, and horrible deceit of this latter age, called Equivocation. For, notwithftan- Jol. 9.7. ding that these Gibeonites were a people of which travel their cloths were worn, their bread mouldie, which they avowed to have been warm for newness when they first set red, and their Kings and People made dust: out; their barrels and bottles of wine brothe rest of the Canaanites, guided by the ken; their shoos patch'd; and their sacks over-late countels of necessity, united them | rent and ragged: Yet Josua having sworn 769 from felves, to make one groß ftrength and body of an Army: which Jabin, King of Hazor, duff not, though urged by the multitude

Now if ever man had warrant to break victory over them, he profecuted the same faith, and to retract his promise made, Josua to the utmost effect. And besides the slaugh- had it. For first, the commandment which ter of the defendants, he entred their Cities, he received from God to root out this Natiof which he burnt Hazor onely, reserving on among the rest, preceded by far the peace which he had granted them. Secondly, he Secondly, I note, that Josia shewed him- might justly have put these men to the felf a skilful man of War, for that in those sword, and have fack'd their Cities, if there antient times he used the stratagem of an beany evasion from a promise made, whereambush in taking of Ai; and in that he broke of the living God is called to witness. For it the Hevites, it was not in his power to make flaughtered some of those people descended a league with them. But it was to a strange of the Cibeonites: yet God, who forgat not people that he gave faith, and to a Nation what the Predecellors and Fore-fathers of which came from far, who hearing of the Saul and the Ifraclites had twern in his Name, wonders which the God of Ifrael had done afficted the whole Nation with a confuming in Egypt and over Jordan, fought for peace famine; and could not be appealed, till feand protection from his people. Thirdly, the ven of Sauls fons were delivered to the Giaccord, which Ifrael made with these crafty beonites grieved, and by them hanged up. Canaanites, was without warrant. For it is And certainly, if it be permitted by the written in the same place, That the Ifraelites help of a ridiculous distinction, or by a accepted their tale, that is, believed what God-mocking equivocation, to iwear one they had faid, and counfelled not with the thing by the Name of the living God, and to mouth of the Lord. Fourthly, these men who reserve in silence a contrary intent: the life were known Idolaters, and ferved those of man, the estates of men, the faith of Sub-Puppets of the Heathen, men of an apisshRe- jects to Kings, of Servants to their Masters. ligion, as all Worshippers of Images are, of Vasials to their Lords, of Wives to their could not challenge the witness of the true Husbands, and of Children to their Parents. God, in whom they believed not. I fay and of all trials of right, will not onely be therefore, that if ever man might have fer- made uncertain, but all the chains whereby ved himself by any evasion or distinction, free-menare tied in the world, be torn a-Josua might justly have done it. For he need- funder. It is by oath (when Kings and ed not in this case the help of Aquivacation Armies cannot pass ) that we enter into the or Mental Reservation. For what he fware, Cities of our enemies, and into their Armies: he sware in good Faith; but he sware no- it is by oath that wars take end, which weathing, nor made any promise at all to the Gi-pons cannot end. And what is it, or ought beonites. And yet, to the end that the faith- it to be, that makes an oath thus powerful. less subtilty of man should borrow nothing but this; That he that sweareth by the Name in the future from his example, who knowing of God, doth affure others that his words well that the promises he made in the Name are true, as the Lord of all the World is true, of God, were made to the living God, and whom he calleth for a Witness, and in whose not to the dying man, he held them firm and presence he that taketh the oath hath proinviolable, not with standing that they, to mised? I am not ignorant of their poor ewhom he had sworn it, were worshippers of vasions, which play with the severity of Gods the Devil.

Name of the living Lord, and in his presence,
That this promise (if it be broken ) is broThe Christians in the Holy Land, when they kento a Man, to a Society, to a State; or to a were at the greatest, and had brought the Prince; but the Promise in the Name of Caliph of Egypt to pay them tribute, did not God made, is broken to God. It is God onely loofe it again, but were foon after beathat we therein neglect: we therein profess ten out of the Holy Land it self: by reason that we fear him not, and that we fet him at ( faith William of Tyre, a reverend Bishop naught, and defie him. If he that without which wrote that Story ) that Almerick the refervation of Honour, giveth a lie in the fiftieth King after Godfrey brake faith with presence of the King, or of his Superiour, the caliph Elhadech, and his Vicegerent. The doth, in point of Honour, give the lie to Soldan Sanar, who being suddenly invaded the King himself, or to his Superiour; how by Almerick, drew in the Turk Syracon to much more doth he break Faith with God, their aid: whose Nephew Seladine, after he that giveth Faith in the presence of God, had made Egypt his own, beat the Christians

Son to break the Promife, Will, or Deed of ver Seladine, when they brought it into the the Father; for a State, or Kingdom, to field as their last refuge, seeing they had forbreak those Contracts which have been sworn themselves in his Name that was crumade in former times, and confirmed by cified thereon. And if it be a direction from cause he knew them to be a people hated of publick faith. For though it were 400 years God. He told them, that if they were of after Josua, that Saul, even out of devotion

Commandments in this kind: But this in-For it is not, as faithless men take it, that deed is the best answer, That he breaks no he which sweareth to a Man, to a Society, laith, that hath none to break. For whoto a State, or to a King, and sweareth by the promifeth in his Name, and makes him a wit-ness of the Covenant made? out of the Holy Land; neither would the wooden Cross (the very Cross, fay they, Out of doubt, it is a fearfull thing for a that Christ died on ) give them vorcey o-K k and i.i. feal be destroyed, and that the mouth which ven till David stime. nttereth them, flyeth the foul: how much | Now Josus lived one hundred and ten more perillous is it (if any peril be greater years, eighteen of which he governed Ifrael than to destroy the soul ) to swear a lie? It and then changed this life for a better. The was Ingenius the Pope, that perfuaded, or time of hisrule is not expressed in the Serirather commanded the King of Hungary af- ptures, which caufeth divers to conjecture ter his great victory over Amurath the Turk, diverly of the continuance. Josephus gives and when the faid King had compelled him him five and twenty years : seder Ollam Rab to peace, the most advantagious that ever bi the Authors of the Hebrew Chronologie was made for the Christians, to break his eight and twenty; and Mussius fix and Faith, and to provoke the Turk to renew twenty: Maimonius cited by Maffins, fourthe war. And though the faid King was teen: Joannes Lucidus, seventeen: Cajetafar stronger in the field than ever 3 yet he nus, ten: Eusebius giveth him seven and lost the battel with 30000. Christians, and his twenty: and so doth S. Augustine: Melan own life. But I will fray my hand: For this first volume will not hold the repetition of Gods judgments upon faith-breakers; years from the delivery of Ifrael out of Egypt, be it against Infidels, Turks, or christians of divers Religions. Lamentable it is, that the fary that we allow to Josus onely eighteen taking of oaths now-a-dayes, is rather made of them; as finding the rest supplyed othera matter of custom, than of conscience. It is also very remarkable, That it pleased as I think, a well approved opinion.

258

God to leave to many Cities of the Canaanites unconquered by Ifrael, to fcourge and afflict them, by fore-feeing their Idolatry and, as it is said in the Scriptures, To be thorns of errour, such as have inserted years bein their eyes to prove them, and to teach them tween Josus and Othoniel, of whom Eufebins finds eight years, to make War. For these Cities hereaster finds eight years, to which arins Montanns essentially. foon after hisdeath the children of Dan were pters upon Josua: Bunting reckons it nine beaten out of the plain Countries ; and en- years: Bucolzer and Reufner but one ; Coforc'd to inhabit the Mountains, and places doman, twenty; and Nicephorus no less than of hardest access. And those of Juda were three and thirty: whereas following the sure not able to be masters of their own Vallies; direction of these 480. years, there can be because as it is written in the Judges, The no void years found between Josus and 0 Tank 134 Canaanites had Chariots of Iron. And those thoniel, unless they be taken out of those 7 principal Cities which flood on the Sea-fide, eighteen aferibed unto Jofua by the account Cities came Goliath, remembred in Samuel. Jordan expel the Geshurites, nor the Maacha- battels of the Lord? thites; which inhabited the North parts of Busan, afterward Traconitis.

Bethshemish, nor of Bethanah; but they inforc'd those Canaanites to pay them tribute. 70f.13:3 Neither did After expel the Zidonians, nor have been meant by the covenant which Jo-Judg 1.31 those of Acho, or Acon, Athlab, Achzib, Heblah, Gua made with Ifrael in Sichem, where they

No more could Zabulon enjoy Kitron, and fof.16.10. Nahalol, but received tribute from them. Alfo the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among the Fphraims: and among the children of Manasse, on the West of Jordan, the Canaanites ad 2.27 held Bethfhean, Taacnah, Dor, Ibleam, and tituled Liber Justonm, remembred by Jo-Megaddo ; yea Hiernsalem it self did the Je- sua himself : and others, that it was the work not to the Holy Gholt. That he that speaketh lies , bustes defend above four hundred years, e-wife, which to me feems the most likely, and,

CHAP, VI

The same necessity of retaining precisely 480. years from the departure out of Egypt unto the building of the Temple, convinceth named did not onely remain in the Canaa- adhereth; and for which he giveth his rea-na. nites possession all the time of Jossa; but fon in his four and twentieth and last Chaadjoyning unto Juda, were still held by the already specified. The praises and acts of remainder of the Anakims, or Philistims: as Josua are briefly written in the six and sor-Janua, Azzah, Gath, Afdod; out of one of which tieth Chapter of Ecclefafticus, where among many other things it is faid of him, Who was Neither did the children of Manasse over there before him like to him, for he fought the

That he wrote the book called by this name, it was the opinion of Arius Montanus, Nor the Nepthalims pessess themselves of because it is said in the last Chapter, verse 26. And Josua wrote these words in the book of the Law of God: which feemeth rather to Aphike, & Rehob, nor inforc'd them to tribute. all promifed to serve and obey the Lord: which promise Josus caused to be written in the book of the Law: and of this opinion were Cajetan and Abulensis: Theodoret doth likewise conceive, that the book of Josus was collected out of an antient Volume, in-

CHAP. VII. tion to of Samuel: for whereas Montanus ground | Jojua's life, Jupiter is faid to have ravifhed eth his opinion upon these words of the 26. 16: 4 Verle, And Joina wrote thefe words, Oc. this place hath nothing in it to prove it: fer when the people had answered Josua; The Lord ear God will me ferve, and his voyce will me way, it followeth that Josea made a covenant the book of the Law of God. There lived at once with Jofua, Erielhonius in Altica, who taught that Nation to voke beafts together, thereby to till the ground with more ease and speed: And about the fame time the fifty Daughters of Danaue (as it is faid ) flew the fifty fons of Egyptus, all but Lyneeus, who fucceeded Danaus, if the tale be true. There lived also with Josus, of ellewhere. Phenix, and Cadmus, and neer the end of Europa the daughter of Phanix (afterward married to Afterius King of Creta) and begat on her Alinos, Radamanthus, and Sarpedon. But S. Augustine reports this ravishment to be Lib. 18 c. committed by Xanthus, and yet they are more net commonly taken for the Sons of Jupiter. But Homer with the people, and wrote the same in it may be doubted whether Minor was far this with the people, ther to Deucalion, and Deucalion to Idome- Hom. Hal. neus, who was an old man at the war of Trey, 1. and Surpedon was in person a young or ftrong man at the fame Trojan war. And fo doth Neftor reckon up in the Councel of the Greeks, Thefeus and Peritheus for men of Antiquity and of Ages past: Atinos being

CHAP. VII.

Of the Tribes of Ifrael that were planted in the borders of Phoenicia, with fundry Stories depending upon those places.

§. I.

The Prowne to the description of the whole Land of Canaan; with an Exposition of the name of Syria.

Kings, of which fo many of them as ruled the ten Tribes, shall be remembred when we come to the description of Samaria: but because the Land of Canaan, and the borders thereof, were the Stages and Theaters, whereon the greatest part of the Story past, with that which followeth, hath been acted, I think it very pertinent ( for the better understanding of both ) to make a Geographical description of those Regions: that all things therein performed by the places known, may the better be understood, and conceived. To which purpose ( besides the addition of the neighbour Countries ) I have bestowed on every Tribe his proper portion: and do shew what Cities and Places of strength were by the Jews obtained: and what numbers it pleased God to leave unconquered; by whom he might correct and fcourge them, when ungrateful for his many graces, they at fundry times forgat or neglected the Lord of all power, and adored those deaf and now called the Holy Land.

He Story of the Judges ought | dead Idols of the Heathen. Divina honitas to follow that of Josua, after (faith Augustine) ideo maxime iraseitur in whom the Common-wealth of hoc feculo, ne irafcatur in futuro : & miferithe Jews was governed by corditer temporalem adhibet severitatem, ne aternam juste inferat ultionem. The divine goodness is especially therefore anery in this world. that it may not be anory in the world to come, and doth mercifully use temporal severity, that it may not justly bring upon us eternal ven-

To the Cities herein described, I have added a short Story of the beginnings and ends of divers Kingdoms and Common-weals: and to help my felf herein, I have perused divers of the best Authors upon this subject : among whom, because I find so great disagreement in many particulars, I have rather in such cases adventured to follow mine own reason, than to borrow any one of their old

And because Canaan, with Palestina of the Philistims, and the Lands of Og and Schon Kings of Bafan, and the Arabian Amorites, were but small Provinces of Syria: it shall be necessary, first to divide and bound the general, and so to descend to this particular, description, and as it was antiently taken, allowing of this derivation, makes it a comimbraced all those Regions from the Euxine mon name to all those of Noah's Sons, who Sea, to the Red Sea: and therefore were the past over Enphrates towards the West Sea. Cappadocians, which look into Pontus, call- For the word Heber, faith he, is as much as ed Leucosprians, or white Sprians. But taking transiens, or transmittens of going, or passing it shorter, and from the coast of Cilicia, over. And because the children of Abraham which is the North border, unto Idumea, had for a long time no certain abiding: towards the South. Tieris towards the Suntherefore, as he thinks, they were by the rifing, and the Mediterran Sea Westward: Egyptians called Hebrai, as it were passenit then containeth besides Babylonia, Chaldea, gers, which is also the opinion of C. Sigonius. to wit, Tigris and Euphrates, for lo Aran Naharajem is expounded: also Padan Aram; and Buried. Now this part of Syria wasathat is, Jugum syrie, because the two Rivers gain divided into four; namely, into Edom, go along in it as it were in a yoke.

ria Cava, because it lay in that fruitfull Val- of them belong to Phanicia. ley between the Mountains of Lybanus, and Antilybanus, in which the famous Cities of and Palestina (both which the River of Antioch, Laodicea, Apamea, with many o- Jordan boundeth; saving that Phanicia thers, were feated. Then Damascena, or sy- ftretcheth a little more Easterly towards ria Lybanica, taking name of the City Da- Damascus) that part also of the East of Jor-5 King 11. majous, and the Mountains of Lybanus, the dan, and within the Mountains of Hermon, which Adadezer commanded in Solomon's Canaan also: as well because antiently posneed in the e. Then Phanicia, and the people Syra- fest by the Amerites, as for that they were Pelim Dio. phanicies: and laftly, Syria Palastina bordering Egypt: of which Ptolomy maketh Ju-Pioi. Aja daa alfo a part: and to that Province which into Basan, or Batanea, into Gilead, Moab, A loss calleth Seir and Edom, Pomponius Mela giveth the name of Syrea Judea.

6. II.

of the bounds of the Land of Canaan, and of the promises touching this Land.

Sind-Lio, Strabo calleth Traconi, or Traconita, and Seboiim, even unto Lasha: by which words Calib for called Canaan, faith Montanus: and after For it is therein written, All the places not the Helman Of the Helman Country of Syria, now Soria, according to the largest Augustine. But Arias Montanus not so well Arabia the Defart, and Arabia Petraa, that and of Eusebius long before them both. It Eastern Region also which the Greeks call Mesopota- had also the name of Indaa from Juda; and Event. mia, the Hebrews Syria, of the two Rivers, then afterwards intituled the Holy Land, be-63. cause therein our Saviour Christ was Born. (otherwise Seir, or Edumaa) Galilee, Sama-Edesja, sometime Rages, now Rage, was the ria, and Judea. Galilee is double, the su-Metropolis of this Region of Syria. In Syria periour called Gentium, and the inferiour: taken largely, there were many small Pro- and that Galilee and Judea are distinguishvinces, as Calofyria, which the Latins call sy-ed, it is plain in the Evangelifts, though both Latin. Now besides these Provinces of Phanicia.

Regal feat of the Adades, the first Kings of Gilead, and Arnon, otherwise Traconi, fell to Syria. Adjoyning to it was the Province of the possession of half Manasse, Gad, and Ru-Sophene, or Syria Soba, Choba, or Zobal: over ben, and therefore are accounted a part of conquered and enjoyed by the Ifraelites; which Eastermost parts are again divided Midian, Ammen, and the Territories of the Machati, Gejjuri, Argobe, Hus. They are known to the later Cosmographers by the name of Arabia in general; and by the names of Traconitis, Pieria Batanea, &c. of which I will speak in their proper places.

But where Moses describeth the Land of Canaan in the tenth of Genesis, he maketh no mention of the later Provinces, which fell to Manasse, Gad, and Reuben, for these be his But that Land which was antiently Calman, taketh a part of Phonicia, and words: Then the border of the Canaamits was words: Then the border of the Canaamits was itretcheth from behind Lybanus to the great from Zidon, as thou comest to Gerar untill Az-Desarts between Idumea and Egypt: bound-zah (which is Gaza) and this was the length ed by the Mid-land Sea on the West, and of the Countrie North and South: then it the Mountains of Hermon, Galaad, and Arnon followeth in the Text; And as thou goeft untowards the East: the same Hills which to Sodom and Gomorah, and Admah, and Ptolemie, Hippus. The name of Canaun it had | Mofes feteth down the breadth, to wit, from from Canaan the Son of Cham: Et lingua apthe Dead Sea to the Mediterran. But in pellata fuit Canaan; The language was also Deuteronomy it seemeth to be far more large: Hebrea of the Hebrews: who took name from whereon the foal of your feet shall tread, shall Heber, the Son of Sale, according to Saint be yours: your coast shall be from the Wilder-length of the Countrie North and South, your fathers, &c. this discription agreeth with the former:only Libanon is put for Zidon; and the Wilder- the enjoying of the Land conquered, and not for Gerar and Azza, which make no the possession thereof, so long as the heavens East and West, if Persis be taken for Euphra- gently, saith he, all these commandments, which tes: then the Land promised stretcheth it I command you to do, that is, to love the Lord felf both over Arabia Petraa, and the Defart, your God, &c. then will the Lord cast out all as far as the border of Babylon: which the these Nations before you, and ye shall possess Traelites never polleft; nor at any time did great Nations, and mightier than yon. And fo much as invade or attempt. And there- here, though it be manifest, that by reason fore Vadianus doth conceive, that by the of the breach of Gods Commandments, and River Perah was meant Jordan, and not Euphrates: taking light from this place of fo-the ereat Sea Westward. And though it be true, that David greatly effe de hoc politico Regno; He sheweth that his enlarged the Territory of the Hely Land: chief promise is not of a civil Kingdom. To ditions, both in the Verses preceeding, and on Esay, touching the bleffings promised fublequent; which the Israelites never per- unto Hiernsalem, where he hath these words: 54 19 14 formed. And therefore they could not hope De quo diseimus Hierusalem nequaquam in Pafor other than all mankind could or can ex- lestine regione petendam, qua totius Provinpect; who knew that all forts of comforts cia, deterrima est: & saxosis montibus aspehall ye keep all the Commandements which I and suffereth the penury of thirst: so as it preand go in, and possess the Land, whither ye go Wells by building of ciferns; but this Hieru-nels, and from Libanon, and from the River to possess it. Also that you may prolong your Perab, unto the uttermost Sea. Now for the daies in the Land which the Lord sware unto The like condition was also annexed to difference : but for the breadth and extent were above the earth. For if ye keep dili- Deal, 15. their falling away from the worship of his allpowerfull Majestie, to the Idolatry of the [na: Echold, I have divided unto you by lot Heathen, the conditional promifes of God these Nations, that remain to be an inheritance were absolutely void, as depending upon according to your Tribes: from Jordan with obedience unperformed: yet I cannot mifall the Nations that I have de troyed, even unto like that exposition of Melanthon: For, faith he, Oftendit promissionem præcipuam non yet as Vadianus well noteth, if Perab in the which agrees that answer which S. Hierome former place betaken for Euphrates, then made to a certain Heretick in his Epistle ad month, was to put per in gentes amicitiam receptas. For Dardanum, who accused S. Hierome, that he c Push David did not at any time enter fo far to the overthrew the reputation of the Jews Story, East as Assertia, or Babylonia. Neither doth and brought the truth thereof in question, the not possessing of all these Countries give by drawing it altogether into an Allegorie advantage to those that would make any ir- and ad illam duntaxat viventium terram que religious cavill, as touching the promise of in calis est; (that is) Onely to that land of God to the Ifraelites unperformed. For when the living which is in heaven. Quoniam tota both their Kings, Magistrates, and People, Judaorum Regio adeo angusta sit ambitu, ut fell from his worship and service, it pleased vix longitudinem habeat 160. milliarium, lahim not onely to inclose them within that titudinem vero 40. 6 in his etiam regiones, Territory, which was for so many people ex- loca, urbes, & oppida funt plurima, nunquane cceding narrow; but therein and elsewhere à Judais occupata, sed tantum divina pollicito subject them unto those Idolatrous Nati-ons, whose falle and foolish gods themselves of the Jews is so narrow in compass, that it also served and obeyed. And sure the pro- scarce hath 160. miles in length, and 40. miles miseby which the Hebrews claimed the in- in breadth, and in these are countries, places, heritance of Canaan, and the lasting enjoy- cities, and many towns, which the Jews never Beaussing thereof, to wit, as long as the heavens possest but were onely granted by divine promise. were above the earth, was tied to those con- In like manner the same Father speaketh up-from the merciful goodness of God looked ratur, & penuriam patitur sitis: ita ut culefor, as well in this life as after it, are no lon- flibus utatur pluviis, & raritatem fontium ciger to be attended, then while we persevere | sernarum extructione soletur : sed in Dei main his love, service, and obedience. So in nibus, ad quam dicitur, festinaverunt structathe eighth Verse of the eleventh of Dentero- res this From whence, saith he, we learn, that nomy, the keeping of Gods Commandments Hierusalem is not to be fought in that region of was a condition joyned to the prosperity of Palestina, which is the worst of the whole Pro-Ifrael. For therein it is written, Therefore vince, and ragged with craggic mountains, command you this day: that se may be strong, servethrain water, and supplies the scarsity of falen is in Gods bands, to which it is faid, Thy builders Lave betweed: to far St. Hierome ; where alle to provent miftaking, he thus expoundeth limfelf: Neque hoe dico in fuggillationem terra Judad, ut Lareticus Syco-Il inta m metur: aut quo auferam bifiorie vera tien oue fundamentum elé intelligentsa formulas : led ut decutiam Supercilium Indaorem, que Esnagage anguitas letitudina Ecches preferant: Si enim occidentem tantum fegrantur lateram. & non feiritum vivifican-

1.6. ver a be unlikely (keing the Wett-bound taining thirty English miles, or thereabout: in the place, Deut. 11. 24 had his truth in and from the Mid-land Sca to the East bortaken enly in a spiritual sense) yet never- naan was very fruitful, abounding in Wine, tal acand conquete of Iracl. z netwow tora more particular descripti-(1 ) the traly Land | theatife After, Nephtalim, and Zainten held the Northermolt part, and were tested in Planicia, I will begin ! with these three, taking Afher for the first : ] or which Tribe yet before I fpake, I must adm with the Reader touching the names of places in this, and the other Tribes to be morationed, that he remember that many both for firength and magnitude. The names, by reation of the divers funcies of Greeks and Q. Curtius make Agenor the founto the unlicitual they may feem divers, when from the abundance of fish found on those the later do think fit.

6. III.

THE TRIBE OF ASHER.

| I.

The bounds of the Tribe of Asher.

He Alberites descended of Asber the ion of Jacob by Zelpha, the hand-maid tem operation terram promissionis latte & of Lea, were increased while they abode in me ite mentantem : Neither (with he) fay Ithis Fgppt, to the number of 41500, and odd perto agrace the land of Judwa; as the heretical bas, all men above twenty years of age, Syrughani doth belie me: or to take amy the and able to bear arms, at the time when they truth of the killery which is the foundation of were mustered by Moles at Mount Sinai: all for And macerian dang: Last to best down the which number perishing in the Desarts, there Product the Jews, which enlarge the straits of rem ined of their issues, besides women and the specogne farther than the breadth of the children, 53400. bodies fit for the wars: Course : For if they follow only the killing let- which past the river of Arnon into the Plains to and not the quickening spirit, let them frem of Month, and after the conquest of Canaan, The Land of promife, flowing with Milk and had for their portion that part of Phenicia, from Zidon and the fields of Libanus, unto 1 dis ir may also be gathered, howfoe- Ptolomais Acon alongst the Sea-coast, conthe attend lenie, that Emphrates or Perath, der some twelve miles: though Antoninus Antes which is made the East-bound, should be makes it some what larger. This part of Catheses that Hierom's opinion inclineth to Oyl, and Wheat, besides the Balsamum, with this, as i, this Perath were not to be under-other pleasant and profitable commodities: the over Empirates, and that the promife it according to that Prophecy, Affer pinguis feli was never losarge: much less the plan-panis: Concerning Asfer, his bread thall be lat: And he feall give pleasures for a King. 681.40

> ||. II. of Zidon.

The first City seated on the North border of the Territory of Affer, was Zidon, which Josua calleth the great Zidon, Traditators, are diverly expressed, so that der thereof: and Justine derives the name Justill. they are one and the same: the reason of shores: whereof it hath been called Zidona. this diverfity ( as by those learned in the But that it was far more antient, Moses, Josus, enter Februm Lentrught ) is partly because the and Josephus witness, the same being foundwas to Louis us of the Hebrew want vowels, ed by Zidon the eldeft of Canaan's fons: and the o'd I carllaters imagined other vowels fo firong it was in Josua's time, as neither than taw the Hebrew Editions have; and did himself attempt it, neither could the Afpartly, b. caule the Antient expressed or o- ferites, or any of their successours master it: rained divers confonants, otherwise than but it continued all the time of the Judges and Kings, even unto the coming of Christ; Heart, a City interchangeably governed, by their Excl. is. own Princes or other Magistrates: though est according to the warnings and threats of the Prophets, Esay, Hieremie, Ezechiel, and Zacharie, it was often afflicted, both by the enemies

CHAR. VII.

Map and Description of the Holy Land. thereof, being by time confumed and loft. this their multiplying of their Bauls and A-

Think, as * Strabo noteth, Homer speaking of Zidon, Images, or of the worship in divers places, as Herost neglecteth the memory of Tyre, because it or of the stories depending upon them: us Plan, was but a member of Zidon; and a City fub- which (as fables use to be) were doubtless It iens ject to the Kings thereof: though it be true in divers Cities divers. Augustine quast. 19. m tipe for Primacy, and became far more renown- and Juno. For the Carthaginians (which makes to be born of Tyrus and Syria, and to which of Mechanical Arts or Trades: the Prophet have been the wife of Adonis: as also Maunuch Zachary calling them the wife Zidonians. The crob. 2. Saturn. cap. 21. fayes, that Adonis was unninfi City was both by nature and art exceeding with great veneration commonly worship-

Rock, and compassed by the Sea, which afthe Idolatrous women are noted to bewail) auteuns ter the Citizens became Christians, was held is the name of Adonis among the Syrians. So and defended by the Knights of the Dutch | that it may feem that in the worship of Aftartion 101 Order: and another Castle it hath on the te or Venus, they did bewail her husband A-

Tyre, into places re- is Adonis the fair. Howbeit others in that xalds mote: as unto Thebes, and sephera, Cities of place of Exekiel not without good probabi- Aferin minomonothis Bastia in Greece. Strabo and Pliny give the lity, expound the mourning for Thammuz, taken out of the River Belus, falling into the was as famous in the Egyptian Idolatry, as or for o. Mediterran Sea, neer Ptolomais, or Acon: with the Grecians, l'enus loss of Adonis. And thinged and from whence the Venetians fetch the to this agreeth that which Plutarch hath, de Buther matter of those cleer Glasses which they Iside & Oliride; that Oliris with the Fgaptians fallopits, vitrariis officinis nobilis; Zidon a famous howfoever these Zidonians were thus antiand eathers Glass-maker, or a skilful worker in Glass-houses. ently fostered with the milk of Idolatry: yes They were in Religion Idolaters (as the they were more apt to receive the Doffring enemies Sword, and by the Peltilence. rest of the Canaanites) worshippers of Baal The form Adon is feated on the very wash of the and Astaroth: which Idols though common or Aforeign The nician Sea, which is a part of the Medito to the other of the illue of Canaan (as Pineda to the other) 1. 1) an or Mid-land Sea. It hath to the North gathers out of 1 Sam. 31.10. and Judg. 10.6. to have the City of Berythus, and the River Leontin: yet especially and peculiarly were account - here for the city of Berythus, and the River Leontin: and to the South Sarepta, or Sarphat, which ed the gods of the Zidonians: as appears 1 pent 7.13 Gandeth between it and Tire: the distance Reg. 11. 5. in the story of Solomons Idolatry : the word between which two great and famous Cities, where Aftaroth is called the god of the Zidoto wit, Zidon and Tyre, is 14. thousand paces, nians: and 1 Keg. 16. 33. in the story of A- ber sgnifaith Serglerus: but Vadianus makes it two that, the chief worthipper of East, where it fashings hundred furlongs, and so doth Weiffinburie is said, that he marrying Jezabel the daugh may conin his description of the holy Land, and terof the King of the Zidanans, worshipped same about from Strabo: which two hundred further Baal. Divers Baals and divers sflar spatials longs make five and twenty miles. This roths in their Idolatries they acknowledged: that Adifference of distance as well between these as it appears by the plural names of Eaalim, state was two known Cities, as all the reft, make it o- and Aftaroth, 1 Sam. 12. 10. and eliewhere: the form ver-difficult to divise any new Scale to the for even the name Astaroth, as I am informed other hus-

by a fkillful Hebritian, is plural; the fingu-What Kings it had till Agenors time there lar being Aftoreth: whence Judg. 2. 13. the monwas n is no memory: the story which Zeno the Septuagint read inatgenous mis acheruis They Ram. Philosopher, who was a Zidonian, wrote worshipped the Astarties. The occasion of

It seemeth to be more antient than Tyre; storeths, may be diversly understood : either which was also built by the Zidonians. For in respect of the diversity of the forms of the that in after-times it contended with Zidon in Judg. thinks Baal and Aftarte to be Jupiter ed, opulent, and strong: From Zidon had were Tyrians) call Juno by such a name as Solomon and Zerebabel their principal workMarte. Tully, lib. 3. de Nat. Dearum, making men, both in Timber and Stone, for the divers Goddesse of the name of Venus, exbuilding of the Temple. For as it flourish- pounds the fourth to be Astarte: whom he nitique strong, having a Castle or Citadell on the ped of the Assrians: and Hierome upon North-fide, standing upon an unaccessible Ezek.8.44. notes that Thammuz (whom there

South-fide by the Port of Egypt, which the donis: as also the Grecians did in their songs there's Templers guarded. It also lent many other of Adonis: Mourn for Adonis the fair, dead Khaliste tellors Lidonians the invention of * Glafs, which to be the mourning for offers in the facrifice of they used to make of those Sands which are which make at Murana: of which St. Hierom and is called Ammuz: which word may feem demfor Pling: Zidon infignis artifex vitri: Zidon to be the same with Ezekiels Thammuz. But than the fore: who had been taught by And Carthage was therefore called Punica Motor and the Prophets to many years, where- quali Phanicum, a Colony of the Phanicians. of our Saviour in Matthew and Luke: Woe in Spainthey founded Gades, now Caliz. In rus and Lidon, they had repented long agone, eth neer the River Phyllis, in Bythinia. Coc. but I fay unto you, it fball be caffer for Tyrus and Zidon, at the day of judgment, than and fo it is written in Josus the 19. taking for you.

264

Tyre. Eut in the year of our Redemption for Virgil calleth the purple of Tyre, Offrum The same of the sa winns the first, then King of Hierusalem: in upon a high hill, whereof many ruins remain

§. III.

the fame Coaft.

Strepta, or after the Hebrew, Sarphath, is the next City Southward from Zidon, between it and the River called Naar, or Fons kortorum Libani ( of which more hereafter) Kings. standing in the way towards Tyre, a City very famous for the excellent Wine growing neer it : of which Sidonius:

Vina miki non funt Gazetica, Chia, Falerna, Quaque Sareptano palmite missa bibas.

i have no wine of Gaza, nor Falerna wine, Nor any for the drinking of Sarepta's vine.

This City had also a Bishop, of the Diocess of Tyre: after it came to the Suracens and Turks, as the reft: and is now called Saphet, faith Poftellus.

Not far from Sarepta was scituate that the World. fometime famous City of Tyre, whose fleets Figil. 1. and Carthage in Africa, of which Firgil. Orbs and eating of the Fish Conchilis or Purpura, of the Goipel of Christ after his Ascension , antiqua fuit, Isrii tenuere Coloni, Carthago. Mantet beto thee Corazin, &c. for if the great works Italy, Nola: in Asia the less Dromos Achillis, Fiel. which were done in thee, had been done in Ty- which City the Scholiast of Apollonius place which were done in thee, had been done in Ty-

It had antiently the name of Zor, or Tzor: name from the scituation; because built on It received a Christian Bishop with the a high Rock, sharp at one end. The Latines, furft: who was afterward of the Diocess of as it seems, knew it by the name of sarra: the year 1111, by the help of the Danes and to this day; the place being still known by Normales, who came with a Fleet to visit the the name of the antient Tyre: and because Holy Land, and took Port at Joppa, it was a- it was a Colony of the Zidonians, the Prophet gain recovered, the commandment thereof Ffay calleth it the Daughter of Zidon; which being given to Euflace Gremer, a Noble man Trogus also confirmeth, though Berofus by Communication of the Communic of that Country. And again in the year affinity of name makes Thiras the fon of Ja-1250. it was re-edified and strengthened by phet to be the Parent thereof: and though Lodorick the French King: while he spent no doubt it was very antient ( for so much four year in the War of the Holy Land. Last- the Prophet Esay also witnesseth, Is not this 1960. Po ly, in the year 1289, it was reconquered by your glorious Citie, whose antiquity is of anti-case the Saracens: and is now in policifion of the Turk, and hath the name of Zai. who built Zidon, and peopled all that Region, I see nothing to persuade me.

But that new Tyre in after-times fo re- Tofin life nowned, seemeth to be the work of Agenor: can la of Surepts, with a brief History of Tyre in the same Coast.

the same Coast. Solomon's Temple 240 years : Cedrenus 361. 18.00. who also addeth, that Tyrus the wife of A-times, genor, gave it her name: but of Agenor I will speak more at large in the story of their

> For strength and for the commodity of the harbour, and the better to receive Trade from all places, it was in this new erection founded in an Island 700, paces from the Continent; and therefore Ezekiel placeth Exekitia it in the middest of the Seas, as some read, 17. or as others, in the inner-most part of the Sea, very 31 whence he called it scituate at the entry of the sea, as also the same Prophet calleth it, the Mart of the people for many Ifles: and Efay, Efant a Mart of the Nations : and fo proud , weal- 17.6 thy, and magnificent was this City, as the Prophet Ffay calleth the Merchants thereof Princes, and their Chapmen the Nobles of

It excelled both in learning, and in manuof ships commanded, and gave the law over facture: especially in the making and dyall the Mediterran Sea, and the borders ing of Purple, and Scarlet-cloth: which, thereof: during which time of greatness saith Julius Pollux, was first found out by Herand power, the Tyrians crected Utica, Leptis, cules Dog, who paffing along the Sea-coalt, putting all to the Sword that refifted 5 after and demolifhed. which, he caused 2000, more to be hung up in a rank all alongst the Sea-shore: which the Tyrians defended themselves: for so execution upon cold bloud he performed long did those Babylonians continue before (as some Authors affirm) upon the issues of it, As every head was made bald, and every 1 [222, 365] those flaves which had formerly slain all shoulder made bare, saith Ezekiel, who with their Masters, taking their Wives, Children, the Prophet Esay had manifestly foretold the Riches, and power of Government to them- destruction of this proud place. In the end, selves. This victory of Alexander over the and after 13. years siege or more, the Tyri-Tolokan, Tyrians, Josephus remembreth: and how Sa- ans despoyled of all their hopes, and remem-pall it naballat revolted from Darius, and came to bring over-late the predictions and threatin law Manasse, whom the Jews oppugned , War: It pleased God in recompence therefor that he had married out of their Tribes, of (who strengthened this resolution, as in [wi.li] and with a Gentile: but while Alexander a work of his own) to make Nabuchodono-besieged Gaza, Sanaballat, whom Guil. Tyri- for victorious over the Egyptian: and gave us called Sanabula, died.

cruelty of Alexander, it was attempted by upon Saint Hierom noteth, that God leaveth

the hair of his lips became of that colour. It | Salmanaffer the Affgrian King : when the the nail of this high occasion did: fall growing pride of the Afgirant, after that worthipped the Idols that Lidan did: fall growing pride of the Afgirant, after that wing that Herculer became their Patron in they had conquered the ten Tribes, with after-times. For Alexander Macedon, when the rest of Syria became envious of the beauthe Tyrians presented him with a Crown of ty, riches, and power of that city. He besieggold, and other gifts, defiring to remain his ed it both on the Land-side, and with threefriends and allies, answered them, that he score ships of war held the Port : to the end had vowed a facrifice to Hercules, the Defenthat neither any victuals nor any fupply of dor of their City, and the Ancestor of the men might enter it: but the Tyrians with 16,9, c.14. Mucedonian Kings: and must therefore enter twelve fail scattered that fleet, and took 500. it. Whereupon they fent him word, that prisoners of the Assyrians: notwithstanding, Hercules his Temple was in the Mountain of the Affrian continued his resolution, and old Trre: where he might perform that ce- lay before it by his Lievtenants five years, remony. But this availed not: for Alexander but with ill fuccels. And this fiege Menanwas not so superstitious, as ambitious; be de- der Ephosius, cited by Josephus, made report Et cont. was not to inperint to as, as amortions  $\frac{1}{2}$  and  $\frac{1}{2}$  are the property in the fired to enter the Town, which being denied, he, as one whom no peril could fear, mong the Annals of the Tyrians (which the aead. nied, ne, as one whom no pent come term; mong the annual of the Aprilans (which the seath nor labour weary, gathered together as malinth property of the seath of the seath nor labour weary, gathered together as malinth property of the seath of the seat nus fo great a number of Cedars, & fo many was then King of Tyre, having governed the weighty stones from the old City of Tyre same six and twenty years. Soon after this adjoyning, as notwithstanding that his ma- repulse of Salmanasser; and about 200, years terials were often washt away with the before the victory of Alexander, Nabuchodostrength of the Sea and the Tides, yet he ne- no for at such time as he destroyed Hierusalem ver refted, till he had made a foot-passage with the Temple, came before this City: who from the Continent to the Island: and ha- indeed gave to Alexander the example of ving once approached their walls, he over- that despairful work, of joyning it to the topt them with Turrets of wood, and other Continent. For Nabnehodonofor had formerframes: from whence (having filled the bo- ly done it: though by the diligence of the dy of force with the violent moving spirit Citizens, and the strength of the Sca, the same of resolution ) he became Lord thereof, cawsey and passage was again broken down,

Alexander with 8000. Souldiers: who was pings of Gods Prophets, having prepared a the last Satrapa or Provincial Governour, convenient number of ships, abandoned their which Darine feated in Samaria: the fame City, transporting with themselvs the ablest who having married his Daughter to Ma- of all that remained: and with their wives, nasse, brother to Jaddas the high Priest of children, and portable riches, sayled thence Hierusalem, obtained of Alexander, that a into Cyprus, Carthage, and other Maritimate Temple might be built on the Mountain Ga- Cities of their Tributaries, or Confederates: rizim over Samaria: that the forces of the fo as the Babylonians finding nothing therein, Jews being divided, Alexander might the either to farisfie so many labours and perils, better hold them in obedience. The honour or any person upon whom to avenge themof which Priesthood he bestowed on his son selves for the loss of so many bodies in that him that Kingdom and the spoil thereof, as Long before this defolation of Tyre by the it were, in wages for his Army. Where-

CHAP. VII.

266

by any laudable worldly action, to attain unto that eternal happines referved for his ser-in) was brought and interred in the Cathevants and Saints: yet such is the boundless dral Church of Tyre, neer unto that glorigoodness of God, as he often repayeth them with many worldly gitts and temporal blefs-

Now of this enterprise of Nabuchodonofor's against Tyre, prophane Historians have not been filent. For both Diocles, and Phi- Turks. lostratus (as Josephus citeth them) the one in his fecond Book, the other in his Phanician Histories remember it.

After these two great Vastations by the Kings of Babylon and Macedon, this City of Tyre, repaired and recovered it felf again: and continued in great glory about 300. years, even to the coming of our Saviour Christ: and after him flourished in the Chrifian Faith neer 600. years: the Archbishop which was the antient name thereof after Guil. Tyr. otherwise Porphiria, Acon, or Ptolomais, Sabell fac. repta, Zidon, Cafarca Philippi, Berytus, Byblus, Botrys, Tripolis, Ortholia, Archis, Aradus, Antaradus, (or Tortofa) and Maraclea. But in beautiful Region of Phanicia and Palestina, Subjected to the crucl and faithless saracen: his son in law Alexander, which called himunder the burthen and yoke of whose ty-Cities, 488. years. In the year 1112, it was attempted by Baldwine King of Hierusalem; but in vain: yet in the year 1124. by Guaremonde, Patriarch of Hiernfalem, Vicegerent to Baldwine the second, with the assistance of the Venetians, and their fleet of Gallies, it was again recovered, and subjected to the Kings of Hierusalem, and so it remained 165. years.

Finally, in the year 1189. Saladine having first taken Hierusalem, removed his whole Army, and fate down before Tyre: drawing his fleet of Ships and Gallies from Alexandria into the Port, this City as then onely remaining in the Christian power.

The Citizens finding themselves reduced into great famine, and many other miseries, they at once with certain rafters of timber . fiered, burnt, and brake the Saracens fleet, and fallyed out refolvedly upon his Army, flew fo great numbers of them; and followed their victory with fuch fury, as that the Saracens forfaking their Trenches and Tents, that famous Frederick Barbaroffa (who by Antonius maketh it two and thirty Italian series not the good deeds of the Heathen unre-the lamentable accident of following the warded: who though they cannot hope Christians enemies over a River unfoordable ous Sepulchre of Origen, garnished and graven with guilt pillers of Marble, 940. years before therein buried : but in the year 1280. the Saracens again attempted it, and carriedit, and it now remaineth subject to the

CHAP. VII.

||. IV.

Of Ptolomais or Acon.

He third City alongst the coast of the Sea, which the Assertes could not obwhereof gave place to none but to the Pa- Hierome, though other good Authours af Plants. whereof gave place to none out to the raown Diocess had fourteen great Cities, with ther of Ptolomie. Pliny calleth it Ace: and Jest. their Bishops and Suttrugans: namely Caipha, otherwise the Colony of Claudius. It had also the name of Coth, or Cod, and by Zeiglerus it is called Hactipos. But lastly, it was intituled Ptolomais, after the name of one of the Egyptian Ptolomies: Philiant the year 636. it was with the rest of that which City also, asit is 1 Mac. 11 another to. of the Ptolomics, infideliously wrested from self the son of Antiochus Epiphanes: the same ranny it suffered, with the other Paleftine Alexander having married Cleopatra, daughter of the faid Ptelomie, not long before. Therein also was Jonathan Machabans treacherously surprised and slain, as it is I Mac. 12. ( Mac.) 48. by the perfidiousness of Tryphon, whom 10. soon after Antiochus pursued, as it is in the Story ensuing: and, by like reason, about the same time was the aforesaid Alexander in the war against Demetrius, one of the fons of Antiochus the great, with whom Ptolomy joyned, overthrown and treacheroutlymurthered by Zabdiel the Arabian: to whom he. fled for fuccour : and his head prefented , Mac II, unto his father in law Ptolomie : who enjoy- is. ed not the glory of his victory and treason above three daies, for God struck him by

For the beauty and strength of this City, this Alexander made it his regal feat; two parts of the same being invironed by the Sea, and the Port, for fafety and capacity, not inferiour to any other in all that Tract. This City is diftant from Hierusalem some four and thirty miles: four miles to the North removed in great disorder and dishonour. from the Mountain Carmel, and as much to Two years after which victory the body of the South from Castrum Lamberti: from Tyre, of Genoa: to whom a third of the revenue except of George the Arrian Bilhop, mentiowas given in recompence. Again, in the ned by Am. Marcellinus. year of our Lord God, one thousand one hundred fourscore and seven, saladine King of Egpt and Syria, became Lord thereof. In the year of Christ, one thousand one hundred ninety and one, by Richard King of England, and Philip King of France, it was repollested and redelivered to the Christians. Lastly, in the year 1291. it was by the fury

| V.

dified, and it is now Turkifb.

of the Castle of Saint George.

which he was born: the Valley adjoyning dath. See land had not some probable record of that the fill. his memorable act, among many others: it was strange that the Order full of Honour, his Successors royally have continued, non longe à Beryte, memorant inclytum Christi Aphek. Militem D. Georgium, Regis filiam ab imma-nilfimo Dracone asservasse: camque mattata dalium, first called schandalium of schander, miles. In the middest of the City there was place, which by the Inhabitants is called Capa Tower of great strength, sometime the padocia, not far from Berytus, men say that Temple of Bel-zebub: and therefore called the famous Knight of Chrift, Saint George, did the Castle of Flies, on the top whereof there rescue the Kings daughter from a huge Dragon: was mantained a perpetual light like unto and having killed the beaft, delivered the Virthat called Pharus in Egypt: to give com- gin to her Parent. In memory of which deed a fort in the night to those ships which came Church was after built there: Thus far Adriconeer and fought that part. It had in it a Bi- miss. His Authors he citeth Lodovicus Roman. shops seat of the Diocess of Tyre, after it be- Patric. Navigationum 1.1.c.3 and Bridenbach this for came Christian: but in the year 636. (a fa- Itin. 5. The Valley under this Castle some-Binary talyear to the Christians in those parts) it time called Asser, was afterward called the 18 Hanna, tall year od and taken by Haomarus the Sara- Valley of Saint George. If this authority fuf-Frame, was not consider the state of the sta class, cen. In the first, by the help of the Gallies gorical, figuring the victory of Christ, than

||. V I.

Of Acziba, Sandalium, and others.

Etween Ptolomais and Tyre alongst the of the Saracens belieged with an Army of DSea-coast, was the strong City of Acziba, 150000.entered, fack'd, and utterly demo- or Achazib, which S.Hierome called Achziph, lished: though in some fort afterward ree- and Josephus Ecdippos, Plinie Ecdippa, one of those which defended it self against the Afferites. Belforreft finds Acziba and Sandalium. or the Castle of Alexander to be one but I know not from whence he had it.

The twelve Searchers of the Land which Atofes sent from Cadesbarn, travelled as far Losintein to the North as Roob, or Rechob, in the Tribe Jos. Bell. Twe miles from Ptolamais towards the of Affer, which Rechob, as also Berotha, which field, to East, is a Castle of St. George scated, in by Ezechiel, cap.47.ver. 16. is placed in these Plin. 15. North borders, belonging in Davids time to 6.19. bearing the same name. And though for the the King Hadarhezer, as it may be gathered credit of Saint Georges killing the Dragon, I out of the second of Samuel, chap. 8. ver. 8. passed leave every man to his own belief: yet l and chap. 10. ver. 6. and it defended it felf against the Afferites, as Zidon, Tyre, Achzsph, a line of the Afferites, as Zidon, Tyre, Achzsph,

This Aphek it was, whose wall falling down, slew seven and twenty thousand of which Edward the third founded, and which Eenhadads Souldiers, after that a hundred thousand had been slaughtered by the Ifraeshould have born his name, seeing the World lites, under the conduct of Abab. Here Junius had not that fearcity of Saints in those finds that the Philistims encamped a little daies, as that the English were driven to make before the battel at Gilboa, though in fis fuch an erection upon a fable, or person seig- note upon the first of samuel the 9. & 1. he ned. The place is described by Adricomius takes Aphck there mentioned (at which batin his description of Affer, to have been in tel the Ark was taken) to have been in Juda. the fields of Libanus, between the River Of which Jos. 25. and 53. & in the second of 1 King. 10 Adonis, and Zidon : his own words are these : Kings 13.17. he reads, Fortiter, for, in Aphele. 29. Hoc loco qui ab incolis Cappadocia appellatur, Where others covert it, Percutiens Syros in Sam. 19.

bestia parenti restituisse. In cujus rei memoriam which we call Alexander, for Alexander Ma-Ecclesia postmodum suit ædisicata ; In this cedon built it when he besieged Tyre: and it felf into the Sea, between Acziba and Tyre: he undertook the recovery of Tyre.

258

Not much above a mile from this Castle, there ariseth that most plentiful Spring of great loss and dishonour repulsed. water, which Solomon remembreth, called the Well of living Water: from whence not of Alab (or Achlab) which S. Hierome calleth only all the fields and plains about Tyre are Chalab, one of those that defended themmade fruitful by large pipes hence drawn: but the fame Spring, which hath not above abow-fhot of ground to travel till it recover the Sea, driveth fix great Mills in that fhort passage, faith Brochard.

Within the Land, and to the East of Acziba, and Sandalium, francicth Hofa: and beyond it, under the Mountains of Tyre, the City of Achlaph, or Axab, or after S. Hierome, Acifap, a City of great strength, whose King, amongst the rest, was slain by Josua, at the waters of Merom.

VII.

of Thoron Gifcala, and some other places.

Urther into the Land, towards Jordan, was feated the Castle of Thoron, which Hugo de Sancto Abdemare built on the Eastermost hills of Tyre, in the year 1107. thereby to restrain the excursions of the Saracens, while they held Tyre against the Christians: the place adjoyning being very fruitful, and exceeding pleasant. From this Castle the Lords of Thoron, famous in the story of the Wars for the recovery of the Holy Land, derive their names, and take their Nobility. It had in it a curious Chappel, dedicated to the bleffed Virgin, in which Humfrey of Thoron, Constable to Ealdwine the 3. King of Hieru-Calem lieth buried : There were five Castles besides this within the Territory of Affer: whereof four are seated almost of equal distance from each other: to wit, Castrum, Lamperti, Montfort, Indin (or Saron) Castrum Regium and Belfort: the first neer the Sea under the hills of saron, the next three, to wit, Indin, Montfort, and Regium, ftand more within the Land, and belonged to the Brother-hood and fellowship of the Teutonici, or Dutch Knights (by which they defended themselves, and gave succour to other Christians at such time as the Saracens possest the best part of the upper Galilee) the chief fet it on a point of Land which extendeth which in this Tribe Jost 19. 29. for which the Vulgar reads Horma: making the article a Herodi. which Caftle Baldwine the first rebuilt and part of the word, and mistaking the words 100 part of the word 100 part of which Gattle battapare the first 157. when from the fiege of this Cafele of Belfort, the tient, the great Saladine King of Syria and Egypt, was 40. by the Christians Army raised, and with

CHAP. VII.

To the East of Belfort, is the strong City

Gabala ( which Herod furnamed the Ascalo- Tolob. nite rebuilt) making it of the Territory of annie !! Chabol, Quod Syrorum lingua dispicere signi- 5-1619. ficat (faith Weishenburg ) so called, because Hiram of Tyre was ill pleased with those twenty Cities, seated hereabout, which solomon presented unto him in recompence of those provisions sent him for the building of the Temple. Others think this Chabol (or Ca- 788, GREE bul) containing a circuit of those twenty is Cities given to Hiram, to have been without the compass of the Holy Land, though bordering After on the North fide: as it is faid, Reg. 9.11. That they were in Regione limitis : that is, in limite Regionis, in the bor. der of the Countrey: for as it was not lawful, fay they, to give to strangers any part of 2 Som, 10, the possessions allotted to the Israelites : howsoever, that after Hiram had refused them, they were peopled by the Ifraelites, it appears, 2 Chron. 8.14. And it feems they were conquered by David from the Syri Rechobea, whose City Roob, or Rechob, was in Almost of equal distance from the Castle of Thoron, they place the Cities of Gifcala, and Gadara : of which Gadara is rather to be placed over fordan: Giscala was made famous by John the fon of Levi, who from a mean estate gathering together four hundred Thieves, greatly troubled all the upper Galilee, at such time as the Romans attempted the conquest of Judea: by whose practice Josephus, who then commanded in the coast upper Galilee, was greatly indangered: whereof himself hath written at large, in his fecond Book of those Wars. This John betraying, in all he could, the City of Gifcala (whereof he was native) to the Roman State: and finding a relistance in the City, Set 16 gave opportunity, during the contention, to 26 in the Tyrians and Gadarims, to surprize it : Nephiles who at the same time forc't it, and burnt it Math. to the ground: but being by Josephus an weart first fortress was for beauty and strength called Beffort, seated in the high ground upon the River Naar, neer the City Rama: of Cities of Cana Major, and * Cades (or Cadessa). of the first was that Syro-phanician, whose neth into it from the North-side, Naar, and

There are, besides these fore-named Cities, within the Tribe of Afer, divers others: as on the South border, and near the Sea, Mefall, or Misheall: within the Land (a) Besa-16 19.27. phanicia, is the City of Hethalon, or Chethlon, EU-17-15 the utmost of the Holy Land that way: un-

(c) O.F. (c) Enoch, supposed to be built by Cain, and withten named of his fon Enoch, but without probaothers also besides these, as Ammon, or Chamread of Nehiel, Rama, Alamelec, and Beron : Recbob, and Misseal, which we have already mentioned, were by the Asserting given to the Levites. Of others held by the Canas-bed it: neither doth it find the Sea at Ptolo-Pera of the Levites. Of others held by the Canaathe Leviles. Of others head, Judg. 1. 30. to which mais Acon, according to Montanus but far-iallethin-iallethinther to the South between Caiphas and Si-totheLake out of Josua we may add Ebron, Amhad, and others, on which no story dependeth; and caminum, witness Zeigler, Adrichomius, and Submin, therefore I will not pefter the description schrot. with them.

§. VIII.

Of the Rivers and Mountains of Asser.

Adonis, afterward Canis, to which Zeigler joyneth Lyous; Ptolomy Leontis: both which fall into the Scaneer Berytus: which River of Leontis, Montanus draws neer unto sm 1.9. at Theipsophon, or Dei facies, near Tripolis to North Land) calleth the main River Fons borto rum Libani: and one of the streams which run-

Daughter Christ delivered of the evil spirit. another from the South-west, Chabal: of the Neer the other, they fay, it was that Jonathas city adjoyning of the same name: for Eleu-Machabens overthrew the Army of Deme-therm it cannot be. There is also another Ritherw it cannot be. There is also another Ri. a The word wer described by Adrichome, named Jepthael, smbigus which I find in no other Author, and for can which is citeth 796. 19, but the word a 6062, by of for a which is added there to Jepthael, snot taken River; but for a River, but for a Valley: and for a Val. ra, (b) Bethdagon, and Bethemec, standing on ley the Vulgar, the Geneva; and Arias Monta- waya valthe South border between After and Zahu file in in.

There is also found in After the ley, as in South bor: on the North side joyning to Syro

Backwick lon: on the North side joyning to Syro
River of Belus, remembred by Josephus and and onle
South lon: on the North side joyning to Syro
River of Belus, remembred by Josephus and and onle
South lon: on the North side joyning to Syro
River of Belus, remembred by Josephus and and onle
South lon: on the North side joyning to Syro
River of Belus, remembred by Josephus and and onle
South lon: on the North side joyning to Syro
River of Belus, remembred by Josephus and and onle
South lon: on the North side joyning to Syro
River of Belus, remembred by Josephus and and onle
South lone is the Syro
River of Belus, remembred by Josephus and and onle
South lone is the Syro
River of Belus, remembred by Josephus and and south lone is the Syro
River of Belus, remembred by Josephus and and south lone is the Syro
River of Belus, remembred by Josephus and and south lone is the Syro
River of Belus, remembred by Josephus and and south lone is the Syro
River of Belus, remembred by Josephus and and south lone is the Syro
River of Belus, remembred by Josephus and and south lone is the Syro
River of Belus, remembred by Josephus and and south lone is the Syro River of Belus, remembred by Josephus and Belus acitus, which is also called Pagidas, saith manin.

* Pliny: out of the sands of this River are per fad, the utmost of the Holy Landthat way: unthe utmost of the Utmost of the Holy Landthat way: unthe utmost of the Utmost of the Utmost of the Utmost of the Utmo Murana, Arias Montanus makes Belus to be a 19. v. 16. as it is bility, as I have formerly proved. There are branch of Chedumim, which it cannot be: for it is called Belus is known to flow from out the Lake which mon, of which Jos. 19. 28. where also we Gendevia, as all Cosmographers, both Ancient name maand Modern, and the later Travellers into my underthe Cities of Alcath or Chelcath, Habdon, and those parts witness. It is true that the River of their thream

> Besides these Rivers there are divers far trom the mous Springs and Fountains, as that of living promised Land, waters adjoyning to Tyre : and b Masercphot, wherea. or after S. Hierome, Maferephotnam, whose bout they Well filled by the shood of the Sea adjoyn pace shring (they say) the Inhabitants by seething for which "He Rivers to the North of Affer, are the water make falt thereof, as at Nantwitch case it si-

The Mountains which bound Affer on the chorin that North, are those of Anti-libanes, which with Place of Libanes bound Carlofyria: two great ledges of Folia: but Hills, which from the Sea of Phanicia and whether Zidon: finding his head notwithstanding Syria, extend themselves far into the Land this Sector, Leave where Ptolony doth between Zidon and Tyre. Eaftward,400. stadia, or furlongs, according beautives It hath also a River called Fons hortorum Li- to Strabo: for that length he giveth to the or a City, ham and a terrer cancer on solver and inti- Valley of Calofyria, which those Mountains that this bani, which Adrichome out of Brochard intituleth Eleutherus: for which he also citeth inclose: but Pliny gives them 1500. lurlengs name is inclose: but Pliny, and the first of Machabees the eleventh in length from the West (where they begin in the organistic Chapter's Dut Bettiet of those authorities in the Mountains of Arabia beyond Dannifus; bounded 180 order prove Eleutherus to be in Affer; for this Ri-the Mountains of Arabia beyond Dannifus; bounded 180 orders where Anti-Lihanus turneth towards the the Holy in the Control of the Holy in the Holy i ver falleth into the Sea at the Isle of Aradus: where Anti-Libanus turneth towards the Land, 161 d These not far from Balanea, witness Ptolomy: and South. These ledges where they begin to 19.16 and not far from Baiana, witheis recount; and Po- part Traconitis and Esfan, from the Defart in the therefore Pinetus callethit Valania, and Pofiellus, Velana; which River boundeth Pher- Arabia, are called Hermon: which Mofes al-bound nicia on the North-fide: to which Strabo al- fo nameth Sion, the Phanicians, Syrion; and 76, 13 5; fo agreeth: but this principal River of Aft the Amorites, Sanir; neither is this any one b See the for Arias Montanus calleth Gabatus. Christia- Mountain apart, but a continuation of Hills: more nus Chrot out of the mouth and papers of which running farther Southerly, is in the bowth the focal nus Chrot out of the mouth and papers of which running tartner southerly, is in the love of the factor of the fact age both viewed and described the Holy being still a part of Libanus, as the Prophet this Paragraph. Strab. l. 10 Plin l. 5. c. 20. Deut. 4. 43. Strab. l. 10. Plo. Alice.

tab. q. Sueson. Nig. pag. 503. Hieremy hani; noting, that this Galaad is the highest East and South-East by Jordan. pinion.

white tops, because (according to Tacitus) Beallebeca. the highest of them are covered with snow all the Summer: the Hebrew word Libanos, (faith Weiffenburg) fignifieth whiteness. Others call them by that name of the Frankincence which those Trees yeild: because MCaroto is also the Greek word for that on Libarus there falleth a kind of honey dew, which is by the Sun congealed into hard Sugar, which the Inhabitants call Sac-Saccarum.

the neighbour Regions, are, Chrysorrhoas, Jordan, Eleutherus, Leontes, Lycus, Adonis, Fons hortorum Libani, and others.

The rest of the Mountains of Asser, are miles distant.

6. IV.

THE TRIBE OF NEPHTALIM.

Of the bounds of Nephtalim, and of Heliopolis, years of age. The Land of Nephtalim took beginning on the North part, from the Founjoyning, as far South as the Sea of Galilee, adad: and after a while by Teglatphalafar.

Hieremy proveth: Galand In miki caput Li-bounded on the West by After, and on the Galary.

of those Hills of Libanus. Strabo knows On the North-fide of Libanus, and ad-Those, a them by the name of Traconite: and Piolomy joyning to this Territory of Nephtalim, did by Lucithem by the name of tracontine: and trowny joyning to this tended, in the light in the Montains and the the Amorites (or Emorites) also inhabit, in 15.9. When the Mountains bordering Affer; Libanus, for which Tract, and under Libanus, was the ci-folia of Mountains bordering Affer; Libanus, for which Tract, and under Libanus, was the ci-folia of the Mountains to the Composition of the Mountains of the Composition of the Composit graphers, but he giveth no reason of his o- Monntains adjoyning shadowed from the leb. is Sunthe better part of the day. Poftellus calls plur lacit. nion.
They take the name of Libanus from their it Balbee; Niger, Marbech; and Leonelavius, Demail, Pala, Li,

Of this name of Heliopolis, there are two f. 141. great cities in Egypt: the first called on, by the Hebrews, and the Chaldean Paraphraft; otherwise Bethsemes, or after the Latines, Solis oppidum or Domus Solis : The City of the Sun: into which, faith Ulpian, Severus the Roman Emperour fent a Colony: the other Niger out of Aphrodiseus affirmeth, that Gestelius nameth Dealmarach: and of this name Stephanus also findeth a city in Thrace, and Glycas in Phrygia.

There is also in the same Valley adjoynchar, from whence came the Latine word ing to Nephtalim, Chalcis, and Abila. Chalcis of whom the region towards Palmyrena hath The Rivers which Libanus bestoweth on the name of Chalcidica, over which Herod Agrippa, and Bernice the Queen commanded.

Abila also gave name to the region ad-phrain, joyning, of which Lysanius the fon of Herod believe the elder, became Tetrarch or Governour: and a 4th those Hills above Tyre, and the Hills of Sa- whereof Ptolomy gave it the addition of Ly- in Raking ton, both exceeding fruitful: but those are fanii, and called it Abila Lyfanii. Volaterran in Amin, and called it Abila Lyfanii. Volaterran in Amin, and called it Abila Lyfanii. but of a low feature, compared with Libanus: names it Aphila, of which he notes, that one alo, Asia Dut of a fow stature, compared with troums: mames it Apuna, or which he hotes, that one Miljuis, for from Nebo, or the Mountain of Abarim in Diogenes, a famous Sophifter was native, who at the Reuben, Moses beheld Libanus threescore by Volaterran is intituled Apuleius, not Abile Foodor ns. After that this city of Abila or Aphila, had frien, received the Christian Faith, Priscillinus became the Bishop thereof: slain afterward the same the Bishop thereof: slain afterward the same the Bishop thereof: by our Brittish Maximus at Trever. For di- Reales, of stinction of this city (if it be not the same, as all which it may be thought to be the same) it is to be in that it may be thought to be the same) it is to be which so remembred, that in the Tribe of a Manafe, lows: 10 joyning upon the bounds of the Tribe of which also Nephtalim, there is another city of the same we may name, saving that it is written with an (E) for Mogam, an (I) and called Abela, remembred in the 20. the name, as some He next portion of the Land of Ca-chapter of the second of Samuel. The same think, of naan bordering After, was the upper Josephus calls Abelmachea, and Hierome, Beth- city oldwite calle et the greatest part whereof fell to the macha. In the place of Samuel, for distinctsedians, lot of Nephtalim, the fon of Jacob by Billa, on fake, it is written Abel Beth-Mahaca, (for men the the hand-maid of Rachel: who while they belike it was the Town of Mahaasthe wife building the wife bui abode in Egypt, were increased to the number of Macir, the son of Manafe, the father of littlend, or of 53400. persons, able men to bear arms, Gileal) in the Chronicles it is called Abel-according numbered at Mount Sinai: all which lea-Majim. This city Joab besleged, because Se- of the ving their bodies in the Desarts, there entred but the son of Bichri, who rebelled against gentler the Holy Land of their fons, 45400, belides David, fled thereinto for fuccour: but a cer-Infants, Women, and Children, under twenty tain wife woman of the city perfwading the state of the city perfwading the city perfwading the city perfwading the city perfwading the city perfwading the city perfwading the city perfwading the city perfwading the city perfwading the city perfwading the city perfwading the city perfwading the city perfwading the city perfwading the city perfwading the city perfwading the city perfwading the city perfwading the cit people to cast Seba his head over the wall, Josephan Joab retired his Army. The fame city was af 17.59 10. tains of Jordan, and the Hill of Libanus ad- terward taken by the King of Damajeus, Ben- i Korali

CHAP. VII.

A and so doutles Abel-Mifraim, Gen. 50. 11. at which place Abraham surprised Chedorlao-A and no doucles in his notes upon Nam. 33. mer and his confederates, and followed his withinks that Abel-Sittim was fo called a victory as far as Sobah, formerly remembred purfued them.

, ||. II.

N the Tribe of Nephtalim was that famous City of Jahin, in Josua's time called Asor, tree in (or after the Chaldean Paraphraft, Hafger) that it was either a free city, of the alliance which Laioftan names Hefron; the Regal and Company Mathematics of Canana Sected in the Canana Sected in the Canana Sect which Language City, and Metropolis of Canaan: seated in the Subject unto the Kings thereof; for it is the state of city was that great Rendevous and Affem- because Lais was far from Zidon: and they main the try was a the four and twenty Kings against Lad no business with other men: for it was a esith in Johns: who being all overthrown, flain, and bove thirty English miles from the Mediter- Plia. 1. 5. bove thirty English miles ran being lowerful city was by Jo-ran Sea, and from Zidon. ties, called fua taken and burnt to dust. But in process Emplane July and the fame being re-built by the Cana- subject to the state of Rome, it had the name Alasa anites, a fecond King Jabin, 137. years after of Paneas, from a Fountain adjoyning fo calwempy the clites: and being ordained of God to pu- Pania. Hegesppus calls it Parnium, saith Weif- 35. for Hearn, mild their Idolatry, he prevailed against fenburg: but he had read it in a corrupt cothem and held them in a miserable fervitude py; for in Hegosppus, set out by Eadius, it is written Paneum without an (R): and at such et Manife, threw Sifera, Iabins Lievtenant, and his Artime as Philip the fon of the elder Herod, broand my, near the Mountain Tabor. This city So- ther to Herod, Tetrarch of Galilee, became No.34.8 my, near the doctored at fuch time as he also re- Governour of Traconitis, fometime Basan: Siness, edified Gezar, burnt by Pharao of Egypt, this city was by him amplified and fortified; ting with Megiddo, Bethoron, and other cities; and both to give memory to his own name, proceede, Territory of Benjamin, leated on the confines and laftly, of Ascalon, called the new Hazor, saith d Hie-Shaleb , a. rome. nother city of Simeou fol, 19. 3. et King 9 d Rieron. br. Hebr

| III. of Cafarea Philippi.

Here was also on the border, and with bloody issue, by touching the hem of his Nicoh.l.6. La our of in the Territory of Nephtalim, that re- garment with a constant Faith: who after-

The word Abel may be expounded, either nowned city of Lais, or Lajisch, as Junius Judg 18.27 to fignifie bewailing, or a plain ground; and writes it, or Leschen; which city the children to manufactore no marvel that many Towns (with of Dan (being straitned in their Territory fame addition for diffinction fake ) were under Juda ) invaded and mastered; and thus called: for even of bewailing, many leave it the name of their own Parent Dan: places took name; as Bochim, Judg. 2.4. and by that name it is written in Genef. 14. Beautiful ther by reason of the plain ground there, in the division of Syria, otherwise called (10 wit, in the Land of Moab) and so perhaps Sophena. And after the possession of the Da-Abel-Meholah in the Tribe of Ephrain: the nites, it had the joynt name of Leschem-Dan. Town of Elista the Prophet: also Abel-Vi- Weissenburg writes it Lacis, the Geneva, Laish; neurum of the Ammonites, whither Jephta Josephus, Dana, Benjamin, Balina; Breiden- Julg. 18. bach, Belena: but the now Inhabitants know it by the name of Belina to this day: wit-nels Neubrigensis, Tyrins, Volaterranus, Brochard the Monk, and Poltellus: who also taketh this city to be the same, which in Matth. 15.39. in the Vulgar is called Magedan, for which the Greek Text hath Magdala in that place, and in S. Mark, speaking of the same chap. 8. 10. story, Dalmanutha. At such time as the chilunjeu unto the Angs thereof; for it is written Judg. 18. And there was none to help, vafe 28.

In after-times when these regions became the death of this first Ialin, invaded the Ifra- led: and therefore Ptolomy calls it Casarea Heg. L.1. 6. but about 260. years after, it fell into the and to flatter Tyberins Cafar, he called it . Of ano of and thands of Teglatphalafar, King of the Assyrians. * Casarea Philippi: and so it became the Mether casareasta hands of Teglatphalafar, King of the Assyrians. 16. which national Adricomins, called Antiopia: tropolis, and head city of Traconitis, and one ris (or Carabitical It is now, faith Adricomins, called Antiopia: it was one of the principal cities of Decapo of the first cities of Decapolis. And being by feel cafe sackers. Is. There is another city of this name in the Agrippa in the succeeding age greatly a - res Palellidorned; by him in honour of Nero, it was hereafter called Neronia, or Neroniada. But as nothing in the forremained with that Emperour, but the me- mer part of mory of his impiety: fo in S. Hieroms time Of Diocethe Citizens remembred their former Pane- faris, fee as, and fo re-called it, with the Territory ad-joyning by the ancient name. Of this City Zabalon. was that woman whom Christ healed of a Estel. 1.7.

GHAR. VII.

Swed,

that the fi:ft Spring of Jordan

Fountain

als, from whence for

and Dan

and ability, being mindful of Gods goodness, ding to that notable Prophecy of Estay o. and no less grateful for the same, as Eusebius The people that walked in darkness have seen a and Nicephorus report, caused two statues to great light: they that dwelt in the Land of the be cast in pure Copper: the one represent- shadow of death upon them hat b the light shined. ing Christ as near as it could be moulded: the other made like her felf, kneeling at his feet, where it entreth into the Sea of Galilee, in an and holding up her hands towards him. excellent and rich foil: of whose destruction These she mounted upon two great Bases Christ himself prophesied in these words. or Pedeftals of the same metal, which she pla- And thou Caphernaum which art lifted un unced by a Fountain near her own house: to heaven, falt be brought down to hell, Oc. both which (faith Eusebins) remained in their which shewed the pride and greatness of first perfection, even to his own time: which that City: for it was one of the principal himself had seen, who lived in the reign of Cities of Decapolis, and the Metropolis of Ga. Constantine the Great. But in the year after like. And although there were some marks Christ 363. that Monster Julian Apostata, of this Cities magnificence in Saint Hieroms caused that worthy Monument to be cast time, as himself confesseth; it being then down and defaced: fetting up the like of a reasonable Burge or Town: yet those his own in the same place: which Image of that have since, and long since seen it, as his was with fire from Heaven broken into Brochard, Breidenbech, and Saliniac affirm, fitters: the head, body, and other parts fun- that it then confifted but of fix poor Fisherdered and scattered, to the great admiration mens houses. of the people at that time living. The truth tieth Chapter.

o the sex as it is written, Judges 18. it is a place which South at Egypt and Arabia; by which de 618 and the such as the work of the such as the work of the such as the work of the such as the work of the such as the work of the such as the work of the such as the work of the such as the such that Philip fields belonging to this City it was that Calofyria, all Palestina, and Indea. the 7e-trarch caft S. Peter acknowledged Christ to be the Son North east fame fortune with the rest, for it was after led Amana, saith Stephanus, or as I ghess, Amores, which taken and re-taken by the Saracens, and na rather, because it was the chief City of chaffe be Christians: under Fulch the fourth King of the Ammonites, known by the name of Rabing carried Christians and a fourth of Californ had before Rada Philadelphus care it this laground, of Bullion, the King of Damascus wrested it ter and new name.) Then scythopolis, somewas cast up from the Christians; and shortly after by time Nisa, built (asis said) by Baccus, in P. Milamor them again it was recovered. Laftly, now it memory of his Nurse, who died therein, an-Des. remaineth with all that part of the World ciently known by the name of Bethfan; for fubjected to the Turk. is conje-

| IV.

Of Cabernaum, and the Cities of Decapolis.

ward, as the was a woman of great wealth | taught the doctrine of our falvation: accor-Caphernaum was feated on Iordan, even

The Region of ten principal Cities, called of this accident is also confirmed by Sozo- Decapolitana, or Decapolis, is in this descriptimenus Salaminius, in his fifth Book and twen- on often mentioned, and in S. Matthew, Mark Maria and Luke alforemembred; but I find no a- Marie This City built by the Danites, was near greement between the Cosmographers, what Lines. the joyning together of those two Rivers, proper limits it had: and so Pliny himself which ariting from the fprings of Jor and confesseth; for Marius Niger, speaking from Marius a Josephus Dan, the two apparent Fountains of Jordan, others, bounds it on the North by the Moun 4. f. 501. in thebook in a feil exceeding fruitful and pleasant: for, tain Casius in Casiotis: and endethit to the Pin. 13.

Pliny also makes it large, and for the ten legistation chaffe into of God: whereupon it was answered, Tues Cities of which it taketh name, he numbreth tend by a Fountain Petrus, & Super hanc Petram, &c. After this four of them to be fituated towards Arabia: Chifferen as Dand. called Phi. Petrus, & Juper mane retrain, & t. Meet this four of them to be intuated towards 21 and a st head, als, diffant City received the Christian faith, it was ho-Hierusalem, and after the death of Godfrey bab, before Ptolo. Philadelphus gave it this lathe fixth he fetteth Gadara (not that Gadara in Calofyria, which was also called Antioch and Selensia:)but it is Gadara in Basan, which Pliny in this place meaneth, feated on an high hill, near the River of Hieromaix. This Cohernaum, and the Cities of Decapolis.

Nong the remarkable Cities within this dan:but he militaketh it; for Hieromaix falleth for which the column of the Tribe, Caphernaum is not the leaft: fo into the Sea of Galilee, between Hippor and reads in the remember of the form remembers by the English of the season often remembred by the Evangelifts. This Geraft, whereas Jaboe entreth the fame Sea points. City had the honour of Christs presence three years: who for that time was a Citizen the nameth * Hippor, or Hippion, a City so calculated the honour of the feventh desired three years: who for that time was a Citizen the nameth * Hippor, or Hippion, a City so calculated the formula of the feventh desired three years: who for that time was a Citizen the nameth * Hippor, or Hippion, a City so calculated the feventh desired three years: who for that time was a City so calculated three years: who for that time was a City so calculated three years: who for that time was a City so calculated three years: who for that time was a City so calculated three years: who for that time was a City so calculated three years: who for that time was a City so calculated three years: who for that time was a City so calculated three years: who for that time was a City so calculated three years: who for that time was a City so calculated three years: who for that time was a City so calculated three years: who for that time was a City so calculated three years: who for that time was a City so calculated three years: who for that time was a City so calculated three years: who for the few years who had not so calculated three years who had not so calculated three years. thereof, in which he first preached and led of a Colony of Horsmen there garrison'd Cites we described hereafter in the Tribe of Ma- the North parts of the Tribe of Nepthali. over Jordan. For the eighth Pella, which along the Mount Libanus to Trachones. But is also called Lutis, and Berenice, feated in herein following Strabo, who calls Tracheni-South border of the Region over for- tis Iluran, he miltakes the feat of this Redan, called Peraa. For the ninth Gelafa, which gion : and fo doth Mercator. For indeed were josephus takes to be Gerasa: and Gerasa is Huraa (which Hegesppus calls Peraa, and G. found in Colofra by Josephus, Hegesuppus, and Tyrius, Baccar) the same with Traconitis . vet and Stephanus, which Volaterran calls Gama- Trachones : which the Hebrews call Gilead : la, but Hegesippus rightly Camala, a City in and this Hammath or Chammath is scated because those two Hills on which it is sea- And it seemeth that this mistaking grew by English miles.

| V.

Of Hamath.

OUt to look back again towards Libanus, The See City of * Hammath or Chammath, of which 19719.35. Chammah, cap. 21. ver. 32. Chammath-Dor, in the first of Chron.cop 6 ver. 74. Chamman, Kings 14. 8. Chammath-Ichudae, 25 Junius reads it, whereas Wo for further distinction there is added [in Israel] to note, that it was by Hered, on the East-fide of the Galilean, The Country of Iurea, faith he, containeth stephanus: but by Ptolomy (whom I rather Traconitis it felf is far more to the East than follow) in Phanicia. The tenth and last, Hammath in Nephtalim: for Traconitis licth Pliny nameth Canatha, and so doth Suctionius between Cafarea Philippi, and the Mountains the Region of Basan over Jordan, so called, under Cesares, towards the Sea West-ward. ted have the shape of a Camel. But the Col- consounding Emath or Hamath the great in lection of these ten Cities, whereof this Re- Calosyria, beyond the Mountains Tracho-

gion took name, is better gathered out of nes, which b Hierom upon Amos calls Antio- b So Hiegion took name, is better gathered out of wes, which the thought the lefter in Comments Brochard, Breidenbach, and Saligniae, which chia, with Hammath or Hamath the lefter in Comment make them to be these; Casarea Philippi, and Phanicia, and Nephtalim, which he calleth on Amos Mar, before remembred, Cedes, Nephtalim, Epiphania for this Hammath, or in our Trans-Sephet, Corazin, Capharnaum, Bethfaida, Jota- lation Hamath, (and not that which is com-mention p.t.a. Tiberias, and Scythopolis, or Bethfan. For monly called Emath, which 2 Chron. 8.3. is fet of Hamab all other Authors disagree herein, and give far from the North border of Canaan in Syria as it forms no reason for their opinion. One place of the Soba) is remembred in Numb. 34.8. & Num. 13. for diffin-Evangelist S. Mathew makes it manifest, that 22. & in Ezek.47.16. In the first of which plathis Region called Decapolitana, was all that ces it bordereth the Land of promise, these in Newbo-Tract between Zidon, and the Sea of Galilee. being the words: From Mount Hor you shall ibidim, For thus it is written: And he departed again point (that is, direct or draw a line) untill it Man Bero. For this it is WITTER : And Did account and a superior of the state of the states, the states, the states, the states, the states of Galilee, through the middless of So they went up, and scarced out the Land things. the coasts of Decapolis: so that it was boun- from the Wilderness of Sin, unto Rehab to go to cather folded by Damascus and Libanus on the North: Hamath: Then in Ezekiel; The West part also lows the by the Phoenician Sea, between Zidon and finall be the great Sea from the border, till a of zeigler Ptolomais on the West: by the Hils of Gelbo | man come over against Hamath: that is, the above and Bethfan on the South: and by the Mountains Tracones, otherwise Hermon, Sanir, and from the Southermost part of the Holy Land, deed it Galaad, on the East: which is from East to till you come directly over against Hamath cannot West the whole breadth of the Holy Land : Northward : from whence if a line be drawn jutified and from the North to the South, neer the to the Sea, it will touch the walls of Zidon: that either fame distance, which may be each way forty which is the Northwest corner of the Holy ther of Land. Now that this Hamath, or Hammath, these is eiwhich Mofes also made the confine of the ther An-Holy Land, is that of Nephthalim, both the Epiphania; reference which it hath to the West Sea, and howbeit the City of d Rehob adjoyning, prove it: the fame City

Johns 19 35. is called Chammath, and placed in Nephthalim, was also called Chamath (whence the word Hamath and Emuh, were trained) may be gathered, partly because the other Hamath, 2 Chron. 8, 3, for dillinction is called Chamath Tfeba, as this (as it may feem by fof. 21.32.) was Chamath-Little is leated neer the toot thereof the or, the first may feem by fo[4.1.3.2.) was channels of the first mark or Chammath, of which (asthey fay) the Country adjoyning taketh [block and block of the Weltomer, to be that Chamnels fibber than the first main fibber than the first main fibber than the first main fibber than the fibre fibber than the fibre ssumb, name: the same which Josephus calleth Amalimme thiir, and Amathenfis - Jacobus Zeigler, Itu-tani, rea. Iturea Regio tenet borealia tribus Nep-lighqus ten. May that per montent Libanum ufque Trachours.

106, they make aim to make aim as they are named to lie in order on the North fide of Afher, Nephthalim, Morginither diffinction there is added [in lifed] to note, that it was and Manifir: and in like manner thole in Receive, fifth, Checkins, that will be a supported by the support of the s in After towards Zidon, in the confines of Nephihalim other Hamath or Fmath being far removed, been faid, possessed by Antiochus Epiphanes. and beyond the fore-named Mountains, it was called Epiphania. which inclose all those Lands which Ifrael corchad pollession of ) is that Emath, which well peopled, known to the Syrians by the is also called Huraa, witnes stella and name Amathe, and to the Greeks by Epiphania. open Lairfian; and not that in Nephthalim, where Torm : Jonathas Muchabous attended the Army bles of the of Demetrius, who fled from him, and remo-

Mm

H lyland, yed by night. For though Traconitis be comprehended Of Reblatha & Rama, and divers other Towns.

in the Awitnets.

elser is namong the Hegarens, againt

tere-fa-done in

East of med a-

within Ituraa (and therefore it is faid to be finitima Galilea Gentium) yet it hath beginthatit ning over the Mountains Traconis, and fo it nature. fretcheth into the Plains of the Territory or Ribla, watered from the fountain Daphrely be of Hurea; whence Philip the brother of He- nis; which falleth into the Lake of Meron. hong to rod was Tetrach, or Profident, both of Huraa Hereunto was Zedekias brought prisoner.afname of and Trackonitis: both which are over Jor- ter his furprize in the fields of Jericho: & defeeled the Mediterran Sea.

imsit. Virgil: where e-

Tiur 20s Taxi torquentur in arcus.

Of Eugh the Itureans bows were made.

whom the Renbenues This City Chamath, or Hamath in Nephtaand rade war, lim, seems to have been as ancient as the oand whole ther in Hurea , both built by Amatheus the therein. they pol. eleventh fon of Canaan. Whether in the time festing of David, this, or the other had Tohu thers had majous: of whole subjugation Tohu rejoythe time ced, because Hadadeser, whom the Damasceni of Saul came to help, was his enemy. This Tohu feaconquest ring the strength and prosperity of David, of the st hearing of his approach towards his Terri. materies, tory, bought his peace with many rich pre-10, where fents, and with many ancient veffels of gold, the coun- filver, and brafs.

But it feemeth that David in fuch great ced at the fuccess would not have had peace with Toa Of the hu, if he had been King of any place in Nethlarger pro-talim, and therefore it is probable that he mile ex-prett, Deut. ruled in Tjoba: which City Solomon after his 1.7 where Fathers death made himself Master of, as a part of the lands (a in the larger and condi-Euphrases is named tional promise) allotted by God to the children of Ifrael.

bounds: But this Hammath of Nephtalim, in the While S. Hierome lived, it remained a City

6. V I.

IN the border of Hamath or Emath, towards Jordan, standeth the City Reblatha. That If dan towards the East. But Chemath in Nephta- livered to Nebuchodonofor : who to be aven- Mining to median lim, is on the West side of fordan towards ged of Zedekia's insidelity, beyond the proportion of piety, first caused the Princes his a The Country Hurea was so called of Je- children to be flain in his presence : and to thur, one of the fons of Imael; it is placed in the end that this milerable spectacle might rutgive the bounds of Cwlospria, and Arabia* the be the last that ever he should behold in this world, and so the most remembred, he The people Hurai were valiant and war- commanded both his eyes presently to be Increase in the people Hurret were variant and ward commanded both his eyes prefently to be the tibe. like men, and excellent Archers: Of whom thruft out: & binding him in Iron chains, he was led a flave to Babylon, in which state he ended his life. Of which feldom exampled calamity, though not in express words, Teremy the Prophet foretold him in Hiernsalem not long before: But Ezekiel thus directly speaking in the person of God; I will bring him to Babel, to the Land of the Chaldeans yet shall be not see it, though he shall die

There are, besides these before remembred, many other strong Cities in Nephthafor King, it is not certain; for Hamath or lim, as that which is called (a) Cedes; there in the as: their Emath beyond the Mountains, and Hammath are two other of the same name, one in (b) If 19-370 in Nephtalim, were both neighbours to Da-Jachar, another in Juda, of which Jol, 15.23. 10.7.0 and therefore to diftinguish it, it is known item id. by the addition of (c) Nephtalim, as Jud.4. It 4 6 is feated on a high hill, whence Jof 20.7. Ke-6.12. dess in Galilea in monte Nephtali: Josephus which 14. calls it Cedes, and in S. Hieromes time it was sailed in called Cidisus. Belforest greatly mistakes this him Cedes, and confounds it with Cades in the come to Defart of Pharan.

After the King thereof, among other of the Galita, Canaanites, perished by the hand of Josia, it Ches 176. was made a City of refuge, and given to the REG 15 Levites. Herein was Barac born; who over-29. threw the Army of the second Jabin of Hazor, at the Mount Tabor. It was sometime posfest by Teglatphalasser, when he wasted all Nephtalim: afterward by the Romans, and numbred for one of the ten Cities of the Decapolitan Region: When it had imbraced the end, and after divers mutations and changes, Christian faith, it was honoured with a Biboth of name and fortune being, as it hath shops seat, but in time it fell with the rest into the power of the Saracens and Turks, and by led the upper Galilee, or Galilee of the Genthem it was demolished.

CHAP. VII.

tress of the Christians, and afterward of the but the better reading is, & omnes Berim, Rama of Nephtalim, seated Northward neer that City after him. Sephet, this is to be noted, that there are () To the North of Berotha of Nephtalim whence calling away the aspiration, they particular story of importance: as Ser in thin Te read Arema. From Sepher towards the West, Jose 19.0.35. called Triddim-Tzer, and nawhich defended it felf against Nephtalim, whence they make two Cities, Assedim and 6 sing Jud. 1.33. but paid them tribute. On the o- Ser. Then Adama, which they call Edama:

Teda of Nephtalims. which also Adjoining to which standeth Carthan, we read of the Land and Lake of Genneza-Luke 5.1. under (d) or Kiriathajim, a City of the Levites, not reth, the same Lake which is also called the place, Jef far from the Mountain out of which the Sea of Tiberius. In the body of the Land they 36 19 41. vangelists. Hirhemes. hit. Jud. time of the (g) Macchabees: also (according or at least the custody of which March or meffe. one: al. Ezek, feeing it is in that Galilee which is cal- ther of the one nor of the other.

Beroibai una civitatum Hadadezeris, 2 Sain, 8,8. Jof. 18. 15.

tiles. The same Adrichomius placeth the Re-From Cedes some sour Italian miles to- gion of Berim neer Abela (of which Abela, or wards the South-west, standeth Sephet, other- Abel-Beth Mahacah, we have spoken alreawards the could have also one of the ten De- dy)this he doth upon a conjecture touching capolitan Cities: a place exceeding strong, the place, 2 Sam 20. 14. where some read and for many years the inexpugnable For- Abel & Bethmahacah, & omnia loca Berim: Suracens; for from hence they conquered all that is, with all the Berwi: for Shebah being of the neighbour Cities of those Regions, both Benjamin (in which Tribe also there is a City In-land and Maritimate, neer it. Touching called Berotba, or Beeroth) drew the men of divers places of this name in Palastine, all sci-standeth Sebarim under Libanus, remembred tuate on hils: and therefore called Rama by Ezek. 47, and Arofeth gentium, neer the Jad. 4. (Rama Hebrais excellum; Ramath with the waters of Merom, or Samochonitis, the City Int. 4. there were Hebrems is high.) Alfo that from this Rama, Jos. Of Sifara, Lieutenant of the Army of the se- Jos. 37. 19.36, they read Arama, making the Article cond Jabin: from whence not far off, towards 1 Reg. 15. (which it hath in the Hebrew, as being a name the Sea of Galilee, is Edrai, or Edrehi, a strong 2 Reg. 15. of divers Towns) to be a part of the word: City: besides many others, whereof I find no 29. they place * Bethjemes, of which Jof. 19.38. med for the first of their fenced Cities: ther fide of Sephet, towards the East, was Be- also Hion, which they call Abion, of which in of thanath, who also kept their Citie from the the books of Kings. Then the strong City of Cinnereth, after called Gennezareth, whence Mar, 6 53.

forings of Capharnaum arise, called Mons place Galgala to the South border: of which . This 1500 6. (brifti, a place by our Saviour often frequen- * 1 Mac. 9.2. also divers others, named Jos. place of ted: as also then when calling his Disciples 19.as Venea, or Chukkok Horem and Azanoth- the Mac-18. A shirt together, he made choice of twelve, which tabor (which they place towards the East rants no thems was he called and ordained to be his Apostles or parts ) and out of the same place of Josua, Galgala, or in Diag. Mellengers: of which place, or the acts there- Jerzon, Lakkum Jepnael, Heleb, and (k) Raccath; Suphali, Nephali, which in done, there is often mention in the (e) E- which two last they place neer Casarea Phi-but may lippi: To these they add out of Joshus, Nekeb, well be Adjoyning to these are Magdalel, a place and Adami: for which two Junius readeth flood of which is of strength, (f) and Mefaloth, of which we Fossa Adamai, making it no Town, but a Gilgal in read, that it was forced by Bacchides in the Ditch cast by some of Adameth, as it seems; or in Mato Adrichomius) one of the two Berotha's of Limit belonging to the Town. To these out k This 450stap. to Marienomius of the two beroins of Limit belonging to the 15th to the out Recent of parety Nephtalim. For Adrichomius maketh two of of Num. 34. 10. they add Sephana, which I Recent, this name in this Tribe, (b) one neer Chamath Sam. 3c. 21. feems to be called Sipmoth. As Justus ting of the in this 1 Hose, by Othe Received, 47.6. a- for Tickon and Helon, whereof the former thinks that it is nother (upon a weak conjecture out of Jo- they fetch out of Ezek. 47. 16. and the latter the face 1 tor. 6. Seph.ant. 1.5. c.2.) he therefore placeth in this out of Jos. 19.33. it may appear by Junius his with Kartract neer the waters of Meron; because the Translation, that neither are to be taken for of these without hings that joyned with Jabin against Jossa. Cities: for the former he readeth Mediana, being terms, which incamped at the waters of Merom. Jos. and for the later Quercetum. The City of made of the other lactived 11.5, are by Josephus faid to have encamped (1) Nephthalim, which they make the native by transat the City Berotha in Galilee, not far from place of Tobie, and Naason neer unto it, they polition Cedefa superiour, which is also in Galilee: all fetch out of the Vulgar Translation, Tob 7.7. of which which may be true of that Berotha of which but in the Greek Text there is no fign, nei- Karthan though I deny not but that there was another Kiriathajim in Reales, of ready, that it is also Kiria thajim. I In the place, 1 Reg. 4. it is, which also which for but that there was another kyrathyrm in Reides, of which following views a City called the parts and provided the state of the following views a City called beginning in severe which following views a City called beginning in severe when the state of the word

d The which

THE TRIBE OF ZAEULON.

F Zabulon, or Zebulon, another of the fions of Jacob by Leasthere were multerarms: who inhabited that part of Canaan, from Alber to the River Chison South-ward, rian was one. and from the Sea of Galilee to the Mediteran East and West.

to the Levites: ) and Gaba, after called the City of Horsemen, of a Regiment there garrison'd by Herod. Then the City which beae Judg 12. reth the name of Zabulon, or the city of men.

is faid to ded it felf against Zabulon. Then Berfabe, but in Nephtalim. which standeth in the partition of the upper and nother Galilee, fortified by Josephus a- were hot baths, where Vespatian the Empeeth to be expoun-ded by e The He-Frem Ham-

rians, struck them all blind. the Levites. The last of the Cities on the two thousand prisoners. with the North border of Zabulon is Bethfaida, one of others, received the same Curse of threatned mileries as It'o be unto thee Bethfuida &c.

Alongli the West border of Galilee, towards the South from Bethfaida, was the throng Caftle of Magdalum, the habitation of Mary Magdalen, not long fince franding.

And beyond it the ftrong and high leated ed at Mount Sinai, 57400. able men, befides City of Jotapata, fortified by Josephus in the women, children, and aged unable persons: Roman war: but in the end, after a long all which dying in the Defarts, there entred fiege, surprised by Vespatian, who slaughtethe Holy Land of their islues 65000 fit to bear red many thousand of the Citizens, and held 1200. prisoners, whereof Josephus the Histo-

The last and greatest of the Cities on that Sea, and the Lake of Genezzareth, within . The The Cities within this Tribe which border Aflor, are Sicaminum on the Sca thore; of afterward the Galilean Sea also changed chiase. which loseph. Ant. 13.c. 19. Debbaset, of * which name, and was called the Sea of the City Ti- ted about * Isf. 12. 10 Joseph Jacknet of Tiberius this factor o - Jefald, was (a) llain by Joseph and the City was given Cefar; it was one of the ten Cities, and the row white Metropolis of the Region Decapolitan, and Jordan the greatest and last of the lower Galilee, weeks From hence our Saviour called Matthew times, from the Toll or Custom-house, to be an A. Entirella exceeding ancient and magnificent (b) burnt postle; and neer unto it raised the daughter catar, to the ground by Cestius, Lietvenant of the of Jairus from death; it was built(as Josephus Tankin, and they greater Consistin Roman Army. Adricomius makes it the birth- reports) by Herod the Tetrach, the brother add to the Tibe City of (c) Elon Judge of Ifrael, because he is of Philip, in the beginning of the raign of Tiof After. Only of (1) Live June 1 and the bering Cafar, in the most fruitful part of Ga-foreness Nathmiel fame place, he is faid to be buried at Ajalon. lilee; but in a ground full of Sepulchres: Duam greenze me piace, ne is faid to be builted at symbol in a global that be ad feptem dies im- to the To the East of this City of Zabulon is Ca- juxta nostras leges (faith he) ad septem dies im- Lake and beoleans 10the Latt of class only of Landson 19 January as ugo chattine, suggested are im labered in Galifee, tethyof which Jos. 19. 15. on the border of purus babeatur, qui in talibus locis babitet; Commy Of Simon After: and beyond it the lefter (d) Cana of Whereas by our law he fbould be from dairy being it may be tt may be doubted: Galilee, where Christ converted water into beld as unclean, who inhabited in such a place: sale and for Auge wine : the native City of Nathaniel, and, as it by which words, and by the whole place of 183. In can is thought of simon zelotes. Beyond it begin Josephus it appears, that this Tiberias is not is Mat. 10.4. the Mountains of Zabulon: and then the City (as some have thought) the same as the old Abidia of Cethron (in Zeigler, Ghiltron) which defen- Cinnereth, which was feated, not in Zabulon, Zah.

Neer unto this Tiberias, at Emaus, there gainst the Romans. Not far from hence stand- rour encamped against Tiberias. More into eth Shimron of Meron, whose King was flain the Land toward the South-west, is Bethulia, feated on a very high hill, and of great Then Damna, or Dimna, a City of the Le- strength, famous by the story of Holofernes vites: then Noa, or rather Neba, of which Jos. and Judith, fuch as it is. Neer which standeth (for which 19.13. Then Dothan, or Dothain, where Jo- Bethleem of Zabulon: and adjoyning unto it Feph found his brethren feeding their flocks: Capharath, fortified by Josephus against the Tolistic hath his fept found in Streamen rectume the first fell the fame wherein Elizaas, belieged by the Sylvans, for the fame wherein Elizaas, belieged by the Sylvans, fruck them all blind.

| Romans: and Japha, an exceeding frong fair the first fruck them all blind. Beyond it, towards the East, they imagine entrance, and afterward in fury slew 15000 gue grai (e) Amibar, or Amathar: then Remmon of of the Citizens; and carried away above 1911;

On the South fide are the Cities of Cartha Thates, word go the ten Cities of Decapolis, scituate on the of the Levites, and Gabara, of which Josephus a Jaming before of the Lewiser, and Gabara, of which Josephus spiral in his own life, then Jufe, according to Adri-wood in his own life, then Jufe, according to his own life, then Jufe, according to his own life, then Jufe, according to his own life, then Jufe, according to his own life, then Jufe, according to his own life, then Jufe, according to his own life, then Jufe, according to his own life, then Jufe, according to his own life, then Jufe, according to his own life, then Jufe, according to his own life, then Jufe, according to his own life, then Jufe, according to his own life, according t CHAP. VII. and the City Belma, in ancient times exceed- and the third is a branch of a river riling out ing frong, remembred Judith 7.3. other- of the Fountains of Caphernaum, which falwife Chelina. Between Legio and Nazeret is leth also into the same Sea, and near Magda-Septemm according to Brochard: which af- Jordanis parous, which runneth from the Anna, the Parents of the Virgin Mary ; it was Sea of Galilee. called by Herod the Tetrarch, and by him, as 13.3 c in Josephus speaks, made the head and defence of Galilee: in another place he faith, Urbium Galilearum maxima Sephoris & Tiberias. THE TRIBE OF ISSACHAR. This Sephoris greatly vexed Tespasian ere he wanit. Herod Antipas, when he made it the Regal feat of the nether Galilee, and furrounded it with a ftrong wall, called it Auto- Isfachar, who inhabited a part of the nether faith Jejephus; and it is now but a Castle called Zajbit.

cefarea, was that bleiled place of Nazareth, rest in the Desarts, there entred the Holy the city of Mary the Mother of Christ; in Land 64300. which he himself was conceived: it standeth the uttermost of Zabulon.

vers small Mountains: but Tabor is the most through every street, he reserved the rerenowned, by the apparition of Moses and mainder for slaves and bond-men. Eliss: and by the Transfiguration of Christ Next to Tarichea is placed Cession, or Cir. Restors in the presence of Peter, Tames, and John: Simon of the Levites, and then Islandar, remem-vision Chappel.

Palestine. There is a second Torrent or Brook | Philistims incamped against Israel, and after Joses 73 that rifeth in the Hills of Bethulia, and fal- ward against Saul: a Land thirsty of blood,

Westward, Legio, (afterward a Bishops seat) leth into the Sea of Galilee by Magdalum: the City Saffa, or Saffra, the birth-city of lum; which Torrent they call Dolbam, from See Luffan, which Torrent they call Dolbam, from See Luffan, in Map in the City Saffa, or Saffra, the birth-city of lum; which Torrent they call Dolbam, from See Luffan, which Torrent they call Dolbam, from See Luffan, in the name of the city, from which it paffeth online Sephoris, or Sephora, according to Josephus: Eastward to Bethfaida, and so joyning with 30/119.14. terward, faith Hegesippus, and Hierome, was Valley of Jephthael, which Josua reckoneth called Diocasarea, the city of Joachim and in the bounds of Labulon: it endeth in the

6. VI.

He next adjoyning Territory to Zabulon, to the South and Southwest, was eratorida, which is as much to fay as Imperial, Galilee, within Jordan: of whom there were increased in Egypt, as appeared by their muflers at mount Sinai, 54400. able and war-flers at mount Sinai, 54400. able and war-Tothe South-west of this Sephoris, or Dio- like men, who leaving their bodies with the

The first city of this Tribe near the Sea of between Mount Taber, and the Mediterran Galilee, was Tarichea, diftant from Tiberias Tarichea is Sea. In this city he abode chiefly four and eight English miles, or somewhat more; a Season, twenty years, and was therefore called a city wherein the Jews (by the practice of a Nazarite, as the Christians afterward were for certain mutinous upstart, John the son of Lemany years. It was erected into an Archbi- vi)took arms against Josephus the Historian, floprick, in the following age. Near unto it then Governour of both Galilees. This city are the cities Buria (afterward well defended was first taken by C. office, and 3000. Tems against the Turks) and Nahalal, of which Iof. carried thence captive; and afterward with 19. 15. and Iudg. 1.30. where it is called Na-great difficulty by Vespasian, who entred it halol: and Iof. 21. 35. where it is a city of the by the Sea fide, having first beaten the Jews Levites; near the Sea, adjoyning to the in a Sea-fight upon the Lake or Sea of Ga-River of Chison is Sarid, noted in Issua for lilee: he put to the sword all forts of people, and of all ages; faving that his fury being In this Territory of Zabulon there are di-quenched with the Rivers of blood running unto whom Moles and Elias appeared; in bred in the first of Kings, c.4.v. 17. then Abes, is called memory whereof, on the top of the Moun- or Ebets, 10f. 19.20. and Remeth, of which Kedoh. tain, the Empress Helen built a sumptuous Iof. 19. 21. otherwise Ramoth, 1 Chron. 6.37. Joseph 19. or Iarmuth, Iof.21.19. this also was a city of 1 Sam 3.19. In the chief River of Zabulon is Chifon, the Levites, from whose Territory the Moun-1 Kings which rifing out of Tabor, runneth with one tains of Gilboe take beginning: and range Indie later ftream Eastward to the Sea of Galilee, and themselves to the Mediterran lea, and to-two places with another stream Westward into the wards the West as far as the City of Iezzael, Junius great Sea. This River of Chifon where it ri-feth, and fo far as it runneth Southward, is Bethphefes, or Bethpafes, according to Zeiglers, teraccord. called Chedumim, or Cadumim and for mine and Enadda, or Hen-chadda, near which Saul ing to 701. own opinion, I take it to be the same which slew himself: under those, Aphee, or Apheea, the sit to Ptolomy calleth Chorfens: though others di- which Adrichomius placeth in Isachar: be-placeth it thinguith them, and fet Chorfeus by Calaria tween which and Suna, he faith, that the out of

CHAP. VII.

278 for herein also faith he, the Syrians with two from the Sea-coast towards Tiberias, by the 1 X 73.00 Was. Tell Benhadad. Let not him that girdeth Gates whereof Christ raised from death the Later his harnes bouft himself as he that putteth it off: widows onely fon. meaning, that glory followed after victory, utterly broken and discomfitted by Achab: the body of Samuel at the instigation of Saul. and 100000 footmen of the Aramites, or Sprians, flain: before which overthrow the named Iof. 19. v. 19,20. Then Dabarath, as it fervants and counsellors of Benhadad (in de- is named, Iof. 21. 28. or Dobratha, as it is narision of the God of Ifrael) told him, That the med, I Chron. 6.71. This city (which stretch-Gods of Ifrael were Gods of the Mountains : eth it felf over Chifon) was a city of refuge and therefore if they fought with them in the belonging to the Levites. Plains, they hould overcome them.

Tolonfe.

From the Caftle of Pilgrims, the Sea maketh a great Bay towards the North, and the farthermost shore beginneth Mount Carmel, not far from the River Chifon, where Elijak aftembled all the Prophets and Priests of Baal, and prayed King Achab, and the people affembled, to make trial whether the God of Ifrael, or the Idol of Baal were to be worthipped, by laying a facrifice without fire on the Altar: which done, the Priests of Baal prayed, and cut their own flesh after their manner, but the fire kindled not, while Elijub in derifion told them, that their God was of Manaffe, on the West side of Jordan. Maeither in pursuit of his enemies, not at leisure, naties was the first begotten of Joseph, the or perchance asleep, &c. but at the prayer of eleventh son of Jacob. His mother was an Elij.th the fire kindled, notwithstanding that Fgsptian, the daughter of Putiphar, Priest and he had caused the people to cast many vef- Prince of Heliopolis; which Manalles, with his seis of water thereon: by which miracle the brother Ephraim, the grand-children of Japeople incenfed, flew all those Idolaters on cob were by adoption numbred amongst the the banks of Chifon adjoyning.

At the foot of this Mountain to the North, twelve Patriarchs. standeth Caiphas, built, as they say, by Caiphas the high Prieft. It is also known by the as they were numbred at Mount Sinai, name of Persina, and Porphyria, sometime a 32200, able men: all which being consumed and thirty Reguli attiffing Benhadad, incoun- banks of Chifon, there are found the city of tered Achab, and were overthrown and Hapharaim, or Aphraim, and the Castles of thughtered: to whom the King of Ifrael Mezra and Saha: of which Brochard and made a most memorable answer, when Fen- Breidenbach: and then Naim on the River hadad varieted before the victory: which chifon: a beautiful city while it flood, in the

Then Seon or Shion, named Iof. 19, bebut ought not to precede it. In the year fol- tween the two Hills of Hermon, in Isachar: lowing in the fields as they fay, adjoyning to beyond it ftandeth Endor, famous by reason this city, was the same vain-glorious sprian of the Inchantress that undertook to raise up

Beyond it stands Anaharath and Rabbith

Next to Dabarath is Arbela fituate. near Under Aphce towards the Sea, they fet the the Caves of those two Theeves which so city of Efdrelen, in the Plains of Galilee; greatly molested Galilee in Herods time. It called alfothe great field of Fldrelon, and joyneth on one fide to the Mountain of Ila-Maggeeddo: in the border whereof are the char, or Hermon, and on the other to the Called ruines of Aphee to be feen, faith Brochard, and Valley of Jefrael: which Valley continueth it compas 1 Chron 6. Breidenbach. After thefe are the cities of felf from Bethfan, or Septhopolis, the East bor- Magazi 73. 11. 9. Cafaloth, of v hich 1 Mac. 9.2. Anem, or Hen- der of Hachar, even to the Mediterran Sea : 10. 11. 9. Page 149. 2010 Gannim, of the Levites, and Scefima, or sha- two parts whereof are inclosed by the Moun- Halaks batfima, the West border of Islachar, of which tains of Gilloe on the South, and by Hermon 101, Hare-Iof. 19.22. From hence ranging the Sea coast, and the River Chifon on the North. In these 1 Meet. there is found the Caftle of Pilgrims:a ftrong | * Plains Gideon overthrew the Midianites. 13.0 9.1. Castle, invironed with the Sea, sometime and herein, they think, Saul sought against 15mm, 11. the storehouse and Magazine of the Christin the Philistims, Achab against the Syrians, and 1 King to ans, and built by the Earl of Saint Giles, or the Tartars against the Saracens.

S. VII. THE HALF OF THE TRIBE OF MANASSE.

Of the bounds of this balf Tribe : and of Scythopolis. Salem, Therfa, and others.

He next Tribe which joyneth it felf to I Ifachar towards the South, is the half fons of lacob, and made up the number of the

Of Manase there were increased in Egypt, Suffragane kishops seat. Returning again in the Defarts, there entred of their islues, fell on this one half of Manaje, was bounded where the Vulgar readeth transcrittue in by Jordan on the East, and Dora upon the Salem urbem Sichemorum (for which others Michiterran Sea on the West, Jefrael on the read venit incolumis ad Civitatem Sechemum, North, and Machmata is the South border. making the word shalem not to be a proper by the Greeks.

strained the Jews to fight against their own it hath no probability. montes acrabitene, faith Zeigler. But I find it in ther conditions of peace, than to suffer their ward translated to Nazareth. The later travellers in those parts affirm, that there is strike them with the greater terror. daily taken out among the rubble and the poor and desolate Village.

Hittom in From Beth-fan keeping the way by Jorand fince, a town of that name, near seytho-

52700 bearing arms. The Territory which of Scripture, Gen. 13. 18. do not confirm, The first and principal City which stood name, but an adjective) yet the place John in this Territory was Bethfan, sometime Nyfa, 3. 13. where it is faid, that fokn was baptifaith Pliny, built by Liber Pater, in honour zing in Enon near Salem, may somewhat of his Nurse there buried, of the same name, strengthen this opinion, and yet it is not unwhich Solinus confirms. Afterward when the likely that this Salem of which S. John speak-Southians invaded Affa the less, and piere't eth, is but contracted of Shahalim of which into the South, to the uttermost of Calospria, in the Tribe of Benjamin, 1 Sam. 9. 4. This they built this City a-new, and very magni- word Junius maketh to be the plural of ficent: and it had thereupon the name of Shuhal: of which we read, 1 Sam 13.17. for Scythopolis, or the City of Scythians, given as for that which is added out of Cantieles 6.12. of Shulammitis, as if it had been as These barbarous Northern people con- much as a Woman of this Salem near Enon, Nation and kinred, by whose hands when Not far from thence where they place This City Nation and winter, by whole datas which they had obtained victory, they themselves Salem, they find Eczech the City of Adonibe-Bests, by they had obtained victory, they had obtained victory, they had obtained victory, they had obtained victory, they had obtained victory, they had obtained victory, they had obtained victory, they had obtained victory, they had obtained victory, they had obtained victory, they had obtained victory, they had obtained victory, they had obtained victory, they had obtained victory, they had obtained victory, they had obtained victory, they had obtained victory, they had obtained victory, they had obtained victory, they had obtained victory they had obtained fet on the Jews which ferved them, and flew zec, Josephus calls it Bala: here it was that Judg. 1. 3. them all. Stephanus makes it the utmost to- Saul assembled the strength of Israel and seemeth to wards the South of Calosyria: and Strabo Juda, to the number of 330000, when he in Juda, joyns it to Galilee. It is feated between for- meant to relieve Jabesh Gilead, against Naash Josephant. dan and the Hills of Gilboe, in aulone ad the Ammonite: who would give them no o- 6.6.5.

the East part of the Valley of Jestrael near right eyes to be thrust out. Near Bezech is Jordan: after that Jordan strengtheneth it the City of Bethbera, or rather Beth-bara, of felf again into a River, leaving the Sea, or which Judg.7.24 in the story of Gideon : and Lake Genezareth. Notwithstanding Monta- then Ephra, or Hophra, wherein Gideon inhanus describes it far to the West, and towards | bited: in the border whereof stood an Althe Mediterran Sea, near Endor, contrary to tar confecrated to Baal, which he pulled Stella, Laicstan, Adrichome, and all other the down and defaced; and near it that stone. best Authors. This City was the greatest of on which Abimelech the Bastard slew his 70. all those of Decapolis: but the children of brothers; a Heathenish cruelty practised by Manaffe could not expel the Inhabitants the Turk to this day: and not far hence, bethereof: and therefore called it Sane, an tween the Village of Afophon and Jordan, enemy, or Beth-san, the house of an enemy. Ptolomeus Lathurus overthrew Alexander Fol. 1.13.c.

Over the walls of this Beth-san the Phili- King of the Jews, and flaughtered, as Josephus fins hung the body of Saul, and his fons numbereth them, 3000. but according to flain at Gilboe. It had, while the Christian re- Timagenes 50000. after which victory, as Ptoligion flourished in those parts, an Archbi- long past by the Villages of the Jews, he fhop, who had nine other Bishops of his slew all their women, and caused the young Diocess, numbred by Tyrins, in his 14. Book | children to be sod in great Caldrons, that the and 12. Chapter: but the same was after- rest of the Iems might thereby think that the Egyptians were grown to be men-eaters, and

Towards the Welt and on the border of . This A. ruines of that City, goodly pillers, and other Hackar, they place the Cities of * Aner of ner Junius pieces of excellent Marble, which witness the Levites, and Abel-Mehola, which Junius, 1 Chr. 6 70 the stately buildings, and magnificence Judg.7.22. placeth in Ephraim: it was the ha-makes to which it had in elder times, but it is now a bitation of Helifeus the Prophet, numbred with Tabaamong those places, I Reg. 4.12. which were nat, of given in charge to Baana by Solomon, to which Jos. and the state of t rome, do not find to be the same with Hieru-Salem: there being in the time of Hierome hanged, and their City given to the Levites. derate of

In the body of this Territory of Manaffe, Gen. 14.13. polis before remembred, which if the place but somewhat nearer Jordan than to the Me- Jos. 12.17 52700.

Mr. Chin

Therlie, whole King was one of those that Jo- the shot of an arrow, of which wound he dihas flow; which the Kings of Ifrael used for ed at Maggeddo adjoyning. The Scripture their Regal feat, till fuch time as Samaria calls this City of Gaber, Gur. was built. From hence the wife of Jeroboam went to Achia to enquire of her fons health: good King Josias was flain by Necho King of who knowing her, though she were disgui- Fgypt, in a war unadvisedly undertaken. For fed, told her of her fons death.

The fecond Book of the first Part which name there are both in Fgspt and whem Josias thought to resist in his passage, Greece, of great same: in the assault of the It was afterward called Maximianoplis. Tower of this Town, whereinto the Citizens retired, the Bastard Abimelee was wounded by a weighty stone, thrown by a woman tures, whose King was slain among therest John. over the wall, who despairing of his recove- by Josua: yet they defended their City for a ry, commanded his Page to flay him out- long time against Manafe. The River which right, because it should not be said that he palleth by the Town, may perhaps be the Fig. 3, Perished by the stroke of a woman. But o- same which Ptolomy calleth Chorseus: and nor thers fet this City in Fibraim near Sickem, or that of which we have spoken in Zabulon. For tory adjoyning is called Acrabatena, (one of Holy Land, delincate no fuch River. Atoore the ten Toparchies, or governments in Judaa) only fets it down in his Geography of the tor which Hierome, 1 Mac. 5. reads Arabathe- | twelve Tribes: but the River which paffeth na: but in the Greck it is Acrabatine: Isidore by Maggeddo, he understandeth to be but a calls it Agrabat. This City had one of the lar- branch, falling thereinto. Laieftan and Schrot gest Territories of all Palastine belonging to make a great confluence of waters in this the Governour thereof. Josephus remembreth it often, as in his fecond book of the Jews! wars, c. 11. 25, 28, and elsewhere.

The difference between a Tetrarchy and a Toparchy, was, that the first was taken for a Province, and the other for a City with some leiler Territory adjoyning; and a Tetrarch is the same with Prajes in Latine, and Presi-

Difter, Cornath, and Munfier. To the South-west of Acrabata they place the Cities of Balaam or Bilbam and Gethremmon of the Levites: but Junius out of Jof. 21. are but one; and that Jibleham, Jos. 16. 11. is another name of the same City.

Then is Jezael a Regal City, set at the foot of the Mountains of Gilboe, towards the South-west: herein Jezabel, by a false accusation, caused Naboth to be stoned, to the end the might possess his Vineyard adjoyning to the City, which Naboth refused to fell, because it was his inheritance from his father.

Joram also was cast unburied into the same field : for which his mother Jezabel murther- ons City of Cafaria Palastina: first, the Tower ed Naboth.

which they call Gaber: in whose ascent as and toward Egypt, between this City and diterran Sea, were three great Cities, to wir, the had flain Joram, he was wounded with

Then Adadremmon, near unto which the Necho marched towards Afyria against the The second was Thebes near Samaria, of King thereof, by the commandment of God;

A neighbour City to Adadremmon was because this name is not found in the Scrip-The third is Acrabata, of which the Territures, many of those that have described the place, agreeable to this Scripture in the fifth of Judges: Then fought the Kings of Canaan in Tanaac by the maters of Maggeddo. But thefe Authors, and with them stella, give it no other name than the Torrent fo called.

But feeing that ancient Cosmographers stretch out the bounds of Phanicia even to Sebafte.or Samaria; and sirabo far beyond it dent in English, being commonly the fourth on the Sea-coast: And Josephus calls Cafaria Tolophus part of a Kingdom; and thereof to called. Palastina, a City of Phanicia: yea, Laurentius 13 Niger. Pliny nameth seventeen Tetrarchies in Syria: Corvinus extendeth Phanicia as far as Geza: the Holy Land had four, and to hath the feeing also Ptolomy fets down Chorfeus for the Kingdom of Ireland to this day, Lemster, partition of Phanicia and Judaa, this river running East and West parallel with Samaria: it is very probable that this Torrent called Maggeddo, after the name of the City which it watereth, is the same which Ptolomy 25. and 1 Chron. 6.70. gathers that these two in his fourth Table of Asia, calleth Chorsess. The later travellers of the Holy Land call Maggeddo Subimbre at this day.

||. I I.

Of Cefaria Palestina, and some other Towns.

Rom Maggeddo toward the West, and near the Mediterran Sea, was that gloriof Straton: the same which Pliny calls Apollo-Toward the Sea from Jezael is the City nia: though Ptolomy fets Apollonia elsewhere, Abaziah King of Juda fled from Jehu, when Joppe, to which Vespasian gave the name of fices, which he reared within the Walls, of Junius, for in Naphoth Dor, reads in tractions cut and polith't marbles, the Theater and Am- Dor: and so the Vulgar, in regionibus Dor. phtheater, from whence he might look over although 1 Reg. 4.11. for the like speech in the Seas far away, with the high and stately the Hebrew it readeth omnis Nephath Dor: Towers and Gates:he forced a Harborow of The Septuagint in the place of Josua call it great capacity, being in former times but an Nephith-Dor, and in the other of the Kings, open bay; and the wind blowing from the Nepha-Dor: but the true name by other Sea, the Merchants haunting that Port, had places (as Jos. 12.23. Judg. 1. 27.) may seem no other hope, but in the strength of their to be Dor. It was a strong and powerful Cables and Anchors. This work he per-City, and the fourth in account of those formed with fuch charge and labour, as the twelve Principalities, or Sitarchies, which Eke of that hath not been found in any Solomon erected. Junius upon Macc. 15. 11. Kingdom, nor in any age: which, because the placeth this between the Hill Carmel, and Materials were fetcht from far, and the the mouth of the river Cherfeus: for fo some weight of the stones was such, as it exceed- name the river Chorseus, of which we have cth belief, I have added Josephus own words spoken already. of this work, which are these: Hane locorum Into this City, for the strength thereof, Try-10.615, in commoditatem correcturus, cerculum por phon fled from Antiachus the son of Demetus circumduxit, quantum putaret magna classi trius, where he was by the same Antiochus Mu,1.13. recipiende sufficere: & in viginti ulnarum besieged with 12000, foot-men, and 8000. profundum, prægrandia saxa demisit: quorum horse: the same persidious villain that repleraque pedum quinquaginta longitudinis, ceived 200. talents for the ranfom of lonalatituding verò octodecim, altitudine novem- than Macchabaus (whom he had taken by pedali: fuerunt quadam etiam majora, mino- treachery) and then slew him: and after him ra alia; To mend this inconvenience of place flew his own Master, usurping for a while the (faith Josephus) he compast in a Bay wherein Kingdom of Syria. It had also a Bishops seat a great Fleet might well ride: and let down of the Diocess of Cesaria. great stones twenty fadome deep : whereof some after the name of Drusus the son in law of by Josua. Cafar: in whose honour he intituled the City

bel. fur. Tyrius. to death, faith Tolephus.

Visit Colonia. It was by Herod re-built, who Naphoth Dor, as fome read, Jof. 1. 2. fo called therein laboured to exceed all the works in (faith Adrichomius) because it joyneth to that part of the world. For befides the edithe Sea, whose King was slain by Joseph But

From Cefaria towards the South, they Gul. Tyr. de were fifty foot long, eighteen foot broad, and place the Cities of Caphernaum, Gabe, and bell fare. nine foot thick: and some bigger, some lester. Galgal: for besides that Capharnaum famous 1. 10. 6 6. To this he added an arm or cawfie of two in the Evangelists, they find in these parts near hundred foot long, to break the waves: the the West Sea, another of the same name. Of rest he strengthened with a stone wall, with Gabe, Hierome in locis Hebraicis. The samous divers stately Towers thereon builded: of Galgal, or Gilgal, was in Benjamin: but this which the most magnificent he called Drusus, Gilgal, they say, it was whose King was slain

Then Antipatris, so called of Herod, in hoit felf, Cafaria of Palastine : all which he per- nour of his Father : but in the time of the formed in twelve years time. It was the first Macchabees, it was called Capharsalama: in of the Eastern Cities that received a Bishop: the fields whereof Judas Macchabaus over-Mac. 17.31 afterward erected into an Archbishoprick, threw a part of the Army of Nicanor, Lievte-1844.12 commanding twenty others under it, faith nant to Demetrius: an Army drawn into Judeaby a traiterous Jew, called Alcimus: who S. Hierome nameth Theophilus, Eusebius, contended for the Priest-hood, first under Acacius, Euzorus, and Galafius, to have been Bacchides, and then under Nicanor. To this Bilhops thereof. In this City was Cornelius was Saint Paul carried prisoner from Hieruthe Centurion baptifed by Saint Peter: and Salem, conducted by 470. fouldiers, to defend herein dwelt Philip the Apostle. S. Paul was him from the sury of the Jews. In afterherein two years prisoner, under the President times the Army of Godfrey of Bullion at-Felix, unto the time and government of Por-tempted it in vain: yet was it taken by cius Festus: by whom making his appeal, he Baldwine. It was honoured in those dayes was sent to Cesar. Here, when Herod Agrippa with a Bishops seat, but it is now a poor was passing on to celebrate the Quinquenna- Village, called Asjur, faith Brochard. Near lia, taking delight to be called a god by his unto this City the Prophet Jonas was flatterers, he was stricken with an Angel un- three dayes preserved in the body of a Whale.

To the North of Cesaria standeth Dora, or Into the Land, from Antipatris and Cesa-

Nη

CHAP. VIII.

ris frandeth Narbata, whereof the Territory unto it is the Mountain of Abdia, the Stetaheth name: which Cestins the Boman wa- ward of King Achab: wherein he hid an hunfled with fire and fword, because the Jews dred Prophets, and fed them: after which which dwelt at Colaria fled thence, and car- he himself is faid to have obrained from God ried with them the Books of Males. Neer the Spirit of Prophecy alfo.

CHAP. VIII.

Of the Kingdom of Phoenicia.

S. I.

The bounds and chief Cities , and Founders , and Name of this Kingdom : and of the invention of Letters ascribed to them.

to the South part of Anti-libanus ; I have in it these famous Maritimate Cities (besides therefore gathered a brief of thole Kings all thole of the illands) to wit, Aradus, Orwich have governed therein: at least to those governed therein: at least to many of them as time (which devoureth all things) hoth left to posterity: and that the Palestine: and by reason of the many Ports rest perished, it is not strange: seeing so and goodly Sea-towns, it anciently commany Volumes of excellent learning in fo manded the Trades of the Eastern world: long a race and revolution, and in so many and they were absolute Kings of the Medichanges of Estates, and Conquest of Heathen | terran Sea. Princes have been torn, cast away, or otherwife confumed.

Comographers do in effect agree, that it takes Itate continuing even unto Josua's time. For beginning from the North, where that part rill then, it is probable that there was but of Spris, which is called Cassosis, ends: most one King of all that Region; afterward calof them bounding it by Orthofia, to the North led Phonicia: which Procopius also confirmof Tripolis. Piolomy makes it a little larger, as eth in his second Book of Vandals wars. But From the River Eleutherus that falls in process of time the City of Tyre adjoyninto the Sea at the Island of Aradus, some-ing, became the more magnificent : yet, acwhat to the North of Orthofia, and firetching cording to the Prophet, it was but a daughfrom thence alongst the coast of the Medi- ter of Zidon, and by them first built, and Floris terran Sea, as far as the River of Chorfeus; peopled. which feems to be that which the Jews call But after the death of Moses, and while Plia Ls. the Torrent, or River of Maggeddo. Pliny ex- Josua yet governed Israel, Agenor an Egyptian tends it further, and comprchends Joppe of Thebes, or a Phunician bred in Egypt, came within it: Corvinus and Budaus, Joppe and thence with his fons Cadmus, Phanix, Cyrus, Gasa. Phanicia annd priscos appellata (faith and Cilix, (say Cedrenus and Curtius) and Endens) que nune Palastina Syria dicitur : It built and possest the Cities of Tyre and Zinow is called Palastina of Syria. Flanicia all the Sea-fide of Judaa, and Pale Cadmus in his pursuit after his fifter Europa, Ecause these five Tribes, of Asser, Egypt. On the contrary, Diodorus Sicalus sol. Nephralim Zahulon, Islachar, and the deth it up in Caelosyria, which he boundeth half of Manafe, possest the better not. But for my self, I take a middle course, part of that ancient Kingdom of and like belt of Ptolomies description, who Phanicia, to wit, of fo much as lay was feldont deceived in his own art. It had

The ancient Regal Seat of those Princes was Zidon, built by Zidon the first fon of Ca-The limits of this Kingdom, as touching naan: and the people then subject to that the South parts are very uncertain: but all people were called Zidonians; the same was called Phanicia of old (faith he) which don: to wit, the new Irrus, and brought into Phonicia (so called after the name of his se-Strabe comprehends in this Country of cond fon ) the use of Letters : which also tena . even unto Pelujum, the first Port of taught the Grecians. For Taurus King of Crete, eth in these Verses.

Hic Regina gravem gemmis auroque popofeit, Implevita; mero pateram: quam Belus & omnes and Confederates. A Belo foliti.

bowl

gold)

To flow with wine. This Belus us'd of old, And all of Belus Line.

at once with Josua. Now that Agenor return in Asia. ned about the fame time into the Territory

he by Nation an Egyptian, yet it is very like-ly that either he came to fave his own Ter-ritory; or otherwife to defend the coast of pheus, Linus, Hercules, Prometheus, Cadmus, when he surprised Tyre, had stoln her thence: that, and by the slaughter of so many of the of which the Poets devised the fable of Ju- male children at the same time, could not piters transformation into a Bull, by whom hinder the Hebrews from invading Canaan that stealth was also supposed to be made. by land : which also they knew had so many Pomponius Sabinus makes Belus the first King powerful Nations to defend it: the Delarts of Phanicia; and finds Cadmus his Successor, inter-jacent, and the strong Edomites, Mostwhom he calleth his grand-child: and it bites, Amorites, and Ammonites their bordefeemeth that Belus was the father of Agenor, rers: yet Fgypt having fuch Veffels or Ships. and not Neptune : because the successours of or Gallies, as were then in use, did not in Dido held that name alwaies in reverence, all probability neglect to garrilon the Seamaking it a part of their own, as Afdrubal, coast, or affist Agenor with such forces as they Hannibal: whose memory Virgil also touch- had to spare; and which they might perform with the greater facility, in that the Philistims, which held the shores of Canaan next adjoyning unto them, were their Friends

Now, as it appeareth by the course of the story those Cities of Phanicia, which Agenor The Queen anon commands the weighty was faid to have built (that is, to have tortified and defended against Josua, and against chap. 14. (Weighty with precious frones and maffie the Tribes after him, as Zidon, Sor, or Trre, 19. by Josua called the strong City Acrbo, atterward Ptolomais, Achzib, and Dor ) were all that Phanicia had in those daies.

That the Kings of Phanicia were mighty, Whether this Belus were father or grand- especially by Sea, it appears, first by their father to Agenor, the matter is not great, But defence against Ifrael: secondly by this, that it feems to me by comparing of times, that David and Solomon could not malter them, Belus was Ancestor to these Phanicians, and but were glad of their alliance: thirdly, that preceded Agenor. For were Belus, or Jupiter one of their Cities, though they were then Belus, the fon of Neptune by Lybia the daugh- but Reguli, defended it felf 13. years against ter of Epaphus, or were he the fon of Thele- a King of Kings, Nebuchadonofor: and that gonus, according to Enfebius; yet it is agreed Alexander the great ( who being made vithat Cecrops then ruled in Attica: and in the Ctorious by the providence of God, feemed end of Cecrops time, faith Saint Augustine, unresistable ) spent more time in the recovery Mofes left Egypt: Agenors successour living of Tyre, than in the conquest of all the Cities

Other opinions there are, as that of Bergof Zidon, I cannot doubt: neither do I deny, Jus out of Josephus, who conceives that Tyre but that he gave that Region the name of was founded by Tyrus the fon of Japhet. And Phanicia, in honour of his fon. But instead for the Region it felf, though Califthenes deof the building of Tyre and Zidon, it is pro rive it, ab arbore dactylorum; and the Greeks bable that he repaired and fortified both: from the word Phonos, of flaughter, because and therefore was called a Founder, as Se- the Phanicians flew all that came on their miramis and Nebuchodonofor were of Babylon, coasts; yet for my self, I take it that Phanix For be it true, that Agenor was of the same the son of Agenor gave it that name. But that Nation and brought up in Egypt: where he either Agenor in Phanicia, or Cadmus his fon learnt the use of Letters (Egypt flourished in in Greece, were the Inventors of Letters, it all kind of learning in Moses time) or were is ridiculous: and therefore the dispute un-

Canaan from the Israelites: who were by and others, had from them the first light of Moser led out of Egypt, to the great loss and all those Arts, Sciences, and civil Policies, dishonour of that Nation: and by Joshua which they afterwards profest, and taught conducted over Jordan, to conquer and possible the Canaanites Land. For though the E-spitians, by reason of the loss which they received by the hand of God in the Red Sea, those which inhabited neerer the out-let of and by the reason of the home home. and by the ten plagues, cast on them before Nilus, as they say, borrowed their Divinity then barbarous, received Civility. Again, when it was first discovered, there was found the Plannicians challenge this invention of written Books after the manner of those tetters and of Learning; acknowledging no- Hieroglyphicks, anciently used by the Egyptithing from the Fegptians at all; neither do ans, and other Nations: and so had those fricans; whence Lucan.

Lasm.15. Phoenices primi (fame fi creditur ) aufi Manfuram rudibus vo. em fignare figuris.

> Phonicians first (if fame may credit have) In rude Characters dar'd our words to grave.

And that Cadmus was the fon of Agenor, and was a Phænician, and not an Egyptian, it appeareth by that answer made by Zeno; when he in a kind of reproach was called a Stranger, and not a Phanician.

Liber I. Si patria est Phoenix quid tum? nam Cadmus

Phoenix ; cui debet Gracia docta libros.

If a Phanician born I am, what then? Cadmus was fo: to whom Greece owes The Books of learned men.

ancient : and from the Records and Chronicles of Tyre, Josephus the Historian confirms governed Phanicia. a great part of his Antiquities. The Thracians again subscribe to none of these reports: ruled in Juda, the Tyrians had a King apart: flourished among them: when Atlas lived of Tyre of Edom &c. as of feveral Kings. in Mauritania : Nilus and Vulcan in Egypt : all kind of learning?

and Arts flourished most, both in Fogpt and Hieremie prophesied. Affiria, and he himself was brought up in all the learning of the Egyptians, from his in-

But true it is, that Letters were invented by those excellent Spirits of the first age, and present with all his Creatures, so hath he given the same invention to divers Nations: with the other; as well in this as in many by Alexander effected the more unworthy and Philosophy: and from them the Greeks, other knowledges: for even in Mexico, they allow that Agenor and his fons were A-Americans a kind of Heraldry; and their Princes differing in Arms and Scutchions, like unto those used by the Kings and Nobility of other Nations, Jura naturalia communia, Junia.

& generalia &c. Natural laws are common, and general.

CHAP. VIII.

6. II.

of the Kings of Tyre.

DUt whatfoever remaineth of the Story Dand Kings of Phanicia (the books of Zeno, Sachonia ho, Mnascas, and others of that Nation, being no where found) the fame is to be gathered out of the Scriptures, Josephus and Theophilus Antiochenus.

Agenor lived at once with Josua, to whom fucceeded Phanix, of whom that part of Canaan, and so far towards the North as Aradus, took the name of Phanicia: what King Out of doubt the Phenicians were very succeeded Phenix it doth not appear; but at fuch time as the Grecians befieged Troy Phasis

In Hieremies time, and while Jehojakim but affirm conftantly, that the great Zamolxis for Hiereny speaketh of the Kings of Zidon, canth

In Xerxes time, and when he prepared and Ochus in Phanicia. Yea, some of the that incredible Army wherewith he invaded French do not blush to maintain, that the Greece, Tetramnestus ruled that part of Phæancient Gaules taught the Greeks the use of nicia about Tyre and Zidon: who command-Letters, and other Sciences. And do not we ed, as some Writers affirm, Xerxes Fleet, or raknow that our Bardes and Druides are as ther, as I suppose, those 300. Gallies, which ancient as those Gaules, and that they fent himself brought to his aid: for at this time it their fons hither to be by them instructed in seemeth, that the Phanicians were Tributaries to the Persian: for being broken into Re-Lastly, whereas others bestow this inven- guli, and petty Kings in Hieremies time, they tion on Moses, the same hath no probability were subjected by Nabuchodonosor 3 of whose at all 3 for he lived at such time as Learning conquests in the Chapter before remembred, Tennes, though not immediately, succeeded Tetramnestus, remembred by D. Siculus in his 14. Book.

strato, his successor, and King of Zidon, Alexander Macedon threw out, because of his before the general Flood: either by Seth or dependency upon Darius, and that his Pre-Enos, or by whom elfe God knows; from deceffors had served the East Empire against whom all wisdom and understanding hath the Grecians. But divers Kings, of whom proceeded. And as the same infinite God is there is no memory, came between Tennes and strato. For there were confumed 130. years and fomewhat more, between Xerxes whereof the one hath not had commerce and Alexander Macedon. And this man was ther submitted himself by the instigation of both pretend to write out of Menander Ehis subjects ( who foresaw their utter ruine phessus, do in no fort agree in the times of by refistance) than that he had any disposi- their reigns, nor in other particulars. tion thereunto, or bare any good affection towards the Macedonians.

1963 reporteth, that he was a man of ill living, chance that the fon of smach mentioneth in ted certain games and prizes for women- Princes of the Tyrians. dancers, and fingers, whom he to this end and delights. Of the strange accident about David complaineth, Pfal.83. the death of one Strate King of these coasts, the death of one Strate King of these coasts, the strate King of the coasts and the strate King of the coasts, the strate King of the coasts and the strate King of the coasts and the strate King of the strate King of the strate King of the coasts and the strate King of the Remail. having heard that the Persians were neer mus sometimes Hieromus but Tatian and Zohim with an Army too weighty for his naras, Chiram. He entred into a league with ftrength, and finding that he was to hope for David, and fent him Cedars, with Maious and little grace, because of his falling away from Carpenters, to perform his buildings in Hiethat Empire, and his adhearing to the Egyp- rusalem, after he had beaten thence the Jebutians he determining to kill himself, but fain- fites. The same was he that so greatly affished ting in the execution, his wife being prefent, solomon: whom he not only furnished with wrested the Sword out of his hand, and slew Cedars, and other Materials towards the raihim: which done, the also therewith pierced sing of the Temple, and with great sums of her own body, and died.

the other Strato driven thence, he gave the and furnished Solomon with Marriners and though otherwise a wise man, and exceeding ans. Hiram lived 53. years.

Popular or Aristocratical: and by times and Josephus. turns subjected to the Emperours of the East, Abdastartus the eldest son of Ealeastartus, there remaineth no further memory of them, governed 9. yeares, and lived but 2c. years, than that which is formerly delivered in the according to Josephus: but after Theophilus Tribe of Affer.

Samuels time, it doth not appear: Josephus the eldest of them held the Kingdom 12. the Historian, as is said, had many things years. and Theophilus Antiochenus, there may be ga- 12. years.

of reftitution, because (saith Curtius) he ra- Tyrians; but these Authors, though they Abibalus is the first King of the Tyrians, that Josephus and Theophilus remember, whom Of this Strate, Athenaus out of Theopompus Theophilus calls Abemalus : the fame perand most voluptuous; also that he appoint his forty and fixth Chapter, speaking of the Cap. 46.

To this Abibalus Suron succeeded, if he be Pren E. chiefly invited, and affembled: that having not one and the same with Abibalus. David vang Ly. beheld the most beautiful and lively among (faith Eulebius out of Eupolemus) constrained them, he might recover them for his own use this Suren to pay him Tribute, of whom also money, but also he joyned with him in his After Alexander was possest of Zidon, and enterprize of the East India, and of Ophir: Kingdom to Hephaftion to dispose of: who Pilots: the Tyrians being of all Nations the having received great entertainment of one most excellent Navigators; and lent him 120 of the Citizens, in whose house he lodged, talents of gold. Of this Hiram, there is not core. offered to recompence him therewith; and onely mention in divers places of Scripture, 2 Same, 5 willingly offered to establish him therein: but in fosephus in his Antiquities the 7. and 1 Kin. 1.9 but this Citizen, no less vertuous than rich, 8. Chap. 2.& 2. in Theophilus his third book, 1 Chro. 14. defired Hephaftion that this honour might in Tatianus his Oration against the Greeks : 2 chr. 2.3, be conferred on some one of the blood and and in sonaras, Tome the first. This Prince 9. race of their ancient Kings: and prefented feemeth to be very mighty and magnificent, unto him Balonymus, whom Curtius calls Ab- he despited the 20. Towns which Solomon dolominus, Justine, Abdolomius, and Plutarch, offered him : he defended himself against Alynomus: who at the very hour that he was that victorious King David: and gave his called to this regal Estate, was with his own daughter in marriage to Solomon, called the hands working in his Garden, fetting herbs Zidonian: for whose sake he was contented and roots, for his relief and sustenance: to worship Aftaroth, the Idol of the Phanici-Baleastartus, whom Theoph. Antiochenus cal- 1 Kin. 11. These were the ancient Kings of Zidon: leth Bazorns, succeeded Hiram King of Type Timb 17, whose estate being afterwards changed into and Zidon and reigned 7 years according to he reigned 12. years, and lived 54. who be-The Kings of Tyre, who they were before ing flain by the four fons of his own Nurse, wherewith he garnished his Antiquitles from Aftartus brother to Abdastartus, recovered the Tyrian Chronicles: and out of Josephus the Kingdom from this Usurper, and reigned thered a descent of some twenty Kings of the Affarimus, or Atharimus, after Theophilus, a Joseph 54.

CHAP. VIII.

9. years, and lived in all 54.

brother to the three former Kings, flew A- years together, ere he prevailed. (tarimus, and reigned 8. moneths, and lived

50. Years.

Eadezor, or Bazor, the fon of Ithobalus, or reign Cyrus began to govern Perfia. Ethbaal, brother to Jezebel, succeeded his Father, and reigned 6: years, and lived in Foleph 6.

Alettimus succeeded Badezor, and reigned Joseph. but 9. years (faith Jefephus) he had two fons, Theoph. 9 Promalion and Barca, and two daughters, Elifa and Anna.

Premalion reigned after Mettimus his Father 40. years, and lived 56. In the feventh year of whose reign, Elisa failed into Africa, and built Carthage, 143. years and 8. moneths after the Temple of Solomon : which by our accompt was 289. years after Troy was ta- discourse of divers other Nations, there is ken, and 143. before Rome: and therefore one Bozius that hath written a Tract at that fiction by Virgil of Eneas and Dido must large, intituled, Deruinis Gentium. And albe far out of square. For Pygmalion, covetous though the great and many alterations of Sicheus hisriches, who had married his found in this and other Cities, yea, in all fifter Elifa, flew him traiteroufly as he ac- things under heaven, have proceeded from companied him in hunting: or if we believe his ordinance, who onely is unchangeable, Justine and Virgil, at the Altar: whereupon and the same for ever; yet whereas the said Virgit.l.,1. Elifa fearing to be dispoiled of her husbands Bozius, inforcing here-hence, that the prospetreasure, fled by Sea into Africa, as afore-faid: whom when Pygmalion prepared to pursue, he was by his mothers tears, and by gion; to prove this his affertion, supposeth threats from the Oracle arrested. Barca active Tyrians to have been Edumeans, defeencompanied his sister, and assisted her, in the ded from Esau, Jacobs brother: first, it can erection of Carthage: and from him sprang hardly be believed, that Tyre, when it flouthat noble Family of the Barca in Africa, of rished most in her ancient glory, was in any furname of Solomon.

but in vain.

large in his 28. Chapter: out of whom it Sea, in which there were three Illands, called third brother, followed Astartus, and ruled | was gathered, that this Prince died, or was flain in that long fiege of Nabuchodonofor : Phelles the fourth fon of Baleastartus, and who surrounded and attempted Tyre 13.

Baal followed Ethobales, and reigned to. years a tributary, perchance, to Nabuchodono-Hhobalus (or Juthobalus, in Theophilus) for: for after his death, it was governed by fon to the third brother Aftarimus, who was divers Judges, succeeding each other: First the chief Priest of the Goddess Aftarta, which by Ecnibalus, then by Chellis, Abarus the was a dignity next unto the King, revenged Pricft, Mittonus, and Gerafius, who held it athe death of his father, and flaughtered his mong them some 7. years, and odd moneths: Toloph 31 Uncle Phelles: and reigned 32. years; the after whom Balatorus commanded therein fame which in the first of Kings, chap. 16. is as a King for one year: after him Merbalus called Ethbaal, whose daughter Jezebel Achab, sent from Babylon, 4. years: after him Irom, fent thence also, 20. years. In the 17. of whose of Bozius his conceit, that the Edumaans inhabiting along the Red Sca, were the Progenitors of the Tyrians, and that the Tyrians from them received and brought into Phonicia the knowledge of the true God.

6. III.

F the great mutations of this Kingdom and State of the Tyrians, mixed with a which race descended many famous Cap- fort truly devout and religious. But to this but if tains, and the great Hannibal. Servius inter- end(besides the proof which the Scriptures 1.5.47. prets this name of Dido by Virago, because of give of Hirams good affection when Solomon her man-like acts: others from Jedidia, a built the Temple) he brings many conjectural arguments; whereof the strongest is their Eluleus succeeded Pygmalion, and reigned pedigree and descent; it being likely in his 36. years: the same that overthrew the opinion, that the posterity of Esau received Fleet of Salmanaffer, in the Port of Tyre: from him by Tradition the Religion of Anotwithstanding which he continued his braham and Isaac. That the Tyrians were fiege before it on the Land fide five years, Edumeans, he endeavours to fhew, partly by weak reasons, painfully strained from some After Eluleus, Ethobales governed the Ty- affinity of names, which are arguments of rians, who vaunted himself to be as wife as more delight than weight: partly by autho-Daniel: and that he knew all secrets ( faith rity. For Strabo, Herodotus, Pliny, and others, Ezekiel) of whom the Prophet writeth at witness, that the Tyrians came from the Red

Torns, Aradus, and Sidon: which very names Such the City of Bildad the Subite; as both (as he thinketh) were afterwards given to fuch Chorographers who best knew those the Cities of Phanicia. Confidering there- parts, do plainly flew, and the holy Text for that all the coast of the Red Sea, was maketh manifest. For Job is said to have ex-(in his opinion) under the Edumeans: as ceeded in riches, and Solomon in wisdom: Elah and Estongabar; or under the Amale- all the people of the East; not the Inhabi-Lites, who descended of Amales the Nephew tants of Mount Seir, which lay due South of Elan, whole chief City was Madian, so from Palestina. True it is, that Eliphaz the called of Madian the fon of Abraham by fon of Ffan had a fon called Teman; but that Cethura, whose posterity did people it: the fathers were wont in those dayes to take consequence appears good (as he takes it) name of their sons, I no where find. And that the Tyrians originally were Edomites: Ismael also had a son called Thema: of whom differing little or nothing in Religion from it is not unlike, that Theman in the East had the children of Ifrael. Hereunto he adds, the name: for as much as in the 7. Chapter that Cadmus and his Companions brought of the Book of Judges, the Midianites Amanot into Greece the worship of Aftartis, the lekites, and all they of the East are called Idol of the Sidonians. That the Parents of Ismaelites. And he that well confiders how themselves differed much in their Philoso-durst give battel to the Host of Is ael, where-males of Edom: neither was it for their de- Egypt. votion to God, and good affection to Ifrael, But conjectural Arguments, how probathat the Edomites were so ill intreated. It ble soever, are needless in so manifest a case. feemeth that the piety and ancient wifdom For in the 83. Ifalm, Edom, Amalec, and Tyre, of Eliphaz the Themanite was then forgotten, are named as distinct Nations: yeathe Tiriand the Edumans punished, for being such ans and sydonians being one people, as all as David in his own dayes found them. Al- good Authors shew, and Eozius himself conthough indeed the City of Teman whence felleth, were Canaanites, as appears, Gen. 1c. Eliphaz came to reason with Job, is not that it, and 19. appointed by God to have been in Edimmea, but another of the same name, destroyed, and their Lands given to the lying East from the Sea of Galilee, and adjoing East from the Unit, the country of Job: and to Idolaters, and of the cursed seed of Carnan, Thales and Pherecydes being Phanicians, great and strong a Nation Amalec was, which phy from the Idolatrous cultoms of the in were 600000, able men, will hardly be-Greeks. That in Teman, a Town of the Edu- lieve that fuch a people were descended means, was an University, wherein, as may from one of Esan his grand-children. For how appear by Eliphas the Temanite, who difpu- powerful and numberless must the forces of ted with Job, Religion was fincerely taught. all Edom have been: if one Tribe of them, Such is the discourse of Bozius, who la- yea, one Family of a Tribe had been so bouring to prove one Paradox by another, great? furely Mount Seir and all the Regideserves in both very little credit. For nei- ons adjoyning could not have held them. ther doth it follow, that if the Tyrians were But we no where find that Edom had to do Edumeans, they were then of the true Reli- with Amalec, or affifted the Amalekites, when gion, or well affected to God and his people: Saul went to root them out. For Amalec is neither is it true that they were Edumeans, no where in Scripture named as a Tribe of at all. In what Religion Efau brought up his Edom: but a Nation of it felf, if diffinct children, it is no where found written; but from the Imaelites. The like may be faid of that himself was a profane man, and disa- Midian, that the Founder thereof being son vowed by God, the Scriptures in plain terms to Abraham by Cethura, doubtless was no express. That his Posterity were Idolaters, Edomite. And thus much in general for all the is directly proved in the 25. Chapter of the Seigniory of the Red Sea coast, which Bozins fecond Book of chronicles. That the Edo- imagines the Edumeans to have held: if the mites were perpetual enemies to the house Edomites in after-times held some places, as of Ifrael, fave only when David and some of Elan and Estongabar on the Red Sea shore. his race, Kings of Juda, held them in fubje- yet in Mofes time, which was long after the ction, who knows not? or who is ignorant building of Tyre, they held them not. For tion, who knows not? Of who is ignorant building of them, and them not. For of Davids unfriendly behaviour amongh them, when first they were subdued? surely, all the borders of Edom: within which lit was not any argument of Kinred or Allimits had Midian stood, Mosts must needs ance between Tyrus and Mount Seir, that have known it: because he had sojourned Hiram held fuch good correspondence with long in that Country: and there had left David; even then when Joab flew all the his wife and children, when he went into not Coulins to Irael, nor preferrors of the than the Greeks, and being very ambitious, he from Religion. For though them faid, Blef would fain have purchased divine honours; fall be God that hath fait king Davida wife which his Daughters, Nephews, and others fin: we cannot infer that he was of Davids of his house obtained; but his own many elegican Princes, his confederates. Certain he had any. Thales and Pherecydes are but it is, that the Sydonians then worshipped lingle examples: Every salvage Nation

288

fime Idolatry. ing the Temple, he did it for his own ends, ledge of the true God. Onely they made receiving therefore of selomon great pro- no good mention of the Gods of Greece: vision of Corn and Oyl, and the offer of whom being newly come thither, they knew twenty Towns and V. Mages in Galilee. And not. It is no good argument to fay, that if we rightly confider things, it will appear Cadmus and Thales being Tyrians, are not that Hiram in all points dealt Merchant-like known to have taught Idolatry, therefore with Solomon. He allowed him Timber, with the Tyrians were not Idolaters. But this is which Libarus was, and yet is over pefter- of force, That Carthage, Utica, Leptis, Cadiz, ed, being otherwise apt to yould filks; as the and all Colonies of the Tyrians (of which I Andarine Silks which come from thence, and think, the Islands before mentioned in the other good Commodities. For Corn and Red Sea to have been, for they traded in all Oyl, which he wanted, he gave that which Seas) were Idolaters, even from their first behe could well spare to Selomon. Also Gold ginnings: therefore the Tyrians who plantfor Land: wherein sclomon was the wifer; ed them, and to whom they had reference, who having get the Gold first, gave to Hi- were so likewise. rum the went Villages that he had : with which the grian was ill pl. afed. But it was on-wards is acknowledged by Bozius, who a necessary policy which inforced Tyrus to would have us think them to have been hold league with Ifrael. For David had fub- formerly a strange kind of devout Edomites. dued Moah, Ammon, Edom, the Aramites, In which fancie he is so peremptory, that he and a great part of Arabia, even to Euphra- stileth men of contrary opinion, Impios petes: thorow which Countries the Tyrians liticos, as if it were impiety to think, that on Camels, to their Fleets on the Red Sea, have not known his Name, doth favour Vertheir Trade.

frruments of pleasure.

Religion. The Turk hath taid as much of misfortunes beguiled him of fuch hopes, if Aliaroth; and drew solomon also to the hath some wisdom excelleth the Vulgar, even of civil people. Neither did the moral Whereas Hiram aided solomon in build- wildom of these men express any true know-

This their Idolatry from Solomons time were wont to carry and re-carry their Wares God (who even among the Heathen, which and back again to Ijrus: fo that Solomon tue and hate Vice) hath often rewarded being Lord of all the Countries through moral honesty, with temporal happiness. which they were to pals, could have cut off Doubtless, this doctrine of Bezius would better have agreed with Julian the Apostata, But the Ifraclites were no Sea-men, and than with Cyril. For if the Affyrians, Greeks, therefore glad to there with the Tyrians in Romans, and all those Nations of the Gentheir adventures. Yet Solomon, as Lord of the tiles, did then prosper most, when they drew Sea-towns which his Father had taken from nearest unto the true Religion: what may the Philithims, might have greatly diffrested be said of the foul Idolatry which grew in the Tyrians, and perhaps have brought them Rome as fast as Rome it self grew: and was even into subjection. Which Hiram know- enlarged with some new superstition, almost ing, was glad (and no marvel) that Solomon upon every new victory? How few great rather meant, as a man of peace, to imploy battels did the Romans win, in which they his Fathers Treasure in magnificent Works, vowed not either a Temple to some new than in pursuing the conquest of all Syria. god, or some new honour to one of their old Therefore he willingly aided him, and fent | gods? yea, what one Nation, fave onely him cunning workmen, to increase his de- that of the Jews, was subdued by them, light in goodly Buildings, Imageries, and in- whose Gods they did not afterward entertain in their City? Onely the true God, As these pailages between Solomon and which was the God of the Jews, they reject-Hiram, are no fireng arguments of piety in ed, upbraiding the Jews with him, as if he the Tyrians: fo those other proofs which were unworthy of the Roman Majesty : shall Bozins frames negatively upon particular we hereupon enforce the lewd and foolish examples are very weak. For what the Re- conclusion which Heathen Writers used aligion of Cadmus was, I think, no man knows. gainft the Christians in the Primitive Church: It feems to me, that having more cunning That fuch Idolatry had caused the City of Rome to flourish, and that the decay of those in their own brains any strange Chimera's of abominations did also bring with it the de- Divinity, condemnal such in the pride of cay of the Empire? It might well be thought their zeal, as Atheifts and Infidels, that are Religion. Such is the blind zeal of Bozin, who writing against those whom he fallly dogs are oftentimes incouraged by those, terms impious, gives strength to such as are who having the command of many tongues, impious indeed. But such indiscretion is when they themselves cannot touch a man ufually found among men of his humour; in open and generous opposition, will wound who having once either foolifhly embraced him fecretly by the malicious vertue of an the dreams of others, or vainly fashioned Hypocrite.

CHAP. IX.

CHAP. IX.

Of the Tribe of Ephraim, and of the Kings of the ten Tribes, whose head was Ephraim.

6. I.

of the memorable places in the Tribe of Ephraim.

was the second son of Joseph, whose issues nothing but a few Cottages filled with Grewhen they left Egypt were in number 45000. cian Monks. all which dying in the Defarts, (Josua excepted)there entred the Holy Land of their tween Manasse and Benjamin: who bounded with which he seduced the Israelites. Ethraine by the North and South; as fordan, and the Mediterran Sea, did by the East and West.

tain somron, which overlooketh all the Damascens a third time cast it down. bottom, and as far as the Sea-coast. It was remembred in the Scriptures: and magnifi- And under it Bethoron of the Levites, built cent it was in the first building; for as Bro- as it is said by Sara, the daughter of Ephraim. chard observeth, the ruines which yet remain, and which Brochard found greater threw Seron and Lysias, Lievtenants to Antiothan those of Hierusalem, tell those that be- chus. This City had Solomon formerly rehold them, what it was when it frood up- paired and fortified. right: for to this day there are found great ftore of goodly Marble pillars, with other Samir, of which Jos. 10. and Saron, whose hewen and carved from in great abun- King was flain by Josua: it is also mentioned dance, among the rubble.

Aving now past over Pha- It was beaten to the ground by the sons nicia, we come to the next of Hircanus the high Priest: restored and Territory adjoyning, which is built by the first Herod the son of Antipater: that of Ephraim: fometimes who to flatter Casar called it Sebaste. Heretaken per excellentiam, for the in were the Prophets Helifaus and Abdias whole Kingdom of the ten Tribes. Ephrain buried: and so was John Baptist. It now hath

Near Samaria towards the South, is the hill of Bethel, and a Town of that name: on children grown to be able men, 32500. who the top of which mountain Jeroboam erected fate down on the West side of Jordan; be- one of his golden calves, to be worshipped:

In fight of this Mountain of Bethel, was Sichar. job. that ancient City of Sichemsafter the reftau- 4,50 ration called Neapolis, now Pelofa, and Napo- Joseph. 11. The first and chief City which Ephraim lasa: It was destroyed by simeon and Levisan. 1. had, was Samaria, the Metropolis of the King- in revenge of the ravishment of their sister dom of Ifrael, built by Amris or Homri King Dina: and after that by Abimelec evened with thereof, and feated on the top of the Moun- the foil. Jeroboam raised it up again: and the Under Sichem toward the Sea Standeth Judginits afterward called Sebaste, or Angusta, in ho- Pharaton or Pirhathon, on the Mountain A. 2 King 139 nour of Angust. Casar. This City is often malec, the City of Abdon Judge of Israel.

> Betweeen Bethoron and the Sea, flandeth 70,12.18; Ads 9.35. and of this Saron the Valley tato the ground by the Romans, those Ravens it had a Bishop Suffragan. and spoilers of all Estates, disturbers of Com- Neer to Lidda or Diaspolis standeth Ra-most and lavage barbarous Nations.

beheaded and buried: in whose honour and bulon, which they say, adjoyneth to sephomemeny infinian the Emperor caused a fair ris; a fourth, which they make the same Church to be built over his Tombe; thefe with silo; and a fifth, which is this Rama, in be Tyring his words: Relicta a dextris locis the hills of Ephraim, called Rama-Suphim, maritimis Antipatride, & Joppe, per late pa- where Samuel lived, and wherein he is bu-St George tentem planition Flutheriam pertranseuntes, ried. Liddam quæ eft Diospolis, ubi & egregii Martyris Georgii usque hodie Sepulchrum oftendi- are Helon,or Ajalon of the Levites, of which Book, ch. 7 tur, pervenerunt, ejus Ecclesiam quum ad hono- 1 Chron. 6. Apollonia, of which Josephus in his Joppe, palling over the great open Plain of E- lifba, findeth it in Benjamin. lutheria, came to Lidda, which is Diospolis: On the other side of the Mountains of where the sumptuous Tomb of the famous Mar- Ephraim Standeth Gosna, one of the Topartyr S. George is at this day shewed; whose chies or Cities of government, the second in thurch when the godly and orthodox Prince of dignity, of which the Country about it tathe Roman, High and mighty Justinian, had keth name.

keth name, which beginning at Cofarea Pa- of Genius, How long shall this Sepulchre stand? lefting, extendeth it felf alongle the coast as occasioned the uprore of the people against far as Toppe, faith Adrichome : though indeed him: as fearing least he would give attempt the name Sarons is not particularly given to overthrow that beautiful Temple. This to this Valley, but to every fruitful plain Re- also Marcellinus reports; who though he fav gion: for not onely his Valley is to called, that this Georgius was also deadly hated of to wit between Cefare, and Joppe, but that the Christians, who else might have rescued also between the Mountain Tabor and the him: yet he addeth, that his ashes, with the Sca of Galilee: for fo S. Hierome upon the alhes of two others, were therefore cast into five and thirtieth Chapter of Flay, interprets the Sea. lest if their Reliques had been gathe word Saron: and fo doth the same Fa- thered up, Churches should be built for ther in his Commentaries upon Abdia, read them, as for others. But for my part, I rather Saron for Allaron: understanding thereby a think that it was not Georgius, whose name Plaine neer Lidda: which Lidda in his time lives in the right honourable order of our was called Diospolis, or the City of Jupiter, Knights of the Garter, but rather another. one of the Toparchies of Judaa, the fift in whom Tyrius abovecited witneffeth to have dignity (or the third after Pliny) where S. been buried at Lidda or Diospolis. The same Luke 13. Peter (non fua, fed Christi virtute) cured #- also is confirmed by Vitriac. S. Hierome affirms saguan Sign.com. near. N ger calls all that Region from Anti-that it was sometime called Tigrida, and 664. libanus to Joppe, Sarona. This Joppe was burnt while the Christians inhabited the Holy Land.

mon-weales, usurpers of other Princes King- matha of the Levites, or Aramathia: afterdoms; who with no other respect led than ward Rama, and Ramula, the native City of Steinle to applific their own glory, troubled the ofeph, which buried the body of Christ. There Tribe of whole world: and themselves, after murde- are many places which bear this name of Boojamin are many places which bear this name of the things are many places. ring one another, became a prey to the Rama; one they fet in the Tribe of Inda neer fet. Thecua in the way of Hebron; another in In Diaspolie (faith Wil. of Tyre) was S. George Nephtalim, not far from Sephet; a third in Za-

From hence to the North alongst the coast rem cjusdem Martyris, pius & orthodoxus Antiquities, and in the wars of the Jews. Also Princeps Romanorum, Augustus Justinianus Balfalifa for which Junius, 2 Reg. 4.42. reads Ants. multo studio & devotione prompta adificari planities Shalista) they place hereabout in 31. detail. praceperat, c.c. They having left (faith he) on this Tribe of Ephraim; but Junius upon 1. the right hand, the Sea Towns, Antipatris and Sam. 6. where we read of the Land of Sha-commanded to be built, with great earnestness Then Thamnath-Sarah, or according to the and present devotion, &c. Thus far Tyrius : by Hebrew, Thimnath-Serach : one also of the whose testimony we may conjecture that ten Toparchies, or Prasidencies of Judaa, which Jule : this S. George was not that Arrian Bishop of they call Thamnitica, a goodly City, and Thimad Alexandria; but rather some better Christi- strong, seated on one of the high Hills of E-chant. an : for this of Alexandria was flain there in phraim; on the North of the Hill called Gaas; 70/9 10 an uprore of the people, and his afhes cast which City and Territory Israel gave unto into the Sea, as Ammianus Marcellinus re- their Leader Josua; who also amplified it ports. And yet also it may be, that this Geor- with buildings, neer which he was buried. gins was a better Christian than he is com- His Sepulchre remained in S. Hieroms time, without it Library monly thought: for his words of the Temple and over it the Sun engraven, in memory of loin History wrought in 'Josua's time.

thouland lews overthrew the Army of Ni- City of Samuel.

many years, till the Philiftims got it.

Ratters now called Byra.

prophefied; and neer it Ephron, one of those his father-in-law. Cities which Abijab recovered from Jerobo-Chetzron, ver 25.

lee King:adding that for the building thereof the fustained her life. with other Cities, Solomon raised a Tribute upon the people. But it feems that Mello, or Millo is a common name of a ftrong Fort or Then I. Cittadel: and fo Junius, for domus Millo. Of the Kings af the ten Tribes, from Jeroboam reads incola munitionis, and for Solomo adifiresearch cavit Millo, he reads adificabat munitionem,

F the first Kings of Ifrael I omit in this sales and fothe Septuagint read it the days in that Pplace to speak, and reserve it to the Catranspace. And without doubt the Millo which talogue of the Kings of Juda: of whom ham ne. Solomon built, cannot be that of Sichem, but hereafter. another in Hierusalem.

Taphnach, whose King was slain by Josua; and sion from Juda and Benjamin, now it follow-Janoach, or Janoah, spoiled by Teglasphalassar: eth to speak. The first of the Kings Jero-2 Ning 15 Pekab then governing Ifrael, with divers boam the fon of Nebat, an Ephrathite, of Zere-Mizzas others, but of no great fame. The Mounda, who being a man of strength and coutains of Ephraim sometime significe the greatrage, was by Solomon made overseer of the test part of the Land of the sons of Joseph, on buildings of the Munition in Hierusalem, for the West of Jordan: several parts whereof as much as belonged to the charge of the that greatest of wonders which God 16.24. * the Hill of Gahas, Judg. 2.9. the Hill . Also the of Tfalmon, or Salmon, Judg. 9.48. the Hills of till of In the places adjoyning standeth Adarsa, the Region of Tsuph, or Tsophim, Judg. 9. 5. Where 6or Addle, where Judas Machabaus with three where Rama-Tophim flood, which was the larger the ennor, Lievtenant of Spria; neer to Gaser, or The great plenty of fruitful Vines upon sense as Gezer, which Jassus took, and hung their the sides of the Mountains, was the occasion based, King; a City of the Levices. It was after- that Jucob in the spirit of prophecy, Gen. 49. And the ward taken by Pharaoh of Egypt; the peo- 22. compared Josephs two branches, Ephraine two tops ple all flain, and the City razed 5 solomon re- and Manaffe, to the branches of a fruitful of Hills, Vine planted by the Well fide, and spreading where the To the Eaft of this place is the Frontier City her (a) Daughter branches along the Wall: bledings of J fleti, of which Jof, 16.3. otherwise rele- which Allegory also Ezek, 22. in his Lamer- where the the, whence David had part of his Pratorian tation for Ephraim (that is, for the ten Tribes, endings Souldiers, under the charge of Benaia, Then whose head was Ephraim) prosecutes as also were toke readoute that high and famous Mountain and City of in his Lamentation for Juda, he followeth people; of silo, whereon the Ark of God was kept fo the other Allegory of Jacob, Gen. 49.9. comparing Juda to a Lion. Upon the top of one 27. & Jof. To this they joyn the City of Muchmas, or of the highest of these Hills of Ephraim, 8 Michmas: in which for athan Machabaus in- which overlooketh all the Plains on both at feenhabited, a place often remembred in the fides of fordan, they find the Castle called Jacob in 1 gary 4. Scriptures. It standeth in the common way Dok: which they make to be the same with this profrom Samaria towards Hierufalem: and is Dagon, of which Josep. 1. bell. Jud. 2. in which rather u-Caftle as it is I Mac. 16. Ptolomy most traite- feth the Then the Village of Naioth where Saul roully at a banquet, flew Simon Macchabeus word

Among the Rivers of this Tribe of Ephra-thestheres am; after the great overthrow given him. im, they name Gaas, remembred in the second more Then Kimbtfaim, of the Levites, of which Jof. of Samuel, c.23. v. 30. where though Junius Plainly 21.22. which Junius thinks to be the fame read, Hiddai ex una vallium Gahass: yet the Colonies with Jokmeham, of which I Chro. 6.28. As for Vulyar and Vatablus read Giddai, of the ri-which Absaloms Baalasor, which they find hereabout, ver of Gaas. Also in this Tribe they place the in the Junius reads it, in the Plain of Chatzor; and river of Carith, by which the Prophet Elias phrase are jumble 1 tasts in the Tribe of Juda; as Jof. 15. we abode during the great drought: where he called read of two Chatzors in that Tribe; one neer was (b) fed with the Riavens: and after that of the Me-Kedesh, ver. 23. and the other the same as the River was dried up, he travelled (by the repolit: Spirit of God guided) towards Sidon: where as in Jo-In this Tribe also they find the City of he was relieved by the poor widdow of Za-elsewhere Mello; whose Citizens, they say, joyned with repta, whose dead son he revived and increa-citen the Sichemites in making the Bastard Abime- sed her pittance of Meal and Oil: whereby 17.6.

to Achab.

Touching the acts of the Kings of the ten The other Cities of mark in Ephraim, are Tribes, but briefly, beginning after the diviare the Hill of Samrom, or Samaria, I Reg. Tribes of Ephraim and Manaffe: and so many above in

the Edumaan, when he was carried young 'twenty years and died. into Egypt from the fury of David, and his To Baasha succeeded Ela his son, who at to shake the Kingdom of Judea, that him-fulfilled. ail the fooils which David took from Ada- inforc't him to burn himself.

upon the people to worthip (an imitation of the E- two children, Achab and Athalia. birt chap gyptian Aris, faith S. Ambrose, or rather of Epitle to Jarons Calf in Horeb :) further he made ele-Crion of his Priefts out of the basest and unlearned people. This King made his chief Sear and Palace at sichem: He despited the Of Achab and his Successors, with the captivity warning of the Indaan Prophet, whom Jofephus calleth sidon, and Glycus Joel: his hand thereafter withered and was again restored: but continuing in his Idolatry, and hardenposterity.

King of Juda, and died after he had gover- He suffered Jezabel to kill the Prophets of reigned in his stead: so Nadab lived King but of Jezabel.

after the partition, made war with Afa King for which, the Prophet (whom Glycas calleth of thems a rought in those works. During of Juda: he seated himself in Thersa: and for which time as he went to Hierafalen, he en- tified Rama against Juda, to restrain their excountered the Prophet Ahijah: who made cursions. Hereupon Afa entertained Benhadad him know that he was by God deftined to of Damsfeus against him, who invaded Negbe King of liveland to command ten of the thalim, and destroyed many places therein: twelve tribes. After this, fearing that those the mean while Afa carried away the matethings might come to solomons knowledge, rials, with which Baasha intended to fortifie he fled into Egypt to Shiflak, whom Eufebius Rama: but being an Idolater, he was threatcalleth ofocheres, whose Daughter he mar- ned by Jehn the Prophet, that it should beried: the Predecetior of which shiftak (if fall his race, as it did to Jeroboam: which not the same ) did likewise entertain Adad afterward came to pass: He ruled sour and

Captain Joab; which Adad the King of a feast at his Palace of Thersa, was in his cups Egipt married to his Wives fifter Taphnes; Ilain by Zambris, after he had reigned two uting both him and Jeroboam as instruments years: and in him the prophesic of Jehn was fell might the capiller spoilit, as he did: for Zambris succeeded Ela, and assumed the in the fifth year of Rehohoam, Shifhak fack't name of a King feven daies; but Ambris in 18 months the City of Hierufalem, and carried thence revenge of the Kings murder, fet upon Zamall the treasure of David and Solomon, and bris, or Zimri, and inclosed him in Therfa, and dezor of Soha, with the prefents of Tohu, King | Ambris or Homri fucceeded Ela, and transof Hamath, which were of an inestimable serred the Regal seat from Thersa to Sa- t Kircus maria: which be bought of shemer, built, This lerobeam after the death of Solomon and fortified it. This Ambris was also an became Lord of the ten Tribes: and though Idolater no less impious than the rest: and he were permitted by God to govern the therefore subjected to Tabrenmon King of sfraclites, and from a mean man exalted to Syria, the father of Benhadad, according to that State: yet preferring the policies of the Eusebins, Nicephorus, and Zonaros: but how world before the service and honour of God this should stand, I do not well conceive; see-(as fearing that if the Tribes under his rule ing Benhadad the fon of Tabremmon was inthould repair to Hierusalem to do their usual vited by Asa King of Juda, to assail Baasha within Sacrifices, they might be drawn from him King of Ifrael, the father of Ela, who foreby degrees) he erected two golden Calves, went Ambris. This Ambris reigned twelve one in Dan, and another in Bethel, for the years, fix in Therfa, and fix in Samaria, and left of the ten Tribes.

§. 111.

Chab.or Ahab succeeded Omri, who not onely upheld the Idolatry of Teroboam, ed, upon occasion that the Prophet return- borrowed of the Egyptians: but he married ing, was flain by a Lion; Abijab makes him Jezabel the Zidonian: and as Jeroboam folknow that God purposed to root out his lowed the Religion of his Egyptian Wife: fo did Achab of his Zidonian : and crected t King, it He was afterward overthrown by Abia an Altar and a Grove to Baal in Samaria. ned two and twenty years; whom Nadab the most high God. God sent samine on the his fon fucceeded : who in the fecond year of land of Ifrael. Achab met Elias: Elias prevaihis reign, together with all the race of Jero- led in the trial of the facrifice and killed the boam, was flain, and rooted out by Baafha, who false Prophets; and afterward flieth for fear

Benhadad not long after befieged Samaria: Baasha the son of Ahijah, the third King & taken by Aehab, was by him set at liberty: fed Naboth by a false accusation to be stoned. was, Am I God to kill, and to greelife, that he Then joyning with Josaphat in the war for doth fend to heal a man of his Legrolie : adthe recovery of Ramoth, he was flain, as Mi-ding, that the Aramite fought but matter a had foretold him.

tre, Ochozias, Joram, and Jous: befides fe- promifing that he should know that there enty other fons by fundry wives and con- was a Prophet in Ifrael: and fo Naaman was Madites fell from his obedience : he bruiled but his fervant Gehazi accepted a part therehimself by a fall: and fent for counsel to of: from whence the sellers of spiritual 2 King 1.5 Feelzebub the god of Acharon. Fliah the Pro- gifts are called Gehazites, as the buyers are whet meeteth the Mellenger on the way : Simonians, of Simon Magus. and misliking that Ochozias fought help from Afterward Benhadad King of Aram, or that dead Idol,alked the Meflenger, if there Damafeus, having heard that this Prophet were not a God in Ifrael? Ochozias fendeth did discoverto the King of Ifrael whatsoetwo Captains, and with each 50, fouldiers, to ver the Aramite consulted in his secretest tring Eliah unto him, both which with their counsel fent a troop of horse to take Elisha: Attendants were confumed with fire. The all whom Elifba ftruck blind, and brought third Captain befought mercy at Eliah's them captives into Samaria: Joram then alkhands, and he spared him, and went with him ed leave of the Prophet to flay them, Elifha to the King, avowing it to the King that he forbade him to harm them: but caused them must then die; which came to pass in the se- to be fed, and sent back to their own Prince cond year of his reign.

over the walls, threatning, unless the fiege him, rooting out the whole posterity of were diffolved, that he would offer him in Abab. facrifice to his gods. Whereupon the King Jehn, who reigned after Jehoram, destroyof Edom befought those of Juda and Israel ed not onely the race of his fore-goers, but to break off the fiege for the fafety of his also their religion; for which he received a fon: which when the other Kings refused promise from God, That his feed should oc-

After this the King of Aram fent to Jo-

Affelians) reprove th him: afterward he cau-my of the Leprolic. The answer of January of quarrel against him. Elisha hearing there-He had three fons named in the Scrip- of, willed the King to fend Nauman to him; healed by washing himself seven times in o hozats succeeded his father Achab. The Jordan. Elistra refused the gifts of Naaman;

in fafety.

Jeram, the brother of Ochozias by Jezabel, The King of Aram, notwithstanding these succeeded: He allured Josaphat King of benefits, did again attempt Samaria, and Juda, and the King of Edom to affilt him a- brought the Citizens to extream famine. gainst the Moabites, who refused to pay him Joran imputeth the cause thereof to the the tribute of 20000. sheep. The three Kings Prophet Elisha. Elisha by prayer caused a wanted water for themselves and their hor-noise of Chariots and Armour to sound in fesin the Defarts. The Prophet Elisha cau- the air, whereby the Aramites affrighted fled feth the ditches to flow. The Moabites are away, and left the fiege. An act of great adoverthrown: their King flieth to Kirhara- miration, as the same is written in the second 2 Kings 7. feth, and being belieged, according to some of Kings. After this, when Azael obtained Expositors, burnt his son on the walls as a the Kingdom of Syria by the death of his facrifice, whereat the three Kings, moved Master, Joran entring upon his frontier, took with compassion, returned and left Moab, Ramoth-Gilead: in which war he received wasting and spoiling that Region. Others, divers wounds, and returned to Jezreel to as it feems with better reason, understand be cured. But whilest he lay there, Jehu (who the Text to speak of the son of the King of commanding the Army of Joram in Gilead, Edom, whom they suppose in this irruption was anointed King by one of the children of to have been taken prisoner by the Moathe Prophets sent by Elisha) surprised and bites, and that the King of Moab showed him slew both him and all that belonged unto to yield unto, and that Moab, according to cupy the Throne unto the fourth generation see his former threatning, had burnt the King on. Yet he upheld the Idolatry of Jeroboam, of Edoms son upon the Rampire, that all for which he was plagued with grievous the Affailants might discern it, the King war, wherein he was beaten by Hazael the of Edom being by this fad spectacle inra- Aramite, who spoiled all the Countries to ged, forfook the party of the other Kings, the East of Jordan: in which war he was for want of whole affiltance the fiege was flain, faith Cedrenus; whereof the Scriptures are filent. Jehn reigned 28. years.

Joachaz, or Jehoachaz the fon of Jehu fucram, to heal Naaman the Captain of his Ar- ceeded his father, whom Azael and his son a King. 233 Benhadad value.

102

jecied, leaving him onely 50, horfe, 20, cha- ach, Kedefh, Hazor, and Gilead, with all the riots, and recor. foor : and, as it is writ- Cities of Galilee, carrying them captives inten in the Scriptures, he made them like to Afgria: he was drawn in by Ackaz King dust beaten into powder. loachaz reigned of Judas, against Pekah and Rezin, the last er who when he repaired to Elifha the Pro- a third time borrow the Church-riches, and phet as he lay on his death-bed, the Prophet therewith ingaged the Affrian, who first promised him three victories over the Ara- suppressed that Monarchy of Syria and Das vites; and first commanded him to lay masers, and then of Israel: and this inviting his hand on his bow, and Elifta covered the of the great Afgrian, was the utter ruine of Kings hands with his, and bad him open both States, of Ifrael, and of Judea. Pekah the window Westward (which was to- reigned 20. years. 2 Kiss 14 Jaschaz had loft. He also overthrew Ama- with the Cuthe (inhabiting about Cutha, a ged this life for a better.

one and forty years.

reigned in his fread, governed fix moneths, and fometime the Vaffals of the Adads of being flaughtered by Menahem of the Ga- thus did this Affyrian advise himself better ten thousand talents of filver, which he ex- decayed; and thereby they gave that danverned twenty years.

Pekahiah, or Phaceia, or after Zonaras, in his place. In this Pekah's time, Phulaster, or King of Israel. Tiglat-Phylasser invaded the Kingdom of Is-

Berhadul often invaded, and in the end fub-rael, and vven Jion, Abel-Beilmaacab, Janothe Adades. For Achas being wafted by Pe-After Josephaz, Joss his fon governed Ifrael, kab of Ifrael, and by Rezin of Damaseus, did ward Damaseus ) and then shoot an arrow Then Hoshea, or Osea, who siew Pekah, bethence out. He again willed him to beat came the vallal of Salmanaffer; but hoping the ground with his arrows, who smote it to shake off the Asprian yoak, he sought aid thrice, and ceased: The Prophet then told from So, or Sua, or Sebicus King of Egypt: him, that he should have smitten five or six which being known to the Assirian, he cast times, and then he should have had so many him into prison, besieged samaria, and mavictories over the Aramites as he gave flered it: carried the ten Idolatrous Tribes throkes. And so it succeeded with Jeas, who into Nineve in Asserta, and into Rages in overthrew the Aramites in three battels, and Media, and into other Eastern Regions, and recovered the Cities and Territory from there dispersed them: and re-planted Sa-Benhadael the fon of Azael, which his father maria with divers Nations, and chiefly gia King of Juda, who provoked him to River in Persia, or rather in Arabia Descrita) make the war, whereupon he entred Hiern- and with the people Catanei bounding upfalem and facked it with the Temple. This on Syria, and with those of Sepharvajim low reigned fixteen years, and died; in (a people of sephar in Mesopopotamia upwhose time also the Prophet Elisha exchan- on Euphrates, of whose conquest Senacherib vaunteth) also with those of Ava, which Jeroboam the third from Jehn, followed were of the ancient Avins, who inhabited leas his father, an Idolater, as his predecef- the Land of the Philistims in Abrahams time, fors; but he recovered all the rest of the dwelling near unto Gaza, whom the Caphlands belonging to tirael, from Hamath which torins rooted out: and at this time they is near Libanus, to the dead Sea, and reigned were of Arabia the Defart, called Havai, willing to return to their ancient feats. Zucharias the fifth and last of the house To these he added those of chamath, or of Jehn, flain by Shallum his vaffal, who Iturea, the ancient enemies of the Ifraelites, Shallum held the Kingdom but one moneth, Damascus, which so often afficted them. And than the Romans did. For after Titus and Menahem, who took revenge of Shallum, Vespasian had wasted the Cities of Judea used great cruelty to those that did not ac- and Hierusalem, they carried the people aknowledge him: ripping the bellies of those way captive: but left no others in their that were with child. This Menahem be- places, but a very few simple labourers, being invaded by Phul, bought his peace with lides their own thin Garrisons, which soon acted by a Tribute of fifty shekels from e- gerous entrance to the Arabians and Saravery man of wealth in Ifrael. Menahem go- cens, who never could be driven thence again to this day.

And this transmigration, plantation, and Phacesia succeeded, and after he had ruled displantation, happened in the year of the two years, he vvas flain by Phaca, or Pekah world, 3292, the fixth year of Ezekiah King the Commander of his Army, vvho reigned of Juda: and the ninth of Hosea the last

A Catalogue of the Kings of the te	TRIBES. 10. Jehn		Years. Years.
6. Omri II Ye	ars. 12. Joas ars. 13. Jeroboam ars. 14. Za.barias ars. 15. Shallum ayes. 16. Menahem ars. 17. Pakabia ars. 18. Phaca cars. 19. Hosca	Reigned 41	Years. Years. Moneths. Moneth. Years. Years. Years.

CHAP. X.

Of the memorable places of Dan, Simeon, Juda, Reuben, Gad, and the other half of Manasse.

6. I.

of Dan, whereof Joppe, Gath, Accaron, Azotus, and other Towns.

62700. fighting men, all which leaving their bodies with the rest in the Desarts, there entred the Holy Land of their sons 66400. Judas Macchabans burnt the rest of the Sy-debt far. bearing arms. The first famous City in this rian Fleet: the fire and flame whereof was Tribe on the Sea-coast was Joppe, or Japho, seen at Hierusalem, 240. furlongs off. It had as in the 19. of Josua: one of the most anci- sometime a Bishops seat, saith Will. of Tyre; ent of the world, and the most famous of o- but there is no fign of it at this time, that thers on that coast, because it was the Port such a place there was. of Hierusalem. From hence Jonas imbarked After Jamnia is the City of Geth.or Gath. of the Macchabees this City received many fets it next to Egypt, of all the Philistim Cichanges: and while Judas Macchabaus go- ties, and in the place of Anthedon. But Vola-, verned the Jews, the Sprians that were garri-fon'd in Joppe, having their Fleet in the Port, his opinion 3 for Ptolomy fets Anthedon fur by Cestims the Lievtenant utterly burnt and bitation and Seminary of the Anakims, strong meda was fastned with chains: and from unto Goliath.

Ow following the coast of the thence delivered from the Sea-monster by Mediterran Sea, that portion of Perseus. This fable (for so I take it) is con-Land affigned to the Tribe of firmed by Josephus, Solinus, and Pliny. Mar- Lib. ; 115 Dan, joyneth to Ephraim, where-of I spake last: of which Fami-lhewed the bones of this Monster to the Soline 47: ly there were numbred at Mount Sinai people of Rome. S. Hierome upon Jonas cap. 9.

himself when he fled from the service of sometime Anthedon, saith Voluteran. And God towards Tharfis in Cilicia. In the time to Montanus feems to understand it. For he F 146. invited 200. principal Citizens aboard them, to the South of Joppe: and Geth was the first and cast them all into the Sea: which Judas and not the last (beginning from the North) revenged by firing their Fleet, and putting of all the great Cities of the Philistims : and the companies which fought to escape to the about fixteen miles from Jopie: where S. Hierome in his time found a great Village It was twice taken by the Romans, and of the same name. It was sometime the lia-ruined. But in the year of Christ, 1250. and Giant-like men, whom Josua could not Micheam. Lodowick the French King gave it new Wals expel, nor the Danites after him, nor any and Towers: It is now the Turks, and called of the Ifraelites, till Davids time: who flew Jaffa. There are certain Rocks in that Goliath, as his Captuins did divers others Port, whereunto it is reported, that Andro- not much inferiour in strength and statute

Roboans

Roboam the fon of Solomon rebuilt Geth : | a fair Village. And this was the last of the Ozias the fon of Amazia destroyed it again. | Sea-Towns within the Tribe of Dan. It was also laid waste by Azael King of Syria. Fulke the fourth King of Hiernfalem, built a Eastward from Azotus; and beyond the Caffle in the same place out of the old ruines. Fountain of Æthiopia, wherein Philip the A-Whether this Geth was the same that Will. of postle baptized the Eunuch, are Thorab, or Lib 21. 6. Tyre in the Holy war calls Ibiilin, I much Sarxa, and Esthaol, and between them Castra doubt : the errour growing by taking Geth Danis neer Hebron : though this place where for Anthedon.

femes, or the house of the Sun. In the fields the other also were bordering Towns beadjoyning to this City (as isthought) was tween Dan and Inda. the Ark of God brought by a yoak of two After these within the bounds of Juda, but Kine , turned loofe by the Philiftims : and belonging to the Danites, they find Gedor, or the Bethfemites prefuming to look therein, as it is 1 Mac. 15. Cedron, which Cendebaus Or ta nance of God. After which flaughter, and Macchabees overthrown. ther not the great lamentation of the people, it was Then Modin the Native City of the Macthe City it called the great * Abel, faith S. Hierome. Be- chabees : and wherein they were buried, on the great neditius Theologus findes three other Cities of whose Sepulchre the seven Marble Pillars. this name; one in (a) Nephtalim: another which were erected of that heighth, as they the field , in Juda: and another in Islachar. Hierome ferved for a mark to the Sea-men, remained which findes a fifth in Benjamin.

flone the Keeping the Sea-coaft, the strong City of the Rocaron offerethit self, sometime one of the Ark, the five Salrapies, or Governments of the Philia.

There are besides these the City of Caria-Miss the Ark, the five Salrapies, or Governments of the Phili-thiarim, that is, the City of the woods: seat-& sea, or 16th 4. in bred in many places of Scripture.

Geth, and then Accaron or Ekron. This Azo great flaughter by Judas Macchabans: and by Plam tus or Aschool, was also an habitation of the A- Lechis, whose King was slain by Josua, in the father nakims, whom Josua (b) failed to destroy, which also Amaziah was slain: The same of Phirate though he once possess their City. Herein which Senacherib took, Ezekias reigning in 29. yeers frood a fumptuous Temple, dedicated to the Juda. together, (c) Idol Dagon: the fame Idol whith fell whence the ground of it self, after the Ark see in Josua c.19 from the ver. 41. where also see seems by the Philistims carried into it is added that the Danites portion was too of the eff- their Temple: and in the second fall, it was little for their number of Families: and Albad, to utterly broken and defaced. Neer it was that therefore that they invaded Leshem, and inwit, the famous (d) Judas Macchabaus slain by Bac- habited it: which City, after amplified by part has chides and alcimus the Lievtenants of Deme- Philip, the brother of Herod Antipas, was calving peri trius. Afterward it was taken by Jonathas: led Casarea Philippi, as before, and made the this siege, and the rest of the Citizens being put to the Metropolis of Ituraa, and Trachonitis: of c ! Sam. fword, all that fled into the Temple of Da- which coasts this Philip was Tetrach: but of 5.4 d. Muss gon, were with their Idol therein confumed this City see more in Nephtalim. In this Tribe 2 1 Mace. with fire: neer which also he overthrew there are no Mountains of fame. 10 Jos. Apollonius.

The Cities which are within the Land Sampson was born , may seem by the words, Not far from Geth or Gath Standeth Beth- Judg. 18. 12. to be in the Tribe of Judah, as there were flain of the Elders seventy, and the Lievtenant of Antiochus fortified against 1 Sam 6 of the people fifty thousand, by the ordi- the Jews, and neer which himself was by the 18 many hundreds of veers after their first set-

Eben, or lonia: It was one of those that defended it yeers in the house of Aminadab: till such Sum. 6.1. Aben, which sig. self against the Danites and Idumaans. It time as David carried it thence to Hierusa-16:24.21. nifieth a worshipped Beel-zebub, the god of Hornets lem. Of this place (as they fay) was Zacharias Mai, 23. flows, to or Flies. To which Idol it was that Abaziab the son of Barachias, or Jeboiada, who was 33. In. Abaziab the son of Jarael son to enquire of his health: slain between the Temple and the Altarialso Man. 11. nifieth whose messengers Eliah meeting by the way, Vrias, whom Joachim King of Hiernsalem 13.76 mouning whole hereigness meeting by the way, or the way, whole because the mouning a see in caused them to return with a forrowful an- slaughtered, as we find in Jeremy. Many o- 12.11, a see in caused them to return with a forrowful anseph c 7 fwer to their Master. This City is remem- ther places which they place in this Tribe, 19. rather, as I take it, upon prefumption than Christianus Schrot placeth Azotus next to warrant, I omit : as that of Caspin taken with

Of other Cities belonging to this Tribe,

It hath two Rivers or Torrents: the Nor-Gabinius the Roman rebuilt it. It had a ther-most riseth out of the Mountains of Ju-25. 00 Bishops seat while Christianity flourished in da: and passing by Modin, falleth into the cap. 18. 2. those parts. But in S. Hieroms time it was yet Sea by Sachrona. The other hath the name of Sorek or Sored, whose banks are plentiful; times it had a Bishop and after that, when it whom Sampson loved.

ş. II. THE TRIBE OF SIMEON.

der of Egypt: who being the second son of It is now called Scalone. Gabinius restored it Jacob by Lea, there were increased of that as he did Azotus and Gaza. Family while they abode in Egypt, as they Next to Afralon flood Gaza, or Cazera, red, inhabiting a small Territory on the Sea- belike he re-built it, and Gaza in the Persian mandities coast, belonging to Edumea, of which the tongue is as much to say, as Treasure. This the na first City adjoyning to Dan, was Ascalon.

in this the fire fee of Hymenaus; and that Ascalus being imploy- Caleb: but the strength of the Anakims put and Mr. Nicolaus in his History, faith Volatteran. Diodorus Siculus in his third Book remem- of the Defart.

breth a Lake neer Ascaion, wherein there hath been a Temple dedicated to Derceto, fed it, and flew five hundred Senators in the the Goddess of the Syrians; having the face! Temple of Apollo, which fled thither for Saninto this Lake, and fed and relieved by but somewhat neerer the Sea side: though Tibullus the Poet:

Alba Palæstino saneta Columba Syro.

Palestine.

It was one of the chiefest and strongest Gazara. Cities of the Philistims. It bred many learned Vol. 11 14 men (faith Volatteran, as Antiachus, Sosus, Cyg- standeth Majoma the Port of Gaza: to which rus, who wrote the story of Bithynia.

old and under to be flain. In the Christian commanded it to be called Gaza maritima.

of Vines which have no feeds or frones : the was by the Saladine defaced, Kichard King wine they yield is red, of excellent colour, of England, while he made war in the Holy tafte, and favour, &c. In this Valley of Sorek, Land, gave it a new Wall and many buildtaffe, and favour, &c. in this variety of sorer, Land, gave it a new variation and many to called from the River, inhabited Dalila ings. Fine murus cum Saladinus diruifet, Richardus Anglorum Rex infrauravit, faith Adri- meon, chomeus.

In Davids time it was one of the most renowned Cities of the Philiftims: for he nameth Gath and Ascalor onely, when he lamen. teth the death of saul and Jonathan : not The Tribe of Simeon takes up the reft speaking of the other three. Tell it not in 2 Sam 1; of the Sea-coast of Canaan, to the bor- Gath, nor publish it not in the streets of Ascalon:

were numbred at Mount Sinai, 59300. able which the Hebrews call Huzza, the Syrians, Amen, all which ending their lives in the De- zan, of Azonus as they fay) the fon of Hereufarts, there entred the Land of Promise of les. Other profane writers affirm, that it was their iffues 22200. bearing arms, who were built by Jupiter. Pomp. Mela gives the buil-"in part mixed with Juda, and in part feve- ding thereof to Cambyfes the Persian; because Gaza was the first of the five Satrapies of the Vol. 1.15 The Reguli, or petty Kings thereof, were Philiftims, and the South bound of the land breson called Ascalonita: of which Volatteran out of of Canaan towards Egypt. But this City was Xanthus, in the History of the Lydians, re- far more ancient than Cambyses, as it is proved ports, that Tantalus and Ascalus were the sons by many Scriptures. It was once taken by ed by detamus King of the Lydians, with an him from it. At fuch time as alexander Ma. Steph de him from it. Army in Spria, falling in love with a young edon invaded the Empire of Perfu, it recei-16.16. where Woman of that Country, built this City, and ved a Garrison for Darius : in despight 1 Kings 6: in upday called it after his own name: The same hath whereof it was by the Macedonians after a Tole, 13, long fiege demolished, and was called Gaza ant. 19.

Alexander Janeus King of the Jews Surpriof a Woman, and the body of a Fish: who, as ctuary: but this Gaza was not set up in the I have faid before in the story of Ninus, was same place again, to wit, on the foundations the mother of Semiramis, feigned to be cast which Alexander Macedon had overturned, Doves. And therefore was the Dove wor- the other was but two mile off. It was a shipped both in Babylonia and Syria, of which Town of great account in the time of the Machabees, and gave many wounds to the Tems, till it was forst by Simon : of which he made fo great account, as that he purpofed to reside therein himself, and in his ab-The white Dove is for holy held in Syria sence lest John his Son and Successour to be Governour. In Brochard his time it was still a goodly City, and known by the name of Brock Hill.

At the very out-let of the River of Befor, nus, Dorotheus the Historian, and Artemido- the priviledge of a City was given by the great Constantine, and the place called Con-In Ascalon, as some say, was that wicked stance, after the name of the Emperours Son. Herod born, that feeking after our Saviour, But Julian the Apoltata foon after favouring niftain.1. caused all the Male-children of two years the Gazeans, made it subject unto them, and 6.4. No.

don, defaced by Alexander Janneus, restored lad, so named I Chro. 4.29 for which Jos. 19.4. by Herod, and called Agrippias, after the name we have Eltholad. Chatzar-Susa, so named. of Agrippa, the favorite of Augustus.

the great Antiochus: and beyond it Rhino- for Gadda is Turma, and Sula Equitatus. an 19.21 cura, whose Torrent is known in the Scriptures by the name of the Torrent of Egypt, till nicles, Chorma is named, which they think to calle it the Septuagint converted it Rinocura : to dif- be the same with that of which Num.14.45. Falle F. ference it, Ff. 27. 12. giving the name of the to which the Amalekites and Canaanites pur. page of City to the Torrent that watereth it. Pliny fued the Ifraelites: But that Chorma cannot the thream calls it Rhinocolura: and Josephus Rhinocorn- be in Simeon , nor within the Mountains of teens to be sicher, ra: (a) Epiphanius reports it as a Tradition, Edumaa. For Israel fled not that way: but See in 4/ that at this place the world was divided by back again to the Camp, which lay to the fer, c.7. lot, between the three Sons of Noah.

the mar- Befor they place Gerar: which the Scripture this Tribe: fo called of the Oath between gent. (a) Exist. Placeth between Kadesh and Shur, Gen. 20.1. Abraham and Abimelec: neer unto which relad Mar. That it was need to the vide and therefore also called the City of Isaac, because he dwelt nice or in shebab, it appears Gen. 20.31. and therefore Antorus. no marvel that as elsewhere Beer-sheba, so long there. While the Christians held the 60% 10 19 sometime Gerar, be made the South bound Holy Land, they laboured much to strengthvered the prey.

City of Letters, the University, as they fay, places. or Academy of old Palastine. In Saint Hierom's The Mountains within this Tribe are few, name, as it feems, of fome of the Anakims, as vers are, Befor, and the Torrent of Egypt, called Hebron was called Orbs Arbahi. For even Shichar, as is noted in Affer. hence also were these Giants expelled. It was taken chiefly by Othoniel, incouraged by Ca-36/11.21 lebs promise of his Daughter in marriage: but that Josua and the Hoast of Israel were at the surprise, it appears Fos. 10. 39. This City Jos. 21.15. is named among those which out of Simeon and Juda were given to the Levites. And hence it feems they attribute it there were multiplied in Egypt 74600. to this Tribe.

jin, of which Jos. 19.7. which also Jos. 21.16. greeable to the greatness of this number *And also Simeon, (for which Junius thinks Hasham is were the portions allotted to Dan and Sime-

On the other fide of Befor standeth Anthe- Josua these two are distinguished) also Tho-Jos. 19.5 for which Jos. 15. we have Chatzar. Then Raphia, where Philopater overthrew Gadda, both names agreeing in fignification:

> In the same places of Josua and of the Chro-South of Edumaa, in the Defart.

Within the Land, and upon the River of The fame places also name Beersheba in (a) Engh. Freech between to the Wilderness of Beer- Hagar wandered with her son Ismael. It was Grants of Canaan. It was of old a diffinct Kingdom on this place, flanding on the border of the from the Phil/lim Satrapies: the Kings by Arabian Defart, and in the South bound of one common name were called Abimelechs; Carrain. It hath now the name of Gibelin. S. Hierome faith that afterwards it was called The other Cities of Simeon which are named Regio falutaris, the healthy Country: so that it in the places of Josua, and of the Chronicles was no marvel that Abraham and Isaac lived above noted, because they help us nothing much in those parts. Of King Afa's conquest in story, I omit them. In the time of Ezekia of the Cities about Gerar, see 2 Chron. 14.14. King of Juda, certain of this Tribe being More within the Land was Siceleg, or Tig- | strengthened in his own Territories, passed lak, which was burnt by the Amalekites, to Gedor, as it is I Chron. 4. 39. (the fame frems if when David in his flying from Saul to the place which Jos. 15.36. is called Gedera and the Lind Philiftims had left his carriages there, but Gederothaima) which at that time was inha-o: Jule David followed them over the River of Be-bited by the islue of Cham: where they seat-fifty men for, and put them to the flaughter, and reco- ed themselves: as also five hundred others of graph of this Tribe, destroyed the Reliques of Amalec this Chap Next Dabir sometime Cariath-Sepher, a in the Mountains of Edom, and dwelt in their Chine of time, it feems, it had the name of Daema: and that of sampson the chiefest: unto which Jos. 15.49. it is called Orbs Sanna: from the he carried the Gate-post of Gaza. The Ri-

6. III.

THE TRIBE OF FUDA.

F Juda, the fourth fon of Jacob by Lea, all which (Caleb excepted) perished in the Besides these, there are many others in Desarts. And of their sons there entred the Tribe of Simeon, but of less fame, as Ha- the Land of Canaan 76500. bearing arms. Ais reckoned for one of the Cities of the Le-vites, given out of the portion of Juda and terward Judaa: within the bounds whereof named 1 Chron.6.59. though * in the place of on included. And many Cities named in those Tribes, did first, as they say, belong un- beaten and put to flight: As following the to the Children of Juda: who had a kind of victory as far as Gerar, which at the same Soveraignty over them: as Succoth, Carta- time he recovered. thiarim, Lachis, Bethsemes, Thiglag, Beersheba, Not far from Jether standeth Jarmith, and others. The multitude of people within whose King was slain by Josua, and the City this small Province (if it be meted by that overturned. Next unto it is Marela the Naground given to this Tribe only) were in- tive City of the Prophet Michae: between credible, if the witnesse of the Scriptures had it and Odolla, Judas Macchabaus overthrew not warranted the report. For when David Corgias, and fent thence ten thousand Drag- 2 Matte 122 numbred the people, they were found five mas of filver to be offered for facrifice. hundred thousand fighting men.

with Arad, or Horma, which standeth in the us beautified it greatly. Then Ceila, or Keila, entrance of Judea from Idumea: whose King afterward Echela, where David sometime first surprized the Israelites as they passed by hid himself: and which afterward he delithe border of Canaan towards Moab, and vered from the affaults of the Philistims: 15/25/11.14.100k from them some spoyls, and many primeer which the Prophet Abacue was buried: 16/11.14.100k from: who being afterward overthrown by whose monument remained, and was seen the Ifraelites, the fons of Keni, the Kinfmen by S. Hierome. of Moles, obtained a possession in that Ter-

Following this Frontier towards Idumea if it fignified the City of four: because the pens is and the South, Ascensus Scorpionis, or Acrab- four Patriarchs, Adam, Abraham, Isac, and bim is placed: the next to Arad: fo called Jacob, were therein buried, but of Adam it because of Scorpions, which are said to be in is but supposed: and it is plain by the plathat place: from which name of Aerabbim, ces, Jof. 14. 14. and 15. 13. and 2c. 11. that Hierome thinks that the name of the Jopan Arbab here doth not fignific four, but that it Frontier Towns.

Hat mon, of no great fame. Turning now from Idumea towards the North, we find the Cities of Danna, Shemah, test Cities of Canaan, built seven yeers before Aman, the other Afor, or Chatfor, Behaloth, Tfoan, or Tanis, in Egypt: and it was the head and the two Sochoes: of all which fee Jof. and chief City of the Anakims, whom Caleb 15. 15. also Carioth, by Jos. 15.25. called Keri- expelled: to whom it was in part given, to Jacout of oth: whence Judas the Traitor was called wit, the Villages adjoyning, and the rest to ther chro. If-carioth, as it were a man of Carioth. Then the Levites. It had a Bishop in the Christian that this Hetham, the abode of Sampson, which Reboltimes, and a magnificent Temple built by Beiban, boam re-edified. Beyond these, towards the Helen the mother of Constantine. wee with North border, and towards Elutheropolis, is Not far hence they find Eleutheropolis, or in the City of Jethar, or Jathir, belonging to the free City, remembred often by Saint bounds of the Levites. In Saint Hierom's time it was Hierome. Then Eglon, whose King Dahir aflonged to called Jethira: and inhabited altogether fociated with the other four Kings of the A-Simon, with christians: neer unto this City was morites, to wit, of Hiernsalem, Hebron, Jarflist, 48. ment, and Zara King of the Arabiment, King of Juda, and Zara King of the Arabiwere by Josua uterly overthrough ment, who brought into the field a Million of hence the next City of fame was Emans, as Odolla, or Hadullam it felf, was an ancient Gen 38. 1. The Cities of Inda were many. But I will and magnificent City, taken by Fosica, and Joseph 19. remember the chiefelt of them: beginning the King thereof flain. Fonathan Macchaba-1 Sam 23.1

Neer it is Hebron, sometime called the Ciritory: who before the coming of the Ifrae- ty of Arbah, for which the Vulgar hath Carialites, dwelt between Madian and Amalek. tharbe: the reason of this name they give as chie, called Acrabathena, was denominated: was the name of the Father of the Giants, of which we have spoken in Manasses. On called Anakim, whose son as it seems Anak the South fide also of Iudaa they place the was: and Achiman, Shelhai, and Talmai, Cities of Jagur, Dimona, Adada, Cedes, Albana, (whom Caleb expelled, Jol. 15.) were the Jethnam, and Affor, or Chatfor, most of them fons of Anak, Num. 12.23. The name of Anak fignifieth Torquem, a chain worn for or-And then Ziph: of which there are two nament; and it feems that this Anak, inplaces so called: one besides this in the bo- riched by the spoils which himself and his dy of Juda, of which the Defart and Forrest father got, wore a chain of gold, and so got adjoyning took name: where David hid this name: and leaving the custome to his himself from Saul. After these are the Cities posterity, left also the name: so that in Laof Esron, Adar, Karkah, and Ascemuna, or time the name of Anakim may not amis be expounded by Torquati.
The City Hebron was one of the ancien-fighting men : and was notwithstanding terward Nicopolis, one of the Cities of Government Was also vernment or Prafidencies of Judaa. In fight the glorious guilt flields of Antiochus flined formerly beaten both Apollomus and 87-08 gave a third overthrow to Gorgias , Lievi-nant to Antiochus.

70/ 10 11. Mice 1 3 an earthquake, faith Eufebine. In the C. ite an times it had a Bithops feat of the Discess in Brach. 1of Cafarea of Paleftine.

From Emans toward the West Sea, there had taken him prisoner. are the Cities of Nahama, Bethdagon, and Gader, or Gedera, or Gederothains, of which, them of no great estimation ) we may pass 1 and of Gederoth, * Fof. 15, 36, and 41. Then by, until we come to the magnificent Castle ciro 139. Azecha, to which ofua followed the flaugh- of Herodium, which Herod erected on a Hill, as sabore Azecha, to which of un followed the flaughthe Tille of Turpentine, as the Vulgar readeth, I Sam. wards the Dead Sea, and adjoyning to the Jonius, 17, 2, whence (as it feems) they feat it neer Defart of Jeruel, between it and Teken, is that for is Vd. unto Soco, and unto Lebna of the Levites. Clivans floridus, where, in the time of Jeholarufalem: And next unto this flandeth Ma- one another, when they had purposed to hee s the ceda, which Jojus atterly dif-peopled.

eaung in East standeth Bethsur, otherwise Bethsura, and day after, solemnly came and blessed God Bethlor: one of the strongest and most for so strange a deliverance. fought for places in all Juda. It is feated on a Now the Cities of Juda which border the a Chinate.

gainst the Syrian Kings.

of whom David. It had also the honour to of the Presidencies thereof. thereof never end.

con faper of the same name : and therefore was this of City of Achinoan, the wife of David, the mo-Mach. 2. c. our Saviour called Bethleem Juda.

and Hiernfalem: on whose Hils adjoyning, Ifrael and Jefrael: and because the 2 Sam. 17.

of this City, Judus Muchabans (after he had like lam to of fire in the eyes of the Ferrs. The Ciry of " hezek was also neer unto Beth- See in lerm, which Adoni-Fezer commanded ; who hough to had during his reign tortur'd 70. Kings, by In the yeer 1301, it was ov turned by cotting of the joynts of their Fingers and and made them gather bread under bie: but at length the same end befeel bleefelf by the fons of Juda, after they Take

The rest of the Cities in this part (most of as saucre ter of the five Kings before named, a City of mounting thereunto with 200. Marble steps, 70f. 14. bred in the Tale great strength in the Valley of (a) Terebinth, exceeding beautiful and strong. And to early hath It revolted from the subjection of the Fews phat, the Fews stood and lookt on the Moa- : Chin :: while Foramthe fon of Josaphat ruled in Hie- bites, Ammonites, and Edomites, malfacring 16 & 16 joyn against Juda: neer which place is the On the other fide of Emans towards the Valley of bleffing, where the Jews the fourth high Hill; and therefore called Bethfur (the Dead Sea, are thefe; Aduran beautified by "Some high Hill ; and therefore called retipin (the Dead Sea, are their; Aduran Deautined by Some house on the Rock, or of firength.) It was for. Roboam: and Tsbar, which the Vulgar cal. Silvent tilled by Roboam, and afterward by Judar leth * Segor: so called because Lot in his pray Thin and Miscelahans. Lyfius forc't it: and Antiochus er for it, urged that it was but a little one: fernan-Eutapor by famine, Jonathas regained it : and whence it was called Tobar, which fignifieth e.io. fig. it was by Simon exceedingly fortified a- a little one: when as the old name was Be- roll prince lah, as it is Gen. 14. 2. In the Romans time it Harshy. Betbleen is the next unto it within fix miles had a Garrison, and was called (as they fay) 60m.19 to of Hiernsalem, otherwise Lebem: sometime Pannier: in Hierom's time, Balexona. Then Hierom in Hierom's Ephrata; which name, they say, it had of Engaddi, or Hen-gaddi, first Asasonthamar: chasfasher Calebs wife, when as it is to called by Moses neer unto which are the Gardens of Balfa-thunn. before Caleb was famous in those parts, Gen. mum, the best that the world had called opo-38, 16. Of this City was Abessan, or Ibsan balsamum: the most part of all which Trees Judge of Ifrael after Jephtab, tamous for the Cleopatra Queen of Egypt fent for out of Juthirty fons and thirty daughters begotten dea, and Herod, who either feared or loved by him. Elimelee was also a Betblemite, who Anthony her Husband, caused them to be with his wife Naomi fojourned in Moab du- rooted up, and presented unto her: which ring the famine of Juda in the time of the the re-planted neer Heliopolis in Egypt. This Judges, with whom Ruth the daughter-in- City was first taken by Chedorlaomer, and the law of Naomi returned to Bethleem : and Amorites thence expelled. It was one of the Gon. 14 ? married Booz, of whom Obed, of whom Islai, most remarkable Cities of Judea; and one be the native City of our Saviour Jefus | The rest of the Cities are many in the In- 1 Est. Mr. Christ; and therefore shall the memory land, and among them Jestrael: not that which was the City of Naboth, of which al-Hieroz in In Zabulon of Galike there was also a City ready; but another of the same name, the ther of that Ammon whom Absalom flew : al-From Betbleem some four or five mile stan- so, as some think, the City of Amasa, Absadeth Thecua, the City of Amos the Prophet: loms Lievtenant, and the Commander of his Jol. and to this place adjoyning is the City of Army. But this feemeth to be an errour Bethewaria, in the way between Bethfira grounded upon the neerness of the words something 25. Amaja's father is called an Israelite, who, est Son of Abraham, the Ismaelites: and by in the first of the Chron. 2. 17. is called an Ketura, his last wife, the Midianites. And Imaelite: indeed the Hebrew Orthography again, by Lot, Abraham's brothers fon, thefe theweth that Amasa's father is not said to be two valiant Nations of the Moubites and on, though otherwise an Ismaelite.

CHAP. X.

and Mountains: as those of Engaddi upon them descended ) these issues and alliance the Dead Sea: and the Mountains of Juda, of Abraham, all but Jacob, whose children which begin to rife by Emans, and end neer were bred in Egypt, inhabited the frontier Taphna, and these part Juda from Dan and places adjoyning. Simeon. Of others which stand single, there Esan and his sons held Idumea, which is that of Hebron, at the foot whereof was bounded Canaan on the South, Ifmael took that Oak of Mamre, where the three An- from the South-east part of the Dead Sea; gels appeared to Abraham; which Saint Hie- stretching his possession over all Arabia Perome calleth a Fir-tree, and faith, That it trea, and a part of Arabia the Defart, as far food till the time of Constantine the young- as the River of Tygris, from Sur to Havilah. er. There is also that Mountain called Col- Moab took the rest of the coast of the lis Achille, on the South of Ziph: on the top Dead Sea, leaving a part to Midian, and pafwhereof the great Herod, inclosing the old fing over Arnon, inhabited the Plains be-Caffle, crected by Jonathan Macchabeus, tween Jordan and the Hils of Abarim, or and called Malfada, garnished it with twenty seven high and strong Towers: and Ammon sate down on the North-east si therein left Armour and Furniture for an of Arnon, and possess the Tract from Rabba ble strength.

for their unnatural fins.

6. IV. THE TRIBE OF REUBEN. and his Borderers.

from Sehon King of Hesbon.

Mount Sinai 46000. who dying with the was prepared for the Ammonites. rest in the Desarts, there remained to pos- Now where it is written, that Arnon was thing of their borderers: to wit, Midian, beaten the Moabites out of the plain Coun-Moab, and Ammon, whose Land in our Writires, between Abarim and Jordan, and driters are confusedly described, and not easily ven them from Hesbon over Arnon; and this distinguished. And first we are to remember, hapned not long before Moses arrival upon that out of Abraham's kindred came mighty that border, when Vaheb governed the Moor Edom, the Idumaans: by Ismael the eld-name was Balac, the son of Zippor. And it of the City Jefrael, but an Ifraelite in Religi- Ammonites: all which being but strangers in the Land of Canaan (formerly peffelt by In this Tribe there were many high Hils the Canaanites 5 and by the Families of

Ammon fate down on the North-east fide hundred thousand men; being, as it seem- afterward Philadelphia, both within the 305.13. eth a place unaccellable, and of incompara- Mountains of Gilhead, and without them as far forth as Aroer, though in Moles time he In the Valley afterward called the Dead had nothing left him in all that Valley: for Sea , or the Lake Afphaltitis , this Country the Amorites had thrust him over the River had four Cities, Adama, Sodom, Seboim, and of Jaboc, as they had done Moab over Arnon, Nam. 21. Gomorra, descroyed with fire from Heaven As these Nations compassed fundry parts of 14. Canaan, so the border between the River of Fabor and Damasews, was held by the Amorites themselves, with other mixt Nations: all which Territory on the East side of Fordan, and on the East side of the Dead Sea, was granted by Moses to the Tribes of Ren- Gen. 14. ben, Gad, and half Manaffe; whereof that part which Moab had, was first possest by the Emims, a Nation of Giants weakned and bro-The feats and bounds of Midian, Moab, and ken by Chedorlaomer, after repulfed by the Ammon, part whereof the Reubenites wan Moabites, as before remembred. That which the Ammonites held, was the Territory and ancient possession of the Zamzummims, or Nthe other fide of the Dead Sea, Reu- Zutei, who were also beaten at the same I ben the eldest of Jacobs sons inhabited: time by Chedorlaomer, Amraphel, and the of whose children there were numbred at rest: and by them an easie way of conquest fess the Land promised 43700, bearing arms. the border of Moub, the same is to be under-But before we speak of these, or the rest that stood according to the time when Moses inhabited the East side of Jordan, some- wrote. For then had Sehon or his Ancestor Families: as by Isaac and Jacob the Nation abites. For he that ruled Moab when Moses called Israel, and afterward Jews: by Esan, past Arnon, was not the son of Vaheb, but his may be that those Kings were elective, as the Edumeans anciently were.

Now, all that part of Moab, between Arnon and fordan, as far North as Essebon, was inhabited by Reuben. And when Ifrael arrived there out of Egypt, it was in the possestion of schon of the race of Canaan by Amorens: and therefore did Jephtah the Judge Vulgar, without any shew of warrant, readof Ifrael justly defend the regaining of those eth Jethlon. The Vulgar or Hierome follownites : because (as he alledged) Moses found them in the possession of the Amorites, and not in the hands of Meab, or Ammon: who Julg. 11. (faith Jephtah) had 300. years time to reco- Ilipt into jethson. ver them, and did not : whence he inferreth, that they ought not to claim them now.

And left any should marvel why the Ammonites in Jephtahs time should make claim to these Countries: whereas Moses in the place Num. 21.v.26. rather accounts them to have been the ancient possession of the Moabites, than of the Ammonites : it is to be noftors got from the Ammonites, as much of Sekons was from the Moabites. which in this place tab's time; for fometime the one Nation, repaired, but in vain. Others fay, that these of John is senetime the other of all those borderers Springs arise out of the Hills of Macharus, faid to have been acquired the Soveraignty: and again, that in this Tribe. The like fountains are found the Am- the Ammonites. And therefore taking advan- dan: of all that part of the world the strongmonitor by tage of the time, they then fought how to est In-land City and Castle, standing upon a the place, recover it again. Yet at such time as Moses Mountain every way unaccessible. It was Deat att overthrew Schon at Jahaz, the Ammonites first fortified by Alexander Jannaus, who provestnate against to the Amorites all that part of their made it a frontier against the Arabians; but as Schon possession which lay about Aroer, and be- it was demolished by Gabinius in the war from Arnon unto Jaboc, even unto the chilof Jabee was the South bound of Ammon within the Mountains, when as anciently they had also possessions over Jaboc, which via, the mother of Tiberius Casar. at length the Gadites possest, as in the thirteenth Chapter of Josua, verse twenty five, it appears.

| II.

Of the memorable places of the Renbenites.

"He chief Cities belonging to Reuben were these, Kedemoth, for which the Jin ... Countries against the claim of the Ammo- ed the Septuagint, those two Verses, 26. and 37. in Fol. 22. being wanting in the old Hebrew Copies, and the Septuagint read Kedfon for Kedmoth, which Kedson by writing

This City which they gave to the Levites, Destaye imparts her name to the Defart adjoyning : It was a from whence Moses sent his Embassage to marginal sehon. In the same place of Josua, where this Dean 3. Kedemoth is mentioned, the Vulgar for Betfer where the & villa ejus , reads Bosor in solitudine Mijor, Sept. ken the word without any ground from the Hebrew : Mifor, lig. whence Adrichomius makes a Town called nitying ted, that Deut. 3. 11. when it is said that the Misor, in the border between Reuben and which st. Iron bed of Og was to be feen at Rabbath, the Gad. Farther from Kedemoth, near the Dead in Curpt chief City of the Ammonites, it is also fignified, that much of the Land of og, which the tainous, hath few Cities ) they place two Jost 17.00. Ifraelites possessed, was by him or his Ance- Towns of note, Lafa or Lejhafb, of which Ge-c. 9.0 nesis 10. The Greeks call it Callirhoe: anesis 10. near which there is a Hill from whence there is Gen. And as the Canaanite Nations were leated floweth Springs both of hot and cold, bitter folants Joint to confusedly together, that it was hard to and sweet water; all which soon after their top 14 or nones that diffinguish them; so also were the sons of rifing, being joyned in one stream, do make the one that of the one that of the one that of the one that of the math. Yet the reason seemeth plain enough traction of sinews: to which Herod the el-fals. Hommon, why Ammon commanded in chief, in Jeph-der, when he was desperate of all other help, which in have been bequited in Coveringing, and a gain, that it is the first the following seen of the Land which Gad held, name in the Pyrenyes, and in Peru, called the Baths of the Ingal, or Kings. The other Town is was taken bad, and as far South as Areer, belonged to Macherus, the next between Lafa and fortween it and Jaboc : Sehon and Og, two with Ariftobulus, faith Josephus. It was thither pout 450 Kings of the Amorites, having displanted (saith Josephus) that Herod sent John Baptist, Josephus both Moab and Ammon of all within the Mountains. For it is written in Numb.21.24. ter being utterly overthrown by Aretas King hier in his. that Israel conquered the Land of Schon of Arabia, and himself after this murther never prospering. Not far from Macherus was dren of Ammon: fo as at this time the River Bofor, or Bozra, a town of refuge, and belonging to the Levites, and near it Livias upon Jordan, which Herod built in honour of Li-

> To the North of Livias is Setim, or Sit- Num. 25.16 tim: where the children of Israel imbraced the daughters of Midian, or Moab; and where Phineas bi with his spear, bringing due vengeance Bel-fathim) which is reckoned by Mules in upon them when they were in the midft of that place of Numbers for the 42, and last their fin; and from hence Fosua sent the dif- place of the Israelites incamping in the time coverers to view fericho, ftaying here until of Moses: This place is also called stittim: Num.15.16. he went over Jordan. As for the Torrent sewhich word if we should interpret, we tim, which in this place Adrichomius dreams should rather bring it from Cedars than of reading foel 3. 18. irrigabit torrentem Se- from Thorns, with Adrichomius and others. tim: The Vulgar hath torrentem (pinarum: It was the wood of which the Ark of the Taand Junius, vallem Cedrorum: expounding bernacle was made. it not for any particular place in Canaan:but ced. grow as the cedars, Pfal. 92. 13.

a little before his death, is in the beginning be changed, because they taited of the Moa-

Jol. 13. , which even now we spake.

the felt, as in this place of Deuteronomy there is no chief place of whose worship seems to have the Region of suphor suphah: which doubt- brought Balaam to curie the Ifraelites. less was about these plains of Moab towards the Dead Sea: where the Country being full of reeds, was therefore thus called: as also the Red Sea was called Mare Suph, for like Of divers places bordering Reuben, belonging

The place in these large plains of Moab where Moses made those divine exhortati-July 1.13. Ons, fome fay was Bethabara, where John of note over Arnon, which adjoyned to 1 Sam. 15. Josephan. led Beth-bara. Josephus sayes it was where af- the City of Phalti: to whom Saul gave his Phineas pierced the body of Zimri and Cof- Num. 33.49. (that fome call Abel-fathaim.and Toward the East of these plains of Moab, for the Church, in which the just being pla- they place the Cities Nebo, Baal-Meon, Sibma. and Hesbon the chief City of Schon, and Fl-The plain Country hereabout, by Moses balel, and Kiriathaima the seat of the Gi-Nom 31 37 called, The plains of Moab, where he expoundants Emim. Of the two first of these Moses Gen. 14.5. ded the book of Denteronomy to the people feems to give a note that the names were to Num. 31. of the fame book precifely bounded by Mo- bites *Idolatry. For Nebo (in fteed of which, 13, Nomen Gs. On the South it had the great Delart of Junius, Ela. 46.1. reads Deus vaticinus) was derum with Faran, where they had long wandred. On the name of their Idol-Oracle, and Baal-me-enorum ne the East it had chatseroth, and Dizahab (of on, is the habitation of Baal. Of the same Idol recordamini which two, the former is that Gazorus, of was the Hill Nebo in these parts denomina- in ore tuo. which Ptolomy in Paleftina: the later was a ted: from whose top, which the common Val 164.

Trast belonging to the Nabathæi in Arabia Translators call Phaseab, Moses before his pures sam The fame Petrala, where was * Mezahab, of which, Gen. death faw all the land of Canaan beyond nomine eo. asit tems 36.39.) by the Geographers called Medava, Jordan. In which ftory Junius doth not take in moit aliewhich and Medaba. On the West it had Jordan, and Phasgab, or Pisgab for any proper name: but Host 2.17. Samilia on the North it had Laban (in Junius editi- for an appellative, fignifying a Hill: and so noming Ex-Meliba, on, by the fault of the Print, Lamban, Deut. also Vatablus in some places, as Num. 21.20. halimorum whence we red of the I.I. ) the same which the Geographers call where he noteth, that some call Pigah that above ejus redoithe I.I.) the same which the Geographers call where he hotel, that some can regard that specified Libias: and some confound it with Livias, of top which looketh to Jericho, and Hair as it they used looketh to Moab, which opinion may be for Note it Also on the same North side towards the somewhat strengthened by the name of a dothnot which also on the name North fide towards the nonewhat intergeneed by the name of a appearance which also confines of Culofria, it had Theophel: where-City of Reuben, mentioned Jos. 13.20. called Baul. meen the wars of about sometime Pella of Culospria stood: Ashdoth-Pissa, which is as much as decursus it seems Drida which was in the Region of Decapolis; and, Pige: to wit, where the waters did run down they named force. ginit Hacarthe as Stephanus faith, was sometime called Bustrom Pifea. In the same place of Josua there is time Bajith Accounties, this It is also noted in Moses to be over against also named Beth-Peor, as belonging to Reu- as Esa 15.2 1 Chose, 19 or near unto Suph, for which the Vulgar bensio called from the Hill Peors from whence time Bulk-Manage hath the Red Sea, as also Num. 2.14 it transla- also Baal the Idol was called Baal-Peor; meon, Esp 1/1. 16. 2. teth the word Suphab in like manner: whereaddition of any word in the Hebrew to fig- been Bamoth-Bahal, of which also Jos. 12. in nifie the Sea: and yet the Scripture, when the Cities of Reuben: for which, Num. 22.41. this word is fo to be taken, useth the additi- they read, the high places of Baal (for fo the on of Mara, thereby to distinguish it from word fignisieth) to which place Balaak first to Midian, Meab, or Edom.

II.

"Here were besides these, divers places baptized, which in the story of Gideon is cal- Reuben: amongst which they place Gallim, with ter the City Abila stood, near Jordan, in a daughter Michol from David: but Junius place fet with Palm-trees: which fure was thinks this Town to be in Benjamin: gathe same as Abel-sittim in the plains of Moab, thering so much out of Esa. 10. 29. where it

With better reason perhaps out of Num. 21. impregnable, he was content by the perswa-19, we may fay that Mathana and Nahaliel from of Antipater, to take a composition of were in those confines of Keuben: through money, and to quit it. Yet Amalias King of which places the Ifraelites past after they Inda (after he had flaughtered ten thousand had left the Well, called Beer: Then Debla- of the Arabians in the valley called Salinawith the rest of the Cities of Moab.

Madian also is found in these parts, the chief City of the Madianites in Moab: but not that Midian, or Madian by the Red Sea. wherein Tethro inhabited. For of the Madianites there were two Nations of which these exceeding overthrow by a Regiment of twelve thousand Israelites, sent by Moses out of the Plains of Moab: at fuch time as Ifrael Elsy is 1. South border of Moab adjoyning to Edom, from the pursuit of the Allyrian and Persian 1 King 14 and sometime reckoned as the chief City of Princes, the King of sodom met him in the first and strongest City: the same perhaps Dale, could not be in these parts. which Pliny and Strabo call Nabathea, whence also the Province adjoyning took name: which name feems to have been taken at first from Nabajoth, the son of Abraham by Kethura. For Nabathea is no where understood for all Arabia Petræa (at least where it is not mif-understood) but it is that Province which neighboureth Judea. For Pharan in-E Chron. 5. habited by Ismael, whose people Ptolomy calthose Territories of the Culites, Madianites, Amalekites Ismaelites, Edomites, or Idumaans, the Lands of Moab, Ammon, Hus, Sin, and of Cg King of Basan, were parts of Arabia Petrea: though it be also true that some part of Arabia the Defart belonged to the Amalekites, and Ilmaelites; all which Nations the Scriptures in the first of Chronicles the fifth. calls Hagarens, of Hagar.

is named among the Cities of Benjamin. | Roman Army, and finding the place in thew thaim, which the Prophet Hieremy threatneth rum) wan also this City. S. Hierome findes Ruth the Moabite to be natural of this City. In the mean time, when the Christians held the Kingdom of Hierusalem, it had a Latine Bishop having before been under the Greek will Time Church. It is feated not far from Hor, where for, far, Aaron died, and on the other fide towards Num : of Moab became Idolaters, and received an the North is the River of Zared, or Zered, by Dear, 13 which Mofes encamped in the 38. station. Adrickomius describeth the waters of Memrim, or rather Nemrim, in his Map of Reuben. began to accompany their Daughters: their not far hence, and between Zared and Arfive Kings with Balaam the Soothfayer, were non: and so he doth the Valley of Save: but 1013.17 then flain, and their Regal City with the the waters of Nimra, or Beth-Nimra (for 1915). rest destroyed. The other Madianites over which it seems Adrichomius writ Nemrim whom Jethro was Prince or Prieft, forgat not refresh the plains of Moab; and the confluthe God of Abraham their Ancestor; but ence of those waters of Nimra are in the relieved and affifted the Ifraelites in their Tribe of Gad. Save also cannot be found in painful travels through the Defarts: and this place, that is, to the South of Arnon, and were in all that passage their guides. In the under Midian. For after Abraham returned Edom, there is that Petra, which in the Scrip- Valley of Save, or Saveb, which is the Kings tures is called Selab, which is as much as ru- Dale, where Absolom fet up his Monument, as * 50 741 pes, or petra. It was also called Joetheel, as it feems, not far from Hierufaiem. And at the forther His appears by the place, 2 Kings 14. It was fame time Melchisedec King of Salem also en-brew, Ber built (faith Tofephus) by Recem, one of those countred him. But Abraham coming from relative to five Kings of the Madianites: flain as before the North, and Melchifedee inhabiting, either and fealing is faid : after whom it was called Recem. neer Bethlan, otherwise Scrthopolis in the half the edition Now, they say, it is called Crac, and Mozera. Tribe of Manasse, or in Hierusalem (both pla-con of re-tables) The Soldans of Egypt, for the exceeding cesslying to the West of Jordan) could not Death 3.17 strength thereof, kept therein all their trea- encounter each other in Arabia: and there-though fures of Egypt and Arabia: of which it is the fore Save, which was also called the Kings it hath reason o

II. IV.

this name

he because it iovas to

Of the Dead Sea.

TOw because the Sea of Sodom, or the of Moal, Dead Sea, called also the Lake of Asphal-called Har titis, and the Salt fea (in diffinction from the both Most leth Pharanites, in ftead of Ismaelites, and all Sea of Tiberias, which was fresh water) also Deut 341. the sea of the Wilderness, or rather the sea have costof the Plains, is often remembred in the losh in Har Scriptures, and in this story also, therefore I bash, that think it not impertinent to speak somewhat plains, to thereof. For it is like unto the Caspian sea, wit, of zee which hath no out-let, or disburthening. The Mac.9:11 length of this Lake Josephus makes 180, fur-whence longs (which make 22 miles and a half of minimizing) ours) and about 150. in bredth, which make gines aci-This City Petra, Scaurus befieged with the 18. of our miles, and somewhat more. Pliny ty in zalve makes ariba have of late years feen this fea, did account be the Ancestor or Predecessor of Balae, the and two and a half of theirs (which is ten Moles by arms, by the examples of schon, and of ours) in breadth. Of this Lake or Sea, Ta- | 0g, he hoped by the help of Balaams curlings citus maketh this report: Lacus est in immenso or inchantments, to take from them all ambitu. Specie maris, sapore corruptior, gravi- strength and courage, and to cast on them tate odoris accolis peftifer : neque vento im- some pestilent diseases. And though Balaam pellitur, negue pifces aut fuitas aquis volucres at the first, moved by the spirit of God blest patitur, incertum unde superjecta ut solido Urael, contrary to the hope and defire of feruntur, periti, imperitique nandi perinde at- Moab: yet being desirous in some fort to tolluntur, &c. That it is very great, and ( as latisfie him, and to do him service he advised it were ) a fea of a corrupt tafte: of finell in- Moab to lend Madianitif women among the fections, and peftilent to the borderers: it is Israelites: hoping by them, as by lit instruneither moved nor raised by the winde, nor ments of mischief, to draw them to the Idolaindureth fifth to live in it, or fowl to fwim in it. try of the Heathen, but in the end, he receiv-Those things that are cast into it, and the un- cd the reward of his falling from God, and of born up by the water. At one time of the of the Princes of Midian. year cafteth it up kitumen: the art of gathering which, Experience (the finder are not named; faving that we find in of other things) hath also taught. It is used the first of Chronicles the fourth, that chim, in the trimming of ships, and the like busi- and the men of Chozeba, and Touth, and were sometime fruitfull, and adorned with great antient things: to wit, as some expound it, theruines remain, the ground looking with a are no where extant or remaining, or as ofad face, as having lost her fruitfulness; for thers, bac trins fuere, these Families of Juda whatfoever doth either grow, or is fet thereon, were once thus famous: but now their postebe it fruits or flowers, when they come to ripe- rity choose rather to abide in R.dylon, and be nels having nothing within them, but moulder Clay-workers to the King there. into albes: Thus far Tacitus. And it is found other Apples or Oranges, which do still ed Ifrael, and commanded them 18 years: grow on the banks of this curfed Lake, do which Eglon, Elud flew in his own house, and but had their hands also bound behind them. yet notwithstanding they were carried on the face of the waters, and could not fink.

Of the Kings of Moab, much of whose Countrey within Arnon Reuben polielt.

F the Kings of Moab, whose Countrey makes it a great deal less: but those that of Num. v. 14, nameth Laheb, which seems to it (faith a Weissenburg) eight Dutch miles son of Zippor: which Balac sent for Balaam Nam 21. (which is two and thirty of ours) in length: to curfe Ifrael. For fearing to contend with 1/1/24. skilfull of swiming, as well as the skilfull, are his evil counsell, and was flain among the relt

After these times the Kings of the Moulites Sureph, all being of the thue of fuci., fome-And then of the Land, he speaketh in this time had the Dominion in Moab: but as it is fort : The fields not far from this Lake, which written in the same Verse, These also are proved Cities, were burnt with lightning; of which the particulars of these mens governments .

Then we find Eglon King of Morb, who Judges 3. by experience, that those Pomegranates, and with the help of Ammon and Amalec masterlook fair, and are of good colour on the out- afterward 1000. of his Nation. What name fide, but being cut, have nothing but dust the King of Moab had unto whom David within. Of the Bitumen which this Lake cast- fled fearing Saul, it doth not appear: or 1 Sam 22. eth up, it was by the Greeks called Asphaltitis. whether it were the same against whom Saul Vespasian desirous to be satisfied of these re- made war, it is not manifest, for neither are ports, went of purpose to see this Lake, and named. But in respect that this hisabite was caused certain Captives to be cast into an enemy to Sanl, he received David, and reit, who were not onely unskilfull in fwiming, lieved him; knowing that Saul fought his life.

After this, David himfelf entred the Region of Moab, but not likely in the same : Sam S. Kings time: for he flaughtered two parts of the people, and made the third part tributary: whereupon it was faid of David, Mond 1 Chro. 2. is my wash-pot, over Edom will I cast my those: meaning, that he would reduce them to fuch an abjection, and appoint them for base services: and that he would tread down the Idumsans. The next King after Davids time of the (within Arnon) Reuben posses (though Moabites, whose name liveth, was As ska, who not taken from Moab, but from Schon the falling from Juda, (perhaps in remembrance Amorite) few are known. Junius in the 21. of the feve, ity of David ) fastened himself hab, 10:00 A ambs, and 200000. Rams with within, and in the middle of the River of the wooll: who revolting again from Ifrael Arnon (and so distinguished from Harober, after the death of Ahab, was invaded by Je- which is faid in the same places to be on the kerent, with whom joyned the Kings of Juda bank of Arnon) is Har of the Moahites, the and Idumon and being by these three Kings same Junius proveth one of Numbers, ch. 21. prest and broken, he fied to Kir-hareselb, as v.15, where Arnon is said to be divided into is eliewhere shewed. There is also mention divers streams, where or among which Har made of the Moabites without the Kings is feated: And the same is confirmed by the name ; when that Nation, affifted by the place of Jos. 13. ver. 25. where Harober is Ammonites and Idumeans, invaded Jehosha- laid to be scated before Rabbab: which that: and by reason of some private quarrels Rabbah, as it seems, cannot be the Rabbah of among themselves, the Modbites and Am- the Ammonites ( for they seat not 11 arober monites fet upon the Idumeans, and flaugh-neer it, nor in fight of it) and therefore by tered them: and then one against another, Rabbab here, we must understand Rabbab of consolio as Jehofhaphat had a notorious victory of Atoab, which they make to be Ar, or Har, and ver them all, without either blood or wound. To we must needs distinguish it from Haroher, defects: for Alejba lived with jeneram, and index once expense the Grant-live jeopte war. this Atoabite in Zedekia's time, fourteen Kings called Emins, first weakned by Chedarlaomer is ago hundred and odd years.

304

Of the memorable places of the Gadites, and the bordering places of Ammon.

He Territory adjoyning to Reuben, is Sints.

Aphee. The chief City of Gad was Aroer, which quakes. they make to be the same with Ar, or Rabnever possest by Aloses, it is plain Deutero- ucer Arnon in S tierom's time. noiny 2.9. where God forbidding Mofes to Keeping the banks of Arnon, one of the heritance to the fons of Lot. New that this rab, of which Elay prophelied, That the me sintle

: 13 to the High of Listland paid tribute to A- City, which in divers places is faid to be Also in the time of Hieremy the Prophet, And as for *Har, (which also gave the name Date, there was a King of Mab which is not nato the coast adjoyning )it seems it continued on a med , which was after Mefts of Most many in the possession of the Most ites , after they the is defects: for Melha lived with Jehoram, and had once expelled the Giant-like people with of Juda coming between, who wasted three and his Associates: but Haroher by the enter-less change of times fuffered many ancient changes, as being won from the Mondites by Se-the Cite bon, and from him by the Ifraclites, and from of nutthem, as it feems in the ftory of Jephta by the the colinies Ammonites : and from the Ammonites again was and by the Israelites under the conduct of Jephta. edby s. S. Hieroms time the greatest part of this 14.

that of Gad: whereof all that part City perished by an earth-quake, as also Zoar, pign which joyned to the Mountains, was fome- in which Lot faved himself in the defruction manie time in the possession of the Ammonites, as of Sodom, seated not far hence; which, they gas far to the South as Areer. Of the children of fay was therefore called Vitula confernant, rate Gange. Gad, the feventh fon of Jacob by Zelpha, the because as a wanton tumbling heifer, she was a man Sam, 13: hand-maid of Leathere parted out of Egypt, thrice overthrown with earth-quakes: for the last same 13: hand-maid of Leathere parted out of Egypt, thrice overthrown with earth-quakes: and died in the Defarts, 45550, and of their which cause also Hieroms seems to think that micro fons there entred the Land promifed, this Zoar was called Saliffa, or Bal-Saliffa, as if upon 45000, bearng Arms: for the half Tribe of Baal had been a remainder of the old name wheath Manafic, the River of Jaboc divided them : Balah, or Belah, (of which Gen. 14.2, and Sa-min from Reuben, the Cities of Hesbon, Elbele, and lifta, which hath a fignification of the ternary states nipa, which nath a nguineation of the ternary a plan number, had alluded to the three earth country

Brochard takes Harober to be Petra, but min, and bath Mosh, the great or commanding Mosh. erroneoully, as before it is noted; feeing that with Policy and Polic But the learned Junius attending diligently Petra was in the South border of Moab ad-Riter to those words of Moses, Deut. 2.36. Ab Hajoyning to Edom. whereas Harober is in the wheeth rebero, que est in ripa fluminis Arnon, & ci- North-East border. Between Harober and especial vitate insa qua oft in sluwine: Where the City Fordan they seat Dibon, which is attributed to be to the River is distinguished from the City upon the Gadites, because they are said to have a must be Gadites. the bank of the River, as also in like manner, built it, Num. 32.34 though Jof. 13.0.17, it is a positive bank of the River, as also in like manner, built it, Num. 32.34 though Jof. 13.0.17, it is a positive bank of the Reubenites. Of the Reubenites. rober, which doubtles belonged to the Ga- this City among the rest of Moab, both Efig dites (as Numb. 32.34. it is faid that they built and Hieremy prophefied, that it should perish, it) was indeed feated neer Har of the Mos- and the Lakes about it run with the blood bites, but divers from it. For that Har was of the Inhabitante. It was a great Village touch it, faith he hath given Har for an in- next Cities of fame to Aroer, was Bethnim-

ters thereof frould be dried up: and all the vales cording to Josephus, sometime Bataramptha) ve to or Manalje it is not certain: only that it was lias had belonging unto it, according to Jowhich he spake before, ver. 34.35, 36. there- same as Bethfaida. year II. forc it may feem, that this * Nobach was in Upon the Sea of Califee, near to Julias in he border with Nob, which saul destroyed, of this we hillopi. Of a noble woman of this City, which etite funden shall speak (a) in the Tribe of Benjamin. for safeguard in the time of War with the and as for that Karkor, where Zebah and Zal- Romans, came with many others into Hiemends munnah rested themselves in their slight from rusalem, and was there besieged. Josephus medocit Gideon, to which place Gideon marched in the place noted, reports a lamentable Hithrough this Nobach and Jogbeha, though story; how for hunger she eat her own together fome place it in Gad, and make it the fame child, with other tragicall accidents herefome place it in Gau, and many to a support of the star with Kir-charer, of which Efsy 15, and 2 keg, upon enfuing.

Of succosts (which we faid I of 13, is placed wrongad. 3. 25. yet there can be no certainty that it Index 3.10 chares, it is certain, that it was still a princi- dom of sehon) it is plain by the story of Gi-

the Tribe of Gad.

Corone. (b) Jof 1. be Betaramptha, of which (b) Josephus after turn from Mesopotamia built in that place: as Exodit. 39 atile. 3. by Herod called Julias. But whether this Be- also the place beyond the Red Sea, where the Acquada of those Countries, we read, Alls 7. 43. and which they used after for forty years in Lev. 23.43. hubs, Me to which Junius refers the name of the City the Wilderness. In remembrance wherempoit Rephan, I Mac. 37.) of this question it were of the Feast of Succoth, or Tabernacles, was hard to resolve. But touching Julias (ac- instituted.

of Moab withered. Not far from Bethnimrah the same Josephus placeth in the Region of in this Tribe, Advictionius placeth Jogbeha Peraa, beyond Jordan, which Regio Feraa, and Nobach or Nobe: of both which we read as the Greek word fignifieth, is no more than in the ftery of Gideon: and that Jogbeha was Regio ulterior, the Country beyond the River; in Gad built by the Gadites, it appears, Num- and therefore they which labour to fet hers 32, 35, and therefore Nobach also must down the bounds of this Perea, take more needs be in these parts; but whether in Gad pains than needs. Fourteen Villages this Juanciently called Kenath, Moses witnesseth. Sephus. He makes it to have been built by Nobach alfo (faith he) ment and took Kenath Herod Antipas, and named Julias, in honour with her Towns, and called it Nobach of his of the adoption of Livia Augustus his wife, own name, where because the Verses prece- into the Julian Family: by which adoption Tol and 18: dent speak of the Manufiter, and because it | the was called Julia. Another Julias, he faith 3. e Bel. is not likely that Moses would have severed was built by Philip the brother of Herod, in Juig. 2.8. this feat of the Gadites from the rest, of the lower Gaulanitis, which, he saith, is the that part of Manafe which was in the East of Perwa, (that is, in the Region over Jordan) 30feb de Jordan, though Adrickomius place it in Gad. they find Vetezobra, as it is called in Josephus, Bell. Judge dim For whereas he supposeth it to be the same for Beth-ezob, which is as much as domus 1.7.6.8.

was in Gad: and if it be the same with Kir- with Ben-haran, in the Valley of the King- Judg 8.5; pal City held by the Moabites, and not in deon that it is near unto Fordan: where it is faid, that as he was past fordan with his In the body of this Tribe of Gad they three hundred, weary in the pursuit of Zebah place Hataroth: of which name the Scripture and Zalmunnah, he requested relief of the witnesseth that two Cities were builded by men of succeth: who denying him, and that the Gadites; the former simply called Ha- with contempt, in Gideons return were by taroth, the later Hatroth-Sophan: for which him tortured, as it feems under a threshing- 2. Sam. 12. later the vulgar makes two Cities, Roth and Car or Tribulum, between which and their 31. Shophan: the name Hataroth, is as much as flesh he put Thorns to teare their flesh as they were prest and trod under the Tribulum In the Valley of the Kingdom of Sehon, and after which fort also David used some together with Bethnimra of which we have of the Ammonites, though not with Thorns, spoken, Jos. 13.27. nameth Beth-haram and but with Iron teeth of the Tribulum. As Succoth: the former, Numb. 32.36. (where for the name of Succoth, which fignifieth fuch it is called Beth-haram) together with Beth- Tabernacles as were made in hafte, either nimra, is faid to have been built by the Ga- for Men or Cattel, Moses, Gen. 33.17. witdites, which (perhaps the rather, because in nesieth that the original of the name was Josua it is called Beth-haram ) some take to from such harbours, which Jacob in his realio the place beyond the Red Sea, where the children of Ifrael, as they came from Rather or from Eeth-Aramatha (of which Aramafrield or from Eeth-Aramatha (of which Aramafrield or from Eeth-Aramatha (of which Aramafrield or from Eeth-Aramatha (of which Aramafrield or from Eeth-Aramatha (of which Remphan, an Idol Markey Beth-Remphan (of which Remphan, an Idol Markey Or from Fried Comments where the free type their first Tabernacles or Tents:

Other

the wooll: who revolving again from Ifrael, Arnon (and so distinguished from Harober. after the death of Abab, was invaded by Je-which is faid in the same places to be on the kerson, with whom joyned the Kings of Juda bank of Arnon) is Har of the Moabites, the and Jehimon and being by these three Kings same Junius proveth out of Numbers, ch. 21. prest and broken, he fied to Kir-bareselb, as v.15, where Arnon is said to be divided into is elicwhere shewed. There is also mention divers streams, where or among which that made of the Moabites without the Kings is feated: And the same is confirmed by the name; when that Nation, affifted by the place of Jos. 13. ver. 25. where Harsher is Animonites and Idumaans, invaded Jehosha- faid to be scated before Rabbab : which tered them: and then one against another, Rabbab here, we must understand Rabbab of Louis io so a Jehospaphat had a notorious victory of Moab, which they make to be Ar, or Har: and the bordering places of Ammon.

hundred and odd years.

He Territory adjoyning to Reuben, is Aphee.

Starts.

The chief City of Gad was Aroer, which quakes. they make to be the same with Ar, or Rabnever possest by Moses, it is plain Dentero- ucer Arnon in S. Hierom's time. nomy 2.9. where God forbidding Mofes to Keeping the banks of Arnon, one of the touch it, faith he hath given Har for an in- next Cities of fame to Areer, was Bethnim-

130553 to the Kings of Lizal and paid tribute to A- City, which in divers places is faid to be hab, to 200 . Lambs, and accook. Rams with within, and in the middle of the River of that: and by reason of some private quarrels Rabbab, as it seems, cannot be the Rabbab of among themselves, the Moabites and Am- the Ammonites ( for they seat not Harober monites fet upon the Idumeans, and flaugh-neer it, nor in fight of it ) and therefore by ver them all, without either blood or wound. fo we must needs distinguish it from Haroher, Also in the time of Hieremy the Prophet, And as for *Har, (which also gave the name ones, there was a King of Mosh which is not na- to the coast adjoyning lit seems it continued Out of the coast adjoyning lit seems it continued out of the coast adjoyning lit seems it continued out of the coast adjoyning lit seems it continued out of the coast adjoyning lit seems it continued out of the coast adjoyning lit seems it continued out of the coast adjoyning lit seems it continued out of the coast adjoyning lit seems it continued out of the coast adjoyning lit seems it continued out of the coast adjoyning lit seems it continued out of the coast adjoyning lit seems it continued out of the coast adjoyning lit seems it continued out of the coast adjoyning lit seems it continued out of the coast adjoyning lit seems it continued out of the coast adjoyning lit seems it continued out of the coast adjoyning lit seems it continued out of the coast adjoint little seems it coast adjoint little seems it coast adjoint little seems it coast adjoint little seems it coast adjoint little seems it coast adjoint little seems it coast adjoint little seems it coast adjoint litt med, which was after Messa of Meas many in the possession of the Measites, after they the it descents: for Messa lived with Jehoram, and had once expelled the Giant-like people week detectes: for melon twed with jenoram, and that once experied the older has people with this Mondite in Zedeki is time, fourteen Kings called Emins, first weakned by Chedorlaomer Lines. of Inda coming between, who walted three and his Associates:but Harober by the enter-less change of times suffered many ancient changes, as being won from the Monbites by Se-the City bon, and from him by the Ifraelites, and from of Hotel them, as it feems in the frory of Jephta by the Of the memorable places of the Gadites, and Ammonites : and from the Ammonites again was tall by the Israelites under the conduct of Jephta. ed by Se

S. Hieroms time the greatest part of this 14. that of Gad: whereof all that part City perished by an earth-quake, as also Zour, pages. which joyned to the Mountains, was some- in which Lot faved himself in the destruction 35time in the possession of the Ammonites, as of Sodom, seated not far hence; which, they was far to the South as Areer. Of the children of fay was therefore called Vitula confernant, Gad, the seventh son of Jacob by Zelpha, the because as a wanton tumbling heifer, she was to take Seast 13: hand-maid of Leathere parted out of Egypt, thrice overthrown with earth-quakes: for fee fair and died in the Defarts, 45550, and of their which cause also Hierome seems to think that mines fons there entred the Land promifed, this Zoar was called Saliffa, or Bal-Saliffa, as if upon 45000 bearing Arms: for the half Tribe of East had been a remainder of the old name wheth Manaffe, the River of Jaboc divided them : Balah, or Belah, (of which Gen. 14.2. and Sa-mikes from Reuben, the Cities of Hesbon, Elbele, and life, which hath a fignification of the ternary states number, had alluded to the three earth-country

Brochard takes Harober to be Petra, but the first bath Mosh, the great or commanding Mosh, erroneoully, as before it is noted; feeing that with the bath of the state of the But the learned Junius attending diligently Petra was in the South border of Month ad hiller to those words of Moses, Deut. 2.36. Ab Hasophera and the single flowers are of the second and the second are of the second and the second are of the seco rohero, que est in ripa fluminis Arnon, & ci- North-East border. Between Harober and enough vonero, que est in ripa summin Arnon, & ci- North-East border. Between Harocer and events witate insa que est in summe: Where the City Fordan they seat Dibon, which is attributed to be to be to be in the River is distinguished from the City upon the Gaditer, because they are said to have some the bank of the River, as also in like manner, built it, Num. 32.34 though Jof. 13.2.17. it is a position (Joseph 2. 2.2. and c.11.9.) thinketh that Ha- laid that Mose gave it to the Reubeniter. Of the land that Mose gave it to the Reubeniter. rober, which doubtless belonged to the Ga- this City among the rest of Moab, both Esq dites (as Numb.32.34 it is faid that they built and Hieremy prophefied, that it should perill, it) was indeed feated neer Har of the Mos- and the Lakes about it run with the blood bites, but divers from it. For that Har was of the Inhabitants. It was a great Village heritance to the fons of Lot. New that this rab, of which Efas prophefied, That the war shall in this Tribe, Advictomins placeth Jogbeha Peran, beyond Jordan, which Regio Feran, and Nobach, or Nobe: of both which we read as the Greek word fignifieth, is no more than in the ftery of Gideon: and that Jogbeha was Regio ulterior, the Country beyond the River ; in Gad built by the Gadites, it appears, Num- and therefore they which labour to let bers 32. 35. and therefore Nobach also must down the bounds of this Perea, take more needs be in these parts; but whether in Gad pains than needs. Fourteen Villages this Tuanciently called Kenath, Moses witnesseth. Sephus. He makes it to have been built by Nobach also (faith he) ment and took Kenath Hered Antipas, and named Julias, in honour with her Towns, and called it Nobach of his of the adoption of Livia Augustus his wife, dent speak of the Manassistes, and because it she was called Sulia. Another Julius, he faith 3.00 the is not likely that Moses would have severed was built by Philip the brother of Hered, in Jung. 1.8. this feat of the Gadites from the rest, of the lower Gaulanitis, which, he saith, is the which he spake before, ver. 34.35, 36. there- same as Bethfaida. fore it may feem, that this * Nobach was in Upon the Sea of Califee, near to Julias in the lorder with Nob, which Saul destroyed, of this we bissor. Of a noble woman of this City, which The state of the s merals munnah rested themselves in their slight from rusalem, and was there besieged. Josephus the election Gideon, to which place Gideon marched in the place noted, reports a lamentable Hithrough this Nobach and Jogbeha, though story; how for hunger she eat her own ngener fome place it in Gad, and make it the fame child, with other tragicall accidents here-Wethat is with Kir-chares of which Elay 15, and 2 Reg. upon enfuing. (3)(hip.12 3. 25. yet there can be no certainty that it it is certain, that it was still a princi- dom of sehon) it is plain by the story of Gipal City held by the Modbites, and not in deon that it is near unto Jordan: where it is the Tribe of Gad.

place Hataroth: of which name the Scripture and Zalmunnah, he requested relief of the witnesseth that two Cities were builded by men of Succoth: who denying him, and that the Gadites; the former simply called Ha- with contempt, in Gideons return were by Shophan: the name Hataroth, is as much as flesh he put Thorns to teare their flesh as Corone.

together with Bethnimra of which we have of the Ammonites, though not with Thorns, spoken, 70f. 13.27. nameth Beth-haram and but with Iron teeth of the Tribulum. As Succoth: the former, Numb. 32.36. (where for the name of Succoth, which fignifieth fuch it is called Beth-haram) together with Beth- Tabernacles as were made in hafte, either nimra, is faid to have been built by the Ga- for Men or Cattel, Moles, Gen. 33.17. witdites, which (perhaps the rather, because in nesieth that the original of the name was enlaces by Herod called Julias. But whether this Be- also the place beyond the Red Sea, where the taramptha were corrupted from Beth-haram, children of Ifrael, as they came from Ra-(c)L.7.001 or from Beth-Aramatha (of which Arama-messes in Egypt, had their first Station, was up-Greates that there is mention in (c) Josephus) or from on like realist called Succoth: because there stales Beth-Remphan (of which Remphan, an Idol they set by the Court of the Success or Tents: bullet, Me to which Junius refers the name of the City the Wilderness. In remembrance wheremenia Rephan, 1 Mac. 37.) of this question it were of the Feast of Succoth, or Tabernacles, was hard to resolve. But touching Julias (aclinstituted.

an in the reaf frould be dried up: and all the vale cording to Josephus, sometime Bataramptha) of Moah withered. Not far from Bethnimrah the fame Josephus placeth in the Region of or Manafe it is not certain: only that it was had belonging unto it, according to loown name, where because the Verses prece- into the Julian Family: by which adoption 706 ant. 18:

this that part of Manaffe which was in the East of Perwa, (that is, in the Region over Jordan) noted de Jordan, though Adrichomius place it in Gad. they find Vetezobra, as it is called in Josephus, patt Judge and For whereas he supposeth it to be the same for Beth-ezob, which is as much as domus 1.7.c. 8.

Of succost (which we faid Fof. 13. is placed was in Gad; and if it be the same with Kir- with Ben-baran, in the Valley of the King- Judg 8.51 faid, that as he was past Jordan with his In the body of this Tribe of Gad they three hundred, weary in the pursuit of Zebah taroth, the later Hatroth-Sophan: for which him tortured, as it feems under a threshing- 2 Sam 14. later the vulgar makes two Cities, Roth and Car or Tribulum, between which and their 31 they were prest and trod under the Tribulum In the Valley of the Kingdom of Sehon, and after which fort also David used some Josua it is called Beth-haram ) some take to from such harbours, which Jacob in his re-(b) Jost be Betaramptha, of which (b) Josephus after turn from Mesopotamia built in that place: as Exad-12.37 Acquasa of those Countries, we read, Alls 7.43. and which they used after for forty years in Lev. 23.43.

Other

21.52 Banothin Gilead, Machanaim, Chef-during the war between David and the hon, and lakzer, all of them by the Gadites house of Saul. given to the Levites, of which Jahzer, as Of the fourth Town, which was Ramoth in Daughter.

better reconciliation is, That it being a bor- nites.

Other four Cities of Gad are named, Jofua thereof, Abner choice for the feat of Iffbofleth, Cheshon or Heshon was a chief City of Schon, Gilead, we read often in the Scripture, for whence Num. 22.1. his Country is called the the recovering of which, King Achab loft his Land of Jakzer. It was taken by Mofes, ha- life. Junius thinks that Ramatha Mitfpa, of ving first sent spiesto view it. In the first of which Jos. 13. 26. was this Kamoth in Cilead. the Chronicles it is made part of Gilead. In Concerning the place where Laban and lalatter times (as it may be gathered by the cob sware one to the other, as it was called Prophecy of Elay touching Moab ) it was Gilead, which is as much as a witnefling heap, posjessed by the Monkites : to which place of because of the heap of stones which Laban Flay, also Hieremy in a like prophecy alludes, and his fons left for a monument; so also 48 it was at length regained (but as it feems that it was called Mitspah, which fignifieth from the Ammonites) by Judas Macchabens: over-looking (because there they called ne it is 1 Mic. 5. 8. where Junius out of Jo- God to over-fee, and be witness to their Co-Seplar, reads, Juhzer, though the Greek hath venant) it is plain by the place, Gen. 31. 49. Gazer, For Gazer, or Gezer (as he gathereth That in these parts there was not onely a out of 16(16, 3, and 8, and Jud. 1, 29.) was Town, but likewife a Region called Mitfpa, far from these Countries of Selon, seated in it appears lost 11. 3. where we read of the the West border of Fphraim, not possessed Chrvites under Hermon, in the Country of by the Intelites, until solomons time, for Mitspa, * the Town of Mitspa, as it feems of other whom the King of Egypt wan it from the Ca-both by this place, and in the eighth verse thinner. maurite, and gave it him as a Dowry with his following, being not in the Hill Country, but feein the Country but feein the Country but feein the Country but feeing that Jephia the Tibeoi Of Cheshon it may be marvelled that in Judge of Ifrael, who after he came home Benjamin. the place of logis, and 1 Chron. 6.81. it should from Tob ( whither his brethren had driven be faid to have been given to the Levites by him) dwelt in the Town of Milfra, who the Gadites, seeing Jos. 13. 17. it is reckoned doubtless was of the Tribe of Manage, and for a principal City of the Reubenites : Adri- thence at first expelled by his brethren, it full. 11.16 chomins, and such as little trouble themselves may feem that they do not well, which place with fuch feruples, finding Cashen, I Mac.5. this Town of Mitfpa rather in Gad than in 36. among the Cities of Gilead, taken by Manasse. By Judas Macchabaus this Town of Judas Macchabaus, makes two Cities of one: Mitspa (whether in Gad or in Manasse) was as if this Cashon had been the Cheshon of Gad, utterly spoiled and burnt, and the Males of [Mas 35] and that of Renben diffinct from it : but the it flain: for it was then possest of the Ammodering City, between Gad and Rcuben, was Between Succoth (of which we have spocommon to both, and that the Gadites gave ken) and the River Jaboc, was that Peniel, or Guarast their part to the Levites, for to also it feems Penuel, which name fignifieth Locum faciei that in like reason Dihon is said in one place Dei; A place where the face of God was seen: built by the Gadites, and in another given to so called for memory of the Angels appear-Reuben, as before is noted. Of Machanaiim, ing to Jacob, and wrestling with him there: which word fignifieth a double Army, we the churliffness of which City, in refusing to Jad & v. read Gen. 22. 2. that it was therefore so cal- relieve Gideon, was the cause that in his reled, because the Angels of God in that place turn he overthrew their Tower, and slew the met Jacob in manner of another Hoalt or chief Aldermen thereof. To these places of company, to joyn with his for his defence: the Gadites, they add Rogelim, the City of as also Luke 2. 13. we read of a multitude of that great and faithful subject Barzillai, as it 15 cm. 19. the Hoast of Heaven, which appeared to the seems, not far from Nahanaima, where he su-Shepherds, at the time of our Saviours birth: Stained King David, during Absaloms rebelliand so unto the godly King Ofwald of Nor- on. To these they add the Town of Gaddi, per 314 thumberland, when he was foon after to joyn Arnon, and Alimis, of which Gaddi, being in folias. battel with the Pagan Penda of middle-Eng- Hebrew no more than Gaddita, is ignorantly land, Beda reports, that the like comfort ap- made the name of a place. Arnon also no peared: whence the field where the Battel where appears to be the name of a Town, was fought in the North parts of England, is but ftill of a River. Alimis Adrichomius called Heaven field In this City of Machanai frames of in Assaul, I Mac. 5.26. fo that the im, David abode during the rebellion of name should rather be Alema, but Junius out Abfalom : and the same, for the strength of Josephus reads Malla, for this in Alimis:

thewed touching the Millo of the Seche- undertaking mento wit. Og and Sekon, both mites) he takes this Malle to be Mitspa Moa- Amorites, they recovered again much of is their lost pessessions, and thrust the forse of Marth which Adrichomius finds in this Tribe Lot over the Mountains, and into the Dearts. And as the Kings or Captains of Persta notes to be as far as the furthest of Manafander of the bounds of this Tribe. So also made way for Ammon, Moab, and Edom; for Dathema, of which I Mac. 5. 10. (which Ju- by that great conqueit which Mofes had onius takes to be (b) Rithma, of which Num. ver those two Amorites, Og and Schon, did and 23.18. a place of firength in the Territory the Moabites and Ammonites take opportuof the Ammonites) and in like manner Min- nity to look back again into those Plains; nith, and Abel vincarum, though by fome and when the Reubenites, Gadites, and Mathey be attributed to the Gadites, or to their naffites, for fook the worthip of the living borders, yet they are found farther off. For God, and became floathful and licentious; of the two last we read in Jephta's pursuit of they taking the advantage, invaded them, the Ammonites: feated, as it feems by that and cast them out of their possessions: and place of the Book of Judges, the former of were fometime their Masters, sometime their and the south border, and the other of Tributaries, as they pleased or ditpleased them in the East border, both far removed God: and according to the wildom and from the Gadites. But the chief City of the vertue of their Commanders. Ammonites was nearer, and not far from the In this City of Rabba, was the Iron bed this borders of Gad. It is called in the Scriptures of og found, nine cubits of length, and four Dent, 3. relars be formetimes Rabbath, as Deut. 3. 11. but more of breadth. The City was taken in Davids often Rabba. It is supposed to be that * Phila- time, and the Inhabitants slain with great semight feem delphia which Ptolomy finds in Calofyria. Hie- verity, and by divers torments. At the first note the rome and Califus, in Arabia. It was conquer- allault thereof Urias was shot to death, hameans ed by Gg from the Ammonites: but, as it feems, ving been by direction from David appointnever polleft by the Ifraelites, after the over- ed to be impleyed in the leading or an afthrow of og, but left to the Ammonites: fault, where he could not escape: wherein whereupon at length it became the Regal also many of the best of the Army perished: that which feat of the Ammonites, but of old it was the and wherein D. wid to displeased God, as his missign possession of the Zamzummims: which is as affairs had ill success afterward, even to his and wickedness infamous. The same were weighty and rich Crown of Gold, which tapper was also called Raphaim, of whom was 0g, which the Kings of Ammon wore: or which, as allo called recovered much of that which the Ammo- some expound it, was used to be put on the head of their Idol, weighing a talent, which 2 Sam. 122 ving been first beaten by the Afgrians, and is 60. pound weight, after the common tathe Horims in Seir had been) were after- Metropolitan Bishop, and under him twelve Bel-Ser 13. buinting ward the eafier conquered by the Ammo- others. nites, as the Emims were by Moab, and the The mountains which are described with-Horims by the Idumeans. Yet did the races in this Tribe, and that of Manasse, with a part thes of Emoreus, of whom these Giants were de- of Reuben, are those that Ptolomy calleth the the opini feended, contend with the Conquerors for hills of Hippus, a City of Celosyria: and Stra-strable. miniform their ancient inheritance; and as Sehon of bo, * Trackones: the fame which continue * Meshon had dispossest Moab, to had Og of Ba- from near Damaseus, unto the Desarts of Mo- is been 278 Haum, fin the Ammonites, and between them re- ab: and receive diversnames, as commonly fall-breful real with covered the best part of all the Valley, be- Mountains do, which neighbour and bound whenceit Chess, cept tween the Mountains and Jordan. For this divers Countries: for from the South part, as appears, and understanding Malle to be put for Mil-, ancient inheritance : but having these two lo and to be as much as Munitio (as we have Kings of one kinred, and both valuar and much to fay, as men for all manner of craft dying day. From hence had David the their affiftants (as the Emims in Moab, and lent. In the time of Christians it had a will Tre.

og was also master of Rabba, or Philadelphia: far Northwards as Astaroth, the chief City chonites re-Mili can And in the possession of the one or of the of Og, they are called Galaad, or Gilead; from gio, in these not be taken of the few Moses and Israel, found there Northward they are known by the parts was known Robbin all those Cities and Countries which were name of Hermon, for so Moses calleth them: the hillfell, but of given to Reuben, Gad, and the half Tribe of The Sidonians name them Shirion, but the country formeother Manaffe. So that though it were 450, years Amorites, Shenir, others, Seir: of which name Dent. 3. 9. joyning, fince that these Zamzummims, or Raphaims, all those hills also were called, which part were expelled, yet they did not forget their Judea and Idumea: and lastly, they are called Biscons Libanus, for to the Prophet Hieremy makes ing the aids received from the Aramites. Subthem all one, calling the high Mountains of ject to Adadezer, and from the Reguli of Re-Galaad the head of Libanus.

non, falleth into fordan.

Gadites wan from Og, the King of Basan.

with the Moubites, held that part of Arabia the Ammonites continued two years. Petraa called Nabathea, as well within as this time when the Gadites wan it, it was in of Zedekia: after whose taking by Nabuchodothe policilion of Schon and Og, Amorites: and nofor, Baalis fent Ismael, of the blood of the therefore Moses did not expel the Ammo- Kings of Juda, to slay Gedaliah, who served nites, but the Amorites, who had thrust the Nabuchodonosor. iffues of Lot over the Mountains Trachones, or Gilead, as before. After the death of Othoniel the first ludge of Ifracl, the Ammonites joyned with the Moabites against the Hebrem, and so continued long. Jepha Judge He rest of the Land of Gilcad, and of testing of Israel had a great conquest over one of the Kingdom of Og in Basan, with the slightness of the Kingdom of Og in Basan, with the with them again.

ger. This wands, as it may reem, became the many of their man kingdoms take he was confederate of David, having friended him much more ground than the country of Kent. Refields in Saul's time, though Josephus thinks that this Bafan, or, after the Septuagint, Bafanitis. of theif that name.

he had with his father, he most contemptuoufly and proudly cut off the Ambafiadours garments to the knees, and shaved the half of their beards. But afterward, notwithstandhob, and Maacab, and from Iftob, yet all those West, the These Mountains are very fruitful, and Arabians, together with the Ammonites, were "the am full of good paftures, and have many Trees overturned: their chief City of Rabba, after Their which yelld Balfamum, and many other me- Philadelphia, was taken; the Crown which find le dicinable drugs. The Rivers of this Tribe weighed a talent of gold, was fet on David's det. dres are the waters of Nimrah, and Dibon, and the head; all fuch as were prisoners, David exc-bills. E. River Tabor: others do also fancy another cuted with strange severity; for with saws there is River, which rifing out of the Rocks of Ar- and harrows he tare them in pieces, and cast twen H. the rest into lime-kills. Josaphat governing don, inthe Juda, they affifted the Moabites their neigh- North bours against him, and perished together bounder Olias made them Tributaries, and they were Num. IR. 12 Of the Ammonites, part of whose Territories the again by Jotham inforc't to continue that tri- of which udites man from Og, the King of Eafan.

bute, and to increase it, to wit, a hundred ta testing of the King of Eafan.

His Tribe of Gad possess that the Counletts of filver, ten thousand measures of Affin. try of the Ammonites, who together wheat, and ten thousand of barley: which Hin. 40.

The fifth King of the Ammonites, of whole : chro 36. without the Mountains of Gilead: though at name we read, was Baalis the confederate

§. VII. of the other half of Manasse.

the Kings of Ammon, but his name is omitted. land of Hus and Argob or Trachonitis (where wholeh In the time of Samuel they were at peace in also were part of the small Territories of miles were * Batania, Gaulonitis, Geffuri, Machati, and edwith Afterward we find that cruel King of the Auranitis ) was given to the half Tribe of some of Ammonites, called Nahas, who befieging Ja- Manasse over Jordan; of which those three that The bes Gilead, gave them no other conditions later Provinces defended themselves against birithe 1 5200, 11. but the pulling out of their right eyes. The them for many ages. But Batania Ptolony country of reason why he tendred so hard a compositi- setteth farther off, and to the North-East, as is 1 Kings on, was (besides this desire to bring shame up- a skirt of Arabia the Desart : and all those 16.1. and on Ifrael) because those Gileadites using to other Provinces before named with Petrea, 7th.1. carry a Target on their left arms, which and Iturea, he nameth but as part of Calofy- 1clay on could not but shadow their left eyes, should ria; as far South as Rabba, or Philadelphia: the Edit of by lofing their right, be utterly difabled to likewise all the rest which belonged to Gad. of Nephco defend themselves: but Saul came to their and Reuben, saving the Land near the Dead the right refeue, and delivered them from that dan. Sea, he makes a part of Arabia Petraa: for sainth ger. This Nahas, as it may feem, became the many of these small Kingdoms take not a and wat Nahas was flain in the battel, when Saul rai- ftretcheth it felf from the River of Jaboc to radiatin fed the fiege of Jaber, who affirmeth that the (a) Machati and Cessiviri: and from the said the rest three were three kines of the Action. there were three Kings of the Moubites of Mountains to Jordan, a Region exceeding his video fertile; by reason whereof it abounded in ore the Hanun succeeded Nahas: to whom when all forts of Cattel. It had also the goodliest and if see David sent to congratulate his establishment, woods of all that part of the world: espe-titus in and to confirm the former friendship which cially of oaks, which bare mast (of which the as it is great the confirm the former friendship which cially of oaks, which bare mast (of which the as it is great to confirm the former friendship which cially of oaks, which bare mast (of which the

of 1 Chr. 5, 10. whence it appears, that it was part of tunes, of which cr. fell. 4 | 5.8.6. (a) So they call them of Mehacuth, of with Makare formewhat hath been spoken toward the end of the fifth Paragraphs this Chapter for the state of this Chapter, fee the 1 Mac. 5. 36. and Dent. 3. 14. and jof. 11.5.

Prophet

Prophet Zacharias; Howle, O ye oaks of Ba-times (e) Butis, otherwise Berenice; by Selen- chief City of Selon, in the Tribe of Renben; cus King of Syria, it is said to have been cal- he imagineth two more: This Casphor in ested jed Pella, after the name of that Pella in Ma- Manasses, and a City in Gad which he calleth See codon: in which both Philip the Father, and Cashon, of which we have admonished the over in his Sou, Alexander the great, were born. It Reader heretoforc. Of Gamala ( fo called, was taken, and in part demolished by Alex- because the Hill on which it stood, was in was in fashion like the back of a Cammel) which refused to obey the Jors laws: but it was repaired by Pompey, and annexed to the Government of Syria. It is now but a Village. e of the on fire the (e) Temple of their Idols: toge- the place by nature to be almost invincible: of Carnion, of which 2 Macc. 12. 22. Then fishe 5, the strong City of (f) Ephron neer Jordan: ther very memorable accidents: and how which refusing to yeeld passage to (g) Judas at length, after the coming of Titus when it Macchabeus, was forced by him by affault. and taken and burnt with great flaughter.

ber of five thousand, thus perished: besides Jabes Gilead, or Jabesus, was another of the Cities of this half Tribe, which being besiegfour thousand slain by the Romans: so that none escaped, save only two women that ed by Nahas (h) King of the Ammonites, was delivered by Saul, as is (i) elsewhere menti- hid them elves. oned. In memory whereof these Citizens 1. Sam 31 (k) recovered, embalmed and buried the as much East from Tiberias (which is on the bodies of Saul and his fons: which hung de- other fide of the Lake) Josephus placeth Hipbe named, feated by Pliny on a Hill neer the which it standeth: so that it may feem to River Hieromiace, which River Ortelius have been of no small note. It is seated far feems to think to be Jaboc. At the foot of from the hill Country: on the East of the the Hill there spring forth also hot baths , as Lake, as also Pliny noteth, lib. 5. cap. 15. It at Macharus. Alexander Jannaus after ten was restored by Pompey: after by Augustus monethsfiege, wan it, and subverted it. Pom- added to Herod's Tetrarchy: it was wasted

Emath, or Amathus the third, Hierico and Se- borderers. phora in Galilee, the fourth and fifth. The Ci-1 16/15. terrible (n) revenge of Herod, they flew had the name of Adar, or Adara. Not far themselves: some by strangling, others by from these Towns neer Jordan, in this Valleaping over high Towers, others by drow- ley, flood Geraffa, or Gergeffa, inhabited by ning themselves.

To the East of Gadara they place Schei fair) and by reason hereof they bred so ma- (o)in which, Jos. ant. 5.13. saith, Jephika was of wife buried: whence others reading with the rain offe indictions into the Sea, by the unclean Vulgar, Jud. 12. 7. Sepultus of in Civitate fina had, the closed for the Civitate fina had, the closed for the Civitate fina had, the closed for the country of t initis which Christ had cast out of one of the Gilehad, (for in una Civitatum Gilehad) ima- u; tee in Gudarens. It had in it 6c. Cities walled and gine Gilchad to be the name of a City, and the libe defenced: all which, after og and his fons to be the fame with sebei. In like manner of Gal. were flain, Jair, descended of Manasse, con- following the Vulgar, 1 Macc. 5. 26. where outred, and called the Country after his it readeth Calphor for Chesbon; the same Aown name, Avoth Jair, or the Cities of Jair. drichomius imagineth it to be ampla & firma The principal Cities of this half Tribe (for Gilebaditarum Civitas: fo of one City Hes-I will omit the rest) are these, Pella, some- bon, or Chesbon, which they call Essebon, the Josephus placeth not far from Gadara, in the lower Caulanitis over against Tarichea , which is on the West side of the Sea or Lake faith Niger. Carnaim, by the River of Jabac, of Tiberias, fee this Josephus in the fourth c pice 3: do was taken by (d) ]ndas Macchabaus: where he feel book of the Jewish war: where he describes ther with all those that fled thereunto for and in the story of the siege, shewes how Sanctuary; and neer it they place the Castle Vespasian with much danger of his own perfon, entring it, was at first repulsed, with owas taken, many leaping downthe rocks

About four miles West from Gadara, and pightfully over the walls of Bethsan, or Sep-pus, or Hippene, whence Ptolomy gives the having thopolis. (1) Gaddara, or Gadara, is next to names to the Hils that compass the Plains in " Mil 14 Pey restored it: and Gabinius (m) made it by the Jews, in the beginning of their re- 701.6.1. one of the five Courts of Justice in Palestine. bellion: when by many massacres of their full. 1.16. Hierusalem being the first, Gadara the second, Nation , they were inraged against their 19.

with their wives and children, to the num-

The next City of note, but of more anci- Of anotizens impatiently bearing the tyranny of entfame, is Edrebi, or Edrai, wherein Og the Edrai Herod, surnamed Ascalonita, accused him to King of Basan chiesly abode, when Moses and the 301.19 Julius Cafar of many crimes: but perceiving Ifrael invaded him: and neer unto this his 37. Deu 3. that they could not prevail, and that Herod Regal City, it was that he lost the battel and i. or 10. was highly favoured of Cefar, fearing the his life. It flood in S. Hierom's time: and light is life.

Mas 28. 28. that Christ coming from the other fide naim, whence I Mac. 5. 26. it is called fin-Saviour a fign from Heaven: the fame place, theth one from the other. or fome adjoyning to it, which S. Mark cal- Not far from Afteroth, Adricomius out of contents 9.3. Mail lee, and from Bethfaida, to be either Magdala faith Breidenbach.

Woe be unto thee Corazim.

two fifties.

the Gergelites, descended of the fifth for of 'Giants, of whose race was og King of Fasan, central Canaan. Citchest Gergestes we read. Mat. 8. In Genesis this City is called Asteroth of Carof the Lake of Tilerias , landed in their ply Carnum, as Joj. 13.21. it is called After coalts: where cating the Devilsout of the roth without the addition of Carnaim. The pell fled, he permitted then to enter into word Carnaim fignifieth a pair of Horns, has a the nerd of Hoggs: in which flory, for Ger- which agree well with the name of their Idol gefites, or Gergefins, S. Luke and S. Marke Afteroth, which was the image of a sheep, as have Gaderens: not asit these were all one it is elsewhere noted, that Afteroth in Deute-(for Gergessa, or Geraja is a distinct Town in ronomy fignished sheep. Others, from the these parts from Gadara ) but the bounds ambiguity of the Hebrew take Karnaim to being confounded, and the Cities neigh- have been the name of the people which inhours either might well be named in this fro- habited this City; and expound it before rv. This City received many changes and ca- + radiantes. For of old the Raphæi which in- Becute lamities: of which Josephus hath often mention. For befides other adventures, it was taken by L. Annius, Lieutenaut to Fespalan: and 1000. of the ablest young men put to words Josephus 200 generalization. The second of the salest young men put to words Josephus 200 generalization. The second of the salest young men put to words Josephus 200 generalization. the fword, and the City burnt. In the yeer but if the Karnaim (or Carnajim) were these veb or 1120 it was rebuilt by Ealdwine King of Da-Raphai, the word would not have been in is form. majous: and in the same year recovered by the dual number: neither would Alejes in time Line Exlamine de Eurgo King of Jerusalem : and by the places of Genesis have faid the Raphei in 161 and him utterly razed. Neer unto Gerafa is the Afteroth of the Karnaim, but either the Ra-nemeter Village of Migedan, or, after the Syriack, phai in Aftero.b of the Raphai, or some other whereup Magedu, or, after the Greek, Magdala, where way fitteft for perspicuity: for this naming on the the Pharifees and Sadduces defired of our of both thus in the same clause, distingui- 420 16.19

leth Dalmanutha. By the circumstances of Brochard and Ereidenbachius placeth Cedar lucidamse which flory it appears that this coast lay be- in the way out of Syria into Galilee , four com, green tween the Lake of Tiberias and the Country miles from Corazin. This City (faith he) is to the tax of Decapolis. Brochard makes both these pla- remembred in the Canticles, and in the book bulous Of this ces to be one; and finds it to be Phiale, the of Judith, and there are that of this City to pant Philips fee fountain of jordan, according to sofephus: understand David in his 120. Pfalm: and inflaming 7. felt. 4 but this Phiale is too far from the Sca of Gali- here the Sepulchre of Job is yet to be scen, Hours.

Mark 6. or Dalmanutha. For as it appears by the Now concerning the Texts which he ci- 1 can. 5. flory, not far hence, towards the North, was teth, it is fo that the Greek hath Galaad in the Defart of Bethfaids, where Christ filled stead of the word Cedar, which the Vulgar 5000, people with the five barley loaves and doth use in that place of Judith, and joyneth Carmel and Galilee. The Canticles and the On the North of this Eethfaida, they place 120. Pfalm do rather prove that Cedar was Julias, not that which was built by Herod, but not hereabout, than any way help Adricothe other by Philip, which boundeth the Re- mins. For that they speak of Scenita Cedarcgion Trackonitis towards the South. It was ni, it is apparent, and as evident by the place fometime a Village, and not long after the in the Canticles, that they were de colores, birth of Christ, it was compassed with a wall much more than any under the Climates of by Philip the Tetrach of Inrae and Tracho the Land of Canaan: whence Junius out of nits: and after the name of Julia, the wife Lampridius and Pliny placeth them in Arabia of Tiberias, called Julias, as hath been fur- Petrea, far from thele parts. Touching the ther spoken in the Tribe of Gad: where it Sepulchre of Job, it is certain that the Ara- Rop Lines was noted that Josephus makes this Julias to lians and Saracens (holding those places) of the lians and saracens (holding those places) of the lians and saracens (holding those places) of the lians and saracens (holding those places) of the lians are lians and saracens (holding those places) of the lians are lians and saracens (holding those places) of the lians are lians a be the same as Bethsaida. Upon the East fide fain many things to abuse the Christians, and cont. this. of the same Lake of Tiberias Sands Coroza- to get mony. Further, it may well be affirm- de certific im, or Corazim, of which Christ in Matthem; ed, that many (if not all) the historical cir- Epole Was beyond the Corazim. cumstances of Job are so obscure, that we say But the principal City of all these in an-schould rather by finding his Country seek to city. I'm cient time was Aftereth: femetime peopled get feme knowledge of him, than by any chapters with the Giants Raphaim: and therefore prefumptions founded upon him, infer what is Departured in the prefumptions founded upon him, infer what is Departured in the control of the contro the Countrey adjoyning called the Land of his Countrey was, and build unto him a City and of his Countrey was, and build unto him a City and the countrey was a countrey was a country and the c by conjecture.

Tabab remembred in the 36. of Cenefis , both Ammon and Moub, did also drive the descended from Efau King also of Idu- Edomites out of those parts, who thence-forman, though Rupertus, Lyranus, Oleafter, ward feated themselves to the South of Iuand Bellarmine are of another opinion, deca, bordering the Defart Paran, and stretchvet Saint Ambrofe, Augustine, (Lryfoltome, ed their habitations over the Defarts as far and Gregorie, with Athanafins , Hippolitus , as Hor where Aaron died. trencus, Eusebius Emissenus, Apollinaris, Eu- Now for this Hus, which gave the name to stachins, and other cited by S. Hierome in his a part of the Land of Trackenitis, whether placed by Junius between Palastine and Ca- feem long before to have been lost and partin called Hus was thus feated, it may in part be ga- other Nations named between ) where Hus thered out of the place of fer. 23.20. where is spoken of, there Euz is also named. Neik to as it the reckons the Hulbites among the promif- ther doth it hinder our conjecture, that in restiting chous borders of the Ifraelites, whom he the place of Job 32. Elihu the Buzite is faid the form therfore calleth promife uous, or mifeelaniam to be of the Family of Ram: (which Junius this fan.) mon, is, turbam, because their bounds were not only expounds to be as much as of the Family of joyned but confounded, and their seignio- Aram) for that by his Aram we are not to ries mingled one with the other: but of this understand Aram the son of Sem, Junius himplace the words of Hieremy, Lam. 4. 21. spea- self maketh it plain, both in his annotation fpeaketh in the 25. Chapter, must needs be faith, that one of Jobs friends ( which must expounded, as Junius reads them, distin-needs be this Elihu) was of the posterity of guishing the Land of Hus from Edom: O filia Nuchor ( as also in this place he confesseth so Edomi, O que habitas in terra Hutzi; O dangh- much expretly) and in as much as he readeth ter of Edom, O thou which dwellest in the Land not è Familia Aram, or Ram, but è Fimilia Sydiffinguish, but readeth, Filia Edom que Nachor, is called a Syrian. habitas in terra Hus; Daughter of Edom which As for the other three of Jobs friends ( of See Sixus dwellest in the land of Hus: Hence, as it whom by this note of Elihu his being of the Senensu. feems, some of the learned have thought that Syrian Family, or of the Family of Nachor)it Job was an Edomite, as we have faid, and is implyed that they were of other kindreds, King of Edom, which if they understand by as also by the Septuagints addition, that this it Idumea, or Edom, fo called in Moses time, Elibu was of the Land of Hus, or Austis, it is they are greatly mastaken, making this Land implyed that they thought only Flihu to have of Hus to be in Idumea. For it is very pro- been of Jobs own Country.

Of Job himself, whether he was the same like that the Amorites, who had beaten

126. Epift to Evagrius take him for the fame, it were Hus the fon of Aram, as Junius thinks The Land of Huts or Hus, wherein Job in his note upon Gen. 10. 29. or rather Hus dwelt, is from the Greek Ovs, which the sep- the fon of Nachor, Abrahams brother, the ne onen tuagint use for the word Huts, translated by question is doubtful. For my part I rather enchanged the Vulgar fometimes Hus, as Job 1.1. fonce cline to think, that it was Hus the fon of Natheother: time Austris, as Hierem. 25.20. This Land is chor: partly because these Families of Aram logria befides Chamatha (or Hamatha) under by because in Job 32. 2. Fliber the fourth of whence Pulmyrene, in the Countrey called by Ptolomy Jobs triends, which feems to be of Jobs own the Sep-Trachonitis, or Bathane 1, the bounds of which Country, is called a Fuzite, of Buz the bro- him exten Countries are confounded with Easan in this ther of Hus, the fon of Nachor: as also Fer. 800 Aug. Total adoles half Tribe of Manaffes. And that this Land of 25, in the fame continuation (though some tite. king of the same Prophecy, of which he upon the beginning of his book, where he of Hus. Now because the Vulgar doth not so riæ; like as elsewhere Laban, who sprung of bable that Efan, when he first parted from Ja- Franciscus Brochard the Monk, in his decob, did not feat himself in Edom, or Seir, scription of the Holy Land in the journy from which lieth on the South border of Judea, Acon Eastward, findeth Suetha, and Theman but inhabited seir far to the East of Jordan, on the East of the Sea of Galike: both very and held part of those Mountains, other-near to the Land of Hus: whereof the one wife called Galaad, and Hermon, which by may feem to have denominated Fildad the corruption the Sidonians call Shirion, and Shuchite; the other Eliphaz the Themanite: the Amorites Shenir for Seir; and from this two of the three friends of Job, of the his habitation did Efan incounter Jacob, when which Job 2. 11. But Junius thinks that the he returned out of Mesopotamia, who passed Shuchites were inhabitants of Arabia the Deby the very border of Efan his abiding. It fart, descended of Shuach the son of Abraham is true, that at fuch time as Mofes wandered and Ketura: of whom Gen. 25. 2. perhaps, in the Defarts, that the posterity of Esau in- saith he, the same whom Pliny calls Saccai. habited seir to the South of Judea: for it is So also he thinkerth the Themanites, of whom Eliphaz whence Tfopher the third of Job's friends ed with Betfer, or Eozra of Reuben, and with (which in this place of 70h.2 11. are mentio- Bozra of Edom. Argob is oft named for a Rened) is by the same learned Expositor, gion in this Tract, and hence Hierome harb thought either to be named of Thimnah by Arga, a name of a City placed by some about transposition of letters (which Thimnah, Gen. the waters of Merom (as they are called by 36.40. is named among the fons of Esau, that Josua) which make the Lake Samachonitis as gave denomination to the places where they Josephus cals it. This Lake, being as it were were feated) or else to be the same Nahamah, in the midst between Casarea Philippi and Tiwhich Jos. 15. 41. is reckoned for a City of berias, through which, as through the Lake Jud. in the border, as he thinks, of Edom. of Tiberias, Jordan runneth, boundeth part And yet I deny not but that near the Land of this half Tribe on the West. When the of Hus, in Basan, as it feems, in the Tribe of frow of Libanus melteth, it is very large, saith Manager, there is a Region which (at leaft) racker d: etherwise more contract, leaving in larer times was called Suitis, or of fome the martili ground on both fides, for Lions like name. For this is evident by the Hifto- and other wilde beafts, which harbour in Debilier, Ty of Will, Tyring, which reports of a Fort in the flarubs that plentifully grow there. ib. 25 & this Region of Suita, or Suites (as he cals it Adjoyning to this Lake in this Country diverfly) of exceeding great frength and of Manafas, Josephus names two places of the for the retaining of the whole Country: thrength, fortified by himfelf in the beginwhich, in the time of Baldwine the fecond ning of the Jews rebelling: Selencia the one.

Снар. ХІ.

enters the Lake Tiberiss at Corazin. med in the Scripture, are these: Colun, Gehess- bounds (as also the bounds of Gessur and Maafter the coming of the Ifraelites was called derers to Manaffes towards the North-East) Nobach. Of Nobach or Kenath, and Mitspa of are unknown: only that Gessur was of might, Joseph 29 ven to the Lewites, and Golan made one of the whom he had the most beautiful, but wicked Deut 4 43. Cities of refuge: from which Golan we have and unfortunate Absalom.

Fliphaz was, to have been of rabia the De- both Gaulanitis Superior and inferior, oft in fart : and Fliphaz himself to have been of the Josephus. Behessithera is accounted the chief posterity of Theman the son of Flij haz, which City of Basan by some, but the Writers corwas the fon of Ffau. And fo also Nahamah, rupting the name into Bozra, it is confound-

King of Hiersfalem, was with great digging through rocks recovered by the Christians; having not long before been loft, to the East, the Scripture nameth divers bordering great difadvantage of the Country, while it places towards Damafeur, as Ifedad, Charwas in the hands of the Saracem. The fitua-ram, and Chasfar-Henan, lying in a line drawn tion of this Fort is by Tyrius described to be from the West; of which three Cities we fixteen miles from the City Tiberias, on the read, Ezek 47. 15. with which also agrees East of Jordan: by Adrickomius four miles the place, Num. 34. 8. where for Chauram be-North-ward from the place where Jordan tween Tfedad, and Chatfar-Henan, Ziphron is named. From this Chauram is the name of Other Cities of this part of Manasses na- Auranitis Regio, in Josephus and Tyrius, whose thera, Mitspa of Gilead, and Kenath, which bacath, or Macati, which were likewise bor-Gilead, we have spoken by occasion among it appears in that David married Mahaca the 1 class, the Cities of Gad. The other two were gi- daughter of Thalmay King of Geffur: by "

CHAP. XI.

The History of the Syrians , the chief Borderers of the Israelites that dwelt on the East of Jordan.

9. I. Of the City of Damascus, and the divers Fortunes thereof.

House of pleasure; and is not only remem- that it was founded by Damaseus the son

Amascus of all other in this bor- | bred in many places of Scripture, but by der, and of that part of the the best Historians and Cosmographers. The world, was the most famous, Hebrews, saith Josephus, think it to have been excelling in beauty, antiquity, built by Hus the fon of Aram: of which o fight. and riches, and was therefore pinion S. Hierome upon Esty seemeth to be: 6.14 called the City of joy or gladness, and the though in his Hebrew questions heaffirmeth, to the state of Eliener, Abraham's Steward; a thing ve- Romanes, in the year of our redemption 626. time, Rezon recovered it again, though he sembled at Ptolomais Acon, on the sea-coast, had no title at all or right to that Principa-lity: but David having overthrown Hada-ing betrayed by the Syriani, they failed of dezer King of sophena otherwise spria soba, the enterprize. er Zoba) Razon or Rezon, with the remain- In the year 1262. Halon the Tartar incomder of that broken Army, invaded Damafee paff it, and having formerly taken the King, mind better the Land and period better the brought him under the Wals, and threatned for the tree of the state of an enemy to Solomon all his life.

Edomite, who flying into Egypt from David the King was torn afunder before them, and and foab, when they flew all the males in in fine the City taken, Agab the fon of Halon Edom, was there entertained, and married was by his father made King thereof. adad returning again, became an enemy to befreged the City with an Army of 1200000. solomon all his life, and (as fome Wri- (if the number be not miftaken.) He entred ters affirm ) invaded Damascus, and thrust it, and put all to the sword, filling the ditch Rezon thence out. In the Line of Adad that with his prisoners; those that retired into Kingdom continued nine descents (as here-the Castle, which seemed a place impregnaafter may be shewed in the Catalogue of ble, he overtopped with another Castle ad-Energy Christerhous, the golden River. Junius takes gypt, they again surprized Damaseus. Lastly, nends.6. the Florentines, after it became Christian: Church, he burnt them and it to the num-3.1.10. the Lillies being found cut in many Marbles ber of 30000, and did fo demolishit, as oi7.49 in that Citadel. Against this City the Pro- those that came afterwards to see their hou-Ning to Damascens, Teglatphalasser, invited by Achaz After this, it was restored and re-possest by upon that place, five years after the Prophetions. cy. In time it was restored by the Macedonians, and the Ptolomies; but long after, when Syria fell into the hands of the Romanes, it was taken by Metellus, and Lollins. In the Of the first Kings of Damascus, and of the time of the Christians it had an Archbishop : growing up of their power. Saint Hierome living, as he affirmeth upon the Ads, it was the Metropolis of the Saraceus:

Now be it that Damaseus were founded being taken by Haomer their King from the

by Hus the son of Aram, or by Damaseus on 15.2 rv unlikely, feeing the City was formerly and in the year 1147. Conrad the third, Em- onubbing known by that name, as appears by Abra- perour of Rome, Lewis King of France, Balel in Chron. ham's calling this his Steward Eliezer of Da- wine the third King of Hiernsalem, Henry with. Tyr. maleo. David was the first that subjected it Duke of Austria, brother to Conrad, Frede-bell fur. to the Kingdom of Juda, after the overthrow rick Barbaroffa afterward Emperour, Theode-146.17 c.t. of Adadezer their King; but in Solomon's rick Earl of Flaunders, and other Princes af- 3-45.

extreme torture unto him, except the Citi-The next King of Damaseus was Adad the zens rendred the place: but they refusing it, Tuplines the King of Fg. pts Wives fifter: of In the year 1400 Tamberlain Emperour Herold 1.6 whom Taphnes in Fgypt was fo called. This of the Parthians, invaded that Region, and 6 4. these Kings of Spria) to whom the Affgrians, joyning: he forbare the demolishing of the and then the Grecians succeeded. This City City, in respect of the beauty of the Church, was exceeding strong, compassed with wa- garnished with forty Gates, or sumptious ters from the Rivers of Abanah, and Phaspar. Porches. It had within it 9000, Lanterns of whereof one of them, prophane Writers call Gold and Silver: but while he invaded Eit for Adonis. The Country adjoyning is ve- in his returnafter three moneths fiege, he ry fruitful of excellent Wines and Wheats, forc't it: the Mahometans proftrating themand all manner of excellent fruits. It had in felves with their Priefts, defired mercy. But it a very strong Castle, built as it seems by Tamberlain commanding them to enter the phets Amos, Efay, Jeremy, and Zacharias, pro- fes, knew them not by the foundations. And phefied that it should be taken, burnt, de- as a Trophee of his victory, he raised three molished, and made a heap of stones. In the Towers with great art, builded with the time of the last Rezon, and tenth King of the heads of those whom he had slaughtered. King of Juda, carried away the naturals of the Soldane of Egypt with a Garrison of Mam-Damascus into the East: Icaving of his own malukes: And in the year 1517. Selimus Em-Nation to inhabit it. After that it was utter- perour of the Turks wrested it out of the ly ruined by the Babylonians, faith Hierome hands of the Egyptians: in whose possession upon Esay: which thing was performed by it now remaineth inhabited with Mahome-Salmanaffer, according to Junius in his note tans and Christians of all neighbouring Na-find no relation of their Kings, or Common-those Adads of Spria Zoba, and Damaseus. wealth vill Dands time, For it flood with- Some account Rezon, others Adad of Iduout the bounds of Canaan: and therefore mea: of whom it is written in the first of neglected by Moses, Josus, and the Judges, Kings, that David having invaded that Rethat it had fome Reguli, or petry Kingsover male children thereof: Adad of the Kings Tun. 1.6, calleth Nubor, inhabiting between Batania and, as Bunting thinketh, this Adad did ex-1 558.14 ria, Loha, and Tohn of Chamath. But it feem- fame in name, with the differences of Fzer, tit, that Danafens was one of the Cities fub-: See. 2. were levied and lent to Hadad-Hezer from Damaseus: as out of his proper Dominions: I Ring it Toku King of Chamath, or Huraa, hearing greatest part of Arabia Petraa, according for the most part were in league and peace after he was carried thither.

CHAP, XI.

the firm of Eliener Abraham's fleward, we nor of our later Writers, who was the first of

as impertinent to that Story. But were it to gion, and left Joab there to defiror all the it, as all the Cities of those parts had, yet feed fled into Fgppt; and was there married none of them became famous for ought that to Taphnes the Queens fifter, as before; who is left to writing, till fuch time as Davido- hearing of David's death, and of the death verthew Adadezer Prince of Sophena, or of his Captain Joab (whom indeed all the Swia Zoba: the fame Nation which Pliny bordering Nations feared) he turned again: and Euphrates. Now the better to under-pel Recon out of Damafeus, and was the first frand the flory of those sprian Princes, of the sprian Kings. To me it feemeth other- some whom foon after the Kings of Damajous made wife. For, as I take it, Adadezer, the fon of on their vallals, the Reader may inform himself, Rehob, whom Sanl invaded, was the Foun-That on the North-East parts of the Holy der of that Principallity : and the first of Land, there were three chief Principallities, Adads, who forfaking his fathers name, as he ubercof the Kingsor Commanders greatly grew powerful, took upon him the fulle of vexed or disturbed the Stare or Common-Adad, the great god of the Algrians, faith wealth of Ifrael, namely, Damasens, or Aram, Macrobins, which fignified Oneness of Unive Sophena, or Spria Zoha, and Chamath, or I also find a City called Adada, in the same Chamath Zoha; of which these were the part of Spria: of which whether these Prin-Princes in David's and Solomon's times: Ra- cestook the name, or gave it, I am ignorant, zon, or Rezon of Damalens, Adadezer of Sy- For Adad-ezer, Een-adad, El-adad were the ject to Adadezer when Dand invaded him, was of greatefr power, it appeareth first, bethough when saul made war against Zoba, cause it is against him, that David undertook Damaseus was not named. And as Josephus the war: Secondly, because he levied affirmeth, the leader of those succours, which 22000. Aramites out of the Territory of Damafens, had the name of Adad: who was for had the Damafeens had a King apart, it is in that battel flain with 22000. Aramites of probable that the Scriptures would have Damaseus: whereof, as of the overthrow of given us his name: Thirdly, because Spria Adadezer, Rezon the Commander of his Ar- Zoba, of the most of which Adadezer was my, taking advantage, made himself King King, was an exceeding large Territory, plants of Damaseus, Adadezer, and Adad of Damas-, and contained of Arabia the Defart as far as is. cus being both flain. About the same time to Enphrates, according to Pliny: and the that his neighbour and enemy sidudezer was to Niger. Wholoever was the first, whether utterly overthrown, fendeth for peace to Adadezer, or Adad of Idumea, Rezon was David, and prefenteth him with rich gifts: the fecond: Who was an enemy to Ifrael all I King !! but in dolo, faith S. Hierome; it was craftily the dayes of Solomon. Befides the evil that done of him. Now to the North of the Ho- Adad did, the evil that Hadad did, seemeth ly Land, and to the West of Damaseus, the to be referred to Hadad of Idumsa, lately Tyrians and Zidonians inhabited: but they returned out of Fgspt: to wit, 23. years with the Judans and Ifraelites. But to re- The third King of Damasens, and of Zobah turn to the Kings of Syria, I mean of Syria both, was Hezion; to Hezion succeded Taas it is taken in the Scriptures, containing bremmum, or Tabrimmum 5 to him Eerkadad, 1 Keel Damaseena, Soba or Zoba, and Chamath, or as is proved in the first of Kings: For Ast 15.15. Hurka; to which I may add Geffur, because King of Juda the son of Abiam, the son of Koit is so accounted in the second of sam. 15. boam, the son of solomon, being vexed and inas joyning in the Territory to Damaseus (for vaded by Bassha, the successiour of Nadab, the Spria at large is far greater, of which Pala- fon of Jeroboam, fent to Benhadab the fen of flina it felf is but a Province, as I have noted Tahrimmon, the fon of Hezion, King of Aram, in the beginning of this Tract:) It is not a that dwelt at Damascus, to invade Israel greed among the Historians of former times, (while Baasha fought to fortifie Rama against foculd not enter into any of the territories three years after (for fo long the league laftthe time!) who according to the defire of Afa, ed ) Ramoth not being delivered, Achab inhaving received his prefents, willingly in- vaded Gilead, and belieged the City, being which Baasha had brought to fortifie Rama hadad sendeth the Commander of his forces, withal, and converted them to his own use. called Naaman, to Joram the son of Achab

of the History of the World.

fent him out of the Temple, was the most phet, as is aforesaid. After Benhadad beijer, d forcible argument. And that this Tabremmon Samaria again, and being terrified thence invaded Ilrael, before the enterprize of his from Heaven, he departed home, and ficktaken prisoner, was rather the son of Benha-their wars with the Israelites. dad, the first of that name, the confederate of | Hazael or Azael, the first King of the race As and Abiam as before, than the son of Ta- of the Adads of Damaseus, was announted by bremmon. For between the invalion of Benha- Elisha, or Elizens, when he was fent by Benhadad the first, in Baasha's time, and the siege dad to the Prophet, to know whether Benhaof Samaria, and the overthrow of Benhadad | dad fhould recover his prefent fickness: He by Achab, there past 49 years, as may be ga- | waged war with Foram, who received divers thered out of the reigns of the Kings of If- wounds at the encounter at Ramoth in Giracl. So that if we allow 30. years of age to lead: from whence returning to be cured at Benhadad, when he invaded Badha, and after Jefreel, he and the King of Juda, Abaziah or that 49. years ere he was taken by Achab, Ochozias, are flain by Jehn, as before is faid. which make eighty lacking one, it is unlikely After the death of Joram, Azael continued that Benhadad at fuch an age flould make war against Jehn, and wasted Gilead, and all with no fuch pomp; but the second Benha- over fordan. He then invaded juda, and dad vaunteth, that he was followed with took Gath; but by gifts from Joas he was a-32.Kings: and therefore I refolve, that Benha- | verted from attempting Hierusalem: for he dad the fon of Tebremmon invaded Bassba presented him all the hallowed things which Achab, at whose hands this Ecubadad re-Kings of Juda, had dedicated, and which coived two notorious overthrows: the sinfelf he himself had dedicated; and all the gold second at Aphee, where, with the like num- and in the Kings house. This was the second ber in effect, the Ifraelites flaughtered time that the Temple was spoiled to please 200000. of the Aramites; besides 27000. the Adads of Damasens. For Asa did present which were crush't by the fall of the wall of Benhadad with those treasures, when he in-Aphec. And this Benhadad, Achab again set- vited him to war upon Baasha King of Israel.

Ma: thereby to block him up, that he tier Town, and of great importance. Now raded the Country of Nephralim, and took affilted by Johnston. The Armiter came to 1 No. 224. divers Cities, and spoyls thence: Afa in the succour and light: in which Achale is wound- 3-27. mean while carrying away all the Materials, ed, and dieth that night. After this, Een. 3232. This Benhadads Father Tabremmon was in to be healed of the leprofie, and though Flileague with Afa: and so was his Father He- zeus had healed him, yet he picked a quarzion: for Asu requireth the continuance of rell against foram; and when foram, by Eli- : 10m 5. that friendship from Benhadad, his fon: zens his intelligence had escaped his plot, 2 Kin.s. though it feemeth that the gold and filver he fent men and Chariots to take the Pro-fon Benhadad, it is conjectured. For Benhadad neth, and fendeth Azael with great gifts to a very when he was prisoner with Achab, spake as Elizeus, to know his estate if he might live, 3/34. followeth: The Cities which my father took Azael returning franthereth him. Zonaras and Mani. from thy father, I will reflore, and thou shalt Cedrenus call this Benhad of Adar, and the fon and $6.6 make streets or Reepers of the borders for thee in Of Adar : Ames and Filereny mention the Damascus: as my Father did in Samaria And Towers of Benhaclad. Josephus writeth there herein there arifeth a great doubt ( if the Benhadad and his fuccessor Acad were worargument it felf were of much importance) thipped for Gods by the syrians to his time, because Tabremmon was father indeed to for the sumptuous Tempies which they built Benhadad which invaded Baasha, at the re- in Damaseus. The syrians also boasted much quest of Afa: Fat this Benhadad that twice en- of their antiquity, ignorant, faith he, that tred upon Achab, and was the fecond time fearce yet 1100, years are compleat tince war. Befides all this, the first Fenhadad came those portions of Gad, Reuben, and Manage, 2 Reg. : 2. and Omri; and Benhadad the second invaded Jehosaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah his fathers, 2 Rez. 12. at Samaria, by a fally of 700. Ifraelites: the which was found in the treasures of the Lord, 1 Reg. 151 teth at liberty: to whom he rendreth those And notwithstanding this composition be-Towns that his father had taken from the tween Joss and Azael, yet a part of his Army Predecessour of Achab, but being returned, spoiled the other Provinces of Judea, and 2 Rec. 13. he refused to render Ramoth Gilead, a fron-Illaughtered many principal persons. Lastly, 7.

Azael vexed Joahaz the fon of Jehu, and Adads, as they reigned in order are thus recought him to that extremity as he left him koned: but fifty Horse-men, ten Chariots, and ten thousand Foot-men of all his people.

318

6. III.

Of the later Kings, and decay and overthrow of their power.

A Fter Hazael, Benhadad the second, or rather the third of that name, the son of Hazael, reigned in Damascus: who fought against Israel with ill success: for Joas King of Ifrael, the fon of the unhappy Joachaz, as Hazael had taken violently from foachaz.

fucceeded three others by the same name. of whom the Stories are loft, onely Nicholaus Damascenus cited by Josephus, makes mention of them: and in one of these Kings 1 Kin, 14, of Joan, recovered Damafeus it felf to Ju- rufalem. It is also some proof that Hazael that

And it is likely, that this conquest upon the Adads was performed: the first of these Israel thrice overthrew. three Adads then living of whom there is no Story. For when as Tehoas the King of the ten Tribes had thrice overcome the Syrians in the time of Benhadad the fon of Hazael. and had recovered the Cities which Hazael had won from Ifrael; and so left his Kingdom to his fon Joroboam the second; it seemeth that this feroboam without delay, and having nothing else left for him to enter-prize, inftantly followed his fathers good fortune and invaded Damascus.

Razin, or Rezin, after Josephus, Rases; after Zonaras, Rasson the tenth Adad, making league with Pekab, or Phacas King of Ifrael, a-2 Kin. 16 a great number of prisoners. After this they both besiege Achaz in Hierusalem : but in Jojanil 9 vain. Then Adad alone invadeth Elath, and beating out the Jews, maketh it a Colony of Syrians. Wherefore Achab brought Teglatphalassar against Razin, who took him and beheaded him, and won Damascus: with whom ended the line of the Adads, and the Kingdom of Damascus: the Assyrians beco-

CHAP. XI

- I Adadezer the fon of Rebob.
- 2 Rezin the fon of Eliadad or Razin. 2 Hezion.
- 4 Tabremmon.
- 5 Benhadad who invaded Baalha.
- 6 Benhadad the fecond taken prisoner by Achah.
- 7 Hazael, whom Elisha foretold with tears of his advancement; the same who overthrew Joram King of Ifrael at Ramoth Gilead. And that there was a fecond Hazael which preceded Benhadad the third, it is not improbable, because that Hazael which took Geth, he was foretold by Elisha the Prophet, beat and compounded the war with loss, made Benhadad in three several battels: and he the Expedition thirty years, and perchance loft all those Cities to Ifrael, which his father more, after the first Hazael which stiffed his master Benhadad, and had flain Foram the son After this Benhadad the fon of Hazael, there of Achab King of Ifrael. For Joan began to reign in the 7. year of Jebu King of Ifrael; and after he had reigned 23. years, the Temple was not yet repaired, after which(and how long we know not) it is faid that Hazael times it was that Feroboam the second, the son took Geth, and turned his face towards feda, faith the Geneva, but better in Junius, took Geth, was not the same with Hazael that Utque recuperabat Damascum, & Chamatham murdered Benhadad, because he could not Jehnda pro Israele; that is, And how he reco- at that time be of good years, being as it vered for Ifrael, Damascus and Chamatha of seemeth, the second person in the Kingdom, Judea; for these Cities sometimes conquered, and Commander of Benhadads men of war. by David, did of right belong to the Tribe To this Hazael (be he the first or second) suc-

8 Benhadad, the third, whom Josh King of 9 Resin, or Rezin, the last, who joyned with Pekab King of Ifrael, against Juda, at which time Achaz King of Juda waged for his defence Teglatphalasser.

Now between Benhadad the third, and Rezin the last, Nicolaus Damascenus finds three other Kings of the Adads, which make twelve in all.

For the rest of the Princes of Syria, which were but Reguli, as those of Emath, and 1 Samt; Geffur, we find that Tohu was King of Emath, or Camath, in Davids time, to whom he fent his fon Joram with prefents, after Davids victory against Adadezer. Also Senache-

6. IV.

Of Other leffer Kingdoms of the Syrians, which being brought under the Assyrians, neverrecovered themselves again.

F Geffur we find two Kings named; to wit, Talmai, and his Father Ammibur: ming mafters both of that and Ifrael. These to Talmai, whose Daughter David married, of If sel, and againft Research te laft King of diffolved, Achaz yet living.

Danafas: which Teglath first invaded Da
Lastly, the Kingdom of Inda it self, being and strong Prince, was content to take the 200. years. composition of a thousand talents of the King of Israel for that present time. But his other Provinces of the Persian Empire, and ir was that Abfalom fled, who was his mater- carried it (as is before remembred) and nal Grandfather. Of the Kings of sephena, then with great ease possest himself of the or Spria, Soba, or Cwlospria, there are two Cities of Nephtalim; leading with him a great named, Rehob, or Rechob, the Father of Ada- part of the people captive. And his fon Saldezer, and Adadezer himself; and it is plain manasser, whom Ptolemy called Nahonatter. that after his death the feat of the Kings of after the revolt of Holes, forced Samaria. Soba was transferred to Damaseus, a City and rent that Kingdom afunder. So as the better fitting their greatness. After Rezin line and race of Ninus in Sardan apillus, became Lord of both Principalities. And whom Belochus supplanted, the race and Mothe race of these Kings of Syria (which be-narchy of the Syrian Adads in Rezin, whom came so potent, and joyned soba, Damas-Teglath slaughtered; the Kingdom of Israel cus, Emath, and the Defart of Arabia, with in Hofea, whom Salmanaffer overturned; hapother Provinces into one, under Rezin the pened near about a time: that of Ninus in fecond of the Adads) as it began with Da- the daies of Belochus, and the other two in vid, so it ended at once with the Kingdom the daies of Teglatphalasser, and Salmanasser of Ifrael. For Abaz King of Juda waged the his fon. For Sardanapalus perished, off a ru-Allyrian Teglatphalassar against Pekah King ling Juda; and the other two Kingdoms were massiena, and the Region of soba, and took attempted by senacherib, the son of Salma-Damascus it self, and did put to death Rezin nasser, in vain, and preserved for the time the last, carrying the Inhabitants captive. by God miraculously, was at length utterly This was the fecond time that the Alfgrians overturned. Hierufalem and the Temple attempted If rael. For first Phul Belochus en-burnt 132. years after the captivity of Iftred the borders thereof (Menahem govern- rael and Samaria: the destruction of Ifing Ifrael) who stopt the enterprise of Phul rael being in the ninth year of Hosea: that of with a thousand talents of filver: for this Juda in the eleventh of Zedechia. Now the That Belachus, whose pedigree we will ex- Emperours of Affyria and Babylon held also amine hereafter, being scarce warm, as yet, in the Kingdom of Syria, from the eighth year his feat at Babylon, which he, with the help of Salmanasser; to the last of Baltassar, whom 3603. of his companion Arbaces, had wrested from Herodotus calleth Labynitus: in all about 3811. Sardanapalus: having besides this King of 200. years. After these the Persians from Cyrus Syria in his way, who seemed to be a great to Darius their last King, held Syria about fon Teglath following the purpose of his fa-ther Belochus, and finding so excellent an till it became subject unto the power of the occasion, as the war begun between Ifrael Romans, from whom it was wrested long afand Judah, Pekah commanding in the one, ter by the Saracens, and remaineth now in and Achaz in the other, his neighbour Rezin possession of the Turk, as shall be shewed in being also wrapt in that war, and wasted due place. Thus much of the Nations bordein strength thereby, did willingly accept the ring upon the Ifraelites, with whom they had offer of Achaz King of Juda, his imprest and most to do, both in war and peace, being the entertainment. So, first attempting Damas onely people, whose History in those ancient cus, which lay in his path towards Ifrael, he times carried an affared face of Truth.

CHAP. XII.

Of the Tribe of Benjamin, and of Hierusalem.

Of divers memorable places in the Tribe of Benjamin, whereof Hiericho, Gilgal, Mitspa, Bethel, Rama, Gobah, and Gibha.

F the Tribe of Benjamin, the twelfth perishing in the Defarts, there entred the and youngest son of Jacob, whom he Holy Land of their islues 45600. fit to bear had by Rachel, there were mustered Arms: and these had their Territory on this at Mount Sinia 35000.able bodies: all which side Jordan, between Juda and Ephraim: The Circa. 8. Cities within this Tribe nearest Jordan, are which he came yearly to give judgement to Lod Hadid and Ono: of which, Lod and Ono the Ifraelites; of which two, Gilgal (as is faid) were built by Shemed a Benjamite: they were was near Jordan on the East side of this Tribe all three re-inhabited with Benjamites, after and Mitspa near the West Sea, towards the the return out of Captivity, as is mentioned, land of the Philistims. Nobem, 11, 35, and Eld. 2.35, where Adri- The third place, which is named with Simon Macchabaus.

built ov Adrian.

anew City Paffeover.

noted, that both it, and Mitspa of Benjamin is Jerem. 41. ( of which also we read oft in the Scripture)

CHAP. XII.

chomius reading Lod, Hadid, Ono, makes be- these two, whither also Samuel used yearly fides Hadid in Nehemia, a City called Lod- to come, is b Bethel: which also was feated in b Junios hadid: This Hadid or Chadid was rebuilt by this Tribe of Benjamin. But to return to Gil-in the gal, which was the first place where the Ark Build Samarim, or Tlemaraim named of Tlemary relided, after they past over Jordan ( from leads Do. one of the fons of Canaan, was another of whence it was carried to Silo, and thence to forting their Cities: and further into the Land stand- Kiriath-Jeharim, and at length to Hierusa-interprets eth Jericho, one of the Toparchies and the lem) here in Gilgal it was that Josua pitched in Kine Kings 16. last of Juda, seated in a most fruitful Valley, up the 12. stones, which were taken out of run, when adorned with many Palm-trees: and there- the channel of Jordan, when it was dry, that the Arite fore essewhere called the City of Palms. From the Israelites might pass over it: by which (sinh) the time of Josua, who utterly destroyed it, Story, as it is let down Jos. 4. it appears, that by the it lay waste untill the time of Achad: in the same day that they passed over Jordan, 130,171 whose daies Chiel of Bethel laid the new they lodged at Gilgal. At the same Gilgal, to the guafoundation of it, in the loss of Abiram his eldeft fon, and built the gates of it in the loss that Samuel hewed Agag the King of the their samuel hewed. of his youngest son Segub: according to the Amalekites in pieces. And as for Mitha, whi wall walls curse of Josua: in which and other respects, ther samuel came yearly to give judgment, where the times it was destroyed by Vespasian, and re-held: as that for the revenge of the Levice but this wife against Gibha, and the Benjamites, Jos. not treak To the South-east of Jericko stood * Hal-1:000.6. mon of the Levites, of which Joj 21.18. To I Sam. 7.12. Thither also Judos Macchabaus died the South Betharaba, of which fof c. 15. and c gathered the Jews ( when Hierufalem was meetings This Helmonis cal. 18. Then that Gilgal of which there is so much possest by the Heather) as it is I Mac. 3.47. in and be monis cal. mention in the Scripture, where Josua first which place this reason of their meeting is Priess ate of the fruits of the land, circumcifed all added; Quia locus orationi fuerat Mitfpa an didule to bing the they make those born in the Defarts, and celebrated the tea Israeli. Touching this Milifia, to avoid the answ City Passeover. The reason of the name, or rather a me-Scriptures mention four places of this name: whereso morable application of the Etymology of this Mitspa of Juda, of which Jos. 18. (c) Mit-ever they name (for it feems by the place, Deut. 11.30. Spa of Gilead, of which we have spoken al-week, as that the name was known before the com- ready in the Tribe of Gad. Mitspa of the 1 santi. ing of the Israelites into Canaan) is noted of Moabites, where David for a while held him-11. & 14. 5. 9. 0b devolutionem probri Agyptiaci, be- felf, commending his Parents to the King of the six cause their fore-skins (the people being there Moab, 1 Sam. 22.3. and lastly, this chief Mit-case to circumcifed) were tumbled down the Hill: fpa of the Benjamites. And as in this place expound which from thence was called Collis prapu- the chief meetings were held both before thereife tiorum. This Gilgal was also called Geli-Hiernsalem was recovered from the Jebnsties, than to loth, as appears by comparing the places, Jos and also in the time of the Macchabees (as the City and also in the time of the Macchabees). 15.7. and 18. 17. for it was in the borders we have faid) when Hierusalem was held by though of Jordan, of which Jos. 22.13. and Geliloth the wicked under Antiochus, so also in the Junior fignifieth borders. It flood (though in fome time of Hieremy, after the destruction of the ictorite diffance) directly Ealtward, over against the two Hills Garazim and Hebal: upon the one buckodoms or less in Jewry, as Governour or wheether two Hills Garazim and Hebal: of which the bleflings, and on the other the ver those that were left in the land, held his i sam. 10 curfings were to be read to the people, both abiding in this place: until (to the great hurt;) being the Mountains of Ephraim. Further, of the Jews) he was slain by the treason of no other for the fituation of this Gilgal, it is to be Ismael, one of the royal blood of Juela, as it than this were feated about the midlt of the length of the land of Canaan: for which reason (a) Sa consists, though Adrichmitus and other out of this piece imagination.

(c) 1 s.m. mucl_choic these two places, to either of Missing or Market which is added, respacement, for Missing on the three quarters, North, Wed, and Eash, to which belolused it constitutes, though Marketmitus and others out of this piece imaginated that the same of the same o

Neer unto this Mitspa, the Scripture men- Ephraim, 1 Sam. 25. I. Which more often is against the Philistims.

the third place where Samuel held his chief thea, Matt. 27. 57. was denominated. meetings for the ministring of Justice, that performed the Prophecies against the altar places of Idolatry. of Bethel, 2 Reg. 23. whence those coasts! The third City Gibba, which was the Ci-South, tioneth Bethear, after called Aben-Hezer, called (g) Ramatha, and I Sam. I. I. Rama-(g) O: pitched up the Pillar or Stone, for a Trophey have aramathaim-sophim, taking the Article designed affixed in the beginning, for a part of the the place Touching Bethel, which (as it feems) was word, whence they think Joseph of Arama- 34, where

CHAP. XII.

Of a fourth Rama we read, 2 Reg. 8. 29, one of the it was anciently called Luz, and how it was which is Ramoth in Gilead. The first, which three Pretaken by the illue of Joseph ( though it be is most often mentioned , is Kama of Benja which Delonged to the portion of Benjamin, as it is min, feated, as we faid, near Bethel the ut-merian Nelson. 11, 31, and 79/13, 22.) and how termost South-border of the Kingdom of resists to another City called Ins. (d) near adjacening the termost South-border with the feet Tribute. (in which and It is in the feet. tan som another City called Luz (d) near adjoyning the ten Tribes: for which cause Bausha in our of the 7 ii. Jos. to it, was built by the man of the City which the time of Afa King of Juda, fortified it, to county of showed the entrance to the Spies, as it is hinder those that did fly from him to As. Sauries and of the occasion of the name from Of this man and of the occasion of the name from Of this man and of the occasion of the name from Of this man and of the occasion of the name from Of this man and of the occasion of the name from Of this man and of the occasion of the name from Of this man and of the occasion of the name from Of this man and of the occasion of the Find. I. and of the occasion of the name from Of this Rama, or Ramatha, I should rather toward Jacob's vision : and how Jereboam, by ere-think Joseph was, that buried Christ be the Entro cting one of his calves here, of Bothel (which cause it was nearer to Hiernfalem, and after and total fignifieth the house of God) made it (e) Beth-the Captivity belonged to judga, as it ap-ward aren, that is, the house of Vanity, Hos. 4. 15. pears, Ed. 2. 26. wherein that it is joyned and agree. mense and 10. 5. as also other memorable things of with Geba, it is plain that he speaketh of that rest (of this place, they are fo well known out of Ruma with whole fromes (after Banfia had whole from this place). the Histories of the Scripture, that we may ceased to build it ) aja (as it is 1 Reg. 23.22.) are fresh built Gebab adjoying to it: both being lying in the mid-The Territory of Bethel, which at the in Benjamin. And as Rama was the South delibe first belonged to the Kingdomof the ten border of the ten Tribes, so was Gebab the tween the Jamel Tribes, from the time of the great victory North-border of the Kingdom of Juda: * (Woodstand) North-bo in the state of th 1671. 15 was and an and foir continued, which was the North-border, to Beer-fheba in the as appears by the Story of Joss : which which was the South-border, destroyed the Tribe of

I Macc. 11.34 are called Apherama, which ty of Saul (the wickedness of which City in which Tol. Greek word fignifieth as much as, A thing the time of the Judger had almost utterly cased Rewas one of the three Seigniories, or Perfe- founds with Gebah, making one of two (as Southand) Gures which Demetrius in his Epiftle mentio- they are evidently diffinguished, Efgr. 10. Reddensneth, as added by him to the Dition of the 27.) of which word (b) Gibba, in another been neth, as added by him to the Dition of the 27.) of which word (b) Gibba, in another been neth, as added by him to the Dition of the 27.) of which word (b) Gibba, in another been neth, as added by him to the Dition of the 27.) of which word (b) Gibba, in another been neth, as added by him to the Dition of the 27.) of which word (b) Gibba, in another been neth, as added by him to the Dition of the 27.) of which word (b) Gibba, in another been neth, as added by him to the Dition of the 27.) of which word (b) Gibba, in another been neth, as added by him to the Dition of the 27.) of which word (b) Gibba, in another been neth, as added by him to the Dition of the 27.) of which word (b) Gibba, in another been neth, as added by him to the Dition of the 27.) of which word (b) Gibba, in another been neth, as added by him to the Dition of the 27.) of which word (b) Gibba, in another been nether been Jews, out of the Samaritan Country. A part from Gibbath, he imagineth Gibbath, ano-in conofit, as appears 2 Chron. 13. 19. was Hephra- ther City in this Tribe, making two of one fluidion, vin, which Jos 18. 23. is called Hophram, be- The vicinity of this City also to Rama of Govern-Benjamin appears, Jud. 19. 13. where the ingageni-Not far from this Ecthel, in this Tribe, we find three other Cities, often mentioned in three other Cities, often mentioned in three other Cities, often mentioned in three other Cities, often mentioned in three other Cities, often mentioned in three other Cities, often mentioned in three other Cities, often mentioned in three other Cities, often mentioned in three other Cities, often mentioned in three other Cities, often mentioned in three other Cities and the cities of th the Scriptures, Rama, Gidha, and Geba. Of that place of 1 Sam. 22. 6. it feems that the relayer out of the the name Rama, (f) it is noted already, in there was in this Gibba fome Tower or Git. Separation of Fabrains, that there were tarded called a separation of Separation of Fabrains. (1) See the name Rama, (f) it is noted already, in there was in this Gibba some Tower or Cit-Separation (f) the description of Ephraim, that there were tadel called Rama: where Junius reads in read (f). many Towns fo called, because of their excelso, for in Rama: but it may be that 14.33 high fituation. But whereas they find out the name of the Kings Palace in this Ci-Phates: Rama in the Tribe of Juda (as it feems, be-ty, was Rama: as it feems that in Rama for which cause Matt. 2. it appears that it bordered of Samuel, the name of the chief place Januar mathematical transfer of the chief place Januar Land Park Collis Bethlebem ) and also out of Brochard and where Samuel with the Colledge of Prophet Phines Freidenbach make Silo to have been called abode, was Najoth. The great City of Hai (for this word is Rama, and find yet another Rama in Zabu- overthrown by Josua, which Jos. 7. 2. is pla- of times lon; these three have no warrant in the ced neer Beth-aven, upon the East of Bethel, an Appellative fig.

it seems, we have testimony, Jos. 19. 29. and Hill) but Adichania taking notice of this, build, his City Gabach of another in Nephthalim, Jos. 19. 36. of a third Rama, where Samuel dwelt in Mount Sel. 8. 23. In foliandinem, in tumulum perpe- an and Persian Kings or Captains, when Let tann. Another City of chief note is recke- was made prifoner) frandeth by the River and Join 2.25. In this Tribe was Gibbon, the of Jordan, in the half Tribe of Manage borchief City of the Heartes: whose cunning to dering Zabulon, which was also called Salem, bind the liralites by oath to fave their lives, and by the Greeks solima. is let down, Jof. ... whence they were reckored among the "Kalimai, or regeliter, and ever built) was a principal City in Josua his west in time: yet not fo renowned as Hazor the norman, the house of God: which oath of faving Metropolis (in those days and before) of all r as much these Geleonites, broken in part after by the Canaamtes. Adonizedek (whom Josia and there Geocomes, prosen in pare and the state of the s Les dail) 2 Sam, 21 1. This Gibean, or Gibbon with was belonging to the febusars it is manifelt: at a fam and febus (of both which we have for how long foever they held it before Mo-Family is spoken) and with Hanothoth the natal place for time, they were Masters and Lords there-it is used to be given to the Levites by the Benjamites. David wan it: and therefore in all likelistics of the begiven to the Levites by the Benjamites. Near to this Hanothoth was Nob, as appears, hood, it was by the Jehujai (the children of 1 Reg. 2.26. where Abiathar the Prieft, which Jebuseus the fon of Canuan ) built; after was of Nob before it was destroyed by sanl, whom it was called Jebus. And so much did reckoned in the Tribe of Benjamin, Neb. 9, as when David attempted it, they bragged 31, and though in the time of Saul the relithant their lame, and blind, and impotent peoding place of the Ark was at Kireath-jeha- ple should defend it. rim : yet by the lamentable tragedy of David, after he had by Gods affiliance Tabernacle was there for a time.

tance I omit, and come to the City of Hie- breadth: whereof the like hath feldome rufalem, and the Princes and Governours of been heard of, either fince or before. this City: A great part whereof was in the Tribe of Benjamin, whence Jof. 18. 28. it is Kingdom of the Jews was cut afunder, Shinamed among the Cities of Benjamin.

Of divers memorable things concerning Hierusalem.

was in this Tribe, as is proved, Neb. 7, 10.30. * according to others, that City out of Seem the limits though it be not named by Jof. c. 18, for it which Melchifedee encountred Abraham (in Labraham). was burned by him and laid defolate, as it is his return from the overthrow of the Affrit-Manage, Hierusalem (whensoever, or by whomsois fent to his grounds at Hanothoth. It is that Nation rely on the strength of the place, 150914

bloud-flied, which saul raised in this place possest it, and turned out the Joinsties, gave (as it is fet down 1 Sam, 21, and 22.) in the it an exceeding great increase of circuit; judgement of Junius, it is proved that the strengthened it with a Citadel or Castle: and beautified it with many Palaces, and o-Aficinas alfo in this Tribe, Nebem. 9. 31. ther buildings: changing the name from Jewas a place of fame, of which Elay. 10. 28. buffalem, the City of the Jebusties, to Hierawhere also he nameth Gallim, and Migrom salem, which the Greeks call Hierosolima. in this Tribe. In Asiemas Saul had his Camp, After David's time Solomon amplified, beau-1. Sam. 13. 2. ( when he left Gibba to Jona- tified and strengthened it exceedingly. For than ) and there also was Jonathan Maccha- besides the work of the Temple, which was Johnson bens his abode, 1 Mace. 9.73. Of Gifeala in no less admirable than renowned among all Ap. 1. bans his abode, 1 Mace 9.73. Of Gyeata in no iets aumirante manifemente among an original factories and the palaces, Gates, and Wals, 1.16. any here in Benjamin, which they make the could not any where in the world be examnatal place of Saint Faul, whence (they fay) pled: and befides, that it had 150000. Inwhen it was taken by the Romans, he failed habitants, the women and children not acwith his parents to Tharfis, of this I find no counted. The ditch had 6c. foot depth, cut good warrant. Other places of lefs importout of the very rock: and 250, foot of

After the death of solomon, and that the Shac King of Fgypt, and his Predecessor, having bred up for that purpose Adad the Idumean, a chail, and feroboam Solomon's fervant; and both married to Egyptians: the State by the one disturbed, by the other broken: Shiftac first invaded the Territory of Juda, entred Hieru-Salem, and fack't it, and became Master not 2 King. H T what time Hierusalem was built only of the riches of Solomon, but of all A (which afterward became the Princess those spoyls which David had gotten from of all Cities) it doth not appear. Some there Adadezer, Tobu, the Ammonites, and other are who imagine that Helchifedee was the Nations. It was again fack t, and a part of the Founder thereof in Abraham's time. But, wall thrown down by Joss King of Ifrael;

CHAP. XII. verned Juda.

of Juda impoverished the Temple, and pre-lented Tegaphalasser with the treasures of other Nations. Finally, all the losses, thereof. And Manaffes the fon of Ezekiah, which either the City or Temple had enduthe fon of Achaz, by the vaunts made by Ethe remain, and the very bottom of their magnificent King, who amplified the City, soils, treasures. It was again spoyled by the Baby-lowint. Joskim then reigning. But this unpublished the City, soils, new built the Temple, and with many sumptionists. Joskim then reigning. But this unlonians, Joakim then reigning. But this un-grateful, Idolatrous and rebellious Nation, taking no warning by these Gods gentle corrections and afflictions, but perfifting in all kind of impiety, filling the City even to the that great Babylonian King Nebuchodonosor, Of the destruction of Hierusalem by the Roas his scourge and revenger, who making this glorious City and Temple, with all the Palaces therein, and the Wals and Towers which embraced them, even and level with the dust, carried away the spoyls with the Princes and people, and crulint them bour fourty years. But then did Titus the with the heavy yoak of bondage and fervitude full seventy years, insomuch as sion was revenger of christ his death, and to punish not only become as a torn and plowed-up the Jews finful ingratitude, incompasse it field, Hierusalem an heap ofstones, and rub- with a Romane Army, and became Lord ble, the Mountain of the Temple as a grove, thereof. He began the fiege at fuch time as or wood of thorns and briars, but (as Hie- the Jews from all parts were come up to rome speaketh ) even the birds of the Ayre the celebration of the Passever: so as the on that defiled foil.

nul net, to the Prophecy of Daniel, and the Jews by An extreme famine, with the civil dissension, the grace of Cyrus returned: the Temple opprest them within the Wals; a forcible was again built, though with interruption enemy affailed them without. The Idunaand difficulty enough: and the City meanly ans also, who lay in wait for the destruction Mile 34 fences, for some 60. and odd years, till Net the City, of purpose to betray it: who alhemia by the favour of Artaxerxes re-built so burnt the Temple, when Nabuchodonosor of the E the first; then by Antiochus Epiphanes: and dred thousand souls: and the City was so Kings at again by Apollonius his Lievtenant. By Pom- beaten down and demolished, as those king at pep it was taken long after, but not deftroywhich came afterward to fee the defolation which came afterward to fee the defolation thereof, could hardly believe that there rolling. I thian expedition took as much as he could bling his of that which Pompey spared. Religion, But the damages which it fultained by the magnificent, and overtopping the rest) to Hiera- violence of facrilegious Tyrants, were com- were spared, as well for lodgings for the falcin to monly recompenced by the industry or Romane Garrisons, as that thereby their vi-rings to repair the Temple of solomon. The over became victorious. wrong done by Ptolomens Lagi to the second

1 New 16 while Amafia the twelfth King thereof go- on Ptolomeus Philadelphus. The mischief Not long after, Achas the fifteenth King lowers, was amended partly by the great red, might well feem forgotten in the reign the lon of Albaza, by the values in the lost of Herod, that uturping and wicked, but MT Care sekial, to the Emballadors of Merodath, lost of Herod, that uturping and wicked, but left them far more stately and glorious than they had been in the dayes of Solomon.

6. III.

manes.

TN this flourishing estate it was at the coming of our Saviour Chirft Jefus: and after his death and afcention, it to continued afcorned to flie over it, or the beafts to tread | City was then filled with many hundreds of thousands of all forts: and no manner of Then 70. years being expired, according provision or store for any such multitudes. inhabited, and without Wals or other de- of the Jews Kingdom, thrust themselves into them. Then again was the Temple and Ci- took it. And to be short, there perished : 5/4.4. ty spoyled by Bagoses, or Vagoses, the Liev of all forts, from the first besieging, to the strands of Artaxerxes: after by * Ptolomens consummation of the victory, eleven hunly the three Herodian Towers, (works most bounty of good Princes, the voluntary con- ctory might be the more necorious and fatribution of the people, and the liberality of mous: for by those buildings of strength strangers. Before the captivity, the people and state remaining, after ages might judge of the Land, through the exhortation of what the rest were; and their honour be godly Kings, made many and large offe- the greater and more shining, that there-

After this fuch Jews as were scattered here Temple, was requited by the bounty of his and there in Judea, and other Provinces, began again to inhabit some part of the Ci-1 hath in effect loft all her fertility and fruitty; and by degrees to re-build it, and fulness; witness the many hundreds of thous strengthen it as they could, being then at fands which it fed in the dayes of the Kings peace, and Tributaries to the Roman State: of Juda and Ifrael: it being at this time all but after 65. years, when they again offered over, in effect, exceeding frony and barren. to revolt and rebel. Elius Adrianus the Em- It also pleased God, not onely to consume perour flaughtered many thousands of them, with fire from Heaven the Cities of the seand overturned those three Herodian Tow- domites; but the very foil it felf hath felt, ers with all the rest, making it good which and doth feel the hand of God to this day, Christ himself had foretold; That there should God would not spare the beasts that benot stand one stone upon another of that un- longed to Amalec, no not any small number grateful City. Afterward, when his fury was of them to be facrificed to himself: neither appealed, and the prophecy accomplished, was it enough that Achan himself was stoned. he took one part without the Wall, wherein but that his moveables were fo confumed flood Atount Calvary, and the Sepulchre of and brought to affies. Christ, and excluding of the rest the greatest portion, he again made it a City of great capacity, and called it after his own name, Ælia Capitolia. In the gate toward Bethel, he caused a Sow to be cut in Marble, and set it Of the vain and malicious reports of Heather in the front thereof, which he did in despight of the Jews Nation: making an Edict, that they fleuld not from thence-forth ever enplace over-topping it.

cvil. Ty. But the Christian region hounding in bull biodore and Strabo make them Egyptians, bullar. Palafima, it was inhabited at length by all Diodore and Strabo make them Egyptians, Litaria. Nations, and especially by Christians; and Others affirm, that while Ilis governed Egypt, fo it continued 500, years.

Onuphrius Christ, taken by the Egyptian Saracens, who that Nation, with whom they planted the held it 400, and odd years.

Writers, touching the ancient Tews.

F the original of the Jews, prophane they should not from thence-forth ever enterints the City, neither should they dare for much as to behold it from any other high injuriously. Existing Peaks infamously of them, and of their Leader; who (faith he) But the Christian Religion flourishing in gathered together a pernicious Nation. the people were so increased, as Jerosolymus It was afterward in the 636. year after and Judas led thence a great multitude of neighbour Regions: which might be meant In the year 1099, it was regained by God- by Moses and Aaron: for the name of Mofrey of Buillon, by affault, with an exceeding fes was accidental, because he was taken flaughter of the Saracens; which Godfrey, up and faved out of the waters. But juguil, Tyr. when he was elected King thereof, refuled to fine, of all other most malicious, doth Infal; 18 cs. 18. be crowned with a Crown of Gold, because derive the Jews from the Syrian Kings; of Christ, for whom he fought, was therein whom, Damascus, saith he, was the first: and crowned with thorns. After this recovery, to him succeeded Abraham, Moses, and Ifit remained under the Succeffours of God-frey four core and eight yearstill in the year trary to himself) that Ifreel had ten sons, 1197. it was regained by Saladine of Egypt: among whom he divided the land of Juda; and lafily, in the year 1517. in the time of so called of Judas his eldest, who had the Selim, the Turks cast out the Egyptians, who greatest portion. The youngest of the sons of now hold it, and call it Cuzumbarec, or the Ifrael he calleth Joseph: who being brought Holy City. Neither was it Jernsalem alone up in Egypt, became learned in Magical that had so often times been beaten down Arts, and in the interpretation of Dreams, and made desolate, but all the great Cities and signs prodigious; and this Joseph (saith of the World have with their Inhabitants, in he) was father to Moles : who with the rest, several times and ages, suffered the same by reason of their foul diseases, and lest thipwrack. And it hath been Gods just will, they should infect others, were banished Eto the end others might take warning, if gypt. Further, he telleth how these menthus they would not onely to punish the impiety banished, when in the Desarts they suffered of men, by famine, by the fword, by fire, and extream thirst and famine, and therein found by flavery; but he hath revenged himfelf relief the feventh day, for this cause even afof the very places they possest; of the wals ter observed the seventh day, and kept it and buildings, yea, of the foil and the bealts Holy; making it a law among themselves, which afterward became a branch of their For even that land, sometime called holy, Religion. He addeth also, that they might not

f:325 Agubeni The desert Ara a Arabia the Stonie Saccæa Agræi Saue or Saha from when the Sabeans spoyled lob Pamerina The htry of & Amonites Tome & Nabatha uminis nowphiladelphia he mountains of Arnen Mountaines of Ara stonie Moabites somtime Eminis Gessur Bestra Asterda Ganden E Ganden E Ganden E Gressuri re a Gressuri re Compani Compani Rapham Edui SYRIAN OR MEDITERAN

Cornelius Tacitus doth as grofly belie before remembred. And therefore doth Ste- cald fee them, in affirming, that in the inmost Oratory phanus, the Greek Grammarian, derive the of their Temple, they had the golden head Hebrews, or Jews, from Arabon; having miof an Ass, which they adored. But herein Ta- Itaken the name of Abraham, who was the citus forgetteth himself, having in the fifth son of Heber, in the fixth descent. Their ancihook of his own History truly confelled of ent names were first changed by the two the Tens, that they worthipped one onely grand-children of Abram: for after Jacob. God; and thought it most prophane to re- otherwise Israel, the chief part were called present the Deity by any material figure, by Ifrael, another part after Flan or Edom. Edothe shape of a man, or any other creature: mites; at length the remnant of Jacob, beand they had therefore in their Temples no ling most of the Tribe of Juda honoured the Image or Representation, no not so much as name of Judas, the son of Jacob, and became imany City by them inhabited. Somewhat judeans, or jew: a salfo for a time in the like this hath Alexander Polyhiftor, in Stephanam of Ephraim the son of Toseph, the chief Suptimum the folial popular the first parents of the Jews.

Claudius Iolaus draws them from Judeus, were first rooted out when the Kingdom of whose parents were Sparton and Thebis; Ifrael fell. The Judaans continued their whence it came, that the Spartans or Lace- names, though they suffered the same servidemonians challenged kinred of the He- tude not long after, under Nabuchodonosor. brews: but they did it as descended of Abraham, faith Tolephus. Some of these reports der-went, was first paternal: which continufrom to have been gathered out of divine ed till they ferved the Egyptians, They were letters, though wrested and perverted, ac- secondly ruled by their Captains and Leacording to the custom of the Heathen. For ders, Moses and Josua, by a policy Divine. so have they obscured and altered the Story Thirdly, they subjected themselves to of the Creation, of Paradife, of the Flood; Judges. Fourthly, they defired a King, and and given new names to the children of A- had Saul for the first: Of whom, and his dam in the first age, to Noah and his sons in Successours, before we intreat, we are first the second: and so to Abraham, Haac, and Ja-to speak of their government under Judges, cob, Moses, and the rest of the Fathers, and after the death of Josua: with somewhat of marry out of their own Tribes, left difco- ficiently answered. For that the Hebrews vering their uncleanness, they might also be were the children of Arphaxad and Heber no expelled by other Nations, as they were by man doubteth; and so chaldeans originally, the Feyptians. These and the like fables hath taking name either of Heber, the son of Sale, or elfe (faith Montanus) of wandring, as is of the ten Tribes were comprehended: but

The government which this Nation un-Leaders of the Hebrews: all which feignings, the things of Fame in other Nations about as touching the Jews and their originals, 70-fephus against Appion, and Tertullian have suf-

CHAP. XIII.

Of the memorable things that happened in the World, from the death of Josua, to the War of Troy: which was about the time of Jephtha.

of the Inter-regnum after Josua's death: and of Othoniel.

Hen Josua was now dead, who ance of simeon) they became victorious. take the War against the Canaanites, over kind upon his own head: and so by the torwhom (with Gods favour, and the affift- ments which he now felt in his own person with the advice of the 70. Elders, In the first attempt which they made, they and the high Priest, held authori- not onely slew ten thousand, but made Adoty over the people, and ordered that nibezek prisoner: the greatest and cruellest Common-weal: it pleased God to direct Commander, both of the Canaanites and Pethe Tribe of Juda (in whom the King-rizites. This tyrants cruelty, as elfewhere dom was afterward established) to under- hath been signified, they returned in the same by his malicious imagination) made him displeasure against them eight years, it pleacontess and acknowledge Gods judgments fed him to have compassion on his people, against himself.

the Cities of Azetus, Askolon, Ekron, and Hie- Defarts, and into Mesopotamia adjoyning: rusulem, which they burnt, and the Jebusites after which the Israelites had peace fourty after re-edified. They took also the Cities of years, during all the time of Gthoniels go-Hebron, Debir, or Kiriathsepher, and Zephath, vernment. This Othoniel is thought by Toft a- 2602. afterwards Horma. And although it be not tus, to have been the younger brother of 2642. fet down in express words that any one per- Caleb, for as much as in the book of Judges, fon commanded in chief over the people, as he is twice called Othoniel, the fon of Cenaz, Atofes and Jofus did : yet it seemeth that Calebs younger brother. Others do rather Caleb was of greatest authority among them: interpret those words [Calebs younger broand that he, with the advice of Phinees, di-ther ] as if they fignified the meanelt of his rected and ordered their wars. For if any kinred. Indeed it is not likely that Calebs think that they proceeded without a Chief, Daughter should marry with her own Unthe good success which followed their uncle; yet it follows not therefore that Othodertakings, witnefieth the contrary. And it niel should have been the meanest of the was Caleb even while Josus governed, as ap-kinred. Wherefore we may better think that pears, 796. 10. 39. that propounded the at- he was the Nephew of Caleb, (as some learntempt of Debir, to the rest of the Captains: ed men expound it) and as the very words for the performance of which enterprise, he of Scripture seem to enforce. For Caleb was promised his daughter Achsab: which he per- the son of Jephunneth, and Otkoniel the son formed to Othoniel his younger brother af- of Cenas, Calebs younger brother; that is, he ter the conquest: whose behaviour in that was not brother to Caleb, but his younger service was such, as (next unto the ordinance brothers son; to whom it was not onely of God) it gave him the greatest reputation lawful, but commendable to marry with his among them, and may be esteemed the se- Cousin German Calebs Daughter. cond cause of his preferment and election How long it was from the death of Josua, for their first Judge soon after. But while to the government of Othoniel, it cannot be thole of Juda made war with their border- found: but it feems to have been no short ers, from whom they onely recovered the time. For many wars were made in that space mountainous Countries (for they could not against the people of the Land. Laif was drive out the Inhabitants of the Vallies, be-then taken (as is thought) by the Danites; July 1.119 cause they had Chariots of Iron.) The rest of and the best Writers are of opinion, that bethe Tribes fought also to enlarge and esta-tween the times of Josua and Othoniel, that Judg. 1.5; the house of Joseph recovered Bethel, or Lux, of the Levites Wife. For it is written, that in 1 Judg. 1.30 from the Hitties, to did the Amorites recover those dayes there was no King in Ifrael, but from Dan all the plain Countries, and forc't every mandid that which was good in his them to fave themselves in the Mountains. own eyes. And as Juda led the people against And now the Ifraelites, unmindful of Gods the Canaanites, during the Inter-regnum, fo benefits, and how often he had miraculously was he commanded to do against Benjamin, a-fore-time defended them, and made them, even by the Lord God, whose direction they victorious over their enemies (the Elders craved, as wanting a Judge to appoint what with their Idolatry, deliver them into the it was in the managing of this action, wherehands of the Aramites of Melopotamia, whom in they so weakened the body of their e-Chushan Rishathaim at that time commanded. State, by esfusion of blood, that in many ages

(before no otherwise known unto him but But after they had felt the fmart of Gods and to raise up Othoniel to be their Judge The Tribes of Juda and Simeon did also and Leader: who by God affifted, deliver-Julyin master and possess during this Inter-regnum ed his brethren from oppression, and infor-(or as some think, before the death of Josua) ced the Aramites to return into their own blith their own Territorics. In which war civil war brake out between the Benjamites July 15. they laboured with variable fucces: for as and the rest of Ifreel, for the forcing to death 618.00 the house of 3.60th recovered Rothel or I was of the I emits. Wife For it is universe that in 19. being also consumed, who better advised should be done; which sheweth it to have them in the Inter-regnum) did not only joyn been when Josua was dead, and before the themselves in marriage with the Heathen government of othoniel, especially consider-Nations: but (that which was more dete- ing, that all other times wherein they wantstable they served the Idols of Baal, and A- ed Governours, were spent under such opfteroth, with other the dead gods of the Ca-naanites and Amorites. And therefore did them no leave to have attempted such a cithe Lord God, whom they had provoked vil war, if their power had been as great, as CHAP. XIII. gainst their bordering enemies.

§. II.

of the History of the World.

of the memorable things of this age in other N tions: and of the difficulty in the compatation of times.

Here lived in this age of Othoniel, Pandon.or Pandareus, according to Homer, the fifth King of Athens; who began to rule in the twentieth year of Othoniel, and goversed forty years. He was father to Eridheus: his daughters were Progne and Philomela, so greatly mentioned in fables.

Cadmus also about this time obtained Thebestof whose daughter semele was born Diomiss or liber Pater: under whom Linus the Musician lived. In his time also the Cities of Melus, Paphus, and Tharfus were built.

Ida and Daciylus flourished in this age, who are faid to have found out the use of for 4n: Iron: but Genesis hath taught us the conwhere trary, and that Tubalcain long before wrought cunningly both in Iron and Brass. Not long after this time, Amphion and Zethus species governed Thebes: whom divers Chronolo-Gille gers find in Ehuds time. But S. Augustine making a repetition of those fables, which Jap. 68 th. pa Dei, L. were devised among the Greeians and other 18,613 Nations, during the government of the Judges, begins with Triptolemus, of whole parentage there is as little agreement. Vives upon the thirteenth Chapter of S. Augustine de Civit. Dei, and the eighteenth book, hath gathered all the opinions of this mans progeny, where he that defires his pedigree than before: I can therefore give no other may find it. Last antius and Eusebius make warrant, than other men have done in these him native of Attica: and the fon of Elenfius | computations: and therefore that fuch and long Boat, which carried in her Prow a gra- are not to require an exact narration of the ven or carved Serpent; who because he truth, sayes biodore. made exceeding great speed to return and to relieve his people with Corn from fome neighbour Nation: it was feigned by the Poets, that his Coach was carried by Serpents of Ehuds time, and of Proserpina, Orithya, through the air.

Whether the times of these Kings, which lived together with Othoniel, and after him, with the rest of the Judges and Kings of Israel and Juda, be precisely set down, I cannot avow; for the Chronologers, both of the former and latter times, ditter in many par-they could not bring into the field fuch ticulars; to examine all which would renumbers as formerly they had mustered a- quire the whole time of a long life: and therefore I defire to be excused, if in these comparisons I erre with others of better judgment. For whether Eulebius and all that follow him, or his opposites (who make themfelves to converfant with thefe ancient Kings; and with the very year when they began to rule) have hit the mark of time, of all other the farthest off and most defaced, I cannot but greatly doubt. First, because the Authors themselves, from whom the ancientest Chronologers have borrowed light, had nothing for the warrant of their own works, but conjecture. Secondly, because their own disagreement and contention in those clider dayes, with that of our own age among the labourers in times, is fuch, as no man among them hath yet so edified any mans understanding save his own; but that he is greatly diftracted, after what pattern to erect his buildings.

This difagreement is found not onely in the reigns of Heathen Kings and Princes; but even in the computation of those times which the indisputable authority of holy Scripture hath summed up, as in that of Abrahams birth; and after in the times of the Judges and the oppressions of Israel, in the times from the egression to the building of Solomon's Temple, in the Persian Empire, the feventy Weeks, and in what not? Wherefoever the account of times may fuffer examination, the arguments are opposite, and contentions are fuch, as for ought that I fee, men have fought by fo many wayes to uncover the Sun, that the days thereby are made King of Elensina: which Elensins by careful such Kings and Kingdoms took beginning in industry had fed the people of that Territo- this or that year, I avow it no otherwise than ry in the time of a great famine. This, when as a borrowed knowledge, or at least as a upon the like occasion Triptolemus could not private opinion: which I submit to better perform, fearing the fury of the people, he judgments. Namin prifeis rebus veritus non fled thence by Sea in a kind of Galley or ad unquem querenda; In ancient things we

6. III.

Tereus, Tantalus, Tytius, Admetus, and others that lived about these times.

Fter the death of Othoniel, when Ifrael fell back to their former Idolatry, God incouraged Moab to invade and suppress them : to perform which , he joyned the

and so (as all kind of mifery readily find- | Thefeus joyned themselves, they agreed toeth out those whom God hath abandoned, gether to recover her: but Plute, or Oreus or for a time with-drawn his help from, (whom others call Aidonius ) had (as they thereby to make them feel the difference fay) a very huge Dog, which fastened on Pr. between his grace and his displeasure) these vithous, and tare him in pieces, and had also Heathen neighbouring Nations had an easie worried Theseus, but that Hercules speedily conquest over Ifrael, whom God himself ex-rescued him, and by strength took and maposed to those perils, within which they stered the Dog Cerberus: whereof grew were fo speedily folded up. In this miserable the sable of Hercules his delivering Thesens estate they continued full eighteen years out of Hell.But Zezes, as I take it, hath writunder Felon King of the Modbites and his ten this story somewhat more according to confederates. Yet, as the mercies of God are the truth. For Thefens and Pyrithons, faith he. infinite, he turned not his ears from their attempted to steal Proferpina Daughter to crying repetance: but railed up Ebud the Aidonus, King of the Moloffians, who had fon of Gera to deliver them: by which weak Ceres to Wife, the mother of Proferpina: ton of cera to derive titem. The man, though mained in his right hand, yet Proferpina being a general name allo for all confident in the justness of his quarrel, and fair women. This purpose of theirs being fearing that the Israelites were too few in known to Aidonius, Theseus and Pyrithous numbers to contend with the Head of those were both taken; and because Pyrithous valiant Nations, he refolved to attempt upon was the principal in this conspiracy, and the person of Fglon, whom if he could but Theseus drawn on by a kind of affection or extinguish he assured himself of the follow- inforcement, the one was given for food to ing victory: especially giving his Nation Aidonius his great Dog Cerberus, the other no time to re-establish their government, or held prisoner, till Hercules, by the instigation to choose a King to command and direct of Euristhess, delivered him by strong hand. them in the Wars. According to which reso- The Molossi, which Stephanus writes with a lution. Ehud went on as an Embassadour to single(8) were a people of Epirus, inhabiting Fglon, loaden with presents from the Israe- near the Mountains of Pindus: of which tites, as to appeale him, and obtaining pri- Mountains Octa is one of the most famous. vate access, upon the pretence of some se- where Hercules burnt himself. The River of cret to be revealed, he piere't his body with Acheron (which the Poets describe to be in a Poniard, made of purpose with a double Hell) riseth out of the same Hills. There is edge: and shutting the doors of his closet another Nation of the Molossi in Thessali: but upon him, escaped.

It may feem, that being confident of his Plutarch in his Greek questions. good fuccess, he had prepared the Brength The rape of Orithya, the daughter of Eof Ifrael in readiness. For suddenly after his rothers, King of Athens, taken away by Bomen : whereof not any one escaped. After Athens. In this time also Tereus ravished Philived in peace unto the end of fourscore Philomela from Athens to see her sister, forterm expired in the Worlds year 2691.

forces of Ammon, and Amalee unto his own, known to Fyrithous, with whom Hercules and these are neighbours to the Cassiopai, saith return, he did re-pas Jordan, and invading ress of Ibrace, is referred to the time of Ebnd. the Territory of Moub, overthrew their Atmy, confifting of 10000, able and strong wind, because Thrace is situate North from which victory, and that Samgar his Successor lomela of which the fable was devised of her had miraculously slain 600. Philistims with conversion into a Nightingale. For Terens an Ox goad: the Land and People of Ifrael having married her lifter Progne, conducting years from the death of othoniel, which ced her in her passage, and withall cut out her tongue, that the might not complain; In the dayes of Ehud, Naomi, with Elime- perswading Progne his Wife, that Philomela lech her husband, and with her two sons, tra- died in the mid-way: all which her brovelled into Moab, and so the story of Ruth ther-in-laws merciles behaviour towards is to be referred to this time. About the be- her, Philopsela expressed by her needle upon ginning of the fourfcore years which are gi- cloath, and fent unto Progne. In revenge ven to Ehud, it was that Orcus King of the whereof, Progne caused her onely son Hys to Molossians, otherwise Pluto, stole Proserpina, be cut in pieces, and set before Tereus her as the walked to gather flowers in the fields hufband, fo dreft as it appeared to be fome of Hipponium in Sicilia: or (according to other ordinary food: of which when he Pausanias) by the River cephisus, which else- had eaten his fill, she caused his head, hands where he calleth Chemer, if he mean not two and feet, to be presented unto him: and distinct Rivers. This stealth being made then fled away with such speed towards as the Poets feigned, that she was turned in Zezes, give him another mother. He was into a Swallow. The place where it was faid to be the fon of Jupiter, as some will performed, Strabo finds to be Daulis, in have it; because he had that Planet in his both built near the Rocks Mergi, in the Ter- It is faid, that when he made a feaft to the ritory of Athens. By which, as also by the gods, having nothing more precious, he canname Daulis, where these things are supposed his own sonto be slain and drest to the fed to have been done (whence also Phi- banquet: of whom Ceres ate part of one of lowels is called Daulias ales ) it appears that the shoulders; whereby was signified, that it is true, which Theucydides notes by way those men which seek after Divine knowfaith Thucydides, that Pandion King of A- the reft. Of whom Ovid: thens made that alliance with a neighbour King, from vvhom he might have fuccour, rather than vvith any Tereus, that should have held the Kingdom of Odryse, vehich vas greatly distant from thence. The occasion that the Poets chose a Swallow for Progne to be turned into, may feem to have been, partly because, as Pausanias sayes, Daulide nec nidificant, nec habitant in tota circum regione Hirundines; as if a Swallow, remembring the wrong that was there done to her, and her fifter, did for ever after hate that place.

Near this time Melampus ( who is faid to have understood the voices of Birds and Beafts) flourished, being also esteemed for an excellent Physician. He restored to their former health the Daughters of Pra-Palls. tus King of the Argives, who (as the Poets please) were made mad by Juno: and thinking themselves to be Kine, fled into the Woods, fearing to be constrained to the Plough: for in those Countries where the ground was light, they did use often to plough with Kine. In the feven and fortieth year of Ehud, Tros began to reign in Dardania, and gave it his own name; about which time Phemone the chief Priest of Apollo in Delphos, devised the Heroical Verse, Lydia: whom Enfebius makes King of Phrygia: and also of that part of which the people that he was therefore by them in that fort were anciently Maones. Of Tantalus was devised the fable that some Poets have ap-

Map Evan. plied to the passion of love : and some to the 1. Zeer. covetous that dare not injoy his riches. Enist to febius calls this Tantalus the fon of Jupiter, Atkens, where her Father Pandion yet lived, by the Nimph Pleta: Diaconus and Didymus Theis: and the Tomb of Terens, Paulanias afcendent, betokening Wifdom and Riches. of digreffion in his Peloponnefian War, That ledge, prefer nothing on earth before it: no this Tereus was not King in that which is not the care of their own children, of all else now called Thracia, or in Odryfa, (as the the most dearest. And where it was devised, Poets call him Odryfus ) but that Phoeis a that he had alwayes Water and Fruit offer-Country in Greece not far from Attica, a ed to his lips, and yet fuffered the torment City whereof is called Daulia, was in Pan- of hunger and thirst, it was meant thereby, dions time inhabited by Thracians, of which that though he abounded (by reason of his this Tereus was King: whence Pandion, to riches) in all delicacy of the world, yet his have amity with his neighbours, made him mind being otherwise, and to higher defires his fon-in-law: as it is good to believe, transported, he enjoyed no pleasure at all by

Quarit aquas in aquis, & poma jugacia cap-

Tantalus, hoc illi garrula lingua dedit.

Here Tantalus in water feeks for water, and doth miss.

The fleeting fruit he catcheth at: His long tongue brought him this.

This punishment, they say, was inflicted upon him, for that he discovered the secrets of the gods: that is, because he taught wisdom and vertue to mortal men: which story Cornelius Gallus hath elegantly exprest in Verse. Others expound this fable otherwise, and fay, That Tantalus, though he excelled in riches, yet being thirsty of more abundance, was never fatisfied. Of whom Horace against covetoufnels.

Tantalus à labiis sitiens fugientia captat Flumina ; quid rides ? mutato nomine de te Fabula narratur.

The thirfting Tantalus doth catch at streams that from him flee.

Why laughest thou?the name but chang'd, the tale is told of thee.

Others conceive, where it is feigned of Of the same date was Tantalus, King of Tantalus, that he gave the Nectar and Ambrosia of the gods, to vain and unworthy men, punished.Of which Natalis out of Pindarus :

> Immortalitatem quod furatus, Coetaneis convivis. Nectar Ambrosiamque dedit. Ťτ

Because

CHAP. XIII.

Because that stealing immortality, He did both Nedar and Ambrolia give To guests of his own age, to make them

Whereby it was meant, that the fecrets of Divinity ought not to be imparted to the unpure Vulgar. For as the cleanest meats in a foul stomack, are therein corrupted, so the most high and reserved mysteries are often perverted by an unclean and defiled mind.

To you it is given ( faith Christ in Mark ) expounded all things to his Disciples apart. And lived, and had his flesh renewed. Mark 4.34 therefore doth Gregory Nazianzene infer neciste de tertium & usque ad illud progressio suppedita- wit, was by him advanced; but having Des. vit, fortage de Deo, nobis aliquid amplim con- flain Hyacinthus, he crost the Hellespont, and flaret; If Paul might have uttered the things, fled into Phrygia: where, together with the knowledge whereof the third Heavens, and Neptune, he was entertained by Laomedon, his going thitker, did bring unto him, perad- and got his bread by working in brick, for part of a wise man, Asino lyram exponere, ant on his Harp: according to him in Ovid, mysteria, qua ita reciperet ut Sus tubam & fi- which saith: dem graculus, & unquenta Scarabaus : quare filentium indixit discipulis nè vulgo divinorum arcana patefacerent, que meditando facilius quam loquendo apprehendantur; To set an Ass to a Harp or to learn mysteries : which he would handle as a Swine doth a Trumpet, or a Jay a Viol, or Scarabies, and unclean flies soveraign ointment. Wherefore he commanded silence to his Disciples , that they should not disclose divine mysteries to the common fort, which are certain Hieroglyphick letters, to the end that witness, faith Paulanias. their fecrets might be hidden from the Vul-

of Aod, or Ebud, with him it is also said, that dusa, the Daughter and Successor of Phoreus, Tytius lived, whom Apollo flew, because he being weakly accompanied as she hunted, dying, and himself therein nourished, he was the siction, That all that looked on Medina's therefore called the son of the earth. Pansa- head, were turned into stones. mias speaking of the grave of this Giant, as- | Cecrops, the second of that name, and 7.

of a furlong. But Tibullus hath a louder lie of his stature out of Homer :

Porrectulane novem Tytius per jugera terra. Alliduas atro viscere pascit aves.

Nine furlongs stretcht lies Tytius, who for his wicked deeds.

The hungry Birds with his renewing liver daily feeds.

This Strabo doth thus expound; That Apollo killing this cruel and wicked Tyrant Mark + 11 to know the mystery of the Kingdom of God, of Panopea, a City in Phocis, it was feigned by but unto them that are without, all things be the Poets, to the terrour of others, That he done in Parables. So it is said of him, that he was still eaten in Hell by birds, and yet still Admetus, King of Thessay, lived also in this Greg is upon a place of S. Paul: 200d fi Paulo liage, whom it is faid that Apollo first served as Uru de reis raio, cuisset effari ea, quorum ipsi cognitionem calum a Herd-man, and afterward, for his excellent venture we might know somewhat more of God. building of the walls of Troy, not by making Pythagoras, faith Revelin, thought it not the the bricks leap into their places by playing > Ilion aspicies, sirmataque turribus altis Menia, Apollinea structa canore lyra.

Strong Ilion thou shalt see with walls and towers high, Built with the harp of wife Apollo's Harmony.

Thus the Poets: but others, that he laeasier learned by meditation than by babling. boured with his hands, as hired in this work. And therefore did the Egyptians communi- And that he also laboured at the building of cate their mysterics antong their Priests in the Labyrinth in Greece , all the Megariens Passin

In these dayes also of Ehud, or (as some gar: and that they might bestow the more find it ) in the dayes of Deborab, lived Persetime in the contemplation of their covered us, the fon of Jupiter and Danae, by whose Souldiers (as they failed out of Peloponnesus, But to proceed with the contemporaries to feek their adventure on Africa fide) Mefought to force his mother Latona. Euphori- near the Lake Tritan was surprised and slain: Take of on hath it thus, that Trims was the ion of whose beauty, when Perseus beheld, he cau distinguished the Daughter of Orchomenus; which sed her head to be imbalmed, and carried with segurities. Elarabeing beloved of Jupiter, to avoid Ju- into Greece: the beauty whereof was such, polleting no's revenge, he hid Elara in the earth, where and so much admired, and the beholders so nign a she was delivered of Tytius: whose Mother associated which beheld it, as thereof grew true she firms, that his body occupied the third part King of Athens, and Acrifus the 13. or, after vears, and the tecond 31. years. And Deuepolicy many other expositions are made or replan lived in this age, being the fon of replan lived in this age, being the fon of replan lived in this tale by other Authors: but it is not unreplan lived in by Antea, or Sthenobia, the wife of Pratus of for fo Virgil calleth one of the greatest ships ned. no. the Argives, to accompany her, but refuling of Eneas. it, the accused him to her husband, that he offered to force her: whereupon Pretus ing ignorant of the antiquity of their parent fent Bellerophon into Lycia, about some affairs Javan) derive their name of Iones, is said to of weight, between him and his fon-in-law have been about Ebuds time: Homer calls Johates: giving secret order to Johates to them Jaones, which hath a near resemblance dispatch him: but Jobates thinking it disho- to the word Javan. Perhaps it might be nourable to lay violent hands on him, im- fo that Ion himself took name from Javan: ployed him against Chimera, a Monster vo- it being a custom observable in the Histomiting, or breathing fire. Now the gods (as ries of all times, to revive the ancient name the report is ) pittying his innocency, fent of a fore-father, in some the principal of his him the winged Horse, Pegasus, sprung up of iffue. the blood of Medusa, formerly flain by the The invasion of India by Liber-Pater, is Bellerophon overcame Chimera: and per- gypt, and the death of Josus. formed the other fervices given him in charge: which done, as he returned toward to Ebnd, and Samgar, Pelops flourished: who Lycia, the Lycians lay in ambush to have slain gave name to Peloponnesus in Greece, now him: but being victorious also over all those, he arrived to Jobates in fafety:whom Jobates for his eminent vertues honoured, first with one of his Daughters: and afterward with his Kingdom: after which he grew fo infolent, as he attempted to flie up to heaven upon his Pegasus: whose pride Jupiter disdaining, caused one of his stinging slies so to vex Pegafus, as he cast off Bellerophon from his back, into the Valley of Cilicia, where gain began to forget the giver of all goodhe died blind; of which burthen Pegajus ness, and many of those being worn out, being discharged (as the fable goeth) flew back to heaven: and being fed in Jupiters and of Gods deliverance by Ehud; and afown stable, Aurora begg'd him of Inpiter to ter him by Samgar; the rest began to reduce on before the Sun. This tale is diversly expounded; as first by some, That it pleafeth God to relieve men in their innocent and undeferved advertity, and to cast down ful in begetting and bringing forth both those which are too high minded: accordanger and subversion: of which, all estates ding to that which is faid of Bellerophon: in the world have tasted by interchange of that when he was exposed to extream hat times. Therefore when their fins were azard, or rather certain death, he found both gain ripe for punishment, Jabin King of Hadeliverance and honour: but waxing over-zor, after the death of Ehnd, invaded the terproud and prefumptuous in his glorious for- ritory of Ifrael; and having in his fervice tunes, he was again thrown down into the 900, iron Chariots, besides the rest of his forextremity of forrow, and ever-during mile- ces, he held them in subjection twenty years,

Enfebius, the 14. King of the Argives, began of Galley, of fuch swiftness, that it was calalso their reigns, as it is said, in the time of led the flying Horse: to whom the invention this Judge: of which the first ruled 40. of sayls (the wings of a ship) are also attri-years, and the second 31. years. Also Belle-the blood of natanga, inflicta, to transport by some reported as done in this age; but shim; a horse that none other could master or bridle but **Minera**: upon which beast placing him between the coming out of **E-ddi**, i. is. About the end of the 80. years, ascribed called Morea.

Ion alfo, from whom the Athenians (be-poll.

6. IV.

of Deborah and her Contemporaries.

Fter Ifrael had lived in peace and plen-A ty to the end of these 80. years, they awhich were witnesses of the former misery, mandments. For as Plenty and Peace are the parents of idle fecurity; so is fecurity as fruitry. Secondly by others, That under the till it pleased God to raise up Deborah, the name of Chimara, was meant a cruel Pyrat Prophetels, who incouraged Barac to levy a Plate in of the Lycians, whose ship had in her prow force out of Nepthalim, and Zabulon, to ina Lyon, a Goat in the mid-ship, and a Dra-counter the Canaanites. That the men of gon in the stearn, of which three beasts this Nepthalim were more forward than the rest Monster Chimara was said to be compoundin this action, it may seem to have proceeded ed, whom Bellerophon pursued with a kind partly from the authority that Barac had among them, being of the same Tribe; and kept the Sea-coast, and for sook their habipartly from their feeling of the common tations towards the Land; and the children grievance, which in them was more sensible of Dan, who neighboured the Sea, crept into than in others, because Harror and Harofeth their ships for safety, shewing thereby that the chief holds of Tabin, were in Nepibalim. all were dispersed, and all in effect lost. She So in the dayes of Teptha the Cilcadites took then curfed the Inhabitants of Meroz, who the greatest care, because the Amounites, dwelling near the place of the battel (bewith whom the War was, prefled most upon like fearing the success) came not out to afthem, as being their borderers. Now as it fift threel, and then bleffeth Jael the wife of pleased God by the left hand of Ehad to Heber the Kenite, who nailed sifera in her deliver ifrael from the Moabites: and by the Tent: flewing the ancient affection of that counfel and courage of a woman, to free race to the Ifraelites. For though the Famithem from the yoak of Canan, and to kill ly of Heber were inforced in that milerable the valiant Sifera by Jael the Kenites wife: time of febjection, to hold correspondency fo was it his will at other times, to work the with Jabin the Canasnite, vet when occasilike great things by the weakest means. For on officeed them means, they witnessed their the mighty Affrian Nabuchodonofor, who was love and faith to their ancient Friends. Lasta King of Kings, and refiftlefs, he overthrew ly, the derideth the Mother of Sifera who by his own imaginations, the caufers of his promifed her son the victory in her own brutish melancholy: and changed his match-hopes: and fancied to her self, and described his match-hopes. less pride into the base humility of a Beast, bed the spoils both of Garments and Mai-And to approve that he is the Lord of all dens by him gotten. For conclusion, she dipower, he sometime punisheth by invisible recteth her praise and thanks to God onely firength, as when he llaughtered the Army victorious.
of Semebrib by his Angel, or ashnelid the From the beginning of Jabins oppression Egyptians in Mofes time: Sometime by dead to the end of that peace, which Deborah and bodies, as when he drowned Pharanking the Barac purchased unto Ifrael, there passed 40. waves of the Sea; and the Canaanites by years. In which time the Kingdom of Argos, hail-stones in the time of Josua: sometimes which had continued 544. years, was tranby the minifery of men, as when he over-threw the four Kings of the Eaft, Chedorlao Kingdom, Vives out of Panjanian writesh to mer, and his companions, by the houshold this effect: After Dahane, Lynceus Succeedfervants of Abraham. He caused the Moa- ed in Argos, after whom the Children of 4bites and Ammonites to fet upon their own bas the fon of Lynceus divided the Kingdom: confederate the Army of the Edomites; and of which serious being eldest, held signs it having flain them, to kill one another in the felf: Pratus his brother policit Ephyra, or speak unto Barac in these words: But this witness Pratus possession, faith Pausanias. journey that thou takeft, Shall not be for thine Now Acrifius was foretald by an Oracle, the fourth of Indees.

sheweth the weak estate whereinto Ifrael whom Persens was born; who when he grew light of Jehosaphar: and of the like to chefe a Corinth, and Tirynthos, and other Cities, with par inte volume of examples may be gathered. And all the Territory towards the Sea: there be restined to this effect did Deborah the Prophetess ing many Monuments in Tirynthes, which honour, for the Lord field fell Silven into the that he should be slain by the kon of his bands of a Woman. In which victory all the Daughter Danae: whereupon he caused her strength of the Canaanite Jabin fell to the to be inclosed in a Tower, to the end that ground even to the last man: in the end of no man might accompany her. But the Lady which War it seemeth that Jabin himself a!- being exceeding fair, it is fained that Japiter to perished, as appeareth by the last Verse of turned himself into a golden shower : which falling into her lap, begat her with child: After all which, Deborah giveth thanks to the meaning whereof was, that some Kings God, and after the acknowledgement of all fon, or other worthy man, corrupted her his powerfulness, and great mercies, the Keepers with gold, and enjoyed her, of was brought for their Idolatry by the Canaa- to mans estate, either by chance (faith Cefnites, and other bordering Nations, in these as)or in shewing his grand-father the invenwords: Wastbere a Sheld or fpear feen among tion of the difens, or leaden ball, flew him forty thousand of Ifrael? She also sheweth unwillingly. After this, Perseus, to avoid the how the Ifraelites were severed and amazed, infamy of Patricide in Argis, changed Kingforme of them confined over fordan, and domes with his Uncle Pratus: and built durst not joyn themselves to the rest; as Adjeane. This imprisonment of Danse, 80those of Reuben in Gilead : that the Afterites phoches reporteth otherwise : and that the was inclosed in a brazen vault under the Kings Hall with her Nurse and Keepers. Upon this close custody Horace hath this witty observation:

> Inclusam Danaen turris abenea, Robustaque fores, O vivilum canunt Triftes excubie munierant satis Nocturnis ab adulteris :

Si non Acrisium Virginis abditæ Custodem pavidum, Jupiter & Venus Rififent, fore enim tutum iter & patens Converso in pretium Deo.

Aurem per medios ire fatellites, El perrumpere amat faxa, potentius Ith fulmineo.

The brazen tower with doors close barr'd And watchful bandogs frightful guard, Kept fafe the maidenhead Of Danae from fecret love: Till smiling Venus, and vvile Jove Beguil'd her Fathers dread. For chang'd into a golden showre, The god into her lap did poure Himself, and took his pleasure.

Through guards and itony vvals to break The thunder-bolt is far more weak, Than is a golden treasure.

The first Kings of the Argives were these.

Inachus the first King, who began to reign in the first year of Jacob, and the 61. of Ifalus, Castor misreckoneth 400 years. This Kingdom before the translation, Eusebius but at 417. Io was the daughter of this Ina- Jerubbaal: vvhose fear and unvvillingness, chus: whom the Egyptians called Isis.

Phoroneus,	Sthenelus,
Apis	Danaus,
Argus.	Lynceus,
Pirafus,	Abas,
Phorbas,	Acrisus,
Triopas,	Pelops.
Crotonus.

After the translation to Mycene, Mar. Scotus finds these Kings:

Perseus, Eurystheus, Sthenelus,

Atreus ) The fons of Pelops by Hippodamia: Atreus by Europe had Thyestes. Agamemnon and Menelaus.

Agamemnon, Ægystbus, Oreftes,

Tilamenus. Penthilus and Cometes.

Of these Kings Mercator and Bunting leave out the two first, and the last, beginning with Eurystheus : and ending with Penthilus. In Tifamenus time the Heraclida returned into Peloponesus: of which hereafter.

The Contemporaries of Barac and Debora, vvere Midas, vvho reigned in Phrygia: and Ilus, vvho built Ilium: vvith othersmentioned in our Chronological Table, as Contemporaries vvith Debora.

s. V.

of Gideon, and of Dædalus, Sphinx, Minos, and others that lived in this Age.

Debora and Barac being dead, the Midianites, assisted by the Amalekites, infested Trael. For when, under a Judge, who had held them in the fear of the Lord, they had enjoyed any quiet or prosperity: The Judge was no fooner dead, than they turned to their former impious Idolatry. Therefore now the neighbouring Nations did fo master them in a short time (the hand of God being withheld from their defence) as to fave themselves, they crept into caves of the mountains, and other the like places of hardest access: their enemies possessing all the plains and fruitful vallies : and in har- Jul. 6. vest time, by themselves, and the multitude of their cattel, destroying all that grew up: ac: from which time, to the end of sthene- covering the fields as thick as grashhoppers: vvhich servitude lasted seven years.

Then the Lord by his Angel stirred up accounteth to have flood 544. years, others Gideon the fon of Josh, afterward called Jud.6.v.s. and how it pleased God to hearten him in his enterprize, it is both largely and precisely fet down in the holy Scriptures : as also how it pleased God by a few select persons, namely 300. out of 32000. men, to make Jud. c. 6. them know that he onely wasthe Lord of 67. Hofts Each of these 300. by Gideons appointment carried a trumpet, and light in a pitcher instruments of more terrour than force, with which he gave the great Army of their enemies an alarum: vvho hearing fo loud a noise, and seeing (at the crack of so many pitchers broken ) fo many lights about them, effecting the Army of Ifiael to be infinite, and strucken with a sudden fear, they all fled without a stroke stricken, and vvere flaughtered in great numbers: two of their Princes being made prisoners and flain. In his return the Ephramites began to the opportunity, and pursued his former quarrel with Gideon, because he made war victory to the uttermost : and finding Zebah without their affiltance, being then greedy and Zalmunna in Karker (luspecting no fur-of glory, the victory being gotten: who ther attempt upon them) he again surprized (if Gideon had failed and fallen in the en- them, and flaughtered those 15000. remainterprize) would no doubt have held theming: having put to the fword in the former felves happy by being neglected. But Gide- attempt 120000, and withall he took Zebah on appealing them with a mild answer, fol- and Zalmunna prisoners: whom because lowed after the enemy, in which pursuit be-themselves had executed Gidion's brethren might over-take the other two Kings of the it; and in his return from the confummatima: which fled.

CHAP. XIII.

tions, and were not spoyled by them; or Histories. else they knowing that Zeba and Zalmunna In the end so much did the people revewere escaped with a great part of their Ar- rence Gideon in the present for his victory, my, might fear their revenge in the future. and there own deliverance, as they offered Secondly, it may be laid to the condition him the Soveraignty over them, and to and dispositions of these men: as it is not establish him in the Government; which he For there are multitudesof men, especially neither shall my childe reign over you, but the of those which follow the war, that both Lord shall, &c. But he desired the people envy and maligne others, if they perform any that they would bestow on him the golden praise-worthy actions, for the honour and ear-rings which every man had gotten. For lafety of their own Country, though them- the Ismaelites, neighbours, and mixt with felves may be affured to bear a part of the the Midianites, used to wear them : the fmart of contrary fuccess. And such malici- weight of all which was a thousand and seous hearts can rather be contented that their ven hundred shekles of gold, which makes Prince and Country should suffer hazzard of ours 2380.li. if we follow the account of

Balan, 25 it were that he refreshed himself and his wea- set up the same in his own City of Ophra or st dought were that he refreined himself and his wear let up the faille to the street to Idolatry, the fail s.10, ry and hungry Souldiers, yet he followed Ephra, which drew Ifrael to Idolatry, the

ing tyred with travel, and weary even with before at Tabor, he caused them both to be the flaughtering of his enemies, he defired flain: or (as it is written) at their own rerelief from the inhabitants of Succeth, to quest slew them with his own hands, his Son the end, that (his men being refreshed) he whom he first commanded to do it, refusing Midianites: which had faved themselves on of this marvellous victory, he took reby flight. For they were four Princes of venge of the Elders of Succoth, and of the the Nations, which had invaded and wa- Citizens of Penuel: forgiving no offence fted Ifrael: to wit, Oreb and Seeb, which committed against him, either by strangers, were taken already, and Zebah and Zalmun- or by his brethren the Ifraelites. But such mercy as he shewed to others, his own chil-Gideon being denied by them of Succoth, dren found foon after his death, according fought the like relief from the Inhabitants to that which hath been faid before. The of Penuel, who in like fort refused to succour debts of cruelty and mercy are never left him. To both of these places he threatned unsatisfied: for as he slew the 70. Elders of therefore the revenge, vvhich in his return Succoth, with great and unufual torments, fo from the profecution of the other two Prin- were his own 70. fons, all but one, murtheces, he performed: to vvit, that he vvould red by his own bastard Abimelec: The like tear the flesh of those of Succosts with thorns Analogy is observed by the Rabbines, in the and briars, and destroy the Inhabitants and greatest of the plagues which God brought City of Penuel. Novv vvhy the people of upon the Egyptians, who having caused the these two Cities should refuse relief to male children of the Hebrews to be slain, otheir brethren the Israelites, especially after thers of them to be cast into the River fo great a victory: if I may prefume to and drowned: God rewarded them even make conjecture, it feems likely, first, that with the like measure, destroying their those Citiesset over Jordan, and in the way own first born by his Angel, and drownof all invasions, to be made by the Moabites, ing Pharaeh and his Army in the Red Sca. Ammonites and Midianites, into Ifrael, had And hereof a world of examples might be either made their own peace with those Na- given both out of the Scriptures and other rare to find of the like humour in all ages. refused, answering; I will not reign over you, Judg 113 and want, than that such men as they mist the shekle vulgar. And because he conver-excl. : like, thould be the authors or actors of any ted that gold into an Ephod, a garment of Judg 8.36 glory or good to either.

gold, blew filk, purple, scarlet, and fine linen, belonging to the High Priest only, and fame was the destruction of Gideon and his house.

CHAP. XIII.

There was another kind of Ephod befides this of the High Priests, which the Levites uted, and so did David when he danced before the Ark: and Samuel while he was yet young, which was made of linnen only.

Now if any man demand how it was poswritten; That the men of Ifrael being gathe- that the was delivered of the Monster Minoof Pandion, who reigned in Athens: Euryst- dalus framed fails both for his own boat, death of Enrysthese, the Kingdom of Mycene was over-born and drowned. fell into the hand of Atreus. This is that A- It is also written of Dædalus, that he made ress, who holding his brother in jealouse, Images that could move themselves, and as an attempter, both of his Wife and go, because he carved them with legs, arms, Crown, flew the children of Thiefter, and and hands; whereas those that preceded cauling their flesh to be drest, did therewith him, could only present the body and head feast their father. But this cruelty was not of those men, whom they carried to coununrevenged. For both Atreus and his fon terfeit, and yet the workmanship was efter, yea the grand children, and all the li- feen some of those that were called the Imanage of Atreus died by the same sword.

fay, having slain his Nephew Attalus, fled to cules. He wrote of the Creation, of the Sun Minos, King of Crete, for succour; where and Moons course, and of the generation of for his excellent workmanship he was great-living Creatures, but in the end he was slain ly esteemed, having made for Minos a Laby- by Hercules his Scholar with his own Harp. rinth, like unto that of Egypt. Afterward he was said to have framed an artificial Cow Sphinx, and Oedipus, are thought to have been for Passphae the Queen, that she, being in persormed. This sphinx being a great rob-love with a fair Bull, might by putting her ber by sea and land, was by the Corinthians self into the Cow, satisfic her lust; a thing Army, led by Occipus; overcome. But that no less unnatural than incredible, had not which was written of her propounding of that shameless Emperour Domitian exhibi- riddles, to those whom she mastered, was ted the like beaftly spectacle openly before meant by the rocky and unaccessible Mounthe people of Rome, in his Amphitheater; of tain near Thebes, which she defended; and by purpose, as may seem, to verifie the old Fa- Oedipus diffolving her probleme, his victory ble. For so it appears by those Verses of over her. She was painted with wings, be-Martial, wherein the flattering Poet magni- cause exceeding swift, and with the body of fieth the abominable shew, as a goodly Pa- a Lion, for her cruelty. But that which Pageant, in those vicious times.

Junctam Paliphaen Dicteo credite Tauro Vidimus, accepit fabula prisca fidem. Nec fe miratur Cafar, longava vetuftas Quicquid fama canit, donat arena tibi.

But concerning that which is reported of Paliphae, Servins makes a less unhonest confile for Gideon with 300, men to destroy struction of it, thinking that Dadalus was of 120000. of their enemies, and afterward her counsel, and her Pandar for the entice-15000. which remained, we may remember, ing of a Secretary of Minos called Taurus. that although Gideon with 300. gave the first which fignifieth a Bull, who begat her with alarm, and put the Midianites in rout and childe; and that she being delivered of disorder; yet all the rest of the Army came two sons, the one resembling Taurus, the in to the flaughter, and pursuit: for it is other her husband Minos, it was feigned red together out of Nephtaly, and out of Asher, taur, half a Man, and half a Bull. But this and out of Manasse, pursued after the Midia- practice being discovered, and Dadalus apnites: for this Army Gideon left in Tents be- pointed to be flain, he fled out of Crete to hind him, when he went down to view the Cocalus King of Sicil: in which passage he Army of his enemies, who with the noise of made such expedition, as it was seigned that his 300, trumpets came after him to the exe- he fashioned wings for himself and his son to transport them. For whereas Minos pursued There lived with Gideon, Egens, the son him with boats which had oares only . Dehew King of Mycene: Atrew and Thyestes and for his sons, by which he out-went those the fons of Pelops, who bare dominion over a that had him in chase. Upon which new ingreat part of Peloponness, and after the vention, Icarus bearing himself over-bold, Agamemnon was flain by a base son of Thye-steemed very rare. But Plutarch, who had ges of Dadalus, found them exceeding rude.

In Gideon's time also those things were With Gideon also flourished Linus the Herind. supposed to have been done, which are writ- Theban, the son of Apollo, and Terpsichore, Plu Paus. ten of Dadalus and Icarus. Dadalus, they who instructed Thamaris, Orphaus, and Her-1. 9. Again, in this age those things spoken of strab. 1.9.

laphatus reports of sphinx, were more probable.

CHAP. XIII.

bable, did not the time disprove it, for he would take (supposing he were able) against calls her an Amazonite, and the wife of Cad-, one of whom an Oracle should advise him to mus; who when by her help he had case Dra-take heed? to which question when Jaco out of Thebes (neglecting her) he marri- fon had briefly answered, that he would fend ed the fifter of Draco which sphinx taking in him to Colchos to fetch the golden Fleece. despightful part, with her own troop the held Pelias immediately commanded him to unthe Mountein by Thelies, from who nee the dertake that fervice. Therefore Jason prepa-

to those Illands. Hercules, as the killing of Antaus the Giant, selves: Lynceus by Pollux, Idas by Jupiter who was faid to have 60. and odd cubits of with lightning. length, which though Plutarch doth confirm, reporting that there was such a body the ship Areo: in whose Prow was a table of found by Sertorius the Roman, in Lybia, where the Beech of Dodona, which could fpeak.

Esfeb. in Hercules flew Anteus: yet for my felf I think They arrived first at Lemnos; the women of Aug de civil Dei, near the Gardens Hesperides in Mauritania. ple called Dolinnes: over whom then reign-be a fubtle Sophister.

6. VI.

Of the Expedition of the Argonauts.

written, the fum of which is this:

mothers side to Ejon, who was Jajons sa- who went to seek Hylas the darling of Hercuther, reigning in Jolcos a Town of Theffaly, les, that was ravished by the Nymphs. was warned by the Oracle of Apollo to take Polyphemus built a Town in Mysia called heed of him that wore but one shoe. This Cios, wherein he reigned. Hercules retur-Pelias afterward facrificing to Neptune, invited ned to Argos. From Myfia the Argonauts fai-Jason to him, who coming hastily, lost one led into Bythinia, which then was peopled fhoe in passing over a brook: whereupon by the Bebryses, the ancient Inhabitants of continued a flary was open the Thecans, till red for the voyage, having a ship built by by Oedipus overthrown. About this time did Argus the for of Phryxus, by the countel of Alinos thrust his bother out of core and Pallas: whereinhe procured all the bravelt held tharp war with the Magarians and other men of Greece to fail with him: as Typhis nians, because his son Androgens was thain the Master of the ship, Orpheus the famous by them. He possest himself of Liegara, by Poet, Castor and Pollux the sons of Tyndarus, the treason of Scylla, daughter of Nijus the Telamon and Pelcus sons of Aacus, and fa-King. He was song Mafter of the Sea, and thers of Ajax and Achilles, Fercules, Theseus, brought the Athenians to the tribute of deli- Zetes and Calais the two winged fons of Evvering him every year seven of their sons : reas, Amphiarans the great Soothsayer, Mewhich tribute Theleus released, as shall be leager of Calidon, that slew the great wild shewed, when I come to the time of the next Boar, Ascalaphus and Jalmenus, or Almenus, Judge Thola. In the end he was tlain at the fons of Mars, who were afterwards at Aril tol. Camerinus or Camicus in Sicilia, by Cocalus the last war of Troy, Laertes the father of Uthe King, while he purfued Dadalus: and was lyges, Atalanta a warlike Virgin, Idas and esteemed by some to be the first Law giver Lyneeus the sons of Aphareus, who afterwards in fight with Caftor and Pollux, flew Caftor, To this time are referred many deeds of and wounded Pollux, but were flain them-

These and many other went with Jason in it but a loud lie. That Antaus was of great which Island, having flain all the males, purftrength, and a cunning wreftler, Eusebius posing to lead an Amazonian lite, were neaffirmeth: and because he cast so many men vertheless contented to take their pleasure to the ground, he was feigned to be the son of the Argonants. Hence they came to the of the earth. Pliny laith, that he inhabited Country about Cyzicus: where dwelt a pec-LIB. C.I. St. Augustine affirms, that this Hercules was ed one Cyzicus, who entertained them not of Greece, but of I phia: and the Hydra al- friendly; but it fo fell out, that looling fo which he overcame, Plato expoundeth to thence by night, they were driven by contrary winds back into his Port, neither knowing that it was the same Haven, nor being known by the Doliones to be the same men: but rather taken for some of their bordering enemies: by which means they fell to blows, infomuch that the Argonauts flew the most part of the Doliones, together with their Bout the eleventh year of Gideon, was King Cyzicus: which when by day-light they the famous expedition of the Argonauts perceived, with many tears they folemniof which many fabulous discourses have been zed his funeral. Then departed they again, and arrived shortly in Mysia, where they left Peliss the fon of Neptune, brother by the Hercules and Polyphemus the fon of Elates,

Pelias demanded of him what course he the Country, over whom Amyous the son and devouring or carrying away the great-er part of the victuals, did so defile the rest, that they could not be endured. When therefore the Argonauts craved his advice about this task, Medica the daughter of Aand direction for their voyage: You shall etes fell into a most vehemen love of him, do well (quoth he) first of all to deliver fo far forth, that being excellent in Magique, me from the Harpies, and then afterwards to ask my councel. Whereupon they cauto ask my counter.

Whereapon they can led the table to be covered, and meat fet on; which vvas no fooner fet down, than by oath. Then gave she to him a medicine that presently in came the Harpies, and play- wherewith she bade him to anoint both ed their accustomed pranks : when Zetes his body and his armour, which would preand Calais the yvinged young men faw this, ferve him from their violence: further she through the air: Some fay, that both the the ground, from the teeth which he should Harpies and the young men died of weariness fowe, and fet upon him. To remedy was bruifed. From thence forward (as the tale gogods, say they, had decreed that after the when Medea perceived to be at hand, she passageof a ship, they should be fixed. Thence slew her brother, and cutting him in pieces, the Argonauts came to the Mariandyni, a she scattered his limbs indivers places; of people inhabited about the mouth of the ri- which Æetes finding some, was sain to seek ver Parthenius, where Lycus the King en-tertained them courteoully, Here Idman a the parts of his fon he buried in a place, Southfayer of their company was flain by a which thereupon he called Tomi; the Greek of Neptune vvas then King. He being a wild Boar, also here Typhia dyed: and Antirong man, compelled all strangers to fight ceus undertook to steare the ship. So they with him at vyhoribats, in vyhich kind of paffed by the River Thermodon, and Mount fight he had tlain many, and was now Cancasus, and came to the River Phasis, which lamelf ilain by Pollax. The Bebryces in re- runs through the land of Colchos. When venge of his death flew all upon Pollux, but they were entred the haven, Jason went to his companions releued him, with great Æetes the King of Colchos, and told him the his companions released from fining the people. They failed from Commandment of Pelias, and cause of his coming desiring him to deliver the golden Jomewhat out of their vvay) wherein Phi- Flecce; which Aeres, as the Fable gooth, neus a South-fayer dwelt, vvho vvas blind, promifed to do, if he alone would yoak and vexed with the Harpies. The Harpies together two brazen hooft Bulls, and plowveere faid to be a kind of Birds vehich ing the ground with them, fowe Dragons had the faces of women, and foul long claws, teeth, which Minerva had given to him, very filthy creatures, which when the table being part of those which Cadmus did sowe vvas furnished for Phineus, came flying in, at Thebes. These Bulls were great and fierce

337

Whilest Jason was in a great perplexity they drew their fwords, and purfued them told him, that armed men would rife out of in the fight, and pursuit. But Apollonius which inconvenience, she bade him throw faith, that the Harpies did covenant with the stones amongst them as soon as they came youths, to do no more harm to Phineus, and up thick, whereupon they would fall towere thereupon dismissed. For this good gether to blows, in such wise that he might turn, Phineus gave them informations of the eafily flay them. Jason followed her counturn, way, and advertised them withall of the sel; whereto when the event had answerdangerous Rocks, called Symplegades, which ed, he again demanded the Flecce. Out by force of windes running together, Eetes was fo far from approving fuch his dedid shut up the passage; wherefore he sire, that he devised how to destroy the Art willed them to put a Pigeon before them in gonauts, and burn their ship; which idedas the passage: and if that passed safe, then perceiving, went to Jason, and brought to adventure after her; if not, then by no means to hazzard themselves in vain. They an Oak in the Grove of Mars, where, they say did so, and perceiving that the Pigeon had it was kept by a Dragon that never slept. onely loft a piece of her tayle, they ob-files Dragon was by the Magick of Medea caff into a fleep, to taking away the fleep with all their might, passed through ase, onely the end of their Poop Absvrtus.

Æetes understanding the practices of Meeth) the symplegades have stood still, for the dea, provided to pursue the ship, whom word figuractin Division. Afterwards he fent Talus, his custome was to run thrice a day Eridanus: which is Po in Italy.

and carried them they knew not whether; died: others there are that fay he was flain when they came to the Illands Absortides, by Pean, vvho vvounded him vvith an arthere the thip Argo, (that there might want row in the heel. From hence the Argonauts no incredible thing in this Fable) spake to sailed to Agina, where they were sain to them and said, that the anger of Jupiter fight for fresh vvater. And lastly, from Agina should not cease, till they came to Ausonia, they sailed by Eubaa and Locris, home to and were cleanfed by Circe, from the mur- Jolcos, where they arrived, having spent four der of Absirtus. Now they thereupon fail- whole months in the expedition. ing between the coasts of Lybia and Gal- Some there are that by this journey of lia, and passing through the Sea of Sardi- Jason, understand the mistery of the Philovia, and alongst the coasts of Hetruria, came sophers stone, called the golden Fleece, to to the Isle of Aca, wherein Circe dwelt, who which also, other super-fine Chymists draw cleanfed them. Thence they failed by the the twelve labours of Hercules. Suidas coast of the Sprens, who sang to allure them thinks, that by the golden Fleece vvas meant into danger: but Orpheus on the other fide a golden book of Parchment, which is of lang fo well, that he stayed them. Onely sheep-skin, and therefore called golden, be-Butes swam out unto them, whom Venus ra-, cause it vvas taught therein how other metvished, and carried to Lylibaum in Sicily to tals might be transmuted. Others would nants departed thence, and after a while vels on the same In-land seas. came to frete. In this Island Minos reigned, who had a man of brass given to him ( as fome of the Fablers say ) by Vulcan. This man had one vein in his body reaching from the neck to the heel, the end whereof vvas closed up with a brazen naile; his name vvas many of his subjects to feek the ship Argo, about the Island for the defence of it. When threatning that if they brought not back he faw the ship Argo pass by, he threw stones Andre they should surer in her stead. In the at it, but Medaa with her Magick demean while the Argonants were driven a- ftroyed him. Some fay that she slew him bout the Seas, and were come to the River by potions, which made him mad; others, that promising to make him immortal, the Inpiter, effended with the flaughter of drew out the naile that stopt his vein, by Allirius, vexed them with a great tempest, which means all his blood ran out, and he fignifie by Jason, Wisdom, and Modera-Having past the syrens, they came be- tion, which overcometh all perils: but that tween scylla and Carybdis, and the stragling which is most probable, is the opinion of Rocks, which seemed to cast our great store Dercilus, that the story of such a passage was of flames and smoak. But Thetis and the Ne- true, and that Jason with the rest went inreides, conveyed them fafe through at the deed to rob Colchos, to which they might arappointment of Juno. So they coasted si- rive by boat. For not far from Caucasus there cilie, where the Beeves of the Sun were, and are certain steep falling torrents vehich touched at Coregra, the Island of the Phe- vvash down many grains of Gold, as in maaces, where King Alcinous reigned. Mean ny other parts of the World; and the peowhile the men of Colches, that had been ple there inhabiting use to set many fleeces fent by Ætes in quest of the ship Argo, of wool in those descents of waters, in which hearing no news of it, and searing his anger, the grains of gold remain, and the water if they fulfilled not his will, betook themfelves to new habitations: Some of them dwelt in the Mountains of Corgre, others in dwelt in the Mountains of Corgre, others in the Islands of Absyrtides, and some coming the bottom of Pontus, are Poetically conto the Pheaces, there found the ship Argo, verted into those fiery Bulls, the armed men and demanded Medea of Alcinous: whereto rifing out of the ground, the Dragon cast Alcinous made answer, that if the were not afleep, and the like. The man of brass, the Fasons wife, they should have her; but if Syrens, Scylla and Charibdis, were other hazthe were already married, he would not zards and adventures which they fell into take her from her husband. Arete, the wife of in the Mediteran Sea, disguised, as the rest, by Alcinous, hearing this, married them: where- Orpheus, under Poetical morals: all which fore they of colchos; not daring to return Homer afterward used (the man of brass exhome, stayed with the Pheaces, so the Argo- cepted) in the description of Ulysses his tras. VII.

CHAP. XIII.

tus, O.c.

ny; of all which none escaped but Jotham Cedars of Libanon. the youngest, who hid himself from his pre- Now (as it is an easie matter to call those fent fury: all which he executed on one men back whom rage without right led flone; a cruelty exceeding all that hath on Gaal the fon of Ebed withdrew the Cibeen written of in any age. Such is humane tizens of Sechem from the Service of Abimeambition, a monster that neither feareth lech; who therefore after some affaults en-God (though all-powerfull, and whose re-tred the place, and mastered it; and in convenges are without date, and for everlast- clusion fired the Town, wherein their Idoll ing) neither hath it respect to nature, which Baalberith was worshipped, and put all the but it rageth also against her, though garnished with beauty which never dieth, and ber, himself was wounded in the head with with love that hath no end. All other a frone thrown over the wall by a woman; passions and affections, by which the souls of men are tormented, are by their contra-commanded his own Page to pierce his body, ries often-times refifted or qualified. But thereby to avoid the dishonour of being slain ambition, which begetteth every vice, and is by fo feeble a hand. it self the child and darling of Satan; look- While Abimelech usurped the Government eth onely towards the ends by it felf fet the Lapitha and Centaurs made war against down, forgetting nothing ( how fearfull the Thebans. These Nations were descended and inhumane foever) which may ferve it: of Apollo, and were the first in those parts remembring nothing, whatfoever justice, that devised to manage horses, to bridle and piety, right or religion can offer and alledge to fit them: infomuch, as when they first on the contrary. It ascribeth the lamen- came down from the Mountains of Pindus, table effects of like attempts, to the error or into the plains, those which had never feen Palapira weakness of the undertakers, and rather horsmen before, thought them creatures introduction praiseth the adventure, than feareth the like compounded of men and horses; so did the success. It was the first sin that the World Mexicans, when Ferdinando Cortes the Spahad, and began in Angels: for which they niard first invaded that Empire. were cast into Hell, without hope of re- After the death of Abimeleck, Tholo of demption. It was more ancient than man, Islachar governed Ifrael 23. years, and after and therefore no part of his natural corruption. The punishment also preceded his creation, yet hath the Devil, which felt the mart thereof, taught him to forget or Abimelech, Tholan, and Jair, and of the one as out of date, and to practife the the Lapythæ, and of Theseus, Hippoly- other, as besitting every age, and mans condition. Jotham, the youngest of Gideons sons, Fter the death of Gideon, Abimelech his having escaped the present peril, sought by A base son, begotten on a Concubine of his best perswasions to alienate the sechethe Sechemites, remembring what offers had mites from the affilling of this mercilels Tvbeen made to his father by the people, who rant, letting them know, that those which defired to make him and his their perpetual were vertuous, and whom reason and reli-Princes; and, as it feemeth, supposing (not- gion had taught the safe and happy estate withstanding his fathers religious modesty) of moderate subjection, had refused to rethat some of his brethren might take on ceive as unlawful, what others had no powthem the Soveraignty, practifed with the In- er to give, without direction from the habitants of Sechem (of which his mother King of Kings: who from the beginning was native ) to make election of himself; (as to his own peculiar people) had appointwho being casily moved with the glory, to ed them by whom and how to be governhave a King of their own, readily conde-ed. This he taught them by the Olive, which feended; and the better to enable Abime- contented it felf with its Fatness, the Figgelech, they borrowed feventy pieces of filver tree with its fweetness, and the Vine with Talenat of their Idoll Baalberith, with which treathe good juice it had: the Bramble onely, fure he hired a company of loofe and def- who was most base, cut down all the rest, and perate vagabonds, to affift his first detesta- accepted the Soveraignty. He also fore-told ble enterprise, to wit, the flaughter of his them by a Prophetical spirit, what should befeventy brethren, the fons of Gideon, be- fall them in the end, and how a fire should gotten on his Wives, of which he had ma- come out of the Bramble, and confume the

339

οj

to be descended of lair the son of Manasse,

Deut 3.14 who in Moses time conquered a great part of Gilead, and called the same after his

Of these Judges, because there is nothing the like to Cercyon, by vvrestling, vvho uelse written, it is an argument, that during fed by that art to kill others. He also rid bance, and in peace.

to reign in Troy, who at such time as Hercu- of them to one, and part to the other bough, les sacked Ilium, was carried away captive and by the springing up tare them asunder. with his sister Hessone into Greece, and being afterward redeemed for ranfome, he re-built mischievous thieves and murtherers. He and so far enlarged his Dominions, as he became the supreme Lord in effect of all Asia the Territory of Atheus, Theseus having the less. He married Hecuba the Daughter of taken their Queen Hippolita prisoner, begat Cissess King of Thrace, and had in all (faith on her Hippolitus; with whom afterward Cicero) fifty fons, whereof feventeen by He his mother-in-law Phedra, falling in love, cuba, of whom Paris was one, who attempand he refufing to abuse his fathers bed, which followed.

fome Writers call him the fon of Neptune his Sea-Calves, as Hippolitus paffed by the and Æthra: but Plutarch in the Story of his Sea-shore, and so affrighted his horse, as castlife, findshim begotten by Ægeus, of whom ing the Coach over, he was (by being inthe Grecian Sea between it and Afa the less tangled therein) torn in pieces. Which mi-

him seven of their sons every year for tri- which it is seigned, that Diana intreated Afbute, whom he inclosed within a Labyrinth, to be devoured by the Monster Minotaur: and to restore him to life: which done, bebecause belike the sons of Taurus, which he cause he was chaste, the led him with her into of them: among these seven Theseus thrust field sports. himself, not doubting by his valour to deliver the rest, and to free the Countrey of that ther sought his life, thinking to escape by flavery occasioned for the death of Androge- Sea, was affronted thereat, and did receive as, Minos his fon.

ceived from her a bottom of thred, by which he conducted himself through all the crool he lived with Diana, that is, the life of a ked and inextricable turnings of the Laby- Hunter, in which he most delighted. But of rinth, made in all like that of the City of those ancient prophane Stories Plutarch faith Crocodiles in Egypt, by means whereof ha- well, that as Comographers in their deferip-given order, that if he came back with vi- the same with strange Beasts, Birds, and Fish-

This instruction being either forgotten or world of fictions and fabulous discourses. neglected, Ageus descrying the ship of Theseus True it is , that Theseus did many great him Jair the Gileadite 22. years, who feems Rocks down into the Sea, afterward called of his name Ægeum.

One of the first famous acts of Theseus, was the killing of seyron, vvho kept a passage beown name, Havoth Jair. For to this Jair there tween Megara and the Peloponnelian Ifthmos. remained thirty of those Cities which his and threw all vyhom he mastered into the Ancestor had recovered from the Amorites | Sea, from the high Rocks. Asterward he did all their times Ifrael lived without diftur- the Country of Procrustes, who used to bend down the strong limbs of two trees. When Jair judged Ifrael, Priamus began and fastned by cords such as he took, part and greatly strengthened and adorned Troy; overthrew the Army of the Amazenes, who ting to recover his Aunt Hesione, took Helena Phedra persivaded Thesens, that his son offethe Wife of Menelaus, the cause of the war red to force her : after which it is seigned, that Thefeus besought Neptune to revenge Thefeus the tenth King of Athens, began this wrong of his fons by some violent death. likewise to reign in the beginning of Jair . Neptune taking a time of advantage, sent out took name. For when Minos had mastered serable and undeserved destiny, when Phathe Athenians, to far as he forc'd them to pay dra had heard of the strangled her self. After begat on Passphae the Queen, had the charge Italy, to accompany her in her hunting, and It is probable that Hippolitus, when his fa-many wounds in forcing his passage and e-And having possest himself of Ariadnes scape; which wounds Asculapius, to wit, some affection, who was Minos daughter, he re- skilful Phylician, or Chirurgion, healed aving flain Minotaur, he found a ready way to tions of the World, where they find many return. But vyhereas his father Ægens had valt places whereof they know nothing, fill ctory and in latery, he should use a white fail es, and with Mathematical lines, so do the in fign thereof, and not that mournful black Grecian Historians and Poets imbroder and fail under which they left the port of Athens: intermixe the Tales of ancient times, with a with a black fail, did cast himself over the things in imitation of Hercules, whom he to live under, and in order, he was by the beggarly, mutable, and ungrateful multitude, in the end banished. Some say, per Oftracifmum, by the Law of Lots, or names written on thels, which was a device of his He stole Helen (as they fay) when she was fifty years old, from Aphidna, which City Caltor and Pollux overturned, when they followed after Thefeus to recover their fifter. Eralistratus and Pausanias write, that Theseus begot her with child at Argos, where she doth Ovid, Non tamen ex facto fructum tulit | this objection : ille petitum, &c. The rape Eusebins finds in the first of Jair, who governed Israel twenty two years, to whom succeeded Jephta or

CHAP. XIII.

Tepte, fix years, to whom Ibzan, who ruled feven years, and then Habdon eight years: in whose time was the fall of Troy. So, as if Thefens had a child by her in the If all this World had no original, first of Jair, (at which time we must count her no less than fifteen years old: for the women did not commonly begin so young as they do now ) she was then at least two and fifty years old at the destruction of Troy:

and thirty: but herein the Chronologers do chaced from place to place, by the Captains In the not agree. Yet Eufebius and Bunting, with of greater Tribes: and no man thinking the Halicarnacessens, do in effect consent, that the ground vvhereon he dwelt his own, longer City was entred and burnt in the first year than he could hold it by strong hand. Whereof Demophoon King of Athens, the Successeventeen daies before the Summer Tropick; and that about the eleventh of September following, the Trojans croft the Hellespont into Thrace, and wintered there, and in the next spring that they navigated into Sicilia, where wintering the fecond year, the next Summer they arrived at Laurentum, and buil-Ang de ded Lavinium. But S. Augustine hath other-Gin. Dil, wife, That when Polyphides governed Sicy-life. 19. on; Mnestheus, Athens; Tautanes, Assyria; nine. Habdon, Ifrael; then Eneas arrived in Italy, > mainder of the Trojans : but the difference is kine was the usual exercise of their great not great; and hereof more at large in the men Their Towns vvere not many, vvhereof ftory of Trov at hand.

His successours, Adrastus, who reigned four portionable : briefly, Greece was then in her years, and Polyphides, who reigned thirteen, | infancy, and though in some small Towns of are accounted to the time of fair; so is also that half Ille of Peloponnesses, the Inhabi-

made his pattern, and was the first that ga- | held a great part of Feloponnesus. In Asseria. thered the Athenians, from being disper- during the government of these two peacefed in thin and ragged Villages : in recom- able Judges, Mitreus, and after him Tantanes pence whereof, and for deviling them Laws reigned. In Egypt, Amenophis, the son of Rameles, and afterwards Annemanes.

6. VIII.

Of the war of Thebes, which was in this

IN this age was the War of Thebes, the most ancient that ever Greek Poet or Historian vvrote of: Wherefore the Roman Poet Lucretius, affirming (as the Epicures in this point erected a Temple to Lucina: but her age held truly against the Peripateticks) that the makes that Tale unlikely to be true, and so World had a beginning, urgeth them with

> →Si nulla fuit genitalis origo Rerumque & mundi, semperque aterna fuêre, Cur supra bellum Thebanum. O funera Troja. Non alias alti quoque res cecinere Poeta s

But things have ever been as now they are: Before the fiege of Thebes, or Troys last fall, Why did no Poet fing some elder War?

It is true, that in these times Greece vyas and when the was stollen by Paris, eight very falvage, the Inhabitants being often fore merchandize and other intercourse they four of Mnestheus, the Successour of Theseus, nied little; neither did they plant many trees, or fow more corn than vvas necessary for their fustenance. Money they had little or none; for it is thought that the name of money was not heard of in Greece, when Homer did verite, veho measures the va-lue of Gold and Brass: by the evorth in cattel: faying, that the golden Armour of Glaucus vvas vvorth an hundred Beeves; and the Copper Armour of Diomedes worth

Roberries by land and fea vvere common transporting with him in twenty ships the re- and vvithout shame, and to steal horses or those that vvere vvalled vvere very few, and In Sieyonia, Phastus the two and twenti- not great. For Mycena the principal City in eth King, reigned eight years, beginning by Peloponness was a very little thing, and it the common account in the time of Thola. may well be thought that the rest were pro-Mnesthers King of Athens and Atreus, who tants might have enjoyed quietness within him Jair the Gileadite 22. years, who feems Rocks down into the Sea, afterward called to be descended of Jair the son of Manasse, of his name Ageum. Deut 3.14 who in Moses time conquered a great part of Gilead, and called the same after his the killing of Seyron, who kept a passage beown name, Havoth Jair. For to this Jair there tween Megara and the Peloponnelian Ilbmos. remained thirty of those Cities which his and threw all vyhom he mastered into the Ancestor had recovered from the Amorites Sea, from the high Rocks. Afterward he did Of these Judges, because there is nothing the like to Cercyan, by vyrestling, who uselse written, it is an argument, that during sed by that art to kill others. He also rid all their times Ifrael lived without diffur- the Country of Procruftes, who used to bance, and in peace. to reign in Troy, who at such time as Hercu- of them to one, and part to the other bough, les facked Ilium, was carried away captive and by the springing up tare them asunder. with his fifter Hessian into Greece, and being So did he root out Periphetes and other afterward redeemed for ransome, he re-built mischievous thieves and murtherers. He and greatly strengthened and adorned Troy; and for enlarged his Dominions, as he became the supreme Lord in effect of all Asia the Territory of Atheus, These having the les. He married Hecuba the Daughter of taken their Queen Hippolita priloner, begat > which followed. of them: among these seven Theseus thrust field sports. himself, not doubting by his valour to deli-

as, Minos his fon. with a black fail, did cast himself over the things in imitation of Hercules, whom he

One of the first famous acts of Theseus, was bend down the strong limbs of two trees. When Jair judged Israel, Priamus began and fastned by cords such as he took, pare

Ciffens King of Thrace, and had in all (faith on her Hippolitus; with whom afterward Cicero) fifty fons, whereof feventeen by He- his mother-in-law Phedra, falling in love, cuba, of whom Paris was one; who attemp- and he refuling to abuse his fathers bed, ting to recover his Aunt Hesione, took Helena Phadra perswaded Theseus, that his son offethe Wife of Menelaus, the cause of the war red to force her : after which it is seigned, that Thefeus besought Neptune to revenge Thefeus the tenth King of Athens, began this wrong of his fons by fome violent death. likewise to reign in the beginning of Jair . Neptune taking a time of advantage, sent out fome Writers call him the fon of Neptune his Sea-Calves, as Hippolitus passed by the and Æthra: but Plutarch in the Story of his Sea-shore, and so affrighted his horses, as castlife, finds him begotten by Ageus, of whom ing the Coach over, he was (by being inthe Grecian Sea between it and Afa the less tangled therein) torn in pieces. Which mitook name. For when Minos had mastered ferable and undeserved destiny, when Phathemans, so far as he forc d them to pay him seven of their sons every year for tri-which it is seigned, that Diana intreated Estables. bute, whom he inclosed within a Labyrinth, culapius to set Hippolitus his pieces together, to be devoured by the Monster Alinotanr : and to restore him to life: which done, bebecause belike the sons of Taurus, which he cause he was chaste, the led him with her into begat on Paiphae the Queen, had the charge Italy, to accompany her in her hunting, and It is probable that Hippolitus, when his faver the rest, and to free the Countrey of that ther sought his life, thinking to escape by flavery occasioned for the death of Andrege- Sea, was affronted thereat, and did receive many wounds in forcing his passage and e-And having possess himself of Ariadnes scape; which wounds & sculapius, to wit, some affection, who was Mines daughter, he re- skilful Physician, or Chirurgion, healed aceived from her a bottom of thred, by which he conducted himself through all the crooked and inextricable turnings of the Laby-Hunter, in which he most delighted. But of rinth, made in all like that of the City of those ancient prophane Stories Plusarch faith Crocodiles in Egypt; by means whereof ha- well, that as Cosmographers in their descripving flain Minotaur, he found a ready way to tions of the World, where they find many return. But vyhereas his father Ægens had vast places whereof they know nothing, fill given order, that if he came back with victory and in safety, he should use a white sail es, and with Mathematical lines, so do the in fign thereof, and not that mournful black Grecian Historians and Poets imbroder and fail under which they left the port of Athens: intermixe the Tales of ancient times, with a This instruction being either forgotten or world of fictions and fabulous discourses. neglected, Egens descrying the ship of Thesens True it is, that Thesens did many great CHAP. XIII. made his pattern, and was the first that ga- held a great part of Feloponnesus. In Alleria. thered the Athenians, from being disper- during the government of these two peacefed in thin and ragged Villages: in recom- able Judges, Mitreus, and after him Tantanes pence whereof, and for deviling them Laws reigned. In Egypt, Amenophis, the fon of Rato live under, and in order, he was by the beggarly, mutable, and ungrateful multitude, in the end banished. Some say, per Ostracismum, by the Law of Lots, or names written on thels, which was a device of his He stole Helen (as they say) when she was fifty years old, from Aphidna, which City Caftor and Pollux overturned, when they followed after Thefeus to recover their fifter. Erasistratus and Pausanias write, that Theseus begot her with child at Argos, where the cretius, affirming (as the Epicures in this point erected a Temple to Lucina: but her age held truly against the Peripateticks) that the doth Ovid, Non tamen ex facto fructum tulit this objection : ille petitum, &c. The rape Eusebins finds in the first of Jair, who governed Israel twenty two years, to whom succeeded Jephta or Jepte, fix years, to whom Ibzan, who ruled seven years, and then Habdon eight years: in whose time was the fall of Troy. So, as if Thefens had a child by her in the first of Jair, (at which time we must count her no less than fifteen years old: for the women did not commonly begin so young as they do now ) she was then at least two and fifty years old at the destruction of Troy: 200 Chr. not agree. Yet Eusebius and Bunting, with of greater Tribes: and no man thinking the of Demobboon King of Athens, the Succesfour of Mnestheus, the Successiour of Theseus, feventeen daies before the Summer Tropick; and that about the eleventh of September next spring that they navigated into Sicilia, (in Det. wife, That when Polyphides governed Stey-lateries, on; Mnestheus, Athens; Tautanes, Assertion inne. Habdon, Ifrael; then Eneas arrived in Italy, ftory of Trov at hand.

meles, and afterwards Annemanes.

6. VIII.

of the war of Thebes, which was in this

IN this age was the War of Thebes, the most ancient that ever Greek Poet or Historian vvrote of: Wherefore the Roman Poet Lumakes that Tale unlikely to be true, and so World had a beginning, urgeth them with

> -Si nulla fuit genitalis origo Rerumque & mundi, semperque aterna fuêre. Cur supra bellum Thebanum, & funera Troja, Non alias alii auoque res cecinere Poeta s

If all this World had no original, But things have ever been as now they are: Before the fiege of Thebes, or Troys last fall, Why did no Poet fing some elder War?

It is true, that in these times Greece vvas and when she was stollen by Paris, eight very salvage, the Inhabitants being often and thirty: but herein the Chronologers do chaced from place to place, by the Captains Halicarnacessens, do in effect consent, that the ground vyhereon he dwelt his own, longer City was entred and burnt in the first year than he could hold it by strong hand. Wherefore merchandize and other intercourse they used little; neither did they plant many trees, or fow more corn than vvas necessary for their fustenance. Money they had little following, the Trojans croft the Hellespont or none; for it is thought that the name of into Thrace, and wintered there, and in the money was not heard of in Greece, when Homer did vvrite, vvho measures the vawhere wintering the fecond year, the next lue of Gold and Brass: by the worth in Summer they arrived at Laurentum, and buil- cattel: faying, that the golden Armour of An de ded Lavinium. But S. Augustine hath other- Glaucus vvas vvorth an hundred Beeves;

Roberries by land and fea vvere common transporting with him in twenty ships the re- and vvithout shame, and to steal horses or mainder of the Trojans: but the difference is kine vvas the usual exercise of their great not great; and hereof more at large in the men Their Towns vvere not many, vvhereof those that vvere vvalled vvere very few.and In Sicyonia, Phastus the two and twenti- not great. For Mycena the principal City in eth King, reigned eight years, beginning by Peloponness was a very little thing, and it the common account in the time of Thola. may well be thought that the rest were pro-His successours, Adrastus, who reigned four portionable: briefly, Greece was then in her years, and Polyphides, who reigned thirteen, infancy, and though in some small Towns of are accounted to the time of jair; fo is also that half Ille of Peloponnesso, the Inhabi-Mneftheus King of Athens and Atreus, who tants might have enjoyed quietness within

CHAP. XIII

Athenians, because their Country was so bar- whom striving about their lodging, he fell renahat none did care to take it from them: to blowes. Adrastus hearing the noise came vet that the Land in general was very rude, forth and took up the quarrel. At which it will eafily appear to such as consider what time perceiving in the shield of Tydeus a Thuridydes the greatest of their Historians Bore, in that of Polynices a Lion, he rehath written to this effect, in the Preface to membred an old Oracle by which he was his History. Wherefore, as in these later advised to give his two Daughters in martimes, idle Chroniclers use when the want riage to a Lion and a Bore: and accordingports of great Frosts, ordry Summers, and Tydeus, and Deipyle upon Polynices, proreade; so did they who spake of Greece in tries. To this purpose levying an Army, should come to pass by him, did afterwards unto her a very fair Bracelet, upon conin a narrow paliage, contending for the dition that she should cause her Husband to way, flay his own Father, not knowing affift him. The Soothfayer knowing what either then or long after, vvho he vvas. should work his destiny, forbade his Wife Afterward he became King of Thebes, by to take any gift of Polynices. But the Bracemarriage of the Queen Jocasta, called by let was inher eye so precious a Jewel, that Homody J. Homer, Epicafte: on vvhom, not knowing the could not refuse it. Therefore whereher to be his mother, he begat two fons, as a great controversie between Amphya-Eteocles and Polynices. But when in process of time, finding out by good circumstan-mile put unto the decision of Eriphyle, either ces, vvho vvere his Parents, he understood of them being bound by solemn oath to the grievous murther and incest he had stand to her appointment: she ordered the committed, he tore out his own eyes for matter so, as a Woman should that did love grief, and left the City. His Wife (and a Bracelet better than her Husband. He Mother) did hangher felf. Some fay, that now finding that it was far more easie to Oedipus having his eyes pulled out, vvas ex- foresee then avoid destiny, sought for such pelled Thebes, bitterly curfing his fons, be-comfort as revenge might afford him, cause they suffered their father to be cast giving in charge unto his sons, that when out of the Town, and aided him not. they came to full age, they should kill Howsoever it were, his two Sons made this their Mother, and make strong war upon agreement, that the one of them should the Thebanes. reign one year, and the other another year, and so by course rule interchangeably. ces, of which, the seven chief Leaders were But this appointment was ill observed. For himself, Amphiarans, Capanens, and Hippohad reigned the first year, he refused to Arcadian, son of Meleager and Atalanta.

their narrow bounds; as likewise did the nens, who was fled from Calidon: with good matter, to fill whole Books with re- ly he did bestow his Daughter Argia upon other fuch things which no man cares to mising to restore them both to their Counher beginnings, remember only the great and affembling as many valiant Captains as Flouds which were in the times of Ogyges and he could draw to follow him, he was de-Deucalion: or elle rehearle Fables of men firous among others to carry Amphiaraus changed into Birds, of strange Monsters, of the fon of Oicleus a great Soothsaver, and adultery committed by their gods, and the a valiant man, along with him. But Ammighty men which they begat, without writing ought that favoured of humanity before the time of the war of Thebes: the brief tains should escape, save only Adrassas, did both utterly refuse to be one in that Oedipus the fon of Laius King of Thebes, expedition, and perswaded others to stay having been cast forth when he was an In- at home. Polynices therefore dealt with fant, because an Oracle foretold what evil Eriphyle the Wife of Amphyarans, offering

Now had Adrastus assembled all his forwhen Polynices had after a years governmedon (in Itead of whom some name Meciment refigned the Kingdom to his brother:
fleus) all Argives, with Polynices the Ibelan, or (according to others) when Eteoles Tydeus the Ætolian, and Parthenopeus the give over the rule to Polynices. Hereup- When the Army came to the Nemean Wood, on Polynices fled unto Argos, where Adra- they met a Woman, whom they defired to flus the son of Talaas then reigned, unto help them to some Water; she having a whose Palace coming by night, he was Childe in her arms, laid it down, and led driven to feek lodging in an out-house, on the Argives to a Spring: but ere she returned, a Serpent had flain the Childe. This There he met with Tydeus the fon of Oe- Woman was Hypfipyle the Daughter of Thous the Lemnian, whom she would have saved manders unto them, took advice of Tireles when the Woman of the Isle slew all the the Soothsayer, who promised Victory Males by conspiracy, intending to lead an A- the Thebans, if Menacius the son of Creon. mizonian life. For such her Piety the Lemnian principal man of the City, would you him Wives did fell her to Pyrats, and the Py- felf to be flain in honour of Mars the god of rats to Lycurgus Lord of the Countrey a- War. So full of malice and pride is the Debout Nemea, whose young fon Ophelies, vil, and so envious at his Creators glory, or Archemorus the did nurse, and loft, asis that he not only challengeth honour due to thewed before. When upon the Childs God alone, as oblations and facrifice withal death the hid her felt for fear of her Mafter, Divine worthin, but commandeth us to Amphiaraus told her Sons where they should offer our felves and our children unto him. find her : and the Argives did both kill when he hath sufficiently clouded mens unthe Serpent which had flain the Child, and derstanding, and bewitched their Wils with in memory of the chance, did institute so- ignorance and blind devotion. And such lema funeral games, called Nemean, where abominable facrifice of men, maides, and in Adrastus wan the prize with his swift children hath he exacted of the Syrians. horse Areon, Tydeus with the whorlbars, Am- Carthaginians, Gauls, Germans, Cyprians, Ephiaraus at running and quoiting, Polynices gpptians, and of many other, if not of all Na-at wreftling, Parthenopeus at shooting, and tions, when through ignorance or fear they one Landocus in darting. This was the first were most filled with superstition. But as institution of the Nemean games, which con- they grew more wife, so did he wax less imtinued after famous in Greece for very many | pudent in cunning, though not less maliciages. There are, who think that they were ous in desiring the continuance of such barfet down.

Thebes is faid to have had at that time feven feeing that the Argives ( who afterward when they were very far stronger, could fearce muster up more thousands than Thebes had gates) did compass the Town, Adrastus quartered before the Gate Homoloides , Capaneus before the Ogygean, Tydeus before Crenis , Amphiaraus at Proetis , Hippomedon at Anchais, Parthenopaus at Electa, and Polyni-

ordained in honour of one Opheltus a La- barous inhumanity. For King Diphilus in cedemonian. Some fay by Hercules, when Cyprus without advice of any Oracle, made he had flain the Nemean Lion : but the com- the Idol of that Country rest contented with mon opinion agrees with that which is here an Oxe in stead of a man. Tiberius forbade humane facrifices in Africa, and crucified From Nemea the Argives marched on- the Priests in the Groves where they had wards, arrived at Citheron, whence Tydens | practifed them. Hercules taught the Italians was by them fent Embassadour to Thebes, to to drown men of hay in stead of the living: require of Eteocles the performance of Co- yet among the falvages in the West Indies venants between him and Polynices. This these cruel offerings have been practised of message was nothing agreeable to Eteocles, late Ages: which, as it is a sufficient arguwho was throughly refolved to hold what ment that Satan's malice is only covered he had, as long as he could: which Tydeus and hidden by this subtilty among civil peoperceiving, and intending partly to get ho- ple: fo it may ferve as a probable conjenour, partly to try what mettle was in the cture of the barbarismes then raigning in Thebanes, he made many challenges, and ob- Greece. For Menecius, as foon as he undertained victory in all of them, not without flood that his death might purchase Victory much envy and malice of the people, who to his people, bestowed himself (as he laid fifty men in ambush to intercept him at thought) upon Mars, killing himself before his return to the army, of which fifty he flew the gates of the City. Then was a battel allbut one, whom he fent back to the City as fought, wherein the Argives prevailed for the a Reporter and Witness of his Valour. When at the first, that Capanius advancing ladders. the Argives understood how resolved Eteo- to the Wals, got up upon the Rampar cles was, they prefented themselves before whence, when he fell, or was cast down, or the City, and encamped round about it. (as Writers wave it) was stricken down by Jupiter with a thunder bolt, the Argives fied. gates, which belike stood not far asunder, Many on each part were slain in this battel, which caused both fides to defire that Eteoaccording, flew each other. Another battel was fought after their death, wherein the fons of Aftacus behaved themselves very valiantly: Ismarus one of the fons flew Hippomedon, which was one of ces at Hypfifta. In the mean feafon, Eteocles the feven Princes: Parthenopaus being anohaving armed his men, and appointed Com- ther of the seven ( who was faid to have cles and Polynices might try out the quarrel in fingle fight: whereto the two brethren

CHAP. XIII.

been to fair that none would hurt him when Tutor to Laodamas ) who though he did his face was bare ) was flain by Amphidieus, valiantly in the battel, and flew Agialeus, cr, as some say, by Periclymens the son of yet washe put to the worst, and driven to Neptune: and the valiant Tydens, by Menselly, or (according to Apollodorus) Ilain by hippus: yet ere Tydeus died, the head of Alenalippus was brought unto hir: by Amployens, which he cruelly tore open, and twalstern which he cruelly tore open, and twalstern which he cruelly tore open, and twalstern which he cruelly tore open, and twalstern which he cruelly tore open, and twalstern which he cruelly tore open, and twalstern which he cruelly tore open, and twalstern which he cruelly tore open, and twalstern which he cruelly tore open, and twalstern was to the means the twalstern was to the means the cruelly tore open, and twalstern to the worth, and cruenton the head of Alenacon. After this disafter, the Citizens began to define composition; but in the mean time they conveyed themselves with their lowest themselves.

rage that he shewed at his death. comfitted, Adrassus and Amphyarans fled: of the Citizens to return, did there reign over whom Amphyarans is faid to have been swallowed quick into the earth, near to the Ri- struction, it is very likely; for he reigned ver Ismenus, together with his Chariot, and there, and led the Thebans to the War of fo loft out of mens fight , being peradven- Trey, which very fhortly after enfued. ture overwhelmed with dead carkasses, or drowned in the River : and his body never found, nor greatly fought for. Adrastus efcaped on his good horie Arion, and came to of Jephta, and how the three hundred years Athens; where fitting at an Altar, called the Altar of Mercy, he made supplication for their aid to recover their bodies. For Creon having obtained the government of Thebes after the death of Eteocles, would not suffer the bodies of the Argives to be buried: but caused Antigone, the only daughter then A Fter the death of Jair (near about whose time these things hapned in living of Oedipus, to be buried quick, because Greece, and during whose Government, and the had fought out and buried the body of that of Thola, Ifrael lived in peace and in orher brother Polynices, contrary to Creens der) they revolted again from the Law and Edict. The Athenians condescending to the Service of God, and became more wicked request of Adrastus, did send forth an Army and idolatrous than ever. For whereas in under the conduct of Theseu, which took the former times they worshipped Baal and Theber, and restored the bodies of the Ar-Asteroth, they now became followers of all gives to sepulture: at which time Evadne, the Heathen Nations adjoyning, and imbra-

manded to kill his own Mother.

faid, that Pallas, who had brought from Ju night, and so began to wander up and down, piter fuch remedy for his wounds, as should till at length they built the Town called have made him immortal, refuled to bestow Estina. The Argines, when they perceived it upon him: whereby perhaps was meant that their enemies had quitted the Town, that his honour which might have continu- entring into it, facked it, threw down the ed immortal, did perish through the beastly rage that he shewed at his death.

Wals, and laid it waste; howbeit it is reported by some, that the Town was saved by The host of the Argives being wholly dif- Thirfander the son of Polynices, who causing > which he speaketh of , Judg. 11. 28. are to be reconciled with the places, Acts 13.20. 1 Reg. 6. 1. together with Some other things touching Chronology about these times.

the Wife of Capaneus threw her self into the ced the Idols of the Aramites, of the Zidonifuneral fire, and was burnt willingly with ans, Moabites, and Ammonites: with those her Husband. But it little contented the of the Philiftims. And as before it pleafed fons of those Captains which were slain at God to correct them by the Aramites, by Thebes, that any less revenge should be taken the Amalekites, and Midianites: so now he 744,12 of their Fathers death, than the ruine of the feourged them by the * Ammonites , and af-City: Wherefore ten year after, having terward by the Philistims.

levied Forces, Egialens the fon of Adraflus, Dow among the Ifraelites, those of Gilead and being most of Tydens, Fromachus of Parthenopaus, Sthenelus of Capaneus, Therfander of Popular Sthenelus of Capaneus, Therfander of Popular States of Capaneus, Therfander of Capaneus, Therfander of Capaneus, Therfander of Capaneus, Therfander of Capaneus, Therfander of Capaneus, Therfander of Capaneus, Therfander of Capaneus, Therfander of Capaneus, Therfander of Capaneus, Therfander of Capaneus, Th lynice., and Euripylus of Mecifleus, marched feek Jephta, whom they had formerly defip inder after thither under the conduct of Alemeon, the fed and cast from them, because he was bale wad fon of Amphiaraus: with whom also went born; but he (notwithstanding those for also in ton of Amphiaraus: with whom allo went born; but he (notwithstanding those for such his brother Amphylodus. Apollo promised mer injuries) participating more of godly james Victory, if Alemeon were their Captain, compaffion, than of devilish hatred and the ganific whom afterward by another Oracle he comthe War, upon condition that they should When they came to the City, they were establish him their Governour after Victoencountred by Laodamas the fon of Eteocles ry. And when he had disputed with Annon then King of the Thebans (for Creon was only for the Land, disproved Ammon's right, and ments, the same prevailing nothing, he be- were consumed 480. years. To the first, Beover the Mountains of Arabia, even to Min- of Gideon, 3. of Abimelech, 22. of Thola, and grievous flavery that ever Ifrael fuffered, the reft. quarrelled with Jephta, that they were not called to the War, as before time they had was omitted. Now before I go on with the rest, it shall be necessary upon the occasion of Jephta's account of the times, Jud. 11. 28. (where he of the times of the Judges, and of the differing opinions among the Divines and Chro-

July 11 pugnant or disagreeing: the first is in this and say, that during these years, or at least All 13.10 right and possession of Gilead: the second quiet possession of the Countries in questi-1 Kin.s. is that of S. Paul, Acts 13. the third is that on. Martin Luther is the author of a third

